From The Left Hand

By David Besser
Editor & Publisher

The song, "The Party's Over", aptly describes the closing of the book on a rather infamous chapter in Niles titled: "The Tam O'Shanter Caper".

In Sunday's Tribune it was officially announced the department of housing and urban development (HUD) "has quietly dropped its former policy of subsidizing golf courses".

Regional administrator Francis Fisher stated there was a change of policy about a year ago. A priority system was established about a year ago in the open space land grant and public facility loan programs, he said. Golf courses were of such a low priority no such grants or loans are made any longer.

The open space program provides federal grants on a 50 percent matchint basis to governmental agencies to buy land for public recreational use. The loan program provides 100% low interest loans to develop public projects.

While several loans to develop golf courses were made only 3 were approved in the midwest area. Lake Bluff was the last to receive a loan for a course, a $560,000 loan at 4 1/4% . It was approved in 1965 and paid in January, 1966 and February, 1967. The golf course is scheduled to open next summer.

Brazil, Indiana and Ypsilanti Township, Michigan also received grants for golf courses, being approved in 1963 and 1965. Brazil opened its 9 hole course in 1965 while Ypsilanti is about to let our bids within the next week.

In retrospect, Niles park district's bid for similar funds

PRESENT STUDY OF REMAINING VACANT LAND

By Barbara Horn

A Comprehensive Development Plan was presented at the Village Board Tuesday night by Mr. Jim Hughes of City Planning Associates Inc. of Mishawaka, Indiana. This consulting Company was hired by Niles to plan for the future development of the remaining 10% vacant land in Niles.

Mr. Hughes presentation consisted of the showing of Base maps which included the incorporated area and the unincorporated fringe area north and west of the Village limits. This map will be utilized within the economic and transportation portions of the comprehensive plan. All data relative to this study, including geology topography, surface drainage, soils, water resources, and flood hazard has been obtained and is presently being analyzed. This work, which is approximately 50% complete, will be presented in the first interim report.

The economic profile study will be comprised of census data, relative to retail sales, manufacturing, wholesale sales, and service activities. This information has ben obtained from the 1958, 1960, and 1963 census reports and is presently being analyzed with more recent sales tax data. Additional data will be gathered with the help of the Citizens Advisory Committee and the Plan & Zoning Commission.

The recent census taken in Niles totaled 32,000, but has not been officially recorded by Washington. This information will also be used to analyze past changes in population composition and in developing trends in forecasting the future population of the community.

Mr. Hughes stated "95% of the structures in Niles were found to be sound." His map noted only a small percentage of pro-

Vote True Bills For Teacher Attack

The county grand jury reportedly voted true bills yesterday charging William Daddano Jr., son of a reputed Chicago crime syndicate chieftain, with aggravated battery in the assault last Wednesday of a Niles parochial school teacher.

Daddano, 34, of 8427 Betty Ter., Niles, son of William (Willie Potatoes) Daddano, and William Fratta, 8432 Johanna Dr., Niles, reportedly were named in the beating of John Kelly, 24, a teacher at Our Lady of Ransom school, 8300 Greenwood Av., in the suburb.

Kelly, a physical education teacher at the school, and a Niles policeman testified before the grand jury yesterday concerning the attack on Kelly after he had disciplined Fratta's son, William Jr., 8, a pupil at school. Daddano is the boy's uncle.

Kelly, who first declined to sign a complaint against the two men, told police after the attack that he shook the boy's arm for talking too loudly.

You're On The BUGLELINE

Driving down Milwaukee Avenue I've noticed one overhanging light on each block reflects a greenish amber color which can be seen several hundred feet away. Is there a reason for the one light being different than the others?

Our expert on Milwaukee Avenue street lights is our Girl Monday thru Friday, Sally Kozubal. Sally said she noticed at the base of each lightpole is a call box for police and fire calls. In a telephone call to the fire station Firefighter Lakowske told THE BUGLELINE the call boxes are a direct line into the police station. If any resident has a need for a fire or police call while on the street they can easily find the boxes by noting the amber reflection. Lakowske said this is becoming a state-wide system which will eventually become nation-wide.

In past police reports we've noticed three fires have taken place at the Leaning Tower "Y" early in the morning. Is there a likelihood an arsonist is setting off the fires?

Lieutenant Harry Kinowski, who heads the fire prevention bureau, told THE BUGLELINE the state fire marshall is looking into these cases. He noted the first fire took place on the 11th floor of the penthouse behind the elevator machinery. Kinowski said the room is kept completely clear but material brought up from the stockroom was found there after discovering the first fire. Twenty-nine minutes later in the clean towel storage room downstairs a second fire took place and he said there was no way it could've started except by delibrate means. The more recent fire also took place early in the morning.

Kinowski noted arson is a very difficult crime to prove and only 6% of all cases come to court and only half of these are returned with "guilty" decisions. Kinowski observes even the use of pictures in court to prove a case are not usable, emphasizing the difficulty in getting a conviction.

We noticed several children in the neighborhood are wearing Booby teeshirts and sweatshirts and we wonder where we might get them?

Fred Manovich, 8927 Washington

Our teeshirt department found out Mr. Manovich is really Mr. Friedman who is really Booby. If every Nilesite reading this would ask for a tee shirt it is quite likely the following might happen: a. Booby would have to float a loan for the additional purchase, b. the local bank would prosper, c. Niles children would eat all their spinach rather than have to see that face on the tee shirt, d. grocers would have a run on spinach, e. Niles children would be better fed and clothed, f. tee shirt sellers might march, g. police clashes with tee shirt sellers would ruin Niles image among the uncommitted nations.....all because Fred Manovich tried to fool THE BUGLELINE.

Driving past Maryhill Cemetery on Milwaukee Avenue I've long been curious about the one farmhouse located there. Are the people living there caretakers?

Several years ago we asked the people who live there the same question. They told THE BUGLE they were the last family to sell their property to the cemetery and it was sold on the condition the elders were allowed to live out their lives there. The purchase of the cemetery land took place 25 to 30 years ago with the last purchase made about 18 years ago, when this farmhouse and surrounding land was sold.

One of the most dangerous streets in Niles is on Dempster Street. Eastbound traffic coming out of the viaduct is moving very fast. When cars moving into the main stream of traffic leading from the viaduct lanes converge with on-rushing cars it becomes extremely hazardous. Can't a stop sign be placed there?

Lieutenant Russ Beavers told BUGLELINE the traffic problem has been eased by preventing cars making left turns going north into Elmore Street. This left turn prevention plus the successful pattern caused by the stoplights at Milwaukee Avenue has alleviated this hazard.

Resurrection High Sends Packages To Viet Nam

Resurrection High School has undertaken a project designed to send packages to the fighting men in Viet Nam.

The schoolwide project was introduced last Christmas and this year was under the direction of Sister Mary Jerome, C.R., and her junior homeroom president Ramema Paryse.

The items collected included soap, cigarettes, playing cards, stationery, hard candy, paperbacks, and any other items the boys would enjoy. With everyone's support, the girls collected a total of about $800 worth of merchandise, divided equally among 101 boxes.

The North Shore American Legion solved the problem of postage by offering to pack the articles with a few girls' help and pay the entire postage bill. The American Legion's Women's Organization also contributed $15.00 toward the project.

Boxes included letters and most packages were sent to Resites' friends or relatives stationed in Viet Nam.

The previous year's project evoked many written responses from grateful soldiers.

Maine High Board Elated With Sale Price Of $2 Million Bonds

The Board of Education of Township High School District #207, at a recent regular meeting, took formal action in awarding the sale of $2,000,000 in General Obligation Bonds to Glore Forgan, William R. Staats, Inc., and Associates, who submitted the best bid at a net interest rate of 4.4162%.

Mr. John W. Wilkins, Des Plaines Board member and chairman of the committee on finance, commented that he was pleased with the interest rate, particularly in view of the small issue on a comparatively poor market.

The proceeds from the sale of bonds will pay for remodelling and construction work presently underway at Maine East and Maine West high schools. This action will also provide funds until the summer of 1968 for additional work about to be authorized at all three Maine high schools.

Board President, E. Hoy McConnell, and the other board members recognized the American Field Service foreign exchange students present, who were invited guests of the board, along with the three high schools sponsors and "foster parents." At Maine East, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Scarola serve as AFS sponsors and Mr. and Mrs. William Comben serve as foster parents. At Maine West, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Strom serve as sponsors and Mr. and Mrs. John R. Schwenke serve as foster parents. At Maine South, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Krausman are sponsors and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Goll are the foster parents.

Mr. McConnell introduced the sponsors and foster parents present who in turn introduced Maine South exchange student Ann Marie Verger, of Argentina, and Abdellah Hachami, of Morocco, exchange student at Maine West. Mr. McConnell stated that the Maine East attendee, Roar Martin Wedding, of Norway, was not able to be present.

Scott Reeves, Maine East student, who visited and studied in Norway during the past summer, was also introduced by Mr. McConnell and expressed his appreciation for the opportunity to participate in the exchange program.

Mr. Roy O. Makela, Niles, board member and chairman of the Building and Grounds Committee, indicated that his committee has met recently and reviewed the final drawings and specifications for the development of the new road entrance and traffic control equipment at Maine East. Superintendent Richard R. Short and the school architect are to present these plans to the State Highway Commission for approval with projected construction to be set for early spring of 1968. Upon approval of the State Highway Commission, bids for this project will be taken in January of 1968.

Other items brought to the attention of the board were the introduction of a revised policy on rental of District #207 facilities to civic organizations, with formal action being held over to the next regular meeting of the board. Dr. Short also reminded the board of the extended date of May 15th, 1968, as the date for approval of applications of intent and the issuance of authorization to resident students in District #207 to attend a public supported Junior College in the State of Illinois.

In further board action the Office of the Superintendent of Schools was authorized to file a letter of intent, before November 30th, 1967, approving the continuation of the existing program in Title II-Public Law 89-10 as a separate school district and also on a cooperative basis with the other districts in Maine Township.

The board also approved the annual audit made by Walton, Joplin, Langer and Company, as presented by District #207 Business Manager Harold Markworth, who was instructed to place it on file as the official audit for Township High School District #207 and the Student Activities Corporation.

Dr. Short indicated that the District #207 Board of Education had recently been advised that William G. Clark, Attorney General of the State of Illinois, had instituted legal procedures against several publishers of childrens' books and that the Attorney General's office has requested information from District #207, as well as several other school districts in Illinois, related to the purchasing procedures of library books. The board took no action to join in these legal procedures but requested the administration to gather pertinent information related to these purchase procedures which will be reviewed by the board at a later date.

Mr. L. Wesley Hartzell, Niles, board member and chairman of the Education Committee, announced his committee would meet on the evening of December 4th, in the Faculty Study at Maine East, to hear a report on the instruction program in Cooperative Education. Mr. Hartzell stated the public was invited to attend this meeting.

To the man who WANTS A LIFETIME CAREER INSTEAD OF JUST A JOB

There's a big difference between a job and a career. You know it as well as I do — especially if you're stuck in a job where the only way to advance is for someone to quit, die or retire. Unfortunate? Maybe . . . but it's the truth. Some men will put up with a job like this for years, but you don't have to.

Not as long as there are still career opportunities like this one with the State Farm Insurance Companies. You would be representing one of America's largest insurance organizations . . . specially tailored to serve the car, life and fire insurance needs of the vast middle-income market.

Expanding Driver Training Program At Notre Dame

Notre Dame High School recently expanded its Driver Training program with the acquisition of an additional new car for "in-car" training. The program, fully accredited and recognized by the State of Illinois for both classroom and "in-car" training, can now effectively service more of the students of the school.

Mr. George Risher, co-chairman of the Drivers Education Department, received the keys to a 1968 Chevrolet Chevelle from James Holdener, sales manager of Gateway Chevrolet, Inc. (5373 Milwaukee Ave., Chicago).

Mr. Walter Heiden, president of Gateway Chevrolet, in turning the car over to Notre Dame for use during the current school year, remarked that "this was another manifestation of the interest and cooperation of car dealers and manufacturers in the drivers' training programs in the schools and in the promotion of road safety."

Notre Dame now has three cars available for "in-car" training and is deeply grateful to the supplying agencies for their interest in the development of qualified drivers.

Extra Bus Service At Maine East

Additional bus service instituted at Maine East high school this year for students participating in co-curricular sports and extra curricular activities may be discontinued unless more students take advantage of the service.

According to John Clouser, principal of Maine East, a survey was taken at the beginning of the school year and it was determined at that time that 177 boys would like to have bus service to their home after finishing their after-school sports practice sessions.

Two bus routes were instituted, leaving at 6:30 P.M. Athletic coaches were informed that they should terminate their practice on time so the boys could use the buses, and the athletes were given a copy of the schedule. However, during a trial period it was found that the largest number of students to use the bus was thirteen, and the smallest number of students was three.

The school administration, in cooperation with the bus company, have decided to continue the 6:30 P.M. bus service for awhile, for the benefit of the athletes participating in winter sports and such other students taking part in extra curricular activities after school. However, Mr. Clouser pointed out that if the students do not take full advantage of the service there, is a strong possibility that it will eventually be discontinued.

Teach Your Child Pedestrian Safety

"Because children learn by precept and example, parents have the primary responsibility to teach their children safe walking rules", Ben Mankowsky, Chairman of the Niles Safety Council stated today as he pointed out that nearly 30 per cent of all pedestrian deaths during 1966 in Illinois were of children under 15 years of age.

"While the schools are including safe walking practices in their instructions to young pupils", he said", they will have much more success if the parents have given their pre-school children instructions in the rules of safe walking". The moment a child is born it begins to learn. By the time it is six years old the child has formed many habits, good or bad, that will determine whether or not it will survive in present day traffic conditions.

Chairman Mankowsky emphasized that traffic hazards are increasing each year for both the driver and the pedestrian and, especially, the child playing or walking near the home or school. Because children spend a great deal of their time playing, it is more important now than ever that they not play in the streets and learn the safety rules at an early age.

"While schools can and are doing a great deal to instruct their young pupils in safe walking rules, they will have much more success if the child has been taught by both precept and example by his parents before that first day of school", he stated. It does little to further the cause of safety if the parent tells his child not to cross in the middle of the block and then violates this important safety rule himself. It is a fact of life that children will imitate their parents and are apt to forget what their parents say but not what they do.

"While there are many playgrounds near schools and neighborhood parks where children can play in relative safety, too many children do not have ready access to these protected areas. This is why parents should teach all children not to play in the street and to use back yards, where playgrounds are not available, and above all not to chase a ball or playmate into the street", he concluded.

On District 64 School Budget

Dear Editor:

It is necessary that certain facts be brought to the attention of the District 64 taxpayer. Last week local newspapers headlined the District 64 Board of Education's "ax sharpening for a $300,000 chop in school programs." At the committee-of-the-whole meeting of Oct. 30, the Board did, indeed, discuss the elimination or curtailment of special school programs as outlined by the superintendent. One board member suggested, "Let's cut until we meet the budget---that will shake people up!" Thus, though no action was taken, the intent of cutting costs was established and pointedly made public.

In sharp contrast---and less widely circulated---is the superintendent's statement in the Staff Bulletin of October 26. In it the superintendent advises the teachers, "...don't jump at conclusions regarding the first rumor you hear about 'belt tightening.' I was asked by the Board to prepare a list of alternative ways for cutting the 1968-69 school budget by 10 percent, which I did. I also said I wasn't recommending any of them... If tax rate increases can be voted before next Sept. it is possible that no change will be made in the program or personnel and we will use tax anticipation warrants to a greater degree than was contemplated originally."

The superintendent's statement would indicate that, in reality, honest effort is NOT being made toward economy even though headlines tell us otherwise; that the taxpayers' overwhelming "no" vote in the recent referendum is being heedlessly ignored; and that more and more DEFICIT FINANCING with high interest rates is included in plans for the future.

Just what is the intent of the District 64 Board of Education? Perhaps we, as taxpayers, should remind them that there is nothing so weak as an unswung blunt ax, "nothing so powerful as Truth."

The Bugle...

I am writing this letter on a little gripe I have about the Niles Police Department...

My wife was coming back on Main Street this morning after taking the boys to school at St. John Brebeuf and she happened to go through a stop sign near Oak School on Main Street... Well some policeman sitting there in his car followed her to Milwaukee Ave. and pulled her over and gave her a ticket... She told him she knew the sign was there but just happened to go through it. He could have given her a warning ticket or talked to her and let her go...

Well one thing I would like to know is why don't they watch these two Drive Inns we have at Milwaukee and Monroe where all these teen agers hang together... A little less than a week ago, I was getting off of the bus at Monroe and Milwaukee and one of them shot across from the west side of Monroe and almost hit me. He was going so fast I could not get his license number.

I suggest that they watch these sort of places where somebody is liable to get hurt instead of being so free in giving out tickets to a woman because she happens to forget about a stop sign being there. And also check on the drag racing that goes on around here.

Another thing I would like to suggest that they take a check on the traffic at Milwaukee and Monroe during the rush hour... Maybe we could get a stop light there so the kids could cross when they are going to school. It is also impossible to cross there during the rush hour when you are on foot... Even worse in a car... The state I have heard says there is not enough traffic. Well why don't they come and check during rush hour instead of during the middle of the afternoon.

On UNICEF

Dear Mr. Besser,

One day out of every year, one hour of that day, the children of the United States stretch out their hands to the nine hundred million children in the under-developed countries of the world; a hand holding a box of nickels, pennies, and dimes. Note, Nine Hundred Million Children, living in hunger, poverty, and disease.

The annual UNICEF budget of $35 million dollars comes out to less than 4 cents per child. Of this, the United States does contribute the unbelievable amount of almost 2 cents per child per year — the rest of the world makes up the difference.

The children of Rhodesia indeed do not get their 4 cents per year. Not because UNICEF denied the aid, but for the simple, and truthful reason, that the Government of Rhodesia has never ever applied for aid from UNICEF. Nothing was saved here, not even the children of Rhodesia.

Lets set the record straight once and for all . . . . UNICEF's only and primary concern, is with the youth of the world. ALL funds spent by UNICEF are designed to meet the specific and pressing needs of children, and UNICEF has never spent a dime towards any other end. In May of 1961 the U.S. government made a loan to the United Nations for use in the general budget, the Congo no doubt falling under this category. In December of the same year, the loan was repaid to the U.S. government. At no time were any UNICEF funds involved, and so much for the CONGO.

As Mr. Little undoubtedly knows, the World Health Org. and UNICEF work closely in fighting killing and crippling diseases of underdeveloped

Notre Dame Scores High In Loyola University Competition

Teams of Notre Dame students placed high in two academic competitions sponsored recently by Loyola University.

On November 1st, in the 1st annual Business Mangement Game, the Notre Dame team under the direction of the Rev. Thomas Tallarida, C.S.C., chairman of the Social Science Department, placed first. Members of the team were John Stocker (5224 Galitz, Skokie), Frank Simeone (171 Walnut, Park Ridge), and Timothy Stroman (1007 Cleveland, Park Ridge).

In this first running six public and Catholic high schools entered teams in the competition directed by Virgil Boyd, Dean of the School of Business. Using computers and a program layed out by the IBM Corporation the students acted as a team of business executives making high level decisions concerning their fictitious companies. Each company was set up with strong possibilities but with not a very good present financial position. The ultimate goal was to put the company in good financial position, increase the assets, make a good return on the initial investment and operate under effective long-range plans.

On November 4th the second annual Loyola University Math Contests were held for the purpose of student incentive and increased articulation between high school teachers and the university.

This year 37 Catholic high schools entered teams of three students in the two hour competitive exams. The Notre Dame team of Timothy Stroman (1007 Cleveland, Park Ridge), Kenneth Biba (7725 W. Sherwin, Chicago 48) and Dean Kudlick (5723 N. Meade, Chicago 46) under the guidance of Mr. Peter Livorsi, chairman of the Math Department, placed third in team competition with Tim Stroman placing first in the individual competition and winning a $400 scholarship to Loyola University.

Notre Dame is establishing a record in these competitions since, with their first place team win of last year, they are the only school in the contests to place consistently in the top three positions.

Charles Szuberla Is Nilehi's New Superintendent

Charles Szuberla last Monday evening was appointed new superintendent of the Niles Township High Schools by the board of education.

Expected to begin his three-year contract next February, Szuberla is now superintendent of schools in Enfield, Connecticut.

Dr. Clyde Parker, superintendent of the Niles Township district's three high schools for the last nine years, will retire next June.

During its search for a new superintendent, the school board said it studied the credentials of more than 125 exceptionally qualified people and met personally with more than 30 of them.

"Our message to the community," reflected the board at the time of appointing Szuberla, "is that the school board decided upon Szuberla with great confidence that he is the outstanding educator needed to continue the splendid job in the Niles Township High Schools."

Szuberla, a native of Springfield, Massachusetts, attended high school in Westfield, where he was active in varsity football, track, and hockey.

He later played professional hockey in Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, and was a member of the varsity hockey team at the University of North Dakota, where he received his bachelor's degree in 1952.

Before going into school administration, Szuberla taught history and physical education in high schools in Boulder City, Nevada, and Springfield, Massachusetts.

He was also supervisor of physical education in Palmer, Massachusetts, and director of guidance and consultant on public relations in North Reading, Massachusetts.

Szuberla, who has his master's degree in school administration from the University of Massachusetts, is a candidate for the doctor's degree at Boston University. He has a professional diploma in administration from the University of Connecticut.

Before going to Enfield, Connecticut, as an assistant superintendent in 1963, Szuberla was principal of the North Reading junior-senior high school for two years.

He became superintendent of the Enfield schools in 1965, where there are about 11,000 students enrolled in grades one through 12.

Enfield is a residential area about 30 miles north of Hartford, Connecticut. The schools there employ about 600 teachers.

The Niles Township High Schools have a professional staff of about 500 and enroll more than 7,600 students in the district's three buildings.

A reception was held last Tuesday afternoon for the staffs of the three high schools to meet the new superintendent.

Niles To Form "Little Guys" Basketball Team

Would you like to have a LITTLE GUYS Basketball team or league in the city?

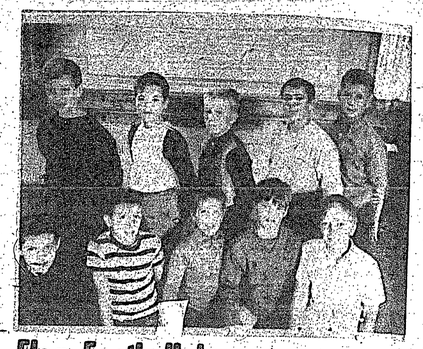
For the first time, readers of this newspaper are given the opportunity to form a league in their own city, and become a member of the growing LITTLE GUYS basketball family. The sport was founded by Highwood's Don Skriner in 1956.

LITTLE GUYS basketball is for boys who are 12 years of age or younger. To play LITTLE GUYS the boy must also be under the Five feet (5') height limit, the true LITTLE GUYS.

If any reader of this paper, is the father or mother of any boy who falls within the proper age and height limit, reads about this, he can write to LITTLE GUYS at PO Box 55, Highwood, Ill., 60040, for further information, and the latest copy of the rule book. If you want quick action, you can contact your recreation department, school, or Youth Center in the city, and ask them to start such a league. Tell them where they can get information of the sport.

There will be a Illinois State Tourney, held in Highwood, Ill., on March 7–8–9, 1968. One or more teams in that tourney will be invited to take part in the International LITTLE GUYS Basketball Tournament, in Miami, Florida, next March 27–28–29–30, 1968. Will this city be represented?

Oh yes, Highwood is sponsoring a LITTLE GALS tourney for girls, yes, girls, in the same age groups, but girls can be Five-feet-Two-inches (5'2") tall. Information on LITTLE GALS can be obtained from LITTLE GALS Basketball, PO Box 55, Highwood, Ill., 60040. Girls play boys rules in the sport.



Flag Football League

For the past eight Saturday mornings from 9:00 a.m. to Noon, the BOMBERS, the CHARGERS, the MASSACRES, and the PACKERS have been battling at Grennan Heights Park for the top spot of the Niles Park District Flag Football League.

These four teams are comprised of 5th and 8th Grade boys. These weekly contests are refereed by Gregory Olsen.

N.D. Remains Undefeated For Four Years

by John O'Connor

Notre Dame completed its most successful four year period, by defeating the Benet Redwings, 19 – 0.

The senior football squad has remained undefeated for four years. They compiled a 34 victory, three tie record. Unfortunitly, one SCC tie with Holy Cross cost the Dons the SCC crown. Joliet Catholic, co-champ of the Suburban Catholic Conference last year, is the SCC champ this year.

Unless the much talked about playoff game between ND and JC comes through, Notre Dame will remain #1 1/2.

The Dons received the kick-off. On the first play of the game, Quarterback Tom Lange hit converted quarterback Bill Harrington on a 52 yard pass to the Benet 12 yard line. Benet held and took over at their own ten yard line. The Redwings were forced to punt.

The Dons started their downs on the Benet 32 yard line. Four plays later, fullback Greg Luzinski plunged from the 4 yard line. Greg missed the conversion.

Halfback gary Aylesworth set up the Dons second touchdown. After Benet punted to the Notre Dame 49 yard line, Gary, on the first play from scrimage, raced 38 yards to the Benet 24 yard line. Two plays later Greg Luzinski got his second touchdown, this time from 14 yards out. With 5:43 left in the half, Notre Dame led, 12–0.

Benet finally began to move the ball on offense. An interference penalty put the Redwings on the Notre Dame 40 yard line. A few plays later, Benet was inside the 10 yard line. With third and goal at the 5 yard line, Gary Aylesworth fought off a block and nailed the Benet fullback for a loss. Gary was the only man between the fullback and a touchdown. The defense held as the half ended.

The only scoring in the second half was on a perfectly timed interception by Mike Fragale. Fragale was covering Benet's fullback. Quarterback Schaefer threw a sideline pattern pass. Mike jumped infront of the fullback, fought for the ball and scampered 54 yards for the final score of the 1967 season. Greg Luzinski made the extra point and the final score was Notre Dame 19, Benet 0.

The Notre Dame basketball team will be out to try to improve on last year's mark of 23 victories, 3 defeats. Three returning lettermen and starters, Guards John Egart and Jim McCauley and 6'9" forward Barry Hentz may provide the punch necessary for victory. The first home game is on Nov. 22, against Glenbrook North.

The William Penn Elementary School, January Class of 1939 is having its 30 year Class Reunion on Nov. 18, 1967 at the Town House, located at 6935 No. Sheridan Road. This affair will start at 7:00 p.m.

Local Women Take Part In March Of Dimes

This January, The National Foundation-March of Dimes will celebrate its 30th anniversary campaign since the organization was founded by Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1938. As the end of its first two decades, the voluntary health agency accomplished its first major objective with the development of the Salk and Sabin vaccines to combat polio. Since 1958, the March of Dimes forces have been mobilized against the more challenging target area of birth defects.

Local residents who will participate in the January March of Dimes fund drive rally round the 30th anniversary cake.

The women met recently at a March of Dimes suburban Mothers' March leadership conference at the Adria Restaurant in Lake Bluff.

"The National Foundation-March of Dimes investment in research totals nearly $100 million," said Mrs. Curtin, Niles Mothers' March Chairman. "Foundation supported research seeks to clarify mechanisms of birth defects, how, why and when they happen. It seeks to provide guide lines for earlier and more accurate diagnosis, possible ways to prevent further damage and to improve methods of treating birth defects."

"Because birth defects can damage any part of the body, and embrace 1,000 different handicaps," added Mrs. Curtin "The National Foundation-March of Dimes supports research in nearly every area of biological function, including the central nervous system, bone, blood system, connective tissue, heart genitourinary tract, mental retardation, growth, metabolism, chromosomes, effects of drugs and viruses, cell differentiation, immunology.

Healthy Children are the world's most valuable resource, and its best hope for the future. "La Dolce Vita" Next In Series At Maine East Film

"La Dolce Vita," the Italian film masterpiece, will be shown at 7:30 P.M., Wednesday, November 22, in the auditorium of Maine Township High School East, Dempster Street and Potter Road, Park Ridge. This is the third of 14 foreign films presented in the series entitled "Film: The Liveliest Art," sponsored by the Maine Adult Evening School.

A short talk on the significant features of the evening's film will be given by J. Paul Carrico, C.S.C., Director of Film Study at Notre Dame High School, Niles. The audience will be given printed notes on the background and development of Italian cinema; a biography of the director, Frederico Fellini, together with a description of his working method; and a resume of "La Dolce Vita." Following the showing of the film, groups will be formed for discussion.

"La Dolce Vita" is a three-hour performance, in which seven episodes depicting "the sweet life" are tied together by the central character of Marcello, played by Marcello Mastroianni. Anita Ekberg appears in the role of Sylvia. The Saturday Review described "La Dolce Vita" as "The most brilliant of all the movies that have attempted to portray the modern temper."

Tickets for this film will be available to adults at the door the evening of the performance. Season tickets for the two separate series of seven films each may be obtained from the Maine Adult Evening School offices at Maine East, South or West. The offices can also supply information by phone at 825-3435 or 825-7500.

Resurrection High School Presents "Trojan Women"

"Trojan Women", Resurrection High School's entry into the Chicago Drama Festival, will be presented on Friday and Saturday, November 24 and 25, at the restored Chicago Auditorium Theater.

The Greek tragedy by Euripides was originally a three-act play. Because of time allowance Mrs. Muradian, director, found it necessary to cut it to one act for the festival. The play is set in ancient Troy, where revengeful adversaries kill all Trojan men and children and enslave the brave "Trojan Women."

The awards will be announced at a Sunday brunch and dance.

Monetary scholarships are available to participants who are deemed worthy. Judging will be done mainly on the basis of characterization, voice and gestures.

Commenting on the judging of the play, Pam Kruzel '68 explained, "The advantage we have in our favor is that it is a difficult play and will require a lot of work which I hope will stand out at the festival."

The assistant director is Joani Hopfner. The cast includes: junior, Joyce Bieszakand seniors, Arlene Jarzab, Kerry King and Pam Kruzel.

Juniors: Pat Berry, Joan Broderick, Cathy Cashman, Pat Erwin, Debbie Galante, Pam Gennusa, Kathi Hart, Gertrude Klebala, Connie Manak, Julie Ann Mazzoni, Ann Nicholson and seniors: Donna Dieschbourg, Carol Gruszesky, Margaret Hogan, Judy Kracher, Sue Poterracki, Cheryl Raczkowski, Shieia Thompson and Irene Wills will comprise the chorus.

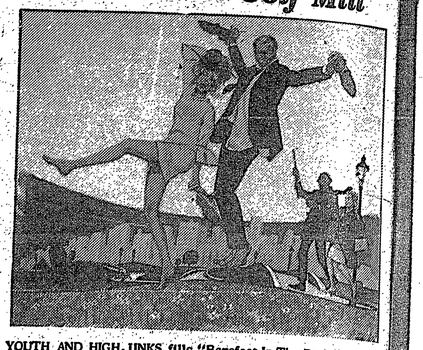
Held Over At Golf Mill



YOUTH AND HIGH JINKS fills "Barefoot In The Park," starring Robert Redford, Jane Fonda, Charles Boyer, and Mildred Natwick, held over at the Golf Mill Theatre. This special art mirrors an artist's conception of the hilarious comedy that revolves around a kooky girl who is having marital trouble with her slightly conservative husband.

for TAM, at a whopping plus million dollar fee, was far higher than the 3 loans granted in the middle west. The 3 loans approved were for $560,000 at Lake Bluff, $68,000 in Brazil and $264,000 in Ypsilanti.

Niles Park District spent more than $40,000 in its TAM effort, fought the good, though at times, confusing fight. Looking back, a small but very vocal group pushed and tugged for the TAM purchase. When voters later went to the polls and failed to support the TAM effort the Park Board must have realized it spent the $40,000 in an effort to satisfy the minority's interest. Taxpayer's money went down the drain primarily because the vocal minority outshouted the very quiet majority.

In Morton Grove the park board is heading for a referendum in December. Initially, they intended passing a referendum for an ice rink in the east end of town. But west siders, a small group from the west end of town, got wind of the very secret action, and began clammoring for a swimming pool at the west end. To appease the vocal dissidents the park board has now agreed to include both issues together hoping to pass east side and west side propositions in one package.

What always seems exasperating is that the defeat of the many referendums in park districts (in Niles 6 out of 7) should teach a lesson which would prevent failure of a referendum the next time.

Neither in Niles during the TAM debacle nor now in Morton Grove have the districts tried to create a study which would let them have an inkling how voters feel before exposing them to an expensive referendum. Vocal minorities sound off, and the park boards are pressured into ramming unpopular propositions at the voters throats. And since the voters are steeped up to their brows in ever-increasing taxes voter resistance becomes more and more intense.

The one bit of knowledge we've acquired in watching Niles park referendums go down is that a genuine need must clearly be shown before voters will support an issue. The need for the first swimming pool was evident and voters swimmingly backed the referendum. They felt less of a need for TAM, for tot parks, for recreation centers and other past issues and they counted their dollar bills and decided they should go for other uses.

The Morton Grove district is about to go down for the count in the upcoming issue just as Niles has so often done, because of the lack of clarity, and the inability to show the need for the issues. These losses are costly and are poor reflections of the judgement of the officials.

How much better it would be if both park districts could take a sampling of the voters' desires for recreational needs, predetermining what is most likely to succeed, and then hammer away with much citizen support for activities most desired. Unfortunately, this route is never taken.

Daddano and Fratta later learned of the teacher's action and accosted him at the entrance of the school, police said. Kelly said Fratta yelled: "What have you been doing to my kid? You have been pushing him around. Keep your hands off him."

Police said Kelly reported that Daddano then attacked him, cutting his ear. The school's principal, Sister Mary Lucinda, witnessed the alleged assault and attempted to halt it. Fratta then intervened and Sister Lucinda admonished the two men until police arrived. Kelly was treated at Lutheran General hospital in Park Ridge and released.

The indictments against Daddano and Fratta are expected to be returned today before Judge Joseph A. Power in Criminal court.

According to Mr. Peter Sonnenfeld, Area Planning Supervisor with the State of Illinois, "Objectives and future goals must be realized now. Plans must be made as to how to utilize vacant land twenty years from now."

"This study, said Hughes, is still in its inventory phase and will take at least 24 months before its completion."
