LOUISVILLE.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 8, 1858.

☞ Whatever may have been the result of the election in Kentucky yesterday, and we cherish a strong hope that it will be found to answer our most ardent wishes, we exhort, earnestly entreat, our political friends, here and elsewhere, to abate nothing of spirit or endeavor in the great common cause at issue. As yet the high victory on which our hearts are set is neither lost nor won. The election yesterday, in our own State and others, however resolutely contested, and however decided, was by no means the last word of the commanding struggle to which it belongs. On the contrary, though of very signal importance, it was simply the first of a long line of preliminary skirmishes which it is to usher in the final and decisive conflict two years hence. It has not ended the struggle, but initiated it. It was a brush, not a battle, and the mastery, wherever it shall prove to be, is, in this broad survey, an advantage rather than a victory. If, as we sincerely trust, the Democratic party went down in the shock, the fact should kindle fresh enthusiasm in the hearts of our friends, and incite them to press forward with new energy to still higher and wider triumphs. Success, if we achieve it, should not be allowed to tame the ardor or lay the activity or slacken the solicitude of a single man in our ranks. It should, rather, if possible, arouse and inflame the soul of each to more tireless and untiring zeal. If, on the other hand, contrary to all reasonable expectation, we are defeated, if the fortune of the day or of the hour shall turn out to be against us, we can conceive, routed but not vanquished or dispirited as our gallant forces will be, of no more kindling, irresistible appeal than this repulse in behalf of deeper earnestness and more strenuous and unflinching efforts in the future. Defeat, if it should come, should be a thousand-fold more stimulating than victory. But we shall not at present discuss this unwelcome condition even as a contingency. We have an abiding confidence in more auspicious results. In any event, however, as we have seen, the issues of the election yesterday, in Kentucky and elsewhere, will furnish additional motive to our friends for the most vigorous and tireless exertions in the glorious cause to which, under circumstances of the most solemn moment to the nation, they have put their hands and pledged their firm hearts. Let them see to it that we shall not (let they themselves equal to say forfeit.

It is of course impossible at present to say with certainty what will be the specific results of the contest in the various States this fall; nor perhaps would it be much wide to speculate concerning a matter which will be publicly determined within the next three months. That, however, the general tenor and effect of these elections will be to bring about a more perfect union between the different elements of the opposition on a basis at once honorable to each and except (unable) to none, we conceive it to be plain for controversy. It seems to us as inevitable thing. Manifestly the first great lesson to be learned by the opposition is that union is essential, positively indispensable, to success. Probably no one of the several elements of the opposition will show almost conclusively that when corn exceeds 25 cents per bushel and pork $5 per hundred, it will be a money-making process to grind the corn and cook the meal, if the cost of grinding does not exceed 10 cents per bushel. The subject is one of such vast economic importance that our agricultural societies should take the matter in hand, and determine by a series of carefully-conducted experiments how far the processes recommended possess commercial value in their several localities.

PROPENSITY OF THE NICARAGUA LINE.—The New York Journal of Commerce says that the Nicaragua line, after having been closed for many months, is about to be opened again under the practical management of Mr. Joseph L. White and a party of go-ahead gentlemen. Negotiations diplomatic and financial have been going on for a long time to this end. One of the principal points to gain was an assurance from the United States Government that its citizens would be protected in their rights in Nicaragua. This has been obtained. Two United States vessels-of-war have been ordered to take their stations near the mouth of the San Juan river, and extend such protection to American commerce and American interests as may be required. The company who have this matter in hand are acting under the Nicaragua charter of '49, as amended in June, '57, and confirmed in November of the same year, and which gives to the grantees the exclusive right to carry across the State and to navigate its waters by steam for a period of 85 years. They will cooperate with a company on the Pacific side running their steamers to San Francisco; and the agreement, we understand, is for the latter to take 55 per cent. of the profits, and the former 45 and keep the isthmus clear.

The Atlantic Company have selected their steamboats from a choice of three lines which were offered them. The boats are three in number—two for service and one to spare. The first three are expected to leave New York for a regular trip on the 20th of September or the 5th of October. Three steamers have also been purchased in New York for the Pacific business, and will start for their destination on the 5th of August. Three towboats of light draught—one for the Lake of Nicaragua and two for the river—will leave New York next week, and the construction of two or three iron boats (additional) has been ordered, to be used in the internal navigation of the country, so that the facilities for lake and river trade will be much better than have ever yet been offered to the public. These extra boats will probably be put on between now and February next.

THE MURDERER MAGEE ALIVE WHEN DISSECTED BY THE DOCTORS.—A report of the post mortem examination of the State prison murderer Magee, lately hung in Boston, published in the Medical and Surgical Journal, suggests the startling idea that Magee was not killed by the hangman's rope, but by the scalpel of the surgical operator; that enough life remained after the hanging for proper appliances to have fanned it into an active flame. The Springfield (Mass.) Republican says he was cut down from the gallows at 25 minutes past 10, and the doctors at once began operations upon the body. At half past 11, a regular pulsatory movement was found to proceed from the heart itself, which gave a distinct and regular single beat, with a slight impulse, 80 times a minute. The chest was then opened, and the heart exposed without in any way arresting the pulsatory movements. The right auricle was in full and regular motion, contracting and dilating with beautiful distinctness and energy. At 12 o'clock, the spinal cord having been previously divided, the number of contractions was 40 per minute, having continued with only a slight intermission regularly up to this time. From this time to nearly 3 o'clock these phenomena continued, but growing weaker and weaker, and for half an hour afterwards they could be started up by irritation with the knife.

Dr. Ainsworth remarked that all the appearances usually observed in cases of hanging were here wanting, and thought that the first effect of the sudden fall was a powerful concussion of the brain, which paralyzed the body, as in cases where a blow or fall is received upon the extremity of the sacrum, and that death occurred afterwards from strangulation.

Dr. Clark expressed the opinion that, as there was no fracture or any important organ, resuscitation might possibly have been accomplished by artificial respiration, &c., if efforts to that end had been made immediately upon the lowering of the body from the scaffold—that is, within half an hour after he fell.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia United States Gazette says that, while the Administration claims no right to interpose against the authority of the Hudson's Bay Company at the new gold diggings, they hope, by means of a conventional arrangement, under instructions from the crown, to prevent any collision. The natural laws which assert their supremacy over red tape and routine will operate now, as they did in the early days of California emigration, in the administration of equal justice, though unsanctioned by the presence of big wigs and black gowns. In a short time there will be fifty thousand able bodied Americans in the vicinity of Fraser river—a force which any corporation will find it difficult to deal with, in attempting to enforce antiquated chartered rights. Gov. Douglas will find it much more advisable to let these emigrants have their own rude discipline than to apply black letter law and a sheriff's posse.

☞ The Albany Evening Journal, which doesn't always tell the truth, tells it very forcibly sometimes. Every word of this graphic and brief sketch of our quer President is strictly just.

He entered the White House, with a promise of freedom to Kansas on his lips, and a course for en-laving it in his pocket. He declared war against circulating rags, and in six weeks was issuing them into the hands of the people, with which he pledged "economy," he had drained the treasury of its last dollar. Before the printers were done stereotyping his inaugural, his anti-slavery determination never to veto, he was in Wall street "shinning a loan!"

He congratulated the country on the final end of slavery agitation, and he has been agitating it ever since. He recommended Pandling to stop the filibusters, and then recalled Pandling to stop the Nicaragua; he promoted Walker, and tendered him the hospitalities of the White House. Walker of Kansas he furnished with written instructions, and turned him out for obeying them.

He withheld the troops from Utah, where he proclaimed there was war, in order to keep them in Kansas, where he insisted it was peace. He sells forts at the West for a tithe of their cost, to order to the East at ten times their value—his subordinates were in good odor pocketing the difference. He is continually asking for new steam frigates; but he will not use those he has either on the coast of Africa or in the Gulf of Mexico. He sends out a steamer, ostensibly to catch the Styx, but with private orders in the Captain's desk to do nothing of the sort. Claiming to be the most frugal of Presidents, he has spent more than any of his predecessors. Assuming to be also a party president, he makes partizanship the basis even of his invitations to dinner.

LOUISIANA ITEMS.—We learn from the Markville papers that, on the 13th ult., Mrs. Bridget Robinson, confined in the jail in that place for trial on a charge of having attempted to poison her husband, escaped through the aid of false keys, supposed to have been made in Opelousas. Officers were in quest of her, but up to Saturday week nothing was known of her whereabouts.

The Rapides Democrat of the 29th ult. tells a curious story of a slave who, six years ago, ran away from his master in Georgia, married a white woman, who had several children by him, and settled near Bettrand's Prairie, Rapides parish. His personal appearance had never led any one to suspect his African blood, but his old master by some means learned his hiding place and came on in pursuit of him two or three weeks since. He and his companion, armed with shot-guns, met and recognized the slave, and, on his attempting to escape, shot him twice, wounding him, but not severely enough to prevent his escape. His owner offers a reward of $200 for his arrest.

☞ Charles McDonald, of the steamer Charles Morgan—one of Walker's boats seized by Com. Paulding, when he broke up Walker's last Nicaragua Expedition—has brought suit against the Commodore for $50,000 damages, on the ground that he was not a filibuster—and was in no way connected with an unlawful expedition when his vessel was captured. The suit is pending in the Common Pleas of New York, and the first witness, Colonel Bruno Von Natzmer, Walker's Commissioner, testified that McDonald was not, so far as he knew, connected with the expedition, but was simply a passenger in the Fashion from Mobile to Nicaragua. The Orleans Delta, of 3d inst., in the course of his testimony, that he had been to Mexico as an agent for Commodore Paulding, and intimated that there were dealings between that chieftain and Walker. This testimony is, seemingly, a partial continuation of Walker's late expose about his proposed expedition to Mexico, at the behest of that government.

To the Stockholders of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company of Texas

A GENERAL meeting of Stockholders will be held in Louisville, Kentucky, on the 24th day of August next. Business of great importance will be brought before the meeting demanding the attention of all interested. The enterprise promises all that has been claimed for it by its most sanguine and extravagant advocates. Its past management has been marked by errors of the grossest character, but it may yet, by wise counsels and good management in future be made to meet the large expectations of its friends. This—the shortest, best, and cheapest route contracted by railroad of the Atlantic and Pacific oceans—The press throughout the country will render this enterprise and the altered stockholders over a great service by notice of this call for a convention of stockholders on the 24th day of August in the city of Louisville, Ky.

THE BEST FITTED UP

PRINTING & BINDING ESTABLISHMENT

IN THE SOUTHWESTERN STATES.

AFTER having spent ten years in building up a business second to none of the kind in the Valley of the Mississippi, the subscriber, on account of circumstances unavoidable, has resolved to relinquish the Printing and Binding business and devote himself exclusively to the editing and publication of the American Free-Mason Monthly Magazine, in New York city. He therefore offers for sale to the first satisfactory bidder the whole of his materials and machinery at present situated and driven by a powerful steam engine in an out-building in the 3d story of the premises on the corner of First and Market streets, in the city of Louisville, and the four-story building owned by S. K. Richardson, Esq.

Competent judges, practical men, have decided that this Establishment could not be fitted up as it is for less than $12,000. The "good will" and "run of work" for which he asks nothing are worth $1,000 a year. Investing necessary to manufacture printed sheets into books is contained in the Bindery, occupying two large rooms in the fourth story, and everything necessary to print these books in the best manner, as also to do all kinds of letter-press and copper-plate printing, is contained in the other rooms of the building.

For further particulars, apply to the subscriber, J. F. BRENNAN, on the premises, for a few days, and in his absence to his Attorney

THE ELECTION YESTERDAY.—It affords us great gratification to announce that the election yesterday passed off without any disturbances of the peace occasioned by political excitement, except in the First Ward where there were several fist and skull rencounters, and, at the Sixth Ward polls, where a difficulty occurred between Dr. E. D. Standiford and Capt. L. H. Rousseau, which we learn was more of a personal than a political nature. Dr. Standiford was shot in a finger of the left hand while lying on the ground, and, while in that position, he fired at Rousseau and shot him in the abdomen. The report is that the shot ran around his body among the muscles and did not inflict a mortal wound.

With these exceptions the election day was as quiet as a Sunday. Everybody who was entitled to a vote had an opportunity to deposit it, and the result is a majority for all the American candidates. This majority would unquestionably have been much larger, except that during the greater part of the forenoon the Democratic party had possession of the polls in every ward and Americans had no chance whatever to vote. They were unwilling to create any disturbance and allowed the foreigners to finish their voting before they commenced. It cannot now be said that the Democrats have not had an opportunity to poll a full and fair vote, and yet they have not polled as many votes as they did in the Presidential election in 1856.

It is evident from a comparison of the returns with those of previous elections that the full vote of the American party in the city has not been polled. Although all the American candidates have a majority, we hope the American party of Louisville will learn a lesson from this election, and that at every election hereafter they will exert themselves to procure a larger majority.

All of the American candidates have a majority in the city, and from the returns received from the county, we believe that all of our county candidates are elected. We have strong hopes that McKee is ahead in the State, and Wheat in this Appellate District.

PIONIC AND STEAMBOAT EXCURSION.—A company of gentlemen and ladies have made arrangements for an excursion to-morrow morning, which is to leave the foot of Fifth street at 8 o'clock. It will be unquestionably a delightful affair. Ample preparations have been made for a large party. Those who wish to join the excursion can procure tickets of the committee, which consists of Mrs. J. Merker, Mrs. T. G. Waters, Miss E. Wilkinson, Mr. C. H. Hurt, Mr. G. W. Irving, and Mr. T. Rittenhouse.

☞ Mr. C. C. Spencer requests us to say that, in addition to his sale this morning, he will sell twenty 10 gallon kegs of prime golden sirup, the sale of which will be imperative.

SINGING CLASS FOR JUVENILES.—Mr. H. G. S. Whipple advertises in our columns that he will begin another of his successful classes for boys and girls, to-morrow evening, and we recommend those who wish their children to acquire early a acknowledge of music and to cultivate a correct taste to let them attend this class.

☞ We respectfully call the attention of parents and guardians to the advertisement of Mr. and Mrs. Nolds for Louisville Female Seminary.

☞ We would advise buyers not to neglect the sale of S. G. Henry & Co. this morning, as they sell, in addition to their advertised sale of broadcloths, boots, shoes, mackrellas, carpet-bags, &c., a choice line of other staple and fancy goods.

☞ An exhibition and concert will be given on Thursday evening, the 12th inst., in the Walnut Street M. E. Church, corner of Fifth, by the Sabbath school of said church, for the benefit of the school. The children will wait on the public with tickets. Turn them not away empty, as it benefits your children. The exhibitions heretofore given are worthy the cause. In consequence of so great a number of persons desiring to attend, a limited number of tickets will be disposed of.

HUFFMAN, DUNCAN, & CO.—It will be seen that Messrs. E. L. Huffman, J. M. Duncan, and M. G. Anders have entered into a copartnership in the commission, pork packing, and provision business. They cannot fail to command the confidence of the public. We believe that Mr. Huffman is the oldest pork packer in the city. Mr. Duncan is a gentleman.

RIVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

☞ The river continues to recede. The weather is very hot.

The Fanny Bullitt has delayed her departure for New Orleans till this morning. She has superb accommodations, is of light draught, and Capt. Dunham and his clerks, Messrs. Judge and Field, are ever attentive to their passengers.

The Superior is the mailboat for Cincinnati and the Emma Dean is the Carrollton packet.

Freights to the South have advanced, and the rates yesterday were for pound freights 40 cents for through and 50 cents for way per hundred, for pork per bbl $1 10 for through and $1 25 for way, and for whisky $1 25 for through and $1 50 for way, and for mules $8 per head.

IMPORTANT FROM CHINA.—The Secretary of the Navy has received despatches, dated May 19, from flag officer Tatnall, commanding the squadron in the East Indies and Chinese seas. The Powhattan arrived at Hong Kong on the 12th of May. On the the following day flag officer Tatnall shifted his flag from the San Jacinto to that vessel. On the 14th the San Jacinto left for the United States.

Information had been received by the authorities of Hong-Kong that the Emperor had so far conformed to the views of allied commissioners as to have appointed an official of high rank to confer with the commissioners at a town just within the mouth of the river Peiho. This is considered a step toward the amicable arrangement of existing difficulties.

No change had taken place in the position or relations of the belligerents in the neighborhood of Canton. Our commerce in the river had not been molested.

☞ The only arrests made yesterday were for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Among them was a large number of women.

☞ We are under obligations to many of our friends for the assistance rendered in procuring the election returns.

☞ The yellow fever appears to be prevailing to a greater or less extent all over the island of Cuba. At Cienfuegos its ravages are reported to be fearful. The people die rapidly, and the heat increases every day.

INQUEST ON 41—Held at Salina, 12 miles below the city, on the 23d inst., on the body of William G. Plunkett, aged 28 years. Verdict of the jury: "Came to his death from intemperance and exposure." J. M. BUCHANAN, Coroner.

GREAT PIGEON SHOOTING TOURNAMENT.—Arrangements have been perfected for a pigeon shooting tournament to come off in this city on the 23d, 24th, 25th days of September, proximo. It will probably be attended by all the best shots in the United States and Canada. The first and only tournament of this sort which has ever taken place in this country came off in Jersey City, N. J., in April last, and was got up under the auspices of Mr. John Taylor, a gentleman well known to the sporting world. On that occasion the weather was extremely disagreeable, and the attendance unusually difficult, still the assemblage of shots from Toronto (Canada), New York, Philadelphia, Bordentown, Cincinnati, and other places, was numerous, and the chances of the sport lively. Mr. Beesley, of the Cincinnati Shooting Club, with his small bore, double barrelled gun, performed splendidly. The prizes were awarded in 1st, 2d, and 3d in each class. Among the winners were Messrs. Turner, Beesley, Taylor, King (now of this city), and Johnson.

But on that occasion much difficulty was experienced by the great scarcity of pigeons in the Eastern market. They commanded the exorbitant price of 25c and 28c each. No trouble of this sort will be felt here, as we are informed already our party has on hand nearly two thousand wild pigeons, near this city, which will be supplied at a nearly nominal price, as Lafayette is a central point and so accessible to all. The "tournament" will be looked forward to with much interest, as it is anticipated sportsmen and all the crack shots of the Union and Canada will go in for the championship of that the most manly art of double and single shooting on the wing. It is hardly necessary to state that the sporting city of Lafayette will hail, and with a thrice hearty welcome greet, their brother sportsmen of the trigger, on their arrival in Lafayette.

The following programme furnishes the various sweepstakes to be shot for on Wednesday, September 22d, and three following days:

No. 1.—First grand sweepstake of $200 each—member to shoot at 10 double birds each, 18 yards line, 100 yards boundary; unlimited number of subscribers, to shot on the evening of September 21, at the Bramble House.

No. 2.—Second grand sweepstake of $100 each, at single and double birds, 18 yards rise for double and 21 yards single, the winner of the first prize to be handicapped three yards (standing 21 yards and 24 do.), &c.

No. 3.—Third sweepstakes of $50 each, to be shot at single birds, 21 yards rise, 100 fall. Winners of either lot or second sweep handicap three yards.

No. 4.—Fourth sweepstakes of $25 each, at double birds, 25 yards rise, 100 fall, the handicap for winner.

Other sweepstakes will follow, particulars of which will be given hereafter.

At the same time the match for $500 a side, between Mr. W. King and a gentleman of St. Louis, will come off.—Lafayette (Ind.) Journal.

ANOTHER HOMICIDE—Escape of the Perpetrator.—On Friday last three men, who gave their names as Wm. Terry, John W. Robinson, and Cog. Denny, who had been stopping for a few days at the Belvidere House in this city, went out to the Brighton House and registered their names. One of them remained through the night, and the other two went off, but were seen to return to the building at a late hour, but did not get in. Saturday morning the three went to Commiseville in the bus, and on their return got into some dispute, which was kept up after they reached the Brighton House. Terry and Denny were the principal actors, and finally the latter drew a knife and inflicted a wound in the side of the former, who immediately fell to the floor, bleeding profusely. Denny at once made his escape, and Terry was removed to the Commercial Hospital, where he died Saturday night. The third one of the party, Robinson, was arrested and is now in confinement in the Ninth street station house.

Very little is known of the antecedents of the men engaged in the affray, and the man under arrest professes to know but little of the other two. The movements of all three have been extremely suspicious. The police are actively engaged in endeavoring to ferret out the affair, but have not yet succeeded in getting any traces of Denny. It is said that all three came from Louisville, or below that point, a few days since, and one of them is reported to have been a coffee house keeper in New Orleans.—Cincinnati Gazette.

Major John Sanders, United States Engineer, died at Fort Delaware on the 29th of July, 1858, after a short illness. Major Sanders was a native of Kentucky, a grandson of the celebrated George Nicholas, of that State, and brother of George N. Sanders, of New York. He graduated at West Point, and was chief engineer under Gen. Worth, for whose use planned the attack of the Texas Rangers upon the Bishop's Palace at Monterey. He also distinguished himself at the siege of Vera Cruz. He was engaged at the time of his death in constructing Fort Delaware, which is intended to command the entrance to the Delaware river. He leaves a wife and seven children.

ARRIVAL OF THE VANDERBILT.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.

The steamship Vanderbilt, from Southampton on the 21st ult., arrived at this sport this morning with three hundred passengers.

She reports very favorable weather for laying the ocean cable.

She passed the steamship Ariel on the morning of her sailing.

The weather in England was favorable, and the wheat crop was very promising.

The U. S. frigate Niagara was off Cape Clear on the 18th, and the British steamer Agamemnon off Kingsale on the same day.

An interesting debate occurred in Parliament on the subject of the massacre D'Jiddah. Lord Stratford de Redcliffe, late Ambassador to the Porte, advocated energetic measures and demanded full reparation.

Debates had taken place on the India bill, Jew's bill, Hudson Bay Company, and the New Caledonia bill.

The first interview between the sovereigns of England and France at Cherburg was to take place on August 6th.

The British Government sent a general officer to D'Jiddah entrusted with powers of life and death. France in concert with England is taking measures against Jeddah.

The Hudson Bay trading company are raising a loan of five millions florins to increase companies transactions in cotton.

The screw steamship New York which was lately wrecked had foundered in deep water thereby proving a total loss.

The Leviathan steamer Great Eastern was in difficulties and to be sold in another company.

The great chess challenge of Paul Morphy had been accepted by Mr. Stanton.

Queen Victoria's visit to Berlin is to be strictly of a family character.

M. Turgot, the French Ambassador to Spain will return to Madrid stronger than ever, in spite of intrigues.

Liverpool, July 16—Cotton market generally unchanged, closing quiet but steady. Sales of three days 19,000 bales, including 1,400 to speculators and the same amount for export. The advices from Manchester are more favorable, although the sales are slow. There is no change in prices. Breadstuffs market closes dull but steady. The weather has been very favorable for crops. Flour dull but nominally unchanged. Western 24s@28s 6d, Philadelphia and Baltimore 25s@27s 6d, Ohio 22s@24s. India—Gwalior had been retaken.

Pekin—A Chinese fort and 128 guns have been captured. An ineffectual attempt was made to rout the Chinese near Canton. The English merchants had gone on board the war-vessels.

CAPE RACE, Aug. 1.

A steamer passed here probably the Persia.

China.—Nangpo is in the hands of the rebels. In the capture of the fort at the mouth of Peeho the allied loss was small. The Chinese stood to their guns fairly. The forces commenced advancing up the river. The squadron was in good health and spirits.

France.—The Monitieur ridicules the idea of the French invasion of England.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

☞ We see that our friend J. Walker Seaton, formerly in business on the corner of Fourth and Jefferson, has taken the well-known and popular Drug establishment (Hurley's old stand) on the corner of Seventh and Green streets, handsomely refurnished it, and supplied himself with a large and complete assortment of pure and genuine medicines and chemicals, perfumery, soaps, toilet articles, paints, oils, glass, &c.

He has long experience in his business, and everybody who can will find it to their interest to deal with him. He will be found honest in all his dealings, is industrious, capable, obliging, and very moderate in his charges. Get your prescriptions filled there at least. jy3

☞ G. Paine has a factory on East street, between Walnut and Chestnut, where he is prepared to fill all orders for sash, doors, blinds, shelving, and flooring at the shortest notice. je9 d2m

HOG CHOLERA.—Alarming accounts reach us from every section in regard to the ravages of this fearful epidemic. We have heard of but one certain cure. Mr. B. J. Montgomery, of Cardaville, a very reliable gentleman, says his neighbors are using Porter's Oriental Life Liniment with great success. One gentleman, who had lost fifteen hogs in rapid succession with hog cholera, commenced giving his hogs the Oriental Life Liniment and lost but one hog afterward. This is certainly worth the attention of farmers. The Liniment can be had at any country store. Give it a trial. j2 d&wtf

INTERESTING FROM UTAH.

GREAT SALT LAKE CITY, U. T., June 28.

A great deal of excitement was produced in the city on the arrival of the army, by the discovery of the fact that Gov. Dunning had mailed in Oregon, at that very morning, a petition for the removal from office of our civil officers. Who were the signers of the petition, and what was its wording, we not yet positively know. Gov. Cumming and Dr. Jacob Forney, the Superintendent of Indian Affairs, both saw it. According to my information, which I believe to be accurate, the officers whose removal is solicited are: Hon. D. H. Eckels, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court; John M. Hockaday, District Attorney; Dr. Garland Hurt and Mr. C. L. Craig, Indian Agents; and Mr. H. F. Morrell, postmaster of Salt Lake City. The appointment of Mr. Seth M. Blair to be Chief Justice in the place of Judge Eckels is recommended. Mr. Blair is a Mormon Major in the Nauvoo Legion, he has four wives, and he was the engineer of the fortifications in Echo Kanyon.

The allegations against Judge Eckels are founded on a charge delivered by him to the grand jury of the U. S. District Court for the Northern Judicial District of the Territory, at Fort Bridger, on the 5th of April, in which he alluded to polygamy and adultery.

JULY 2, 1858.

Last night, from dusk to dawn, a string of wagons rolled into the city from the South. The whole First Presidency of the Church have arrived. More than 100 wagons, I am told by those who were stirring early in the morning, discharged their contents—furniture, provisions, and women—at Brigham's alone. From the city lodgings which I occupy I could hear, beside the rattle of wheels, the incessant tapping of hammers all night long. The windows of Brigham's offices, and of the front of his house, appeared to be generally disencumbered of their board barricades this morning. I took a stroll around some of the principal squares to-day, and through open doors and windows I could see that the population of the City had been considerably augmented within twenty-four hours. To-night, I presume, we shall have a similar immigration.

Contrary to anticipation, Gen. Johnston returned to his camp to-day, having limited his reconnoissance to Tuilla, Rush, and Cedar Valleys. It is regarded as certain that the army will go into winter quarters in the latter. In the present unsettled condition of affairs, it will probably be considered unadvisable to divide his force, which, now that the reinforcements on the road are stopped, will be reduced by the expiration of the enlistment of the volunteers, and by the return of Col. Loring's battalion to New Mexico, to about 1,400 men. Cedar Valley is the most central valley in the Territory, with reference to the settlements.

Twenty-six sacks of lock mails, weighing 5,500 pounds, arrived from the East at the end of last week. The contents consisted only of patent-office reports and Congressional Globes under the frank of Mr. Bernhisel. The contents of the mail for the Territory was just about $10,000.

JULY 3, 1858.

I enclose you a report of the speech delivered by Gov. Powell at Provo, by request, after the conclusion of the conferences at Salt Lake City. You may rely upon this report as accurate, for it has been revised by Mr. himself.

At a meeting held in the Bowery, at Provo, U. T., on Wednesday, June 16, 1858, ex-Governor Young introduced Gov. Powell, one of the commissioners to Utah, who addressed the audience in substance as follows:

Fellow-citizens, reverting to a topic on which I have already spoken, it has been exceedingly gratifying to me that in the various conversations I have had with you, both public and private, I have not heard a single expression of disloyalty to the constitution and the union of the States—not one word against the Union. I have listened to harsh words against officials, but to none against the Government. I have been gratified, because I did not expect to hear the people of Utah speak in favor of the Government. I speak plainly. I did not expect it. Allow me to say that you display sound judgment when you extol the system of government of the United States. I have a careful study of all the systems of government which prevail among the nations of the earth, and there is no one which extends to its subject such liberties as you and I enjoy. It guarantees to every citizen the rights which government can bestow on man to make him prosperous and happy. The development of the confederation in wealth, population, industry, and virtue is the proof and the evidence of its blessings.

Since the day—the 4th of July, 1776—when our fathers righted all our wrongs at once, when a nation sprang into existence by the stroke of a pen, and armed cap-a-pie, like Minerva from the brain of Jove, leaped into the arena of battle to maintain its right to existence through a seven years' war, how unparalleled has been our progress! We had four millions of inhabitants; now we have over thirty millions. We then had thirteen States, and we now have thirty-one—no, thirty-two, God bless Minnesota! I had not forgotten to inspire her. The army of Utah will have to put another star upon its flags, and I hope that star will follow star. A nation badly governed would have been incapable of such a progress. Our system has been tried by people, here or elsewhere, who should hesitate to acknowledge their loyalty to that Government and its institutions? There may occasionally come a little difficulty; but I tell you that whether it comes from Pennsylvania, South Carolina, or Utah, it will die out. I know there is patriotism enough in the nation, if any part of the people refuse obedience to the laws, to enforce submission. I know that there ought never to be occasion for the Government to use force to compel its children to submit. It is a Government whose right to existence is the love of the people, and I, if ever occasion to do so, will love, then farewell to the constitution and the union of the States!

I have told you what the Government requires of the people of this Territory, and you have told me that you will comply with its requirements. I assure you now that it will sustain you in all your constitutional rights, will listen with patience and attention to the details of any grievances of which you may complain. It will protect you in all your rights guaranteed by the National Constitution, using its military power for that purpose if necessary. Should it fail in these promises I will be the first to denounce it. I believe that I express the feelings of the President of the United States upon the subject. His desire is that you will enjoy all the rights

MEDICAL.

Common Sense.

IN view of the rainy season this spring, and in consequence thereof, it is reasonable to suppose that the general health of the country will to a correspondent extent suffer from the pestilential malaria or miasma which such a state of affairs will naturally produce, manifesting itself certainly and without fail in some one or more of the many diseases so common during the summer season. Yellow fever is rapidly becoming more common in our country, and if not yellow fever, cholera will be sure to take its place, from, mismanagement of the most potent bolitic and typhoid fever and fever and ague, which always claim their share of victims for the grave. In view of these facts, is it the course to pursue to certainly that which will produce a natural state of things at the most hazardous of all seasons? Or, for this end Dr. Hostetter has introduced a medicine, or family preparation, called HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, which at the date in not a new medicine, but one that has been tried for years giving not evil, satisfaction to those who have used it, but has increased in popularity and annual sale throughout not only the American states, but California, Oregon and Spanish South America. This bitter, also, has been introduced into the West Indies, and other countries, and wherever it has been introduced, it has received the most decided approbation, and the sale increased in a ratio, which, if continued, will be the most powerful and effectual remedy for the prevention of the diseases of the season, and the cure of those who may unfortunately be attacked, be ascertained, or the discovery made, which will facilitate the cure. For the disease every physician will recommend Bitters of some kind; but only to those acquainted with the fact, that there are many spurious bitters in a prevailing disease and for so simple a cure of the system in general, and among them all there is not to be found a more healthy preparation, the constituents, from which the preparation is manufactured, based upon scientific experiments which has at a cost of advance the destiny of the great preparation in the medical world of science. Further, any of the above-stated diseases cannot be contracted when exposed to any ordinary conditions producing them. If the Bitters are used as per directions, a long experience has proved that it will effectually, cure, any, cause, of, dyspepsia which can be produced. This double result is obtained in a much shorter time. And, and neither creates nausea nor offends the palate, and tending universally, any change or diet or interruption to usual pursuits, but promotes sound sleep and healthy digestion, the complaint is thus removed as speedily as consistent with the production of a thorough and permanent cure. In the HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS are only to be found for the numerous diseases for which they are intended and which are here before named, and which are, in fact, the most prominent, and, for all, the most, or, the, most, common, of, the, diseases, of, the, climate, for, which, they, are, intended, and, which, has, been, the, Madame's study and practice for years successfully.

Therefore we caution the public against being any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped the metallic cap covering the cork, and the autograph signature of Hostetter & Smith, Proprietors, and Manufacturers, and Druggists, Pittsburgh, Pa., and Druggists and dealers generally throughout the United States and Canada, South America, Germany, and other countries, and by
