Employer identification number Name of the organization 31 - 1709466 T. Rowe Price Program for Charitable Giving Form 990, Part III, Line 1 The T. Rowe Price Program for Charitable Giving was founded to promote individual and corporate philanthropy throughout the United States by providing a tax-efficient and effective means for initiating, growing, and distributing charitable gifts to qualified charitable organizations and governmental entities. Individuals and corporations establish and maintain donor-advised fund accounts by making contributions to the Program. Based on donor recommendations, these contributions are invested among six investment pools to potentially grow over time. Donors may recommend that grants be made from donor-advised fund accounts to support qualified public charities, private operating foundations, and governmental entities. The Program for Charitable Giving also educates donors and potential donors about the history of philanthropy, the rewards of charitable giving, and opportunities for volunteering. Information is provided through the Program's newsletter, website, and other printed material. Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b The form 990 is prepared internally by the Program's accounting department and then reviewed by the Program's Treasurer and President. The Form 990 is sent to the Program's independent accounting firm, KPMG LLP, for review. Subsequently, the return is reviewed and approved by the Audit Committee. The final form 990, as filed with the IRS, is provided to all voting members of the Board prior to filing with the IRS. Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c The conflict of interest policy, disclosure questionnaire, and list of vendors used by The T. Rowe Price Program for Charitable Giving are circulated each year to all officers and trustees of the Program for Charitable Giving. These individuals are required to review the policy and list of vendors, and then complete and sign the conflict of interest disclosure questionnaire. The completed questionnaires are submitted to the President and retained by the Secretary for seven years prior to destroying. In accordance with the requirements of the conflict of interest policy, when an individual covered by the policy sees that a Program transaction poses a conflict of interest, that individual discloses the conflict of interest, refrains from attempting to influence the outcome of the transaction, and physically removes him or herself from the discussions and decisions related to the transaction. In the case of conflicts involving board members, the Program for Charitable Giving notes such disclosure and recusal in the board minutes. Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15a The President's compensation is set by the Board of Directors annually after reviewing market data that shows the compensation levels for positions of similar responsibility at similarly situated charitable organizations in the same geographic area. This was done during the 2014 fiscal year. The President is the only compensated officer of the organization and no other employees are considered key employees.
