1PACK1GOAL

NC STATE WOLFPACK (4-3, 1-2) vs. CLEMSON Tigers (4-3, 2-3)

GAME 8
INSIDE THE MATCHUP
Series Record: NCSU trails 29-60-1
(17-22 H, 11-27 A, 1-11-1 N)

Oct. 28, 2023 • 2 pm • The CW Network
Raleigh, N.C. • Carter-Finley Stadium (56,919)

THE GAME

- This will mark the 91st meeting between NC State and Clemson - the 40th in Raleigh.
- The Wolfpack won the last meeting between the two squads in Carter-Finley, knocking off No. 9 Clemson in double overtime in 2021. Prior to that victory, the Tigers had won eight straight in the series.
- Three of the last six contests against Clemson have been one-score games and two of the last six (at Clemson in 2016 and 2021 in Raleigh) have gone into at least one overtime.
- For more than three decades, the series between NC State and Clemson was dubbed the Textile Bowl, as that industry has a major economic impact on both states and both universities boast renowned textile colleges. NC State's College of Textiles produces more than half of the textile graduates in the nation each year. The North Carolina textile manufacturers donate money to NC State's scholarship fund every year in honor of the Wolfpack's MVP from the game.

THE WOLFPACK

NOTING THE PACK

- Wolfpack head coach Dave Doeren is just one win away from tying the school record for coaching victories.
- LB Payton Wilson leads the ACC in tackles (11.6/game). That mark ranks third in the FBS.
- Wilson was named the Butkus National LB of the Month for September and is a three-time ACC LB of the Week this year.
- NC State leads the ACC in third down conversion defense (.275) - that's the third best mark in the FBS.
- The Wolfpack has won 18 of its last 21 games in Carter-Finley Stadium.
- True freshman receiver KC Concepcion accounts for 27% of the Wolfpack's receptions (37 of 135).
- Concepcion is the first true freshman in school history to post two 100+ yard games in a season.
- In his first start of 2023 (and just the third of his career), MJ Morris threw a career-best four TDs and tied his career-high with 265 passing yards vs. Marshall.
- RB Delbert Mimms ranks sixth in the ACC and 35th nationally with six rushing TDs. That's two more TDs than any Pack player had in all of 2022.
- NC State is 12-for-12 inside the 10-yardline this season (11 TDs, 1 FG).
- The Wolfpack ranks 11th in the FBS in team sacks. The sack attack is led by reserve defensive end Red Hibbler.
- The Wolfpack has lost two of its top four safeties for the season (Jakeen Harris, Rakeim Ashford).
- Five starters from the 2022 Wolfpack defense are now on NFL rosters.

GOING THE DISTANCE

Transfer kicker Brayden Narveson may end up wearing the Wolfpack uniform for one year, but he will permanently have his name etched in the NC State record book.

Prior to this season, the transfer from Western Kentucky had made three 50+ yard field goals: a 53-yarder in 2020, another 53-yarder in 2021 and a 51-yarder in 2022. Prior to last week's game at Duke, his previous long with the Wolfpack was a 49-yarder vs. Notre Dame.

After a Shyheim Battle interception on Duke's opening drive, Narveson lined up for a 57-yarder. The result? The kick was good and NC State had a new school record for longest field goal. Narveson's kick was a yard better than the previous mark set 33 years ago by Damon Hartman vs. UNC (1990).

DEFENDING THE DEFENSE

Entering game 7, NC State's defense has not necessarily posted the numbers it's gained a reputation for over the past several seasons.

One reason for that is injuries - particularly at safety. Another - and probably more significant reason - is that five players from last year's defense are currently on NFL rosters.

Despite that, the Wolfpack still posts some of the best numbers in the FBS in several defensive categories.

NC State leads the ACC in third down conversion defense (.275) - that's the third best mark in the FBS.

Category	ACC	FBS	Mark
Third Down Conversion Def	1st	3rd	.275
Team Sacks	1st	11th	3.14
First Downs Defense	4th	15th	113
Rushing Defense	4th	26th	110.9
Interceptions	2nd	28th	8

IT'S HOW YOU FINISH

Sophomore MJ Morris started for just the third time in his short career vs. Marshall. That start didn't exactly get off to a good start.

In the first quarter, Morris was 1-7. His first pass of the game was an interception and he was 1-7 with two picks in the first quarter (although his one completion was a 17-yard TD strike to KC Concepcion).

He came out hot in the second frame, however, completing seven straight throws, including a 39-yard TD pass to Trent Pennix. After that first quarter, he completed 64% of his passes for the rest of the game, finishing with a career-best four TD throws and tying his career best with 265 passing yards.

Last season, Morris became the first Wolfpack QB since Philip Rivers in 2000 to start at QB. (Of note: Rivers graduated early and went through spring practice prior to his freshman year, while Morris arrived in June of 2022).

Morris, who had played meaningful snaps in four career games prior to the Marshall game (the fifth game he played he was in for just three plays), came off the bench to lead the Pack to victory against Virginia Tech last season, throwing for three touchdowns. He came back the next week versus Wake Forest - his first game as a starter - to throw three more TDs. He was named ACC Rookie of the Week for both of those contests.

After starting the 2022 Boston College game, Morris suffered a knee injury and missed the rest of the season.

12-for-12

Although NC State's red zone offense has been mediocre this season (12th in the ACC, .783), the Wolfpack has enjoyed great success inside the opponent's 10-yardline.

In 12 trips inside the 10, the Pack has scored all 12 times (11 touchdowns and a field goal). Five of those scores have been Delbert Mimms touchdowns.

And by the way, those red zone numbers may be trending in the right direction. The Wolfpack was 4-4 in the RZ on Oct. 7 vs. Marshall.

SEEING RED

One of the reasons the Wolfpack ranks 26th in the FBS rushing defense and third in third down conversion defense is the talent and depth of the defensive line. One of the players providing that depth is JUCO transfer Jykeveous "Red" Hibbler.

Hibbler backs up Davin Vann - one of the top defenders in the ACC - so understandably doesn't get tons of snaps. But boy, does he make them count.

In just 108 snaps this season, Hibbler has 4.5 sacks - a mark that leads the team. Half of his total tackles are sacks. He ranks fifth in the ACC in sacks per game with 0.64.

RE-CEPCION

KC Concepcion is the first true freshman in school history ever to post more than one 100-yard game in a season - and he has two in just seven games.

The last freshman to have multiple 100-yard games in a season was Koren Robinson in 1999 (5), but he had redshirted the previous campaign.

The Wolfpack's leading receiver in 2023, Concepcion ranks sixth in the ACC with 5.3 catches per game. He's led or tied the team in catches in five of the seven contests.

Concepcion, who was named to the preseason watch list for the Shaun Alexander Freshman of the Year Award, had six catches for 116 yards and two TDs in the win at Virginia. He was named the On3 national True Freshman of the Week and the ACC Rookie of the Week for that performance.

On Oct. 7 vs. Marshall, he had a season-best eight receptions for 102 yards and two scores.

When he started the season opener at UConn, he was the first true freshman wide receiver to start a game for NC State since 2016, when Kelvin Harmon got the start in Game 7.

To find the last time a true freshman started game 1 of a season, you've got to go all the way back to 2014. That year, Bo Hines got the nod in Game 1 vs. Georgia Southern.

THE LB

Linebacker Payton Wilson decided to come back and play another season at NC State.

Boy, is NC State glad he did.

Wilson has been unstoppable through the first seven games of 2023. He leads the ACC in tackles per game and his 11.6 average ranks third in the FBS.

He has led the team in tackles in all seven games of the season (UConn - 10; Notre Dame - 14; VMI - 9 (while playing just 39 snaps); Virginia - 13; Louisville - 10; Marshall - 14; Duke - 11).

He has 45 more tackles than any other Wolfpack player with 81 total.

Wilson, also led the league in tackles in 2020, now has 19 double-figure tackle outputs for his career, including five in 2023.

Wilson was named the Butkus National Linebacker of the Month for September. and has won three ACC Linebacker of the Week awards in just six games.

PACK SACKS

Red Hibbler leads a Pack Sack Attack that is the best in the ACC heading into Game 7. The Wolfpack averages 3.5 sacks per game as a team - the 11th best mark in the FBS.

Four NC State players rank in the top 15 in the ACC in sacks this week:

Name	Sacks	ACC Rk
Red Hibbler	4.5	5th
Payton Wilson	4	8th
Davin Vann	3.5	11th
Brandon Cleveland	3	15th

KNOW WHEN TO HOLD 'EM

More than halfway through the regular season, NC State has lost just one fumble (and only has four total fumbles). That mark leads the ACC and ranks fifth nationally.

Dating back to the beginning of the 2020 season, the Wolfpack has lost just 18 fumbles in 43 games.

SEALING THE DEAL

Graduate transfer Robert Kennedy sealed the deal for the Wolfpack in the win over Marshall. In the fourth quarter, when Marshall had 4th and 2 from midfield and was down just four points, the nickel forced and recovered a fumble.

Also in the fourth quarter, with Marshall down seven and driving, he pulled down his second interception of the year, returning it 27 yards to the Herd 9 yardline. The Pack offense would take possession and score the final (and eventually winning) TD two plays later.

Kennedy definitely has a nose for the football. He leads the team with a pair of interceptions in 2023 - one of which was a 30-yard pick six vs. VMI. He has tallied 20 tackles, 1.5 sacks, two PBU's, and a qb hurry this season while starting all six games.

Kennedy played all 94 defensive snaps in the win over Marshall.

THE MIMM-ZONE

Prior to the 2023 season, running back Delbert Mimms had never scored a rushing touchdown. In his 38 previous games played, his only collegiate score had come on a reception in 2022.

Seven games into the 2023 campaign, Mimms has definitely made up for it. He has rushed for six scores - the 35th-best mark in the FBS. That's two more total TDs than any Wolfpack player scored in the entire 2022 season.

KC'S YAC = A-OK

Freshman KC Concepcion isn't just good at catching the ball, he knows what to do with it once he's caught it.

For the year, Concepcion has 410 yards on 37 receptions. Of that total, 55% (224 yards) has come after the catch (or YAC). Against Marshall, 85% of his total yards (87 of 102) was YAC.

The two-time ACC Rookie of the Week earned PFF's highest wide receiver grade for week 6. On3 has named him a midseason true freshman All-American.

PACK PICKS A PECK OF PASSES

Although the NC State pass defense hasn't been as effective as the run defense, opponents beware when you let it fly against the Pack. NC State ranks second in the ACC and 28th in the FBS with eight interceptions this season

What's even better about that number is that those INTs have come from six different players (3 from CBs, 2 from safeties, 1 from an LB, 2 from a nickel).

Last season, NC State ranked first in the ACC and third nationally with 19 passes picked. The Pack has tallied 26 INTs in the last 19 games.

(NO) SAFETY IN NUMBERS

The safety positions looked to be one of the most experienced on the squad heading into 2023. Free safety Jakeen Harris had 46 career games and 20 starts under his belt, while strong safety Devin Boykin had 34 career games played with nine starts.

Just five snaps into the 2023 campaign - in the opener at UConn, Harris suffered a season-ending injury. His backup Sean Brown stepped up into that role.

Late in the UConn game, on a special teams play, safety Rakeim Ashford - a veteran backup at both safety spots - was knocked out on a late hit, taken off the field on a stretcher to the hospital and would miss the next two games while in concussion protocol.

On the first play from scrimmage at Virginia, Boykin was injured. Bishop Fitzgerald - who had been practicing at free safety - came in to play that position, along with Cecil Powell. Before the game was over, Powell was also on the sidelines with an injury.

Versus Louisville, Brown was having the game of his life with eight tackles, two sacks for 25 yards and a forced fumble before being ejected for targeting, leaving Fitzgerald and Ashford as the only safeties left.

And then vs. Marshall, with Brown sitting out the first half, Ashford was injured on the first play from scrimmage and is out for the season.

GRAY AREA

Even though we're only seven games into the season, kick returner Julian Gray is posting numbers that could end up being among the best in school history.

Gray enters the Clemson game averaging 28.6 yards per kick return. That mark would rank seventh in school history if he is able to maintain it.

Gray ranks fourth in the FBS (second in ACC) this week in that category.

HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE

NC State has won 18 of its last 21 games in Carter-Finley Stadium.

In 2022, NC State tied the school record for the longest home winning streak at 16 before falling in the last home game of the season. That streak, which tied the mark set under head coach Lou Holtz from 1972-75, was the sixth-best active home winning streak in the FBS at the time.

Since the beginning of the 2017 season, the Wolfpack has posted a 35-9 mark in games played at Carter-Finley Stadium.

NC State Home Winning Streaks

Rk.	Streak	Years	Head Coach
1.	16	2020-22	Dave Doeren
	16	1972-75	Lou Holtz
3.	10	1966-68	Earle Edwards
4.	9	1993-94	Mike O'Cain
5.	8	2002-04	Chuck Amato

MANY HAPPY RETURNS

Both of NC State's returners - Julian Gray on kickoffs and Jalen Coit on punts - rank in the top 10 of the FBS in return average.

RS-sophomore receiver Julian Gray - who housed a kick return vs. VMI - currently ranks fourth in the country (second in the ACC) in kick return average with a 28.6 yard per return mark. Last season, he ranked third in the league and 26th in the FBS with a 23.8 mark for the year.

Receiver Jalen Coit, who is in his first year as a punt returner, is averaging 13.7 ypr. That is the seventh-best mark in the FBS and ranks second in the ACC.

8 BALL

Against VMI on Sept. 16, it was great to be eight.

NC State's No. 8 on both sides of the ball - nickel Robert Kennedy and receiver Julian Gray - had huge, highlight reel plays in the 45-7 win over VMI.

In just his fourth game in Wolfpack uniform, Kennedy, a transfer from Old Dominion who joined the team in January, had a solid game with four total tackles, 1.5 sacks and a pass breakup. But his biggest play came when he made a textbook tip drill play, snagging the interception and taking it to the house on a 30-yard romp.

While Kennedy excelled on defense, Gray - playing in his 20th career game - was spectacular in the other two phases of the game. Offensively, he pulled down two receptions for 80 yards, including a 64-yarder that was the longest play of the year for the Pack. Or at least it was until two quarters later, when Gray returned a kick 82 yards to hit paydirt.

Gray tallied 181 all-purpose yards on the afternoon and was named ACC Special Teams Player of the Week for his performance.

MOVING VIOLATION

Linebacker (Not corner. Not wide receiver. LINEBACKER) Payton Wilson was measured running 23.7 miles per hour on GPS to track down the ball carrier in the Notre Dame game. That's the fastest on record for a Wolfpack player in a game.

According to @NextGenStats, Wilson's clocking is faster than any NFL player this season. Their highest mark was the Dolphins' Tyreek Hill's 22.07 mph.

PACK-ED HOUSE

Before the Wolfpack even kicked off in the Duke's Mayo Bowl on Dec. 30, 2022, NC State had sold more than 31,000 season tickets for 2023. Wolfpack Nation has continued to show its anticipation with 35,000 season tickets sold (and that number doesn't include the sold out suites and club level in TowneBank Center).

Before the Wolfpack ever played a home game in 2023, it had sold out all of its single-game tickets for the year as well. In other words, all seven games are completely sold out.

Last season, the Wolfpack sold out six of its seven home games. That was the highest number of sold out games for NC State Football since 2003, when then-QB Philip Rivers had just one kid (his 10th is on the way!).

SIZE MATTERS

NC State's home field advantage is even more advantageous in 2023 with the addition of the new videoboard on the north end of Carter-Finley Stadium.

The 7,121 square foot board, which is the 11th largest single-display board in college football, boasts 6.6+ million pixels. The concert-grade sound system will be one of the loudest and clearest in the country, with 75 Audio Speakers covering the entire stadium.

For perspective, the board is 50' wider than the height of the Memorial Belltower.

DOEREN FINE

Dave Doeren is just a win away from tying as the winningest coach in the 132 years of NC State football. He's also a win from posting his 100th career victory.

The Leader of the Pack boasts a 76-57 mark in his 10+ years as head coach, trailing only Earle Edwards, who tallied 77 wins.

Doeren has guided NC State to at least eight wins in five of the last six seasons and the Pack ranks third in the ACC in conference wins since 2018. Eight of his 10 Wolfpack squads have qualified for bowl games - the most of any coach in school history.

Rk.	Name	Years	W	L	T
1.	Earle Edwards	1954-70	77	88	8

2. Dave Doeren	2013-pres.	76	56	0
3. Dick Sheridan	1986-92	52	29	3
4. Chuck Amato	2000-06	49	37	0

DOEREN TIME

NC State head coach Dave Doeren is now in his 11th season at the helm of the Wolfpack. That marks the second-longest tenure in the school history and ranks eighth among current FBS coaches.

FBS Longest Tenured Coaches

ALL ABOARD!

New Wolfpack offensive line coach Garret Tujague has not only brought a new energy to that position group, he's also brought a new stat.

In addition to charting knockdowns and pancakes for the o-line, Tujague also keeps track of "Raleigh Railroads."

A RR is an extended, sustained block - basically when the lineman pushes the defender back like a freight train.

LEFTIE LEADER

Quarterback Brennan Armstrong is the ACC's all-time leader in passing yards by a left-handed quarterback with 10,005 yards.

That mark ranks ninth in FBS history. Here's a list of the most prolific left-handers in FBS history:

Rk.	Name, School	Years	Yards
1.	Kellen Moore, Boise St.	2008-11	14,667
2.	Brent Stockstill, MTSU	2014-18	12,483

10.	Tim Tebow, Florida	2006-09	9,285

THE WHITE STUFF

Junior corner Aydan White has followed the momentum of his All-ACC performance in 2022 by being named to three preseason watch lists: Bednarik, Nagurski and Thorpe.

White played the most coverage snaps in the nation without allowing a touchdown in 2022 (482) according to PFF. He ranked second in the ACC in interceptions with four for the season - the No. 33 mark in the FBS. Those four picks were the most for a Wolfpack CB since 2012 (David Amerson).

For the season, White has 14 tackles, including one sack, and three PBUs. He missed the VMI game with an injury, but came back strong vs. Virginia, pulling down his first interception of the season. He now has seven INTs for his career

SNAP DECISION

Never heard of Joe Shimko?

That's because he's so stinking good at his job!

NC State long snapper Joe Shimko has NEVER had a bad snap. And he's had plenty of opportunities! The graduate student has snapped for every placekick since the beginning of the 2019 season. He's handled every long snap in 56 straight games.

For his career, he boasts 277 long snaps and 270 short snaps (that's 547 total snaps for his career with ZERO bad snaps!).

Shimko was named a 2022 Patrick Mannelly Award semifinalist - the award given to the nation's best player at his position - and is on the preseason watch list for 2023 as well.

But Shimko's contributions don't end when he hangs up his helmet. In the past two years, he's helped raise more than $400,000 for charities, including $50,000 for GiGi's Playhouse in Raleigh. For those efforts, he's on the preseason watch lists for the Wuerffel Trophy and the AFCA Good Works Team.

8 for 80

The Wolfpack needed a veteran in its wideout corps, and boy did they get it.

Receiver Bradley Rozner is entering his eighth season of college football after transferring just before fall camp from Rice. The Needville, Texas, native missed four seasons during his career due to injuries (including the 2020 COVID season).

As far as we know, Rozner is just the third eight-year player in FBS history (Kyle Pugh, Northern Illinois and Cam McCormick, Oregon in 2022).

Rozner caught touchdown passes in the loss to No. 10 Notre Dame and vs. VMI. He had 13 at Cisco College and 15 at Rice and now has 30 for his career.

Here's a look at the 25-year-old Rozner's journey:

ONEPACK EMPOWERED

A generous gift from Dave and Sara Doeren will establish a new initiative at NC State to support students with executive functioning challenges and those who are neurodivergent. Their $1.25 million commitment is among the largest made by a college football coach to his NCAA-member institution.

The new program being launched through the Doeren Family Fund will be called OnePack Empowered and will benefit NC State students who face challenges with executive function skills critical to academic success, such as organization, planning, setting priorities, task completion and decision making.

Autism and attention deficit hyperactivity disorder are just two of the diagnoses that could be linked to challenges in this realm, but students with these challenges also might have no formal diagnosis; no particular diagnosis will be prioritized or required in the program’s application process.

With a focus on one-on-one mentoring, individual support plans, career readiness and additional specialized assistance, the program is being designed to bolster academic and personal success and ensure students can complete their degrees.

The Doerens’ commitment will pilot the program for five years, serving up to 50 students at a time. They hope to inspire other donors to join them in contributing to OnePack Empowered as a sustainable source of support and guidance for an expanding number of participants over the next several years.

VETERAN STAFF

NC State’s coaching staff - including head coach Dave Doeren and the 10 full-time assistants - combines for 329 years of coaching experience. That’s almost three and a half centuries!

Leading the way in terms of experience is defensive line coach Charley Wiles, followed by three coaches (OC Robert Anae, Safeties coach Joe DeForest and WR coach Joker Phillips) in their 36th season.

Here’s a look at the experience of the Wolfpack staff:

Name	Year
Charley Wiles	37th
Robert Anae	36th
Joe DeForest	36th
Joker Phillips	36th
Dave Doeren	30th
Tony Gibson	29th

Kurt Roper	28th
Garrett Tujague	26th
Todd Goebel	25th
Freddie Aughtry-Lindsay	17th

GIVE A DAWG A BONE

Defensive coordinator Tony Gibson says he wants ‘dawgs’ on his defense, aka tenacious, relentless, aggressive players. To commemorate those who play with those characteristics, the defensive staff introduced the TAKEAWAY BONE in 2020.

When a Wolfpack defender recovers a fumble or intercepts a pass, the BONE comes out on the sideline. The player who got the takeaway signs it and at the end of the season, whoever has signed it the most times gets to keep the bone.

Now in its fourth season, the TAKEAWAY BONE has come out 58 times.

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

In January of 2022, NC State Director of Athletics Boo Corrigan was named the selection committee chair for the College Football Playoff (CFP) and will continue to serve in that role for the 2023 season.

Corrigan, who will complete his three-year term as a member of the CFP selection committee, spent the second half of the 2022 season commuting back and forth between Raleigh and Texas as the committee compiled its weekly rankings. He also served as the spokesperson for the CFP committee following each week’s picks.

NUMBER ONE

Since 2014, NC State head coach Dave Doeren has honored a member of the Wolfpack squad by giving them the No. 1 jersey. For 2023, he awarded that number to defensive end Davin Vann.

The jersey number is awarded to a player who exhibits an elite work ethic and practice and training habits, while also leading his teammates. “This player doesn’t just uphold the standards,” said head coach Dave Doeren. “He pushes them higher.”
