

The District Court Battle: What Does It Mean for Us?

By Gregory Jakub

For nearly five months, the political battle surrounding the question of whether the Grosse Pointes should have a one or two judge district court system has sometimes done more to obscure than clarify the issue.

For instance, an informational meeting with lawmakers held April 29 in the Grosse Pointe Woods council chambers left some city officials and observers scratching their heads in confusion when the discussion became a forum for political potshots by legislators and citizens alike.

THIS WEEK it appears that all the Pointes are resolved to back a one judge-one district court system and that the political fighting surrounding legislation outlining the district court is subsiding. The court bill is expected to pass the Senate this week.

When the smoke clears, what Grosse Pointers will eventually see is a Senate Bill that will put their cities under the jurisdiction of a single district court judge which could "drastically change the relationship between the Pointes and the court," according to State Sen. John Kelly, sponsor of the original court legislation in November 1979.

Some of those probable changes are obvious such as the fact that the Pointes will abolish their present five municipal courts and convert to a single district court. The Pointes are one of the last communities to abolish their municipal courts according to 1974 state legislation requiring such action by 1981.

Other changes are more technical such as the increased jurisdiction of the new district court allowing it to handle all civil cases up to $10,000 and high misdemeanor cases with penalties up to $1,000 fines and six month jail sentences. Present municipal courts only take cases under $1,000 and sentences are limited to three months or $500 fines.

What this change in jurisdiction means is that when the court is established Pointers with civil claims up to $10,000 will have their cases heard by their elected Grosse Pointe District Judge instead of going to Detroit's Common Pleas Court as they do now.

SOME LEGAL experts say that means a more fair and efficient administration of justice since a Grosse Pointe District Judge should be more sensitive to the community in which he or she serves.

Since the District Court will be in a yet to be determined location in the Pointes, parties in civil cases will no longer have to drive to Common Pleas Court at Detroit's City-County Building.

The switch from downtown to the Pointes will encourage the filing of more civil cases in addition to those that are transferred from downtown, legal experts say.

That means court revenues will increase accordingly and it is likely that they will soon exceed court start-up and operating costs, according to John Crawford, Grosse Pointe Park City Manager.

According to law, the city where the court is located will receive two-thirds of the fines and costs of cases involving city ordinance violations. In state law cases, fines are remitted to the state and costs to the city where the court is held.

The exact number of increased civil cases is the "big unknown" according to Crawford, who was city manager in Centerline when that city made the transition to district court.

The number of cases that the Grosse Pointe district court will hear has been at the core of the debate about whether the Pointes need one or two district courts.

Sen. John Kelly who represents all the Pointes except the Woods, is an adamant supporter of the two-court system although he has said he will conform to whatever the cities decide they want.

KELLY CITES statistics by state legal experts that show a Grosse Pointe District Court would receive about 640 more civil cases than the total cases now heard by the five municipal courts. Kelly advocates a provision in the final district court bill that will allow the Pointes to add another judge in the future if necessary.

Kelly is opposed by Representatives Dennis Hertel and William Bryant who cite studies showing that the division of the Pointes into two districts is wrong because it violates the one-person, one-vote concept. Hertel argues that any judge for the Pointes should be elected by all the people equally.

Some speculate that district judges serve a unique and influential role in the community since they play a much more direct role in serving the community.

Judge Roger La Rose, Harper Woods' first district judge, characterized his role as that of a "front line judge." He explained that he does his work "in the trenches" by hearing cases involving everything from malicious destruction of property to barking dog complaints.

Circuit court judges hear "the real serious legal problems" that make it necessary "to go to the books every minute," La Rose said. "There is usu-

Roofing Firm Ordered Out of Park

By Joanne Gouleche

After six months of trying to force a local roofing firm to clean up its premises, the Park Council took legal steps Monday to shut down the business permanently.

The move came when Grady Roofing owner Garrie Mitchell failed to appear before the Park's Zoning Board of Appeals to request a variance for use of his properties on Charlevoix near Alter road.

The city says Mitchell is using the property for warehousing and storage of vehicles and other equipment. A city ordinance states such use is prohibited when a business operates outside the community, something which, Mitchell says, he was not aware of when he purchased the property.

MITCHELL SAID he will fight the shutdown because "I have no choice."

"I have no place to move, and I will be forced to go out of business." The roofer said he did not attend the appeals hearing because he understood the meetings are scheduled every two weeks.

Because of Mitchell's no-show the Council denied his request to continue non-conforming use of the business.

"He (Mitchell) didn't keep his end of the bargain so we are not going to keep ours," Councilman Roger McNeill said.

City Attorney Herold McC. Deason said he will seek an injunction in Wayne County Circuit Court to force Mitchell to take his business out of the city.

The denial, however, is only half of Mitchell's problems. The roofer was ordered to undergo a top-to-bottom inspection after several residents near the roofer complained at a recent council meeting of Grady's deteriorating condition.

It was last September, when the public service department began to clamp down on the roofer for 28 exterior violations, including those for peeling paint, broken light fixtures and parking company vehicles on the grass between buildings and the sidewalk on Charlevoix. The council gave Mitchell until May 1, 1980 to correct the violations and to relocate company trucks to a temporary location until he moves his business in 18 months.

A RECENT inspection of the roofer by the city, however, indicated that Mitchell did not correct most of those violations.

James Ellison, public service director, said the citation only came after neighbors complained to the city about the "unsightliness" of the property.

Residents say the peeling paint and broken light fixtures don't bother them as much as tar fumes from nearby buckets that creep into their homes during the summer.

"Mr. Mitchell, you don't make much of a neighbor, not when you dump all your garbage around. I've seen junk yards that look better than that. I'm proud of my property, and I want to keep it that way," said Joe Hebda, a neighbor who said he represented 14 property owners around the roofing business.

At least two Park landlords said they fear tenants will vacate soon if something isn't done about the tar buckets and heavy traffic congestion on Charlevoix.

Olympian Takes Boycott in Stride

By Dean Brierly

The U.S. decision to boycott the Moscow summer Olympic games has shattered hundreds of American athletes' hopes of winning medals in Olympic competition this year.

Among those athletes is Farms resident Dave Grylls, a member of the Olympic bicycle racing team.

Grylls' specialty is the 4,000 meter individual pursuit race, which pits two racers against each other on a banked 333 1/3 meter track for 12 laps. It's an event he's won in the national championships twice and has competed in World Championships in 1978 and 1979.

Carter's decision to "punish" the Russians for their Afghanistan intervention shot down what Grylls called a good chance for him to win a medal.

"It makes me mad I have to be a front line soldier," he said. "You put in the time only to see it taken away. Most of the racers are a little P.O.'d, but what can you do? I'm not bitter about it. It's not the end of the world, just the end of a phase."

For Grylls, that "phase" began seven years ago when he started riding in a local touring club. The 22-year-old South High graduate began to race in 1974 because, "it was natural I felt comfortable with it. I did it because it was right for me at the time."

He made the U.S. National team in 1977 by taking second place in the national championships in his event. That turned out to be a good year for Grylls, as he was invited to join the national team based on his showing.

The following year he set a new national record for the individual pursuit and came back to win it again in 1979.

HE PLACED 8th in the world championships last year and says he's progressed since then, to the point of being close to the top with three or four racers in the world.

Grylls has been living and training in Orange County, Cal. the last six months, was at the Olympic trials in San Diego and recently competed in races in Tulsa and Chicago.

He calls training a "full-time job." On an average day he puts in a couple of two to three hour sessions on the bike, with a two-hour workout in the gym squeezed in between. There he lifts weights and does aerobic and abdominal exercises.

The key to being a good racer, he says, is having strong legs. To this end, he covers about 10 to 12,000 miles a year in training and 2 to 3,000 in racing.

"There's a lot of technique involved -- mostly with pedaling and breathing. You can pick it up from watching and talking with the older, more experienced racers and from

Panel Seeks To Delay Bed Cuts A Year

By Gregory Jakub

A Senate-House investigative committee in Lansing Monday launched its inquiries into the controversial hospital debedding plan by proposing an amendment to the state's debedding statute that in effect would extend the current 90-day delay on the plan implementation for a year.

If the amendment is passed in the legislature, it means that for a year, the pressure will be off Cottage, Bon Secours, and St. John hospitals to meet the debedding plan's recommendation that they cut a total of 92 beds.

FOR ALL Detroit area hospitals, it means the plan's bed-cut recommendations will not be used during the next year by the state Health Department when it reviews hospital applications for permission to begin building projects.

The committee's intent is to delay actual bed-cut actions and hospital expansion during the first year of the five-year debedding program until local health planners can develop a second year plan, said Terry Gerald, aide to committee member Rep. Raymond Hood of Detroit.

However, key state health planner Jay Rosen of the Office of Health and Medical Affairs said that no physical bed cut actions were expected during the first year of the debedding process anyway.

The plan is part of a state mandated program proposing to cut health care costs by phasing-out 3,800 "excess" hospital beds state wide. The state says about 2,500 of those beds are in Detroit area.

Cottage Hospital in Grosse Pointe Farms is named in the debedding plan to cut 62 of its 155 beds. Hospital supporters contend that the cut back threatens the hospital's existence and is unwarranted since it

'80 School Budget Tops $30 Million

By Susan McDonald

School Board members completed a three-day review of the administration's proposed $32 million budget this week, suggesting only minor changes before it is presented to the public at a hearing June 2.

The trustees rejected an attempt at the May 19 meeting by two members to reduce the tax rate because of a slight (0.2 mill) surplus in the school's debt retirement fund.

The small reduction was proposed by Joan Hanper and supported by Laurance Harwood, but rejected as insignificant by the remaining trustees. (Catherine Brierly was not present).

Despite the fact that the suggested 0.2 mill cut back would result in only

U.S. Seat Draws Hopefuls

By Gregory Jakub

Although only one candidate, State Rep. Dennis Hertel, has officially announced that he will seek election to the Congressional seat vacated when Rep. Lucien Nedzi retires this fall, 10 others including four Grosse Pointe residents plan to seek the necessary petition signatures to be on the November ballot.

Most recently, WJBK-TV personality Vic Caputo, a Grosse Pointe Shores resident, said he is "exploring the possibilities" of running for Nedzi's seat. He would resign from WJBK and retire from broadcasting if he decides to be a candidate which he will do by June 3, he said. Until then, he will be determining whether he has the necessary support to enter the race, Caputo said.

A check with the Wayne County election office last week showed that 11 petitions were picked up by Congressional hopefuls.

They are: Dennis Hertel, Helen Irving, 14th Democratic district chairwoman from Detroit; State Sen. John Kelly of Detroit; State Rep. Thaddeus Stopszynski of Detroit; Walter Gajewski, former Hamtramck city official; Frank Szymanski of Grosse Pointe Park; Lawrence Rocca of Warren; David Van De Wyngaerde of Grosse Pointe Farms; Richard Kuszmar, address not available; Herbert Schebor, attorney from Detroit.

Those who plan to file petitions as Republicans are John Cunningham of Detroit; and Mark Wise of Detroit.

Wayne County Commissioner and Grosse Pointe Farms resident Erv Steiner said several weeks ago that he might go for Nedzi's seat but announced last week that he will not run.

Macomb County also distributes petitions but doesn't keep records of who requests them. Petitions are also available in Lansing.

Complicating the race for Nedzi's seat is the fact that the state legislature will reapportion districts in 1981 and at least one Congressional district, possibly Nedzi's 14th district, will be eliminated.

Petitions must be filed with the county by June 3 and must have about 950 signatures for candidates to make the ballot at the August 5 primary.

Panel Wants Debedding Plan Delayed

beds are fully utilized. Bon Secours and St. John are named for less drastic cuts.

The local plan was developed during the last 18 months by the Comprehensive Health Planning Council of Southeastern Michigan (CHPC)—a federally funded agency that attempts to plan for the efficient use of the area's health care resources.

Opponents of the CHPC debedding plan say it is inconsistent with the state's debedding statute because it targets small, less expensive hospitals to take most of the bed cuts.

Because the CHPC plan has generated so much opposition from the health care field, state health planners in April put a 90-day delay on plan implementation to allow a special legislative investigation into charges made by the health care industry.

In its first session last Monday, the committee heard statements by both CHPC planners and hospital representatives, according to Madge Lawson, director of public relations for Cottage Hospital.

The committee also proposed that during the next year the state Health Department continue its moratorium on accepting hospital applications for building projects, according to legislative aide Gerald.

However, certain projects that are determined to be consistent with the state's goal of cutting beds will be reviewed and acted upon by the Health Department, Gerald said.

The Health Department will decide which applications are consistent with state bed reduction goals but will not use CHPC's debedding plan as guidelines for those goals, Gerald said.

The committee has given the go ahead for its recommendations to be drafted into a bill, according to Steve Manchester, aide to investigative committee chairman Sen. Edward Pierce of Ann Arbor.

The committee has also scheduled a public hearing on June 9 on the debedding plan at a location to be named later. Cottage Hospital officials said they plan to testify at that hearing.

Members of the Senate-House investigative committee include Sen. Edward Pierce of Ann Arbor, chairman. Senators Gilbert DiNello of East Detroit; Bill Huffman of Madison Heights, David Holmes of Detroit, Mike O'Brien of Detroit, James DeSana of Wyandotte, R. Robert Geake of Northville, and Donald Bishop of Rochester.

State Representatives on the committee are William Bryant of Grosse Pointe Farms, David Evans of Mt. Clemens, Jeff Padden of Wyandotte, Raymond Hood of Detroit, Barbara Rose-Collins of Detroit, Gary Vanej of Royal Oak, Wilbur Brotherton of Farmington and Bela Kennedy of Bangor.

School Board Considers 1980 Budget

$7 savings per family. Hanpeter insisted the Board "has a responsibility to keep the tax rate as low as possible—especially in rough economic times like these."

JON GANDELLOT argued, however, that "people are not going to jump up and down for $7" and the Board might risk having to raise the rate back up in future years if revenues decrease.

The tax rate proposed by the administration totals $33.62 mills for 1980-81 and would mean an average 10 percent increase in tax bills.

The rate was rolled back by 4.6 mills from the voter authorized level. The Headlee Tax Amendment mandated a 3.1 mill roll back. An additional 1.5 mill cut was "voluntary," according to Superintendent William Coats.

The proposed $28,654,130 General Fund calls for a 13 percent increase in spending over last year—a 10 percent hike in instruction and 16 percent increase in Support Services, such as administration, business, and student accounting.

The major new programs provided by a $581,000 fund for "improvements" will include installation of mini-computers as instructional aids at all 10 elementary schools, addition of varsity and junior varsity soccer programs at the high schools, and girls' and boys' basketball teams at the middle school.

IN ADDITION, about $350,000 will be spent on capital items—including new equipment and building remodeling at the schools. More than $10,000 will be used to remodel central offices at 389 St. Clair avenue and to purchase new furniture for the superintendent's office.

At the suggestion of Board members, the administration reduced a subsidy of the state-mandated lunch program from $70,000 to $51,000. Lunch prices will go up about 1 percent next year.

Several budget cuts were made as well. The administrative staff was reduced by one position by the decision not to fill the position of Assistant Superintendent for Instructional Services. The post was vacated by Dr. Joseph Spagnoli when he was named principal of South High last year.

Other cuts include the loss of 20 teachers, 15 special education aides and two remedial reading specialists. The budget also does not allocate any funds for a police Youth Bureau which was recently proposed by a special task force on crime.

The public hearing will be held June 2, at 8 p.m. at 389 St. Clair.

Olympic Biker on the Road to College

He cites American racers getting to Europe to see the top world racers compete, gaining experience and benefiting from the recent addition of a new coach, a transplanted Pole with some 20 years experience in racing and coaching.

As a sport for the average joe, Grylls says cycling is about where it's always been, which is to say popular, but no overly so.

Still, he sees potential growth for the sport and says it has as good a shot as any to become the next golf or tennis. He points to the big fitness kick Americans are on and says all the sport needs is a pro circuit and good media coverage.

At present, though, it's not a sport which makes its practitioners rich.

"YOU CAN'T make a living riding a bike, but you can break even," says Grylls. "Bike racing is not cheap. It's the third most expensive sport in the Olympics after sailing and the equestrians."

Grylls has a couple of sponsors to ease some of the financial strain. Shimano, a manufacturer of bicycle parts, and Panasonic, which makes bikes as well as stereo equipment, furnish all his equipment and some of his travel and living expenses.

That's a nice break for Grylls, since a new world class racing bike is priced in the neighborhood of $1,000.

While essentially the same as an average 10-speed, the racing bike is actually much lighter, built with a special alloy. Balance is achieved by making the metal tubing thicker on the ends than in the middle. The components are made to higher specifications.

"It's like comparing an expensive sports car to a Pinto. Both do the same thing. One does it with a lot more finesse."

Although he won't be going to Moscow, Grylls will get to Europe this year when he leaves for a tour beginning in West Germany this June. While there will be no chance for a medal, there is the satisfaction of racing against the best, since all the top racers should be competing.

After that, there's a race in Boston, but Grylls is really looking forward to returning to school. He needs to pick up two more years for an engineering degree, and has his sights set on San Diego State.

"I've spent the last couple years being a gypsy out on the road," he says. "I'm ready now for school."

He won't forsake racing, however. "I want to stay with it for a while. When it ceases to be fun for me, that's when I'll leave. It's fun and a good life, but everything's got to end."

Pointe Court Reorganization

any a lot of money involved in circuit court and they tend to handle less cases because (each case) takes more time, such as child custody," La Rose said.

The roles of district judges are much different since unlike upper level judges they're not "insulated from the man on the street," La Rose said.

As a district judge, La Rose said he considers the fact that many people appearing before him are in court for the first time for something like a traffic offense. He said under those circumstances, it is important for the judge to be fair and impart an understanding of the legal process.

If the Pointes are to have their district court by January 1981, they will have to elect a judge this November. That judge will have to do the necessary preparations—everything from getting traffic tickets printed with the new courts address to selecting at least four staff members—in about six weeks.

It is physically possible for the new judge to accomplish that in six weeks, according to Park City Manager Crawford.

However, he added that he didn't know if it was politically possible to get the five Pointes to "do their homework" and decide whether they want a new court facility or whether one of the cities' existing facilities should be used.

If that is the case, the creation of a Grosse Pointe district court would be delayed until 1982 since state law prevents election of a judge in uneven numbered years.

'Starlights' Present Finale

Under the direction of Janet Drolshagen, the girls have been hard at work practicing songs from the 1920's through the 80's, including old fashioned love songs, good old rock and roll, Beatles songs and Broadway hits. Offer Grant Guidelines

Foundations in Michigan distribute more than $200 million in grants annually, according to a study in the third edition of the Michigan Foundation Directory. The new edition was published jointly by the Michigan League for Human Services and the Council of Michigan Foundations.

The Directory provides information for grant seekers about how much money foundations give, what kinds of projects receive foundation funding and lists the officers and administrators of Michigan Foundations. In addition, the Directory provides information on how to write a grant proposal, for those persons or groups who have not had experience with the grants process.

The first edition of the Directory was one of the first efforts in the nation to be jointly sponsored by grant givers and grant seekers.

The Council of Michigan Foundations is an association of grantmakers in Michigan; the Michigan League for Human Services is a citizens planning and research organization funded by local United Ways through the United Way of Michigan.

What Will Be On GP Cable?

By Dean Brierly

Hardened videots, rejoice! Cable TV is coming and it's right on schedule. By mid-August Grosse Pointe Woods residents should be able to see first run films like "Deer Hunter" and "Kramer vs Kramer" without having to leave the comfort of home and a cold six-pack.

Michael Reynolds, general manager of Teleprompter, the company installing cable in the Pointes, says six crews from the Burnip and Sims cable construction company have been out since April and have put up about 40 miles of strand in the Woods.

In all, 200 miles of cable will be strung, with about four miles of underground cable along the lakfront area.

The Woods and a small section of Harper Woods will be finished first. Reynolds says the target date of an August 1 "turn on" for the Woods is still valid. The Farms and City should be finished by November 1, the Park by January 1 and the rest of Harper Woods by March 1.

The system will be operated by Teleprompter, the largest operator of cable systems in the country, serving more than 1.2 million subscribers in 32 states.

THE SYSTEM is jointly owned by Teleprompter and the War Memorial association, which will split the profits 50-50. It will be governed by a board of directors and officers with representatives from both organizations.

Each of the four cities involved will have representatives to a citizens advisory board, which will have an input on local programming.

Under the franchise regulations, the cities will receive three percent of the total profits, that figure dependent on the number of subscribers.

The basic package will run $7.50 a month, with free installation during the first 30 days after an area is energized. After the first month, the installation charge will be $15.

Subscribers will get 29 channels to start, plus the option of four movie channels which will be available for an extra monthly fee.

The system will incorporate the present three network channels and stations 9, 50, 56, 20 and 62. There will also be a number of stations available through the use of satellites.

These include three sports stations,

The Woods Will Turn On Aug 1

including two from New York—a continuous 24 hour live events channel and one from Madison Square Garden, also live.

ONE CHANNEL will provide live coverage of the House of Representatives, one will feature children's programming, one will broadcast religious programs and one will provide radar weather information.

In addition, there will be two independent stations, one from Atlanta and one from Chicago, plus a 24-hour news channel.

Locally, there will be two educational access channels, one available to the schools and another for the board of education. A government access channel raises the possibility of live coverage of city council meetings.

There will also be what are called local origination, public access and leased access channels. Public access will be available to anyone who wishes to put together a show. Two portable hand held video cameras will be available at no charge.

These will be loaned out on a first-come, first-serve basis. The only restrictions on these shows are that they be neither political, commercial, or deal with the lottery.

Local origination will be those programs coming out of the War Memorial after a proposed studio is built there. Plans are underway for tentative construction of such a facility in about a year. Leased access will allow someone to rent a particular time block on that channel on an everyday basis.

In about a year, Reynolds says there will be various home services offered—medical alert, smoke detection and burglar alarms.

All would work off sensing devices which would send signals directly to the hospital, fire or police stations. They will be available at an extra monthly charge.

Still in the experimental stage are home video games and a home computer terminal to perform such mundane chores as banking and shopping.

While the practical advantages to cable are many, the big attraction will be the four film channels. For an extra $6.95 a month, subscribers can get Showtime, Home Box Office or Movie Channel. The first two offer concerts and variety specials as well.

REYNOLDS SAYS there is enough diversity in programming between the three that they don't show the same movies at the same time. For those who want movies their children can safely watch, a channel called Front Row at $3.95 per month will show films with ratings no higher than PG.

Teleprompter's office at 19245 Mack in the 7 Mile shopping center is bare right now, save for a couple of desks and a number of blueprints scattered about. Reynolds says remodeling should take place in the next 30 days and hiring will begin soon after.

Right now, in addition to Reynolds, there is an office manager, plant manager and bench technician. The latter two will take care of any technical problem that arise.

Still to be hired are a marketing manager, customer service representatives, installers and technicians. Reynolds says his office will attempt to fill these positions with local talent before hiring people from outside the community. He expects to have a total staff of 15 to 20 people.

Teleprompter will have a marketing push just before each area is to be turned on. Reynolds says he will use local media to advertise as well as direct mail notices.

IN THE SHORES, meanwhile, the cable system being installed by Cox Cable company is a bit behind schedule. The Shores was the only city not to go with Teleprompter, as it had entered into an agreement with Cox last June.

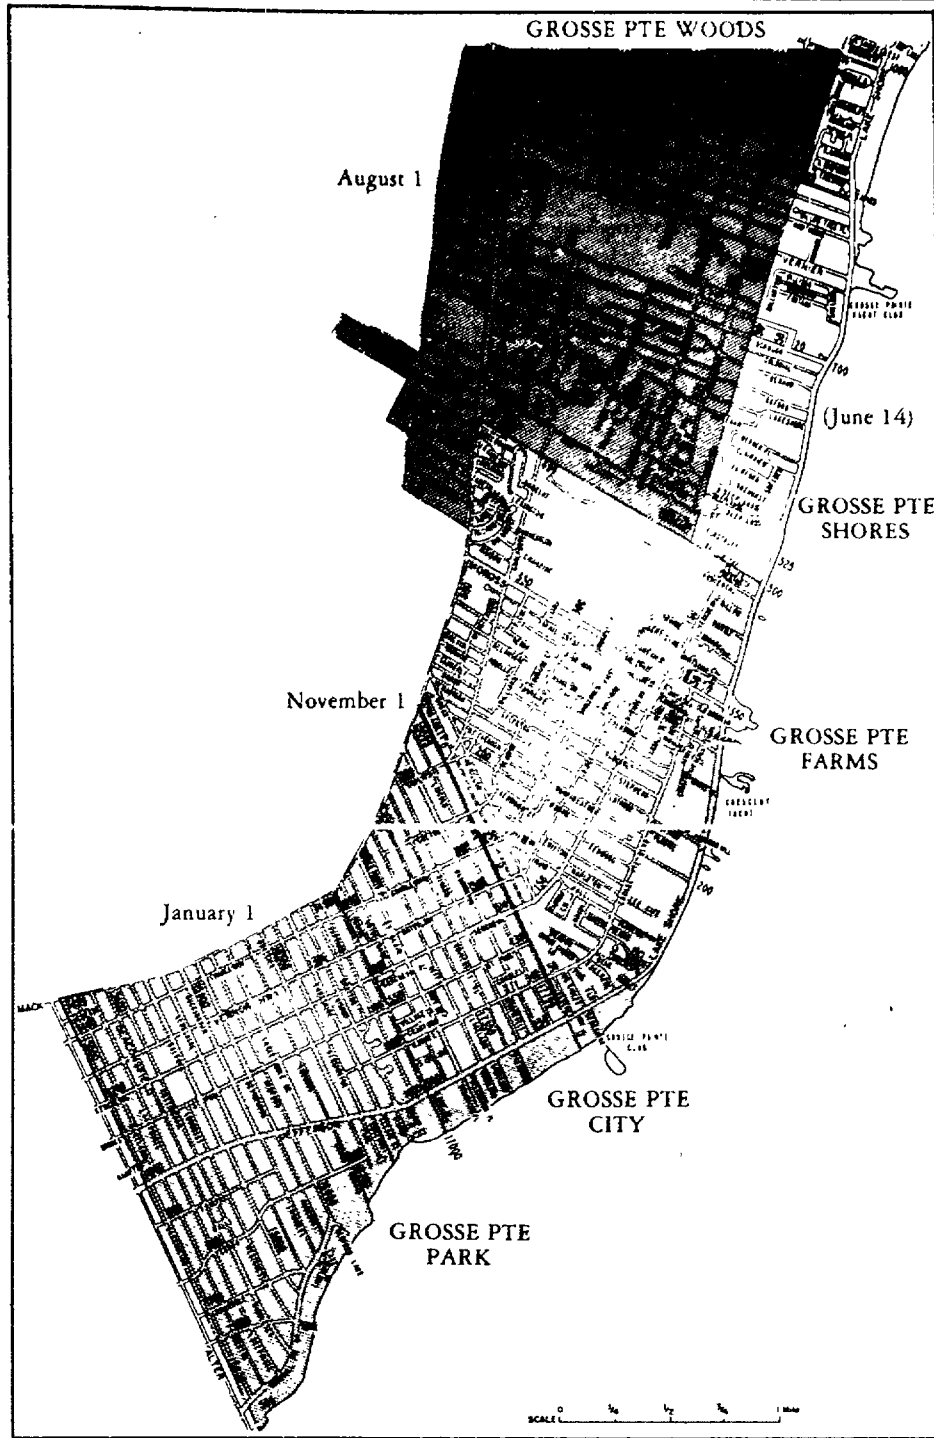

Weston Croft, general manager of Cox, had expected to complete work in the village by the end of this month. Due to a lack of qualified workers to lay down the trunk, or main cable, however, he now sees a completion deadline for the first or second week of June.

The trunk cable, which is being laid underground, carries the signal for the smaller feeder cables which go into the homes.

Croft says, "People are at a premium right now," referring to the current high construction demand as the reason for the lack of workers.

Cox will offer Shores' subscribers 24 channels to start, with plans to add three or four later on. The monthly rate of $7.50 is identical to Teleprompter's, as is the $6.95 for Home Box Office. The Shores will also have its own information news station.

There will be no installation charge for the first set, while additional sets in the same home will run $15 for installation.

Two Youths Arrested In Farms

Farms police arrested two local juveniles in connection with a May 1 break-in and theft from a home on Belanger.

The Farms and Woods youth allegedly broke into the house by using a glass cutter on a rear sliding door and when they were unable to gain entry, used a brick to smash the glass.

According to the police report, they searched the first floor of the house and made off with an assortment of women's jewelry.

Several neighbors reported seeing the two in the area that day and from this information police were able to locate them. During interviews with police, the two admitted breaking into the house and subsequently, all of the missing items were recovered.

These were seven ladies rings, three large pins, one gold stickpin, two pearl necklaces, one silver necklace, one gold necklace, a number of silver and gold coins, and two bottles of vodka.

The two boys, each 14 years old, will face charges in Wayne County Juvenile Court.

Police also apprehended a pair of youths who allegedly stole a Lion's Club for the Blind canister containing $10 from a display table behind Kroger's on May 1.

The two were identified by a witness at the scene and admitted to the theft in interviews with police. The money, which goes to help the blind with their dogs, was recovered.

The Farms' police department got another case to work on when a home on Touraine was broken into and hit for a portable Panasonic AM/FM stereo cassette recorder, five watches, a six-piece silverware service, one woman's diamond pendant necklace, one gold charm bracelet and one Smith and Wesson handgun.

Recently, Farms detective Samuel Cardella put on a crime prevention presentation in a Cloverly home at 1 p.m. May 14.

During a three and a half hour program, Cardella spoke on the problem and prevention of drug abuse.

Outdoor Concert Is May 29

The North and South High School band departments will join for the annual Outdoor Band Concert and Ice Cream Social on the South High School front lawn Thursday, May 29 at 7 p.m.

Following the Wind Ensemble, North's Symphony Band will perform Superman by Williams, Parade of Cliches by Gearhardt, Tortilla Flats and Sharps by Schaefer, and Midnight Fire Alarm by Lincoln.

After intermission, South's Wind Ensemble, Symphony Band and Concert Band will combine with North's Symphony Band and Concert Band to perform four musical selections.

Ralph Miller, South's instrumental music director, will conduct the massed band in Pentland Hills by Howe and English Suite by Grandman, Nathan Jackson, the Instrumental music director at North, will close the program by conducting Symphonic Portrait by Berlin and Stars and Stripes by Sousa.

Ice Cream and Strawberries will be sold by the North and South Band Parent groups during intermission and after the concert, from which all proceeds will go towards summer music camp scholarships.

Lentz to Lead Tour To 'Passion Play'

A performance of the world-famous, once-a-decade Oberammergau Passion Play is the highlight of a two-week August European tour to be led by Dr. Kenneth Lentz, Pastor of St. Paul Lutheran Church in Grosse Pointe.

Pastor Lentz led a similar tour when the play was staged in 1970. Residents of Grosse Pointe, Harper Woods and St. Clair Shores may participate.

Every 10 years, in the tiny village of Oberammergau in Germany's Bavarian Alps, the villagers recreate the life and death of Christ in the Passion Play. The history of these performances evolves from the early 1600's, the period in Europe of the 30 Years War and the Black Plague.

In 1634 the villagers of Oberammergau made a solemn vow that if it were spared from the ravages of the plague, the residents would give a presentation of the Passion of Christ every 10 years for the rest of the village's existence. With a few exceptions due to wars and a ban on religious plays, the performance has been staged every decade for more than three centuries.

Due to the demand for tickets, they will be allotted only to select tour agencies and are not available for individual purchase. The tour operator for this trip, European Tours, Inc., has secured a limited number of guaranteed first-class tickets to a performance of the play in August.

The tour will be held from August 10-23, and will feature visits to the following locations besides Oberammergau:

—Innsbruck and the Tyrol country in Austria.

—St. Moritz and the Swiss Alps in Switzerland.

—Venice, Florence and Pisa in Italy.

Assisting Dr. Lentz on the tour will be Margaretha Kortschak, a professional European tour guide and resident of Grosse Pointe Park. Mrs. Kortschak is a native of Austria and has traveled extensively through Europe.

According to Dr. Lentz, there are only a few seats left on the tour. Interested persons can get more information by calling him at the church at 881-6670.

Memorial Weekend Traffic Will Be Down

Holiday driving in Michigan over the Memorial Day weekend will be the lightest in five years, the Michigan Department of Transportation (MDOT) predicts.

Department traffic technicians estimate motorists will log 666 million miles over the four-day holiday weekend, from noon Friday, May 23, to noon Tuesday, May 27. That's five percent less than the 722 million miles driven in Michigan over the 1979 Memorial Day weekend.

If the forecast materializes, it will be the lightest Memorial Day weekend traffic since 1975 when 680 million miles were driven in Michigan.

Forecasts are determined on a variety of factors, including gasoline consumption, traffic counters and past experience. The forecast for reduced highway travel over the 1980 Memorial Day weekend is triggered primarily by general economic conditions and the cost of gasoline.

To better prepare the state highway system for holiday travel, State Transportation Director John P. Woodford has ordered a suspension of all highway construction activity beginning at 3 p.m. Friday until normal work starting hours on Tuesday.

Only emergency work will be permitted on state highways and freeways over the holiday weekend.

Woodford also has ordered all state traffic and safety engineers to conduct special inspections of all construction areas to assure that detour and slow-down lighting and signing are in place and operating.

All earth-moving equipment and other heavy construction vehicles are banned from state highways for the weekend.

"Every precaution should be taken to eliminate hazards and minimize inconvenience to motorists due to road and bridge construction activities," Woodford said in a directive to all district offices.

Detours on state highways over Memorial Day weekend include:

• I-75 (Chrysler) Freeway northbound and southbound ramps to eastbound I-94 (Ford) Freeway in Detroit, closed for bridge repair.

• Eastbound M-25 (Thomas Street) in Bay City is closed for seven-tenths of a mile between Euclid and Henry streets for sewer construction. Detour is posted.

• M-36 (Ash Street) in Mason (Ingham County) is closed between Lansing and Jefferson streets for bridge and road repairs. Detour is posted.

• Northbound M-99 (Logan Street) over the Grand River in Lansing is closed for reconstruction. Traffic is diverted to the southbound bridge.

• Westbound I-94 Business Loop (Dickman Road) in Springfield west of Battle Creek is closed for reconstruction. Traffic is diverted along eastbound lanes between 32nd Street and M-96, approximately one mile.

• M-43 at Blue Star Highway south of South Haven (Van Buren County) is closed for reconstruction of the intersection. East-west traffic on M-43 is detoured on local roads, adding three miles to the normal route.

• US-41/M-28 in Ishpeming (Marquette County) is closed for widening and reconstruction. A posted detour adds one mile to the normal route.

Potential traffic slowdowns in state highway construction areas:

• The left lane of I-96 in both directions is closed between I-275 in Farmington Hills and Novi Road for median barrier construction.

• US-24 (Telegraph Road) has intermittent lane closures in both directions between 12 Mile Road in Southfield and 15 Mile Road in Bloomfield Hills for reconstruction work.

• M-150 (Rochester Road) from Big Beaver Road to South Boulevard in Troy has periodic lane closures in both directions due to widening and reconstruction.

• Plymouth Road in Detroit between Warwick and Weaver streets (just west of M-39 Freeway) is reduced from two lanes to one in each direction due to reconstruction of a railroad bridge.

• Northbound and southbound left lanes on I-75 between Eight Mile Road in Detroit and 12 Mile Road in Madison Heights are closed for construction of median barriers.

• The M-15 bridge over the Cass River in Vassar (Tuscola County) is reduced from four lanes to two for bridge deck replacement.

• The M-24 bridge over the Flint River in Lapeer County is reduced from two lanes to one, with signals controlling alternate one-way traffic.

Phi Beta Cites Star Students

By Cathy Pieronek
Five seniors from Our Lady Star of the Sea High School were honored on Monday, May 12, at the 37th Annual Honors Convocation of the Detroit Chapter of the Phi Beta Kappa Association at Ford Auditorium.

The five seniors, Diane Alessi, Donna Alessi, Laura Edwards, Cathy Pieronek, and Liz Viviano, were selected on the basis of outstanding academic achievement throughout all four years of high school.

An increase in one-person households helped to reduce the average household size from 3.1 person in 1970 to 2.8 persons in 1979.

300 Learn CPR at April Town Hall

By Tom Kiskalt
Instructors from Bon Secours Hospital taught two life-saving skills to 338 people during the Town Hall for Health held in late April at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.
Participants were instructed in cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) and an emergency treatment for choking. CPR is an emergency treatment for victims of heart attack, shock, drowning or suffocation.
Instructors also recertified 99 people who previously completed CPR training.
The presentations were made under the direction of Patricia Grady, R.N., director of education and staff development, and Raymond Ingham, director of cardiopulmonary services.
Peter O'Rourke, an area attorney and past president of the Friends, discussed the legal ramifications for individuals who participate in emergency treatment.
Town Hall for Health is sponsored by the Friends of Bon Secours Hospital to promote community health education. The latest effort was organized by Mrs. Kenneth Adler of Ballantyne road.

Kids Present Drama Recital

Dramatics for Children will present its spring recital Friday, May 23, 7:30 p.m., in Maire School's gymnasium. The Saturday morning group of 8 to 10 year olds will give some poems and a play based on Wilde's "The Selfish Giant," featuring Matthew McGuire as the giant, Elizabeth Staats as Snow Spirit, and Kristin Button, Paul Blum, Shelia Proffit and James Hazlett as the children who want to play in the giant's garden.
"The Way Out Cinderella," the afternoon class's offering, is an amusing farce that turns the fairy tale upside down in the tiny principality of Micronvania.
The cast features Michelle Battles as the worried stepmother; Danielle Varga and Jacqueline Smith as the giddy, waltzing stepsisters; Tammy Jenkins as Ella, the meek, hard-working girl who does a Jekyll-Hyde; Elizabeth Blum as Myra, the ex-gypsy violinist godmother who is a mite rusty with her wand weaving; Phyllis Pinko as the King of Micronvania, an upset parent as he views his hippie-type son; Charles Peters as the prince who wants to change everything; Andrew Moeller and Paul Baul as the palace guards hunting for the girl who can wear a size 12, triple E shoe.
There is no admission; everyone is welcome.

Give Chase to Bike Thieves Two Pointers Foil Kidnap Attempt

Quick action by two Grosse Pointe men averted a possible kidnapping attempt last Friday and stopped "a serious incident from becoming much, much worse," according to Farms police Chief Robert Ferber.
The two, Scott Russell, 22, of the Shores and John Tulloch, 23, of the City, chased and caught a pair of Detroit youths who were allegedly in the process of kidnapping a 13-year-old City boy.
Russell and Tulloch told police they gave chase when they saw the two teenagers take a bike from the bike rack at Kerby Field around 7 p.m. Friday.
Shores resident Scott Russell, 23 and John Tulloch, 22, of the City, told police they saw two teenagers take a bike from a rack at Kerby Field about 7 p.m. that day.
Russell and Tulloch gave chase and caught one of the two youths, who admitted stealing the bike and said his friend had stolen one too, according to Ferber. At this time, the two Pointers saw the other youth riding a bike with what turned out to be a 13-year-old City boy on the handlebars.

They stopped the other youth at the corner of Ridge and Touraine and saw him drop a plastic bag at that time. The bag contained a Marksman .177 caliber BB pistol according to the police report.
Meanwhile, a call had gone out to all police in the area and Farms officers Clarence Reichling and Kathleen Leikert arrived soon after the incident.
As the two officers pulled up to the scene, they saw the other suspect drop a shiny small object into some shrubbery. It turned out to be a chrome cigarette lighter in the shape of a small caliber automatic, according to police.

The 13-year-old boy told police he had been ordered by the youth with the gun to get on the handlebars. The two suspects, Detroit juveniles, were arrested and charged with armed robbery and kidnapping and were transported to the Wayne County Youth Home.
Chief Ferber wrote a letter to Russell and Tulloch informing them he would nominate them to the Lawyers' Wives Association for a Concerned Citizens' Award.
Commenting on their actions, Ferber said "No police department, including ours, can hope to fulfill its mission without that kind of cooperation. They did an outstanding job and are to be congratulated."

Today, as always, the most expensive part of poverty comes in trying to hide it.

Along the Rhine, in Germany, fresh young wines, direct from the casks are drunk during summer picnics. In the United States, we do not have the opportunity to drink fine German wines in exactly the same way, but we do have many available at most wine stores. The Rieslings of 1975 and 1976 are available in large quantities and are excellent wines. Other fine German wines for summer drinking, or for any time for that matter, are the blends, such as Moseblumchen or Liebfrauenmilch. Most are fairly inexpensive.

Pianist Opens 23rd Concert Series

Plans for the 23rd Grosse Pointe Summer Music Festival season were announced last Sunday at a meeting in the Fair Acres drive home of Dr. and Mrs. John M. Lesesne. Mrs. Nils R. Johanson is honorary chairman, Mrs. Sterling S. Sanford general chairman of the festival for the third consecutive year.

The first four concerts will be held in the Fries Auditorium of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial on consecutive Wednesdays, beginning July 2. The fifth and closing concert will be held outdoors on Sunday, July 27. All concerts begin at 8 p.m.

Pianist Gary Graffman opens the Music Festival with selections by Mozart, Haydn, Bach, Brahms and Beethoven.

His recent appearances with Eugene Ormandy and the Philadelphia Orchestra marked the 30th anniversary of his professional debut, as a teenager, with that same conductor and orchestra.

Soprano Leigh Munro's program July 9 will include a group of arias from operas by Puccini, Mozart, Verdi, Massenet and Donizetti; French songs by Ravel, Fauré and Debussy; an English folk song group and operetta selections from The Student Prince, The Merry Widow, The Bohemian Girl and Die Fledermaus.

Miss Munro starred in 1978 as Leila in Michigan Opera Theatre's "Pearlfishers."

An evening of chamber music by the Pennario-Staples-Chanteaux Trio will be featured July 16. Trio members are Leonard Pennario, pianist; Gordon Staples, violinist; and Marcy Chanteaux, cellist. They will present works by Beethoven, Schubert and Mendelssohn.

The threesome met last summer when Pennario made his Grosse Pointe debut with the festival. There was some impromptu playing together and an ensemble was born.

A combination of premieres is set for July 23: pianist Elizabeth Lesesne makes her Grosse Pointe debut as a recitalist in the festival's Young Artists Debut Concert. She will be performing works by Mozart, Chopin, Scarlatti, Brahms, Schumann and Liszt. Elizabeth, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Lesesne, is completing work for her Masters degrees in piano performance and musicology at the University of Michigan.

As a change of pace, the fifth and closing concert Sunday, July 27, will feature James Dapogny's Chicago Jazz Band. The grand finale will be staged outdoors on the lakeside terrace of Alger House, (in case of rain, the concert will move into Fries Auditorium.)

Instrumental in selecting this year's performing artists were Mrs. Sanford, Alexander Sucek and Philip Leon. Assisting Mrs. Sanford with festival duties is vice chairman Mrs. Lyndle R. Martin, of Middlesex boulevard.

On festival nights, the War Memorial grounds will open at 6:30 p.m. for pre-concert picnicking. Festival-goers may bring their own picnic hampers and coolers or order "at home" box suppers from the center's kitchen three days in advance. Picnics will move indoors in case of rain.

Festival admission packages include the patron series of five concerts and five box suppers at $70 per person, the regular series of five concerts at $35 per person and the student series of five concerts at $17.50 per person.

Single concert admission is $8.75 per person. Single student admission is $4.50. The Young Artists Concert is $1.75 per person, (student, $1). Lawn admission for the Chicago Jazz Band Concert only is $4.75 per person, (children 12 and under, $2.50).

Picnic box suppers are $4.75 each by prepaid reservation.

All tickets have reserved seats. Mrs. Martin has arranged to hold a choice section until June 10 for early patron and series subscribers.

Advance ticket orders may be placed at the Memorial Center from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Saturday, or ordered by sending a check payable and mailed to the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association, 32 Lake Shore Road, Grosse Pointe Farms, MI 48228.

The office telephone is 881-7511. Mrs. Sanford, 881-1256, and Mrs. Martin, 822-7141, also are taking reservations. Donations from those unable to attend are most welcome.

$12,000 Oil Painting Missing from Center

A $12,000 painting is missing from the Alger House of Grosse Pointe's War Memorial.

"Landscape With Pond," an 1877 oil on canvas by George Innes, was discovered missing following an inventory of the building completed on April 30. It was not reported until May 5.

The painting was donated to the War Memorial in 1970 and was appraised at the $12,000 figure. A spokesman there said the last time anyone can say for sure it was still in the Alger House was

The yearbook's editorial board will be filled by juniors Bill Gore, Sheila Howenstein, Jim Duff, David Mott and Charles Kennedy.

Gasoline Use

Over 40 percent of U.S. gasoline consumption is by "middle-aged" families (35-54) representing about one-third of the nation's homes, the Conference Board recently reported. Households under age 25 purchase only seven percent of the nation's gas, and about 35 percent is bought by relatively older homes (those 55 and older).

The relatively large numbers of people of driving age and the high number of working wives their group included were the principal reasons for the substantial "middle-aged" gas consumption.

Singles Help Happy Hollow

Officers of the First Society of Detroit presented Pointer C. Kenneth Perry Jr., Detroit attorney and president of the Board of Directors of Camp Happy Hollow, Inc. with a check for $2,100, at a recent ceremony.

The contribution will be used to buy metal docks to expand the camp's swimming facility on Harmon Lake.

The First Society is a group of single adults who sponsor four benefits a year for the purpose of raising funds for various charitable organizations.

This is the second time Camp Happy Hollow has been selected as a beneficiary of the First Society's charitable endeavors.

Camp Happy Hollow is a camp for children and young adults who have various types of physical, mental and emotional impairments. The camp is located near Mayville, and provides a wide range of camping, recreation, and respite care programs to meet the needs of the campers it serves.

Its president, Kenneth Perry, resides on McKinley road.

Doctors Cited At Bon Secours

The Bon Secours Hospital medical staff presented the Semmes and Holden Awards during the 31st annual Clinic Day Program last month.

The Semmes Awards and commemorative plaques were presented to Doctors Peter Warrington and Lawrence Marten. The awards are given twice yearly to the house officers who best exemplify the spirit of the Sisters of Bon Secours.

Awardees demonstrate exemplary interest and a sympathetic attitude toward patients and their families, according to the hospital.

The Holden Awards were presented to Doctors Daniel B. Michael, Christopher Bush, Peter Warrington and Robert D. Bozell.

The Holden awards are conferred annually for outstanding papers written by residents during their service.

Schools Hire Counselors

Michigan schools are hiring counselors, contrary to popular belief, says a Michigan State University professor of counseling.

Herbert M. Burks Jr., who teaches counseling in the Michigan State University College of Education, fears students may be refraining from enrolling in graduate counseling programs and basing that decision on out-of-date employment information.

The demand for school counselors at the secondary level is excellent, he said. Opportunities at the community college level are good, but opportunities at the elementary level and with community agencies are more limited.

The MSU College of Education is currently accepting applications for fall term 1980 for its master's degree programs in school, community college and community agency counseling. This program is offered in Birmingham and Grand Rapids, in addition to the East Lansing campus.

Inter-Faith Dinner To Honor Three for Community Service

The Grosse Pointe Inter-Faith Center for Racial Justice will hold its Annual Dinner on May 29 at the War Memorial.

Reese Cleghorn, associate editor of the Detroit Free Press will deliver the keynote speech. Mr. Cleghorn will address civil rights issues of current relevance to residents of Detroit and its metropolitan area.

He is replacing Joe H. Stroud, editor of the Free Press, who was originally scheduled to speak. Distinguished Community Service Awards will be presented at the dinner to: Father Thomas Krell, Co-Pastor of St. Ambrose Parish; the Honorable Damon J. Keith, Judge U.S. 6th District Court of Appeals; and, posthumously, to Eva Fillion.

Father Krell is being cited for his creative approach to Christian outreach and his willingness to reach beyond the walls of his church to work for social justice.

Judge Keith is being honored for his longtime involvement in the cause of human rights.

John Fillion, of Grosse Pointe, will accept a special posthumous award on behalf of his wife, Eva who is being honored for her role as a civil rights activist human relations counselor and community leader.

The Grosse Pointe Inter-Faith Center for Racial Justice is an organization funded by 15 area churches and many individual members, which promotes racial and social justice through educational programs and task forces working in the areas of education, crime prevention, housing and preparation of youth for living in a multicultural world.

The Annual Dinner is the Inter-Faith Center's way of paying tribute to its participating churches, volunteers and community residents who have worked to support the organization. This year the planning committee for the dinner was co-chaired by Kathy and Tom McGovern, of Balfour road.

The dinner will be held May 29 at the War Memorial at 8 p.m., preceded by cocktails (cash bar) at 6:30 p.m. Tickets are $15 per person. Tables may be reserved for groups of eight, 10 or 12.

For reservations call the Center at 822-6464 or mail checks to the Grosse Pointe Inter-Faith Center for Racial Justice, 17150 Maumee, Grosse Pointe 48230. The deadline for reservations is Monday, May 26.

Private Parks Promote Events

Owners of Michigan's private campgrounds are going all out this summer to recoup last year's losses with special family-oriented programs, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

With an adequate gasoline supply expected and more persons vacationing near home because of economic hard times, summer campgrounds will become destination resorts for many families. Auto Club stated.

"More operators than ever are planning a wide range of programs and events to fuel a predicted six percent increase in state tourism," stated Joseph Ratke, Auto Club touring manager.

"Last summer, many private parks even in Michigan's most heavily populous regions lost money," he said. An Auto Club survey showed that of 293 campgrounds participating, more than half reported business drops of two to 60 percent. Most listed unfounded gas shortage fears as the main reason.

To meet the expected demand for planned events this summer, many camp owners will become full-time recreation directors. Allegan's Tri Ponds Family Camp Resort offers crafts, square dancing, archery and campfire programs on weekends. Campers can explore an underground copper mine at Adventure Mine campground at Greenland in the Upper Peninsula, or plumb the depths of the state's only natural limestone cavern at Buchanan's Bear Cave Resort.

Still others can enjoy the sights of Metropolitan Detroit on tours leaving Ypsilanti's Detroit-Greenfield KOA.

Other activities including special children's programs such as on-site petting zoos, hay and horseback rides, fishing ponds and hikes are planned at 110 other parks, more than four times the number listing activities than last summer. In addition, 275 private parks list swimming in either lakes or pools.

Parks on Auto Club's guide charge an average of $5.70 nightly for a site with electricity. By comparison, state park campgrounds users will pay up to $6, $1 more than a year ago, plus $1 daily or $5 annual entry fees. There also is a $3 fee to reserve a state park site.

Campers can save gasoline and money by storing units for as little as $10 per month, a feature available at 248 private facilities on Auto Club's list. A few private parks even offer free storage. There is no storage at state parks.

Auto Club's 1980 guide lists 367 privately operated parks with 34,737 sites, nearly half the state's approximately 70,000 campsites. All but 20 list at-site electricity, with water and sewer hook-ups at 280 and 151 parks, respectively.

State park campsites total 13,912, unchanged from last year. There are 3,269 state forest campground sites, 31 less than a year ago. Federal and county, township and city park sites remain at 2,522 and 8,200 respectively.

SEMTA Sets Hearing On Proposed Fare Increases

A public hearing on proposed fare increases for all SEMTA services will be held in Detroit, today, Thursday, May 22, at 10 a.m. in the Veteran's Memorial Building, 151 W. Jefferson, Room 514.

The increases have been proposed to meet rising operating costs, particularly fuel costs. If approved by the SEMTA Board, the increases will take effect with the start of the new fiscal year, on July 1, 1980.

The proposed increases are as follows:

- base fare from 55 to 60 cents
- zone charges from 15 to 20 cents (zone charges are applied for travel through three or more zones)
- "limited" surcharge from 10 to 20 cents
- youth fare from 35 to 40 cents
- added full zone charge on rail, 20 cents

Small bus fares in the tri-county area also would be adjusted to maintain consistency with large bus fares. The increases will be reflected in higher prices for SEMTA-CARD monthly passes and for exact fare tickets; however, customers will still benefit from a discount by using the tickets or passes.

A SEMTA charter rate increase also is included in the proposal. The hourly rate would be increased from $28 to $32; the mileage rate for live miles (when the bus is carrying passengers) would increase from $1.30 per mile to $1.40; and the rate for deadhead miles (while the bus is traveling empty to its destination to pick up passengers) would increase from $1 to $1.10 per mile.

Public hearings also will be held in Oakland, Macomb and Westland. The SEMTA Board will make a decision regarding the increase after reviewing comments from the hearings.

Even with fold-up, take-along furniture, Englander's wouldn't settle for anything less than heavy, anodized frames with weather-resistant arms and mar-preventing leg glides. And carefree vinyl straps in colorful combinations that will last for years.
And at these prices, you don't have to settle for anything less either (And you take it home to enjoy right away!)
But that's just what you'd expect from the place with the largest selection of better patio furniture (Woodard Ficks Reed, Tropitone and more) at better prices.
So why spend more somewhere else. And get less

Economist Predicts 'Doubles'

In the months ahead this country may face both double-digit inflation and double-digit unemployment for the first time in history, predicts a noted labor economist.

"If the new recession equals the severity of the last one, the national unemployment rate is likely to reach or exceed the 10 percent level," says Dr. Charles C. Killingsworth, a professor in the School of Labor and Industrial Relations at Michigan State University.

Killingsworth also predicts that the country will take a long time to recover from the current downturn in business, meaning the unemployment rate could hover around eight percent for three years after it hits the peak.

While other economic forecasters have predicted that unemployment nationwide will peak at around eight or nine percent, Killingsworth believes that the most recent announcements about the rate will cause some forecasters to once again change their predictions.

The rate jumped from 6.2 percent in March to seven percent in April, the largest jump since the early days of the last recession in January 1975, he notes.

Since the early 1950s, almost every time the country has gone into a recession it has taken longer to recover, says Killingsworth.

"It is certainly not beyond our capabilities to devise a job creation program that would substantially change the gloomy picture I have painted."

Legislative Merit Awards Go to Three NH Students

Three North High seniors were among 150 statewide recipients of Legislative Merit Awards for the academic year 1980-81.

Kenneth Deman, Robert McPherson and John Rosculet will each receive a $1,000 prize. Students were evaluated on academic excellence and performance on the American College Test (ACT).

The award may be used by the student to help finance the university of his or her choice. Rosculet expects to attend Wayne State University. Deman plans to go to the University of Michigan, and McPherson will attend Ferris State College.

Win Awards

Four North High juniors were awarded college summer scholarship awards to the Center for Creative Studies' summer school "pre-college" program.

Portfolios from 12 students were selected out of about 130 submitted in the competition. Among the 12 were those of juniors Kirsten Danna, Camille Ternec, Douglas Appleton and Steve Leslie.

April Home Sales Jump 50 Percent

April sales of homes by Grosse Pointe realtors were 50 percent higher than a year ago. The jump in dollar volume was revealed in figures recently released by the Grosse Pointe Real Estate Board.

The figure represents actual closings by the 18 Realtor Board members. Since April closing could represent home sales which took place as early as January 1980, they do not reflect the recent downturn in mortgage interest rates.

The drop in interest rates should boost home sales even further, according to local realtors, who are optimistic about the housing market.

"The strong sales figures for April 1980 again reflect the unique nature of our area. Volume in dollar amounts as well as unit sales underline the fact that demand remains strong," said Thomas Youngblood, secretary of the Grosse Pointe Real Estate Board.

"It is important to mention that many sales were consummated under creative financing techniques which are not as heavily applied during 'normal' market conditions.

"With the recent drop in mortgage rates, I believe we'll see an even stronger second half of 1980," Youngblood said.

In addition to the big jump in dollar sales volume in April the mean sale price of homes in the Pointe also showed substantial increase. The mean price in April 1979 was $82,613. In April 1980 it rose to $106,437, for a gain of 29 percent.

To Teach CPA Audit Review

John S. Skinner, CPA, of Grosse Pointe Farms, audit manager of Alexander Grant & Co., is on the faculty for the June 6 to 8 CPA Weekend, offered through the Division of Continuing Education, Oakland University, near Rochester.

Skinner will conduct "Compilation and Review," a course recommended for the audit and accounting requirement for CPA licensure, on Saturday, June 7.

University faculty and professionals, expert in their respective areas, will instruct a variety of topics for CPAs to earn their continuing professional educational (CPE) hours required for state licensure each year before July 1.

A difference between promise and performance is a politician.

AAA Predicts Memorial Day Tourism Increase

If Memorial Day weekend in Michigan reflects the six percent rise in tourism predicted for this summer, motorists in the state should log 673 million miles over the upcoming 78-hour holiday, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

"The all-out effort being mounted by the state tourist industry will hopefully spur a summer-long upturn from the five percent drop in tourism last summer," said Joseph Ratke, Auto Club touring manager.

"Last Memorial Day weekend, unfounded gas shortage fears and bad weather held travel to 635 million miles, the lowest total for that holiday since 1971," Ratke said. The all-time Memorial Day record of 720 million miles was set in 1978.

Auto Club travel statistics already point to a tourism upturn. This April, compared with the same period last year, requests for Michigan routings and Tourbooks rose 22 and 19 percent, respectively.

Fuel supplies should be adequate for all driving needs, the Auto Club stated. Its pre-holiday "fuel gauge" survey shows an average 80 percent of 300 stations checked along main tourist routes and an average 52 percent of 100 Detroit-area dealers surveyed plan to sell gas-line during daylight hours Memorial Day weekend. Nine percent of dealers along main travel routes and 33 percent of Detroit-area dealers checked were not certain of their holiday hours.

Because of the expected travel surge, Auto Club urges extra caution by drivers to help continue the trend towards reduced traffic deaths over the holiday. Last Memorial Day, 17 persons lost their lives in state traffic accidents, the fourth lowest total on record for that holiday, compared with 25 in 1978 and 31 in 1977.

Alcohol, driving close to home and not wearing seat belts were major factors in last year's deaths. Sixty-seven percent of the 15 at-fault drivers were known or suspected to have been drinking.

More than 88 percent of the fatal crashes were within 25 miles of the drivers' homes. Of the 11 persons killed who had safety belts available, none was known to have been wearing one.

This holiday, Auto Club's "Bring 'Em Back Alive!" Holiday News Service celebrates its 15th straight year of providing hourly traffic and tourism bulletins to 160 Michigan radio stations. The service, designed to aid motorists, will operate from 3 to 11 p.m. Friday (May 23) and from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. Saturday, Sunday and Monday (May 24 to 26).

Students Vie For SA Offices

By Lori White

The lunchroom posters and clever campaign slogans paid off for many of the 31 students seeking election to school offices at South High.

In the final running for Student Association President are Joe Magee and Gary Cornillie; vice-president, Bob Kitchen and Liz Maher; secretary, Julie Detloff and Lynn Ferriole, and treasurer, Cheryl Nelson and Lazar Raynal.

Next year's Senior Class looks strong with candidates Debbie Wade and Leigh Lechard running for president, Bill Waugaman and Kristin Ditmars for vice-president, Joe Ciमितaro and Larry Fromm for Treasurer, and Meg Mercier and Marcy Taylor for secretary.

The Junior Class next year will look to either Pat Boll or Diane Tanoose for leadership, as these two took the primary for president.

Running for vice-president are Kathleen Keith and Sean Welsh. Chris Boettcher and Dawn McCloud are in the running for treasurer, and Angie Jeffery and Diane Crea are battling for secretary for the class of 82.

Next year's Sophomore Class voted Michael Connell and Randy Ditmars the final candidates for president.

Other nominees are Lynn Pellerito and Hedi Staub for vice-president and Carolin Hoski and John LePlae for treasurer. An easy victory is in store for Kris Staub, who is running unopposed for secretary.

Final elections will take place on Thursday, May 29.

SH Students Win Trips

By Joe Srebernak
Hard work and hours of studying German and French paid off for South seniors Rick Schmidt and Tracy McCabe, as both won month-long trips to the land of their chosen language. Schmidt leaves for Germany on June 23 and McCabe will enjoy a similar month in France.

The trips were won as a result of tests sponsored by the American Association of Teachers of German and the local Alliance Francaise de Grosse Pointe. The tests were taken earlier in the year by Schmidt, McCabe and a number of other South students. Schmidt, a fourth year student, received a perfect score on the test. Also receiving a perfect score was Tom Petermann. Petermann, however, was ineligible for the trip because he spoke German before entering high school. Other high scorers in German were Yvonne West, whose 99 could have qualified her for the trip had she been an American citizen; Betsy Hirt, with a 98, Robert Wagner, with a 98, Charlie Willmoth, with a 93, and Emille Eitdegui, with a 94. Schmidt, Wagner and Van West were all invited to a special banquet in Ann Arbor during the first week of May.

In French, McCabe scored a perfect test which was followed by an oral interview in French. The final decision as to who won the trip was made by a committee of French teachers. Martha Hein was runner-up to McCabe. Tracy Turner, along with other high scorers, was entered in and won a trip.

Padlock Is Coming Off Old Park Controversy

By Joanne Gouleche
The padlock will be coming off the front door of 1094 Lakepointe soon and city administrators hope that when it does, the controversy that surrounded the tiny gray home a year ago will have disappeared.

What started out as a project to demonstrate to Grosse Pointe Park residents how to refurbish homes more than seven years ago, turned into a hot potato for the city last April when some residents saw the federally-funded project as a way to force low-income housing into Grosse Pointe Park. The home became the center of controversy during the Park's November council election.

Now a year later, the house still stands empty — but not for much longer. A U.S. Circuit Court decision handed down last month in a lawsuit filed by a local resident, orders the city to correct code violations on the stucco house and sell it through the Grosse Pointe Real Estate Board.

City Manager John Crawford says he expects to get bids on items like new stucco, a new roof, light fixtures and a new furnace within the next month. Expenditures like these and others are expected to climb to $25,000.

Despite the name "Demonstration House" Crawford said the project itself is dead. "There will be no tours, no before and after pictures."

The 60-year-old house has had an interesting and complicated history:

● July 1973 — A city planning study recommended a "Demonstration House" project to spur citizen interest in upgrading deteriorating homes in Grosse Pointe Park.

● December 1978 — City Manager John Crawford learned of a HUD-owned house at 1094 Lakepointe that could be used as the city's Demonstration House with a $50,000 Community Development Block Grant.

● February 1979 — The Council approved the purchase of the house from HUD for $1 to be used as the city's Demonstration House.

● June 1979 — The Council backed down on taking 2,000 pictures of the house to reveal before and after effects of renovation.

● September 1979 — Crawford informed the council that the Demonstration House project would be too costly to be continued and recommended that the city halt the project; The citizens advisory board also recommended the city drop the house project because interest in the city's residential low-interest loan program is high.

● October 1979 — Park resident Art Moran files suit against the city charging the Demonstration House did not appear on the market for 60 days according to HUD regulations; The Council officially kills the "Demonstration House" program because excessive bids to renovate and refurbish the house hit as high as $231,000.

● September 1979 — A U.S. District Court judge rules that the Park must correct code violations at 1094 Lakepointe and to list the house with a member broker of the Grosse Pointe Real Estate Board as a result of Moran's suit against the city.

Faces Autopsy Fraud Charge

A complaint filed last week with the state's Board of Medicine has charged Dr. Robert J. Sillery of the City with falsifying an autopsy report on a 17-year-old girl last year.

Sillery of Lakeland avenue is the medical examiner in Oakland County. State Atty. Gen. Frank J. Kelley charged Sillery with improperly examining the victim's heart according to standard post-mortem procedures. Sillery could not be reached for comment.

The medical examiner performed the autopsy after the girl's parents filed suit in Macomb Circuit Court against their daughter's physician for "improper care" of a broken leg. The suit also charged the pharmaceutical company that produced the pain killer Darvon prescribed for the girl's ailment.

After performing the autopsy on April 23, 1979, Sillery reported toxic levels of the drug in the body.

When the body was again ordered exhumed by the malpractice defendants, Wayne County medical examiner Werner Spitz found that the weights of the girl's lungs, liver, spleen, adrenal glands and kidneys had not been properly reported.

Depending on the Board's decision, Sillery could lose his license to practice.

The medical examiner faced medical fraud two years ago, but those charges were later dropped.

Liggett Wins French Awards

University Liggett Middle Schoolers Katherine Hein and Tessa Barroll have received national awards for their outstanding performance in level one of the National French Contest.

Eighth grader Hein placed fourth in the nation while her classmate Tessa Barroll earned seventh. Detroit area chairman Edward Higbie notified ULS French instructor Janet Harris last week about these honors. The National French Contest is sponsored annually by the American Association of Teachers of French.

Attorney Faces Drug Charges

A Grosse Pointe Park attorney stood mute at his arraignment in Park municipal court Tuesday on charges of possession and selling marijuana and cocaine.

A plea of not guilty was entered in for Daniel O'Grady, 32, of Devonshire Road, whose home was entered by Detroit police narcotics officers May 5. The officers later seized 100 pounds of marijuana and a small amount of cocaine.

O'Grady was released on a $20,000 personal bond and will face a May 29 preliminary exam on the charges.

CASA Honors Special People

By Laura Fulgenzi

Sr. Mary Louise Offholter, the principal of East Catholic High School, has been selected as Principal of the Year by the Catholic Association of Secondary Administrators.

Sister was honored at the CASA's first annual dinner dance on May 14, at Regina High School.

At the dinner, Sister received proclamations by the Michigan Senate and the office of the mayor of Detroit, recognizing her dedicated service in the interest of education, particularly in the inner city area. Bishop Krawczak, the Archbishop of Detroit, and the athletic board of the Archdiocesan School System also sent congratulatory letters.

In addition, 85 teachers and administrators of secondary schools who have served 25 or more years in the Catholic School System were presented with certificates of recognition.

Donald Sloan, Principal, and Sr. Joan Theresa McIntee of Our Lady Star of the Sea High School were among those honored.

Wilber H. Mack, of Country Club drive, President of the Detroit Grand Opera Association, local sponsor of the Metropolitan Opera Tours in Detroit, expressed the profound loss felt by the Association at Robinson's death.

"The death of Francis Robinson ends the glorious career of the man who for 31 years served as the spokesman and the Tour Director for the institution he loved and so proudly represented, The Metropolitan Opera.

"From the first time he brought his Metropolitan to Detroit some 21 years ago, he occupied a very special place in the hearts and affections of Detroit's opera going public," Mack said.

Mack continued, "We have lost a great and gentle friend. We called him the 'Voice of the Metropolitan' and this he truly was. The 'Voice' is still but this man is larger than life itself and will be so remembered."

There will be no public funeral for Mr. Robinson. A private burial service will be held at the family cemetery in Mt. Pleasant, Tennessee.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be sent to St. Thomas Choir School, 123 West 55th Street, New York City, Westminister Choir College, Princeton, New Jersey, or the Metropolitan Opera Association, Lincoln Center, New York.

Memorial services will be held at New York's St. Thomas Church on Tuesday, May 20 at 11 a.m., and on Tuesday, June 24 at 11 a.m.

Ford Named To County Port Panel

Henry Ford II, former chairman of the Ford Motor Company Board of Directors, is included among several appointments by the Wayne County Board of Commissioners to fill vacancies on various boards and commissions.

Ford was named to serve on the five-board Detroit-Wayne County Port Authority along with Woodrow W. Ferguson, President of Local 174 of the UAW. The appointments were on May 15 for three-year terms.

In a letter sent to Board Chairman Samuel A. Turner prior to the appointment, Ford said, "If appointed by the Board, I will serve to the best of my ability." The caliber of executives such as Ford on the Port Authority "should make an immense difference," Turner said after the appointment.

Unlike the present Detroit-Wayne County Port Commission which is entirely county-financed and staffed, the new Port Authority will be funded 50 percent by the State and 25 percent each by the City and County. Two members are to be appointed by the Board of Commissioners, two by Detroit Mayor Coleman A. Young, and one by Governor William G. Milliken.

As soon as the City appointments are made, the Port Authority will immediately replace the Port Commission, now consisting of only an office manager and secretary. In contrast, the Port Authority will be funded at $350,000 for the first year and is expected to eventually generate 5,000 new jobs.

Another difference is that the Port Authority is empowered to acquire property and rights of way, issue bonds and regulate waterways. Issuance of bonds would enable the Authority to finance development of port facilities which could be leased to private operators with their revenues paying off the bonds.

Among the other appointments was Livonia Mayor Edward H. McNamara named to the nine-member Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority where he has twice been elected chairman. The appointment is for three years.

Also, the commissioners unanimously chose Richard J. Plawewski to complete an unexpired term on the Board of Social Services ending October, 1981.

Retired Group Meets May 29

Grosse Pointe Chapter No. 2151 of AARP (American Association of Retired Persons) will meet on Thursday, May 29, at 12 noon in the War Memorial's Crystal Ballroom, 32 Lakeshore.

This is the special spring luncheon meeting and will take the place of the usual Monday meeting in May. Members will be entertained by the orchestra of the Grosse Pointe Senior Men's Club.

Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson are chairmen of the planning committee for the luncheon and working with them are Mr. and Mrs. Louis Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Kramer Foster, and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hutchinson, and Elizabeth Gruenfeldt.

Prime Time for senior citizens

By Marian Trainor

Following the activities of the Pointe's older citizens leads to only one conclusion.

They are indeed in the prime time of their lives.

With family grown and the work world behind, they are now free to enjoy doing the things they really want to do.

There is time for cards and dancing; picnics and parties; entertaining and visiting; working at hobbies and taking adult education courses to learn new skills. And with all this, there is still time for service to others.

This column in the coming weeks will report on the many activities of these busy and interesting people.

Typical of the many groups, who not only have fun but also serve the community are those senior citizens who volunteer at Bon Secours Hospital.

Mrs. Maureen Dufour, who heads the department of volunteer services, counts more than 400 on her list. Of this number more than 60 percent are in the older age group.

"Better workers could not be found," said Mrs. Dufour. "They are reliable, willing and compassionate. I am delighted to have them."

She is most enthusiastic about a group of between five and 13 women who gather every Thursday morning to make hand puppets for the Pediatrics Department.

Children may choose the character they love most from a group of favorites. There is a Miss Piggy, Raggedy Ann and Raggedy Andy, Winnie the Pooh, Piglet, a doctor puppet, a nurse puppet and many others. The toys are beautifully constructed. Best of all they become the children's own to play with while they are hospitalized and to take home when they leave.

Nurses in pediatrics say that children work through many frustrations as they play with these fascinating creations.

One of the ladies in the group, a former kindergarten teacher who asked to remain anonymous, is a story in herself.

She is 84 years old. Besides working a day a week on the puppets, she spends another day at the War Memorial, still another at Children's Hospital making favors for cottages and also donates a day to Cottage Hospital.

Frances McCarthy, another volunteer, and a former employee of the payroll department of a Federal government office, divides her time between the Health Science Library where she does typing and clerical work, and menu selection. She picks up menus from patients and often stops to help them make good choices.

"We are here to help," Mrs. McCarthy said, "but we also are helped. The people we come into contact with are great and everyone on the staff is so pleasant that it makes our work here a pleasure."

Men as well as women give their services.

Bill Croul, a retired vice-president of Detroit Bank & Trust and a present Chairman of the Board of Riverside Storage, works on the information desk where he answers phone inquiries about patients and issues passes to visitors.

Before he came to Bon Secours, Bill donated his time to driving elderly patients from Carmel Hall to doctor appointments, to shop or to outings.

"I enjoy doing volunteer work," Bill said. "I wish they could use me more often at Bon Secours because it's a great place to spend your time."

Husbands and wives join each other in giving service.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleon Althous are among those who deliver hot meals to the homebound. Mr. Althous drives and Mrs. Althous carries the meal into the home. He is a former Free Press Personnel Director. She is a registered nurse.

"Sometimes my wife has to help the person to eat," said Mr. Althous. "Some of them are blind. Some just can't feed themselves."

There are many stories to tell about these generous volunteers.

There is Miss Angie Conslato, meal-time companion at the hospital, who coaxes reluctant patients to eat.

"Sometimes a patient will ask me to eat the food for them so their report won't say that they have refused their food," Miss Conslato said, "but after I convince them that it just wouldn't help them for me to do that and after I really work with them, I usually get them to take some of the meal."

Miss Conslato is a bubbly lady who spreads cheer as well as good works. She formerly worked in the animal research department at Parke Davis where most of her experiments were with rabbits. She now collects rabbits, all kinds and shapes, but they are china ones.

Some others who are valued at the hospital for their services are Tom Trombly, a former Grosse Pointe Chief of Police who assists with the admitting and discharge of patients; Mrs. Mildred Koepin, a former visiting nurse who is Captain of the radiology program. She assists with x-rays.

They are all dedicated people and a joy to Mrs. Dufour. "I have never had to go outside the area to ask for volunteers," she proudly boasts. After meeting Mrs. Dufour, it is not difficult to see why. She is a gracious, persuasive lady. And she has even convinced her husband of the worthiness of her projects.

Mr. George Dufour, a retired District Manager for the Metropolitan Insurance Company delivers hot meals to the homebound.

Scouts Will Open Freedom Festival

Nearly 2,000 Canadian and American Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and Girl Guides will link hands on the Ambassador Bridge next month in a dramatic gesture of international friendship. The Salute to Friendship scheduled for Friday June 27, at 10:00 a.m., will open the 1980 International Freedom Festival, the largest and oldest international festival in North America.

Mayors Coleman Young and Albert Weeks will officiate at the ceremony.

Canadian and American scouting officials, in announcing the Salute to Friendship, said:

"We want to capture in a dramatic way the spirit of appreciation and friendship between our two great countries. We have shared a common border in peace for more than 138 years. This historic friendship, warmed by the recent act of courage by Canada in freeing Americans in Iran, deserves honoring this year more than ever."

George A. Ferris, a Ford Motor Company vice president and chairman of the Detroit International Freedom Festival Committee, said, "We in America can think of no better way to say, 'Thank You, Canada'."

Bob Pedler, President of the Windsor International Freedom Festival Committee, said that "The world should be here in June to see the meaning of true friendship between our two great countries and that, in truth, there is no real boundary keeping friends apart."

Ferris described the event as the first of its kind in North America. "After the Scouts and Guides have formed on the Bridge, Detroit Mayor Coleman Young and Windsor Mayor Albert Weeks will preside at a brief opening ceremony, followed by the national anthems of Canada and the United States.

"Following the linking of hands, each Scout and Guide will raise, in sequence, a banner, starting at the Canadian side of the Bridge," he said. "This 'ripple of friendship' will continue to the American side of the Bridge and then return, giving evidence of our historic international relationship."

As the ceremony of the Ambassador Bridge concludes, the focus of attention will turn toward Windsor's Dieppe Gardens where the official Freedom Festival flags will be unfurled. The Freedom Festival torch lit, and 5,000 balloons released. As the balloons drift skyward, a group of skydivers will appear, free-falling in a circle formation before separating and parachuting into Dieppe Gardens, bearing flags of the United States and Canada.

In general, those participating in the Salute to Friendship ceremony will be donating their time and services. Ford and Ford Motor Company of Canada are donating executive talent and automotive equipment; G and D Communications, Inc., Farmington Hills, Michigan is volunteering logistics planning for the event; The Detroit and Windsor Scout and Guide Councils are providing volunteers, scouts and scout parents, and the Detroit-International Bridge Company, for the first time since its dedication, is making available the Ambassador Bridge for the ceremony.

Windsor Raceway Holdings Ltd. is volunteering its parking lot and grandstand for participants, and, in cooperation with Coca-Cola Ltd. of Windsor, is providing free refreshments to participants. The Michigan Army National Guard (First Battalion, 182nd Field Artillery) is providing a 103mm Howitzer for the ceremony.

Bikers Join Reyes Ride-A-Thon

Grosse Pointe's most energetic bikers will line up to "ride for Reyes" Saturday, May 31, at three local schools.

The event, a bike-a-thon sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Jaycees, will help raise research funds for the fight against Reyes Syndrome at Children's Hospital.

Reyes claimed the lives of more than a dozen Michigan children last year and has become the second largest viral killer of children in the country. Children's Hospital is one of the few research centers in the U.S. dedicated to research of the illness.

Participants in the bike-a-thon will obtain pledges for a specified number of dollars or cents per kilometer ridden. The pledges are tax deductible. Sponsor sheets will be available at Grosse Pointe schools and several local businesses, or by calling Chairman Tom Fitzgibbon at 881-1421 or 887-1965.

The course will travel from North High School on Vernier road in the Woods, to Defer elementary on Kercheval in the Park. A check point offering refreshments will be at Brownell on Chalfonte in the Farms. Riders may travel a variety of distances from check point to check point as long as they stay on the designated route.

Two new Schwinn bicycles will be awarded to riders, one for children 12 years and older and one for the under 11 set. Gift certificates for bicycle accessories will be awarded to riders 11 and under who turn in at least $10 and to riders 12 and over who turn in at least $20 in pledges. The Jaycees will promote bicycle safety as part of the event. Police departments in the Pointe are being notified of the event and will help provide safety for the riders. Medical personnel will be on location to provide medical assistance and special vehicles will drive the route to make bicycle repairs. If it rains May 31 the event will be held the following day, Sunday June 1. People interested in working on the fund-raiser should call Rob Crandall at 885-3780.

How to Have A Summer Boating Accident

What are your plans for this summer? A little sunbathing, traveling, camping? How about a nice boating accident?

It's easy to become one of the annual 1,500 known fatalities from boating accidents. Here's a list from the American Red Cross of ten sure-fire steps to follow should you desire to have your very own accident on the waterways this summer:

- Don't bother with life preservers. They don't look very glamorous.
- Take along all the passengers that want to go. So what if the boat is a little crowded.
- Drive your boat as fast as possible. It's no fun to just poke along. Let's see what she'll really do!
- Encourage your passengers to stand up, stretch their legs, and get a better view.
- Enjoy a cigarette while you're refueling.
- Extra gear like an anchor, oars, boathooks, lines, fire extinguisher, tool and first aid kits just clutter up the boat. Leave them at home.
- Don't bother to check the weather forecasts. Anybody can see whether the sky is blue and it looks like a good day.
- If you are boating at night, don't worry about lights. There might be a full moon.
- Don't worry about learning the rules of the waterways. The other boats will get out of the way, or else you can move to one side or the other.
- Don't learn to swim and don't worry about first aid training. After all, you aren't getting wet and what possible use would you have for artificial respiration?
- There you have it, ten easy ways to have a tragedy. If you'd rather avoid a boating accident, call the Southeastern Michigan chapter of the Red Cross at 833-4440, for information and schedules for courses in swimming, water safety and small craft operation.
- The Red Cross urges all operators of small craft to take a Red Cross course in safe boating and to learn the boat. Leave them at home and obey the rules of the waterways.

Know Your Schools

By Dr. William Coats, Superintendent of Schools

Thus far in this series of columns about the education of gifted and talented children I have presented some definitions of giftedness and given an overview of gifted education—past, present and future.

Continuing with the series, this column presents a brief consideration of what schools specifically are doing for gifted students.

A study of history confirms that schools haven't been adequately prepared in the past to teach the gifted child. To cite a few examples, Gregor Mendel, upon whose work the science of genetics is based, failed his teacher's examination four times and gave up trying to pass it. Isaac Newton dropped out of grammar school at age 14. Winston Churchill finished last in his class at Harrow, and poets Shelley, Whistler, and Poe were all expelled from their schools.

Although it may be true that for every gifted person who did poorly in school, others did well, just the sampling of "gifted misfits" listed above indicates that traditional academic programs and teaching techniques are sometimes poorly suited to persons with extraordinary potential.

How many Churchills, Newtons and Whistlers failed to survive the education disasters they encountered?

Commenting on the problem of dealing with the gifted, the 1968 White House Task Force Study of the Gifted Child wrote, "We would even go so far as to say that, to a very considerable extent, those individuals who constitute the 'creative minority' in our society... have achieved their eminence in spite of, rather than because of, our school system."

Obviously, gifted and talented children need educational assistance, but what can schools really do to help them?

By-Passers Plan Meeting

Saint John Hospital's Second Chance Heartline Unit, Inc., an organization of cardiac by-pass patients and their spouses, invite other cardiac patients to attend their next meeting in the Hospital's Peter A. Whyte Memorial Auditorium, 22101 Moross road, Detroit, at 8 p.m., on Tuesday, June 3.

Guest speaker will be Steve Spilos, journalist, author, lecturer and historical consultant. He will present a light-hearted travelogue entitled, "Trail of The Greek Monasteries, Churches and Shrines."

Cottage Names vanDeventer

Cottage Hospital has named Frank vanDeventer, M.D. as chief of psychiatry. Dr. vanDeventer has been a member of the active medical staff since 1978. He has been associated with Cottage since 1969.

Drop in Sheep

In the 17 Western states, sheep production declined from 21.5 million animals in 1960 to 8.7 million in 1978. Inability to control coyotes and other predators is believed to be a major cause of waning interest in sheep raising.

answer to that question lies in the realization that there are differences in both degrees and types of giftedness.

Some advanced learners are capable of doing complex mathematical computations at an early age while others may be capable of original thought in the subject. And a child with advanced ability in mathematics has different needs from the child whose giftedness is in dance or art. Thus, the type of instruction that's offered is most important.

Programming for students with high IQ's and achievement in many areas often takes the form of advanced placement courses, accelerated curricula, enrichment courses, and independent study.

On the other hand, children with creative ability benefit from classrooms that are the least restrictive and which provide opportunities for students to explore, ask questions, experiment, express themselves and react to and use a variety of stimuli and materials.

Many schools are starting to build on their basic courses in art and music and offer special instruction in dance, theater, vocal and instrumental music, and the visual arts to accommodate children talented in these areas. And new programs are being developed for those who are gifted in leadership skills so that those who don't become class officers or team captains have productive leadership opportunities and don't become gang leaders or guide other students into trouble.

These are but a few examples of methods and programs which schools are currently using or developing to instruct gifted and talented children. Much more work needs to be done in this area because gifted and talented children represent a most valuable yet often neglected resource.

The task is not easy as there are many difficulties in working with the gifted, some of which will be discussed in the next column.

Winnie the Pooh Auditions Open

Auditions for "Winnie the Pooh," the leadoff play in the Punch and Judy's Summer Family Theatre Series will begin this week.

Directed by Sally Reynolds, who also directs the Children's Theatre at the War Memorial, the play will be open to children as well as adults. Audition dates are May 22 and 23 at 4 p.m. and May 24 at 11 a.m. Production staff positions are open as well.

"This is an opportunity for the novice or serious artist to work in a professional environment, with a real stage under the guidance of a qualified professional," says manager Tom Shaker.

"Winnie" will play in late June and early July and will be followed by productions of "Once Upon a Mattress," "You're a Good Man Charlie Brown" and "Wind in the Willows."

In addition to the musicals, Shaker has a number of other projects going geared toward revitalizing community interest in the Punch.

The recent organ recital sponsored by the Motor City Organ Society was a big success, reports Shaker. More than 150 organ enthusiasts showed up for the free event.

Well-known organist Lionel LeMay entertained the crowd with selections from "Sound of Music," "The Stripper," and "Stars and Stripes Forever," and said he was enthused with the recital as well.

"I was not aware that the Punch and Judy possessed such a fine instrument," he said. "This Wurlitzer is in really great shape and I feel honored that the Motor City Organ Society asked me to perform the concert with it." Shaker added, "This is the type of entertainment we want to bring the Grosse Pointe community. I'm very pleased that people of all ages came. It proves that the Punch can and will be a focal point for this area."

In addition, acting classes under the direction of Pamela Hall are going strong. Shaker says 17 full-time students have signed on for the sessions each Saturday, which include work in cold-reading, improvisation and scene work.

Plans are also on tap for a class in dance with choreographer Barbara Early and sight reading and advanced piano classes under Marty Mendalbaum.

ULS Students In Symposium

University Liggett School biology instructor Lestina Colby and students Jennifer Haws and Mary Warren were recently awarded certificates of achievement for their participation in the 16th annual Southeastern Michigan Junior Science and Humanities Symposium.

Colby, Haws and Warren were involved in two days of addresses by outstanding scientists and humanists, seminars, panel discussions and student research papers. The Symposium held in Detroit on February 29 and March 1 was sponsored by Wayne State University in cooperation with the Academy of Applied Science.

Brightening Up the Parkway

A number of active Woods citizens including (from left to right) TED BERGMAN, ELIZABETH HUGHES, JEAN RICE, Woods Mayor GEORGE FREEMAN, and MARGARET CARLSON, recently gathered at Veteran's Memorial Parkway (on Mack) to inspect the fruits of their labor—more than 100 flowering trees planted by the city's Beautification Advisory Commission in tribute to war veterans.

The group added 46 new crabapple trees to the landscape this spring. The trees were purchased with over $7,500 contributed by civic groups, private citizens and a $16,000 grant from the Woods city council. More plans are in the making for the east end of the parkway. Those who wish to contribute should mail checks to the Parkway, care of the City of Grosse Pointe Woods, 20025 Mack, 48236.

What Goes On at Your Library

By William T. Peters, Director of Public Libraries

"Summer is icumen in" as the Scottish bard, Anonymous said, and with it comes, at least in Grosse Pointe, myriads of colorful flyers from the Children's Department of the Grosse Pointe Public Library announcing the Summer Reading Club.

Each summer the children's librarians make a pilgrimage to the local schools to encourage the children to READ during the summer months. To that end, a Summer Reading Club is formed each June and the children are encouraged to register for it. At the time of registration, each child is given a book mark geared to his or her grade level. The book lists are merely suggestions.

The children may read anything they would like, as long as they read at their own reading level and make their selections from the collection at the library. There is no contest involved.

The club wants the children to read for fun and their own satisfaction and feelings of personal achievement. Most important, it has been proven that children who read during the summer will return to school better prepared to face new challenges.

Some excellent books have been chosen for this summer's reading.

From the fifth grade list, SILAS AND BEN GODIK by Cecil Bodker tells of the adventures and hardships of two runaways who travel the countryside with a beautiful black mare and an unusual pony named Shags. Shags is so clearly drawn that he becomes to the reader one of the most alive animals in fiction.

Beverly Cleary has done it again with RAMONA AND HER FATHER. This time Ramona is in second grade. Her father loses his job and Ramona launches into a plan to help improve family finances as well as discourage her father from smoking—both rather timely topics in these trying times—a perfect story for fourth graders.

And, for the third grade there is Helen Oxenbury's THE QUEEN AND ROSIE RANDALL in which a little girl acts as the queen's social advisor and joint hostess at a royal tea party.

EACH PEACH PEAR PLUM by Janet Ahlberg invites the readers to play "I Spy" with Mother Goose characters. A joy to read to little ones and within the grasp of first graders to read to themselves.

The following two books should find favor with the fourth grade set. DRACULA GO HOME by Kin Platt should help fill the gap for our avid monster story enthusiasts. Larry Carter is sure that a guest in his aunt's summer hotel is Dracula.

KITTY IN THE MIDDLE by Judy Delton is a delightful story of three fourth graders in the early 1940's. It is made up of a series of amusing incidents including exploring a mysterious old house, attending a wedding as invited guests and being included in the wedding pictures.

And for our older readers (grades six, seven, eight), there is MOTHER JONES, THE MOST FAMOUS WOMAN IN AMERICA by Linda Atkinson. It is a fascinating biography of Mary Harris Jones, an Irish immigrant, who becomes involved in the labor movement after her husband's death. She went to coal fields, logging camps, factories, and train yards at a time in history when women did not even appear alone in the streets.

For their efforts, children reading ten books are given certificates of achievement. If more than 10 books are read, the certificates are decorated with ribbons and stars. Many of the children are so ambitious that their certificates are literally covered with stars at the end of the summer.

In mid August as a finale, there will be a party at each library. There will be games, balloons, lollipops, and entertainment. The entertainment this year will be quite special. Children from the community will present a puppet show at each of the libraries. These children will have attended a summer puppet workshop under the direction of Marjorie Brown and sponsored by the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Library.

Abduction Is False Alarm

An alleged abduction of a 13-year-old Farm girl turned out to be not a kidnapping, but a runaway attempt, last week.

The girl's mother called police on May 9 saying she had received information her daughter had been abducted by two boys in a brown Dodge Duster.

As police later learned, the girl had paid a Detroit youth $100 to help her and a 14-year-old Detroit boy to run away. The older boy had accepted the money and driven the pair to the Oakland Mall in Troy.

Police recovered the girl after she returned to the home of her 14-year-old friend in search of food. According to Farms detective Samuel Cardella, a good deal of manpower was used in the search.

No silver has been used in the minting of American coins since 1977. Dollar coins minted before 1936 contained the most silver.

"I can't find my edge." Well . . . that's a problem for me, too, and had Richard Etches begun his talk before I'd become fascinated by Elizabeth Culpepper, (1634, Ardingly, Sussex), I'd never have chosen her.

Or perhaps I would have, anyway. The fact is: I just plain liked Elizabeth the minute I saw her. She was supposed to be a child—she'd died back in the 1600's at the age of seven—but she had that spooky "short adult" look that I find intriguing.

You know the look. You've seen it in paintings in museums. Apparently, it took artists years to discover that children and adults come from different countries, that a child is a different being.

So here was Elizabeth, in an intricate, ornate gown no child of today would tolerate, her young-old face staring up at me—and I liked her. So what if she was slightly recessed?

I liked her better than the Daughters of Oliver St. John, (1503, Stoke Rochford, Lincolnshire), or Sir George Speke (1528, Dowlsh Wake, Somerset). Since I could choose which brass to rub, so long as no one else had chosen it first, she was my choice.

Unfortunately, she did not have a well-defined edge. And as Mr. Etches, of the London Brass Rubbing Centre, warned all of us, gathered in Miller Hall behind Christ Church for the mid-day brass rubbing session last Thursday, raised edges ARE easier.

Brass Rubbing Day in Miller Hall was a bene-

Hilberry Evening For Understudies

Actresses in Elizabethan Costume Serve Wine and Cheese, Pastries and Coffee Before Play and During Intermission

The Understudies women's committee devoted to the support of the Hilberry Theatre graduate repertory company at Wayne State University entertained 300 guests at an Evening of Theatre earlier this month.

Featured was a performance of Hilberry's newest production, the 18th century comedy "Wild Oats," by the graduate company which had just returned from a triumphant engagement at the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C., as part of the invitational American College Theatre Festival.

Hilberry's "Philadelphia, Here I Come!" was one of eight college productions chosen from over 400 entries to be staged during the festival.

Mrs. Irving Dworkin, who recently accepted The Understudies presidential gavel from Mrs. Wilber M. Brucker, Jr., of Merriweather road, welcomed the guests during intermission and presented a framed citation to Mark Tymchysyn, a member of the acting company, who won the festival's top Irene Ryan Scholarship Award.

WSU President Thomas N. Bonner spoke on the proposed Globe Theatre reconstruction Wayne State and the City of Detroit are planning for a Detroit River site.

A model of the Globe was displayed in the Hilberry foyer, decorated with ficus trees and azaleas. An arrangement of tulips, lilies and chrysanthemums centered the buffet table.

Actresses in Elizabethan costume assisted with the serving of light snacks, wine and cheese, pastries and coffee, both before the play and during intermission.

Honorary chairmen of the evening were Doris Brucker, fellow Pointer Mrs. Joseph A. Vance, Jr., and Mrs. Stanley Winkelman, all past-presidents of The Understudies.

Chairmen were Mrs. Wilber Hadley Mark, of Country Club drive, and Mrs. M. Morton Barak.

Pointers among Understudies and their husbands enjoying the evening included Mr. and Mrs. Bogdan Baynert, Mrs. Armand DeGaetano, Dr. and Mrs. C. Jackson France, Mr. and Mrs. William Genematas, Carl W. Lohmann, Mr. and Mrs. A. David Mikesell, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Edward St. C. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Tutag and Justice and Mrs. G. Mennen Williams.

Qualifying for the Midwest Invitational Championships in swimming at Illinois State University was MIKE BERNARD, son of MR. and MRS. WALTER V. BERNARD JR., of Hamilton court. Mike is a sophomore at Notre Dame University.

DiPietro-Engstrom Vows Are Spoken

Evening Ceremony Is Followed by Reception at Detroit Boat Club; Pair Vacationing in Florida and Bahamas

Saint James Lutheran Church was the setting Saturday, May 17, for the evening wedding of Marjorie May Engstrom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Engstrom, of Three Mile drive, and Emilio John DiPietro.

Pastor George Kurz presided at the 6:30 o'clock ceremony which was followed by a reception at the Detroit Boat Club.

The newlyweds, both Ohio State University alumni, are vacationing in Naples, Fla., and The Bahamas. They will make their home in Columbus, O.

Alencon lace and seed pearl embroidery accented the organza bodice and bishop sleeves of the gown the former Miss Engstrom selected for her marriage. It featured a lace-bordered, pleated skirt and chapel train.

She wore a matching picture hat and carried a bouquet of ivory and yellow roses.

Wendy Lee Engstrom and Mrs. Edward Welsh were their sister's honor attendants. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Edward (Dr. Brenda) Adamovich, Mrs. Joseph Bellino and Mrs. Robert Ott, the bridegroom's sister.

The layered skirts of their white chiffon dresses ended in handkerchief points, and the colors in their bouquets were picked up in ribbons of yellow and lilac encircling their waists.

Mr. DiPietro, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emilio B. DiPietro, of Columbus, asked Joseph Dinunzio to act as his best man. Guests were seated by Paul Cercone, the bridegroom's cousin, Roger Smith, the bride's cousin, Mr. Ott and Les Viragh.

DSO Launches Fund Drive

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra has launched its 1980 fund drive to raise the record $1.8 million it says is needed to maintain the orchestra's "world class reputation."

William C. Ferguson, Michigan Bell Telephone Company executive vice president, is drive chairman. He says the 1980 campaign goal is 20 percent, or $300,000, higher than that of the previous year.

"It simply will take more community financial support," Ferguson says, "to sustain and enhance the orchestra's excellence."

Characterizing the DSO as one of the best in the world, he notes that it received rave reviews during its recent European tour and has drawn record crowds and critical acclaim for its April International Brahms Festival.

"It's important that we keep this momentum going," he stresses. "More than half of the symphony's budget depends on contributions and supplemental income."

"If ticket prices were raised to cover full costs, a lot of people couldn't afford to attend the performances." Volunteer fund raisers will be contacting businesses, foundations and individuals throughout the state during the drive, which runs through September; Ferguson observes that outstate support of the symphony is important because the orchestra has brought "international recognition not only to Detroit but to the entire state of Michigan."

The symphony performed nearly 200 concerts across the state last year. It reached an audience of more than 500,000 people, in addition to its European tour.

In an attempt to broaden the symphony's base of support, this year's campaign will approach more small businesses, large corporations and individual donors than ever before. Some 4,000 key businesses and 20,000 individuals will be contacted personally or by mail.

"Admittedly, the economic crunch we're in will not make the job easy," Ferguson says. "It's going to take a lot of effort."

"But I'm confident that Detroiters and music lovers throughout the state will respond favorably to our efforts and help support the Detroit Symphony."

Heading major divisions for this year's drive are Detroit Symphony Orchestra Development committee chairman Dean E. Richardson, chairman of the board, Manufacturers National Bank, Gordon T. Ford, Donald Mandich, president, Detroit Bank and Trust, and Jonathan T. Walton, executive vice president, National Bank of Detroit.

Chairmen for the various campaign categories are: James A. Aliber, chief executive officer, First Federal Savings of Detroit; James A. Capolongo, vice president, Ford Motor Company; Richard Cordtz, vice president, Service Employees International Union, AFL-CIO; Alexander A. Cunningham, vice president and group executive, General Motors Corporation; Walter J. McCarthy, president, Detroit Edison Company; Everett M. Scranton, assistant treasurer, Chrysler Corporation; and Richard Teague, vice president-design, American Motors Corporation.

Pointers Cited By Red Cross

A pair of Pointers, Charlotte Peabody and Duane E. Johnson, are among 41 American Red Cross volunteers and staff recently honored for 25 or more years of service to the organization. Charlotte, a volunteer in the Blood Services program, was recognized for 35 years of service. Johnson, executive director of the Southeastern Michigan Red Cross Chapter since 1974, for 25 years.

He began his service as a Junior Red Cross volunteer in 1935, and has since served as a Blood Services and disaster volunteer.

The pair were honored during the Southeastern Michigan Chapter's annual ceremony for the central Wayne County region early this month.

MAHA Holds Annual Meeting in Mid-May

Members of the Southeast District of the Michigan Association of Hospital Auxiliaries gathered Tuesday, May 20, at the Wayne County Medical Society for their annual meeting.

The noon luncheon, featuring a talk by psychiatrist Dr. Elliott D. Luby on Substance Abuse in Today's Woman, was followed by a business meeting and election and installation of officers for the coming year.

FORSTER'S OFFERS THESE TIPS ON WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN FURNITURE SHOPPING....

Upholstered furniture is more difficult to choose because you can't see inside. But, you can sit on it. Test its comfort. Remove the cushions and see if the fabric underneath is color coordinated. Press down on the sofa or chair arm to check if the padding is firm, without lumps. If the piece is trimmed with welting, make certain it is firmly attached. Decorative buttons for tufting should be firmly sewn on. Check for exposed nails, loose threading... all indicating poor workmanship and quality.

Your hands and eyes are the best ways to determine the quality of wood furniture. Run your hands over the surface to check for satiny smoothness. Check to make certain tables and chairs are solidly built and do not 'rock'. Doors and drawers should open and move in and out easily. The inside of doors and drawers should be carefully sanded and finished. The hardware should be firmly attached and easy to grip. Also, look for these extras: lined drawers and lights in china cabinets to highlight your possessions.

When you visit Forster's Interiors, we'll proudly point out to you the quality features that set Drexel-Heritage apart from all the rest.

Ellen Heller Is Honored for Having Reached 6,000-Hour Service Plateau; South High Chorale Entertains

CKLW's Dick Purtan presided at the 30th annual Volunteer Appreciation Day last Sunday, May 18, at Children's Hospital of Michigan, where 300 volunteers were honored for the almost 48,000 hours of service they have given to Children's during the past year.

Purtan, a new member of the hospital's board of trustees, presented awards to 13 men and women who accumulated the most hours during the year, and citations to six more for extraordinary service.

Among the top 13 are four Pointers: Trudee Munro, Adele Segerlund, Clara Millar and Elizabeth Vineyard.

Special honors for reaching the 6,000-hour plateau of service went to another Pointer, Ellen Heller, who has been a volunteer at Children's since 1964, assisting parents in the Surgical Waiting Lounge.

Other Pointe volunteer honorees included Edward Segerlund, Anna Piotrowski, Mary Cohen, Barbara Ash, Janice Ford, Kay Lenz, Diana McMahon, Nora Maroun, Carolyn Rehbein, Jeanne Sylvester and Linda Watts.

Late November wedding plans are being made by MARTHA STEWART FRUEHAUF and Richard Michael Ryan whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Charles Fruehauf, Jr., of Ridge road.

Miss Fruehauf, a University Liggett School alumna, received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Sweet Briar College this year.

Mr. Ryan, son of Mrs. C. M. Ryan, of Columbus, O., and the late Mr. Ryan, holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from Ohio University and a Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Georgia. He is president of Shore Enterprises, Inc., Hilton Head Island, S.C.

Theme of the program was "The World Around Us," and an update on the Detroit Medical Center complex, of which Children's Hospital is part, was given by Dr. Jaek Hertzler, Children's Chief of Surgical Services.

Entertainment featured the Grosse Pointe South High School Chorale under Charles Gleason's direction.

Tours of the Medical Center and a tea in the lobby of the Health Care Institute concluded the day.

In total, the 28 auxiliary honorees have given over 600 years of service to Hutzel. The 65 employes have amassed a collective 800 years of service; their list is headed by Prevela Hawkins, of Detroit, who has been at Hutzel since March, 1950.

Mrs. Hawkins, a nurse aide on the hospital's obstetrical service, joined a select group of 10 other employes with over 30 years' service, individually, at Hutzel, which employs over 1,800 people to staff its 419-bed facility in the Detroit Medical Center.

Hutzel is a full service general medical and surgical hospital which has been serving the health care needs of the metropolitan community for over 111 years.

fit for the National Cathedral Association. There were four "sittings," starting at 10 in the morning and running through early evening. I chose the mid-day one, figuring I could rub on my lunch hour; actually, the "sitting" took about an hour-and-a-half, but since the lovely ladies who arranged the benefit also provided coffee and cookies, I certainly didn't miss lunch.

To do a brass rubbing, I was prepared to miss lunch. This was something I'd always wanted to do, ever since, as a teenage tourist on a first trip to Europe, I'd stepped around a "rubber" at work on his knees in a dim cathedral.

His rubbing was almost done: three-quarters of a Medieval knight stared up at me. And I thought, as I watched the rubber push his wax back and forth on the paper, watched the rest of the knight emerge, "That's something I'd like to do."

I also thought, as I do whenever I watch somebody working at any art or craft, "but I probably could never do it, because I probably could never learn how." The craft of art intimidates me. No matter that Michelangelo couldn't draw a straight line either; he did magnificent curves.

But Brass Rubbing Day at Miller Hall was billed as "something anybody could do." I liked that. I figured if anybody could do it, I had half a chance of success. I'd tried those "anybody can do it" things before, and 50 percent of the time it had turned out to be anybody but me.

Well: would the National Cathedral Association lie? Brass rubbing IS something anybody can do, and it is great fun, and I had a ball at Miller Hall last Thursday.

Mr. Etches brought over 100 knights, lords and ladies, facsimile old English church brasses, to Grosse Pointe, along with the proper paper, (black or white), waxes and erasers.

Before we began, he gave a short talk on the history of the brasses he brought. They were wall plaques rather than floor pieces: portraits of Crusading Knights who wanted to be remembered while they were away in the Holy Land, upper middle class individual and group figures.

They were a "short" fashion, in vogue from approximately 1280 to the mid-1600's. (This is an Englishman talking, remember. What's 350 years or so?)

Many of the portraits incorporate animal figures, and these animals are symbols. The dog represents faithfulness, for instance, the lion bravery in battle.

Then it was rubbing time and, after warning those of us who'd selected figures without well-defined edges that we might want to reconsider our choices, Mr. Etches handed out paper and waxes, and the rubbing began.

And rubbing, basically, is all there is to it... and under your hands, the figure of Sir Henry Stafford, or Elizabeth Bellingham, or Lady Joan Drury comes up on the paper.

My wax slipped a bit, because Elizabeth Culpepper's figure was slightly recessed, but an eraser took care of the mistakes. (Yes, Virginia: you CAN erase—this is definitely my kind of craft!)

The raised-edge rubbers had an easier time of it, and Elizabeth wasn't really that difficult. She came out rather well, if I do say so myself: a bit blurry at the bottom of the skirt, but that's only if you look closely—and I'm hanging her high, so you can't.

My next rubbing will be better. By the time I'm ready to work on site in a dim European cathedral, I'll be a pro.

Offer Women Credit Advice

The League of Women Voters of Detroit is presenting a day-long workshop, Women and Mortgage Credit, Saturday, May 31, from 9 in the morning to 2:30 in the afternoon at Wayne Community College's Downtown Center in West Fort street, Detroit.

The intent of the program, one of several grassroots educational projects promoted by the Detroit League and financed through the League of Women Voters Education Fund under a grant from the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, is to make women more fully aware of their credit rights by learning the facts of fair housing laws, mortgage requirements and other types of credit available.

The workshop is free and open to all women who can attend. Reservations may be made by calling the office of the Detroit LWV, 962-0580. Participants are advised to bring brown bag lunches.

Bride-Elect

The engagement of RUTH ANN DAVEY and Frank Moore Fitzgerald has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Edmund Davey, of Allard road. The wedding is planned for next April.

The bride-elect was graduated from Grosse Pointe North High School and holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in History from Michigan State University.

Her fiancé, son of Justice and Mrs. John W. Fitzgerald, of Grand Lodge, is an alumnus of Grand Ledge High School, received his Bachelor of Arts degree from the College of William and Mary last year and is now attending Lansing's Thomas M. Cooley Law School.

Hold Children's Home Birthday

The Children's Home of Detroit, founded in 1836 in downtown Detroit, located in Cook road in Grosse Pointe Woods since 1950, celebrated its 144th year of service to troubled boys and girls last Tuesday, May 20.

The birthday party began with an art and cake decorating contest. This was followed by a balloon launching ceremony: each balloon carried a friendly message from the children, requesting finders to mail the attached postcards back to the home to determine if 1979's distance record—last year, the highest flying balloon traveled 450 miles, to Lima, N.Y.—can be broken.

A cook-out dinner concluded the festivities.

Her committee members include Sandy Caputo, celebrity chairman, and Judyvave Hildebrand, Orle Jach, Arthur Jennings, Ermagene Mc-

Swain and Betsy Warras. The benefit is open to the public. Tickets at $25 per person, including parking, can be purchased at the door or by calling the Camp Fire office, 833-2670.

Handicapped Can See Met

Thanks to special efforts of volunteer members of the Metropolitan Opera Touring Company and Friends For Orchestra Hall, nearly 1,000 handicapped individuals from the tri-county area will again have an opportunity to sample the flavor and fare of the nation's leading opera company during its annual visit to Detroit.

Volunteer members of the Met will stage a special presentation, with performances by vocalists, musicians, and dancers, at Orchestra Hall next Tuesday, May 27, at 10:30 in the morning for handicapped youngsters and adults.

This is the third consecutive year that the Friends group, working with John Grandy of the Metropolitan Opera Company and John McLaughlin of the Detroit Department of Recreation, has been able to offer such a program to the community.

Although it is the 19th year that individuals from the Met have volunteered their talents and services to the handicapped, the audience had been severely limited by seating capacity prior to the Friends commitment to provide Orchestra Hall free of charge for the project.

The main floor of Orchestra Hall will be used for Tuesday morning's performance. The hall is currently engaged in balcony renovation through its Adopt-A-Seat program, and plans to have another 1,200 seats available through $100 contributions matched by the State of Michigan History Division on a 1:2 basis by the opening of the new season in September.

Handicapped groups interested in attending this special performance should call the Detroit Department of Recreation, 224-6878, for reservations.

CITY OF Grosse Pointe Woods Michigan

NOTICE OF BOARD OF APPEAL HEARING

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the City Council, meeting as a Board of Appeals under the provisions of Section 5-11-5 of the 1975 City Code of Grosse Pointe Woods, will meet in the Council-Court Room of the Municipal Building, 20025 Mack Avenue, Grosse Pointe Woods, on MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 2, 1980, at 7:30 p.m. to hear the appeal of Mr. and Mrs. Roman Kozlowski, 970 North Oxford, Grosse Pointe Woods, who are appealing the denial of the Building Inspector to issue a building permit for a proposed addition to their home located at 970 North Oxford (also known as the east 50 feet of Lot 64 and the west 20 feet of Lot 65, Arthur Scully Eastmoreland Subdivision).

A building permit was denied because Section 5-4-2(f) of the 1975 City Code requires a side yard setback of eight feet for a home in an R-1B single-family residential district. The proposed addition would extend 2.8 feet into the side yard setback. Such addition, as proposed, cannot be built on said lot unless a variance is granted. This will be a public hearing and all interested parties are invited to attend.

Michiganians don't need to travel far this summer to enjoy first-rate theatrical performances, reports the Automobile Club of Michigan.

They can choose from numerous musicals, comedies, dramas and children's plays in such diverse settings as renovated barns, university playhouses, a showboat, a historical opera house or an open-air courtyard.

Here are details on 30 popular summer theaters in Michigan listed alphabetically by city:

Woman in Pants Sarah Bernhardt, the French actress, was credited in 1876 as the first woman to wear trousers as an article of feminine apparel. Amelia Bloomer, American feminist, had introduced "bloomers" in 1848. But they were simply baggy pantaloons worn beneath a short skirt, and not to be confused with trousers in the general sense.

Monday Evening, June 2, 1980 at 7:30 p.m. to hear the appeal of Robert A. and Vicki A. Nidzorski, 19994 East Williams Court, Grosse Pointe Woods, who are appealing the denial of the Building Inspector to issue a driveway permit for property described as Lot 251, Torrey Woods Subdivision No. 5. A driveway permit was denied because Section 6-12-3 of the 1975 City Code prohibits a paved parking area that exceeds 30% in coverage of the required front yard area for a residential lot in an R-1 zoned district. According to the provisions of Section 6-12-5, such a drive cannot be constructed unless a variance is granted. This will be a public hearing and all interested parties are invited to attend.

Terrific Terry... one of the most popular fabrics around and no wonder, it's because it is so comfortable and easy to care for. Terry also makes a fashion statement. Take the new Tannerway mix and match terry separates in the Sports Department at Walton-Pierce. A bright red terry two button blazer goes over a one piece strapless jumpsuit. It also can team up with a red, yellow and navy V top and a navy terry skirt from Tannerway. A terry blazer is a handy item to have in your wardrobe because it also can shelter your swimsuit. In the sports separate collection you'll find a perriwinkler blue terry group... blazer, top and skirt. The top and skirt are accented with white cording. Kasper separates include white cotton signature jeans piped with black that can be worn with a red and black striped sweater top. There are also red jeans to match. Another combination is perriwinkle blue and black. There are so many great summer fashions at Walton-Pierce right now. See all the pretty sun dresses. You can pick a fresh red apple print on a white cotton-poly blend from Jamison Boutique. It's elasticized through the top and at the waist so it can be worn strapless. Pointers of Interest

By Peggy O'Connor

Visitors to the 1980 University Liggett School Fair will eat, drink, take a chance on prizes and a ride on a merry-go-round—in general, they'll have a ball. But how many will realize that behind every ULS fair there are dozens of hard working, conscientious folks who spend weeks in preparation for a weekend of fun?

Carolyn Danaher and Bill Mackey are two of these people. Carolyn, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Danaher, and Bill, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mackey, Jr., are this year's co-chairmen of prize ticket sales for the ULS scholarship fund raising fair.

Both Are Seniors Despite the fact that both are seniors and involved in many projects at this time of year, Carolyn and Bill are spending a great deal of time on their part of the fair.

"We actually started about a month ago," Carolyn says. "Now that our classes are over we can work on the project full time."

The prize ticket committee is a project—a senior project. Each senior at ULS participates in a senior project, usually something that pertains to his/her interests and career plans. Bill and Carolyn chose to work on the prize ticket committee for their project; actually, they were chosen to participate on the committee.

"Junior co-chairmen are chosen each year and they become the next year's chairmen," Bill says. And, in the same way they were chosen last year, Bill and Carolyn are in the midst of finding next year's chairmen.

Although the final choice belongs to the head of the Upper School, the opinions of the reigning co-chairmen are taken into account. "Usually, you can spot a person who is very enthusiastic—a leader. We also ask their classmates which students they look up to," Bill says.

According to Bill and Carolyn, the candidates should also be prepared to work.

They Do Homework "When there's work to be done, we're there... and there is a lot of extra work involved," Carolyn says. "We do a lot of homework and a big part of the project is social relations work."

In spite of the amount of time spent on the prize ticket committee project, Bill and Carolyn have found enough time for their other activities—and plenty of time to plan their futures.

Chief Corpsman STANLEY A. CLARK, son of EDNA M. CLARK, of South Renaud road, Clark is a member of Antarctic Development Squadron Six, based at the Naval Air Station, Point Mugu, Calif.

PATRICIA MURPHY, daughter of PATRICK E. MURPHY, of Somerset road, is a member of the University Symphony Orchestra which performed recently in a free public program at Western Michigan University. The five winners of the university's 1980 concerto competition performed with the orchestra.

MR. and MRS. JACK YOUNG, of Fordcroft road, were passengers on the "fun ship" TSS Festival on a cruise of the Caribbean. The Youngs visited three ports of call: San Juan, St. Thomas and St. Maarten.

After completing United States Air Force basic training, Airman CAROL S. BIDDIGARE, daughter of MR. and MRS. JAMES L. BIDDIGARE, of Edmundton drive, was assigned to Keesler Air Force Base, Miss. Airman Biddigare will receive special instruction in the administrative field. During her six weeks at Lackland Air Force Base, Tex., Biddigare studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs.

WALTER B. MAHER, of Three Mile drive, has been appointed to the statewide Health Coordinating Council, subject to Senate confirmation. Maher, director of the Wage and Benefit Administration, Chrysler Corporation, will serve as a consumer member of the council.

Pvt. RICHARD F. NUNLEY, son of MRS. JANET

Bill is involved in theater, sings in a men's group, "The Dirty Dozen," and participates in varsity track. Carolyn serves as captain of the varsity lacrosse team and of the "blue" team in girls' intramural sports.

"This summer I'll be coaching tennis at ULS day camp and I will be attending Bowdoin College, in Maine, in the fall," Carolyn says.

Bill will spend his summer as an operator of "Phantom Boats," a fleet of one designs in Small Pointe, Me., before traveling to New York's Hobart College to study science.

Carolyn, who plans to pursue the study of English and History, says, "Bill has the science and I have the English— together, how can we lose?"

'Can't Lose' Duo How can they lose? They seem to have the determination and enthusiasm to succeed in the future and in reaching their prize ticket sales goal of $30,000. Something else they have is help—and they are quick to recognize the other people involved in the ticket sales.

"The junior co-chairmen are involved, but a lot of the work is done by Mrs. Armistead Burwell. She handles all the money that comes in from the collections," Carolyn says. According to Bill, "She's the person behind the scenes."

According to Carolyn, Mrs. Horace Ford has also been of great assistance. She obtained the prizes—16 in all—headed by a Great Lakes cruise for eight.

Not to be forgotten are the ULS students. They are a vital part of the prize ticket sales push. "The tickets are sold by the students on a door-to-door basis," Bill says. "Basically, we think the way to keep everybody selling is to make it a class competition."

"A spirit cup is awarded to the class with the winning amount of ticket sales," Carolyn says. "We also give small prizes as incentives to

S. JOHNSON, of Devonshire road, and RABON F. NUNLEY, has been assigned as a bridge crewman with the 814 Engineer Company in Hanau, Germany. Nunley's wife WANDA lives in Detroit.

Currently deployed in the Indian Ocean aboard the guided missile cruiser USS California is Navy Machinist's Mate 2nd Class MARTIN R. GOLDSBERRY, son of MR. and MRS. ROBERT F. GOLDSBERRY, of Lakepointe avenue. Goldsberry joined the Navy in 1974.

ANNE LINTVEDT, daughter of DR. and MRS. RICHARD LINTVEDT, of Barlington road, has been named to the Dean's List at Lawrence University in Appleton, Wis. A sophomore at Lawrence, Anne is a graduate of Grosse Pointe South High School.

Among students named to the Dean's List for the winter quarter at Michigan Technological University are KYLE E. KIMEL, a sophomore majoring in Business Administration, and WILLIAM E. BRUSH, a senior majoring in Business Administration, both of The Pointe, and LISA M. PROZAKI, of The Woods, a sophomore majoring in Biological Science.

DAVID FISCHER, of Mount Vernon road, is among eight University of Michigan students who received prizes totaling $1,500 in the 1979-80 Cooley Writing Contest for undergraduates in Engineering. Fischer, a senior majoring in Environmental Engineering, won $150 in the fiction category for "Solitary Aviation" and $150 in the poetry category for his "Assumptions From the City."

MARY ROONEY, daughter of MR. and MRS. WILLIAM ROONEY, of University place, and DENISE CIARAMITARO, daughter of MR. and MRS. BENEDICT CIARAMITARO, of Harvard road, recently affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega at Albion College. Mary is a sophomore majoring in English and the Middle School."

Peach of A Prize "In the past they 'twisted the arm' of the administration to give a day off to the Upper School class that reached its goal. This spurred the other classes on," Bill adds. "Last year, the whole school wound up with a day off."

With the fair just two weeks away, Bill and Carolyn haven't let up on their ticket sales drive. "We're trying to map out sections of the city we feel haven't been 'attacked,'" Carolyn says.

"We'd like to get the freshmen, sophomores and juniors out there to solicit."

"We'd really like to do a mass sales push—get a bus load of students to a certain area and send them out to sell," Bill says.

But the students won't be out there alone, according to Carolyn. "Bill and I will be at the fair from beginning to end, selling prize tickets right up until the drawing."

And their tickets, along with advance ride tickets, are on sale now at the ULS Upper School from 3 to 5 o'clock weekdays.

The Job is Fun Lest anyone think that the position of prize ticket co-chairmen involves all work and no fun, Bill and Carolyn hasten to correct that idea. "I'm having a great time," Carolyn says.

"We deal with Lower and Middle School kids and try to get them enthusiastic with our enthusiasm. Kids can be fun and you have to learn to deal with them because you must do so every day."

Bill Mackey agrees. "I'm having fun because I like to go up in front of the kids. It's fun being with them. I love kids and I like to relate to them."

If hard work and enthusiasm add up to a successful project, the 1980 ULS fair should be a winner by any standards. Bill and Carolyn have their own ideas on why the ULS fair is an annual success.

"The fair succeeds because it's a community affair. It brings the students, the area alumni and the community together," Bill says.

"The parents have just as much fun as their kids—it's a family event," Carolyn adds. "The enthusiasm of the students makes the fair a success."

If Carolyn Danaher and Bill Mackey are examples of the type of people behind the 1980 ULS Fair, the fair might be declared a success even before the gates open on Friday afternoon, June 6.

Buffalo Leads Farms' Class C

By Dave Shrake

Buffalo gained control of first place this week with wins over Toledo and Columbus. On May 12 Buffalo edged Toledo 9-8. Sean Sanders was credited with the win with Pat Michalik and Sean Cleland assisting from the bull pen.

They struck out 15 and allowed eight hits. Collecting hits for Toledo were Bill Leonard with his triple and single and two singles by Jim Mello, Andy Hoag, Tom Droste, Jason White and John Mozena each singled.

Leading the hitting attack for Buffalo was Sean Sanders with his home run, Pat Michalik and Brendan Henry with singles, Bill Isbey with his two singles and doubles by Mike Henry and Sean Cleland.

On May 17, Buffalo blanked Columbus 6-0.

It was Sean Sanders chalking up another Buffalo victory with help from Chris Stebbins and Sean Cleland. Sanders pitched a no hitter for three innings. Stebbins and Cleland allowed one single each to Lucas Wright and Mike Hix.

Lucas Wright was the pitcher of record for Columbus with 11 strikeouts and two hits. In relief, Richard Simmons and Pat Quinlan totaled five strikeouts and three hits. All of Buffalo's runs came in the first inning with Sanders contributing two singles and a triple and two singles by Bill Isbey.

May 14 and handed Richmond its first loss in a real slug fest with the final score 25-15. Both teams had a total of 22 hits in the game.

Richard Simmons was the winning pitcher with 10 strikeouts. Pat Quinlan and Lucas Wright relieved and totaled five strikeouts. Richmond's Ross Decker had a big day with four hits, including two triples. Scott Adloch had a two run homer.

Lucas Wright led Columbus with two doubles and five RBI's. Mark Mathews, Peter O'Rourke, David Asker, and Brian Ruh contributed timely singles. On May 14, Rochester downed Miami 19-8.

Toledo beat Rochester on May 17, 13-6 and in doing so kept pace with Richmond in second place. Toledo sent Tom Droste, Neil Combs and Bill Leonard to the mound. Combined they struck out 14 and allowed only two hits, singles by Peter Louisell.

Rochester sent three pitchers to the mound, Steve Steffes, Keith Spencer and Mark Wimsatt. They allowed seven hits and struck out 14. Obtaining hits for Toledo were: Ellen Boomer, Chris Nault, Renato Roxas, Bill Leonard, Neil Combs and Brian Callahan.

Toledo's Bill Leonard pitched no-hit ball for four innings and Rochester's Mike Schrage turned in a key defensive play in the game.

Dan Monahan pitched a no-hitter for Albany and downed Syracuse 3-0. Monahan also struck out 17. Syracuse sent Sean VonSchwarze and Chris Schurman to the mound. They combined for 17 strikeouts and allowed only two hits, those by Doug Wood and Steve Horn. VonSchwarze and Schurman allowed only one hit in 5 1/2 innings.

Syracuse, with an 0-5 record, had to contend with formidable Richmond and the weather on Saturday, May 17. But Syracuse hung on and edged Richmond 11-10. Richmond sent ace hurlers Ross Decker and Scott Adloch to the mound. Combined they struck out 19 and allowed 10 hits.

Coming alive for Syracuse was David Rabbideau with his two run triple, Jeff Hays with two singles, Justin Hughes and Keith Kozak with singles, Kevin Nesler with his single, Chris Schutze with his two run double and VonSchwarze with two singles.

The pitcher of record for Syracuse was Sean VonSchwarze, who posted his first victory with bullpen assistance from Chris Schurman, Jeff Hays, Mike Shrake and David Rabbideau. Rabbideau took credit for the save when he came in at the bottom of the sixth with two on, one out and struck out two in a row to end the game.

Richmond bombarded Syracuse with home runs from Jim Osborne and Tom Harrington. Scott Adloch contributed with his two run double. Ross Decker singled and knocked in two runs with his triple and Dan Connell doubled.

South Netters Clinch Title

By Mark Clark

South's undefeated tennis team won its last two league matches to clinch the Eastern Michigan League dual match title with a 12-0 league record and 3-0 overall.

The team also placed first in the Regional Tournament with 25 points, earning them a place in the state tournament. Grosse Pointe North was second in the Regionals with 22 points.

The Regionals, which were held at North on Friday, saw Joe Murray, South's number one singles player, win his flight in the competition. Also winning all the doubles flights were number one doubles Al Hackman and Mike McBrearty, number two doubles Matt and Steve Kornmeier, and three doubles Todd Ciavola and Todd Pierce.

Loosing in three sets to the Norsemen were number two singles Bill Kohr, number three singles Todd Simonds, and number four singles Karl Tewes.

South, which had all its players seeded number one except number two singles, tired near the end of the tournament from drawing tough opponents in earlier rounds of the competition. Coming off three set wins, both Simonds and Tewes lost to opponents whom they had beaten earlier in the year.

"Everybody played well, but the earlier rounds caught up with us in the finals," commented coach Donald Zysk.

The Blue Devils clinched their second straight EML dual match title by beating Mt. Clemens 7-0 Monday and East Detroit 7-0 on Wednesday. The Devils have not lost a dual match in two years.

In wiping out Mt. Clemens, all players took their matches in straight sets. One, two, three, and four singles winners were Murray, Simonds, Kohr, and Tewes.

In doubles it was Steve Kosmos and Bob Wagner — playing for the second time this season and winning for the second time—in number three doubles. In one and two doubles it was Hackman and McBrearty, and Ciavola and Pierce picking up the wins.

Winners in the East Detroit match also will be the lineup for the state tournament. They are Murray, Simonds, Kohr, and Tewes, in one, two, three and four singles.

The teams in one, two, and three doubles will be Hackman and McBrearty, the Kornmeier brothers, and Ciavola and Pierce.

The EML tournament was played Tuesday in Port Huron (after press time).

North Girls Take Regionals

By Wright Wilson

Like their male counterparts, the girls' track team from North High also won its regional championship last Saturday. North totaled 78 points to Detroit Pershing's 53 and Detroit Denby's 52.

However, the lady Norsemen had to come from behind to do it, as Denby held a 32-4 lead after six events had been completed. North's strengths were its three relay teams and distance runners.

Cathy Schmidt could have made up the difference alone, as she totaled 28 points herself. In the mile run, Schmidt nipped Hazel Park's Sue Paquette for first place, and the time of 5:09 was a new school and field record. Schmidt also won the half-mile, running 2:22.2. Cathy's third race of the day was the two-mile, and she finished second with 11:47. Paquette's winning time of 11:08 broke the field record by 22 seconds!

Following Schmidt in the mile were Martha Whitaker in fourth and Suzanne Stahl in sixth; and Patty Meehan qualified for state by placing third in the half-mile. Whitaker placed fifth in that event.

Also helping North a great deal were its three relay teams, all qualifiers for the state meet. North's 880 relay team was outraced by Denby and placed second (the Tars had 1:47.7 to North's 1:47.8).

North won the other two relay events. Jean Genord, Jody Long, Sue Demeulemeester, and Pam Stewart combined for a :52.0 clocking in the 440 team event; and North capped the afternoon's festivities by taking the mile relay in 4:17.6. The North mile quartet was Jeanne Soulliere, Meehan, Stewart, and Whitaker.

Sophomore Gretchen Schumacher placed in the long jump, but missed making the state meet by just one inch. Gretchen finished fourth with a leap of 14'10 1/2", one inch shorter than the third-place flight.

Other North athletes to place for points were: Patty Misukiewicz, sixth in the low hurdles; Meehan, fifth in the quarter-mile, and Stewart, who placed fifth in the 220.

Trackmen Reach Goal

When he first started coaching the team last March, one of the first goals Das Campbell set for North High's trackmen was to win the State Regional title. Now, as the season is in full swing, the Norsemen have accomplished just that.

North hosted eighteen teams last Saturday at the annual regional meet, held so that athletes can qualify for the upcoming state championship meet held May 31 in Grand Rapids.

Each team was allowed two entries per event (plus anyone else who made the qualifying standards), and the top three finishers on Saturday were awarded berths in the state meet. Nine of North's athletes will be competing in Grand Rapids.

Brian Vier was North's high scorer, while qualifying in three events. Vier won the low hurdles at :39.2 and the highs with :14.4 (a school record); and also placed third in the high jump, clearing six feet.

Norsemen distance runners really cleaned up, as they scored 61 points between them in three races. The big event was the mile, as North had a 1-2-3-4 sweep. Jim Schmidt took the mile victory at 4:28.0, followed by Wright Wilson with 4:28.9, Dan Van Vliet with 4:37.6, and John Rosculet with 4:39.5.

John Bucacink, running 2:02.9, won the half-mile. North again placed four runners in the two-mile, as Norsemen occupied the 1-2-4-6 slots. Schmidt won his second race, posting 9:36.9. Van Vliet took second with 9:46.8. Mark Rolain placed fourth at 10:02.6, and Wilson ran 10:07.9 for sixth.

Junior Curt Buechler had a personal best of 12'3" in the pole vault to place third, and John Bogdziewicz threw the discus 159'11" for third place.

The mile relay team placed second to Lakeview, but still earned a state berth. North's time was 3:31.5 to Lake-

Armadillos were 5-2, followed by Wolverine Oil Company, Spikers, McMillan Brothers Furniture, Barristers, Dandy Bar and the Jocks, all teams with an identical record of 4-3.

Sibley Lumber Snarks were 3-4, the Martians and Newcomers were tied with two wins and five losses. Cougars, Union Street Bar and the City Limits Saloon had one win in seven tries.

This year the Mens' Power Volleyball League has proven to be very exciting to all who played and watched. With the post season double elimination tournament approaching the action should be even more exciting.

In the last inning, Pat Bauer's single drove in Mike Hall with the game winning run. The Indians' offense was led by Steve Reynolds who had a single and double. Eric Woerner drove in the lone Indian run.

On May 14, the Indians defeated the Red Sox, 5-4. Mike Connell pitched a strong game and received excellent defensive support from the Indian team. Mike Weld, Dave Weinkle, Peter Keane, Mike Donnelly, and Richard Subhrnrich led the Indians' offense. Ken Fromm and Dave Chamberlin each doubled for the Red Sox.

The Red Sox defeated the Tigers, 4-2, on May 17. John Tavey drove in two runs with a single and a sacrifice fly for the Red Sox. Ken Fromm had two singles for the Red Sox. Kurt Maunz, the winning pitcher, picked off two Tiger runners at first base.

Highlights at North High

Other North athletes who placed were: Steve Schwinke, sixth in the high hurdles; George Pambric, sixth in the 100-yard dash; Tom Held, fifth in the 220-yard dash; and the 440-yard relay team, which finished fifth.

However, the big news of the day was North taking the team title. The Norsemen finished first with 116 points, ahead of runner-up and top rival Lakeview (90), and third-place team Ferndale (71). South High totaled 23 points for sixth place.

North ended up in second place in the Bi-County dual meet race with a 6-1 record. Lakeview's narrow victory over North in an earlier meet enabled them to win the League undefeated in seven meets. The League Championship meet was held on Wednesday, May 21 (after press time).

Girls at .500 In Softball

By Wright Wilson

'Competitive' is the word that best describes the Bi-County League softball chase, where North's girls are having a good season but are only 5-5.

Coach Bill Taylor pointed out that the team has been hampered by injuries this season. Sophomore Peggy Cadieux, one of the team's top players, has been sidelined since the season opener with a broken wrist. Teressa Mazzei, another of the team's leaders, is currently restricted with a jammed finger.

And if the injuries aren't enough, the whole league is tough, as five of the eight teams are still in the running for the Bi-County title before the season's end next week. Lakeshore currently holds the top spot with an undefeated slate, and Clintondale has lost only one league game at the time of this writing. North, with five wins in ten contests, is grouped together with Fraser and Lakeview, who are also around the .500 mark. Exact standings are not available, as many teams have yet to make up rained out games.

In recent action, North has won two of its last four games. The game against South Lake went down to the wire, as Laura Maslar scored the winning run in the bottom of the seventh inning, helping North to a 5-4 win over the Cavaliers.

Next, a game against Lakeview was deadlocked at two runs apiece and went into extra innings. The Huskies took the win in the ninth inning as Lisa Panetta hit a 2-run homer, making the final total 4-2.

North then displayed its most awesome power show of the year when they stomped on Roseville Brabec, 20-5. North pitchers Sue Shanley and Maslar had three hits each; and Andrea Evanski, Judy Cherry, and Nancy Glen each chipped in with two.

North was downed the next day by league-leading Lakeshore, 15-5. Evanski, Mazzei, and Maslar each had two hits in a losing cause.

Taylor lists offensive power as the team's top strength, and is backed up by the fact that North scores an average of over eight runs per game.

At this point, Maslar leads the team in hitting with a .484 batting average; followed by the trio of Mazzei, Maureen Toomey, and Evanski with averages of .346, .345, and .344 respectively. Shanley rounds out the top five with a .324 clip.

The White Sox downed the Orioles, 8-7, in spite of a home run by Dave Cameron and a double by Tim Overbey of the Orioles. Rodney Goin doubled for the White Sox.

Back-to-back home runs by Greg Roach and Tony Bechara and a double by Andy Bedsworth helped the Red Legs defeat the Cardinals, 12-5. Peter Astfalk homered and Mark Thomas doubled for the Cardinals.

The Giants beat the White Sox, 15-13 on home runs by Dave Arnold and Rich Cordova and a double by Cordova. Jeremy Wise homered and Duff Berschback doubled for the White Sox.

Kurt Liebold homered and Jerry Holley doubled as the Yankees edged the Red Sox 9-8.

On Wednesday, May 14, the Cubs beat the Dodgers, 26-0. Derek Stevens pitched a brilliant three-hit shutout against the Dodgers. The Dodgers used four pitchers in an attempt to quiet the Cub's bats. Jason Colgrove highlighted the Cub victory with a grand-slam home run.

The Cardinals pulled out a 6-4 win over the Braves on Friday, May 16. It looked bleak for the Cardinals going into the sixth inning. Brad Woerner lead off with a walk and Steve McCann lined a single to left. Scott Tucker got on base with a walk before Alex Dillon drilled a two-run extra-base hit over the left fielder's head.

Pat Potter shut down the Braves hitters to finish the inning. Steve King had a great day at the plate, hitting three singles for the Braves.

"When the girls are ready to get psyched up, I think they can beat them, just like they did against L'Anse Creuse North," said coach Hooper.

This week the softball team will face Mt. Clemens and Port Huron Northern. "I certainly hope we will beat them, but a mental attitude is important. I think Ann Day pitching and Gina Bruce, and Ann Rosasco hitting will be important," coach Hooper said.

Three Qualify For Track Final

By Libby Dietrich

In regional track competition held Saturday, May 17, at Grosse Pointe North High School, three South girls qualified for State finals. South also defeated Stevenson High School last Tuesday, May 13, 70-53.

Both Renee Lanz and Cathy Maher placed first in Regional competition last Saturday. Lanz jumped 5'1" in the high jump, while Maher ran 32.0 in the 220 hurdles.

Two-miler Jane Wilson came in third place and broke her own school record with 11:54. These three girls qualified for the state finals which will be held on Saturday, May 31 in Grand Rapids.

Maher also placed fifth in the 110 hurdles with 16.8, and Wilson placed fifth in the one-mile with 5:32.7. One girl who placed sixth in the competition and set a new school record with 2:32.4 in the 880 yard run was Mary Rosasco. South scored a total of 31 points in the meet.

In the victory against Stevenson, nine firsts were taken, and South dominated all three of the relay teams. The 800 relay team of Kathy Emmerich, Maher, Jennifer Peterson, and Jennifer Ahlbrand ran the race in 1:53.3, while Sherry Grose, Emmerich, Peterson and Ahlbrand ran the 400 relay in 54.9.

South's 1600 relay team, beating Stevenson by 10 seconds and consisting of Suzanne Cebrowski, Lanz, Rosasco, and Sarah Scranton, ran their race in 4:33, followed by Stevenson with 4:43.

Individual firsts included Lanz in the high jump with 5'0", Ahlbrand in the 100 dash with 13.1, Rosasco in the 400 dash with 63.0, Maher in the 200 low hurdles with 32.2, Wilson in the 3200 run with 11:58, and Ahlbrand in the 200 dash with 28.0.

Rosasco took two second places in the long jump with a jump of 14'3 1/2" and the 800 run in 2:34.4. Maher took second in the 100 hurdles with 17.1, losing to a girl from Stevenson by only two-tenths of a second.

Sarah Bernard, finished second in both the 1600 and 3200 runs with 5:49.0 and 13:13. Field event seconds were taken by Gross in the high jump and Ahee in the discus.

South competed in the EML (Eastern Michigan League) meet held at L'Anse Creuse North on Tuesday, May 20 (after press time), and then it's on to state finals, where three Blue Devils will be competing.

Varsity Nine Look Ahead

By Lara Measelle

Evening its league record at 6-6, South's varsity baseball team competed in three games last week, losing to L'Anse Creuse North and East Detroit and defeating Sterling Heights Stevenson.

South lost to L. C. North, 8-2 on Monday, May 19, then went on to beat Stevenson, 9-8 on Wednesday. Hitting in the winning run against Stevenson was Ted Formanczyk, who is also the team's leading hitter with a .484 average.

Formanczyk has hit safely in the last four games and in 113 of 118 games this season. Catcher and designated hitter Paul Deschenes is the team's second leading hitter with his .355 average.

In last Friday's game against East Detroit, South came out on the short end of a 3-2 decision. Mike Bevier had two hits and scored both runs for the Blue Devils.

South's pitchers have maintained an impressive record so far this season. Dave Spencer leads the staff with a 4-1 mark. Chris Ellis and Shawn Drummy have both pitched well but boast records of only 1-3 each.

The Devils have three games left before they compete in the District tournament. East Detroit will be South's first opponent. If the team wins that game they will go on to play the winner of the Grosse Pointe North/Bishop Gallagher game.

Although the team's overall record is only 7-11, Coach George Duditch commented that this year's team is strong and that he expects good results from the last three games and in the Districts.

Phils Stay Hot in Farms

By Jerry Henry

The Phils continued to win in G. P. Farms Majors, narrowly defeating the Reds, 3-1. All of the Phils' runs were a result of another Robbie Wood home run, his third of the season. The Reds' Eric Daelle allowed only two hits in turning in another strong pitching effort.

War Memorial Is Still Short of Needed Funds

The War Memorial's 1980 Family Participation Campaign is $2,300 short of the necessary goal of $160,000 which it still hopes to reach by Memorial Day service on Monday, May 26.

So far, 5,430 supporters have been heard from compared to 5,657 at the same time in the 1979 campaign. The center hopes more Pointers will join in preserving the Memorial and what it stands for so that the Memorial Service can be a real tribute to those who sacrificed their lives for the kind of life, activities and services at the center.

G.P. Park Sets Summer Events

Summer is around the corner and Grosse Pointe Park will offer many recreational activities for the enjoyment of its residents. Registration for all swim, golf and tennis lessons will be held Saturday and Sunday, June 7 and 8 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Windmill Pointe Park. Registration will be on a first-come, first-serve basis with no pre-registration. Only members of the immediate family may register one another, showing the park pass of the person registering and the person being registered. There will be an instruction fee of $5 per class, per person. Lessons will begin on Monday, June 16.

Other activities available to the residents include the Adult Co-Ed Volleyball League and the Tennis Ladder, which will take place all summer long. The Grand Fishing Rodeo will take place on Saturday, June 28. A bike race is scheduled for Saturday, August 2 and the annual Tennis Tournament will be

Two Trackmen Grab Firsts

Tom Gaitley and Bill Waugaman will represent South in state track competition as both took firsts at the Regionals on Saturday, May 17 at North High School. Gaitley's shot throw of over 49' took top honors and Waugaman's vault of 12'3" was good for a first and was a personal best, as well. In previous competition, the freshman team was beaten by East Detroit and North in a tri-meet on Friday, May 16. Coach Bonne cited Dave Fisher's long jump as the only outstanding performance for the Devils.

The varsity won the tri-meet against Roseville and Warren Cousino on May 15. South swept the discus and shotput events with Pat Boll and Gaitley taking firsts. Waugaman took first in the pole vault and Fish took first in the 110 low hurdles.

The 800 relay team of Rob Gall, Hugh Boy, Pat Boll and Arron Freidman took first with the time of 1:35.1. The 400 relay team of Jamie Keogh, Boy, Boll and Freidman also won its event. The other relay team of Jason Pallas, Sean Welsh, Dave Caputo and Jim Weitzmann also won, marking the first time all three relay teams placed in a tri-meet. Bill Waugaman was named "Horse of the Meet" in the Cousino event, while Bill Peattie and Bruce Collinson were named "Horse" in the Roseville meet.

The final score of the meet was South, 83, Roseville, 49 and Cousino, 39. In Grosse Pointe, aerobic dancing offers 11 classes at a variety of locations and times. For more information on summer classes call 822-2022 or write Aerobic Dancing, Inc. 1130 Parker, #311, Detroit, Mich. 48214.

'Dance Along' Aerobic Style

Over 300 Aerobic Dancing students will jog "stretch-around" and cha-cha "hippy" at the aerobic dancing "Dance-Along" Friday, May 30, 7 p.m. at Grosse Pointe South High School.

The event will feature fast-paced dances from the current spring session called "All-American." Music is from the ragtime '20's to the dancin' 80's. Spectators are welcome to this free event.

Aerobic dancing, a blend of dancing and jogging, incorporates all the essentials of a complete physical fitness program. You gain cardiovascular fitness, muscular fitness and flexibility in one fun, high-spirited sport. Offered in 38 states, aerobic dancing was originated by choreographer and former professional dancer, Jacki Sorensen.

Varsity Club Lends A Hand

Full participation in the Special Olympics on May 13 proved that South's Varsity Club is more than letter winners or annual fund-raisers — its people who care.

After the election of the new officers, 11 Varsity Club representatives devoted their time to help special kids in the Olympics held at Macomb Community College. This year, as in the past two years, South took charge of the standing long jump.

Overall, 1,000 participants showed up with 600 volunteers on hand to guide them. Coke and McDonald's sponsor the Olympics, although the Varsity Club donated $500 to the state Olympics to be held on June 13.

Newly elected officers who helped out were Dean Grahm — president; Jason Pallas — vice-president; Larry MacDonald — secretary, and Jeff Peterson — treasurer. The 1979-'80 officers involved were President John Cammett, vice-president Mike Bevier, John Heidt and Matt McCafferty. Also representing South were Rick Overby, Glen Piche and John Penoyar.

Next year's projections include the 3rd annual "The Dance" sponsored by the Varsity Club and cheerleaders. This is the first dance of the year and is held in late September or early October.

The most popular event is the Rent-Jock auction. This pre-Christmas event auctions off first-year club members to other students for one day. Last year's total of $110 was donated to the Honor Society for the Cambodian Drive.

Jon Rice, Varsity Club adviser, commented, "The Varsity Club provides school service and spirit throughout the entire year." As a reward for their services, an electric water cooler was purchased for the boys varsity locker room. Two girls also belong to the organization.

Sao Paulo, Brazil, which had a population of 240,000 at the turn of the century, has 8.5 million people today and is still growing rapidly.

Group Aims To Better Schools With Voucher Plan

Improving education with schools that compete for students and parents who have a choice and stronger voice in schools their children attend are goals of a new organization headed by president Robert Lyle, a Farmington businessman, and vice-president John Dodge, attorney from Grosse Pointe Park.

The institute was formed to win national support for a plan under which tax funds for education would be distributed directly to parents in voucher form. Parents then could shop among competing schools for the one best able to meet their children's education needs, and use the vouchers as tuition. The schools would exchange the voucher with the issuing state or local authority for operating funds.

"As is constantly demonstrated, public education in United States has grown into a vast, inefficient bureaucracy that is no longer responsible to the needs of parents and students," Lytle said.

"New interest in the voucher plan has been inspired by Nobel Prize-winning economist, Milton Friedman.

An immediate goal of the Institute, Lyle said, would be to create understanding of the voucher idea and develop model plans which could be considered for state use. Lytle pointed out that the voucher concept was proposed by Adam Smith, the Scots economist, about the time of the American Revolution and advanced in "On Liberty" by the English philosopher, John Stuart Mill, 80
