Consumer Financial Protection Bureau
1700 G Street, NW.
Washington, DC 20552

Dear Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB):

1. We need money for personal hygiene things in the middle of the month.
2. Sometimes our cars give out and we need the extra money to be able to pay for it to be fixed.
3. Sometimes our monthly check doesn't cover our bills so we need the financial aid.
4. Cleaning supplies and food are essential to everyday life and in the middle of the month, we may need help.

We need this money to make ends meet every month. There should be no reason to get rid of it if the people that come in to get financial aid pay it back. If a person doesn't then just don't let them get financial aid again.

Sincerely,

Signature

Please stop your war on private

Why dont you stop the banks

IF I didn't have the resource of payday loans it would have been rough. I live paycheck to paycheck and need a short term loan to last me until payday. I get paid every 2 weeks. So this definitely helps out for short term needs.

I would rather ask for a short term loan from payday loans than familiar friends. It's been a great service to me personally.

Great service to people that live paycheck to paycheck. Great & convenient. Cheaper than bouncing checks. The staff is very friendly and eager to help in any situation. They understand unexpected situations.

Canceling the lending Program would be horrible for the Working class of borrowers. Lending Program, such as Check-N-Go, allow flexibility and Connet during hardship times - such as fixing on cars, paying bills, and handle any unwanted ~~situation~~ <sup>situation</sup>. Also, most people are not able to get quick loans thru the banks, which I feel that banks would <sup>only</sup> make it more difficult for certian type of people base of income to obtain loan under $500.

If it wasn't for check-N-go and their assistance I'd not have a home to live in. The banks do not give loans out to help people that have bad credit, but check-N-go does. Payday loans is a huge help to help bridge gaps <sup>or</sup> when I'm in need for additional funds for short term. The option to borrow from another source is not an option. Government focus on proving and leave alone. In closing payday loans are helpful during financial times

July 1, 2016

Dear Consumer Financial Protection Bureau,

I am a resident of Taylor, Michigan and I am very thankful for payday loans because they have helped me a numerous amount of times over the years. I have read that payday loan stores would not exist in my community if the government's proposed regulations go into effect. This would be very unfortunate for me because I have had multiple unexpected, financial emergencies arise in my life and I have always been able to go and get a payday loan to help me out of my situation. I am one of many people who are not always able to get a loan from a family member or a friend, especially at a short notice simply because they do not have the money to loan out. Getting a payday loan is the best option because the process of getting the loan is easy, quick and convenient. I am able to go get the loan the day I run into any financial issues and I can re-loan as many times as necessary in order to get back on track after taking out a loan. Payday loans have helped me buy groceries, go back to school and buy Christmas gifts for my child. Payday loans have truly been a life-saver for me on multiple occasions and I have no idea where I would be if we did not have these stores around. I truly hope that the government's proposed regulations do not go into effect.

I ask that you respect my informed decision to obtain a payday loan at my discretion despite the interest involved. I am fully aware of the processes and fees involved in these transactions. Payday loans have literally saved the life of a pet and saved my employment on occasions when pet illness and vehicle breakdowns have occurred when funds were not at my disposal. I take comfort in knowing such funding exists when emergencies arise.

To Whom It may concern

I ask that you respect my informed decision to obtain a payday loan at my discretion despite the interest involved. I am fully aware of the processes and fees involved in these transactions. Payday loans have literally saved the life of a pet and saved my employment on occasions when pet illness and vehicle breakdowns have occurred when funds were not at my disposal. I take comfort in knowing such funding exists when emergencies arise.

I rarely take out payday loans (in last 6 years) but when an emergency occurs, such as I lost my job and my daughters private school tuition became due. The time my ex-husband and I separated and rent was due to keep a roof over my childrens head. This is a quick emergency answer that many single moms or low income families use. If taken away what resource do you plan on replacing it with nationwide that is so fast, easy and convenient?

Dear Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB):

Payday loans are not "evil." If and when used properly, they can be beneficial. They can aid in the last minute costs of bills, doctor's appointments, prescriptions, and other finances. If an individual accumulates debts above his or her head, why are the companies to blame? Some companies offer payment plans so a customer has options, but yet, the companies are irresponsible...how? If a customer does not accept or refuses, who is truly penalized?

While my husband & I only have one income right now, we have been using check cashing service or pay day loan companies to help get the bills paid on time. If it were not for this service some of our bills would be late & we'd be paying additional fees, not to mention dealing with unhappy people without getting their money on time.

We are trying our best to make ends meet & these services have really been helpful to us. I know many families are in this same situation & I hope you take that into consideration.

In small town Iowa we don't have as many options as some of the big cities have. With our one income we make too much to qualify for assistance but not enough to put food on the table after bills. Luckily, we do have these services in small town Iowa & these help ~~to~~ families like us more than you may realize - it provides a little less stress from pay check to pay check.

Dear Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB):

I am a resident of New Mexico and have family in Texas. Short term lending provided a financial relief on myself and my family in a time of need. When handled responsibly by the party that approaches these payday lending businesses, it can really help at those people that need a short term and quick fix. Due to an overstressed banking industry that recently failed secondary to a lack of federal regulation it is ironic that the federal government would want to take away the option that helps at the most people. Payday loans have not failed as federally backed banks have. I recommend instead regulating the larger financial institutions that failed the people of this country and the economy.

Dear Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB):

In today's economy, some Americans live paycheck to paycheck. When those paychecks are monthly and emergencies occur, many have no options but to do a short term loan. Removing this option from a large portion of our citizenship is counterproductive, unethical and unfair. Please do not remove or limit this option to those who need it.

Dear Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB):

I use CheckNow to help me cover unexpected bills, (car repair, Medical Emergency, etc.). Sometimes these unexpected expenses occur in consecutive months; other times they occur several months apart.

The ability to borrow in consecutive months has been a godsend for our family on several occasions. Please do not take this away.

Dear Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB):

I have been a customer, paying on time for over a year now. Thankful that I am able to borrow but the fees are extremely high as well as the interest rate. The employees are very helpful and explain the process well. The time it takes to pay off a loan is a hassle, you either pay it off or reborrow depending on the interest of the next payment. However, when needed it is helpful.

Dear Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB):

As an employee I need Check n Go to stay open as I depend on this job paying my bills, food and necessities. Given this opportunity for me to work here has not only helped me stay on my feet financially but I have gained a lot of knowledge and experience. If we were to shut down I would be living on the streets with no food and begging for what I need. I believe that at least 100,000 people would be out of jobs all around the US if we were no longer in business. We help our economy by giving out loans to our customers to pay other debt and have only one payment instead of 2 or more. We help so many people in our community and so many are thankful for it.

Dear Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB):

As a person who has a low credit score, when I need money in an emergency, a payday or signature loan is the only way I can get the money I need. If this wasn't an option, my family and I would suffer great hardships as a result. Please do not take my only option away.
