

UGA LAW 3 + 3

Pre-Professional
Advising Office
UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

Admissions Process

The 3+3 admissions process is only open to applicants who are currently enrolled as undergraduate students at the University of Georgia. You must meet all of the standard admissions requirements and apply to UGA Law. Admission to UGA Law through this process will be just as competitive as the standard admissions process.

General Timeline for 3+3 Applicants

1st
Year

Evaluate your credit status. If you will complete a Bachelor's degree in three years, 3+3 is NOT for you.

Choose a major from the following Colleges:

- Franklin
- Terry
- Grady
- Odum
- SPIA

Year

Consult with your primary academic advisor to confirm that you can have all MAJOR requirements completed by the end of your third year.

Email UGA Law at ugajd@uga.edu to confirm your eligibility for 3+3.

3rd
Year

Study for and take the LSAT by April at the latest.

Complete and submit an UGA Law application on LSAC.org

The application deadline is June 1st, but plan to submit your application earlier in the semester.

4th
Year

Take JD Courses at UGA Law School to complete your Bachelor's degree.
