How To Read Your Plat Maps

Rural Owners Are Listed Alphabetically By Last Name, Followed By First Name, Name Of Township And Section Number. The Plat Maps Show The Outline Of The Farm, Who Owns The Land And How Many Acres Are In The Farm.

The directory information showing the location of the farmhouse and who lives in the house was compiled by Farm and Home Publishers, Ltd. The plat information was compiled by researching courthouse records. Small tracts less than 5 acres are not shown on our plat maps. Tracts 5 to 15 acres in size are offset on the bottom of the page. The full name for all landowners is listed in the alpha. Every effort has been made to assure completeness and accuracy. Due to continual changes in ownership and changes in residency, it is impossible to guarantee 100% accuracy. The contents of this publication are not intended for any legal use. Latitude and longitude information found on the southwest corner of the maps is believed to be correct, but the accuracy has not been verified; the latitude and longitude information should in no way be used for commercial purposes, i.e., crop dusting or aerial spraying. We cannot accept responsibility for errors or omissions on the directory maps. We will appreciate being notified of discrepancies.

Call Before You Trespass

Persons wishing to hunt on private property must verify the availability of the land for public use with the landowner, lessee, or person in lawful possession of the land. Not all contracts with the DNR require the owner to make their property available for public use. Please contact individual owner, lessee, or person in lawful possession of the land, to obtain permission to access any property.

This directory is designed to assist you in providing additional information when only a telephone number is available. Telephone numbers are arranged in numerical sequence from the lowest number to the highest number. With this system, it takes the "guess work" out of who called, blind numbers in advertising or any other situation where only the phone number is given. This guide includes all phone numbers in the county.
