PITT PANTHERS | 2-6, 1-3 ACC

NOTES TO KNOW

- » Florida State plays its final ACC road game this week, traveling to Pittsburgh to take on Pitt. The Seminoles are 8-0 this season and 6-0 in the ACC, both their best marks since 2014, after a 41-16 win at Wake Forest last week.
- » Florida State is No. 4 in this week's Associated Press poll. It is the ninth consecutive week FSU has been ranked in the top-5, the program's longest streak since 2013-14 when Florida State was in the top-5 for 27 consecutive polls.
- » The win over Wake Forest extended the Seminoles' winning streak to 14 games, the longest active streak in the ACC and 3rd-longest active streak in the country. During its streak, which is also tied for the 6th-longest in program history, Florida State has outscored its opponents 585-255.
- » FSU has scored at least 30 points in 14 straight games, the longest active streak in the nation and the 2nd-longest streak in ACC history, trailing only FSU's 17 consecutive games from 2012-14.
- » The Seminoles boast one of the nation's best pass defenses, leading the country in both fewest passing touchdowns allowed (3) and opponent completion percentage (49.4) and ranking 5th in opponent passer rating (101.59).
- » FSU is the only team in the nation forcing more incompletions than completions allowed. The last time a P5 team held its opponents below 50 percent completions in a season was 2018, when Michigan and LSU posted marks of 49.5 and 49.7 percent, respectively.
- » Florida State was the only team in the country that did not allow a passing touchdown in October, and the Seminoles led the nation in opponent completion percentage (41.7), yards per pass allowed (4.2) and opponent passer rating (72.41) in October while also producing the ACC's best scoring defense (14.0) that ranked 10th nationally.
- » FSU has held four consecutive opponents to fewer than 140 passing yards, the longest streak by the Seminoles since 1999 and the longest by an ACC team since Boston College in 2021 (via ESPN Stats & Info).
- » Florida State leads the ACC and ranks 11th in the country in red zone offense, converting 93.9 percent of red zone drives into points, and its 24 red zone touchdowns are 2nd in the conference. FSU also ranks 16th nationally in red zone defense, allowing points on just 73.1 percent of opponents' drives that reach the 20-yard line.
- » The Seminoles are one of nine teams nationally to have a receiver and a rusher with a three-touchdown game this season. Keon Coleman caught a career-high three scores vs. No. 5 LSU, and Trey Benson tied his single-game career-high with three rushing scores vs. Southern Miss. Coleman is one of 25 receivers nationally with a three-touchdown game this year, and Benson is one of 58 players with three rushing scores in a game.
- » Florida State's defense has faced 49 plays inside their 10-yard line this season and allowed just 11 touchdowns. In the 45-24 win over No. 5 LSU, the Seminoles faced 10 snaps inside their own 5-yard line and allowed only two scores. On LSU's first drive of the game, the Tigers had six plays inside the five-yard line, including four snaps from the 1-yard line, and the FSU defense forced a turnover on downs with a 13-yard sack on 4th-and-1. During FSU's three-game homestand the defense faced only 10 total snaps inside its 10-yard line and allowed one touchdown. Syracuse did not have a snap inside the 10-yard line and took only one snap inside FSU's 15-yard line.

BREAK THE ROCK

- » After each FSU win, and during various points of the offseason (end of spring and fall camp, after summer workouts), a player or coach is selected to break a rock with the opponent's logo. The rock is signed by each player and coach. Breaking the rock symbolizes the completion of a team objective.
- » Running back Trey Benson broke the rock after the completion of fall camp on August 26, and again after his 200-yard, 2-touchdown game on the ground against Virginia Tech. Benson also broke the rock at Wake Forest when he had 155 total yards and two touchdowns, including an 80-yard touchdown reception.
- » Receiver Keon Coleman broke the rock against No. 5 LSU after he became the first player in school history with three touchdowns in his Seminole debut. Coleman (247 all-purpose yards), defensive back Shyheim Brown (7 tackles, 1.5 sack, 1 PBU) and defensive coordinator Adam Fuller (3.9 yards per play allowed) each helped break the rock against Syracuse.
- » Defensive back Jarrian Jones returned an interception 30 yards for a touchdown against Southern Miss and broke the rock following the game.
- » Linebacker DJ Lundy became the first Nole in over 60 years with an interception and a rushing touchdown in the same game, and broke the rock in FSU's ACC-opening win at Boston College. Linebacker Kalen DeLoach earned a sack, forced fumble, fumble recovery and touchdown at Clemson and broke the rock after FSU's 31-24 overtime win.

FIELD DEDICATED TO BOBBY BOWDEN

In a special ceremony prior to the Florida game on November 20, 2004, the home of Florida State football took on a meaning even more special when Bobby Bowden Field was dedicated. Now, with numerous additions to enhance the gameday experience, Seminole fans are treated to one of college football's greatest venues.

200 & 300

Bowden's 200th career victory came on Oct. 27, 1990, as FSU routed LSU, 42-3, in Tallahassee. In 2007, Bowden won his 300th game at FSU on the field that bears his name with a 24-16 win over Maryland. Bowden's final win on Bobby Bowden Field came two years later, on November 21, 2009 in a 29-26 win over the Terrapins.

ALL-TIME HOME RECORD

Florida State boasts a 318-104-4 all-time record at Doak Campbell Stadium with a winning percentage of 75.1. Overall, the Noles are 326-108-4 (.749) as the home team, which includes three seasons – 1947-49 – when they played their home games at Centennial Field. FSU was 8-4 at the downtown Tallahassee site, including 8-0 in coach Don Veller's first two seasons.

OSCEOLA & RENEGADE

One of the best traditions in college football unfolds right before kickoff as Osceola charges down the field atop Renegade - an Appaloosa horse - and plants a flaming spear at midfield. The tradition was born on Sept. 16, 1978 against Oklahoma State. Since then, six different Renegades and 16 different riders have made the ride and planted the spear at midfield.
