Thundering Herd Fall Notes

Marshall Continues Climb in National Polls

Marshall Football climbed into the top 16 in both national polls when they were released Sunday.

The Thundering Herd is 16th in the Associated Press poll and one spot higher in the Amway/USA Today Coaches Poll. Marshall's AP ranking is its highest since September 8, 2002, when it also climbed to No. 16, following a season-opening 50-17 victory over Appalachian State.

The Thundering Herd (5-0 overall, 3-0 Conference USA) defeated Florida Atlantic 20-9 on October 24 in Huntington and did so on the strength of a pair of touchdown passes by quarterback Grant Wells, 156 all-purpose yards and another touchdown by running back Brenden Knox and five sacks by the Marshall defense. Knox has four consecutive 100-yard rushing performances and has scored at least once – rushing or receiving – in each game this season.

Marshall was scheduled to travel to FIU last Friday, but the Panthers postponed that game as they did not have enough available scholarship student-athletes as a result of quarantining of COVID-19 positive tests and contact tracing.

The Thundering Herd will host UMass (0-1) Saturday at 2:30 p.m. in Joan C. Edwards Stadium. Mark Martin and Jake Griffith will have the call on ESPN+.

Notes Versus Florida Atlantic

The game captains for Marshall were senior offensive lineman Alex Mollette, junior running back Brenden Knox, junior running back Sheldon Evans, senior linebacker Tavante Beckett and junior defensive lineman Koby Cumberlander. Beckett has been a captain all five games this season. This is Knox's first time as a game captain in 2020, but he has been a captain a team-leading 13 times in his career.

Marshall now leads the all-time series with Florida Atlantic, 7-1. The Thundering Herd has won three consecutive games in the series, and is 4-0 against the Owls in Huntington.

Marshall extended its home winning streak to six games. The Herd has a seven-game home winning streak against Conference USA teams.

The Herd snapped FAU's eight-game win streak, which spanned one year and six days when Marshall defeated the Owls, 36-31, on Oct. 18, 2019 in Boca Raton, Florida.

Marshall junior running back Brenden Knox reached another career milestone: 2,500 career rushing yards. Knox reached the milestone on a 3-yard run in the fourth quarter, becoming the eighth player in Herd program history.

The 58-yard touchdown reception by Knox is the longest reception of his career. The touchdown reception was the first of his career, and extended his overall touchdown streak to five games.

Knox has four consecutive 100-yard rushing games and 14 for his career.

Senior receiver Artie Henry received his first career start.

Henry caught a touchdown pass for the second consecutive week and now has four career touchdown receptions. Henry also set a new single game career high for receptions with five (previous best: three – three times). Sophomore kicker Shane Ciucci's third quarter field goal from 35 yards out is a career long.

Junior defensive end Darius Hodge has at least one sack in four of five games this season.

Junior defensive end Koby Cumberlander has recorded a sack in consecutive weeks.

Sophomore receiver Corey Gammage established a new single game career high for receptions with six.

Junior cornerback Joshua Bowers set a single game career-high with 11 tackles.

The Marshall defense extended its streak of not allowing an individual 100-yard rusher to six games. The Herd has not allowed a team to rush for 100 yards this season.

Stingy Defense

Marshall's defense is allowing only 9.4 points and 72.0 rushing yards per game (third nationally in both categories), 265.0 total yards per game (No. 5), 26.6 third down conversion percentage allowed (No. 6) and 3.4 sacks per game (No. 12).

Follow the Leader

Marshall has played 300 minutes of football in 2020. The Herd has led for 252 minutes and 55 seconds of that time. The Thundering Herd has been tied for 45:17 and has trailed 1:48.

Holliday at the Top

Marshall head coach Doc Holliday led the program for a school-record 134th time against Florida Atlantic. The Herd's 20-9 victory over the Owls was Holliday's 75th over an FBS opponent, five more than Bob Pruett (70) in that category for the school record. Holliday (83) currently sits second on the school's overall win list behind Pruett (94, 1996-2004).

Hang on!

It's easy to see why Herd Coach Doc Holliday talks about ball security so often. His 11 Marshall teams have provided a strong indicator of why turnover margin is so important. Holliday's Herd teams have a combined 83-51 (.619) record. When Marshall has an edge in turnover margin, it is 45-10 (.818). When the turnover number is equal, Marshall is 20-7 (.741). When the opponent is more sure-handed, the Herd is 18-34 (.346).

Of Marshall's 134 games under Holliday, the Herd has played 68 while committing zero or one turnover, amassing a record of 53-15 (.779) in those games.

Marshall is 24-4 (.857) under Holliday when it has a turnover margin of +2 or better.

Marshall has won nine in a row under Holliday when winning the turnover battle by three or more.

Marshall is 26-5 (.839) under Holliday when it has zero turnovers, and the Herd has won 13 of its last 14 when it does not make a miscue (Cincinnati, 2019). Marshall has won 16 of its last 18 (Cincinnati and Charlotte, 2019) when winning the turnover battle and the 2020 win over ECU was the eighth straight win when the MU quarterbacks have two-plus touchdown passes without an interception.

The Thundering Herd had five takeaways in 2018 wins over Eastern Kentucky and Florida Atlantic, giving Holliday nine consecutive wins when his team forces four or more turnovers.

Knox Climbs the Marshall Rushing List

Marshall running back Brenden Knox is steadily making his way up the Thundering Herd's all-time rushing list. The top 10 (plus Knox) is listed below.

1. 5,931 (1,100 attempts), Chris Parker, 1991-95
2. 4,382 (830 attempts), Doug Chapman, 1996-99
3. 3,903 (849 attempts), Ron Darby, 1986-89
4. 2,982 (558 attempts), Ahmad Bradshaw, 2004-06
5. 2,858 (550 attempts), Franklin Wallace, 2000-04
6. 2,857 (574 attempts), Darius Marshall, 2007-09
7. 2,724 (629 attempts), Glenn Pedro, 1990-93
- 8. 2,521 (483 attempts), Brenden Knox, 2018-pres.
9. 2,373 (305 attempts), Devon Johnson, 2012-15
10. 2,357 (364 attempts), Erik Thomas, 1993-96

First Blood

The Thundering Herd has now won 30 of its last 32 games when scoring first and has won 18 of its last 20 when leading after the first quarter. Related: since the beginning of the 2013 season, the Herd is 50-3 (.943) when scoring first.

Defensive Numbers to Know

The Herd has won 46 of its last 51 when holding offenses to 5.0 yards per play or fewer. The Herd has won 30 of its last 31 when allowing fewer than 300 yards. Seventeen (17) times in Doc Holliday's 10-plus seasons has the Herd allowed 125 yards passing or fewer. Marshall is 16-1 (.941) in those games. Marshall is 31-3 (.912) under Doc Holliday when the defense does not allow a rushing touchdown.

Feel the Rush

The Herd is now 48-7 (.872) in the last seven-plus seasons when rushing for 150+ yards and 36-5 (.878) the last seven-plus years with 200+ on the ground. All-time, Marshall is 11-0 under Doc Holliday when rushing for 300+ yards, as it did with 305 in the 33-31 win over Ohio in 2019. Marshall's 20 rushing first downs in the 59-0 win over ECU was the most for the program since 24 versus Morris Harvey in 1925.

Marshall's 35 points in the win over Louisiana Tech makes the Herd 48-3 (.942) in its last 51 games when scoring 30+ points. All of those games are under Doc Holliday.

Protecting the Home Turf

Marshall is nationally known for being one of the toughest places to play in college football. The program has won 82.8 percent (168-35) of its home games in Joan C. Edwards Stadium, the fourth-highest mark in the country.

Herd Finishes under Holliday

Since Doc Holliday became head coach in 2010, the Herd has an excellent record of finishing off its opponents once it takes the lead. Marshall is 65-9 (.878) when it scores first, 57-9 (.864) when leading after the first quarter, 69-5 (.932) when leading at halftime and 70-5 (.933) when leading after three quarters. In fact, Marshall has won 55 of its last 58 contests (2016 vs. Charlotte, 2018 vs. Middle Tennessee, 2019 at Charlotte) when it has the halftime lead.

50+

Marshall's 59-0 win over ECU was the 18th time that the Thundering Herd has reached the 50+-point plateau under coach Doc Holliday, three more than Jim Donnan (1990-95) for the all-time school mark. Bob Pruett (1996-2004) reached that mark 14 times and Cam Henderson (1936-42, 1946-49) did it on 13 occasions.

Bowl Prowess

Marshall enters 2020 featuring an .800 winning percentage (12-3) in all NCAA-sanctioned bowl games, the highest mark nationally among programs that have made at least six appearances. (The Thundering Herd also participated in the 1948 Tangerine Bowl, at which point it was not sanctioned). The leaders are below:

1. Marshall: .800 (12-3)
2. Army: .750 (6-2)
3. Utah: .739 (17-6)
4. Louisiana Tech: .708 (8-3-1)
5. San Jose State: .700 (7-3)
6. Rutgers: .667 (6-3)
7. WKU: .667 (4-2)
8. Ole Miss: .649 (24-13)
9. Wake Forest: .643 (9-5)
10. USC: .642 (34-19)

Doc Holliday is 6-1 in bowl games with the Thundering Herd and has appeared in 28 bowls since entering the coaching ranks.

Perfect Versus Texas at Home

Interestingly enough, Marshall has never lost to a school from Texas at home. The Thundering Herd is a perfect 13-0 against Texas schools in games played in Huntington. Marshall owns two wins over North Texas (1988, 2015), two wins over Houston (2008, 2012), three wins over Rice (2007, 2011, 2014), two wins over SMU (2005, 2009), two wins over UTEP (2006, 2010) and two victories over UTSA (2013, 2018).

Feeling the Sunshine

Since the beginning of the 2013 season, Doc Holliday is 15-4 in games contested in the state of Florida and/or against Florida schools.

Road Warriors

Marshall has started the C-USA season with two road wins - the last time that the Herd was 2-0 in league play, in two road games, was 1998. That season Marshall's first two MAC games were a 26-17 win over Akron at the Rubber Bowl and then a 26-23 win at Eastern Michigan.

Notes at Louisiana Tech

The game captains for Marshall were junior running back Sheldon Evans and senior offensive lineman Josh Ball on offense, and senior linebacker Tavante Beckett and junior defensive end Koby Cumberlander on defense. This was Ball's first time as a game captain.

Marshall is 4-0 for the first time since the 2014 season.

The Thundering Herd now leads the all-time series with Louisiana Tech, 3-1. This is Marshall's first win in Ruston, Louisiana (last visit: 1942).

Marshall junior running back Brenden Knox moved up two spots on the program's career rushing list, passing Erik Thomas (2,357 yards from 1993-96) and Devon Johnson (2,373 yards from 2012-15). Knox now ranks No. 8 all-time at Marshall in rushing yards with 2,420 yards.

Knox surpassed 100 rushing yards for the 13th time in his career. He scored twice on the ground, giving him seven touchdowns this season and 22 career rushing touchdowns.

Marshall finished Saturday 13-for-16 on third downs (81.6 percent), this second best single-game performance in school history (14-for-15, 93.3 percent, vs. Morehead State in 1977). The 13 conversions are tied for No. 3 on the all-time Marshall list, trailing only the 14 in that 1977 Morehead State game and also 14 in the 45-34 win at Tulsa in 2013.

Louisiana Tech only managed the one third down conversion in 10 attempts. The last time a Marshall opponent converted only one third down was in a 27-17 win at Kent State in 2004 (1-of-15).

Louisiana Tech was held to 7 rushing yards, the 11th-fewest by a Marshall opponent in school history.

The Marshall defense has not allowed a team to gain 100 rushing yards this season and has not allowed an individual 100-yard rusher in five consecutive games. Marshall sophomore receiver Corey Gammage tied a career-high with five receptions and set a new season-high with 65 receiving yards. He also scored his first touchdown this season and second of his career.

Senior receiver Artie Henry had his first three catches of the season, setting a new career-high for receiving yards with 72 and catching his first touchdown of the season. He has four career touchdown receptions.

Redshirt freshman tight end Amir Richardson made his first career start.

The interception by linebacker Eli Neal is his first at Marshall.

The first quarter touchdown by redshirt freshman quarterback Grant Wells was his second on the ground this season.

Marshall has scored first in all four games this season.

Junior Sheldon Evans fumbled on a kickoff return, the Herd's first fumble and lost fumble this season.

The Marshall defense held the opposition scoreless in the opening quarter for the third time in four games.

Louisiana Tech's second quarter field goal are the first points by a Herd opponent in the second quarter this season.

Marshall's six team sacks are the defense's most this season.

Notes Versus WKU

The game captains for Marshall were junior running back Sheldon Evans and senior offensive lineman on offense, and senior linebacker Tavante Beckett and junior cornerback Steven Gilmore on defense. This was Gilmore's first time as a game captain.

Marshall now leads the all-time series with WKU, 8-4. The Thundering Herd has won four consecutive games in the series.

Senior linebacker Tavante Beckett finished with three fumble recoveries for the Herd, tying a school record that was set by Mike Bankston vs. Bowling Green in 1969 and Roy Kinnison vs. Northern Illinois in 1972. Beckett now has five career fumble recoveries. His 38-yard fumble return for touchdown was Marshall's first since Brenden Knox had one at Southern Miss in 2018. Knox's came on a kickoff - the last fumble return for a TD by the Marshall defense was Chris Jackson's 15-yarder against Old Dominion in 2017.

Junior running back Brenden Knox set a new single game career-best with three rushing touchdowns. Knox also eclipsed 100 rushing yards for the 12th time in his career. Knox also moved up the career rushing list at Marshall, surpassing Larry Fourqurean for 10th place on the all-time list. Knox now has 2,295 career rushing yards.

Knox's 107 rush yards against WKU give him 12 career games with 100+. That ties him with Darius Marshall (2007-09) and Devon Johnson (2012-15) for the third-most 100-yard games in school history. Only Chris Parker (31 times, 1991-95) and Doug Chapman (21, 1996-99) have more.

Knox became the 15th player in school history with 20 career rushing touchdowns, surpassing Darius Marshall, Stew Butler and Remi Watson on the all-time rushing touchdowns list.

Sophomore receiver Broc Thompson gained 94 receiving yards, setting a new single game career high. Thompson's 40-yard reception was his longest this season.

Junior defensive back Steven Gilmore forced a fumble in the first half, the second of his career.

The forced fumble by Abraham Beauplan was his first at Marshall.

Junior running back Sheldon Evans scored his second rushing touchdown of the season and the third of his career. Evans' 23-yard run in the first half was his longest of the season.

Marshall finished plus-3 in turnovers, marking the team's ninth consecutive win under head coach Doc Holliday when winning the turnover battle by three or more.

Senior receiver Willie Johnson caught a 13-yard pass in the first half, putting him past 1,000 career receiving yards.

Notes Versus Appalachian State

The game captains for Marshall were senior offensive lineman Will Ulmer and junior running back Sheldon Evans on offense, and junior defensive lineman Koby Cumberlander and senior linebacker Tavante Beckett on defense. This is Cumberlander's first time as a captain.

Saturday was the 23rd meeting in the long-running series between Marshall and Appalachian State. After the Thundering Herd's win, the Mountaineers lead the all-time series, 14-9.

Saturday's game was Marshall's 25th against a nationally ranked opponent, and the fifth time in 202 games that a Top 25 team has played at Joan C. Edwards Stadium, which opened in 1991. Marshall won against a Top 25 team for the first time in Joan C. Edwards Stadium history, the first time anywhere since 2003 and the first time in Huntington since 1976. MU snapped a 16-game losing streak to nationally ranked teams.

Marshall junior running back Brenden Knox eclipsed 100 rushing yards in a game for the 11th time in his career.

Knox moved up three spots on the Thundering Herd all-time rushing list, passing Stew Butler (2,063 career rushing yards), Llow Turner (2,090) and Orlando Hatchett (2,143) to move into 11th place on the career rushing list.

Knox's 21-yard run to open the game is his longest this season and the 16th rush of 20 or more yards in his career.

The first half interception by Steven Gilmore is his first of the season and third of his career.

Gilmore also set a career-high with three pass breakups.

Redshirt senior T.J. Johnson recorded his first career sack at Marshall in Saturday's first half.

Junior defensive end Darius Hodge had at least one sack for the second consecutive game, the first time in his career he has had a sack in back-to-back games.

Senior defensive back Brandon Drayton had his first forced fumble of the season and second of his career.

Senior defensive back Nazeeh Johnson had his first fumble recovery of the season and second of his career.

Redshirt freshman quarterback Grant Wells scored his first rushing touchdown at Marshall. Wells also established a new career-best for rushing yards with 43.

Junior defensive back Derrek Pitts had a career-high nine tackles, the most for him since 2018 at WVU.

Beckett Named National Defensive Player of the Week
Marshall linebacker Tavante Beckett was named the Bronko Nagurski National Defensive Player of the Week on Tuesday.

The honor came one day after he was given Conference

USA's Defensive Player of the Week award.

Beckett was all over the field Saturday for the Thundering Herd, amassing a career-high 16 tackles (eight solo) with one forced fumble in the 17-7 home win over 23rd-ranked App State. The 16 stops are the most by a Marshall man since Chase Hancock made 18 tackles against Southern Miss in 2017. Last season, App State averaged 231 rush yards per game, which ranked No. 16 in the country, and in the season opener the Mountaineers ran for 308 yards against Charlotte. On Saturday the Herd, led by co-captain Beckett, held them to 96 yards on 33 carries Saturday, App State's lowest total in a game since 2014.

Wells Racks up Honors after ECU Victory

Marshall quarterback Grant Wells racked up two more honors following the Thundering Herd's 59-0 blowout win over Eastern Kentucky.

The Charleston native was Pro Football Focus College's highest-graded player in the nation on the first weekend of play, recording a grade of 94.7 with five "big-time" throws and no turnover-worthy plays.

He was also one of eight Manning Award Stars of the Week for his performance, a 16-for-23 day with 307 passing, four touchdowns and no interceptions. He also posted 30 yards rushing on the afternoon. For his efforts, he earned Conference USA's Offensive Player of the Week honor.

Wells, who completed his first eight passes, became the first Marshall quarterback with 300-plus passing yards in a debut, exceeding the previous record of 292 by Stan Hill vs Miami (Ohio) on Nov. 11, 2002. He tied the school record for most passing touchdowns in a debut with four, equaling the mark set by Hill vs. Miami and Chase Litton vs. Norfolk State in 2015.

Notes Versus ECU

The game captains for Marshall were senior offensive lineman Alex Mollette and junior running back Sheldon Evans, and senior defensive back Nazeeh Johnson and senior linebacker Tavante Beckett on defense. This is Evans' first time serving as a game captain.

After Saturday's win, Marshall leads the all-time series 12-8-1. The Thundering Herd has won four consecutive games in the series.

Saturday's win is Marshall's 10th in a row in home openers.

Two offensive players made their first career start for Marshall: Redshirt freshman quarterback Grant Wells and senior offensive lineman Alex Salguero.

Four defensive players made their first career start for the Herd: Junior defensive tackle Jamare Edwards, sophomore linebacker Eli Neal, junior linebacker Abraham Beauplan and junior safety Derrek Pitts.

Redshirt freshman quarterback Grant Wells became the first Marshall quarterback with 300-plus passing yards in a debut, passing for 307 yards. The previous record: Stan Hill vs Miami (Ohio) on Nov. 11, 2002 (292 passing yards).

Wells tied the record for most passing touchdowns in a debut with four, equaling the mark set by Hill vs. Miami and Chase Litton vs. Norfolk State in 2015.

Junior running back Brenden Knox reached a career milestone in the first half, surpassing 2,000 rushing yards. Knox also passed Keion Davis for No. 14 on the program's career rushing list.

Senior tight end Garet Morrell hauled in a 45-yard pass in the first half, a career long.

Sophomore receiver Talik Keaton established a new career-high for receiving yards in a single game. Keaton's 47-yard reception in the second quarter is a career long.

Sophomore running back Knowledge McDaniel made his debut carrying the ball, rushing for a team-high 93 yards.

Senior receiver Jaron Woodyard caught his first collegiate touchdown.

Freshman tight end Amir Richardson caught his first collegiate touchdown.

Junior defensive tackle Rodney Croom combined on a sack, the first of his career.

Sophomore linebacker Eli Neal set a new single game career high for tackles with eight (previous best: four vs. Cincinnati in 2019).

Junior defensive end Koby Cumberlander established a new single game career high for tackles with five (previous best: four – accomplished three times in 2019).

Sophomore defensive end Owen Porter set a new single game career high with five tackles (previous best: two – twice in 2019).

Marshall tied the school record for fewest punts with zero, which has now been accomplished seven times. The most recent occurrence before Saturday: UAB in 2006.

Eastern Kentucky gained only 166 yards in the contest, the fewest for a Marshall opponent since UTSA gained only 137 in that 23-0 Herd win in 2018. ECU managed only seven first downs against Marshall, which is the fewest that MU has allowed in a game since SMU had seven in the Herd's 16-13 overtime win in 2005 - Marshall's very first C-USA victory.

Behind Wells and company, Marshall gained 627 yards of total offense - the Herd's most since gaining 630 at Charlotte in 2015.

The Luke Zban to Amir Richardson scoring strike marked the first pair of native West Virginians to connect on a touchdown pass since Mark Zban's 80-yard toss to Randy Moss at Central Michigan in 1997.

Marshall-East Carolina Game Postponed

Marshall Football's September 12 game at East Carolina has been postponed, due to the severity of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic in the state of North Carolina.

Both schools will make every effort to reschedule the game on a date that has yet to be determined. This will be the third time the contest has been rescheduled this year.

Marshall and East Carolina have been forever linked since the tragic crash of Southern Airways Flight 932 on Nov. 14, 1970, which claimed the lives of all 75 aboard following ECU's 17-14 home victory earlier that afternoon.

The events of the day were depicted in the 2006 Warner Bros. motion picture We Are Marshall, starring Matthew McConaughey.

The two schools have met 15 times previously, with ECU winning 10.

One of Marshall's victories was a thrilling comeback win in the 2001 GMAC Bowl, which saw the Herd emerge with a 64-61 double overtime victory on the arm of MVP Byron Leftwich, who passed for a bowl-record 576 yards to bring MU back from a 38-8 halftime deficit.

"East Carolina has indicated to us that it is not able to play the game on September 12," said Marshall Director of Athletics Mike Hamrick. "We'll get together with ECU and do everything within our power to reschedule the game at a later date."

Marshall and ECU are also set to meet three more times: September 18, 2021 in Huntington, September 9, 2023 in Greenville and September 13, 2025 in Huntington.

Thundering Herd By The Numbers

- 134 – Marshall head coach Doc Holliday has led the Thundering Herd in a school-record 134 games.
- 75 – Marshall head coach Doc Holliday currently has 75 victories over FBS schools (83 total wins) as head coach of the Thundering Herd, five more than Bob Pruett's (1996-2004) previous mark of 70 (94 total wins).
- 56 – In the last seven-plus seasons, the Marshall offense has scored 30 or more points 56 times. The Herd is 51-5 in those games, including 17 consecutive wins.
- 55 – Marshall has won 55 of its last 58 games when holding the halftime lead.
- 50 – Since the beginning of the 2013 season, Marshall has won 50 of its last 53 games when scoring first.
- 46 – Marshall has won 46 of its last 51 contests when holding the opposition to 5.0 yards per play or fewer.
- 35 – In the past seven-plus seasons, Marshall quarterbacks have been interception-free 35 times. In those games, the Herd is 31-4.
- 34 – The Marshall offense has scored 40 or more points 34 times since 2010, Doc Holliday's first year with the program. The Herd is 30-4 in those games.
- 34 – The Marshall defense has allowed only two runs of 50-plus yards in the last three-plus seasons and hasn't allowed a 50+ yard carry in 34 of its last 35 games.
- 30 – The Marshall football team has now won 30 of its last 32 games (2019 at Boise State, 2019 at Charlotte) when scoring first.
- 23 – Since Doc Holliday took over as head coach, Marshall has won 23 out of 24 games when rushing for at least 250 yards.
- 18 – Marshall has won 18 of its last 20 games when leading after the first quarter.
- 7 – The Thundering Herd has won seven straight home games against Conference USA competition.
- 6 – Marshall has not allowed a 100-yard rusher in six consecutive games.
- 3 – Only three schools have a better (current home stadium) winning percentage than Marshall: Alabama, Boise State and Georgia Southern. The Herd is 168-35 at Joan C. Edwards Stadium, which opened in 1991, winning at an .828 clip.
- 1 – The Marshall football program continues to rank No. 1 nationally in bowl winning percentage (minimum six bowls to qualify). The Herd is 12-3 (.800) all-time in bowl games.

Marshall vs. Ranked Opponents

Since moving to Division I-A (FBS) in 1997, the Herd has enjoyed three landmark victories against nationally-ranked opponents. The following is the Marshall Thundering Herd's game-by-game results against NCAA FBS opponents ranked in the Associated Press (since 1936), UPI (1950-92), CNN (1993-96), ESPN/USA Today (1997-2004) or USA Today (since 2005) Top 25 polls since 1936.

Last Meeting vs. UMass (9/8/01)

Marshall and UMass have met once, a 49-20 Thundering Herd victory over the Minutemen on September 8, 2001. That season, UMass competed at the FCS level as members of the Atlantic 10 Conference. The Minutemen played the Herd tough, closing to within a 28-20 margin at the half, before the home team ran off three unanswered touchdowns in the third quarter. Thundering Herd quarterback Byron Leftwich finished the day going 21-for-30 for 331 yards, five touchdowns and one interception. Three of those scores went to Darius Watts, who posted nine catches for 160 yards. Senior Trod Buggs, playing in place of injured tailbacks Franklin Wallace and Chanston Rodgers, was the leading ground-gainer with 128 yards on 12 carries.

Doc Holliday Head Coach - 11th Season (83-51 overall, 54-29 C-USA)

Coach John "Doc" Holliday, who has returned Marshall University football to the national picture, enters his 11th season leading the Thundering Herd and his 129 games as head coach is a program record. With a 30-27 overtime win against FIU on November 30, 2019, he also became the program's all-time leader in coaching victories over FBS opponents (71), surpassing Bob Pruett's total of 70.

Marshall advanced to its seventh bowl under the veteran head coach with an appearance against UCF in the 2019 Gasparilla Bowl. Six of those wins have come under Holliday, who has the most bowl wins by a coach in program history.

In 2018, the Thundering Herd won four of its last five games to finish 9-4, the 20th time in school history a team has won as many games. It has happened six times since the turn of the century, four in the last six seasons.

Marshall's three straight 10-win seasons from 2013-15 were also a first in the 20-season history of Conference USA football.

Holliday led a resurgence in 2017, improving the Thundering Herd by five games to reach yet another bowl game under his watch.

His 2015 Herd finished 10-3 with a win over Connecticut in the St. Petersburg Bowl. His 2014 and '15 teams – with a combined mark of 23-4 – had the best record among the Group of Five programs in the two-year College Football Playoff era.

Holliday has built the Herd into a perennial Conference USA contender. His teams have sported 34 All-C-USA first team selections, 25 second-teamers, 41 honorable mention picks and 24 All-Freshman team selections. He has had 11 players selected for C-USA's top individual player-of-the-year awards.

Holliday's 2014 Herd (13-1) grabbed the school's first C-USA Championship with a thrilling comeback, title-game win over Louisiana Tech. MU headed to the Boca Raton Bowl, where it routed Mid-American Conference champion Northern Illinois, 52-23. The Herd finished the season in the major polls – No. 22 in the USA Today Coaches poll and No. 23 in the Associated Press media poll. It was Marshall's first appearance in the final polls since 2002.

The Herd coach was named the 2014 Conference USA Coach of the Year in voting by his peers and Marshall boasted a C-USA-record 10 all-conference first team selections.

Holliday received a six-year contract extension (through July 2021) for $755,500 annually on April 8, 2015.

The 2014 title season followed a successful 2013, as Marshall went 10-4, won the C-USA East Division crown and downed ACC member Maryland in the Military Bowl – the Terps' last game before heading to the Big Ten.

In December 2014, Holliday was named the 15th annual Gazette-Mail Sportsman of the Year by Charleston Newspapers. In April 2015, the Herd coach was honored as the 2014 Lowell Cade Sportsman of the Year by The (Huntington) Herald-Dispatch.

And in concert with Herd Athletic Director Mike Hamrick, Holliday has helped bring about upgrades in the Marshall non-conference schedule, with home-and-homes against Louisville, Pitt, North Carolina State, Purdue, Navy, Boise State, Cincinnati, Appalachian State, East Carolina, Akron and Ohio and a 2018 game at South Carolina.

Holliday, named as Herd coach on Dec. 17, 2009 in his first collegiate head coaching job, is widely regarded as one of the top recruiters in the nation. Since he has become a head coach, he has added a reputation for finding and hiring assistant coaches who have made a strong impact on his program. He has more than 30 years of collegiate coaching experience, including previous stops at Florida, North Carolina State and West Virginia, his alma mater.

In 2011, the Herd went 7-6 against the 16th-toughest schedule in the nation, a slate that was ranked second among non-BCS schools. Two of those victories came against eventual C-USA champion Southern Miss and Big East co-champ Louisville, the latter coming on the road for the program's first non-conference road win since the early 2000s. Marshall also won five Conference USA games, the most for the program since it had joined the league in 2005.

During his coaching career, Holliday has coached in 27 bowl games and three national championship games. He also has coached five All-Americans.

A native of Hurricane, W.Va., Holliday was born April 21, 1957. He was a three-year letter winner as a linebacker at West Virginia (1976-78) and has earned bachelor's (1979) and master's (1981) degrees from WVU. He won a West Virginia state wrestling title at 175 pounds (all divisions) in 1975 at Hurricane High.

Holliday and his wife, Diana, have four children -- Meghan, Cade, Chase and Cody.
