JAMIE COOK

DIRECTOR OF TRACK & FIELD / CROSS COUNTRY

Jamie Cook was named the Director of Track and Field at the United States Naval Academy in August of 2017. Cook joined the Midshipmen after an impressive career as an assistant coach at both Penn and Oregon, where he coached Olympians, National Champions, and All-Americans.

In his first five seasons at the helm of the Navy track and field team, Cook has won 14 Patriot League Coach of the Year honors (men's indoor – 2018, '20, '21; women's indoor – 2019, '20, '21; men's outdoor – 2018, '19, '21, '22; women's outdoor – 2018, '19, '21, '22) as well as being selected as the USTFCCCA Mid-Atlantic Region Coach of the Year four times (men's outdoor – 2018, '19, '21; women's indoor – 2021).

Cook has directed the Midshipmen to 14 Patriot League Championships (men's indoor – 2018, '20, '21; women's indoor – 2019, '20, '21; men's outdoor – 2018, '19, '21, '22; women's outdoor – 2018, '19, '21, '22) while helping Navy claim 13 Stars (men's indoor – 2018, '20, '21; women's indoor – 2020, '21; men's outdoor – 2018, '19, '21, '22; women's outdoor – 2018, '19, '21, '22) in the Army-Navy Star Series, which is part of the overall Star Series presented by USAA.

In addition, Navy has claimed three IC4A Outdoor Championships (2018, '19, '21) and one ECAC Outdoor Championship (2021) under Cook's direction.

Navy captured both the men's and women's indoor Patriot League Conference Championships. It was the men's 12th win in program history and the eighth time in the last nine meets that the Midshipmen won the title. The women took home the sixth indoor title in program history and marked the third consecutive win for the Mids.

The Navy men finished with 264 total points, winning nine of 18 events, and broke a pair of school records (pole vault and heptathlon) during the two-day meet. The women's team finished with 202 points, claiming first in seven of 18 events, and broke five school records (60m hurdles, pentathlon, long jump, 4x800m relay, and distance medley relay) during the two-day meet.

The Midshipmen had 24 athletes earn First Team All-Patriot League honors and 16 earn Second Team All-Patriot League honors at the indoor championships. Baynes Autrey (Men's Track and Field) was named the Patriot League Indoor Field Athlete of the Meet after posing a meet record of 5,510 points in the heptathlon.

During the regular season, the Midshipmen men's team earned four Patriot League Track Athlete of the Week, three Field Athlete of the Week, and three Rookie of the Week, and the women earned four Track Athlete of the Week and three Field Athlete of the Week honors.

Navy had another dominant indoor season against Army in the annual Indoor Star Meet by sweeping for a pair of indoor stars (men – W, 101-80; women – W, 94-87) which is part of the overall Army-Navy Star Series presented by USAA.

During the indoor season, the men's track and field team posted 21 times/marks that ranked in Navy's all-time top-10, including finishing the indoor season with three school records. The women's team posted 35 times/marks that ranked in Navy's all-time top-10, including finishing the indoor season with six school records.

For his team's outstanding success, Cook was named the Patriot League Coach of the Year for both the men and women.

The Mids also stood out in the classroom under Cook's guidance. The men had a league-best four student-athletes selected to the Patriot League's 10-person indoor all-academic men's team. Senior Sean Casey was named the 2022 Patriot League Men's Indoor Track and Field Scholar-Athlete of the Year. The women had two student-athletes selected to the Patriot League's 11-person (one additional spot being awarded due to a tie in the voting) indoor all-academic women's team.

The momentum carried into the outdoor season, as Navy won the men's and women's Patriot League Outdoor Conference Championship. It is the fourth consecutive season that the Midshipmen have swept the Outdoor Championships. The men won their ninth title in program history and eighth in a row. The women's victory was their sixth outdoor championship and fourth consecutive.

The Navy men finished with a tournament record of 333 points to win by 94 points, winning 11 of the 22 events. The women's team ended with 281.50 points, claiming 10 in seven of 22 events for a 105.5-point win.

Cook and his athletes ended the outdoor season with a number of accolades. Cook was named the men's and women's Patriot League Outdoor Coach of the Year, bringing his total to 14 coach of the year awards. Miguel Mathias was named men's track athlete of the meet, while freshman Jacques Guillaume earned men's rookie of the meet and junior Caden Dailey was the men's highest point scorer. Katie Halbert was named women's field athlete of the meet, while also finishing as the women's highest point scorer.

Navy had 25 athletes earn First Team All-Patriot League honors and 22 earn Second Team All-Patriot League honors. The Midshipmen sent 14 athletes to the 2022 NCAA East Preliminaries, and one athlete to the NCAA Outdoor Championship.

Navy earned another pair of stars in the Army-Navy Star Series presented by USAA after the men and women defeated Army in the annual Outdoor Star Meet. The men posted a 107-93 for their 10th consecutive victory versus Army. The women earned their seventh straight win versus Army after a 117-86 victory.

The men's team ended the regular season with two Patriot League Track Athlete of the Week, four Field Athlete of the Week, and four Rookie of the Week honors during the outdoor season. The Navy women claimed three Patriot League Track Athlete of the Week and five Patriot League Field Athlete of the Week during the outdoor season.

In total, the men's team posted 22 times/marks that ranked in Navy's all-time top-10, including finishing the outdoor season with three school records, and the women's team posted 52 times/marks that ranked in Navy's all-time top-10, including finishing the outdoor season with seven school records.

The Midshipmen were also successful in the classroom during the spring. Navy had a league-best six student-athletes on the 11-member Patriot League all-academic men's squad (one additional spot being awarded due to a tie in the voting). Navy also had three student-athletes selected to the Patriot League's 10-person outdoor all-academic women's team.

Despite COVID difficulties throughout the year, Navy went undefeated in 2021.

The Midshipmen competed in three intercollegiate meets during the indoor season. Navy posted a sweep of Army for a pair of indoor Stars (men – W, 101-80; women – W, 98-83). Despite no team score, Navy won 8 of 13 events against William & Mary on the men's side, while sweeping all 13 events at the Patriot League Indoor Challenge. The women's team claimed 10 of 14 events versus William & Mary and won 14 of 15 events at the PL Indoor Challenge.

During the outdoor season, Navy swept Army for two outdoor Stars (men – W, 103-100; women – W, 111.5-88.5), while also sweeping the Patriot League Outdoor Championships and IC4A / ECAC Outdoor Championships.

At the PL Outdoor Championship, the men trailed by 19 points with two events remaining. The Midshipmen claimed first, third, and fourth in the high jump to earn 21 points and take a two-point advantage into the final race – the 4x400m relay – which Navy won to seal the victory. On the women's side, Navy won the PL Championship by nearly 80 points, notching the most points scored in Patriot League history (295) and smashing the previous high of 237 points set in 1994 by Army.

Cook was named the Patriot League Coach of the Year for both the men and women at the Patriot League Outdoor Championships. Clayton Thompson ('21) was the Track Athlete of the Meet and Top Point Scorer on the men's side, while Molly Mangan ('23) was the Track Athlete of the Meet on the women's side.

The Midshipmen swept the IC4A / ECAC Outdoor Championships for the first time in program history. For the men, it was the third consecutive win for the Mids in the meet, matching Navy's stretch of three straight titles in 1944, 1945, and 1946. For the women, it was the second ECAC Outdoor Championship in program history and the first since 1989 when the Mids claimed the Division II ECAC title.

Navy had 16 student-athletes – Cole Bailey ('22), Emma Foster ('21), Hayden Fox ('22), Jack Haller ('23), Eric Hughey ('21), David Huizenga ('23), Ann Jackson ('21), Thomas Johnstone ('21), Skyler Mason ('21), Sarah Morris ('21), Sam Orié ('21), Julian Perez ('21), Braden Presser ('24), Clayton Thompson ('21), Jadyn Tiracave ('22), Brahmir Vick ('24) – compete in 10 events at the 2021 NCAA East Preliminaries. The 16 Navy competitors are the most for the Midshipmen under Cook. The Mids had 13 competitors in 2019 and six in 2018.

The 2019-20 season saw Navy capture both the Patriot League Men's and Women's Indoor Championship titles. For the men, it was the 11th win in program history and the seventh time in the last eight years that the Midshipmen won the title. On the women's individual award winner by John Finnegan ('20) who was tabbed the Track Athlete of the Meet. Sean Brennan ('19) was named the Field Athlete of the Meet, as well as the Top Point Scorer on the men's side during the outdoor meet, while Finnegan once again was tabbed the Track Athlete of the Meet.

For the second consecutive season, the Navy men's track and field team won the IC4A Outdoor Championship. The men's team posted a combined score of 109 points to win the 2019 title by 42. It was the first time that Navy has won back-to-back IC4A titles since the Midshipmen won three straight in 1944, 1945, and 1946. At the IC4A Championships, Navy tallied 16 All-East performances (top 8 finishers).

In addition, the 2018-19 men's team won an event at the prestigious Penn Relays for the first time in 73 years as the Midshipmen won the shuttle hurdle relay at Franklin Field in Philadelphia, Pa. The quartet of Kordell Williams ('19), Cameron Hurd ('20), Hunter Wargo ('20), and Clayton Thompson ('21) combined for a time of 56.96 to win the event by just over a half a second (0.53). In addition to winning the shuttle hurdle relay, the men's 4x400m relay team broke the school record, which was set 40 years ago. The team of Eric Hughey ('21), Simon Petsch ('21), Hurd, and John Finnegan ('20) clocked a time of 3:08.78 to best the previous record of 3:08.84, which was set in 1979.

The 2018-19 season saw 13 student-athletes – Sean Brennan ('19), John Finnegan ('20), Emma Foster ('21), Hayden Fox ('22), Eric Hughey ('21), Cameron Hurd ('20), Skyler Mason ('21), Kevin Murray ('20), Simon Petsch ('21), Stefano Pineda ('19), Clayton Thompson ('21), Jadyn Tiracave ('22), Cedric Williams ('20) – compete in 11 individual events and one relay at the 2019 NCAA East Preliminaries. Fox (javelin) and the 4x400m relay team of Hughey, Petsch, Hurd, and Finnegan advanced to the NCAA Championship. For their efforts finishing in the top 24, Finnegan, Fox, Hughey, Hurd, and Petsch each earned honorable mention All-America honors.

Off the track, Stefano Pineda ('19) was named to the 2018-19 Google Cloud Academic All-America Men's Track & Field/Cross Country First Team, selected by College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). With his selection, Pineda became the first Midshipmen in track and field history to earn first-team recognition in multiple seasons. In addition, Benjamin Stewart ('19) was awarded the men's Coaches' Calvert Award, which recognizes a graduating varsity letterwinner who displayed leadership, consistent effort, loyalty, and dedication to the sport and who has taken their abilities beyond the expectations of the coach, peers and themselves.

In his first season at the helm of the Midshipmen, Cook took steps to combine the Navy men's and women's track and field programs into one unit, and the 2017-18 track and field team recorded a memorable season. The Midshipmen men's team won the Patriot League Indoor Championship for the sixth consecutive year with Cook being named Patriot League Coach of the Year. In addition, Cook and the men's track and field team picked up a Star during the indoor season by beating Army, 97-84, in Annapolis. During the outdoor season, both the men's and the women's track and field teams claimed Patriot League Outdoor Championships with Cook being recognized as Patriot League Coach of the Year. The track and field team picked up two more Stars by winning both the men's and women's outdoor competitions against Army. In addition, the men's track and field team won the IC4A Outdoor Championships for the first time since 1973. The men's and women's track and field teams posted numerous times and marks in Navy's all-time top-10, including breaking 10 school records. The Midshipmen sent seven student-athletes to the NCAA East Regionals with javelin thrower Sean Richards advancing to Nationals and earning honorable mention All-American with a 22nd place finish.

Cook came to Annapolis as a 17-year veteran of coaching, serving as an assistant coach for seven years at the University of Oregon and 10 years prior at the University of Pennsylvania. During his coaching tenure, he has worked directly with sprinters, jumpers, hurdlers, pole vaulters, multi-eventers and relays. While at Oregon, he oversaw the combined events as well as high jump, pole vault and men's hurdles. In addition, Cook served as the recruiting coordinator which saw the Ducks continually being recognized as the No. 1 recruiting class in the country.

In conjunction with his coaching duties, he has developed training programs with an emphasis on speed development that has been used by Olympians, as well as players from the NFL, Major League Baseball and English Premier Soccer League. Cook is also a certified strength and conditioning specialist through the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Cook has directly worked with several athletes in the Olympic Trials and Olympic Games, including a pair of finalists in the 2016 Rio Olympics – Devon Allen (United States) and Johnathan Cabral (Canada), who finished fifth and sixth in the 110-meter high hurdles, respectively. Allen was a three-time NCAA Champion in the hurdles and posted the second fastest time in NCAA history, winning the 2016 Olympic Trials in the 110m hurdles with a time of 13.03. Cabral was the 2016 and 2017 Canadian 110m hurdles champion. Cook coached Allen and Cabral at the 2017 International Association of Athletics Federation (IAAF) World Championships in London on August 6-7.

Cook still actively works with world-class athletes, including coaching Devon Allen to the third fastest hurdle time in world history (12.84) in 2022, just four-hundredths of a second behind the world record time set in 2012.

In his seven years at Oregon, Cook guided athletes to 27 All-America honors, 18 individual conference titles, and six individual NCAA Championships. He assisted on all 15 of the Duck's men's and women's NCAA titles in the men's and women's track and field program. His athletes also played a substantial role on the conference level, where the Ducks were undefeated – sweeping seven men's and women's Pac 12 titles during his tenure.

Cook developed six-time All-American Dakotah Keys into one of Oregon's all-time greatest decathletes. The three-time Pac-12 decathlon champion finished fourth in the heptathlon at the 2014 NCAA Indoor Championships and third in the decathlon at the 2014 and 2015 Outdoor Championships. Keys, a four-time NCAA outdoor qualifier, was joined by Mitch Modin and Joe Delgado at the 2015 championships, where Oregon was awarded the Webb Cup for the nation's top decathlon program.

Cook also worked with Brianne Theisen, who swept the NCAA indoor pentathlon and outdoor heptathlon titles in 2011 and 2012. In 2012, she set the collegiate and Canadian record in the pentathlon (4,555 points) and set the NCAA meet record with 6,440 points in the heptathlon, the second-best score in collegiate history, before going on to the London Olympics to represent Team Canada.

Prior to Oregon, Cook was the top men's assistant coach at the University of Pennsylvania from 2001-10. During his tenure with the Quakers, Cook coached 64 Ivy League champions, oversaw seven school records, and helped Penn capture a pair of team titles (2001, 2002). The Quakers placed 11th at the 2003 NCAA Championships. He was also the combined events coordinator for the prestigious Penn Relays for 10 years.

Off the track, Cook played a key role in Penn's track and field alumni relations, which helped lead to the establishment of a $1,000,000 endowment in 2003 and saw an annual fundraising total of $250,000 in 2010.

Prior to joining the Quakers' staff, Cook was a three-time All-American in the decathlon for Penn State from 1995-98, where he was also a Big Ten, IC4A, and Penn Relays champion in the multi-events during his collegiate career.

Additionally, Cook was honored as a three-time Academic All-American while competing for the Nittany Lions. He was a 2004 U.S. Olympic Trials competitor in the decathlon and competed in six USA Track & Field combined events (decathlon / indoor heptathlon) from 2002-05. He also represented the United States versus Germany in the Decathlon Duel of 2003. His personal best in the decathlon of 7,853 points came during his 2004 Olympic Trials year.

Cook graduated from Penn State with a degree in kinesiology in 1999 and then in 2006, completed his work in the executive education program at Penn's Wharton School of Business with a concentration in finance/accounting.

Cook and his wife, Kristin, are the parents of two children, son, Calvin, and daughter, Sara.

CHRIS CAMPBELL

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

Chris Campbell has been a member of the Navy men's track and field coaching staff since 2008, working primarily with the throwers. In 2017, the 1989 Academy graduate was promoted to associate head coach.

During his tenure, Campbell has assisted in directing the men's track and field team to 19 Patriot League Championships (indoor – 2008, '11, '13, '14, '15, '16, '17, '18, '20, '21; outdoor – 2008, '14, '15, '16, '17, '18, '19, '21, '22), while helping the women claim six titles (indoor – 2019, '20, '21; outdoor – 2019, '21, '22). Since Campbell joined the coaching staff, the Midshipmen men have swept the indoor and outdoor league crowns seven times (2008, '14, '15, '16, '17, '18, '21), while the women have swept in program history (2019, '21).

In addition, Campbell has helped the Midshipmen to a 27-9 (.75) overall record in the Army-Navy Star Series, which is part of the overall Star Series presented by USAA. Navy captured both the men's and women's indoor Patriot League Conference Championships. It was the men's 12th win in program history and the eighth time in the last nine meets that the Midshipmen won the title. The women took home the sixth indoor title in program history and marked the third consecutive win for the Mids.

Navy had another dominant indoor season against Army in the annual Indoor Star Meet by sweeping for a pair of indoor stars (men – W, 101-80; women – W, 94-87) which is part of the overall Army-Navy Star Series presented by USAA.

Campbell worked with First team All-Patriot League indoor recipient Joshua Boamah (weight throw). Boamah ended with a distance of 20.18m (66' 2.5") at the Patriot League Indoor Championships, the fourth longest weight throw distance in program history. Boamah set a new personal record and the third longest distance in the weight throw in Navy history of 20.20m (66' 3.25") at the 2022 Darius Dixon Memorial Invitational.

Navy also won the men's and women's Patriot League Outdoor Conference Championship. It is the fourth consecutive season that the Midshipmen have swept the Outdoor Championships. The men won their ninth title in program history and eighth in a row. The women's victory was their sixth outdoor championship and fourth consecutive.

Navy earned another pair of stars in the Army-Navy Star Series presented by USAA after the men and women defeated Army in the annual Outdoor Star Meet. The men posted a 107-93 for their 10th consecutive victory versus Army. The women earned their seventh straight win versus Army after a 117-86 victory.

Campbell coached four athletes who earned All-Patriot League honors. Braden Presser (javelin) earned First Team All-Patriot League honors and Boamah (shot put, discus) earned second team honors for the men. Jadyn Tiracave (javelin) received First Team All-Patriot League honors and Renny Murphy (javelin) received second team honors for the women.

Campbell sent Boamah (hammer throw), Presser (javelin), and Hayden Fox (javelin) to Bloomington, Ind., for the 2022 NCAA East Preliminaries. Presser took sixth in the javelin, which qualified him for the NCAA Outdoor Championship in Eugene, Ore. Presser finished with a distance of 72.17m (236' 9"), which stands as the third best distance in Navy history since 1986.

Presser ended the outdoor season with three of the best javelin throws in Navy history, including the second farthest distance at 73.55m (241' 4") since 1986. He was also a two-time Patriot League Outdoor Field Athlete of the Week recipient during the 2022 outdoor season (March 22; April 5).

Despite COVID difficulties throughout the year, Navy went undefeated in 2021.

The Midshipmen competed in three intercollegiate meets during the indoor season. Navy posted a sweep of Army for a pair of indoor Stars (men – W, 101-80; women – W, 98-83). Despite no team score, Navy won 8 of 13 events against William & Mary on the men's side, while sweeping all 13 events at the Patriot League Indoor Challenge. The women's team claimed 10 of 14 events versus William & Mary and won 14 of 15 events at the PL Indoor Challenge.

During the outdoor season, Navy swept Army for two outdoor Stars (men – W, 103-100; women – W, 111.5-88.5), while also sweeping the Patriot League Outdoor Championships and IC4A / ECAC Outdoor Championships.

At the PL Outdoor Championship, the men trailed by 19 points with two events remaining. The Midshipmen claimed first, third, and fourth in the high jump to earn 21 points and take a two-point advantage into the final race – the 4x400m relay – which Navy won to seal the victory. On the women's side, Navy won the PL Championship by nearly 80 points, notching the most points scored in Patriot League history (295) and smashing the previous high of 237 points set in 1994 by Army.

The Midshipmen swept the IC4A / ECAC Outdoor Championships for the first time in program history. For the men, it was the third consecutive win for the Mids in the meet, matching Navy's stretch of three straight titles in 1944, 1945, and 1946. For the women, it was the second ECAC Outdoor Championship in program history and the first since 1989 when the Mids claimed the Division II ECAC title.

Campbell worked directly with eight of Navy's 16 student-athletes who competed at the 2021 NCAA East Preliminaries – Emma Foster ('21), Hayden Fox ('22), David Huizenga ('23), Sklyer Mason ('21), Sarah Morris ('21), Sam Orié ('21), Braden Presser ('24), and Jadyn Tiracave ('22).

In addition, Foster qualified for the 2021 U.S. Olympic Team Trials – Track and Field at Hayward Field in Eugene, Ore.

Campbell's athletes finished the 2021 campaign with five school records. Orié finished her senior campaign with the Navy record in the shot put (indoor and outdoor), weight throw, and hammer throw, while Foster set the school mark in the javelin. On the men's side, Presser became the first javelin thrower to top 70m since 2016.

The 2019-20 season saw Navy capture both the Patriot League Men's and Women's Indoor Championship titles. For the men, it was the 11th win in program history and the seventh time in the last eight years that the Midshipmen won the title. On the women's side, it was the fifth indoor title in program history and marked the second consecutive win for the Mids.

As a team, Navy scored more points on the men's side (245 pts) in the conference meet than any other Division I school in the country, and as a collective team, the Mids scored more points combined between the men's and women's side (449.5 pts) in the conference meet than any other Division I school in the country. The Navy men won 11 of 18 events, including eight individual events and three relays. The women's team was able to finish with 204.5 points, claiming first or second in 10 of 18 events.

COACHING STAFF

Aside from winning the 2020 Patriot League Indoor Championship, the Midshipmen also claimed a pair of indoor Stars by winning the annual Army-Navy Indoor Star Meet. The men's team won 13 of 17 events to post a 109-71 victory over Army West Point. The Midshipmen recorded maximum points in eight events to cruise to the victory in America's Meet. The women's team posted a 93-80 victory over the Black Knights. The indoor victory was the first for the Midshipmen since 2014. Navy women won eight of the 17 events on the day. In addition, the Mids posted five school records – 60m dash, 200m dash, 4x400m relay, triple jump, and weight throw – en route to the victory.

During the season, the Navy men broke a pair of school records on the season, setting new benchmarks in the 1-mile run and the 60m hurdles, while the Mids' women broke the school record in eight events – 60m, 200m, 400m, pole vault, triple jump, weight throw, pentathlon, and 4x400m relay. Campbell worked directly with Ariana McKenzie ('21) who set the new school record in the weight throw (19.04m / 62-05.75).

In the classroom, Navy had five student-athletes named to the 2020 Patriot League Indoor All-Academic Team. The men's team posted a league-best three student-athletes, Ashwin Briggs ('22), Jake Brophy ('20), and Sean Casey ('22), while Kara Kakascik ('20) and Sam Orie ('21) were selected to the women's team.

Navy competed in one meet during the 2020 outdoor season before competition was halted due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Mids swept the San Diego Collegiate Championship at Triton Stadium on the campus of UC San Diego.

The 2018-19 season marked the first time that the men's and women's track and field programs were combined. Campbell helped direct the women's track and field team to the Patriot League Indoor Championship for the first time since 2011. The outdoor season saw the women's team win its second consecutive title.

Thrower Sean Brennan ('19) was named the Field Athlete of the Meet, as well as the Top Point Scorer on the men's side during the outdoor meet. Brennan won the shot put, hammer throw, and the discus to earn Navy 30 points by himself.

For the second consecutive season, the Navy men's track and field team won the IC4A Outdoor Championship. The men's team posted a combined score of 109 points to win the 2019 title by 42. It was the first time that Navy has won back-to-back IC4A titles since the Midshipmen won three straight in 1944, 1945, and 1946. At the IC4A Championships, Navy tallied 16 All-East performances (top 8 finishers).

The 2018-19 season saw throwers Sean Brennan ('19), Emma Foster ('21), Hayden Fox ('22), Skyler Mason ('21), and Jadyn Tiracave ('22) compete at the 2019 NCAA East Preliminaries. Fox (javelin) advanced to the NCAA Championship, and for his efforts finishing in the top 24, he earned honorable mention All-America honors.

During the 2017-18 season, Sean Richards ('18) advanced to the NCAA Championships in Eugene, Ore. in the javelin. The outdoor captain received Honorable Mention All-American honors after finishing in the top 24 (22nd). He finished 11th at the NCAA East Preliminaries to advance to the national competition.

During the 2015-16 season, Campbell coached Jay Stell ('16) to his second First Team USTFCCCA All-America honor as Stell placed sixth in the javelin at the 2016 NCAA Outdoor Championship. Stell improved at each big event as he set the program record at the NCAA East Regionals with a third-place throw of 234-1. He then went on to cap off his career with a sixth-place program record-breaking throw of 242-2 at the NCAA Championship.

Campbell watched Navy throwers dominate during the 2013-14 season. Campbell guided Stell to a First Team USTFCCCA All-America laurel by finishing third in the javelin at the NCAA Outdoor Championship. Stell also placed fourth at the NCAA's East Regional Championship, won the Patriot League title, and set a new school record in the event. Stell became Campbell's second All-American and first since Zack Duncavage ('14) in 2013 at Navy.

Campbell led the Navy throwers to a banner year in 2011-12. Campbell helped Duncavage earn All-America Second-Team honors by placing 16th in the discus at the NCAA Outdoor Championship. Duncavage also placed seventh in the discus at the NCAA's East Regional Championship, won the Patriot League title, and set a new school record in the event. Duncavage became Campbell's first All-American while at Navy.

Also, in 2011-12, Miles Snelgrove won the javelin at the Patriot League Outdoor Championship, placed fifth at the IC4A Championship to earn All-East honors, and claimed 18th place at the NCAA's East Regional Championship. Chris Ricks also earned IC4A All-East honors in the hammer throw and Chris Boniwell won the Patriot League shot put title.

Campbell's throwers won the indoor league weight throw and the outdoor shot put during the 2010-11 season and Duncavage qualified for the NCAA East Regional in the discus.

In both 2008 and 2009, Navy throwers earned Field-Athlete-of-the-Meet honors at the Patriot League Outdoor Championship, with team captain and Academic All-American Mark Van Orden ('09) sweeping the conference's hammer and weight throw titles to earn the distinction in 2009. Van Orden won two league titles as a senior and was named to the ESPN The Magazine/CoSIDA Academic All-American First Team.

Campbell, himself, was a four-year letter winner on the Midshipmen track and field team. A javelin thrower and former school record holder, he was elected team captain his senior year. Upon graduation, Campbell was assigned to the San Diego-based naval warship, USS COPELAND, which completed CARAT operations during Desert Storm and counter-narcotic operations off the coast of Central America in 1993.

Campbell completed his military obligation as an Operations Officer at Naval Station Annapolis and achieved the rank of Lieutenant before resigning from the Navy in 1995. While completing his military obligation, he served as a volunteer coach at Navy while completing an M.S. in Education at Johns Hopkins University.

Campbell's second coaching stop came at Ball State University, where he served as field events coach for the Cardinals program from 1996-99. During his tenure, Campbell directed student-athletes to NCAA qualifying marks in the hammer throw and high jump, four school records, and a Mid-American Conference hammer throw championship. In addition, he helped lead the 1998 Ball State women's squad to both the Indoor and Outdoor MAC team titles.

Following his three-year stint at Ball State, Campbell spent six seasons at Fresno State, including two as the associate head coach. There he mentored All-Americans in the decathlon, javelin, and shot put, while helping the women's team to the 2005 California-Nevada Coaches Association Team Championship, and the Bulldog men to the same title in 2000. The women's squad also captured the WAC title in 2002, its first conference championship in 10 years.

Campbell also held the role of recruiting coordinator while at Fresno State, inking several blue-chip athletes, including the nation's top-ranked high school javelin thrower in 2003. Additionally, he served as Vice President of the California-Nevada Coaches Association and as Men's and Women's Development Chairperson for the Central Valley Chapter of USA Track and Field. While there, he also completed a Master of Arts in Kinesiology in 2003.

Prior to Navy, Campbell served as an assistant for the combined men's and women's programs at Michigan State. Working primarily with the throwers and multi-event athletes, he tutored nine Spartans to 16 scoring positions at the Big Ten Championships, four NCAA regional qualifying marks, a pair of NCAA provisional marks in the women's pentathlon and heptathlon, and four school records. In addition to his coaching duties, Campbell served as assistant meet director for the 2006 Big Ten Outdoor Track and Field Championships and directed the 30-team Spartan Invitational.

Campbell has mentored a total of four NCAA All-Americans (2 discus, 2 javelin), one junior national All-American, one junior Pan-American Championship competitor, 27 NCAA Championship qualifiers (shot, discus, hammer, javelin), three Intercollegiate Association for Amateur Athletes of America (IC4A) champions, 31 All-East IC4A performers, 32 Patriot League champions, and two Patriot League Field Athletes of the Meet (Outdoor).

In addition, Campbell has mentored two NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship winners and two Patriot League Scholar-Athletes of the Year.

Campbell has also completed USATF Coaching Education Schools through Level III and has been an NSCA Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist since 1996. He served as president of the IC4A in 2013 and was a member of the USTFCCCA Ethics Committee from 2008-10.

Campbell and his wife, Julie, and son, Mark, reside in Annapolis.

SHELDON HUTCHINSON

ASSISTANT COACH

Sheldon Hutchinson joined the Navy track and field program as an assistant coach in September 2021. Hutchinson works with Navy's long jumpers and triple jumpers while also assisting the staff with recruiting and other duties as assigned.

The indoor men's season was highlighted by freshman Aidan Featherby (long jump) and sophomore Jordan Payne (triple jump) earning First Team All-Patriot League honors, and Nahshon Houston (long jump) earning Second Team All-Patriot League honors, helping the men's team capture their 12th Patriot League Indoor Conference Championship in program history.

Sebastean Allen claimed a Patriot League Rookie of the Week accolade (Jan 18.) for a victory in the triple jump versus Princeton.

Featherby was also a standout amongst the Midshipmen jumpers during the outdoor season, earning First Team All-Patriot League honors in the triple jump. His success, along with Houston's Second Team All-Patriot League honor in the long jump helped the men's team secure their eighth straight Patriot League Outdoor Conference Championship and ninth total in program history.

Caden Daily took home the Patriot League Outdoor Athlete of the Week award (April 12) for a victory in the long jump at the Larry Ellis Invitational. Joe Hurt claimed the Patriot League Rookie of the Week award (April 5) for a victory in the triple jump versus Army. He was also one of 10 Midshipmen at the 2022 NCAA East Preliminaries in Bloomington, Ind.

Breanna Mealer (long jump) was the top jumper for the women's team during the indoor season, earning First Team All-Patriot League honors to help the women's team capture their sixth Patriot League Indoor Conference Championship. Mealer also posted a school-record performance of 6.03m (19' 9.5") in the long jump.

Molly Chapman earned a Patriot League Field Athlete of the Week award for her victories in the high jump and triple jump versus Army. Chapman put herself on the awards list again in the outdoor season, earning First Team All-Patriot League recognition in the triple jump to give the women their fourth consecutive conference championship and sixth in program history.

Freshman Sami Bollinger notched a school-record outdoor performance in the triple jump with a distance of 12.29m (40' 4").

Prior to joining the Navy staff, Hutchinson worked at Nebraska as a volunteer assistant coach for three seasons (2018-21). He arrived in Lincoln from Maricopa, Ariz. where he served as a head coach for track and field at the middle school / high school level (2008-18).

While at Nebraska, Hutchinson worked directly with several student-athletes that claimed All-Big Ten accolades, including Lishanna Ilves, Angie Mercurio, Shylia Rylie, and Ieva Turke on the women's side and Papay Glaywulu and Elijah Lucy on the men's team. Ilves and Mercurio also excelled at the national level as the duo each earned Second Team All-America distinction in the long jump and triple jump, respectively. During his tenure, the Husker men's track and field team was crowned Big Ten indoor champions for the 2019 season.

Before joining the Nebraska coaching staff, Hutchinson was a teacher and head coach at the prep level for 10 years.

Hutchinson started his coaching career at Desert Wind Middle School in Maricopa, Ariz., serving as head track and field coach from 2008 to 2014. He built the track and field program within the first year of the school's opening, teaching students the importance of technique and injury prevention in track and field. Hutchinson was made the science department head at Desert Wind in 2009.

He moved to Maricopa High School in 2014, remaining as the head coach until 2018. While at Maricopa, he oversaw over 120 student-athletes, guiding the track and field program through endurance, speed-endurance, speed, and agility workouts. In addition, Hutchinson taught chemistry and physics, using Arizona State Teaching Standards in creative and motivating methods.

Collegiately, Hutchinson competed on the Nebraska track and field team from 1998-03. He was a three-time All-American, earning the honor in 1999, 2000, and 2001 in the triple jump. Twenty years after setting the school records, he sat in third on the Nebraska top 10 list in the triple jump during the indoor season for his leap of 16.39m (53-09.25) in 2000, while also ranking third in the Husker top 10 list in the triple jump for the outdoor season with his jump of 16.22m (53-02.75) in 1999. His record leap of 16.39m (53-09.25) in the triple jump at the Big XII Outdoor Championships in 2000 stood until 2010.

A native of Gaithersburg, Md., Hutchinson graduated from Nebraska in 2003 with a bachelor's degree in educational sciences, kinesiology, and exercise science. He earned a master's degree in education, teacher education, and professional development from the University of Phoenix in 2010.

CHRIS JOHNSON

ASSISTANT COACH

Chris Johnson joined the Navy track and field program as an assistant coach in August 2021. Johnson works with Navy's high-jumpers and multi-event athletes while also assisting the staff with recruiting and other duties as assigned.

Johnson brought immediate success to Navy's squad in his first indoor season. For the men's team, Baynes Autrey (heptathlon) and Cole Bailey (high jump) earned First Team All-Patriot League honors, and Jacob Jancek (heptathlon) earned Second Team All-Patriot League honors to help the men's team capture their 12th Patriot League Indoor Conference Championship in program history.

Autrey posted a program record of 5,510 points at the championships and was named the Patriot League Indoor Field Athlete of the Meet.

Autrey continued his success during the outdoor season, earning First Team All-Patriot League honors in the decathlon. Along with Autrey, Bailey earned Second Team All-Patriot League honors in the high jump to help secure the men's eighth straight Patriot League Outdoor Conference Championship and ninth total in program history. Bailey went on to be one of the 10 men's track and field student-athletes representing the Naval Academy at the 2022 NCAA East Preliminaries in Bloomington, Ind.

For the women's team, Taylor Buchanan (high jump) and Erin Higgins (pentathlon) earned First Team All-Patriot League honors, and Katie Halbert (pentathlon) earned Second Team All-Patriot League honors to help the women's team capture their sixth Patriot League Indoor Conference Championship.

Halbert was named the Patriot League Indoor Track Athlete of the Week (Feb. 8), and Patriot League Indoor Field Athlete of the Week (Jan. 25). High jumper Molly Chapman also earned a Patriot League Indoor Field Athlete of the Week award (Feb 8.).

During the indoor season, Chapman and Taylor Buchanan tied for the school record in the high jump, posting a height of 1.73m (5' 8"). In the pentathlon, Erin Higgins registered a record 3,834 points at the Indoor Championships. Halbert set a new school record in the 60m hurdles with a time of 8.51 seconds.

Halbert only improved in the outdoor season, earning Patriot League Outdoor Women's Field Athlete of the Meet and Patriot League Outdoor Women's Highest Point Scorer. She earned First Team All-Patriot League honors in the 100m hurdles, 4x100m relays and long jump. She also took home Second Team All-Patriot League honors in the heptathlon. Navy also earned first team honors from Chapman (triple jump), Higgins (heptathlon) and Hannah Lowenstein (high jump). Buchanan (high jump) earned second team honors for the Midshipmen. The combined success of these athletes gave the women their fourth consecutive conference championship and sixth in program history. Buchanan and Lowenstein both represented the Naval Academy at the 2022 NCAA East Preliminaries in the high jump.

Of the eight women's Patriot League weekly awards won by Navy athletes during the 2022 outdoor season, six were won by athletes coached by Johnson. Lowenstein won the Patriot League Field Athlete of the Week award three times (April 5, April 19, May 3). Higgins (April 26) and Buchanan (May 3) also claimed the weekly honor. Halbert earned the Patriot League Female Track Athlete of the Week on April 5.

Halbert also posted the school record in the outdoor 100m hurdles, clocking a time of 13.48. She was also part of the 4x100 relay team that set a school record with a time of 45.95 seconds. In the heptathlon, Higgins registered a record 5,395 points and was a member of the 4x400m relay team that tallied a school-record time of 3:44.42.

Lowenstein set the school record in the high jump, posting a height of 1.77m (5-09.75).

Prior to joining the Navy staff, Johnson worked at Tulane as an assistant coach for three seasons (2018-21). He arrived in New Orleans from Valley City State University in North Dakota where he served as the head coach of cross country and track and field (2015-18).

During his time at Tulane, Johnson worked directly with eight student-athletes who scored points at the AAC Indoor and Outdoor Championships in nine total events, including Migle Muraskaite who won the women's heptathlon. He also worked directly with Hannah Patrick, who qualified for the 2021 NCAA East Regional in the javelin. Johnson's athletes broke the Tulane school record in the women's indoor pentathlon (two times) and women's outdoor heptathlon (two times).

Following the 2020-21 season, Johnson was named the Tulane University Athletics Green Globe Assistant Coach of the Year. During the 2019-20 campaign, he coached Maren Butler to the third-best overall mark and the second-best by a freshman in program history in the indoor women's shot put.

In his first year at Tulane in 2018-19, Johnson saw huge improvements with multiple athletes he coached. Tom Watson (javelin), Olivia Hicks (high jump), and Jorien Vallien (high jump) all scored at the American Athletic Conference Championship for the first time in their careers. Watson had a personal best javelin throw during the season and just missed out on the podium at the conference championship meet.

During his time with Valley City State, Johnson helped the Vikings' program grow and boasted 86 All-Conference members, 18 conference champions, two Field Athletes of the Meet, and 37 total Athlete of the Week awards. One of his athletes also earned NAIA National Field Athlete of the Week honors, and 21 of his athletes reached the NAIA National Championship.

At Valley City State, four of Johnson's athletes were named All-Americans and two won national championships. He also contributed to team and individual success in the classroom with his teams winning 13 total Scholar Team Awards and his Vikings being named Daktronics-NAIA Scholar-Athletes 15 times.

In his term with the Vikings, 31 different school records and eight different conference records were broken by VCSU student-athletes.

Before his tenure with Valley City State, Johnson was an assistant coach with Dickinson College in Carlisle, Pennsylvania, in 2013-14 and 2015. In his time assisting the Red Devils, 26 of his student-athletes earned All-Conference honors, and six won conference championships. He coached the Centennial Conference Rookie of the Year one season and seven Athlete of the Week award winners. He also coached one athlete to an All-American honor and had his student-athletes break seven school records.

Johnson also served as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Mary in Bismarck, North Dakota, from 2011-13.

As a two-sport student-athlete at Dickinson College, Johnson played baseball and was a member of the track and field team. He was a track and field team captain as a senior and a three-time Centennial Conference champion as a javelin thrower and jumper. He competed post-collegiately in the javelin and was sponsored by Adidas Garden State Track and Field Elite. He holds a personal best in the javelin of 65.28m (214-2). Johnson was inducted into the Dickinson College Athletics Hall of Fame as a member of the 2010 track and field team in 2021.

A native of Yardley, Pennsylvania, Johnson earned his bachelor's degree in history from Dickinson College in 2011 and his Master of Education in college teaching from the University of Mary in 2013.

AARON LANZEL

ASSISTANT COACH

A 2003 USNA graduate and decorated Midshipmen student-athlete, Aaron Lanzel was announced as the head coach in August of 2018. He is no stranger to the program as he competed for the Midshipmen cross country and track and field teams during his time as an undergrad (1999-2003) before joining the United States Navy in the aviation community.

In his first season at the helm of the Midshipmen in 2018, Lanzel led an extremely young squad that had just one regularly-scoring senior runner and two more juniors who pointed in every varsity race. Highlights from the 2018 season included, Kevin Murray winning the Patriot League Championship and Jake Brophy earning the Navy Invitational crown earlier in the campaign. As a team, Navy placed fourth at the Patriot League Championship and eighth at the NCAA Mid-Atlantic Regional Championship.

The program took the next step in 2019 as Lanzel guided the team to the Navy Invitational title, Army-Navy Star Meet win and a second-place result at the Patriot League Championship. Navy finished within three points of claiming the league title, 37-40. Individually, senior Jake Brophy was dominant every time he started for Lanzel and the Mids as he placed first or second in four regular season races before winning the Patriot League Championship and coming in second at the NCAA Mid-Atlantic Regional Championship. Brophy qualified to race at the 2019 NCAA Championship in Terre Haute, Indiana. As the distance coach for the track & field program, Lanzel helped Brophy become the first Midshipmen to break the 4:00-mile mark in January of 2020. In recognition of his work with the distance runners he was honored as the 2020 UTFCCCA Mid-Atlantic Region Men's Assistant Coach of the Year.

Lanzel's third season as head coach was severely impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic as the Mids' competitive slate was condensed to just two head-to-head meets, one against Pitt and the second against Army. In Navy's 2020 season opener, the Mids turned in a strong effort to defeat the Pitt Panthers by a score of 23-37. Led by Julian Perez' first place result, Navy runners captured six of the top-eight finishes. In the 2020 Star Meet, Navy were victorious once again over Army on the strength of Julian Perez' victory and a sweep of the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh positions to earn a 23-34 win.

Lanzel was an accomplished student-athlete for the Midshipmen beginning with his freshman season of action in the Fall of 1999 with the cross country team. A distance specialist, he'd ply his craft with both the cross country and track and field programs in Annapolis all four years. The captain of the 2002 cross country team and 2003 outdoor track and field team, Lanzel competed 11 times versus Army in Star Meets and came away with a 9-2 record. His name still appears in the Navy track and field record books as a member of the fastest indoor distance medley relay team in history (9:39.17 – 3/3/2002), as well as holding a top-10 time in the outdoor 1,500 meters (3:44.25 – 4/11/2003). He concluded his intercollegiate career at Navy by collecting the Class of 2003 Naval Academy Athletic Association Sword. The sword is given to the individual who contributed the most to athletics during their four years at the Naval Academy.

After graduation, Lanzel was commissioned as a pilot in the U.S. Navy. Serving from 2004 through 2010, he completed flight training and was a pilot and Mission Commander of the P-3C Orion aircraft. He was deployed to both the Pacific and Middle East with the majority of his time spent in Iraq, where he completed 99 combat missions.

In addition to his service with the United States Navy, Lanzel, a sub-4:00 miler, was able to make time to compete in national track and field events. At the 2004 USATF Indoor National Championships, he finished fifth overall at 1500 meters, though his crowning achievement in national competition was earning his way into the semifinals of the 2004 Olympic Trials for the United States in the same event. He is one of just 11 USNA graduates to have competed in either the Olympics or Olympic Trials for the United States.

In addition to his experience with the Olympic Trials, Lanzel has competed on the U.S. Military World team in cross country in 2006 (in Tunisia), 2008 (Switzerland), 2010 (Belgium) and in track in 2003 (Italy) and 2011 (Brazil).

COACHING STAFF

Following his active duty with the U.S. Navy, he came back to the Academy as an assistant under Al Cantello from June 2010 through December 2013. During that span on staff, the Mids finished in first place in the Patriot League in 2010, 2011 and 2013 with a second place result in 2012, the only blemish on the perfect run of titles. Four Midshipmen earned All-Patriot League First Team honors with another 14 garnering spots on the second team from 2010 to 2013. With Lanzel's assistance, Cantello was named the Patriot League Coach of the Year in 2010, 2011 and 2013.

From 2013 to 2015, Lanzel turned his attention to engineering and consulting with the Medtronic organization. While employed at Medtronic, Lanzel developed algorithms, hardware, software and training programs for physiological monitoring systems that utilized heart rate, HRV, anaerobic threshold, breathing rate, VO2max, speed, and accelerometry. He completed two U.S. Provision Patent Applications. As a consultant, he trained and advised coaches associated with the NBA, NFL, MLB, NHL and NCAA, as well as special force groups in the military.

Lanzel becomes the fifth head coach in the storied history of the Navy men's cross country program following Louis Mang (1922-26), Earl Thompson (1927-51), Jim Gehrdes (1952-67) and Al Cantello (1968-2018).

A 2003 USNA graduate with a degree in electrical engineering, Lanzel lives in Annapolis with his wife Ashley and daughter Aletheia.

KIM LEWNES

ASSISTANT COACH

Announced in June of 2019, Kim Lewnes became the fourth head coach in the storied history of the Navy women's cross country program following Karen Boyle (1987-2019), Barbara Lawson (1984-1986) and Major Rocky Rosacker, USMC (1983). All-time, Navy has won over 85 percent of its regular season contests, 21 of 34 Star Meets over Army and four Patriot League titles (2007, 2008, 2011 and 2012). No stranger to the Naval Academy and the Midshipmen, Lewnes was most recently on staff as a volunteer assistant under Boyle. Lewnes brings a decorated past as a collegiate competitor and assistant to her new role as head coach.

In her first season at the helm of the program in 2019, Lewnes helped the Midshipmen finish top-three in a trio of early-season competitions and a fourth-place result at the Patriot League Championship. Navy came up three points shy of coming in third at the league meet, 87-90. A pair of All-Patriot League individual performances led Navy's cause as junior Emily Craig placed fourth, while freshman Elizabeth Sullivan crossed the finish line in 14th place.

Lewnes' second season as head coach was severely impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic as the Mids' competitive slate was condensed to just two head-to-head meets, one against Pitt and the second against Army. In Navy's 2020 season opener, the team hit on all cylinders and cruised to a perfect 15-50 victory as the first eight runners to cross the finish line of the 6k race were all Mids. In the 2020 Star Meet, Navy had six of the top-10 finishers, including race champion Emily Craig, but were edged in team points by the Black Knights, 27-29.

Lewnes' initial experience with the Midshipmen came during the 2017 fall season when she came aboard as Boyle's assistant coach. During her two years, Navy earned back-to-back third place results at the Patriot League Championship and saw a trio of runners garner All-Patriot League honors: Grace West (2018-first team, 2017-second), Ali Valenti (2017-first) and Emily Craig (2017-second). As part of the Mids' 2018 regular season slate, the team turned in a dominant victory over Army in the teams' annual Star Meet. Racing at the USNA Cross Country Course, Navy saw three of its runners finish in the top-four, including West winning the race with the seventh-fastest time in program history.

Prior to joining the Naval Academy, Lewnes spent five years as an assistant coach at Johns Hopkins University. From 2012 through 2016, Lewnes helped guide the women's cross country team to four NCAA Championships and five Mideast Regional Championships. The men's cross country team also reached new heights during her tenure winning two NCAA Mideast Regional Championships. In her five years at Hopkins, Lewnes coached cross country runners to 17 All-America honors and 33 student-athletes earned All-America honors on the track. She was named the Mideast Assistant Coach of the Year during the 2014 and 2015 indoor seasons.

Before joining JHU, Lewnes spent the 2011-12 school year as a volunteer coach at Cornell University, where the women won both the cross country and outdoor track & field Heptagonal Conference Championships.

As a collegiate athlete, Lewnes (nee Standridge) was the track & field team captain and earned numerous accolades for the Big Red in middle distance events. An ECAC champion in the distance medley relay, previous school record holder in the 1000 and third all-time in school history in the 800. Additionally, she garnered All-America honors with a ninth-place finish at the 2010 Outdoor NCAA Division I Championships in Eugene, Oregon.

A 2011 graduate of Cornell University, Lewnes earned a degree in Communication. She went on to earn a Master of Science in Counseling from Johns Hopkins University's School of Education in 2017. Lewnes lives in Annapolis with her husband Mack, who was an All-American wrestler for Cornell. The couple are the proud parents of a daughter, Lilliana.

RORY QUILLER

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH

Rory Quiller joined the Navy Track and Field staff in the fall of 2012, the 2022-2023 season will be his eleventh year coaching the Midshipmen pole vaulters.

In his time at the Academy, Navy pole vaulters have dominated the Patriot League Conference, sweeping the medal stand (first-third) on four occasions (men's indoor 2013, 2014, 2015; and women's indoor 2017) a feat no conference rival has been able to duplicate. The Navy pole vaulters finished first through fourth on three of those occasions, scoring 31 points in the 2014 men's indoor competition and 29.33 points in the 2017 women's indoor meet.

Under Quiller's tutelage, Class of 2015 graduate, Mark Vetere, won five Patriot League pole vault titles and broke the Outdoor Championship meet record (17'0, 5.18m), as well as set the outdoor program record at the Penn Relays with a jump of 17'3.5 (5.27m). Vetere went on to set the indoor program record with a jump of 17'1.5 (5.23m) at the Army-Navy Star Meet.

Other notable vaulters in Quiller's tenure at the Academy include Amanda Graham ('15), a 2015 Patriot League Outdoor Champion with a height of 12'6 (3.80m); as well as Jiles Maness ('16), the 2014 Patriot League Indoor Champion and program record holder in both indoor and outdoor, 17'2.5 (5.25m) and 17'4 (5.30m), respectively. Charlene Kearns ('18), a multiple conference champion, won the 2016 and 2017 Patriot League Outdoor Championship titles with a jump of 12'6 (3.80m) and 12'2 (3.70m), correspondingly.

Rosemary Brinegar ('19) won the 2017 Patriot League Indoor title and cleared 12'8 (3.86m), while Jonathan Drablos ('17) was the winner of the 2017 League Outdoor title at 16'7 (5.05m). Kaitlyn Stafford ('20) won the 2019 League Indoor title at 12'6 (3.80) and Stefano Pineda ('19) won the 2019 League Outdoor title and cleared a height of 17'1 (5.21m). Charlene Morke ('23) was crowned the 2020 indoor conference champion and broke the Conference, Meet, and Academy indoor records with a top height of 4.08m (13-04.50). She repeated as conference champion winning the indoor meet in 2022.

Thomas Johnstone ('21) claimed the Patriot League 2021 outdoor title with a height of 4.98m (16-04.00). Stephanie Jacobs ('23) became the third woman in program history to clear the 4.00m barrier with her jump of 4.01m (13-01.75) en route to a 2021 Patriot League Indoor Challenge Title. Most recently, Walker Rudisaile ('24) swept the indoor and outdoor Conference Titles for 2022, while setting both the Conference and Academy records with a top jump of 5.35m (17-6.50).

Before joining the staff at Annapolis, Quiller served one-year stints as the pole vault coach at both Colorado State University and Colorado School of Mines, while he trained for the 2012 US Olympic Trials in the pole vault. Quiller finished eighth in that competition, to compliment his 13th place finish at the 2008 US Olympic Trials. In his time as a post-collegiate athlete, he competed nationally and internationally with notable finishes in the 2008 US Indoor Championships (2nd), and 2011 US Indoor Championships (3rd).

While at Binghamton University as a student-athlete, Quiller was a three-time Division I All-American and a National Champion in the pole vault (2008), with an NCAA best jump that year of 18'6.5 (5.65m). After Quiller completed his Bachelor's degree at Binghamton University, he stayed with the Bearcats as a graduate assistant coach while completing his MBA in 2010.

Quiller was commissioned as a Human Resource Officer in the United States Navy in 2012 and served until the end of 2016. He currently works as an Instructor of Physical Disciplines at the Academy and resides in Annapolis with his wife Mandy, an accomplished pole vaulter herself (7x NEC Champion & Mount St. Mary's University Hall of Fame Member), their daughters, Kira and Lacey, and dog, Bronx.

AUSTIN BALEN

DIRECTOR OF TRACK & FIELD OPERATIONS

Austin Balen joined the Navy Track & Field / Cross Country staff as Director of Operations in August of 2022. Balen comes to Navy with over 10 years of experience in athletic operations from highly successful programs and organizations.

Prior to coming to the Naval Academy, Balen served on the staffs of Duke Men's Basketball, Duke Football, University of North Carolina Football and Bowling Green Football, as well as a stint with the United States Golf Association.

Balen served on the Championship Administration team which oversaw the planning and execution of the 2020 US Open Championship at Winged Foot, assisting with player / caddie relations, public transportation, and volunteer coordination. Following his time with the USGA, Balen also worked within golf operations and administration from 2020-2022.

During his two stints at Duke, Balen worked on the staffs of Mike Krzyzewski and David Cutcliffe at Duke Men's Basketball (2017-2018) and Duke Football (2016) respectively where he assisted in day-to-day operations, recruiting, summer camp operations, and team travel. In his time with Duke Football, Balen assisted in the planning and design of the renovated outdoor practice facilities for the football program. In between his stints at Duke, he served on the staff of University of North Carolina Football assisting with football operations and wide receivers during the 2017 season.

Balen is a 2017 graduate of Bowling Green State University where he also served on the football staff.

In his current role, Balen oversees the day-to-day operations, team travel, championship arrangements, home meet operations, and all other team related activities of the Track & Field / Cross Country programs. He also serves as the Camp Director for Navy Track & Field summer camps.

Balen, a native of Philadelphia, PA now resides in Kent Island, MD.

WESLEY A. BROWN FIELD HOUSE / INGRAM FIELD

WESLEY A. BROWN FIELD HOUSE

Built facing the scenic Severn River in 2008, the Wesley A. Brown Field House is a 140,000-square-foot multi-function athletic facility that has served as the home for the Naval Academy's men's track & field program.

The facility boasts a unique combination of a 76,000-square-foot retractable Magic Carpet Astroturf system and a Mondo track surface with hydraulically controlled banked curves. The 200-meter hydraulic banked track is one of only four of its kind in the United States. It also features dual pole vault/jumping runways and throwing areas.

State-of-the-art weight training and sports medicine facilities, as well as equipment storage areas round out this newest crown jewel to the Navy athletics arsenal.

The facility is named for the late Lieutenant Commander Wesley A. Brown, CEC, USN, (Ret.), the first African American to graduate from the U.S. Naval Academy.

Brown was born April 3, 1927 in Baltimore, Md. He graduated from Dunbar High School in Washington, D.C., where he was Cadet Corps Regimental Commander during his senior year.

Nominated for admission by New York Congressman Adam Clayton Powell, Brown entered the Academy in 1945 and graduated in June of 1949. Lt. Cmdr. Brown, a veteran of World War II, the Korean and Vietnam Wars, retired in June 1969 after serving 20 years in the Navy's Civil Engineer Corps. He holds the Navy Commendation Medal, World War II and Korean War Victory, Korean Service, and American Theater and Antarctic Service Ribbons.

Brown passed away in 2012.

INGRAM FIELD

The all-weather MONDO track located northeast of Michelson Hall and Chauvenet Hall is the site of Navy's outdoor track and field meets.

Considered to be one of the premier facilities in the United States, it is named in honor of Vice Admiral Jonas H. Ingram, who commanded the U.S. South Atlantic Fleet during World War II. He was also the Naval Academy Director of Athletics from 1925-1930.

The track underwent a $1.7 million renovation in the fall of 2001, with new all-weather surfacing placed on the quarter-mile oval and jump areas.

The field area boasts six shot put circles, a discus-throwing circle and a javelin throwing area in the middle of the track. The field has four long/triple jump pits and a "D" zone that allows two high jump areas to be used concurrently.

The facility is also equipped with lights and Navy regularly holds 'twilight' meets at the facility. Additionally, the facility also features a Daktronics scoreboard, which displays current times and marks during meets.

D. Reese (Maryland) set the old javelin record of 77.59m (254-06.004) in 1969. Javelins were redigned prior to the 1986 season.

Now in its fourth decade as an all-sport conference combining academic and athletic excellence, the Patriot League sponsors championships in 24 men's and women's sports. Initially started as an NCAA Division I-AA football conference in 1986, the Patriot League became an all-sport conference in 1990 and includes American, Army West Point, Boston University, Bucknell, Colgate, Holy Cross, Lafayette, Lehigh, Loyola Maryland and Navy as full members, and Fordham, Georgetown, MIT and Richmond as associate members. These institutions are among the oldest and most prestigious in the nation and their alumni have and continue to play leadership roles in shaping our country.

The Patriot League's mission is simple: to provide successful competitive athletic experiences while maintaining high academic standards, and to prepare its student-athletes to be leaders in society. During the 2021-22 academic year, Patriot League student-athletes and teams accomplished the following:

- ★ The League's 96 percent graduation success rate (GSR) is the second-best mark in the nation, finishing in the top three each year since the rating has been released in 2013. All 10 member schools were at 91 percent or higher, each exceeding the record-high national GSR of 89 percent. In addition, the League's 86 percent Federal Graduation Rate (FGR) places it as the national leader for the ninth-consecutive year.
- ★ 14 student-athletes earned CoSIDA Academic All-America recognition including first-team accolades for Loyola Maryland's Elli Kluegel (Women's At-Large, Lacrosse), Navy's Sean Casey (Men's Track & Field/Cross Country) and Matt Nocita (Men's Soccer). Second-team honorees include Fordham's Ryan Greenhagen (Football), Georgetown's Ahmad Wilson (Football), Loyola Maryland's Paige Sim (Women's Soccer) and Aidan Olmstead (Men's At-Large, Lacrosse), and Navy's Ashwin Briggs (Men's Track & Field/Cross Country) and Chloe Dawson (Women's Soccer). Third-team honorees include Boston University's Emily Gant (Softball), Lehigh's Seth Slavin (Men's Track & Field/Cross Country), Navy's Brett Brady (Men's Track & Field/Cross Country), Derrick Thompson (Men's At-Large, Tennis) and Maddie Warrender (Women's Track & Field/Cross Country).
- ★ 38 Patriot League student-athletes received CoSIDA Academic All-District recognition.
- ★ There were 3,502 student-athletes named to the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll in 2021-22. The total marked the fifth-consecutive year the League has topped 3,000 honorees.
- ★ Loyola Maryland's Elli Kluegel (Women's Lacrosse) and Aidan Olmstead (Men's Lacrosse) were named the Patriot League Female and Male Scholar-Athlete of the Year honorees, respectively. Both were repeat honorees.
- ★ Lehigh's Kara Bonner (Women's Cross Country/Track & Field) and Loyola Maryland's Jake Fowler (Men's Cross Country) were named the League's 2021-22 Sportsmanship Award winners for demonstrating fairness, equality and excellence in academics and athletics.
- ★ Navy's Sydney Harrington (Women's Swimming & Diving) and Victoria Tran (Women's Soccer) was the League's nominee for the 2021-22 NCAA Woman of the Year award, honoring the academic achievements, athletics excellence, community service and leadership of graduating female college athletes.

- ★ Four Patriot League student-athletes were recognized among the 2021-22 Senior CLASS Award winners and finalists. Navy's Christian Policelli (Baseball) was the 2022 Senior CLASS Award winner in baseball. Lehigh's Tommy Schelling (Men's Lacrosse) received Senior CLASS Award First Team honors, with Loyola Maryland's Aidan Olmstead (Men's Lacrosse) making the second-team in men's lacrosse. Navy's Matt Nocita (Men's Soccer) claimed Senior CLASS Award Second Team honors in men's soccer.
- ★ Twenty-eight Patriot Leaguers were All-America selections during the 2021-22 athletic year with first-team status for Army West Point's Brendan Nichtern (Men's Lacrosse), Boston University's Roy Meyer (Men's Lacrosse), Fordham's Nick Zakelj (Football), Holy Cross's Jacob Dobbs (Football) and Loyola Maryland's Katie Detwiler (Women's Lacrosse).
- ★ Lehigh's Adam Retzbach was selected in the 14th round (407th overall) of the 2022 Major League Baseball (MLB) Draft by the Baltimore Orioles. Two Patriot League student-athletes were selected in the 2022 Major League Soccer (MLS) Super Draft, including Navy's Matt Nocita, who was selected in the 1st round (7th overall) by the New York Red Bulls, and Loyola Maryland's Justin Ingram, who was taken in the second round (48th overall) by Inter Miami. Three Patriot League men's lacrosse student-athletes were selected in the 2022 Premier Lacrosse League (PLL) College Draft, including Army West Point's Brendan Nichtern (2nd Rd., 9th overall) and Loyola Maryland's Ryan McNulty (3rd Rd., 17th overall) and Kevin Lindley (4th Rd., 32nd overall).
- ★ Navy collected its eighth-consecutive Patriot League Presidents' Cup following the 2021-22 academic year. The Mids broke Bucknell's previous record of seven-straight titles. Army West Point finished atop the men's standings, while Navy topped the women's standings.
- ★ Navy's Hannah Montau (Women's Diving) qualified for the NCAA Women's Swimming and Diving for the fourth time in her career. Navy's Caleb Mauldin (Men's Swimming) was invited to the NCAA Men's Swimming and Diving Championship.
- ★ The Patriot League continues to lead the 32 NCAA Division I conferences in both Academic Progress Rate (APR) and retention trends by conference. In the latest release of data by the NCAA, the League is second in eligibility trends by conference. The League had 165 of its 195 teams score at or above the national average multi-year APR of 984. Seventy-one squads earned a perfect score of 1,000.
