BARNES NAMED MIAA DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Senior linebacker Jackson Barnes has been named the MIAA's co-defensive athlete of the week presented by Mammoth Turf.

Barnes tallied a game-high 10 tackles, broke up four passes, registered two tackles-for-loss and intercepted a pass in Northwest's 47-7 road triumph over the Central Missouri Mules.

With Northwest holding a 14-0 lead, UCM struck for a 53-yard pass play to move the ball to the 22-yard line. However, the Bearcat defense responded with the first turnover of the game as Barnes intercepted a pass and returned it 15 yards to turn away the Mules drive. His interception led to a touchdown four plays later and Northwest did not look back en route to the 40-point win.

DAVIS ENJOYS UCM

Senior wide receiver Kaden Davis seems to enjoy playing the Central Missouri Mules.

Davis has tallied two 100-yard receiving games in his career and both have come against the Mules.

Davis posted four receptions for 103 yards and two touchdowns in Northwest's 47-7 win at UCM.

On Nov. 16 2019, Davis recorded four catches for 105 yards against the Mules.

PLUNKETT SCORES 1ST TD

Sophomore Peyton Plunkett scored his first collegiate touchdown on a 22-yard blocked punt return.

Northwest's Jake Fisher secured his first career blocked punt against Central Missouri. Plunkett then scooped up the ball and scampered 22 yards to give Northwest a 27-0 lead at UCM.

HEAVY WORKLOAD

Al McKeller's 28 carries against Fort Hays State were the most by a Northwest player since James Franklin rushed 28 times vs. Central Missouri on Oct. 8, 2011.

FIRST-TIME PASS RECEPTIONS

Northwest had three players make their first collegiate pass receptions against Fort Hays State. Davonte Green (2 rec., 15 yds.), Trevon Alexander (1 rec., 15 yds.) and Cole Hembrough (1 rec., 9 yds.) each caught their first college passes.

DYNAMITE DEFENSE

The Bearcat defense put on quite an impressive performance in the 15-7 win at Fort Hays State.

Northwest did not allow Fort Hays State to begin a play in the red zone. The closest FHSU got to the red zone was the 22-yard line.

FHSU's average starting field position for the game was its own

15-yard line. In the first quarter, FH-SU's average starting position was its own 4-yard line. It improved to their own 31-yard line in the second quarter. FHSU's average starting position in the third quarter was its own 11-yard line. FHSU's fourth quarter average starting position was its own 22-yard line.

The Bearcats held the Tigers to eight rushing yards in the first half and 48 total rushing yards in the game.

BEARCATS OWNED TIME OF POSSESSION VS TIGERS

Northwest enjoyed a time possession lead vs. Fort Hays State to the tune of 39:06-20:54.

Northwest had nine drives that lasted longer than two minutes.

FHSU had only two drives that lasted more than two minutes.

Northwest forced a three-and-out or a turnover on seven of FHSU's drives.

ANDERSON WITH A PICK

Senior J'Ravien Anderson recorded his third career interception in the fourth quarter of Northwest's 15-7 win at Fort Hays State.

Anderson recorded his first interception in 2017 and added another in 2019.

NIMMERS CLINCHES THE WIN

Senior Isaiah Nimmers clinched the Bearcat victory with an interception in the endzone on the final play of Northwest's 15-7 win over Fort Hays State.

It was his second career interception having tallied a pick in an NCAA FCS Playoff game against Lamar University when he played at the University of Northern Iowa on Nov. 24, 2018.

HOHENSEE NAMED MIAA SPECIAL TEAMS ATHLETE OF WEEK

Sophomore Mike Hohensee was named the MIAA's Special Teams Athlete of the Week (Sept. 6).

Hohensee (St. Charles, Ill.) punted seven times for a 41.4 average in a 15-7 victory at Fort Hays State. Four of his punts were downed inside the 20-yard line, including a pair at the one-yard line.

Hohensee recorded the longest punt of the 2021 season by any MIAA player when he unleashed a 73-yard punt in the third quarter.

3RD-LONGEST STRETCH BETWEEN BEARCAT VICTORIES

Northwest scored a 15-7 victory at Fort Hays State to begin the 2021 season. It marked the first victory for the Bearcats in 642 days - the third-longest stretch between victories in school history.

The longest stretch between wins is 743 days (Oct. 27, 1916 - Nov. 9, 1918). The second-longest stretch is 700 days (Oct. 16, 1993 - Sept. 16, 1995).

FOR OPENERS

BEARCATS PICKED TO WIN MIAA REGULAR SEASON TITLE, NO. 4 IN PRESEASON POLLS

Northwest has been tabbed as the top team by both the coaches and the media in the 2021 MIAA football preseason polls. Northwest was also pegged at No. 4 in the 2021 Pre-season American Football Coaches’ Association Top 25 Poll and the D2FootballCom Top 25 Poll.

NEW TO THE STAFF

Head coach Rich Wright added Todd Sturdy to the Bearcat coaching staff in the offseason.

Sturdy will serve as the offensive coordinator at Northwest and he brings a wealth of coaching experience with him to Maryville. Sturdy has coached football at the FBS, FCS and NAIA levels for 28 years. He has served as an offensive coordinator in 20 seasons. In 14 seasons as a head coach at the collegiate level, Sturdy has compiled a record of 96-51.

Wright also added Roberto Davis to coach the Bearcat running backs and Zach Martin to serve as the Northwest wide receivers coach.

ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

It’s not easy to get on the Academic All-America list. The Bearcats do a pretty good job of filling it up though, placing 19 players on the list, including 18 since 2003. In 2016, Kyle Zimmerman (QB) took home the top honor – Academic All-American of the Year – something no Bearcat had ever done. Northwest had two student-athletes, Jackson Barnes and Zach Howard, named to the 2020-21 CoSIDA Academic All-America(R) NCAA Division II football team, as selected by the College Sports Information Directors Association (CoSIDA).

This marks the third time since 2018 that two Bearcats have earned Academic All-America honors after Marqus Andrews (first team in 2018, second team in 2019) and Ryan Spelhaug (first team in 2018 and 2019) each received recognition.

HUGHES FAMILY FIELDHOUSE

Located just northwest of College Park and Bearcat Stadium on the Northwest campus, the Carl & Cheryl Hughes Fieldhouse serves as a host site for a wide range of University and community activities. The project represents the single largest public-private partnership in Northwest's 114-year history – and one of the largest public-private partnerships ever in the region.

The Hughes Fieldhouse features:

- 137,250 square-foot recreation and multipurpose facility featuring recreation and exhibition space,
- indoor flooring system,
- 90-yard practice turf,
- 300-meter indoor track,
- spectator seating and
- tiered meeting rooms

The Hughes Fieldhouse is an estimated $20 million project with multiple financing sources, including commitments from the University, private support and community support. The facility is named for the Carl and Cheryl Hughes family, who committed a significant gift to the project through the Hughes Family Foundation.

HEAD COACH RICH WRIGHT

2014 & 2015 DII PROGRESS COORDINATOR OF THE YEAR • FIFTH SEASON

HEAD COACH

Richard Wright was named head coach at Northwest Missouri on Dec. 19, 2016. He arrived at Northwest in 2004 as the defensive line coach and coordinator of special teams. In 2011, Wright was named defensive coordinator and assistant head coach.

Wright led the Bearcats to the program's 30th MIAA title in 2019. Northwest secured its 24th trip to the NCAA Division II playoffs, which marked the 16th consecutive season the Bearcats have been selected to compete in the playoffs.

Northwest collected its 49th and 50th Division II playoff victories in 2019 with a 7-6 win over Harding and a 63-7 triumph over Lindenwood. Northwest is the first program in Division II history to record 50 playoff victories. The Bearcats finished the 2019 season ranked No. 7.

The 2019 Bearcats had five first-team all-MIAA selections in Spencer Phillips, Tanner Owen and Blake Bayer. Phillips was named the MIAA Defensive Player of the Year.

The 2018 Bearcats had five first-team all-MIAA selections in Austen Eskew, Zach Flott, Anthony Lane, Tanner Owen and Sam Roberts. Braden Wright was named the MIAA Freshman of the Year.

Northwest ranked No. 6 in the nation in scoring defense (14.6 ppg) and No. 7 in rushing defense (89.1 yards/game). Northwest had a streak of 19 straight games without giving up a rushing touchdown that stretched from the 2016 season into the 2018 campaign. All four starters on the defensive line earned all-MIAA honors - Austen Eskew (first team), Sam Roberts (first team), Mike Ehlke (honorable mention) and Spencer Phillips (honorable mention).

The Northwest defense continued to be dominating in 2017. The Bearcats ranked first in the nation in scoring defense (9.3 ppg), total defense (212.8 yards/game), blocked punts (7) and third down conversion defense (19.9 percent). Northwest limited the opposition to 62.0 yards per game on the ground. The Bearcat defense did not allow a rushing touchdown in 2017. In fact, Northwest was the only NCAA school to not allow a rushing touchdown all of last season - including FBS, FCS, Division II and Division III. The Northwest defense had three players named to the All-MIAA First Team in defensive lineman Austin Eskew, linebacker Ben Althoff and defensive back Marcus Jones.

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

In 2016, Northwest's defense led the nation in total yards (240.9), rushing yards (67.7), scoring (12.0) and blocked kicks (13). Four Bearcats earned first-team All-MIAA honors and four earned All-America honors. On five occasions, the Northwest defense held opponents under 200 yards of total offense and 12 times held rushing attacks under 100 yards. The Bearcats' four playoff opponents averaged just 54.7 rushing yards, 170.5 passing yards, 225.5 total yards and 9.0 points per game.

The Bearcats' 2015 national championship featured one of the most well rounded defensive units in history. Northwest led the nation in six categories including total defense, scoring defense, team sacks, rushing defense, team passing efficiency defense and third-down conversion percentage defense. The team finished atop the MIAA in 15 defensive categories as well, leading to six first-team All-MIAA selections. Collin Bevins earned the third-consecutive MIAA Defensive Player of the Year award for the Bearcats, setting school records in sacks (15.5) and tackles for loss (26.5).

One of the most dominant defenses at any level of football could be found under Wright in 2014. The Bearcats led the nation in total defense and were ranked second in rushing defense, team pass efficiency defense and third down conversion defense. Northwest ranked third in first down defense, fourth in passing yards allowed and fifth in scoring defense. Five Bearcat defensive players earned first team All-MIAA honors including Matt Longacre who was named the MIAA Defensive Player of the Year in 2013 and 2014.

In 2013, Wright's defense was ranked ninth in the NCAA in total defense, allowing just 292.5 yards per game. The Bearcat defense led the MIAA defensively in pass yards allowed, sacks, pass efficiency defense, turnovers gained, third down percentage defense, blocked kicks, blocked punts and total defense.

The 2012 Bearcat defense was nothing short of spectacular, ranking among the nation's elite in scoring defense (second), turnover margin (third), pass efficiency defense (seventh), pass defense (12th) and total defense (17th).

In his first season as the defensive coordinator, Josh Lorenson became the 10th All-America defensive lineman to play under Wright. The 2011 season also saw his defensive unit hold opponents under 100 yards rushing four times and under 100 yards passing three times.

ASSISTANT COACH

Northwest tied for the most sacks in the nation in 2009 when 19 Bearcats combined for 48 sacks. Former player and current graduate assistant Kendall Wright enjoyed one of the most decorated seasons as a return specialist in 2008, earning All-America accolades.

Three former players have been on NFL rosters, Longacre, Dave Tollefson and Steve Williams. Each have spent time with the Kansas City Chiefs, Carolina Panthers and New England Patriots. Tollefson is a two-time Super Bowl Champion earning his first ring with the New York Giants in 2007 and again following the 2011 season.

Wright began coaching during the 1991 season at Cortland State before spending time at Dana College (Neb.) from 1993-94. Covering several facets of coaching, Wright has been an offensive coordinator, linebackers coach, wide receivers coach and special teams coordinator.

PERSONAL

A native of Hamilton, N.Y., Wright earned his bachelor's degree at Dana College in 1995 and his master's at Northwest in 1996. Wright resides in Maryville with his wife, Sarah, who is also a Northwest alum, and their daughters, Grace and Kate.
