Athletics Facilities

Mulva Family Fitness & Sports Center: (formerly the Schuldes Sports Center), home of St. Norbert's basketball and volleyball teams, underwent a $26-million expansion and renovation and opened in spring 2017. The refurbished and enlarged facility will feature a state-of-the-art fitness center and a new swimming pool on the east side of the sports center, looking out to the Fox River.

The reimagined 129,400 sq. ft. building also will include new administrative offices for the athletics staff and the addition of a second floor. Its arena will continue to provide a 116-by-230-foot multipurpose area with a seating capacity of 2,500 for major sporting events and up to 5,000 for other high-attendance programs. The arena offers a full collegiate basketball court, an indoor track, four volleyball courts and four intramural basketball courts.

Mel Nicks Sports Complex: home of the Green Knights baseball and softball teams where the baseball team ranked second in Division III in home attendance in 1997 and 2000. New baseball and softball fields opened in spring of 2015.

Cornerstone Community Ice Center: The state-of-the-art facility is home to the St. Norbert hockey team. The rink opened in March 2000 and features seating for nearly 2,000 fans.

Donald J. Schneider Stadium: St. Norbert College proudly opened Donald J. Schneider Stadium, located on De Pere's near west side, in September 2010.

The 2,454-seat facility houses the Green Knights in football, men's and women's soccer and men's and women's outdoor track and field. Schneider Stadium has hosted numerous post-season and championship events.

Green Knights Achieve Academic and Athletic Success

In addition to the success of our teams, many of our individual athletes have earned distinction on and off the field. Not only has St. Norbert had national champions and all-conference performers, but several Academic All-Americans and Academic All-Conference selections as well.

Academic Success

- 78 athletes have earned COSIDA Academic All-American accolades

Athletic Success

- The St. Norbert College hockey team won the 2008, 2011, 2012, 2014 and 2018 NCAA Division III national championship.
- Since 2001, St. Norbert has claimed eight individual NCAA Division III national champions in track and field.
- St. Norbert has won 158 overall conference championship.
- St. Norbert has won 16 Northern Collegiate Hockey Association titles and 15 NCHA post-season championships since joining the league in 1994.

St. Norbert College hockey has been a model of consistency under Tim Coghlin's leadership.

Coghlin's teams have totaled a 596-157-58 record in his 27 seasons behind the Green Knights' bench. St. Norbert has appeared in 19 NCAA Division III Tournaments since 1997, highlighted by its national championships in 2008, 2011, 2012, 2014 and 2018. The Green Knights have made 12

Frozen Four appearances, and placed as national runner-up in 2004, 2006, 2010 and 2016. Coghlin's nine national title game appearances as a head coach is tied for the most in NCAA Division III history.

The Green Knights have won at least 20 games a staggering 21 times in the last 24 seasons – all while playing a 25-game regular season. St. Norbert has won at least 17 games in each of the last 24 seasons, a string of success unmatched in NCAA Division III hockey history.

St. Norbert capped off its fifth national championship in 2018 by winning a pulsating double-overtime game over Salve Regina in Lake Placid, N.Y., for the title. The Green Knights matched a Division III record with their 12th Frozen Four appearance, and won at least 27 games for the sixth time in program history.

The Green Knights advanced to their 11th Frozen Four in 2017 and claimed the Northern Collegiate Hockey Association Harris Cup Playoffs championship. St. Norbert went 3-0 during the season against fellow Frozen Four-qualifier Adrian, winning all three games on the Bulldogs' home ice.

St. Norbert made its tenth Frozen Four trip in 2016, finishing as national runner-up with a 25-4-2 record. The Green Knights claimed a pulsating 8-7 double-overtime win over UMass-Boston in the national semifinals, and earned a share of their 15th Northern Collegiate Hockey Association regular-season championship.

The Green Knights fashioned an impressive season in 2014 to claim their fourth national championship, going 18-1-1 in their last 20 games. St. Norbert, which beat UW-Stevens Point 3-1 in the national title game in Lewiston, Maine, became the first team in Division III to lead the country in scoring offense and scoring defense in the same season since the NCAA started tracking hockey statistics in 1996.

St. Norbert won its third national championship in 2012, a season that concluded with an impressive 14-1-1 finish. The Green Knights dispatched No. 1-ranked Norwich and

No. 3-rated Oswego State both by 4-1 scores at the Frozen Four in Lake Placid, N.Y., to lock up the title and finish 21-5-5.

Coghlin led St. Norbert to the national title in 2011, finishing a 25-4-1 season with a 4-3 win over Adrian in the title game in Minneapolis. The Green Knights won the title despite having its lowest-scoring team since 1995 thanks to a stifling defense that led the country in least goals allowed for the third time in five years.

The Green Knights also captured the NCAA Division III national championship in 2008. Ending the season on an impressive 29-game unbeaten streak, the championship run climaxed in Lake Placid, N.Y. with a 2-0 triumph over Plattsburgh State for the title. The Green Knights' 27-1-4 season marked the fewest losses ever for an NCAA Division III hockey champion. Coghlin was bestowed following the season with the Edward Jeremiah Award, given annually to the NCAA Division III men's coach of the year. He earned the honor a second time in 2011.

Over the past 24 seasons, St. Norbert has registered an outstanding 565-121-50 ledger, which includes 16 NCHA regular-season championships and 15 NCHA post-season titles. Coghlin's teams have been especially tough to beat at home since moving into the Cornerstone Community Center in 2000, going a robust 272-35-15 on home ice during the 20 years the Green Knights have occupied the building. St. Norbert also set a school-record 37-game overall unbeaten streak spanning 13 months from the 2007-08 and 2008-09 seasons.

Player development has also been one of Coghlin's fortes. Four of his players – Rob Smillie in 1999, Maris Ziedins in 2003, Kyle Jones in 2008 and David Jacobson in 2014 – have won the prestigious Sid Watson Award, given to the top player in small-college hockey each year. Ziedins also went on to represent his native Latvia in the 2006 Winter Olympics.

Named St. Norbert's third varsity head coach on May 26, 1993, Coghlin immediately went to work into laying the foundation for future success.

Following a 10-9-1 rookie campaign, St. Norbert entered its first season in the NCHA. The Green Knights finished sixth in the league in 1994-95 and nearly toppled UW-Stevens Point in the first round of the league playoffs.

It would be the last and only time St. Norbert has finished out of the top half of the NCHA standings. The Green Knights improved to fourth with a 10-8-2 mark in 1995-96, and broke through to win the league title in 1996-97.

St. Norbert fashioned a 27-6 record in 1997-98 while winning a second consecutive NCHA championship. The Green Knights had five one-goal losses that season and the other game by just two goals. St. Norbert finished the hat trick in 1998-99, again winning the NCHA regular-season and playoff titles.

The Green Knights finished second in the NCHA in 1999-2000 but still managed 22 wins and a 19-game unbeaten streak, and then placed third in 2000-01. St. Norbert answered those seasons with its fourth and fifth NCHA championships the next two years.

In 2001-02 and 2004-05, Coghlin led St. Norbert to a 12-0-2 regular-season record in the NCHA, becoming the first coach in league history to lead a team to an unbeaten season two different times. The 2007-08 season marked the third time the Green Knights have went unbeaten against a demanding NCHA schedule.

St. Norbert ended the 2004-05 season ranked No. 1 for the third consecutive year. The Green Knights also ended the 2003-04 regular season ranked No. 1 and made their first NCAA Division III championship game appearance, losing 1-0 in overtime to Middlebury. During the 2002-03 season, St. Norbert was ranked No. 1 for 10 weeks, including eight straight weeks in late January to mid-March.

Coghlin was named NCHA Coach of the Year eight times. He also received the Lee Rimmel Award for Outstanding Achievement in April 2005.

No stranger to success as a player, he captained UW-Stevens Point's first NCAA Division III championship team in 1989 and was an assistant coach with the Pointers when they won the national title in 1993 and finished runner-up in 1992.

Coghlin was a two-time All-America selection as a defenseman and three-time All-NCHA selection at Stevens Point, where he was inducted into the school's athletic Hall of Fame and ranks among the Pointers' all-time scoring leaders.

Following his collegiate career, Coghlin signed with the Vancouver Canucks and played briefly with the Milwaukee Admirals in 1989. He injured his shoulder in training camp the next season and joined the Fife Flyers of the British Premier League as a player and assistant coach.

A native of Summerland, British Columbia, Coghlin holds a master's degree in education and a bachelor's degree in communications, both from UW-Stevens Point.

Coghlin, who completed the Wisconsin Ironman Triathlon in 2006, resides in Suamico with his wife, Barb, son, Joseph, and daughter, Faith.

Assistant Coaches

Andy Brandt

Andy Brandt is in his fifth year as associate head coach of men's hockey.

Brandt made an impact in his first season with the Green Knights, who finished 27-4-1 and captured the 2018 NCAA Division III national championship. The Green Knights advanced to the NCAA Division III national quarterfinals during his second season in 2018-19.

Brandt, a Wausau, Wis., native, arrived at St. Norbert after spending the last two-and-a-half seasons as the head coach and general manager of the Atlanta Gladiators of the ECHL. He was also an assistant coach with the Gladiators for the 2013-14 season and into the 2014-15 season before being promoted.

Brandt spent seven seasons as a professional player, mostly with the then-Gwinnett Gladiators. He appeared in a team-record 357 games, scoring 76 goals and 116 assists for 192 points. Brandt was an assistant captain from 2007-12 before serving as the team captain in 2012-13. Brandt also played in the AHL for the Lake Erie Monsters, Manitoba Moose and Abbotsford Heat, while also playing in the ECHL for the Victoria Salmon Kings.

Brandt played four seasons and appeared in 130 games at the University of Wisconsin from 2003-04 to 2006-07, highlighted with the Badgers' NCAA championship in 2006. He was twice named the team's Seventh Man Award recipient.

A 2009 graduate of the University of Wisconsin, Brandt and his wife, Ashley, have two children, Willis and Isla. They reside in De Pere.

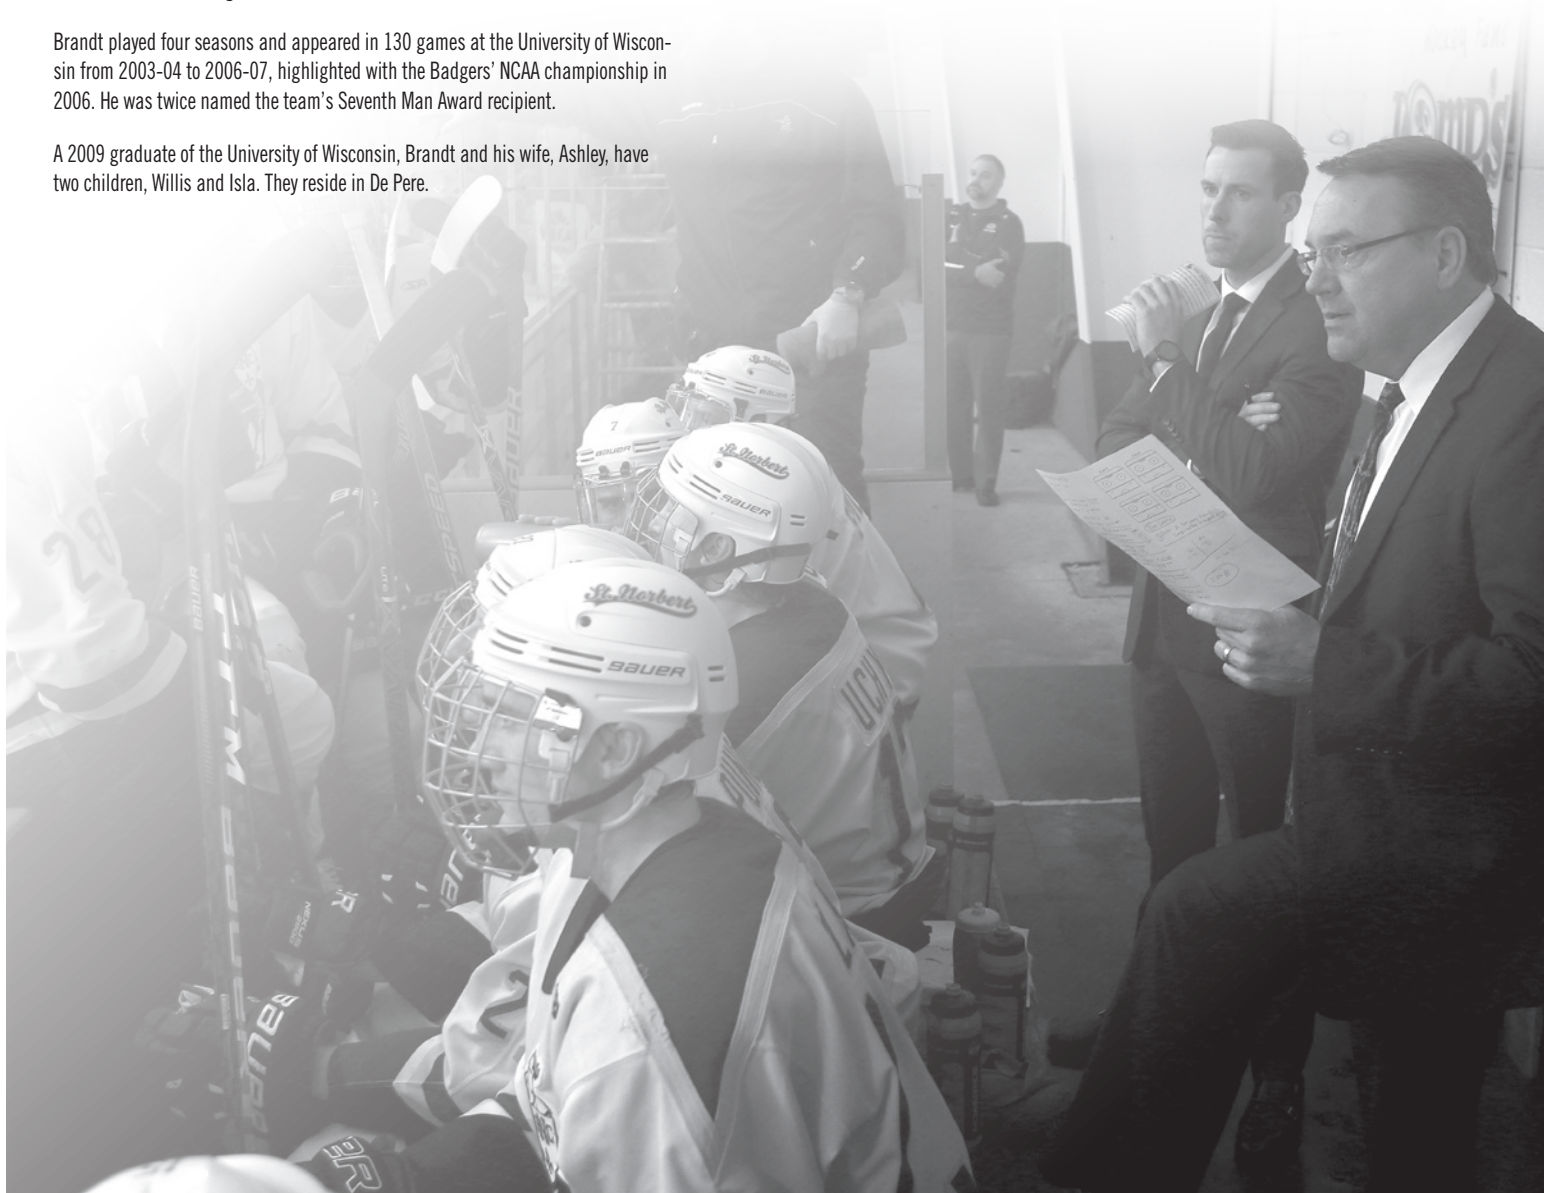

Kipp Karakas

Kipp Karakas is in his seventh year in his second stint on the St. Norbert coaching staff, and will work primarily with the goaltenders.

Karakas, a Green Bay native, was a member of Tim Coghlin's first coaching staff at St. Norbert in 1993 and continued through the 1996-97 season. He then spent six years as the coach and director of hockey for the Green Bay Jr. Gamblers, and then spent seven years as the head coach of the Green Bay United high school program.

A 1988 St. Norbert graduate, Karakas played goaltender at St. Norbert during the program's last four years as a club sport, and was named all-conference three times.

Karakas lives in Green Bay and has three children.

Sid Watson

SID WATSON AWARD

An immortal in the world of collegiate hockey, Sid Watson guided the Bowdoin hockey program to extraordinary heights during his career behind the bench. The NCAA Division III Player of the Year award is named in his honor. St. Norbert College has had three players receive the Sid Watson Award.

As an undergraduate at Northeastern, Sid became one of the greatest grid-iron players in school history. He averaged more than 100 yards per game and 7.1 yards per carry during his career as a running back. He still holds Northeastern's school records for most career points (191) and single-season points (74). Watson then moved on to play in the National Football League with the Pittsburgh Steelers and Washington Redskins. In 1958, despite the chance to play another year in the NFL, Watson accepted a temporary position as Bowdoin's hockey coach. Watson grew to love the game while playing at Northeastern, earning his stripes in the ultra-competitive collegiate hockey environment of Boston. After one season as a co-coach with Nels Corey, Watson took over the position full-time in 1959.

Over the next 24 seasons, Watson's teams compiled a record of 326-210-11 (.606). In the postseason, Watson's teams qualified for the ECAC playoffs every year but once from 1969 to 1983, reaching the ECAC Championship Game six times. The Polar Bears won the ECAC Division II Championship four times, in 1971, 1975, 1976 and 1978. He received numerous awards for his exploits, winning the Edward Jeremiah Trophy as national college division coach of the year three times (1970, 1971, 1978). In 1983, Watson retired as coach and became Bowdoin's athletic director one year later; he retired from that position in 1998.

In 2001 he was awarded the Hobey Baker Legend of Hockey Award and inducted into the United States Hockey Hall of Fame. Watson is a native of Andover, Massachusetts, and resided in Brunswick, Maine and Naples, Florida until his death in 2004.

This season marks the 42nd year the Northern Collegiate Hockey Association name will be used to represent some of the best NCAA Division III hockey in the country.

Big changes came in 2013-14. The five Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference members left the original NCHA, with St. Norbert College and the College of St. Scholastica joining the eight-team Midwest Collegiate Hockey Association. In April 2013, the NCHA replaced the MCHA moniker.

The Green Knights are aiming for their 17th league championship as they begin their 27th season of league play in the 10-team conference, one of the most prestigious in NCAA Division III hockey.

The NCHA banner has captured 19 Division II or III national championships, and its regular-season champions have advanced to an NCAA Championship game in 25 of the past 37 years.

The Northern Athletics Collegiate Conference, to which St. Norbert belongs for all other intercollegiate competition, does not sponsor hockey.

The NCHA tournament champion will play for the Harris Cup, named after Milwaukee School of Engineering athletics director Dan Harris, who served as the first president of the MCHA and was instrumental in the growth of the conference.

The regular-season champion will receive the Peters Cup, named after Bob Peters, the long-time Bemidji State coach. Peters won 728 games and 13 national championships with the Beavers, including two NCAA titles as an early member of the NCHA back in 1984 and 1986. The Peters Cup is an NCHA tradition, as it had been handed out to the NCHA playoff championship winner since 1998.

The MCHA started in the late 1990s, when a group of independent NCAA hockey programs which all formed within the same time period came together to aid in scheduling and provide additional competitive opportunities for their programs. Hence, the Midwest Collegiate Hockey Association was born prior to the start of the 1998-1999 season.

Charter members of the league were Benedictine University, The University of Findlay, Lawrence University, Marian University, Milwaukee School of Engineering and Northland College.

The University of Findlay hosted the first MCHA Tournament and claimed the league's first championship. After the inaugural season, Findlay left the league to pursue NCAA Division I membership in hockey and Benedictine dropped their hockey program.

In the spring of 1999, the University of Minnesota at Crookston joined the MCHA to bring the total membership to five institutions. The next addition to the MCHA occurred in 2004-05 when Finlandia University joined the conference. After staying at six members for three consecutive seasons, the MCHA saw expansive growth and moved to eight teams for the 2007-08 season, as Adrian College and Concordia University joined the ranks of the conference.

The expansion did not stop there, as Lake Forest College was accepted into the league and began play in the 2009-10 season, with Minnesota-Crookston leaving following the 2008-09 campaign to bring membership to eight schools until St. Norbert and St. Scholastica joined in 2013-14. Aurora University joined the league for 2015-16, with Trine University coming aboard in 2017-18. Northland departed after 2018-19, while St. Scholastica left after 2020-21.

LAKE PLACID, N.Y. — The long wait is over.

Behind an unprecedented defensive effort in NCAA Division III history, the St. Norbert College ice hockey team claimed its first national championship with a 2-0 win over Plattsburgh State University at historic Herb Brooks Arena.

The Green Knights, who beat Norwich University 3-0 in the national semifinals, became the first team in NCAA Division III history to post shut-outs in both games in the NCAA Frozen Four. St. Norbert finished the year allowing just 43 goals in 32 games, with its scoring defense of 1.34 goals allowed per game setting a new NCAA Division III record. Middlebury's 1.47 scoring defense in 2006 was the previous standard.

St. Norbert finished the year 27-1-4, becoming just the third team in NCAA Division III history to finish a season with just one loss — and the first one-loss team to win a national championship. The Green Knights will also carry a 29-game unbeaten streak into the 2008-09 season.

The Green Knights survived an early Plattsburgh flurry in the first period to end the first 20 minutes of action scoreless.

St. Norbert scored 5 minutes 53 seconds into the second period when Scott Pulak deflected a Nick Tabisz shot past Cardinals goaltender Bryan Hince.

The Green Knights pushed the bulge out to 2-0 when Marc Belanger scored his 23rd goal of the season at 10:25 of the second on a wicked wristshot from just inside the blue line directly in front of the goal. After two Plattsburgh skaters collided, Belanger was free and took a pass from Matt Boyd. Belanger, who was stopped on a drive from the slot in the first period, fired a laser past Hince top-shelf.

From there, St. Norbert's penalty kill would do most of the heavy lifting. Peter Fyilling took a five-minute major checking from behind penalty at 13:57 of the second period. The Green Knights killed off the penalty despite five Cardinal shots.

St. Norbert would have a 5-on-3 power play late in the second period that carried over into the third, but would not score.

Plattsburgh would get two power-play opportunities in the third period but did not score. The Cardinals also had the last 2:30 of the game with an extra attacker, but could not solve St. Norbert goaltender Kyle Jones.

Jones finished his stellar career with a 32-save shutout — his tenth of the season and the 25th of his career. Jones finished the 2007-08 season with a glittering 1.09 goals against average and a .950 save percentage — both NCAA Division III single-season records.

Jones, the 2008 NCAA Division III Player of the Year, finished one of the greatest careers in Division III hockey history with an 87-10-8 record, .926 save percentage and 1.61 goals against average.

Belanger, St. Norbert's only other senior, ended his 119-game career with 62 goals and 70 assists for 132 points. His career scoring is seventh all-time in school history, and his goals scored are fourth all-time in St. Norbert annals.

St. Norbert's championship now gives the Northern Collegiate Hockey Association its fifth different NCAA Division III national champion — joining Bemidji State (1986), UW-River Falls (1988, '94), UW-Stevens Point (1989, '90, '91, '93) and UW-Superior (2002). It is also the first national championship for a Midwest Conference member school, of which St. Norbert is a member in all other sports.

St. Norbert head coach Tim Coghlin became the first person in NCAA Division III history to play on and coach a national men's ice hockey champion. Coghlin was the captain of UW-Stevens Point's 1989 national championship squad.

2011 NCAA CHAMPIONS

MINNEAPOLIS – Titledown can add another trophy to its case.

St. Norbert College claimed its second men's ice hockey national championship with a 4-3 win over Adrian College at the NCAA Division III Frozen Four at the University of Minnesota's Ridder Arena. The Green Knights, who also won the national crown in 2008, finished the year 25-4-1. Adrian, which carried an 18-game unbeaten streak into the game, also finished 25-4-1.

The Green Knights scored the last marker in a seven-goal sequence that had teams alternating the scoring. Senior defenseman Nick Tabisz, a three-time first team All-America selection, blasted a power-play bomb from the right circle at the 15:26 mark for what would hold up as the game-winning score. It was Tabisz's fourth goal of the five-game St. Norbert post-season.

St. Norbert's defense locked down high-flying Adrian in the third period, with both teams only getting five shots on net. The Green Knights blocked a whopping 14 shots in the game, including five in the third period, to hold the national scoring leader to no goals in the final 20 minutes.

The Green Knights scored first just 4:15 into the game when Cody Keefer's shot hit Adrian goaltender Brad Fogal in the shoulder and waffled slowly past the goal line. The Bulldogs answered at 10:49 when Sam Kuzyk finished off a passing combination.

A bonanza on the power play then fueled the Green Knights, who turned in a season-high 3-for-5 effort with the man advantage. Tabisz fired a shot from the point that went past the goal, and the rebound off the bottom of boards went straight to Johan Ryd for a power-play goal at 13:01. St. Norbert led 2-1 after one period.

Adrian knotted the game at 2-2 when Kyle Watson scored at 7:10, but the Green Knights responded with another power-play goal. Keefer caught a rebound from a Brandon Hoogenboom drive at 10:38 for his second goal of the game and his third of the Frozen Four. Keefer finished the year with a team-high 14 goals.

The Bulldogs answered again at 14:27 when Eric Miller's backdoor shot just snuck under the crossbar. But just 59 seconds later Tabisz answered with his decisive goal.

Not to be lost in the offense was the goaltending of two-time first team All-America honoree B.J. O'Brien. O'Brien was named the Frozen Four's Most Outstanding Player for the second consecutive year after making 17 stops in the title game. Keefer and Tabisz were also selected to the All-Tournament Team.

St. Norbert finished the year as the nation's top defensive team, allowing just 1.80 goals per game this season. The Green Knights have now led the nation in scoring defense three times in the last five years. The Green Knights, who scored just 102 goals in 30 games this season, finished the year a glittering 10-2 in one-goal games.

O'Brien finished the year leading the NCAA Division III in goals against average and winning percentage and was tied in shutouts. Ryd led the country in game-winning goals with seven. In addition to the team leading the country in scoring defense, it also had the top penalty-killing unit at 89.4 percent.

LAKE PLACID, N.Y. – The St. Norbert College men's hockey program is the now the owner of the rarest of happenings in sports - a dynasty.

The Green Knights won their third NCAA Division III national championship in five years, and became only the third program in tournament history to repeat as titlists, with a 4-1 win over Oswego State University at Herb Brooks Arena. The Green Knights (21-5-5) finished with a 14-1-1 roar down the stretch after a 7-4-4 start to the season.

St. Norbert has won 13 of its last 14 games in the NCAA Tournament, the only blemish a 2-1 double overtime loss to Norwich in the 2010 national championship game. That's the best mark by any team in the NCAA Tournament since Middlebury won 16 straight games from 1995 to 1998. Overall, the Green Knights have played in the national title game six times in the last nine years. The national title is the 16th for the Green Knights' conference, the Northern Collegiate Hockey Association.

Cody Keefer wasted little time in putting St. Norbert into the driver's seat, skating down the slot and sniping a wrister just 17 seconds into the game for a 1-0 lead.

The Lakers' David Titanic buried a feed from Chris Brown at 10:47 of the first period to even the score at 1-1 after the Green Knights had an uncharacteristic turnover deep in their defensive zone.

St. Norbert jumped back ahead toward the end of the first period when Brandon Hoogenboom knocked home a rebound at 17:29. The marker was Hoogenboom's first since Nov. 26, a span of 19 games.

Oswego (24-4-2) then had the better of the action in the second period, but couldn't find the equalizer despite holding a 14-5 shots edge in the middle 20 minutes. The Lakers virtually had a four-minute power play midway through the period, but came up empty. Oswego's Chris Ayotte was fingered for interference at 16:42, and Keefer again found twine when he walked in on the doorstep to convert the power-play goal at 18:23 - his 10th of the year - for a 3-1 lead.

St. Norbert's trademark stingy third-period defense ruled the day in the final 20 minutes, with the Green Knights routinely turning the Lakers away at their offensive blue line. St. Norbert again had to kill off another virtual four-minute power play midway through the period, but continued to hold down its two-goal edge.

The Green Knights then finished off Oswego with a Keefer breakaway goal, cleanly beating Lakers' netminder Andrew Hare, with 2:53 left. Keefer's hat trick now gives him seven goals and one assist in six career Frozen Four games, and he has five goals in the last two national title games.

St. Norbert freshman goaltender David Jacobson turned in a virtuoso performance between the pipes that belied his collegiate experience. Jacobson made 29 saves in the game, including all 14 shots he faced in the crucial second period, to give him 55 saves in the Frozen Four. Jacobson was named the Frozen Four's Most Outstanding Player.

Joining Jacobson on the all-tournament team was Keefer, Johan Ryd and Zach McDonald - give the Green Knights four of the six spots. Ryd, Seth Soley and Alain Joannette are the only three St. Norbert seniors on this year's squad.

St. Norbert finished the game 1-for-5 on the power play, and held Oswego's power play to an 0-for-6 showing. Hare made 21 saves in net for the Lakers.

2014 NCAA CHAMPIONS

LEWISTON, Maine – There was no doubt in regard to who possessed the top NCAA Division III hockey team in the 2013-14 season.

Finishing the season with an impressive 11-0 kick, St. Norbert College claimed its fourth national championship in seven years with a gritty 3-1 win over long-time archrival UW-Stevens Point in the title game of the NCAA Division III Frozen Four at Androscoggin Bank Colisee.

Including its first “Run for the Roses” in 2008, the Green Knights have been simply dominant in the NCAA Tournament. St. Norbert has gone a remarkable 16-2 in that span, the only blemishes to Norwich University in the 2010 title game and to eventual 2013 champion UW-Eau Claire in a national quarterfinal. The national title was the third for this year’s senior class, which also won championships in 2011 and 2012.

The Green Knights (28-3-1), who set a school record with 28 wins this season, knew it wouldn’t be easy against the Pointers (22-6-2). Stevens Point was playing in its first national title game since 1998, and had won NCAA Division III titles in 1989, 1990, 1991 and 1993.

St. Norbert, who entered the game 24-2-1 when scoring first this season, drew first blood when Joe Perry scored his 24th goal of the season when his wraparound attempt found its way past the goal line at 13 minutes 6 seconds of the first period. The Green Knights added to their lead an NCAA Tournament-record 11 seconds later, when Erik Cooper’s shot through traffic found twine at 13:17 for his 16th goal of the year.

The Green Knights had to battle their way through a second period that saw them kill off three Stevens Point power plays, although one was truncated to a 4-on-4 situation thanks to a Pointer infraction. About midway through the second period, a Michael Hill shot hit the crossbar, and was ruled no goal following a video review to keep St. Norbert ahead 2-0 after 40 minutes.

Stevens Point swung momentum in its favor when Garrett Ladd scored his 20th goal of the season just 45 seconds into the third period. The Pointers Scott Henegar was whistled for tripping at 3:46, and the Green Knights pushed ahead 3-1 just one second after the penalty expired on Marian Fiala’s sixth marker of the season.

There were no penalties the rest of the game, and Stevens Point couldn’t draw closer despite having an extra attacker on the ice for the final 2 minutes of the game.

Perry, who scored five goals and two assists in three NCAA Tournament games, was named the tournament’s Most Outstanding Player. Perry’s 24 goals are tied for second-most in a season in school history, and he’s only the fourth St. Norbert player to reach that mark.

Fiala and goaltender David Jacobson were also named to the All-Tournament Team. Jacobson made 23 saves as the Green Knights killed off all four Stevens Point power plays. Jacobson, the first St. Norbert goaltender to be in net for two national championship wins, finishes the season 24-1-1 – the best record ever for a St. Norbert netminder.

Joe Kalisz and Kyle Brodie of Stevens Point were also named to the All-Tournament team, along with Shawn Hulshof from Oswego State University. Stevens Point goaltender Brandon Jaeger made 26 saves and also aided in killing off all four St. Norbert power plays.

St. Norbert finished the season leading Division III in scoring offense (4.78 goals per game) and scoring defense (1.44 goals per game). Since the NCAA officially began keeping track of national statistics in 1995-96, St. Norbert is the first Division III team to lead the country in offense and defense in the same season. It is the fourth time in the last eight years the Green Knights have led the country in scoring defense, and the first time they have led the nation in scoring offense.

LAKE PLACID, N.Y. – The end certainly crowned the work for the 2017-18 St. Norbert College hockey team when the Green Knights claimed their fifth NCAA Division III national championship with a hard-fought 3-2 double-overtime win over Salve Regina University at Herb Brooks Arena. St. Norbert junior Brad Pung scored at 9:42 of double overtime to lift the Green Knights to their fifth national title in 11 seasons.

St. Norbert (27-4-1) finished the season with an impressive 12-game winning streak to cap off a memorable run for the roses. The Green Knights - who also won national championships in 2008, 2011, 2012 and 2014 - are now 22-4 in their last 26 NCAA Tournament games. The 2008 and 2012 national championships also came in Lake Placid.

The Green Knights took home the gold when Pung's wrister cleanly beat Salve Regina goaltender Blake Wojtala. Senior captain Tanner Froese came up the far wall and dropped the puck to Pung, who was unimpeded coming down the right slot. Pung's shot rifled past the goal line to set off a wild on-ice celebration.

St. Norbert scored the game's first two goals, both coming on the power play. Froese found Dominick Sacco coming down the slot on a power-play opportunity for a 1-0 lead with 18:31 elapsed in the first period.

The Green Knights added to their lead when the Seahawks were assessed a major boarding penalty. St. Norbert took advantage when Luke Davison's shot from the point bounced Wojtala's water bottle off the top of the cage at the 12:25 mark. Salve Regina quickly got back in the game however when Cameron Russo scored shorthanded 65 seconds later. St. Norbert took a 2-1 lead into second intermission despite holding a 15-4 advantage in shot in the second period.

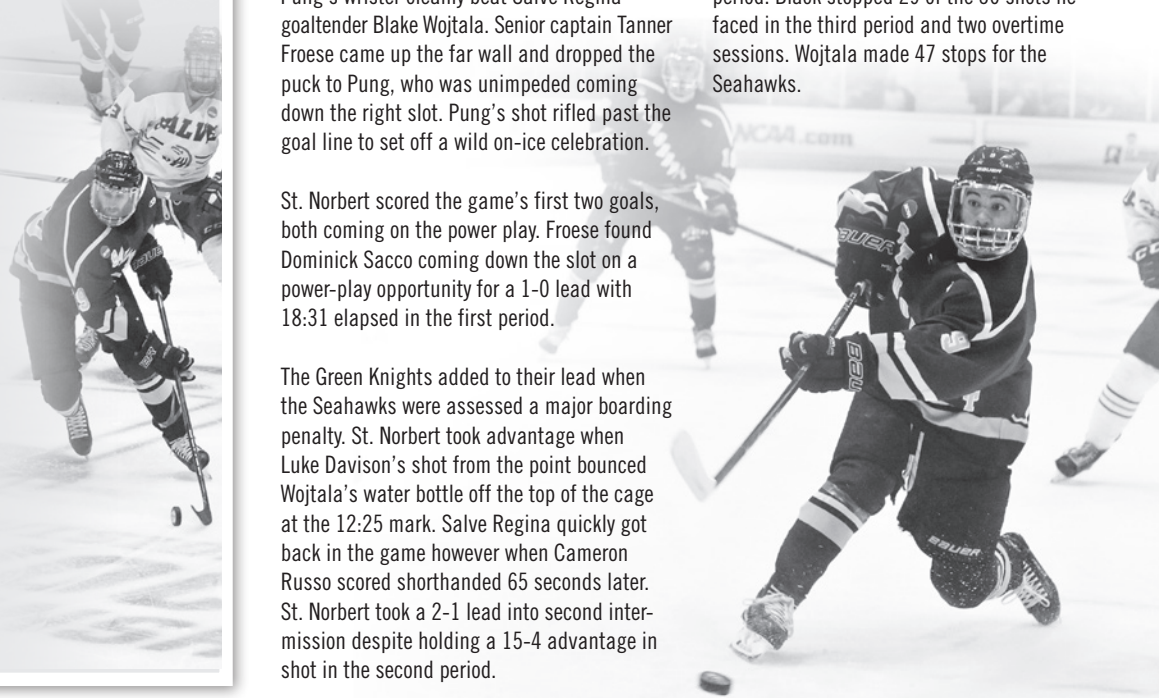

The Seahawks (22-6-2) tied the game midway through the third period, when Paul Boutousov banged home a rebound at 10:35.

Salve Regina would outshoot St. Norbert 14-9 in the first overtime, but the Green Knights would have an 8-3 edge in the second extra session. St. Norbert held a 50-43 edge on shot on goal for the game.

Froese assisted on all three St. Norbert goals and was named the Most Outstanding Player of the tournament. Peter Bates also had a multi-point game with two assists.

In addition to Froese being named the Most Outstanding Player, Sacco and Davison were also named to the All-Tournament Team.

Black turned away 41 saves for St. Norbert, including several difficult saves in the first period. Black stopped 29 of the 30 shots he faced in the third period and two overtime sessions. Wojtala made 47 stops for the Seahawks.

The Voice of the Green Knights

Tim Derozier

As a student at St. Norbert College, Tim Derozier attended Tim Coghlin's initial press conference in 1993. From there he was hooked, broadcasting St. Norbert College Hockey in one shape or form since the 1993-94 season. Now in his 28th season as The Voice of the Green Knights, Tim will webcast all regular-season and post-season games in 2021-22, including video streaming at games at the Cornerstone Community Center.

When Covering the Green Knights

Sports Information Office

The St. Norbert College Sports Information Office is located in Mulva Family Fitness & Sports Center, Room 2016. Dan Lukes, Sports Information Director, may be reached at the following telephone numbers:

Office: 920.403.4077
Fax: 920.403.3128
E-mail: dan.lukes@snc.edu

Press Credentials

Arrangements for press credentials should be made through the Sports Information Office by noon the day preceding the contest. All credentials will be left at will call.

Cornerstone Community Center

Press Box

The press box features ample room for media personnel. Telephones can be provided for media on deadline.

Radio Broadcasts

Two areas are available in the press box and must be reserved two weeks prior to the contest. Stations will be limited to two credentials. All technical arrangements for phone lines must be made by the broadcasting station.

Interviews with Coach Coghlin

Head coach Tim Coghlin may be reached in his office at the rink (920.403.2025) at any time.

Player Interviews

Player interviews may be set up through the Sports Information Office, or after practice. The Green Knights practice at Cornerstone Community Center.
