Announcement Date: December 1, 2012

Planned End of Sale: June 1, 2013 or while supplies last

Select HP Services zl Modules

The HPN Services zl Modules listed below have provided unique capability to our 5400zl & 8200zl product series by providing platforms for adding 3rd party network-centric applications to these popular switch families. As we move to versions supporting advanced hypervisors such as VMware's vsphere and Citrix's Xen offerings the below products will be migrated to these new platforms.
