AMU's Rettmer Earns CMP Highpower Rifle Championship Aggregate Win

SPC Luke Rettmer, 22, of the U.S. Army Marksmanship Unit (AMU), started strong in his 2021 National Matches rifle series appearance, claiming the overall competitor spot in the Service Rifle category of the 2400 Aggregate Match. The competition was held on the famous Camp Perry Viale Range and hosted by the Civilian Marksmanship Program (CMP) as part of the CMP Highpower Rifle Championships.

"I was happy with my performance," Rettmer said. "Every day I step on the range, my goal is to shoot all the shots in the 10- or X-ring, regardless of the outcome of the score – and I feel like I almost did that."

A Washington native and Distinguished marksman since 2015, Rettmer joined the AMU Service Rifle Team in November 2019 after completing Basic Training at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri. Also in 2019, he added U21 World Long Range champion to his long list of achievements that includes past winner of the Col. Bill Deneke Trophy, which is awarded to the top overall junior athlete of the National Matches President's Rifle, National Trophy Individual and National Trophy Junior Team aggregate. He even made the prestigious President's Rifle 20-person shootoff – the only junior to do so in 2018.

"There were a couple shots that got away from me," he went on of his 2400 Aggregate showing. "But I felt that my performance reflected my training well."

Team CMP's James Fox, 36, of Albany, Oregon, was the Service Rifle High Civilian each of the three days of separate 800 Aggregate Matches. Fox claimed the overall aggregate win in 2019 and landed in second behind Rettmer at this year's event, trailing by only two points and marking an outstanding 131 X-count.

High Junior of the Service Rifle Aggregate was Dustin Carr, 19, of San Diego, California, who fired a score of 2363-101X. SSG Amanda Elsenboss, 32, of the Army National Guard earned the honor of High Woman after compiling a score of 2373-120X for seventh place overall.

Outside of Service Rifle, the Aggregate was also open to Match Rifle competitors. Leading the 2400 Match Rifle Aggregate and named High Military competitor each of the three days was SFC Brandon Green, 36, of the AMU. High Civilians during the daily matches included Benjamin Pickel, 41, of Crystal Lake, Illinois, Fritz Hempelmann, 61, of Wheeling, West Virginia, and Team CMP's own Robert Gill, 62, of Visalia, California.

SPC Luke Rettmer of the Army Marksmanship Unit was the overall competitor of the 2400 Service Rifle Aggregate Match.

National Trophy Rifle Matches

A Message from the DCM:

The CMP is pleased to provide this special printed edition of the Final Results of the 2021 National Trophy Rifle Matches. We hope this publication, with its featured information and photos, will serve as an enjoyable memento that marked a return to the Camp Perry summer tradition that we all hold in such high regards.

The 2021 National Rifle Matches began on 20 July with CMP's Smallbore series of events. For the second time, Smallbore featured an educational Small Arms Firing School, led by members of the Army Marksmanship Unit (AMU). The lineup of National Smallbore Matches continued with a set of three-position, prone and team competitions before concluding on 28 July.

Time-honored National Trophy and CMP Games rifle events like the EIC, 4-Man Team, President's Rifle and National John C. Garand matches began 26 July and ran through 9 August. The 2021 rifle matches concluded with the CMP's Long Range series, which ran from 10 to 14 August. As always, the National Matches also included enlightening training opportunities for adults and juniors, such as the Marine Corps Junior Clinic, Rifle Small Arms Firing School and the Advanced Clinic.

True to form, the 2021 National Matches showcased several incredible shooting performances by noteworthy marksmen and women, including:

- SSG Amanda Elsenboss, ARNG, who fired perfect scores as an individual in both the National Trophy and Hearst Doubles team events.
- Team CMP's James Fox and Nick Till, who earned the top spot in the Hearst Doubles team event.
- The U.S. AMU, which claimed the overall win in the National Trophy Team event and established a new national record. Anton Van Hoven, McLain, Kevin George, Kingshill, Carr and Simone George (Team Hollis) also set a new national record as the High Junior team in the NTT.
- The CA Grizzlies Team O'Connell, which set a new junior national record score in the National Trophy Infantry Team match.
- Dustin Carr and Amber Kingshill of the CA Grizzlies, who fired a new National Trophy Junior Team record.
- SGT Brandon Muske of the AMU, who claimed the overall win in the National Trophy Individual Match. Mason White of Sandy, Oregon, earned a new set of national records as High Civilian and High Junior in the event.
- Sgt Christopher Williams of Quantico, Virginia, who set a new High U.S. Marine Corps Competitor record in the President's/NTI/NTT Aggregate.
- Justin Utley of Mineola, Texas, who set the High Civilian record in the NTI/NTT Aggregate, a High Police record in the NTI and a High Civilian record in the NTT.
- Haley Robinson of Mill Spring, North Carolina, who set the High Woman record in the NTI and High Junior and High Woman records in the President's Match. She also earned the High Junior record for the P100/NTI/NTT Aggregate.
- SGT Kade Jackovich of the AMU, who earned the Mountain Man Trophy as the overall leading competitor of the President's/NTI/NTT Aggregate.
- MAJ Samuel Freeman of the National Guard All Guard Rifle team, who was the overall competitor of the President's Rifle Match.
- SPC Luke Rettmer of the AMU, who was the overall competitor in the Service Rifle category of the CMP Highpower 2400 Aggregate Match.
- SPC Ivan Roe of the AMU, who was the leading scorer of the Three-Position Aggregate Smallbore competition. Teammate SGT Timothy Sherry led the Prone 6400 Aggregate.
- Jean Redicker of Vallonia, Indiana, who led two separate classes in the National Rimfire Sporter Match.
- 1stLt James Minturn of the U.S. Marine Corps, who claimed both the Three-Gun and Four-Gun Aggregate matches in the CMP Games portion.
- Doug Armstrong of Lexington, North Carolina, who won the John C. Garand and Vintage Military competitions. Brian Williams of Granby, Massachusetts, was the overall competitor in the Modern Military event and also earned the top spot in the National Carbine Match.

The CMP would like to extend many sincere thanks to everyone who made significant contributions to the 2021 National Matches, including all of the organizations, school and clinic leaders, award donors and countless others – each essential to the success of the event. National Matches photo galleries may be viewed on our photo website at cmp1.zenfolio.com. We encourage you to download your photos for free and share them with friends and family.

We'll be looking forward to seeing you back on the shores of Lake Erie for the National Rifle Matches in 2022. Until then, have a safe, fun year, and good shooting to you all.

National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches

The National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches are the annual U. S. national championship in service pistol and service rifle shooting. The National Trophy Matches were established by federal law in 1903, are still conducted under the statutory authority of the U. S. Code (Title 36 USC § 40725-40727) and are now governed by the Civilian Marksmanship Program. Shooters from all over the U. S., civilian and military, test their skills and compete to determine the nation's best service pistol and rifle shooters. To fulfill the CMP's statutory responsibility to "instruct citizens in marksmanship," the National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches are open to all shooters regardless of skill level. Beginners compete and learn while shooting side by side with champions. The tradition of the matches and their competitions for prestigious national trophies celebrate marksmanship excellence and provide incentives to develop individual marksmanship skills, equipment and a national competition infrastructure. The CMP National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches are held in conjunction with the NRA National Rifle and Pistol Championships through a partnership between the two organizations. The Ohio National Guard and U. S. Army Reserves also provide vital support for the matches. The CMP National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches and the NRA National Rifle and Pistol Championships are collectively known as the NATIONAL MATCHES.

All Guard's Freeman Wins Overall at President's

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

Maj. Samuel Freeman was the 2021 winner of the President's Rifle Match at Camp Perry. Presenter: Mr. Gerald O'Keefe

Maj. Samuel Freeman, 37, of the National Guard All Guard Rifle team, was the overall competitor of the 2021 President's Rifle Match – firing a score of 396-19X. The match was part of the Civilian Marksmanship Program's (CMP) National Rifle Matches at Camp Perry and has been a prestigious part of the annual event for over 40 years.

"It felt wonderful," Freeman said of his return to the National Matches after missing last year's cancelled event.

Freeman is a long-time competitor of the National Matches, making his debut in 1997 as a junior and even taking the Small Arms Firing School in 1995 at 11 years old.

"This is what I did as a kid," he said. "I didn't play a lot of baseball or play football – this was my sport, service rifle shooting. So, this (the National Matches) was the big culminating event."

Freeman has fired in the President's Rifle Match several times throughout his career, reaching as high as fourth in the esteemed 20-person shootoff held at the conclusion of the match. At this year's event, he felt confident in his zeroes but was still concerned with the wind blowing 10 miles-per-hour directly into his face on the 200 yard line during the standing portion. The wind improved during the rapid fire stage at the 300, which caused Freeman to underestimate the conditions at the slow-fire 600-yard phase and led to a break into the 9-ring.

"I knew it was going to be a bad shot. I couldn't see it, but I felt it wasn't going to be a good shot, and it wasn't," he said. "I made a mistake, but I didn't let it get to me. I just kept shooting after that."

Freeman had competed in the CMP Highpower events the previous week, which, he said, prepared him for the National Trophy Rifle competitions like the President's Rifle Match – so much so that he secured a score that even he didn't expect.

"It's the highest score I've ever shot," he admitted in disbelief.

"I think it's because I came here confident in my equipment," he went on. "I knew if I just put my zeroes on and shot at my target, the gun was going to do what it was supposed to do. That gives the shooter a lot of confidence, knowing that their equipment is the best that they can get."

Also readying him on the line was the confidence he has come to absorb from standing on the ranges of Camp Perry. He confessed that he feels comfortable on the historic grounds and draws on the memory of the shores of Ohio's Lake Erie (where the ranges are set) to ease his nerves during other competitions.

"In any other rifle match, I always visualize being at

Camp Perry,” he said. “With seagulls flying – and that’s always what calms me down.”

As a junior, Freeman shot with the NCRPA (North Carolina Rifle & Pistol Association) and has come back with military teams like the Army Reserve Team before transitioning to the Guard team three years ago.

“I’ve seen juniors come up here and win things,” he said.

Freeman talked of his childhood rivals like James Fox and Staff Sgt. John Coggshall (2019’s President’s Match winner), both part of the 2021 shootoff. Freeman named them as good representations of juniors continuing on and succeeding within the sport.

“It’s really cool to see that there was that camaraderie of those kids that were trying to win. We were competing against each other as juniors 20 years ago, and now, it’s the same people on the firing line, and we’re still competing against each other,” he said. “That’s really neat to see.”

Freeman’s dad, Gary, is a Distinguished Rifleman and the one who introduced him to the sport. Gary even introduced him to his first AR-15, wrapping it up for Freeman’s 12th birthday.

“My dad had me open it three weeks early because he couldn’t stand it. He wanted to see the gun,” Freeman explained with a laugh.

“All the time and effort my dad put in with me – sizing my brass, loading my ammo – for all these years and passing it on to me – that’s the biggest thing to me,” he said. “Seeing that somebody put in all that time for me. It took a lot of time for me, but it ended up bringing a President’s 100 victory home.”

Along with his dad, Freeman credits Thurman Horner, the first civilian to ever earn a Distinguished Rifleman Badge in North Carolina, as an important mentor through his junior years and his adult career.

Freeman had reached as high as fourth place overall in the event before claiming the win this year. Freeman’s father introduced him to the sport and credits him and others for helping him reach his achievements.

“I’ve had really good coaches all through my past,” Freeman said.

His dad has been with him at every National Matches over the years but was unable to make the trip in 2021. After earning the win in the President’s event, Freeman called his dad and Horner to tell them the news, saying, “I’m glad to be here, I’m humble and I thank the good Lord that he gave me the eyesight and physical ability to do this.”

While competing other places, Freeman pictures the ranges of Camp Perry for comfort.

Muske Earns Stunning NTI Win, White Sets Multiple Records

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

In his first highpower rifle showing, Sgt. Brandon Muske, 27, of the Army Marksmanship Unit (AMU), claimed the overall win in the National Trophy Individual Match with a score of 498-25X – fired during the 2021 National Matches. The match was conducted at the beginning of August by the Civilian Marksmanship Program (CMP) and saw a field of over 790 competitors on the historic ranges of Camp Perry.

“It was kind of a normal day,” Muske said of the match. “I haven’t been shooting service rifle all that long, so I came out and was looking to do well. I just went out there to shoot what I knew I could and kind of let the chips fall where they would.”

Typically a member of the AMU’s International Rifle Team, Muske, in his own words, “happened to be there for the summer,” and was recruited to assist the Service Rifle team. Other AMU International Team members like 1st Sgt. Sarah Beard and Sgt. Jared Desroisers also came along for the National Matches to compete and do some cross-training in service rifle.

“It took us a good while to get settled in a little bit,” Muske admitted. “The lack of adjustability with the guns, and then trigger weights with the guns, as well as the course of fire difference – having to shoot rapid fire strings and deal with wind a little more at 600 than we typically do at 50 meters with international rifle – but it was all a big learning curve.”

Certainly proving the adaptability of international shooters into other disciplines, Muske joked of winning the very first NTI he ever competed in alongside his AMU Service Rifle teammates, saying, with a laugh, “I’m sure they would have loved to beat me, but that’s just the name of the game.”

He went on to praise the talented members and recognize them for sharing their knowledge.

“The (Service Rifle) team was very helpful,” Muske said. “They made sure we all knew what was going on and helped us out along the way.”

After the summer, Muske will be back with the International Rifle team to train for the USA Shooting Nationals set to take place in Ft. Benning, Georgia, in October.

Also securing a memorable showing at the 2021 NTI event was Mason White, 17, of Sandy, Oregon, who earned a new set of national records as High Civilian and High Junior with his score of 498-15X – only 10 X’s shy of the Muske’s leading score. White earned fifth place overall in the match.

“I didn’t expect to do well when I came here. I expected to shoot my average and go home happy with that,” White said. “Things just kind of fell together for me.”

He also performed well in the President’s Rifle Match, finishing 54th out of over 830 competitors and earning a President’s

Daniel Boone Trophy, SGT Brandon Muske, USA, 498-25X, Presenter: Mr. Gary Anderson

Tab as one of the Top 100 competitors of the event. In the National Trophy Junior Team (NTJT) match, he was the fourth-highest scoring individual competitor. The combination of his NTI, President’s and NTJT showings led to White earning a new aggregate Col. Bill Deneke Trophy national record score of 1282-46X.

“It’s weird,” he said of now being the holder of multiple national records. “Never expected to have anything in my name like that. I never expected to be able to get to that point.”

His marksmanship career began at age 12, when he was a youth cadet in the Civil Air Patrol. A senior member suggested White check out the smallbore club, and he immediately fell in love. A few years later, the leader of the program noticed White’s potential and asked if he would like to shoot service rifle as well. Soon after, White joined highpower and has since been to the Camp Perry National Matches three times.

“It was weird having that missed year,” he said of the cancelled 2020 National Matches. “But I felt like I had that extra year of practice.”

He admitted the slight break helped him refocus and led him to several milestones this year. Outside of his National Matches successes, White earned his Distinguished Rifleman Badge in June – receiving the medal during the awards ceremony at Camp Perry.

For the future, White would like to eventually join the military, hopefully through a service academy where he can continue to compete.

The President’s Rifle, NTI and National Trophy Team (NTT) individual competitors produced several other new national records over the course of the highpower rifle match series, including:

- High U.S. Marine Corps Competitor, President’s/NTI/NTT Aggregate: Sgt. Christopher Williams, 30, Quantico, Virginia – 1283-51X
- High Civilian, NTI/NTT Aggregate: Justin Utley, 36, Mineola, Texas – 995-42X
- High Police, NTI: Justin Utley, 36, Mineola, Texas – 497-17X
- High Civilian, NTT: Justin Utley, 36, Mineola, Texas – 498-25X
- High Woman, NTI: Haley Robinson, 21, of Mill Spring, North Carolina – 496-25X

Earning the Mountain Man Trophy as the overall leading competitor of the President’s/NTI/NTT Aggregate was Sgt. Kade Jackovich, 22, of the AMU, with a score of 1292-67X. Before Jackovich became a member of the Service Rifle Team in January 2019, he was the winner of several national junior awards as a part of the Arizona Scorpions club.

Elsenboss Moves ‘Forward’ During Record-Setting Performance

Written by Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

Firing perfect scores as an individual in both the National Trophy and Hearst Doubles team events, Staff Sgt. Amanda Elsenboss, 32, exploded out of the gate in her National Matches debut as a member of the National Guard All Guard Marksmanship Team. The events were held as part of the 2021 National Trophy Rifle Matches, conducted by the Civilian Marksmanship Program on the grounds of Camp Perry.

“I came out here with the mindset that I was going to win,” she expressed, confidently.

Her incredible score of 500-34X in the National Trophy Team (NTT) event was more than enough to earn a national record and the Pershing Trophy as the overall individual competitor of the match. The score also earned her the Rattlesnake Trophy as the High Army competitor, along with another national record.

“I never could have imagined it,” she said. “I’m not sure it’s hit me.”

Sgt. Antonio DiConza of the U.S. Marine Corps held the previous Pershing Trophy record of 500-15X, which he set back in 2016. Once he heard of Elsenboss’s remarkable 2021 score, he personally reached out to her to offer his congratulations and was even present to hand her the new national record certificate at the National Matches awards ceremony.

Elsenboss said, “It was a lot of hard work, and I truly could not have done it without the National Guard team and everyone who has supported me through it all, because they’re the people that motivated me.”

Her name isn’t new to those within the marksmanship world. As a junior in 2006, she paired up with her Connecticut Palmer teammate at Camp Perry and helped attain a score of 966-19X to become the first all-female team to earn the National Rifle Association’s Whistler Boy rifle match win.

Elsenboss joined the Army in 2009 and upon completion of basic training was assigned to the Army Marksmanship Unit (AMU) Service Rifle team. She produced several honorable titles throughout her AMU career, including national champion at the 2019 Long Range rifle portion of the Camp Perry National Matches. She also held the Women’s Rifle Trophy national record from 2017 until this year.

At the end of 2019, she left the AMU and joined the All Guard Marksmanship Team. With the cancellation of last year’s National Matches, she had to hold off on arriving at Camp Perry in her new iconic maroon All Guard hat.

“Last year, Perry didn’t happen . . . Now 2021 is here, and I get to play on the Guard side,” she said with a smile.

Her 2021 Camp Perry appearance began during the CMP Highpower matches held the week before the National Trophy Rifle series. Admittedly, she had a few hiccups during the Highpower events but came back to shoot a 798 personal best score, which helped her regain her confidence.

“I realized, ‘Okay, hey – you’ve been working hard, you’ve been practicing, you’ve been training – and the Guard’s giving you these opportunities – continue forward with it,’” she said.

Once the Trophy Matches began, she was able to watch her All Guard teammate Maj. Samuel Freeman win the President’s Rifle Match. Another teammate and former President’s winner Staff Sgt. John Coggshall along with the All Guard’s Staff Sgt. Cody Shields and 1st Sgt. Glenn Worley were also on the line for the Top 20 shootoff that accompanies the match. She was happy to cheer them all on from the sidelines.

“The team is probably one of the best National Guard teams that we’ve seen in a while,” Elsenboss said. “We’ve got a bunch of good, good shooters. We’ve been training, we’ve been practicing for it.”

In the Hearst Doubles Match, she joined Cogshall on the firing line. They got caught in the wind at the 600 yard line, but it didn’t slow her down.

“I was just doing my best to try to keep the team moving forward,” she said.

Not only did she keep the team “moving forward” in the Hearst Doubles – she blew past the other competitors as she was, again, the overall individual competitor with an incredible score of 300-14X. The duo earned second overall in the match, falling short to Team CMP’s James Fox and Nick Till by X-count – 595-28X (Elsenboss/Cogshall) to 595-30X (Fox/Till).

Despite her individual successes, Elsenboss stayed humble, recognizing that her accomplishments wouldn’t have been possible without her new team’s support.

“It’s a team match for a reason,” she said. “The team was there to facilitate the best that they can for everyone.”

“I’m definitely enjoying it,” she said of being a member of the All Guard. “It’s a good change of pace seeing different competitors from a different angle.”

The change in perspective also altered her views on competing, in general – realizing that triumphs can come from anyone who’s motivated enough to put in the work.

“There’s more to it than just what team you shoot with or the equipment that you have,” she said. “It’s more so the individual that makes it happen.”

Elsenboss’s former team, the U.S. AMU, continued their own triumphs at the 2021 National Matches – claiming the overall win in the NTT event and establishing a new national record. The team of Sergeant 1st Class Brandon Green, Staff Sgt. David Bahten, Sgt. Kade Jackovich, Sgt. Jared Desrosiers, Sgt. Brandon Muske and Sgt. Lane Ichord compiled the record score of 2971-155X in the event.

Green, Bahten, Ichord and Jackovich also joined teammates Staff Sgt. Verne Conant and Staff Sgt. Jarrod McGaffic in the National Trophy Infantry Team (NTIT) Match to record a score of 1431 for the overall win.

Elsenboss and the All Guard team earned second in both the NTT and NTIT matches, as the Texas State Rifle Association reached third in the events as well as the High Civilian Team honors.

The duo of Dustin Carr and Amber Kingshill, a.k.a. CA Grizzlies Team Leupold, made marks, too, as they fired a new National Trophy Junior Team record score of 992-49X. The pair crushed the previous record of 979-39X, set by fellow Grizzlies back in 2016.

Kingshill not only led the team but was also the highest scoring junior individual of the match, recording 498-29X on her own.

Carr and Kingshill teamed up with other Grizzlies Zack McLain, Simone George, Andrew Van Hoven and Anton Van Hoven to add yet another national record to the junior club’s legacy. Team O’Connell, as they were called, fired a score of 1329 in the NTIT to net fifth overall and a new national record for the Magnificent Seven Junior Infantry Team Trophy.

Anton Van Hoven, McLain, Kevin George, Kingshill, Carr and Simone George (Team Hollis) combined forces to also reach a new national record as the High Junior team in the NTT, earning a score of 2940-92X and the Minuteman Trophy.

Grizzlies coach Robert Taylor talked about the talent of the experienced members on his team as well as Simone George, 16, who is a fresh face on the California Grizzlies and has shown great talent while having only been involved for about seven months.

“She’s a natural. She just picked it right up,” he said.

He admits the group of young athletes on the team come in each year looking to beat previous records on their roads to success.

“That’s their goal – for perfection,” he said. “Winning is contagious. The more you win, the more contagious it is, and the more the next generation of kids want to come in and show how they’re going to put their mark.”

“They’re amazing,” he added.

Taylor has been coaching the long line of gifted Grizzlies for 21 years but recently announced at the National Matches that 2021 will be his final leading the team.

Amber Kingshill (seen here with her brother, Bo), was the high individual of the Junior Team event.

Robert Taylor will step down as Grizzlies head coach after more than 20 years.

Junior Haley Robinson Claims Three New Records

Written by Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

Haley Robinson, 21, of Mill Spring, North Carolina, set not one, not two, but three new national records during the 2021 National Rifle Matches. The annual event was conducted by the Civilian Marksmanship Program (CMP) and held in August on the grounds of the historic Camp Perry National Guard Training Facility, where it has been set for over a century.

Robinson's record performances began with the President's Rifle event, where she fired a score of 395-15X to earn new High Junior and High Woman records – finishing seventh overall. She was also the only junior to appear in the 20-person shootoff that accompanies the President's Match.

"The first day, I did pretty decent, and it just stuck," she said of her President's showing.

Back in 2018 (only her second trip to the National Matches) she gave herself an objective to reach the Top 20 shootoff. She inched close in 2019, reaching the President's Hundred (as one of the Top 100 competitors) in 46th place overall and earning a coveted President's Tab. She had hoped to climb her way into the shootoff the following year, but, with the cancellation of the 2020 National Matches, she wasn't given the chance.

"This year (2021), I made it my goal, and I practiced hard before we left," Robinson said. "I was nervous – very nervous – but once I got up there, after the first shot, I was calm."

Along with her marksmanship abilities, Robinson is known for her composure on and off the firing line. She says she doesn't know exactly how she stays so relaxed, but she has a hunch.

"My dad blames it on my low blood pressure," she joked. "I'm just always calm."

Robinson credits her dad, Bobby, for getting her started in marksmanship in 2016 (a year after he began his own journey within the sport). The following year, Robinson and her dad attended countless competitions and practiced whenever they could – talking with one another about nothing but shooting during their long truck rides from match to match. Robinson's hard work paid off when she earned her Distinguished Rifleman Badge, a lifetime goal for most marksmen, that same year.

Now that she's reached the President's Shootoff, she's got a new target in mind – winning the match.

"It's all I have left," she said with a smile.

After her success in the President's Rifle Match, Robinson went on the next day to set a new Women's Rifle Trophy national record score of 496-25X in the National Trophy Individual Match – finishing 10th overall out of a field of almost 800 competitors that included several decorated civilian and military athletes.

Seemingly arriving out of nowhere and covering the leaderboards, Robinson claims being a newcomer to the sport with a budding reputation can come with its own challenges.

Haley Robinson reached seventh overall in the 2021 President's Rifle Match.

"It's very different, especially when people don't know who you are," she explained. "And it's different being out here and being female, because they treat you a little different."

She welcomes tips and advice, but to those who may underestimate her talents because of her age or her gender – she lets her scores do the talking.

"I don't say anything to anybody," she said. "I won't even tell people my score, until they ask me. I'm very humble, and I don't want to be THAT person."

Besides that, she's not out on the line, day after day, to prove anything to anyone else – she's doing it all for herself.

"And him," she said, pointing to her dad. "It's me and him."

As for her future plans in marksmanship, Robinson keeps it simple, saying, "Still shoot. Keep going."

And coming back to the National Matches in 2022 to claim that President's Rifle win?

"I mean, I'll try," she said as she laughed.

After her shootoff performance, she embraced her dad on the line.

She not only earned records in the President's Match but also went on to do the same in the NTI event.

CMP, Military Teams Conduct Variety of Educational Courses

Written by Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

The National Matches at Camp Perry has been a staple in the marksmanship world for over 100 years. The event attracts thousands of guests each year to the historic ranges of the Ohio National Guard Training Facility, with such prestigious competitions as the President’s Match, National Trophy Individual and many others that competitors have come to expect over the years.

What some may not realize is that there are also plenty of opportunities for learning while attending the National Matches – on and off the firing lines. The Civilian Marksmanship Program (CMP), which conducts the Matches each year, offers an entire lineup of educational courses for those new to the sport and those eager to develop their skills. The types of rifle and pistol courses span from junior to adult, competitive to maintenance and everything in between.

“We held a number of classes for both pistol and rifle to accommodate folks’ schedules this year, and they were great,” said Steve Cooper, CMP training & education manager.

Along with classes offered solely by the CMP, other courses are partnered with military entities that recruit some of the best shots in the country to lead instruction on the range.

“The Marine Corps junior clinic, guided by Maj. Martinez (USMC Shooting Team Officer In Charge), is always a big hit with our up-and-coming young rifle shooters,” Cooper explained. “It was great to see so many enthusiastic young people, who revere the Marine Corps Shooting Team, come out and take advantage of the instruction at this year’s clinic.”

Likewise, the Small Arms Firing School is directed by many decorated marksmen from a number of military teams. This year, the rifle classroom portion was led by the U.S. Army Marksmanship Unit’s Sgt. 1st Class Brandon Green, who holds multiple national records including a perfect score in the National Matches President’s Rifle event. ented athletes like the All Guard’s Staff Sgt. Amanda Elsenboss, who recently earned her own national records at the 2021 National Rifle Matches, and Maj. Samuel Freeman, the 2021 winner of the President’s Rifle Match – among other decorated service men and women – brought their own knowledge and experience into one-on-one training with participants.

“Having those world-class shooters serve as instructors is an honor and one the students should remember, always,” Cooper added.

CMP Courses:

CMP RO Level II Training Course:

The Range Officer (RO) Training Course program, offered at three levels of instruction, was developed by the CMP to provide education for those interested in serving as qualified Range Officers in CMP sponsored and sanctioned competitions. Currently, certification is available in four different shooting disciplines. The Level II Course was presented on the schedule at the 2021 National Matches and guided packed classrooms of individuals who will now be able to take their valuable knowledge back to their home ranges.

“I was so pleased this year to see so many folks come out and take our Level II Range Officer Class,” said Cooper. “Many of the attendees already have taken the class, but they come back, not only to pick up more info, but to share what they know with the rest of the group.”

“Our veteran RO’s and tower talkers came to multiple classes,” he went on. “They add so much to the coursework because they share ‘real world’ experiences, and you just can’t beat that kind of instruction. I’m proud to be associate with this group of range professionals.”

The Range Officer Level II Training Course provides education for those interested in earning proper range certification.

The Advanced Course is broken into small groups to provide personal training to participants.

Team CMP Advanced Highpower Clinic:

Led by members of Team CMP (the organization's own competitive highpower squad) the Advanced Highpower Clinic offers more complex instruction in service rifle competition techniques using classroom and range discussion. Though the class traditionally only utilizes dry-fire training on the range, in 2021, a 600-yard live-fire portion was added.

With 65 individuals signed up, the course was broken into groups headed by Sara Rozanski, James Fox, Nick Till, Danny Arnold, Robert Taylor and Bob Gill – all experienced and award-winning marksmen. Each focused on a specific area, such as wind reading, mental management and positioning.

"Team CMP put on another excellent Advanced Rifle Clinic again this year," said Cooper. "Sara Rozanski, the clinic leader, and members of the team shared a great deal of information in the hopes that students come back as stronger across-the-course shooters next year."

Military-led Courses:

U.S. Marine Corps Junior Highpower Clinic:

The three-day clinic gives focus to more advanced training outside of fundamentals, including weather conditions, how to read wind, equipment use, shooting positions and rulebook standards. Juniors in the clinic spend one day in the classroom, followed by two days of live-fire on the range at 200, 300 and 600 yards.

GySgt Daniel Rhodes, the staff non-commissioned officer in charge of the Marine Corps Rifle Team, helped lead instruction on the firing line in 2021. After a year off from conducting the clinic, Rhodes was pleased with the turnout of around 80 juniors.

"It went fantastic," he said. "We got a lot of repeat juniors that come out every year. We saw a lot of the same team names that we see every year, a lot of the same faces. They've gotten better, but I like to think our coaching and our teaching makes them better as well."

The Gunny brought his lead instructors along with him to train juniors on the range, including current team members. Many of the instructors even have backgrounds of training recruits at Parris Island or San Diego, making them well-suited to pass their knowledge on to the young junior athletes.

Rhodes explained that around 25 percent of the juniors in the clinic were first-timers, with others more advanced in their abilities. With a variety of experience levels on the line, the instructors do their best to cater to each individual's needs.

"We talk to them and try to understand them, what they struggle with as individuals and their process," he said of the USMC's training technique. "We try to give them tiny, little fixes to what they already have going on."

Rifle Small Arms Firing School:

Instructors of the Small Arms Firing School include several current members of U.S. military teams, some who have gone on to claim wins in some of the most prestigious National Matches – like SGT Brandon Muske of the Army Marksmanship Unit, who was the winner of the 2021 National Trophy Individual Match, and SPC Luke Rettmer of the Army Marksmanship Unit, who led this year's Service Rifle 2400 Aggregate event.

Rettmer knows what it's like to be a young competitor at the National Matches, having several National honors and wins to his name throughout his career. After missing 2020, he was happy to return to Camp Perry in 2021 – this time with new motivations in mind, outside of competition.

"I have a higher responsibility now," Rettmer said. "My job is to no longer to just compete but to also share my knowledge with others. The Small Arms Firing School was a great opportunity to do that."

The 2021 Rifle Small Arms Firing School facilitated over 250 individuals on the range.

Learn more about these and other educational opportunities, like the popular M1 Maintenance Clinic offered all year long, on the CMP website at <https://thecmp.org/training-tech/clinics/>.

The Small Arms Firing School contains both range and classroom training on a variety of marksmanship fundamentals.

Beaver Claims Overall Win, First EIC Points in M16 Match

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

Junior Andrew Beaver, 19, of Indianapolis, Indiana, earned his first service rifle Excellence-In-Competition points during the Civilian Marksmanship Program’s (CMP) 2021 National Rifle Matches M16 competition, held as part of the annual Small Arms Firing School in August.

Attaining his first four Excellence-In-Competition, or EIC, points in the match means he is on his way to claiming a Distinguished Rifleman Badge – the highest honor given by the CMP to a rifle athlete. An individual receives a badge after competing in CMP EIC events and earning at least 30 points overall.

Marksmanship competition is a family affair for Andrew – competing with multiple relatives back in Indiana and at Camp Perry. He watched his brother, Matthew, become Distinguished as a junior and has been eager to follow in Matthew’s footsteps to nab a Badge of his own ever since.

“It’s always been something I’ve looked forward to,” Andrew said of earning a Distinguished Badge. “I’ve always thought it was something cool to reach for.”

He admitted that his initial goal for the M16 event was to break the current record score of 394-12X, fired a decade ago in 2011.

He felt good going into the competition day, but being on the third relay meant he was first to be sent to the pits. The free time pulling targets down-range left him to think about the match ahead and caused his nerves to build.

“Once we got up, I kind of got into the zone and calmed myself down – a lot of breathing,” he went on. “Through it all, I really tried to not get too nervous and just really try to do my best.”

In the end, he was less than 10 points short of the record score yet managed to become the overall winner above the field of more than 300 Distinguished and Non-Distinguished competitors in the M16

Match, with a score of 387-12X. He continued to compete in the weeks that followed, entering many other National Rifle Matches and CMP Games events. There, he earned the High Junior honor in the Modern Military Match after obtaining a combined score of 279-3X.

“I try not to think about what my final score will be,” Andrew confessed. “I make sure I’m eating, make sure I’m drinking water, making sure I’m not thinking about the match too much. I try to think about other things going on.

Andrew first started shooting when he became involved with smallbore rifle around age 10 and has been shooting ever since. This year was his seventh competing at Camp Perry, where he signed up for pretty much everything throughout the National Trophy events and the CMP Games series.

He’s attended a few Small Arms Firing Schools over his lifetime, led by current members of military teams like the Army Marksmanship Unit (AMU). He revels in their guidance and has even thought of becoming a member after watching them on the range and respecting the excellence they have come to cast in prestigious National Matches like the National Trophy Individual (NTI) and President’s Rifle competitions.

“Seeing a lot of the AMU be top performers in a lot of the matches definitely sets a goal of what I would like to do,” he said.

A member of the Indiana State Rifle and Pistol Association, Andrew claimed the Indiana Junior State Champion title for highpower in 2020. Someday, he'd like to reach the President's 100 as one of the top 100 competitors in the President's Rifle Match and eventually compete in the accompanying shootoff – an esteemed feat.

And, he's certainly working hard to earn more points in the hunt for that coveted Distinguished Badge.

"I've been shooting a lot and moving my way up," Andrew said. "I come out to have fun. Shooting good scores really makes me feel good about myself – kind of boosts some self-confidence. And being happy is one of my main goals."

His sister, Meghann Beaver, 22, is also an accomplished competitor – achieving the third-highest female score in the 2021 M16 Match, 24th overall and her own service rifle EIC points. She also earned the High Woman title in the Vintage Military Match during the Games events. No stranger to success, she has claimed several High Junior and High Woman designations throughout her career at local and national levels.

"It's just fun in general because it's not the AR-15s all the time," Meghann said of competing in vintage rifle matches. "It feels like a part of history."

She admits that she doesn't practice the vintage rifles any more than others and chalks up her achievements to, simply, "a stroke of luck."

In the end, one of the most enjoyable parts of competing in marksmanship matches for the Beaver siblings isn't just the chance to improve on the firing line – it is, of course, about outshooting the other.

"I think a lot of what I enjoy is the competition with my sister," Andrew said with a smile.

Meghann shares the sentiment, saying, "I always tell everyone if I think I'm doing poorly, 'Well, as long as I can beat my brother, that's all that matters.'"

USMC's Minturn Wins Three- and Four-Gun Aggregates

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

Returning to the National Matches for the first time since 2016, 1st Lt. James Minturn, 29, of the U.S. Marine Corps shooting team made himself comfortable on the ranges as he claimed both the Three-Gun and Four-Gun Aggregate competitions during the Games portion of the Civilian Marksmanship Program's (CMP) National Rifle Matches. Minturn accumulated scores of 865-21X and 1156-30X, respectively, in the events.

The CMP National Games matches feature a variety of vintage and modern rifles fired in recreational-style competitions. The events provide unique challenges to competitors while also celebrating the legacy of each remarkable firearm on the historic grounds of Camp Perry – home to the National Matches for over a century.

“It was a little chaotic, but it was good,” Minturn said of his 2021 Camp Perry showing. “I had a lot of new rifles that I had never touched before, so I had no zeroes – so that was fun.”

Minturn has been to the National Matches several times, even as a junior, and made the most of his 2021 experience by firing in CMP's Highpower events in July, followed by the traditional National Trophy Rifle matches and the National Games Matches the following week in August. He also fired in the National Air Gun events and the concluding National Long Range Matches.

It had been about eight years since Minturn had fired vintage-style, leaving him to resort to a mix of borrowed rifles from friends and family to use on the range during the Games events.

“When I was a junior, my dad would come out (to Camp Perry) – we would shoot highpower and in addition we would start doing the vintage, so I just keep doing it,” Minturn said. “I typically try to fire as much as I can.”

“It's an interesting and fun experience,” he added about the CMP Games events at the National Matches.

This trip, Minturn brought along his wife, dual Active Duty Marine Maj. Crystal Pearl, to get a first-hand look at the National Matches. The pair met through high-power about 10 years ago and used the 2021 National Matches as an enjoyable family outing and a way to reintroduce Pearl to the sport of competitive shooting.

“It was a lot more relaxed than I expected it to be,” she said of her first National Matches experience. “Jim has all of these trophies and plaques in his room (from previous National Matches), and I thought this was going to be tens-of-thousands of people and really intense and I’m not going to be able to make the time hacks for things – but it actually was really nice and friendly.”

Donned in her Marine Corps uniform, Pearl enjoyed the vintage matches so much that she fired in the M1 Garand match four times in a row. She was also the second highest scoring woman in the Modern Military Match.

“I think everyone gets excited to see the Marines out here, so I got to ride their coat tails a little,” she joked. “But I think maybe next year I’ll practice. It was a ton of fun.”

On his path to his aggregate victories, Minturn earned the overall win in the Springfield Match with a score of 292-11X.

Leading both the John C. Garand and Vintage Military competitions was Doug Armstrong, 61, of Lexington, North Carolina. Past aggregate winner Brian Williams, 47, of Granby, Massachusetts, was the overall competitor in the Modern Military event. He also earned the top spot in the National Carbine Match – missing the current record score by just one point.

Earning High Junior honors in three of the four Garand/Springfield/Vintage/Modern Military events was Dustin Carr, 20, of San Diego, California. Carr is also the current junior national record holder in the Vintage Military Match.

Andrew Beaver, 19, of Indianapolis, Indiana, claimed the fourth event – clearing a score of 279-3X in the Modern Military Match. His sister, Meghann Beaver, 22, earned High Woman in Vintage Military.

Others earning High Woman honors included Kerri Lewis, 45, of Middletown, Rhode Island, in the Garand and Springfield events as Cindy Bailey, 49, of North Ridgeville, Ohio, topped the Modern Military Match. Kerri’s score of 282-4X during the Garand Match was a new National Match Record for the High Woman category.

Sgt. Shane Butler, 30, of the U.S. Marine Corps, led the Springfield M1A Match, sponsored by Springfield Armory, with an overall score of 382-7X. Following closely in second and earning the High Civilian title was Brian Williams with 380-6X.

In the National Vintage Sniper event, team Lathrop-Weller (John Lathrop and Keith Weller) nabbed the win in the Manual class with a combined score of 392-14X. The Semi-Automatic class was led by Double D (Douglas Armstrong and Glendale Rutherford), with 373-13X.

Redicker Claims Two of Three Class Wins During the National Rimfire Sporter Match

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

Leading two separate classes in the 2021 National Rimfire Sporter Match was Jean Redicker, 57, of Vallonia, Indiana – overtaking the T-Class and TU Class. Redicker’s wins were reminiscent of each other, outshooting the second-place competitors by only X’s to earn the top spots.

The National Rimfire Sporter Match, part of the Civilian Marksmanship Program’s (CMP) National Matches, was fired Sunday, July 25, on Camp Perry’s Viale Range. During the event, competitors fired from 50 and 25 yards in prone, sitting and standing positions. Over 260 competitors took the firing line during the match in Open Sight (O), Telescope Sight (T) and Tactical (TU) classes.

“I was the most relaxed I have ever been at the National Matches,” Redicker said. “This year has been a rough year, and I was unable to practice or shoot much. I wasn’t expecting to have a good showing.”

She went on, “With that in mind, I came to Perry with the attitude to just have fun, enjoy the day on this beautiful, historical range and let the matches take care of themselves.”

Redicker said the conditions of match day were perfect – hot, but with a nice breeze.

“I was satisfied with my scores but never expected to win overall,” she admitted.

When not at Camp Perry, Redicker competes in the CMP Sanctioned matches held throughout the year at the Bedford Contingent range in Bedford, Indiana. The local matches prepare her for the competition side of Nationals, but some things just can’t be simulated.

“Nothing compares to the magnitude of Perry,” she said. “Add in the factor that you are shooting in the National Matches and it is a very unique experience – one that I would encourage any shooter to participate in.”

Redicker’s aggregate score of 590-33X in the TU Class narrowly beat out Peter Yarbrow, 46, of Mishawaka, Indiana, who fired a score of 590-28X. In the T-Class, Redicker collected a score of 592-33X, including perfect scores of 100 in the Prone Slow Fire, Prone Rapid Fire and Standing Slow Fire stages. Finishing behind Redicker with a score of 592-26X was Marissa Bensch, 21, of Stillwater, Oklahoma, who claimed the High Woman title in the match.

Bensch went on to earn the High Woman honor in the O-Class, earning a score of 567-18X and sixth overall. Bensch had also earned the title at the last National Rimfire Sporter event back in 2019 and was the High 4-H competitor of the class in 2018. Claiming the overall win in the O-Class in 2021 was past National Rimfire Match winner CSM Steven Slee, 57, of Dimondale, Michigan, with a score of 589-37X.

New in 2021 was the addition of the Rimfire Dewar Match, held on the CMP’s Smallbore range. Participants in the event fired 20 shots from both 50 and 100 yards in 20-minute stages. Winning the inaugural match was Eric Mantooth, 52, Ft. Oglethorpe, Georgia, with a score of 387-14X.

Jean Redicker was the overall competitor in the National Rimfire Sporter T-Class and TU Class. Presenter: Mr. Gary Anderson

High Woman of the TU Class was Brianna Toikkanen (left) and High Senior was Roger Burdick (right), both of Conneaut, Ohio.

The National Rimfire Sporter Match, designed to be a safe and fun event for all ages, was hot in 2021.

High Junior, O-Class and 4-H High Junior T-Class, Ditsy Werner, of Kennesaw, GA.

USAMU and CMP Launch Rimfire Sporter Small Arms Firing School

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

During the first week of rifle competition at the 2021 National Matches, 48 shooters christened the new US Army Marksmanship Unit – Civilian Marksmanship Program Rimfire Sporter Small Arms Firing School (SAFS) on Saturday, 25 July.

Rimfire Sporter SAFS replaces the former Rimfire Sporter Clinic, adding a live-fire component and bringing with it the expertise of multiple members of USAMU rifle team who served as instructors in the classroom and on the firing line.

“We’re really pleased to bring the team to Camp Perry to expand the Unit’s training presence during the National Matches,” said Mike Buss, Competition Coordinator Specialist with the USAMU.

The CMP’s Rimfire Sporter Clinic has evolved into a SAFS program and is designed to work in similar ways to Rifle SAFS (M16) and SAFS Pistol (M9), which have been conducted at the National Matches for several years at Camp Perry. The rifle and pistol programs have Excellence-In-Competition (Distinguished Rifleman) matches associated with them, and Rimfire Sporter Rifle has its own non-EIC national match competition each year at Camp Perry on the day following the clinic.

Like its SAFS cousins, the Rimfire Sporter school began in the classroom where instructors explained firearm safety, demonstrated rifle handling and position-building skills in the three-position match (prone, sitting and standing). The classroom setting gave students and instructors the opportunity to ask questions and share knowledge about the rimfire sporter rifle discipline.

At the end of the classroom session, the school moved outdoors to Camp Perry's Viale Range with firing distances of 50 yards for prone and sitting positions, and 25 yards for standing - the same elements as the Rimfire Sporter rifle match. On clinic day, each relay had the opportunity to fire on practice targets and concluded the school with a timed simulated match with commands called from the range's center line tower.

All participants in the Rimfire Sporter SAFS class received plenty of instruction on the firing line from USAMU shooter-coaches.

CMP Sees Over 640 Entries During National Air Gun Events

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

Fired throughout the Civilian Marksmanship Program's (CMP) National Matches in July and August, the National Air Gun events welcomed over 640 air rifle and air pistol entries, fired by competitors of all ages from around the country. The matches were held within the Gary Anderson CMP Competition Center, located on the grounds of the historic Camp Perry National Guard Training Facility, where the National Matches have been conducted for over a century.

The National Air Gun Matches feature a variety of events, suited for both seasoned competitors and those new to the sport. Traditional 60-, 40- and 30-Shot events as well as modern Bench League opportunities (shot from a supported position) lined the schedule for competitors to choose from during the summer months.

Winning the 60 Shot Air Pistol Match was Michael Soklaski, 24, of Ringoes, New Jersey, with a score of 568-14X. High Woman of the event was 2nd Lt. Lisa Emmert Traciak, 25, of Kalamazoo, Michigan, and the Army National Guard, with a score of 560-15X. High Junior was Mehr Chanda, 13, of Coppell, Texas, with 546-8X, and Bruce Martindale, 63, of Charlton, New York, claimed the High Senior title with a score of 550-8X.

Timothy Schmeltzer, 24, of Greenville, Michigan, led the 40 Shot Pistol event with a score of 378-11X, as Dwaine Hurt, 57, of Red Oak, Iowa, overtook 30 Shot Pistol with 285-11X.

Those who competed in the 30 Shot event were automatically entered into a Center Shot contest, where participants who fire closest to target center have the chance to win money, based on participation. Judy Tant, 71, of East Lansing, Michigan, earned the top spot in the National Matches Pistol Center Shot competition with a 10.9X closest from target center at 0.101980mm. For her win, she received $159.50 from the CMP.

Also receiving prize money in the contest were the next seven closest competitors (all firing 10.9s):

2. Mehr Chanda, 13, Coppell, Texas
3. Eric Herrin, 58, Raleigh, North Carolina
4. Nate Gunn, 38, Spencer, West Virginia
5. Devin LaCross, 19, Jackson, New Jersey
6. Howard Bentley, 68, Barboursville, West Virginia
7. Tom Dipietro, 74, Belleville, Michigan
8. Neil Hay, 65, Baroda, Michigan

Likewise, competitors in the 30 Shot Standing Rifle event were automatically entered into the Center Shot contest. Claudia Muzik, 15, of Green Springs, Ohio, was the closest from target center at 2.37876018mm and received the overall cash prize.

The next seven closest competitors received cash prizes included:

2. Michael Judd, 57, Crestview, Florida
3. Rebecca Pendleton, 13, Green Springs, Ohio
4. Jack Daniels, 13, Dracut, Massachusetts
5. Dustin Carr, 20, of San Diego, California
6. Craig Weston, 71, Mount Solon, Virginia
7. Scott Braun, 51, Belvidere, Illinois
8. Chris DeForge, 34, Hampton, Virginia

Winning the 30 Shot Rifle Match was Lillian Warren, 17, of Perry, Michigan, with an outstanding score of 300-17X. Thomas Wonderly, 75, of Portage, Ohio, led overall in the 40 Shot Vintage Air Rifle Pneumatic Sniper Match with a score of 396-12X, as Chance Cover, 30, of Sandusky, Ohio, claimed the win in the 60 Shot Rifle event with a score of 620.4.

Other 60 Shot Air Rifle awards included High Woman and High Junior honors, which both went to M’Leah Lambdin, 18, of Colorado Springs, Colorado, for her score of 619.4.

An AiR-15 Challenge Match, featuring air guns that resemble service AR-15 rifles, was also held during the National Air Gun events. The match typically includes a concluding final amongst the top competitors but was removed for the 2021 event. Leading this year’s match was the Army Marksmanship Unit’s Sgt. 1st Class Brandon Green, 36, of Box Springs, Georgia, with an overall score of 397-15X.

The CMP’s 30 Shot Bench League allows participants to compete a national-level event, even if he or she has never competed before. During the League, competitors fire air sporter, precision or AiR-15 rifles off of a fixed support for added stability – providing a fun and challenging experience for all. Earning the win in the AiR-15 Bench League Match was Larry Bush, 73, of Perrysburg, Ohio, with a score of 309.6. Larry Kiraly, 68, also of Perrysburg, fired a 315.0 for the overall win in the sporter match, with Philip Edwards, 73, of nearby Marblehead, Ohio, coming out on top of the precision match with a score of 318.9.

AMU's Roe, Sherry Lead 2021 National Matches Smallbore Events

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

SPC Ivan Roe, 25, of the U.S. Army Marksmanship Unit (AMU) was the leading scorer of the Three-Position Aggregate Smallbore competition, held during the annual National Matches at Camp Perry. The event was facilitated by the Civilian Marksmanship Program (CMP), which began its smallbore match series back in 2018.

Though a recent addition to the CMP National Matches schedule, smallbore has been a staple at Camp Perry for decades – welcoming thousands of competitors over the years. For Roe, 2021 marked his very first experience competing in smallbore on the historical National Guard base.

“I really had no expectations,” he said of his first trip to Camp Perry. “Every day I got down, it was, ‘What’s going to happen today?’ It’s been a learning experience the entire time.”

Known for its inconsistent (to put it gently) conditions, Camp Perry challenged Roe in ways he didn’t anticipate

“I was told to prepare for it to be unbelievably windy,” he explained. “The first day was nuts – I’ve never been blown around in prone before. That was something completely new. They told me it was going to be windy but I wasn’t ready for how windy, exactly – but, I made it work.”

Outside of Three-Position, Roe also led the Prone Elimination event. With many of his teammates on the firing line next to him during the match, he admitted that it turned out to be more of an enjoyable competition rather than the high-pressure feeling of other matches.

“I was still, definitely, nervous – especially towards the end. But, I just focused and went for it,” he said. “It was a lot of fun.”

The National Matches Smallbore events were fired July 20 through July 28 and featured both Three-Position and Prone competitions. Along with age category awards in both Three-Position and Prone, overall competitors were recognized for their achievements.

Leading the Prone 6400 Aggregate was Roe’s teammate SGT Timothy Sherry, 27, with an overall score of 6393-550X. Sherry also led the Prone Iron Sight Championship, while fellow AMU member SPC Levi Clark, 23, claimed the Prone Any Sight Match.

The CMP Smallbore series kicked off with a Small Arms Firing School (SAFS), conducted by members of the AMU.

“It was great to be back for our Smallbore SAFS,” said the AMU’s International Rifle assistant team chief, SSF Hank Gray, who led the clinic. “It was only our second one, ever. We had a great turnout though – a full firing line and great shooters. I think everyone had a great time.”

Over 20 junior athletes participated in the SAFS course, ranging in a spectrum of experience levels, with some firing a smallbore rifle for the first time during the day-long event. Participants in SAFS were able to bring their own equipment or rent from the CMP if without a rifle to use.

Though some AMU Smallbore athletes were absent for the 2021 SAFS at Camp Perry (off competing at the Olympic Games in Tokyo), SSF Gray brought other talented members of the team to spearhead the clinic including Roe, who competed at Murray State, Clark, formerly of the University of Memphis rifle team and Sherry, the 2019 Smallbore National Champion at Camp Perry and University of Alaska Fairbanks alumnus – not to mention SSG Kevin Nguyen, who is set to compete at the Tokyo Paralympics at the end of August. A few of the members are also former CMP Summer Camp counselors, familiar with training junior athletes.

“Everybody got some nice, personalized coaching and improvement, and they’re going to be able to take that over and put it into practice,” Gray went on. “We expect to be back next year and are always looking forward to expanding with more people and coaches.”

In junior action, Bremen Butler, 16, of Fort Wayne, Indiana, was the overall competitor in the Three-Position Aggregate. With her score of 2229-50X, Butler came in fourth overall in the Open competition. She had just competed in the American Smallbore Shooting Association’s 3P and Prone Match in early July, which she said prepared her for her performance at Camp Perry.

“I felt pretty good coming here, and my goal was just to not embarrass myself,” she joked. “I’m still learning a lot.”

Along with a fundamental skillset, Butler came equipped with a new rifle she received two days before the matches began at Camp Perry – an Anschutz 54.30 named “Soph.” But, due to a few hiccups in planning, she was unable to use it for the National Matches. The mistake gave her the chance to properly “retire” her old Anschutz 660 rifle, “Missy,” that was passed onto her through her club and will now move on to help another junior.

Butler also made her 2021 Camp Perry experience memorable by firing a crossfire during the one of the positions of her match. Though her heart sank, she went into the next stage with a positive attitude.

“I went in thinking, ‘Alright, well, we’ve got some points to make up. It’s okay,’” she explained. “You move on, and you just try to shoot better the next day.”

In the coming months, Butler will prepare to fire at the 2021 ISSF Junior World Championships in Peru this October.

Bremen Butler led the Junior Three-Position Aggregate at the National Matches.

Other junior smallbore leaders included the Freedom’s Fire two-person team of Ryan and Tyler Wee, with a combined score of 1120-31X. Kayla Andreoli, 19, of Washington, Pennsylvania led the Junior Prone Aggregate with a score of 6374-420X.

Storms Interrupt But Fail to Stop AMU at 2021 National Long Range Matches

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

The CMP's National Long Range events at Camp Perry saw over 700 individual entries throughout the five-day series, which ran from Aug. 10-14. Along with Long Range Rifle competition, the matches featured Service Rifle, Palma Rifle, Match Rifle and, for the first time, F-Class categories.

Some of the matches on the Long Range schedule were interrupted by heavy storms that moved in and out of the area. The Henry Memorial Match was especially affected by a particularly strong cell, causing a cease fire and evacuation of the ranges for safety. The storms persisted throughout the match day, leaving the remainder of the Henry Memorial to be, ultimately, cancelled. Luckily, the rest of the matches were conducted without delay and displayed exciting rounds of noteworthy performances from individuals and teams.

Earning the overall win in the National Long Range rifle category was Staff Sgt. Verne Conant, 25, of the Army Marksmanship Unit (AMU) out of Ft. Benning, Georgia, with a score of 1436-80X. High Woman was Staff Sgt. Amanda Elsenboss, 25, of the Army National Guard with an aggregate score of 1425-64X, as Ronald LeBlanc, 64, of Portsmouth, Rhode Island, reached 1416-49X to become the High Senior of the class. Staff Sgt. Maj. Norman Crawford, 71, of Fayetteville, North Carolina, also pulled High Grand Senior honors for his showings in the Long Range matches.

Overall winners also included Staff Sgt. Jarrod McGaffic, 31, the AMU in Service Rifle and John Friguglietti, 50, of Lincolnton, North Carolina, with the Palma rifle. Hanne Brantner, 51, of Greencastle, Pennsylvania, earned High Woman in the Palma category, and Robert Steketee, 66, of Haslett, Michigan, claimed the High Senior title.

Adding to several individual victories, the U.S. AMU also achieved wins in both team events.

Though the Army led several matches in the Long Range category, Ronald LeBlanc managed to fire a score of 198-11X to top the AMU in the Critchfield Memorial Match. Lt. Cmdr. Joseph Sopko, 65, of Macungie, Pennsylvania, marked an incredible score of 200-11X to claim the win in the Kerr Memorial event.

The Army Marksmanship Unit brought home several individual and team titles at the National Long Range events.
