She was born April 4, 1937, in Wytheville, Va., to the late Carter and Virginia Browning Tyler.

She grew up in St. Petersburg, Fla., and later graduated from the University of Florida, where she met her husband Frank. She graduated from the University of Florida with a bachelor's degree in education in 1959. It was at the university that Anne met the love of her life after her friend Nancy (Frank's sister) invited her to play cards one evening. When Anne arrived she was warmly invited in to the Hadlock home only to learn that Nancy had chosen to take a babysitting job. She was introduced to Frank who was nursing a broken ankle and delighted to have company. Anne's mother later stated that she did not believe for a second that this meeting was not planned. They were married June 18, 1960, and remained by each other's side for 55 years.

Anne taught elementary school in Gainesville, Fla., Austin, TX, Syracuse, N.Y., and Boca Raton, Fla., and made her home in Tennessee for the past 28 years. Anne was dedicated to ministering to others, especially those in need. She was an active foster parent to many children in her lifetime. In the 1970s, she and Frank sponsored several South Vietnamese refugees who lived in their home as family. In Cookeville, she was a founding member and taught children's Sunday school at Grace Presbyterian Church for many years. She was most recently a member of First Baptist Church Cookeville but she felt a calling to minister with churches that were just starting up. She also enjoyed supporting and caring for those in the Cookeville Rescue Mission.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by a brother, Carter Tyler.

Her family includes her husband, Frank Owen Hadlock; sons, Tim (Tanya) Hadlock of Franklin, Tom (Judy) Hadlock and Jerry Hadlock, both of Cookeville; daughters, Ashley (Danny) Manus of Baxter and Randella Hadlock of Spencer; grandchildren, Catie Grace, Samuel, Alex, Owen, Zechariah and Paisley

Annalee Hadlock, Matthew, Sara and LC Manus and Danielle (Taylor) Pitts; great-grandson, Marshall Alan Pitts; beloved cousins, Aggie and Bootsie; and several nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Tom, Tim, Jerry, Samuel, Alex and Zechariah Hadlock and Danny and LC Manus will serve as pallbearers.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Cookeville Rescue Mission. Sara Anne wanted to help those in need and would want those remembering her life to do the same. Matthew 25:45

15 February 1848, TN – d. 29 October 1935, Buffalo Valley, Putnam Co., TN md Lucette M. (unknown) Hales, b. 3 October 1854, TN – d. 4 November 1927. Funeral services were held yesterday at the Church of Christ for Jeremiah Haile, 87, who died Tuesday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ida McDonald, one mile north of Cookeville. Elder Clarence Cook and Elder Foy Wallace of Oklahoma, conducted the services.

Afflicted for several years with stomach ailment, Mr. Haile announced after a hearty supper on September 10 that he did not intend to eat again as long as it did not hurt him any more to do without food than it did to eat. He made good this determination and forty-nine days from that date he was buried in a casket selected eight years ago, two days after the death of his wife.

After he determined to refuse food Mr. Haile continued, it is reported, to drink water until about 10 days ago, but since then nothing has passed his lips. Dr. L. M. Freeman of Granville, making a non-professional call on Mr. Haile two weeks ago, warned him that he could not live without food, but he repeated his statement that he made at the supper table when he determined to stop eating food.

Mr. Haile was buried in the City Cemetery.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Ida McDonald and two grandchildren.

As a charter member he was affiliated with the Methodist Board of Stewards and held a charter membership with the Lion's Club, was a 32nd degree Mason, a Shriner, a member of the Low Twelve Club, an Eastern Star, and during WWII he served as Putnam County Chairman of the Liberty Bonds and Thrift Stamp Drives.

Putnam County Herald, Cookeville, TN: Thursday, 4 January 1945:

Judge and Mrs. Finis E. Harris received a telegram this week from the War Department stating that another son, Lieut, Finis E. Harris, Jr., was killed in England on December 15, 1944. Only last week, a message was received by Judge and Mrs. Harris from the War Department, stating that Cpl. Perry Rowe Harris was killed in action on Leyte, in the Phillipines. Another son, Mark E. Harris, who is in training in the Army Air Corps, in Nashville, is seriously ill with pneumonia.

Judge and Mrs. Harris have the sympathy of the people of Cookeville and the untire Upper Cumberland in this sad hour. The three brothers volunteered for service in the Army Air Corps.

Lieut, Harris volunteered in June, 1943, and was inducted into the service at Biloxi, MS. He received his pro-flight training at Kelly Field, Dallas, TX, primary training at Chickasha, OK, basic at Enid, OK, advanced at Pampa, TX, where he received his wings in May 1943. He went to England in August 1943, and was pilot of a B-26, later being transferred to a Flying Fortress.

A report written after the crash from a crew member who bailed out reads as follows:

(page one missing).. "to our base in England as fellow crew members from a raid on Kassel, Germany. The ship had been severely damaged by flack. Our number one engine was shot out and the fuselage had been badly shot out. There was considerable doubt in all minds of the members of the crew as to our ability to make our base. We were flying in zero-zero weather and were unsure as to our exact position. On reaching the coast of England our pilot, Lieutenant Harris, felt that his ability to land our damaged airplane safely was highly in question and passed the word round to we crew members to bail out if we were so inclined. My friend, Sergeant Burry, decided to stay with the ship, whilst I elected to bail out, which I did. To the best of my knowledge, almost immediately after leaving the ship it cashed into a radar tower about six miles from our home base, located near Rushedon, England. All members of the crew, including Sergeant Burry were killed in the crash.....

COOKEVILLE — Kathleen Anne Hennings joined the Lord Monday, April 9, 2018, at her home in Cookeville.

Visitation will be held at Saint Thomas Aquinas Catholic Church Thursday, April 12, from 2-3 p.m. with service at 3 p.m. at the church. Burial will follow at Cookeville City Cemetery.

She was born May 25, 1944 in White Plains, New York, the daughter of Adelaide and Frank Guerriere. Kathleen attended Saint John's Catholic School then went on to receive a degree in business. She managed a department store for a short time before she met and married the dapper sailor, Kurt N. Hennings, Nov. 8, 1971, and started her beloved family. She was a loving mother, wife, and grandmother who always put her family before herself. For years she was a devout member of the Catholic Church, always making sure her three children attended 8:30 a.m. mass every Sunday, no exceptions.

Kathleen often called “Kathy” loved to collect cookbooks, simply for the joy of reading them. She often baked cakes and brought them to share at church, earning the nickname, “Cake Angel.” She had a strong spirited love and well intentions for all people. And never discriminated against anyone who walked amongst her. She loved to go for joyrides and attend any function, festival, show, or music performance. She also thoroughly enjoyed just simply visiting with family and friends.

She was a feisty little lady who never let anything slow her down, not even her ailing health. Her favorite animal was a duck and she was even known to be a little “quacky” herself. She was pure at heart and never said a swear word (unless it was in Italian). She was known for her hard working ethic but also knew how to enjoy herself. You could often catch her tricking someone into thinking it was her birthday. For sheer fun she jokingly celebrated it many times throughout the year.

One of her greatest joys of all was being a grandmother. She never missed a chance to brag or share a picture of her little “dolly,” Mila. She will be dearly missed.

She is survived by her husband, Kurt Hennings; son, Michael Hennings, his wife Cindy, and children Chelsea, Patrick, and Seth; son, Joseph Hennings; daughter, Paula Jolley and her husband Miles, and granddaughter Mila; and all who loved her dearly.

Family and friends will serve as pallbearers.

Then having three children, they decided to leave New Jersey and raise them in Tennessee.

By Ernest Houston Boyd

Putnam County Herald, Cookeville, TN: 18 July 1953

Jacob Henry (1830-1893) was reared in the Fourth District of Putnam County. At the outbreak of the Civil War, he volunteered as a Confederate soldier and was a Lieutenant of his Company. In his young manhood he taught school. He owned and operated a good farm on the Calf Killer river for many years and served as a Justice of the Peace of the 4th District. He served for several years a Chairman of the County Court of Putnam County. He was a man of splendid native ability and sound business judgment and was a successful farmer and business man.

In 1887, he sold his farm on the Calf Killer river and moved to Cookeville, buying property on Jefferson Street where he and his wife thereafter resided until their deaths. He was a splendid citizen who always stood boldly for the right as he saw it. He and his wife were devoted members of the Cookeville Methodist Church, of which he was a Steward. His wife, Martha Miller Henry, (1839-1899) was a teacher in her young womanhood. She was a well educated and highly intelligent lady. Like her husband, she was active in the work of her church. Their home was known as a “preachers home”, where ministers were always welcome. They willed practically all of their property to the Southern Methodist Church, as a parsonage, and it was so used for many years until the Church sold it to buy a more modern house for a parsonage. They willed several thousand dollars to endow scholarships for young Methodist ministerial students in the Theological Department of Vanderbilt University.

Their graves are in the Cookeville Cemetery.

She was born on April 16, 1926, in Cookeville to the late Thurman (H.T.) and Bula Adcock Whitson.

Mrs. Hester was a fifth-generation Tennessean.

She was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Cookeville. Mrs. Hester graduated salutatorian of her class at Cookeville High School in 1943. In 1947, she received her bachelor's degree in psychology from Vanderbilt University, where she was a member of Tri Delta Sorority. She did post-graduate study in marketing at the UT in Knoxville.

During her years of employment, she was an office manager in Nashville and later a public accountant in Knoxville. She returned to Cookeville to be general manager of the family's lumber business.

Mrs. Hester's lifelong interest in sports, especially golf, was known throughout the Middle Tennessee area. She once said that golf was her avocation in her spare time. Her pursuit of the game in earlier years included playing as an amateur in the championship flights of two U.S. tournaments, two LPGA tournaments, the Mexican National in Mexico City and the Canadian National in Edmonton, Alberta. She also participated in three Eastern Caribbean tournaments, where she received considerable recognition. In the Tennessee State Tournament in Nashville, she finished as runner-up.

As a senior golfer, Mrs. Hester competed in eight National Seniors and one Canadian National in Montreal. She enjoyed competing in other tournaments all over the U.S. At one time, she ranked in the top 25 senior women golfers to ever come from this area. The late Bobby Nichols, Tennessee Tech's longtime golf coach and her caddie in his earlier years, in mentioning her achievements before a group of golf club members, said he "quit counting after 100 wins." Mrs. Hester's travels brought her in contact with vastly different regions of the country and overseas. "How else could one see such beauty?" she once remarked to a friend.

In retirement, she and her husband golfed regularly during winter months at the Cedar Valley Golf Club on the Caribbean island of Antigua, a love affair that continued for more than two decades. Their most memorable travel experience was golfing on some of Scotland's historic courses, including St. Andrews. Another overseas journey took them sailing on the tall ship called Sea Cloud, visiting numerous Greek isles in the Mediterranean.

Mrs. Hester was a member of Tech's Visionaries Society and a contributor to its President's Club. She established an endowment in memory of her brother, Jere, a Tech graduate and fellow golfer.

Her family includes her husband, Maj. (USA Ret.) Lawrence W. (Larry) Hester; a stepson and his wife, Maj. (USA Ret.) Mark E. and Angelica Hester of Guayaquil, Ecuador; stepgrandchildren, Gabriella, Bryan and Nicole Hester, all of Guayaquil; and several cousins in the Carlen and Lowe families in Cookeville and elsewhere.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by a sister, Mary Frances Whitson; a brother, Jere B. Whitson; and grandparents, Jere and Parizetta Terry Whitson and Bauregard and Lee Kendrick Adcock.

Pallbearers will be Walt, Whit, Chip and Ben Carlen, Ford Little, Robert Lowe and Bobby Greenwood.

Rev. Buddy Johnson will officiate at the services.

Henry Grady Hilton, aged 32, passed away early Tuesday afternoon, following many months of suffering and an extended illness of several years duration from complications contracted while in the Navel service of his country during the World War.

Mr. Hilton was born at Crystal Springs, (near Vicksburg) Miss., and came to Cookeville after the war, during the time that the rehabilitation school for wounded ex-service men was conducted in connection with T. P. I., and since that time he had been a resident of this city, with the exception of the time he spent as a patient in the National Soldiers' Home near Johnson City. While in school here he met and married Miss Nannie Myrtle Maxwell, who, with their nine-year-old daughter, Lida Jessamine, survive him. He is also survived by three sisters, Mrs. E. B. Johnson, of Memphis; Mrs. Ed Hopkins, of Vicksburg, MS, and Mrs. Lula Wilson of Delhi, LA, three brothers, John and Lem Hilton, of Vicksburg, MS, and Tom Hilton of Delhi, LA.

Mr. Hilton was of a genial disposition, ambitious, a good student of human affairs, and a gentleman. The greatest sorrow of his life was the sudden death of his little son which occurred about two years ago. He was a member of the American Legion and had been a member of the Cookeville Baptist Church for several years.

Funeral services were conducted at the residence on Hickory street at 3:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon followed by burial in the City cemetery.

Ms. L. D. Holladay Dies:

Mrs. Edna Holladay, wife of Latta D. Holladay, died suddenly Thursday afternoon at her home on Spring Creek following a congestive chill. She was apparently in good health until a few hours before her death, which came as a great shock to everyone. She was 31 years old and is survived by her husband and five small children. She was the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Smith and was a noble Christian woman. Funeral services were conducted Friday afternoon at the Methodist church, of which she was a member. Burial was at the city cemetery.

Putnam County Herald, Thursday, 11 March 1915.

Edna Smith Holladay (1884-1915): written by Clara Cox Epperson.

The many friends of Edna Smith Holladay were shocked and grieved to learn of her sudden death at her home near Algood, March 4, 1915. She was ill only a few days, and was not thought to be in a dangerous condition until a few minutes before her death.

There has never been in Algood a girl more beloved than Edna was and as her mother's very near neighbor when she was just blooming into womanhood, I can say truly that I have never known a more unselfish, devoted daughter, and I am sure she has proven the same as a wife and mother. She was always thinking and doing for the comfort of others, even at a sacrifice to herself, and those sacrifices were made cheerfully and willingly. So many of us can do for others in a complaining and frowning way, but the spirit of the person who always does things for others cheerfully and without thought of self, is a grand and beautiful spirit, and that was the spirit of Edna Holladay and her sweet loving thoughtful presence will be sadly missed by her husband, her five children and father, mother, brothers and sisters, who have been left to mourn her loss.

To the river shall be given;
If thou wouldst walk in light
Make other spirits bright
Who, seeking for himself alone ever entered heaven?
In blessing we are blessed
In labor we find rest,
If we bend not to the world's work
heart and hand and brain
We have lived our life in vain.

If the above quotation be true, we can surely know that the lovely life of Edna Holladay was not lived in vain, and she has given out so abundantly of good works for others, never thinking of any self gain, so may she now be given abundantly of the good gifts in the heavenly kingdom, and sweetest rest and peace forevermore.

“Even as thou will, so be it unto three, Thy heart the measure of the grace shall be.”

HOLLADAY, JASPER PAUL: Sad Story of a Mother's Loss – Jasper Paul, infant son of Mrs. and L. D. Holladay, of Haileyville, Ind. Ter., formerly of this place, died Feb. 2, 1905, age six months. Mrs. Holladay tells her said story thus; "While attending my household duties, leave my baby in his carriage, the alarm was given by the child himself. Upon reaching the room I found him wrapped in flames, which resulted in death, living only three hours and twenty minutes. In trying to rescue my child from the flames I received a severe and painful burn on my left hand. Every assistance that kind friends and an attentive physician could give was tendered, but all of no avail. My husband had left on the day before for Memphis, and secured work in the switch yard. Failing to reach him I then telegraphed him at Nashville, Harriman and Cookeville. Failing to find him at all I then had my baby's body brought with me on Saturday enroute to Cookeville, for interment, in company with a young lady friend who came as far as Memphis with me. While my friend was waiting at the depot Sunday evening my husband came into the depot to mail a letter to me whereupon she informed him of the death of our baby, this being his first knowledge of it. We had passed each other twice in the switch yards, within one hundred yards of each other without being aware of the fact. I reached Cookeville on the sixth at 3 a. m. My husband, upon the receipt of the news, started for Cookeville and reached here just in time for the funeral. Our friends and relatives in Cookeville, and our friends in Haileyville extended their most loving sympathy in our sad bereavement, which we shall ever remember and appreciate." CIVIC LEADER, FUNERAL DIRECTOR ED HOOPER DIES, SERVICES TUESDAY: By Mary Jo Denton – Herald-Citizen Staff: Cookeville, TN.

Ed Hooper has laid generations of Cookevillians to rest – and now it’s his turn. The 86-year-old retired funeral director died at his home on Saturday, May 27.

One of Cookeville's best known citizens, Hooper owned and operated Hooper & Huddleston Funeral Home for over 30 years. And for those years and more, he worked tirelessly at many civic and community tasks.

He won many awards and honors over the years, but took his greatest pride in serving grieving families with kindness and dignity while working at his profession.

He was a big man with a soft Southern drawl who said the most valuable service he could offer was friendship.

And while he was very serious in a serious profession, he did not forget the value of a sense of humor, even though – or perhaps because – his daily work involved facing death as a part of life.

Once after dropping in for a visit at this newspaper, he turned on his way out the door, smiled, and said, "You all come to see me – while you can still see."

Funeral services will be held for Edward Hogin Hooper on Tuesday, May 30, at 1 p.m. in the chapel of Hooper & Huddleston with Brother Bruce McClarty and Brother Kelly Campbell officiating. Burial will be in Cookeville City Cemetery.

The family will receive friends at the funeral home on Monday, May 29, from 5 to 9 p.m.

His family includes his wife of 62 years, Frances Jacobs Hooper of Cookeville; two daughters and sons-in-law, Harriet Sue and Phil Hall of Cookeville and Helen Ann and Harry Ward of Nashville; one sister, Katharine Hooper of Nashville; one brother, T.C. Hooper of Greenville, S.C.; four grandsons and a granddaughter-in-law, Phillip Edward and Lee Ann Hall, Reginald Hooper Hall, all of Cookeville, and Harry Hobgood Ward Jr. and Andrew Hooper Ward, both of Nashville.

His sons-in-law and grandsons will serve as pallbearers.

Ed Hooper was born Sept. 15, 1913, in Dickson, Tenn., to the late James Montgomery and Elizabeth Sue Hogin Hooper.

He was a graduate of Donelson High School, where he played on their first football team.

One of his after-school jobs in those days was at a funeral home in Donelson. He drove the hearse, swept the floors, and learned how to talk to grieving families.

In 1935, he became a licensed funeral director in Tennessee. He moved to Cookeville a few years later, and by 1955, he owned and was running Hooper & Huddleston Funeral Home here.

He was a member of Colleside Church of Christ.

It has been said that in the years before there was a Chamber of Commerce here Ed Hooper served this city by doing that job himself, and over the years, he spent countless hours working in various civic organizations, such as the Cookeville Lions Club, where he received the Melvin Jones Fellow Award, and the Cookeville Rotary Club, where he received the Paul Harris Fellow Award, both the highest awards in those clubs.

He was a retired board member of Union Planters Bank, served on the board of TTU's Business Foundation-Chair of Excellence, served as the first president of the Putnam Chamber of Commerce, was a past president of the Putnam Jaycees, served as chairman of the Red Cross Blood program, and served with the American Cancer Society.

He served as executive secretary of the Tennessee State Board of Funeral Directors & Embalmers for 10 years and was once named Man of the Year in the National Selected Morticians Association.

Among his many honors was a Distinguished Alumni award from TTU and a place in the TTU Sports Hall of Fame for his commitment to helping the university strive for excellence. He was also once named the "Pride of Putnam County" by the Chamber of Commerce here.

Contributions to honor his memory may be made to Collegese Church of Christ, Lazarus House Hospice, or the Business Foundation at Tennessee Tech University.

MOTHER – By Estalle (Rippetoe) Howard

Toiling, striving, never shirking
Loving, giving all the years,
Planning, hoping, always working
Smiling bravely though the tears.
That's Mother.

For her family sacrificing,
That their burden may be light,
Always some new plan devising,
That will make the pathway bright.
That's Mother.

Keeping wheels of home still turning,
In the good times or the bad.
And the light of love still burning,
For the children and their Dad.
That's Mother.

Often tired and worn and weary,
Still there's more that she must do.
Tho the whole world may see dreary,
This great love keeps shining thru.
That's Mother.

Not one day, but many, many
Does she for her loved ones live,
Not one fault, but for just any
She is willing to forgive.
That's Mother

Surely if there is a heaven,
In a land so pure and fair,
Some little preference will be given
When the Books are opened there
TO MOTHERS.

Billie Howard Passes Away by Mrs. Rutledge Smith:

Little Billie Howard, the son of Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Howard died Monday evening at ten o'clock at St. Thomas Hospital, Nashville, of blood poison. He was ill only two weeks. The direct cause of the poison was not located by the physicians. Before going to the hospital, he had suffered from a rising in his ear, and was taken to Nashville to be examined by specialists. An operation was thought best, for mastoid trouble, but it was found during the operation that his system was already infected by blood poison. Despite of all that human aid could do—ten physicians attending his case, trained nurses, his own beloved ones watching his every breath, and the great fight the little fellow put up – death claimed him.

His remains were brought to Cookeville Tuesday and buried in the Cookeville cemetery, after a short funeral service at the Christian Church, conducted by Elder J. D. Gunn of Sparta and Judge Sam Edwards. The pallbearers were Edward Neal, Dr. Terry, Herbert Carlen, R. L. Maddux, Dr. Lex Dyer, Dr. Moore, Sam Crawford, Oscar Holladay, and Aubrey Clark.

If flowers, that mutely but so eloquently speak love and sympathy, could heal the wounded heart, the hearts of those who are nearest and dearest to Billie would have ceased aching and rejoiced as they followed the dear little body to its last resting place. About the altar of the church were banked hundreds of most exquisite floral offerings, while the cold dirt of the grave was hidden by a lining of sweetest blossoms. Lillies and roses by the thousands had been sent as a tribute of love for a little fellow who promised so much in life – one who had tasted only the dew of the day. It was most fitting that a mantle of white lilies, sent by fond relatives should cover the casket, while a pillow of roses, the gift of the neighbor children who had made meery with him only a short while ago, should rest at his head. His classmates sent their token of love, as did those who were wont to see him in the Sunday school.

As the great crowd, who gathered in the church to pay respect to the bereaved parents and grandmother looked through tear dimmed eyes upon little Bille and his bed of lilies and roses, silent prayers went up to an all merciful God, that the mother, who is so seriously ill, might be restored to health and spared to the husband and little daughter, and to the mother, Mrs. Clara Cox Epperson, whose every thought has been to shield “Elise.”

At her own request, Mrs. Howard who underwent a serious operation about six weeks ago, and who since has been in a critical condition at St. Thomas Hospital, was brought to Cookeville in a special car Tuesday, and carried at once to Howard Hospital. Noting was kept from her as to her son's condition and it was feared that when the end came, she would lack the strength to fight any longer, but with the tears falling from grief over the death of Billie, she turned with a smile to the baby girl who greeted her as she entered the hospital Tuesday. Mother love will hold her, and it is believed will give her strength to stand a second operation necessary in a few weeks.

Since the news first came to Cookeville that Billie Howard could not live and that Mrs. Howard's condition was serious, a pall of grief has hung about not only the town but throughout the county. Friends of Dr. and Mrs. Howard, and of Mrs. Epperson have grieved with them, and the outpouring of friends and the showering of flowers at the funeral of little Billie but faintly expressed the sympathy of thousands of friends of the state. While this love softens it can not heal; only time can bring peace to the troubled hearts.

Childish prattle, though silent, will echo in the hearts of those who loved the dear voice, the empty chair and broken toy will bring tears and sweetest memories, the stories he loved and wanted to hear will be remembered, his playmates will find an ever welcome word, for Billie, though gone, will not be forgotten.

Mrs. S. M. Huffines Home Burns On Oak Street:

The two story frame dwelling occupied by Mrs. S. M. Huffines located on Oak street in Cookeville caught fire, it is supposed from the explosion of an oil stove. Wednesday morning and despite the quick run of the fire department, and heroic efforts, was gutted and the second story practically destroyed. It is estimated that insurance carried on the building and contents will cover the loss.

The members of the Cookeville Fire Department deserve praise for the manner in which they fought the flames in this instance as well as on many other occasions.

Spurlock, Cookeville, TN).

The smiling face of a man who was loved by all those who entered his store will be remembered for his kind heart and gentle manner.

Claude Hyder was born in Brotherton, Tennessee, on December 5, 1927, to Willis H. and Pricilla Richards Hyder. Hyder was a very ambitious young man and knew early in life that he wanted to own and operate a store. He was the student class president all four years of high school. Before graduating from Algood High School, in 1947, Hyder purchased property in the Algood community, with the hopes of one day opening a store.

After graduating from high school, Hyder attended Tennessee Technological University. But right before he was to graduate, he decided he wanted to work for the American Chicle Gum Company. The company sold various types of gum, including Chiclets and Dentyne. During this time, the Korean War became a prevalent issue, and Hyder made the decision to join the U.S Navy, in 1951. He served four years of service for his country and was stationed at Pearl Harbor, in Hawaii, and San Diego, Calif. In 1955, Hyder returned home and quickly went to work on his dream.

Aware that his property in Algood was not the best area to open a business, Hyder decided to set his aspirations elsewhere, but continued to hold on to the property for the next 20 years before selling it. 1955 was a huge year for Hyder. In one year, he built and began operating two ice cream stores known as Dairy Mart, and he met his future wife of 51 years, 'Jan' Spurlock. The two were married a year later, in 1956. The couple continued to run the two ice cream stores for the next two years, but decided it was in their best interest to sell the properties.

"We loved the work, but it was seven days a week and long hours," explained Jan Hyder.

After selling the properties, the couple decided to purchase the J. B.

Dick's 5&10 variety store located in Cookeville. Jan had also been the store's assistant manager. The Hyderys bought the store and decided to liquidate it, rather than keeping it open. Then in April 1959, the couple contacted Mr. Dick about purchasing his other store located on the square in Sparta. The store then became known as most White Countians remember it, Hyder's 5&10.

The original store was opened where Sparta City Hall is now located, but in 1959 the couple decided they needed more space and purchased what was known then as the Lee Building. They remodeled the Lee building to suit their store needs and remained in full operation until 1993, but was officially closed and sold in 2000. Today, The Rock Community Church is renovating the building.

Aside from his business life, Hyder was remembered for much more than just a storeowner.

"He was a talented musician," said Jan. "His mother taught piano, and he was very good on the harmonica. He even played harmonica in a show at the Cumberland County Playhouse called 'Cowboys'". Hyder was also on the board of directors at the Cumberland County Playhouse.

"He loved the arts," said Jan.

In addition to the harmonica, Hyder played the banjo, fiddle, piano, and various guitars, and was in a group that performed on WSMT-AM Radio Station, in Sparta, and was called "The Good Time Gang." Woody Phillips was the master of ceremonies and group members included Bill Jones, John Henry Demps, O.C. Brown, Edward Baker, Jason Farley, Terry Mills, Jim Grainger and Claude Hyder. Hyder played the harmonica for the group.

"Music was his number one love," said Jan. "He learned and played by ear.

We would be coming home from town and hear a song, and he could come home and pick it out on his keyboard. He had a wonderful ear for music."

But Hyder had many other interests. He raised Tennessee Walking Horses, Doberman Pinschers and German Shepherd dog breeds. He also had a dark room he used to develop pictures he had taken. He enjoyed woodworking, old cars and riding motorcycles. He also loved to ride bicycles and road twice with a group across Tennessee.

"He loved life - period," said Jan, tearfully. "We had a wonderful life together. We enjoyed being together every day. It's so sad. We had such a good life. He only lacked 12 days until he turned 80 when he died, but he did everything like he did when he was 40 and 50 years old. He'd let down the top of his [2003] Mustang convertible and didn't even know he was old!"

He was an active member of the First Methodist Church and sang for many years with the choir. One of the last songs Hyder sang with the choir and his former pastor, Larry Burke, was "When the Saints Go Marching In."

Larry played the trumpet and Claude played the harmonica, and less than a year later Hyder requested that the same song be sung at his funeral.

Claude Hyder passed away from lung cancer, on November 23 2007, at Cookeville Regional Medical Center. He had never smoked a day in his life, explained his wife. He was surrounded by his wife, who had never left his side, and his family and friends, after being reassured that his family and friends would take care of his adored wife.

"He prayed that if he couldn't get well for God to take him on," said Jan. "Just before he died, he told me he loved me from the bottom of his heart."

Jan also explained that the last thing he wrote was "I love everybody in the whole world!" He knew and remembered everybody.

With tons of support from family and friends, Jan has remained strong in her time of grief. Family members call throughout the day to check on her, as well as visit her often.

"It's very lonely, but I have my family and friends," said Jan sadly.

"[It's hard] when you lose your soul mate."

The husband and father W. J. Isbell died in Cookeville, Tenn., Mar. 20, 1895. Barbee and Edith Nackles have been with their grandmother since the death of their own mother, May 13, 1902. Mrs. Isbell professed religion in girlhood and joined the Methodist church in Pisgah, in DeKalb county. A few years ago she transferred her membership to the Cookeville Methodist Church, South. She was a quiet, unassuming woman, a good neighbor and a devoted Christian. Here sphere was in the home. It was there she was well known and loved by all who came into the home. It was there she was well known and loved by all who came into the home. She was a great sufferer and expressed a desire to live, but was willing to go and be at rest. The funeral and burial services were conducted by Rev. W. M. McClearn at the Methodist church and the Cookeville cemetery Sunday afternoon, Aug. 31, 1913, and were largely attended. Bro. McClearn spoke feelingly and eloquently of the resurrection and the future life. May the influence of her life always be those who follow her.

ISBELL, W. J.: Good Man Dead – All That is Mortal of W. J. Isbell Laid to Rest –

We are pained to announce the death of W. J. Isbell, which occurred at his home in Cookeville on the 20th inst. Mr. Isbell was about 55 years old, and leaves a wife and several children as well as numerous other relatives and a host of friends to mourn his loss. He had been a martyr to a scrofulous disease all his life. Early in life he became afflicted with what is termed white swelling and suffered untold misery in consequence of which, but notwithstanding the pain and torture to which he was almost continually subjected, he braved it like a man, and fought the battles of life with a heroism and fortitude worthy of all praise. . . He was a life long member of the Methodist church, an humble iancé an true as the magnet to the pole. . . He was also a true and consistent Odd Fellow, as well as some other secret orders. He was Trustee of this county at the time of his death, this being the third term he had held the office. He had also been County Court Clerk of the county for two terms, eight years in all. . . .

He was born Nov. 11, 1925, in Cookeville to the late Losier and Gusta Grider Jackson.

He moved to Detroit in 1949, and married Muriel Hazel Pippin in 1950, also of Cookeville.

In 1951, he began his career with General Motors in Pontiac, Mich. Jackson, Muriel Hazel went to be with the Lord on January 10th, 2023, at the age of 94. Born in Cookeville, Tennessee on April 8th, 1928, to Emery and Mallie Pippin as the 8th of 11 children: Woodfork,

"Doc" Freelon, Camel, Mona, Milta, Mintie, Maudie, Muriel, Mamie, Margie, and Sunny. She was the loving wife of the late Ephraim Jackson; cherished mother of Phillip (Pam) Jackson and Brenda Eckerly; grandmother of David (Marge), Derek, Peggy (Ray), and Tony (Kim); and great grandmother of Sarah, Emma, Zachary, Alexandra and Jackson Eckerly. From humble beginnings on a farm during the depression without electricity or running water, to awaiting Ephraim's return from WWII, to relocating near the Motor City in search of establishing a family; Hazel's household was always a beacon that never turned away the neighborhood children that were drawn to its warmth. Later in life, she remained vibrant as a member of the Waterford Community Church frequently visiting nursing homes and even climbing a rock wall at the age of 82, at a charity event. She had an enthusiasm for garage sales; be it hosting, searching for the perfect hat, or finding and redesigning costume jewelry, that spanned decades. The twinkle in her eyes when she smiled will be so dearly missed.

Services will take place at Whitson Funeral Home in Cookeville, Tennessee with a showing at 10:00 am, funeral at 11:00 am, followed by burial at Cookeville City Cemetery and celebration of her life.

“Here lies a good man that cared not so much about amassing his own material wealth but made an effort to make life better for others. With only kindness in his heart he never expected or desired this recognition. But for all the good he did in life, he deserves this recognition now. He was greatly loved and will be sadly missed until we meet again in eternity”.

Dear Santa Claus,

I don't know who you are or where you came from, but you have restored my faith in people. There really are wonderful people in this world. Words cannot express the gratitude and happiness in my heart. The manager of my complex where I live told me that my rent for December had been paid and gifts were left for my family. I was absolutely speechless. Thank you ever so much for my family Christmas. If ever there was a person who has a place in heaven it is sure to be you.

God Bless you, Be with you always.

(Source: Tennessee State Marriage record, Putnam Co., TN, pg., 467, #1317: J. B. Jared married 9 August 1908, Putnam Co., TN to Myrtle Jones).

Mary Myrtle Jones Jared (or 'Miss Myrtle,' as she was known by most) was born on August 14, 1891 to David Little and Lucy Montgomery Jones in Denver, Colorado. By the age of twelve, she was an accomplished seamstress, and at that young age, she was clothing her entire family.

On August 9, 1908, she married James "Bersh" Jared of Putnam County, and they had two children, Mina Opal (born 1911) and David Frank (born 1912). When her husband was permanently hospitalized after being struck by lightning, neighbors urged Miss Myrtle to get an annulment and find another husband to support her and the children. She balked at the suggestion, saying that she already had a husband and would manage somehow on her own.

Though sheer resourcefulness and determination, Miss Myrtle singlehandedly provided a reasonably comfortable life for her family, even managing small luxuries like music and art lessons for the children. Drawing upon the most available of her abilities, she began taking in sewing to earn money and also took a job doing clothing alterations at McDearman Williams. Her incomparable work ethic was evident in everything she did, and so determined was she to support her family that she never slept more than hour hours a night.

In 1932, she won her first automobile in a contest sponsored by the Putnam County Herald in which she sold the most newspaper subscriptions. She named the car "Liza" and then met the challenge of learning to drive. One year later, she won another car in the very same contest, which sparked complaints from other contestants, but Miss Myrtle was allowed to keep her prize.

An exceptional businesswoman, as well as a wonderful cook, she later opened multiple restaurants in Cookeville, the last and most popular being the Campus Grill on the corner of Dixie Avenue and East 8th Street. She served daily lunch specials along with a menu of delicious madetoorder food, and her fare was popular with the college students and adults alike. She remained successfully in business there until she passed away on May 7, 1965.

The most remarkable thing about Miss Myrtle, other than her exceptional drive, is the fact that she succeeded in a period when women did not have careers, much less own the businesses. She is remembered today by those who knew her not just for her many accomplishments, but also for her kindness to those she could help... and a little push for those who needed it.

She had been a devoted member of the Methodist Church since her girlhood.

She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Veda Jared DuBois, and by several grandchildren and great-grandchildren. A son, Prof. C. Y. Jared of Madison, died a few years ago.

Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon in the Chapel of the Whitson Funeral Home by the Rev. D. A. Ensor. Burial was in the City Cemetery.

Mrs. Alice Jared Observes Anniversary Here Monday:

It was a happy privilege of Mrs. Alice A. Jared to observe her 93rd birthday on Monday, December 10.

Mrs. Jared makes her home with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. DuBois, 410 Peachtree Street. No formal celebration was arranged for the occasion, as Mrs. Jared was not physically able for a special gathering, but the day was spent quietly and in an appropriate manner.

Mrs. DuBois is Mrs. Jared's only surviving child. The late C. Y. Jared was her son. She has eight grandchildren, 16 great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren. She is possibly the oldest resident of Cookeville at present.

Mrs. P. Y. Jared Dies Monday Morning: Was Member of Prominent Pioneer Putnam County Family:

Death, at any age is always sad, but sometimes touches the hearts of people more tenderly than usual. To those who knew her, the going to that “beautiful home of the soul: of Mrs. Sallie Burton Jared, wife of our fellow-townsmen, P. Y. Jared, was especially solemn and touching. After sixty years, happy years, on earth, surrounded by those she loved so well, her spirit took its flight to that clime where no tears are ever shed, on Monday, February 16, 1931.

She was the daughter of Alex Burton, descended from that noble pioneer strain of first settlers of Putnam county; at old Pekin, and in youth she early became a member of the old Pleasant Grove Methodist church near Gentry, and ever afterwards remained true and devoted to her ideals of Christian living. Of her it is said that she always had a smile and cheerful greetings for her friends and exerted a potent influence for good on all who came in contact with her. She had been a member of the Ladies Aid Society of her church for 25 years, always sharing her part of the duties and responsibilities in a consecrated manner. She was also a member of the Cookeville chapter of the Eastern Star, and one of its most faithful members.

During her last illness of several months duration, she retained her sunny disposition and loving interest in her family and friends to the end. She leaves, besides her husband, two splendid sons, Collie, at home, and Sam, Jr., of Washington, D. C., to mourn her loss.

The funeral was one of the largest attended in Cookeville for many years, and the profusion of floral offerings attested the esteem of her many friends. Rev. E. M. Steel, pastor of the M. E. church, S., assisted by Rev. Dow Ensor, Rev. Sam Edwards, and Rev. W. V. Jarratt conducted the services in an impressive manner, after which the remains were laid to rest in the silent city of the dead of the Cookeville cemetery. Burial was in charge of the Sam Pendergrass Funeral Home.

The following were the flower girls: Mrs. Letcher Griggs, Mrs. Houston Jared, Mrs. Joyce Jared, Misses Mary Alice Maddux, Willie Denny, Margaret Stanton, Madeline Jared, Blanche Hudson, Thelma Moore, and Minnie Floyd Barbour.

Active pall bearers were: Algood Carlen, Sid Jenkins, Walter Carlen, H. T. Whitson, Ezra Davis, Bob Lee Maddux, H. S. Hargis, and W. Comer Moore.

Medical authorities were this morning attempting to identify the remains of a body, thought to be that of Sarah Martha Jared, found late yesterday in the smoldering ruins of the Jared home on Brotherton Mt., east of Cookeville.

Mrs. Jared, 48, an English teacher at Putnam County Sr. High School here and wife of Cookeville attorney Eugene Jared, apparently died in flames which destroyed the home in the early morning hours Saturday.

The remains were found about 5:30 Sunday after about 50 searchers worked throughout the week-end sifting through rubble several feet deep in many places where the $200,000, home had burned to its foundations.

The body was found in what was the bedroom area of the home.

Mrs. Jared was home alone, her husband, attorney Eugene Jared having spent the night at the family's Cove Hollow boat dock on Center Hill Lake, and the couple's two children away on a tour of Greece.

Mrs. Jared was the daughter of Luke Medley, former Putnam County judge and mayor of Cookeville and owner of radio station WHUB, and Mrs. Medley.

COOKEVILLE -- Funeral services for Nancy Neil Travis Jarrell, 87, of Cookeville, will be held at 1:30 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 18, at First Presbyterian Church in Cookeville. A brief interment service will follow at Cookeville City Cemetery. The family will receive friends from 3-6 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 17, at the Cookeville Chapel of Hooper-Huddleston & Horner Funeral Home.

Surrounded by loving family and friends, Mrs. Jarrell died peacefully in her home on Tuesday, Oct. 13, 2009. Nancy Neil Travis was born in Buffalo Valley in 1922, the second child of William Gray and Hallie Jared Travis. Nancy moved with her family to Detroit, Mich., where she spent her early years. Following the death of Mr. Travis in the early 1930s, Nancy, her mother and brother, Bennett, returned to Cookeville.

Nancy graduated from Cookeville High School, and then completed two years at Tennessee Tech where, on the front steps of the university's Old Library, she met her fiance, William "Bill" Robert Jarrell Jr. of Springfield. As a junior, Nancy transferred to Vanderbilt University and joined Phi Beta Phi and graduated in 1943 with a degree in sociology/psychology.

With Bill's June 1945 graduation from West Point Military Academy, Nancy and Bill launched a two-partner career as a military family in a marriage that might best be described as "star struck." Their mutual and unbending love, respect and devotion would be a marvel to all who knew them well.

Nancy felt strongly that the position of wife, mother and homemaker was a vital career. She took to her unsung profession with an unflagging zeal, moving a growing family every few years to posts in Germany, Florida, Ohio, back to New York's West Point, Oklahoma, Canada, Alabama and finally to Colorado's United States Air Force Academy, where husband Bill became Dean of Admissions and Registrar to the Cadet Corps. Upon his retirement from the Air Force, Bill returned with Nancy to her native Cookeville. Nancy was a proud supporter of the arts in all its forms, and was an adept, descriptive and astonishingly empathetic writer. A keen wit and an avid, articulate conversationalist, Nancy was a welcome and contributing member of the Red Cross Board, the Cookeville Tree Board, Friends of the Depot, the Cookeville Arts Council, the Symphony Guild, the Garden Club, the Embroidery Club, Town and Gown and Booklover's Clubs, as well as a founding member of the Cookeville Creative Writers Association. Despite her years of devoted care to his health and care, Nancy's beloved husband Bill succumbed to the complications of Parkinson's Syndrome in 1995.

Her family includes her eldest child and daughter, Travis; eldest son, William (Buddy); middle son, Bradley and daughter-in-law Nual Chuatrapra Jarrell; youngest son, Todd. Nancy's beloved grandchildren are William (Willie) R. Jarrell IV and granddaughter Annemarie Jacar, mother of great-granddaughter Katherine Grace. In addition to her husband, she was preceded in death by her parents; her brother, Bennett; and her cherished granddaughter, Lacey Jane Daly Jarrell. Rev. David Campbell will officiate at the services, with prayer offered by Estel Bilbrey, music by the Ballinger Family and words and memories by her loved ones. He served with distinction in the 117th machine gun company.

Returning to the U. S. in 1919, after an honorary discharge, he came back to Cookeville where, on August 18, 1920, he was married to Miss Sydney McBroom. To this union was born three children, Geraldine, Billy, and Betty Sue, all of whom survive. He is also survived by his father; a brother, Benton, of Memphis, and one sister, Mrs. Jeff Wall.

Bryan Jenkins had been a member of the Methodist church since a child, and had taken an active part in church work here. He was also a member of Post No. 46, American Legion of Cookeville. Members of the Legion, and members of the Fire Department acted as honorary pallbearers at the funeral today.

A GOOD MAN GONE:

In the death of Hartford W. Johnson our community has sustained the loss of one of its best Christian men and the Baptist church one of its most loyal and devoted members. It is a loss that will be most keenly felt for many days to come. But his life and character, fruits of the abiding spirituality of the Master within, indicate to us that our present loss is his eternal gain.

His wife preceded him by about eight years. His departure, therefore, leaving his three children orphans. But though denied so long the sweet, gentle influence of his wife in the rearing of their children, he had succeeded in rearing three as noble children as could be found. The two boys are already members of the Baptist church and are following in the footsteps of their noble father, as he followed in the footsteps of the Master. It becomes the duty of his brethren, therefore, to take Brother Johnson's place as much as possible in advising and guiding his children along the paths he would have them go.

Nearly eight years ago Brother Johnson participated in the re-organization of the Cookeville Baptist church, at which time only nine resident members could be found. But in spite of every discouragement he was one of the few who stood true and loyal as the years came and went. When it came to the church no sacrifice that he could make was too much. He was "faithful unto death." How glad those of us who are still left to take up his burdens and carry on the great work are that he was permitted to live to see in the flesh the splendid fruits of his labors in a church grown from nine members to a church early 200 strong within less than eight years. To the faithfulness and devoted loyalty of just such as he is this great progress due. What a splendid example his is to those of us who are left behind.

His religion was of the simple, direct sort. He eschewed formality. He loved the truth. He interpreted literally the command of Jesus to His disciples to follow Him. And this, with the Bible alone as his guide, he tried to do.

May the Lord raise up others to take his place, but in the meantime we cannot forget that a good man has gone from us.

He was married 3 times, his first 2 wives having preceded him in death. He is survived by his last wife and 6 children; also by his sister, Miss Nettie Jones, who resided with him, and many other relatives in Jackson county.

He had been a loyal member of the Church of Christ since his youth, and had been an active member of Mount View Lodge No 179, Independent Order of Odd Fellows of this city, for about 35 years. He was a good man and enjoyed the confidence and esteem of all who knew him.

Funeral services were conducted at the home Monday afternoon by Elder O H Tallman, with burial in the City cemetery. Services at the cemetery were conducted by the Odd Fellows.

Funeral services for MAJ (US ARMY RET) Lindbergh Jones, 82, of Cookeville will be held Thursday, October 14 at 2:30 at St. Michaels Episcopal Church with Father Joe Weatherly officiating. Interment with military honors will follow in Cookeville City Cemetery.

Mr. Jones died on Thursday, September 30, 2010 at Alive Hospice in Nashville, TN.

He was born April 7, 1928 in Terrell, TX to the late James and Bessie Smith Jones.

He was a man of humble roots, the son of a share cropper in Texas, who left home when he was sixteen and worked at any job he could find. He never finished high school or attended college. He lied about his age so he could join the Army as World War II ended and found his consuming passion for the rest of his life. He was a superb soldier and after training took his first assignment with the US Army occupation forces in Germany where he met and married his wife of almost 58 years, Maria Anna Adamietz. Lindbergh and Maria were assigned to many different places during his 21 years of service as a soldier. He volunteered for combat duty as in an Infantryman in Korea in July 1950. He fought there as a mortar platoon forward observer and rifle company 1st sergeant during that combat tour. He was awarded the Combat Infantry Badge(CIB), an honor that he cherished until his death. He was proud of saying that his family had more CIBs than most as his son Michael and grandsons Michael Jr., Austin, and Ryan all wear the CIB. A fourth grandson, Joshua, was recently assigned to Afghanistan and will probably be awarded a CIB during his tour. He was also proud of his granddaughter Elisa who recently completed a combat tour in Afghanistan as a flight surgeon with the 101st Airborne Division(Air Assault).

Lindbergh was promoted quickly in the enlisted ranks and went from private to master sergeant in eight years. When he returned from the war in Korea he became a maintenance warrant officer and several years later attended Officer Candidate School at Ft Sill, Oklahoma where he was the oldest soldier in his class. He was commissioned as a 2LT in the Corps of Engineers because he stood as one of the top graduates in his class. Assignments to Ft Polk; Ft Belvoir; Agana, Guam and Schwetzingen, Germany followed. He was reassigned to Ft Polk and in May 1965 was deployed to Vietnam with the 35th Engineer Group to improve the old French port at Cam Rahn Bay. During that year, they made this port one of the best and busiest deep water ports in the world. He was promoted to Major before his return to Ft Polk in 1966. While an officer, he earned a reputation as a Commander who demanded discipline and attention to detail that kept his Soldiers and units prepared for war, but who also loved and sacrificed all for the Soldiers he commanded. While he retired from Active Duty in 1967, he never lost his love for his Army and our Soldiers. He wore a miniature CIB for the rest of his life. It was from his service that he inspired his sons, grandsons and granddaughters to understand that service in the US Armed Forces was an honorable path and made one a person more worthy of the title United States Citizen.

As a civilian, Lindbergh worked for the US Job Corps, Linn Broadcasting, Peterbilt Motors, Campbell Limestone Company and Vulcan Materials Company. He was able to use the leadership and management skills that he learned in the Army to have great success in all of his jobs.

He retired from Vulcan Materials after almost 20 years where he managed 7 major rock quarries in Alabama and Mississippi and won many awards for production, conservation, safety and community relations. He started wearing his trademark silver belly beaver Stetson hat with a miniature CIB and using the walking stick that was with him until he died.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Maria, his four brothers; Cecil, John, Mike and Jimmie and his daughter-in-law, Irma.

He is survived by his sister Lois, and his children Michael Jones and his wife Carolyn of Mt. Juliet, Laura McBride and her husband Dennis of Old Hickory, Alma Anderson and her husband Bruce of Cookeville, Bruno Jones and his wife Karen of Kings Creek, SC and a stepson, Norbert Koos and his wife Heidi of Rehau, Germany. Lindbergh was the proud grandfather to Michael Jones Jr, Captain (Dr.) Elisa O'Hern, Captain Austin Jones, Victoria Powell, Lieutenant Joshua Jones, Dennis McBride IV, Jennifer Sullivan, MAJ Ryan McBride, Julian McBride, Emily Anderson, Michael Anderson, Lydia Jones, Grier Jones, Mitchell Jones and Wolfgang Koos. He was also a wonderful great grandfather to Elizabeth Nash, Brayden Jones, Ella Jones, Patrick O'Hern, Alanna Powell, Major Powell, Evelyn Powell, Kathleen McBride, Christian Sullivan, Brianagh Sullivan, Alaura Sullivan, Iain McBride, Lea Koos and Maximillian Koos.

He moved to Old Hickory, Tennessee from Argo, Alabama in 2006. Our father was a gentle soul who taught us to serve others as leaders and the absolute importance of family. He remains an inspiration to us all as we learned from him what it means to honor and love our wives and husbands, love and mentor our children and grandchildren and to respect the rights of others. Most importantly he taught many of us to soldier. At one of his speeches in June 1966 to a group of young men preparing to enter West Point, he said that the greatest privilege and responsibility a young American could have was summed up in one sentence: "These are your Soldiers, lead them well."

General Douglas MacArthur was one of Daddy's heroes. The General once said, "Old Soldiers never die, they just fade away." To our beloved father, grandfather and great grandfather, you will never fade from our hearts and memories. You will be forever gentle on our minds. We love you.

The family will receive friends Thursday 12 noon until 2 PM at the Cookeville Chapel of Hooper-Huddleston & Horner Funeral Home.

Pallbearers will be Mr. Jones grandsons.

The family is requesting donations to Not Alone, an organization dedicated to caring for Soldiers and their families coping with post traumatic stress disorder. Donations can be mailed to: Not Alone, PO Box 92371, Nashville, TN 37209 or made online at www.notalone.com

Putnam Countians Remeber Christmases Many, Many Year Ago: Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN by Cameron Judd: There’s a lot of talk these days about the commercialism of Christmas, how the simple celebrations have given way to tinsel, blaring music and crowded department stores.

A lot of people wish the days could return when Christmas was a family time, a simple time. Perhaps at the holiday season more than any other time there is a longing for “the good old days.”

And just what was Christmas like in “the good old days?” I asked that question of several people who remember what an Upper Cumberland Christmas was like 70, 80, even 90 years ago.

These people are all residents of the Cookeville Nursing Center and all had fond memories of the days before television, department stores and mass-produced metal Christmas trees.

Ailene Judd was born in Buffalo Valley 91 years ago, and the Christmases she remembers are enough to make many a harried rat-race victim’s mouth water.

“We lived in a big log house in Buffalo Valley,” she said. “At Christmas we never had a tree, but I can remember going to church, and they would have a big Christmas tree there. Everybody then didn’t have trees and presents like they do today.

“Most of the presents we got were dolls, candy and fruit. The older children would get shoes or maybe a new dress.

“I believed in Santa Claus until I was about 12 or 14. The folks would slip around and hang up presents, and the children was taught it was Santa. But it wasn’t – it was just the parents.

“I don’t know if it’s right to teach Santa Claus to children or not. I was disappointed when I found out that Santa was just my parents. I didn’t appreciate Christmas as much after that.”

Christmas was a day of good food around the Judd residence, Miss Judd recalled. Those were days when Buffalo Valley farmers like Francis Marion Judd, Miss Judd’s father, would have to drive their stock on foot to Nashville to sell.

But everyone had their own chickens, hogs and turkeys, so Christmas dinner was a feast worth waiting for.

“We would have turkey or maybe a chicken hen, and lots of good food. My mother wasn’t much of a cake maker, so we’d have a colored woman who lived on the place make us up a pound cake. Her name was Clara Ealey. “I remember once when I was just a girl I was out in the yard one Christmas while she was baking up a pound cake.

COOKEVILLE — Amelia Ann Johnson Kendrick died at home June 23, 2018, after an extended illness. She was 86.

Born in Cookeville, she was the youngest of the five children born to H. Brett Johnson and Ura Scott Johnson. Amelia's father served as Putnam County Trustee, as well as being an entrepreneur, owning a grocery store on the courthouse square, the first local Ford Motor Company car dealership and the Johnson Ford Tractor and Implement Co.

Amelia is survived by her husband of 64 years, Wendell; sons, Eddie Kendrick (Elizabeth) and John Kendrick (Shelia) of Cookeville, and Scott Kendrick (Lynn), Nashville; and grandchildren, Taylor and Hailey Kendrick. She is also survived by her sister, Claudine Johnson Branch. Surviving cousins are Permelia Scott Elmore, William A. Cameron, and Joseph W. Hill, all of Cookeville.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her brother, George Harvey Johnson; and sisters, Betty Johnson Rich and Mary Ruth Johnson.

Amelia grew up in Cookeville on the Johnson family's 160 acre farm, located on Algood Rd. (now 10th Street.) The family sold a portion of the farm to establish the Cookeville Country Club. Amelia attended Tennessee Polytechnic Institute (now Tennessee Tech University) where she met Wendell. They were married March 18, 1954. She left TPI just six credit hours shy of graduating to move to Karlsruhe, Germany, when Wendell received an assignment with the U.S. Army during the Korean War. They returned to Cookeville in 1956, with two year old Eddie. Scott and John shortly followed. Amelia was a full time mom until her children reached their teenage years. She then entered the workforce, serving as the office manager, bookkeeper and interim manager of the Cookeville Country Club, retiring after 26 years.

Amelia was a lifelong member of First Baptist Church, which her father helped reorganize. She was actively involved in the lives of her three sons, serving in school organizations and as a Cub Scout leader. Amelia loved to garden, quilt, crochet, and cook. She enjoyed her bridge group for more than 30 years until her memory declined and she had difficulty remembering the cards. She was a charter member of the Mended Hearts Organization (to support heart disease awareness) at Cookeville Regional Medical Center and a volunteer to post-op heart patients and their families. Amelia had a quick wit, always had a smile on her face, and served Christ by serving the less fortunate and elderly. She adored her husband of 64 years, and her children admire the example they provided in a loving marriage.

The family would like to thank her longtime physician, Dr. Donna Scudder of Nashville. Thanks also to wonderful caregivers, Khiristy Billingsly, Sandy Tayes, Melanie Dillon and the hospice care staff of Caris Healthcare.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Wednesday, June 27, at the Cookeville chapel of Hooper-Huddleston & Horner Funeral Home. Interment will follow in Cookeville City Cemetery.

The family will receive friends at the funeral home Tuesday, June 26, from 5-8 p.m., and again Wednesday, June 27, from 10 a.m. until the service time at 11 a.m.

KERR, AMANDA V.: Amanda V. Kerr, wife of J. C. Kerr, was born Dec. 5, 1842, professed religion in early life and joined the Missionary Baptist church. About fifteen years ago she joined the M. E. Church South with her husband and was a faithful and useful member. After three years of suffering with cancer she passed away July 8, 1907.

Death is always sad. It is said because it breaks humanities, ends human life and separtates body and soul. All people favorably situated and in their right mind want to live. Extreme suffering either of body or mind, makes death a welcome visitor. There are some cheerful things about death, it ends human suffering, opens the gates to a better life and unites those who have been separated.

Mrs. Kerr was the greatest sufferer I have ever known. When in health she was very faithful in visiting and helping the sick. The funeral was held from the Cookeville Methodist church cocduct (sic) by her pastor, Rev. Geo. R. Allen, and the writer (G. W. Nackels). She was laid to rest beside her husband in the Cookeville Cemetery.

KERR, JOSEPH C.: PROMINENT CITIZEN FOUND DEAD. -- Joseph C. Kerr is called From the Walks of Men. -- Dies at his home in Cookeville Last Sunday After a Brief Illness. –

With extreme regret we announce the death of Joseph C. Kerr, Esq., which occurred at his home in Cookeville on last Sunday morning.

Mr. Kerr was a candidate for Sheriff of the county and as such had exposed himself to all kinds of weather, from which he was seized with a severe cold, his liver and head becoming seriously affected; typhoid fever also set in from which he was unable to recover.

Mr. Kerr was about fifty-two years of age and a resident of the county ever since it was established. When quite young he enlisted in the Fifth Tennessee Cavalry United States Army and made a most gallant soldier, and was once wounded (accidentally we believe). He was twice deputy Sheriff of the county and was an acting Justice of the Peace for the town of Cookeville when he died.

For the last ten years he has been a consistent member of the M. E. Church South, and died in full hopes of the immortality of the soul and in perfect peace with his maker and all mankind. He was an active working member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and the Improved Order of Red Men. Brother Kerr was widely and favorably known all over this section of the State and was deservedly popular with those who knew him, in whose breast a pang of regret will be felt at his sudden death.

He was buried in the Cookeville Cemetery last Monday afternoon in the presence of a vast concourse of people, by the members of the Narrganasett Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, and Mt. View Lodge, No. 179, Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

The sudden and unexpected death of Mr. Kerr has cast a gloom over the entire community, but he was a manly man, a true friend, a hightoned, christian gentleman, whose name and good deeds will long be remembered by those who knew him. He leaves a sorrowing wife and an adopted son to weep over their great loss, to whom the Press extends deepest sympathy in their hour of sore distress.
