Dear Rudy:

In your letter of January 29, 1989, you present the problem of our Pension Plan inquiring concerning your eligibility for retirement. You should follow their request and obtain a doctor's certificate showing your need for retirement. They certainly will have to accept this fact and you will receive your regular pension check. This is a routine matter, they are checking up on all those who have retired before age 65. If you have any difficulty whatsoever, phone REDACTED our attorney.

ADORATION CORNER TIME

The dearest thing we have on earth is life, and yet we often do not value an essential aspect of it, precious time. The only good reason for our existence is to know, love and serve God, and we can do none of these without time. We can do nothing in the past and nothing in the future. So all we have is the present precious moment. The best possible use of time is what we give directly to God; praise, adoration and reparation. Come and spend time with God before the Blessed Sacrament.

MONSIGNOR GALINDO shares a beautiful letter he received from a parishioner. Part of it reads:

"I am saddened to hear from my family on my arrival home that you too are in poor health. I thought so, as I listened Sunday past to your homily about love and being able to forgive, I scanned your slimming body, and I thought as any medic would, Galindo must still be ill. That sadden me, but most of all your leaving is a blow to me that is most difficult to stand up to. Of all the priests in this Valley, you are one who has fortified me during times of great weakness and temptation.

God gave you the words to speak, in your homilies, that I needed most to hear. Now with your leaving during this most trying time for me, I worry, what kind of Godly man will fill your void. I suppose you must be about your Father's work, even though it hurts us who are left behind, I must not be selfish, for all good things must be shared. So if leave you must, I will accept that I am sharing you with others of God's people, so they too may share with me the joy of having you amongst them.

May your health be regained by a God-sent speedy recovery. And as you have ridden out many storms in this "parroquia", may this storm be calmed to a gentle wind and the gift of good health always be with you."

SIGN OF THE CROSS

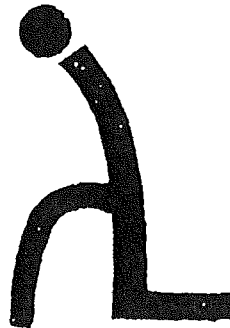

At the beginning and end of this Mass; at the beginning and end of our lives; at the beginning and ending of all we do stands the sign of the cross, saying this place, this space of time, this life, this child, these people, this corpse, belongs to the Lord and will not be snatched from Him who bears indelibly in his body the marks of that same cross.

- Mark Searle -

GENUFLECTING

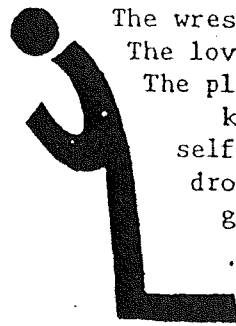

Have you noticed how many people wobble as they go down on one knee? Those who stand on their own two feet may think themselves strong in charge of their own lives. Genuflecting, we surrender our illusions and admit; We are vulnerable, unsteady, defenseless. We falter in the presence of the living God.

To Whom It May Concern:

Reverend Monsignor Rudolph Galindo has been a priest of the Diocese of San Diego for over thirty years and is now retired due to his health.

He does feel that he can do a certain amount of ministry and I assure you that he has the faculties of the Diocese of San Diego.

Nov 10 / 87

Dear Bishop Malen,

this letter is well overdue - I have been anxious to drop you a personal note and to wish you well -

The enclosed is your anniversary gift! I will never forget your kindness to me and hope that our friendship will last as long as we both may live. I think you're the greatest!

My retirement decision, I think, has been best for all concerned. I do miss my weekend ministry.

My mom has been very sick. I'm thankful I have time to be with her.

I've spent a little time in Nogales, Mexico trying to get acclimated - but every time I begin to get settled - I'm called home because of mom. I must be patient. I have no trouble anywhere I go I just show them your letter

I want to help out in Mexicali. Bishop Ulises knows it. He is delighted. He is waiting for me to give the word.

I live in a mobile home. I'm quite comfortable. I have a little altar where I offer daily mass - It's quite nice. Yours welcome anytime Bishop!

I passed by the convent in Calexico. It's really a credit of your love for the Hispanics in the Valley and the Diocese. One of these days I'll stop by and say mass for the sisters! They have been asking me to come over and say mass for them!

In a couple of weeks I'll be having surgery. Transurethral Prostatectomy.
Gag on "Oh Fuck!" for me when you get a chance. Oremos pro invasion!

Best wishes and kind regards.

Dear J. B.

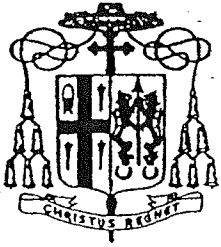

Would the Diocese consider buying a house from us. It's market value is $90,000. I just had it appraised in Oct. Enclosed are the papers.

This would truly help us in our effort to raise at least $\frac{1}{2}$ of the money for our new convent. I have already raised \$50,000.

Presently the house rents for $400 per month.

Rev. Msgr. Rudolph Galindo

Dear Msgr. Galindo:

With your appointment as dean, you are ex officio a member of the Diocesan Board for Educational Ministry.

In the post Vatican II era, all segments of the Catholic community have become increasingly more involved in the formation of policy. This is especially true in education, one of the principal ministries of the Church and an area of major concern to both clergy and laity alike.

Recognizing the importance of this involvement, and in order to achieve the more effective integration of programs and better utilization of resources, Synod II recommended that there be a single Diocesan Board to assist me in the formation of policies governing all of the educational ministries of the diocese. I accepted the Synod's recommendation and have established the Diocesan Board for Educational Ministry. All diocesan educational programs are within the purview of this Board: schools, religious education, youth ministry, evangelization and adult education, campus ministry, liturgy and prayer and Hispanic evangelization.

Each deanery is represented on the Board by the dean (or a pastor appointed as his regular alternate) and a qualified lay person. In addition, there are three at-large members, one of whom must be a woman religious. The active participation of all members of the Board in its deliberations will assure that the programs conducted by the diocesan offices are responsive to the needs of the parishes.

Your service to the priests and people of your deanery is deeply appreciated.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Dear Msgr. Galindo:

I am pleased to appoint you Episcopal Vicar and Dean of the El Centro Deanery for a three-year period, effective immediately.

During this period we ask that:

- 1) You have regular deanery meetings and have interesting reports on subjects that the priests need to hear about;
- 2) You be organizer and director of the RENEW Program in your Deanery, working closely with Monsignor Dickie so that all the parishes will be involved, giving the people of the Diocese an opportunity to grow in our faith and bringing greater unity to the Diocese;
- 3) You will attend the necessary meetings involving the Deans, especially the Board of Education and the Deanery Council;

I am enclosing the faculties of an Episcopal Vicar, the statement on Vicars Forane and Episcopal Vicars from the 1983 Code of Canon Law, the "job description" of the Dean in relation to the Deanery Council, and the recommendations and format for Deanery meetings approved by the Priests Council.

Thanking you for your cooperation in this important work of the Church, I am

Dear Reverend Bishop Maher:

As instructed I sent out the following letter on August 24, 1983 to all the priests in the Valley.

I am happy to have been of service. I hope all is well with you.

Dear Rudy:

Thank you so very much for all that you did to make the Our Lady of Guadalupe celebration such a marvelous success! Your contribution is deeply appreciated.

The beautiful vestments which you so generously gave me added to the dignity and loveliness of the Liturgy. All who attended were deeply inspired. The singing was very solemn and added to the celebration, but still it was jubilant.

Also, the luncheon was very lavish and we had plenty of time to enjoy it. The difficulty is, how can we ever come up to the expectations of another celebration for next year? We need your imagination and your help.

May this holy season bring you many blessings. You are most deserving.

With all good wishes, I am

Dear Msgr. Galindo:

Thank you for your generous donation of $80,000 to the Pooled Income Fund of the Diocese of San Diego. The Most Reverend Bishop has accepted the beneficiaries as you have listed them.

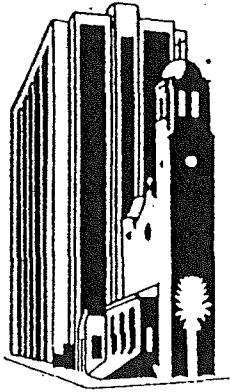

Due to the multiplicity of beneficiaries, there is no evident tax deduction you would receive for this donation. You may wish to consult legal opinion as to whether there is any future gift tax.

You should be receiving monthly interest checks. If there are any questions regarding your donation, please contact me or Mr. Richard J. Roncaglia who now is the trust officer at the California First Bank. Any further donations you may wish to make will greatly assist the future development of our Diocese.

Dear Bishop Maher:

I am writing you this letter to let you know that all at Cathedral Plaza are behind Msgr. Galindo, their pastor, one hundred per cent. We think it is a disgrace that such a write-up in the paper was allowed. We have known him as a dedicated priest who loves his church and his people.

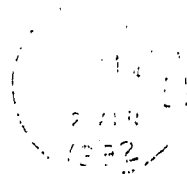

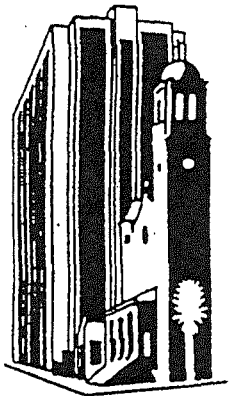

I personally have worked for him since he came here for three days a week at the rectory. I also know and have met Mrs. Do. She is unbelievable and can lie at any time. She has given several of us receptionists a hard time over the phone.

We are all praying for Msgr. Galindo and hope you can do something in some way to help him in this trouble. God bless you.

Most sincerely,

Dear Your Excellency:

At the personal instructions of Monsignor Rudolph Galindo, he wishes me to inform you that he has donated $80,000.00 to the Diocese of San Diego Pooled Income Fund, which is being managed by California First Bank.

It is the wish of Monsignor Galindo that upon the death of the last income beneficiary, these funds be used for assisting young men with vocations for the priesthood for the Diocese of San Diego. Monsignor Galindo has indicated that the balance of his estate will be turned over to the Church upon his death under the terms of his Will.

Monsignor Galindo felt it was appropriate he make this gift at this time in recognition of your upcoming anniversary, and also because he thinks you are the greatest Bishop in the world.

Reverend Dear Father:

In your letter of June 19 you called for applications for the parish of St. Mary Magdalene because of the retirement of Monsignor Daniel O'Donoghue.

It is difficult for me to realize that this fine gentleman is retiring from the mission after so many active years. But I feel that I could successfully follow in his footsteps and so would like to apply for the position of pastor of St. Mary Magdalene.

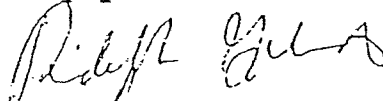

I have known Monsignor O'Donoghue since I was an altar boy and it would be, indeed, a joy for me to succeed him.

I have been a priest for 21 years (fluent in both English and Spanish). During this time I have been the pastor of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Otay, Our Lady of Guadalupe in San Bernardino and Our Lady of Mount Carmel in San Ysidro. I left San Bernardino at the request of Bishop Maher in order that an acceptable and favorable parish could be established for Bishop Chavez. I accepted a smaller parish until something else would develop.

At this time I would be very grateful if some favorable consideration would be given my request.

Trusting to hear from you at your convenience, I am

The Most Rev. Leo T. Maher

Your Excellency:

I was very happy to see you recently at St. Catherine's. As always you have been very kind to me and for this I will be eternally grateful. By the way, I forgot to tell you--you might be the winner of a new Matador! I was really surprised to see the stubs of raffle tickets with your name. Thank you.

Your Excellency, thinking over the conversation we had at St. Catherine's in Rialto on April 29, I would like to offer you my humble opinion. Though, I am very happy here at Our Lady of Guadalupe Church and much more remains to be done and though you indicated to me that I may remain here if I wish, yet I am in complete agreement with you that the possibility of criticism could arise over the fact that Bishop-elect Chavez, being a Mexican-American, is not in a Mexican parish and, consequently, I understand and would like to help you in whatever way I can. You are right, Bishop-elect Chavez should be in a large parish, such as this one, since he is now a bishop and should have a parish according to his title. However, Your Excellency, in the various alternatives that we quickly mentioned at St. Catherine's, I find that the following would be fair and at the same time keep all happy.

The first alternative of going to San Ysidro, even pro temp., I find that in conscience I could not accept. Looking at it from my personal point of view and all things being equal, I feel that I would like the equivalent of what I have in San Bernardino in all fairness after 20 years as a priest come this May 5. But even more than that, there is a personal problem involved. I was in Otay for 12 years, I built from scratch and, as a consequence, I have many friends in that whole area of Chula Vista and there would be a never ending procession of problems from Otay to San Ysidro which could create friction between two pastors (no matter who the pastor is) and I would not like to see this happen. I know the problems of that area and I know the problems of the Chicano, etc. I really don't think that it would be feasible for me to accept this position.

Therefore, I would like to submit other satisfactory alternatives, if I may. Since in our conversation we discussed Fr. Mooney from Our Lady of Sacred Heart Church in San Diego, I think he would be honored and more than happy and do very well at St. Francis de Sales, Riverside. I then would be happy to accept Our Lady of Sacred Heart. Our Lady of Sacred Heart is getting to be, I believe, a mixed parish (ethnically speaking) and I think I could balance it out well. I am even a graduate from the elementary school. Our Lady of Sacred Heart Church is my first choice and I would accept immediately.

My second choice would be that if at your suggestion Father Mooney would not accept I would then accept St. Francis De Sales in Riverside myself. In either place, I will do all in my power, your Excellency, to live up to the trust and confidence you have placed in me. I assure you that you will not be sorry and every one will be happy.

The third choice would be yours, your Excellency, if something were to open up in San Diego.

God bless you. I look forward to seeing you on Mother's Day.

Your humble servant in Christ,

Rev. Msgr. Rudolph Galindo

Bishop Maher has referred your letter of May 13, 1974, to me for reply.

No one is more cognizant than Bishop Maher of the tremendous strides which Msgr. Galindo has made as Pastor of Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish in San Bernardino.

I personally am aware of the efforts you are making at Guadalupe Day Nursery, and I am presently in the process of supplying some information to Msgr. Galindo for his use in connection with an application for Federal funds for the Satellite Center presently being operated in your Parish. You may be assured of my interest and cooperation in bringing to a successful conclusion this very worthwhile project.

On behalf of Bishop Maher and myself, may I thank you for your enthusiastic support of your Pastor, Msgr. Galindo, and assure you of our prayers and concern.

Your Excellency:

I, as Superior of the Sisters Servants of the Poor, wish to express my feelings regarding the possibility of Msgr. Galindo's change to another parish.

Our congregation staffs the Guadalupe Day Nursery. We at this moment are in need of a new nursery because the present one needs too many repairs and has been semi-condemned by the Health Department. I believe that Msgr. Galindo has the capacity to build a new nursery if he were to remain here for at least another year. We have been here for nearly twenty years and we would not like to see the nursery closed.

A new nursery would mean that we could care for more children. At the present time we are allowed care for only twenty-two children. With another nursery we could take care of the many children who have had to be rejected because of lack of space.

This would be separate from the $8,000 project that will soon be funded by the Federal Government regarding the Satellite Center which was established because of Msgr. Galindo's efforts.

In the years that I have been here I have noticed that Msgr. Galindo is able to handle the many problems that arise in a parish as large as Our Lady of Guadalupe.

I feel that to change Msgr. Galindo at this time would be a great tragedy.

Love those pictures

If your parish feels a pang of jealousy at the spread on page 9 for Our Lady of Guadalupe, San Bernardino, the remedy is up to you. The Southern Cross staff — just two of us who write and take pictures — cannot be everywhere every weekend. So we are grateful for the cooperation we get from pastors like Msgr. Rudolph Galindo, at San Bernardino.

That set of pictures, taken by a local photographer, came to me from the pastor as part of a large selection. And newspaper editors are always looking for good pictures — not the stagey, set-up faces-towards-the-camera stuff that so often passes for a news picture.

If it costs a parish a dollar or two to get good pictures from a professional photographer — of a suitably important occasion — then the reward can be great in space, both in your local newspapers and in the Southern Cross. But please, please, no bleary Polaroids or snapshots with cheap cameras. They just will not reproduce clearly.

Art of another kind is always to be found in the bulletin of St. Frances Xavier Cabrini parish, Crestline. Artist Ryan is always funny, and this week we have borrowed one, to lift our Opinion Forum page.

Dear Monsignor Galindo:

Many thanks for your words of welcome and the many ovations given to me and your very generous and thoughtful gift. The entire Investiture was an extravaganza. All were impressed by the very thorough arrangements and will long remember this inspiring ceremony. May you enjoy your honor for many many years.

Again expressing my deep gratitude and thanks and may the Christmas Season bring you abundant graces and may you and your parishioners enjoy great happiness in the New Year.

Dear Msgr. Galindo:

Enclosed are xerox copies of the Papal Decree as translated into English and Spanish. Also find enclosed the pictures of Bishop Maher and Bishop Quinn which I would like returned after you have used them. As for the picture of the Holy Father, I am sorry, but we do not have one available at this time. I am sure if you write to the Apostolic Delegate, they would send one by air mail.

Investiture of Msgr. Rudolph Galindo..Bishop Leo T. Maher, D.D.
Bishop of San Diego

Celebrant: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.

Celebrant: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: You were sent to heal the contrite:
Lord, have mercy.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Celebrant: You came to call sinners;
Christ, have mercy.

People: Christ, have mercy.

Celebrant: You plead for us at the right hand of the Father:
Lord, have mercy.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Celebrant: May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.

People: Amen.

First Reading: Sir. 24:23:31.....Alfredo Gonzalez

Responsorial Psalm: Jdt. 13:9

Celebrant: You are the highest honor of our race.

People: You are the highest honor of our race.

Celebrant: May you be blessed, my daughter, by God
Most High,
beyond all women on earth;
and may the Lord God be blessed.
the Creator of heaven and earth.
The trust you have shown shall not pass from the memories of men, but shall ever remind them
of the power of God.

People: You are the highest honor of our race.

Celebrant: God grant you to be always held in honor, and rewarded with blessings.

People: You are the highest honor of our race.

Alleluia Ep. 1:3-6

Celebrant: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

People: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

Celebrant: Happy are you, holy Virgin Mary, deserving of all praise;
from you arose the sun of justice, Christ
the Lord.

People: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Offertory Procession

The first seven symbols that the Children are carrying in the Offertory Procession represent the powers of a priest to administer the seven sacraments.

The eighth child represents the Indian, Juan Diego, carrying the 'Tilma' to the Bishop. In 1531, Juan Diego went to his Bishop after the appearance of Our Lady of Guadalupe. Today, this child representing Juan Diego, presents the 'Tilma' to His Excellency, Bishop Leo T. Maher, in remembrance of Our Lady of Guadalupe's appearance in 1531.

The parish of Our Lady of Guadalupe has a high percentage of Mexican-American parishioners, many of whom were born in Mexico. The attire worn by these seven children symbolizes the native dress of the various regions of Mexico.

1. Michael Negrete..... Baptism
2. Angela Rendon..... Confirmation
3. Mary E. Sanchez.....Penance
4. Susan Sosa..... Holy Eucharist
5. Deborah Morelos Anointing
6. Christine Marquez.....Holy Orders
7. Esther Sanchez.....Matrimony
8. Michael Lobo Our Lady of Guadalupe

Offertory Hymn:..... "All That I Am"

All that I am, all that I do,
All that I'll ever have.
I offer now to you.

All that I dream
All that I pray
All that I'll ever make
I give to you today.

Take and sanctify these gifts
for your honor Lord.
Knowing that I love and serve
You is enough reward.

Communion Hymn:....."The Living God"

Sing praises to the Living God,
Glory, hallelujah.
Come, adore the living God,
Glory, hallelujah.

Though sun and moon may pass away
his word will ever stay.
His power is forever more.
Glory, hallelujah.

Glory to the Trinity,
the undivided unity,
The Father, Son, and spirit one,
From whom all life and goodness come.

To the living God we sing.
Glory, hallelujah.
Let our love and praises ring,
Glory, hallelujah.

He promised to be with us
And he lives in ev-ry one.
Love him now forever more.
Glory, hallelujah.

Communion Hymn:....."Bendito, Bendito"

Bendito, bendito, bendito sea Dios, los angeles
cantan y alaban a Dios
los angeles cantan y alaban a dios

Yo creo Dios mio que estas en el altar
oculto en la hostia te vengo a adorad.
oculto en la hostia te vengo a adorad.

Jesus de mi alma te doy mi corazon
y en cambio te pido me des tu bendicion
y en cambio te pido me des tu bendicion.

Communion Hymn:

Jesus My Lord my God my all.
How can I love thee as I ought?
And how revere these wondrous gifts.
So far surpassing hope or thought

Sweet sacrament, we thee adore, Oh make us love thee more and more,
Oh make us love thee more and more.

Had I but Mary's sinless heart,
To love thee with my dearest King,
Oh, with what burst of fervent praise,
Thy goodness Jesus, would I sing.

Oh see upon the altar placed
The Victim of divinest love.
Let all the earth below adore thee,
And join the choirs of heav'n above.

Response..... Rev. Msgr. Rudolph Galindo

Recessional:

"America"

O beautiful for spacious skies,
for amber waves of grain,
for purple mountain majesties
Above the fruited plain!
America! America!
God shed his grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
from sea to shining sea.

"Adios Reina del Cielo"

Adios Reina del Cielo
Madre del Salvador
adios oh Madre mia
adios, adios, adios

De tu divino rostro
me alejo con pesar
permiteme que vuelva
tus plantas a besar

Adios Hija del Padre
Madre del Hijo adios
del Espiritu Santo
Oh casta esposa, adios

RECEPTION: You are invited to the informal reception which will be held tomorrow, Sunday, December 13, 1970, from 12-3 p.m. in the Parish Hall.

MAÑANITAS A MONSEÑOR R. GALINDO

DESPIERTA, PADRE DEL ALMA, DINAMICO MONSEÑOR;
MONSEÑOR GALINDO, TIENES
FELIZ, AL PUEBLO DE DIOS.

1. El Padre Galindo tiene
dignidad de Monseñor;
hoy todo San Bernardino
celebra tan alto honor.
2. Don Luis, tu papá, en el Cielo se alegra de corazón
y bendice al Santo Padre,
que te nombró Monsenor.
3. Tu mamá feliz se siente
y da gracias al Señor, viendo que todos los fieles
te aclaman por Monseñor.
4. Con el agua del Bautismo engendras hijos de Dios;
miles ya te llaman Padre
y te aman de corazón.
5. Cuando tu mamá levantas
en el santo Tribunal,
los pecados se perdonan
y el pecador halla paz.
6. Alimentas nuestras almas
con el Cuerpo de Jesús;
siempre tu nombre honraremos
con profunda gratitud.
7. Donde pisa un Sacerdote
se estremece Satanás,
pues quebranta sus poderes
y con el bien vence al mal.
8. Tus sermones han abierto limpio camino de luz
y tus ejemplos confirman
la doctrina de Jesús.
9. Tú bendices los hogares con gracia sacerdotal;
las familias por ti unidas
vivirán siempre con paz.
10. Tu presencia reconforta
al enfermo que se va,
y la Unción le abre la puerta
de la Patria Celestial.
11. Sacerdote eres de Cristo,
de nuestras almas Pastor,
Consultor para el Obispo
y de Roma Monseñor.
12. Ningún Padre en California,
de ascendencia mexicana,
antes que tú tuvo el nombre
que hace roja tu sotana.
13. La Providencia ha juntado
a monaguillo y Pastor,
concediéndoles a un tiempo
título de Monseñor.
14. En Chula Vista hay gran fiesta, porque ya eres Monseñor,
y los fieles te suplican
les bendigas con amor.
15. La Virgen de Guadalupe
te ampare en su Corazón
para que vivas seguro,
mientras disponga el Señor.

Your Excellency:

I am writing in reference to the appointment of Father Galindo to Monsignor. Perhaps you will not remember me; but in September of 1969 you bless my building at the dedication service.

The Church has a fine person in Monsignor Galindo. He is a respected man by all that know him, and everyone here is proud of his appointment.

If my establishment can be of any service to the Church, do not hesitate to call.

Sincerely,

Dear Msgr. Galindo:

His Excellency Bishop Maher will be very happy to celebrate with you your investiture to the title of Honorary Prelate with a Concelebrated Pontifical Mass.

Your date, which has been approved by you, is placed at the conclusion of this letter and is satisfactory with the Bishop.

The ceremony will begin with a procession, and yourself, vested in the purple choir cassock only, will precede the Bishop to a chair facing him or to the side, whatever is suitable.

The Papal Bull will be read by myself or the chancellor, if present. After the reading, it will be presented to you and then you will vest for Mass. The translation will be provided by this office on the day of investiture.

Sincerely yours in Christ.

Your Excellency,

My parishioners join with me in prayers hoping that these few lines will find you feeling well and rapidly recovering your strength.

As you know, Your Excellency, we have just acquired some property costing $12,000. Already my people are very anxious to get to work and start paying for this project. If it is, Your Excellency wish, we would like if possible a 20 year loan just to make sure we can meet the payments but already these people have expressed their desire, with God's help, to pay for this property in less than 2 years. (The enclosed check represents the spirit that they have towards the purchase of the property.)

I feel, however, that before we put on another Jamaica ... that a few days away from parochial activities would help me a great deal to come back refreshed and with renewed vigor to my people and to my work. This will be my first vacation in 3 yrs. I have been especially encouraged these past few days because so many things have happened. Monsignor Thompson has invited me to accompany him to Ireland. Also friends of mine have offered to pay my ticket. Perhaps this is an opportunity I will not get again.

Knowing your kindness to me in the past, if I may, and it thereby conforms with Your Excellency's summer schedule, may I suggest the dates preferable from June 5 to Aug 1 for a Jamaica is planned in the latter part of August. Father Francis Carroll who speaks fluent, as here Spanish is a necessity, has volunteered his service for the period of June 5... July 10. The only supply I would need would be from July 10 .. Aug 1.

Whatever Your Excellency's wishes are regarding this matter, I remain as always

Your Humble Servant in Christ,

R. L. Galindo

Dear Father Galindo:

You have made definite strides towards liquidation of the newly acquired property and your check in the amount of $1,900.00 is gratefully acknowledged.

Please interrupt the hard work with which you have promoted the best interests of this parish and take a vacation - a month or even two months if you wish.

Arrangements have been made for Father Carroll to replace you from June 5 to July 10. On July 10, another priest will be sent to replace Father Carroll.

Thanking the Holy Spirit for you, it is a privilege to remain,

Devotedly your servant in Corde Regis Regum,

Your Excellency,

This morning, I received a letter from you regarding my seminary education bill. Sickness within an immediate member of my family, my mother, necessitated a little extra cash on my part leaving me with a very minimum to work with each month. I sent in a notice to this effect sometime ago but perhaps it was lost through the mail.

However, everything is now fine. Thanks be to God and His Blessed Mother. Now I am most anxious to assume once again this personal obligation.

I am very sorry, Your Excellency, that this matter has caused you an extra burden realizing the many responsibilities that are your's already. Please do accept this check for $100 that you have so graciously advanced towards my account. I am most grateful. Since I feel, this is my personal obligation I will give this matter my immediate attention so as to activate my account once again.

Asking God's Blessing upon you and thanking you once again for the great kindness and consideration that you have always shown me and my people in the past, I remain

P.S. Please also accept the enclosed for $250 for the chapel in the Immaculata dedicated to Our Lady of Guadalupe. This completes our quota of $400 as promised by this parish.

PROFESSIONIS FIDEI ET IURISIURANDI FORMULA

Praescripta in Motu Proprio "Sacrorum Antistitum" Pii PP. X. die 1. mensis Sept., anni 1910.

Ego, N.N., Rudolph Galindo

firma fide credo et profiteor omnia et singula, quae continentur in symbolo Fidei, quo sancta Romana Ecclesia utitur, videlicet: Credo in unum Deum, Patrem omnipotentem, factorem caeli et terrae, visibilium omnium et invisibilium. Et in unum Dominum Iesum Christum, Filium Dei unigenitum. Et ex Patre natum ante omnia saecula. Deum de Deo, lumen de lumine, Deum verum de Deo vero. Genitum, non factum, consubstantialem Patri: per quem omnia facta sunt. Qui propter nos homines et propter nostram salutem descendit de caelis. Et incarnatus est de Spiritu Sancto ex Maria Virgine, et Homo factus est. Crucifixus etiam pro nobis; sub Pontio Pilato passus, et sepultus est. Et resurrexit tertia die, secundum Scripturas. Et ascendit in caelum, sedet ad dexteram Patris. Et iterum venturus est cum gloria iudicare vivos et mortuos; cuius regni non erit finis. Et in Spiritum Sanctum, Dominum, et vivificantem; qui ex Patre Filioque procedit. Qui cum Patre et Filio simul adoratur et conglorificatur, qui locutus est per Prophetas. Et Unam, Sanctam, Catholicam et Apostolicam Ecclesiam. Confiteor unum Baptisma in remissionem peccatorum. Et expecto resurrectionem mortuorum. Et vitam venturi saeculi. Amen. Apostolicas et ecclesiasticas traditiones, reliquasque eiusdem Ecclesiae observationes et constitutiones firmissime admitto et amplector. Item sacram Scripturam iuxta eum sensum, quem tenuit et tenet sancta Mater Ecclesia, cuius est iudicare de vero sensu et interpretatione sacrarum Scripturarum, admitto; nec eam unquam, nisi iuxta unanimum consensum Patrum, accipiam et interpretabor. Profiteor quoque septem esse vere et proprie Sacramenta novae Legis a Iesu Christo Domino nostro instituta, atque ad salutem humani generis, licet non omnia singulis, necessaria, scilicet, Baptismum, Confirmationem, Eucharistiam, Paenitentiam, Extremam Unionem, Ordinem et Matrimonium: illaque gratiam conferre; et ex his Baptismum, Confirmationem et Ordinem sine sacrilegio reiterari non posse. Receptos quoque et approbatos Ecclesiae Catholicae ritus in supradictorum omnium Sacramentorum sollemni administratione recipio et admitto. Omnia et singula, quae de peccato originali et de iustificatione in sacrosancta Tridentina Synodo definita et declarata fuerunt, amplector et recipio. Profiteor pariter in Missa offerri Deo verum, proprium et propitiatorium Sacrificium pro vivis et defunctis; atque in sanctissimo Eucharistiae sacramento esse vere, realiter et substantialiter Corpus et Sanguinem una cum anima et divinitate Domini nostri Iesu Christi, fierique conversionem totius substantiae panis in corpus et totius substantiae vini in Sanguinem, quam conversionem Catholica Ecclesia Transubstantiationem appellat. Fateor etiam sub altera tantum specie totum atque integrum Christum, verumque Sacramentum sumi. Constante teneo Purgatorium esse, animasque ibi detentas fidelium suffragiis iuvari. Similiter et Sanctos una cum Christo regnantes venerandos atque invocandos esse, eosque orationes Deo pro nobis offerre, atque eorum Reliquias esse venerandas. Firmiter assero imagines Christi, ac Deiparae semper Virginis, nec non aliorum Sanctorum habendas et retinendas esse, atque eis debitum honorem ac venerationem impertiendam. Indulgentiarum etiam potestatem a Christo in Ecclesia relictam fuisse, illarumque usum Christiano populo maxime salutarem esse affirmo. Sanctam, Catholicam et Apostolicam Romanam Ecclesiam, omnium ecclesiarum matrem et magistram agnosco, Romanoque Pontifice, beati Petri Apostolorum Principis successori, ac Iesu Christi Vicario veram obedientiam spondeo ac iuro. Caetera item omnia a sacris Canonibus et Oecumenicis Conciliis, ac praecipue a sacrosancta Tridentina Synodo, et ab oecumenico Concilio Vaticano tradita, definita ac declarata, praesertim de Romani Pontificis Primatu et infallibili magisterio, indubitanter recipio atque profiteor; simulque contraria omnia, atque haereses quascumque ab Ecclesia damnatas et reiectas et anathematizatas, ego pariter damno, reiicio, et anathematizo. Hanc veram Catholicam Fidem, extra quam nemo salvus esse potest, quam in praesenti sponte profiteor et veraciter teneo, eandem integram et inviolatam usque ad extremum vitae spiritum constantissime, Deo adiuvante, retinere et confiteri, atque à meis subditis, seu illis, quorum cura ad me in munere meo spectabit, teneri, et doceri et praedicari, quantum in me erit, curaturum, ego idem N. spondeo, voveo ac iuro.

Item firmiter amplector ac recipio omnia et singula, quae ab inerranti Ecclesiae magisterio definita, adserta ac declarata sunt, praesertim ea doctrinae capita, quae huius temporis erroribus directo adversantur. Ac primum quidem Deum, rerum omnium principium et finem, naturali rationis lumine per ea quae facta sunt, hoc est, per visibilia creationis opera, tamquam causam per effectus, certo cognosci, adeoque demonstrari etiam posse, profiteor. Secundo: Externa revelationis argumenta, hoc est, facta divina, in primisque miracula et prophetias admitto et agnosco tamquam signa certissima divinitus oratae Christianae Religionis, eademque teneo aetatum omnium atque hominum, etiam huius temporis, intelligentiae esse maxime accommodata. Tertio: Firma pariter fide credo, Ecclesiam, verbi revelati custodem et magistram, per ipsum verum atque historicum Christum, cum apud nos degeret, proxime ac directo institutam, eandemque super Petrum, apostolicae hierarchiae principem eiusque in aevum successores aedificatam. Quarto: Fidei doctrinam ab Apostolis per orthodoxos Patres eodem sensu eademque semper sententia ad nos usque transmissam, sincere recipio; ideoque prorsus reiicio haereticum commentum evolutionis dogmatum, ab uno in alium sensum transeuntium, diversum ab eo, quem prius habuit Ecclesia; pariterque damno errorem omnem, quo divino deposito, Christi Sponsae tradito ab Eaque fideliter custodiendo, sufficitur philosophicum inventum, vel creatio humanae conscientiae, hominum conatu sensim efformatae et in posterum indefinito progressu perficiendae. Quinto: Certissime teneo ac sincere profiteor, Fidem non esse caecum sensum religionis e latebris subconscientiae erumpentem, sub pressione cordis et inflexionis voluntatis moraliter informatae, sed verum assensum intellectus veritati extrinsecus acceptae ex auditu, quo nempe, quae a Deo personali, creatore ac domino nostro dicta, testata et revelata sunt, vera esse credimus, propter Dei auctoritatem summe veracis.

"I firmly hold and accept each and every definition of the unerring teaching of the Church, with all she has maintained and declared, but especially those points of doctrine which expressly combat the errors of our time. In the first place I profess my belief that God, the beginning and end of all, can be certainly known and therefore proved to exist by the natural light of reason from the things that are made, that is, from the visible works of the creation as a cause from its effects. Next I recognize and acknowledge the external arguments of revelation, that is, divine facts, especially miracles and prophecies, as most certain signs of the divine origin of the Christian religion, and I hold that these are altogether suited to the understanding of every age and of all men, also of our times. Thirdly, I likewise hold with firm faith that the Church, the guardian and exponent of the revealed Word, was proximately and directly founded by the true and historic Christ Himself, while He dwelt amongst us, and that she was also built upon Peter, the Prince of the Apostolic Hierarchy, and upon his successors to the end of time. Fourthly, I sincerely accept the teaching of faith as transmitted down to us from the Apostles through the orthodox Fathers in the same sense and even in the same wording; and, therefore, I wholly reject the heretical notions of the evolution of dogmas, which pass from one sense to another alien to that which the Church held from the start; and I likewise condemn every error whereby is substituted for the divine deposit, entrusted by Christ to His Spouse and by Her to be faithfully guarded, a philosophic system or the creation of a human consciousness, gradually refined by the striving of men and finally to be perfected hereafter by indefinite progress. Fifthly, I hold for certain and sincerely profess that Faith is not a blind religious sense making its way out of the hidden regions of the sub-liminal consciousness, morally tinged by the influence of heart and will, but is a true assent of the intellect to truth received from without by hearing, an assent whereby we believe to be true, because of the authority of the all-true God, whatever by the personal God, our Creator and Lord, has been spoken, testified and revealed.

Me etiam, qua par est, reverentia, subiicio totoque animo adhaereo damnationibus, declarationibus, praescriptis omnibus, quae in Encyclicis litteris "Pascendi" et in Decreto "Lamentabili" continentur, praesertim circa eam quam historiam dogmatum vocant. Idem reprobam errorem affirmantium, propositam ab Ecclesia fidem posse historiae repugnare, et Catholica dogmata, quo sensu nunc intelliguntur, cum verioribus Christianae religionis originibus componi non posse. Damno quoque ac reiicio eorum sententiam, qui dicunt, Christianum hominem eruditorem induere personam duplicem, aliam credentis, aliam historici, quasi liceret historico ea retinere, quae credentis fidei contradicant, aut praemissas adstruere, ex quibus consequatur dogmata esse aut falsa aut dubia, modo haec directo non denegentur. Reprobo pariter eam Scripturae Sanctae diiudicandae atque interpretandae rationem, quae, Ecclesiae traditione, analogia Fidei, et Apostolicae Sedis normis posthabitis, rationalistarum commentis inhaeret, et criticen textus velut unicam supremamque regulam, haud minus licenter quam temere amplectitur. Sententiam praeterea illorum reiicio qui tenent, doctori disciplinae historicae theologicae tradendae, aut iis de rebus scribenti seponendam prius esse opinionem ante conceptam sive de supernaturali origine Catholicae traditionis, sive de promissa divinitus ope ad perennem conservationem uniuscuiusque revelati veri; deinde scripta Patrum singulorum interpretanda solis scientiae principiis, sacra qualibet auctoritate seclusa, eaque iudicii libertate, qua profana quaevis monumenta solent investigari. In universum denique me alienissimum ab errore profiteor, quo modernistae tenent in sacra traditione nihil inesse divini; aut, quod longe deterius, pantheistico sensu illud admittunt; ita ut nihil iam restet nisi nudum factum et simplex, communibus historiae factis aequandum; hominum nempe sua industria, sollertia, ingenio scholam a Christo eiusque Apostolis inchoatam per subsequentes aetates continuantium. Proinde fidem Patrum firmissime retineo et ad extremum vitae spiritum retinebo, de charismate veritatis certo, quod est, fuit eritque semper in episcopatus ab Apostolis successione; non ut id

"I further, with all due reverence, submit and with my whole mind adhere to all the condemnations, declarations, and ordinances contained in the Encyclical letter Pascendi and in the Decree Lamentabili, particularly regarding what is called the history of Dogma.

"I also reject the error of those who aver that the Faith proposed by the Church may be in conflict with history, and that Catholic dogmas in the sense in which they are now understood cannot be harmonized with the more truthful "origins" of Christianity. Moreover, I condemn and reject the opinion which declares that a Christian man of better culture can assume a dual personality, one as a believer and another as an historian, as if it were permissible for the historian to hold fast what his faith as a believer contradicts, or to lay down premises from which there follows the falsity or the uncertainty of dogmas, provided only that these are not directly denied. Likewise I reject that method of estimating and interpreting Holy Writ, which, setting aside the Church's tradition and the analogy of Faith and the rules of the Apostolic See, adopts the rationalists' principles and with equal arbitrariness and rashness considers criticism of the text the one only supreme rule. Furthermore, I reject the opinion of those who hold that a teacher of the science of Historical Theology or the writer on the subject must first put aside the notions previously conceived about the supernatural origin of Catholic tradition or about the divine aid promised for the perpetual preservation of each revealed truth; then, that the writings of individual Fathers must be interpreted solely by the data of science, without any reference to sacred authority, and with that freedom of judgment wherewith every profane record is usually examined.

"Finally and in general, I declare myself to be far removed from the error of the modernists who hold that in sacred tradition there is nothing inherently divine; or who—far worse still—admit it in a pantheistic sense; so that thus there would remain only a bare simple fact equal to the ordinary facts of history, viz., that the school started by Christ and His Apostles finds, in the ages that follow, men to carry it on by their energy, their skill, and their genius. Wherefore most firmly do I retain and to my last breath will I retain the Faith of the Fathers of the Church concerning the sure endowment of truth, which teneatur quod melius et aptius videri possit secundum suam cuiusque aetatis culturam, sed ut nunquam aliter credatur, nunquam aliter intelligatur absoluta et immutabilis veritas ab initio per Apostolos praedicata.

Haec omnia spondeo me fideliter, integre sincereque servaturum et inviolabiliter custoditurum, nusquam ab iis sive in docendo sive quomodolibet verbis scriptisque deflectendo. Sic spondeo, sic iuro, sic me Deus adjuvet, et haec sancta Dei Evangelia.

is, has been, and ever will be in the succession of the Episcopate from the Apostles; not in such a way that what seems best and most fitting according to the refinement of each age may be held, but that the absolute and unchangeable truth preached from the beginning by the Apostles may never in any different wise be believed, never in any different wise be understood.

All this I promise that I will faithfully, entirely and sincerely keep and inviolably guard, and from this never in teaching or howsoever by word or writing in the least depart. So I promise, so I swear, so help me God and these His holy gospels.

PROFESSIONIS FIDEI ET IURISIURANDI FORMULA

Praescripta in Motu Proprio "Sacrorum Antistitum" Pii PP. X. die 1. mensis Sept., anni 1910.

Ego, N.N., Rudolph Galindo

firma fide credo et profiteor omnia et singula, quae continentur in symbolo Fidei, quo sancta Romana Ecclesia utitur, videlicet: Credo in unum Deum, Patrem omnipotentem, factorem caeli et terrae, visibilium omnium et invisibilium. Et in unum Dominum Iesum Christum, Filium Dei unigenitum. Et ex Patre natum ante omnia saecula. Deum de Deo, lumen de lumine, Deum verum de Deo vero. Genitum, non factum, consubstantialem Patri: per quem omnia facta sunt. Qui propter nos homines et propter nostram salutem descendit de caelis. Et incarnatus est de Spiritu Sancto ex Maria Virgine, et Homo factus est. Crucifixus etiam pro nobis; sub Pontio Pilato passus, et sepultus est. Et resurrexit tertia die, secundum Scripturas. Et ascendit in caelum, sedet ad dexteram Patris. Et iterum venturus est cum gloria iudicare vivos et mortuos; cuius regni non erit finis. Et in Spiritum Sanctum, Dominum, et vivificantem; qui ex Patre Filioque procedit. Qui cum Patre et Filio simul adoratur et conglorificatur, qui locutus est per Prophetas. Et Unam, Sanctam, Catholicam et Apostolicam Ecclesiam. Confiteor unum Baptisma in remissionem peccatorum. Et expecto resurrectionem mortuorum. Et vitam venturi saeculi. Amen. Apostolicas et ecclesiasticas traditiones, reliquasque eiusdem Ecclesiae observationes et constitutiones firmissime admitto et amplector. Item sacram Scripturam iuxta eum sensum, quem tenuit et tenet sancta Mater Ecclesia, cuius est iudicare de vero sensu et interpretatione sacrarum Scripturarum, admitto; nec eam unquam, nisi iuxta unanimem consensum Patrum, accipiam et interpretabor. Profiteor quoque septem esse vere et proprie Sacramenta novae Legis a Iesu Christo Domino nostro instituta, atque ad salutem humani generis, licet non omnia singulis, necessaria, scilicet, Baptismum, Confirmationem, Eucharistiam, Paenitentiam, Extremam unctionem, Ordinem et Matrimonium: illaque gratiam conferre; et ex his Baptismum, Confirmationem et Ordinem sine sacrilegio reiterari non posse. Receptos quoque et approbatos Ecclesiae Catholicae ritus in supradictorum omnium Sacramentorum sollemni administratione recipio et admitto. Omnia et singula, quae de peccato originali et de iustificatione in sacrosancta Tridentina Synodo definita et declarata fuerunt, amplector et recipio. Profiteor pariter in Missa offerri Deo verum, proprium et propitiatorium Sacrificium pro vivis et defunctis; atque in sanctissimo Eucharistiae sacramento esse vere, realiter et substantialiter Corpus et Sanguinem una cum anima et divinitate Domini nostri Iesu Christi, fierique conversionem totius substantiae panis in corpus et totius substantiae vini in Sanguinem, quam conversionem Catholica Ecclesia Transubstantiationem appellat. Fateor etiam sub altera tantum specie totum atque integrum Christum, verumque Sacramentum sumi. Constanter teneo Purgatorium esse, animasque ibi detentas fidelium suffragiis iuari. Similiter et Sanctos una cum Christo regnantes venerandos atque invocandos esse, eosque orationes Deo pro nobis offerre, atque eorum Reliquias esse venerandas. Firmiter assero imagines Christi, ac Deiparae semper Virginis, nec non aliorum Sanctorum habendas et retinendas esse, atque eis debitum honorem ac venerationem impertiendam. Indulgentiarum etiam potestatem a Christo in Ecclesia relictam fuisse, illarumque usum Christiano populo maxime salutarem esse affirmo. Sanctam, Catholicam et Apostolicam Romanam Ecclesiam, omnium ecclesiarum matrem et magistram agnosco, Romanoque Pontifice, beati Petri Apostolorum Principis successori, ac Iesu Christi Vicario veram obedientiam spondeo ac iuro. Caetera item omnia a sacris Canonibus et Oecumenicis Conciliis, ac praecipue a sacrosancta Tridentina Synodo, et ab oecumenico Concilio Vaticano tradita, definita ac declarata, praesertim de Romani Pontificis Primatu et infallibili magisterio, indubitanter recipio atque profiteor; simulque contraria omnia, atque haereses quascumque ab Ecclesia damnatas et reiectas et anathematizatas, ego pariter damno, reiicio, et anathematizo. Hanc veram Catholicam Fidem, extra quam nemo salvus esse potest, quam in praesenti sponte profiteor et veraciter teneo, eandem integram et inviolatam usque ad extremum vitae spiritum constantissime, Deo adiuvante, retinere et confiteri, atque a meis subditis, seu illis, quorum cura ad me in munere meo spectabit, teneri, et doceri et praedicari, quantum in me erit, curaturum, ego idem N. spondeo, voveo ac iuro.

Item firmiter amplector ac recipio omnia et singula, quae ab inerranti Ecclesiae magisterio definita, adserta ac declarata sunt, praesertim ea doctrinae capita, quae huius temporis erroribus directo adversantur. Ac primum quidem Deum, rerum omnium principium et finem, naturali rationis lumine per ea quae facta sunt, hoc est, per visibilia creationis opera, tamquam causam per effectus, certo cognosci, adeoque demonstrari etiam posse, profiteor. Secundo: Externa revelationis argumenta, hoc est, facta divina, in primisque miracula et prophetias admitto et agnosco tamquam signa certissima divinitus ortae Christianae Religionis, eademque teneo aetatum omnium atque hominum, etiam huius temporis, intelligentiae esse maxime accommodata. Tertio: Firma pariter fide credo, Ecclesiam, verbi revelati custodem et magistram, per ipsum verum atque historicum Christum, cum apud nos degeret, proxime ac directo institutam, eandemque super Petrum, apostolicae hierarchiae principem eiusque in aevum successores aedificatam. Quarto: Fidei doctrinam ab Apostolis per orthodoxos Patres eodem sensu eademque semper sententia ad nos usque transmissam, sincere recipio; ideoque prorsus reiicio haereticum commentum evolutionis dogmatum, ab uno in alium sensum transeuntium, diversum ab eo, quem prius habuit Ecclesia; pariterque damno errorem omnem, quo divino deposito, Christi Sponsae tradito ab Eaque fideliter custodiendo, sufficitur philosophicum inventum, vel creatio humanae conscientiae, hominum conatu sensim efformatae et in posterum indefinito progressu perficiendae. Quinto: Certissime teneo ac sincere profiteor, Fidem non esse caecum sensum religionis e latebris subconscientiae erumpentem, sub pressione cordis et inflexionis voluntatis moraliter informatae, sed verum assensum intellectus veritati extrinsecus acceptae ex auditu, quo nempe, quae a Deo personali, creatore ac domino nostro dicta, testata et revelata sunt, vera esse credimus, propter Dei auctoritatem summe veracis.

"I . . . firmly hold and accept each and every definition of the unerring teaching of the Church, with all she has maintained and declared, but especially those points of doctrine which expressly combat the errors of our time. In the first place I profess my belief that God, the beginning and end of all, can be certainly known and therefore proved to exist by the natural light of reason from the things that are made, that is, from the visible works of the creation as a cause from its effects. Next I recognize and acknowledge the external arguments of revelation, that is, divine facts, especially miracles and prophecies, as most certain signs of the divine origin of the Christian religion, and I hold that these are altogether suited to the understanding of every age and of all men, also of our times. Thirdly, I likewise hold with firm faith that the Church, the guardian and exponent of the revealed Word, was proximately and directly founded by the true and historic Christ Himself, while He dwelt amongst us, and that she was also built upon Peter, the Prince of the Apostolic Hierarchy, and upon his successors to the end of time. Dear Rudy:

Thank you for your timely response to my letter of May 12, 2003. I had a very good celebration of Lent and Holy Week, which has continued in the Easter season.

I appreciate your kind words of gratitude, and I will be sure to convey them to Bishop Brom.

I am grateful for the detail you provided about medical expenses that you have incurred in recent months. I also appreciate what you shared about the provisions you made in your trust fund many years ago. And I am happy to know that you are committed to contributing $1,800 a month toward the cost of your room & board at REDACTED beginning in June of 2003.

Please know you continue to be in my prayers. Thank you for your prayers for me, Bishop Brom, and the priests and people of the Diocese of San Diego.

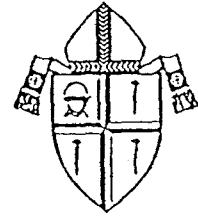

Sincerely yours in Christ,

2. INSTALLMENT PURCHASE: If said Securities and funeral services and commodities are being purchased on an installment basis in accordance with the provisions of Exhibit A, Debenture Accumulation Plan, it is understood that funds will be held by the Trustee, without interest, on account for the purchase of said Securities, funeral services and commodities. Securities shall be purchased by the Trustee in the name of the Trustor for the benefit of beneficiary at the rate of one (1) $50 debenture for each installment or number of installments aggregating the sum of $50 until the entire purchase price is represented by debentures. Upon the proof of death of the Trustor, the installments held in trust, if any, shall be credited to the purchase of services from Mortuary for the beneficiary of this trust for the amount of the installments paid and arrangements to pay any balance shall be made with Trustee. In the event the beneficiary fails either to pay an installment when due or to complete an installment purchase within the time required, Trustee may terminate this trust and a cancellation fee amounting to 10% of the total installments then paid, but not exceeding $25 shall be charged by Trustee. In the event no services are rendered by Mortuary, all right, title and interest of Trustee in the trust estate shall revert to the Trustor or the beneficiary or the legally appointed representative of either, without the necessity of any action on the part of the Trustee.

3. MORTUARY TO CONDUCT SERVICE: Upon the death of the beneficiary designated to receive the benefit of said

services, Mortuary is hereby designated the funeral director to take possession of the remains for the purpose of preparing the same and conducting and handling said services, and Trustee is hereby instructed and empowered to authorize and direct any hospital, public officer or other person who may have possession of such remains, to release the same to Mortuary, upon the filing of a certified copy of the death certificate or other satisfactory evidence of the death of the beneficiary. Upon the signature of two of the Trustees, Trustee shall thereafter proceed with the arrangements and purchase of said services and upon receiving satisfactory evidence that Mortuary has furnished the services provided for in this Trust, shall use the trust estate to pay therefor.

4. TRUST ESTATE TO BE USED FOR SERVICES: Trustee shall use for the purchase of the services all or such part of said trust estate as shall be necessary to pay the complete purchase price thereof. In the event Trustor has selected the services, as evidenced by a copy of the "Pre-Need Agreement for Funeral Services" attached hereto and marked Exhibit A, and II, at the time of furnishing such services listed on said Exhibit A, the price at which the same are being offered for sale to the general public by said Mortuary, or its successor in interest, shall exceed the total of the trust estate, then Trustee shall purchase and pay for such services as Mortuary, or its successor in interest, shall represent in writing to Trustee as being the services then available which are most nearly like that designated by Trustor at a price which does not exceed the total of the trust estate. The written statement of Mortuary, or its successor in interest, certifying that it has sold to Trustee and furnished the services which were selected as herein provided, or which were as nearly similar in kind and price as those designated in the "Pre-Need Agreement for Funeral Services" attached hereto, or which were necessary to the proper disposal of the remains of the beneficiary, together with a copy of the death certificate certified by the public officer having custody of the original, evidencing the fact of the death of the beneficiary, and a receipt showing full payment of that portion of the purchase price of the services for which Trustee is chargeable shall be a complete release and discharge to Trustee under the terms of this paragraph and shall be the only requisite evidence that Trustee has fully carried out and performed the terms of this trust. Trustee shall not be liable for any act or omission of Mortuary in the rendering of its services.

5. DISCHARGE OF TRUSTEE: It is understood that this trust is created for the purpose of providing for the beneficiary a funeral service, insofar as possible, in accordance with Trustor's wishes as herein expressed. Trustee shall be fully discharged upon using the trust estate for the procurement of the services designated by Trustee or in the event the designated services are unavailable, other services necessary in its discretion for the proper disposal of the remains of the beneficiary. In the event the designated services may not be obtained, it is further understood that it is Trustor's desire and direction that the services herein provided for be furnished by Mortuary and that the directions contained herein are mandatory and are to be carried out by Trustee in accordance with the terms hereof insofar as possible. The delivery of the principal of the Trust, together with any income accrued in the Trust, pursuant to the terms of this Trust, shall relieve the Trustee of any further liability with regard to such funds or income therefrom.

6. DISTRIBUTION OF BALANCE OF TRUST ESTATE:

If this trust be revoked as hereinafter provided, or if upon the death of the beneficiary, or if for any reason a balance remains in the trust estate after paying Mortuary for any services purchased from it, the Trustee shall distribute the balance of the trust estate in San Diego Cemetery Association securities, or in cash, to Trustor, if living, or, if Trustor be not then living, then to the executors or administrators of his estate, or, if there be no administration of his estate, then to the person or persons legally entitled to succeed to Trustor's estate, under the laws of succession of the State of California, or, if no such persons can be found, then to the beneficiary herein to receive the benefit of such services, or the persons entitled to succeed to his estate, or, in the discretion of Trustee, to any other persons appearing to Trustee to be equitably entitled to the same by reason of having incurred expense, or rendered service on behalf of Trustor or any other person designated to receive the benefit of such services. A receipt signed by any one of the above-named persons or of other proof of such payment or delivery shall be conclusive evidence that any balance of income or principal under this Trust has been delivered to Trustor or any one entitled to the benefit of said services.

7. TRUST TERMINATION: This trust shall terminate upon the discharge of Trustee as herein provided, but shall in no event continue longer than the life of the beneficiary hereof or a period not to exceed twenty-one (21) years from the time of the creation of this trust.

8. INCOME TO TRUSTEE: During the continuance of this trust, Trustee shall collect any income derived from the trust estate, and remit the same to Trustor unless other directions have been given by him. Should this trust continue after the death of Trustor, any income payable to Trustor shall thereafter be remitted to the beneficiary hereof unless other directions shall have been given by Trustor. Any remittance of income shall be made by check deposited in ordinary mail, addressed to the person entitled thereto, as herein provided, at the address given below or such other address as shall have been given Trustee in writing, and Trustee shall not be responsible for loss of any mail so directed.

9. ADDITIONS TO TRUST ESTATE: Trustor reserves to himself, his heirs, and other interested persons, the right at any time and from time to time to increase the trust estate by depositing additional cash and/or San Diego Cemetery Association securities which by their terms or by contract will be accepted by San Diego Cemetery Association, or its successor in interest.

10. AMENDMENT AND REVOCATION: Trustor shall have the right at any time prior to the time Mortuary or its successor in interest has furnished the services provided for herein to amend or revoke this trust upon written notice to the Trustee of such amendment or revocation. No amendment shall be effective which shall in any manner change the purpose of this trust, which is hereby expressed to be the purchase of services from Mortuary, or its successor in interest, for the beneficiary hereof.

11. TRUSTEE'S DUTIES: Trustee may act in the acceptance of this trust or in any other manner hereunder upon the written concurrence evidenced by the signatures of any two of the five persons named as Trustees, or their successors. Any vacancy occurring in the office of Trustee may be filled by the appointment of a new Trustee by the remaining Trustee or Trustees. Any person named as Trustee, or his successor, may resign by mailing a thirty (30) day notice of such resignation to each of the remaining Trustees at his last known mailing address, and a copy thereof addressed to San Diego Cemetery Association, 2760 Fifth Avenue, San Diego, California. Trustee may, in its discretion, defend any legal action which may be brought with reference to the trust estate, and for such purpose shall be entitled to reimbursemen from the trust estate for any counsel fees, costs or expense in connection with such litigation, but Trustee shall not be required to defend any such action and shall not be liable to any person for damages for failure to so defend. Trustee may resign and be discharged from this trust upon five (5) days notice in writing to Trustor and upon delivery to Trustor of the trust estate and any undistributed income. Trustor acknowledges that any one of the persons named as Trustee or his successor is now or may hereafter be an officer, director or employee of some corporation or organization which may be financially or otherwise interested in San Diego Cemetery Association.

12. TRUSTEE'S FEES AND ADMINISTRATIVE COSTS Trustee waives any right to Trustee's fees or administrative costs under this trust.

13. INVESTMENT: In case any or all of the securities deposited in this trust shall be called for payment or shall mature and be paid prior to the execution of this trust, the proceeds shall remain in the hands of Trustee in the form of cash and shall continue to be subject to the terms hereof provided that Trustee may, in the event said securities shall be called for refunding, accept in exchange for the account of the trust estate a like amount in par value, at a price not exceeding par and accrued interest, of any other San Diego Cemetery Association securities whether secured or unsecured or bearing the same or a different rate of interest. Trustee may, in its sole discretion and without any personal liability invest or reinvest any cash in the trust estate in San Diego Cemetery Association securities or may deposit the same in a savings account in any national bank in the United States at the prevailing rate of interest. Except as herein provided Trustee shall not sell or invest any asset of the trust estate but shall at all times maintain the same as a trust deposit.

14. ADDITIONAL SERVICES IF DESIRED: Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent any person legally entitled to control the disposition of the remains of the beneficiary hereof receiving the benefit of such services from contracting for or paying the purchase price of additional items, or the difference in price of higher priced items of the said services, or providing additional funds in the event the trust estate is not sufficient to pay for the items listed on an letter of designation attached hereto or which may be selected in connection with said services.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the persons named as Trustee have executed this instrument by causing to be affixed hereto the signatures of at least two of said persons this _____ day of SEPTEMBER, 1971.

[Handwritten signatures]

I, REV. MSGR. RUDOLPH GALINDO hereby certify that I am the person named as Trustor in the foregoing Declaration of Trust; that said Declaration of Trust correctly states the terms and conditions upon which said property was conveyed and is to be held and disposed of by Trustee, and I hereby consent to, approve, ratify and confirm the same in all particulars.

2. PAYMENTS: The purchaser agrees to pay the total purchase price set forth in page 3 of $ 769.38 by purchase of debentures in San Diego Cemetery Association, in the principal amount of $ 800.00 and the balance of $ at need.

A. CASH PURCHASE: $ in cash here-with, together with the attached subscription agreement for San Diego Cemetery Association 5 1/4 % debentures (herein called "Debentures") in a principal amount equal to said subscription.

B. DEBENTURE ACCUMULATION PLAN: Down pay-ment of $ 87.90 and the principal balance of $ 713.40 in 59 equal monthly installments of $ 11.85 10 12.25(xw)

B. OTHER: Payments to begin - Oct. 12/1971

Debentures shall be purchased by Trustee in the name of Purchaser for his benefit at the rate of one (1) $50 Debenture for each installment or number of installments aggregating the sum of $50 until the entire purchase price is represented by debentures. Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the San Diego Cemetery Association 5 1/4 % debentures, offering circular.

Installments shall be paid to Trustee at its address below or at such other place as Trustee may designate in writing from time to time. If the Purchaser, or the member of his family designated by him, shall die before the Purchaser has paid the entire purchase price, any unpaid balance thereupon shall become due, and arrangements to pay said balance shall be made with the Trustee. If the Purchaser shall fail to pay any installment of money within thirty (30) days after the same becomes due and payable under the provisions hereof, Trustee then or at any time thereafter may terminate this agreement by mailing notice of its election to the Purchaser at the address shown for him on its records and thereupon refunding all monies paid or debentures purchased, less the Cancellation Fee agreed to be paid by the Purchaser under this paragraph.

In the event Purchaser fails to complete an installment purchase within the time required hereunder and Trustee elects to terminate this agreement, a Cancellation Fee amounting to 10% of the total installments then paid by Purchaser, but not exceeding $25 shall be paid by Purchaser or shall be deducted from the Trust Estate by Trustee.

3. TRUST: All funds paid by the Purchaser hereunder or all Debentures purchased hereunder for Purchaser shall be deposited in a Trust, of which this agreement is a part. All funds deposited in trust in connection with any installment purchase of Debentures, which funds are held in trust on account for purchase shall be non-interest bearing funds. Said funds or Debentures shall be held in trust by Trustee until the articles and services described above have been provided or the trust is sooner terminated.

4. CONTINGENCIES: If governmental enactment or regulation, or other cause beyond the control of Trustee shall prevent or delay Trustee or the cooperating mortuary from furnishing any such article, service or facility Trustee may make reasonable substitutions and shall not be liable for inconvenience, loss, damage or delay sustained in consequence thereof by the Purchaser or his family. In the event Purchaser should require a funeral outside the service area of Trustee and its cooperating mortuary is unable to perform the services described in paragraph 1, and if, within twenty-four (24) hours after notice of the death of the Purchaser, Trustee has not made arrangements with another mortuary to perform like services, the heirs or personal representatives of the Purchaser shall be entitled to a refund of any sums of Debentures held in trust and upon refund of said sums of Debentures, all parties shall be relieved of further liabilities, duties and obligations hereunder.

5. WITHDRAWALS: The Purchaser may request delivery of all then debentures purchased and withdrawal of all funds remaining in trust under the Debenture Accumulation Plan. In the event of such request, this agreement shall thereupon terminate.

6. COOPERATING MORTUARY: The mortuary designated below hereby agrees and is hereby authorized to perform the services and deliver the merchandise hereinafter described and guarantees to do so by affixing its signature below. From time to time, other mortuaries may be authorized by the Trustee and the Purchaser or his family shall have the option of selecting at the time of need an authorized mortuary.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Trustee and the Purchaser and cooperating mortuary have executed this agreement this 1 day of SEPTEMBER, 1971

SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT

I hereby subscribe for $ 1,000.00 of San Diego Cemetery Association 5 1/4 % Debentures, Series "D", due December 1, 1990, and agree to pay therefor the sum of $ 100.00 cash.

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the San Diego Cemetery Association 5 1/4 % Debentures, Series D, offering circular.

I further represent that I am a bona fide resident of the State of California residing at the address below.

In the event the current Series D has been fully sold or subscribed, I agree to accept a later Series, to be designated as Series E, which is to be identical to the present Series D except as to maturity date.

ASSIGNMENT OF DEBENTURES

I hereby deliver the 20 year 5 1/4 % Series D and/or E Debentures of San Diego Cemetery Association issued in my name pursuant to written instructions which are a part of the Declaration of Trust.

I hereby sell, assign and transfer said debentures unto F. Sharp, R. C. Waranch, L. E. Guerrero, and W. W. Williams as Trustees under the Declaration of Trust with the undersigned, and hereby irrevocably constitute and appoint said persons my attorney to transfer said debentures on the registry books kept for that purpose, with full power of substitution in the premises. My attorneys shall hold my debentures until the above mentioned services shall have been conducted, whereupon my debentures may be surrendered and the principal amount thereof plus accrued interest thereon (if any) applied to payment for said services, or my debentures may be sold and the proceeds applied to such payment. If any balance remains, it shall be paid to my estate.

I hereby agree that my signature affixed hereto below shall acknowledge execution both as to Subscription Agreement and Assignment of Debentures.

Declaration of Trust

TRUST NO. 71-09-058

F. Sharp, R. C. Waranch, L. E. Guerrero, W. W. Williams, Trustees, herein collectively called the "Trustee," do hereby declare that REV. M. SGR. RUDOLPH GALINDO herein called the "Trustor," has conveyed and transferred to Trustee, without consideration, all of the right, title and interest of Trustor in and to the SAN DIEGO CEMETERY ASSOCIATION 5% Debentures, herein called "Securities," in series and denominations and bearing the serial numbers, as are now or shall be on record in the name of Trustor on the register of debenture holders at the offices of Title Insurance and Trust Company, 433 South Spring Street, Los Angeles, California in the aggregate principal amount of $ 1,000.00

Said securities so conveyed, together with all cash or other property which may now or hereafter become subject to this trust, including any undistributed income, shall constitute and be designated as the "trust estate" and will be held by Trustee in trust as follows:

1. PURPOSE: This trust and the trust estate have been created by Trustor for the purpose of furnishing a funeral service fund to provide for the cost of funeral and other services and commodities (herein called "Services") to be furnished by LEWIS COLONIAL MORTUARY

(herein called "Mortuary"), for REV. M. SGR. RUDOLPH GALINDO
Name of Beneficiary

(herein called "beneficiary") at the time of death and shall be effective immediately (the Trustor may be the beneficiary). Trustor shall, on the "Pre-Need Agreement for Funeral Services" included herein as Exhibit A, select the services and incidents he desires furnished upon the death of the beneficiary.

2. INSTALLMENT PURCHASE: If said Securities and funeral services and commodities are being purchased on an installment basis in accordance with the provisions of Exhibit A, Debenture Accumulation Plan, it is understood that funds will be held by the Trustee, without interest, on account for the purchase of said Securities, funeral services and commodities. Securities shall be purchased by the Trustee in the name of the Trustor for the benefit of beneficiary at the rate of one (1) $50 debenture for each installment or number of installments aggregating the sum of $50 until the entire purchase price is represented by debentures. Upon the proof of death of the Trustor, the installments held in trust, if any, shall be credited to the purchase of services from Mortuary for the beneficiary of this trust for the amount of the installments paid and arrangements to pay any balance shall be made with Trustee. In the event the beneficiary fails either to pay an installment when due or to complete an installment purchase within the time required, Trustee may terminate this trust and a cancellation fee amounting to 10% of the total installments then paid, but not exceeding $25 shall be charged by Trustee. In the event no services are rendered by Mortuary, all right, title and interest of Trustee in the trust estate shall revert to the Trustor or the beneficiary or the legally appointed representative of either, without the necessity of any action on the part of the Trustee.

3. MORTUARY TO CONDUCT SERVICE: Upon the death of the beneficiary designated to receive the benefit of said

services, Mortuary is hereby designated the funeral director to take possession of the remains for the purpose of preparing the same and conducting and handling said services, and Trustee is hereby instructed and empowered to authorize and direct any hospital, public officer or other person who may have possession of such remains, to release the same to Mortuary, upon the filing of a certified copy of the death certificate or other satisfactory evidence of the death of the beneficiary. Upon the signature of two of the Trustees, Trustee shall thereafter proceed with the arrangements and purchase of said services and upon receiving satisfactory evidence that Mortuary has furnished the services provided for in this Trust, shall use the trust estate to pay therefor.

4. TRUST ESTATE TO BE USED FOR SERVICES: Trustee shall use for the purchase of the services all or such part of said trust estate as shall be necessary to pay the complete purchase price thereof. In the event Trustor has selected the services, as evidenced by a copy of the "Pre-Need Agreement for Funeral Services" attached hereto and marked Exhibit A, and if, at the time of furnishing such services listed on said Exhibit A, the price at which the same are being offered for sale to the general public by said Mortuary, or its successor in interest, shall exceed the total of the trust estate, then Trustee shall purchase and pay for such services as Mortuary, or its successor in interest, shall represent in writing to Trustee as being the services then available which are most nearly like that designated by Trustor at a price which does not exceed the total of the trust estate. The written statement of Mortuary, or its successor in interest, certifying that it has sold to Trustee and furnished the services which were selected as herein provided, or which were as nearly similar in kind and price as those designated in the "Pre-Need Agreement for Funeral Services" attached hereto, or which were necessary to the proper disposal of the remains of the beneficiary, together with a copy of the death certificate certified by the public officer having custody of the original, evidencing the fact of the death of the beneficiary, and a receipt showing full payment of that portion of the purchase price of the services for which Trustee is chargeable shall be a complete release and discharge to Trustee under the terms of this paragraph and shall be the only requisite evidence that Trustee has fully carried out and performed the terms of this trust. Trustee shall not be liable for any act or omission of Mortuary in the rendering of its services.

5. DISCHARGE OF TRUSTEE: It is understood that this trust is created for the purpose of providing for the beneficiary a funeral service, insofar as possible, in accordance with Trustor's wishes as herein expressed. Trustee shall be fully discharged upon using the trust estate for the procurement of the services designated by Trustee or in the event the designated services are unavailable, other services necessary in its discretion for the proper disposal of the remains of the beneficiary. In the event the designated services may not be obtained, it is further understood that it is Trustor's desire and direction that the services herein provided for be furnished by Mortuary and that the directions contained herein are mandatory and are to be carried out by Trustee in accordance with the terms hereof insofar as possible. The delivery of the principal of the Trust, together with any income accrued in the Trust, pursuant to the terms of this Trust, shall relieve the Trustee of any further liability with regard to such funds or income therefrom.

6. DISTRIBUTION OF BALANCE OF TRUST ESTATE:

If this trust be revoked as hereinafter provided, or if upon the death of the beneficiary, or if for any reason a balance remains in the trust estate after paying Mortuary for any services purchased from it, the Trustee shall distribute the balance of the trust estate in San Diego Cemetery Association securities, or in cash, to Trustor, if living, or, if Trustor be not then living, then to the executors or administrators of his estate, or, if there be no administration of his estate, then to the person or persons legally entitled to succeed to Trustor's estate, under the laws of succession of the State of California, or, if no such persons can be found, then to the beneficiary herein to receive the benefit of such services, or the persons entitled to succeed to his estate, or, in the discretion of Trustee, to any other persons appearing to Trustee to be equitably entitled to the same by reason of having incurred expense, or rendered service on behalf of Trustor or any other person designated to receive the benefit of such services. A receipt signed by any one of the above-named persons or of other proof of such payment or delivery shall be conclusive evidence that any balance of income or principal under this Trust has been delivered to Trustor or any one entitled to the benefit of said services.

7. TRUST TERMINATION: This trust shall terminate upon the discharge of Trustee as herein provided, but shall in no event continue longer than the life of the beneficiary hereof or a period not to exceed twenty-one (21) years from the time of the creation of this trust.

8. INCOME TO TRUSTEE: During the continuance of this trust, Trustee shall collect any income derived from the trust estate, and remit the same to Trustor unless other directions have been given by him. Should this trust continue after the death of Trustor, any income payable to Trustor shall thereafter be remitted to the beneficiary hereof unless other directions shall have been given by Trustor. Any remittance of income shall be made by check deposited in ordinary mail, addressed to the person entitled thereto, as herein provided, at the address given below or such other address as shall have been given Trustee in writing, and Trustee shall not be responsible for loss of any mail so directed.

9. ADDITIONS TO TRUST ESTATE: Trustor reserves to himself, his heirs, and other interested persons, the right at any time and from time to time to increase the trust estate by depositing additional cash and/or San Diego Cemetery Association securities which by their terms or by contract will be accepted by San Diego Cemetery Association, or its successor in interest.

10. AMENDMENT AND REVOCATION: Trustor shall have the right at any time prior to the time Mortuary or its successor in interest has furnished the services provided for herein to amend or revoke this trust upon written notice to the Trustee of such amendment or revocation. No amendment shall be effective which shall in any manner change the purpose of this trust, which is hereby expressed to be the purchase of services from Mortuary, or its successor in interest, for the beneficiary hereof.

11. TRUSTEE'S DUTIES: Trustee may act in the acceptance of this trust or in any other manner hereunder upon the written concurrence evidenced by the signatures of any two of the five persons named as Trustees, or their successors. Any vacancy occurring in the office of Trustee may be filled by the appointment of a new Trustee by the remaining Trustee or Trustees. Any person named as Trustee, or his successor, may resign by mailing a thirty (30) day notice of such resignation to each of the remaining Trustees at his last known mailing address, and a copy thereof addressed to San Diego Cemetery Association, 2760 Fifth Avenue, San Diego, California. Trustee may, in its discretion, defend any legal action which may be brought with reference to the trust estate, and for such purpose shall be entitled to reimbursement from the trust estate for any counsel fees, costs or expense in connection with such litigation, but Trustee shall not be required to defend any such action and shall not be liable to any person for damages for failure to so defend. Trustee may resign and be discharged from this trust upon five (5) day notice in writing to Trustor and upon delivery to Trustor of the trust estate and any undistributed income. Trustor acknowledges that any one of the persons named as Trustee or his successor is now or may hereafter be an officer, director or employee of some corporation or organization which may be financially or otherwise interested in San Diego Cemetery Association.

12. TRUSTEE'S FEES AND ADMINISTRATIVE COSTS: Trustee waives any right to Trustee's fees or administrative costs under this trust.

13. INVESTMENT: In case any or all of the securities deposited in this trust shall be called for payment or shall mature and be paid prior to the execution of this trust, the proceeds shall remain in the hands of Trustee in the form of cash and shall continue to be subject to the terms hereof, provided that Trustee may, in the event said securities shall be called for refunding, accept in exchange for the account of the trust estate a like amount in par value, at a price not exceeding par and accrued interest, of any other San Diego Cemetery Association securities whether secured or unsecured or bearing the same or a different rate of interest. Trustee may, in its sole discretion and without any personal liability, invest or reinvest any cash in the trust estate in San Diego Cemetery Association securities or may deposit the same in a savings account in any national bank in the United States at the prevailing rate of interest. Except as herein provided, Trustee shall not sell or invest any asset of the trust estate but shall at all times maintain the same as a trust deposit.

14. ADDITIONAL SERVICES IF DESIRED: Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent any person legally entitled to control the disposition of the remains of the beneficiary hereof receiving the benefit of such services from contracting for or paying the purchase price of additional items, or the difference in price of higher priced items of said services, or providing additional funds in the event the trust estate is not sufficient to pay for the items listed on a letter of designation attached hereto or which may be selected in connection with said services.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the persons named as Trustee have executed this instrument by causing to be affixed hereto the signatures of at least two of said persons this _____ day of _____, 19__.

[Handwritten signatures]

I, REV. M. SGR. RUDOLPH GALINDO hereby certify that I am the person named as Trustor in the foregoing Declaration of Trust; that said Declaration of Trust correctly states the terms and conditions upon which said property was conveyed and is to be held and disposed of by Trustee, and I hereby consent to, approve, ratify and confirm the same in all particulars.

Dated at SAN DIEGO, California this _____ day of SEPTEMBER, 19__.

TOTAL PURCHASE $1,012.15

TOTAL PURCHASE $ 1,012.15 SUBSCRIPTION $ 1,000.00 AT NEED $ 12.1

2. PAYMENTS: The purchaser agrees to pay the total purchase price set forth in page 3 of $ 1,000.00 by purchase of debentures in San Diego Cemetery Association, in the principal amount of $ 1,000.00 and the balance of $ 12.15 at need.

A. CASH PURCHASE: $ _____ in cash here-with, together with the attached subscription agreement for San Diego Cemetery Association 5 1/2 % debentures (herein called "Debentures") in a principal amount equal to said subscription.

B. DEBENTURE ACCUMULATION PLAN: Down pay-ment of $ 100.00 and the principal balance of $ 900.00 in 60 equal monthly installments of $ 15.00

B. OTHER: Payment to begin - Oct. 1971

Debentures shall be purchased by Trustee in the name of Purchaser for his benefit at the rate of one (1) $50 Debenture for each installment or number of installments aggregating the sum of $50 until the entire purchase price is represented by debentures. Receipt is hereby ac-knowledged of the San Diego Cemetery Association 5 1/2 % debentures, offering circular.

Installments shall be paid to Trustee at its address below or at such other place as Trustee may designate in writing from time to time. If the Purchaser, or the mem-ber of his family designated by him, shall die before the Purchaser has paid the entire purchase price, any unpaid balance thereupon shall become due, and arrangements to pay said balance shall be made with the Trustee. If the Purchaser shall fail to pay any installment of money within thirty (30) days after the same becomes due and payable under the provisions hereof, Trustee then or at any time thereafter may terminate this agreement by mailing notice of its election to the Purchaser at the address shown for him on its records and thereupon re-funding all monies paid or debentures purchased, less the Cancellation Fee agreed to be paid by the Purchaser under this paragraph.

In the event Purchaser fails to complete an installment purchase within the time required hereunder and Trustee elects to terminate this agreement, a Cancellation Fee amounting to 10% of the total installments then paid by Purchaser, but not exceeding $25 shall be paid by Pur-chaser or shall be deducted from the Trust Estate by Trustee.

3. TRUST: All funds paid by the Purchaser hereunder; or all Debentures purchased hereunder for Purchaser shall be deposited in a Trust, of which this agreement is a part. All funds deposited in trust in connection with any in stallment purchase of Debentures, which funds are held in trust on account for purchase shall be non-interest bearing funds. Said funds or Debentures shall be held in trust by Trustee until the articles and services described above have been provided or the trust is sooner terminated

4. CONTINGENCIES: If governmental enactment or regulation, or other cause beyond the control of Trustee shall prevent or delay Trustee or the cooperating mortu-ary from furnishing any such article, service or facility Trustee may make reasonable substitutions and shall not be liable for inconvenience, loss, damage or delay sus-tained in consequence thereof by the Purchaser or his family. In the event Purchaser should require a funera'l outside the service area of Trustee and its cooperating mortuary is unable to perform the services described in paragraph 1, and if, within twenty-four (24) hours after notice of the death of the Purchaser, Trustee has not made arrangements with another mortuary to perform like services, the heirs or personal representatives of the Purchaser shall be entitled to a refund of any sums or Debentures held in trust and upon refund of said sums or Debentures, all parties shall be relieved of further liabili-ties, duties and obligations hereunder.

5. WITHDRAWALS: The Purchaser may request de-livery of all then debentures purchased and withdrawa of all funds remaining in trust under the Debenture Ac-cumulation Plan. In the event of such request, this agree-ment shall thereupon terminate.

6. COOPERATING MORTUARY: The mortuary desig-nated below hereby agrees and is hereby authorized to perform the services and deliver the merchandise herei- described and guarantees to do so by affixing its signatur- below. From time to time, other mortuaries may be s- authorized by the Trustee and the Purchaser or his famil- shall have the option of selecting at the time of need an- authorized mortuary.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Trustee and the Purchase and cooperating mortuary have executed this agreement this 1 day of SEPTEMBER, 1971

ANY VALUES NOT SHOWN IN THE ABOVE TABLE WILL BE FURNISHED UPON REQUEST.

DEATH BENEFIT

Payment of Proceeds

Upon receipt of proof of the Insured's death while this Contract is in force, the proceeds will be paid to the beneficiary. The proceeds will be paid in one sum or as agreed to by you and the Order. Proceeds payable to the beneficiary in one sum may, at the election of the beneficiary, be paid under any settlement option offered by the Order at the time of the Insured's death.

Proceeds

Unless the Contract is continued under a nonforfeiture option, the proceeds payable at the death of the Insured will be the sum of:

1. the Contract Amount;
2. any dividends and interest thereon deposited with us as of the date of the Insured's death;
3. a fractional part of the dividend that would have been payable on the Annual Contract Date following the Insured's death. The fraction will equal the number of completed months from the last Annual Contract Date divided by twelve;
4. any premium paid beyond the month in which the Insured dies; and
5. any insurance provided under dividend additions; less:
 1. any unpaid premium for the month in which the Insured dies; and
 2. the unpaid balance of any loan and loan interest.

Claims of Creditors

To the extent permitted by law, the proceeds will not be subject to claims of creditors.

DIVIDENDS

Dividends

This is a participating Contract. This means that dividends will be paid annually on this Contract from our surplus funds on an equitable basis as determined by our Board of Directors. No dividends should be expected before the second Annual Contract Date. You may choose to use dividends under any of these options:

1. paid in cash;
2. applied toward premium payments;
3. deposited with us to accumulate at interest. The rate of interest will be set by us from time to time, but at not less than 2% per year; or
4. used to buy dividend additions. These are paid-up additional amounts of insurance.

If on the dividend date you have not chosen one of these options, option 4 will apply.

Dividends deposited with us, plus interest thereon and the cash value of dividend additions may be withdrawn at any time, unless required as security for any loan.

GUARANTEED VALUES

Cash Value

The guaranteed cash values of this Contract are shown in the Table of Values on Page 3A. The guaranteed cash values shown are as of the end of the Contract Year when all premium payments due have been made and when there are no loans. Guaranteed cash values during the Contract Year are determined by allowing for time elapsed and premium payments made during that Year.

The net cash value of this Contract is determined by adding the guaranteed cash value, any dividend deposits and the cash value of any dividend additions and subtracting the unpaid amount of any loans.

Cash Surrender

You may discontinue premium payments and surrender this Contract for its net cash value. This may be done upon your written request anytime prior to the 60th day after the first unpaid premium. We may defer this payment of net cash value for up to six months.

Nonforfeiture Options

If this Contract has net cash value, you may discontinue premium payments and elect one of the nonforfeiture options described below:

1. Paid-Up Insurance — You may continue this Contract in force as Paid-Up Insurance which takes effect as of the due date of the first unpaid premium. The amount of Paid-Up Insurance will depend on the net cash value. If the net cash value equals the guaranteed cash value, the amount of Paid-Up Insurance will be that shown in the Table of Values. Paid-Up Insurance is participating and has its own net cash value which may be obtained at any time by surrendering this Contract. If the Contract is surrendered within 31 days after any Annual Contract Date, the cash value will not be less than that on such Date. At the Insured's death, the Paid-Up Insurance will be adjusted for loans and dividends placed under options 3 and 4.
2. Extended Term Insurance — You may continue this Contract in force as nonparticipating Extended Term Insurance. The amount of this Extended Term Insurance will be the Contract Amount less the unpaid amount of any loan. The limited time during which the Contract continues in force will begin at the date the first unpaid premium was due. The duration of this Extended Term Insurance depends on the net cash value. If the net cash value equals the guaranteed cash value, the duration will be that shown in the Table of Values. Extended Term Insurance has its own guaranteed cash value which may be obtained at any time by surrendering the Contract. If the Contract is surrendered within 31 days after any Annual Contract Date, the cash value will not be less than that on such Date.

Your written election of a nonforfeiture option may be made anytime prior to the 60th day after the first unpaid premium. If you do not choose an option prior to this day, then the Extended Term Insurance option automatically takes effect as of the due date of the first unpaid premium.

Computation of Values

Cash values are computed under the Standard Nonforfeiture Value Method. The guaranteed cash value is based on 4 1/2% interest, the use of continuous functions and the Commissioners 1980 Standard Ordinary Mortality Table. For Extended Term Insurance, the Commissioners 1980 Extended Term Insurance Table is used. A detailed statement of the method of calculation has been filed with the insurance supervisory officials of the jurisdiction where this Contract is delivered. All values are not less than those required by law.

LOANS

Cash Loans

Unless this Contract is being continued as Extended Term Insurance, you may obtain a cash loan upon written request. Sole security for such a cash loan will be this Contract. We have the right to defer cash loan requests for up to six months unless the loan is for the purpose of premium payment. The amount of the cash loan may not exceed the sum of:

1. the guaranteed cash value at the next premium due date or the next Annual Contract Date, whichever is earlier; and
 2. the cash value of any dividend additions as of such date;
- less:
1. any due and unpaid premium;
 2. any existing loan; and
 3. interest on the amount loaned to the next premium due date or the next Annual Contract Date, whichever is earlier.

Automatic Premium Loans

If this option has been requested in writing, and this Contract has net cash value, then any premium not paid after the Grace Period will be paid by automatic premium loan, if the net cash value is sufficient to pay it. You may revoke your written request at any time.

Loan Interest and Repayment of Loans

The Maximum Rate is the greater of the Published Monthly Average for the calendar month ending two months before the date on which we set our rate, or the rate used to compute the cash value during the applicable period plus 1% a year. The Published Monthly Average means Moody's Corporate Bond Yield Average — Monthly Average Corporates as published by Moody's Investors Services, Inc., or its successor. If Moody's Corporate Bond Yield Average — Monthly Average Corporates is no longer published, the Published Monthly Average will mean the rate set by the insurance regulatory agency where this Contract is issued. Subject to the provisions of the next paragraph regarding changes in interest rate, our loan interest rate will not exceed the Maximum Rate.

Once each Contract Year, we will determine a new Maximum Rate. Our loan interest rate may be increased, by no less than 1/2%, to a rate equal to or less than the new Maximum Rate, if the new Maximum Rate is at least 1/2% higher than our loan interest rate for the preceding year. If the new Maximum Rate is 1/2% or more lower than our loan interest rate for the preceding year, our loan interest rate will be reduced to a rate equal to or less than the new Maximum Rate. We will give notice of the initial loan interest rate in effect when you make a loan. If you have an outstanding cash or premium loan, we will send reasonable advance notice of any increase in rate. All notices will be mailed to your, and any assignee's, last known address.

Loan interest is due on each Annual Contract Date. If not paid, it will be added to the principal and bear interest at the prevailing rate. This Contract will not terminate during a Contract Year as the sole result of an increase in interest rate during that Contract Year. Subject to this, if the loan exceeds the guaranteed cash value, any dividend deposits and the cash value of any dividend additions, this Contract terminates 31 days after we mail notice of termination.

All loans made prior to a nonforfeiture option taking effect may be repaid in whole or in part while the Contract is in force other than as Paid-Up Insurance or Extended Term Insurance. Any loan made after the Paid-Up Insurance option takes effect may be repaid while the Contract remains in force.

WL/1980 1-84

PREMIUM PAYMENTS AND REINSTATEMENT

Premium Payments

Premium payments, as shown on Page 3, must be paid in advance at the Home Office. The first one is due on the Register Date. You may change the frequency of payment by notifying us in writing. Except as provided below, no premium payment will keep this Contract in force beyond the next premium due date.

Grace Period

There is a 31 day Grace Period to pay each premium, except the first. During this Grace Period, this Contract will remain in force.

Reinstatement

Should this Contract lapse for failure to make any payment due, it may be reinstated within three years of lapse; if it has not been surrendered for its net cash value. To reinstate this Contract you must:

1. submit proof of insurability which meets our standards;
2. make all overdue premium payments with compound interest at 6% per year; and
3. pay or reinstate any loans existing at the time of lapse, with compound interest at 6% per year.

OWNERSHIP AND BENEFICIARY

Owner

The Insured is the owner of this Contract unless:

1. another person is named as the owner in the application;
2. the Contract is assigned, in which case the assignee shall be deemed the owner; or
3. the Insured has not reached the age of 18 as of the date of application.

If the Insured has not reached the age of 18 as of the date of application, the applicant shall be deemed the owner of the Contract unless:

1. the applicant designates some other person as owner;
2. the Contract is assigned either to the Insured or to some other person; or
3. the applicant fails to make premium payments until the Insured reaches the age of 18. In such event, the Order shall designate as owner either the Insured's legal guardian or the person who agrees to make premium payments.

The owner may exercise all rights set forth in this Contract.

Death of Owner

If an owner other than the Insured dies while the Insured is living, all rights of the owner shall pass to the owner's estate unless otherwise provided.

Assignment

This Contract may be assigned. No assignment will bind us until we receive a signed copy at the Home Office. The Order is not responsible for the validity of assignments.

Beneficiary

The beneficiary is named in the application. While the Insured lives, the owner may change the beneficiary, unless this right is restricted by operation of law or unless the owner gives up this right.

Change of Beneficiary

To be binding, a change of beneficiary must be in writing and received at the Home Office. It will then take effect as of the date it was signed, but it will not apply to actions taken by us before it was received.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Entire Contract

The following constitute the entire contract between you and the Order:

1. this Contract and any attached riders or endorsements;
2. the application, a copy of which is attached to this Contract; and
3. the Order's Laws. Any change in our Laws after the Issue Date will apply to this Contract, but benefits granted by this Contract will not be reduced by future changes in these Laws.

The consideration for this Contract is the application and the payment of premium. The laws of the state or province where this Contract is issued for delivery control the rights and duties of the owner and any person rightfully making claim under the provisions of this Contract.

Change or Waiver of Provisions

No subordinate council, agent or member of the Order may change or waive the provisions of this Contract. No change in this Contract is valid unless it is made in writing and signed on behalf of the Order by the Supreme Knight or the Supreme Secretary.

Statements in the Application

Statements in the application are representations, not warranties. No statement will be used to void this Contract or to deny a claim, if it is not in the copy of the application attached to this Contract when issued.

Incontestability

We will not contest this Contract after it has been in force during the Insured's lifetime for two years from the Issue Date, except for nonpayment of premium.

This provision will apply anew from the date this Contract is reinstated with regard to statements made in an application for reinstatement.

Suicide Exclusion

If the Insured dies by suicide within two years after the Issue Date, we will pay only the total amount of premium payments, less any indebtedness.

Age and Sex

The Insured's Issue Age is stated on Page 3. It is the age on the Insured's birthday nearest the Register Date. If the Insured's age or sex is misstated, the Contract Amount will be that which the premium would have bought at the true age and sex.

Currency

Every payment by or to the Order shall be in the lawful money of the country in which the application for this Contract is signed.

Maintenance of Solvency

The premium rates and benefits as specified in this Contract will not change. If the Order's reserves were to become impaired, the Board of Directors could require you to pay an equitable amount to eliminate the deficiency. Such amount could either be charged as a loan against the Contract with interest compounded at 5% per year, or with your consent, deducted from the insurance benefit.

Membership

Even if the applicant ceases to be a member of the Order, you may keep this Contract in force by making the required premium payments.

Spouse's Right to Apply for Insurance

In addition to the other rights and benefits provided under this Contract, after the Insured's death the Insured's spouse shall have the right to request insurance coverage: (1) on his or her life; and (2) on the lives of the Insured's minor children. This right must be exercised within 90 days following the Order's receipt of proof of the Insured's death. The insurance coverage requested will be issued, provided that satisfactory evidence of insurability is submitted to the Order. The date the insurance coverage takes effect will depend upon: (1) the rules of the Order, and (2) the date the Order accepts the evidence of insurability.

For purposes of this provision, the following definitions apply: "insurance coverage" includes all plans of life insurance and annuities offered by the Order at the age and premium class of the proposed insured at the time of the exercise of this right; "Insured's minor children" includes all children, stepchildren and legally adopted children of the Insured who have not yet reached their 18th birthday as of the date insurance coverage is requested; and "Insured's spouse" means the person to whom the Insured is married as of the date of the Insured's death.
