Part 400.5(b) Attachment II A 1	A. Coordination of Cash and Medical Assistance and Support Services Virginia’s primary goals for newly arriving refugees are durable economic self-sufficiency and social integration into Virginia’s communities. Virginia accomplishes these goals through its model of comprehensive refugee resettlement service delivery. Cash, medical, and support services are provided by three separate entities. The Virginia State Refugee Coordinator oversees contracts, memorandums of agreements (MOAs), and policy guidances that formalize the collaboration needed to provide these services. The basis for each is the regulations set out in 45 CFR 400 & 401, ORR State Letters, and applicable public assistance programs regulations. <ul style="list-style-type: none">➤ The Office of Newcomer Services contract with resettlement service providers requires the development of a family Comprehensive Resettlement Plan which identifies the cash, medical, employment, and support services needed for the family to attain economic self-sufficiency. ➤ The Virginia Refugee Resettlement Program Manual contains the rules for the delivery of refugee cash, medical, and employment services. ➤ The Office of Newcomer Services collaborates with the Virginia Department of Social Services Division of Benefit Programs on the inclusion of cash, medical, employment and support services for refugees in its Medicaid, SNAP, and TANF program guidance documents. ➤ Monitoring of effective delivery of these services and ensuring services are provided in accordance with federal regulation are done through the VDSS Subrecipient Monitoring Program.

Virginia's Refugee Resettlement Goal

Virginia's Model for Refugee Resettlement

Virginia's model for refugee resettlement is intended to promote effective resettlement through attainment of self-sufficiency as soon as possible after arrival. The model is based on the following principles:

- a. The Comprehensive Resettlement Plan is the root and center of all services to refugees.
- b. Long term public assistance utilization is not a way of life in America and is, therefore, not a resettlement option.
- c. A refugee's early employment promotes his/her earliest economic self-sufficiency.
- d. The physical and mental health needs of refugees must be addressed in a timely, coordinated, and integrated way to promote and ensure the well-being and health of refugee families.
- e. Community receptivity to refugees is a key factor in successful resettlement, therefore, refugee resettlement office must take the lead in creating a welcoming environment for refugees through community dialogs involving key stakeholders to provide local awareness of and input into the resettlement process and to ensure adequate levels of local support for the resettlement effort.
- f. Refugee resettlement involves many services that may be provided concurrently, progressively, or successively, but must always constitute a continuum of services beginning at the time of the refugee's arrival into the U.S. and continuing through self-sufficiency leading up to citizenship. Resettlement services are sensitive to cultural and ethnic issues, accessible regardless of English language fluency, link refugees to community services, are seamlessly delivered, and include Mutual Assistance Associations.

Virginia Plan for Refugee Medical Screenings

The Virginia Department of Social Services (VDSS) Office of Newcomer Services (ONS) administers the federal Cash and Medical Assistance (CMA) grant in Virginia. Since 1997, Virginia has had written approval from the Director of the Office of Refugee Resettlement to use CMA funds for refugee medical screenings. Virginia's Plan for Refugee Medical Screenings follows the requirements outlined in ORR State Letter 12-09. In 2004 Virginia made its Refugee Medical Screening Plan part of its State Plan.

Under a memorandum of agreement between VDSS/ONS and the Virginia Department of Health (VDH), VDH coordinates, facilitates, and monitors the delivery of refugee medical screenings at the local level.

These services are provided by the VDH, Division of Tuberculosis Control and Prevention and Newcomer Health Services, which is organizationally located under the Chief Deputy for Public Health, Office of Epidemiology. The Division ensures a basic level of health screening, which meets the federal Office of Refugee Resettlement and Centers for Disease Control and Prevention requirements, for all Virginia refugees.

The objective of Virginia's Refugee Medical Screening Program is to identify and eliminate health related barriers to successful refugee resettlement; to protect the public health; and to provide refugees with an orientation to Virginia's health care system.

A. Description of Virginia's Medical Screening Protocols

Refugee medical screenings may be performed or arranged at any one of Virginia's 35 local health district offices. The Community Health Services section of the Virginia Department of Health provides oversight and guidance to these local health districts. Depending on the size of the district offices, the offices may have licensed public health nurses, nurse practitioners, physician assistants, physicians, or some combination of these that either perform the screenings or refer the refugee to another local health district or provider.

Initial screenings are to be conducted within 30 days of refugee arrival date or after the date determination of asylum, Cuban Entrant, or victim of human trafficking status and may be conducted up to 90 days. If there are extenuating circumstances, screenings may be conducted after 90 days with the approval of the VDH Refugee Health Coordinator. Application for Medicaid does not apply in Virginia as Virginia Medicaid does not cover any of the medical screening services with the exception of the vaccinations for children which are covered.

Local health district staffs report to the Refugee Health Coordinator the number refugee arrivals who are not screened within 90 days of arrival and those who cannot be located.

Referrals and follow up of services are provided or arranged for the refugee when the screening identifies a need for such follow-up.

Virginia's refugee medical screenings are based on federal ORR requirements defined in ORR State Letter 12-09 and on current Center for Disease Control and Prevention guidances. The screenings consist of: (i) a history and physical examination, (ii) assessment performed by a physician, nurse practitioner, physician's assistant, or public health nurse, and (iii) specific procedures based on the age, gender, and underlying risk factors of each refugee:

1. Laboratory testing, including a complete blood count with differential, serum chemistries, urinalysis, TB screening, HIV testing and Hepatitis B testing
2. Additional testing and treatment, based on age, risk factors and overseas record of testing and treatment as appropriate, including presumptive treatment for individuals who did not receive pre-departure treatment for certain conditions..
3. Virginia Refugee Medical Screening immunizations are based on recommendations of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the Association for Professionals in Infection Control and Epidemiology.
4. Allowable vaccines are provided to all eligible refugees. Vaccines covered under Medicaid are provided as part of the initial refugee screening, but are not charged to federal Cash and Medical Assistance grant.
5. Vaccines are reimbursable only during the first year post arrival and then only if Medicaid is not in effect or does not provide coverage.

B. Budget Estimate

1. The ORR 1 Cash and Medical Assistance Estimate for Refugee Medical Screenings
 - a. The number of medical screenings estimate is based on the Department of State estimated number arrivals and an estimate of other eligible refugee populations based on prior years numbers.
 - b. The number of individuals in each age group that will receive testing and treatment as required and defined by the federal Office of Refugee Resettlement.
 - c. The costs associated with (i) the procedure codes for each assessment activity required by ORR and (ii) the current Virginia Medicaid reimbursement rates.

2. The ORR 1 Cash and Medical Assistance Estimate for Refugee Medical Screenings Administration.

C. Mechanism Used For RMA Reimbursement

Local health districts submit to the Virginia Department of Health (VDH) monthly invoices for the costs of medical screenings conducted during that month. Through an interagency funds transfer process, VDH is reimbursed for these costs by the Virginia Department of Social Services (VDSS).

D. Memorandum of Agreement

The memorandum of agreement between VDH and VDSS is reviewed and updated annually. VDSS oversight of the MOA is done through review of monthly interagency transfer requests and accompanying invoices; VDH trimester reporting; and assessment of timeliness of medical screenings.

Virginia's Reception and Placement Program staffs have direct communications with the local health districts that conduct refugee medical screenings. The memorandum of agreement which the State Refugee Coordinator's (SRC) Office has with the Virginia Department of Health includes the requirement that the Refugee Health Coordinator (RHC) provide oversight in the collaboration between the Reception and Placement Program staff and the local health district refugee medical screening staff. The RHC coordinates with the refugee resettlement directors to ensure local health district staff and reception and placement staffs (i) arrange medical screenings within 30 days; (ii) address needed refugee medical screening follow-up services; and (iii) refer refugees to the refugee health liaisons for on-going health needs including connecting refugees with a primary care health provider for on-going medical needs.

E. Virginia State Refugee Health Coordinator (RHC) Responsibilities

1. Coordinates with the Center for Disease Control and Prevention on matters related to refugee medical screenings and contagious diseases and other health issues as they relate to refugee populations.
2. Provides oversight and guidance to local health districts on matters related to conducting refugee medical screenings and arranging needed follow-up health services as needed.
3. Monitors local health districts' compliance with refugee medical screening protocols and federal timeframes.
4. Provides training and technical assistance to local health districts on matters related to refugee medical screening.

F. State Level Coordination

1. The State Refugee Coordinator and the State Refugee Health Coordinator meet monthly.
2. The State Refugee Health Coordinator participates in the State Refugee Coordinator's Directors Meetings.
3. The State Refugee Health Coordinator ensures that the local health district management staff is included in the Virginia Community Capacity Initiative.
