Re: MUR 1225

Dear Mr. Herge:

On June 9, 1981, the Commission found reason to believe your client, the Fund for a Conservative Majority, had violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a), a provision of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the "Act") in connection with the above referenced MUR. However, after considering the circumstances of this matter, the commission has determined to take no further action and close its file. The file will be made part of the public record within 30 days. Should you wish to submit any materials to appear on the public record, please do so within 10 days.

The Commission reminds you that 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(7)(B)(ii) and 11 C.F.R. § 109.1(d)(1) provide that the financing of the dissemination, distribution or republication, in whole or in part, of any broadcast or any written, graphic, or other form of campaign materials prepared by the candidate, his campaign committees, or their authorized agent shall be considered a contribution for the purpose of contribution limitations and reporting responsibilities by the person making the expenditure. If the contribution exceeds the limitations of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a) then a violation will have occurred. In this regard, the expenditures made by the Fund for a Conservative Majority in recording an over the air broadcast of a Ronald Reagan speech and copying a newspaper printing of a Ronald Reagan speech and using excerpts from those speeches in advertisements appears, pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(7)(B)(ii) and 11 C.F.R. § 109.1(d)(1), to be in-kind contributions rather than independent expenditures.

GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

I. Background

In a referral 1/ to the Office of General Counsel the Reports Analysis Division questioned whether the Fund for a Conservative Majority ("FCM"), within the purview of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(7)(B)(ii) and 11 C.F.R. § 109.1(d)(1), financed the dissemination, distribution or republication of campaign materials prepared by the Reagan for President Committee. If this occurred, then FCM violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a) by making excessive in-kind contributions to the Reagan Campaign.

On June 9, 1981, the Commission found reason to believe that FCM violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a) and authorized the General Counsel to send a letter and notification regarding the Commission's finding to FCM. In addition, the Commission authorized the Office of General Counsel to send interrogatories to FCM in an effort to clarify whether FCM recorded speeches or utterances made by Ronald Reagan and if those recordings were used by FCM in communications to the public in support of the Reagan candidacy. FCM, through its counsel, J. Curtis Herge, responded to the Commission's reason to believe finding and interrogatories by letters dated July 8 and August 24, 1982.

Attachment I.

The Office of General Counsel has now completed its investigation and analysis of this case. Although we are of the opinion that the expenditures made by FCM are in-kind contributions rather than independent expenditures, causing a 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a) violation, we are recommending that the Commission take no further action and close the file.

II. Statement of the Case

On November 13, 1979, Ronald Reagan delivered a speech announcing he was a candidate for the Republican nomination for President. <sup>2/</sup> This speech was broadcast on the public airwaves. FCM contracted with Rhatican and Associates, Inc., formerly of Arlington, Virginia, to record the Reagan speech. Rhatican and Associates had the broadcast recorded by Pyramid Video. The cost of recording the broadcast was $62.40.

FCM produced a series of fourteen thirty and sixty second radio advertisements in support of Ronald Reagan's candidacy for President. Six of these advertisements included excerpts using <sup>2/</sup> Although Ronald Reagan did not announce his candidacy until November 13, 1979, for purpose of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, he became a candidate in March of 1979. (See 2 U.S.C. § 431(b). This citation refers to the Act before its amendment on January 8, 1980. The current provision is 2 U.S.C. § 431(2).) The Reagan for President Committee registered its statement of organization with the Commission and designated its campaign despository on March 9, 1979. On April 10, the Committee filed a report of its receipts and expenditures noting financial activity in excess of $5,000 as early as March 2, 1979.

Reagan's voice from the Reagan speech recorded by FCM. The advertisements were disseminated in support of Reagan's campaign by FCM on radio stations throughout the states of Tennessee, Connecticut, Pennsylvania and Texas between March 20, 1980 and May 6, 1980. The total cost of disseminating all of the advertisements was $17,319.13. <sup>3/</sup> Upon questioning, counsel for FCM, conceded that due to mismanagement and disorganization FCM was unable to determine which advertisements were run on which stations or how many times each advertisement was run.

Counsel for FCM states that the fact that Reagan was going to make a speech was general knowledge, the speech having received advance press coverage. Counsel further states, and the Commission has no evidence indicating otherwise, that FCM had "no communication with the Reagan campaign committee regarding the speech, the recording of the speech, or the subsequent use of the recording."

In addition, FCM used another Reagan speech which was obtained from a reprint in the Washington Post. We have no information as to when or where this speech was given by Ronald Reagan. Parts of the speech were used in an advertisement in the November 1979 issue of a periodical known as the Conservative Digest. The Digest is a Falls Church subsidiary of the Viguerie <sup>3/</sup> FCM submitted to the Commission transcripts of the radio advertisements. FCM also submitted copies of the purchase orders for placement of the advertisements. See Attachment I.

Publishing Company with a circulation of approximately 65,000. Counsel states that the cost of the advertisement was $840.00.

From the documents supplied it appears that the aforementioned expenditures by FCM were restricted to Ronald Reagan's primary election campaign and do not extend to the general election period.

III. Legal Analysis

The issue in this case is whether expenditures made by FCM for producing and placing advertisements supporting Ronald Reagan's candidacy which used excerpts from two speeches given by Ronald Reagan are in-kind contributions or independent expenditures. Since the Commission has no evidence that FCM recorded or used the speeches or made the advertisements in cooperation, consultation or concert, with or at the request or suggestion of the Reagan campaign, determination of the issue hinges on whether FCM's activities come within the scope of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(7)(B)(ii) and 11 C.F.R. § 109.1(d)(1).

Title 2, United States Code Section 441a(a)(7)(B)(ii) states that [T]he financing by any person of the dissemination, distribution, or republication, in whole or in part, of any broadcast or any written graphic, or other form of campaign materials prepared by the candidate, his campaign committees, or their authorized agents shall be considered to be an expenditure for purposes of this paragraph....

62040335093

expands on this by stating that:

The financing of the dissemination, distribution or republication, in whole or in part, of any broadcast or any written, graphic, or other form of campaign materials prepared by the candidate, his campaign committees, or their authorized agents shall be considered a contribution for the purpose of contribution limitations and reporting responsibilities by the person making the expenditure but shall not be considered an expenditure by the candidate or his authorized committees unless made with the cooperation or with the prior consent of, or in consultation with, or at the request or suggestion of, a candidate or any authorized agent or committee thereof.

Thus, it should be pointed out that with the facts before the Commission of no Reagan involvement, even if the expenditure is determined to be an in-kind contribution by FCM, it would not be considered, for purposes of the Reagan campaign, a contribution. As is stated in the Explanation and Justification of Regulations which accompanied 11 C.F.R. § 109.1(d)(1), "[s]uch expenditures could be made without the knowledge or control of the candidate, and this section affects only the person making

<sup>4/</sup> Similar language is used in 11 C.F.R. § 114.3 which concerns distribution of partisan communications to certain individuals by corporations and labor organizations. One of the qualifications for distributing such material is "[t]hat the material constitutes a communication of the views of the corporation or the labor organization, and is not simply the republication or reproduction in whole or in part, of any broadcast transcript or tape or any written, graphic, or other form of campaign materials prepared by the candidate, his or her campaign committees, or their authorized agents."

the expenditure absent candidate cooperation or consent. 5/ H.R. Doc. No. 44, 95th Cong., 1st Sess. 55 (1977).

Legislative History

Title 2, United States Code Section 441a(a)(7)(B)(ii) (Section 320(a)(7)(B)(ii) of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended) was enacted into law on May 11, 1976 as part of the 1976 Amendments to the Act. Research of the legislative history of the 1976 Amendments provides limited insight into this provision. Section 441a(a)(7)(B)(ii) was contained in both S. 3065 and H.R. 12406 which served as the basis for the 1976 Amendments. 6/ The Report of the Senate Committee on Rules and Administration which accompanied S. 3065 made no specific reference to the purpose of Section 441a(a)(7)(B)(ii). S. Rep. No. 677, 94th Cong. 2nd Sess. (1976). Neither is there any Senate floor debate on S. 3065 which elaborates on the purpose of this provision.

The Report of the Committee on House Administration which accompanied H.R. 12406 makes limited reference to Section 5/ The Explanation and Justification of Regulations states that "Section 109.1(d) "parallels 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(7)(C)." This appears to be an error in that the correct citation should be 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(7)(B)(ii).

6/ The House passed H.R. 12406. Then as a procedural maneuver, the House took up S. 3065. An amendment to S. 3065 struck out all the bill after the enacting clause and inserted a substitute text which was in effect H.R. 12406 as passed. A Senate House conference committee was then convened to resolve the differences between S. 3065 and the House amendment to S. 3065.

441a(a)(7)(B)(ii) but offers no real insight. The Report notes that:

[T]he bill treats expenditures made in cooperation, consultation, or concert with or at the request or suggestion of a candidate as a contribution in-kind to that candidate and provides further that the republication of a candidate's campaign materials shall be regarded as such a contribution. This provision is designed to draw a line between "independent expenditures" protected by the First Amendment because they are an expression of an individual's views, and expenditures which are disguised contributions to a candidate (emphasis added). H.R. Report No. 917, 94th Cong., 2nd Sess. 6 (1976).

The debate on H.R. 12406 on the floor of the House did not further elaborate on Section 441a(a)(7)(B)(ii).

The Conference Report accompanying S. 3065 makes no specific mention of the purpose behind Section 441a(a)(7)(B)(ii), but the section of the report dealing with contribution and expenditure limitations states generally that the definition of contribution distinguishes between independent expressions of an individual's views and the use of an individual's resources to aid a candidate in a manner indistinguishable in substance from the direct payment of cash to a candidate. H.R. Rep. No. 1057, 94th Cong., 2nd Sess. 59 (1976). The only comment on Section 441a(a)(7)(B)(ii) by either the Senate or the House in the floor debate on the conference substitute was made in the House. There Congressman Hays stated that what had been done in the conference substitute was "to provide added reporting and disclosure concerning independent expenditures; and to sharpen the line between such expenditures and activity - such as reproducing a candidate's materials - which is the effective equivalent of making a direct contribution." 122 Cong. Rec. H3778 (daily ed. May 3, 1976).<sup>7/</sup>

Thus, the only clear purpose that can be drawn from the legislative history is that Congress did not want the contribution limitations of the Act circumvented by allowing an individual or organization to distribute campaign material prepared by the candidate.

Further, a review of the Explanation and Justification of Regulations accompanying 11 C.F.R. § 109.1(d) is absent of any intent behind the regulation. The only comment which was made was previously mentioned concerning not attributing a contribution to a candidate when campaign materials are distributed without the candidate's knowledge or control.

MUR and Advisory Opinion History

A review of the Advisory Opinions and MURs considered by the Commission reveals only one instance in which the Commission

<sup>7/</sup> Mr. Steiger also remarked that "[t]he conference bill also violates the first amendment rights of the private citizen by saying one may not finance the distribution or republication in whole or in part of any campaign ad or other materials used by a candidate or the candidate's agents, without it falling under the contribution limits. This provision clearly violates the spirit of the Supreme Court's decision of January 30." 122 Cong. Rec. H3786 (daily ed. May 3, 1976).

considered a matter factually similar to this case.<sup>8/</sup> The case was MUR 445(77), In the Matter of Wilner St. John Garwood and California Friends of Reagan. That case arose when Mr. Garwood reported as an independent expenditure the payment of $5,000 to the Friends of Reagan Committee for the purpose of arranging a television broadcast of a previously recorded speech of Ronald Reagan. During the investigation Mr. Garwood stated that he was contacted by telephone by Mr. Reade and Mr. Morrison of the Friends of Reagan Committee and asked to pay for the broadcast. He also revealed that the Committee made all of the arrangements for the broadcast. All attempts to locate Mr. Reade and Mr. Morrison and serve them with interrogatories failed. During the course of the investigation Mr. Reade and Mr. Morrison were referred to the Department of Justice for possible mail and wire fraud in connection with setting up independent committees and then directing most of the contributions made to those committees to political consulting firms owned by Reade and Morrison. The Commission ultimately decided to take no further action and close the file.

<sup>8/</sup> Advisory Opinion 1981-60, though factually not similar, did consider the application of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(7) and 11 C.F.R. § 109.1(d)(1). In that matter the individual requesting the Advisory Opinion wanted to take original solicitation letters which were received from candidates or their authorized committees, type his own message on them, and resend them to a friend, neighbor or relative. The Commission determined that pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(7) and 11 C.F.R. § 109.1(d)(1) the postage costs and any other forwarding costs would be a contribution to the candidate subject to the limitations of 2 U.S.C. § 441a.

Statutory Interpretation

The question then, is did FCM by 1) recording an over the air broadcast of a Ronald Reagan speech and copying a newspaper printing of a Ronald Reagan speech and 2) using excerpts from those speeches in FCM advertisements supporting Ronald Reagan's candidacy for President, finance the dissemination, distribution, or republication of any broadcast or any written or other form of campaign materials prepared by Ronald Reagan or his campaign committee.

A literal reading of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(7)(B)(ii) and 11 CFR § 109.1(d)(1) precludes any need to determine whether a speech recorded over the public air waves or copied from a newspaper is "campaign materials prepared by the candidate." If the Act and Regulations are read in the disjunctive, the "or" after "broadcast" and the "or" after "written" separates those terms from the more general term "campaign materials." Thus, the republication or distribution of any speech broadcast by the candidate or speech written by the candidate per se taints the expenditure so that it is not independent.

Also, the Act and Regulations acknowledge that the dissemination, distribution or republication of the Reagan speech can be "in part." The entire speech does not have to be rebroadcast or distributed.

Third, the fact that the broadcast was recorded and distributed without the cooperation or consent of Ronald Reagan is of no significance. The Act and Regulations clearly allow that it is the dissemination, distribution and republication which is significant. The Regulations specifically acknowledge that when distribution is made without the candidate's cooperation or consent, the expenditure is still considered as an in-kind contribution for the person or organization financing the distribution.

However, a broader reading of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(7)(B)(ii) and 11 C.F.R. § 109.1(d)(1) raises the question of whether speeches made by a candidate are "campaign materials" which if reproduced and used by a third party in a political advertisement must be considered in-kind contributions. A review of the general intent of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(7)(ii) and 11 C.F.R. § 109.1 leads one to the conclusion that the activities of FCM in recording or reprinting and disseminating Reagan's speeches fail to meet the requirements of independent expenditure activity. Indeed, if individuals or organizations were allowed to reproduce and disseminate a speech prepared by the candidate, either broadcast or written, the purpose of the Act would be circumvented. Such an expenditure would not constitute an independent communication of the views of the individual or organization, but instead would be little more than a disguised contribution to a candidate.

Saying this, however, the Office of General Counsel acknowledges that the factual situation in this case reaches the outer limits of the interpretation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(7)(B)(ii) and 11 C.F.R. § 109.1(d)(1). This is not a case where a third party walked into a candidate's campaign headquarters, picked up campaign brochures, and had them mailed to the voting public. FCM did not take physical materials produced by the Reagan campaign. 9/ Rather, in this case, we have the candidate making a public speech. 10/ In one instance a speech is broadcast for all to hear and in a second instance it is reprinted in a newspaper for all to read. The speeches had entered the public domain. 11/ FCM used portions of the speeches in its own advertisements absent any coordination with the Reagan campaign.

9/ Compare two situations, one where a third party obtains photos from a candidate which are distributed to the voting public and, two where a third party independently takes a picture of a candidate and then distributes the picture to the voting public. In the first situation physical materials were obtained.

10/ Query whether it makes any difference if the quote used by a third party in a political advertisement came from a written campaign speech or from an impromptu remark. Do 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(7)(B)(ii) and 11 C.F.R. § 109.1(a)(a) contemplate that a candidate's impromptu remarks are campaign materials? Also, consider the situation where a group opposing Reagan's candidacy had used a portion of a Reagan speech in an advertisement to impress on the voting public that because of Reagan's position on a particular issue the public should not vote for him.

11/ We make no determination as to whether Reagan or the Reagan for President Committee could have prevented the copying of either speech. Our research has determined that neither Ronald Reagan nor the Reagan for President Committee registered a copyright of the live broadcast or any other speech made by Reagan during the campaign. However, the copyright Act of 1976 which came into effect on January 1, 1978, gives a person copyright protection automatically when a work is created. 17 U.S.C. § 102(a).

In conclusion, although it is the opinion of the Office of General Counsel that pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(7)(B)(ii) and 11 C.F.R. § 109.1(d)(1) the advertisements of FCM are not independent expenditures, we recommend that the Commission take no further action and close the file. This recommendation rests on our analysis that the activities of FCM reach to the outer limits of the interpretation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(7)(B)(ii) and 11 C.F.R. § 109.1(d)(1). Admittedly, differences of opinion could result from a reading of the Act and Regulations. Since this matter is one of first impression we recommend not pursuing it as a violation. However, we feel that the proper interpretation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(7)(B)(ii) and 11 C.F.R. § 109.1(d)(1) would require that the activities undertaken by FCM be considered as in-kind contributions.

Recommendations

The Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission:

- 1) take no further action with regard to a violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a) by Fund for a Conservative Majority;
- 2) approve and authorize sending the attached letter to Fund for a Conservative Majority;

02040335102

3) close the file.

Office of General Counsel

Re: MUR 1225

Dear Mr. Reiche:

We are writing in response to your letter to Mr. Kenneth Boehm, Treasurer of Fund for a Conservative Majority, dated June 12, 1981, in which it was reported that the Federal Election Commission ("the Commission") determined there is reason to believe that Fund for a Conservative Majority ("FCM") may have violated 2 U.S.C. 441a(a) by making excessive in-kind contributions to the Reagan campaign. Specifically, the General Counsel's factual and legal analysis, which formed the basis for the Commission's finding, noted that FCM may have recorded one or more speeches by candidate Reagan and may have re-published the material in its advertising program. The Office of General Counsel suggests that, if that activity came within the ambit of 11 CFR 109.1(d)(1), the fee paid to record the speech coupled with subsequent costs incurred for the advertisements would be in-kind contributions. If these in-kind contributions exceeded the limits of 2 U.S.C. 441a(a), then FCM would have violated the Act.

In the section entitled, "Factual Basis and Legal Analysis," of the Notification of Reason to Believe Finding, it was noted that the February monthly report (01/01/80 to 01/31/80) of FCM listed a disbursement on January 4, 1980, to Pyramid Video in the amount of $62.40 for "Recording Reagan Speech." It was also noted that the September monthly report (08/01/80 to 08/31/80) listed a disbursement on August 1, 1980, to Rhatican and Associates in the amount of $62.40 for "Studio time for recording of Reagan speech."

Upon investigation, it has been determined that the reported payments were duplicate payments for a single recording made at Pyramid Video on December 12, 1979.

In substantiation of the foregoing, we enclose the following:

Exhibit A - Invoice PV790355, dated December 17, 1979, of Pyramid Video to Rhatican and Associates, Inc. and in the amount of $62.40, for "off air audio recording" on December 12, 1979.

Exhibit B - Invoice RA291, dated December 31, 1979, of Rhatican and Associates, Inc. to Fund for a Conservative Majority and in the amount of $62.40, for "studio time for recording of Reagan announcement speech" on December 12, 1979. The invoice of Pyramid Studios, Exhibit A, was attached to this invoice from Rhatican and Associates, Inc.

Exhibit C - Carbon of check number 803 of Fund for a Conservative Majority, dated January 4, 1980, drawn to the order of Pyramid Video and in the amount of $62.40. The description on the check register references invoice PV790355, the invoice from Pyramid Video (see Exhibit A).

Exhibit D - A duplicate of Exhibit B, Invoice RA291 of Rhatican and Associates, Inc., with a notation, "Here is the copy of the old invoice your records don't show...." (It appears that the records of Fund for a Conservative Majority did not reflect payment of this invoice, because the check register referenced only the Pyramid Video invoice.)

Exhibit E - Carbon of check number 2511 of Fund for a Conservative Majority, dated August 1, 1980, drawn to the order of Rhatican and Associates, Inc. and in the amount of $62.40. The description on the check register references invoice 291, the invoice from Rhatican and Associates, Inc. (see Exhibit B and Exhibit D).

The Honorable Frank P. Reiche

As a consequence of the foregoing, this matter relates to a single off-the-air audio recording on December 12, 1979 of then-candidate Reagan's live announcement that he was a candidate for the Republican nomination for election as President of the United States. The recording was made at Pyramid Video, 2419 M Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20037, through the auspices of Rhatican and Associates, Inc., formerly at 1011 Arlington Boulevard, Arlington, Virginia 22209. (Rhatican and Associates, Inc. is no longer an operating concern.) We are advised that the decision to make the recording, and the person who supervised the recording, was Mr. Ralph Galliano, the then Executive Director of FCM. (Mr. Galliano is no longer employed by FCM.) The fact that the speech was to be made and the time of the speech was general knowledge, the event having received advance attention to the press, and there was no communication with the Reagan campaign committee regarding the speech, the recording of the speech or the subsequent use of the recording. Neither FCM nor its agents advised the Reagan campaign committee that the speech was being recorded by FCM; and, as a consequence, the Reagan campaign committee did not cooperate in any way with the recording of the speech.

Utilizing the recording made of then-candidate Reagan's announcement speech, FCM produced a series of sixty and thirty second radio advertisements, the transcripts of which are enclosed. It will be noted that each advertisement contains an excerpt from the speech. An exhaustive search of the records revealed that FCM placed those advertisements between March 10, 1980 and April 30, 1980 with radio stations in Tennessee, Connecticut, Pennsylvania and Texas. Copies of the purchase orders for the placement of those advertisements are enclosed.

The activity of FCM in recording the speech and in producing and placing the advertisements was not made with the cooperation or with the prior consent of, or in consultation with, or at the request or suggestion of then-candidate Reagan or of any agent or authorized committee of then-candidate Reagan. Furthermore, the production and placement of the advertisements did not constitute the republication of "campaign materials" as contemplated in 11 CFR 109.1(d)(1). Aside from the questionable constitutional vailability of 11 CFR 109.1(d)(1), that section of the regulations was designed

to inhibit the re-publication, as an independent expenditure, of paraphernalia and advertisements designed and produced by a candidate's campaign committee, to wit: "campaign materials". That section was not designed to inhibit, or could it be properly interpreted to inhibit, the republication of public statements of a candidate, secured by the independent expeditor from the public airwaves in the absence of consultation with the candidate and in the absence of the candidate's cooperation, consent, request or suggestion.

There is no evidence that the recording made on December 12, 1979 was otherwise utilized by FCM then as described above; or, that FCM recorded any other speech or utterance made by Ronald Reagan, which was used by FCM in communications to the public.

By reason of the fact that the production and distribution of the subject advertisements by FCM was not the type of activity addressed in 11 CFR 109.1(d)(1), the funds expended in furtherance of the activity did not constitute in-kind contributions to the Reagan campaign. Accordingly, this matter should be dismissed.

Sincerely yours

J. Curtis Herge

Announcer:

In 1979 more than $650 of your hard-earned money went directly to OPEC. The OPEC cartel has put the squeeze on us. Did you ever think that this winter you'd have to choose between heating your home and feeding your family? Governor Ronald Reagan has some strong ideas on what our energy policies should be.

Reagan:

First, we must decide that less is not enough. Next we must remove government obstacles to energy production. We need more energy and that means diversifying our sources of supply away from the OPEC countries. Yes, it means more efficient automobiles, but it also means more exploration and development of oil and natural gas here in our own country.

Announcer: Governor Ronald Reagan

Reagan: It is time to send unmistakable signals to the Soviets, and for that matter, to our allies; signals that we intend to provide world leadership for those nations who want to remain free. The presence of American airpower in the Middle East, Naval forces in the Persian Gulf area, the resumption of arms delivery to Pakistan. The President cancelled arms to that country and is now offering them much less, it is true that he asked for increased spending in our defense budget, but since it is he who cancelled the B-1 bomber, the neutron warhead, shut down the Minute Man Three production line, slowed the MX, the cruise missile, the Trident submarine, and cut the Navy ship building program in half, we have a right to ask what specific plan does he have for restoring the military supremacy we once had.

Announcer: In the upcoming Presidential primary, vote for Governor Reagan. The preceding announcement has been sponsored by the Fund for a Conservative Majority, and has not been authorized by any candidate.

Announcer: Governor Ronald Reagan:

Reagan: By reducing Federal tax rates, will they discourage individual initiative, especially in the personal income tax? We can restore incentives, invite greater economic growth, and at the same time, help give us a better government instead of a bigger government. In short, a punitive tax system must be replaced by one that restores incentive for the workers and for industry, a system that rewards initiative and effort, and encourages thrift. Now, all of these things are possible, none of them will be easy, but the choice is clear. We cannot go on letting our country slip over the brink of financial ruin. We can find that we will work together, restore confidence in ourselves, and regain the confidence of the world.

Announcer: The preceding announcement has been sponsored by the Fund for a Conservative Majority, and has not been authorized by any candidate.

Announcer: Governor Ronald Reagan

Reagan: In recent months, leaders of our government have told us that we, as a people, have lost confidence in ourselves, but we must regain our spirit and our will to achieve National goals. While it's true we lack confidence, there's an unease all over this land with things the way they are, but the confidence we've lost is confidence in our government's policies. Our unease can almost be called bewilderment, our Nation hungers for a spiritual revival, hungers once again to see honor placed above political expediency to see government once again the protector of our liberties, not the distributor of gifts and privilege, a government that should uphold and not undermine those institutions which are the custodians of the very values upon which civilization is founded: religion, education and, above all, family."

Announcer: Ladies and Gentlemen, Governor Ronald Reagan

Reagan: I've lived through one depression. I carry with me the memory of the Christmas Eve my brother and I and our parents were exchanging our modest gifts. There was no lighted tree as there had been in Christmases past. I remember watching my father open an envelope he thought was a greeting from his employer. We were all watching him. Yes, we were hoping it was a Christmas check. It was a notice that he no longer had a job. I'll carry with me always the picture of my father sitting there with that envelope in his hand, unable to look at the rest of us. I cannot, I will not, stand by while inflation and joblessness rob our people of their dignity.

Jim: Joe, as a conservative Democrat, I voted for Jimmy Carter in 1976. But today, I simply can't. Who should I vote for?

Joe: Well, Jim, I used to think I was going to vote for George Bush, but not now! I've decided to go with Ronald Reagan.

Jim: Really? Why not vote for Bush? I thought he was conservative.

Joe: I thought so, too, until I read about what Bush really believes, and how he voted when he was in Congress. He supports the drafting of women, the Equal Rights Amendment - he even voted for gun control.

Jim: Good grief, Joe - I didn't know that. I thought Bush was a conservative, but I guess he isn't.

Joe: Nope. George Bush isn't my idea of conservative, and that's why I'm voting for Ronald Reagan. I know where he stands.

Jim: I'm joining you, Joe. I'm voting for Ronald Reagan, too.

Announcer: Ronald Reagan is a conservative. He knows how to bring government under control. Reagan did it as Governor of California. If the current 18% Carter inflation scares you, like it does me, then vote for Ronald Reagan in the upcoming primary. Sam: Bill, who do we vote for, Reagan or Bush? Is there a difference?

Bill: You bet, Sam! Ronald Reagan is Governor of California and brought government under control. Reagan cut the cheaters and eliminated the waste from the welfare program in California. He saved the taxpayers millions of dollars and actually increased the help to the truly needy. Reagan has top executive experience in running government. He actually sent a tax rebate check to every taxpayer. Reagan can bring our Federal government under control, too.

Sam: Come to think of it, Bill, George Bush hasn't done any of those things. He's never run a government. And a lot of Bush's program will add even more government to what we already have.

Bill: Sam, we need less government, not more.

Sam: You're right, Bill. We need Ronald Reagan, not George Bush.

Announcer: It's time for a change. It's time for Ronald Reagan. Inflation is now running at 18% a year. It must be stopped. Send a message to Washington. Vote for Ronald Reagan in the upcoming primary. Paid for by Fund for a Conservative Majority and not authorized by any candidate or candidate's committee.

Man:

Fifty-seven dollars! I used to be able to go to the grocery store and buy a week's worth of food for fifty-seven dollars! And I have two children. Well, I guess those days are gone forever . . .

Announcer:

Help bring government under control. Stop the current 18% inflation. This time, vote in the Republican primary. This time, vote for conservative. Vote for Ronald Reagan. Paid for by Fund for a Conservative Majority and not authorized by any candidate or candidate's committee.

0204035121

Announcer:

Inflation is running at 18 percent a year. Government spending has increased over 200 billion dollars since Carter became President in 1976. The Federal government continues to grow. Cuba thumbs its nose at us. The Russians have taken over Afghanistan. Look what's happening in Angola, Ethiopia, Rhodesia, Iran, Nicaragua, and El Salvador. Well, if you've had enough, this time vote for Ronald Reagan. Paid for by Fund for a Conservative Majority and not authorized by any candidate or candidate's committee.

02040335122

Jim: Bill, I hear John Connolly's not doing so well in the polls.

Bill: That's right, Jim, and you know that leaves Republicans with the choice between Ronald Reagan and George Bush.

Jim: Well, if that's my choice, you can bet I'll vote for Reagan. Bush is for gun control! He voted for the 1968 Gun Control Act.

Bill: You're kidding. Does he still feel that way?

Jim: I'm afraid so. I just read where last fall Bush said gun control is necessary and he is in favor of it.

Bill: Well, that's enough for me. Bush is for gun control, for drafting women - he refuses to support Constitutional amendmements we need to stop abortion, forced bussing, and balance the Federal budget. I'm changing my vote from Bush to Ronald Reagan.

Announcer: Ronald Reagan has consistently supported the right of every law abiding citizen to keep and bear arms. Reagan is the only Republican candidate with the successful experience of running government. He was Governor of California for eight years. Vote for Ronald Reagan in the upcoming Republican primary. America needs strong leadership. America needs Ronald Reagan. Paid for by Fund for a Conservative Majority and not authorized by any candidate or candidate's committee.

Announcer: Women in the military, you've got to be kidding.

Man: I'm afraid not both President Carter and George Bush believe that women should be registered for the draft.

Man II: Women drafted! George Bush believes that? Boy, am I disappointed. I thought Bush was my choice for President. I thought Bush was conservative.

Man: Yeah, I thought I might vote for Bush, too, but America needs to rebuild its military strength fast, and drafting women isn't the way to do that.

Man II: I don't want my daughter to be drafted and sent off to the Persian Gulf to fight. No, I'm changing my vote from Bush to Reagan.

Man: I think you're right. I'm switching from Bush to Reagan, too.

Announcer: Ronald Reagan has repeatedly warned President Carter not to trust the Russians and has always believed that America must be militarily superior to the Soviet Union. If you agree that America must rebuild its military strength, to defend our vital interests, then vote for Ronald Reagan. Send a message to Russia that America will not become a second rate military power. On February 26, vote for Ronald Reagan. This announcement paid for by Fund for a Conservative Majority and not by any candidate or candidate's committee.

Mary: Jimmy, I simply don't know how we're gonna be able to save for the future. Inflation is running at almost 20 percent. What can we do?

Jimmy: Mary, for the first time, I'm voting in the Republican primary. Government causes inflation, we all know it, and Ronald Reagan is the only candidate for President who is ready to bring government under control.

Mary: Well, I'm scared, Jimmy, because inflation is literally destroying us. All we've worked for and saved for, for little John's and Sara's educations and for our own retirement. I guess I'll vote for Reagan, too. I just don't feel comfortable voting for George Bush. When Reagan speaks, I feel confident he understands our problems. This time I'm voting for Ronald Reagan.

Announcer: America desperately needs strong and effective leadership. America needs Ronald Reagan. Ronald Reagan is the only Republican candidate who has proven ability to lead our country. Vote for Ronald Reagan in the upcoming primary. Paid for by Fund for a Conservative Majority and not authorized by any candidate or candidate's committee.

Man: Honey, I've just figured our income tax and, you know, I'm tired of big government - all that waste, those high taxes. But what choice do we have?

Woman: Well, I just read that Ronald Reagan supports real tax cuts, 30 percent over the next 3 years, and Reagan claims to limit the size and power of the Federal government. George Bush doesn't support those tax cuts.

Man: I didn't know that. Hmmm, I think I might change my vote from George Bush to Ronald Reagan. I know where Ronald Reagan stands. He's conservative and he does have experience. He understands how to limit government. He did it in California. He saved a lot of tax money in California. I'm not going to vote for Bush. I'm changing my vote to Reagan.

Announcer: Ronald Reagan is the only Republican candidate who has actually run government. He was Governor of California for 8 years, streamlined the bureaucracy and actually sent a tax rebate check to every California taxpayer. Reagan has the experience we need in a President. Vote Ronald Reagan in the upcoming Republican primary. This announcement paid for by Fund for a Conservative Majority and not by any candidate or candidate's committee.

Re: MUR 1225

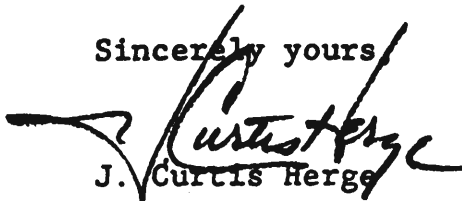

Dear Mr. Brown:

In accordance with our conversations over the telephone, I am sending to you herewith a copy of an advertisement sponsored by Fund for a Conservative Majority, which was placed as an independent expenditure in support of the election of candidate Reagan in the November, 1979, issue of Conservative Digest. As you will note, the advertisement includes a quotation attributed to the candidate. The committee's advertising agency which designed the advertisement, Thompson and Associates, Inc., advises that the quotation was taken from a newspaper article. There is no evidence to indicate when and where the speech was given.

Also enclosed is a copy of the purchase order, dated October 1 [1979], of Thompson and Associates, Inc., which accompanied the advertisement, reflecting a cost to Fund for a Conservative Majority of $840.00.

Based upon information provided to us by the Chairman, Treasurer and Executive Director of Fund for a Conservative Majority and by the President of Thompson and Associates, Inc., you have now been provided with all the radio, television and print advertising by Fund for a Conservative Majority which included a quotation by candidate Reagan.

Sincerely yours

CITIZENS for REAGAN

in '80!

An independent campaign by Fund for a Conservative Majority, one of the oldest political action committees in the country.

With Your Help Today

Ronald Reagan Can be Nominated and Elected as President of the United States!

Reagan Speaks on the Issues of Today!

"CITIZENS FOR REAGAN IN '80"

Three years of the Carter Presidency has brought us the fall of Afghanistan, the give-away of the Panama Canal, the sell-out of Taiwan and the collapse of Iran.

As icing on the cake, we now face the prospect of a SALT II Treaty negotiated by the Carter Administration, which would virtually assure permanent Soviet nuclear superiority over the United States.

But we're not going to let that happen. We're not going to let this generation or future generations live in a world where the Soviet Union is the most powerful nation on earth.

We're not going to allow runaway inflation to turn frugal, hard working Americans into paupers.

And we're not going to let the vital quest for American energy independence be turned into a multi-billion dollar bureaucratic mess.

We can change the philosophy of leadership in this country because our current leadership has completely lost touch with the needs, the hopes and the desires of the American people."

"Citizens for Reagan in '80" is an independent campaign effort to nominate and elect Ronald Reagan President of the United States. This independent campaign is sponsored by one of the nation's oldest and most respected political action committees, Fund for a Conservative Majority. The other major effort by FCM for next year is its campaign for Conservative Senate Control in 1980.

As an independent campaign effort, "Citizens for Reagan in '80" is not limited (as federal law restricts the official Reagan for President campaign) in the amount of money it can spend to help nominate Reagan — there is no limit on the amount of funds "Citizens for Reagan in '80" can spend to win the critical primaries and state conventions. And this special campaign effort can continue on behalf of Ronald Reagan after he is nominated even though federal law restricts the amount of money that the official campaign can spend after the nominations.

And FCM's "Citizens for Reagan in '80" effort can receive maximum individual contributions of $5,000 whereas the official Reagan for President campaign is limited to maximum donations of $1,000 per person.

Re: MUR 1225

Dear Mr. Herge:

On June 9, 1981, the Commission found reason to believe your client, the Fund for a Conservative Majority, had violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a), a provision of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the "Act") in connection with the above referenced MUR. However, after considering the circumstances of this matter, the commission has determined to take no further action and close its file. The file will be made part of the public record within 30 days. Should you wish to submit any materials to appear on the public record, please do so within 10 days.

The Commission reminds you that 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(7)(B)(ii) and 11 C.F.R. § 109.1(d)(1) provide that the financing of the dissemination, distribution or republication, in whole or in part, of any broadcast or any written, graphic, or other form of campaign materials prepared by the candidate, his campaign committees, or their authorized agent shall be considered a contribution for the purpose of contribution limitations and reporting responsibilities by the person making the expenditure. If the contribution exceeds the limitations of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a) then a violation will have occurred. In this regard, the expenditures made by the Fund for a Conservative Majority in recording an over the air broadcast of a Ronald Reagan speech and copying a newspaper printing of a Ronald Reagan speech and using excerpts from those speeches in advertisements appears, pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(7)(B)(ii) and 11 C.F.R. § 109.1(d)(1), to be in-kind contributions rather than independent expenditures.

CITIZENS for REAGAN in '80!

An independent campaign by Fund for a Conservative Majority, one of the oldest political action committees in the country.

With Your Help Today

Ronald Reagan Can be Nominated and Elected as President of the United States!

Reagan Speaks on the Issues of Today!

"CITIZENS FOR REAGAN IN '80"

"Three years of the Carter Presidency has brought us the fall of Afghanistan, the give-away of the Panama Canal, the sell-out of Taiwan and the collapse of Iran.

As icing on the cake, we now face the prospect of a SALT II Treaty negotiated by the Carter Administration, which would virtually assure permanent Soviet nuclear superiority over the United States.

But we're not going to let that happen. We're not going to let this generation or future generations live in a world where the Soviet Union is the most powerful nation on earth.

We're not going to allow runaway inflation to turn frugal, hard working Americans into paupers.

And we're not going to let the vital quest for American energy independence be turned into a multi-billion dollar bureaucratic mess.

We can change the philosophy of leadership in this country because our current leadership has completely lost touch with the needs, the hopes and the desires of the American people."

"Citizens for Reagan in '80" is an independent campaign effort to nominate and elect Ronald Reagan President of the United States. This independent campaign is sponsored by one of the nation's oldest and most respected political action committees, Fund for a Conservative Majority. The other major effort by FCM for next year is its campaign for Conservative Senate Control in 1980.

As an independent campaign effort, "Citizens for Reagan in '80" is not limited (as federal law restricts the official Reagan for President campaign) in the amount of money it can spend to help nominate Reagan — there is no limit on the amount of funds "Citizens for Reagan in '80" can spend to win the critical primaries and state conventions. And this special campaign effort can continue on behalf of Ronald Reagan after he is nominated even though federal law restricts the amount of money that the official campaign can spend after the nominations.

And FCM's "Citizens for Reagan in '80" effort can receive maximum individual contributions of $5,000 whereas the official Reagan for President campaign is limited to maximum donations of $1,000 per person.

Re: MUR 1225

Dear Mr. Reiche:

0 2 0 4 0 3 3 5 1 5 9

We are writing in response to your letter to Mr. Kenneth Boehm, Treasurer of Fund for a Conservative Majority, dated June 12, 1981, in which it was reported that the Federal Election Commission ("the Commission") determined there is reason to believe that Fund for a Conservative Majority ("FCM") may have violated 2 U.S.C. 441a(a) by making excessive in-kind contributions to the Reagan campaign. Specifically, the General Counsel's factual and legal analysis, which formed the basis for the Commission's finding, noted that FCM may have recorded one or more speeches by candidate Reagan and may have re-published the material in its advertising program. The Office of General Counsel suggests that, if that activity came within the ambit of 11 CFR 109.1(d)(1), the fee paid to record the speech coupled with subsequent costs incurred for the advertisements would be in-kind contributions. If these in-kind contributions exceeded the limits of 2 U.S.C. 441a(a), then FCM would have violated the Act.

In the section entitled, "Factual Basis and Legal Analysis," of the Notification of Reason to Believe Finding, it was noted that the February monthly report (01/01/80 to 01/31/80) of FCM listed a disbursement on January 4, 1980, to Pyramid Video in the amount of $62.40 for "Recording Reagan Speech." It was also noted that the September monthly report (08/01/80 to 08/31/80) listed a disbursement on August 1, 1980, to Rhatigan and Associates in the amount of $62.40 for "Studio time for recording of Reagan speech."

Page Two
July 8, 1981

Upon investigation, it has been determined that the reported payments were duplicate payments for a single recording made at Pyramid Video on December 12, 1979.

In substantiation of the foregoing, we enclose the following:

Exhibit A - Invoice PV790355, dated December 17, 1979, of Pyramid Video to Rhatican and Associates, Inc. and in the amount of $62.40, for "off air audio recording" on December 12, 1979.

Exhibit B - Invoice RA291, dated December 31, 1979, of Rhatican and Associates, Inc. to Fund for a Conservative Majority and in the amount of $62.40, for "studio time for recording of Reagan announcement speech" on December 12, 1979. The invoice of Pyramid Studios, Exhibit A, was attached to this invoice from Rhatican and Associates, Inc.

Exhibit C - Carbon of check number 803 of Fund for a Conservative Majority, dated January 4, 1980, drawn to the order of Pyramid Video and in the amount of $62.40. The description on the check register references invoice PV790355, the invoice from Pyramid Video (see Exhibit A).

Exhibit D - A duplicate of Exhibit B, Invoice RA291 of Rhatican and Associates, Inc., with a notation, "Here is the copy of the old invoice your records don't show...." (It appears that the records of Fund for a Conservative Majority did not reflect payment of this invoice, because the check register referenced only the Pyramid Video invoice.)

Exhibit E - Carbon of check number 2511 of Fund for a Conservative Majority, dated August 1, 1980, drawn to the order of Rhatican and Associates, Inc. and in the amount of $62.40. The description on the check register references invoice 291, the invoice from Rhatican and Associates, Inc. (see Exhibit B and Exhibit D).

July 8, 1981

As a consequence of the foregoing, this matter relates to a single off-the-air audio recording on December 12, 1979 of then-candidate Reagan's live announcement that he was a candidate for the Republican nomination for election as President of the United States. The recording was made at Pyramid Video, 2419 M Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20037, through the auspices of Rhatican and Associates, Inc., formerly at 1011 Arlington Boulevard, Arlington, Virginia 22209. (Rhatican and Associates, Inc. is no longer an operating concern.) We are advised that the decision to make the recording, and the person who supervised the recording, was Mr. Ralph Galliano, the then Executive Director of FCM. (Mr. Galliano is no longer employed by FCM.) The fact that the speech was to be made and the time of the speech was general knowledge, the event having received advance attention to the press, and there was no communication with the Reagan campaign committee regarding the speech, the recording of the speech or the subsequent use of the recording. Neither FCM nor its agents advised the Reagan campaign committee that the speech was being recorded by FCM; and, as a consequence, the Reagan campaign committee did not cooperate in any way with the recording of the speech.

Utilizing the recording made of then-candidate Reagan's announcement speech, FCM produced a series of sixty and thirty second radio advertisements, the transcripts of which are enclosed. It will be noted that each advertisement contains an excerpt from the speech. An exhaustive search of the records revealed that FCM placed those advertisements between March 10, 1980 and April 30, 1980 with radio stations in Tennessee, Connecticut, Pennsylvania and Texas. Copies of the purchase orders for the placement of those advertisements are enclosed.

The activity of FCM in recording the speech and in producing and placing the advertisements was not made with the cooperation or with the prior consent of, or in consultation with, or at the request or suggestion of then-candidate Reagan or of any agent or authorized committee of then-candidate Reagan. Furthermore, the production and placement of the advertisements did not constitute the republication of "campaign materials" as contemplated in 11 CFR 109.1(d)(1). Aside from the questionable constitutional validity of 11 CFR 109.1(d)(1), that section of the regulations was designed

The Honorable Frank P. Reiche

to inhibit the re-publication, as an independent expenditure, of paraphernalia and advertisements designed and produced by a candidate's campaign committee, to wit: "campaign materials". That section was not designed to inhibit, or could it be properly interpreted to inhibit, the republication of public statements of a candidate, secured by the independent expeditor from the public airwaves in the absence of consultation with the candidate and in the absence of the candidate's cooperation, consent, request or suggestion.

There is no evidence that the recording made on December 12, 1979 was otherwise utilized by FCM then as described above; or, that FCM recorded any other speech or utterance made by Ronald Reagan, which was used by FCM in communications to the public.

By reason of the fact that the production and distribution of the subject advertisements by FCM was not the type of activity addressed in 11 CFR 109.1(d)(1), the funds expended in furtherance of the activity did not constitute in-kind contributions to the Reagan campaign. Accordingly, this matter should be dismissed.

Sincerely yours

J. Curtis Herge

Jim: Joe, as a conservative Democrat, I voted for Jimmy Carter in 1976. But today, I simply can't. Who should I vote for?

Joe: Well, Jim, I used to think I was going to vote for George Bush, but not now! I've decided to go with Ronald Reagan.

Jim: Really? Why not vote for Bush? I thought he was conservative.

Joe: I thought so, too, until I read about what Bush really believes, and how he voted when he was in Congress. He supports the drafting of women, the Equal Rights Amendment - he even voted for gun control.

Jim: Good grief, Joe - I didn't know that. I thought Bush was a conservative, but I guess he isn't.

Joe: Nope. George Bush isn't my idea of conservative, and that's why I'm voting for Ronald Reagan. I know where he stands.

Jim: I'm joining you, Joe. I'm voting for Ronald Reagan, too.

Announcer: Ronald Reagan is a conservative. He knows how to bring government under control. Reagan did it as Governor of California. If the current 18% Carter inflation scares you, like it does me, then vote for Ronald Reagan in the upcoming primary. Paid for by Fund for a Conservative Majority and not authorized by any candidate or candidate's committee.

Sam: Bill, who do we vote for, Reagan or Bush? Is there a difference?

Bill: You bet, Sam! Ronald Reagan is Governor of California and brought government under control. Reagan cut the cheaters and eliminated the waste from the welfare program in California. He saved the taxpayers millions of dollars and actually increased the help to the truly needy. Reagan has top executive experience in running government. He actually sent a tax rebate check to every taxpayer. Reagan can bring our Federal government under control, too.

Sam: Come to think of it, Bill, George Bush hasn't done any of those things. He's never run a government. And a lot of Bush's program will add even more government to what we already have.

Bill: Sam, we need less government, not more.

Sam: You're right, Bill. We need Ronald Reagan, not George Bush.

Announcer: It's time for a change. It's time for Ronald Reagan. Inflation is now running at 18% a year. It must be stopped. Send a message to Washington. Vote for Ronald Reagan in the upcoming primary. Paid for by Fund for a Conservative Majority and not authorized by any candidate or candidate's committee.

Man:

Fifty-seven dollars! I used to be able to go to the grocery store and buy a week's worth of food for fifty-seven dollars! And I have two children. Well, I guess those days are gone forever . . .

Announcer:

Help bring government under control. Stop the current 18% inflation. This time, vote in the Republican primary. This time, vote for conservative. Vote for Ronald Reagan. Paid for by Fund for a Conservative Majority and not authorized by any candidate or candidate's committee.

Announcer:

In 1979 more than $650 of your hard-earned money went directly to OPEC. The OPEC cartel has put the squeeze on us. Did you ever think that this winter you'd have to choose between heating your home and feeding your family? Governor Ronald Reagan has some strong ideas on what our energy policies should be.

Reagan:

First, we must decide that less is not enough. Next we must remove government obstacles to energy production. We need more energy and that means diversifying our sources of supply away from the OPEC countries. Yes, it means more efficient automobiles, but it also means more exploration and development of oil and natural gas here in our own country.

Announcer:

Inflation is running at 18 percent a year. Government spending has increased over 200 billion dollars since Carter became President in 1976. The Federal government continues to grow. Cuba thumbs its nose at us. The Russians have taken over Afghanistan. Look what's happening in Angola, Ethiopia, Rhodesia, Iran, Nicaragua, and El Salvador. Well, if you've had enough, this time vote for Ronald Reagan. Paid for by Fund for a Conservative Majority and not authorized by any candidate or candidate's committee.

Announcer: Governor Ronald Reagan

Reagan: It is time to send unmistakable signals to the Soviets, and for that matter, to our allies; signals that we intend to provide world leadership for those nations who want to remain free. The presence of American airpower in the Middle East, Naval forces in the Persian Gulf area, the resumption of arms delivery to Pakistan. The President cancelled arms to that country and is now offering them much less, it is true that he asked for increased spending in our defense budget, but since it is he who cancelled the B-1 bomber, the neutron warhead, shut down the Minute Man Three production line, slowed the MX, the cruise missile, the Trident submarine, and cut the Navy ship building program in half, we have a right to ask what specific plan does he have for restoring the military supremacy we once had.

Announcer: In the upcoming Presidential primary, vote for Governor Reagan. The preceding announcement has been sponsored by the Fund for a Conservative Majority, and has not been authorized by any candidate.

Announcer: Governor Ronald Reagan:

Reagan: By reducing Federal tax rates, will they discourage individual initiative, especially in the personal income tax? We can restore incentives, invite greater economic growth, and at the same time, help give us a better government instead of a bigger government. In short, a punitive tax system must be replaced by one that restores incentive for the workers and for industry, a system that rewards initiative and effort, and encourages thrift. Now, all of these things are possible, none of them will be easy, but the choice is clear. We cannot go on letting our country slip over the brink of financial ruin. We can find that we will work together, restore confidence in ourselves, and regain the confidence of the world.

Announcer: The preceding announcement has been sponsored by the Fund for a Conservative Majority, and has not been authorized by any candidate.

Announcer: Governor Ronald Reagan

Reagan: In recent months, leaders of our government have told us that we, as a people, have lost confidence in ourselves, but we must regain our spirit and our will to achieve National goals. While it's true we lack confidence, there's an unease all over this land with things the way they are, but the confidence we've lost is confidence in our government's policies. Our unease can almost be called bewilderment, our Nation hungers for a spiritual revival, hungers once again to see honor placed above political expediency to see government once again the protector of our liberties, not the distributor of gifts and privilege, a government that should uphold and not undermine those institutions which are the custodians of the very values upon which civilization is founded: religion, education and, above all, family."

Announcer: The preceding announcement has been sponsored by the Fund for a Conservative Majority, and has not been authorized by any candidate.

Jim: Bill, I hear John Connolly's not doing so well in the polls.

Bill: That's right, Jim, and you know that leaves Republicans with the choice between Ronald Reagan and George Bush.

Jim: Well, if that's my choice, you can bet I'll vote for Reagan. Bush is for gun control! He voted for the 1968 Gun Control Act.

Bill: You're kidding. Does he still feel that way?

Jim: I'm afraid so. I just read where last fall Bush said gun control is necessary and he is in favor of it.

Bill: Well, that's enough for me. Bush is for gun control, for drafting women - he refuses to support Constitutional amendmendments we need to stop abortion, forced bussing, and balance the Federal budget. I'm changing my vote from Bush to Ronald Reagan.

Announcer: Ronald Reagan has consistently supported the right of every law abiding citizen to keep and bear arms. Reagan is the only Republican candidate with the successful experience of running government. He was Governor of California for eight years. Vote for Ronald Reagan in the upcoming Republican primary. America needs strong leadership. America needs Ronald Reagan. Paid for by Fund for a Conservative Majority and not authorized by any candidate or candidate's committee.

Announcer: Women in the military, you've got to be kidding.

Man: I'm afraid not both President Carter and George Bush believe that women should be registered for the draft.

Man II: Women drafted! George Bush believes that? Boy, am I disappointed. I thought Bush was my choice for President. I thought Bush was conservative.

Man: Yeah, I thought I might vote for Bush, too, but America needs to rebuild its military strength fast, and drafting women isn't the way to do that.

Man II: I don't want my daughter to be drafted and sent off to the Persian Gulf to fight. No, I'm changing my vote from Bush to Reagan.

Man: I think you're right. I'm switching from Bush to Reagan, too.

Announcer: Ronald Reagan has repeatedly warned President Carter not to trust the Russians and has always believed that America must be militarily superior to the Soviet Union. If you agree that America must rebuild its military strength, to defend our vital interests, then vote for Ronald Reagan. Send a message to Russia that America will not become a second rate military power. On February 26, vote for Ronald Reagan. This announcement paid for by Fund for a Conservative Majority and not by any candidate or candidate's committee.

Announcer: Ladies and Gentlemen, Governor Ronald Reagan

Reagan: We, who are privileged to be Americans, have had a rendezvous with Destiny since the moment, in 1630, when John Winthrop, standing on the deck of the tiny Arbella off the coast of Massachusetts, told the little band of Pilgrims there with him, "We shall be at the city upon a hill, a troubled and afflicted mankind, looked to us, pleading for us, to keep our rendezvous with Destiny, pleading that we will uphold the principles of self-reliance, self-discipline, morality and, above all, responsible liberty for every individual that we will become a shining city upon a hill."

Announcer: In the upcoming Presidential primary, vote for Governor Ronald Reagan. The preceding announcement has been sponsored by the Fund for a Conservative Majority, and has not been authorized by any candidate.

Reagan:

I've lived through one depression. I carry with me the memory of the Christmas Eve my brother and I and our parents were exchanging our modest gifts. There was no lighted tree as there had been in Christmases past. I remember watching my father open an envelope he thought was a greeting from his employer. We were all watching him. Yes, we were hoping it was a Christmas check. It was a notice that he no longer had a job. I'll carry with me always the picture of my father sitting there with that envelope in his hand, unable to look at the rest of us. I cannot, I will not, stand by while inflation and joblessness rob our people of their dignity.

Mary: Jimmy, I simply don't know how we're gonna be able to save for the future. Inflation is running at almost 20 percent. What can we do?

Jimmy: Mary, for the first time, I'm voting in the Republican primary. Government causes inflation, we all know it, and Ronald Reagan is the only candidate for President who is ready to bring government under control.

Mary: Well, I'm scared, Jimmy, because inflation is literally destroying us. All we've worked for and saved for, for little John's and Sara's educations and for our own retirement. I guess I'll vote for Reagan, too. I just don't feel comfortable voting for George Bush. When Reagan speaks, I feel confident he understands our problems. This time I'm voting for Ronald Reagan.

Announcer: America desperately needs strong and effective leadership. America needs Ronald Reagan. Ronald Reagan is the only Republican candidate who has proven ability to lead our country. Vote for Ronald Reagan in the upcoming primary. Paid for by Fund for a Conservative Majority and not authorized by any candidate or candidate's committee.

Man: Honey, I've just figured our income tax and, you know, I'm tired of big government - all that waste, those high taxes. But what choice do we have?

Woman: Well, I just read that Ronald Reagan supports real tax cuts, 30 percent over the next 3 years, and Reagan claims to limit the size and power of the Federal government. George Bush doesn't support those tax cuts.

Man: I didn't know that. Hmmm, I think I might change my vote from George Bush to Ronald Reagan. I know where Ronald Reagan stands. He's conservative and he does have experience. He understands how to limit government. He did it in California. He saved a lot of tax money in California. I'm not going to vote for Bush. I'm changing my vote to Reagan.

Announcer: Ronald Reagan is the only Republican candidate who has actually run government. He was Governor of California for 8 years, streamlined the bureauracy and actually sent a tax rebate check to every California taxpayer. Reagan has the experience we need in a President. Kenneth Boehm
1022 Wilson Boulevard #1401
Arlington, Virginia 22209

Re: MUR 1225

Dear Mr. Boehm:

On June 9, 1981, the Federal Election Commission determined that there is reason to believe that your committee violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"), specifically 2 U.S.C. §441a(a) by making excessive in-kind contributions to the Reagan campaign. The General Counsel's factual and legal analysis, which formed a basis for the Commission's finding, is attached for your information.

Under the Act, you have an opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken against your committee. Please submit any factual or legal materials which you believe are relevant to the Commission's consideration of this matter. Additionally, please submit answers to the enclosed interrogatories. Your response must be submitted to the Commission within 15 days of your receipt of this letter. Statements should be submitted under oath.

In the absence of any additional information which demonstrates that no further action should be taken against your committee, the Commission may find probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred and proceed with formal conciliation. Of course, this does not preclude the settlement of this matter through informal conciliation prior to a finding of probable cause to believe if you so desire.

The investigation now being conducted will be confidential in accordance with 2 U.S.C. § 437(a)(4)(B) and § 437g(a)(12)(A), unless you notify the Commission in writing that you wish the investigation to be made public.

If you intend to be represented by counsel in this matter, please advise the Commission by sending a letter of representation stating the name, address and telephone number of such counsel, and a statement authorizing such counsel to receive any notifications and other communications from the Commission.

For your information, we have attached a brief description of the Commission's procedures for handling possible violations of the Act. If you have any questions, please contact Duane A. Brown, the attorney assigned to this matter, at (202)523-4057.

Sincerely,

Re: MUR 1225

Dear Mr. Boehm:

On June , 1981, the Federal Election Commission determined that there is reason to believe that your committee violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"), specifically 2 U.S.C. §441a(a) by making excessive in-kind contributions to the Reagan campaign. The General Counsel's factual and legal analysis, which formed a basis for the Commission's finding, is attached for your information.

Under the Act, you have an opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken against your committee. Please submit any factual or legal materials which you believe are relevant to the Commission's consideration of this matter. Additionally, please submit answers to the enclosed interrogatories. Your response must be submitted to the Commission within 15 days of your receipt of this letter. Statements should be submitted under oath.

In the absence of any additional information which demonstrates that no further action should be taken against your committee, the Commission may find probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred and proceed with formal conciliation. Of course, this does not preclude the settlement of this matter through informal conciliation prior to a finding of probable cause to believe if you so desire.

The investigation now being conducted will be confidential in accordance with 2 U.S.C. § 437(a)(4)(B) and § 437g(a)(12)(A), unless you notify the Commission in writing that you wish the investigation to be made public.

RESPONDENT: Fund for a Conservative
Majority

SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

In a referral to the Office of General Counsel the Reports Analysis Division has questioned whether the Fund for a Conservative Majority may have violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a), (see 11 C.F.R. § 109.1(d)(1)) by making in-kind contributions to the Reagan Campaign.

FACTUAL BASIS AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

A review of the reports of Fund for a Conservative Majority indicates that the February monthly report (01/01/80 to 01/31/80) lists a disbursement on January 4, 1980, to Pyramid Video in the amount of $62.40 for "Recording Reagan Speech." The September monthly report (08/01/80 to 08/31/80) lists a disbursement on August 1, 1980, to Rhatican and Associates in the amount of $62.40 for "Studio time for recording of Reagan speech." Other monthly reports list disbursements for recordings but do not indicate what was being recorded.

The reports of the Fund for a Conservative Majority also indicate that Fund for a Conservative Majority made numerous radio, television and print advertisements on behalf of Reagan's campaign. If the Fund for a Conservative Majority recorded speeches or utterances by Reagan and subsequently used those recordings in subsequent communications to the public those expenditures, rather than being independent expenditures, may be in-kind contributions.<sup>1/</sup>

<sup>1/</sup> In a telephone conversation on March 13, 1980, which a Commission staff member had with Ralph Galliano, Executive Director of the Fund for a Conservative Majority, Mr. Galliano indicated that the recording of the Reagan speech, entered as a disbursement of January 4, 1980, was done for the purpose of making independent expenditures in support of Reagan.

11 C.F.R. § 109.1(d)(1) states that:

The financing of the dissemination, distribution, or republication in whole or in part, of any broadcast or any written, graphic, or other form of campaign materials prepared by the candidate, his campaign committees, or their authorized agents shall be considered a contribution for the purpose of contribution limitations and reporting responsibilities by the person making the expenditures ...

The regulation indicates, therefore, that if the Fund for a Conservative Majority used a Reagan speech in its advertisements, the fee paid to record the speech coupled with subsequent costs incurred for the advertisements would be in-kind contributions. If these in-kind contributions exceeded the limits of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a) then the Fund for a Conservative Majority would have violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a).2/

Based on the reports filed by the Fund for a Conservative Majority and on the communication of Mr. Galliano, it appears that the Fund for a Conservative Majority violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a). Therefore, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that the Fund for a Conservative Majority violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a).

RECOMMENDATION

1. Find reason to believe the Fund for a Conservative Majority violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a).

2/ Fund for a Conservative Majority would also be required to report these expenditures as in-kind contributions on its reports pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 434.

SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

In a referral to the Office of General Counsel the Reports Analysis Division has questioned 1/ whether the Fund for a Conservative Majority may have violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a), (see 11 C.F.R. § 109.1(d)(1)) by making in-kind contributions to the Reagan campaign. The Reports Analysis Division's referral, including subsequent referral updates, is attached to this report as Attachment I.

1/ The Reports Analysis Division also questioned whether the Fund for a Conservative Majority had failed to report a $5,000 contribution from the Realtors Political Action Committee. The contribution had been reported in the June monthly report (05/01/80 to 05/31/80) of the Realtors Political Action Committee (see page 104 of Attachment I) but was not reported by the Fund for a Conservative Majority. The Realtors Political Action Committee, subsequently, in its 1980 30 day Post General Report reported that the $5,000 contribution check had been lost and was never delivered to the Fund for a Conservative Majority (see page 120 Attachment I).

FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

A review of the reports of Fund for a Conservative Majority indicates that the February monthly report (01/01/80 to 01/31/80) lists a disbursement on January 4, 1980, to Pyramid Video in the amount of $62.40 for "Recording Reagan Speech" (see page 10 of Attachment I.) The September monthly report (08/01/80 to 08/31/80) lists a disbursement on August 1, 1980, to Rhatican and Associates in the amount of $62.40 for "Studio time for recording of Reagan speech" (see page 112 of Attachment I). Other monthly reports list disbursements for recordings but do not indicate what was being recorded.

The reports of the Fund for a Conservative Majority also indicate that Fund for a Conservative Majority made numerous radio, television and print advertisements on behalf of Reagan's campaign. If the Fund for a Conservative Majority recorded speeches or utterances by Reagan or by George Bush and subsequently used those recordings in subsequent communications to the public those expenditures, rather than being independent expenditures, may be in-kind contributions.<sup>2/</sup>

11 C.F.R. § 109.1(d)(1) states that:

The financing of the dissemination, distribution, or republication in whole or in part, of any broadcast or any written, graphic, or other form of campaign materials prepared by the candidate, his campaign committees, or their authorization agents shall be considered a contribution for the purpose of contribution limitations and reporting responsibilities by the person making the expenditures ...

The regulation indicates, therefore, that if the Fund for a Conservative Majority used a Reagan or Bush speech in its advertisements, the fee paid to record the speech coupled with subsequent costs

<sup>2/</sup> In a telephone conversation which a Commission staff member had with Ralph Galliano, Executive Director of the Fund for a Conservative Majority, Mr. Galliano indicated that the recording of the Reagan speech, entered as a disbursement of January 4, 1980, was done primarily for the purpose of making independent expenditures in support of Reagan (see page 49 of Attachment I).

incurred for the advertisements would be in-kind contributions.<sup>3/</sup> If these in-kind contributions exceeded the limits of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a) then the Fund for a Conservative Majority would have violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a).<sup>4/</sup>

Based on the reports filed by the Fund for a Conservative Majority and on the communication of Mr. Galliano, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that the Fund for a Conservative Majority violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a). Further, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission approve the sending of interrogatories to the Fund for a Conservative Majority. These interrogatories should clarify if the Fund for a Conservative Majority recorded speeches or utterances made by Ronald Reagan or George Bush and if those recordings were used by Fund for a Conservative Majority in communications to the public to support the Reagan candidacy.

RECOMMENDATIONS

The Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission:

1. Find reason to believe the Fund for a Conservative Majority violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a).
2. Approve and authorize the sending of the attached interrogatories.
3. Approve and authorize the sending of the attached letter and notification of reason to believe finding.

<sup>3/</sup> There is no information at this time which would indicate that the expenditures by Fund for a Conservative Majority might also be considered expenditures by the Reagan campaign committee (see 11 C.F.R. 109.1(d)(1)).

<sup>4/</sup> Fund for a Conservative Majority would also be required to report these expenditures as in-kind contributions on its reports pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 434.

Dear Mr. Boehm:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's preliminary review of your February Monthly Report. Note: RFAs were only sent on those reports which contain the phrase "Reagan in 80 File". However, the committee has been making independent expenditures for Reagan since June 1979. Thus, the matter in question probably extends from June 1979 to the present.

TELECON TO THE FILE: FUND FOR A CONSERVATIVE MAJORITY

FROM: MARK KLEINMAN

DATE: 3-13-80

-----
RE: RFAIs --- Independent Expenditures and Reagan

I spoke with Ralph Galliano, Executive Director, 524-4400.

He first went over the "Recorded Speech" of Ronald Reagan. He stated that a camera crew, had shot some footage of Reagan while making a speech. He further stated that the committee was going to use this to make "Independent Expenditures". I told the caller that I would have to check to see, if this would be an Independent Expenditure or an in-kind contribution. After speaking to some people, I advised Mr. Galliano, that he should ask for an Advisory Opinion because we simply could not say for sure whether the circumstances would be independent. I stated that based upon this description, that we would proceed with compliance action, through OGC, if the committee operated in this fashion without having further guidance.

I also discussed with him, the entries to Lloyd Daugherty for "Expenses". He stated that Mr. Daugherty was a "field man coordinator for Citizens For Reagan". I asked if this was a separate committee. He stated that "Citizens For Reagan" was merely an "in-house" name, and that when communicating in anyway with the public they use "Fund For A Conservative Majority". I told him to respond by indicating the purpose of the "expenses".

I also discussed "Reagan in 80 File". Mr. Galliano stated that his attorney was working on a response. I stated that the crux of the issue was whether the contributors knew that they were specifically contributing to "Independent Expenditures for Reagan". (Note the committee has spent in excess of $90,000 on Independent Expenditures for Reagan).

The caller was saying that this was ("Reagan in 80 File")merely a term used by the computer company.

Ralph Galliano, Executive Director

Re: Fund for a Conservative Majority

Dear Mr. Kleinman:

On behalf of Fund for a Conservative Majority, we are writing in response to your four letters, each dated March 5, 1980, in which you requested explanations of the following:

1. The entries on Schedule A, Line 14(a), entitled "Reagan in 80 File", of the November Monthly Report (10-1-79 to 10-31-79), the December Monthly Report (11-1-79 to 11-30-79) and the Year End Report (12-1-79 to 12-31-79).
2. The entry on Schedule E, Line 23, to Pyramid Video "Recording Reagan Speech" 1-4-80 $62.40, in the February Monthly Report (1-1-80 to 1-31-80).
3. The listed expenditures to Lloyd Daugherty for $343.00 and $198.00 respectively in the February Monthly Report (1-1-80 to 1-31-80).

With reference to the entries on Schedule A, Line 14(a) of the subject reports filed by Fund for a Conservative Majority, you have inquired whether the referenced contributions were earmarked by reason of the fact that the entries on Schedule A were captioned "FCM Reagan in 80 File". The referenced contributions were not earmarked, as that term is defined in the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, and 11 CFR 110.6. Fund for a Conservative Majority has neither solicited nor accepted contributions on behalf of the Reagan for President Committee, or which are in any way earmarked or otherwise directed to Governor Reagan's campaign.

Fund for a Conservative Majority has established and is administering a program, consisting of making independent expenditures advocating the election of Governor Reagan as President. This program is one portion of the activities of Fund for a Conservative Majority, which is a multi-candidate committee (FCM is not a single candidate committee), and it is advertised as "Citizens for Reagan in '80, a project of Fund for a Conservative Majority" over a non-authorization notice, as required by 11 CFR 109.4, which reads "Paid for by Fund for a Conservative Majority and not authorized by any candidate or candidate's committee". In all solicitations for contributions to Fund for a Conservative Majority, it is made clear that contributions will be used in connection with its independent expenditure program and also in connection other Federal campaigns. The contributor is directed to make his or her checks payable to Fund for a Conservative Majority or FCM.

The caption, "FCM Reagan in 80 File" on Schedule A, refers to the name of a list of contributors who contributed to Fund for a Conservative Majority in response to direct-mail solicitations captioned, "Citizens for Reagan in '80, a project of Fund for a Conservative Majority", and which otherwise contain the statements referred to above.

As a result of the foregoing, Fund for a Conservative Majority cannot be termed a conduit or intermediary. In order to avoid any confusion in the future, however, the caption will not appear on future reports.

With reference to the entry on Schedule E, Line 23, regarding an expenditure to Pyramid Video, for recording a speech by Governor Reagan, you have inquired whether the expenditure is subject to the provisions of 11 CFR 109.1 (d). The expenditure was incurred in connection with the independent expenditure program of Fund for a Conservative Majority in support of the election of Governor Reagan as President. The recording was made of a speech made by Governor Reagan which was not made with the cooperation or with the prior consent of, or in consultation with, or at the request or suggestion of, Governor Reagan or any agent or authorized committee of Governor Reagan. The recording fee paid to Pyramid Video did not constitute "the dissemination, distribution, or republication, in whole or in part, of any broadcast or any written, graphic, or other form of campaign materials prepared by the candidate, his campaign committees or their authorized agents...." See 11 CFR 109.1(d).

With reference to the listed expenditures to Lloyd Daugherty, we are advised that the sum of $343.00 was paid to Mr. Daugherty to reimburse him for travel expenses ($289.00) and telephone charges ($54.00) incurred by him on behalf of Fund for a Conservative Majority; and, that the sum of $198.00 was paid to Mr. Daugherty to reimburse him for travel expenses ($110.00) and telephone charges ($88.00) also incurred by him on behalf of Fund for a Conservative Majority.

Fund for a Conservative Majority will amend the applicable reports to reflect the expenditure made to Pyramid Video as an operating expense on Schedule B and to provide the explanation for the sums paid to Mr. Daugherty.

Sincerely yours,

J. Curtis Herge

NOTE: Attached are schedules of radio and TV advertisements reported by the committee, after the expenditure for Reagan's speech of 1-4-80. It is possible that the committee utilized Reagan's speech in these advertisements which would make these in-kind contributions. The total amount is over $19,000, for these advertisements, based upon reports which have been filed so far (through 2-29-80).

Re: MUR 1225

Dear Mr. Boehm:

On June , 1981, the Federal Election Commission determined that there is reason to believe that your committee violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"), specifically 2 U.S.C. §441a(a) by making excessive in-kind contributions to the Reagan campaign. The General Counsel's factual and legal analysis, which formed a basis for the Commission's finding, is attached for your information.

Under the Act, you have an opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken against your committee. Please submit any factual or legal materials which you believe are relevant to the Commission's consideration of this matter. Additionally, please submit answers to the enclosed interrogatories. Your response must be submitted to the Commission within 15 days of your receipt of this letter. Statements should be submitted under oath.

In the absence of any additional information which demonstrates that no further action should be taken against your committee, the Commission may find probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred and proceed with formal conciliation. Of course, this does not preclude the settlement of this matter through informal conciliation prior to a finding of probable cause to believe if you so desire.

The investigation now being conducted will be confidential in accordance with 2 U.S.C. § 437(a)(4)(B) and § 437g(a)(12)(A), unless you notify the Commission in writing that you wish the investigation to be made public.

MUR: 1225
STAFF MEMBER & TEL. NO.
Duane A. Brown
(202)523-4057

RESPONDENT: Fund for a Conservative Majority

SOURCE OF MUR: INTERNALLY GENERATED

SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

In a referral to the Office of General Counsel the Reports Analysis Division has questioned whether the Fund for a Conservative Majority may have violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a), (see 11 C.F.R. § 109.1(d)(1)) by making in-kind contributions to the Reagan Campaign.

FACTUAL BASIS AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

A review of the reports of Fund for a Conservative Majority indicates that the February monthly report (01/01/80 to 01/31/80) lists a disbursement on January 4, 1980, to Pyramid Video in the amount of $62.40 for "Recording Reagan Speech." The September monthly report (08/01/80 to 08/31/80) lists a disbursement on August 1, 1980, to Rhatican and Associates in the amount of $62.40 for "Studio time for recording of Reagan speech." Other monthly reports list disbursements for recordings but do not indicate what was being recorded.

The reports of the Fund for a Conservative Majority also indicate that Fund for a Conservative Majority made numerous radio, television and print advertisements on behalf of Reagan's campaign. If the Fund for a Conservative Majority recorded speeches or utterances by Reagan or by George Bush and subsequently used those recordings in subsequent communications to the public those expenditures, rather than being independent expenditures, may be in-kind contributions.<sup>1/</sup>

11 C.F.R. § 109.1(d)(1) states that:

The financing of the dissemination, distribution, or republication in whole or in part, of any broadcast or any written, graphic, or other form of campaign materials prepared by the candidate, his campaign committees, or their authorization agents shall be considered a contribution for the purpose of contribution limitations and reporting responsibilities by the person making the expenditures ...

The regulation indicates, therefore, that if the Fund for a Conservative Majority used a Reagan or Bush speech in its advertisements, the fee paid to record the speech coupled with subsequent costs incurred for the advertisements would be in-kind contributions. If these in-kind contributions exceeded the limits of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a) then the Fund for a Conservative Majority would have violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a).<sup>2/</sup>

Based on the reports filed by the Fund for a Conservative Majority and on the communication of Mr. Galliano, it appears that the Fund for a Conservative Majority violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a). Therefore, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that the Fund for a Conservative Majority violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a).

RECOMMENDATION

1. Find reason to believe the Fund for a Conservative Majority violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a).

RELEVANT STATUTE: 2 U.S.C. § 434; 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(2)(A);

SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

In a review of the reports filed by the Realtors Political Action Committee ("Realtors"), the Reports Analysis Division determined that Realtors had made a $5,000 contribution on May 1, 1980 to Citizens for Reagan in '80, a project of the Fund for a Conservative Majority ("FCM"). FCM is a qualified multi-candidate committee having registered with the Commission on October 13, 1976. FCM failed to report the receipt of the $5,000 contribution from Realtors.

In addition, there is information which indicates that certain "independent expenditures" made by FCM are in fact in-kind contributions.<sup>1/</sup>

FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(1) states as follows:

- (1) Each treasurer of a political committee shall file reports of receipts and disbursements in accordance with the provisions of this subsection ...

2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(2)(D) states that:

Each report under this subsection shall disclose ... the total amount of all receipts ... [including] contributions from other political committees.

As noted earlier, Realtors made a $5,000 contribution to Citizens for Reagan in '80 which is a project of FCM. Since Citizens for Reagan in '80 is not a qualified political committee, but is a project of FCM, the Office of General Counsel concludes that the $5,000 from Realtors may be considered a contribution to FCM. FCM failed to report the receipt of this contribution in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 434.

Additionally, FCM made an expenditure on January 4, 1980 for the express purpose of recording a speech made by Ronald Reagan. FCM subsequently filed reports of expenditures for radio and television advertisements advocating the election of Governor Reagan after the expenditure was made to record Reagan's speech. The total amount expended for these advertisements through February 29, 1980 is in excess of $19,000. If, in fact, Reagan's prepared speech was used in the advertisements, FCM may have made an in-kind contribution to the Reagan for President Committee rather than an independent expenditure.<sup>2/</sup>

11 C.F.R. § 109.1(d)(1) specifically states that one type of expenditure not qualifying as being independent is:

The financing of the dissemination, distribution, or republication in whole or in part, of any broadcast or any written, graphic, or other form of campaign materials prepared by the candidate, his campaign committees, or their

<sup>2/</sup> In a telephone conversation with Ralph Galliano, FCM Executive Director, RAD staff ascertained that the videotaping of the Reagan speech was done primarily for the purpose of making "independent expenditures" in support of the Reagan Campaign.

authorized agents shall be considered a contribution for the purpose of contribution limitations and reporting responsibilities by the person making the expenditure ... [emphasis added].

It would appear, therefore, that if FCM used the Reagan speech in the advertisements noted above, the fee paid to videotape the Reagan speech coupled with subsequent costs incurred by FCM for radio and television advertisements may not qualify as independent expenditures but instead as in-kind contributions reportable by FCM.

2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(2)(A) states that:

No multicandidate political committee shall make contributions to any candidate and his authorized political committee with respect to any election for Federal office which, in the aggregate, exceed $5,000.

In that FCM admittedly made expenditures to disseminate and republish the Reagan speech in a manner which it considered "independent", and in that those expenditures may be found to be in-kind contributions to the Reagan campaign, interrogatories are proposed at this point since this MUR entails a factual inquiry to determine whether in-kind contributions were made by FCM and to determine how the speeches were used and the extent of their dissemination.<sup>1/</sup>

CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing legal and factual analysis, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that the Fund for a Conservative Majority has violated 2 U.S.C. § 434 for failing to report the $5,000 contribution from Realtors Political Action Committee and 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(2)(A) for making contributions to a candidate for Federal office which in the aggregate exceeds $5,000. In addition, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission approve the interrogatories attached to the First General Counsel's Report.

<sup>1/</sup> There is no information at this time which would arrive at the conclusion that the expenditures by FCM might be considered expenditures by the candidate or his authorized committees.

Reference: FEBRUARY MONTHLY (1-1-80 TO 1-31-80)

Dear Mr. Boehm:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's preliminary review of your February Monthly Report. The review raised questions as to specific contributions and/or expenditures, and the reporting of certain information required by the Federal Election Campaign Act. An itemization of these areas follows:

- Please clarify the entry on Schedule E, Line 23 to Pyramid Video "Recording Reagan Speech" 1-4-80 $62.40. You are advised that under Section 109.1(d) of the Commission's Regulations any expenditure to disseminate or republish a broadcast or other campaign materials prepared by a candidate is considered a contribution in-kind by the person making the contribution.
- You have listed expenditures to Lloyd Daugherty and Lloyd Daugherty for $343 and $198 respectively. An explanation must be given for all itemizable expenditures.

An amendment to your original report correcting the above problems should be filed with the Federal Election Commission within fifteen (15) days of the date of this letter. If you need assistance, please feel free to contact me on our toll free number, (800) 424-9530. My local number is (202) 357-0026.

Note: RFAIs were only sent on those reports which contain the phrase "Reagan in 80 File". However, the committee has been making independent expenditures for Reagan since June 1979. Thus, the matter in question probably extends from June 1979 to the present.

TELECON TO THE FILE: FUND FOR A CONSERVATIVE MAJORITY

FROM: MARK KLEINMAN

-----
RE: RFAIs --- Independent Expenditures and Reagan

I spoke with Ralph Galliano, Executive Director,
524-4400.

He first went over the "Recorded Speech" of Ronald Reagan. He stated that a camera crew, had shot some footage of Reagan while making a speech. He further stated that the committee was going to use this to make "Independent Expenditures". I told the caller that I would have to check to see, if this would be an Independent Expenditure or an in-kind contribution. After speaking to some people, I advised Mr. Galliano, that he should ask for an Advisory Opinion because we simply could not say for sure whether the circumstances would be independent. I stated that based upon this description, that we would proceed with compliance action, through OGC, if the committee operated in this fashion without having further guidance.

I also discussed with him, the entries to Lloyd Daugherty for "Expenses". He stated that Mr. Daugherty was a "field man coordinator for Citizens For Reagan". I asked if this was a separate committee. He stated that "Citizens For Reagan" was merely an "in-house" name, and that when communicating in anyway with the public they use "Fund For A Conservative Majority". I told him to respond by indicating the purpose of the "expenses".

I also discussed "Reagan in 80 File". Mr. Galliano stated that his attorney was working on a response. I stated that the crux of the issue was whether the contributors knew that they were specifically contributing to "Independent Expenditures for Reagan". (Note the committee has spent in excess of $90,000 on Independent Expenditures for Reagan).

The caller was saying that this was ("Reagan in 80 File")merely a term used by the computer company.

Ralph Galliano, Executive Director

Re: Fund for a Conservative Majority

Dear Mr. Kleinman:

On behalf of Fund for a Conservative Majority, we are writing in response to your four letters, each dated March 5, 1980, in which you requested explanations of the following:

1. The entries on Schedule A, Line 14(a), entitled "Reagan in 80 File", of the November Monthly Report (10-1-79 to 10-31-79), the December Monthly Report (11-1-79 to 11-30-79) and the Year End Report (12-1-79 to 12-31-79).
2. The entry on Schedule E, Line 23, to Pyramid Video "Recording Reagan Speech" 1-4-80 $62.40, in the February Monthly Report (1-1-80 to 1-31-80).
3. The listed expenditures to Lloyd Daugherty for $343.00 and $198.00 respectively in the February Monthly Report (1-1-80 to 1-31-80).

With reference to the entries on Schedule A, Line 14(a) of the subject reports filed by Fund for a Conservative Majority, you have inquired whether the referenced contributions were earmarked by reason of the fact that the entries on Schedule A were captioned "FCM Reagan in 80 File". The referenced contributions were not earmarked, as that term is defined in the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, and 11 CFR 110.6. Fund for a Conservative Majority has neither solicited nor accepted contributions on behalf of the Reagan for President Committee, or which are in any way earmarked or otherwise directed to Governor Reagan's campaign.

Fund for a Conservative Majority has established and is administering a program, consisting of making independent expenditures advocating the election of Governor Reagan as President. This program is one portion of the activities of Fund for a Conservative Majority, which is a multi-candidate committee (FCM is not a single candidate committee), and it is advertised as "Citizens for Reagan in '80, a project of Fund for a Conservative Majority" over a non-authorization notice, as required by 11 CFR 109.4, which reads "Paid for by Fund for a Conservative Majority and not authorized by any candidate or candidate's committee". In all solicitations for contributions to Fund for a Conservative Majority, it is made clear that contributions will be used in connection with its independent expenditure program and also in connection other Federal campaigns. The contributor is directed to make his or her checks payable to Fund for a Conservative Majority or FCM.

The caption, "FCM Reagan in 80 File" on Schedule A, refers to the name of a list of contributors who contributed to Fund for a Conservative Majority in response to direct-mail solicitations captioned, "Citizens for Reagan in '80, a project of Fund for a Conservative Majority", and which otherwise contain the statements referred to above.

As a result of the foregoing, Fund for a Conservative Majority cannot be termed a conduit or intermediary. In order to avoid any confusion in the future, however, the caption will not appear on future reports.

With reference to the entry on Schedule E, Line 23, regarding an expenditure to Pyramid Video, for recording a speech by Governor Reagan, you have inquired whether the expenditure is subject to the provisions of 11 CFR 109.1 (d). The expenditure was incurred in connection with the independent expenditure program of Fund for a Conservative Majority in support of the election of Governor Reagan as President. The recording was made of a speech made by Governor Reagan which was not made with the cooperation or with the prior consent of, or in consultation with, or at the request or suggestion of, Governor Reagan or any agent or authorized committee of Governor Reagan. The recording fee paid to Pyramid Video did not constitute "the dissemination, distribution, or republication, in whole or in part, of any broadcast or any written, graphic, or other form of campaign materials prepared by the candidate, his campaign committees or their authorized agents...." See 11 CFR 109.1(d).

With reference to the listed expenditures to Lloyd Daugherty, we are advised that the sum of $343.00 was paid to Mr. Daugherty to reimburse him for travel expenses ($289.00) and telephone charges ($54.00) incurred by him on behalf of Fund for a Conservative Majority; and, that the sum of $198.00 was paid to Mr. Daugherty to reimburse him for travel expenses ($110.00) and telephone charges ($88.00) also incurred by him on behalf of Fund for a Conservative Majority.

Fund for a Conservative Majority will amend the applicable reports to reflect the expenditure made to Pyramid Video as an operating expense on Schedule B and to provide the explanation for the sums paid to Mr. Daugherty.

Sincerely yours,

J. Curtis Herge

NOTE: Attached are schedules of radio and TV advertisements reported by the committee, after the expenditure for Reagan's speech of 1-4-80. It is possible that the committee utilized Reagan's speech in these advertisements which would make these in-kind contributions. The total amount is over $19,000, for these advertisements, based upon reports which have been filed so far (through 2-29-80).

RESPONDENT: Fund for a Conservative

BACKGROUND

In a review of the reports filed by the Realtors Political Action Committee ("Realtors"), the Reports Analysis Division determined that Realtors had made a $5,000 contribution on May 1, 1980 to Citizens for Reagan in '80, a project of the Fund for a Conservative Majority ("FCM"). FCM is a qualified multi-candidate committee having registered with the Commission on October 13, 1976. FCM failed to report the receipt of the $5,000 contribution from Realtors.

In addition, there is information which indicates that certain "independent expenditures" made by FCM are in fact in-kind contributions.

FACTUAL BASIS AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(1) states as follows:

- (1) Each treasurer of a political committee shall file reports of receipts and disbursements in accordance with the provisions of this subsection ...

2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(2)(D) states that:

Each report under this subsection shall disclose ... the total amount of all receipts ... [including] contributions from other political committees.

As noted earlier, Realtors made a $5,000 contribution to Citizens for Reagan in '80 which is a project of FCM. Since Citizens for Reagan in '80 is not a qualified political committee, but is a project of FCM, the Office of General Counsel concludes that the $5,000 from Realtors may be considered a contribution to FCM. FCM failed to report the receipt of this contribution in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 434.

Additionally, FCM made an expenditure on January 4, 1980 for the express purpose of recording a speech made by Ronald Reagan. FCM subsequently filed reports of expenditures for radio and television advertisements advocating the election of Governor Reagan after the expenditure was made to record Reagan's speech. The total amount expended for these advertisements through February 29, 1980 is in excess of $19,000. If, in fact, Reagan's prepared speech was used in the advertisements, FCM may have made an in-kind contribution to the Reagan for President Committee rather than an independent expenditure.

11 C.F.R. § 109.1(d)(1) specifically states that one type of expenditure not qualifying as being independent is:

The financing of the dissemination, distribution, or republication in whole or in part, of any broadcast or any written, graphic, or other form of campaign materials prepared by the candidate, his campaign committees, or their authorized agents shall be considered a contribution for the purpose of contribution limitations and reporting responsibilities by the person making the expenditure ... [emphasis added].

It would appear, therefore, that if FCM used the Reagan speech in the advertisements noted above, the fee paid to videotape the Reagan speech coupled with subsequent costs incurred by FCM for radio and television advertisements would not qualify as independent expenditures but instead as in-kind contributions reportable by FCM.

2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(2)(A) states that:

No multicandidate political committee shall make contributions to any candidate and his authorized political committee with respect to any election for Federal office which, in the aggregate, exceed $5,000.

Inasmuch as FCM admittedly made expenditures to disseminate and republish the Reagan speech in a manner which it considered "independent expenditures", and inasmuch as those expenditures have been found to be in-kind contributions to the Reagan campaign rather than independent expenditures, FCM has exceeded its contribution limitation and accordingly is in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(2)(A).

CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing legal and factual analysis, the Federal Election Commission has found reason to believe that the Fund for a Conservative Majority has violated 2 U.S.C. § 434, and 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(2)(A).

Re: MUR 1225

Dear Members of the Commission:

This letter is written on behalf of our client, Fund for a Conservative Majority (hereinafter FCM), to record its objection to the content of the General Counsel's Report on MUR 1225 and the resultant position taken by the Commission in disposing of the matter.

In the letter from the General Counsel to me, dated July 15, 1982, FCM was advised that expenditures made by it in recording an over the air broadcast of a Ronald Reagan speech, in copying a newspaper printing of a Ronald Reagan speech and in using excerpts from those speeches in advertisements appear, pursuant to 2 U.S.C. §441a(a)(7)(B)(ii) and 11 C.F.R. §109.1(d)(1), to be in-kind contributions rather than independent expenditures. That letter, which was approved and authorized by the Commission, then admonishes FCM to take immediate steps to insure that this activity not occur in the future. Notwithstanding this advice and admonition, the Commission determined to take no further action and to close its file on this matter.

It is respectfully submitted that, as the record in this matter stands, the Commission has done a disservice to FCM, in particular, and to the public at large, in general, who look to the Commission for guidance on the administration and enforcement of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. The Commission did not find probable cause to believe that FCM violated the provisions of 2 U.S.C. §441a(a)(7)(B)(ii) and 11 C.F.R. §109.1(d)(1), but nevertheless decided to caution

Federal Election Commission
July 27, 1982

FCM that the subject activities should never be repeated. Furthermore, the record as a whole raises more questions than it answers.

In the General Counsel's Report on MUR 1225, it is concluded that, upon a "literal"<sup>1/</sup> and a "broader"<sup>2/</sup> reading of 2 U.S.C. §441a(a)(7)(B)(ii) and 11 C.F.R. §109.1(d)(1), FCM's expenditures for the activities in question were not independent expenditures. The General Counsel's Report then continued, on pages 11 and 12, however, as follows:

"Saying this, however, the Office of General Counsel acknowledges that the factual situation in this case reaches the outer limits of the interpretation of 2 U.S.C. §441a(a)(7)(B)(ii) and 11 C.F.R. §109.1(d)(1). This is not a case where a third party walked into a candidate's campaign headquarters, picked up campaign brochures, and had them mailed to the voting public. FCM did not take physical materials produced by the Reagan campaign. Rather, in this case, we have the candidate making a public speech. In one instance a speech is broadcast for all to hear and in a second instance it is reprinted in a newspaper for all to read. The speeches had entered the public domain. FCM used portions of the speeches in its own advertisements absent any coordination with the Reagan campaign."
(Footnotes omitted.) (Emphasis in the original.)

The foregoing passage appears to be a recitation of reasons why it should not be concluded that FCM violated the relevant portions of the Act. These are not reasons why, simply because the matter is one of first impression as stated on page 13 of the General Counsel's Report, that the matter should not be pursued as a violation.

In footnote 9, the General Counsel's Report appears to suggest that an expenditure would be independent if a third party independently took a photograph of a candidate and then distributed the picture to the voting public. If the Office of General Counsel can find no objection to the independent distribution of a still photograph taken independently of the candidate, how may the Office of General Counsel find objectionable the independent distribution of a motion picture or videotape taken independently of the candidate? Is it because the motion picture or videotape may also capture the voice and speech of the candidate, as well as the image of the candidate? Does the Office of the General Counsel suggest that a third party may lawfully distribute a still photograph as an independent expenditure, but an independently taken and distributed sound motion picture of a candidate must be considered to be an in-kind contribution under 2 U.S.C. §441a(a)(7)(B)(ii) and 11 C.F.R. §109.1(d)(1)? If such is the position of the Office of General Counsel and of the Federal Election Commission, the forum for its pronouncement should not be in a letter closing the file on a compliance proceeding.

Further, in footnote 10, the General Counsel's Report suggests the situation where a group opposing Reagan's candidacy used a portion of a Reagan speech in an advertisement to impress on the voting public that, because of Reagan's position on a particular issue, the public should not vote for him. It would appear that such an activity, if the requirements of independence were otherwise met, would constitute an independent expenditure. Does the Office of General Counsel suggest, however, that a third party may not quote excerpts from a speech by a candidate to impress on the voting public that, because of a candidate's position on a particular issue, the public should vote for him without making that expenditure an in-kind contribution?

Finally, if FCM were to repeat the subject activities in the future, would not the case still reach "the outer limits of the interpretation of 2 U.S.C. §441a(a)(7)(B)(ii) and 11 C.F.R. § 109.1(d)(1)", or would further action on the matter be justified because it would no longer then be a case of first impression?

In conclusion, it is suggested that the factual and legal analysis in the General Counsel's Report on MUR 1225 must lead to a conclusion that the activities of FCM did not constitute a violation of the scope and purpose of 2 U.S.C. §441a(a)(7)(B)(ii) and 11 C.F.R. §109.1(d)(1). A contrary conclusion, that a third party - otherwise meeting the statutory qualifications of independence - may not publish or broadcast statements made by the candidate being supported, would place an untenable restraint on freedom of political expression.

FCM understands that this letter will be made part of the public record in MUR 1225.

Sincerely yours,

J. Curtis Herge
