WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lynn Busch

Busch-Traft

Sharee Lynn Traft and Frank Lynn Busch were married 3 p.m. on Saturday, Aug. 21, 2021 at their home. The Rev. Dr. Kenneth Cramer of LightHouse Church, Hayes, officiated. Music was provided by Liam Huth.

The bride is the daughter of Robert Bruce and Carole Rae Traft of Pennsylvania.

The groom is the son of Lloyd Ernest and Carolyn Elva Busch of Illinois.

The bride was attended by her daughter-in-law as matron of honor, Jenna Marshall. Hailey Horton, the bride's granddaughter, was the flower girl. She was escorted by her son, Matthew Traft.

The groom was attended by his best men, sons of the bride, Clayton Leager, Andrew Leager and Liam Huth.

Jenna Marshall was the mistress of ceremonies.

Following a wedding trip to Skyland Resort on Skyline Drive in Luray, the couple will make their home in Gloucester.

Native shrubs to plant this fall

BY SUSAN CAMP

Since I wrote about the invasiveness and toxicity of nandina or heavenly bamboo (Nandina domestica) in July, several people have asked me about non-invasive shrubs they could plant in place of nandina. A recent post on the Virginia Cooperative Extension Master Gardener Program Facebook page offered several suggestions for native spring- and summer-flowering shrubs. All of these shrubs are hardy in USDA Zones 4-9. I selected three to highlight.

Chokeberry (Aronia arbutifolia) is a deciduous shrub found in wet and dry thickets from Nova Scotia and Ontario south to Florida and Texas. This multi-stemmed shrub grows in a vase shape from 6 to 8 feet in height with a spread of 3 to 4 feet. White to pink flower clusters open in April. In summer, glossy, red fruits appear along the stems in dense clusters. The fruits remain on the plant into the winter. They are edible, but reported to be so astringent they can cause choking. The fruits can be made into jellies and jams. The oval, dark green leaves are grayish-green on the underside. Fall color is brilliant red. Chokeberry is a suckering shrub that forms colonies, so it should be planted in naturalized areas where its growth won't be restrained. Chokeberry grows well in average, well-drained soil in full sun to part shade. It tolerates boggy and clay soils. There are no serious diseases or insect pests.

Possumhaw viburnum (Viburnum nudum) is another eastern North American native. It grows to a height of 5 to 15 feet at maturity with a spread of similar size. It is a deciduous, multi-stemmed shrub with an upright growth habit. The flat-topped clusters of fragrant, white flowers bloom in May and June and attract butterflies. The oval berries change gradually from light to dark pink to dark blue or purplish-black. Berries of several colors sometimes appear on the same bush. The oblong, glossy, dark green leaves turn dark reddish-purple in the fall. Possumhaw viburnum grows well in medium to wet, well-drained soil in full sun to part shade. It requires minimal pruning. There are no serious diseases or insect pests. Grow as a hedge or beside a pond or water garden. Ilex decidua, a native holly, also is commonly called Possumhaw.

Pinxter azalea (Rhododendron periclymenoides) is a deciduous azalea native to the eastern United States. It grows naturally in swamps and moist woods. Pinxter azalea needs acidic, organically rich soil that drains well but retains some moisture. It is a bushy, suckering shrub. The shallow, fibrous roots should be mulched to help retain soil moisture. It reaches a mature height of 3 to 6 feet with a spread of 4 to 7 feet. Clusters of mildly fragrant white, pink, or lavender funnel-shaped flowers bloom in April before the leaves appear. The flowers attract bees, butterflies, and hummingbirds. Pinxter azalea grows in full sun to part shade, but leaves may scorch in full summer sunlight. While it has good resistance, pinxter azalea may suffer from the same diseases and insect pests as hybrid azaleas.

Regional native plant guides are available on the Virginia Native Plant Society website at vnps.org/virginia-native-plant-guides. You can purchase a hard copy or download the pdf for free. Detailed information and photos of each shrub are found on the North Carolina Extension Gardener Plant Toolbox at plants.ncsu.edu and the Missouri Botanical Garden Plant finder.

Update on bird mortality

On Aug. 19, 2021, the Virginia Department of Wildlife Resources (DWR) lifted its previous recommendation to stop feeding wild birds. It is safe to resume feeding. Use best practices when feeding birds: Clean and disinfect feeders and birdbaths with a 10% bleach solution at least once a week. Wear disposable gloves and wash your hands after cleaning feeders. Follow expert recommendations when feeding birds. Don't pick up dead birds without disposable gloves and keep pets away from sick or dead birds.

Putting their best foot forward

Bayside Youth Ballet's cookbook

BY BETTY WRENN DAY

The Bayside Youth Ballet, a resident nonprofit company of the Diggs School of Dance, has put its best foot forward in the kitchen with a 125-page cookbook, "Be Our Guest."

Debbie Diggs, owner and director of the Diggs School, said, "Be Our Guest" is a memorial to all of our past members. It's a fundraiser helping to ensure the company can continue to develop future generations of dancers and responsible, contributing members of society." Even the name and cover design come from the company's history. "Many times at our recitals our school has performed 'Beauty and the Beast.' 'Be Our Guest' is a song from that show and the young feature dancers are dressed in costume for such a show. It's memories to our members and their families."

Diggs School of Dance had operated in its original location in Mathews since it opened in the 1980s and, until a few years ago, moved only "when our building was sold." The Bayside Youth Ballet was formed in 1992, and in 1999 the dance school reopened its studio in Gloucester's Edgehill Town Center.

"Our program," Debbie said, "has provided over 150 local dancers to explore their dreams and aspirations. Some have advanced to careers as performers, choreographers and teachers. We are immensely proud of our alumni as they live their lives in the manner that models honesty, integrity, always giving their best, encouraging their own children to experience dance, and working tirelessly in the communities to ensure dance remains part of our culture."

This is the reason that "Be Our Guest" was compiled and printed, all during the COVID-19 pandemic. Originally sales were limited; now they are wide open. Debbie says she likes to cook and is doing more of it now as "I have three to cook for." With this book, she has a great resource to add some delectable dishes to her daily menus.

"Be Our Guest" has 150

recipes offered by families, alumni and friends of the ballet company. There are great choices for appetizers, soups and salads, main dishes and desserts, as well as helpful hints. The cost is $20 and the book can be purchased at the studio or from the dancers. For mail orders at $25, go to baysideballet@gmail.com or call 804-694-5900.

When you purchase "Be Our Guest Cookbook: A Collection of Recipes" by Bayside Youth Ballet, you are helping to ensure the company can continue to develop future generations of dancers and responsible contributing members of society.

"The dancers have been unable to perform on a stage before a live audience for over a year, but they continue to work to improve their dance skills and are prepared to perform at any moment," promised Debbie.

HAM AND SWISS ROLLS

CORY RICHARDSON ALLEN, 1999 ALUMNA
1 lb. deli sliced ham
1 lb. Swiss cheese, sliced
2 pkgs. Sister Schubert's rolls
1 stick butter, melted
2 Tbs. onion flakes
2 Tbs. Dijon mustard

1 tsp. poppy seeds
Slice rolls. Place slices of ham and cheese on bottom half of rolls. Combine all other ingredients in a bowl. Spread this buttery goodness inside the rolls. Place tops on rolls. Melt remaining buttery goodness and pour over top of rolls. Cover with foil. Bake 20 minutes at 350°F. Uncover and bake until cheese is melted. Always a crowd pleaser. Originally from Janice Lee Mitchem, Dance Mom to Megan and Madalyn Mitchem.

Cooking Hint: Allow 4 to 6 appetizers per guest, if a meal quickly follows; late meal 6-8; no meal 8-10.

APPLE PIE BREAD

KARA JONES, KAYLEE'S MOM
1 can apple pie filling, mashed
1 yellow cake mix
4 eggs, slightly beaten
1 c. self-rising flour
1 Tbs. cinnamon
1 medium chopped apple
Sugar and cinnamon mix
Whisk all dry ingredients; add wet ingredients. Fold in apples. Pour into 2 loaf pans, greased. Sprinkle sugar and cinnamon mix on top. Bake in 325°F oven for 35 to 45 minutes. Cool and enjoy.
Cooking Hint: For successful quick breads do not over-mix dough. Mix only until combined. An over-mixed batter creates a tough and rubbery quick bread, muffin or biscuit.

COLD SHRIMP PASTA SALAD

CINDY REGISTER, MOM OF ALUMNA MEREDITH

REGISTER STRICKLAND
1 to 2 c. mayonnaise
¼ c. store-bought French salad dressing (more if you use 16-oz. shells)
1 Tbs. white vinegar mixed with 1 Tbs. white sugar
Start with 1½ c. mayonnaise, then increase according to amount of shells you decide to use. Mix dressing with fork in a separate bowl.

1½ lb. medium size cooked, peeled, tail-off shrimp (I found in Aldi), thawed
12 to 16 oz. box macaroni shells
1 small sweet or yellow onion, diced
1 c. finely chopped celery
½ c. finely diced pepper
1 c. frozen peas
Cook macaroni shells according to package directions. Rinse the cooked shells in cold water to prevent sticking together while draining. In large bowl, add thawed shrimp, chopped onion, celery and green pepper to drained cooked shells. Add frozen peas and gently stir. Fold dressing into shrimp/pasta mixture. Sprinkle with seasoned salt or paprika. Cover and chill for at least 3 hours. Can be made the night before.

Cooking Hint: To prevent pasta from boiling over, place a wooden spoon or fork across the top of the pot while the pasta is boiling.

EASY BAKE CHICKEN POT PIE

BARBARA BILLUPS,

AALIYAH HENDERSON'S MOM

4 fresh skinless, boneless chicken breasts
2 Tbs. olive oil
1 (8 oz.) pkg. frozen mixed vegetables, defrosted
1 can cream of chicken soup
Pie crust
Rub olive oil on the chicken breasts. Place in oven at 350°F. for 45 minutes or until fully cooked. Allow to cool, then cut into cubes. Combine mixed vegetables, soup and chicken in large bowl and mix until covered. Pour mixture into a 10-inch pie pan. Top with pie crust and lightly pinch edges to seal. Place in oven for 25 minutes at 350°F. or until crust is golden.

Cooking Hint: When baking in a glass pan, reduce the oven temperature by 25°F.

EMMA'S EASY PEACH COBLER

EMMA HOLLOWELL, 2011 ALUMNA

6-8 peaches (or 5 c.), peeled and diced
1 tsp. vanilla
1 Tbs. lemon juice
1 tsp. cinnamon
2 c. sugar, divided
½ c. unsalted butter
1 c. flour
1 tsp. baking powder
1 c. milk
½ tsp. salt

On stovetop, bring peaches, 1 c. sugar, vanilla, lemon juice and cinnamon to boil in a large sauce pot. Stir constantly. In a bowl, mix flour, 1 c. sugar, baking powder, salt and milk until evenly combined. Melt the butter in the bottom of a brownie or cake baking dish no larger than 9x13-inches. Pour the flour mixture from the bowl over the butter. Do not stir. Pour stovetop fruit mixture over the flour mixture; do not stir. While baking, the bottom layer will rise above fruit layer. Bake at 375°F. for at least 40 minutes.

Cooking Hints: To freeze peach slices, completely coat in lemon juice; lay peaches out in single layers on a parchment paper-lined sheet. Freeze until solid about 4 hours, then package frozen slices.

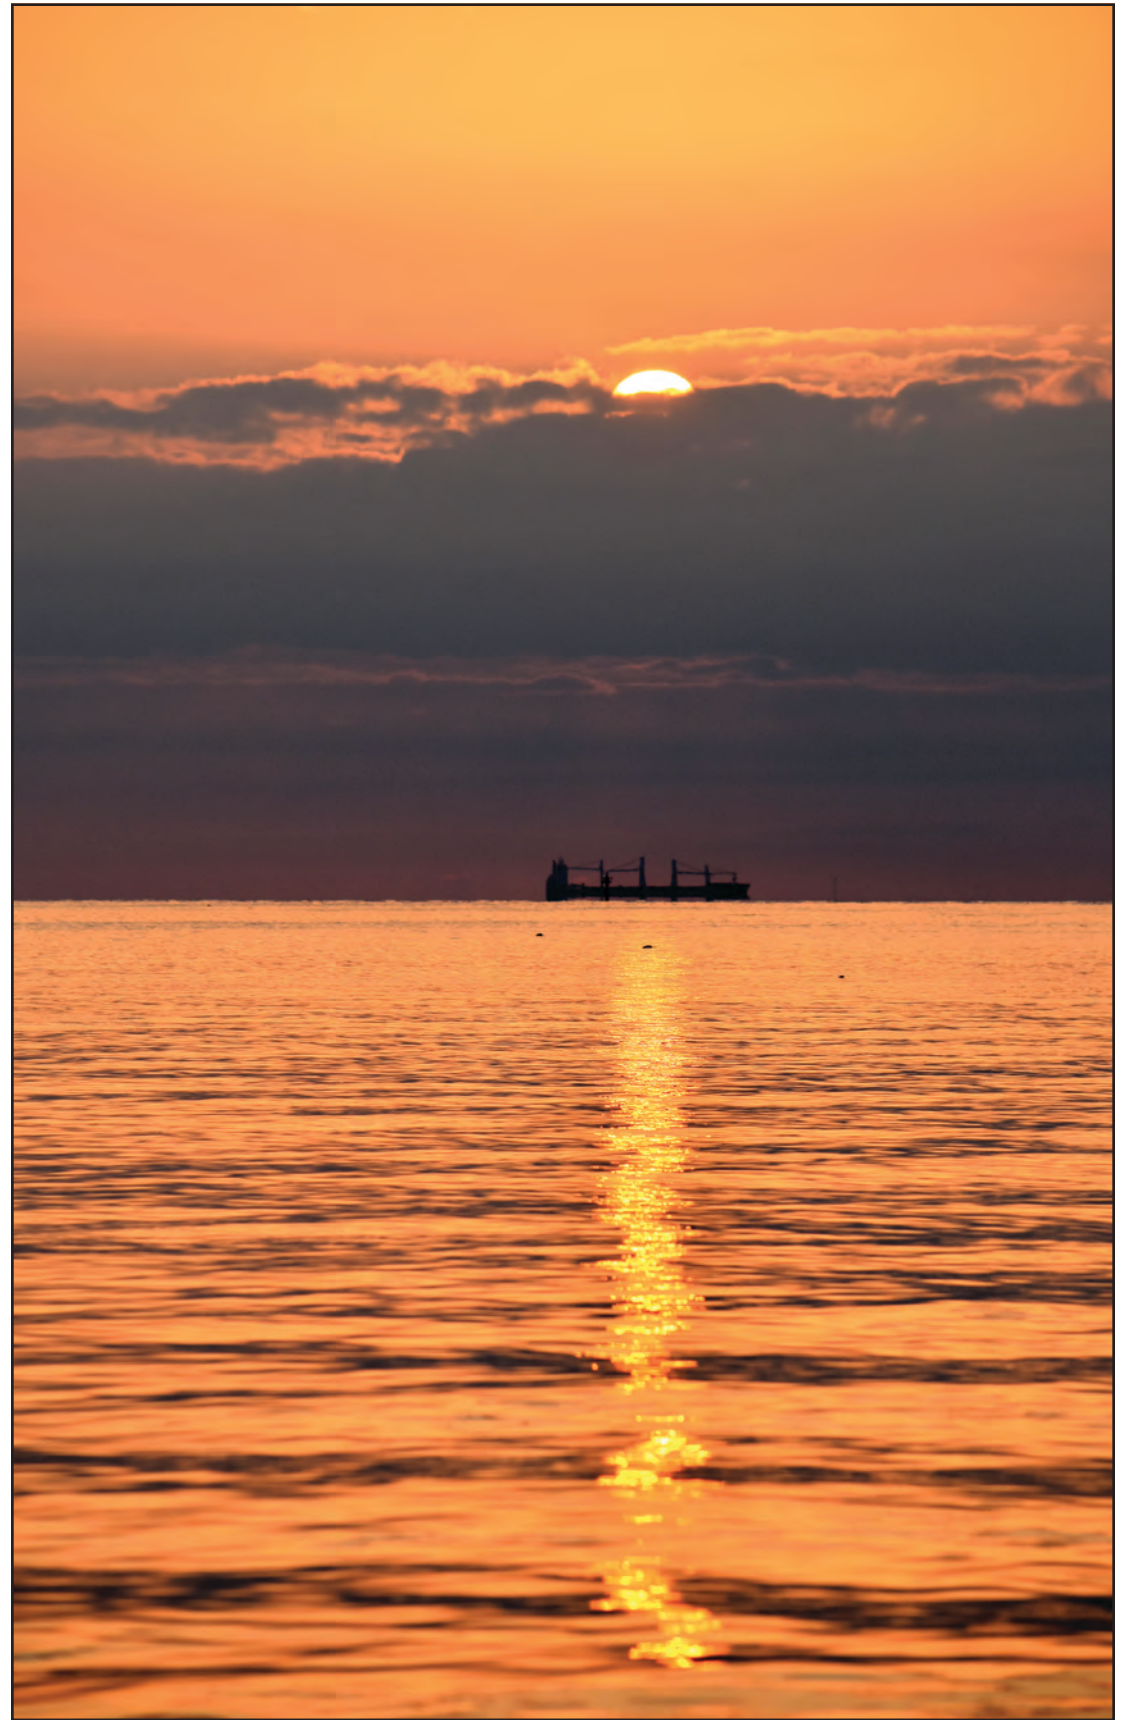

VINEGAR PIE

ELLEN ROWLSON-HALL, ALUMNA CELIA'S

MOM

1 stick margarine, melted and cooled
1½ c. sugar
2 Tbs. flour
1 Tbs. vanilla
2 Tbs. vinegar
3 eggs
1 unbaked pie shell
Preheat oven to 300°F. Mix together all ingredients and pour into pie shell. Bake for 45 minutes.

Cooking Hint: When making decorative pie edges, use a spoon for a scalloped edge. Use a fork to make cross-hatched or herringbone patterns.

Services announced by local churches

Special services and other activities in churches this week include the following:

APOSTLES LUTHERAN

Apostles Lutheran Church, Gloucester, will hold in-person worship at 9:30 a.m. Sunday. The service can also be joined via Zoom; an invitation to the worship service and the bulletin will be sent to the congregation via email and can also be accessed on the church's website at apostles-elca.org. Children's Chapel will resume via Zoom at noon Sundays.

A new Bible study will be held at 11 a.m. Wednesday via Zoom; links to both are on the website.

BELLAMY UNITED METHODIST

Bellamy United Methodist Church, Gloucester, will celebrate Holy Communion during its 9 and 10 a.m. Sunday worship services. The 9 o'clock service will be held in the picnic pavilion or the fellowship hall depending on weather and air quality conditions, and 10 o'clock service in the sanctuary. The nursery will not be available and Children's Church has been suspended for the next four weeks. All adults should consider wearing a mask while inside our building. For information about attending worship, call the church office at 804-694-5142.

Weekly devotions remain available on the Bellamy UMC Facebook page and worship services can be found on the church's YouTube and Facebook pages.

BETHANY UNITED METHODIST

Pastor Moonsup "Paul" Song of Bethany United Methodist Church, Gloucester Point, will begin a new sermon series, "How do I Love my Church," at 10 a.m. Sunday.

BETHEL BAPTIST

The sermon title of the Rev. James L. Harris at noon Sunday in Bethel Baptist Church, Gloucester, will be "Chosen." This will be an in-person worship service. The service can also be accessed by logging onto <https://global.gotomeeting.com/join/929136757>. You can also call 1-312-757-3121 and use access code, 929-136-757#. All worshippers will be required to wear a mask while inside the church; temperature checks performed and social distancing observed. Sunday school will start at 10 o'clock. Wednesday Bible study will continue as two sessions with the Rev. Jonathan Stubbs leading discussion on "Prayer, Fasting, and Meditation" from 7-7:30 p.m., followed by a study of Jesus's seven "I Am" statements in the Gospel of John, led by Pastor Jim Harris. Bible study and Sunday school will be held online using same access information.

BETHEL UNITED METHODIST

The sermon title of Pastor Kristie Askew of Bethel United Methodist Church, Onemo, at 10:45 a.m. Sunday will be "Making Distinctions." The September Mission Project will be collecting school supplies for Mathews Elementary School.

CENTRAL UNITED METHODIST

The sermon title of the Rev. John Choi, pastor of Central United Methodist Church, Mathews, at the 9:15 a.m. Sunday communion service will be "God and the Poor." The service will be broadcast live on the church's YouTube channel, which can be accessed on the church's website (www.centralumcmathews.org).

Apostles Lutheran becomes 'Reconciling in Christ' church

BY MELANY SLAUGHTER

Gloucester's Apostles Lutheran Church has become a "Reconciling in Christ" church after over two years of working toward this goal.

Reconciling in Christ, according to the church's welcome statement, means that the church believes "that because we are all one in Christ, and created in God's image, all are welcome as beloved children of God. We welcome into the full life of the church all those whom God sends us.

"Rejoicing in God's amazing diversity, we welcome people of all ages, races, gender identities, sexual orientations, and physical and mental abilities. Centered in Christ, we commit ourselves to breaking down dividing walls and building a community where all are beloved."

Jennifer Tillman, M.Div., pastor of Apostles Lutheran, which is located at 7092 Main Street, said that she wanted the church to be truly open and welcoming to everyone and fully inclusive, since Jesus Christ showed examples of loving your neighbor as yourself.

In 2019, Tillman was seeking out churches that were either in the process of becoming Reconciling in Christ churches or open to the idea. She said she was called to Apostles Lutheran in October 2019 from New York.

The Reconciling in Christ Ministry Team at Apostles Lutheran has been working

GO WITH GOD'S FLOW

A spectacular waterfall often starts as a small stream. By the time it comes cascading over the precipice, the water is a big river flowing fast and strong. Everything in its path goes with the flow. Our faith starts small like a stream and grows bigger and stronger along life's way. Life is difficult and has many challenges to tempt us away from "God's flow". Visit your house of worship and learn about the power His word can provide. Find the right direction for your life and it will get easier to go with God's flow.

since fall 2018 on studying ways it could become more welcoming to all people, more specifically to the LGBTQ+ community.

This past March, the congregation council voted to call a special congregation meeting to be held later that month for the purpose of having the congregation vote to declare Apostles Lutheran a Reconciling in Christ congregation.

On March 28, in a meeting comprised of a majority of eligible voting members of the congregation, the decision to formally announce that Apostles Lutheran Church as a Reconciling in Christ congregation was unanimously approved.

The church will have its celebration of becoming a Reconciling in Christ church on Reformation Day, which is on Sunday, Oct. 31. Tillman said that she hopes to have an outdoor event to celebrate.

Tillman said that the church becoming a Reconciling in Christ congregation will open doors for people who want to have a relationship with God and want a safe space to do so.

"Everyone deserves a safe space," said Tillman.

Apostles Lutheran has worship services every Sunday morning at 9:30. It also has an online worship option.

LIFELINES

BY DR. ED JORDAN

What Shapes Your Life?

What do the following slogans have in common? "You are what you eat!" "Garbage in, garbage out!" "I think, therefore I am." "You can do whatever you put your mind to!" "Where there's a will, there's a way!" "Liar, Liar, pants on fire!"

All these slogans imply that what we constantly think about influences our values, and what we value influences the kind of person we become. In my teen and college years the popular theme that dominated the youth society and its music was "Peace and Love." "Give peace a chance!" they said. "Make love not war!"

We become what we think. The more we fixate upon something, the more crucial it becomes. The more important something becomes for us, the more we shape and align our lives to that value. Ideas matter, and words matter; if we say them long enough we start to believe them, sometimes even if they words are proven wrong.

But this cause-and-effect process goes deeper than merely what we wear, what lingo we use, or what ideology we adhere to. This principle impacts every area of our lives. During the pandemic, we heard a lot of mantras: "We ask that you mask!" "We can do this!" "We're all in this together!" "Stay safe!" But in reality we were all struggling with just trying to keep ourselves "safe." The new norms became drilled into us, and we all adjusted our habits to comply.

This column is not about the merits of society's safety precautions. It is about how easily something we begin to think and do, even for a good cause, can all too quickly take over every aspect of our lives. It's about contemplating how our thoughts, when allowed to go unvaluated, can easily become counter-productive.

Recently, I was in a Zoom meeting with many pastors who were exhausted and weary. Pastoring is one of the hardest jobs on the planet during normal conditions, and the virus outbreak has decimated churches and ministries. Since the church is a group of people (not the building), how can we minister to others when we can't get together to talk or pray?

In the majority of churches, as well as in schools, community meetings, government, businesses, restaurants, clubs, sports teams, and wherever else personal contact is required to effectively accomplish things, there is now a renewed sense of uncertainty and dread. How long will this go on? Will our communities survive another year of this, when trying to survive is already killing us?

I don't pretend to have all the answers, but I do have a scripture for you to think about. In Psalms 135:15-18 (NJB): "The idols of the nations are silver and gold, made by human hands. These have mouths but say nothing, have eyes but see nothing, have ears but hear nothing, and they have no breath in their mouths. Their makers will end up like them (as will), everyone who relies on them."

Idols are things that we make, and utilize, which in some way take the place of God in our lives. But the God of the Bible is the one, true living God. He is a living Being, our Creator, Sustainer, Protector and Savior. Whenever we allow a human-made object, or a person or a concept, to take the place of God in our lives, it becomes a lifeless idol. To rely upon them, instead of upon God, is futile. You end up as lifeless as the idol.

The truth is that we become like what we worship, similar to who or what we trust in to save us. If we think we can save ourselves without God, we end up failing. If we worship feeling good and being on an emotional high, we will wear ourselves out trying to feel good. If we adore human cleverness, then our clever heroes will fail us, because living life requires more than cleverness. If truth is what we value and concentrate our thoughts and actions upon, we become more truthful and true in thought and action. When we focus upon deception, we become deceivers. But if we worship Jesus, He will help us to become more like Him.

So be careful what you allow to dominate your thoughts, who you worship, and who your make your role model, for you will become like them. If they are mere humans or manmade, they will always fall short of Jesus. Who, or what, is shaping your life?

Award-winning columnist Dr. Ed Jordan is pastor of Gwynn's Island Baptist Church and can be reached at edward@gmail.com.

On defense, sometimes a little white lie is necessary in order to point Partner in the right direction. No more clues, here's your problem: None Vulnerable

Little White Lie

South West North East
1♥ 2♣ 2♦ Pass
2♥ Pass 4♥ Pass
Pass Pass

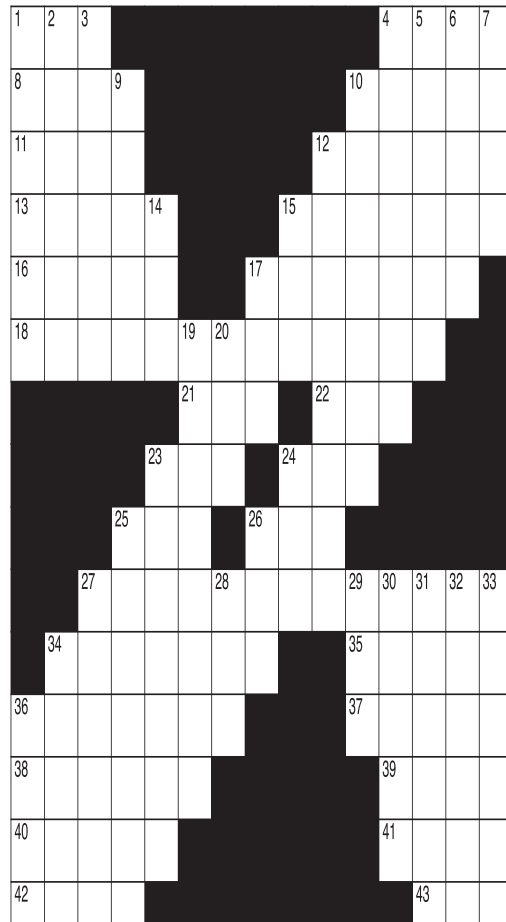

You are sitting East, trying to beat 4♥. Partner leads the ♠A. Where can you find four defensive tricks? No doubt Declarer has the ♠A and the ♥A for that opening bid, so at first glance it may appear that the best the defense can do is to take its two Club tricks and the ♠A. Any ideas for an extra trick? OK, now that you've solved the problem, the full hand:

♠That's right, at Trick 1 East false-cards with the ♠8, showing a doubleton! East's plan is to conjure up a trump trick out of thin air. Look what happens! West next cashes the ♠K, and East completes his fake high-low. Then West plays a third round of Clubs and who can blame Declarer for ruffing that trick high in Dummy? Obviously he doesn't want to get over-ruffed by East, and, anyway, squandering that high trump costs nothing if the trumps are 3-1 or 2-2. But they are 4-0, so East gets a trump trick and it's down one!

It was necessary to fool Partner as well as Declarer. If East had signaled honestly in Clubs, then, at Trick 3, West would no doubt have shifted to the ♠Q, hoping that East has the Ace and trying to grab a couple of Spade tricks before they disappear on the Diamonds.

GLIMPSSES INTO THE PAST

Gloucester looks for better fire protection

100 YEARS AGO
Thursday, Sept. 1, 1921
 from the Gloucester Gazette

Mathews County's disastrous fire last week has turned the thoughts of Gloucester C.H. citizens to their own lack of adequate fire protection. About all the village boasts of in the way of fire protection are some ladders that are nearly worn out, a wagon that probably needs repairs, a few buckets, chemical fire extinguishers and axes.

Should a fire such as visited Mathews last week start here this equipment would be well-nigh useless in fighting the flames. A prominent business man discussing the matter this week declared that Gloucester C.H. ought to have a chemical engine and other modern equipment for fire protection, and that organization and drill are also vitally needed so that, in case of fire, efforts to save property could be intelligently directed.

It is probable that a meeting will be called shortly to consider the taking of steps for more adequate fire protection.

We, "The Ladies Aid" of Holly Grove, desire to extend to the public our heartfelt gratitude for their generous support in our "Sock Social" held at the home of H.C. Jones. Especially we do appreciate the liberal contribution given by our loyal citizen Hon. Boyd Sears. We exceedingly regret his inability to be with us on this occasion as we looked forward to an address from him which is always cheery and elevating but aside from this we hope the crowd was favorably entertained. Our total sum was $101.60. We also wish to thank our kind friend, Mr. Jones, for the use of his spacious lawn.

 from the Gloucester Gazette

An appropriation of $200 was made to the Gloucester Nursing Activities by the Board of Supervisors at its regular monthly meeting last Thursday toward the payment of the salary of Miss Mary C. White; Mrs. George Mackubin, Miss Ann Withers and Mrs. W.A. Robinson appeared before the board in behalf of the Nursing Activities, and the action of the Board was by unanimous vote.

The Tidewater Mortgage & Loan Corporation, through its attorney, Charles S. Smith Jr., proposed that it be allowed to use water from the well on the Court Green, agreeing that it would keep the well and pump in good order or furnish a new pump if necessary and furnish water without cost to all county buildings now using water. The offer was accepted on condition that in case of a shortage of water the county buildings should be first supplied.

from the Mathews Journal

In news from Diggs, Mrs. A.F. Hudgins, of Tabernacle, visited her daughter, Mrs. Mamie Diggs, on Friday last.

Mr. Charlie Hart and family, of Baltimore, recently visited Mrs. Mollie Bet Diggs and family at Laban.

Miss Stella Brownley, of Portsmouth, spent the weekend with her grandmother, Mrs. J.D. Brownley.

Mrs. Ada Bragg and Mrs. Tilton Todd are visiting their brother, Mr. Ashley Brownley at Laban.

Mrs. Ashley Brownley entertained relatives from Gloucester on Sunday.

Miss Henrietta Hudgins (Spinster) has the remarkable record of having reached her 90th year without ever having taken a single dose of doctor's medicine, or even having a doctor attend her only for a broken arm. Miss Hudgins thinks this should be printed in The Journal.

At the regular August meeting of the Gloucester Board of Supervisors, held Thursday, the Board appropriated $305.35 as Gloucester County's share of the expense of the Hampton Roads Regional Defense Council.

Brown Farinholt was given permission to connect with the water system of Sanitary District No. 1.

The Board approved the proposal of the School Board to borrow $3,000 from the State Literary Fund for a new cafeteria building at Achilles High School and $3,500 for additions and improvements at Gloucester Training Institute.

 from the Gazette-Journal

The appeal which appeared in the Gazette-Journal recently for funds to rid the Gloucester library building of termites received a most encouraging response. The work has been completed and the Library board expresses its thanks to all those who contributed so generously.

A number of important titles have recently added to the Memorial Shelf which contains those books given in memory of departed ones by friends of the library.

The younger as well as the older patrons will find many new books and even the very "small fry" have been remembered too.

The library will reopen Sept. 5 and will be open each Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 10 to 4. Come in and browse around!

A traveling unit of the Rappahannock Community College will be at the Edgemoor Shopping Center, Gloucester, tomorrow and the Hayes Plaza Shopping Center, on Saturday.

The mobile unit will visit all counties served by the South Campus at Glens prior to the school's opening later this month. It will feature visual displays, a TV monitor, informational materials, and will give some residents their first opportunity to talk with a member of the college staff. A counselor will be available to answer individuals who wish to apply.

For the first time, the Gloucester County Fair and Mathews Market Days will occur on the same weekend, Sept. 10, 11, and 12. The Gloucester County Fair will be held at the Gloucester Intermediate School, and Mathews Market Days will center around the Court House.

The fact that the two county celebrations will occur on the same dates was merely coincidental according to Mrs. John Burnette, publicity chairman of the Gloucester County Fair, and Mrs. William A. Rau, chairman of Mathews Market Days.

"The Gloucester County Fair was tentatively scheduled for the last week in August at the fairgrounds," said Mrs. Burnette. "But when that became unavailable, the only time the Intermediate School could host the Fair was Sept. 10-12."

Mrs. Rau said that "Mathews Market Days have always been the first weekend after Labor Day, ever since they began seven years ago."

Both chairmen are hopeful that the two events will not interfere with each other, or force visitors to choose between them.

The Gloucester County Tourism Committee is trying to work in local ties with the opening of the "Minority Report" movie next year. Portions of the film were filmed earlier this summer in the county.

Carol Steele, Gloucester's director of parks, recreation and tourism, discussed various ideas for the "Minority Report" release with the committee during a meeting Aug. 20 at Page Middle School, White Marsh. It's important to have local recognition for the film, which stars Tom Cruise and is directed by Steven Spielberg, Steele said.

There are all kinds of possibilities being explored, Steele said, including promotions with local movie theaters. Some scenes of the film were shot at Beaverdam Park, on the road by Nuttall Store at Ware Neck, and on a private island off the Ware Neck shoreline.

Most Middle Peninsula residents seemed to fare pretty well during Hurricane Irene Saturday. Up and down Route 17 early Sunday morning, residents in Gloucester were seen heading out on the roadways to assess the damages in their communities.

Lines at fast-food restaurants were stretching out toward the main road with residents who'd lost power seeking a hot breakfast.

Garrey Curry, interim emergency management coordinator for Gloucester, said an estimated total damage loss in Gloucester from Irene was $1,005,000 as of Tuesday afternoon. This includes varying impacts to 64 single-family home, one manufactured home, five businesses and one non-profit organization.

Mathews County came through Hurricane Irene Saturday with little damage and a lot of goodwill among neighbors.

Summer scenes

As summer winds down, we look at summertime photos from the past. Above in 1996, three boys had a good fishing trip on the Piankatank River and Dragon Run with Jerry Hester of Freeport. From left are Matthew Hester, 8, with a 2-pound, 9-ounce croaker; and his visitors Cody Schaefer and Casey Schaefer of Gloucester, who show the rest of the big catfish and croakers they caught. The biggest catfish weighed 3 pounds, 14 ounces. Last Call Before Fall to be held Sunday

Gloucester Main Street welcomes a new event this weekend.

Last Call Before Fall will be held Sunday from noon to 5 p.m. on the lawn of Split Enz Salon (Tabb House), 6596 Main Street. The event will include food trucks and vendors, craft brews, hard cider and non-alcohol options, as well as the music of the Jackass Flats.

Tickets are available for $35 apiece. Each ticket includes a 16-ounce souvenir cup (sponsored by Split Enz Salon), two full-pour beverages and all day access to the music lineup. Additional beer tickets will be available for purchase.

Asbury Electric has signed on as sponsor of the Beer

Garden at Last Call Before Fall.

"Gloucester is our hometown and we love supporting our community any way we can," said Daniel Smith, owner and manager of Asbury Electric.

In addition to their sponsorship, Asbury Electric will be hosting two tables, one of which will honor local first responders. All guests are invited to stop by both tables where children will receive free popsicles and guests can test their electrical trivia knowledge by playing, "Spin to Win: Are You Smarter Than an Electrician?"

Brent and Becky's has also scheduled a garden walk to study fall blooming bulbs at 10 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 25. The cost is $5; register by calling 804-693-3966.

New Travel Series on PBS

VIRGINIA FOUND

Go Places-Meet People-Do Stuff

WHRO to showcase Gloucester in new PBS travel series

"Virginia FOUND," a new PBS travel series, will feature Gloucester and Yorktown in its first season. The episode will air at 8:30 to-night (Thursday, Sept. 3) on WHRO-TV, PBS Channel 15.

In this episode, host Dave Parker visits the Guinea Jubilee and films a crabpot-baiting contest. He also does a tasting at That Damn Mary Brewing Company, Hayes, and visits Gloucester Brewing Company on Gloucester's Main Street. Also in the episode, he visits the Gloucester Parks, Recreation and Tourism Fishing Pier at Gloucester Point Beach Park, and Scoot's BBQ, Gloucester Point.

Throughout the series, Parker explores history, culture and local cuisine in familiar and off-the-beaten-path places. A native Virginian, Parker brings his quick wit and knack for finding the people who help to tell an area's story, uncovering gems of small towns and the original tastes along Virginia's Chesapeake Bay region, a release stated.

Parker is a familiar face and voice in Hampton Roads, having been in television, radio and print in the area for over 24 years.

USDA updates pandemic assistance for farmers

The U.S. Department of Agriculture is updating its Coronavirus Food Assistance Program 2 (CFAP 2) for contract producers of eligible livestock and poultry and producers of specialty crops and other sales-based commodities.

CFAP 2, which assists producers who faced market disruptions in 2020 due to COVID-19, is part of USDA's broader Pandemic Assistance for Producers initiative. Additionally, USDA's Farm Service Agency has set an Oct. 12 deadline for all eligible producers to apply for or modify applications for CFAP 2.

"We listened to feedback and concerns from producers and stakeholders about the gaps in pandemic assistance, and these adjustments to CFAP 2 help address unique circumstances, provide flexibility and make the program more equitable for all producers," said FSA Administrator Zach Ducheneaux. "The pandemic has had a tremendous impact on agricultural producers, and we have made significant progress since announcing our plans in March. While additional pandemic assistance remains to be announced in the coming weeks, USDA is also ramping up its efforts to make investments in the food supply chain to Build Back Better."

The Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2021 provides up to $1 billion for payments to contract producers of eligible livestock and poultry for revenue losses from Jan. 1, 2020, through Dec. 27, 2020.

Contract producers of broilers, pullets, layers, chicken eggs, turkeys, hogs and pigs, ducks, geese, pheasants and quail may be eligible for assistance. This update includes eligible breeding stock and eggs of all eligible poultry types produced under contract.

Payments for contract producers were to be based on a comparison of eligible revenue for the periods of Jan. 1, 2019, through Dec. 27, 2019, and Jan. 1, 2020, through Dec. 27, 2020. This week's changes mean contract producers can now elect to use eligible revenue from the period of Jan. 1, 2018, through Dec. 27, 2018, instead of that date range in 2019 if it is more representative. This change is intended to provide flexibility and make the program more equitable for contract producers who had reduced revenue in 2019 compared to a normal production year. The difference in revenue is then multiplied by 80 percent to determine a final payment. Payments to contract producers may be factored if total calculated payments exceed the available funding and will be made after the application period closes.

Additional flexibilities have been added to account for increases to operation size in 2020 and situations where a contract producer did not have a full period of revenue from Jan. 1 to Dec. 27 for either 2018 or 2019.

To learn more about the changes, visit www.usda.gov.

SHERIFF'S REPORT GLOUCESTER

The following felony crime was recently reported by the Gloucester Sheriff's Office:

At 8:13 p.m. Sunday, deputies responded to the area of Mumford View Drive and Hayes Road for a man wanted in another jurisdiction on his way to a residence in the area. The man was seen operating a vehicle and was stopped. The 29-year-old of Williamsburg was taken into custody for the unrelated warrants and was additionally charged with possession/transporting ammunition by a convicted felon (ammunition was located in the vehicle) and driving after forfeiting his license.

The following incidents were also reported by the GSO:

Assault: At 7:12 p.m. on Wednesday, Aug. 25, deputies responded to an assault reported between two customers at the McDonald's in Hayes. A female customer was allegedly smacked in the face by a male customer in the parking lot after a verbal altercation about the male's treatment of an employee inside of the business. The 42-year-old man from Onemo had departed the scene but was located a short distance away and was charged with assault and battery. Larceny: A larceny was reported just after 9 p.m. on Wednesday, Aug. 25 from an unsecured vehicle parked at Riverbend Apartments. The vehicle's title, ignition key and a flare gun were taken. Four males were observed at the Nissan and departed in a dark-colored Rogue SUV. Obstructing justice: Deputies responded at 5 p.m. on Tuesday, Aug. 24, to Damon & Company in the 7000 block of Route 17 for a report of a male with multiple outstanding warrants from another jurisdiction being at the establishment. The male was observed and began to quickly walk away from deputies after being addressed by his name, ignoring commands to stop. The man then ran to a back exit and fled into a field, where he was taken into custody. The Gloucester deputies charged the 40-year-old from Church View with obstructing justice.

MATHEWS

The Mathews County Sheriff's Office arrested a Norfolk resident on Thurs-day, Aug. 26, charging him with driving under the influence of alcohol, refusal to provide a breath sample, and open container. The sheriff's office had re-ceived two reports of a reckless driver in the Courthouse area, with one per-son reporting that the driver appeared to be intoxicated.

Deputies were given the vehicle de-scription, and they located the vehicle in the 200 block of Main Street. They approached the vehicle and identi-fied the driver, and while speaking with him, they noticed a strong odor of al-cohol. The 60-year-old man was taken to the Middle Peninsula Regional Sec-urity Center.

On Sunday, Aug. 29, deputies re-sponded to a complaint of a theft in the 200 block of Chapel Neck Road. The vic-tim reported that farm equipment had been stolen from her property. She said she had sold a tractor to an individual, but they didn't pick it up right away. When she noticed that they had picked up the tractor, she also observed sev-eral other farm implements missing. The matter is under investigation.

Anyone with information about these or other crimes in Mathews is asked to call Crime Solvers at 804-725-7001. All calls are anonymous. Callers do not have to give their name or tele-phone number and do not have to ap-pear in court. If information provided leads to an arrest, the recovery of stolen property, or the seizure of illegal drugs, the caller may receive a cash reward.

Health care organizations to require vaccines for employees

Chesapeake Regional Healthcare, Children's Hospital of The King's Daughters Health System, Riverside Health System and Sentara Healthcare have all announced that they have each expanded their employee vaccination policies to include the expectation that all team members will be fully vaccinated against COVID-19 by Oct. 18.

This timeline gives employees eight weeks to become fully vaccinated now that the FDA has approved at least one of the vaccines. The region's health care organizations' announcements come after the Virginia Hospital and Healthcare Association's July 18 statement supporting COVID-19 vaccine requirements for all hospital and health system employees.

The highly contagious Delta variant is causing another spike in the number of COVID-19 infections nationally with unvaccinated individuals at the highest risk. As the community's front-line defense against COVID-19, Hampton Roads' leading health care providers believe they each have a moral and ethical responsibility to protect the health of their team members, patients, residents and communities through a vaccination requirement.

Over the past several months, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention has proven COVID-19 vaccines to effectively protect against the COVID-19 virus. The Pfizer vaccine, for example, carries 88 percent efficacy against the Delta variant.

The four Hampton Roads health care organizations join a growing list of hospitals and health systems across the U.S. in protecting public health by requiring vaccination. Additionally, both statewide and national organizations including the Virginia Hospital and Healthcare Association, American Hospital Association, American Medical Association, and the American Nurses Association support vaccination requirements.

"We applaud Chesapeake Regional Healthcare, Children's Hospital of The King's Daughters Health System, Riverside Health System and Sentara Healthcare for taking this important step in the name of public health and safety," said Virginia Hospital and Healthcare Association President and CEO Sean T. Connaughton. "Virginia hospitals and health systems have helped lead the way on vaccination efforts in the commonwealth, having collectively administered more than two million COVID-19 vaccine doses since December 2020, including thousands of shots given to health care professionals."

Each health care organization began the process of notifying their respective team members of the new policy update last week. Consistent with each organization's current vaccine policy guidelines, this extends to all affiliated physicians, volunteers, students and others who work in and for the health systems. Organizations outlined their specific vaccine policies, provided resources about the safety and benefits of vaccination, and how to receive a free COVID-19 vaccine.

PUBLIC HEARING NOTICE GLOUCESTER COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

Pursuant to the Code of Virginia, the Gloucester County Board of Supervisors will conduct a Public Hearing on September 7, 2021 beginning at 7:00 p.m. in the Colonial Courthouse, 6504 Main Street, Gloucester, Virginia to consider the following:

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND AND REENACT APPENDIX B - ZONING OF THE CODE OF GLOUCESTER COUNTY, VIRGINIA, BY AMENDING ARTICLE 2 - DEFINITIONS, SECTION 2-2 - DEFINITIONS, AMENDING ARTICLE 5 - DISTRICT REGULATIONS, SECTION 5-2 - OFFICIAL SCHEDULE OF DISTRICT REGULATIONS ADOPTED, AND REPEALING AND REPLACING ARTICLE 9 - SUPPLEMENTARY DISTRICT REGULATIONS, SECTION 9-28 - SOLAR ENERGY FACILITIES

The proposed changes to the Zoning Ordinance modify the definitions for small-, large-, and utility-scale solar facilities and add a new "community-scale solar" definition for commercial facilities up to 3 MW. The changes permit community- and utility-scale solar facilities in only the Rural Countryside (RC-1) and Suburban Countryside (SC-1) districts and only by Conditional Use Permit (CUP). Furthermore, the supplemental regulations for solar facilities include general requirements for all solar facilities, such as maximum heights and product safety standards, specific requirements for each type of solar facility such as setbacks and screening, and specific submission requirements for those facilities requiring a CUP such as a site concept plan - including existing and proposed topographic information and environmental and cultural resource review.

The preceding summary is not intended to be a complete explanation of each and every change to the zoning ordinance language. It is not intended to be a comprehensive representation of all the ordinance provisions and does not substitute for the full text of the draft ordinance, which is available for review in the first floor outer lobby of County Building Two and the County Administrator's Office at 6489 Main Street, Gloucester, Virginia or on the web at www.gloucesterva.info.

The meeting will be broadcast live through the County website meeting portal at: <https://www.gloucesterva.info/640/Meeting-Portal> and on Cox channel 48. All interested parties are invited to express their views on this matter. Citizen comments may also be submitted prior to the public hearing by three different methods: To submit comments online, complete the Citizen Comment Submission form (www.gloucesterva.info/citizencomment). Please follow the instructions on the form to indicate the meeting or public hearing on which you want to comment. Comments may be submitted via this method until 4:30 p.m. on the day of the meeting. Comments submitted via this method will be read aloud during the appropriate comment or public hearing period up to the time limit set by the Chair.

To submit comments via US Mail, send to: County Administration, ATTN: Citizen/Public Hearing Comment, 6489 Main Street, Gloucester, VA 23061. Any mailed comments must include your name, your magisterial district, and the meeting and item you are commenting on clearly printed at the top. All such comments must be received by 4:30 p.m. on the day of the public hearing. Please type or print all comments legibly. Comments submitted via this method will be read aloud during the appropriate comment or public hearing period up to the time limit set by the Chair.

Call 804-824-2760 and listen to the recorded menu. Instructions will be provided on selections to make in order to leave a recorded comment. Comments submitted via this method must be received by 4:30 p.m. on the day of the public hearing. Comments submitted via this method will be played during the public hearing period up to the set time limit of 3 minutes. Comments submitted through these methods must be received by 4:30 p.m. on the day of the meeting or public hearing and will be read during the public hearing.

"Form letters," consisting of communications which are verbatim duplicates (other than the identifying information of the author-

REALLY OLD NEWS

COMPILED BY SARA LEWIS OF WILLIAMSBURG

245 YEARS AGO

from the Virginia Gazette, August 8, 1776
To be let for one year, on Wednesday the 4th of September,

An exceeding good plantation on Gwyn's island, containing 500 acres, whereon is a good dwelling-house, with all other necessary houses, the land rich, and sufficiency cleared, and under good fence, for 10 to 12 hands. It is remarkable for producing good wheat, clear from the fly, there is a good peach and apple orchard, and the place abounds with fine oysters and fish. At the same time, upon the premises, will be sold the crop of corn as it stands in the field, a few cattle, and some household goods, for ready money. Humphrey Gwyn.

245 YEARS AGO

from the Virginia Gazette, August 9, 1776
To be Sold at public auction, on the premises, pursuant to the last will and testament of Mr. Thomas Fleming, deceased, on Tuesday the 3d of September next, if fair, otherwise next fair day,

A Tract of good land in Gloucester county, containing about 270 acres, seven miles from the court-house, and within one mile of York river. It is very convenient to fish and oysters, has a good dwelling-house upon it about 40 by 20 with other necessary houses, also an apple orchard of about 140 choice fruit trees, just in their prime. At the same time and place will be sold all the stock of horses, cattle, hogs, &c. together with the household and kitchen furniture belonging to the said estate. Two years credit will be allowed for the land, and twelve months for the personal estate, except for sums not exceeding 25 s. for which ready money will be expected. Bond, with approved security, will be required by The Executors.

 The land may be seen by applying to Mr. Zachariah Gardner or Mr. Lewis Walden, near the premises.

255 YEARS AGO

from the Virginia Gazette, August 15, 1766
To be SOLD, on Thursday the 25th of September next, in Gloucester county,

A TRACT of LAND, containing 423 acres, known by the name of Marlow's land, part of which is rich low grounds, and the whole very kindly, suitable for any kind of grain, hemp, flax, or tobacco, well watered, convenient to church and mill, being within two miles of each, within half a mile of Pianketank river, a proper place for a store, one having been kept there before. Any person inclinable to purchase before the day of sale, by applying to Capt. Thomas Whiting in Gloucester town, who has a legal authority to sell the same, and will show the plot, may know the terms; or to the subscriber, who will show the land.
THOMAS BOSWELL.

255 YEARS AGO

from the Virginia Gazette, September 5, 1766
To be SOLD, on the first Thursday in October next, at Gloucester Court-House, the following Tracts of LAND, viz.

The Tract of LAND containing by Estimation 698 Acres, commonly called and known by the Name of Edwards's. Also a Tract of Land containing 350 Acres, called Ivesson's. Likewise a Tract containing 100 Acres, called Bond's. Also a Tract of Land containing 100 Acres, called Broadhurst. And a Tract of Land containing 390 Acres, called Amiss. Also that Tract of Land containing 200 Acres, called Clack's. Also a Tract of Land containing 140 Acres, called Waterfield. All of which Tracts of Parcels of Land are situate and lying in the Parish of Ware, in the said County of Gloucester, on the Branches of North and Pianketank Rivers. And also a Tract or Parcel of Land containing 350 Acres, called Asher's, lying in the Parish of Petsworth in the County of Gloucester. The Purchasers shall have such Credit, on giving Bond and Security, as may be agreed on at the Sale.
WILLIAM FITZHUGH.
