

JEAN-MICHEL FLOC'H

EXPERIENCE AND ROLES

Jean-Michel Floc'h is an African French & Australian businessman merchant banker based in Beijing and Sydney with 41 years of experience in banking, VC, real estate and business ownership. His international career spans Asia, Europe, Middle-East, Africa and Australia, but his core focus over the past 13 years has been based in Beijing China, and he currently represents a number of Chinese clients as either principal or business partner.

Jean- Michel Floc'h facilitates partnerships, merges & acquisitions in Australia, alliances and corporate finance actions and works in conjunction with a network of syndicate partners, EPC contractors, real estate agents, development companies, "HNW" investors, hedge funds, private equity funds, banks and merchant banks in order to make deals happen.

With its deep relationships with the private equity world, both General Partners and Limited Partners, as well as global corporate, global Sovereign Wealth Funds and Family Offices, endowments and foundations, the firm is a unique reliable platform for investors seeking investment penetration and fundraising partnerships globally.

Over the past decade, we have established deep relationships with local real estate agencies, property developers, property managers, lawyers, accountants and tax consultants, among others.

Transparency, trust, integrity and discretion are key to our approach and Mr Jean- Michel Floc'h is personally involved in all projects we take on. He looks forward to discussing further with you in order to fully understand your business and your needs.
