Index No. 2.

Issues 9 to 16 incl. Pages 727 - 1569.

Early Morning Supplies from Covent Garden.

Please note that the 4th Battalion was the Collingwood. The photograph comes from R.N.D. Souvenir No. 2. Published by W.H. Smith. 1915. As this is the second souvenir, it seems very likely that one sees the new battalion, as former members were mostly interned in Holland, after the Antwerp Campaign. On Gallipoli, the Battalion was to fight it's last on the 4th June 1915, never to be reformed. It is remembered annually on this day, at Blandford in Dorset, when the Memorial Service at Collingwood Corner is held.
