COVER STORY

30

Jed The Fish came to KROQ in '78 to work for free, back when the underground station had no phone, no sales department, no business hours. Apart from a "drug sabbatical," he's been there ever since. The afternoon talent with the maniacal laugh gives his most revelatory interview yet, talking about everything from "those sniveling little bitch corporate rats" to the origins of his infamous Vagina Bit.

MAGEDDON

IT'S ALBIE ERICK/WARNER BROS.

Candlebox is currently warming up for their upcoming tour with a few small club dates. Meanwhile, Rock radio is currently warming up to the first single from their highlyanticipated third album, Happy Pills. "It's Alright" is a mid-tempo ballad in the vein of "Far Behind," which is still a power recurrent for many stations out there. 10 signals (WXTB, KISW, WDHA, WIOT, WRAT, WEBN, KDKB, KISS, KBAT and KBBZ) have already found "It's Alright" to be more than alright, and have dipped their wicks early. Rock Radio will want to spin the album version, which has an extended heavier part missing from the edit. However, the radio edit will fit right in at Modern Rock and even Modern AC.

We got our first taste in February at the Pollack confab, when The Why Store previewed this and other new stuff during a gig at the Roxy. Something about the infectious feelgood boogie of "When You're High" got us, well, high. The Why Store buzz recaptures that feeling of musical liberation the Allman Brothers Band would give you on a good night: The honky tonk piano, the Jazz-inflected beat, the guitar solo seasoned by an anything-can-happen tour that never seems to end. But The Why Store aren't about rehashing the musical past, they're about now, as evidenced by their multi-format cred and a retail base of almost 200,000. Like they say in the lyrics, "The Why Store have what it takes to get everybody high," and that's good news for programmers in all kinds of camps. "It's about feeling good," says singer-guitarist Chris Shaffer. "And whatever it takes to get you to feel good."

BIC SOUNDTRAX/CRE

Quite frankly, if you didn't already know that original Journey vocalist, Steve Perry, (with the legendary supergroup for their tenplus platinum albums) left the band in January for health-related reasons you probably wouldn't even know the vocals on this song weren't done by him. That's how close to Steve's range and style new singer Steve Augeri (formerly of Tall Stories) is. "Remember Me" can be found on the forthcoming soundtrack to one of this summer's most highly anticipated movies, Armageddon. This isn't just a oneoff project for the new Journey talso featuring Jonathan Cain, Neal Schon and Dean Castranova of Bad English fame) as Journey has a new album in the works, plus a summer tour of Japan and a subsequent tour of the States sched-

"MISS SATURDAY NIGHT," CMC INTERNATIONAL

Southern Rock is back with a vengeance! One of the genre's forefathers, Molly Hatchet, have returned with a new album Silent Reign Of The Heroes. The leadoff track, "Miss Saturday Night," is as Southern-fried as they come. The band may be new (the only original member is guitarist Bobby Ingram) but the sound is vintage Molly New lead singer, Phil Hatchet. McCormack, was hand-picked by original vocalist Danny Joe Brown and continues to wave that Confederate flag high. The band is part of a Southern Rock revival tour this summer that includes the Marshall Tucker Band and the Charlie Daniels Band. The South will rise again!

After taking their hometown radio waves by storm, FTJ's "As Good As You" has found a home at KEYJ, KKEG, KLPX, KTUX, WHMH, WHDQ, WKZQ, WXRC, and WTOS too.

The Tracking Report is weekly national call-out research of 45 Active, Alternative, and Mainstream Rock Radio currents. Titles tested are compiled from submitted client playlists. Results in The Tracking Report are based on interviews conducted with over 400 rock radio listeners across the United States in rated markets. The research is conducted using random digit dialing and music is tested via "song hook" methodology. Respondents must be Active, Alternative, or Mainstream Rock Radio listeners between the ages of 18 and 44. Cluster Groups are determined using music montages to isolate each listener's music preference type. Grade: An index based upon combined MRI, Burn and Unfamiliar Scores. Music Response Index (MRI): Appeal of each song within the indicated sample group on a 0 to 110 scale. Burn: Percent of the indicated sample that claims to be "tired of the song." Unfamiliarity: Percent of the indicated sample reporting "don't know it." This information is excerpted from The Tracking Report and is reprinted with the permission of Kelly Music Research, Inc. Here's what Active Rock radio is saying about fmqb's BuzzBands compilation CDs...

"BuzzBands is a successful promotional tool that pays for itself. It's something that will stay in winners' hands and CD players for a long time. It drove a lot of traffic into our client's retail outlets, which is what clients want to see in this day and age. Our client was very happy." — Curtiss Johnson, Station Manager/Program Director, KRXQ/Sacramento

"Our hugest success all spring. Our audience is clamoring for BuzzBands CDs. We've given about 85% of them away on-air and the rest at appearances. And the beautiful part is we got a client to pay for the whole shooting match. They're ecstatic because we're promoting it even more than we promised because the audience is so into it. I can't wait to put the second volume together." —Gregg Steele, Director of Programming & Operations, WZTA/Miami

"We give BuzzBands CDs away at remotes and station events and onair. People are so excited about it, they love them! They dig having all of our music on one CD." — Heidi Fenstermaker, Promotions Coordinator, WBYR/Ft. Wayne

"With a purchase of a bike you get a free BuzzBands CD. We're also giving them away at station concerts." — Jon Erdhal, Director Of Operations, WGIR/Manchester

"Throughout the summer, we're giving BuzzBands CDs away at station promotions and events. We did a BuzzBands CD Weekend, giving them away on-air all weekend long. Phones were hot. We also gave away BuzzBands CDs at a station-sponsored brewery bash, where 1000 people showed up for a three-hour remote for the participating client. We gave away more at sales-driven events. Reaction has been very positive." — Louis Garcia, Sales Associate, WXTB/Tampa

"We distribute the CDs at our Friday afternoon club appearances. We go to a bar every Friday for an afterwork party and use the CDs as part of our prize giveaways. I love the BuzzBands concept and the packaging."

— Tim Sheridan, Program Director, KIBZ/Lincoln

"It's amazing how well they're doing. As soon as we mention the BuzzBands CD on-air, the phones light up, hoping that we're giving them away, even when we're only teasing it. Listeners love the fact that you can't buy them anywhere, they love the feeling that they're the only ones that can have it." — Mike Karolyi, Music Director, WCCC/Hartford

"We've sold about 200 BuzzBands CDs for charity, so far, which is great. I love the artwork. They go over really well at remotes where we give them away." — Robin Lee, Program Director WZZO/Allentown

"We use finab's BuzzBands CDs as general handouts at the immense amount of station appearances we do. We have three different field teams that are out daily at everything from store grand openings to major concerts. They get free music, a free CD! They like the music and you can't go wrong." — Ron Valeri, Assistant Program Director/Marketing Director, WAAF/Boston

Already comfortable in his job for a couple of months now, Barry Lyons has officially been named VP/Rock Radio Promotion at Island Records, based in Los Angeles.

Island Sr. VP/Promotion Joe Riccitelli told fmqb, "Landing a player of Barry's caliber is a dream come true for this promotion staff and company. CBS Completes Acquisition Of ARS

CBS has completed its acquisition of American Radio Systems for approximately $2.6 billion, including the assumption of debt. The deal was first announced in September of 1997 at the NAB convention in New Orleans.

"We are pleased to have completed this significant acquisition which further strengthens CBS' investment in the fast growing radio industry," CBS President/CEO Mel Karmazin commented. "The ARS radio properties are a very attractive group of radio stations, which enables CBS Radio to expand into new Top 50 markets and increase its position in its existing major markets. As a result of this acquisition, we expect the CBS Radio Station Group, including the out-of-home media company, to represent over 65% of the company's future operating cash flow."

Karmazin added that CBS expects to continue to make additional investments in its radio and out-of-home businesses.

CBS still has to divest four stations in Boston, which are being placed in a trust until a buyer is found.

Detroit Rock City: Gorman Exits K-Rock, Nugent Sues Competition

PD John Gorman, Promotion & Marketing Director Jim Marchyshyn and MD/Programming Assistant Matt Surena exited WKRK/Detroit en masse on June 9. No replacements had been named at the CBS Active Rocker at presstime. New VP/GM Steve Sinicropi wouldn't provide specific details on the exodus, but a source told fmqb the ouster came as a surprise to the programming & promotion trio.

"It's time for a new chapter," Sinicropi told fmqb. "This is a great opportunity for someone who has the ability to take K-Rock to the Number 1 Rock position in Detroit."

Despite Stern's drawing power and Gorman's storied programming history, ratings have been disappointing since CBS shoehorned another Rocker into the market some 16 months ago. K-Rock's yet to crack a two share.

Sinicropi said he doesn't think it will take long to recruit a new PD. (Qualified candidates may send materials to him at WKRK, 16550 West Nine Mile Road, Detroit, MI, 48075-4799).

Midday personality Mark Thompson is holding down the programming fort until Gorman's successor is named.

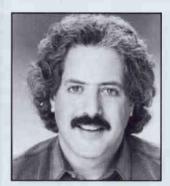

Reached at home for comment, Gorman (gman@advdata.net) would only say, "The station has a great team and is poised for great success in the future."

Meanwhile, Motor City Madman turned morning man Ted Nugent is suing his competitors. The WWBR morning host says Greater Media's WRIF and WCSX and CBS' WKRK won't accept advertising for his annual concert at Pine Knob on August 29 because it would promote a competitor's event. So he's filed a lawsuit in a Pontiac, Michigan county court seeking an injunction requiring the stations to air the ads.

Nugent attorney Dave Binkley says refusing the ads is illegal under the Michigan antitrust statute: "Since Greater Media has a predominant market share in AOR, they occupy a certain status within the statutes. Persons in those positions can't refuse to deal." Greater Media and CBS have 21 days to respond to the suit.

THE EAGLE FINED FOR STERN SHOW KEGL/Dallas has been fined $2,000 for a Howard Stern broadcast that aired in September 1993. A Ft. Worth area listener filed a complaint with the FCC regarding a bit Stern did about his wife Alison's panties. The FCC dismissed another complaint regarding a Stern broadcast on The Eagle in June of '97. KEGL GM Dennis Frawley told fmqb that the incident happened well before the current management was in place and that it was "a Sandusky issue." Sandusky still holds the license to the station that is currently operated by Nationwide until new owners, Jacor, take over. With Sandusky paying the fine the FCC renews KEGL's license, thus clearing the way for Nationwide to sell the station to Jacor. KEGL dropped the Stern show in July on 1997.

STERN DROPS IN CANADIAN RATINGS In the just released BBM Spring ratings, Howard Stern has gained in males but dropped in females. According to the Toronto Star, Stern lost 100,000 listeners, or about 20% of his audience. Most of his losses were female listeners. Stern is carried on CILQ/Toronto, where he pulled in an 8.9 share and is tied for third overall. PD Pat Cardinal told the Toronto Star that Stern gained "in every male category" although he did lose a portion of his female audience. Stern's Canadian decline was more prevalent at Montreal's CHOM. "The curiosity factor is over and clearly it was over for women first," a rival programmer told the paper.

Both Riff and 'CSX carried spots for Terrible Ted's concert last year, before The Bear put 'CSX in its missile sights with a "Classic Rock That Really Rocks" Labor Day '97 format change. And after Nugent's attorney threatened a lawsuit. Nugent, known for taking on-air pot shots at Riff's morning team, bypassed the threat stage this year after Greater Media and CBS turned down his ads.

AMRC's satellite delivered radio will run commercials. "The door is open to commercials," Abrams added. "Although it might be similar to Public Television where clients can sponsor an hour at a time. It won't necessarily be three commercials in a stopset." Abrams is already in place at the company's Washington, D.C. headquarters.

Abrams, a longtime consultant with over 30 years experience in radio, is credited with the creating the "Superstars" AOR format of the 1970's. He most recently served as a consultant for ABC National Radio Networks, Capstar and Nationwide, among others.

Kennard noted that another target of downsizing, the Competition Division in the Office of General Counsel, has been abolished and that the FCC is considering consolidating the bureau's enforcement divisions into one entity. FCC staffers are considering functions of the commission that can be outsourced or eliminated.

TRUST FUND FOR SUPPORT OF PUBLIC BROADCASTING Variety reported (6/9) that support is building for a $5 billion trust fund for public radio and television to be funded in part by fees collected from commercial broadcasters. The goal of the trust fund is to free public broadcasters from worries about their stations' long-term viability. In return, commercial broadcasters could attribute the funds that they contribute to the trust as part of what remains of their public interest obligations. CPB Vice Chairman Frank Cruz said that public broadcasters would use income from the trust fund to replace the annual federal subsidy, and help finance the expensive transition to digital television. This is not the first time that the idea of a trust fund for public broadcasters has been proposed. Currently, Congress sets aside about $300 million annually for public broadcasters.

With their European tour underway, the Smashing Pumpkins have announced details of a very special 13-city, 14-show U.S. tour in support of their new album, Adore. For each show, the band will donate 100% of the ticket sales to a local youth-oriented charity. "With this tour and in choosing these specific charities we believe it is very important not just to lend our name but also give our money," lead singer Billy Corgan commented on the upcoming tour. "Each organization has such a positive impact in the community we wanted to shine the spotlight on their work." All shows on the tour will be billed as An Eyening With The Smashing Pumpkins, and will have no opening act. Augmenting the Pumpkins - Corgan, James Iha and D'Arcy - for the tour are drummer Kenny Aronoff (Mellencamp, Fogerty), percussionists Dan Morris and Stephen Hodges, and keyboardist Mike Garson (David Bowie). In addition, plans for a 10th anniversary hometown show are back on again as the Pumpkins play Chicago's Soldier Field on July 7, with local boys Cheap Trick opening and net proceeds from the show benefitting the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Northern Illinois. The band also join the H.O.R.D.E. tour for four shows: 7/14, Bonner Springs; 7/15, Oklahoma City; 7/21, Cuyahoga Falls; 7/22, Cincinnati. Paul McCartney said goodbye to his wife Linda, Monday (8), at a memorial service held at London's St. Martin In The Fields church. Surrounded by the other surviving Beatles - George Harrison and Ringo Starr (the first time the trio had appeared together in public in nearly 30 years) - family, friends, and two Shetland ponies he gave to his late wife as a gift last year, McCartney bid an emotional farewell to his wife of 30 years, who died in April after succumbing to a two-year battle with breast cancer. "I have lost my girlfriend, and that is very sad," McCartney told the 700 member congregation. "I still cannot believe it, but I have to because it is true." In one of the more moving moments of the service, the congregation & which also included Elton John, Sting and George Martin sang "Let It Be," which McCartney wrote for his mother, Mary, who died of breast cancer when he was 14. The church choir sang "Celebration" from McCartney's Classical album Standing Stone of last year, and students from the Liverpool Institute Of Performing Arts, which McCartney helped to found, sang the refrain from The Beatles "Blackbird." Animal rights activists held a candlelight vigil in Trafalgar Square outside the church, wearing "Go Veggie For Linda" buttons.

From the Three Snakes and One Black Eye department, Black Crowes frontman Chris Robinson sustained a black eye and bruised ribs during an L.A. bar fight with two other men last week. The black eve forced Robinson to cancel Crowes photo session, but no dates on the band's upcoming Sho' Nuff tour will be affected. While it is still unclear who or what triggered the incident, Robinson and his actress girlfriend, Elisa Leonetti, were escorted out of the Whiskey Bars at the Sunset Marquis hotel, and to their car at about 2:00 A.M. The two unidentified men, who were reportedly bloodied in the fracas, were also escorted out. No charges are expected to be filed over the altercation.

Proving that NBA great Michael Jordan may be more powerful than we realize, John Fogerty has postponed what was to have been the first date of his Premonition tour, tonight (12) in Chicago, because it falls on the same night of Game Five of the NBA Finals (Bulls vs. Jazz) — a game which could possibly be the final home game of Jordan's career. Fogerty has moved the show to July 26, and will now kick-off the tour on June 13 in Indianapolis. Said Fogerty on his decision to move the show: "When we realized just what this day might mean to the folks in Chicago, it only made sense to postpone the show. Besides, it gives the band and me a chance to catch the game too."

While touring Europe in support of ther new album, III, Van Halen deunmer Alex Van Halen sustained in injury to his right arm when a piece of ceiling fell on the arm during soundcheck for a show last Wednesday (3) in Hamburg, Germany. The injury forced the cancellation of the show, and the band are taking the rest of the European 3 trek on a day-by-day basis. The injury hasn't prevented the band from announcing their U.S. summer tour, which hits mostly sheds. Catch the band in the following cities: 7/1, Phoenix; 7/3, San Diego; 7/4, San Bernadino; 7/5, San Francisco; 7/7, Concord; 7/8, Sacramente; 7/10, Portland; 7/11, Seattle; 7/14, Salt Lake City; 7/16, Denver; 7/18, Kansas City, 7/19, St. Louis, 7/21, Cincinnati; 7/22, Indianapolis; 7/24, Pittsburgh; 7/25, Columbus; 7/26, Hershey; 7/28, Scranton; 7/30, Charlotte; 7/31, Atlanta; 8/2, Nashville; 8/12, Montreal; 8/13. The Rolling Stones have axed the British leg of their Bridges To Babylon tour in what the British press is describing as a dispute with British government over a new tax law. The Stones issued a statement four British shows - 8/20 & 22. London; 8/24, Edinburgh; 8/26, Sheffield - were called off and will be rescheduled for June, 1999. The statement said Keith Richards' recuperation from a broken rib, rescheduling problems, insurance claims, and "tax issues" all contributed to the postponement of the shows, but the papers insisted that the tax issues were the most pressing. In its early Monday edition, The Times Of London said that if the band would have gone ahead with the four shows, they would have been stuck with a $19.6 million tax bill. The paper quoted Mick Jagger as saying, "If we did the U.K. shows it would have meant the entire European tour ran at a loss and we just couldn't do that, it would have been foolish." The band have also canceled shows in Gijon, Lyon, Marseille, and Paris.

With guitarist John Frusciante back in the fold, The Red Hot Chili Peppers have joined the bill for this weekend's Tibetan Freedom Concert in Washington, D.C. The band will perform on Saturday, along with Money Mark, Live, Patti Smith, R.E.M., Beck, Radiohead and others. The band are also rumored to be playing a secret show at D.C.'s famed 9:30 Club, tonight (12).

In other Tibetan Freedom Concer news, Beck's drummer. Joey Waronker (who also played on the new Smashing Pumpkins album will be working overtime or Saturday, as he joins R.E.M. for their set, their first without founding member Bill Berry manning the skins: Screaming Trees/Tuatara drummer Barrett Martin (who plays on the forthcoming R.E.M. LP), will be playing percussion for the show Rumors have Waronker joining R.E.M. for a promotional tour in the fall, but there is no confirmation as of yet.

The Rolling Stones have axed the British leg of their Bridges To Babylon tour in what the British press is describing as a dispute with British government over a new tax law. The Stones issued a statement earlier this week saying that the source of the sides and live tracks 'from Oasis in early November. The as-yet-untitled album is all but finished, according to reports, and should include the band's oft-bootlegged "white label demos." Other tracks rumored to be included are "Masterplan," "Round Our Way," and live versions of "Live Forever" and "Wonderwall." As far as the Brit-band's tabloid exploits go, The Sun is reporting that singer Liam Gallagher and girlfriend Patsy Kensit are looking to buy the house where Paul McCartney penned "Yesterday." We'll keep you posted.

Sheryl Crow has bowed out of her five scheduled Lilith Fair shows later this month, saying she needs some time off. Crow is currently ensconced in a New York studio recording and producing her next album, due this fall. Factoring that with a pretty heavy touring schedule over the past two years, she decided to cancel her Lilith appearances. No replacement for Crow has been named yet.

Beck's forthcoming album, tentatively titled Mutation, is in limbo as his two labels, Geffen and Bong Load, decide how the record should be released. Beck winds up his current tour in August in Tokyo.

Jimmy Page & Robert Plant enter the cyber-age as the duo's Monday (15) show in Chicago will be available on the Atlantic Records (www.atlantic-records.com), Rolling Stone (www.rollingstone.com) and JamTV (www.jamtv.com) Web sites. The digital video Web-cast from the show will be taken right from the United Center's DiamondVision screens which hang on either side of the stage. Log on at 9:00 P.M. Eastern.

An acute attack of asthma, along with a throat ailment, has forced Billy Joel to back out of shows in Manchester, Dusseldorf, Munich, and Berlin on his current European Face To Face tour with Elton John. John is carrying on with the tour in Joel's absence. Joel plans to rejoin the tour for a June 16 show in Vienna. The cancellations mark the first time in Joel's career he has been forced to cancel a show without being able to reschedule.

Cake are currently putting the finishing touches on their follow-up to '96s Fashion Nugget, in their hometown of Sacramento. Look for the as-yet-untitled album sometime this fall.

Has Johnny Rotten gone soft? Can his vicious attitude and antagonizing demeanor be tamed? Heck no! Rotten, who has just signed on with VH1 to host his own weekly show dubbed Rotten Television threatens to give mainstream TV a kick in the pants. The show will sport John Lydon (aka Johnny Rotten) discussing a myriad of topics including music, movies, TV, computer software, sports and much more. The half-hour show promises to be cutting edge both with its choice of guests and Lydon's typically amusing and often controversial rants. "I'm going to tell it like it is," Lydon told The Hollywood Reporter, "straight, bare-faced, honest. I'm going to anything and everything. I'm not out to make friends and I'm not out to make enemies, but there is enough lies and BS out there that can make for good commentary. I'm going to reach the millennium properly by disposing of iconism. I intend to burn and destroy many aspects that people hold dear."

With word that the Kinks' entire back catalog is being reissued with dramatically improved sound and boasting a wealth of rare material comes further news of an even more exciting development in Kinks land. While it's still in the tentative stages, it looks likely that the group's original line-up - Ray Davies, Dave Davies, bassist Pete Quaife and drummer Mick Avory - will reunited to perform a series of concerts in America and Europe. This line-up, you may recall, was responsible for creating all of the band's classic '60s material including "You Really Got Me," "All Day And All Of The Night," "Sunny Afternoon," "Waterloo Sunset," "Set Me Free," "Tired Of Waiting For You" and many more. As we mentioned earlier, things in the Kinks' world make life in The Who seem peaceful by comparison; yet if this reunion does come off, it'll be a once in a lifetime opportunity to experience a live performance by one of Rock's greatest treasures.

Famed guitar giant Eric Johnson is busy in an Austin, Texas recording studio working on material for his new studio album. Johnson, a notoriously slow worker in the studio, meticulously crafting his guitar parts, promises to complete his new effort in record time. With seven tracks already completed, Johnson hopes to issue the new album by year's end.

1997 Brit Award winners Manic Street Preachers will release the follow-up to their multi-platinum Everything Must Go album on September 7. It's due to be accompanied by a BBC2 documentary about the band, reports NME, and will include a duet between lead singer James Dean Bradfield and Sophie Ellis Bextor of theaudience. Titles on the new record include "Ready For Drowning" and "Born A Girl." The Manics will tour in the autumn.

Bernard Butler's third single from People Move On will be "A Change Of Heart," out on Monday (15) and backed by the new songs "My Domain" and "More Than I Know," both of which the former Suede guitarist played at his recent acoustic shows at the Garage in London.

B*Witched held onto their U.K. #1 spot this week with "C'est La Vie" in the week before World Cup soccer fever really shows itself in the British singles marketplace. The official England team anthem, "On Top Of The World" by England United (featuring Echo & the Bunnymen, the Spice Girls and members of Space and Ocean Colour Scene) arrived rather meekly at nine, with Del Amitri's Scottish team song (called, with admirable realism, "Don't Come Home Too Soon") new at 15. Mariah Carey's "My All" jumped in at four to become her 14th U.K. Top 10 single, 2 Pac's "Do It For Love" was new at 12 and "Swing My Way" by K.P. & Envyi at 14. Alexia's Eurohit "Gimme Love" entered at 17 and Shania Twain scored a second, more modest U.K. hit at 18 with "When." Simply Red's Blue, sales of which are now close to 200,000 copies, kept its position at the top of the album chart, holding off the two main now entries, Rod Stewart's When We Were The New Boys at two and Smashing Pumpkins' Adore at five. Shed Seven's third album, Let It Ride came in at nine.

HOW LOVE HELPED THE PUMP-KINS GET PERSONAL: Billy Corgan credits Courtney Love with helping him find a new sense of direction for the Smashing Pumpkins. Corgan claimed he'd never make another Rock album after Mellon Collie And The Infinite Sadness. On Adore he wanted to "get away from Rock as we knew it, to find something equally dynamic but fresher." Some critics have called it a "wholesale reinvention" of the band's sound. Before the last tour, Love told Corgan he needed to have a stronger identity.

That resulted in his shaved head, leather pants and "Zero" T-shirt. And now that search for identity has translated to the band's music. Corgan shares his personal life, writing about his family and his relationships. He has even started bringing girlfriend Yelena Yemchuck to interviews. Recalling his conversation with Love, Corgan told the Los Angeles Times: "One of the best things she ever said to me as a friend was that my problem was that I have no archetype, no identity so it makes it hard for audiences to know how to relate to me. For the first six or seven years in the band," he continued, "my whole thing was to be this super real person who was exactly the same onstage and offstage. The danger in that is you lose track of who you are and who the public thinks you are. Now there's a bit of distance between who I am onstage and off." Corgan will have his first indication of how well fans are receiving Adore when the sales charts come out. "I know that if this album sells as much or more than the previous ones, it'll be viewed as an artistic triumph," he said. "If it doesn't, it'll be viewed as

Billy's Little Art Project that went away."

ARMAGEDDON & AEROSMIT I AT KENNEDY SPACE CENTER: After his knee surgery, Steven Tyler is on the road to recovery — and the road to Florida. That's where Aerosmith will perform "I Don't Want To Miss A Thing" at the Kennedy Space Center on June 29 after the world premiere of Armageddon. A special state-of-thart theater is being constructed in a tent outside the Apollo/Saturn V Center for the 500 VIPs who have been

ELTON DENIES TAKING VOWS WITH LONGTIME COMPANION: It's a good cause for a tantrum from the makers of Tantrums And Tiaras, the Elton John documentary which was released last year. Elton John is denying newspaper reports that he and longtime companion David Furnish, who made the surprisingly frank film, will be "exchanging vows" as soon as his tour is over. The newspaper item also implied that the couple would have a pre-nuptial agreement. A spokesperson for Elton said legal action will be pursued against the New York Post for publishing the story without ever checking the facts. Elton is currently in Europe on the Face To Face tour with Billy Joel.

CHERRY POPPIN' DADDIES: Cherry Poppin' Daddies have recorded a version of Harry Belafonte's "Jump In Line" for the upcoming Universal Pictures film, Baseketball. It will appear on the Mojo Records soundtrack for the film due out in July. Cherry Poppin' Daddies' "Zoot Suit Riot" has just gone gold. They'll be on The Warped Tour starting June 20.

SCREAMING TREES: Screaming Trees' Mark Lanegan releases his new solo album, Scraps At Midnight, on July 28. He'll be touring with his other band, Tuatara, at the Tibetan Freedom Festival in Washington, D.C. on June 14 until July 31 when they play the Womad U.S. Festival in Seattle. The Tuatara album, Trading With The Enemy, is out June 23.

LIZ PHAIR: Liz Phair will be doing some Lilith Fair shows this summer in conjunction with the release of her third album, whitechocolatespaceegg, on August 11. Phair hasn't made a record since 1994's Whip Smart, which was recently certified gold.

HEART FEATURING ANN WIL-SON LAUNCHES TOUR THIS MONTH: Ann Wilson started rehearsals recently for a summer tour. Heart, featuring Ann Wilson, kicks-off June 18 at the House of Blues in Chicago, one day before the singer's birthday. Wilson, who has adopted a seven-week-old baby boy, Dustin, is doing the tour on her own while her sister Nancy works on starting a family with her husband, Cameron Crowe. Dustin and Ann's seven-yearold daughter, Marie, plus a nanny and families of other band members will all be on the road together in which Ann describes as a "traveling circus." Joining her in the band will be longtime Heart member Howard Leese, Frank Cox and Ben Smith from the Lovemongers and Seattle bassist Scott Olson, who once worked as Nancy's guitar tech. The set will include Heart hits, Led Zeppelin classics Heart has covered before, some of Ann's new songs and a few cover versions that may surprise some fans. They are "God Give Me Strength," which Elvis Costello and Burt Bacharach wrote for the movie, Grace Of My Heart, "You Lie," once recorded by Reba McEntire and the Gospeltinged "Crossing The River." This is not the first time Ann has toured as a solo artist. In 1995 she did a tour of military bases with a band that included a horn section. Wilson is still planning a solo album although the label has not yet been determined.

CREEDENCE CLEARWATER:
More live versions of Creedence
Clearwater Revival hits are on the Clearwater Revisited will have their by the end of the month. The on June 4 that indications are that

When synth-Pop pioneer Gary Numan brought his first tour in 16 years to Los Angeles recently, the current king of Shock Rock, Marilyn Manson was there, and hopped on stage to join Numan for a version of his "Down In The Park," which has been covered by both Manson and the Foo Fighters. Numan was busy during his stop in L.A., making a guest DJ appearance on KCRW's Morning Becomes Eclectic show, and appearing with KROQ's Richard Blade on his Flashback Sunday program. SATCH BOOGIES INTO THE MOTOR CITY

When his tour in support of his latest LP, Crystal Planet, hit Detroit, guitar virtuoso Joe Satriani made sure to stop by WRIF/Detroit's Studio C to run through a couple songs with his bassist, Stu Hamm. WRIF OM/middayer Doug Podell hosted Satch's performance.

It's been a few years since we've heard from underground diva Liz Phair, but record buyers clearly haven't forgotten her. While she's been toiling away on her new Matador/Capitol effort, whitechocolatespacegg (due August 11), her first two efforts - '93s Exile In Guyville and '94s Whip-Smart - have been certified gold. Phair recently gathered with some of the Matador and Capitol brass to receive her gold plaques and smile for the camera. News Flash: Pantera's Phil Anselmo is the new Spice Girl. That's what KEGL/Dallas middayer Chris Ryan reported after all the hub-bub about Ginger Spice leaving The Spice Girls. Some listeners actually believed it, which says something about the power of radio or the gullibility of listeners. (Remember "War Of The Worlds?") Cindy Scull and Chaz took the bit even further in the afternoon. "If it did happen, this is what it would sound like," they said, before airing a version of "Wannabe" with a harmonizer-enhanced Chaz screaming "Tell me what you want, tell me what you really, really want" in his best Phil Anselmo imitation. (Barking Spice?) "Not authentic, but funny," PD Greg Stevens summarizes... WXTB (98Rock)/Tampa gave away their "$40,000 Ultimate Garage" which included a 1998 Dodge Dakota Sport, a Kawasaki Ninja motorcycle, a Honda Tigershark personal watercraft, a refrigerator stocked with beer for a year (a case a week), camping equipment, a weight set, a 5 foot tool box loaded with tools, lawn and gardening equipment, new golf clubs and Bosch power tools. Meanwhile, 98Rock has set out to beat the heat by quenching listeners thirsts. Whenever the thermometer hits 98 degrees this Summer, 98Rock will give away free Icehouse beer at a local watering hole. Bring on the sun!... Instead of calling the shots, New England Patriots quarterback Drew Bledsoe was pouring the shots behind the bar at Whiskies on Boylston Street last week. Listeners paid $10 to get in and grab as many autographs and photographs as they could manage. 'AAF jocks helped the Pats pour tall cool ones at the event, which attracted camera crews from three Beantown TV stations... KTXQ (Q102)/Dallas have recruited six listeners (four females and two males) to live together in a single wide trailer for five weeks. The cast of "Q102's Wheel World" will live in a trailer park while morning men Lex & Terry keep listeners informed about conflicts and crisis that may arise. The virtual dysfunctional family is attracting quite a bit of attention from the local media with TV and newspaper reports. Listeners are also invited to check out the action via the Trailer Cam on Lex & Terry's Web Site... Score one for Heidi Kramer in the race to cut through the clutter, stand above the crowd, and get your message noticed by the people. For the 1998 Detroit Grand Prix last weekend, the WRIF marketing diva hired not one but four roaming billboards that said "101 WRIF" "WELCOME" "RACE" "FANS." For six hours, the four trucks —which followed behind each other to create a larger-than-life train effect- drove up and down Jefferson Street in downtown Detroit by Belle Isle, the location of the huge racing event. "I'm A WRIF Race Fan" stickers and balloons were also doled out to spectators taking shuttles to the race.

COAL CHAMBER "Sway"

"Wallflower."

Coal Chamber has been on fire for us, we still get as many phones for "Big Truck" as we do for "Sway." The band is always a pleasure to work with and the fans love them.

DEFTONES "Be Quiet And Drive (Far Away)"

Buzz listeners expect it loud and in your face, and the Deftones are right there for them. "Be Quiet.." is generating its share of requests. Quite the response to this band.

LIMP BIZKIT "Faith"

We started playing this version of the George Michael tune and we got such a good response that we packeted it into rotation. Buzz listeners love music so aggressive it makes your throat sore just listening to it and the Buzz has given them Limp Bizkit

STABBING WESTWARD "Save

Yourself"

This one happened fast. An early bloomer that really lights up the air-

UFO "Venus"

Huge phones, Michael Schenker is a local favorite.

MARCY PLAYGROUND "Saint Joe On The Schoolbus"

They're kid tested, mother approved. BROTHER CANE "I Lie In The Bed I Make"

A slow, solid builder.

JERRY CANTRELL "My Song" Some phones. We have complete confidence that this will come all the way through.

MONSTER MAGNET "Space Lord" Great bass line and it Rocks! It has the elements of a song you can't forget and sometimes wake up singing. RAGE AGAINST THE MACHINE "No Shelter"

Whether it's a soundtrack single or a full length album, everybody wants to hear more. "No Shelter" is a great song that could take Rage out of the nightparts that some stations may have them in.

SEMISONIC "Closing Time"

These guys generated a lot of phones at my last station an album ago, but I think "Closing Time" is the song they needed for general popularity. It's got a great hook, a great chorus, and everyone is singing it. It could be the theme song for a new Cheers.

DAYS OF THE NEW "The Down Town'

They had a smash with "Touch, Peel.." and "The Down Town" is a great choice for the new single. It's poignant, hard edged, and acoustic all in one. So far this band has disappointed no one.

BLACK LAB "Time Ago"

I personally love it. I think the hook is great, and I channel surf to see who's playing it so I can crank it up. FASTBALL "The Way"

I think "The Way" will be this Summer's "Walkin' On The Sun". The hook is unbelievable. It's such a happy, feel-good, Summer song.

PROGRESSIVE PRO-FORMERS

John Fogerty "Premonition" (Reprise)

John Fogerty's full-length live recording, Premonition, again claims Pro-Former Of The Week! Increasing 127 spins (#2 Most Increased!), Fogerty picks up 7 new adds (Including WBOS, WMNF, and WDET) and is already on-the-air at 47 Adult reporters! And while most Prog-stations are spinning "Premonition," WXRV spun "Born On The Bayou" eight times, and WCLZ added "Joy Of My Life" and "Swamp River Days." This report, the album takes a huge leap from 26 to 17°, with 471 spins.

Barenaked Ladies "One Week" (Reprise)

From the eagerly anticipated album Stunt, the Barenaked Ladies' "One Week" had an exceptional week at Progressive Adult Radio! Six new adds (WRNR, WNCS, WVOD, WDOD, KUWR, and Music Choice) shape the band's swelling cume, which now stands at 23. Spin increases across-the-board allow the band to claim #1 Most Increased (+200) and soar to a spectacular debut at 37. All this before the album hits our desk...

Cowboy Junkies "Miles From Our Home" (Geffen)

An excellent chart move and spin increase are the defining factors of another impressive week for The Cowboy Junkies. Their latest single, "Miles From Our Home" (from the forthcoming album of the same name), picks up 5 new stations this week, namely WBOS, KBXR, WEBK, WVOD, and KROK. Already on-the-air at 47 Adult outlets (including CIDR, KGSR, WRLT, KINK, KXST, WXRT, KTCZ, WFUV, KMTT, WXPN, KFOG, and KOTR!), "Miles From Our Home" is off to a more than promising start!

Grant Lee Buffalo "Truly, Truly" (Slash/Warner Bros.)

Skyrocketing from 12 to 8° on our Public Breakout chart and racing from 25 to 21° on the Top 50, Grant Lee Buffalo is exhibiting huge potential for their latest single ("Truly, Truly") and album, Jubilee (see this week's Progressive Picks for the full scoop). Seven new adds (WBOS, WIIS, KBXR, KROK, KCRW, KRCL, and KAXE) build the band's cume to an impressive 53! Trust us, Jubilee is the real deal. Count on seeing it on our charts for the remainder of the year!

ADULT RADIO PICKS

ON THE RIGHT TRACK?

SISTER HAZEL "CONCEDE." UNIVERSAL/UMG

From the album...somewhere more familiar, "Concede," is the latest single from Gainesville, Florida's Sister Hazel. As you know, the band has already had an across-the-board smash with "All For You," and "Concede" is equally infectious. Three versions of the track are found on the CD-Pro, but for the best display of their jangly acoustic Pop, spin the "New Radio Mix."

THIRD EYE BLIND "JUMPER," ELEKTRA/EEG

Third Eye Blind have sold a ka-jillion copies of their self titled, Elektra debut on the strength of tracks like "Semi Charmed Life," "How's It Going To Be," "Graduate," and "Losing A Whole Year." Showing no signs of slowing down, Third Eye Blind's chain of radio hits is going to increase by yet another one. "Jumper" will be the next to scale the charts, so don't miss the boat.

SINGLES/EPS

THE BRIAN SETZER ORCHESTRA "JUMP JIVE AN' WAIL," INTERSCOPE

From the forthcoming album The Dirty Boogie, The Brian Setzer Orchestra's version of the Louie Prima classic "Jump Jive An' Wail" (the original is featured in that Levi's commercial) confirms who the real king of retro Swing is. Without going into a whole spew of bullshit about how this sound is hip, and how Setzer was really the catalyst for it all, let's just say if you're going to play anything from the genre, then "Jump Jive An' Wail" should be your station's #1 choice. Be hip.

EMM GRYNER "SUMMERLONG," MERCURY

Canadian native Emm Gryner began writing songs at the age of ten, and by 1997 she had formed her own label, released a handful of albums/EPs, and played three Lilith Fair shows. Not bad for self-promotion, huh? Now, with Mercury Records behind her, Gryner is set to release her major label debut, titled Public. "Summerlong" comes right in time for the hot months, and sets the stage for the twelve tracks that comprise the record.

THE MURMURS "LA DI DA," MCA

Possessing musical qualitie that can perform at both Modern Rock and Progressive The Murmurs have, on firs listen to their latest single grown leaps and bounds since their last full-length (Pristin)

Smut). "La Di Da," is the premiere track from thei forthcoming Matthew Wilder-produced effort Blender, and it sounds like a sure winner to us. The chorus will ping-pong in your head like a superbal dropped from the Empire State.

ALBUMS

GRANT LEE BUFFALO JUBILEE, SLASH/WARNER BROS.

Produced by Paul Fox (10,000 Maniacs), Jubilee is the fourth and most commercially accessible album to date from Los Angeles' Grant Lee Buffalo. Joined by a solid collection of musical contributors, including Michael Stipe, The Wallflowers' Rami Jaffee and Robyn Hitchcock, the album boasts fourteen tracks that will, without a shadow of a doubt, receive Adult Radio airplay well into 1999. Jubilee is a breakthrough for Grant Lee Buffalo; a remarkable blend of mature songs that will boost this band to new heights. We dig "Truly...," "Jubilee," "Change...," "Seconds," "Testimony," "Fine...," "Come...," "My...," and "Crooked..."

SONIA DADA MY SECRET LIFE. CAPRICORN

My Secret Life? Not for very bloody long! We've been fans of Sonia Dada even before they signed with Capricorn, and this album doesn't let us down. As a matter of fact, we may have to get used to sharing this band on a much larger scale if the depth of their third album has the reach that we think it has. The funky rhythms and multi-octave harmonies have been polished to a blinding gleam. When we tried to pick a few tracks to suggest, we came up with a list of eight from a total track listing of fifteen. "Zachary," "Ain't...," "Don't...," "Phases...," "Get...," "Cold," "You...," and "Would..." The rest are damn good too.

THE GETAWAY PEOPLE, COLUMBIA/CRG

Don't you just love it when a new band has a hit single and, all of a sudden, every station in the panel "played them first"? Well, we're here to set the record straight before the fact. The Getaway

People, and their brilliant, self-titled Columbia full-length, came to our attention courtesy of the stations spinning the track "She Gave Me Love. So, when this album does go gold (and it will) WBOS, WDOD, WTTS, WXLE, WXRV, and WXPN were playing them first...and we have the playlists to prove it. Other tracks/future radio hits you might be interested in are: "Chocolate," "Blind, "Does My Colour...," "Limp," and "Plastic People."

ALBUMS

LITTLE FEAT UNDER THE RADAR CMC INTERNATIONAL

Little Feat fans, rejoice! We have a nice fat album and a tour in support of it for s u m m e r. Progressive reporters are, no surprise, already all over the first single, "Loco Motives," including KINK, KXST, WRNR, WMMM, KBAC, KPIG, WNCS, WCLZ, KFXJ, WRSI, KTAO, WEBK, WKZE, WMWV, KRVM, and a whole bunch of other Feat fans among the panel. The new album, Under The Radar, has lots to like from track to track including: "Home Ground," "Eden's Wall," "A Distant Thunder," "Hoy Hoy," "The Blues Don't Tell It All," and the lengthy-but-worthy "Calling The Children Home."

CPR SAMSON

This album is a collaboration of talent including Rock And Roll Hall of Famer David Crosby (Byrds, Crosby, Stills, Nash, and sometimes Young), guitarist/vocalist Jeff Pevar (Ray Charles, James Taylor, Shawn Colvin, B.B. King, Bonnie Raitt, etc.) and keyboardist/vocalist James Raymond (Crosby's son, who has worked with Take 6, Oleta Adams, Spice Girls). The first single, "Morrison," has already captivated a healthy portion of the panel with its rich harmonies. Check out: "That House," "One For Every Moment," "Somebody Else's Town," "Little Blind Fish," "Yesterday's Child," and "It's All Coming Back To Me Now."

THE CONNELLS STILL LIFE. TVT

Take your preconce ived notions and check them at the door. The Connells, formed in 1984 by brothers Mike and David Connell, were signed on the strength of their non-stop touring and faithful college following. A string of critically acclaimed albums has kept them working for over ten years, yet commercial praise has always slipped through their fingers...until now. Easily their best, Still Life is the album The Connells always hinted at. Solid Rock tracks, memorable vocal hooks and relatable lyrics are plentiful. We like "Crown," "Soul...," "The Leper," "Curly's...," "Still...," "Circlin'," "Gonna...," "Bruised," and "Dull..."

JOE ELY TWISTIN' IN THE WIND, MCA NASHVILLE

Americana legend Joe Ely has returned with his latest MCA N as hville album, Twistin' In The Wind.

For more than twenty years, he has built an acclaimed career based on his panoramic musical views of the good 'ol U.S. of A. Imagery continues to be significant in his writing in the late 1990s. In a wash of pedal-steel and slide guitar, Ely's Tex-Mex voice croons lyrics that conjure up images of the Southwest, and stations from Texas (KGSR, KPFT) to New York City (WFUV) have embraced many tracks on the album, including "Twistin' In The Wind," "Up On The Ridge," "Nacho Mama," and "Queen Of Heaven."

Reaching The People Who Count Versus Counting The People You Reach

By Ted Bolton

Most successful retail companies can tell you how many customers purchased their product on a daily, if not hourly, basis. Electronic inventory counts flow from cash registers into centralized tabulation centers. They know exactly how many customers bought the product every single day of the week, and they make informed marketing decisions on the basis of consumer facts. Not so with radio.

Radio is governed by a research methodology that ignores 70% of your customers. These are the people who refuse to be counted because they refuse to cooperate with Arbitron. That means that your "inventory counts" of listenership are based on the minority of the population, not the majority. Those are the facts. If you are to successfully market to this minority, you should first understand how and why they are different from the rest of the population. Then you can begin to make some sense of your marketing strategies.

How and Why Diarykeepers are Different

The vast majority of the public refuses to cooperate with research of any kind. Those who do cooperate are different in several important ways. First, they tend to be interested in giving their opinions. Our own focus groups with diarykeepers continuously point to their desire to have their opinions heard. They simply want people to know how they feel.

Radio diarykeepers also tend to be interested in the subject of radio and music. That just makes sense. If you are asked your opinion about a subject you either don't care about, or know nothing about, you probably won't cooperate.

Radio diarykeepers generally tend to have a higher interest in the survey subject matter.

Diarykeeper versus Contest Player

Diarykeepers are different from contest players. Contest players are looking to win a contest. They are motivated by an opportunity to win something, whereas a diarykeeper is motivated by the cooperative spirit of opinion giving.

Needless to say, there is the chance that a diarykeeper will participate in a contest. It just sometimes seems silly to assume that the motivations for greed are the same as the motivations for research cooperation. They are not the same, and when you send out the contest hook, you are going to catch contest fish.

How to Catch Diarykeepers

Arbitron is a numbers game, and reaching diarykeepers is a numbers game. In other words, if you spend your marketing dollars, be certain that your reach is big enough to achieve your desired Arbitron impact. There is a simple way to figure this out. What you need to do is calculate the probability of hitting a diarykeeper in your market. For example, if your 25-54 population is 900,000 listeners, and there are 2500 in-tab 25-54 diaries, there is a .0027 percent chance of hitting a diarykeeper in your market (give me a call if you want the exact diary hit probability for your market).

In this example, if you do a mail drop, or a telemarketing program to 100,000 cooperating 25-54s, you should reach about 277 diarykeepers. Understand that the operative word is cooperating. Just because you send a piece of mail, or make a phone call, does not mean you will gain cooperation. In this case, you could expect about a 5% direct mail cooperation level, and a 20% telemarketing cooperation level. That reduces your diary hits to around 14 diaries with direct mail, and 54 diaries with telemarketing. So be absolutely certain to factor in cooperation rates when you calculate your diarykeeper reach.

How to Win the Numbers Game

The two most important lessons are:

- 1. Target diarykeepers, not contest players. They are two different groups of people. Develop appeals that touch diarykeeper hot buttons. Reach the people who count. Don't waste your money counting the people you reach.
- 2. Work out the math! Most direct mail and telemarketing efforts fail not because they don't work. They fail because the effort was not large enough to reach the required number of diarykeepers. Don't be halfway pregnant with your marketing dollars. Spend what is required to move the meter, or spend nothing at all.

Your ratings are based on an unusual percentage of the population. Learn how to market to them, and your hard earned marketing budget will become a powerful weapon in the world according to Arbitron.

WXPN/Philadelphia had a successful spring fund drive, raising over $250,000 in less than four days. In all, 1,963 listeners called in to pledge financial support.

Variety reported (6/9) that support is building for a $5 billion trust fund for public radio and television to be funded in part by fees collected from commercial broadcasters. The goal of the trust fund is to free public broadcasters from worries about their stations' long-term viability. In return, commercial broadcasters could attribute the funds that they contribute to the trust as part of their public interest obligations. CPB Vice Chairman Frank Cruz said that public broadcasters would use income from the trust fund to replace the annual federal subsidy, and help finance the expensive transition to digital television. This is not the first time that the idea of a trust fund for public broadcasters has been proposed. Currently, Congress sets aside about $300 million annually for public broadcasters.

Lately, Dwight Yoakam has become just as renowned for his big screen efforts as he has for his trademark, attitude-laden twang. Roles in Sling Blade and The Newton Boys have made him an in-demand actor, but it's the music that is clearly still Yoakam's passion. On his new album, A Long Way Home (Reprise), Yoakam delivers what are undeniably his most personal, introspective songs to date. Featuring the hybrid of Country, backroads Honky Tonk and Rock that have endeared him to fans of all genres for over 12 years, A Long Way Home proves beyond a shadow of a doubt that Yoakam's voice and muse defy categorization. As strong as ever, Yoakam's songs speak to anyone who is a fan of a well-written, heartfelt song. Our faves include "Same Fool," "Things Change" and "These Arms."

What Chris Hillman has done in the past - he was a founding member of Rock and Roll Hall of Famers

The Byrds, along with other influential Country-Rock outfits like The Flying Burrito Brothers and The Desert Rose Band - guarantees him a lofty spot in the annals of Rock history. It's what he's doing now, on his stellar solo effort Like A Hurricane (Sugar Hill), that shows his most creative days may be yet to come. Echoing his past glories while adding a few new wrinkles to his musical skin, Hillman has delivered a vital effort, blending both the California jangle and Country Rock feel of his former bands. Joined by an all-star cast of players, including David Crosby, David Lindley and Jennifer Warnes, Hillman serves up one great song after another, highlighted by the distinctly Byrds-like "When You Walk In The Room," "Sooner Or Later" and the title track (not a cover of the Neil Young clas-

Windham Hill's new Summer Solstice 2 collection offers a decidedly worldly soundtrack alternative for your next summer barbecue or pool party. It also offers a glimpse at the wide variety of artists that make our format so all-encompassing and truly "progressive" in scope. Spanning the musical map, Summer Solstice 2 features music from the likes of Buckwheat Zydeco, Ladysmith Black Mambazo, Taj Majal, Tuck & Patti, and Will Ackerman, along with new additions to the Windham Hill stable like Samite and Angels Of Venice. A CD that proves summertime music isn't just Van Halen II anymore.

It's hard to believe that it's been five years since the last studio album from the genrebending Bela

Fleck & The Flecktones. As the Fleck-led quartet return with their new set, Left Of Cool, it's obvious that the time away hasn't hampered their ability to spin a dizzying musical web that encapsulates everything from Bluegrass to Funk to Folk to Rock. With Fleck's banjo and mandolin mastery front and center (as usual) the band travel down many musical roads to arrive at the songs which comprise their new album. Dave

Matthews contributes lead vocals on "Communication," showing that while the band's instrumental forays have always been their trademark, intriguing melodies and lyrics are just as an important part of their musical arsenal. Other highlights include the Funky "Throwdown At The Hoedown," "Let Me Be The One" and "Oddity." The album also tied with Billy Bragg and Wilco for third Most Added with fifteen new adds this week

Though the "next Beatles" tag proved to be a bit inaccurate, The Knack's place in the grand scheme of all things Power-Pop cannot be overlooked. Look beyond their one "true" hit, "My Sharona," and you'll find a bounty of Pop classics that will make you wonder why the band didn't receive a better fate. Celebrating The Knack's body of work is the new Rhino (who else?) compilation, Proof: The Very Best Of The Knack. Compiling the band's best - "My Sharona," "Good Girls Don't," "Baby Talks Dirty," and 1991's criminally overlooked "Rocket 'O Love," Proof is just that - proof that The Knack remain one of the finest Power-Pop acts ever. Proof also features four brand new tracks, including covers of "That Thing You Do." and Rockpile's "Teacher Teacher," with new drummer Terry Bozzio (Missing Persons, Jeff Beck) on board. Fascinating liner notes and facts round out the collection.

MONSTERS

MONSTER MAGNET POWERTRIP. A&M

MONSTER MAGNET's fourth full-length album, Powertrip, is available on CD and cassette, but it should also come in blotter and sheet form! After hearing New Jersey's bastard sons preview their new album last year at both CMJ and in Philly, we knew that this would be their strongest album yet. They haven't disappointed - as a glance at this week's chart will show, the five-song "Space Lord" EP has easily moved to 6* and will keep climbing as y'all discover the rest of this great album. fmqb's own Pat Berkery describes Monster Magnet as "the last great American Rock band," and we're inclined to agree with him. The Magnet continue to do what they do best, blending balls-out Rock 'n Roll with psychedelia, trippy lyrics and elements of Pop. Dave Wyndorf is at the top of his game, both in the lyrics he writes and the guitar hero he's quickly becoming. Also, The addition of new guitarist Phil Caivano (formerly in BLITZSPEER) has magnified the band's sound, as their recent performance at McGathy confirmed. We like this whole album, but if we had to recommend just a few tracks, we'd go with "Crop Circle," "Powertrip," "Temple Of Your Dreams," "Bummer," "Atomic Clock," and "Tractor." Powertrip is definitely a trip worth taking!

DRAIN S.T.H. HORROR WRESTLING. ENCLAYE/MERCURY

Despite being svelte, shapely members of the fairer sex, DRAIN S.T.H. relies on corpulent riffing to attract some well-deserved attention. Last year's Horror Wrestling is being re-released by Enclave/Mercury and will include the crawl-paced yet graceful cover of "Ace Of Spades" as well as the acoustic version of "Serve The Shame." Horror Wrestling is slathered in heady grooves, as it throws a kick to the heads of those who labor under the illusion that crunchy guitars and female vocals are hardly compatible bedfellows. "I Don't Mind," "Crucified," "Stench," and "Klotera" are launched like grenades, while the more muted "Crack The Liar's Smile" opens acoustically and allows the band to show its range and proves that they don't just manufacture power riffs without much thought. Maybe one of the Drain S.T.H. women should audition to take Ginger's place and inject the SPICE GIRLS with some Metal Power!

ZAO WHERE BLOOD AND FIRE BRING REST, SOLID STATE/TOOTH & NAIL

Metal's reputation has always been curiously aligned with the Prince Of Darkness, Sir Satan himself. But Christian Death-Metalists ZAO, with a revamped, bassless lineup, combat that stereotype, saying "Fuck off, Satan. Make room for Jesus." Actually, they don't really utilize the term fuck as the album is free from profanity. The unbridled brutality of the chunky power riffs is woven with the corrosively shrill vocals and will fuck with those of weak constitution. Zao paves the way for "Jesus" to become a prevalent adjective attached to the "core" suffix that is immensely popular in today's Loud Rock world. Zao pummels and burns in the name of the Lamb Of God on tracks like "Lies Of Serpents, A River Of Tears," "To Think Of You Is To Treasure An Absent Memory," "A Fall Farewell," and "Ember." Zao may sound like they've undergone demonic possession, which all Metal maniacs adore, but they temper it with their positive, worshipful message which never assaults or alienates the listener. If your audience loves TODAY IS THE DAY or WILL HAVEN, they'll open their hearts to Zao.

TRIPPIN' WITH DAVE WYNDORF

VISION OF ANSELMO

Currently in New Orleans' Ultrasonic Studios recording their upcoming album Imprint, Vision Of Disorder welcomed Pantera's Phil Anselmo, who lent his voice to a song on the record. (L-R): Anselmo; producer Tim Williams; VOD singer Tim Williams.

STRAPPING YOUNG LAD NO SLEEP TILL BEDTIME. CENTURY MEDIA

Devin Townshend's done more in 25 years than most of you will accomplish in your life. Not only is he in three bands right now, he also owns his own label, served as the vocalist to one of Steve Vai's albums, and even co-produced STUCK MOJO's last album, Pigwalk. Somewhere along the way, Devin's found time to start his own band, STRAPPING YOUNG LAD, and release two albums with them. Last year, the group toured Australia and recorded some of the shows. The two shows that were recorded in Melbourne make up most of this EP. If you haven't heard of the band yet, No Sleep will bring you right up to date. The band's ultra-heavy sound mixes thrashy riffs and technology. Not only are there tunes from both of their Century Media albums on here, there's also a live track, "Far Beyond Metal," that doesn't appear anywhere else, as well as two new studio tracks tacked on to the end of the EP. Riffy and hypnotic, "Japan" shows a different side of SYL, while "Centipede" is almost dirge-like in its unrelenting heaviness. You'll have to screen this EP for language, because it is live, and Devin likes to run his fuckin' mouth. No Sleep Till Bedtime should tide fans over until their next studio record.

IN MY EYES THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN. REVELATION

Old school Boston Straight-edge Hardcore, rife with robust sing-a-longs, SICK OF IT ALL-H2O-SHUT-DOWN-style energetic axework, clear, high singing, and traditional Hardcore song structures, doesn't stop to take a breath on IN MY EYES' Revelation debut. The album is full of life and has blood running through its veins on "The K.O.S.T.," "This Is Our Time," and "The Way It Was Left." Quite a scene buzz surrounded the band based on their demo and its plain to see why. Like labelmates BETTER THAN A THOU-SAND, the difference between In My Eyes and most of today's Hardcore lot is that In My Eyes doesn't retain a chugga chugga Metal edge. The Punk overtones and the emotion that fuels In My Eyes are what makes it traditional Hardcore. The '80's was not just about hair bands and Glam Rock. The Spirit of '80's HC will be summoned when you spin "Lasting Values" and "A Little Too Late."

ソソソソソ

- * METALLICA may supply music for Paradise Lost Revisited, a new documentary on trial of three Arkansas teenagers convicted of killing three small boys in an alleged Satanic ritual. As you might remember, the band let their music be used for the original Paradise Lost documentary.
- * Drummer Simon Wright has rejoined DIO, replacing Vinny Appice, who's standing in for the incapacitated Bill Ward on BLACK SABBATH's European tour and U.K. Ozzfest date.
- * Keep an ear out for The Music Cartel. The new label, which is being run by Eric LeMasters (formerly at Earache), has a full slate of releases over the next few months. The label will be distributed through K-Tel. The first release you'll be seeing from the Cartel will be from TRANS-PORT LEAGUE and will be hitting your desks later this month. Other forthcoming releases from the label include LEADFOOT (featuring ex-C.O.C. members), CODESEVEN (a DEFTONES/TOOL hybrid), IDK (the Jersey band that had an EP out on Earache last year), LID (featuring TROUBLE's Eric Wagner and ANATHEMA's Danny) and very cool Swedish band ROACHPOWDER.
- * SEVENDUST are going to be doing an on-line chat on Thursday, June 18 at 7P.M. eastern. The chat will be hosted by Sonic Net on their Yahoo site (chat.yahoo.com) and will be followed by a cybercast of their show at Irving from a few weeks ago. You'll probably want to let your computer-literate listeners know about that one.
- * Another record you might 'wanna look out for is SX10, a Rap-Core band featuring Sen Dog from CYPRESS HILL. Look for it Get Wood on Flip Records before too much longer.
- * Recently, KEGL/Dallas middayer Chris Ryan announced that PANTERA's Phil Anselmo was the newest Spice Girl, replacing the departed Ginger Spice. Now we're not gonna diss Dallas listeners or anything, but some of them actually believed the story, calling the sta- tion for more details Sounds like a vulgar display of stupidity, if you ask us... Meanwhile, we figured you wouldn't be able to sleep without hearing what Ozzy Osbourne's reaction was regarding Ginger's exit. "She left the band? You're kidding me," Ozzy exclaimed to MTV, "Quit the band for what reason? That's really weird, that is. I always heard that they were tight. For what it's worth, they're not going to be around in another 10 years. They're going out of it, you know. It's really weird the way people flake off. It's like then there were three, then were four, then there will be one Spice Girl left, but good luck to them."

- * Wondering what Henry Rollins has been up to lately? Well, so have we, and we found out that he'll be appearing in a music video along with RED HOT CHILI PEPPERS' Flea, and RAGE AGAINST THE MACHINE'S Tom Morello in a video for BONE THUGS -N- HAR-MONY video for the Small Soldiers soundtrack. Apparently the above people are strapped into a giant robotic head and are controlling giant robots that fight each other. The song is a cover of the old Edwin Starr song, "War." Wow, we're almost sorry we asked what Hank was up to!
- * Starring in Jerry Cantrell's band is fellow ALICE IN CHAINS cohort, drummer Sean Kinney, as well as former QUEENSRYCHE guitarist CHRIS DeGARMO. The band is ready to hit the road with METALLICA beginning June 24.
- * It took years, but W.A.S.P. has finally gone gold! 1985's "The Last Command," and 1988's "W.A.S.P.," both Capitol releases, have been certified as gold albums by Billboard as of June 4.
- * The family of former KISS drummer, the late ERIC CARR, is releasing audio tapes from Carr's own reel to reels from his musical career before he joined KISS. WLZR, MILWAUKEE MD-MARILYNN MEE:

Say what you want about Milwaukee (ya der, hey...we've heard all the jokes), but let me tell you there's no better place to be in the summer, especially this summer! This week, Milwaukee welcomes tens of thousands of Harley riders from all over the country as Harley-Davidson celebrates its 95th birthday. The Wallflowers will do a free concert at the lakefront; Cheap Trick headlines the big birthday bash. Then, just as everyone finally recovers from that party, it's time for Summerfest, now the world's largest music festival. The party lasts eleven days, June 25th thru July 5th. Headlining this year on the Lazer 103/Levis Rockstage at Summerfest: Brother Cane, Candlebox, Monster Magnet, Jimmie's Chicken Shack, Addict, Stabbing Westward, Gravity Kills, Seven Mary Three, Creed, Joe Satriani, and Spacehog. Also appearing on our stage: Big Wreck, Samiam, Feeder, Econoline Crush, Cold and Drain. If it takes us a little longer than usual to return phone calls during June, well, now you know what we're up to. Come join us here for a day or two, you'll love it!

WBUZ, TOLEDO MD-MARIELLE SALAS:

GREETINGS FROM THE ULTIMATE BUZZ! Since I have been working 7-midnight, I just have one question: Why does the sun come out at about 7:15 every day? If this is part of El Niño, or a result of all that hair spray in the '80's destroying the ozone layer? Anyway, The Buzzband Showdown has been going extremely well. In fact, it's our last event — the final round — June 18. I would like to thank all of you wonderful record saints for supporting this event; and, you are all invited for the finals! Yes, it will be a party, and I look forward to seeing you Jon, of Elektra; Allison, of Sire; Chris, of A&M; Howard, of Columbia; Michael, of Atlantic; Gary, of Geffen; Kevin, of Mercury; Linda, of Revolution; Kim, of RCA; Kevin, of Virgin; and anyone else who wants to grace us with their presence. Thanks to our nationals who have stopped by: David, of Sire; and Diane, of A&M. We really appreciate all of your help! Thank you Chad Brueski, and good luck (although you don't need it!) Congrats to John Kuliak (although I haven't gotten the official news yet). In the world of music, we are digging "Spacelord," by Monster Magnet, "It's Alright," by Candlebox, and "Go Away," by Cold. Our feelers are out for the new Megadeth, Page & Plant (aaahhh!!!), and Marcy Playground. In the world of concerts, this summer ROCKS! We look forward to Tool at the Sports Arena (among other shows). In the world of conventions, did someone say Smashing Pumpkins and Ozzfest in the same breath? By the way, can I marry you, Doc? In the world of tattoos, just wait until you see the latest addition to my shrine-to-Zeppelin ankle! In the world of radio, we are in the midst of kick-ass Rock road trips all over the place. I didn't think any winner would be happier than our Pearl Jam in Seattle winner, until I met the Megadeth/Sevendust/ Monster Magnet in San Francisco winner, and there's more where those came from! Enjoy your life, and don't let others decide who you are. REMEMBER, LIFE IS TOO SHORT TO EVER BE ANYTHING BUT HAPPY! Peace, love, & all that is good.

WAMX, HUNTINGTON, WV PD/MD-DEBBIE WYLDE:

HOWDY!!! WAMX rocked last week! Wednesday night we presented Southern Culture On The Skids at the Stoned Monkey in Huntington. Rick and Mary stopped by the station for an interview, where we treated them to tons of Little Debbie's! We rocked the packed house with those delicious snack cakes that night as well. (A cool plug for my company!) Friday was "Luxx Day" at WAMX. Katrina came by in the morning as listeners received free belly piercings. The whole band stopped by in the afternoon for an acoustic performance that just absolutely rocked. They had a local in-store with more belly piercings before heading to The Drop Shop that night. It was an 'encore' performance from our One Year Anniversary party. And, what's really cool, after Luxx rocked a packed house, a major crowd hung around for another 30 minutes waiting for Katrina and the guys to sell and sign merchandise - which sold-out! Coming up on June 17 it's Jerry Cantrell at The Drop Shop. We're giving away tickets with our Free Box Office Thursday and celebrating Jerry all weekend long! We ROCK! WAMX has a new "Screamer Of The Week." The brand new Creed tune, "What's This Life For," just brings tears to my eyes for being so GOOD! After only four days on-the-air, Creed totally shut out the DLR Band. WAMX listeners DEMAND Creed!!! This week will be tough with the new Days Of The New track! We ROCK! I just received the new Gravity Kills CD, Perversion. Check it out, it's AWESOME!!! WAMX continues to "Rock Around The World." We're giving away a trip to see the Ozzfest and The Warped Tours together in Minneapolis! Up next: The Smashing Pumpkins in New York City! We ROCK! As I've mentioned before, WAMX will be holding X-Fest on September 26. Last year Jimmie's Chicken Shack, The Hazies, Days Of The New, Vibrolush, and more rocked the tristate. LET'S START PLANNING AHEAD!!! Kicking ass on the phones: Creed, Jerry Cantrell, Goo Goo Dolls, Monster Magnet, and Rammstein. We ROCK!!!

WKZQ, MYRTLE BEACH MD-SUMMER:

Summer (the season) is really sizzling for 'KZQ. We are well into our huge "Blast Of Cash" promotion; free money, 'KZQ T's, tix to Metallica, Jerry Cantrell, Van Halen, Ozzfest, and hopefully, The Warped Tour (we would like it to come closer - like TO the beach). We even "mug" our listeners with cool 'KZQ coffee mugs. At the end of all that, the winners go back in to win tiger sharks and other big, groovy items. We are very XXcited about the next few months. Hey, a bad day at the beach IS better than a good day anywhere else in the world!!! Also, our next Women Rule/Chix Rock Summer Festival is July 19. Female bands touring, call us [at] 843-448-4739, ask for Bitchy Spice (the new Spice in town); guess who that is!!...The Sun Fun season is officially here as of the Sun Fun parade this past Saturday where, I am thrilled to report that: between the jocks staying up for days partying, DJ Jeff spinning & mixing on the float as we cruised down Ocean Blvd., ME loud and proud on the PA system, and Reckless Eric holding his tummy (he's not used to floats), we had absolutely NO fatalities (people [who] have fallen off!!!)...Oh yeah, we also had X-game's trick riders circling. They are so cool, and always looking for awesome riding music. Mmmmmmmmm!!!...We have been getting some great stuff in; Feeder, Gloritone, Filter, and Far Too Jones, including some great regional bands. We will let you know who's coming up from the south soon...Hope everyone has a wonderful time at the R&R convention. Eric is going just to work out with Kathy Ireland and Trina, of Columbia. Make him shake it, girls. I, of course, will be holding down the beach (aaawww, hate that). We'll be spinning in our swimmies, and Reckless' desk will be set up for shots. Sorry, Eric, but when the cat's away the mice WILL play. WEEE DAWGGY (as "Jed Clampett" would

KRZZ, WICHITA PD-LESTER ST. JAMES:

What a weekend!! Thanks to everyone in town for the Bill Rusch Memorial, another great event is in the books! Putting on this year's Bill Rusch commemorative jacket was none other than Jack Oliver!! After 12 years of co-sponsoring the event, Jacko finally gets the fabled jacket for the next year!...How 'bout those scores - Don Hall and Tom Martens with mid-70's!! You guys are out of control!! The card party just wasn't the same with a couple missing A&M'ers! And, whose idea was it to play at 6:30 the next morning?? See you all next year!!...The rest of the weekend was a blur!! On top of the outing Thursday was the start of our cruiser car racing season (a cruiser car has 2 people in the car, driver with the wheel & brakes, the passenger has the gas peddle on their side!) We took 8th place in the "B" feature (basically 28th out of the 84 total cars showing up!)...Conversation day on Saturday morning at the Zoo, a trip to K.C. for the Page/Plant show (how come they couldn't do "Stairway"?), a 3 a.m. return to Do-Dah, then a 10 a.m. gig at the Special Olympics closing ceremonies! A friend of mine keeps telling us, "Sleep is my friend." I need some...Other mindless Lester ramblings: We're just over a month away from Conclave 23 (July 16-19) in downtown Minneapolis. The Marriott & Radisson are SOLD-OUT, and we anticipate one of the largest turn-outs in our attendance history, so what are you and your label going to do to get noticed? We have a few sponsorship events available! Need more info?? Call Conclave headquarters...612-927-4487! Peace, love and some deep REM sleep!!

KZRQ, SPRINGFIELD, MO PD-JULIE BARRY/MD-GEORGE SPANKMIESTER:

"Where a crowd still attracts a crowd," there is so much truth in that Brother Cane song. Channel Z104.1 hooked up with Brother Cane Saturday night at the show here in Springfield. The great guys from Brother Cane were going on about how wonderful Active Rock has been to them and how awesome it was to be #1. Springfield loves getting Active Rock for the first time ever, and we love giving it to them. Thanks to Kirsten Bailey, at Virgin Records, for her help with that show. We sent a few winners to see them play the very next evening at RockFest in Kansas City with Creed, Candlebox, Samiam, and many other fantastic bands. It was a great weekend...In the meantime, it was a win-it-b-4-u-can-buy-it weekend with the DLR Band album. Diamond Dave called in to tell us about the new record and totally star-struck all of us. Thanks to Dave, Lisa, and Eddie at Diamond Dave Enterprises for hooking us up! We asked Dave to send us something funky and autographed. It took him only a week to send us a signed bottle of Bookers Bourbon. Booker is the grandson of our hero, Jim Beam, and this bottle looks good. Anyway, we gave all that away this weekend, and we all got to hear Dave Lee Roth say our names...Until next time, here's to hoping for the biggest ratings for a brand new radio station ever reported in the history of mankind!

KZZK, QUINCY APD/MD-PAUL ERICSON:

After seeing Big Wreck, Creed, Candlebox, and Spacehog at The 13th Annual McGathy Party, it is very easy to see the future of Rock Radio. Big Wreck has become a personal favorite, and "That Song" is gaining momentum on the phones with our listeners. Page & Plant are killer live, be sure to check them out, if you can. And, a special tip-of-the-hat to Jon Nardachone, at Atlantic, for the St. Louis tickets.

LOUD RADIO NETWORK, PHOENIX MD-RANCID RANDY:

RAT PACK! RAT PACK! RAT PACK!!! Yes, the RAT PACK will be complete '98-style with the much anticipated arrival of Madd Maxx Hammer. Having Mr. Madd back in Phoenix will be an intense boost to its sagging music scene...LOUDRADIO IS KICKING ASS WORLDWIDE @ www.loudradio.com Phil (41 Records) Will (Hollywood); Dave Shaw (Columbia): and of course, Todd G. (Warner), deserve special mention for helping us take off as well as we have. Sprung Monkey puts a banana in the tail pipe of its competition for LOUDRADIO's top spot for the beginning of June. It's a lot of fun to receive correspondence form different parts of the globe concerning a wide range of matters, but we haven't seen the likes of such positivism about a band (Sprung M.) since Englebert Humperdink and Slayer were thinking of teaming up. All kidding aside, big kudos to SM for allowing me to be e-mailed by a host of Swedish babes. MADD MAXX HAMMER, G-STER, and yours truly, RANCID RANDY, a.k.a. the Rat Pack, want you to know: IF IT'S TOO LOUD, YOU'RE WAAAAAY TOOOOOO OLD!!! Check us out live at www.loudradio.com PEACE.

JOEY SCOLERI HOLLYWOOD (818-560-5395):

e.mail.joey_scoleri@studio.disney.com The Pistoleros "The Hardest Part" is the perfect summertime, melodic, guitar-powered, Rock Radio hit. "The Hardest Part" is a 25-44-year-old record reminiscent of all that is great about Tom Petty and The Gin Blossoms. Already on "The Hardest Part" are: KLOS, KDKB, WAPL, WKQQ, KQDS, WGLO, KFRQ, WWCT, and WSTZ. "The Hardest Part" has that instantly familiar sound so many stations crave; listen and believe. Fastball's "The Way" goes Breaker #22 at Rock, is selling massive amounts of CD's, and is Top 5 CHR. Enough said? If you missed "The Way," don't miss "Fire Escape." Caroline's Spine are on the road all summer, and chances are they are playing your market. Support is appreciated with any airplay. Let's talk and make it work for everyone. And finally, Brian May (the Brian May of Queen fame) has a song called "The Business," which will be in your hands the first week of July. "The Business" rocks like nobody's business. Save a slot for July 13, 14. You won't regret it!

AL TAVERA ELEKTRA ENTERTAINMENT (212-275-4106):

The world may be focused on France watching the World Cup '98, but we have some great action of our own. On Scott Thomas Band we move to 24* on the Monitor Heritage chart; 88 total Rock stations, so far...Feeder "High" is starting to kick in at Rock & Alternative, sales up for the 5th straight week...Filter & Foo Fighters helped X-Files soundtrack come out of the shoot with over 45,000 pieces last week...If you're looking for something totally different that will catch your listeners' ears, check out Vast "Touched." Play it at night and find out for yourself. Yankees win again!

JOEY SEVERANCE METAL BLADE (401-831-2960...FAX: 401-831-7590):

Thanks to all those that added Dark Funeral for me last week. We are working on getting Lord Ahriman here to the office to do phone interviews with everyone. I will definitely keep you posted. This record is going over well with everyone and is definitely TOP PRIORITY. Also making the rounds is Mercyful Fate. A full U.S. tour is in the works, and I will have a guest list soon. Please keep up the action on these Metal legends. Cannibal Corpse should be home by the time you're reading this, and they will also do a full U.S. tour. Support on all dates are from Osmose recording artist Angel Corpse. Keep up the action on this record. This tour is more than likely going to kill you. Six Feet Under start their tour at this year's Milwaukee Metal Fest, and Immolation will be playing there, as well. For those of you going, stop by the Metal Blade booth that we're doing with Terrorizer Magazine. New music coming to you next will be Konkhra and Warrior.

MIKE LYONS LEE ARNOLD MARKETING (414-351-9088):

We will be sponsoring the PAR Panel at the Midwest Conclave in Minneapolis July 18, and swords will be sharpened. More details coming soon. Let's see...WBOS adds 13 records this week. OK, welcome to the panel, George. Sonia Dada closes out WXRT, KTCZ, WMVY and six others this week. KTHX, WMMM, KRSH, and KOTR among others joining the party for Roy Rogers' "Pleasure And Pain." Folks using Blues-Rock should love this. Jupiter Coyote's "Ship In The Bottle" hits #3 added in the first week! New hooz - Why Store's "When You're High" going for adds today. Album in stores June 30. Also, for your enjoyment, Molly And The Makers "I'm Not Shy" going for adds now, with terrific tempo and smart female POV. Best hookathon right now has to be a new act on A&M, Hollowbodies and "Little King." Cannot stop singing it. Goes for adds on June 23. Finally, this just in: to wrap up the Conclave PAR Panel, Ron Sorenson will hit the high "F" in "Loving You."

MUNSEY RICCI, DANA BOVE SKATEBOARD MARKETING (516-328-1103):

e-mail: skatebmkt@aol.com Http://www.Skateboard-Marketing.com Alrighty then, on your desk is Monster Voodoo Machine and Goreguts, and both going for adds on June 22. Adding the 15th is the full Monster Magnet and the new Zao. Rorschach Test and The Clay People are both on the road and both doing interviews. Kilgore is out with Rorschach until Ozzfest, then Motorhead, Kilgore, and Monster Voodoo Machine jump on. Bad Religion is on The Warped Tour, and we do have tickets. Hellshock is doing phoners Thursday and Friday. Voivod is available for interviews whenever you need them. This band loves to work. One Minute Silence is doing interviews from the U.K. You have to let us know what you want ASAP. Savatage is awesome live. I saw the WRCN show last night and it kicked mo fuggin ass, so see them live. Only two words: Los Gusanos "Do It." Coming on June 30 is new Universal Stomp. C'ya.

SEAN MC KNIGHT NUCLEAR BLAST AMERICA (717-244-0808):

radio@nuclearblast-usa.com Charles Manson recently told his parole board that he's too busy to be free. Luckily for him, the parole board obligingly denied his parole. I hope you haven't been too busy for all of the crushing NBA releases that are out right now, and that you've added the new Hammerfall, Children Of Bodom, Narnia, and Therion disks! There's also two more to be added shortly, with Benediction's "Grind Bastard" and Evereve's "Stormbirds" going for adds 6/22 and 6/23! Keep the spins coming for Covenant and Hollow, as well. Don't forget, I'm taking giveaway requests, and if you didn't receive Hammerfall's "Glory To The Brave" debut full-length last year, just let me know as I'm reservicing it to any of you who didn't get it and like what they hear on the EP.

Pdernpicks

Candlebox, "It's Airight," (Maverick/Warner Bros.)

With the addition of former Pearl Jam drummer Dave Krusen (he performed all the drum tracks on PJ's Ten), and some time off to craft a superior and diverse new collection of tunes, Candlebox is pumped and primed to take over the Modern and Rock airwaves. And if this single is any indication of what we're in for with their third album, happy pills (in-stores 7/21), we are all in for quite a treat. Simply put, this is a really good song, a beautifully crafted, powerful ballad that should have an excellent run. The band's last two albums sold a combined 4 million units, putting happy pills in an excellent position to extend on that retail success. This record is the real deal, so pay attention.

Fatboy Silm, "The Rockateller Skank" (Astralwerks)

Rolling Stone has praised Fatboy Slim's 100,000 seller, Better Living Through Chemistry, as being "the most fun, shamelessly genre-hopping dance album of the year." This frenetic follow-up to the massively popular "Going Out Of My Head" is also the lead track from the forthcoming MTV's Amp 2 album, a dazzling collection of electronic music's very best. This track lives up to its billing in every way. The video, one of the most elaborate and expensive in Astralwerks' history, is set to take over the MTV airwaves. Also expect this song to be huge in the clubs. Play this record now, you may have no choice before the summer passes.

The Dandy Warhols, "Every Day Should Be A Holiday," (Capitol)

Many have been waiting for this band to break big for quite a while. With the release of this track, the latest from the long-awaited LP, ... The Dandy Warhols Come Down, that time may have finally arrived. Expertly constructed electronic and guitar-driven sounds, in combination with an inescapable hook, power this track with the confidence and swagger that The Dandy Warhols are known for. Make this happen.

Dag, "Our Love Would Be Much Better (If I Gave A Damn About You)." (Columbia/CRG)

This is the funkiest smash hit to arrive on the scene in years. Taking the funkiest of leads from such groove wizards as Prince and even contemporaries Jamiroquai, Dag pulls no punches. If a meaty hook is something you're looking for, look no further. This song won't only fit into you playlist, it'll probably top it. Funk/Rock is truly alive and kicking. One listen to this record will convince you of that, and it's validity in the format. From their sophomore release, Apartment #635.

Drugstore, "El President," (Roadrunner)

Drugstore's bio describes this track perfectly: "This acoustic guitar duet with Radiohead's Thom Yorke, is a captivating and sensual track complemented by the melodic and haunting sounds of piano mixed with the driving rhythms of the cello." It's a beautiful, bittersweet track deserves every bit of your attention immediately. We already know a large majority of you are very much into this one, as is evident in the amount of times it's shown up in Insider Trading over the past few weeks. Go with your gut (and your ears), and put this song on your radio station. Also remember that it's a song that your station can own.

Beth Orton, "Best Bit," (Dedicated/Arista)

Taken from her EP of the same name, Beth Orton once again scoops the listener up and shakes them to attention with her savvy vocal prowess. She does so much the way she did with her last radio release, "She Cries Your Name," taken from the universally acclaimed album, Trailer Park. This track possesses an even greater energy and displays a grand sense of melody, backed with superb musicianship. Beth Orton is a budding star, and it's high time your listeners were introduced to her delicious talents.

Speaking of the Boy ary Ballroom, this venue is sure to become a Manhattan favorite. We're already raving about it after catching Bernard Butler's solo acoustic performance their recently (6.3). Butler played a ten-song set with on-encore on a stage lit only by candles that helped set an ambience to the room that matched his music. We can't wait to see what happens to this place once the Rock music starts pounding through the hall... In conjunction with his recent visit to Atlanta, the Dalai Lama agreed to an exclusive sit-down interview with 99X/Atlanta Morning Xers Jimmy Baron and Leslie Fram. The 15-minute conversation was the only radio, TV, or print interview he igreed to do during his four-day stay. State Department security became somewhat alarmed when, at the end of the interview, Baron asked th Lama if he'd like to hear a joke (it was part of a bet the show had with their lis teners to see if they could make the Dalai Lama laugh). His holiness said yes and subsequently laughed out loud (we take it that it was a clean joke!). The interview including the joke, can be heard on the 99x Web site www.com/99v/dalailama.ram... Talk Of The Revolution

Proving that Bubblegam doesn't have to be a dirty word in music-speak, the ultra-hubbly Shonen Knife return with another cavity-inducing collection of their quirky Pop confections, Happy Hour (Big Deal). With songs that come off like Punk-Rock nursery rhymes, the gals from Japan deliver a Budokan-style blast on "Konnichiwal," a gem of a ditty about everyone's favorite winter beverage, "Hot Chocolate," and a frantic cover of The Monkees' "Daydream Behever," which is racking up early NMS Revolution spins at WPLY/Philadelphia and WBRU/Providence. Need a copy? Buzz Heather Sandford at Big Deal: (212) 387-8900... From the Land of the Rising Sun to the House Of Pain we travel for the debut sale single from former House Of Pain frontman Everlast, "What It's Like" (Tommy Boy). Not exactly what you'd expect from the guy who brought you the frathouse anthem "Jump Around," "What It's Like" is a street-wise slice of life, set to a laid back Hip-Hop groove and skeletal geoustic guitar, courtesy of Everlast (Erik Schrody). Everlast also displays fine vocal chops on the track, which is the first single from his debut

The Grace Of God and Empathy, you could possibly excuse Elliot if they rested on their laurels a tad, and tried to recapture the glory of their past outfits. Reliving the past is clearly something Elliot has no interest in as their debut album, U.S. Songs (Revelation), sidesteps the traditional Hardcore formula in favor of textured guitars, swelling dynamics and an emphasis on melody and the powerful voice of Chris Higdon, WTFX/Louisville is on the opening track, "Miracle," early Other tracks we're into early

CHILL COOK OFF

Here are some fine Kodak moments from the annual DC 101 Chili Cook-off. The event was held on America's main street, Pennsylvania Avenue in front of the Capitol Building. This year's concert was the biggest ever, drawing more than 40,000 people and raising over half a million dollars for the National Kidney Foundation. The line-up included Smash Mouth, Blink 182, Brother Cane, Jimmie's Chicken Shack, Mighty Joe Plum, Foam, and special guests Everclear.

The Happiest Dogs: Here's Buddy Rizer (center) with Mighty Joe Plum.

Buddy & Friends:

Gentlemen, start your engines!: After scarfing down all the chili they could handle, it was off to the Dover 400. Pictured on the track the next day at Dover Downs, it's (L-R) Dave Ross, Buddy Rizer, and WIYY MD Rob Heckman.

the job, 10% keeping the job. Mel has an unbelievable bullshit meter, so he's not going to put up with that. Those are the stories I want to hear, about how he's walked into some of these CBS stations and sniffed out these corporate rats and put someone else in who knows what they're doing.

That's a topic we'll save for our next interview with him.

Mel knows how to sniff out those little sniveling PDs who don't know anything about programming, but know how to convince everyone they know about programming. Those are the hatchet jobs I want to hear about. I've worked for some of those sniveling little bitch corporate rats. They are the worst people on earth to work for. They know nothing about fostering creativity and have no clue what it's like to have a relationship with a human being. It's not worth being in radio to have to work for people like that. They just need to be slapped so bad.

I want to talk about some of your past radio bits. There is this vagina bit that was on one of our CD Airchecks that is outrageous. Where does the inspiration for something like that come from?

That came from the same realm as this song I just wrote called "Mining For Boners" came from. We were doing this broadcast of the Organic 96 concert, which was the most amazing concert I've ever been to. Somehow Kevin Weatherly got talked into putting it on the air - completely against his better judgment, I'm sure. But somehow he agreed to broadcast the entire thing, which was Meat Beat Manifesto, Underworld, The Chemical Brothers, The Orb, Orbital, plus sonie lesser known bands that are still quite good. This was a 14-hour concert at Big Bear that 6,000 kids showed up to with the best outdoor sound I've ever heard in my life. I was standing at the soundboard and it was like wearing headphones, because there was nothing for the music to bounce off of. I was in charge of making the promos for the show. We were giving John Frost, who cranks out fifty brilliant promos a week, a break and I was going to do these things. But, they said to make them my own style. I started talking about trees and being up in the woods, a good leader comes in, kicks your ass, challenges you, scares you a little bit, and makes you think, "nolly, can i do this?"

walking around trees and how you could smell the trees and how the air was so fresh. Anyway, I ended up developing this whole thing about this guy who gives himself a sex change operation and I have no idea where it came from.

We will have to rerun that on one of our upcoming CD samplers, so after people read this they will understand what we're talking about.

It actually did run on the air one New Year's Eve. Doug The Slug ran it. I had more or less dared him to, but I had no idea he would. I was sitting at home doing a remote broadcast from my home during the Rose Parade here in Pasadena. We had about thirty people over at my house. All the DJs were doing cut-ins, and he runs that thing. I couldn't believe it. I was running around my house howling, because it was just so wrong. That's why when I sent it to you guys, I could say, "Oh yeah, it was actually on the air." However, it was not performed on the air. Once the CD came out, Tammi Heide, who was filling in for me for an afternoon, plays the thing off of your CD. Everyone went nuts and she got in a lot of trouble.

Somebody told me the funniest two weeks of radio they ever heard was when you fell off a horse and you had to broadcast from your home for two weeks in early '92.

I assure him he's the only one that thinks that. What people mostly remember about that is me trying to stay conscious through the pain medication. I was flat on my back talking into a microphone hooked into an ISDN line. I could barely hear the intros and the outtros to the songs. Sometimes I would just leave the TV on and scan channels with the mic positioned so you could hear the TV and still hear me, then I'd hurl insults at the television as I was scanning channels. I remember talking about how I was supposed to be in recovery from drugs and alcohol and there I am on this righteous pain medication trying to do a radio show.

People would wander into my bedroom and I would be talking to them and they would have no idea they were on the air.

That was pretty good too.

Also, I had a good engineer, so when I would hobble to the bathroom and leave people in the bedroom, they would talk about me and not and they were being recorded and later played back on the air. Whoever was on the air was sharp enough to scoop some of that and play it back. However, I have no idea what it was; I just have a feeling that happened a few times, judging from the reaction that I got. It's funny, but people do remember those two weeks, but, I assure you, Kevin would never have put up with the chaos that emerged from my bedroom, which was basically in the form of a remote broadcast.

What's the difference between Kevin's KROQ and the previous KROQ eras that you have been through?

When you are a concise, clear communicator like Kevin Weatherly and you have a startlingly vivid vision, you're able to get that across pretty solidly. He has been able to do that. The first six months when Kevin was at KROQ he layed low. He was in his office, he didn't even say a word to the morning show for the first three months.

That was Kevin & Bean?

Yes. He just let them go. Occasionally, they'd see him and re-introduce themselves. I remember Kevin would stand around in the hallways and watch the way the place worked and take in all this information. He didn't know about our core artists from the New Wave days. He came from Top 40 and they were skimming the cream back in '83. They were playing Culture Club and Duran Duran as they came along, but he didn't know about Bauhaus, Talking Heads, early B-52's, Brian Eno, Roxy Music. He knew nothing about The Ramones. So, he was just drinking all this in for his first six months, then he started to put a vision together and, damn, if it wasn't right on. It was the exact thing that we needed and was right in the middle of the Grunge boom as well, so he had material to work with musically. But ever since then, it seems like he's known exactly how to deal with people, exactly who to hire, and exactly how to communicate his vision. He's the best person I've ever worked for. I find him enormously inspiring. Now that I've settled into my relationship with Kevin, he continues to push me, but I know very well how to work with him and give him what he wants. Now that I'm doing that, I get to do other things like branch out from my already multiple personality approach to doing radio.

What do you mean by 'multiple personality approach'?

In other words, I'll lapse into characters that aren't really characters, but just kind of a way of speaking and handling the language. It's weird, they're kind of characters, but they're not. A character would be fully developed with a back story, a plot line, a motivation, and a bit. I don't really do bits like that. The key is the audience knowing that I'm always going to touch down on earth again and that they know where I'm coming from as Jed, as myself. I've always said the key to what I do is to be myself on the air.

Has there ever been an incident where you've gone too far?

One time I stayed on one of those character voices all day and it was a bad idea. Unless you start telling lies on the air, the consequences of being an idiot aren't that great. As long my audience knows where I'm coming from, as long as they know the real Jed will show up within a half-an-hour or so, I can go out as far as I want to. I think that's kind of the key to what I do, is not how far out I go, but how regularly I come back

How much of what you do is top of mind and how much do you prep ahead of time?

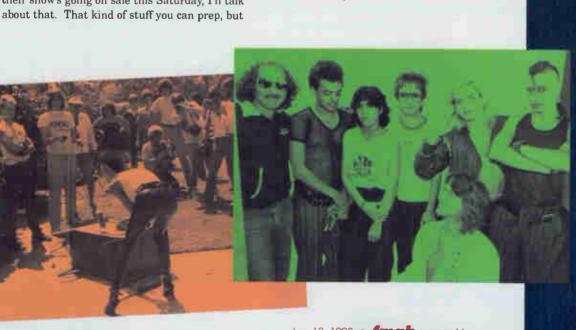

The informational stuff you can prep ahead of time when you have specific news. I look at the music as it's coming up and if I have some decent intro time on this Pearl Jam song and their show's going on sale this Saturday, I'll talk about that. That kind of stuff you can prep, but met knows how to sniff out those little sniveling pds programming. I've worked for some of those sniveling little bitch corporate rats.

you can't prep inspiration. We're content intensive in the '90s. Kevin is all about content and talking about the music. We want to be the authority for what is going on in music. And so we are. But, that's not enough for me. You have to sound like you're having a great time on the air. You have to genuinely be inspired. What I've noticed about old aircheck tapes from the '60s, is these guys very often are saying absolutely nothing. They're coming up with their clever patter that fills a 20-second intro, but the audience basically listens to that and goes, "I have no idea what they're saying." You know - "The stack-a-drastic plastic," "The platters that matter." It's just bullshit and complete fluff. But, what it communicates is that I'm having a great time. The audience hears that and has no idea what the DJ is talking about, but he's having a great time and they're going along with him.

What led you into seeking out old airchecks from the '60s?

My engineer at Westwood One, Ron Harris, gave me a tape of a guy from WABC by the name of Dan Ingram. I heard what he was doing and it reminded me of the DJs I'd grown up with in the '60s. Then I realized that I was kind of doing my own personal version of that nonsense talking, only I would make up words from an imaginary language as a part of what I do. I realized that was just a modern version of what these guys had done in the '60s. I became very curious about that. What I'm listening for in these old tapes is not the content of what they're saying because the content of what they're saying is fluff - but the energy and inspiration with which they said it. That is what I think is missing from radio today.

In your travels have there been any DJs that have stood out in your mind?

My problem is I'm a DJ and I don't travel. I need to know what's out there and I have not heard a collection of Alternative-type music personalities' airchecks. I have an idea who those pecple are, but I couldn't tell you what they do. I feel woefully ignorant in that regard. The very few times I've been out of town and tuned in the radio, it's been people trying too hard. It's really sad to turn on the radio and hear them trying too hard. It was in this frame of mind that I tuned in to KOME one night when I was up there last year. Now, people have been telling me, "Jed, people imitate your style and basically nick what you do down to even copying some sort of aquatic name that they use for themselves." I'd heard this, but just was resigned to feeling flattered and wasn't about to feel angry that if, and I d dn't know, but if people were using me for inspiration, that did not offend me. However, I tuned in on this one night, and I go, "Oh, come on, that guy is totally ripping me off!" I started to get indignant - until I realized it was me on Out Of Order! I did not recognize my own voice, because the station's processing is so different. I had a good laugh over that. I didn't think the guy was doing that good of a job either. I thought "not only is he ripping me off, he's not doing that good of a job" - and it was me.

Who were some of your early radio idols?
Robert W. Morgan, who just died. "The Real" Don Steele, who died last year. Wink Martindale, Sam Riddle, Charlie Tuna, Humble Harve. All of whom are California DJs.

What music are you listening to these days? What's been turning you on, as far as new stuff goes?

I know that the Beastie Boys album is going to be good, but I've just heard the one song. That Garbage album is one of the best albums I've ever heard, as is The Smashing Pumpkins album. I know Hole is going to be phenomenal, because Courtney hooked up with a good writer to help her focus her songs. Trent Reznor seems bent on preparing everyone for the expectation of his album being offensive. But he's too smart to do that. His album's going to rule! I haven't heard any of that, but I know that's going to be amazing. As far as what I listen to at home, William Orbit has not left my CD changer for years. Also, I'm starting to do music production. I produced a Punk band called El Centro. I did a remix for this group that's about to come out on Mercury, called Swirl 360. Steve Greenberg, the same guy who signed Hanson, signed Swirl 360. Their vocals are really terrific. It was a real pleasure to be able to work on a project like that. I'm just starting this kind of work.

Th lapse into characters that aren't really characters, but just kind of a way of speaking and handling the language.

It is fascinating. It is so amazing to hear what bands don't use, what they did use, and then I get to decide what tracks I would use or maybe even make new ones.

How did you hook up with Reel Big Fish for the cover of their album?

I was interested in graphic design at the time when they asked me if they could photograph me for the cover of their album, Turn The Radio Off, which they claimed was a tongue-in-cheek reference to all of the bands that think they don't need the radio to survive. They asked if I would be on the cover. I said sure and then I found out it's with a real cute 16-year-old girl, Carla Yosendo. She is the one who actually turned me on to the music, and this was after the photo shoot. She has turned out to be the biggest music fan, who has a really good sense of music. So, the girl on the cover sticking a gun in my face, turned me on to Reel Big Fish. This was a band that I didn't even know had a major label deal when I agreed to do the cover, which I did in exchange for seeing how they put the artwork together in the computer, but that unfortunately never materialized.

If you'd never become a DJ, what would you be doing today?

I had a film shoot at my house the other weekend. The cameraman was very gracious and let me sit down on the dolly and get pushed around a little bit and work the crane. I experimented with the different camera rigs they had and it reminded me that more than anything, when I was thirteen-years-old, I wanted to be cameraman. I found that I was still very intuitive around the camera. Life just looked better through the lens. What can I say? I think I would have become a cameraman or a lighting guy. I always had colored lights in my house and I always had colored lights in my room when I was a kid. I was way into movies and lighting from the time I was eight years old. I also had been into amusement parks. I think I would probably be designing rides. I would have figured out a way by now to be designing rides for amusement parks. There's no substitute for moving your body through space and seeing surreal threedimensional objects in a controlled environment. So I'm pretty sure if I had gotten into that industry that Disneyland would have looked different by now.

On July 28, 1978, Jed The Fish was sitting in his Anaheim home marveling about his first Rolling Stones concert he had taken in earlier that night. It was one of those nights where Mick Jagger was being playful with the audience. During "Angie" he said, "Give me your shoes. I want every shoe in this fuckin' place." And the crowd responded with a barrage of footwear that caused Mick to play duckand-cover while singing one of The Stones' tranquil ballads. Some shoes would whiz by Mick's ear, while others would find their target. So, there's Jed, sitting and thinking about the show when the phone rings at 1:15 a.m.

Up to this point, Jed The Fish's radio career included short stays at stations in Arizona and California. On this night, that was about to change. The phone call Jed received was from KROQ, asking if he could come in and start an airshift at 2:00 a.m. Jed hung up the phone, got in his car, drove up to Pasadena, walked in the door of KROQ's digs, and was greeted by Gary Bookasta, "the enigmatic vampire of an owner," as Jed calls him.

"There he is at 2:15 a.m.," Jed recalls, "with dark glasses on, about to turn his fledgling New Wave radio station that no one cares about, that has a 1.1 in the market, over to me for the evening to play whatever I want. I was terrified but I had the best time ever. It was so fun. I was calling all my friends at 3:00 a.m. and telling them 'Check me out, I'm on KROQ!' I didn't have a hot line, so everybody was leaving messages at my home that heard me. When I got home at 7:00 or 8:00 a.m., I heard all these messages from people that had tuned in. I had fun."

The 1:00 a.m. phone call didn't come out of the blue. For months preceding the phone call, Jed had bombarded KROQ with packages of self-promotion. He sent them homemade fliers, packages, pictures, his resume, and an air check tape. Jed hand-delivered these packages every two weeks to whoever answered the door.

"I couldn't get them on the phone," he remembers, "because they had no phone. They hadn't paid their phone bills. They were running no advertising. They had no receptionist, no promotion department, no sales department, no management, no business hours."

Under such conditions, Jed discovered KROQ the way many citizens of Los Angeles did - by hearing about it from friends that were listening to this bizarre underground station.

"This was as New Wave was developing in 1977-78," Jed relates. "There was no real name for it, so everybody called it Underground, because that's what they called it in the '60s and it had that same spirit. It was an underground eclectic mix at that time. New Wave was emerging, Punk was beginning to establish itself in Los Angeles, so it was a real exciting time. But, as usual with exciting times, no one realized it and all the jocks were quitting because they weren't getting paid, and I said I'd work there for ninety days for free. I came in at a time when absolutely no one cared. About a month later people started to care. They paid me retroactively, installed me full-time, and I made $900 a month for the next three or four years."

Except for a "drug sabbatical" which led to Jed being fired and apart from KROQ from '84 to mid-'85, he has been a mainstay at KROQ.

"I am one of those blessed people who hasn't had to shuttle around from city to city and station to station to maintain a career," Jed admits, "and I'm so grateful for that."

An Interview With The KROQ/Los Angeles Afternoon Driver

You have been at KROQ virtually since the beginning. How do you keep reinventing yourself and stay fresh sounding on the air?

You need good leadership to do that. I really didn't know what I was doing as an air personality until Andy Schoun came to the radio station. I had no idea what I was doing at all in the '70s with radio. I was sort of floundering on drugs for the '80s, and didn't really start to focus until it was almost the '90s. So, except for my attitude on the air, 90% of what I've learned about radio has been since 1989. A good leader will come in and say, "Tighten this up," "Focus in on that," "This is what I want to hear," "This is my vision for the radio station," and be able to communicate that with you. I'm just one of those people who had been waiting for that sort of direction and never had it. So I was thrilled when Andy came in and told me just a few key things that kicked my ass. Basically, what a good leader does is come in, kicks your ass, challenges you, scares you a little bit, and makes you think, "Golly, can I do this?" Not, "Oh shit, am I going to lose my job if I don't do this?" But, "Can I step up to the plate, try something I've never tried before, and risk failure and success at the same time?" That's what Andy did.

Then would you say your radio career really began when Andy came in?

Yes. Before that I was thinking what else am I going to do with my life, this is going nowhere. I can very definitely say that. When you think about it, in the late '80s music was dismal, it you can get on an unofficial KROQ Website, you can download pages of the Top 106.7 songs for every year since 1980. The amount of horrible music that we played in 1987 will shock you. We didn't know what the hell we were doing. It was amazing that we had just been purchased by Infinity for $44 million, more money than ever paid for a radio station.

What did you think was going to happen when Infinity purchased the station?

I was scared, because every station that I had been at had changed hands within months of me coming to work there, with the exception of KROQ, and I got fired. So, I just assumed that was it. They come in and try to reassure you, but you just don't believe them when they're say ing, "Oh no, everything's going to be okay." They're just telling me that so I don't go berserk and get on the air and say we're giving out $100 bil's, or something like that.

Much has been said and written from the PD, GM, and Group CEO perspective about the effects of consolidation. From your point of view as an air personality, how do you see the industry changing recently? Basically, if you work for a station that makes millions and millions a year and is a successful station, whoever buys the station is going to want to keep it successful. In Mel Karmazin you have an owner whose philosophy is: Whatever you're doing right, we want you to keep doing it, so we're not going to tell you how to run the place. Come to us for big-ticket items, we'll okay those on an as-needed basis. Basically, you guys just run the place. That's his philosophy and it's a very un-CBS philosophy. The bigger adjustment is going to be for the stations that have always been owned by CBS to have a guy come in whose philosophy is to hire good people and have them run it. A more interesting question would be - What happens at these stations? Mel can spot a lousy PD a mile away. Traditionally, being a PD throughout the last 30 or 40 years, has been 90% getting
