UNILEVER UNITED STATES FOUNDATION, INC.

CONTRIBUTION GUIDELINES

The Unilever United States Foundation, Inc. is a not-for-profit corporation organized in 1952 under the laws of the State of New York. The Foundation makes contributions to recipients with clearly defined, achievable goals that have demonstrated their effectiveness and fiscal responsibility. All recipients must be qualified not-for-profit organizations, federally tax-exempt under section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code.

While the Foundation considers grants in many areas, it currently places special emphasis on the following categories:

- Education
- Food and Nutrition
- Women's Health
- Community
- Environment

The Foundation also considers the following:

In the fields of health and human services:

- Hospitals and health care facilities
- Homeless and feeding programs
- Programs that address the needs of minorities, the disadvantaged and victims of domestic violence
- Programs for the prevention and treatment of substance abuse
- United Way/United Fund campaigns
- National health organizations
- Human service organizations
- Youth and senior citizen groups

In the field of education:

- College, universities and graduate schools where Unilever has active relationships
- School-based programs affecting children in grades K-12
- National Merit Scholarships
- Programs to combat illiteracy
- Job training or retraining programs
- Consumer and economic research and education programs
- Programs that promote free enterprise

Organizations and programs with specific objectives of interest to the business community and a demonstrable impact on public policy in the following areas:

- Community improvement
- Environment
- The Law
- Economic Development
- Public policy

Organizations and institutions providing cultural and historical programs, such as:

- Libraries
- Museums
- Performing arts organizations
- Public broadcasting stations

The Foundation does not award grants to or for:

- Individuals
- Goodwill advertising
- Fundraising events and testimonial dinners
- Sectarian religious organizations
- Labor organizations
- Political parties or their activities
- Capital fund campaigns
- Veterans groups for fraternal/social purposes

Organizations that feel they may qualify for consideration should send a brief proposal to:
