Tentative Ruling for September 23, 2021: The Court intends to set the following deadlines in a Rule 16 scheduling order. Counsel for plaintiff and defendants should contact each other and confer. If counsel confirm to each other that neither has any objection to this tentative ruling, then both are excused from attendance at the status conference. In that instance, plaintiff's counsel should lodge a scheduling order. If either party objects to the proposed schedule and wants to be heard at the status conference, neither is excused.
