Call for a National Convention of Colored Baptists

Dear Brethren: April 5, 1885, an open letter to the Baptist clergy and laymen was issued by Rev. Wm. J. Simmons, in American Baptist, asking if we should have a National Convention to discuss questions of interest to our beloved denomination. At that time the following reasons were given:

1. To promote personal piety, sociability, and a better knowledge of each other.

MINUTES

2. To be able to have an understanding as to the great ends to be reached by the denomination.
3. To encourage our literary men and women, and promote the interests of Baptist literature.
4. To discuss questions pertaining especially to the religious, educational, industrial, and social interests of our people.
5. To give an opportunity for the best thinkers and writers to be heard.
6. That, united, we may be more powerful for good and strengthen our pride in the denomination.

Having been solicited to write the Call by many whose names and endorsements are herewith affixed, the Call is hereby made by their advice and solicitations for said convention to meet in St. Louis, Mo., August 15, 1885, 10 o'clock a. m., in the First Baptist Church, and the pastor thereof is hereby requested to serve as a Committee of Arrangements, with power to select his associates. Wm. H. Steward, Louisville, Ky., and Rev. R. H. Cole, 1609 Goode Avenue, St. Louis, are hereby requested to serve as a Committee on Transportation.

WM. J. SIMMONS.

Jackson, of Hartford, Connecticut; a renowned Baptist leader and member of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., and

WHEREAS, the action of Governor Hurley has already met with the approval of liberty-loving people of this country regardless of race, creed, or color; and

WHEREAS, Governor Hurley's action in making bold expressions against this outrage upon one of the venerable fathers of the Baptist Church is taking the lead by making public denunciations, and assisting with his influence and money and the power and influence of the people of the great State of Connecticut in bringing Dr. Jackson's assailants to justice and making the guilty ones pay; and

WHEREAS, the action of Governor Hurley sets a new high example of true Americanism and real brotherhood of man, and further demonstrates that the light of democracy still burns in the hearts of decent Americans, and that Democracy must be made secure here at home if America is to make it surely secure abroad; therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., in session duly assembled in the City of Memphis, Tennessee, goes on record in giving high praise to that courageous leader, true American, and a Christian gentleman, Governor Robert A. Hurley, and does hereby express its sincere appreciation for his frank statement and swift action in moving against the wrong-doer of a member of this Convention and great citizen of Connecticut and an American patriot.

2. That this Convention hereby extends to Governor Hurley its willingness to aid and cooperate with His Excellency in the prosecution of the assailants of Dr. J. C. Jackson, and others, both financially and morally.

3. That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to Governor Hurley and to the public press and that we further urge His Excellency, Governor Hurley, to importune and urge the United States Attorney General Biddle to join in the prosecution of the wrong-doers and that a copy of this resolution be directed to the Attorney General—beseeching his immediate actions.

Done in session,
This 12th day of September
A. D., 1942,
Memphis, Tennessee.

Respectfully submitted, N. B. C.

D. V. JEMISON, President.

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, The National Baptist Convention of the United States of America, a Religious Corporation, and the Sunday School Publishing Board, a Religious Corporation, find, that after having satisfied the First Mortgage indebtedness and the Second Mortgage indebtedness on its Publishing House property, located on the Northeast Corner of Fourth Avenue and Cedar Street, in the City of Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, it becomes necessary to borrow money with which to enlarge its equipment, and to augment its facilities to take care of its rapid increasing volume of business, and to facilitate its work of expansion; THEREFORE, be it

Resolved by the Convention in annual session assembled in Memphis, Tennessee, this 12th day of September, 1942, that the Board of Directors of the National Baptist Convention of the United States of America, a Corporation, and, the Board of Directors of the Sunday School Publishing Board of the National Baptist Convention of the United States of America, a Corporation, be and they are, and each of the said Boards is authorized, directed and empowered to approve and direct the required officers of each of the said Corporations to enter into any said agreements, and make any said loan, and sign any papers which may be necessary to get the money required to accomplish the aforesaid purposes, and desired results.

FINANCE COMMISSION, N. B. C.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1st. That, we urge upon the associations and state conventions to cooperate with the Statistical Department of this Convention so that we can have an accurate account of the number of Baptists in the United States of America.

2nd. That, we discourage and look with contempt upon the Columbia Broadcasting System, in that they take many of our sacred songs, putting them on the records and giving to them a swing-tone, such as "Swing Low Sweet Chariot," "I Couldn't Hear Nobody Pray," etc.

3rd. That the President of this Convention will be given the power to call and reorganize the Laymen's Movement of this Convention, in the month of April, which will take the place of one of our Regional Conventions.

4th. That we will have two Regional Conventions for the ensuing year, one of which will be held at Dayton, Ohio, and the other upon the request of the brethren in that community, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

5th. That we urge a mutual and cooperative understanding of the Southern and Northern Baptist Conventions as it relates to our educational endeavors of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.

6th. That we urge every pastor of this Convention who has not brought his church into this Quarter Drive for the purpose of relieving the indebtedness of the Sunday School Publishing Board, will do at least something in this session so that we may determine whether or not it will be expedient to call an adjourned session of the Convention to meet in Nashville, Tennessee, to burn the mortgage on the Morris Memorial Building—Home of the Sunday School Publishing Board, in the month of December. This depends upon how much will be raised in this session.

7th. That each Board of this Convention will report at this Convention how much money is raised in their respective Boards at this session, on Saturday, the 12th instant, that we may know how much money has been raised in this session of the Convention.

8th. That we urge upon the authorities to see to it that we are given our right quota of Chaplains in the United States Army and Navy.

9th. That we open tentatively, an office in Washington for the purpose of which will be to have a minister of this Convention who will look after the interest of this Convention as it relates to a rightful number of Chaplains in the United States Army and Navy.

10th. That, we urge our people to buy Bonds and Government Stamps in order to assist our government in this war.

Washington, D. C., November 20, 1942.

President, United States
Washington, D. C.,
Dear Mr. President:

The treatment of Negroes in travel, including Negro women, soldiers, clergymen and civilians on trains, buses, and all public carriers is deplorable and disconcerting, and is actually undermining the morale of the entire Negro population toward the War effort.

It has come to pass that Negro citizens who travel suffer inconveniences, indignities, humiliations, brutalities and injustices of every conceivable kind every day. Never before have we been so generally and unwarrantedly assaulted by white employees of transportation companies and white civilians. The cases are too numerous and revolting to enumerate here, but permit us, Mr. President, to give you 3 typical cases:

First—The case of Lieutenant Nora Green, Army Nurse of Tuskegee, Alabama, who was thrown off the bus near Tuskegee and turned over to four policemen, who beat her mercilessly.

Second—Private Clarence R. Williams, 369th Coast Artillery Regiment, who attempted to secure a seat in Silver Meteor Seaboard Air Line out of New York to Tampa, Florida, and was compelled to occupy a seat in Jim Crow Car.

Third—The case of Dr. J. C. Jackson, Hartford, Conn., President of the New England Baptist Convention, and Minister of the Union Baptist Church, Hartford, Conn.; Reverend S. A. Young, Officer and Assistant to the Minister of Mt. Carmel Baptist Church, Washington, D. C.; Reverend

W. H. Skipworth, Philadelphia; Reverend A. W. Brown of Sixth Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Richmond, Va.; and Dr. D. A. Jackson, Knoxville, Tennessee, who were ruthlessly and unwarrantedly attacked and assaulted while first-class passengers on the Southern Railway on September 8, enroute to the 62nd session of the National Baptist Convention, Incorporated, convening at Memphis, Tenn.

Fourth—The case of Prof. Hugh Gloster of Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga., on the Frisco Railroad near Tupelo, Miss.

In the face of these facts and the bad effect that they are having upon the attitude, spirit and morale of thirteen million Negro citizens, the National Baptist Convention, Incorporated, representing four million Negro Christians in America, in session at Memphis, Tenn., September 9, do here and now respectfully request the President of these United States as Commander in Chief of Army and Navy and of all domestic transportation facilities of the nation to:

(1) Make official investigation of these and many other such injustices, indignities and brutalities and use your executive power to the end that these injustices and brutalities shall cease.

(2) We request you, as the President of these United States, in accordance with War-time powers invested in you to appoint divers and sundry commissions to facilitate everything necessary to National Unity, which Unity is necessary to winning the war, that you appoint a Citizens Transportation Commission, whose duty it shall be to see to it that all citizens of this Nation are treated identically alike in all matters of transportation in all public conveyances in or under the direction of our Government in America and throughout the world.

Respectfully submitted,

PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL MESSAGE

Subject: "The Untempered Mortar"

"One built up a wall, and, lo, others daubed it with untempered mortar." Ezekiel 13:10.

Mr. Chairman, Officers, Members, and Friends of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Incorporated:

It becomes my happy privilege and joy to attempt to deliver to you at this time my second annual message as the standard bearer of this Convention. I feel keenly my unworthiness in the attempt of a task of this magnitude, however under God and through his strength and wisdom we assure you that we are cognizant of the great responsibility resting upon anyone who assumes the task of the presidency of this great Convention. In the attempt to perform this great gigantic task we are aware of the fact that there are those who have a keen interest in keeping steady and moving forward in the progress of this great Convention.

The expressions on your faces today signify that you have come with a determination through and by the strength of Him who does all things well to put over such a program at this time that generations yet unborn will be proud to refer to the same.

I am sure that it is in order that we should seek your prayers and interest of cooperation in the leadership of this Convention of which we are proud.

The subject that we will attempt to discuss at this time is deduced from the words of the prophet, Ezekiel, the thirteenth chapter and the tenth verse which we repeat at this time.

"One built up a wall, and, lo, others daubed it with untempered mortar." These homely words, "Daubing with untempered mortar," form one of the vivid and bold phrases the prophet uses to assess blame for the woes of his country. He is speaking with special reference to false prophets. They had connived at expediency. They had spoken falsehood and seen lies, and had attempted to cover it all up by the semblance of justice and divine approval.

Fearless and impatient, Ezekiel upbraided them. He minces no words. He tells them that they have been deceived, duped, and camouflaged; that they have ignored the very things that make for a nation's strength; they have offered show without substance, built up a wall and daubed it with untempered mortar. Therefore it will fall before the overflowing shower and the hail storm and stormy winds which the Lord will send upon it.

The wall symbolizes Israel's strength and integrity wrought out of a sense of justice and faith in God.

Mortar is made up of lime and sand mixed with water. Under the chemical action a carbonate is formed which hardens about the grains of sand bringing them together. Mortar is thus used to cement the brick and the stone and make solid walls.

Untempered mortar is imperfect, that in which insufficient lime is used so that grains of sand are untouched and left loose. Hence under strain and the wear of the elements, the mortar disintegrates and the stones fall apart. Ezekiel says that the false leaders and teachers of his people had been building the walls of a nation's strength and defense in just that way. In their deceit and dishonesty they had been daubing with untempered mortar.

Our Civilization Endangered

Despite our faith in the fundamental soundness of our institutions, the serious and affected mind is not a little disturbed over what is going on about us today. The breakdown in morals, which follows the war has put the democracy of our country to the test. It has levied a strain upon all our institutions. The government has felt it, the schools have felt it, the churches have felt it. We have been making readjustments and seeking normal conditions.

But we have discovered that if readjustments and normalcy meant returning to a prior status, that were impossible. The past war days and the present war have shown us the inherent weakness of our system. In the walls of our democracy, our boasted Christian civilization, there has been much daubing with untempered mortar. Consider the application of the golden rule to our social and industrial life. This great principle is accepted as a fine piece of idealism, but is balked by an astute and persistent maneuvering for advantage. Selfishness holds sway. Every man is for himself and conscience is schooled to connive at a cold essence which declares that business is business.

Honesty and fair dealing are the only principles upon which individual or national life can safely rest. By moving among our fellow men and making social contact, see just how seriously the Golden Rule is followed. The lime or principle is all too scarce in the mortar, and the structure cannot endure under the stress and storm of external justice. Daubed with untempered mortar, the walls will surely fall.

Look at what the churches are going through. The writer of one of our best periodicals raised the question. "Where is Protestantism going?" He frankly acknowledges that he does not know. He affirms that laymen instead of being interested in controversial matters of dogmas and hair-splitting definitions of creed want to know two things only, "The Mystery and the Mastery of Life," and he confesses that few clergymen give much light upon life's mystery or much help in its mastery. He is doubtless right. Until the church frees itself from cant and bigotry, ceases preaching the kingdom of this and that denomination, until the clergy catches a vision of the real significance of Christ's message and the preacher becomes a prophet fearlessly proclaiming the mandates of the eternal, the walls of our Christian teaching will be daubed with untempered mortar. There is no such thing for a certain thing to be right for one set of people and wrong for another. If it is right for one, it is right for the other. If it is wrong for one, it is wrong for the other.

The Question of War

Take the question of war. It is contrary to every fine emotion, opposed to Christian teaching, and an outrage upon an enlightened intelligence. It has never in itself settled anything. It leaves a trail of slime and tragedy in its wake, undoing in a few months the constructive and patient building of years. War is not only a crime but a sin. War does not establish right relations. It never has done so and it never will. This war in which we are now engaged with almost the rest of the world is the tail end and the big end of World War No. 1. The war talk, the war spirit, the war preparation, go on, fostered by the very agency that during the days of peace should be taking every step to make war forever impossible.

The nation that gives ear to its war lords, that keeps its sword burnished and multiplies its battleships is building a civilization that shall certainly fall, for the walls are daubed with untempered mortar.

The Need of Leadership

We must have leadership in our land today. That is our greatest need. We are not so much concerned that the political parties will find leaders who will carry forward the banner of partisan politics, as we are that America will have a leadership conscientious and worthy of trust.

We have an abundance of big-hearted, broad-minded men. We have them in every branch of our government, but the curse of politics keeps the best and ablest men out of office. It is too often the self-seeking chief politician whom we are obliged to vest with public responsibility, who is not worthy of trust. They lack convictions, they speak falsehoods, and they see lies. Many of the men in Washington ought to go home and stay there when they get there. They are not fit to legislate for a great nation in these difficult times. They are petty men, partisan, pettifoggers, narrow, and therefore dangerous. A number of years ago the late Theodore Roosevelt struck the heart of the matter when he said: "The first requisite in a public servant is honesty."

The distinction which should be insisted upon in this country is between the man who acts with a quick sense of his obligation and the man who acknowledges no internal law save that of his own will and appetite. It is high time that we insist upon leaders who instead of asking the question, "Is it expedient?" will ask, "Is it right?"

Wrong is disintegrating and will fall. Wrong has within it a germ that will not only destroy the thing that it seeks to promote, but will utterly destroy itself. Right has within it a germ that will never disintegrate but will perpetuate not only the thing it promotes, but will perpetuate itself and ultimately triumph over all wrongs.

It is wholly unfair for any self-seeking politicians or church-men to disregard principles and drag any leader's administration in the mire and muck. When this is done and failure is inevitable these same leaders will get back and throw all the responsibility of the failure of the administration on the president. There is a place for every man in this administration of any and all leaders. When there are certain things to be done the question that should confront us, "It is right, it is fair, is it just?" Sooner or later every question becomes a moral one and we must turn to the divine Fatherhood of light. God cannot be left out of the question. The Christian religion and the applied teachings of Jesus Christ are the solutions of the world's problem.

Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people. Righteousness means doing what is morally right whether it is legally right or not.

The man who piles up a fortune is pointed to as a successful man. The glitter of gold often eclipses the light of justice. The material wealth of this country is enormous. This nation is a creditor nation of the world, and its wealth is fast increasing. But let us remember that this is no guarantee of stability nor proof of security. Nations in bygone days have reveled in wealth and splendor, only to meet the day of judgment and go down to dust.

Our imperative concern now is, to build character and manhood. Suppose we as a nation have great riches and every security that material power can afford. There are enemies that cannot be bought off with money or bought off with material resources. God is not on the side of the heaviest artillery: Truth keeps no earthly bodyguards, and justice is not sheltered behind the bulwarks of bulging banks. If we think so, we are shortsighted. The poet of humanity is right when he says:

We are blind until we see
That in the human plan,
Nothing is worth the making,
If it does not make the man.

Why build these cities glorious
If man unbuilded goes?
We build the world in vain,
Unless the builder also grows.

Build With Youth

Where is the place for the nation to begin building? In Washington in the courts of justice, in our law making bodies? or is it in the school and the home?

We must begin with youth. They must be given moral stamina, intellectual training. Of what good are the brains without character, knowledge without conviction, ability without control, thought without feeling? Is it right—that is the eternal question which must be kept burning in the spotlight of our conscience. Teach our youth to fear God and love righteousness and let our examples bear out our profession. Teach youth that religion is life that there is not a corner of thought nor actions into which it does not come that God shakes no dice, that everyone works out his own destiny. He who builds a lie and deceit into the day will find its exposure in character tomorrow.

Teach our youth that the practice of dishonesty and self-indulgence, when ever found, is daubing with untempered mortar and that sooner or later its structure, be it ever so fair to look upon outwardly, will be leveled by the hailstorms and stormy winds of a just God. Let the church bestir herself and look to the religious training of its youth.

The American Baptist Theological Seminary

The American Baptist Theological Seminary located at White's Creek Pike Nashville, Tennessee, led on by the painstaking and efficient president Dr. J. M. Nabrit, is doing a great work for the denomination along the line of instilling the right idea of education, especially for the ministry and the missionaries.

Dr. Nabrit has a fine staff of teachers, who are working harmoniously and cooperatively in helping him to make this Theological Seminary one of the greatest in the country irrespective of location.

The Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention (White)

The Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention is certainly doing a fine piece of Christian work in their endeavors in assisting this Convention to maintain and adequately equip this institution of learning for the best work for the aspiring minister of the country. Recently, the Southern Baptist Convention appointed two teachers with salaries paid, who have spent eighteen years in charge of the Mission School in Africa. This to say the least, gives to the American Baptist Theological Seminary a decided advantage over many institutions of its kind. As members of the National Baptist Convention we express our deep and sincere appreciation for the great work which is being done by the Southern Baptist Convention.

Sunday School Publishing Board

The Sunday School Publishing Board, with Dr. A. M. Townsend, Executive Secretary, is being relieved of the debt which was a great handicap to the Convention in doing other work that this Board was supposed to do. We owe at this time not more than $125,000.00 and when this is paid we can and will enlarge our borders along the lines of education, missions, and assisting those churches that are not able to pay an all-time pastor. This will be in keeping with the objectives of this Convention.

We have requested a hundred men to give $100.00, and two hundred men $50.00, and others smaller amounts. We hope that these good leaders will see their way clear to comply with this request. If so, we will be able to pay the balance of this obligation in December, and burn the mortgage in an adjourned session of this Convention in December.

The Woman's Auxiliary Convention

The Woman's Auxiliary Convention, led on by Mrs. S. W. Layten, is forging its way rapidly to the front. President Layten is surrounded with a fine set of Christian women who will help her in all of her endeavors to make this Convention all that it should be. We appreciate very much the great work which is being done by Mrs. Layten and her constituents.

The Home Mission Board

The Home Mission Board, led on by Dr. T. Theo. Lovetace, is making rapid strides and obtaining that success which it has not obtained in previous years. This Board has an important work to do in looking after the needy missionary stations and to do the evangelical work within the confines of this Convention.

The Foreign Mission Board

This Board is led on to successful endeavors by Dr. C. C. Adams of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and it goes without saying that he is eminently fitted for this work. We have every reason to be proud of the work that is being done by this Board.

Dr. Adams is ably assisted by Dr. R. J. Langston who serves as Editorial Secretary to this Board. This report which will be made here in this Convention will be in keeping with the reports previously made, in spite of the handicaps brought on by the war.

The Ministerial Benefit Board

This Board seems to have had a difficult task to function as it should and ought. Dr. R. W. Riley has plans at this time which we think will be of much benefit when put in force by this Convention. The work of this Board is to look after the old and decrepit ministers of the denomination who have spent their lives in pastoring churches and doing missionary work that were not able to give them an adequate support. This Board is designed to look well after these old and decrepit ministers.

The Social Service Committee or Board

The Social Service Committee, under the leadership of Dr. J. B. Adams of Brooklyn, New York, is taking that turn which we least expected. Dr. Adams is wide awake and on the alert to take care of all the duties that come within the confines of this Convention. He has able associates who can see from his point of view and assist him in making righteous contentions when they should be made and in the meantime taking care of the interest of the National Baptist Convention.

We are pleased with the work that is being done under the Social Service Committee under the direct leadership of Dr. J. B. Adams.

The Laymen's Movement

This organization seems not to do well. The possibilities are great among the laymen of this Convention but somehow or other it does not make progress. The fact is, the laymen have much more money than the preachers but they are certainly keeping it and not giving in this organization to help the Convention.

The Statistical Department

This department of our Convention is very efficiently taken care of by Dr. Roland Smith, of Atlanta, Georgia. It is the consensus of opinion that Dr. Roland Smith has dignified this office and has made it worthwhile because of the painstaking care with which these matters have been handled.

This Convention is proud of the work which is being done in the taking and keeping of the statistics by the Statistician, Dr. Smith.

The Negro and the War

I am sorry to say that the morale of the Negro for fighting in this war is not what it was in World War No. 1. We are American Negroes and history will show that we have fought in every war, from the Revolutionary War down to the present. The Negro is loyal to the flag of the United States of America. He has been and will continue to be loyal to the United States flag. In our racial life and activities we have reached the fork in the road. One goes straight ahead, one turns to the left, and one turns to the right. Which shall we take? The road along which we have been traveling is well known to us. It has given us property and education—property which has been taxed while representation has been denied us; education which has been placed at the service of the state which has been disfranchised and segregated us and subjected the race to all manner of violence, which has increased and not decreased while we have been traveling forward in the development of our material and educational opportunities.

The road turning to the left is the road of supine submission to ever illegal and criminal villain and those who would guide us down this road will betray us into the hands of our enemies in exchange for place and gold.

The road turning to the right is full of hardships and dangers. But in the stages of the world those who have come into possession of the promised land of liberty and equality have traveled this way.

Today men everywhere throughout the world are clamoring for democratic governments for equal civil and political rights and the abolition of special privileges.

Shall we Negro men here in this country for which our fathers fought in every war which has swept across its bosom be satisfied with anything less than our guaranteed constitutional liberties?

Shall we struggle in an organized and intelligent manner for these rights and liberties or shall we leave an inheritance of shame and dishonor to our children, and weigh them down with responsibilities, which we must assume if we are men? Someone has asked, What do the Negroes want? The answer he wants everything that any other man has.

First: To abolish legal injustice against Negroes.

Second: To stamp out race discrimination.

Third: To prevent lynching, burning, or torturing of black people.

Fourth: To assure to every citizen of color the common rights of American citizenship.

Fifth: To compel equal accommodations in railroad travel irrespective of color when the same fare is paid.

Sixth: To secure the Negro children an equal opportunity to Public School Education through a fair apportionment of Public Education funds.

Seventh: To emancipate in fact as well as in name a race of more than thirteen million of American-born citizens.

The only means we can rightly employ are: Education, organization, agitation, publicity, and the force of an enlightened public opinion.

Since we met in our last session at Cleveland, Ohio, not a few of our brethren who were better than we are have passed into the great beyond. There is a consoling factor ringing in our memory as it relates to those of our dear loved ones, that we will see them again and shake hands never to part any more. These brethren were loyal to every phase of our work.

Another consoling fact about our departed brethren is that our heavenly Father is too good to do wrong and too wise to make a mistake. Therefore in the words of Job, "The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord."

"Lift up your heads, ye saints of God, and rejoice. The sound of victory is in the air. The King is coming. The chariot is being made ready. The angels are preparing to loop back the blue curtains of the sky for the King to pass through. The trumpet will call and the heavenly host will wheel into line. Hark! I hear a distant bugle note. It comes nearer. It sounds the Lord's reveille over the old cemeteries of the earth, yea over the sea and land.

Look! They rise. Corruption puts on incorruption, and mortality and death are conquered. Look! The church rises to meet him for whom they have longed, and they shall be forever with him. Hallelujah! Victory, Victory, Victory! Eternal Victory for Christ and his Church.

In the words of the poet may we close:

Why should we start and fear to die?
 What timorous worms we mortals are!
 Death is the gate of endless joy,
 And yet we dread to enter there.

The pains, the groans, the dying strife
 Fright our approaching souls away;
 Still we shrink back again to life,
 Fond of our prison and our clay.

O if my Lord would come and meet,
 My soul should stretch her wings in haste.
 Fly fearless through death's iron gate,
 Nor feel the terrors as she passed.

Jesus can make a dying bed
 Feel soft as downy pillows are,
 While on his breast I lean my head,
 And breathe my life out sweetly there.

The Layman's Convention, Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Incorporated, was called to order at 10:00 a. m., on the above date with President John L. Webb presiding. "Must Jesus Bear the Cross Alone?" was sung after which Rev. T. F. Hawkins read Matthew 5:1-12, and Rev. F. E. Scott, D. C., led in prayer. "What a Fellowship" was led by L. Bonner, Tennessee.

James T. Lawson, President of the Tennessee State Laymen's Convention, delivered a very forceful and inspiring address of welcome, and M. D. Upchurch, Mississippi, made the response with credit to himself and the body. "Jesus Keep Me Near the Cross" was then sung and various committees were appointed.

Pg.—3

Rev. C. K. Stalnaker, Ohio, was presented by President Webb and delivered a very interesting address. James E. Gayle, Corresponding Secretary, then presented Dr. M. A. Talley, Secretary of Religious Education of the Sunday School Publishing Board. Dr. Talley made a most impressive talk and introduced Drs. T. E. Hopkins, and R. M. Mitchell, New York, as the daily lecturers, along with Dr. Stalnaker, to the body. These made brief remarks, which were very pleasing to the brethren. It was agreed the Dr. Talley would begin classes at ten o'clock Friday morning. Adjournment.

THURSDAY—Evening Session

The meeting was called to order at 6:30 p. m. at the Layman's Hour at the auditorium with President Webb presiding.

L. H. Cooper, Chairman of the Brotherhood of the Southern Baptist Convention was introduced and made a talk on "Christian Education."

Dr. J. E. Walker, President, Universal Life Insurance Company, made a talk. Dr. Walker is also president of the National Negro Business League. Recording Secretary Dixon made the report for the body, and Corresponding Secretary Gayle made the appeal. Secretary Gayle was ably assisted by Vice President McClendon.

After some musical numbers, the meeting closed until Friday morning.

FRIDAY—Morning Session

The house was called to order by President Webb at 10:00 o'clock. Brother Averhart led the devotional. Dr. R. C. Woods, Arkansas, delivered a very helpful address. "Where He Leads Me" was sung, and President Webb presented Dr. A. A. Cosey, President of the Mississippi Baptist Convention, who made a brief talk.

President Webb then announced that the lecturers should have a period of twenty minutes each, twice a day.

Dr. R. M. Mitchell, the first period, on "Stewardship"; Dr. T. E. Hopkins on "Better Baptist Churches," and C. K. Stalnaker, "The Church of the Century."

FRIDAY—Afternoon Session

The meeting was called to order by President Webb at 3:00 o'clock. "Jesus Keep Me Near the Cross" was sung, and Editor H. S. Byner, Georgia, led in prayer. "I'm on the Battlefield" was sung, and Drs. Mitchell, Hopkins, and Stalnaker delivered their daily lectures to the body.

Vice President McClendon presented H. S. Dixon, Georgia, to present President Webb to deliver his annual address. President Webb delivered a brief, but interesting message which will not soon be forgotten.

James T. Lawson, Tennessee, was elected Treasurer to succeed A. J. Adam, New York, and R. P. Player, Louisiana was elected First Vice President to succeed L. V. Acox of the same state.

On recommendation of President Webb it was agreed that all laymen's organizations in our local churches may become members of our body. The meeting adjourned.

SATURDAY—Morning Session

In the absence of President Webb, Vice President McClendon called the house to order at 10:00 a. m., and after devotions, Drs. Mitchell, Hopkins and Stalnaker delivered their closing lectures in the series.

It was intimated that Vice President McClendon be authorized to set up Usher's Department in our Convention. (Carried.)

We are happy to report that there is continued progress in record keeping in the non-business boards and departments. In the Sunday School Publishing Board and the Foreign Mission Board, we found, as always, that the books are accurately and neatly kept, and with proper regard for the principles of accounting involved. In the BYPU Board we noted some improvement in the accounting records.

While the Finance Commission is not a profit board, its records are nevertheless kept accurately, and methodically.

Because the president of the National Baptist Training School and the American Baptist Theological Seminary must do much of the financing of these units personally between the setting of the Convention, it is difficult for the accounting personnel to keep records up to date. We believe, however, that some improvement can be made in the keeping of the books of these units. In this connection, however, we are mindful of the fact that the stenographer for the Secretary of the Convention also has the principal burden of doing the bookkeeping for these units.

The "Voice" is again, an unprofitable unit. If this unit is to serve the denomination without regard to financial return in the way of subscriptions, your auditors believe that this policy should be announced. Our investigation shows that some 1,800 copies of this publication are printed monthly, at the income from subscriptions amounts to only slightly more than $400.00.

Your auditors are pleased to report that there has been a substantial reduction in the First Mortgage Bonds. There has also been considerable reduction in the liability against which the Second Mortgage Bonds have been placed as collateral. All of this means a general improvement in the financial condition of the Convention. While your auditors did not verify the accuracy of the statement, it is reported by the Finance Commission that all of the Second Mortgage Bonds issued by the Corporation are now in the hands of the Convention, its Boards, Departments, or in hands of institutions which hold them for the account of the Convention.

Except for the Sunday School Publishing Board, no board reported on the amount of Debenture Bonds of the Convention held by it. Officers are urged to inventory such holdings in order that the actual liability to outsiders may be accurately known.

Your auditors are happy to report to you that the business boards earned a net profit for the year just closed $91,351.45. For the year ended June 30, 1941 this figure was $74,856.07. The management of these boards is to be congratulated for this showing. It should be borne in mind that the increase has been made in the face of rising costs, freezing orders, rations, and all other handicaps inherent in a War Economy.

At the time of drafting this report (September 9th), your auditors had not received records or vouchers for audit from the following officers, whom we understand, handle funds belonging to the Convention or its Boards and Departments.

The Secretary of the Home Mission Board
The Laymen's Movement
The Corresponding Secretary, Woman's Auxiliary
The Head of the Young People's Department (Mrs. Craig), Woman's Auxiliary

In the case of reports for officers of the Woman's Auxiliary, it has been necessary for us to use dates not conforming to the established date for closing of fiscal periods. Hereafter, these reports will be made to conform to the provisions of the by-laws of the Parent Body. Officers of the Woman's Auxiliary have already been notified to this effect.

During the year we were directed by the President of the Convention to investigate certain reports of the Woman's Auxiliary. This assignment has been carried out. Our report to President Jemison has been duly filed. The same is made a part of this report by reference thereto.

Some officers failed to file with us original vouchers attesting to the validity of receipts and payments. In such cases, where in our opinion, the credits or charges claimed were genuine and in the interest of the Convention, they have been allowed. Officers are warned, however, that in the future such original evidence must be supplied to the auditors.

Respectfully,
J. B. BLAYTON & COMPANY

 ACCOUNTANTS AND AUDITORS

Eastern Offices 6 N. Forty-second Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

September 4, 1942

Reverend D. V. Jemison, President
 National Baptist Convention, Inc.,
 Memphis, Tenn.

Dear Dr. Jemison:

Pursuant to engagement, we have examined the accounts and records of

FOREIGN MISSION BOARD OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA

for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1942 and submit herewith our report forth the financial condition of the Board and showing the result of our examinations as follows:

- EXHIBIT A—Statement of Assets and Liabilities
 SCHEDULE A—1 Reconciliation of Cash
 SCHEDULE A—2 Investments
 SCHEDULE A—3 Land and Buildings
 SCHEDULE A—4 Accounts Receivable
 SCHEDULE A—5 Returned Checks
 SCHEDULE A—6 Prepaid Missionaries' Salaries
 EXHIBIT B—Statement of Receipts and Disbursements

CASH

The cash in bank was confirmed by direct correspondence with the dep-otories.

INVESTMENTS

The securities owned were examined and found to be in proper order.

RESIDUARY INTEREST IN REAL ESTATE

The Board has a residuary interest in premises 201 Main Street, St. Albans, West Virginia, subject to a life interest. This interest is carried at the nominal

INTEREST IN LEGACIES

The Board has pending legacies due from the Estate of Sarah A. E. E. E.
 Philadelphia, Pa., and the Estate of Tiny McCoy, Hobson City, Alabama. The of these legacies has been set up at the nominal value of $1.00.

LAND AND BUILDINGS, U. S. A.

The deed for premises 701-703 South 19th Street, Philadelphia, was examined. Title is in the name of the National Baptist Convention. We did not see a deed for the Ocean County, New Jersey, property or the Chicago prop-

During the year, improvements in the amount of $13,077, were made to the Philadelphia home office building. We recommend that the Philadelphia and Chicago properties be appraised so that a proper value may be established.

LAND AND BUILDINGS—AFRICA

The Board owns various properties in Africa acquired at a cost of $68,300.
 This asset has not been carried in the financial statement because of the impossibility of verifying title to the same.

INSURANCE COVERAGE

We wish to call attention to the fact that only $2,000 of fire insurance is carried on the home office building at Philadelphia. The policy carries an 80 per cent co-insurance clause which means that only a small portion of the value of the property would be recovered in case of fire. Immediate steps should be taken to obtain additional insurance.

COMMENTS

The books were found to be properly kept and in good order. We are pleased to report that we were accorded every courtesy by the executives and office force in the course of the audit. The office is well organized and a proper system of internal check is present.

Report of Secretary

This has been a year of unusual conditions. We still walk close to the shadows. Death still hovers near, and office trusted and long in the service, are being taken. This calls for closer operation from all of us and a spirit of love that engenders fellowship. Our is a great organization and is growing steadily.

We met in an adjourned session and a general Board Meeting, December 1941, with the brotherhood of Newark in Hopewell Baptist Church. The Financial Report of Cleveland Session was read and approved. Provisions were made for the carrying on of the work during the year.

Board Meeting

Salaries were fixed for officers and Boards.

Three regional meetings were planned, one for Tupelo, Mississippi; B Moines, Iowa; and Detroit, Michigan.

The National Education Advance was approved.

The Directors met in annual session in Atlanta, Georgia, during the Congress in Ebenezer Baptist Church. The annual program was arranged. All Boards were instructed to submit a report of money collected at the Session before adjournment.

Rev. J. Pius Barbour was named to succeed the late Dr. T. O. Fuller, assistant secretary, and Dr. W. P. Offutt, Kentucky was named publicity secretary. Dr. J. M. Nabrit was reelected to the presidency of the SEMINARY and also of the TRAINING SCHOOL.

Minutes

We regret that we have not been in a position to distribute the minutes through the mail. We had fondly hoped to have them for distribution here in this, we are also disappointed.

We promise that immediately upon their receipt, this office will forward each delegate a copy.

The delay does not rest upon this office. We have done as always. Unusual circumstances and restrictions have held up the printing. You should have yours.

Financing the Future

During the duration of War, all our enterprises and institutions must be provided for in some extraordinary way. It is barely possible that conditions may prevent our holding one or more of our regular sessions.

What then of the work?

I suggest that we request each church and convention to send to the office of the secretary, the annual dues and to the respective Boards, the donations ordinarily brought to the Convention.

REV. J. H. BRANHAM, Chicago, Ill.
REV. D. D. CRAWFORD, Atlanta, Ga.
REV. S. C. DOYLE, Kansas City, Mo.

ATTY. Wm. H. HAYNES, Chicago, Ill.

REV. J. E. ROSE, Rochester, N. Y.
BRO. W. R. STUART, Asheville, N. C.
REV. J. W. TUTT, Des Moines, Iowa.
REV. W. H. YOUNG, Denver, Colo.

Mr. President, Officers and Members of the National Baptist Convention Incorporated:

We bring you greetings from the Foreign Mission Board and its workers on the home field and from abroad. May we hasten, first, to thank you and assure you of our deep appreciation for the confidence imposed in us to carry forward our Lord's program in giving the Gospel to the world beyond the home borders and to earth's remotest ends. You did not impose an empty trust, but your support of that trust has been generous and whole-hearted. It is, therefore, a privilege and a pleasure to submit the sixty-second annual report, which is my first as corresponding secretary.

That the past year has been a difficult one for the missionary enterprise of all boards, is well known, but the general disposition is to face the difficulties with a determination born of assurance that the missionary spirit is divine, eternal, and will and must have its final triumph. We, like other boards, have been carrying on by re-shaping our program to meet present needs and broadening our base for bigger and more sweeping future efforts. The devotees and students of Christian missions are confident beyond doubt that while missions may be temporarily hindered and curtailed from the human viewpoint of evaluation, the eternal fires that burn upon the altar of divine erection cannot be extinguished and the glow of its lights the darkness of world war and wholesale slaughter cannot comprehend, but the darkness makes that light the more evident and assuring that the Gospel and the Christ of the Gospel is mankind's sole hope for salvation.

Since education, science, psychology, technology and statesmanship have all failed in the solution of man's basic problems, the disposition more and more is developing to give Christianity an honest-to-goodness trial. This is a confession that man is not able to save himself, and an acknowledgment that he needs divine help. For this challenging opportunity of service and leadership, the Church must re-gird herself and be prepared to fulfill the hope of a despairing and heart-broken world. In purpose and spirit, the National Baptist Convention is well suited to play its full share in the new and developing expectations of mankind for salvation and a world order worthy of the name Christian because the National Baptist Convention was conceived, brought forth and fostered in the spirit of Christian missions.

Since last year, we have made a change in the secretaryship of our Board. The transition was smooth, without a single jar. It is mine to be the successor of the eminent and scholarly Dr. J. H. Jackson, now the successful and honored pastor of the great Olivet Baptist Church of Chicago, as successor to our esteemed and lamented chieftain, Dr. L. K. Williams. Dr. Jackson left the office in a high state of efficiency. In fact, I have, as predecessors in this office a list of God's noblest and greatest men, which makes the office hallowed and sacred. Therefore, one cannot think of the wisdom, vision and courage of W. W. Colley; the alertness and drive of L. G. Jordan; the zeal and passion of James East, all of which was crowned with the polish and thoroughness of J. H. Jackson, without trembling and having at least a respectful hesitancy to pick up the missionary torch where they left off and venture to carry it still further. Such is our task at one of the most difficult periods in the history of the world, but we have carried on the best we could under the conditions. The headquarters in Philadelphia have been remodeled and modernized at a cost of about $13,500, all of which has been paid. Our missionaries are all paid up in advance, and the workers in our schools, stations and hospitals in Liberia, and other sections of Africa have kept the work going regardless of the difficulties confronting them. We have been compelled to increase our budget for upkeep and food because of mounting prices and curtailment of shipping. We have sought to meet every emergency call of our workers in Africa, and made every possible effort to serve and relieve them from all needs and anxiety.

We have done this by communications and sending money, so that they would not suffer for the lack of the physical necessities of life.

We re-opened and re-staffed the Carrie V. Dyer Memorial Hospital, at Monrovia, on July 1st, with inclusion of a physician, head nurse, assistant nurse, eight student nurses, watchman, laundress, day worker and other help, total of sixteen persons.

Reports from the stations and workers on the foreign field will best tell the story of what has been done. These reports are contained herein, and you are asked to read the same carefully, and be warmed by the fires of our sacrificing missionaries.

At long last, after much anxiety, effort and expenditure* of money, the Dosumus, victims of the Zamzam's torpedoing, were released from internment in Germany and the family was re-united in Lisbon, Portugal, from whence they sailed for Africa. Their release was nothing short of miraculous, for which we rejoice and thank God.

Our missionaries have made great strides in gaining conversions to Christ, health administration and educational advance where all our schools have been kept open. Our brothers and sisters in Africa show great eagerness and readiness to hear the "great Word," as they call it, and willingly accept salvation through Christ.

We have on the one hand sought to keep our work in Africa moving forward, and on the other hand keep the churches at home correctly informed by weeding out false rumors, and giving proper information as well as seeking to inspire them to increased devotion and sacrifice for missions in times like these.

Returned Missionaries

Rev. J. S. Cyrus and wife, who went to Africa under a five-year contract but really stayed eight years and three months, were brought home by clipper plane from Bendoo, Liberia, West Africa, to Miami, Florida, at a cost of $1,600. They will spend their furlough visiting churches and attending school, where brother Cyrus wishes to get some expert knowledge on agriculture and such other subjects to enable him to serve his station at Bendoo more efficiently. They will be ready to re-sail for Africa with the first opportunity.

We Face the Future

This we do under the spell of the great Commission given by the divine head of the Church, who said, "Go, and lo, I am with you always even unto the end of the world."

The following things are some of the goals we seek:

1. While seeking to at least hold the status quo in Africa to the end of the war, we hope during this period to recruit and train a corps of workers, including preachers, teachers, nurses, doctors, dentists, mechanics and agriculturists.

2. Plans already are in the making, and far advanced, to do work on a big scale in South America among our people there who are anxious for aid and are much in need of our help. I have prepared a pamphlet on the work to be done there, which I hope you will procure and read.

3. To make this program workable, it must be amply financed so that when the time comes, as it surely will, we must have money on hand so as not to embarrass ourselves, and to that end it is our hope to launch from this meeting, as decided in Newark, N. J., last December, a drive for ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS, covering a period of one year.

The following is a report of money raised and disbursed from July 1, 1941 to June 30th, 1942. (See Financial Report, Pages 40, 41.)

"Watchman, what of the night?"—this night of world war, when the hopes of the earth are in both spiritual and moral bankruptcy? Is there any sign of daybreak? Answered emphatically, yes! The day cometh, the day of the Lord hasteneth resplendent with righteousness. Christ shall reign from shore to shore. His will will be done on earth as in Heaven. For not one moment do we doubt the ultimate and complete triumph of the Gospel of the Son of God. For unto Him must every knee bow, and every tongue must confess Him to be Lord to the glory of God. A reading of the signs of the times reveals the birth throes of a new and great religious revival even now gripping the world in pains of travail. Church of God, don't let anybody or anything deceive you nor discourage you. Fight on, pray on, believe on steadfastly, work on and give on the last full measure of unstinted devotion. Christ shall win, and with Him we shall share the glory.

Out of the blackness of this world holocaust shall come a new day resplendent with the glory of God. His Word has gone forth in righteousness and shall not return void, but shall accomplish that unto which it was sent. On the ruins, even out of the ruins, of the kingdoms of earth, the eternal Prince of Peace shall construct His Kingdom and set His throne to judge the nations, and into this Kingdom a new nation of universal fellowship, understanding, goodwill and love will be born, whose delight will be to do the will of God and enjoy eternally the unspeakable bounty of His inexhaustible fullness.

FORTY-THIRD ANNUAL REPORT OF THE NATIONAL B. Y. P. U. BOARD

To the Officers and Members of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A.:
Your Board has passed through another year of active and effective service, and comes to submit an account of its stewardship. As usual the report shows signs of progress which are pleasing, if not satisfactory. We have done our best to discharge faithfully and effectively and cheerfully the trust which you have so willingly committed to us. We recognize the enormity of the task which we have assumed, and the necessity for co-operation on the part of the people who placed this trust in our hands. No change has come over our spirits. We appreciate the fact that we are servants of this Convention; that it is an honor to be loved and trusted by such a religious organization.

Our Duty Emphasized

The need of "Training" organizations in Baptist churches is no longer problematical; it does not admit of doubt. The utility and helpfulness of such organizations have demonstrated its worth. The observant pastor has discovered that he is working directly against himself when he fails to support the Training Union in his church.

The necessity for training the people for service is emphasized by the exacting demand of this rapid transit age in which we live. The church is learning the significant lesson that in dealing with its membership, the business requires haste.

Science continues to make its rich and marvelous contributions to the present age in such a manner that we are often led to inquire, "Shall wonders never cease?" And expert scientists continue to remind us that the wonders and miracles of tomorrow.

This continued progress in things material emphasizes the need of strengthening faith in the fundamental verities of the Scriptures and means the practical training of leaders who will cling tenaciously to the Old Book and Old Faith.

Bible Knowledge Essential

We recognize the definite obligation that we have taken to edify, to equip Baptist members in a knowledge of the Scriptures. In efforts to discharge that obligation we are creating a love for Bible study; striving to make Bible study simple and easier. Great stress is placed upon our and Systematic Bible Readings. We still believe as the Apostle Paul said, "The Word of God is quick and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of the soul and spirit, the joint and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart." The superior claim of the Grand Old Book is our apology for the hearty co-operation of all our people in efforts to enlist every member in prayerful, systematic study of its marvelous contents.

Increase of Spiritual Power

Another object of this department is "to secure the increased spirituality of the Baptist membership. Experience has taught us that the carnal mind is of only enmity against God, it is also a serious handicap to the teacher and preacher who are striving to develop its possessor in the things of the spiritual life. The church has a solemn duty to perform in dealing with babes in Christ." The Christian comes into the church like an infant, and needs the home, full of vigor, a bundle of possibilities, with ambition and the desire to grow. Like the observant mother the church should recognize the unconscious desire for growth and surround the young convert with the activities that will result in the much needed development. The church, the home for young Christians, the place where spiritual life should receive the nurture and care that it requires, in order to increase its development and vigor and power.

It has been said truly, "The Sunday school is an opportunity for Bible study, and the Baptist Training Union does not interfere with that, but it is a difference between Bible study and Bible reading—the difference between seeking to furnish the mind for work and fitting the body for service. It is the business of the Baptist Training Union to lead church members to an acquaintance with the Bible, primarily for the purpose of personal growth in the spiritual life, and to lead them out in private and public prayer.

Nothing can take the place of the Scriptures as food for the devotional life. A revival in Bible study is one of the most helpful signs of our times, and the motto "Back to the Bible," conscientiously and persistently acted upon, would certainly produce beneficial results upon our inner life. One writer makes this significant remark: "Devotion must be the child of meditation; it may rise on wings, but they must be wings of thought." Meditation upon the Word of God that we may observe to do according to it, will yield large returns. The fellowship of the saints is almost a necessary part of spiritual growth; unless one is associated with a company of true believers he cannot enjoy a healthy growth in spiritual life. Public prayer, with a sympathetic and prayerful spirit are invaluable aids in the development of the spiritual life. We need help and co-operation in our efforts to convince many of our church members that the building of the devotional life will be accomplished not so much by new and untried methods as by faithful and prayerful use of those that are within reach of all.

Stimulation in Service

The chief object of our endeavor is to secure "Greater Stimulation in Christian Service." We invite frequent reference to the motto, "We study, that we may serve." The church is a field of service in which every member is required to do his share. The members of the Baptist Training Union should support the church, identifying themselves with all her big, world-wide interests, developing within themselves a church consciousness. They should study the church and understand its problems. The weekly meeting of the Baptist Training Union furnishes its members an opportunity to deliver to lead meetings and speak openly for Christ, and perform a ministry of edification and inspiration to others. The evangelistic opportunity which the Training Union offers is to be recognized also. The greater the church today is consecrated, wholehearted, enthusiastic, energetic, and its memberships, people who are in full accord with the divine purpose of God. This divine purpose is the restoration of man to his normal conditions in which he is given opportunity to be able to do as he has been made capable of being and doing, the deliverance of his capacity and potentiality from the enslaving, dwarfing and destroying power of sin into the fullest possible freedom, into the longest possible life. We believe God had a definite end in view in regenerating the human heart and transforming the human life.

On the night preceding his tragic death, Jesus said to his disciples, "I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain." It seems to me the fruit here referred to are the results, the virtues and graces in their personal lives of those living principles that entered into them at the time they were chosen disciples. No less is all this true of those who today are chosen in Christ to be saved.

Study of Baptist Doctrines

One of the most essential phases of the work of the Baptist Training Union is that of instructing in Baptist doctrines. In the exercise of the liberal spirit we may sometimes participate in non-denominational movements; no special risk should be taken at this point. There should be emphatic and oft-repeated declarations of those things which are most surely believed among us, and which have distinctive principles which distinguish us from other Christian denominations. In support of these principles we part company with most of the Protestant world. We believe that the church is a spiritual body; that it must be separated from the State; that the church is a particular congregation and not an organized denomination; that the church is a pure democracy; its ordinances are baptism and the Lord's Supper. Our declaration of "Faith" should never be subject to revision. The Bible teaches in plain, unequivocal language that the Scriptures are divinely inspired; and a perfect treasure of heavenly instruction; that the salvation of sinners is wholly of grace through the mediatorial offices of the Son of God; that justification includes pardon of sin, and the promise of eternal life on principle of righteousness; that the blessings of salvation are made free to all by the gospel; that in order to be saved, sinners must be regenerated or "born again," that repentance and faith are sacred duties; and also inseparable graces wrought in our souls by the regenerating Spirit of God; that election is the eternal purpose of God, according to which he graciously regenerates, sanctifies and saves sinners; that sanctification is the process by which, according to the will of God, we are made partakers of his holiness; that believers in Christ endure to the end, their persevering attachment to Christ being the grand mark which distinguishes them from superficial proficients; that the law of God is the eternal unchangeable rule of his moral government; that a visible church is a congregation of baptized believers, associated by covenant in the faith and fellowship of the gospel, observing the ordinances of Christ, governed by his laws, and exercising the gifts, talents and privileges invested in them by his Word; that Christian baptism is immersion in water by the proper administrator and is prerequisite to the privileges of a church relation, and to the Lord's Supper.

We are laboring faithfully to impress the members of our churches with the importance and significance of these essential principles. We are careful selection of textbooks used in our regular Study Courses. We are asking the pastors to give us a more liberal cooperation in our efforts to introduce and perpetuate this phase of our educational work.

In these perilous times, when there is such marked differences of opinion with regard to the doctrines contained in the Scriptures, such open challenges of every truth which the Grand Old Book contains, it is imperative that this instruction in these fundamental principles shall be regular, systematic and as thorough as conditions warrant.

Knowledge of Baptist History

The study of Baptist History constitutes another very essential phase of our work. Such history shows the conceptions to which Baptists have pledged from the beginning and to which individuality is central and fundamental. Referring to the spirituality and democracy of the local church, history furnishes us many convincing illustrations of the steadfastness and zeal of the devotees to our faith. It also tells us how meekly they suffered, how readily they sacrificed and how wonderfully they increased in number.

among the most hopeless and helpless and neglected, and enables us to rejoice because we can be counted their spiritual children. History acquaints us with the cardinal doctrines for which Baptists have stood in all ages of the world.

The Missionary Problem

Another object of the Training Union is the "enlistment of every member in missionary activity through existing denominational organizations. The work of the Missionary Committee as set forth in the Manual is "To seek to educate and enlist all members in Scriptural giving; foster Mission Study classes; Assist in making the missionary meeting a success. The committee should arrange for special lectures on mission fields, and in every way seek to promote the missionary spirit and missionary giving. The Missionary Committee should assist the pastor in securing contributions for missions and other objects; seek to inspire in all the members a desire to cultivate the grace of giving and a worthy zeal in all church, local, state, home, and foreign mission work."

This phase of our denominational work must be undertaken seriously. Christ has given to each his task, and bidden us to occupy till he comes. What attitude are we to face our life? (1) With loyal obedience to the Lord of Jesus Christ. (2) With subordination of all interests to the kingdom. (3) With calm confidence in the ultimate triumph of the kingdom. (4) With eager longing for the speedy consummation of Christ's triumph. A glorious day awaits us when we shall have committed the whole church to the whole work of preaching the whole gospel to the whole world.

Music A Spiritual Force

One of the most efficient instrumentalities for the development of soul-force is the choir of the church. Next to the minister who proclaims the word, the choir is the most essential agency. We are rendering invaluable service when we assist in developing the singing spirit among our people, and in the work of developing congregational singing. There is the tendency toward the display of musical skill rather than of devotional inspiration on the part of many church choirs.

All the choirs acts should be acts of worship, and if an anthem be sung, should be chosen with the due reference to the day, season, or occasion, and sung, in a manner to inspire devotion. Better no anthem at all, and in its place a congregational hymn tune, than the kind often heard and the devotional manner in which they are frequently sung, not only by poor choirs, but sometimes by choirs that pride themselves on their proficiency. Our worship would gain immensely if the choirs would devote more time to the music of the gospel songs and the hymn tunes. These belong prominently to the people, and the first concern of organist and choir should be to procure congregational singing in accordance with the Psalmist's words: "Let the people praise thee, O God, let all the people praise thee."

Music is such a potential agency in worship that it would be well for our pastors to deliver sermons occasionally on that important subject; to study the lives of the composers and endeavor to transmit their spirits to those whom they hold responsible for the singing in their churches. It has been said truly, "Music is the echo of the voice of the Lord in the soul of man." Music was believed by the ancients to have healing power. Many a weary soldier, tired and footsore, has leaped forth to victory under the magic spell of music. The singing of hymns and gospel songs carries with it a great rest from care. The griefs that come and go can be easily soothed by song. The sweetest experiences attained through the voice of song.

Through music we can express thoughts that lie too deep, not only for words but for utterance. There is a sort of magic about music which we can neither describe nor interpret; this can be used to great advantage.

Sunday School and B. T. U. Congress

We wish to repeat and emphasize the statements we have made before with reference to the ability and helpfulness of the Sunday School of the B. T. U. Congress. There is no other of the Convention which has distributed more to the millions and working power of the leaders of teachers among our young people than this organization. This Congress brings together the young people in large numbers once a year to study the methods of organization and plans of work for the advancement of the Sunday Schools and Baptist Training Unions throughout the country. It is a day when the young people obtain information and inspiration which they can obtain from any other source. The Congress is a feast of good things.

The last session of this Congress met in Miami, Fla. It was attended by a large number of delegates. Greater interest was manifested on the part of the messengers who attended. The attendance is increasing every year, and larger and grander results are being obtained.

Enlargement and Expansion

As the work of this Board increases its obligations increase in the same ratio. We find more to do each day, churches in all parts of the country asking for training schools, that their members may be thoroughly trained in church membership. The increasing demands for such study classes call for funds with which to operate the work of the Board on a larger scale. It is highly improbable that we shall be able to take enough money out of the Board's business channels to support this larger phase of missionary endeavor. It is essential, therefore, that money be contributed in larger amounts on "FOUNDER'S DAY" for this necessary work of expansion.

Needs—Special Drive

In our last Annual Report, we called attention to an "Old Note Account" with a monthly interest. We stated that this account was completely stationary, no reduction or change of Number and Classifications of B. T. U.'s and B. A. U.'s by States any time having been made in the aggregate total for several years. This was not due to carelessness on the part of the Board, but we were asked to contribute regularly to other agencies at the Convention. This we have tried to do.

We have made definite arrangements for the reduction of the price and interest in monthly installments. We are asking 100 churches for $2.00; 200 churches for $3.00; 1000 churches for $1.00, through their Baptist Training Unions by December 1, 1942, to help us clear up our old indebtedness. We would like to begin the year 1943 with a clean slate, that we may be able to give more time to holding Training Schools and Institutes throughout the country.

There are many states we have not been able to visit because of the lack of funds for our expenses. And many of our small churches are unable to have us come to them because they have no money to help defray the expense of bringing workers. With our Board clear of this old indebtedness we will be able to furnish books, teachers, etc., for the Training Schools where the churches are unable to do so.

The Social Department

Man is a social being, with social longings and aspirations that must be met and regulated. For the proper development of this aspect of human sociability, the Baptist Training Union undertakes to increase mutual acquaintance and to promote sociability. This part of its work is directed and supervised by a Social Committee whose duty it is to promote the social interests of the Training Union by welcoming strangers to all meetings and by providing for mutual acquaintance of the members by socials, for which any appropriate entertainment, of which the church approves, may be provided. All the facilities promoted by the Baptist Training Union must tend to make the members more useful in the service of God, as well as to increase their mutual acquaintance.

Because of this supreme purpose of the Social Committee, we insist that it should be composed of earnest and devout Christians, as well as those whose social natures are developed, who are attractive to others, and are successful in devising plans for promoting acquaintance, friendship and helpfulness of the church.

Social-recreation accomplishes much in the lives of the young people who engage in it wisely under adequate leadership. It develops desirable social characteristics in the young people by offering natural, unstrained, and attractive situations for intermingling. It affords an ideal opportunity for the development of self-control, of obedience, of cooperation, and of good-will. It promotes physical well-being. It sharpens the wits by demanding quick decisions resulting in immediate action.

The "abundant life" referred to by our Master may thus be more nearly realized in the lives of His people through a well planned—social recreation program.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST TRAINING SCHOOL AND THE AMERICAN BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY AT NASHVILLE TENNESSEE, TERM 1941-1942

We are happy to submit our Sixth Annual Report of the NATIONAL BAPTIST TRAINING SCHOOL, and THE AMERICAN BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

During the six years, we have been able to successfully operate both institutions without an increased deficiency.

FINANCE COMMISSION. We are deeply grateful to the Finance Commission of the National Baptist Convention of which Dr. A. M. Townsend is executive secretary, for the payment of salaries of the period. This has made it possible to send all workers away satisfied. Each year, the National Baptist Convention has increased its contributions and support for the TRAINING SCHOOL and SEMINARY.

REPAIRS. Through the efforts of the president's secretary and with the assistance from the school treasury, we were able to make some necessary repairs throughout the building of the TRAINING SCHOOL. We repaired the basement. This includes the kitchen, pantries, and dining room and laundry. On the first floor, the classrooms that were in the worse condition, were cleaned and some of the teachers' apartments were cleaned. However, before school resumes, it will be necessary to clean the wood work, walls, and repair windows throughout the building. It has not been done for six terms now, and some provisions must be made.

Stoves must be replaced. We have bought some cooking utensils, but need many more in both units. Screens are a necessity. Some money should be provided to make better driveways, that is, gravel should be provided. We are doing our best, but some definite provisions should be made for definite necessary repairs.

SCHOLARSHIPS. It is remarkable how these institutions have kept their doors open in the face of rising prices, without an endowment, and a student with little or no money to meet their expenses. This has been partly supplied by living endowments, called scholarships. These have been provided by state conventions, associations and churches. One white State M. U. for three years, has provided two scholarships. We wish we could rest individuals in giving full or part scholarships to some deserving young men or young women. Scholarships furnish cash to pay for food and for supplies, transportation, heat, water, light and such other expenses as necessary in institutions of this kind.

We wish to call attention to the North Indiana Association, and the Tennessee State Convention and its Woman's Auxiliary, the Illinois State Convention and its Woman's Auxiliary, and the Sixth District Association of Louisiana for students and scholarship assistance. The fact of keeping the TRAINING SCHOOL open is entirely dependent upon the willingness of Negro churches, nationwide, to provide scholarships, and many of them, in lieu of an endowment. With the rapid growth and expansion we are experiencing, and with which we are entirely satisfied and beyond our expectations, the securing of definite state contributions are necessary.

TEACHERS. Teaching is a fine art. There are only a few gifted teachers; hence, teaching becomes not only a responsibility, but to many who assay to do it, a burden, whatever their preparation may be. The TRAINING SCHOOL has been fortunate in obtaining good teachers who are willing to serve on small salaries while the institution grows. The work done by these teachers this year, deserves the commendation of all. The school operated each day without a break.

THE PRESIDENT. The President recognized the fact when coming to assume leadership that he was taking upon himself unusual responsibility. It was his to gather a student body, to maintain a good measure of discipline, to direct business of organization in its expenses and to avoid interruption, and to satisfy the student body whenever there appeared a break. In addition to this, it was his to reclaim the interest of Negro Baptists who had lost, and create anew where it had not been.

DOCTRINE. THE NATIONAL BAPTIST TRAINING SCHOOL is orthodox in doctrine and all teachers must subscribe to the principle beliefs and practiced by the National Baptist Convention.

CONFERENCES. We stage two conferences each year under the Mission Department of the SEMINARY, with the cooperation of the TRAINING SCHOOL.

SUMMER SCHOOL. There is a demand for Summer Session of TRAINING SCHOOL, but here again, we meet a problem when it is difficult to operate a summer school. Salaries should be provided for those who work during the six weeks and since it is purely missionary, some vision should be made for assisting pastors, teachers, and missionaries who would like this kind of work.

METHODS OF FINANCING. Where there is no endowment and where the income must be derived for operating expenses from collections of students who for the most part are not able to pay cash, and from churches that find it difficult to operate their local programs because of low income groups that predominate them, it is difficult to maintain a TRAINING SCHOOL and SEMINARY to meet competition. We must be able to pay teachers a salary scale that will attract teachers to the staff and furnish them with adequate living quarters.

The TRAINING SCHOOL must be strengthened year by year. If financial relaxation, and work credits can be translated into actual cash for operation, we will be well on the way. We would not be able to operate on the salaries provided by the Finance Commission.

Our Missionary Conference has been unusually well attended, and an excellent program executed. More and more, the two conferences and Summer School must be financed sufficiently far enough in advance so that both personnel for the program and the type of program and courses can be advertised.

The TRAINING SCHOOL should become the Mecca for summer study and relaxation for the teachers of religion and religious workers. Money! Money! is going to be the penalty of progress. It is difficult to create a cultural atmosphere with people who are almost wholly emotional in their spiritual reactions. This must be done if they are to be partners in a big educational program. The Negro conventions must be led into a new system in finance, if they mean to meet the economic stress of the war world in all its activities, but especially in education. The church must impress upon each member the duty, the privilege and responsibility of systematic giving for education and sending it where designated.

THE STUDENTS. We feel that the student body is made up of young men and young women who are earnestly consecrated and willing to sacrifice themselves they sacrifice and otherwise to the spread of the Gospel. It is remarkable how little some of them have in world goods and education when they come to us, but they are rich in the purpose of dedicating their lives to the building of the Kingdom.

The moral standard is the finest. Of course, this does not mean that they are perfect, and we do not have problems, but, none of them have been in nature that with proper handling, we could not solve them satisfactorily. We are gratified with the results obtained.

The various churches within a reasonable radius have been very generous in using our students. This affords them experience, as well as the school a valuable advertisement. Our young women have served as speakers whenever it was possible for them to obtain permission and adequate transportation. We have been fortunate this year in being able to place some emphasis on our music. We were able to send a group of students to Tennessee State Convention for speaking and singing. Many have expressed themselves as being gratified with the showing made. As a result, we have obtained several engagements in the State for the SEMINARY and TRAINING SCHOOL. One or two outside of the city engagements have been filled and others are pending. We have several SEMINARY and TRAINING SCHOOL DAYS in Nashville churches that have been announced as 'annual.' Several of these days have netted us very helpful assistance. The showers from both white and colored churches have been more thoughtfully planned and can be appreciated in a very great way by their largeness and adequacy.

We have launched a personal drive by correspondence and the response encouraged us, but we were ill and could not travel to obtain funds, as heretofore, to carry on and not shut our doors a week or a month ahead of the regular schedule, as some institutions are doing under similar pressure to would like to say that many of the brethren, who have not done so heretofore, when they could not respond then and there, have written me the most encouraging letters with promise that I could ever hope to receive. In your consideration the fact that every year I have traveled to obtain funds, this year I have scarcely made three engagements, yet, we have met our bills monthly and scaled the rising tide of food prices satisfactorily. We will appreciate we have done some manipulation.

Collections from students have been poor, or even poorer, as always. We are deeply grateful to our Baptist brethren who have made it possible for us to say this. When we say brethren, we include woman's auxiliaries.

Our students have accepted the fare and conditions without complaint, realizing that we are doing the best we can. We need more students who are consecrated, more students with high school diplomas, more students with college degrees. Above all, we need students whose purpose is REDEMPTION.

In another year, the war will have taken toll among our ranks. We cannot say now what the score will be, but if we are to survive under any circumstances we must have adequate funds.

THE FARM. Altho we do not have a very large student body, it requires a great deal to supply the table three times a day for eight months. The food outlay is increasing daily with war prices upon us, we face the coming year with a bit of apprehension. It is useless to speak of raising the cost of a student when so few have been able to pay the present charge except labor. Here, the farm has proven of value in supplying vegetables, meats, and milk. Add to this the showers coming from the missionary societies of white and Negro, and you have the sources of income. Over and over this must be placed what is known as work credits. Work credits may mean that persons who have no money are given an opportunity to pay out their credits, and therefore, an added responsibility rests upon the student to find cash to meet these monthly work credit items. We shall continue to do our best in the face of war conditions.

GRADUATES. The graduates of the Seminary are gradually being called to strategic fields of labor. This should help much. All the members of the Class of 1941 are in active service as pastors, except two who are serving in a School of Religion in Shreveport, Louisiana.

ENROLLMENT. The enrollment has been normal in spite of war conditions.

A NEED OF BOTH UNITS. Houses for married students must at some time be provided to avoid moral lapses and the sacrifices of families.

Money! Money! Money! is going to be the crying need of the institution. When we are able to point with unusual pride to some professor who has written a textbook, or notes on a given subject and called upon for papers at addresses everywhere, and our average student body is a hundred men, thirty of whom have their college degree, we will be ready to ease up.

The Negro needs now and will need after the war, a leadership which is informed, sympathetic, constructive, patient, aggressive, upright, and concerned in the future development of the rural church as well as the church.

THE SEMINARY AND TRAINING SCHOOL must be strengthened year by year. If friends would give living scholarships, which would take the place of static endowments, and the farm can gradually be brought up to the point that it will be an asset instead of a liability, and work credits can be liquidated into actual cash for operation, we will be well on the way. We will not be able to operate were the salaries not provided by the Southern Baptist Convention and the Sunday School Publishing Board of our Convention.

Our Missionary and Pastors' Conferences have been unusually well attended, and a very excellent program executed. More and more, the two colleges and the Summer School must be financed sufficiently enough in advance so that both personnel for the program and the type of program and content may be advertised.

This must be done if they are to be partners in a big educational program for the pastors, teachers of Religious Education and Religious Workers. Negro conventions must be led into sacrifice and system in giving, if they mean to meet the economic stress of the post war world in all its activities, but especially in education. The church must impress upon each member the duty, the privilege and responsibility of systematic giving for education and sending it where designated.

Money! Money! Money! is going to be penalty of progress.

The budget of the SEMINARY is $16,000 and of the TRAINING SCHOOL $7,000. We would be happy to have subscriptions sufficient to underwrite these for the next two years. These pledges should be paid at intervals of lump sums during the two year period. This would guarantee the operation of the schools even tho they are un-endowed.

The president would be glad, when necessary, to assist personally in obtaining any large subscription by spending a day with the pastor involved in the effort. The work must go on during the war period. Can we fully rest our case in your hands? Will you pledge, pray and pay?

EIGHTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE HISTORICAL AND RESEARCH DEPARTMENT OF THE NATIONAL CONVENTION, U. S. A., INC.
THE THIRD ANNUAL REPORT OF THEODORE SYLVESTER B. D. D., LL. D., HISTORIOGRAPHER

A FEW FACTS ABOUT THE CHURCH

A most significant pronouncement fell from the lips of Jesus to the effect: "Up on this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

The fitful marches of the centuries evolving into millenniums; the dizzy races of the ages; the giddy dashes of epochs and aeons have all served to bring out of the locked recesses and secluded cloisters of the sesame of time more units and added entities as vital adjuncts to the comprehensively embracing ecclesiastical program of the Great Head and Founder of the only everlasting and imperishable organization in the visible and tangible universe.

There have been peculiar thinkers who have conjured up thoughts even more peculiar about the origin, purpose and necessity of this organization—the church—which has already unmistakably demonstrated to the world the marvelous helpfulness it is to the human family and the more significant helpful place it is yet to hold in the life, affairs and destiny of mankind. Countless tomes, theses, dissertations, and huge volumes have been written about the church and its unique function in society. Its history is fraught with suffering; steeped in hardships; saturated in trials; baptized in blood, and plunged in tears.

No collection or collections of bound volumes, however large the number, can give a fair approximate of the depth of the penetrations of the pains and tortures which have been imposed upon the church. There have been apparently, conscious rebellions against the church and its program of righteousness. There have been arrayed "scientific attitudes," "rising tides of prejudice," "sordidness," "frustration," "disinterested intelligence," "religious fanaticism," and "cynicism" against the church. But in the face of all of the intended movements of destruction it has stood as a mighty Christ laden with oaken truths of impenetrability which lift their brazen arms of indefinite length to sweep the star bedecked sky.

The church was fashioned in the mind of Jesus Christ and given a peculiarly engrossing purpose which provides the only real and abiding equality for all human beings.

Whatever we are; whatever we have done can only be truly evaluated by the measuring rod of history. The factual aspects of our lives can be properly and truly placed only by having history to exercise its marvelous gift of expression.

A mean nausea stalks through our land. It has blighted and is still blighting the psychological personality of many of the majority group of our nation. That nausea is the giant enemy prejudice. It erected the lynchers where the bodies of many innocent are burned; it established the institution of the hangman's rope where the necks of many innocent are broken without the slightest opportunity to resort to the protection of the law; it gave birth to discrimination; it made segregation the order of the day in any sections of this "land of the free and home of the brave"; it gave effectiveness to the Jim-Crow code of humiliation for a minority group who helped to make this land what it is with blood, sweat and tears; it has placed a partition wall of division in the church and imposed the practice of separate worship upon men of different colors and names yet of the same common father and same original blood which first coursed through the veins and arteries of Adam.

This separate institution of worship imposed upon the Negro, as upon some other minorities, the necessity of establishing distinct organizations of worship. In this venture Negro Baptists have played well their part. They have not allowed their cause to go unnoticed, but they have with the miracle increasing peculiarity most astoundingly enlarged their kind until they have attracted spectators and surprised themselves.

The Negro Baptists shall hold the prominent place in this theme. The facts about the church as they are related to Negro Baptists are the ones that this study will consider.

The year 1743 was memorable and will ever be held as an eventful one in the history of Negro Baptists of the Nation. That was the year that a record was made of a Negro who offered himself for membership and was accepted into the membership of a Baptist Church in Rhode Island. It was nol in great probability, the first time that a Negro had joined the Baptist Church, for too many years had passed by from the time Negroes were brought to these shores as slaves and the year that it was recorded that Negro Omasey had joined the Baptist Church. With the historical presumption that other Negroes, whose names were unpublished, had preceded him into the membership of the Baptist Church being discredited, the record of 1743 gives priority of membership of Negroes in the religious organization of this nation to a Negro Baptist.

From the first named Negro Baptist in 1743 to 1942 there have been millions of Negroes to join the Baptist Church. The history of Negro Baptists is thrilling. It reads like fiction, yet it is as true as the history of the people of God during the old and new periods of the making of His recorded word.

Negro Baptists have waded through seas of blood; climbed mountains of opposition; scaled hills of persecution; drunk bitter drugs of sorrow; eaten sour grapes of disappointment; been scourged with the whip of affliction; been bound with the chains of slavery; been imprisoned in the dungeons of servitude; been rebuffed of their blessing and birthright, but today they stand catalogued Negro Baptists with 23,093 churches and 3,782,464 members; United American Free Will Baptists with 226 churches and 19,610 members; Colored Primitive Baptists with 1,009 churches and 43,897 members; National Baptist Evangelical Life and Soul Saving Assembly of U. S. A. with 28 churches and 2,300 members; and Negroes in the Northern Baptist Convention with 32 churches and 45,821 members. Their physical possession in church property amount to $17,613,127, with 24,388 churches owning 22,497 church edifices which constitute the basis of their property worth.

The entire reported church membership in the U. S. A. among Negroes is 5,669,618 with a reported membership of Negro Baptists of 3,782,464. The reported number of Negro Baptists gives them a 66.8 per cent or more the two-thirds of all church members among Negroes.

The great growth of Negro Baptists is due to the untiring work of the pioneers who labored in several of the states and passed the fruits of the labors on to other parts.

Though the first Negro Baptist of record was found in Rhode Island, the first lasting work for and by Negro Baptists was done in South Carolina. When the record of pioneers is written and read there must appear South Carolina with George Lisle, the first Negro and Negro Baptist preacher of record to cry aloud as a voice in the wilderness of despair in North America; David George, who heard and heeded the gospel call of Lisle and became the first regular Negro pastor in the U. S. A.; Jesse Peters, marvelous transplant; Andrew Bryan, who caught his first glimpse of day beneath its sun which fired him to preach in Georgia; and E. D. White, a noble successor.

Virginia must never forget the unusual gift of Jacob Blackwell, preacher to Virginia white Baptists, and Lodi Carey, whose name has been recorded as "The Father of West African Missions."

Kentucky must ever revere the memory of such pioneers as Peter Durel of old Captain Fame, Landon Ferrell, Henry Adams, W. J. Simmons, polished scholar of international note, and C. H. Parrish, versatile genius whose mind was a limpid lake of scholarship.

Louisiana can point with surging pride to Joseph Willis, who preached his first sermon as a protestant on its soil, organized the first Baptist Church and led the Baptists of all groups and colors into state associational organization. L. A. Carter, one-time leader of Louisiana Baptists; John Jones and Luke Allen, Sr., who were worthy followers of noble sires.

Texas gathers great delight from reveling in the groves of psychology festivity under the soothing influence and consoling mutual interchange of opinions of T. S. Campbell, Father of Texas' Negro Baptists; Jerry J. Rhoads, walking Greek and Hebrew lexicon of dark hue, whose mental pro-wore the imprint of profundity stamped by old Baylor University, founded by white Baptists when slavery was in flower and involuntary servitude was in the order of the day in the Lone Star State Commonwealth under the shadow of the Alamo; W. A. Walton, who gave way for state organization in the God-kissed walls of Friendship Baptist Church, Navasota; A. R. Griggs, the Negro Baptist historian whose genius was a blessed benediction to all who heard the pensive intonation of his clarion voice; I. M. Luke, who touched the light of "go ye" to the torch of foreign missions; F. L. Lights, who seized the foreign mission torch and sped on to benighted shores beyond the reach of this sunset golden; Mat Gaines, master of seven languages, preacher of note and member of the Texas Legislature; David Abner, Sr., who sat in the legislative halls of Texas, signed his slavery-worn name to the Constitution of the State of his adoption and made colleges for those who followed him; W. M. Massey, who distinguished himself as a preacher and orator of early eloquence, and E. W. D. Isaac, who won the rarest and most distinguished place in the hall of oratorical fame and renown with a tongue that was tipped with golden nuggets of intellectual luster.

Illinois can rejoice in the fact that Jesse Freeman Boulden lived and labored during the dark and dismal days of slavery within its confines, though he never tasted the gall of the bitter institution, and "worked up a call of the Illinois State Convention through the Wood River Association in February, 1864," and that Richard De Baptist touched with a trained mind the local church, association and convention life of the State, and further that his leadership ability was extended into the Baptist Church program of the Nation.

Arkansas owes much to the guiding genius of Wilson Brown, who established himself during the torments of slavery as a remarkable preacher, organizer and leader; George Robinson, whose influence as an evangelist and wisdom as an organizer made him an idol greatly revered by all who heard and knew him, and James T. White, a man of special and remarkable training for his time and a capable organizer and pastor.

Ohio owes much to Wallace Shelton, who organized the Negro Baptists of the State and organized and pastored Zion Baptist Church, Cincinnati, and Richard, and Richard De Baptist, whose marvelous ability to correlate teacher and preacher into a harmonious unity made him a most vital asset in the early movements of Negro Baptists in the Buckeye State.

Georgia can make no greater claim than that U. L. Houston insinuated his great gifts as pulpit orator, successful pastor and promoter of education into the life of the State as he served as an organizer of the Georgia Baptist State Convention, vice-president of the same organization and member of the Georgia Legislature, and W. J. White, also organizer of the Georgia Baptist State Convention, first treasurer of the State Convention, later missionary, president of the Georgia Baptist Sunday School Convention, Baptist editor and successful laborer in other fields of religious and social endeavor, gave of his genius to Georgia.

Mississippi can pass untold inspiration on to its present laborers and those of other states when it reviews the contributions of H. P. Jacobs, who left a most thrilling saga in his sensational escape the vices of Alabama's slavery to the virtues of Canada's freedom, and upon his return to the states after the abolition of the institution of slavery organized the Mississippi Baptist State Convention; P. S. Evans, who made his name as a preacher and scribe of the Mississippi Baptists; George W. Gayles, who left a glorious record as preacher, Justice of the Peace, member of the Mississippi Legislature, brevet major-general of the United States Army, corresponding secretary for the Mississippi Baptist State Convention, editor of the Baptist Signal, founder of the college for Mississippi Negro Baptists at Natchez, leader of the State Convention and a giant in influence among the Baptists of the Nation; Wesley F. Graham, who extended his influence to Arkansas, Virginia, Pennsylvania and throughout America as a great preacher, pastor and champion of foreign missions; Edward P. Jones, whose influence as a leader in church and politics was felt in his native Mississippi, then Illinois, the Nation; Lewis Garnett Jordan, who taught the world significant lessons in his labors as pastor in Mississippi, Texas and Pennsylvania, and corresponding secretary of the Foreign Mission Board of the National Baptists of the Nation; Randall Pollard, who kept the mixed white and colored churches alive in Natchez during the Civil War when the white began to abandon them, and E. B. Topp, who led Mississippi Baptists with burning passion also for the salvation of the heathen in benighted Africa.

Tennessee well deserves an unquestioned place in the rank of notable cause of the contributions of such pioneers as Nelson G. Merry (whose name should be consoling to every Negro Baptist of the State; Edmund Kelly, who launched out upon the ministerial sea as a product of the First Baptist Church (white), Nashville, during the pastorate of R. B. C. Harwell, October 1, 1840, and wrote some of the most remarkable works that have fallen from the pen of man; Wyatt, J. Johnson, whose interest in education cannot be questioned because of the gift he made in his son, Mordecai Wyatt Johnson, first present president of Howard University; Henry C. Owen, who gave much to the upbuilding of rural Tennessee, led the Baptists of the State and gave great son, S. A. Owen, as his supreme gift; Wesley G. Parks, who gave duty to pastoral endeavor and Baptist leadership and immediately succeeded Elias Camp Morris as titular head of Negro Baptists of this Nation; Rufus Perry, who made an enviable name for himself in pastoral, missionary and educational ventures as ethnologist, essayist, logician, profound student of Negro history and such classics as Greek, Latin and Hebrew, and writer of extensiveness; T. J. Searey, whose reputation as an able pastor will "live on"; Nelly Seay, who gave womanhood its rightful luster; D. A. Townsend, who gave the idea of community leadership by the preacher its proper place, passed on the necessity of business in religion as he gave, his remarkable son, A. M. Townsend, to Negro Baptists to direct their largest business enterprise; Michael Vann, great preacher and able leader; Randall Bartholomew Vandervall, who knew and dreaded the horrors of slavery but used them as stepping-stones to leadership in two state conventions of his native Tennessee and Martin Watfield, who organized the First Baptist Church, Brownsville during the Civil War and led his congregation to worship in the edifice of the white Baptists and further taught school with such characters as H. Owen, Alex. Moody and Primus Lane as some of his students.

Alabama has made a marvelous contribution to the church in the gift of pioneers like E. K. Love, who grew to remarkable influence as preacher, teacher and pastor of the largest church in the United States and perhaps the world when he pastored the First African Baptist Church, Savannah, Georgia; Caesar McLemore, who was bought by the Alabama Baptist Association because he might give all of his time to preaching; Marie J. Phillips, great Christian woman who was the mother of E. C. Jordan, and J. Q. A. Wilhite, who was one of the 151 delegates present in 1880 when the Foreign Mission Baptist Convention of the United States of America was organized and the second president of the Convention elected in 1883, during the session which was held in Manchester, Virginia.

Indiana has a claim of lasting value and may well be proud of James White, who got his start and inspiration under the Hoosier sky though he labored more fully in other climes, and Helen White, who received, as James T. White, a liberal education during the days of slavery in Indiana and went to the State of Arkansas to climax his work.

Missouri has grown to a huge proportion, but all that it is or can ever be to be must be traced back to the pioneer days of leaders of the type of J. Fields, who was often found in flight for freedom and safety during the wretched days of slavery.

Massachusetts must ever point to the worth of J. Francis Robinson, who was a courageous pioneer and trail-blazer.

New York cannot forget that it was touched by the genius and influence of William J. Dixon, who was exposed to the best in Christian character and education; Theodore Doughty Miller, whose contacts and training gave him the opportunity to develop himself as an organizer, pastor, and eloquent preacher, and James J. Spelman, a man of varied gifts who used them as reporter, editor, publisher, soldier, educator, politician, college trustee, lieutenant-colonel, colonel, assistant commissioner of immigration, prohibitionist and leader in religion.

North Carolina has been blessed with such church pioneers as Zack Houghson, who led as the first pastor of Ebenezer Baptist Church, Charlotte; Caesar Johnston, first president of the North Carolina State Convention, a great preacher, supporter of education and loyal member of the National Baptist Convention; George W. Lee, who won his laurels as preacher, as pastor, traveler, organizer and leader in the North Carolina and Washington, D. C., at Vermont Ave. Baptist Church; Edward Hart Lipscomb, who grew to becoming famous as editor, educator, church clerk, preacher, State Convention secretary, and an unusual orator; Nichols Franklin Roberts, whose reputation as an educator, gospel minister, missionary, pastor and president of the Sunday School Convention of North Carolina and president of the State Convention of North Carolina gave him the opportunity to greatly serve; John H. Washington, who was the first missionary of the State and a great organizer.

Maryland can boast of no greater pioneer who touched the lives of those who came within its Christian reach than Mary Outlaw, who was the angel of charity in her work as a nurse.

Pennsylvania can boast of Sampson White and George W. Williams, whose records shine with resplendent service.

The record is heavily laden with worthy pioneers who made their contributions when the cause appeared hopeless for Negroes.

There have not been produced many more celebrated preachers of the gospel whose messages were seasoned with the fiery enthusiasm of the Apostle Peter and the philosophical profundity of the Apostle Paul than Charles T. Walker, God's trombone from Augusta, Georgia, who blasted the strongholds of hell; Peter James Bryant, eloquent linguist whose rhetoric penetrated every recess of the heart; Lucy Kirk Williams, the prince of preachers, nestor of logic, master of forensic oratory and Christus Evans in spiritual fervor and valor, and I. Tolliver, whose clarion-gospel calls made the pillars of heaven tremble and the foundations of the elements of hell quake.

Negro Baptists point with pride to the dignified leadership of such sleeping giants as W. H. McAlpine, J. Q. A. Wilhite, M. Vann, W. J. Simmons, E. M. Brawley, E. K. Love, J. A. Foster, A. R. Griggs, W. A. Brinkley, E. C. Morris, S. S. Jackson, W. G. Parks and L. K. Williams. Their records have been kept by capable scribes of the yester-year like J. M. Armstead, W. R. Pettiford, E. E. Jones, H. H. Mitchell, J. J. Spelman, S. T. Clanton, J. L. Cochran, S. D. Clanton, W. H. Steward, W. L. Cansler and R. B. Hudson, with the marvelous aid of T. O. Fuller as assistant.

No greater educators have been produced than those produced by Negro Baptists whose mantles have been left to us such as Booker T. Washington, John Hope, Robert Russa Moton, E. M. Brawley, B. J. Brawley, S. H. Archer, David Altner, Jr., Frederick Gross, Nathan W. Collier, C. H. Parrish, W. J. Simmons, James H. Washington, Edward D. White, Sutton E. Griggs, R. M. Oberl, Charles Satchell Morris and a host of others.

Negro Baptists, march on—to the resounding music of the ages, keep pace. Long has been your journey, stony your travel; rough your course; steep your limbs; narrow your passages; blinding your tears; bitter your sufferings; wearying your tortures; vehement your torments; close your channel; torn your hearts; abused your privileges; denied your rights; abridged your immunities; cursed your color; dark your night and dreary your days, but you have not been defeated.

The records of others have been written; their stories have been told, but they were all based upon the sordidness of a physiological difference, the product of climatic cause effected through prolongation of time. This rise to your flight to victory over the sunken sociological, economic, political and educational abyss of sullenness to which the madness and baseness of prejudice impelled to and would have otherwise plunked you.

March on, Negro Baptists, until the shadows of hate are swept from all regions of view; march on until the meanness of prejudice is ground to the powder of love; march on until the shifting seasons of time are left the certitude of eternity; march on until the cataracts of war empty the mad waters into the still lap of the ocean of peace; march on until the darkness of the night of conflict fades into the golden dawn of the everlasting morn; march on until Melchizedek comes again to the gates of Salem and this time proclaims, stentoriously, the name of his father; march on until Abraham returns to terra firma with the mathematical calculator of heaven and announces the number of his seed determined according to the stars; march on until Moses comes from the unknown chamber of slumber in Nehu and stands upon the topmost ledge of Sinai to elucidate the wonders of Zion; march on until Ezekiel makes known the address of the blacksmith who constructed the wheel that he saw in vision; march on until Daniel gives the geological location of the stone that was hewn out of the mountain and discourses at length upon the softness of the lions' manes out of which he made a pillow when he spent a restful night of slumber in their den; march on until David transposes the psalms of Israel into a hymn of angelic beauty which will sweep the delicate strings of the harp of the Christian soul into a soothing melody; march on, Negro Baptists, until the pillars of America, the Moslems of the United States, the Hircobites of this Nation, enemies of peace, justice and fair play, friends of hate, and lovers of prejudice are brought to an abiding realization that God is Father of all, and all are brothers.

REPORT OF STATISTICAL DEPARTMENT

To the President, Officers, and members of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.

It is with profound pleasure that I present to you my annual report as Statistician. The National Baptist Convention is the most powerful religious organization in the world among Negroes. It has the largest constituency of any denominational group, with the exception of Jews and Catholics. I need not relate that these facts are verified by the 1936 Census Baptist Bulletin No. 28.

According to governmental report, there are more Negro Baptists than there are white Baptists. This is due to the fact that under the late Dr. L. W. Williams, your Statistical Department lost no time or efforts in cooperation with the Government in securing the statistics of Baptist churches.

We have done our best this conventional year to keep our denomination and the world informed as to our work and the growth of Negro Baptists through correspondence, travel, and releases to the press. We have given information and statistics to all denominational religious and educational groups. It is to the credit of the Statistical Department that all authoritative reports found in all recognized and accepted year-books of Baptists and other denominations are statistics as submitted to them by your Statistical Department. This means that you find in any standard year-book the work of our National Baptist Convention, not given by others, but by those who have selected to do this work. We have given the work of the Statistical Department a life and standing, which fact is verified by the recognition accorded us and the demands made upon this office. I need not tell you when this office was assumed by us, we did not have a bottle of ink, no scratch pad, but today, you have a Statistical Department in appearance and equipment, the equal of any to be found among our Baptists. I think, I can say without contradiction, it is the best. I am happy by your encouragement and leaders for the very fine support which you have given us. Our duties have increased, with the years, because of the interest of Baptists in their work. Thus, we have requests coming from ministers, colleges, and other governmental groups for various types of information about Negro Baptists. We make it a rule to answer all letters with courtesy and promptness.

Last year we presented to Negro Baptists of this country, a well edited, authentic, interpreted, portrayal through the work of the National Baptist Bulletin. The Bulletin is a contribution to Negro Baptists' standing and dignity. It is our sincere desire that every pastor will include the National Baptist Bulletin in his library.

Again, may I call your attention to the great power and effectiveness of our numerical strength. These numbers represent economical, social, intellectual, and spiritual power of a great minority group in the world. Industry and labor know the potential power of these numbers. It is our sincere desire that we shall forever remain proud of our heritage; for we have grown more rapidly than any other denominational group in the United States. These millions of Baptists have a great opportunity for service in the field of ministerial and Christian education. We must integrate ourselves into every fiber of this nation, so that this nation cannot underestimate our influence for we have been able to secure the following statistical data of Negro Baptists during the year, which we are giving as summary of our findings:

Summary A—

Total church membership	3,911,612
Gain in membership	52,722
Total number of preachers	26,236
Total number of churches	24,575
Total number of schools	21,614
Total number enrolled in Daily Vacation Bible Schools	6,544
Total number enrolled in Sunday schools	1,301,555
Total number of W. M. S.	9,208
Total enrolled in the W. M. S.	138,120
Total number B. T. U.'s	13,654

Summary B—

Total value of church property, including parsonages	$110,116,655
Average value of church property per church	4,552 19
Average number of members per church	168
Average number of members per preacher	147

We wish to express our appreciation to the leaders of our National Baptist Convention, moderators of associations, presidents of conventions, and secretaries, for the very friendly and cooperative way in which they have aided us. We could not have done whatever we have accomplished without their aid. If this Department is to continue to reflect credit and occupy a place of recognition among other denominations of this country, we must have their support. We are taking this opportunity to urge every secretary of an association, leaders of associations and conventions, to see to it that a copy of your minutes is filed with the Statistician. If this is not done, in 1946 when the U. S. Survey of religious bodies shall be made, we will find ourselves greatly embarrassed.

I wish to express my candid opinion and appreciation for the very fine leadership given by our President, Dr. D. V. Jemison. He has served in such a way as to give us faith in the future of our Convention. We have also found him frank, but fair in his decisions and opinions. As I have traveled throughout this country, I have been pleased with the fine response of the lists to his leadership. We pledge to the National Baptist Convention its leadership the best we have in promoting its interest, the cherishing its ideals; and an unflinching loyalty to her great conventional objectives. With faith in God, and a cleavage to the teachings of God's word, we go forward, giving our best as in the past for you.

Respectfully submitted,

ROLAND SMITH

BENEFIT BOARD REPORT

Mr. President, Officers and Messengers of the National Baptist Convention of the United States of America, Inc., Greetings:

Permit me first to express my personal appreciation for the encouragement, support and assistance given this department over the period of four years since my election at Los Angeles, California in 1937. Although it has been a very difficult one, I am happy to state at this time, the future for the Board now, seems brighter than ever before in all of its history. One of the main reasons for this, and perhaps the greatest is, the impartial and spirited support given by our present Chairman, Dr. D. V. Jemison, who has shown at every turn of the road that he is determined to do something tangible about the dependent and aged ones among us who have given their lives and time to the work of the Christian church.

By this time it is not strange for any one of us to realize that this is one of the most trying times for all the work of the Boards of the Convention. For some time past, all of us have been concerned about our dependents of the denomination, and have been studying and making an attempt to do something about it. But due to pressing obligations facing the General Church and the very dilatory way in which we have gone about handling all of our departments, we have not gotten as far ahead as some of us would like. However, today we sense the need of relief assistance to our brethren more than ever before and the time is sufficiently ripe to put the machinery of our church in fit operation to bring about these desired results.

Today, with world conflicts facing us at every point, with the sure promise of a serious economic backwash to come quickly without hesitation. Right now as we move swiftly toward the inevitable hour we are sure to realize that we are being rapidly built up for a great let down, not only economically but also morally and spiritually, and that without remedy, the next quarter of a century, and the days to follow this great war we do not hope but for the worst at its best. There will be much need and there will also be a great opportunity for the stronger ones of us to prove our consciousness of the obligation in this direction which our present maladjusted social status will securely place at the door of the church. To plan now to give relief to our own is the least that we can do and still be called Christian.

In these brief years we have been studying and working on pensions to the technique of their operations with diligence but also with difficulty. Right now we have come to the conclusion that the time necessary to build sufficient reserves in order that we might grant pensions to our workers is too long and tedious and what we really suffer, most of all, is relief which can be granted to some of the less fortunate ones, who have given themselves to the church and for some reasons have not been able to provide themselves with individual needs to match their declining years.

In the light of these foregoing conclusions there is now in the department another proposal drafted by the secretary. A plan which promises to meet just exactly these needs. The proposal has been carefully prepared and has been read by the President and many other leaders of the Convention who feel that it is one which can be successfully operated and which will be beneficial to all whom it is the policy to cover. At a convenient time, it is the wish that this paper will be granted a reading before the Board of Directors of the Convention and the proper study and consideration be given thereto. To those of us who have sketched the proposal in the Baptist Voice a few features which may refresh our understanding are here outlined as follows:

1. State operation and supervision on a state unit plan.
2. All inclusive age limits.
3. Both ministerial and laymen, also wives and children coverage.
4. Death benefit feature based upon the assessment plan.
5. Church, organization, auxiliaries and non-church groups participation.

If our workers are to receive assistance and support which they deserve, only our denomination must do it and the sooner we convince ours as well as others that we have settled down to this task alone the greater will be their appreciation of us and the work which it is ours to do in this day and present generation.

RALPH W. RILEY, Secretary.

EDUCATIONAL BOARD REPORT

President Jemison, Officers and Members:

After 34 years service as Assistant Secretary of the National Baptist Convention, and to come to you today in a new role as your Educational Secretary, makes me feel strange and out of place in this new office. It was really a new office by name, prestige and fame, having been kept in the intrepid, brilliant and fiery Chairman, Dr. Calvin Perkins, who served in a dual capacity and kept the banner aloft until this day.

We are pleased and happy to greet you at this hour to render an account of our stewardship. We are indebted to President Jamison, Chairman Perkins, and a large number of pastors who received us gladly in a liberal manner and made substantial offerings to our work.

President and Moderators have given space for the Educational Board led the way in contributions. Dr. J. R. Jamison, President of Arkansas, B. M. and E. Convention, followed by President J. B. Burdett, of the E. and E. Convention of Texas, President E. W. Perry of Oklahoma, President T. S. Saunders of Indiana, and President A. A. Cosey, of Mississippi, and General W. L. Rhodes, St. Louis, Missouri. These names set a high standard to make it possible for my first report.

An itemized report will be found in special sheet to be distributed to churches and individuals who have assisted us in finances. Our entire staff is devoted wholly in building up this Board to take its rightful place in rank and file of Negro Baptists and the Christian world.

The cause of Christian Education is dear to our heart. A sainted man in my early years paved the way for me in a Christian School. To do work more effectively, we resigned our last pastorate at Mossey Memorial Baptist Church of St. Louis, Mo., a beautiful brick edifice located at 6th and Finley Avenue. We were successful in uniting this congregation with the St. Luke Baptist Church, an unprecedented thing in the Baptist history of St. Louis.

The education of the rising generation is of vital importance to both church and state. The Word of God is the only valid sanction of sound moral and secular education is not sufficient to secure the welfare or safety of souls.

Rome had more culture and refinement when she fell, than she had in prime.

The shaggy demons of the wilderness who trampled our Rome's civilization were more moral than Rome.

The "Golden Age" of Grecian and Roman culture was the foulest civilization and impending destruction. A training of the head without the heart and conscience creates the most accomplished rogues, dangerous mobsters, and a race of demons.

The archangel, Michael, and the archdevil, Lucifer, had the same intelligence and attainments, but the fidelity of one and the disobedience of the other, made Heaven and Hell.

Unless knowledge ripens the moral force, it becomes the tool of selfishness and sin. Corrupted intelligence is worse than misled ignorance. Knowledge perverted is misused power.

Give the printing press to vicious men, and they only do harm; that true in every walk of life. But on the other hand, give the printing press into the hands of religious men and women, and they will make this world a world of righteousness.

To this end we have gone forth to help stay the awful tides of sin, pride and avarice, and to establish a foundation of righteousness, for a Christian civilization is the seat of human government and the bulwark of civilization. We herewith submit our first Annual Report:

States wherein we have labored; namely, Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Tennessee, Texas, Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois, Michigan, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Louisiana, Mississippi, Arkansas, Indiana.

Thanking you for your cooperation and soliciting your prayers so that we may reach our goal of $15,000.00 for Christian Education, so that we may be able in our objectives to give $5,000.00 for the National Baptist Theological Seminary at Nashville; $5,000.00 for various schools affiliated with the Convention; and $5,000.00 for scholarships and maintenance of our Educational Board. Kindly open doors for our inspirational services and Bible studies. Our regional directors and special workers and pro-rata for each state will appear in special sheet with an itemized report of all money received from churches, associations, and individuals, and said printed reports will be distributed among the churches. Praying that we have fuller cooperation in that our Board will take its rightful place as we "go through the gates, setting up a standard for the people."

Proceedings

WEDNESDAY—September 9

Morning Session

The Young People's Department of the Woman's Convention, Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, opened their Seventeenth Annual Session on Wednesday, September 9, 1942, at 9 a. m. in the Ellis Auditorium, Memphis, Tenn.

Mrs. L. L. Craig, Georgia, National Director of the Young People's Department, took charge of the meeting. She was assisted by Mrs. Etta Versa Frye, District of Columbia, Eastern Director; and Miss Primrose Funches, Illinois, Western Director.

The devotionals were conducted by Mrs. J. L. Frazier. The general theme of our Convention was, "Behold I Have Set Before Thee an Open Door," Revelation 3:8. Our theme song: "Give of Your Best to the Master." The Young People sang, "How Firm a Foundation" and "Lift Him Up." While softly humming, "Lord, I Want to Be a Christian in My Heart," sentence prayers were given.

Following devotions, the general organization of the Convention was held. The national director introduced the regional, state, and district directors. Enrolment of the various members were welcomed. Mrs. Mildred M. Tate, acting Dean of the Missionary School, Detroit, Michigan, made remarks.

At this time the group adjourned to reassemble in the Woman's Convention to hear the welcome address and missionary sermon. The minister who preached the missionary sermon said:

"We must take part in world affairs. We must start early in church training. We must take our example from Christ who arose from the dead in spite of the opposition of unbelievers."

At the close of the missionary sermon, the young people reconvened in their own department for further organization. The Memorial Service was then conducted by Mrs. Etta Versa Frye. While softly humming "Going Home," the names of departed workers were given. The morning session then adjourned.

Afternoon Session

The Young People's Department met in joint session with the Woman's Convention for the afternoon session, where welcome exercises were held. The welcome on behalf of the State of Tennessee was given by Mrs. Aquilla Henderson, of Tennessee, who expressed hope that this would be a great Convention because it met at a special time. Miss Marietta Allen gave the welcome on behalf of the City of Memphis. Miss Sarah Columbus, of Louisiana, a member of the Young People's Department, gave the response. This closed the afternoon session.

THURSDAY—September 10

Morning Session

A feature of the Convention this year was study classes. The first study period was on Thursday, September 10, in our morning session. Our first teacher, Mrs. F. D. Stone, led us in study on—"Personal Service." She said, "Personal Service embraces contact with God and his children."

Problems of Christians:

1. Poverty: We cannot bring the gospel of Christ to the poor unless we relieve their poverty.
2. Housing: One-half of the world lives in inadequate homes.
3. Sickness: Personal Service can include carrying food and clothing, as well as the gospel to those that are sick.
4. Mothers and children: Bring your children up in careful environment. Lead them into Christian ways early in life.
5. Soul-Winning: It is the chief aim of Personal Service. God is efficient for all needs; for he said, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

Our next class teacher, Mrs. C. B. Shangle, led us in discussion of: "Mission Study."

Every Baptist church should have a missionary society. The missionary program develops stewardship. A church without a definite missionary program is self-centered. Without an outlet enthusiasm dies. Men as well as women should embrace a missionary program. It is open to all. Young people should realize there are many unsaved, and do missionary work. For a missionary society to survive, it must have soul-winning prayers.

Mrs. C. B. Shangle concluded by saying: "Study to show thyself approved of God; for education without Christ is the most dangerous thing in the world."

Our third class study leader, Mrs. George E. Hollis, discussed with us—"Stewardship."

"Christian Stewardship means recognizing God's ownership. Through stewardship we send the gospel around the world. It is urgent that through stewardship we make sacrifices to show our love for God, for our Savior, Jesus Christ, and for dying men and women."

At the conclusion of our class study period we were led in devotions by Mrs. M. Tate. She said that worship is an important phase of the work of the church. Spiritual food is needed most in life.

Miss Tu Chien Juan, of the United Christian Council, a native of China, was then introduced to the Young People. In her remarks she said:

"The future of the world is in the hands of the young people who are ready to help. The young people of India and China are working together for the salvation of the world. The home is the foundation of the world. It is only through Christian homes that Christianity can be spread throughout the world."

The morning session then adjourned to the Woman's Convention to hear the annual address of Mrs. Layten, President of the Woman's Convention; and Miss Nannie H. Burroughs, Corresponding Secretary. Mrs. Layten said:

"Negro young people should take character training after the women of our race because nowhere are there women of finer character than the women of our race."

In her address, Miss Burroughs said:

"We are meeting at a day when the nation is mobilizing all of its armed forces to meet the demands of a warring world. We are meeting at a day when God expects Christians to put on the whole armor. This is not the day for weak men and women but the day when the nations of the earth must get on God's side or lose out."

Afternoon Session

In our afternoon session we were led in devotions by our Director with the singing of "Count on Me." While softly humming "I Need Thee Every Hour," sentence prayers were given.

The discussion of "Personal Enlistment" then followed, led by Mrs. J. M. Mattox, Tennessee; and Miss Dorothy Meekins, Maryland, who said:

"We must show ourselves friendly and must enlist others in our community. Advertise the work of Christ by inviting strangers into our meetings."

Open discussion of these remarks was then made; challenging statements such as these were made:

"We must pray earnestly, appealing to God for our power to influence others. We must go into the hospitals and render service. Let smaller children help by giving them something to do."

Mrs. Craig then showed some oilcloth stuffings made by small children in Gainesville, Fla. She also showed much of the literature on display and urged everyone to purchase it.

For our stewardship period which followed, Rev. George Kelsey was the forum speaker. He remarked:

"Christianity teaches no private ownership; we are stewards of what we possess. The history of stewardship shows that in the beginning, which is called the period of innocency, all resources were free. However, after the fall of man private property came into being. By divine ordinance we ought to be good stewards because it was demanded by Jesus' resurrection. Some problems of Stewardship:

"Social Reason—good stewards are needed to relieve the inequalities of opportunity and also the inequalities in capacity to appropriate the necessities of life."

"Philanthropy is going out of existence because the older philanthropists are no longer active and their children are not interested."

"Selfishness and sin among ourselves, also, is a hindrance. Our people spend too much on luxuries and not enough on our poorer people."

An open discussion of Rev. George Kelsey's lecture then followed led by Miss Edith Preston. The afternoon session then adjourned.

FRIDAY—September 11

Morning Session

In our study class on Friday morning, Mrs. F. D. Stone, further emphasized the subject of "Personal Service."

1. Make a survey of your community, jotting down the needs of the people. Use an area of four or five miles.
2. Care for the shut-ins, crippled, and elderly.
3. Decide what's best for the poor.
4. Plan cottage prayer meetings.
5. Organize Sunday schools wherever possible.
6. Organize Bible classes for Sunday school teachers.
7. Organize mothers' clubs.
8. Conduct education against narcotics.

"Remember always the paramount thing in Personal Service is soul-winning."

Mrs. C. E. Shangle further emphasized the use of various mission study books.

Mrs. Armstrong then spoke on enlistment: "Enlistment is a matter of vision. Our churches should be open on Sunday night and should offer a varied program. Our Young People's Training Union should be strengthened. The world can be and must be won for Christ."

We were then led in a physical education demonstration by Mrs. Maud R. Holt, Physical Director, Oklahoma. Several demonstrations were given which will prove helpful in our own meetings.

By request, a playlet, "Timothy's Tithes," was then given, which was very well received.

The state, local and district directors were then introduced; followed by the introduction and addresses of the Junior President, Miss Rachael Choates, of the Young People's Department, and by Mrs. J. M. Mattox, of the Junior Matrons.

Mrs. Maud R. Holt then gave a physical education demonstration. A candle light installation service under the direction of Mrs. Willie Spear, Tennessee, then followed.

Night Session

Rev. Kelsey's address was followed by "The Flower Pageant," conducted by the young people of various states supervised by state directors. The first prize, a beautiful quilt, was won by Michigan.

The Queen Pageant, under auspices of the matrons of various states then followed. Mrs. J. M. Mattox, President of the Matrons, presided. Although Tennessee won first prize, she kindly declined the prize in favor of Florida, second prize winner.

OF THE

Mortgage Burning Session

WOMAN'S CONVENTION

MRS. S. W. LAYTEN, President

Nashville, Tennessee, December 10, 1942

This celebrated occasion under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary Convention to the National Baptist Convention, Inc., was duly called to order by the President, Mrs. S. W. Layten, Philadelphia, Pa., promptly at 2:30 p. m., on the above named date. The march of more than one hundred ladies from many States of the Union, garbed in white robes, around the circular corridors and down the many aisles of the spacious Ryman Auditorium to the stage of "Onward, Christian Soldiers," headed by the Boy Scouts Organization of Nashville, was indeed a Spectacular Affair, with Mrs. W. A. Townsend serving as Director, and Mrs. E. W. D. Isaac, Sr., Leader. The long line of march filed to the stage where they were assembled to give a royal salute to the U. S. Flag, and also to the Christian Flag; and at this period a snapshot of the group was taken by Dr. and Mrs. T. T. Lovelace of Chicago. Mrs. Mary H. Flowers of Chattanooga, Tenn., offered a very fervent and effectual prayer. The opening remarks were made by Mrs. W. A. Townsend, who acted as Mistress of Ceremonies during the Welcome Exercises. Words of Greeting were given by Mrs. L. G. Jordan, whose message served to inspire her many hearers whose hearts, already, were imbued with thankfulness over the accomplishment that had brought us to Nashville, our National Baptist Headquarters. The words of response were emphatically given by Mrs. Ida M. Pope of Detroit, Michigan. The song: "Touch Me Lord Jesus," was beautifully sung by Mrs. Elnora Townsend of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, after which Mrs. Townsend presented Mrs. Layten for her opening message. The most casual observer could feel the tenseness of the occasion. President Layten, in very choice language, set forth the real spirit and attitude of the Woman's Convention toward the program of the National Baptist Convention, and expressed the gratefulness of the women present to witness the most eventful and momentous occasion in the history of Baptists—the burning of the mortgage on the finest Publishing House in our great country. The address was up to the standard in uniqueness and timeliness, which gave the curious-minded ones a more serene mood for the great things that were to follow. At this time Finance Chairman, Mrs. J. C. Mapp of Chicago, Illinois, made the important announcement that all committees which had to collect finance for this session, which is an extended session of the Memphis Convention in September, as well as the Mortgage Burning Session of the Convention, would have Headquarters at the Morris Memorial Publishing House Building on 4th Ave. and Cedar St. An address, entitled "The History and Work of the Publishing House Committee of the Woman's Convention," was fluently delivered by Mrs. Ida A. Drew of Helena Ark., who has served as National Chairman of this Committee since its organization; hence, it goes without saying that Mrs. Drew acquitted herself as one equal to the occasion. Her address was both authentic and informational. Reminiscences or "Tales by the Wayside" were directed by Vice-President J. C. Mapp, which was but fitting, as it took a "J. C. Mapp," like an Esther of old, to forge to the front and assist Dr. A. M. Townsend to lunch drive after drive to raise funds to free our Publishing House from indebtedness, first sponsoring a Six Hundred Thousand Dollar Bond Issue, followed by a Two Hundred Thousand Dollar Memorial Campaign, and lastly, The Supplemental Effort or the March of Quarters, which succeeded in raising sufficient funds to clear our outstanding mortgage against the Publishing House. Her outstanding aides, who traversed all sections of our country in the interest of the Publishing House were: Mesdames Alpha O. Moseley of West Virginia; Ida A. Drew of Arkansas; Edna B. Bronson of Michigan; Mayne B. Jones of Arkansas, and Henrietta M. Gibbs of Alabama. These speakers depicted many interesting scenes during the darkest hours of the campaign as well as displaying some humor which made the "Tales by the Wayside" serve as an eyeopener to some of the guests present who had never known of the obstinate attitude of our constituency toward our greatest Denominational Agency.

A musical selection was given by the Convention Chorus, directed by Miss L. E. Campbell of Memphis, Tennessee. This was followed by a Symposium:

"Our Publishing House"

- (a) "Need of Literature for a Race"—Mrs. E. B. Bronson, Detroit, Mich.
- (b) "Why Our Publishing House"—Mrs. Maude J. Brockway, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.
- (c) "An Inspiration and Legacy for Youth"—Mrs. L. L. Craig, Atlanta, Ga.
- (d) "How Shall We Present It in Our State"—Mrs. Ruth L. Bennett, Chester, Pa.
- (e) "Suggestions to Secure Cooperation of Pastors and State Presidents"—Mrs. J. M. C. Amos, Dallas, Texas.
- (f) "How May State Directors Advertise Our Publishing House"—Mrs. Lucille Powell, Bainbridge, Georgia.
- (g) "Why the West Needs the Publishing House"—Mrs. R. L. Pius, Los Angeles, Calif.; Mrs. I. M. Coggs, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Each speaker convinced the vast audience that she had given particular thought to the respective phase of the topic, which was amply followed by thrilling brief messages of the value of our Publishing House, coming from Mrs. Henrietta M. Gibbs of Montgomery, Ala.; Mrs. Annette H. Officer of East St. Louis, Illinois; Mrs. Viola T. Hill of Orlando, Florida; and Mrs. O. C. Maxwell of New York, N. Y. The celebrated occasion was marked for its grandeur, jubilation, tensely, solemnity, and reverence. Each listener sat in rapt attention to observe every feature in this the most stupendous achievement of the National Baptist Convention. The strong and petite women in attendance in this celebration shared with our brethren in interest, devotion and financial support to see the culminating apex of our labors for approximately two decades. Music, "Count On Me," led by Mrs. E. W. D. Isaac, Sr. of Nashville, Tennessee, which bespoke the sentiment of every loyal woman constituent in our denomination.

REPORTS:—

- (a) Ministers' Wives, Mrs. M. O. Boss, Detroit, Mich., Chm. (partial report) $60 50
 - (b) New Organizations, Mrs. A. L. Johnson, West Palm Beach, Fla., Chairman 12 00
 - (c) B. T. U. Committee, Mrs. E. D. McGowan, Edwards, Miss., Chairman 2 50
- (d) The last feature for the Woman's Period was the "March of Dimes," headed by Mrs. E. W. D. Isaac, Sr., chanting "The Singing Dimes Chorus" to the tune of "Bringing in the Sheaves." Each participant marched to the table and left her report of dimes. (See report.)

A special committee was appointed to select a token for Dr. Townsend, after which the Enrollment and Finance Committees reported that Four Thousand Dollars had been raised in this special session by the Woman's Convention (Cash and Bonds). President Layten announced the brief meeting of the Executive Committee, after which we stood adjourned till the evening session when the mortgage-burning exercises would be conducted. The women delegates assembled were guests to a very delightful repast to suit the fanciful taste of the most scrupulous one, tendered us by the Ministers' Wives and City Union of Nashville, held in the Solarium on the 5th floor of the Publishing House Building.

BOARD MEETINGS

Atlanta

In response to Call issued by the President of the National Baptist Convention, Incorporated, Dr. D. V. Jemison, members of the Board of Directors of the Woman's Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, Inc., met in the Ebenezer Baptist Church, Atlanta, Ga., Tuesday morning, June 23, 1942, at eleven o'clock. Following a brief devotional period, Dr. Jemison extended greetings, expressed his interest in the welfare of the Woman's Auxiliary and pledged his close cooperation in all endeavors for the good of the organization.

President Jemison stated that the meeting had been called for the purpose of discussing several matters pertaining to the well-being and progress of the Auxiliary. He presented "Read and Add," a pamphlet which had been compiled and published by the corresponding secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary, and stated that he had referred it to the auditor of the National Baptist Convention, requesting him to check it, make report and recommendation on same, in view of the fact that it (the pamphlet) alluded to the finances of the Woman's Convention, an auxiliary body of the Parent organization.

After a brief comment by President Layten upon all these matters, Dr. Jemison presented Mr. J. B. Blayton, Auditor, who gave the following detailed report and submitted his "Suggestions for Improvement of Fiscal System":

Atlanta, Georgia, June 23, 1943

President D. V. Jemison, B. D., D. D.,
 National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.,
 Atlanta, Georgia

My dear President Jemison:

According to your instructions to do so, and in compliance with the by-laws of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc. in this regard I have reviewed the minutes of the Woman's Convention, Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., for the years 1937 to 1940, inclusive. I have also examined the reports and records of the treasurer of the Woman's Convention for that period.

In the course of my investigation there was furnished me a copy of a mimeographed pamphlet, "Read and Add," dated February 7, 1942, bearing the name but not the signature of Nannie H. Burroughs. Miss Burroughs is Corresponding Secretary of the Woman's Convention according to the records and reports made available to me.

My investigation convinces me, among other things, that the treasurer of the Woman's Convention did not have a clear understanding of her obligation to submit her records annually to the certified public accountant elected by the Board of Directors of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., for examination and audit. Notwithstanding this misunderstanding, my review convinces me that all funds entrusted to her for the period of this review have been accounted for in accordance with provisions of the by-laws and resolutions adopted by the Woman's Convention. This examination coincides as to time with published minutes. I am also convinced, however, that practically no attention has been given to conformity with the by-laws and resolutions of the Parent Body. At the same time no evidence is found where a deliberate attempt was ever made to violate them.

It is my opinion that the by-laws of the Woman's Convention should be studied by the legal advisers of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., and its Woman's Convention subsidiary. Out of this review, I am sure would come suggestions for revisions leading to conformity. Such a study would also make possible some improvements in the language of the document thereby affording dignity and clarity which could not be successfully challenged or ridiculed.

Investigation shows that there are numerous errors in the published minutes of the Woman's Convention. Most of these errors arose out of lack of proper editing. In some cases partial reports were inserted. In some cases the treasurer reports receipts and disbursements also reported by the chairman (or committee) of the "Financial Set-up." This gives the impression of duplication. Proper accounting records and reporting would relieve this confusion.

The statistical report, sometimes called the "Statistical Table," and again, the "Financial Report of Woman's Convention," and usually occupying the last printed pages in the published minutes, purports to summarize income by conventions, states, source-purposes, and the like, and often contains clerical errors. Some are errors in vertical addition. Some arise out of faulty horizontal summarization. Some errors which apparently exist do not exist in fact. These illusions often arise out of poor horizontal alignment (probably by the printers). Evidently this report was never intended to be a financial report in the sense that that term is ordinarily used. It is clear, nevertheless, that this report if presented at all, should conform in every respect with those statements and reports which it seeks to summarize.

Except for the faulty income analysis contained in the "Statistical Table," no adequate break-down of receipts according to sources is undertaken. Even cash brought forward from year to the next is at times found to be included in the lump figure "Receipts." There is also no classification of disbursements according to purpose. Only the names of recipients and amounts are given. This does not mean that the table does not show what each payment is for, it means that no summary according to the kind of expenditure undertaken.

A review of sundry reports filed by the Corresponding Secretary of the Woman's Convention reveals many errors of the same nature as those made by other officials. As in other cases, we are of the opinion that poor editing and some lack of understanding of "brought forward" gave rise to the highly inaccurate appearance reflected by these reports.

Attached is a copy of a brief outline which we have discussed with proper officers. We believe that if this outline is followed, accounting for and reporting finance will be made more simple.

Our conclusions are:

1. That we found no deliberate insubordination to exist on the part of officers of the Woman's Auxiliary to properly constituted authority.
2. That we were unable to find that the funds of the Woman's Auxiliary have been used for other than the proposed intended by that body.
3. That the published minutes of the sessions of the Woman's Auxiliary often contain clerical errors, extremely poor form and often reflect badly on the organization for these reasons.
4. That there is now a genuine desire on the part of the officers of the Woman's Auxiliary to follow instructions with respect to the handling of funds and the reporting of same.

Respectfully submitted,

Suggestions for Improvement of Fiscal System

Submitted by Jesse B. Blayton, L. L. B., C. P. A.
As Auditor for the Convention June 23, 1942

It is suggested that:

1. The auditor be commissioned to prepare form on which all persons receiving funds for the Convention may report the same. Funds received would be sent to the treasurer of the Woman's Convention along with a copy of the form. One copy of the report would be sent to the secretary of the Woman's Convention, one copy to the secretary of the Parent Organization, and one copy to the office of the auditor.
2. The auditor be commissioned to prepare disbursement voucher blanks on which to authorize payment of funds. These vouchers would be prepared in the office of the secretary of the Woman's Convention. She would retain one copy of the voucher. Three copies of it would be sent to the president of the Woman's Convention for her approval. The president would retain one copy and send the other two to the office of the auditor who would determine if the item is in harmony with the budget, and whether there are funds for the purpose set out in the voucher. He (the auditor) would retain one copy, and send the other one to the treasurer of the Woman's Convention. She would issue check for the payment indicating on the face of the check the voucher number, and on the face of the voucher the check number.

3. Under the direction of the auditor, the officers of the Woman's Convention, and members of its Finance Committee, prepare annually a budget which would anticipate the income from various sources, and allocate that income for the various purposes of the Convention.
4. Adequate cash and accounting records be installed in the office of the treasurer of the Woman's Convention, and in the office of the secretary of that unit.
5. Progress reports be filed with the presidents of the Parent Body and the Woman's Convention at least quarterly showing exactly funds received and disbursed so far during the fiscal period. Copies of these progress reports would also be filed with the principal officers of both the Parent Body and the Woman's Convention.
6. All published reports of the Woman's Convention be edited by the auditor of the Convention.

Concluding his report and suggestions, the auditor stated that the system called the "Financial Set-up" is good and can be carried out in a very satisfactory manner if all members of the organization will cooperate. He also commended the Woman's Convention for the way in which it had handled its finance previous to adopting the system.

Following a discussion involving the report of the treasurer, made at Louisville, in December, 1941, a detailed explanation was given by the director of the Financial Set-up relating to the checking, the counting, the banking of all monies of the Convention. A vote of approval and confidence was given the director following her statement.

The motion passed that the Constitution be so amended that the corresponding secretary become a member of the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors.

President Jemison requested that the Woman's Auxiliary would pay $2,000 to the Mortgage Burning campaign and President Layten assured him that the recommendation would be approved by the Woman's Auxiliary.

It was voted that a telegram of sympathy be sent to the family of the late Dr. T. O. Fuller, and an offering was taken to cover cost of same.

It was voted to give a formal expression of thanks (by standing) to President Jemison for the manner in which he presided over the meeting and to President Layten for her fine spirit of cooperation.

A vote of thanks was given Mr. Blayton, auditor, for the report so splendidly submitted.

The Board adjourned to meet Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock in the Lecture Room of the Carnegie Library.

Annual Address

DEAR CO-WORKERS:

I bring you greetings after a year's separation. I had the privilege of meeting some of you during the year when attending meetings, conferences, etc.

Three times Memphis has extended invitation to the National Baptist Convention to come and hold its annual meetings there, and three times the National Baptist Convention has accepted the invitation and that's why we are here today. There is an old superstition that the third time the same thing is repeated in toto, it is said to become charmed. We shall observe what obtains or follows our third visit to Memphis. If there follows a charm—and we expect inspirational benefits and blessings—may the charm be re-consecration, growing in grace or all that we need to strengthen our lives for Christian living and service.

Meetings Attended

The first of these was a continued session and Board meeting of the National Baptist Convention, held in Newark, New Jersey, December 4th and 5th. This meeting was well attended, the principal action of the women's meeting was the presentation of and partial appointments of the Christian Advance Movement. Following this meeting, I have had two conferences pertaining to the Advance Movement with Doctors Talley and Townsend.

On January 9-15, I attended the meetings of the Home and Foreign Missions Councils of America held in Trenton, N. J. The representatives in serve on these boards are: Home Mission Board, Mrs. I. M. Cogg, of Wisconsin; and Mrs. Payne, of New York; on Foreign Missions, Mrs. O. C. Maxwell, your president being a member of the board.

I regret that I could not attend the first meeting and organization of the United Council of Church Women held in Chicago. However, I requested Vice President Mapp to be present as an auditor and make report from this meeting. We are members of this Council, your president has been appointed a member of the Constituting Committee. Neither was I able to attend the meeting of the Christian Advance Movement immediately following the meeting of the Council in Chicago.

Regional and Other Meetings

There were four Regional meetings this year. I attended three, and to these meetings were carried the National Baptist program and its purposes, etc. At each meeting there was a presentation and explanation of the Christian Advance Movement, which in each case was well accepted.

On March 17th and 18th, the Southeastern and Southwestern Regional meeting was held in Tupelo, Miss., a beautiful little city. The meeting was well attended, official staff of the National Baptist Convention was well represented, and we experienced fine fellowship, the program accepted, the finest kind of hospitality extended to the delegates. Meetings were held in the Washington High School. We were welcomed by Professor J. H. Rateliff. We were very happy to go to Mississippi because among our most loyal constituents are the people of this state. The financial report for the women was $121.00.

In April, two Regional meetings were held (we hope our brethren in the future will not put these meetings so close): the Western and Pacific States held in Des Moines, Iowa, April 17 and 18; the other in Detroit, Michigan, April 27 to 30. Very fine arrangements for our reception were made in Des Moines, Iowa as only Rev. G. W. Robinson and his corps of workers can do. Mrs. Ashford and Attorney Rush excelled as hostesses—they know how. We were happy to be the house guests of Attorney Rush and to have her presence in our meeting. A fine program was arranged. The financial report of the women was $95.05. This money, as are all moneys raised in Regional meetings, was turned over to the National Baptist Convention's Finance Commission.

In Detroit, where the people will not be outdone, we had another informative and highly spiritual meeting. President Pope, Mesdames Ross, Mattie Anderson, Grimes and others had well planned for our coming and secured the co-operation of the churches of Des Moines, so that we were amply provided with places to hold our meetings. Here the women reported, financially, $263.75.

Christian Advance Movement

April 8th and 9th, your president, with the previously appointed persons on the Commission of Christian Advance, was called with others to a conference in Nashville. The two days spent were among the finest in religious instruction and meditation among our leaders I have ever attended. Presentations of the C. A. M., made by Dr. Talley, dean of Religious Education of the Sunday School Publishing Board, and Dr. A. M. Townsend, Secretary of the Sunday School Publishing Board, and Rev. Dr. J. Q. Schisler. Those present were spiritually edified, informed, and felt the urge to go forward in this move dedicated to a plan for reviving the church and in some way carrying Christ's message to every individual, every home, every church, every community.

State Conventions Attended

By special invitation of Mrs. Maude J. Brockway, president of the Oklahoma Woman's Auxiliary to the State Baptist Convention of Oklahoma, I attended a most inspiring convention held in Tulsa in October. The improvement our women are making in the states on religious study, development, adoption of National program is remarkable. We are pleased to see a general adoption of the National program. Mrs. Brockway is doing excellent and quite advanced work in Oklahoma, both in religious and club or social work. I must commend the young women of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority of Oklahoma for their recognition of the fine service done by a woman of their own race in the selection of Mrs. Brockway as an ideal type of fine womanhood during their annual session dedicated to the study of Finer Womanhood. I desire to call the attention of other young women to this action, advising them to study the lives and characters of the fine women in our race who have sacrificed for the social structure upon which they now stand and the superstructure they hope to erect for the development of our race and the further advance of Negro women in the new era facing us.

We thank Mrs. Brockway for her invitation and the royal way in which she entertained us, and in this I include the dear women associated with her in her State Convention.

South Carolina State Convention

I am happy to have been an invited guest of the Woman's Auxiliary of the South Carolina Baptist Convention this year. In the formative period of the Woman's Convention, South Carolina was very prominent. We shall ever hold in high regard and memory the presence and splendid service of Mrs.

Corra Boykin, a former state president of South Carolina. At her death she was succeeded by the present incumbent, Mrs. Mabel K. Howard, who is a fine executive. We have missed the fellowship of these dear South Carolina women for a number of years. Meeting this Convention was great pleasure and inspiration to me. Mrs. Howard is doing fine service in her state; she is especially interested in Education and Foreign Mission work. We hope that this visit, renewing of friendship, will result in mutual good to both organizations. We shall look forward to having Sister Howard with us at the December annual board meeting. Divine Grace, she promises to attend this meeting. My entertainment here, as in other places, was all that could be desired for comfort and happiness. Here I was the guest of Mrs. Ashbury's home.

I regret that last year I was unable to accept the invitation to the Mississippi State Convention, but did avail myself of this privilege in July of this year. The convention met in the beautiful town of Clarksdale. It was well attended. The church in which the meeting was held was pleasant and comfortable in its appointments. Mrs. E. D. McGowan, state president, presided with fine command. The program was interesting, following closely the pattern of the National Convention, which was gratifying. Now before had it been my opportunity to witness a State program embracing the program of the Department of Church Music of the National Convention, and I desire to state that I do not think a program could have been more appropriately constructed. This program showed a comprehensive understanding of what we are endeavoring to do in teaching the importance of music in worship and its proper use. The discussions were bearing upon the appropriate and proper kinds of music in worship. The abuse and distorting of Negro music in jazz time were presented in an able manner as I have never heard before, and we hope there will be a representative of the Mississippi Convention here on our music program Sunday night. (I urge this convention to see to it that this meeting is well attended. Its purposes are vital.) Mrs. McGowan and women of this convention saw to every detail of our comfort and happiness. I have never been more royally entertained than in Clarksdale. Mrs. Lethia Craig, director of the Young People's Department, was also a guest at this convention and together we shared the courtesies and hospitality of the Mississippi women. I shall hope to go again.

On both trips to Mississippi, I had the opportunity of stopping over in Memphis and conferring with the Local Committee about the preparation for the entertainment of this convention. On the first trip I was the guest of Mrs. M. J. Owen in her beautiful home. On the second trip, the guest of Mrs. M. Williams, who is chairman of the Local Committee. These ladies, assisted by our indomitable Lucie Campbell, made my stay most pleasant and we had most profitable conferences. I gave this committee some suggestions which I thought would be helpful to them. It was my pleasure while here to help these good women make contact with leading white Baptist women of the city. The result of this conference and the work of these splendid women we see and are enjoying today.

Annual Board Meeting

The Annual Board Meeting of the National Baptist Convention, with its Woman's Auxiliary, met in Atlanta, Ga. The board meeting was well attended. I am pleased to report to you that Mr. Blayton, of J. B. Blayton and Company, auditor of the National Baptist Convention, gave a most satisfactory and complimentary statement of the financial proceedings of the Woman's Convention. There were no caustic criticisms (though some mistakes were shown) but statements of the fact that the women had done remarkably well, having had no special direction nor experience in financial matters. He also stated that the present plan we have adopted, known as the "Financial Set-up," is definitely a well organized plan and he thinks it an excellent system to continue.

We hope that our sisters will accept this advice, and stop murmuring, and realize that we have been initiating a new system under the chairmanship of the President Mapp; trying to regulate and systematize our financial work in order to avoid mistakes and confusion. Our delegations are so large and many are not trained in methods, and the effort has been made to subdivide and arrange a more perfect plan for registration of delegates and receiving of money. This has been most difficult, but I think we are getting it done. I also realize that reforms or any new system is difficult at first, and sometimes most unacceptable, but when such changes are presented by experts and with the intention of doing the finest good to all, we should cooperate and try these new things out; and when this is done we will see the best of systematizing.

Christian Advance Movement

The National Baptist Convention, through the Sunday School Publishing House, has become a constituent part of the International Council of Religious Education. Inasmuch as our denomination forms one of the largest bodies in the council, our denomination must lead and in this program. Following the address of Dr. Talley on the Advance Movement there was some discussion and suggestions were made, after which other names were added among them Miss Burroughs, corresponding secretary. The committee was appointed and ordered to meet and formulate a program for the September meeting. The following resolution was adopted: "We accept and recommend the Ten Point Program of the United Christian Advance Movement as formulated by Dr. M. A. Talley, Director of Religious Education, Sunday School Publishing Board of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., with such modifications and adaptations as the Education Commission of the Woman's Convention deems necessary."

Last Year's Recommendations

I think you will remember that last year I requested directors of departments and chairmen of committees to study their assignments; they should understand why they were made, how they are to help, for what purpose the assignments were made, how they can strengthen the purposes of the Woman's Convention, how to interest others in your department, how to secure larger cooperation in the States. You will have to study and better inform yourself about your jobs, if you would have something new and worth while to pass on to those cooperating with you. I requested that you would arrange our programs and send a letter to each state chairman, once a month or once a quarter, and also send me a copy of this program so that I will know our plans and be able to pass them on in board meetings and regional meetings. If you are not willing to comply with this request, then you should not accept your assignment as National Director or Chairman. I am happy to state that I have heard from some of the departments and am much impressed with the originality and inventiveness of these directors. I received from the following: New Bodies, District Conventions, Home Missions, Foreign Missions, Young People's Department, Child Welfare, Publishing House, Ministers' Wives, Enrollment, Supplies, Education, Historical and Official Staff.

The Ruby Anniversary

I requested you to observe our Fortieth Anniversary, 1940-1942 and raise $4,000 to be appropriated among the objectives of our Convention. Up to the present you have done it well. I believe, in Memphis we shall reach our goal for 1942.

Sig. 9

Publishing House

Dr. Townsend, secretary of the Sunday School Publishing Board, at a recent board meeting in Atlanta, made a marvelous and understandable report and assured us that if the pastors would carry out the Quarter Drive every church, we would be able to raise the money needed to clear off the mortgage in Memphis. President Jamison was well pleased with this report and is in hearty accord with this effort. He has faith that we will raise the amount needed and has already set December, 1942, as the time for the turning of the mortgage.

Gone Home

When the Committee on Obituary makes its report, doubtless there will be many names called of those who have finished their life's work in this world and gone home to live with God. They will be missed among the friends. I will mention a few names of those most familiar to us, who worked with us in conventional meetings and who looked forward to meeting us here.

No one, perhaps, will be missed more than our genial Rev. J. H. Branham, assistant pastor of the Olivet Baptist Church, Chicago, who labored faithfully and unselfishly with our late loved President L. K. Williams. Mr. Branham was among the most lovable characters I have ever met. In his position he was unique; there was but the one Branham. He never tried to usurp the right or place of his pastor; it was always "We'll see Dr. Williams." Dr. Williams was always preferred. He was not obsequious in this; he was loyal and true. He was loved by the Olivet congregation, for indeed he was the pastor of the flock.

His health had been failing the past few years, yet we hoped he would recover and remain awhile with us, but God knew best and called him to home where His reward awaits the faithful.

Another one we expected to meet and welcome us here in Memphis was the matchless, scholarly, cultured, consecrated statesman and preacher of the Gospel, Dr. T. O. Fuller, who was chairman of the Memphis committee planning for us. But how suddenly he was taken, in the intellectual vigor of his manhood. He anticipated meeting us here but God decided otherwise.

Dr. Fannie Kneeland, of Memphis, vice president of the Baptist Women's State Convention of Tennessee, is also among those who would have welcomed us on this occasion, but she, too, was called home. She was a strong character, one of the pioneer members of the Woman's Convention. Miss Lucie Campbell said to me, "If Doctor were living, she would be most anxious and with her spirit would overcome difficulties that the rest of us are confronting."

Following the death of Dr. Fuller, was called another brilliant star, Attorney William H. Haynes, of Chicago, jurist, citizen of great worth, and counselor of our convention. He, too, has been called home. We shall miss him. A brilliant galaxy who cannot easily be replaced in our day nor in our work. We believe the Master has said unto them, "Well done. Enter ye into the joys of thy Lord." Yet we shall miss them.

Foreign Mission Board

The Foreign Mission Board plans, at Memphis, to start a drive for One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000). Because of the war, the program of the Board has been very much altered. Supplies cannot be sent overseas hence foolstuffs, clothing and household goods must be purchased in Liberia.

at an advanced cost of about fifty per cent. Neither can missionaries be sent over from America to relieve Mrs. Davis and the other tired workers in Liberia. Because of these conditions, the Board is now using a number of trained African students and graduates of our schools. This, perhaps, is a practical plan, to use the native workers as preachers and teachers among their own people. Because it is difficult to get supplies overseas, much-needed repair work has been neglected and the erection of new buildings in great demand.

Of this $100,000 the Board plans to use $5,000 for emergencies growing out of war conditions; $50,000 for buildings; $45,000 to be used for maintenance and current needs, such as salaries, upkeep of stations, hospital, etc.

You will be happy to know that on the first of July the hospital corps was organized and re-staffed. Dr. Schnitzer is in charge. He has an assistant doctor, Mrs. Maggie Dennis, a graduate of the Lincoln Hospital, New York City, who is head nurse. She has an assistant nurse, cook, washerman, messenger, yardman, watchman, houseboy, and assistant native nurses, making a staff of sixteen workers, at present, in the hospital under most satisfactory conditions.

Dr. Adams' special desire is to keep the salaries of the missionaries, both American and native, paid in advance, because of the serious conditions confronting them. The Board is urging the increase of Monthly Regulars as well as special contributors. The Woman's Convention hopes, at this meeting, that its Foreign Mission Committee will raise a splendid amount to be appropriated for the needs mentioned.

We have been informed that the Dosumus have been released from German camps and that they sailed for Liberia some time ago.

Home Missions

Dr. Lovelace reported to us, last night, his ideas and his plans for the Home Mission Board. There is no better time to recruit for the needed work at home than now. The war conditions are reacting likewise upon this world. There are needs for church extension, for western missionaries, for repentant, for a colporteur and equipment for work among migrants. We must not lose our start in Nassau.

Again the C. A. M.

Dr. Talley, in his opening address, has presented the need and great spiritual possibilities of the Christian Advance Movement which is being started here. It is presented in two courses—one for leaders and teachers, which will be an accredited course arranged and under the direction of Dr. Talley; another an audition course for those of us who desire to listen and absorb the merits and information of this work established upon the Bible and give such information back to our homes and assimilate it among those in our missionary societies, churches and committees. The audition course is being arranged and directed by Miss Burroughs, corresponding secretary of the Woman's Convention. Mrs. Brockway will be the instructor. What the Advance Movement will mean to your church, your home, your community, depends upon you—you who are hearing these words, and the fact that you have heard them and have been with us in this meeting, "places upon you a definite responsibility." The order to you is, "Speak to my people that they go forward." The winsome call is "Follow Me!" Keep in mind to recommend the observance, in September, of Family Week and Religious Education Week.

Christian advance, the basis of which is Christian education:

"In the Home"

"With regular Bible reading and prayer, living as Christians in the family."

"In the Church"

"By increasing attendance, teaching with the direct objective for Christian discipleship."

"In the Community"

"Enlisting every person with some church, churches working together in a Christian community."

All of us have said practically these same things such as are included in the C. A. M. outline—that we must get nearer to God, must make every home a sanctuary, must set up God's altar in our homes, must religiously rear our children, must have revivals in our churches. But, not until now, has there been the united plan and effort of Christian denominations to unite and work together in carrying out Christ's commission. The future civilization of the world and the preservation of the Christian religion, which are being challenged by Nazism and paganism, depend upon our determination to fulfill the claims of the Church of Jesus. We sing, "A Charge to Keep I Have." Do we comprehend its meaning? Are we willing to accept the charge to religiously direct our homes, the supervision of our children, the utilization of our missionary societies; to teach these programs we are studying here, to women, the responsibility upon us is great! May God help us to assume it.

Why we meet in Convention today in the city of Memphis, other Americans, your boys, some of our own women, face death in the most horrible manner on all the oceans and continents of the world. They have enlisted, offering their lives, our home, our land. Liberty, my sisters, is a priceless jewel; I fear we do not realize its value.

Will Negroes Prove Patriotic in This War Is Being Questioned

The first blood shed, as we are often reminded, was that of Crispus Attucks, a Negro patriot. As the new republic began to build and flourish, we overlooked the fact that Negro slavery continued and was tolerated. Although there were those who looked upon the institution as wrong, it was suffered to remain and grow until the evils became numerous and manifested. A strong sentiment against slavery grew in the North, where slavery disappeared; but in the South it flourished and became an economic asset. Hostility grew strong between states and sections and the Secession Movement led by the South, brought on in 1861 one of the most disastrous civil wars ever waged. It may well be called a fratricidal war, for brother fought against brother, state against state, section against section. It was a holy cause, and thousands of Negroes again gave their lives in this war. At first it was a great question whether Negroes were capable to enlist in the army. Their ignorance, they having been slaves, might disqualify them; they might lose courage when confronting their former masters as antagonists on the battlefield. More than 240,000 were enlisted; thousands gave their lives along with other patriots. "In the fires of that devastating struggle was forged the assurance that within the boundaries of the United States men would remain free." The War of Rebellion settled one question: It forever settled the question of chattel slavery in this country. The lives of those black men and white men who died in that conquest were not laid down in vain. Negro soldiers displayed their valor in the War of 1812. General

Andrew Jackson knew their mettle, having faced them in many engagements with the Indians. In the Louisiana district, one of the most dangerous in that war, he asked for Negro soldiers and addressed them as 'Sons of Freedom,' who are called upon to defend our most estimable blessing, the right to be free and sovereign.

War seems inevitable. A pause for peace, and then in less than forty years the United States was called upon to defend the gallant people of Cuba, who were resisting impositions of Old World tyranny, which could not be tolerated by the United States in the Western Hemisphere and which must be destroyed again.

American patriots enlisted and gave their lives for the cause of democracy and the land they loved. Negro soldiers again showed their courage and valor. Up San Juan Hill they ran, facing shot and shell. "Boldly they rode and well." They immortalized Theodore Roosevelt and left the same record of valor unexcelled. Theodore Roosevelt said that he never expected to have, and could not ask to have, better men beside him in a hard fight. This war decided forever the safeguarding and independence of the republics of the Western Hemisphere. Each war has made its contributions to freedom and liberty for higher standards and ideals.

Twenty-five years ago we were drawn into the World War upon Germany because then, as now, "German victory with its domination by force, cruelty and militarism would destroy democracy and our national existence as a free people." Never did patriotism blossom more prolifically than then. Thousands of our men fought and gave their lives to conquer that barbarous German horde, believing that the future safety of our country with its progressed democratic ideals should live and continue. Negro patriots in this war thought that by the giving of their lives, democracy would have vent to fulfill its mission and discriminations would be wiped out of American practices; but in vain did they hope.

God and the soldier all men adore
In time of war and not before.
When the war is over and all things righted,
God is forgot and the Negro soldier slighted.

After the war Ephraim returned to his idols. God was left out of our plans. After the war there was spiritual and moral decadence—expansion of wealth, extravagance, and corruption. Because we became rich and proud and America felt strong, we thought we were progressive. Luxury, revelry, godliness, parental disregard and insubordination, parents shirking responsibility, racial antipathy increasing, disregard for the Sabbath, lawlessness flourished—war again! Men are given to hideous deeds and assaults on all standards of decency. We are now reaping the fruits of our folly. We should have known and done better. Sins of commission and omission have their full share of responsibility for which the Church may be taken to task. What shall we do about it now?

We must look into the future and after the war. If Christianity and democracy are to survive, we must practice here at home while we are preaching to the world—DEMOCRACY. Leading thinkers and courageous souls are facing the issue.

President Roosevelt said: "There must be no discrimination on account of race, creed, color or religion in government projects providing work and employment."

Wendell Wilkie says: "We must adjust our racial problems at home if we are to win the war to live and succeed."

The Press: The Philadelphia Inquirer says: "The drawing of racial and color lines, to be condemned at any time in a country professing democratic principles, is doubly pernicious when a war emergency makes national unity imperative. We should do more than make some progress. We should stamp out the evil."

The Chester Reporter says: "Another reason we are going to win the war is because of the courage, industry, cheerfulness and patience of 13,000,000 Negro population, who, in war as in peace, are doing more for their country than their country has as yet done for them."

Pearl Buck says: "We cannot win the war without the assistance of the colored peoples of the world."

Mrs. Roosevelt says: "America can't lay aside discrimination merely by discussing events that happen to minority groups. Racial discrimination can be curbed only by really fundamental changes by the great majority of people in this country. There should be no such thing as a sharecropping system in this country."

Samner Wells says: "What are we going to do about it? To rectify mistakes of the past decades, we must utterly and finally crush the evil men and iniquitous systems which they have devised, and are today menacing our existence and that of free men and women throughout the world. If this war is in fact a war for the liberation of peoples, it must assume the sovereign equality of peoples throughout the world as well as in the world of America. Then victory must bring in its train the liberation of all peoples. Discriminations between peoples because of their race, creed or color must be abolished. The right of a people to their freedom must be recognized as the civilized world long since recognized the right of an individual to his personal freedom."

Ask the question, Will Negroes prove patriotic? I have just recapitulated their record: Yes, they are fighting for their citizenship freedom in America; fighting for the protection of their homes, your home, and my home, for your job and your children's children's jobs; fighting for the protection of the lives of your family, their own families, and everything this country means, including our right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

Patriotism should be demonstrated by each of us, especially Christian women. Mrs. Roosevelt said the humblest woman who performs her duty in her home is one of the strongest factors of defense. By economy we can invest in bonds, thus helping the government to increase its armament—build airplanes, tanks, ships, etc. We can buy these bonds in small installments—a ten-cent stamp at a time—and when a sufficient amount has been saved and purchased, this can be exchanged for a bond.

We are faced with a serious shortage of scrap steel, rubber and other vital materials. We can save these. Then the saving of waste grease in our kitchens can also become an act of patriotism. The industries of America are appealing to housewives to save all kitchen fat.

While we deplore the dreadful situation in the world, deeper still is the human need of Christ and His Word. The present impending world crisis is again impressing upon the world evidences of the poverty and the inadequacy of human needs and agencies for furthering the welfare of humanity.

Never have there been such challenges to Christians to undertake duties requiring Divine help. Whenever men become imperiled, suffer or face an inescapable crisis, they generally turn to God in prayer.

Christians are saying, "Let us turn to the never-failing textbook, the Bible, which says: 'If my people which are called by my name shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and will heal their land.'" Do we believe this? Try it, for God's Word never fails.

ANNUAL REPORT OF MISS NANNIE H. BURROUGHS, CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

DEPARTED

"Gone to the land of fadeless day
Where there's no death, no pain, no fears;
And they count not time by years
For there is no night there."

Co-Workers and Friends:

Tennessee a Favorite State

The records show that the National Baptist Convention has held nine of its annual sessions in the State of Tennessee.

1881—Knoxville.
1886—Memphis.
1888—Nashville.
1889—Nashville.
1906—Memphis.
1913—Nashville.
1924—Nashville.
1933—Memphis.
1942—Memphis.

This 1942 session is the third time the women have met in Memphis.

We do not need any further assurance from the people of Memphis that they like to have us meet in their city; nor is it necessary for us to use up words trying to tell them that the pleasure is mutual because this is the third time that we have held our National meeting in this city. The greatest world-wide changes and catastrophies have taken place since we met here nine years ago.

There was not a single war cloud in the sky of our country in 1933. Today, the sky is black with giants of destruction and death, and war chariots fill the skies of every other great nation in the world, belching out brimstone, and raining down fire upon innocent men, women and children, and destroying all the marvelous works of men's hands.

Dark days indeed! But God's people must meet to counsel together, and find out what He wants them to do in this crisis. Above the roar and din of battle, He speaks to all who want right and righteous to triumph, and says, "Be strong! Quit you like men."

Having heard this ringing command, the only thing that we need to do is to obey; pray much; work hard; trust in our own untried capacity as we would trust in God Himself, and live courageously. Today as never before we must heed Phillip Brooks' warning. He urged us not to "pray for easy lives. Pray to be strong; not to pray for tasks equal to our power. Pray for powers equal to our tasks. Then, the doing of our work shall be no miracle, but we shall be miracles.

This is the day when men must work miracles if they would turn to fight the armies of the aliens.

This is not the day for weak men. It is the day when the Isaiahs, Jeremiah's, Daniel, Hoseas, Joels, Amos', Obadiah's, Micah's, Nahum, Zephaniah's, Haggai's, Zachariah's, Malachias, must take their respective stands for God, in the midst of the people; proclaim the truth, as it is in Christ Jesus; reprove this wicked generation and prepare the way for the coming of the Kingdom of God on this earth. God is going to win, whether we win or lose.

The nations of the earth, America included, should get on his side, lest wrath that is greater than that visited upon Sodom and Gomorrah shall fall upon us.

Why This Meeting

We have journeyed to Memphis from nearly every state in the Union. We represent over three million Baptists—the largest organization of Negro Christians in the world. But, we represent more than just people, and we are responsible to or for more than just Negro Christians.

We are God's stewards and, as such, we represent in mind, spirit, desire and high purpose all that other women and men, of like minds, in all races represent. We represent the fellowship of kindred minds. We are, therefore, responsible for our conduct and accomplishments to millions more.

All who believe in us, hope, work and pray with us or for us, are as invisible but at the same time an invincible host, saying to you "and to us we are with you, carry on in the name of the Lord God of Israel—the God of our fathers.

You must, therefore, realize that we have a serious, sacred and tremendous responsibility. Heaven and earth are looking on. Wherever women and men meet today in the name of the Lord, their vision and interest must not comprehend only the race or denomination to which they belong. Their vision and interest must have the universal love and mind-sweep of God and the compelling interest in mankind everywhere, in every race. Because:

"The world is in the Valley of Decision;
It is standing at the parting of the ways;
Will it climb the steps of God to realm elysian,—
Or fall on horror of still darker days?

Will it free itself of every shameful shackle?
Will it claim the glorious freedom of the brave?
Will it lose the soul of Life in this debate,
And sink into a mean dishonored grave?

All the world is in the Valley of Decision,
And out of it there is but one sure road;
Eyes unsealed can still foresee the mighty vision
Of a world in travail turning unto God.

All the world is the Valley of Decision.
Who shall dare its future destiny foretell?
Will it yield its soul unto the Heavenly Vision,
Or sink despairing into its own hell?"

In a tragic hour like this, we could ill afford to come here to hold just another Convention. O no, we have a higher purpose. We come—

"To pledge our souls with nobler, loftier life,
To win the world to His fair sanctities,
To bind the nations in a Pact of Peace,
And free the Soul of Life for fiercer loyalties.

Not since Christ died upon His lonely cross
Has Time such prospect held of Life's new birth;
Not since the world of chaos first was born
Has man so clearly visaged hope of a new earth."

We come to rededicate ourselves today. We know that—

"Not of our own might can we hope to rise
Above the ruts and soilures of the past,
But, with His help who did the first earth build,
With hearts courageous, we may fairer build this last."

Bomb the Devil Out of Men's Hearts

As Christians who seek a better country, we cannot separate ourselves from—nor be disinterested in—world problems, needs, and challenges on all fronts. We are a part of all that is and of all that is to be, in human relations and human progress.

Dr. R. H. Edwin Epsy states our task when he says—"One of the greatest sins of Christian people has been their self-sufficiency in human relationships. While it is the glory of the gospel of Christ that it lends a dignity and meaning to the individual as the child of God, it is equally a part of the gospel that a Christian alone is incomplete. He is part of a community of believers, and attains full spiritual stature only in this context. The world about him may be full of sin, and the Church itself may be full of sinners, but he can fulfill his Christian destiny only in relation to the Christian community and to the larger world in which it is set. He must be a community Christian in the midst of an unchristian community."

This is the time for the Christian Church to "put on her whole armor of God, that she may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil": Today, the devil is trying to bomb the religion of Jesus Christ out of the hearts of the people. It is the business of the Christian church to bomb the devil out of men's hearts with the same kind of dynamite that Paul used.

The gospel of Jesus Christ preached with power and lived with courage will do it. Jesus promised that "The gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

A Busy Office

The tremendous increase in our correspondence and the daily calls for missionary material from women all over the country are the best evidences of real growth.

Never in the history of the Woman's Convention have we received as many requests for information and material as we received this year. The cry of our hearts is to KNOW; is to KNOW.

Our greatest lack is still the lack of suitable church plays and a study book. The Corresponding Secretary wrote a "Mother's Day Play" and it went over big. We need a standby or two in plays. The "Skiatow District Convention" has been a real standby. We should have two more plays—just as good at crowd-getting, but different in content.

You will doubtless find Mrs. Maud Brockway's book a good book of methods. It is to be revised. The Corresponding Secretary recommends "How" as a practical guide for busy women who want to put their finger on the spot without so much reading.

Then, too, we know the new book—"Making your Community Christian" is what you will want, to meet the present-day needs in your community. Try it, and you will find many ways to help your society and church render effective community service, and you, too, will grow in grace. It teaches you how to practice the religion of Jesus Christ, everyday.

The Protestant Churches Plan a United Advance

The International Council of Religious Education representing more than ninety per cent of the Protestant churches of America, have united in planning a timely and courageous program to reach every person with Christian teaching. This effort, known as the United Christian Education Advance, will extend for a four-year period from January 1, 1942.

By united action, the churches of all denominations in each community are encouraged to plan together to extend Christian teaching and fellowship to the unreached.

This advance is a long-range systematic plan to meet America's total need for Christian education. It is intended to strengthen and extend the programs of the church. Its ultimate goal is to serve and enrich personal and family life and to make community life Christian. This is America's number one need.

The home is encouraged and helped to render its basic service in Christian nurture.

For the promoting of this four-year program, the International Council is assisting denominational educational boards and state and city interdenominational agencies in the developing of their programs. It is also providing a promotional literature for common use by all. In order to make possible a concerted approach, the following emphasis have been selected cooperatively by the member denominations and have been adopted by the Council. They will be stressed by local churches and communities during the four-year period of the Advance.

In the Home

Regular Bible reading and prayer.
Living as Christians in the Family.

In the Church

Increasing attendance.
Improving teaching for Christian discipleship.

In the Community

Bringing every person into the fellowship of some church.
Churches working together for a Christian community.

Our National Baptist Convention of the United States of America, Incorporated, is a member of the International Council.

Guidance material for local churches is available through our publishing house.

We have International Council circulars (free), explaining in detail what the United Advance is and what it does.

Christians of the Twentieth Century, we are entering upon:

"A day when pack and clan must yield to love of man,
When war flags shall be furled
And we shall be done with hate."

Let us pray much for faith, vision and spiritual and moral courage to prepare the way for the coming of the God of our salvation.

Christ was not invited to sit at the peace table at the close of the last World War to guide the nations into knowledge and understanding. That is why man's patched-up peace was worn threads in twenty short years.

The Christian Church ought to lead the way. Beneath the din of battle on all fronts in this tragic war is the ironic fact of men's passionate longing for peace and order. This is the only hope of the world.

Jesus knew what He was talking about when he said "without me ye can do nothing."

The peoples of the earth will never beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks, and learn war no more until Jesus shows them how to do it.

The hour is at hand. Men want peace—enduring peace.

Missionary Literature

There are a number of good books on our literature table. It will be worth your while to browse around and get exactly what you need to help you and your missionary society to grow.

Your Corresponding Secretary has revised the "Personal Service Guide—Old and New Paths To Fertile Fields." The title of the new book is "How to Make Your Community Christian." We think you will like it. Woman's Missionary union gave us $250 on our literature fund this year, and we used that to help pay for the new book. It cost much more, but we are going to sell enough of them at this meeting to make up the difference. This book should be studied by every missionary society. If this is done, we feel reasonably certain that you "will come rejoicing, bringing in the sheaves" next year.

Other good books for you to study this year are:

Christ and the World Community	Weddell
Creating Friendly Attitudes—Through the Home	McGarran
Christian Family Life	Education Bulletin No. 425
Helping Others to Become Christians	Leavell
Rural America Challenges Christian Youth	White
Making Your Community Christian	Burroughs
Consider Africa	Matthew
A Christian Imperative	Barnes

The Worker

The Worker was launched from this platform in 1933. It has grown in nine years from an idea to a national magazine that is, read and studied, weekly more Negro Church women than any other organ of its kind in the world. There is still room for improvement and expansion. It is our purpose to do both.

The many messages of praise that come to us every day, in the year, challenge us to try to make each issue of The Worker better. Our one desire is to create a department in which we give material and programs for rural church women. There is a dearth of material for them.

Dr. Dawber says that "women are the backbone of the rural church. The future of rural religion is largely in their hands." Our most immediate and effective approach is through suitable program material, and the discovery of young country women who want to go off to school, but do not want to stay off after they are trained for service. What will you do about it?

Those who are interested in our rural people should study "Rebuilding Rural America" by Dr. Mark A. Dawber, and "Rural America Challenges Christian Youth" by Edwin E. White. One thing is certain, our Christian and Theological schools should find and train leaders who want to invest their lives in a ministry in rural areas.

Mission Study and Leadership Training

The major objective of this Convention is to inspire and help women to do better work in their local societies and Conventions.

For exactly twenty years, the Corresponding Secretary has plead with you to offer mission study and leadership training, in two periods, as a regular feature of the Convention program. It was at St. Louis, Missouri, in 1922 that she said:

"We should conduct Study Classes for presidents of local missionary societies. Five hundred presidents of locals in classes all day for five days would mean more to hungry, neglected women than anything we have done for them. Under capable leadership, some very intensive and effective work could be done. The local leaders would go back to their homes prepared to put new life into their organizations. They would know where to get all kinds of material for their programs, and how to use the Study Books effectively.

The conductor of the Study Section for presidents of locals should be sent annually to a summer school of missions, so that she could become charged and surcharged with the spirit and the vision for her task. Plans should be laid at this meeting to carry out the suggestion herein made.

During the winter of 1923, the local missionary societies should use the Study Book and with it the June numbers of 'The Missionary Review of the World' and 'Missions.' It would be well to devote a month or two to the study of the Negro Church, using Carter G. Woodson's book as a text."

This spake your Corresponding Secretary twenty years ago. Page 343, St. Louis minutes.

The appeal has been made consistently nearly every year since. The nearest answer to the appeal has been Mrs. Brockway's effort to give some instruction in early morning classes. She is to be highly commended for making the very most of the time that the Convention never uses.

The women who come to the Convention, do so at great expense. They are responsible for improving the work in their local and state organizations. Where can they get definite help for it? White Christian women have their great summer schools of missions, year after year at Northfield, Chautauque, Boulder, Winona, Bethesda, Ridge Crest, etc. For various and obvious reasons our women cannot attend these summer schools.

We owe it to these fine Christian women, who come up to our Convention year after year, to devote some of the main time of the Convention to teaching them how to keep abreast of the times in Christian leadership.

Our present program is not a good model for progressive women. It would be good for the Convention if we would take the time to revamp it.

Do we realize that we are God's workmen? If we do, we should heed the command to "study" in order that we shall not be ashamed. We must raise money, but at the same time, we must raise the minds of those who make the sacrifice to give the money. Reciprocity is the life of Christian business.

We shall never stop reminding you, until you give Mission Study and Methods Classes a real place, somewhere on your regular program. We plead with you to improve your devotions until now, women clamor for a place on the Committee on Devotions.

Regular periods on our Convention program for instruction is next on our agenda. Shall we take it up or not?

Southern White Baptist Women in Interracial Institutes

The Christian Interracial Institutes, inaugurated by the Woman's Missionary Union Southern Baptist Convention, in cooperation with Negro Baptist Women State Conventions in the Southern States, closed the third year at Selma University, Selma, Alabama, August 20th.

Institutes were held in (South Carolina, Florida, Arkansas, Georgia, Mississippi, Illinois, Missouri and Kentucky), eight states this year. The attendance reached almost a hundred per cent in each state.

Our beloved Miss Kathleen Mallory and other distinguished leaders and instructors in Woman's Missionary Union, and well known, capable leaders in our Women's State Convention and a number of national leaders of our Woman's Convention Auxiliary National Baptist Convention participated.

Mrs. Mobola Ayorinda and her husband, Rev. James Tanimola Ayorinda, of Nigeria, West Coast Africa did yeoman service in all the institutes. Official business kept Mrs. R. B. Molon from attending any of the institutes.

Your Corresponding Secretary was in all of the institutes held in 1941 and 1942. It was a real blow when the doctor advised against continuing travel this summer. It is one of the greatest joys of our life to see this interracial work go forward more rapidly than any of us ever dreamed that it would go.

It is God's plan for giving both races—a glorious chance to set the churches here at home to work on the greatest missionary task of this century.

Get Up—Go on and Get Ahead

Among the problems that church and club women should attack, unitedly, are:

1. The physical improvement of our Homes and Communities. The most casual observer can see the marked and rapid physical deterioration that is taking place in most of the communities in which our people live.

Race prejudice might force us to live in certain areas but it cannot nor can it try to force us to let our homes go to pieces and run our own communities down.

There is no excuse for the wretched and wrecked condition of Negro homes and communities. Church and club women owe it to the race to stop coming from their own people and in turn work together to improve Negro community life.

The situation requires united effort, careful, sensible long range planning and intensive work. It is a difficult task, but nobody is going to tackle it for us. Whether we like it or not, Negro communities are our problem, and the longer we let it go, the worse it will get.

The masses will have to be made sensible of their untoward conditions and absolutely dissatisfied with living in dirt and squalor.

It is high time that we stop bragging because a few Negroes escape by "degrees." A few others climb but do not lift anybody else. Those who lift as they climb are few in number.

Our real progress now depends upon two-tenths of the race, that have climbed to middle ground by their own boot-straps; the clean, plain, honest, dependable, hardworking class, the back-bone of the race—but the remaining seventh-tenths of the three million are living in complete social, economic and spiritual blackout.

Even the blind that cannot see, sense the fact that Negro Americans had better use all the time they have to set their house in order. In the few world of democracy, there will be no place for wilful loafers, laggards and skilled parasites. Races must have a burning desire to rise on their own initiative, ingenuity and industry. Only those who have the spirit and determination to get up, go on and get ahead will survive.

Progress in Race Relations

It is heartening and reassuring to note that progress is being made in race relations in America. An increasing number of persons are trying to be Christian in their attitudes and acts. There is also an increasing number of men and women who are not as articulate in preaching the gospel of justice as Herberl Agar and Pearl Buck, but their genuine interest and active, effective, undramatized influence is also leaven in the lump.

They have set themselves to the definite task of doing something sensible, constructive, far-reaching and enduring to improve conditions and thus help America become a real democracy and Christian.

They are trying to teach the truth about race; they are facing the difficult problem of race adjustment, frankly. They work in different ways, but they are at work. They have put their hands to the plow and they will never turn back. They are in the North, in the South, in the East and in the West. Some are rich; many more of them are poor in this world's goods—but rich in good-will, good sense and human kindness.

The problem of adjustment which both races must face, frankly, is staggering and difficult. But, we must face it without excuses or fear.

We must build a Christian democracy and it cannot be built on senseless race prejudice, age-old foibles and moth-eaten traditions. Men and women, who do not stand up for justice and the rights that belong to all men as men, are miniature Hitlers, whose attitude and acts will destroy any nation.

We hope you heard Mayor Woodall, of Augusta, Georgia, welcome "Wines Over Jordan Choral Ensemble," Sunday, August 22nd. His evaluation of the Negro's contribution; his appeal for mutual respect and appreciation; his vision of America—of the future, was another voice of the new South, crying in the wilderness.

We Have Fallen Down on Our Jobs

Parents, teachers, missionary workers, preachers and all persons who assume or accept leadership where character and destiny are at stake, ought to be morally upright. Not only that, but they should not indulge in a number of so-called, no-harm things. Do you know that the little foxes spoil the vines? Our entire social structure is weak because we have cultivated too many no-harm habits—such as smoking, drinking liquor, talking loud, wearing men's pams (slacks on the street), hanging out, wiggle walking, eating on the streets, and chewing and popping gum, eternally—even in church and while viewing the remains at funerals. These are some of the little foxes that are spoiling the vines.

In the name of decency, let us teach and practice good manners at home, on the streets, in public carriers, at school, in social gatherings, in automobiles and on our jobs. All of our schools should give a regular course in conduct and character building.

Women who assume responsibility for carrying on the program of Jesus Christ, through their churches, and missionary societies do not know that they should spend much of their time studying. We have the time, but we spend it talking about nothing, prying into the personal affairs of others, or complaining about "what somebody is doing to us." If we would employ half of that time in learning how to do the thing we were elected, selected or took upon ourselves to do, we would become capable, influential leaders in our little field of service.

These are plain words but they tell only half of the story. We are God's stewards and we are entirely too lazy to put to proper use our minds, our time and our influence. Our conduct and satisfied ignorance does not recommend the spiritual and social medicine that we are supposed to be out to sell. Going to Church, attending Conventions, getting ourselves elected to positions of leadership should do much to improve our minds and services. Are we growing or are we simply going?

We should check on our reading and talk. Some missionary women do not read anything, except the funnies.

Why Young People Go Astray

Parents and teachers of teen-age girls are faced with problems that baffle, challenge and defy them. Many parents have thrown up their hands. Teachers are trying to "keep school." The day of effective teaching has gone with the wind. Youth is on a social rampage.

The reasons for this are several. There are too many prodigal parents, and too few, sensible, exemplary teachers. Teachers are no longer respected and turned to by girls as examples of morals; manners and dress. Young people will not respect the teacher who frequents midnight to dawn dances, necks, smokes, drinks, curses and comes to school jaded from her social orgies.

Our girls are the prey of depraved men, salacious magazines and wide open dens of iniquity.

What can those who know conditions and who are moved with pity, for teen-age girls do to save them? For one thing, Christian women and parents who care and are willing to assume their full responsibility, can unite and give wholesome, modern entertainment in competition with unwholesome modern, lewd attractions.

Second, the parent side of our Parent-Teacher Association must learn to present fearlessly, constructive criticisms of teachers' methods, manners and morals. They must be sufficiently interested to follow through.

It is up to our P. T. A.'s to decide what sort of teachers we shall have in our schools, and they might discuss with profit the kind of parents we ought to have for children. They should be vigilant in surveying the community and listing decent places where young people can spend their leisure time.

Hero Worship is a Characteristic of Adolescents. Teen-age girls like to have somebody to look up to. They are influenced by the good or bad conduct of their seniors. Our influence or lack of it has made them what they are.

A bad crop? Adults are to blame. Suppose we study anew the story of the sheep that went astray. Jesus took great pains to tell that story. It was a sheep and not a lamb that went astray. This parable must have a deeper meaning than we usually attach to it.

Just saving the life of an adult sheep, for the sake of the adult alone, is not of far-reaching value. But to save an adult because youth must follow after him is an added reason why Jesus dramatized that incident. Adults should not wander into sin, because the lambs will follow.

Jesus brings the sheep back in order to keep the lambs in the fold. We are harping about young people going astray. But, if we take the time to investigate, we will find that the lambs are following the sheep. According to the parable, sheep gives heaven more trouble than lambs.

'T WAS A SHEEP

'Twas a sheep, not a lamb, that went astray
 In the parable Jesus told,
 'Twas a grown-up sheep that wandered away
 From the ninety and nine in the fold.
 And out on the hill tops and out in the cold,
 'Twas a sheep that the Good Shepherd sought,
 And back to the fold, and back to the fold,
 'Twas a sheep that the Good Shepherd brought.
 Now, why should the sheep be so carefully fed
 And cared for still today?
 Because there is danger if they go wrong
 They will lead the lambs astray,
 For the lambs will follow the sheep, you know,
 Wherever they wander, wherever they go.
 If the sheep go wrong, it will not be long Till the lambs are as wrong as they,
 So, still with the sheep we must earnestly plead,
 For the sake of the lambs today.
 If the lambs are lost, what a terrible cost
 Some sheep will have to pay! —The Glad Tidings.

Their Share of the Crop

"Share croppers" are men and women who till other men's soil for a share of the crop they produce. Share cropping is a hangover of the slave system.

It grew out of the mutual need of the landed whites, and the landless, both white and black. Without land to till, the worker starved. Without workers to till his land, the landlord starved. Bitter needs perpetuates the system.

It is seldom that share croppers are given fair "settlements" for their toil. Granted fair settlements, some share cropper will eventually become farm owners, and if the land is productive or can be made productive, they will be successful owners. Otherwise, they will starve just as miserably as any share cropper on poor soil.

The share cropper is one of the groups of Americans that must be given two of the four freedoms promised in the Atlantic Charter. They are freedom from want and freedom from fear. Because of his enforced ignorance, he is tragically free from religion and from speech. If he is given freedom from physical want, he will be given education. In other words, he will be set free from ignorance.

Share cropping is not an evil in itself. The abuse of share cropping is an evil. Factory work is not an evil. The exploitation of factory workers is evil. The use of land by its owners is not evil. The control of land in the hurt of society is evil.

There are approximately 75,000 Negro migrants "following crops" along the Eastern Seaboard today. Many of them were once share croppers, attached to some land, somewhere—calling some place home—if only for the duration to the crop. Many left because they were robbed at settlement time—once a year. Forced to turn migrant, many are still being robbed at settlement time—once a day.

Poor soil plus exploitation drove over three hundred eighty thousand workers from the land between 1935 and 1940. More than one hundred twenty thousands of these were Negroes; fifty-three thousand renters and sixty-nine thousand croppers. Some went unskilled—into industry, some took to the road, leaving behind unsolved, for more hundreds of thousands, the problems of good and bad soil, of honest and dishonest land owners.

What possibilities of life worth living on the land lie ahead for the nearly a million white and half a million Negro non-owning farm toilers, who are still trying to live on shares?

The farm will always be the most important place in the economic scheme of things. The nation is dependent on farms for food and farm families to furnish cities with the new recruits. The small farmer must, therefore, have security on the land, either through fair tenant or cropper contracts, fairly carried out, or through the purchase in small units of the country-size acreages now controlled by opulent owners sitting in sky-scrapers of our great cities.

The harvest-hands we plead for and are in desperate need of, when the crops are rotting in the fields, are paid only bread and fat-back wages. There must be a floor for farm wages. Through legislation or otherwise, we must reestablish the smaller unit as the American pattern. The church, the school, the government must teach farm people how to work together in farm cooperatives, based on our own needs and our own standards.

The entire farm program as it relates to farm hands, housing and education must make the education of the man first and the development and conservation of the land second.

What Are Americans Fighting For?

Several months ago, this nation announced that it is fighting for "four freedoms—freedom of speech, freedom from want, freedom from fear and freedom of religion." White Americans with visions of the Czechs and Poles, German and Austrian Jews languishing in concentration camps or standing, unflinching, before Nazi firing squads were moved to go to battle for freedom.

Negro Americans, too, have deep sympathy for these enslaved peoples. Only yesterday, our race was in the slave pen. We know what it is. But we confess that our sympathy is mixed with sadness, fear and suspicion. We wonder if when the Czech and the Pole and the Jew, of all nations, eventually achieve freedom from fear, they will join the rest of the white world in appropriating and reserving for themselves this freedom for which black men, too, have fought, bled and died? Freedom for all men, everywhere, is the only thing worth fighting for.

Never has the Negro thought and felt so deeply—no, not even during the Civil War. Then, he thought that physical bonds were all that separated him from freedom. Now, he knows better. There are five different kinds of slavery—physical, moral, mental, economic, and spiritual.

He reads Executive Order 8802, establishing the President's Committee on Fair Employment Practice. He sees, here and there, an industry being brought into line, a discrimination against black men wiped out, now in the East, now in the South, now in the West. He is heartened. Then he looks toward Washington, the seat of his government; his government that calls him, trains him and arms him to fight for freedom against fear; he looks toward the national capital whose influence is felt in every other capital of the civilized world, and his soul is stirred within him. Discrimination stares at him, contemptuously and brazenly, from the Army, the Navy, the Marines, the Air Corps, saying, "Thus far shall thou come and no further." Is this a democracy? Is this a government for the people, or is it a government for white people?

The Negro stops and gazes with wide open eyes at the thousands of professional and clerical workers pouring from the government departments crowding Washington streets. Seldom does he see a dark face. "Freedom from fear? Oh no. How can he be free from fear? Executive Order 8802 reads like a second emancipation proclamation. But this order simply digs the mote in the eye of private industry. It does little or nothing about the beam in the eye of the Federal government—the greatest employer of all, operating in forty-eight States, and doing a world business in Washington.

Petition and protest from groups of loyal citizens is of no avail. He turns away and seeks his press. Through his press, surely, he can make his Government know that its own inconsistencies have set the pattern for the industrial discrimination that creates the want from which he would be free—and forthwith, his freedom of speech is abridged or jeopardized. His press is denounced as near-traitorous. There is talk of muzzling it.

"America, America, God shed His grace on thee."

Remembering what happened after the first World War, the Negro fears that the promises made under war-time pressure are neither serious nor sacred. Will this nation return to the same inhuman, unjust and undemocratic treatment of Negro citizens after this war?

We know that the triumph of Hitlerism means death to all freedoms. We are shedding our blood and have dedicated our hope to the end that democracy in the world shall not be blacked out by any such tragedy. But the two great democracies, Great Britain and America, must realize that the practices of undemocratic principles in so-called democracies means death to men's souls. Men cannot live even in so-called democracies half slave and half free.

Yes, the Negro is thinking. Why shouldn't he? This is the third war in which he has fought for his freedom. Even now, America is preparing to be "good neighbors" and to integrate aliens and all other peoples into the economic and civic life of this nation.

What about the Negro—loyal, tried, and true, living right in the household? Doggedly, unsmilingly, he is fighting to defend the "four freedoms." He is willing to die for them. But, will America keep faith with him and give him that for which he is fighting? That's the question.

The day is gone when she can do less and keep a seat of honor at the peace table. Remember—

"Tis not in blood that Liberty inscribes her civil laws,
She writes them on the people's hearts in language clear and plain;
True thoughts have moved the world before, and so they shall again."

"Not to avenge wrong
But to exalt right,
Not to display honor
But to prove humility,
Not to bring wrath
But vision,
Not to win war
But a people,
And not people only,
But all peoples,
Not to exact justice from your enemies only
But from your friends,
And not from your friends only
But first from yourselves!"
O Americans,
Our own Americans,
Prepare,
Prepare NOW.

Democracy's Own Crime

Out of the first two million men called to the colors in the present war, half were later rejected—nine hundred thousand for physical disabilities and another one hundred thousand for lack of elementary educational qualifications.

The country was rightfully shocked and thousands of American communities, big and little, awoke to the fact that the nation has either failed to give a million of its citizens a chance to meet a basic requirement of citizenship in a democracy, or it had failed to put into a million men ambition enough to learn how to read and write.

The army must have men—whole, clean and intelligent for war—so must the nation have men whole—clean and intelligent in times of peace. The nation decided to do for those men what it should have had vision and sense of responsibility enough to have done for them before they reached manhood. Instead of rejecting men with minor physical defects, it was decided to tackle the task of correcting their defects. Good sense! Late getting it, but it's good.

It will be a blessing if the discovery of our gross and nation-wide ignorance will make the nation high resolve to stamp out illiteracy and give all citizens the opportunity to develop intelligence and skills for their special vocations. Our own discovery of our ignorance jolted us out of indifference and self-complacency. We know now that to make whole soldiers we must first make whole citizens.

The army's program of education will be worth the investment. After the conflict, millions of these men will return to take up the thread of civilian life, better trained for their old tasks or to be set to newer tasks for which their army training has fitted them.

It is too bad that they had to take up the time that they should have used fighting, to get the intelligence we should have developed in them long before we declared war. Compulsory military training is here to stay. We have learned that soldiers cannot be trained overnight. A nation that is not prepared to defend itself will spend billions of dollars and lose millions of men getting ready in an emergency. As succeeding groups of selectees report for examination, they should show progressively improved health, educational and vocational fitness for war or peace. We must be done with satisfied or enforced mass ignorance in this nation.

It is our duty to see that, in the future, no American youth has to stand before his flag too unenlightened to read or write his own name, or too unformed to be stirred within, by thoughts of the significance of the flag that he is called upon to die to defend. This must not happen again in America. Democracy means equal opportunity for education for all the people.

After the War—What?

This is our second World War. The first World War was considerably smaller than this, but it was big enough to teach us what to expect on the economic and social fronts, during a war and after.

We know that war means expansions on the industrial front with new job opportunities opening for labor in skilled and unskilled brackets. We know that this means more money to put to intelligent use, in clearing up debts, educating children, buying homes and supporting churches, and, it also means more money for untrained minds to squander in vulgar displays of finery, pills, foolishness, liquor and social evils.

We know that the folk from back home who are digging pipelines, building cantonments and sacking powder, today, will not be doing those things tomorrow—and may not be doing anything else. Their chances for doing anything else will depend, to a large extent, on the skills they develop for peace time jobs while they are doing war-time work.

Competition, after this war, will be greater than ever before. Immigration bars will be lowered under the pressure of would-be citizens from others of the United Nations—our comrades-in-arms. Skilled and unskilled workers from beyond the oceans and from South of the Rio Grande, will be coming here to compete with us for jobs.

Aside from competition, made more acute, by the influx of dark-skinned "good neighbors," the test, by-and-large, will be one of morals, of health, of education, of technical skill.

In a radio address, July 23rd, Secretary Cordell Hull stated that beyond the economic and political tasks after the war is over, the greater task will be the task of building human freedom. He said:

"Beyond these, there will lie before all countries the great constructive task of building human freedom and Christian morality on firmer and broader foundations than ever before. This task, too, will be of a necessity call for both national and international action. . . . This is a task of intensive study, hard thinking, broad vision and leadership—not for governments alone, but especially for parents, and teachers, and clergymen, and all those, within each nation, who provide spiritual, moral and intellectual guidance. Never did so great and so compelling a duty in this respect devolve upon those who are in positions of responsibility, public and private."

Negro Americans, who read the signs of the times, should spend every hour and use every opportunity to get ready to meet this competition with knowledge and skill.

Our salvation from now on will depend largely upon ourselves, regardless of what our jobs are or where they are. This war emergency like the last war, opened doors, hitherto barred, to Negroes. It has done more, it has opened more doors to educational and technical preparation, as well as doors of employment, than were ever opened to us before.

Only character, skill, and eternal vigilance will keep these doors open. Only hard work and common sense will enable us to turn these war gains into better homes, better education, better churches, and better living in a post-war world.

We must not become intoxicated over our new found opportunities. We must live more soberly than ever before. Races with character and skill can make democracy work.

We Should Make Our Religion Work

Have you ever tried to make your religion work by adding, subtracting, multiplying and dividing it? That sounds like "a little lesson in arithmetic" but this is what you have to do if you want to be a Christian.

Add

Add to your faith, from day to day,
Knowledge and love, and you will then pray
As never before, for souls in need
Who look to you, as for help they plead.
Add to your love the patience strong
That will still keep on, though the way be long.
Add to the pennies, nickles, and dimes,
And make them ring the pleasantest chimes,
As they send good news to the far off climes,
And to sad waifs here for happier times,
Add, and keep adding, from day to day;
In the mission cause, 'tis the only way.

Subtract

Subtract from your heart each selfish aim,
Let your gift be brought in the Saviour's name.
From the gold and silver subtract the dross,
Make the offering pure, for all else is loss;
Subtract all pride and all mere display
In the work of Christ, 'tis the only way,
And thus He blesses you day by day.

Multiply

The seed that is sown must be multiplied,
And scattered and scattered far and wide.
The workers here and in every land
Should be increased to a mighty band.
The homes for the desolate and sad
Should be multiplied, and the world made glad.
The helpers should multiply each day
In the world's great work, 'tis the only way.

Divide

Divide, divide, what you call your own,
And share with those who have never known
The light and love and comfort true
That all your life has been given to you.
As freely as ye have received, then give,
For only by giving we truly live.
"Give a portion to seven, yea, even to eight"
Is the Scripture word, and you must not wait
To see what somebody else will do;
Be quick to give what belongs to you;
Divide your time and money and all,
That you may answer the piteous call
That rings on the air from day to day;
Divide, yea, divide, 'tis the Christian way.

Recommendations

1. We should comply with Article Seven of the Constitution. It reads as follows:

"The Constitution may be altered or amended by a two-thirds vote at any annual meeting, thirty days previous notice having been sent by the corresponding secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary Convention to each state, through its state president."

This is a fair, simple, democratic way, but this procedure has not been followed. We recommend that we be governed by Article Seven, and that the Constitution of the Woman's Convention be revised in order to make it more intelligible, and at the same time, in conformity with the expressed wishes of the organization.

2. That, in the future, at least two periods of the regular Convention time be devoted to the presentation of programs on mission study and missionary methods.

3. That we express our deep appreciation for the fine institute work that is being done by Woman's Missionary Union of Southern Baptist Convention, in cooperation with the leaders in our women's State Conventions in the Southern States. That we thank God that Negro and white Christian women are finding practical ways to promote the Kingdom of God, right here at home.

4. That we elect five delegates to attend the Christian World Mission Convention in Cleveland, Ohio, December 6-10, 1942.

5. That we pay at least $50 for our membership in the Home Missions Council of North America and that the membership be paid annually.

6. That we reaffirm the vote that we took in our Memphis meeting in making The Worker the organ of the Woman's Convention.

7. That we encourage our women to take any and all other magazines or papers published for, on the sanction of this Convention and read or subscribe to any good publications that will help them to grow and do their work more efficiently.

8. That we rededicate ourselves and give full cooperation to the cause of missions and Christian education at home and abroad.

9. That we be most zealous and clear visioned in developing the work of our Young People's Department. There is much talent in our Red Circles and Leagues and we must encourage the development and proper utilization of it in every way possible.

A national camp is still in our thinking. Virginia's young people's camp is a success. Maryland made a noble experiment this year.

ANNUAL REPORT OF NATIONAL DIRECTOR OF YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT

Madam President, Officers and Members of Woman's Convention, Regional, State, District and Local Directors of Young People:

This year calls forth anew our praise to God for the many blessings he has bestowed upon us. We lift our hearts in thankfulness for the consecrated leaders of young people in thirty-seven states and for the loyal, encouraging state presidents and all of the Christian women who have united with us to publish glad tidings and to "go tell what great things the Lord has done for us."

As leaders, our job is to enlist Youth's talents for Christ; surely our Lord has great need for these young lives in the work of his Kingdom. The greatest talent to be cultivated in any Christian is a passion for souls. So the organization for young people is to try to develop this, first by enlisting them, then challenging their youthful enthusiasm with the need of the weary world for Christ. This host of young people is today a great factor in Kingdom work and gives hope for a more Christian tomorrow.

Back to our homes dedicated to God must we turn. In our homes where our children first saw the light of day must we plant right ideals and principles and begin there our fight against sin. We, as leaders, must stand against Sabbath desecration, we must fight for observance of law. Sad is the fact that in many homes by precept, example, and vote there is a great encouragement to the liquor hosts to trap and enslave the Youth of our land to a fate of sorrow and despair. Oh, how we are drinking the dregs of humiliation and shame as we read of three times more young girls behind the bars serving liquor today in road houses and taverns than we have in our colleges and Christian institutions! We must speak out boldly for the saving of Youth from a fate just as devastating and deadly as war, the drink and smoking evils.

Young people should be taught that the church today needs more yielded hearts and lives who really believe and are ready to proclaim the Glad Tidings that God so loved the world that he gave his Son, this his plan of salvation has been perfected through the birth, life, death, and resurrection of the redeeming, risen, reigning Christ, and that whosoever believeth shall have everlasting life. This news is the world's only hope, there is no other.

"Jesus calls us; o'er the tumult
Of our life's wild restless sea,
Day by day his sweet voice soundeth,
Saying, "Christian, follow me."

Young people should realize one thing is important. That thing is not wealth nor happiness, not locality nor education, not friend nor love. But Faith is important. Faith in God, in self, in fellow men, Faith in goodness and truth. Faith creates its own energy; if strong enough it generates happiness, gives off hope, inspiration and courage. Faith clears the way for progress, it heals the sick, turns failures to success and allows one to reach out to live beyond, to live with God. The task confronting young people is to be ministers of reconciliation, devoting their lives to the task of spreading the gospel of Christianity so that men can have fellowship with one another through God.

It is the responsibility of the missionary societies to teach our young people to observe all things of the Kingdom. So shall the Kingdom move forward tomorrow on the feet of the Youth of today. One writer has said, "Give us the children of today for missions and we take the world for Christ tomorrow."

Surely no one would question the need of special missionary training of young people. They need training to fortify them against the evils of the world. They need training to help them find the highest plane of living. They need training to help them connect God with their careers whatever those careers may be, no other organization of the church is solely and wholly missionary.

The great church problem of today is the enlistment. The enlistment problem of tomorrow can be solved by the missionary training of Youth today.

The Kingdom needs all the present and potential power of our host of young people and we can help preserve and develop that power for Kingdom purposes by giving them well rounded and well taught missionary instruction.

Many are the Youth movements of the day, political, industrial and religious. Leaders are bidding for the strength of youth as the hope of the causes which they advocate. But ours is the most important of all Youth movements, because it links the lives of today's Youth with God's eternal plan of salvation for a lost world. Therefore the necessity of a great cause is upon us. We must keep our young people's organization going.

The commands of God make it necessary. The hopes of the future progress of the Kingdom make it necessary. We must keep them going and growing as leaders in all of our states are doing.

We are now engaged in the world's greatest conflict, war. 350,000 Negroes now in war. Enlistment is the first step in planning an army, there would be no wars if men loved. The army of the Lord is to enlist men to fight sin and Satan and seek men that they might be saved and have life everlasting. Our young people should be taught that the army of the Lord is lasting and enduring. The leaders are to teach them to find the lost, bring them into the fold, feed them, fasten and foster them. Leaders must have wisdom, courage and religion and must be good stewards willing to give time, talent, influence, and money in order that the work of the Christian army may go forward.

Since we made our last report it has been my privilege and pleasure on invitation of state presidents and directors to attend the Alabama State Convention. We found a well organized Young People's Department under the leadership of Mrs. Corinne Watts, then assistant director, now the director carrying on in a fine way with some of the finest young people presiding and participating on the program. We are fortunate to have as our Young People's president for the next two years a young lady from Alabama, Miss Tiny Kellen, and Mrs. Susie Ausley as an officer in the Matron's Department. This department is backed by that very courageous leader, President of Alabama women, Mrs. H. M. Gibbs. They have represented for the seventeen years the organization that has been in existence.

It was a real joy to be in the sessions of the Younger People's Department of Oklahoma. There we found a large number of young people carrying on in a fine way under the leadership of Mrs. Mabel M. Mitchell. The program was beautifully carried out from every angle and signs of progress was noted. Oklahoma has represented since the organization of the department. We have as our recreational leader in our national meetings each year Mrs. Maude Rhodes Holt, who, because of training, is well prepared to lead in that field. Since visiting Oklahoma our heavenly Father has seen fit to take Mrs. Mabel Mitchell—Mrs. Maude Brockway, the progressive President of Oklahoma, has seen to it that the work goes on in a fine way.

It was our pleasure to attend the Northeast Regional Convention, last April at Detroit, Mich., where Mrs. Ida Pope, State President, and Mrs. J. H. Jackson, Young People's Director, are holding the reigns. Mrs. Jackson has served as Chairman of Finance in Young People's Department since the organization. I have only to say under her leadership Michigan is well organized with all grades doing fine work. Mrs. Mildred M. Tate, a charter member of Young People's Department, and the second to serve as president is a valuable asset because of her preparation. President Pope has always encouraged the young folk.

On invitation of President E. D. McGowan and Director of Young People, Mrs. L. B. Covington, I attended the General Missionary Convention at Clarksdale, Mississippi. It was there I found the children (Sunshine Band) and the young people meeting in two churches. Mississippi has been identified with the department since the organization. Director Covington is loved and respected in Mississippi and the organization is going forward in a fine way.

From Clarksdale we journeyed on to Meridian on invitation of Mesdames Flynn and Coates, State President and District President of East Mississippi. The Young People's Mass Meeting on Sunday afternoon was all that could be expected with Mrs. E. A. Armstrong, Mrs. Davis and others interested in the religious training of youth.

Institutes

One of the most helpful institutes attended was at Baltimore, Md., on invitation of Mesdames Wilkerson and Winston, State President and Young People's Director. Having been asked to direct the young people's work in the institute we found a large group of directors and young people vitally interested in getting information. It was there we were able to put over demonstrations, and explain the use of literature. We feel much good was accomplished. Mrs. Winston is prepared to lead young people.

We were privileged to attend the New Jersey State Convention in 1941. President Gregory gave opportunity to present the plans of the Young People's Department, and a fine conference was held with Mrs. Grace Brown, Young People's leader.

As your Young People's National Director, I was invited to attend the International Council of Religious Education held in Chicago, Ill., February, 1942. It was there I was accepted as a member of the Youth Department. As a member of the Youth Department of Home Missions Council of North America all communications are sent me regarding the work as a representative from our Woman's Convention.

As Assistant Director of Religious Education of my own state of Georgia and working jointly with General Missionary Convention of Georgia and W. M. C. of Georgia, I have conducted in the past two years over fifty institutes for women and young people, and the results have been most telling. From every viewpoint people are eager for information. Literature for adults and young people has been distributed.

I have traveled thousands of miles, given over sixty lectures and addressed many groups since my last report.

MY TASK

To be an empty Vessel
In God's great hand Divine
Is all that I would wish or hope
For this life of mine.

To be a ready Witness
Of all his love and grace,
Is all that I would seek to do,
To serve and bless my race.

To live his life repeated
In thought and word and deed,
Is all that I would hold as goal,
And all that I have need!

To President Layten and Officers of Woman's Convention, to Regional Directors and all other Directors, I wish to express my deep appreciation and gratitude for cooperation in any way, and for help given in developing this department from five state directors in 1925, to thirty-seven state directors in 1942, and from twenty-five Young People in 1925, to more than five hundred in 1942. The raising of finance of $146.00 in 1925, to $1,635.62 in 1942. I now re dedicate myself to the task set before me as your National Director.

(Signed)

LETHIA L. CRAIG.

ANNUAL REPORT OF WESTERN DIRECTOR, MISS PRIMROSE FUNCHES

Western President, Officers, Members of the Woman's Convention, Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, Directress Craig, Frye, Officers and Members of Young Peoples' Department:

Another twelve months have passed and are tucked away with the pages of used to be. It is mine to report to you from a world that is torn with bullets, and buzzing airplanes are crowding our skies, battleships are ranging at the deep, going to and fro carrying tons of deadly cargo to destroy lives of human beings that were made divine by the touch of the divine hand of the Almighty.

I come to you reporting from a world where youth has been placed on the war to save this world for democracy, because of this war youth has been compelled to make about face, to do new duties and perform new tasks for the salvation of the future of our world and the Christian church. They have been called upon to relinquish their education, the thing that is so dear and essential in our day and time. They have been called upon to prostrate their marriage vows; and the young men are forced to don the uniform of our country and march off to bloody battle fields to defend it. The young women, too, are donning the uniforms and enlisting in WAAC's and other organizations that have been formed for the protection of America, for the preservation of America, and the American way of life. Others have dressed themselves in the garb of men and picked up the hammer and chisel, and other working tools and made themselves felt in the industries for defending our shores, and the sacred trails of the allies.

I come to report to you out of a world that seems to have forgotten the Golden Rule, and has forgotten that all men are brothers with one universal father watching over them. I come to you reporting from a world that has with its realm the Christian church which has in the midst of these storms and conflicts encouraged mankind to keep its face turned toward Calvary.

I, therefore, submit my report as follows: I have traveled to and fro in the states comprising our great Convention. I regret to report that a number of churches, missionary societies, have not organized Young People's Departments. It is our desire for every church to have Sunbeams, Red Circles, Y. W. A.'s and Matrons attached to every local missionary society. Women in these organizations like vision, interest, intelligence necessary to uphold and hold them. Any circle without a Young People's Department is surely without a future and has no vision, and without vision the people perish.

In this present crisis the youth should be sought and encouraged to come into Christian services on this high tide of the world's need of the things of the Spirit. The youth can only hear today the word "Victory," but the Christ way is the only Victory Way.

Methods are to be studied and presented to meet the needs of your young people if we are to build a better world through the church.

Instead of criticizing young people, help them to see themselves. There are some blessings that come to all whether good or bad, but the spiritual gifts of God come to those who persistently seek him and are obedient to his will. We must help young people to examine and understand their own experiences and, too, one of the greatest services we can render is to help young people discover a sense of mission, and resolve "I will live my life unto God for others rather than myself under the leadership of Jesus Christ." We must encourage young people to study the Bible and to learn that the Bible is a means to an end and that end is Christian character and conduct.

Last year we reported an increase of organizations and finance in the West. We hope to show a larger increase this year. Illinois reported the largest amount in the Department, and the West led with $562.00. (See report.) Michigan, led by Mrs. Georgia Jackson, is the second leading state in the West.

We are proud of each state in the West and each director. We will continue to work with one united effort until the West has reached a complete organization in the church, district, and state.

Conclusion

"A privilege, a responsibility and a difficult task to teach young people today," exclaimed a teacher. Doubtless the privilege and responsibility of teaching young people shall continue, but it need not always be a difficult task. Leadership education eases up the task. We must find a more excellent way because the alert mind of young people demands more and more preparation on the part of the leader. Good leaders can be made possibly by good teachers.

Heaven is not reached at a single bound,
But we build the ladder by which we rise,
From the lowly earth to the vaulted skies,
And we mount to its summit round by round.

—J. G. Holland.

Tupelo, Miss., March 18, 1942

The Woman's Period of the Woman's Convention, Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, Incorporated, assembled in its Southwestern and Southeastern Regional Convention, comprising the states of Arkansas, Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Tennessee, Georgia, Florida, North Carolina and South Carolina, was called to order by National President, Mrs. S. Willie Layten of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in the beautiful and spacious auditorium of the George Washington Carver High School building with the Reverends C. C. Coleman and R. E. Harshaw as host pastors, and Prof. S. L. Batcliff, principal, as custodian, at 7:30 p. m. The president invited Vice President, Mrs. J. C. Mapp, Chicago; State Presidents, Drew, McGowan, Carter, and all participants on the welcome program to the platform.

Among those who graced the platform were Mesdames Layten, Mapp, Drew, McGowan, Carter, Wicks, Coates, Adams, Miss Funches, Drs. Jemison, Bowman, Lovelace, Stephenson and Campbell, with Rev. U. S. Keeling, Jr., of Beaumont, Texas, presiding at the piano. The devotionals were inspiring indeed. A very fervent prayer was offered by Mrs. L. V. Harris, Meridian, Miss., followed by many sentence prayers. A special song service was conducted by Prof. E. W. D. Isaac, Rev. M. C. Durham and others. The opening address by President Layten was quite unique and timely, which set forth in a brief form the program of our National Woman's Auxiliary Convention, and pledging anew its allegiance to the program of the great National Baptist Convention, Incorporated.

Welcome on behalf of Mississippi General Woman's Auxiliary Convention—
Mrs. E. D. McGowan, Edwards.
Welcome on behalf of East Mississippi Woman's Auxiliary Convention—
Mrs. E. O. Coates, Meridian.

Welcome on behalf of Northeast Mississippi Woman's Auxiliary Convention—Mrs. E. L. Wicks, Starkville.

Welcome on behalf of Mississippi Educational Woman's Auxiliary Convention—Mrs. P. M. Carter, Clarksdale.

Each speaker proved herself to be aptly fitted for the task assigned her, thus all delegates were made to feel that Tupelo was the psychological place for such a meeting. Vocal solo—Rev. M. C. Durham, Memphis, Tenn. Words of response were given by Mrs. Maime B. Jones of Arkansas, who was presented by President Layten. Mesdames M. E. Calvin of Terrell, Texas, and Ida McCann of Monroe, La., brought greetings from their respective state presidents. Mesdames Wilson and Wade, which were gladly received. President Layten also announced receipt of letter from Mrs. J. M. C. Amos of Dallas, Texas, President of Texas Baptist Woman's Convention, expressing her inability to attend this meeting.

Vice President Mapp in very choice language presented Dr. D. V. Jenison of Selma, Alabama, President National Baptist Convention, Inc., who accepted the courtesy in a fine spirit and remarked, "It is always my delight to make a woman happy, therefore, if there is anything that I can do that you want done, you have but to call upon me." Dr. Jenison's message was one of deep thought, logic, and high appreciation of pure womanhood. His address was commented upon by President Layten who laid bare the facts of the noble part of the world's great work that is being done by woman, emphasizing the part that she may play in the Country's Defense Program. She also outlined the work of the Committee on Social Action, and reported some of the Committee's achievements. Dr. C. C. Adams, Philadelphia, Pa., our newly elected Corresponding Secretary of Foreign Mission Board, National Baptist Convention, was beautifully presented by Mrs. Ida A. Drew, Arkansas. Dr. Adams has served as chairman of said Board for many years, and was versatile in the conditions confronting our work on foreign fields, hence it wasn't difficult for him to prove himself as a worthy and efficient successor to Dr. J. H. Jackson, of Chicago, Ill. The message did not fall on empty ears. A strong appeal was made for 5000 monthly regulars and with such a fine program outlined, with the cooperation of our constituency, success will attend his earnest efforts. At the conclusion of his message, he presented Miss Primrose Funches who is serving as a successful field worker for Foreign Mission Board, who made a brief talk on missions, and presented the state directress of Young People's Department in Mississippi, Mrs. Lula R. Covington of Canton, Miss., and Mrs. E. A. Armstrong of Meridian. The following Committees were appointed:

THURSDAY—Morning Session, March 19

Promptly at 10:00 a. m., the Woman's Department assembled in the modestly heated temple of above named Church at the appointed hour. Quite a nice delegation greeted the official staff. Long before the hour of opening, Pastor Harshaw had the spacious auditorium in readiness for the meeting. The devotionals were conducted by Mesdames Carter and Covington. The Scripture lesson was selected from 24th number of the Psalm. The song service was indeed inspiring and enthusiastic. Mrs. P. M. Carter offered a heart touching prayer. Consecration Hymn, "I Am Thine," was feelingly sung, after which many appropriate sentence prayers were invoked while the piano softly chanted the strains of "Sweet Hour of Prayer." Mrs. B. G. Whitfield of Jackson, Mississippi, presiding at the piano. The opening talk was given by Mrs. Mapp, who gave a brief review of the work of the National Woman's Auxiliary Convention and explained the possibilities of the new financial set-up. At this period, Mrs. Layten, accompanied by Dr. Jenison and Mrs. C. C. Adams, went to the front and presented Mrs. Adams, who expressed her sincere delight in mingling with new friends in this section of our country. A telegram from State President, Mrs. M. E. Flynn, Meridian, was read by acting secretary, Mrs. Flynn was unavoidably detained at home, owing to the serious illness of her husband. A special prayer in his behalf was offered by Mrs. I. S. Drew, Arkansas. The state presidents of the various state woman's conventions in the state comprising this region were requested to make reports of the condition of their work, and the following ladies participated: Mesdames McGowan, Carter, Drew, McCann, Calvin, Coates and Wicks. The reports were very gratifying. Mrs. L. E. Vaughns, Secretary of N. E. Mississippi Woman's Convention, was presented to the meeting by Mrs. E. L. Wicks who diffused much light upon the work of institutes and school of missions in missionary society activities that had been conducted in her district work. Mrs. L. B. Covington gave an authentic account of the accomplishments of the Young People's Department in Mississippi, also extended greetings from National Directress of Young People's Department, Mrs. L. L. Craig, Atlanta, Ga., who could not be present at this meeting. Pastor Harshaw then presented Mrs. Barnes, President of the Unimlocal missionary society, which had been formerly presented in the incorporated National Convention. She expressed her gratefulness for meeting with such an amiable group of workers and pledged her future support to the objectives of the National Woman's Convention, Inc. Mrs. Mapp mentioned how imperative it is that we support the Campaign of Quarters for the liberation of our one million dollar Publishing House at Nashville, Tenn., and also stressed the importance of our support to our Foreign Mission Board in helping to enlist 5000 Monthly Regulars. National Chairman Drew also made an appeal for the Publishing House. National Chairman

Jones made an appeal for full cooperation of all districts within the region that the $4,000 quota of the Department of District Convention and District President might be met. The Committee on Enrollment submitted its report. (See report.) Mrs. McGowan was loud in her praise of the sentiment made by our having assembled in Tupelo, and lifted an offering of $1.00 making a grand total of $121.00 being raised through the Woman's Department.

WESTERN AND PACIFIC REGIONAL MEETING

Des Moines, Ia., April 15, 1942.
The National Baptist Woman's Western and Pacific Regional Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., assembled at 7:30 p. m., on the above date in the _____ Methodist Church.
President S. W. Layten presiding, announced the Devotional Committee in charge with Mrs. E. Golden of St. Paul, Minn., at the piano. After a season of inspirational singing and prayer, President Layten stated purpose of the meeting and asked State President, Mrs. Cora Haynes, Nebraska; Mrs. Ursula Botts, Mrs. M. Hurrell, Minnesota, and President Ashford, Iowa, to ascend the rostrum.

Mrs. Cora Haynes was presented by President Layten to give words of welcome on behalf of the Western and Pacific Region; Mrs. H. Tull on behalf of the Corinthian Baptist Church Missionary Society; Mrs. Mayme Burrows, Minnesota, gave the response with an expression of acceptance and appreciation.

Music was beautifully rendered by the choir. Solo, "Remember Me," was very effectively sung by Mrs. Goss, after which choir sang "I Am Satisfied." President Layten, in her usual way, very fittingly presented Rev. E. L. Harrison, D. D., of Washington, D. C., for an inspirational address. Matthew 16th chapter was used emphasizing and stressing "Human Values in Life." "Just One Life,"—"How Can I Make the Most of Life," subject, "Jesus Teaches How to Make the Most of Life."

- 1—Law of Self-denial, Matt. 16:24.
- 2—Law of Self-sacrifice.
- 3—Law of Safe Investment.
- 4—Law of Singleness of Purpose.

Three of these laws are on the "Sermon on the Mount" general summary. Make the Kingdom of Life, first. President Layten presented Mrs. M. J. Brockway, Oklahoma, National Parliamentarian, and paid high tribute to her in her accomplishments for "Finer Womanhood," having received an award by Chi Zeta Chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority. She introduced the Rev. J. Pius Barbour, Chester, Pa., who spoke on our Foreign Mission work using as a subject, "The New Approach to Missions."

Mrs. F. B. Watson, Kansas, returned missionary, who spent thirteen years in Africa, gave an interesting message about Africa, its customs, etc. The financial enrollment of messengers and organizations amounted to $53.50. Adjourned to meet at 2:30 p. m., Thursday, at the Corinthian Baptist Church. Benediction, Rev. E. L. Harrison.

REPORT OF ADVANCE COURSES

Dr. M. A. Talley in Charge

Dr. S. W. Layton,
 President of the Woman's Auxiliary Convention
 to the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.:

Pursuant to the action of your Education Commission in Atlanta, Georgia, June, 1942, I take pleasure in reporting to you the results of our first school in Missionary Leadership Training held at Memphis, Tenn., September 9-13, 1942. More than two hundred persons were enrolled for our classes. Only 10 credits were awarded.

In spite of the physical handicap involving tremendous difficulty in finding the various class rooms in that strangely arranged Convention Hall, the interest and enthusiasm of both pupils and teachers ran high and were items of charm and inspiration to your humble servant.

The odds were against us in many ways. First, the venture was new and greatly misunderstood. Second, the class rooms were so awkwardly situated that many registrants never found the location of their classes. Third, certain propaganda was seemingly in circulation which created a hostile attitude toward our work of awarding credits. However, for a first effort of this kind we are glad to report success.

The work of the instructors was excellent and their devotion and loyalty were entirely unusual.

The amount of money raised	$ 22 75
The number of pupils awarded Course Cards	84

I shall be pleased to augment this report at a later date with recommendations for your school for another year.

Sincerely,

MARSHALL A. TALLEY, Dean.
