Bakery Is One of Ord's Oldest Businesses

One of Ord's oldest businesses, with several owners over the period of years, but always known as The Ord City Bakery, will open doors to the public Saturday with a new modernized interior and a complete "beauty treatment."

The Ord Bakery has been in the same location for around 50 years, in fact, the building itself was built especially for a bakery by Peter Mortensen, as an addition to the Mortensen building.

The first tenant was Otto Murschel, erstwhile Ord barber, who ran a bakery and lunch room there for a number of years. He was followed in the business by Warren Draper, who ran a bakery there until his death during the flu epidemic in 1919.

Johnson Brothers, Edwin and Forrest, better known as Pidge and Spot, bought the business from Mrs. Draper, and ran it from 1919 to 1923, when Edwin dropped out and Forrest ran it until he sold out just a few years back. Martin Taylor of Fremont bought Johnson out and took over the business Oct. 14, 1946. Last year Taylor sold out to Frank Drudik, who sold to Hugh Carson. The business has always been a bakery, with lunch room or confectionery in connection.

The owner usually has hired an expert baker to look after the bakery end of the business. Perhaps the best known of these bakers was Hans Andreasen, who baked for Johnson for many years. When Draper owned the business he had a concrete slab put in front of the door, with his name in it in brass nails. This can still be seen there.

"We want to congratulate Hugh Carson on his new place and wish him all kinds of success. You can find our good coffee there. The Donald Company."

Ord Businessmen Show Attractive Display Windows

Christmas Gifts Now Showing; Well Worth Trip Around Square.

Ord business firms are making about the finest display of holiday goods to be seen in Ord since the war or the depression that preceded it. The reason is obvious. More and better goods are on the market at more attractive prices than for at least two decades.

Items are in sufficient quantity to fill the needs of all Christmas shoppers in the Ord territory. Better Shop Early. It is time, however, to reiterate the annual warning about doing your Christmas shopping early. The crowds on the streets and in the shops Saturday amply proved that they are attending to that detail, but there will still be many who will wait until the last minute.

Of lovely gifts for everybody. The Ord Bakery still has the window full of bouquets for their opening on Saturday. Radl Linoleum has a Christmas tree in the window. Don't miss those new mechanical and electrical toys at Gambles. The Ord Theatre is beginning to take on a Christmas air in the pictures being advertised.

LETTERS FROM QUIZ READERS

To The Editor of The Quiz: Water is not only the largest single constituent of all living matter, both plant and animal, but also performs exceedingly important functions. Certainly the importance of an abundant water supply for livestock and poultry is as great in the winter months as in the summer.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passage of urine, burning and itching sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your doctor for Duan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Duan's gives happy relief and will help the 15 million of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Duan's Pills.

Buy it at Home.

Occasionally a newspaper is supposed to publish an editorial with the "Buy It At Home" motif. The idea is a good thing, and does no harm. However, the admonition is not needed nearly as much in the Ord territory as one might suppose. The fact is that the buying public is learning the inescapable fact that buying at home is the saving thing to do.

The merchants of Ord have been proving for years that it pays to buy at home. They have been making their prices such that the buyer can hardly afford to go out of town or send out of town for the goods he needs.

What's Cookin' Ward's Column

Not all of the news is good news, and not all the news is easy to write, or even easy to think about. This week I feel constrained to say a few words in memory of an old friend of mine. If what I may say should cause some to revise their earlier judgment of Charles Cienny, I shall be happy indeed. There was a time I did not think too well of Charlie myself. That was before the days when I had come to know him well. I grant that he may have had his share of faults, but that statement applies to everyone who is reading this. We should not judge a person by his faults, but by his virtues. Looked at from this angle, Charles Cienny looms up as quite a man.

I might mention here that I first came to know him well when I was county assessor up in Garfield county and he was precinct assessor in Midvale precinct, a job he held for well over twenty years. I believe Charlie knew values, and the rest of the assessors usually followed his lead in putting valuations on personal property. I recall one time when he had brought in a sheaf of schedules and we were going over them together. Some represented considerable value, and some very little. Charlie took the pains to explain a few of them.

++ Something Different ++

So many different and interesting things are happening in Ord this year. A handsome new bakery set-up, of which any city would brag. Our hospital, slickered up from stem to stern. Have you inspected it? Really, it is streamlined after the most up-to-date fashion. Even the operating room is painted in a soft blue-green, because surgeons have found that is the most restful and satisfactory color for an operating background!

The weather seems to be doing all right at the present time, but is was not always thus, and so I will endeavor to tell of what befell a young man of our community who will take a joke or dish one out, without taking offense in any case. One day early last spring, when the worst winter on record was almost a thing of the past, George Hastings was driving along on L street with his trailer hitched behind his car. He saw Emil Kokes coming out of the post office, and asked him if he wanted to ride out to the cemetery and back. Emil replied that he did, and climbed in beside George.

Parsons, Kan., took the time to write and tell me how much he appreciated my writing.

Parsons, Kan., took the time to write and tell me how much he appreciated my writing. He had reference especially to this column, and he derives much pleasure from reading it. Since I am paid to write it, the column would be written each week, whether I ever received a comment or a compliment, but there is a certain satisfaction in knowing that some people somewhere each week are getting some enjoyment out of what I write.

Emil was dressed in his Sunday best, and had no overshoes along. After a while they were going through some ruts and chucks, holes and the load on the trailer started to slip off. George had to handle the car, so it was up to Emil to get out in the mud and get the load back in place, while George sat there in comfort. When they got stuck in the mud, of course it was Emil who had to get out and push. As long as they reached the cemetery, did the work that was needed to be done and started back home. George claims that it was all he could do to keep Emil from stopping at every farm house along the road and asking for a handout. George claims that this was the first hard work Emil had done since he used to play football for old Ord high, and the exercise he got was making him hungry. Emil got back a sadder and wiser man. He now says if he ever rides with George again, it will be a one-way trip.

STORING NEBRASKA'S BIG CORN CROP IS A PROBLEM

Many Nebraska farmers face the serious problem of having far more corn than storage space. They must decide whether to build a temporary crib or provide real protection that will merit Government price support.

They are asking their farm leaders as to the right way to solve their problem. Tavern owners, too, often have problems. They want to operate their places in the public interest. They want to earn the respect and goodwill of the citizens in the community. To this end, they welcome the advice of the brewing industry. And they are applying proved methods to their own benefit and that of the community.

The Good English club's contest came to a close last Friday, Dec. 9. A total of 631 labels were collected to be sent to a coffee company to buy gifts for orphans. We extend our thanks to those who helped us this year. Irene, Kenneth and Larry Zulkoski carried off honors this year by collecting the greatest number of labels. Already a new drive was launched for next year's contest.

John A. Palser of Davis Creek Buried Tuesday

Resident 65 Years; Did Much Work for School, Community.

John Ashton Palser, oldest son of Anna Elizabeth and George W. Palser, was born in Pocahontas county, West Virginia, Nov. 27, 1874. As quietly as he had lived he slipped away from this life Dec. 9, 1949 as he entered his doctor's office in Ord.

When ten years of age, his parents and family and his grandparents, the senior Palser, came to Kearney, Nebr., and soon settled on Oak Creek in Sherman county. For a number of years the family home was in the Loup City vicinity and there his father died leaving John at the age of 19 to become head of the family of three brothers and two sisters. Reared in a christian home and being so closely associated with his mother in the responsibilities of a family at so early an age no doubt accounts for many of the sterling qualities which made him loved by those who knew him.

John G. Bremer, Resident 60 Years, Taken by Death

Held Many Positions of Trust; Lived in County Sixty Years.

At 8 a. m. Wednesday, Dec. 7, John G. Bremer of Mira Valley passed to his reward, quickly, peacefully and quietly, a fitting climax to a life spent as nearly as possible at peace with all men. Born Nov. 16, 1872, a son of John Bremer and Bertha Frieen Bremer, John George Bremer was just past 77 years of age at the time of his death.

He was baptized May 18, 1873, in Davenport, Ia., where the family lived. He was confirmed April 3, 1887 in the Evangelical Lutheran church at Davenport, by A. D. Greil, pastor. His confirmation verse was John 8, 12. In the spring of 1889 he moved with the family to Mira Valley, which has been his home for 60 years.

He was a member of St. John's Lutheran church of Mira Valley since its organization in the fall of 1889. He remained faithful as an elder and an officer until his death. He was married May 22, 1907 to Elsie Vogeler of North Loup, the ceremony being performed by Rev. R. O. Hellwege.

This union was blessed with eight children, James A. Bremer, St. Liberty, Nebr.; George J. Bremer, Ord; William M. Bremer, Ord; Mrs. Lois Michael, White, S. Dak.; Mrs. Ava Michael, White, S. Dak.; Franklin D. Bremer, Ord; Mrs. Frances Friedrich, Alta, Ia.; and John David Bremer, who died in infancy.

Besides his children and his wife, Mr. Bremer is survived by one brother, Louis of Scotia, and five sisters, Mrs. Caroline Hellwege, Mrs. Augusta Lange, Mrs. Emilie Dobberstine, Mrs. Laura Fuss and Mrs. Bertha Bremer, all of Ord. He was preceded in death by his infant son, his parents, one brother, Julius Bremer of Davenport, Ia., and one sister, Mrs. Frieda Rachuy of Ord.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at St. John's Lutheran church in Mira Valley, Rev. Paul Priesz, pastor, in charge. The church choir sang "Asleep in Jesus" and "Nearer My God, to Thee". Six nephews of Mr. Bremer acted as pall bearers.

Attending the body were William Hately, manager of the Farmers Grain and Supply company and the members of the board, and James B. Ollis, secretary of the Loup National Farm Loan Association and the members of the board.

It was Mr. Bremer's oft expressed wish that there be no flowers, but many were sent. Others followed out his wish and gave donations to various Lutheran charitable institutions in his memory.

Ravenna Holds Grid Banquet

Two hundred persons were in attendance Monday evening of last week at the annual Ravenna grid banquet, which was held in the high school auditorium. It was the largest attendance in many years, and the first in the new building, completed last spring.

Ladies of the Rebekah order, assisted by high school girls, served the two-course meal. Supr. Linn of Ravenna served as toastmaster, and Coach Bob Webb delivered a fine talk. Marvin "Preacher" Franklin, end coach from the University of Nebraska was the principal speaker, and Ron Clark was an honored guest.

Dakar, Clipper Stop

Dakar, capital of French West Africa, is the first African stop on a clipper route. During the war, Dakar was one of the largest air traffic centers in Africa. It held a commanding position on the southern route from the United States to the battle fronts in North Africa. President Roosevelt flew to Casablanca by way of Dakar in 1943.

Fifty Years of Football as Shown by the Old Files of the Ord Quiz

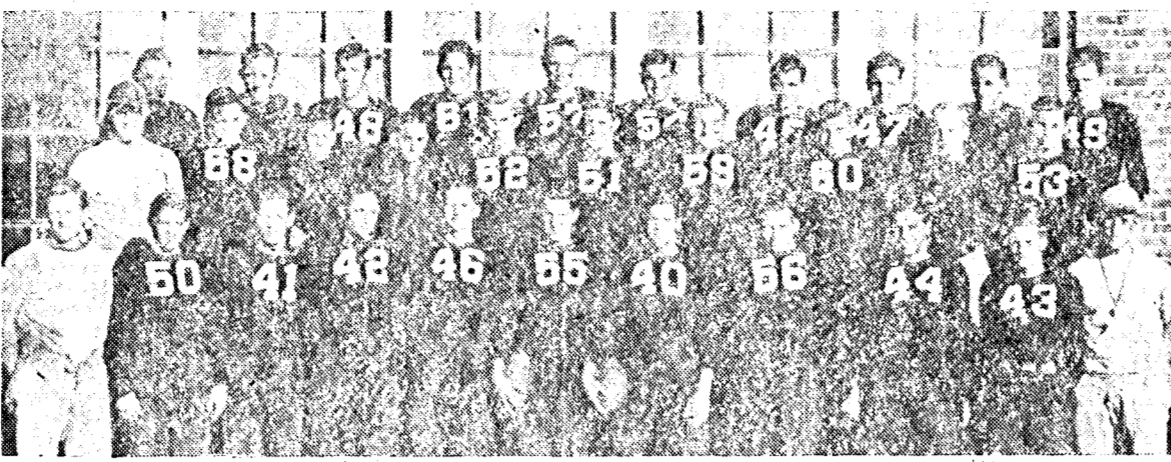

Roscoe Tolly was Ord's coach at the opening of the 1940 football season, with Max Hester as his assistant. A photo in the Quiz of Sept. 4, shows them checking out equipment to two of Ord's hopefuls, who later fulfilled expectations, Gould Flagg and Alex Cochrane. Football practice was set for Monday and Tuesday afternoons, and there were 65 boys in uniform, 35 on the first squad and the rest under the direction of Mr. Hester.

The first game of the season was with St. Paul, Sept. 27. The Chanticleers won this one 20 to 7, in a game played at St. Paul. Early in the first period Furtak intercepted a St. Paul pass and ran it back to the ten yard line, scoring on the next play, but it was nullified by a penalty. Ord scored on two passes, Flagg to Christensen, and Flagg carried the other score around end. Furtak and Cetak each kicked an extra point.

Broken Bow scored first at Ord on a pass, but Ord came back strong to win the first game at home, 25 to 6. Christensen caught two touchdown passes and Flagg and Cetak each made one. Ord won the next game at Burwell, 7 to 0. Cetak blocked a punt and Timmerman fell on the ball for the only touchdown. With Flagg holding, Furtak kicked the extra point.

Ord kept their record clean by lying Albion, 6 to 6. Christensen going over for the only Ord touchdown. Ravenska walloped Ord in the next game, 31 to 0. Sargent next defeated Ord, 9 to 6. The Chanticleers defeated Loup City, 16 to 0 in the Thanksgiving Day game. Flagg and Christensen did the scoring, but Furtak's fine punting kept the ball well in Loup City territory most of the time. Furtak and Christensen were elected co-captains for 1940.

Ord opened the 1941 season in a blaze of glory by defeating Grand Island at Bussell Park by a score of 7 to 0. Flagg scored through center, and tossed a pass to Henry Adams for the extra point. Starting the game were Adams and Cochrane, ends; Petska and Timmerman, tackles; James and Rousek, guards; Fryzek, center; Flagg, Maresch, Stewart and Cetak, backs.

Ord next went to Broken Bow to win handily 12 to 0. Flagg and Cetak did the scoring for Ord. Burwell came to Ord next and put up a good fight, although outweighted 15 pounds to a man. The final score of 20 to 0 was the result of Ord's power, rather than speed. Cetak made two touchdowns and an extra point, Flagg made a touchdown, and Cochrane caught a pass for an extra point.

Ord won over Albion next, 7 to 0. James and Cetak blocked an Albion kick from the end zone, Maresch caught the ball in the air and carried it over for the only marker. The Chanticleers won sweet revenge over Ravenska for their only defeat of 1940, when they made a track meet of the annual game, winning by 58 to 0.

Fomer Ord assistant coach, Max Hester, was coaching Ravenska that year, and Alex Cochrane sr. was assistant to Coach Tolly for Ord. Playing in 1941 were Alex Cochrane, Jr., Bob Timmerman, Edward Rousek, Jerry Fryzek, Robert James, Junior Petska, Henry Adams, Frank Misko, Bailey Flagg, Otto Maresch, George Cetak, Floyd Stewart, Bill Novosad, Milo Rose, Roland Beran, Anton Greenwald, Loyal Hurlbert, Don Petersen, Junior Wilson, Orie Hurlbert, Keith Tyrell, Elton Walker, Charlie Sowers, and Don Jensen.

Ord next won over Loup City, 34 to 0, Cetak making 3 touchdowns, Stewart one and Flagg one. Flagg, Cochrane and Cetak were the stars in Ord's win over Arcadia 41 to 0, played in bitterly cold weather. Mason of Sargent was the first and only man to score against Ord in 1941, dashing 75 yards on a trick play in which the entire team ran interference for the runner. Ord went on to win 33 to 6, however. St. Paul held Ord to a scoreless tie Thanksgiving Day. Alex Cochrane, Bob Timmerman, Junior Petska, Ed Rousek, Jerry Fryzek, Gould Flagg and Henry Adams played their last game.

Ord went to Grand Island for the opening game of the 1942 season, and came home with a scoreless tie. The Ord lineup for that game was: ends, Petersen and Novosad; tackles, Covert and Kenfield; guards, A. Stewart and James; center, Rose; backs, Sowers, F. Stewart, Maresch and Cetak. Of interest is the fact that Detweiler played left end on the Grand Island team, a grandson of W. T. Detweiler, once of Ord.

Ord showed up strong in defeating Ansley 21 to 0, with Maresch, once a back, playing tackle in the place where Kenfield, who quit school, had been doing fine work.

Cetak and B. Novosad did the Ord scoring. In the annual Burwell game Ord won 27 to 6, with Connie Swanson scoring for the Longhorns. Cetak apparently did most of the ground gaining in this game, but details are lacking.

Floyd Stewart paced Ord's 44 to 0 win over Albion on the Ord field. The fleet back scored three touchdowns. Cetak was also going in fine shape in this game. In very cold weather at Bussell Park, Ord and Broken Bow played a scoreless tie. Cetak scored for Ord. Sowers and Novosad looked good for Ord. The Chanticleers handed Loup City a 21 to 0 defeat at Loup City with Cetak scoring twice, Stewart once and Krolkowsk counting for the opposition.

Ord won over Sargent by a score of 33 to 0. Ord linemen had a field day, playing far better than in earlier games. With Bill Novosad scoring the lone touchdown, Ord won their game with Lexington. Defensive play, by both teams caused the St. Paul Ord turkey day game to end in a scoreless tie, and it also cost Ord the three-valleys pennant, which went to Loup City.

Lettermen remaining for the 1943 campaign included Rose, Shibata, Hurlbert, Beran, Novosad, Severson, L. Hurlbert, Sowers, Wilson, Stewart and Finley. Promising candidates included Stowell, Jablonski, Kovanda, Whitford, Vancura, Randolph, Kusek, Lewis and Tolen. Ord beat Scotia in the first game, score 13 to 0. Junior Wilson started the two passes that scored for Ord, one caught by Randolph, the other by L. Hurlbert.

Ord then went to Ansley and defeated them by a score of 26 to 0. Hurlbert and Sowers accounted for all the Ord tallies. Loyal Hurlbert scored three times against Burwell. Ord winning 20 to 7. Phillips made the Burwell touchdown. The Chanticleers ran wild at Albion to win 38 to 0. Hurlbert made three touchdowns, Sowers made two and Wilson made one. While Wilson kicked the extra points.

Broken Bow became the next victim of Ord, 12 to 0. Hurlbert and Sowers did the scoring, and Ord fozzled two more scores. Ord turned in a very poor performance in its win over Loup City, 19 to 0. All the points were made in the second quarter, Hurlbert making two and Sowers one, and the rest of the time the game was played on about even terms.

Ord next defeated Sargent to take the Three-Valleys title, the score being 23 to 0. Charlie Sowers scored three and Finley one. Ord played the last game of the season (not a Thanksgiving game) at Lexington and beat the Minutemen 27 to 0. Wilson scored twice in this game, Hurlbert once and Finley once.

Starting lineup for the opening game of 1944 against Scotia was: Laverne Jablonski and Richard Rich, ends; Vancura and Willard Stowell, tackles; Laverne Jablonski and Lehecka, guards; Severson, center; Tommy Tolen, Satterfield, Finley and Novosad, backs. Alex Cochrane was still coach.

The first game against Scotia at Bussell park was won 30 to 0, in spite of the fact that Ord was penalized a total of 215 yards, some record in itself. Bud Novosad played fullback part of the game. Jablonski caught a pass for Ord's first score. Tolen made the second and Rich caught a pass for the third, and Finley and Novosad each made one, but none of the extra point tries clicked.

Ord next went to O'Neill and defeated the Irish 20 to 0, Jablonski making two touchdowns. Shibata one and Finley one. The next game at Burwell ended in a 7 to 7 tie with the first half scoreless. Finley scored on a 12-yard reverse and Tolen passed to Rich for the extra point. Later Burwell recovered a fumble by Hugh Cahill, sub quarterback, and Sloane passed to Haines for the touchdown and booted the extra point.

Ord outplayed Broken Bow on the Ord field to gain a 12 to 6 victory. Jim Finley and Satterfield threw passes to Laverne Jablonski for their two scores. Vooors passed to Fullback Cox for the only warrior score. Kirk Lewis appeared in this game at center. Manchester also got into this game. The Chanticleers went on to defeat Ravenna, 20 to 0. Stewart scored two and Satterfield one.

Sargent was the next easy victim, the score being 45 to 0, and the squad came through in fine shape for the Lexington game. Cochrane used a second team for much of this game, as follows: Larsen and Lehecka, ends; Piskorski and Stowell, tackles; Goff and Anderson, guards; Hurlbert, center; Cahill, Tolen, Manchester and Kowinek, backs.

Lexington came to Ord for the final game of the 1944 season, and with high hopes of breaking Ord's winning streak. They went down to defeat, however, by a score of 13 to 7. The score was 7 to 7 at the half. Finley scored for Ord and Warren for Lexington. Kenny Shibata was injured and unable to play his final game for Ord, but Babe Hurlbert ably took his place. This seems to figure another Ord run of 31 games without a defeat, with 1945 coming up.

Guarding against Termites
In some sections of the country termite infestation constitutes a menace to the structural safety of dwellings. Regular inspection of points where termites might gain entrance is desirable. No encouragement should be given by leaving boards, stakes, or scraps of lumber about. All timber should preferably be kept from contact with the earth but, if touching the earth, it should be pressure-treated with creosote, or other suitable preservative.

Services During Yuletide Begin Wednesday Eve

All Churches of Ord Have Plans for the Holiday Season.

All the churches of Ord unite this week bringing to their parishioners thoughts in keeping with the spirit of Christmas.

Christmas is the most joyous holiday of the year. The beauty of the season, the gay decorations, the family reunions and the widespread exchange of gifts produce a universal sense of exhilaration and festivity.

Midnight Mass Saturday. At Our Lady of Perpetual Help church the midnight Mass Saturday night will be preceded by chimes played from the belfry of the church.

Christmas Masses on Christmas day will be celebrated at 8:30 and 9:30 a. m.

2 Programs Tonight. The Christmas festivities actually begin the evening of Dec. 21 when two Ord churches will put on programs.

Santa Coming. Three Ord churches will have their Christmas programs Friday evening.

Also Thursday evening the Assembly of God church will present a program to be put on by the children of the Sunday school.

Tree and Treats. Sunday the program at the Evangelical United Brethren church will replace the Sunday school hour at 10:30, following the preaching service.

Coming latest in order of time, will be the services at Bethany Lutheran church. There will be Sunday school service at 10:30, followed by the church service at 11:30 with the singing of Christmas Carols.

They took a 10 to 7 lead at the quarter and were never headed, being ahead 28 to 20 at the half.

SECTION ONE THE ORD QUIZ, ORD, NEBRASKA THURSDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1949 Vol. 67, No. 39

Santa Claus Here Full Week; Will Appear in Stores Steen Gets Letter from Saint; to Be at Theater Thursday.

It is all settled now. Last week end Bill Steen, president of the Ord Chamber of Commerce, got a fine letter from Santa Claus, saying that he would be able to spare the time, and that he would make a personal appearance in various Ord stores all this week.

While Santa isn't quite sure, he thinks there may be snow on the ground by Thursday, and Santa always likes snow, except when it is deep, like it was last winter.

The merchants committee of the Ord Chamber of Commerce has announced that the stores will remain open late Friday evening, Dec. 23, and will close at 6 p. m. Saturday evening.

REA Co-Op to Hold Fourth Annual Meeting The Loup Valley Rural Electric Membership Association Co-operative of Ord will hold its annual meeting at Ord on Jan. 12, 1950, Co-op Manager W. P. Hollands announced today.

Demolition work was started last week on the old Milford building at the southwest corner of the square, owned by D. E. Troyer.

The original building was constructed in 1883, according to the files of the Quiz for that year, on lots bought by G. W. Milford from Fred Harris on the corner south of the county clerk's office, which was then located about where the present Grill stands.

The new Mid-Nebraska Night Baseball league, of which Ord will be a member, is all set up and ready to go, thanks to a meeting held last Wednesday evening at Loup City at which officers were elected and plans for 1950 made.

Starting in May the league will play a 28-game schedule. Games in May will be on Sundays only, either afternoon or night at the option of the local team, but starting with June two games weekly will be played, on Wednesday and Sunday nights.

Early in January the Ord Baseball club will call a meeting at which the league plans will be outlined. At this time it is also hoped to organize a twilight baseball league to play twice-weekly 7-inning games next summer, composed of four rural and Ord teams.

Four other men in the area are announced as affiliates, one of them being Edwin O. Armstrong, junior member of the firm of Armstrong & Armstrong of Ord.

Continental to Present a New Directory Soon Nebr. Continental Telephone company is now in the process of preparing a new telephone directory for the year 1950 and the book will soon be in the hands of the printers.

Lloyd Cole Hunt, Born in County, Passes Monday Spent Most of Life in Cottonwood Area Southwest of Ord.

Lloyd Cole Hunt, son of William and Helen Hunt, was born March 7, 1902 in Cottonwood district, nine miles southwest of Ord, and departed this life at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hackel in Ord on December 19, 1949 at the age of 47 years, 9 months, 12 days.

Mr. Hunt grew to manhood in this community and was loved and respected by all who knew him. He was of a quiet nature, bearing his suffering with patience. He had been in poor health for quite some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunt lived on the farm near Ord until 1941 when they moved to Kearney, Nebr. In 1942 they moved to Boulder, Colo. Mr. Hunt was saved and united with the First Baptist church of Boulder on Feb. 17, 1945. He served as a trustee of the church until his health prevented.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 at the Hastings-Pearson chapel, with Rev. Eugene Olson in charge, assisted by Rev. L. V. Hassel, Miss Dorothy Morris and Mrs. Eugene Olson each sang a selection.

Thirteen Games in Trans-Nebraska Conference Play Mostly Outside Games Being Played During Month of December.

Trans-Nebraska teams took part in thirteen games during the past week, the record herewith given including games from one Tuesday night until the next, inclusive.

The Ord-Gothenburg game, Dec. 15, is reported elsewhere. Six games were played Dec. 16, as follows: North Platte throttled Broken Bow, 47 to 35; Burwell beat St. Paul, overtime, 28 to 27; Arapahoe won over Loup City, 41 to 26; Geneva defeated Seward, 35 to 28; and Sutton defeated Crete, 29 to 25.

In addition to the Ravenna-Ord game Sutton plays Superior Dec. 20 in a non-conference game. Loup City will play Ravenna in a conference game Dec. 23, and the same night Crete will confer with David City in a non-conference tilt.

INJURED BY TRUCK Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Albert Volf and Maylon drove to Grand Island to see Daniel Vodernal, five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Vodernal, who was critically hurt last Wednesday morning when he ran into the side of a truck. The boy received a skull fracture and was taken to St. Francis hospital.

Hospital Board Meets for First Annual Session Ord Firemen Attend; Offer Hospital Use of Their Inhalator.

The Board of Directors of the Ord Cooperative Hospital Association met in the County Superintendent's office on Tuesday, December 20 at the call of the president, Archie Geweke. The directors were particularly anxious to get all business finished before the end of the year so that a complete report could be made at the first regular annual meeting of the stockholders in January.

The hospital, though still lacking much equipment, has now been open for several weeks. The directors wish to express their appreciation for the extra services given by the local workmen in repairing and remodeling, for the interest and consideration of all merchants who installed furnishing and equipment, and they are not forgetting the ladies who helped make bedspreeds and draperies.

Some of the special furnishings and equipment are still not in place, but every effort is being made to secure delivery of orders which were placed six weeks or two months before opening date. It is hard to be patient, but the directors still hope to have a hospital fully equipped and one which will serve this community for many years, to present at the first annual stockholders' meeting.

A group of Ord firemen met with the directors and made an offer which the directors were glad to accept. The inhalator which was purchased by Ord Fire Department several years ago is to be made available to the hospital for emergency use. The firemen are not relinquishing ownership of the inhalator and will still answer emergency calls made upon them. The inhalator will be kept at the hospital, and the firemen will assist the hospital staff in the use of it. The directors appreciate the fine spirit of cooperation which prompted this offer.

The secretary Clara McClatchey, has all the stockholders certified in her office and will be glad to have all who have not done so bring in their receipts and pick up the certificates.

Soil Conservation Men Visit County Valley county had two very interesting visitors last week, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Arthur E. McClymonds, regional chief of project plans division of the Soil Conservation Service, and Bernard H. Hopkins, chief of project plans division, also of the SCS. These men visited many farmers in Valley county with Leslie C. Nash.

Both McClymonds and Hopkins live in Lincoln, Nebr. and work in Region Five of the Soil Conservation Service, which covers Montana, Wyoming, North and South Dakota, Kansas and Nebraska. It was the first visit to the county of these men and they were highly impressed with the county and the people as well.

HOSPITAL NEWS. Melvin Whitford was taken from the hospital Monday to the home of Mrs. Walker for further rest. Chas. Veleba, Mrs. Geo. Krajnik and Keith Lewis are medical patients of Dr. Chas. Brannen. Mrs. Gerald N. Manchester is a medical patient of Dr. C. J. Miller. Dr. Geo. R. Gard extracted five teeth for Donna Miller of Burwell last Saturday. Dr. F. A. Barta removed Bill Anderson's tonsils Monday evening.

SELLING STUMPS QUIZ. Recently the Quiz has had a little difficulty with two names in one family, due to unusual spelling. The DeForest Wrights of Los Angeles spell that first name with two "Es" together, as shown, and their new son is Sean Michael and not Dean Michael, as we had it. The Scan is pronounced "Shawn."

Ord Townies Cop Close Battle at Ashton Tuesday

First Season Game; Boys Looking for More Contests.

Tuesday of last week the Ord Townies, the newly organized town basketball team, autored to Ashton to win an extra period 41 to 37 basketball game from the Ashton town team.

They took a 10 to 7 lead at the quarter and were never headed, being ahead 28 to 20 at the half. Ashton came back strong in the last half, tieing the game at 35 all at the end of the fourth period.

J. Finley led the Ord scoring with 22 points, and D. Dilla was close behind with 12. Two points each for D. Wozniak, D. Watson, J. Hurlbert rounded out the Ord scoring. J. Dilla and D. Malolepy did some fine guarding in their substitute roles.

First Air Mail at Lexington Dec. 20

The first air mail flight out of Lexington, Nebr., took place Tuesday of this week, Dec. 20. George Lincoln, postmaster, estimated that more than 22,000 letters had been posted in time for the scheduled flight. The mail went west from Lexington to North Platte. A special cachet was sent from Washington to the Lexington post office to be used for stamping all mail sent on this special trip.

Ord Chanticleers Drop Hot Contest to Gothenburg

Locals Had Trouble Locating Basket on Many Foul Throws.

Ord's Chanticleers were unable to match goals with the Swedes from Gothenburg at the Ord high gym Thursday evening, and lost the contest by a final score of 33 to 21. The score by quarters was: first quarter, 2-3; second quarter, 6-12; and third quarter, 14-21.

Ord got off to a slow start, and had three baskets nullified by fouls. They also missed enough free throws to have put the game on ice, or at least to have made it a more even contest.

Ord made good on only 7 out of 19 chances from the foul line, while the Swedes made seven out of a possible thirteen. Richardson was high point man for Ord, with 7. Johnson was high for Gothenburg, also with 7.

Starting for Ord were Maurice and Falter, forwards; Richardson, center; and Stoddard and Heuck, guards. A complete team of substitutes saw service during the game. They were: Moore and Sowers, forwards; Penas, center; and Stones and Adamek, guards.

Lexington Parks Are Given Names

The City of Lexington is well supplied with parks, having, until recently, had four parks named from their locations, North, East, South and West. The names were not pleasing to the public, although they answered the purpose.

Thomas Rogers, 75, Buried Thursday in Ord Cemetery

Former Resident, He Lived 15 Years at Fort Collins, Colo.

The body of Thomas Rogers was brought to Ord from Fort Collins for burial Thursday afternoon. Rev. Eugene Olson gave a short prayer at the Hastings-Parson chapel, which was followed by committal service at the grave.

The family came to Ord in the 90s, locating in Ord. Thomas attended college, either in St. Paul or Grand Island, probably the Grand Island Baptist college, since the family were Baptists.

He married Angie Jones March 22, 1907, and they lived on the John Jones homestead in Plain Valley, 14 miles northeast of Ord, which he had purchased. Mrs. Rogers died Jan. 3, 1919.

Leg Is Fractured in Wrecker Call

The life of a man who drives a wrecker is not without its dangers, as Frank Trader of Ashland discovered. He slipped and fell on the icy pavement last week while answering an emergency call, and fractured his right leg.

He and Robert Benting had gone to Melia Hill with the wrecker from the Ashland Motor Co. to pull a car out of the ditch. He was taken to the Veterans hospital in Lincoln and is reported in a satisfactory condition.

A report by the Sargent hospital committee on the work of the building shows that all but about two thousand dollars of the four-thousand-dollar fund collected has been spent, and that the work is not nearly finished.

Custer County Pioneer Holds 101st Birthday

Charles W. Duke, pioneer of Nebraska and Custer county, is one of the oldest men in Nebraska, although he says he does not feel any older than fifty.

Mr. Duke was born Dec. 11, 1849, in Dayton, O., and can remember many details of the Civil war. Most of his life was spent near Mason City in Custer county. His first homestead was eight miles from Mason City at the bend of Elk Creek, and he had a part in establishing the first bank in Mason City. His eyes are weak, but his general health is good.

The Spirit of Christmas.

This is the time of year when the children are supposed to be very, very good, and usually are. It is also true, but not so easily observed, that their parents are on their good behavior. And why not? As the world approaches the period of "Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men" the people catch the spirit of the season, and forget their troubles for a time.

Aside from the religious significance of the time, it is a period of consummation, a full year's buildup to a climax. The close of the year is at hand, when men take stock of the labors of the past twelve months and find out how they stand. People are looking forward to the New Year and what it may bring. People forget the worries of the past in the joys of the present and the anticipations of the future.

In America we should be glad that we have the privilege of enjoying the Christmas holiday and all that it implies without hindrance from governmental authority. This is not true in many countries, nor will it be true this year in most of China, where many have embraced Christianity.

In Armenia, for example, communism has made every possible effort to discourage the Christian religion. A communistic government must be supreme. It must admit no division of homage. Therefore Armenia, one of the earliest and most devout seats of Christianity, has become a Godless state.

Armenia is one of the many so-called Soviet republics. To call it a republic is blasphemy. In a republic the state is the servant of the people. In Armenia the people are the slaves of the state. There the people are created equal, and they are kept in an equal of adject subservience to authority.

Armenia is only an example of what has happened and is happening in all communist dominated nations. When a state undertakes to control a man's life from the cradle to the grave, it must control his thinking. It cannot permit him to think for himself in religion or in other way of life. To communist dominated people, Christmas has become a mockery.

No "Good Old Days"

When old timers get together, or even when some of the people not so old run out of something else to talk about, the "Good Old Days" is likely to become a subject for conversation. Just what is meant by the phrase, or what are the days referred to may vary in the minds of the men discussing the subject, but those days certainly were good.

Yes, there were good old days, but those days were no better than the good days of the present time. The essence of goodness is in the hearts of men, whether they live today, or in those good old days. What makes good days, then or now, is a condition in the minds and hearts of men, as influenced by outside circumstances.

For example, the winter of 1918-1919 could hardly be classed as a good time. Weather conditions were never worse, and in many cases there was actual physical suffering and privation, to say nothing of severe financial loss and waste of time that could have been spent in other work. But, from the angle of bringing out the best in men, that winter will go down in history as one of the best. Days and weeks were spent by many in unselfish service for others without thought of personal gain. Men spent hours of toil in bringing aid to people they had never seen before and probably will never see again.

The two decades following 1896 are often spoken of as the Golden Age of America, and with reason. The country had just come out of the depression of 1894-1895, and everybody in the land was to enjoy a long period of good living, broken only by the short financial flurry of 1907, and extending to the entry of the United States into the World War.

It might be said that nobody was getting rich, and everybody was making a living. The Spanish-American war was too short to affect the economic structure to any great extent. The farmers were blessed with fair to good crops, and received prices in line with what they had to pay for what they bought.

Yet, those years were no better than the time in which we are living today. If we choose to forget the huge government debt hanging over us, we can go right on being happy in a fools' paradise. Since we, as individuals can do little about it, why not forget, live in the present and stop worrying. If we do this, we can make each day we live as good as the best of the "Good Old Days."

My Own Column

By H. D. Leggett

"Between the innocence of babyhood and the dignity of manhood we find a delightful creature called a boy. Boys come in assorted sizes, weights, and colors, but all boys have the same creed: To enjoy every second of every minute of every hour of every day and to protest with every noise (their only weapon) when their last minute is finished, and the adult males pick them off to bed at night.

Boys are found everywhere—on top of, underneath, inside of, climbing on, swinging from, running around, or jumping to. Mothers love them, little girls hate them, older sisters and brothers tolerate them, adults ignore them, and Heaven protects them. A boy is Truth with dirt on its face, Beauty with a cut on its finger, Wisdom with bubble gum in its hair, and the Hope of the Future with a frog in its pocket.

When you are busy, a boy is an inconsiderate, bothersome, intruding jangle of noise. When you want him to make a good impression, his brain turns to jelly or else he becomes a savage, sadistic, jungle creature bent on destroying the world and himself with it.

A boy is a composite—he has the appetite of a horse, the digestion of a sword swallower, the energy of a pocket-size atomic bomb, the curiosity of a cat, the lungs of a dictator, the imagination of a Paul Bunyan, the shyness of a violet, the audacity of a steel trap, the enthusiasm of a fire-cracker, and when he makes something, he has five thumbs on each hand.

He likes ice cream, knives, saws, Christmas comic books, toy airplanes, dirt, woods, water (in its natural habitat), large animals, Dad, trains, Saturday mornings, and five engines. He is not much for Sunday school, company, schools, books without pictures, music lessons, neckties, barbets, girls, overcoats, adults, or bedtime.

Nobody else is so early to rise, or so late to supper. Nobody else gets so much fun out of trees, dogs, and breezes. Nobody else can cram into one pocket a rusty knife, a half-eaten apple, three feet of string, an empty Bull Durham sack, two gum drops, six cents, a sling shot, a chunk of unknown substance, and a genuine super-sonic code ring with a secret compartment.

A boy is a magical creature—

you can lock him out of your workshop, but you can't lock him out of your heart. You can get him out of your study, but you can't get him out of your mind. Might as well give up—he is your captor, your jailer, your boss, and your master—a freckled-faced, pint-sized, cat-chasing, bundle of noise. But when you come home at night with only the shattered pieces of your hopes and dreams, he can mend them like new with the two magic words—"Hi Dad!"

No, I am not the author of the above—wish I could have been. It was printed in an insurance magazine and Duane Armstrong of the Armstrong Agency gave it to me to read. Later I noticed that the editors of Readers Digest thought enough of it to reproduce it.

I have heard several people remark, lately, on the large amount of local news items that Miss Bresley is gathering for the Quiz. They run into the hundreds every week. Miss Bresley is a hard worker. She devotes a lot of young energy to doing her job and she is entitled to a lot of credit. But it must not be forgotten that the fine cooperation of scores of Quiz readers also helps. They remember to call 30 and give in the news that they know; many of them jot the items down and bring or send them in also. Not only we of the Quiz management appreciate this cooperation—the hundreds of subscribers also appreciate it and I am hoping that many others will adopt the fine habit of seeing that we get the news.

Sometimes people forget the changed conditions in doing all kinds of business, and this applies to gathering news the same as it does to everything else. I used to go personally to both depots, if Mrs. Chapman happened to be in disposed, and get the news. Then if people traveled they went on the trains and we could get most of the news in that way. But now people in and all around Ord, when they take a trip, drive out of their own yard, make the trip and return home a day or a week later and unless they take the trouble to let us know, there is no possible way that we will know about their trip. So you see why it is that we so appreciate the cooperation of everyone in getting the news to us promptly.

Yes, I am still sending in new and renewal subscriptions for the World-Herald and the State Journal and appreciate the business. I can't save you any money, except the stamp and envelope that it takes, but it does save you the bother of sending it yourself, and it doesn't cost you anything to give me the business.

There is no chance for the government or the state or the city or the schools, or anyone else for that matter, to cut the overhead expense because the people insist upon continuing to get every service they ever had, and not only that but they also insist upon having added privileges all the time, more holidays on full pay, more insurance at government expense, more everything, and it all costs money. And the same is true with the large manufacturers. Labor has demanded and received several pay increases besides many other things, yet when the big steel companies announce a raise in the price of steel the heads of the Union denounce the raise as robbery. Seems most unreasonable to me.

fer is still in effect. But don't put it off any longer.

And another thought—there are still nearly half a hundred Dec. 15 expirations that should have been renewed. They will have to be stopped unless we receive the renewal soon.

Again I wish you all a Merry Christmas.

Taylor Detweiler is a new linotype operator at the Quiz plant, starting work on the night shift Monday. He came from Bartlett, where he had been visiting his mother, but has been employed until recently at Lexington, Nebr. He has a room in the C. E. Gilroy home.

We Have Grown By Helping Others Grow

What's Cookin' Ward's Column

Well, it's about time to get caught up on my correspondence, as I have received several interesting letters in the past week or two.

Charles M. Roberts, who will be remembered by many of the older residents. He is living in Portland, Ore. He heard that I collect pencils, so he sent me some, four of one kind, by the way, and made in Portland and called "The Bonaville."

Then I received a letter from Q. E. Groves of Columbus, Ohio, who figures he must be some relation to me.

Mr. Groves traces his ancestry back four generations to a group of Wards who lived in Ohio and were born there in one family from 1801 to 1828.

Last week I received a copy of the Moline Daily Dispatch of Moline, Ill. There was nothing to indicate who sent it, but an item was marked which showed a picture of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ward of Hildale, Ill., who were planning to celebrate their Golden Wedding anniversary Dec. 13, which happens to be my father's birthday.

Clarence Ward is a son of Theudas Ward, of Kansas, who was a nephew of my father, and therefore should be a cousin of mine. Fifty years ago I did not know I had many Ward relatives, but since then I have found that the woods are full of them.

This week I notice a good story in the Schuyler Sun. I don't know who wrote it, but I strongly suspect Amos Svoboda. Any how I figure the story is good enough to share, and it goes like this: Over in Linwood they have been having pig trouble. Seems like they don't know their pigs or somebody is performing magic, it was reported to a representative of the Sun the other day.

The narrator told about a farmer in the community who made a trip to Fremont to buy a red boar. Imagine his chagrin if you can, upon arriving home and discovering he had a white boar. But they had another incident—another pig affair—which topped that one.

One time quite a few years ago two of us were doing some work northeast of Ord along the Elm Creek road. In those days the road went directly west to the south of the Frank Adamek place and went up a steep hill. Also there was no surface or gravel. We got through the job at noon and started to walk to Ord. Half a mile north of the above hill a certain Ordite passed us in his auto, and failed to offer us a ride, although he was alone in the car. When we came to the hill, there was the Ord man, half way up the hill and trying his best to make it the rest of the way, but it was early spring and the road was too greasy.

Along the same line is a story of which I do not have all the details, but it will bear telling, for the benefit of those who have not heard it. Back in the days of prohibition and home brew a little fellow named Joe Sowokinos lived down in Independent township. He weighed about three hundred pounds, and was suspected of selling much of his corn in liquid form.

By the way, we taxpayers, whether we be farmers, business men, laborers, or what have you, are being taken for a ride today. The tax collector is getting a little more being paid out in taxes, either visible or invisible. I wonder what the politicians would or could do if we, like Joe Sowokinos, would sit tight and refuse to get out and push. Perhaps we might not be in jail as Joe was.

Harry Waller thought he had the laugh on the Quiz last week. He was very much surprised when he was told of how former State Senator Doyle was fined $50 for violating the traffic law he put teeth in, but was permitted to keep his license.

However, in explanation of the apparent divergence of the two stories it might be said that two different judges figured in the cases, and judges do not all see alike. Perhaps Judge Cochon is stepping up his fines a bit with respect to traffic violations.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ackles were Sunday dinner and supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Geneski.

—Mr. and Mrs. Dean Bresley and family drove to Lexington Sunday to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wisda and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Wisda. They returned at night.

Elyria

Preparations at St. Mary's church for Christmas are in full swing. A number helped to erect the crib Sunday afternoon. Services on Christmas day will consist of singing Christmas Carols beginning at 11:30 p. m. followed by the traditional midnight mass.

Brick Timmons Dies.

Word came to Scotia relatives and friends of Walter (Brick) Timmons, that he had passed away Monday, Dec. 19, in a Grand Island hospital.

Wittwers Celebrate.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Wittwer celebrated their 42nd wedding anniversary by entertaining seven couples at pinocle Sunday night. Greeley Gebhardt and Mrs. Wm. Bredthauer won high scores. Mrs. Wittwer served a delicious lunch.

Methodist Program.

The youngsters of the Methodist Sunday school gave their Christmas program Sunday night. Each child brought a pound of unwrapped corn as their white offering to be sent to the Mother Jewell's home at York. Santa Claus' appearance delighted all the children. After a gift exchange, coffee, cocoa and cookies were served by some of the mothers.

Brownies Hold.

The Brownies held their Xmas party Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Esther Bihorn (a council member) assisted by Mrs. Mark Wagner, another member. Games were played after which all participated in a gift exchange. A delicious lunch was served. LaVonna Selk of Cushing was a Saturday night supper guest at the Leonard Murphy home.

Joe and Louis Beck of North Bend visited their father, Ralph Beck over the week end.

Wrights Celebrate.

Forty relatives gathered at the recreation hall for a dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wright's 25th anniversary Sunday. A beautiful wedding cake baked by a close friend graced the center of the table. Other friends and neighbors called in the afternoon. Raymond their only son was unable to come. Others attending from a distance were: an aunt, Mrs. Elnora Sperling of Arlington, Nebr. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Nehler and son of Lincoln, Lee Sperling and family of St. Paul, George Sperling of Ord, and Evelyn Sperling of Lincoln.

Rosa Bell underwent an appendectomy last Thursday. She is in a Grand Island hospital.

The Louie Foltz family of Greeley visited with Louis and Joe Beck Sunday.

Echo Sperling returned to her work in Lincoln Sunday after an enforced vacation of several weeks.

Jack Hansen had a birthday Saturday. He really celebrated in a big way. Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Johnson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hosch and family of Scotia, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Lombard and family and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Harris of Ord surprised him at his farm home. Pinocle was played. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hansen of Ord, Francis and Morris Keith of Burwell came and Sunday night Mr. and Mrs. Claude Johnson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Winters were on hand for another card game.

Van Skikes Have Open House.

Over one hundred friends, neighbors and relatives attended the open house for Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Van Skike at their home Sunday afternoon in honor of the "25" wedding anniversary. Sandwiches, pickles, cake, ice cream and coffee were served. The table was beautiful with a setting of roses, a gift to Mrs. Van Skike from her husband. A large four-tiered wedding cake graced the table. Mrs. Van Skike wore an orchid, also a gift from her husband. The ice cream came in individual bricks topped with the silver number "25." Mrs. Merna Keep had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Fred Van Skike of Omaha cut the cake and was assisted by Mrs. Maud Boucher of Lincoln. Guests from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Van Skike of Sidney, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Van Skike of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Boucher and son of Lincoln, Mrs. Etta McCurry of Kearney, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chipps, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Chippis of Litchfield, Mr. and Mrs. Del Brown and Verle and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brown and sons of Pleasanton.

Crude Bombs Damage Laurel Mail Boxes

Bombs placed in two rural mail boxes on a route out of Laurel, Nebr., ruined one box completely and damaged the other, in which the bomb failed to explode with full force. Sheriff Ralph Clements inspected the damage and recovered the partly exploded bomb, which was of crude construction. Some were of the opinion that it was done as a prank, but the sheriff points out that damaging mail boxes is a federal offense and the punishment on conviction is severe. He will have the help of a federal man in following up the clues in his possession.

Fifty Years of Football as Shown by the Old Files of the Ord Quiz

In this final installment of the Ord football story will be included the years from 1945 to 1949, inclusive, and the material is available, as well as photos. During these last five years Ed Swopes was available to take pictures, and he always gets good ones. As was noted last week, there were no football photos for the years 1942-1943-1944, for the reason that there was no photographer here to take them. Lavern Duemey left in the spring of 1942 for the navy, and Swopes did not arrive until Nov. 25, 1944. However, he did take a picture of the 1944 football squad.

By reference to a pre-game story in the fall of 1945, we find the following names on the list of players: Tom Tolen, Willard Stoddard, Lloyd Lehecka, Lloyd Hurlbert, Art Larsen, Joe Kominek, George Dworak, Hugh Cahill, Lyle Manchester, Ray Timmerman, Barney Petersen, Wayne Goff, Jay Stoddard, Roger Miller, Merritt Jenison, Bill Anderson, Bob Marks, Ed Piskorski, Gordon Sorensen, Al Blessing, Frank Raemakers, John Hannah and Leonard Roesler.

The season opened at Bussell Park against O'Neill with Ord presenting a fast charging and opportunity seizing team and winning handily by a score of 15 to 0. Tolen plunged for one touchdown, and passed to Marks for the other. Lehecka carried the ball through center to score the extra point. Manchester carried the ball across the finish line, but fumbled and an O'Neill man fell on it for a safety to end the scoring.

In the O'Neill game the electric football timer designed by Syl

Furtak was used for the first time. A picture of it appeared in the Quiz. The next week Ord defeated Central City at Bussell Park by a score of 32 to 0. Tolen made two touchdowns, Manchester Petersen and Timmerman each one, and Kominek made two extra points.

Going to Albion for the next game, the Chanticleers, despite several injuries, won 14 to 0. It was the 41st game the team had played without defeat, the second time this had happened to an Ord squad. Timmerman and Dworak led the attack at Broken Bow when Ord defeated the Warriors 6 to 0 and set a new record of 42 games without defeat. Ray Timmerman made the score, but Dworak pounded the line for a number of fine gains.

Ord continued to win by downing Loup City at Bussell Park for their 43rd without defeat. The score was 59 to 0, and almost everybody in the Ord lineup helped in the scoring, substitutes being used much of the time. The next game was the toughest to date of the year, but the Chants held a powerful Ravenna team to a 0 to 0 score.

St. Paul came to Ord next and had to be content with the cypher in a 67 to 0 score. Everybody seemed to be scoring in this game also, and a new player by the name of Noll is mentioned, no doubt LeRoy. By winning and tying 45 games in a row, Ord had set up a new state record, but all good things must come to an end, and they went to Lexington and dropped the final game of the season by a score of 13 to 0.

Ord faced a tough schedule in 1946, with only three regulars back, Barney Petersen, tackle, Wayne Goff, guard, and Ray Timmerman, back. Other lettermen were Martin Piskorski and Al Blessing, ends; Frank Raemakers, tackle; Ed Piskorski, guard; Merritt Jenison, center, and Jay Stoddard, Jack Koll and John Hannah, backs.

There was a plenty of promising material and names mentioned included Bob Edwards, Gorge Sowers, Allan Blaha, Bill Anderson, Dick Tolen, Adrian Kluna, Ernest Christoffersen, Lores Stewart, Lad Cochran, Vernon Jobst, Lloyd Guggenmos, Dick Malolepszy, Paul Stoddard, Vernon Wells, Dan Huff, Lyle Sevensker, Jack Waldman, Roger Dahlin, Gerald Severson, Lloyd Adamek, Donald Beran and Carl Danzok.

The Chanticleers defeated Holdrege, there, in the season's opener by a score of 6 to 0, in a game featured by Ord fumbles. Stoddard carried the ball across in the last half minute of play to avoid a tie game. Ord went up against Class A Scottsbluff in the next game on their home gridiron and held them to a 12 to 0 score in a game that surprised the sports writers, who expected the Bearcats to have a field day.

The Ord-Burwell game was postponed because of rain and was to be played on Thanksgiving. Ord won their game with Albion at Ord by a score of 28 to 0, Hannah went through for one touchdown and passed to Stoddard for two more. Timmerman ran for another touchdown. Broken Bow then came to Ord and defeated the locals 12 to 0, with Stoddard making the only Ord touchdown.

The Chanticleers then went to Loup City and brought home the long end of an 18 to 6 score, jolting the Red Raiders out of first place in the Three Loups conference. Al Blessing made two of Ord's touchdowns and Koll made the other. Playing one of the poorest games of the season, Ord lost to Ravenna on the home field by a score of 12 to 6.

The next week Ord staged a come-back at St. Paul and won 23 to 0. Koll passed to Blessing and Laursen for the first two touchdowns, and Hannah and Raemakers made the other counters. Burwell won over Ord in the final game of the 1946 season by a score of 13 to 0. Four Chanticleers, Al Blessing, Martin Piskorski, Jack Koll and Bill Anderson, were out of the lineup with injuries.

Coaches Cochran and Peterson had plenty to worry about in their first game at Lexington in 1947, with only three regulars back and the Minutemen with a full team of veterans. The starting lineup as planned included Blessing and Stewart at end, Jenison and Piskorski, tackles, Haught and Kucera, guards, Anderson, center, and J. Stoddard, P. Stoddard, Cochran, Blaha and Tolen, backs.

Extra ends were Richardson, Nelson, Heuck and Miska; tackles, Adamek, Dworak, O'Neal and R. Blaha; Waterman, Huff, Beran and Miska; centers, Laursen, Severson; backs, Hannah, Blaha, Wozniak, Moore, J. Piskorski, Ludington, Malolepszy and Krijak. Jay Stoddard was given the assignment of captain for the Lexington game, and he managed well enough to pull out with a 6 to 6 tie over a highly favored team. He did it by passing to Al Blessing in the end zone, after a fighting team had pushed down to near the goal line.

Holdrege played the Chanticleers for the first game on the new gridiron under the lights, and proved a little too fast, winning by a score of 12 to 6. Jay Stoddard climaxed an 80 yard drive by plunging for Ord's only score. In the drive Jay made 36 yards in one try, and Ladd Cochran made 30 more. The next game a found Ord spanking Burwell by a score of 28 to 6. Jay Stoddard made three of the touchdowns and passed to Al Blessing for the other. An unusual feature of the game was a Tunniff playing AGAINST Ord.

In the next game Ord managed to win by 8 to 0 over Albion, again J. Stoddard made the marker for Ord. The Ord-Broken Bow tilt ended in a 6 to 6 tie, a score for which the two teams are famous, that same Stoddard racking up 6 points for Ord. Loup City was the next victim, 25 to 0, with J. and P. Stoddard, Blessing and Cochran making the points. J. Stoddard scored twice against Ravenna as Ord won, 13 to 6. The Chants closed the year with a 7 to 0 loss to Curtis.

To start his 1948 season, Coach Dick Peterson had the following men: Backfield, Dick Tolen, Paul Stoddard, Bob Moore, Ken Collins and Allen Blaha; linemen: Centers Gerald Severson and Jim Miska; guards, James Adamek, Richard Blaha, Dick Malolepszy; tackles, Dan Huff, Jerry McMinds, Frank Adamek, Don Beran, ends, Harold Laursen, Dale Richardson, Dick Nelson, Richard Heuck, Charles Munn. However, Heuck and Beran were on the injured list.

The Chanticleers started off the season with the same score against Holdrege as in 1947, 12 to 6. Paul Stoddard made the score. The first home game, with Lexington, went to Ord 4 to 6, with Tolen and Stoddard making the touchdowns. Ord then went out to Imperial to win by a score of 28 to 5. Blaha and Tolen scored once each, and Stoddard twice, and all the extra points were made good.

Albion then came to Ord and won by a single point, 7 to 6, although out-yarded and out-downed, a pass, Blaha to Richardson, counting for Ord. Broken Bow next came to Ord and shellacked the Chants 26 to 6, Meston being the big wheel for the Warriors. Stoddard made the score on an intercepted pass. At Loup City the Ord lads lost 26 to 0.

The Ravenna game, played at Ord, wound up 14 to 0 for the home folks, in the best played game of the season. Paul Stoddard made both Ord touchdowns while Blaha plunged for one extra point and Moore caught a pass for the other. Ord lost the final game, Nov. 12, to Curtis, 33 to 0.

The year 1949 is still pretty well remembered by Ord fans and was featured by wins over Holdrege, Imperial Albion, Broken Bow, Loup City, Ravenna, Gotheloss to Lexington. Then came the post season game with the loss to Superior of the Trans-Nebraska title. However, Ord ended in 9th place in the top ten in the McBride ratings, which should be remembered with satisfaction for some time to come.

Grains.

Most grains have been stronger the past week and we have a good demand for good quality yellow corn both from feeders and a shipping market. If you have yellow corn that you want to move let us make you an offer on your corn. If you want to buy some corn we will quote you on the corn delivered your farm. White corn is still bringing a very good premium over yellow corn and we have a good market for it.

Protein Feeds.

Our 45% molasses Beef-makr is selling at $52.00 per ton. This feed has 12% protein and the molasses content is guaranteed at 45%. This is a feed that you should use in your feeding operations as it will help you to get more for your money spent for grain. A pound or two per day will show you a very nice profit; over feeding straight corn.

Other Feeds.

Happy New Year. Just as the exact date of the birth of Christ is uncertain, just so the date for the dawning of a new year is indefinite. The day most people observe was set by man, but the Chinese, for example, observe an entirely different day. There is no more reason for starting the New Year just a week after Christmas than there would be to start it a week after the Fourth of July.

Galvanized Steel BUSHEL BASKET GIVEN with Purchase of Every Bushel of HAMILTON 640

casation for making resolutions than any other date in the year. Resolutions are made at that time because it has become the custom, and man is a creature of habit, and he likes to follow established customs. In fact, to do otherwise usually brings such a storm of adverse criticism that the offender will not offend a second time. Since a certain day has been set for the New Year to begin, it is less trouble to accept that date than to try to change it. After all, finite man demands a beginning and an end to all things. For purposes of computation he requires that everything be divided into definite parts. Without such division, everything in the world would be chaos. Man has also selected the night before New Years as the night to have one final wild fling before the swearing off of the next day. A great many people seem to figure that such a proceeding is necessary. First, they give them something to swear off from. Second, it puts them in a penitential frame of mind and they will thus be in the proper mood to swear off. Luckily there is no person so pious that he need not swear off. Thus the idea of throwing off the dross of the past and trying to don the mantle of righteousness for the future can be applied to every one in the wide world. The idea is commendable. What if some fall by the wayside in a few days or weeks? They are the better for having made the attempt. The custom of wishing a Happy New Year to friends is of ancient origin. The inference is that, by casting off for a time some of one's besetting sins, the year will start out brighter than the preceding year ended. The Quiz wish to each of its readers a very Happy New Year.

Death On The Highway The Village of North Loup, according to the 1940 census, had a population of 567, and probably had about the same number today. Five hundred people makes quite a community. It would make two full companies of 250 men each, if they were all men. Yet in the Christmas week-end ending Monday evening the lives of 49 people were snuffed out. In a village the size of North Loup, if that many were killed, there would be a mere handful of 70 people left. Such a local calamity would claim all the people in Comstock and Elyria combined and a few others. Such a slaughter is beyond all comprehension, and yet the people of the United States have become so hardened to it that they think about it for a short time, and then turn to some more pleasant topic. One death, one unnecessary death, every 8 minutes all through the Christmas holidays is a poor birthday gift to offer the King of Kings. Hundreds of editorials were written and published last week, in hope that they might influence drivers and save a few lives. Yet the results indicate that all this flow of oratory had little or no effect. The figure approaches the number of lives the National Safety Council estimated would be lost. Writing an editorial after Christmas on this subject may do no good, either. People read but they do not seem to digest what they read. It has little meaning to them. Half a thousand people are killed all over the nation, few, possibly none in the immediate neighborhood. It is only when a death takes place in the immediate neighborhood or the immediate family that the fact is brought home to them. Five hundred people may not be so many today, but they would have meant much in the early history of America. The combined voyagers with Columbus on his first trip to the West Indies and the passengers on the Mayflower do not equal five hundred people. The loss of either would have made a great change in the history of America. So long as autos are made to run one hundred miles or more per hour there will be fools who try to run them at that speed. We are told that nearly all of our auto accidents are the result of too much speed. Better highways is not the answer, for better highways will mean only more and more speed. Drivers must be warned, must be forced, if necessary, to drive carefully.

My Own Column

Our special offer of 15 months for the price of a year on the Quiz expires with December. There are some 25 or 30 December 15 expirations that have not been renewed and those people will be missing the Quiz next week unless we hear from them promptly. Perhaps they do not want it. It ill-becomes a man to find fault about his wife's poor judgment unless he is ready to admit that she used poor judgment when she picked him. Who knows what happened to the egg market the last of last week when the price dropped 13 cents in one day? 13 cents a dozen is some drop. It is said they would have dropped further if the government hadn't intervened. It is doubtful whether the price before the drop was profitable to the producer. Probably when the truth is known it will be found that some of the smart boys who know the ropes have again taken your uncle Samuel to a cleaning.

There was a time when each political party had a definite set of principles that they stood for. This was true up to the depression of the early 30's. Then Mr. Roosevelt came definitely upon the scene and began pronouncing the people anything that he thought they would fall for. The people were desperate. They were many of them hungry. Lots of them were down and out and any kind of a change looked good to them. What the people at that time really wanted was an opportunity to make a living for themselves. They didn't ask for or want a dote. The Republicans were swept out of power and the Democrats in and it looks like they were in to stay. During the past twenty years the people, instead of being encouraged to work have been taught that the government was supposed to support them without work. So strongly has this principle become established that it is not uncommon to hear younger people say they plan on having a good time and let Uncle Sam take care of them later. It doesn't seem to sink into their minds that there must come a time when the country will go broke, the same as a business man or a farmer would, if they spent more than they took in. And now we frequently read that the Republicans believe just like the Democrats do, only they don't want to go ahead so fast. Who are the voters who do not look ahead or do much thinking for themselves, going to follow? The ones who believe in going ahead fast, who do the big spending; who promise the most. They are not going to drop off the Democratic band wagon and try to grab the Republican band wagon as it comes trailing along behind. The Republicans will have to whip up and drive past, then start making the biggest promises if they hope to ever get anywhere. And that committee of fifteen which the papers say is now being drafted to formulate plans for the next campaign year are going to find this out in due time. If you want to subscribe for a daily paper or renew the one you are taking, let me send it in for you. Costs you no more and saves you the bother of attending to it yourself.

What's Cookin' Column

The winter of 1945-6 was not too pleasant in Hawaii because of the blackouts, the stumbling along the streets at night with no sidewalk lights to follow, the almost total lack of light making it possible to bump into a man on the street before you even knew he was there. As a consequence the men were not in a good frame of mind. As we stumped along in the morning on our way to the mess hall, about the first sound we would hear would be a string of profanity from some fellow who had stepped into a mudhole or fallen into the ditch. A friend and I started up to the mess hall on a particularly dark morning when there was no moon and the stars were hidden by heavy clouds. My flashlight, with the regulation blue paper over it, was practically useless. I offered to bet my friend that the first sound of human voice we heard would be profanity, and he refused to bet with me, saying that I had a cinch. With Christmas only a few days away, it is hard to realize that men could be in such a state of mind. It happened to me on a morning when the white men came in on the main street and the colored men on a street a block to the south. The first voice we heard that morning was a rich tenor which came from that street, and undoubtedly was a colored man. Did he fill the air with profanity, as the average white man would have done over the necessity of stumbling along in the dark? Not so you could notice it. The song he was singing was: "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," and mean by the word. However, going back to the original word lobo, we find that it is the Spanish word for seal. I am rather of the opinion that a seal would be completely out of place on a farm in Howard county killing a steer, especially when seals prefer fish, and one of them would keep Thearon Beehrle busy every day all summer supplying him with food. I find, however, that the word lobo is also used, or misused, to represent a large wolf, a timber wolf by some, a prairie wolf by others, and still another group, a cross-bred animal partly coyote or wolf and partly large dog. There are objections to any of these theories, particularly the cross idea, since the two animals seldom, if ever, cross. In fact, some experts claim there has never been any evidence presented that they did cross. Then, too, the wolf that would go out single-handed and kill a steer would have to be quite a wolf. Coyotes have been known to gang up on a weak animal and worry it to death, but even this takes time. Until some more definite proof to the contrary is offered, I prefer to take my strange animal under the name of cougar or mountain lion. And, while we are on the subject of wild animals, it is a strange thing that we of the second, third and fourth generation have to contend with a wild animal that was completely unknown to the early settlers. They seem to have had their troubles with coyotes, prairie wolves and coyotes, but I do not recall any mention of the cougar, mountain lion, panther, lobo or what have you. In those days a man could kill a deer, hang its carcass up in a tree, leave his coat on a limb for a guard, and feel sure that his game would be there undisturbed when he came back. In case there was no tree at hand, he could hang his coat on a stake driven in the ground. Those early hunters had their share of wild game, including deer, elk and antelope, plenty of grouse and prairie chickens, and the same two types of rabbit we have today. In this area in my early days, fishing wasn't so hot. We could get plenty of bullheads (they were called catfish then) sunfish and chubs. People who fished in the North Loup river could get catfish, I believe. There were no pike, bass, bluegill or crappie, as these had not yet been brought in by the state game and fish department. There are records of an occasional sturgeon. In those days there were no carp and no suckers in Mira creek, at least. There may have been red horse in the Loup. I had been fishing for several years before the first carp appeared in the creek. However, we could shoot all the prairie chickens and rabbits we wanted to in those days, and they were mighty good eating. Some of the game birds and animals of this area are making a comeback under the combined protection of the laws and the farmers. Quail are slowly increasing in number, and will be quite plentiful in a few years, if given half a chance. A few years back the prairie chicken and grouse were almost extinct. Today there are a number of fine flocks in different parts of the county, and all true sportsmen are giving them every possible chance to get back into production. With them it is also true that they should be given a lot of the leave alone treatment. The bush rabbits or cottontails are also increasing in number, and will again become plentiful if their natural enemies, the coyotes, can be kept killed off. Shelter belts are doing wonders for these animals and birds in giving them a place to call home where they are protected the year around without the peril of fire.

Melvin Edwards of North Loup spent Christmas day with Mrs. Carl Sorenson and sons. Dr. and Mrs. Chas. Brannen and family spent Christmas day in Greeley with his mother, Mrs. J. L. Brannen. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Benson of Ord, Mr. and Mrs. Don Fisher and family of Stockville and Mrs. Anna Tappen of North Loup were Christmas day dinner guests of Mrs. Viola Baker of North Loup.

160 Acre Irrigated Farm and Personal Property

Thursday, Jan. 5th, 1950

Starting at 1:30 P. M.

Due to the fact that I do not have time enough to take care of both my farm and business in Ord, I have decided to sell my farm and also the personal property as listed below, at public auction.

The farm is located 2 1/2 miles northwest of Ord on Highway No. 11 and three-quarters of a mile north. It consists of 107 acres of cultivated land all of which is under irrigation. 16 acres of red clover and blue stem hay meadow and 42 acres of river pasture and buildings. Buildings are as follows: six room house, with 6" tile sewer drain; cattle shed, size 16x40; wash house, size 14x24; hen house, size 14x20; grainery, size 32x10, and corn crib, size 32x10 with 10 foot cement drive way, machine shed, size 32x18; hog house, size 12x20 and brooder house, size 8x10. All buildings are in first class condition and freshly painted. Farm all fenced and cross fenced, good corral fences.

Application for REA wiring all approved, new telephone farm line and farm road all graveled to the yard. Two dams on place.

The legal description of this farm is as follows: the South Half of the Northwest Quarter and Lots 6 and 7 of Section 5, Township 19 North, Range 14 West of the 6th p. m. and consisting of 165.74 acres more or less.

Terms of the sale of the real estate are as follows: twenty-five per cent of the purchase price on the day of sale, balance on or before March 1, 1950. Possession to be given at once if desired.

There is a 4% real estate mortgage on the property with a balance of approximately $8200 due January 1, 1960. The Prudential Insurance Co. owns the mortgage. Purchaser may assume mortgage. Anyone wishing to inspect the property prior to sale can get in touch with either Bruce Covey of Ord, Eben Moss of Burwell, or the owner.

Snow Caused Great Damage in 1949

Storms caused great loss to livestock, but the greatest damage to property came in early spring, when wet snow broke down light and telephone lines.

The year 1949 will long be remembered, not only for the severe weather with which it opened and the lovely weather with which it closed, but also for the many important and interesting events that occurred during those twelve months. The big news of the year was no doubt the storms and blizzards of the first three months.

Of far greater importance to the general public is the story of the long and successful campaign for a community hospital, which was brought to a successful conclusion and the hospital became a reality by the purchase and remodeling of the Ord hospital, once owned by Dr. C. J. Miller. The year saw the removal by death of North Loup's splendid doctor, Dr. W. J. Hemphill.

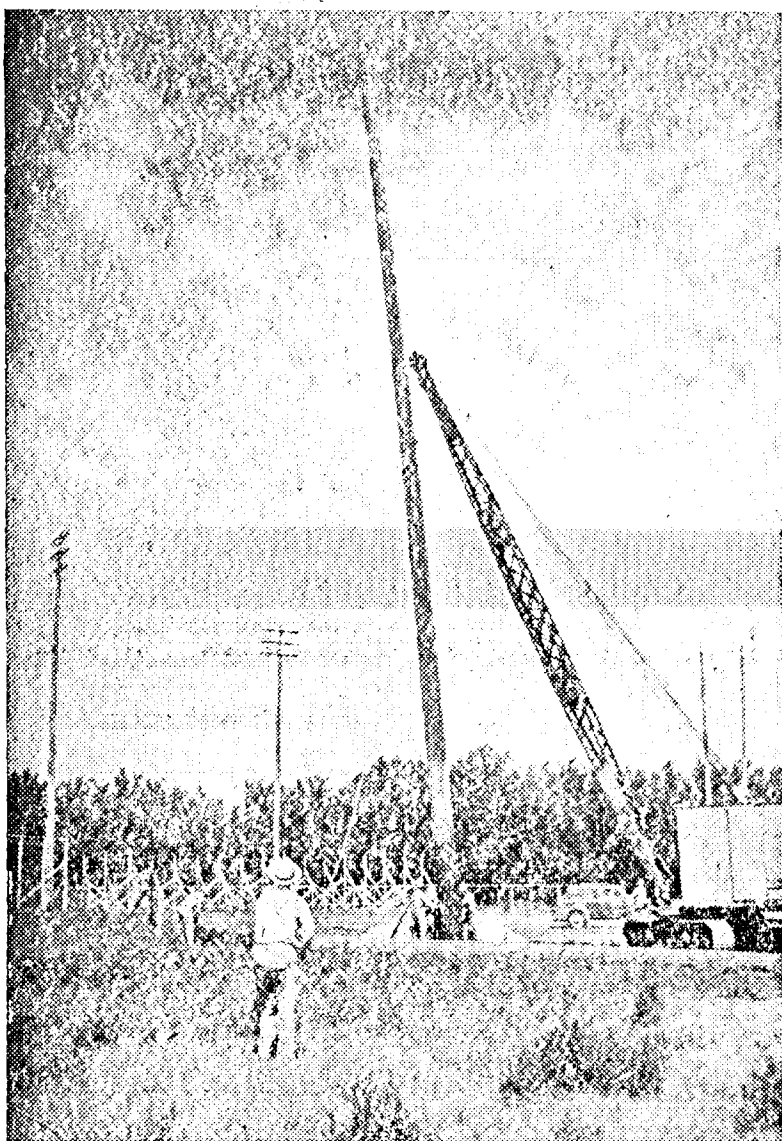

Other events of interest are shown herewith.

Two Old Timers Pay Visit to H. D. Leggett

Shown herewith are Charles Palmatier and D. A. Moser, each 93 years old, paying a visit to H. D. Leggett, who at 78 is not exactly a young man himself.

Night Baseball Becomes Reality

This picture was used to show the work of putting in the lights for Ord's first night baseball. The Ord Veterans club furnished most of the money to finance the project.

Ord Cooperative Hospital

The above drawing by Syl Furtak shows the new Ord Cooperative hospital much better than could be shown by a photograph. The remodeling work is mostly done and the hospital is in use.

Members of Hospital Group

Above are shown the people on whose shoulders rested the responsibility for raising the funds to obtain the Ord Cooperative hospital. They did their job well.

Hemphill Called to Reward

Death came quietly and peacefully to Dr. W. J. Hemphill, North Loup doctor for 48 years, as he sat watching a movie in an Omaha theatre. He had gone there to take a patient to a hospital.

Dusting Crops by Plane Started Here in 1949

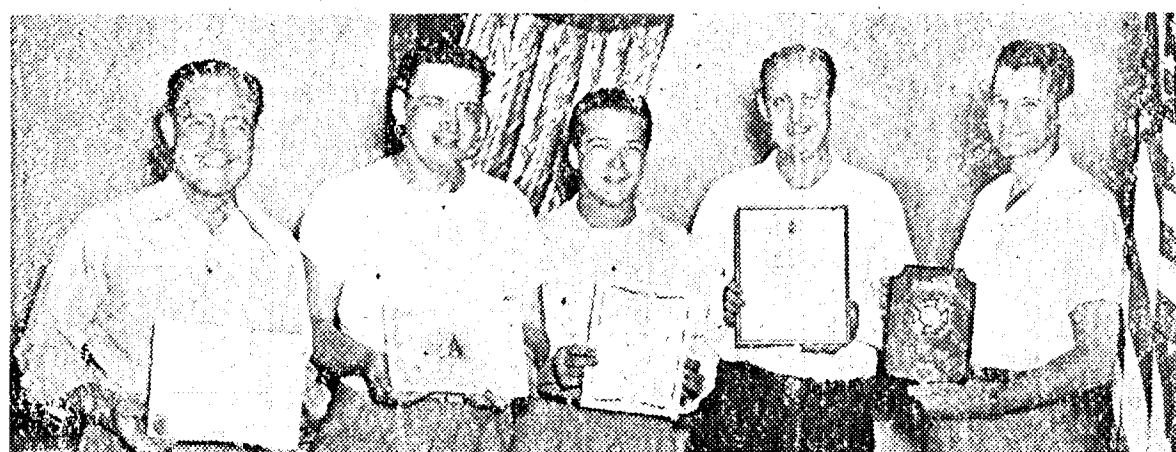

The practice of dusting crops to prevent or cure disease or insect pests was first tried in 1949.

North Loup Wins Battle for Lights

VFW Members Display Trophies Won in 1949

This picture shows a group of Veterans of Foreign Wars displaying trophies they won for services rendered during the current year of 1949.

This Quartet Won Superior Rating in District

This picture shows the Ord high school boys quartet which won a superior rating in the district music contest.

DR. F. L. BLESSING. Dr. Blessing was chosen to head the dentists of this district in Nebraska.

R. CLARE CLEMENT. Mr. Clement was elected head of the Nebraska Hereford Breeders association.

Josie Wozniak Wins Courtesy Award

Josie Wozniak won the voting contest and the prize offered by the Chamber of Commerce to the most courteous clerk.

First Baby Born in Ord Co-op Hospital

Catherine Joan Timmerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Timmerman, was the first child born in the Ord Cooperative hospital.

DAN HUFF. This young man won the first Ord Quiz scholarship.
