All Saints Day

In honor of All Saints Day on Monday, Nov. 1, St. Michael's School held a special Mass. Mary Stone's seventh-grade class portrayed saints in both costume and words. Each child gave a brief history of the saint they represented telling how they lived and died.

Dr. Ira Mehlman Joins SMH Emergency Dept.

St. Mary's Hospital welcomes Dr. Ira Mehlman as chief of emergency medicine. Mehlman received his doctor of medicine from Cornell University in New York. He has a bachelor of science degree in physics and molecular biology from Princeton University in Princeton, N.J. Board certified in internal medicine, endocrinology/metabolism and emergency medicine, Mehlman has served as chief of emergency medicine at Walter Reed Army Medical Center.

His extensive background includes work as an assistant and associate professor of medicine at the Uniformed Services University of the Health Sciences and at Georgetown University Medical Center. He has traveled extensively as a physician for many congressional delegates throughout the world, and has a comprehensive background in emergency and critical care medicine.

"It's good to be here at St. Mary's Hospital," said Mehlman. "This is a dynamic area to work in, with the tremendous growth of St. Mary's County and the challenges we face in emergency medicine. I look forward to serving the health care needs of this community."

"We are delighted to welcome Dr. Mehlman to the emergency department," said Dr. C. Wesley Page, who served as chief of emergency medicine for almost a decade. In order to pursue personal goals, Page has relinquished some of his administrative duties at SMH, but will continue to serve as a physician in the emergency department.
