

100

Admission of Refugees to U.S.
(Free Ports and Emergency Shelter)

Emergency Refugee Shelter
(Approval - 5 folders)

Folder 46

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1969

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Lillian Rungler - young
Address 334 W. 89 St. New York City

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1970

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Jerome Yudele
Address 958-42 Street Brooklyn, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1971

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. Bess Yudenfriend
Address 292 East 92 St. Brooklyn, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1966

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Zelda P. Withrow
Address 879 G. 4th St. N.W. Wash. D.C.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1967

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Polly B. Withrow, M.D.
Address New York Hosp., N.Y.C.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1968

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. P. Workman
Address 454 Madison Avenue New York 17, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1963

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Milton S. Hilsenrath
Address 57 Lueda Road, Brooklyn, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1964

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. Mrs. H. Kieselthier
Address 991 Carroll St. Bklyn. N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1965

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mildred J. Winer
Address c/o P.O. Underhill Ave. Bklyn. N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1960

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

✓ (Signed)

Address

Miss Lillian Heiss
947-45 St., Brooklyn, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1961

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

✓ (Signed)

Address

EDITH WENDROW
1617 PRESIDENT ST BROOKLYN N Y

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1962

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Nora Whine
1045 Bryant Ave., Bronx, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1957

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Julia Weber
Address 613 Oxford St. Belvidere, N. J.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1958

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Rose Weinberg
Address 2081 Wallace Ave. Bronx 60, N. Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

6/5/59
1959

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Charles Weisbord
Address 103A Park Place Brooklyn, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1954

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

William Cecil & David B. Tischler
276 Riverside Drive, N.Y.C.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1955

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Rae K. Tabin
1222 St. Paul St. Rochester, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1958

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Florence Trone
390 Riverside Drive, New York, N.Y.

1951

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Daniel Trauner Daniel Trauner
Address 1247 President St. Brooklyn, 25, N.Y.

1952

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) A. Sabashnick A. Sabashnick
Address 35-45 81st St. Jackson Hts, N.Y.

1953

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Armand Tenger
Address *8542 - 104th St.
Queens Valley N.Y.*

1948

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Pauline Sternberg

1314 Virginia Ave

Rt 4 Ill

1949

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Fred C. Stern

600 W. 130 St New York, N.Y.

1950

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Simon Sternberg

97 St. Stephen St. Boston, Mass

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1945

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Sena Starr
275 Central Park West

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1946

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Marianne Stein
47 West 86th Street New York, NY

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1947

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Miss. Fana H. Steinberg
119 West 71st Street, New York City

1942

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C. 2
WOW Refugee
Card

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. Elizabeth Sorbin
Address 360 C.P. Ln. N.Y.

1942

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Louis R. Stachelman (teacher)
Address South Side High School, Newark N.J.

1944

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mr + Mrs. William Stark
Address 141 East 21 Street - B'lyn, N.Y.

1939

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Estelle Smilansky
Address 2039 East 12 St. Brooklyn 29, N.Y.

1940

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. Mary T. Smith
Address 47 Garfield Ave. Bridgeport, Conn.

1941

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Belle Sorkin
Address % Green, 935 Hunterdon St., Newark, N.J.

1936

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Pearl Silver
Address 1659 Nelson Ave. Bx. 53, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Jane Silverman
Address 802 W. 190th St. N.Y.C.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Miss Harriet Lyka
Address 189 Jamaica St. - Bx. 60 N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1933

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

Miss Lillian Silberling
(Signed)
Address .. 1819 Avenue L Brooklyn

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1934

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

Irving Segal
(Signed)
Address .. 1750 Grand Ave. Bronx N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

June 13/44 1935

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

Anne + Herbert A. Silberman
(Signed)
Address .. 10 Berkeley Terrace, Irvington, N.J.

1930

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Ida George and Mary Sherman
Address 231 Shirley Rd. Upper Darby, Penna.

1931

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) E. E. Shubin
Address 2474-78 Ave. - Phila. 38, Penna.

1932

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

MAX A. SIDON
38 OVERLOOK TERRACE
NUTLEY, N. J.

(Signed) Max A. Sidon
Address

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1927

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Mrs. L. Sherman

Address

11.86 East 23 St.oklyn

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1928

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see our way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Mr. + Mrs. M. Sherman

Address

169 Beers St., Kew-Forest, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1929

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Solomon Sherman

Address

95 Eastern Parkway,oklyn, N.Y.

1924

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) ... Katherine Sheehan (Mrs. D.H.)
Address ... 27 Warfield St., Upper Meridian, N.J.

1925

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) ... Joseph Sheffer
Address ... 871 E 170 St N.Y.C.

1926

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) ... H. Melkowitz
Address ... 105 Rensselaer Avenue, Brooklyn, N.Y.

1921

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Mr. + Mrs. M. Shapiro
3100 Brighton 3rd St. Bk. N.Y.

1922

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Mrs. Shapiro - Sylvia Shapiro
1311 Ave. K Brooklyn

1923

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Mr. + Mrs. Sam. Shapiro
88 W 35 St.

Mr. + Mrs. O. Anapol
88 W 35 St.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1918

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Merris Seidman
Address 654 Pennsylvania Ave. N.W. Wash. D.C.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1919

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) A. Semler
Address 10 W. 184 St. N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D.C.

1920

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. Lillian Sepeck
Address 429 Fairmount Ave. Jersey City N.J.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1915

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Ann Schwartz
620 E. 141 St. Bronx NY

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1916

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Mrs. & Mrs. Jack Schwartz
178 Prospect Park W. Bklyn. N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1917

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Sophie Schwartz
2784 Grand Concourse, Bronx NY

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1912
6/15

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Charlotte Schlem
Address 294 Keer Ave., Newark, N.J.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1913

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. Sallie Schor
Address .. 728 N. 7th St., Phila., Pa.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1914

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) JENNIE SCHULMAN
Address .. 533 BUSHWICK Ave. B.K.L.N. 6, N.Y.

1908

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Harry V. Schechter
Address 219 W. 81st. NYC NY

Don't deluge the sandwiches don't street the eat bath with

1910

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. H. Sachs
Address 3412 Delfield Ave., Baltimore 15, Md

1911

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Eva Sarewit
Address 36 First St., Lynbrook, NY

1906

To President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Herbert Stolper
Address 232 Beach 125 St. Rockaway Bk. N.Y.

1907

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Miss Richard Fess
Address 5108 75th Street Queens, N.Y. 19.24

1908

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Miss Edwina Kay / Mrs J. G. G. G.
Address 648 Hillwood St. Bklyn. N.Y. / 2796 Brighton Rd. Bklyn, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) A. H. Reery
Address 36 Herald Rd, Brighton, Mass.

1903

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) (Mrs.) Julia Rubenstein
Address 248 Clinton Place Newark, N.J.

1904

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) PFC. Allan Russell Pa.
Address 3305 5V ASTU Phila. Univ. Pa.

1905

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

2 R.B.

1900
4/15

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Deris J. Rosenstock
Address Meridian Hill Hotel, Washington, D.C.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1901

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Benjamin Rosenthal
Address 201 Eastern Parkway, Brooklyn, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1902

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Jack Ross
Address 80 Ft. Washington Ave. N.Y.C.

1897

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Cliffside Park, N.J.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Nathalie Zweig Rosen
Address *505 Highland Ave
Cliffside Park, N.J.*

1898

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Diana Rosenberg
Address W 31 St 24th St,oklyn, N.Y.

1899

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

Ⓞ

(Signed) Samuel Rosenberg
Address 1440 Bivans, New York

1894

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Lillian Rivman
Address 701 Wallingbury Ave. Bklyn, N.Y.

1895

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

from the newspaper - P.M.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Aileen Roll
Address 294 Marston Ave. - Bklyn, N.Y.

1896

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Alice Rosen
Address 255 W. 98th - New York 25.

1891

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

WPKB

6/15

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Joseph Richmond
Address 2065 Decatur Ave. Bronx, New York 58, N.Y.

1892

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Ray Tucker
Address 158 E. Jesus St. New York

1893

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

6/15

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. Philip Piskman
Address 39 Chamber St. Boston, Mass.

1888

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

6/12/44

(Signed)

Address

Jack Rubin
207 Canal St. N.Y.C.

1883

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Lee Reiff
3515 75th St. Jackson Heights N.Y.C.

1890

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Ferdinand Penzette
5824-17 ave Bklyn N.Y.

1885

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. Raphael Prager
Address 262 Central Park West. N. Y. City 24 N. Y.

1886

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Frieda Pitzker
Address 1876 Marmon Ave. Bklyn. N.Y.

1887

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Julius Protas
Address 939-8th Ave New York City

1882

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Dr. Norman Pleshette
Address 1200 Fifth Ave - N.Y.C.

1883

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

4/15

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. Diana Follett
Address 18 Thomas St. Bklyn. N.Y.

1884

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Harry Pomerance
Address 66.12 N. B. St. Phila. Pa.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1879

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Pearl B. Price

Address

2203 E. 28 St. Bklyn NY

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1880

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Eschica and Robert Pruitt

Address

124 W. Chisden St. Phila. Pa.

June 14, 1944

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1081

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

SIDNEY PEARCE

Address

1060 PARK AVE N.Y.C.

1876

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Jane P. Norman
202 Raymond St., Cherry Chase, Md

1877

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

R. W. Natties
P.O. Box 145, Ocean Beach
Fine Island, Md

1878

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Mrs. Irving Nord
750 Grand Concourse, Bronx, New York

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

6/15

1873

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Pearl Miller... State Teachers... College
Address ... Shippensburg... Pennsylv. N.A.A.T.P.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1874

6/15

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Harold Middle
Address ... Merich ... Merich ... S.S.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1875

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Celine Middle
Address 353 W. 56 St. N.Y.C.

1870

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) M. Marion Munnell
Address 77 Christopher St. N.Y.C.

1871

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Samuel Michaels / S. MICHAELS / 135 W. 77th St. N.Y.C.
Address Theodore J. Jurgens - 136 E. 48th St. Brooklyn, N.Y.
Theodore Mitchell, 49 Miller Ave. Brooklyn, N.Y.

1872

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Jacob Miller
Address 940 Grand Concourse Bx 100

1870
1887

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

J. M. ...
23869 St. ... N.Y.

1872
1868

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Rose G. Mercedes
493 Vermont St

1873
1889

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Beatrice Meludilon
914 Grand Car Counsel ... N.Y.C.

1884

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mr. & Mrs. Emanuel Mandelbaum
Address 805 St. Marks Ave, Brooklyn, N.Y.

1885

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Jack McAuliffe
Address Pittsburgh, Penna.

1886

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Josephine Meanel
Address 50 Le Roy Place Red Bank, N.J.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Mrs. M. Markov
215 West 98 St. N.Y. City

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Mrs. Jean Marks
35 W. 114 St. Bklyn

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

ALBERT MARMORSTEIN, Q. M.
1939 GRAND CONCOURSE
NEW YORK, N. Y.

MACCABEAN POST No. 107

Jewish War Veterans

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1/15/43
WYRB

1858

0/15/43

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

L. Mallin
3967 White Plains Road
New York

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1859

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Mr. & Mrs. Edward Maltz
349 East 49 St
New York City

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1860

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Sylvia Markham
7 Herriet Dr. Lawrence, L.I.

1855

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Frances & Jack Lipman
138-06 78 Ave. Flushing, N.Y.

1858

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Edith Lippkin, American Red Cross
England General Hospital
Atlantic City, N.J.

1857

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Faire King
237 East 20th St. New York 3, N.Y.

1852

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Minnie R. Mat
Address 815 W. 181 St. N.Y. - C 33

1853

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

415

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Anna Kichtenstein
Address 1743-71 St. Bklyn N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

Mrs. Lieberman (Signed)
126 Sutter Ave Address
Bklyn, N.Y.

1849
2

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Louis Levy
Address 2021... Rayston Ave. Balto. Md 16

1853
1850

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Minnie F. Levy
Address 1562 - 44 St. Bklyn. N.Y.

1851

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) William Levy
Address 414-16 2nd Ave Bklyn. N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Rubina A. Levine
Address 2020 E. 41 St. Bklyn 10, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

(And may "God Bless You")
I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. & Mrs. R. Levine
Address 33 Woodruff Ave. Bklyn

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. Frank Levy
Address 316 Shoreway Ave. Red Bank, Md.

1843

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Max Leder
Address 87-E-96th St. Bklyn. N.Y.

1844

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Harry Leibovitz
Address 7th Scherstad Ave. Brooklyn 3 N.Y.

1845

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Ernestine Leighton
Address 220 West 79th St. N.Y.C.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1840

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Mrs. Theresa Lejtt
105 East 179 St. York
Bronx, New York

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1841

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Mrs. J. Lieberson
729 Lafayette Ave. Bklyn, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1842

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Ruth Lapritz
1489 E. 33 St. Bklyn 10, N.Y.

1837

To the President ALSO!
The White House
Washington, D. C.

ALSO, ISIDORE JAFFE

40 EAST 107th ST, N.Y.
Jerome Wainstein 14 Fifth Ave, N.Y.C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Lee Kreichman
Address 40 E. 10th St.
New York City

1838

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

W.R.P.

6/15

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mary Kunin
Address 240 West End Ave New York 23,
N.Y.

1839

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Maximo H. Karszeta
Address 290 E. 20th St N.Y.C.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1834

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. Alice Kitt
Address 1469 Ogletowne St. N.W.
Washington D.C.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1835

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Edward J. Keenan
Address 1120 W. 11th St.
Brooklyn N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1836

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. Rosemary
Address 1120 W. 11th St. Brooklyn N.Y. 60

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1831

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. Rose Kaufman
Address 886 E. New York Ave. Brooklyn N. Y. U. S.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1832

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mary Mc Kiddy
Address 283 Academy St. Trenton N. J.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1833

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

a humane deed will back you 100%

(Signed) The entire Kirschenbaum Family
Address 238 W. Arrington St. Brooklyn N. Y.

1828

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) J. Isaac Katz; Pvt. Morton M. Katz
Address 20th Company 848th Sig. Tng. Co. Fort Monmouth, N.J.

alized enemy fo
One division is
2, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100

1829

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) The Katzman family
Address 1237 Sumner St. New York

1830

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. B. Kaufman
Address 202 W. 81 St. NYC

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

WPRB

1825
6/17

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Ana Karabela
Address 246 E. Tremont Av. Bronx 57 N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1028

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Gerry Kaye (Miss)
Address 806 Eastern Pkwy - Bklyn 13 N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1827

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) David L. Katz
Address 1941 - 82 St. Bklyn N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

WRB

1822

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Mrs. Mrs. M. Kaminich

Address

876 Blumens. St. The Bronx N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1823

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Lillian Kaplan

Address

2137 Grand Ave N.Y. 53

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1824

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Louis Kaplan MD

Address

2040 Pine St. Phila Pa

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1819

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) ... Miss Charlotte Kahn
Address 1520 Sheridan Avenue, N.Y., 57, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1820

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mary S. Kahn
Address 267^{1/2} West 11 St., New York City 14

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1821

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. Sidney Kalms
Address 91-20 Queens Blvd. Forest Hills, N.Y.

1815

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1816

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Henry Josephson
Address 851 26th St. 19796 - N.Y.C.

1817

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(1) (Signed) Milton Josephson Esquire
Address 377 Farquhar Ave. Bordentown N.J.

(2) Richard Hacker
343 Prince St.
Bordentown N.J.

1818

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. E. Labrache
Address 86 Willoughby St. Newark N.J.

1813

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. Richard Hockett
Address 750 Bryant Ave. Bronx, N.Y.

1814

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Louis Hollenzer
Address 511 Smith St. Schenectady, N.Y.

1815

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Miss Doty Sandvitz
Address 2419 E. 22 St. B. Klyn. N.Y. (29)

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1810

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Hyman Hirsch & Edna Hirsch
Address 304 W. 89 St., N.Y.C. 24, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1811

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. Jeanette Hirsch
Address 89 Starvo Ave. Jersey City, N.J.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1812

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Harold C. Hobart
Address 635 Riverside Drive, New York 24, N.Y.

1807

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Joseph Melis
Address 1475 Bond Street Bronx

1808

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) J. Hertz
Address 767 Beck St Bronx N.Y.C.

1809

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Adeline Herzog
Address 2865 University Ave., N.Y.C.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Pauline Helstein
Address 50 W. 96 St. N.Y. 25. N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Elizabeth Newport Hepburn
Address 113 - W 15th Street
Manhattan, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Benjamin A. Herzkowitz
Address 91 Cook St. Bklyn. N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1
WRB

6/15
90

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Miriam B. Harahan
Address Irvington, New York

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1802

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Suzanne Hatschek
Address 253 W. 16 St, NYC 11

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1800
1803

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Elizabeth S. Helfman
Address 72 Columbia Heights, Brooklyn 7, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) ... Rev. Albert R. Nahn ...
Address ... 317 E. 74th St. - New York, N.Y. ...