Go Great Lakes Bay

When you Go Great Lakes Bay, you'll go way beyond cashing in your airline miles or putting a few extra on the tires. Because getting away is less about finding a new kind of place, and more about finding a new kind of vacation-you. So, discover your inner explorer. Your caution-to-the-wind adventurer. A path to perfectly unplugged. It's time for phones off and out-of-office replies on. Because your Go Great Lakes Bay getaway starts here: where six cities every bit as epic as they are eclectic will bring out all the sides of your best vacation self in a single trip.

#GOGREAT IN BAY CITY

It's time to explore, unsalted. Because, in Bay City, our freshwater playground beckons—and, here, majestic tall ships aren't just for daydreaming—they're for sailing. For dinner cruises and stargazer cruises and fall color cruises as far as BaySail's Appledore IV will take you. For nights on the water topped only by the cozy quilts and hot cider you'll share on-deck and the constellations overhead. Here, fresh catch is served deck-side at The Real Seafood Co., and a little extra dose of wind-in-your-hair is only a Sunrise Pedal Trolley Away. So, hop on this 15-passenger group bike, shipped straight from the Netherlands, and pedal on... because Bay City's best awaits.

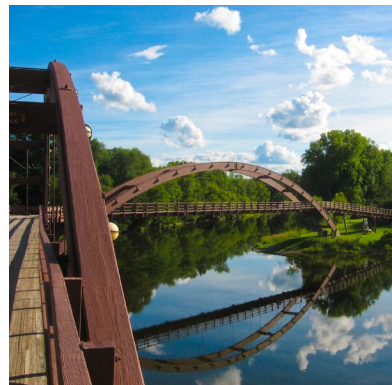

You'll taste it at Tri-City Brewing, where Hell's Half Mile Helles lager is small-batched before your eyes and the brewmaster himself just might tap you a glass. At Artigiano, where artisan cheeses beg to be brought home by the suitcaseful. Or in St. Laurent Brother's where nut and candy confections live up to their 100-plus-year legacy of delicious. See it at Harless + Hugh Flea, where urban-vintage-meets-industrial-mod makes for a market of carefully-curated homegoods and gifts so unexpected, you'll squeal. Tucked on a shelf in a quiet corner of Michigan's largest antique center, or strung from rooftop to rooftop in the glow of bistro lights across the Third Street Star Bridge. Through a telescope lens atop our Delta College Planetarium, or on stage inside the historic State Theatre. It's equal parts artisan, urban, and unforgettable—and it's all quintessential Bay City.

#GOGREAT IN MIDLAND

Here's to a vacation that inspires—one where galleries and boutiques dot the streets, and every stop is a chance to handcraft your own masterpiece. So, dig in. Wet your hands and throw some clay, then glaze it new again. Tour the Alden B. Dow Home & Studio, where the world-renowned architect once dreamed up his dreamiest mid-century moderns, and picnic proper inside 110-acres of botanical wonderland at Dow Gardens.

Stroll through the treetops 40 feet above the forest floor on the longest fully-accessible year-round canopy walk in the country—The Forest Canopy Walk at Dow Gardens Whiting Forest—or bike across The Tridge on your way to Larkin Beer Garden—an open-air shipping container bar flanked by food trucks, where board games and brews are served up by picnic table and moonlight. Taste art on the plate at Table, where artisan charcuterie and jaw-dropping courses make each bite feel like a well-told story, or experience it by the glass at Whichcraft Taproom or Whine Bar.

#GOGREAT IN FRANKENMUTH

Short of crossing oceans and timezones, few places can really transport us. Frankenmuth is one of those hard-to-find places: a sweet and surprising Bavarian village where Christmas comes 364 days a year at the world's largest Christmas store, authentic German festivals keep the beer flowing by the barrel, and family-style chicken dinners at Bavarian Inn Restaurant & Zehnder's of Frankenmuth more than stack up to their world-famous names. Where each small and special shop in our European-themed marketplace whispers its own version of, "You can't get this anywhere else."

Once you've tried the timeless and traditional, find a new way to experience Frankenmuth—gliding through a sea of trees at Michigan's first aerial forest park, The Adventure Park at Frankenmuth, or wine and chocolate tasting aboard Frankenmuth Fun Ships. Sip a German Pilsner, a Bavarian Dunkelweizen, or a Belgian IPA inside Michigan's original craft brewery—Frankenmuth Brewery—or pull up a seat at Prost! Wine Bar & Charcuterie, where sharing small plates and sips of wine comes second nature, and the wines on tap are rivaled only by the Prosciutto Di Parma and Parmigiano Reggiano they're served with.

#GOGREAT IN SAGINAW

Meet us in the historic heart of Saginaw, where the crowd spills out of The Temple Theatre just after showtime and pours itself into next-door's 1920s-style speakeasy, Bancroft Wine & Martini Bar, for a nip at some not-so-ordinary Prohibition-era cocktails. In Old Town's farm-to-fork hideaway, Bradley's, where hand-cut truffled sea salt fries and Faroe Island Salmon in fresh citrus ponzu are just part of a mind-blowing menu that's not-to-be-missed and never-the-same.

Escape to someplace other-worldly. A place where the soft swoop of mature bald eagles overhead is the soundtrack to almost 10,000 acres of National Wildlife Refuge known only as "The Flats," and local legend Johnny Panther and his shallow-draft boats are your insider guide to it all. Unfold your chair at dusk while films sprawl out across the sides of our historic buildings during Lawn Chair Film Festival, then duck into Woody's Draught House, where more than 100 taps line the walls and leave you wondering: Atwater Decadent Dark Chocolate Ale, Boulevard Ginger-Lemon Radler, or Left Foot Charley Cinnamon Girl Cider?

#GOGREAT IN BIRCH RUN

Retreat to a place where retail therapy restores. Where almost 150 brand name and designer shops open doors and roll out racks for savings up to 65% off. Here, you'll find favorites for his & hers, the littles and the all-grown-ups. Something for the home, something for that special someone, and, mostly, some time that's carved out just for you. While you're here, try your luck at tackling Tony's famous full-pound BLT, take in a day at Dixie Motor Speedway's short track or an event the Birch Run Expo Center, or let your littles run wild at Wilderness Trails Zoo.

#GOGREAT IN CHESANING

Slip into the comforts of a place where getting away can strangely make you feel more at home than ever. A place where November brings a cozy Christmas village filled with luminary-lined streets, free horse-drawn carriage rides, and a village-wide "O, Christmas Tree" sing-a-long straight from the pages of a storybook. Where time is best spent with old friends at one of four Creative Passions Crop & Quilt Retreats, and every piece sewn or scrapbooked is a memory made better together.

For The Waterfront Obsessed

#GoGreat Like A Local: Just Add Water

From afternoons spent on lazy rivers to full-throttle fun out on the Bay, the ingredient for all kinds of excitement is simple H2O—and here's where to go!

Some may daydream about taking a dip in the ocean... but around here, the waters are salt-and-shark-free, and there's no better place to dive right in! Spend days with the wind flying through your hair while boating the sparkling waters of the Great Lakes Bay, or let the rhythmic sound of paddles soothe as you kayak our inland streams and rivers.

Magnificent miles of the nation's longest freshwater coastline will welcome you here to Pure Michigan, but the wet, wild, and wonderful fun found only when you Go Great Lakes Bay will keep you here long after the sails roll up and the sun goes down.

SAIL ON

Taking in beautiful blue waters aboard BaySail's grandiose Appledore IV tall ship schooner is an opportunity not to let sail by. Board this majestic beauty! Prepare for sunsets over the water (swoon) amidst Legends of the Saginaw Sails or Stargazer & Moonlight Dinner Sails. And in October, witness Mother Nature's fall glory like never before during Autumn Color Tour River Cruises. (Think: hot cider, chili and cornbread, and even cozy quilts, while sailing through radiant scenery of reds and golds, oh yes!)

QUEST FOR ADVENTURE

Boarding a shallow-bottom boat and readying to experience the "Everglades of Michigan" means you're hanging out on the waters of the Shiawassee National Wildlife Refuge—one of Michigan's 7 Wetland Wonders—with the one-and-only Johnny Panther Quest Adventure Trips! (And you are in for a show!)

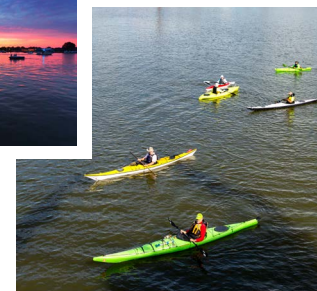

Wil Hufton III (better known around these parts as Johnny Panther) is the lovable local legend and all-out aficionado of our 9,800-acre Refuge, where four rivers converge and thousands of wildlife species make home. And, like the boats that take you through, each quest is custom: birding with this group on an Ecotour, taking these lovebirds on a romantic getaway complete with B&B. Pick your adventure, and enjoy the waters! (Psst! Johnny Panther may affectionately call his Fall Color Tours by Boat the "cheap trips", but they're also one of the most gorgeous and unforgettable experiences around!)

PADDLING PLEASURE

Looking to spend time idling along, or forging the narrow waterways in a sturdy but svelte kayak with your paddle leading the way? Venture out to Midland's Chippewa Nature Center for a guided Evening Kayak on the Chippewa River (pre-registration required), or head to Ike's Mobile Kayak Rentals in Midland for both guided or on-your-own good times!

Paddle through the waters of Midland (and maybe even beneath our unique 3-legged bridge, The Tridge) to experience an enjoyable outing on our rivers, or join a guided Fall Color Tour or Sunset Paddle to discover deeper.

FUN SHIPS

Cruising along on the 12-passenger electric boats of Frankenmuth FunShips, you'll experience the scenic waters of the Cass River and sights of Michigan's Little Bavaria, Frankenmuth—quite possibly aboard a Wine & Chocolate Tasting Cruise! What sounds too-good-to-be-true is an hour-long joyride that includes five wine samplings, paired with five handmade chocolates, and a glass of wine (complimentary wine glass included)! Raise your glass to riding this FunShip, May through October. Or cruise the Cass River aboard the Bavarian Belle Riverboat, and appreciate a one-hour, narrated sightseeing cruise complete with bird sightings and memorable stories!

FISHING EXPEDITIONS

Let Boomerang Fishing Charters take you boating on the 1,143-square-mile Saginaw Bay, and lead you right to reeling in some serious catches of walleye and perch! Or drop anchor with Little Forks Outfitters in Midland, and plan for a Guided Fly-Fishing Trip. All the while, enjoy inside tips on fly-angling local fish (and which waters to frequent!)

BEACH DAYS

There's nothing quite like a day at the beach, with sandy shores and cool waters, volleyball nets and coolers packed for picnics! If hitting the beach is your focus, and snorkeling to sandcastle-building is in your future, get to William H. Haithco Recreation Area in Saginaw (better known by our locals as Haithco Beach) for paddleboat, canoe, rowboat and kayak rentals (not to mention horseshoes, fishing access and five pavilions for rent)! Or splash it up at the spray park, and enjoy "days of ahhh" at Sanford Lake Park Beach amidst 1,100 feet of clean, sandy beach just outside of Midland.

Whether boating or beaching, fishing with charter companies or hand-tied flies, kayaking inland lakes or water-skiing the Saginaw Bay, water-enthusiasts have endless options to explore Pure Michigan waters when they Go Great Lakes Bay—and the inside know-how to experience them all like a local!

For The Outdoorsy

#GoGreat Like A Local: Explore The Outdoors

Get right with Mother Nature, and get outside!

When workdays all feel like Mondays and the walls start closing in, the only real respite is to get out—outside, that is! Biking, hiking, boating, fishing ... just plain living! For any reason, and in any season, Go Great Lakes Bay has the outdoor spaces and places for you to play (hard)!

Where are the best trails? Who rents fat tire bikes for winter rides? Where should I drop in a line for the best local catch? Hit the ground running with insider know-how, and venture out like a local into our Great Lakes Bay stomping grounds of natural splendor! The fishing holes are here (and here, read on)!

GO TAKE A HIKE

Hike, bike, snowshoe, cross-country ski (inline skate, anyone?) along the 3.7-mile, paved Chippewa Trail, or any of the other 15 miles of trails within Chippewa Nature Center in Midland. This nature preserve is 1,200 acres of woodlands, wetlands, rivers and upland fields that await action! Explore independently, or join guided Kayak Tours, Full Moon Strolls, or Wildlife Walks for added discovery. After your hike, relax with a cup of coffee or tea at the River Outlook (inside the Visitor Center), and enjoy the languid Pine River...

RIDE ON

Around here, folks eagerly anticipate the linking of each trail leg along our Great Lakes Bay Regional Trail, joining our people and places by an eventual 100-mile, looped path—the connector from Saginaw to Bay City (drum roll, please) just opened in October 2016! As the vision comes to life, all non-motorized modes of travel are welcomed to ride the Great Lakes Bay Regional Trail:

Bay County River Walk/Rail Trail

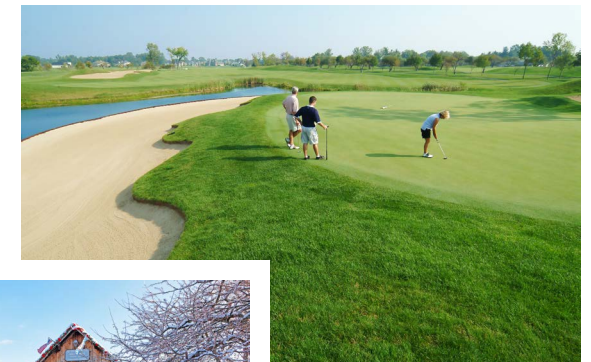

17.5 miles through Bay County, including the Bay City State Recreation Area (with additional unpaved trails, and exploration of Tobico Marsh).

Saginaw Valley Rail Trail

11 miles from St. Charles to Saginaw Township, including bridges, City of Saginaw Riverwalk (and perhaps a quick stop at St. Charles' infamous Rustic Inn Steakhouse & Saloon for a bite to eat, just a short walk from the trail).

Pere Marquette Rail Trail

30 miles from Midland to Coleman, with a loop around Chippewa Nature Center. (Psst! The Buttonville Inn B&B in Coleman is a must if staying over to greet Amish neighbors and grab a bite at small-town diners is on your radar.)

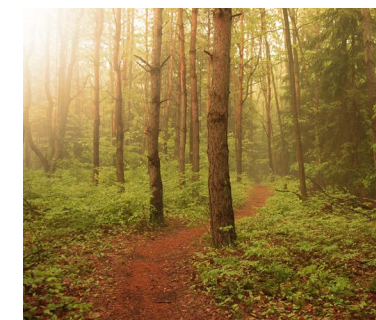

Should you find yourself in need of a bike tune-up, or looking for something that'll glide through the snow, Jack's Bicycle Shop in Downtown Bay City services bikes, rents fat tire bikes for winter riding (and tandem bikes, too), and leads bike tours through Bay City and beyond!

DROP A LINE

Whether you're sitting cold but cozy in a shanty during the winter or boating the Saginaw Bay in sunny summer, this region is a hotspot for bringing fish to plates! Known for walleye, with some perch, pike, bass and an occasional catfish, the 1,143-square-mile Saginaw Bay is wide-open for boating fun, and those who are fishing should head to the "Spark Plug"! It looks like a big spark plug sticking out of the water (approximately halfway into the shipping channel), has a blinking light, and is a known local hotspot for fish!

Look to Boomerang Fishing Charters for a lead into Saginaw Bay's perch and walleye, and if you need lures, line, or sporting goods of any kind:

Northwoods Wholesale Outlet in Pinconning; Frank's Great Outdoors in Linwood; or Little Forks Outfitters in Midland.

TAKE REFUGE

If there's a claim to natural fame around these parts, it's ultimately the Shiawassee National Wildlife Refuge, recognized as one of Michigan's 7 Wetland Wonders and known locally as just "The Flats"! It's all here, with more than 9,800 acres of marsh, bottomland hardwood forest, and grasslands (along with bald eagles, great egrets and thousands of species of wildlife) to explore by bike, foot, canoe, kayak—and even aboard shallow draft, custom-built boats with the always-unique Johnny Panther Quest Adventure Trips!

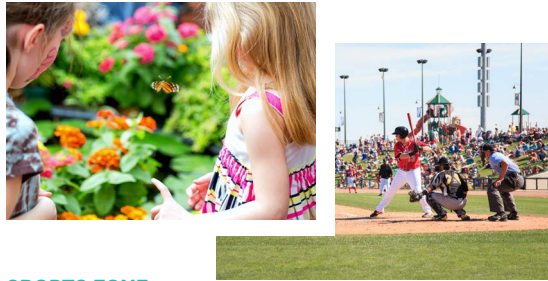

A visit to Green Point Environmental Learning Center makes for a great start to The Flats; any time spent bird-watching, biking, cross-country skiing or even cruising in your car on a Wildlife Drive (auto tour route now available) will be worthwhile.

Find all kinds of adventures here in our Go Great Lakes Bay outdoor stomping grounds, and enjoy the hotspots, hikes, and trails with local know-how, handed to you by neighbors who greatly appreciate these backyards, too!

For The Modern Family

#GoGreat Like A Local: Make Time For “Q” Time

Bring your family to places where everyone feels like family, and everyone has fun!

This museum? It's hands-on fun, designed directly for kiddos. An indoor waterpark extravaganza? Oh yes, families—its here. And it's epic! A ballgame together, a day splashing and laughing in the (ahem, free) splash parks, the zoo, the animals, the choo-choo? All here, families—have so much fun!

Get ready to Go Great Lakes Bay, and let your inner child soar in our neighborhood spots and family-friendly places that'll whip the door wide-open to the memories you'll make here!

ALL HANDS IN

Imagine over 16,000 square feet of gallery space—designed for children under 12—and you begin to sense the magnitude of awesomeness that is the Mid-Michigan Children's Museum in Saginaw! Here's the like-a-local lowdown on what to expect, parents: the “Water, Water Everywhere” gallery, where kiddos explore science and giggle while doing it, and “Insides-Out,” where the skeletal system (and a gigantic mouth to play in) make for unforgettable family fun!

GO WILD!

A visit to the Mid-Michigan Children's Museum is always best paired with the nearby (and not-to-be-missed!) Children's Zoo At Celebration Square—one of only 5 zoos in Pure Michigan accredited by the Association of Zoos & Aquariums! Here, your little ones can ride a miniature train or a hand-carved carousel, dig for dinosaur bones at the Fossil Find, and take in acre upon acre of wild, wonderful fun with the animals!

SPORTS ZONE

Here in the home of both the Great Lakes Loons, a Minor League Baseball affiliate of the Los Angeles Dodgers, and Saginaw Spirit OHL Hockey, family time spent enjoying a game (and hot dogs, soda pops, and the National Anthem) will prove classic. Go Great Lakes Bay, and game on!

SPRAY PLAY

Locals know there's nothing not to love about the Bay City State Recreation Area—join them! Let loose at the free Spray by the Bay splash park, or monkey around together at the Come Play by the Bay Playscape, a wooden wonderland with slides and towers. (Psst! There are picnic areas, too, beachfront volleyball nets, and even hiking trails along Tobico Marsh, complete with two 32-foot-tall observation towers for exploring!) Or venture to another spray park at Sanford Lake Park Beach just outside of Midland, and kick back together in 1,100 feet of clean, sandy beach, too! Parking is $5; open April-September.

FAR OUT

Spend time together beneath the stars at Delta College Planetarium and let the state-of-the-art facility transport you and your family to an out-of-this-world experience! Take in a show, discover astronomical legends and lore and make your way to the gift store, too. (Seriously, locals rely on this little gem for locating unique gifts!) Another local tip? Climb the stairs, or take the elevator, to the outside observation deck. Experience the waterfront and Downtown Bay City from above, and remember the look of awe on their little faces forever!

Listen. If you want to really be in Bay City like a local, head on foot a few blocks from the planetarium, along the water and eclectic shops, and hang a right at St. Laurent Brothers candy store—okay, dive in there! The oldest of candy shops in Bay City, they've got nuts, candies, and ice cream (plus, chocolate covered espresso beans for Mom and Dad), too. Then, walk the short distance from there, and stand in awe with your kiddos beneath the new Third Street Star Bridge, a luminescent “project with heart” unique to Bay City, featuring bistro lights strung from rooftop to rooftop. It's an experience your family won't soon forget; dusk preferred!

THE MECCA

Zehnder's Splash Village Hotel and Water Park is a guaranteed big deal (and one recently made even bigger with a massively fun expansion)! The largest indoor waterpark in Michigan, take your family into more than 50,000 square feet of six-story raft rides, a super-loop drop slide and a 400-gallon dumping bucket that you'll stand under and scream! This! It really doesn't get better than this, families, and the insider tip? An overnight hotel package, with wristbands to the waterpark and fun from 4 p.m. to the following 4 p.m., is just barely enough time to take it all in—and we haven't even talked about the arcade, the food, the gigantic Whimsical Whirl Hot Tub (the adult beverages available ...)! You can even rent a private cabana for you and yours to chill poolside in style.

ZOOM IN

Take the ride of your life together zooming on ziplines through the tree canopy of our aerial forest, The Adventure Park at Frankenmuth! All family members ages 7 and older are welcome, and (no worries) climbers receive a thorough briefing before branching out. After that, though, its bridges, obstacles and ziplines as far as the eye can see! And team-building skills and high-fives that mark the experience a must for families.

This region is ripe with opportunity to take a break from it all, and have some fun! Enjoy your time spent together in our neighborhoods, and tuck away this inside ticket to places you'll always be glad your family came. Think memories in-the-making, and snap lots of pictures!

For The Foodies

#GoGreat Like a Local: Do What's Delicious

Find your way off the beaten path—and right into our foodie hotspots.

Chain restaurants and familiar favorites? We've got 'em, and they're lovely. But when you're here—be here, like a local. Sink your teeth into the soul of the region, told through our flavorful food stories.

Follow this insider route to hand-selected ingredients, entrees that taste as inspired as the chefs who create them and the places where every bite is a memory in the making. Indulge in the flavors found only in our Great Lakes Bay neighborhoods, like a local.

ELEGANTLY DOWN-TO-EARTH

For farm-to-fork at its most decadent, find your way into Bradley's Bistro in Old Town Saginaw for fresh, colorful, exquisite—lunch or dinner here is simply delicious. The menu, with vegetarian, vegan, and omnivorous offerings, is never the same, but consider the Curried Tempeh Salad and Farmer's Market Fritters as musts if you see them, along with any of the many Mac-N-Cheese variations (think Smoked Gouda Mac) and the Chicken and Grits, with black pepper and parmesan grit cakes. This place is all kinds of yes; you'll see.

BACKWOODS CREATIVE

The scenic drive into the country is part of the charm of The Maple Grille in Hemlock; every mouthwatering experience thereafter seals the deal. This place doesn't take reservations, and when the farm-to-fork dishes are gone—the last of the Smoked Trout Dip, Beef Tenderloin or Raspberry Cream Cup of the day has been ordered—they're gone, wiped from the chalkboard menu. (Wood Fired Pizza then? Sure! And, wash it down with one of 10 tap selections, brewed on-site.)

MARKET-FRESH EATERY

Walking into 3rd & Johnson Market and Eatery in the historic Johnson Street Business District of Bay City is, at first, a tantalizing eye-candy experience of fresh, locally-grown fruits, vegetables, meat selections and more. But, it's upon eating the unique, seasonal dishes and time-tested classics that 3rd & Johnson serves up that you'll fall in foodie-love with this extraordinary eatery. The menu changes weekly based on local availability, and may include fresh, grass-fed, organic lamb chops (raised in neighboring Kawkawlin's Goss Farms) or a vegetarian-friendly Black Bean & Sweet Potato Burger. A soup and salad selection will always be available, and may you get lucky enough to order the Mediterranean soup, White Fish Salad or Steak Pretzel Pocket, you'll thank us upon each return trip to 3rd & Johnson Market and Eatery!

A TABLE TO REMEMBER

As you peruse the extensive wine list while sitting amidst modern elegance at Table Restaurant, located at the H Hotel in Downtown Midland, a French-trained pastry chef has prepared European-style breads for your evening. Upscale and downright delicious, might we suggest the 9oz. Certified Angus Prime Filet Mignon, Michigan Raised Natural Half Boneless Chicken or Wild Line Caught Swordfish? And might we also suggest... experiencing Table Restaurant straight away? Enjoy.

UPTOWN HOMETOWN

Comfortably sophisticated, regal and real, Uptown Grill in Bay City has married the hometown diner with the debonair, resulting in pure palette-pleasure for breakfast and lunch. Enjoy pancakes, but Sweet Potato Cakes topped with brown sugar and pecans, or Not Your Everyday Grilled Cheese (Cheddar, Swiss, Provolone and American—you choose the bread). For lunch or dinner in Uptown Bay City, The Real Seafood Co. offers two levels of casual upscale dining, indoor and out, all overlooking the scenic Saginaw River. Sipping cocktails as the Appledore IV sails in? Sign us up.

Locals look to The Real Seafood Co. for a creative blend of market-fresh catches with locally-sourced ingredients, resulting in Parmesan Encrusted George's Bank Lemon Sole and Petite Filet and Lobster. (Psst. The Real Seafood Co. does take reservations; and they're recommended!)

FAMILY-STYLE

Since Frankenmuth is a tourist hotspot, and chicken dinners at Bavarian Inn Restaurant and Zehnder's of Frankenmuth are world-famous, foodies may consider the scene too mainstream to be miraculous—wrong! The flavor experience includes heaping platters of golden brown chicken (worth the trip alone), Stollen fruit bread, Wienerschnitzel and handmade sausages with kraut, and hot German buttered noodles to create a time-honored tasting. And there's something endearing about meals served family-style—passing bowls of mashed potatoes with gravy, dressing, and locally-grown vegetables amongst friends and family—that slows time to the basics of pure enjoyment.

Farm-to-fork. Locally-sourced. Upscale, Downtown, and even backwoods! Take this tasty trip along the insider route to discover our truly tasteful region, experienced like a local!

ORIGINAL RECIPE

Bavarian Inn Restaurant – Frankenmuth, MI

How to make Bavarian Inn Rouladen (Beef Rolls)

Ingredients

2 pounds top round steak, thinly sliced pieces (¼ inch)

1 cup finely chopped onion

1 cup finely chopped celery

2 tablespoons butter or margarine

8 slices bacon

1 teaspoon prepared mustard or less per piece

2 dill pickles, each cut into 8 long pieces

Salt and pepper

Flour, to coat

Cooking oil

Broth or water, to cover (chicken broth or other)

Cornstarch diluted with water

Preparation

1 Cook onions and celery in butter until just tender; set aside. In a separate pan, cook bacon until just done (to prevent dryness, do not over-cook). Chop and set bacon aside. Steak pieces should be about 4 x 7-inches in size and should be very thin with no holes. Spread each piece very lightly with mustard. Place one slice of pickle, one piece bacon and 1 tablespoon onion and celery mixture on each slice of meat, closer to one end; salt and pepper to taste. Roll up, fasten with a toothpick; dust with flour and brown lightly in oil. Put in a casserole dish, cover with soup broth or water.

2 Bake in a 325-degree oven for 1½ hours, covering after the first hour. Drain the juice into a saucepan and thicken with diluted cornstarch to make gravy, cook over medium heat and stir often; add seasoning to taste. For each quart of liquid, use ¼ cup of cornstarch which has been diluted in cold water. Drizzle some of the gravy over meat on warm serving dish.

Yields 8 to 10 rolls

ORIGINAL RECIPE

Frankenmuth Brewery – Frankenmuth, MI

How to make Buffalo Chicken Rolls (Spicy)

Ingredients

- 2 cups chicken broth
- 2 cups water
- 1 ½ lbs. boneless skinless chicken breasts
- ¼ cup buffalo wing sauce
- ½ cup Mexican Blend shredded cheese
- Oil for deep frying
- 12 egg roll skins
- ½ cup blue cheese vinaigrette or ranch dressing for dipping

Preparation

- 1 In a saucepan, heat broth and water to boiling. Add chicken and reduce the heat to medium. Let cook for 20 to 25 minutes or until cooked through. Remove from liquid and set aside.
- 2 Once chicken is cooled, shred the chicken. Add shredded cheese.
- 3 Pour buffalo sauce over chicken. Mix well.
- 4 In deep fryer or saucepan, heat 2-3 inches oil on medium heat.
- 5 Keep a small bowl of water nearby and grab an egg roll wrapper. With 1 corner facing you, place about 2 tablespoons of your chicken mixture slightly below center of the wrapper. Begin rolling skin up by folding corner closest to you, then fold in right and left corners as you reach that point. Brush remaining corner with water and gently roll toward remaining corner and press to seal. Repeat until no mixture is remaining.
- 6 Fry egg rolls in hot oil until golden brown on each side. Drain on paper towels.
- 7 Depending on how much spice you can handle, use more or less buffalo wing sauce (or add butter to make it milder!)

Frankenmuth Brewery is Michigan's Original Craft Brewery and the oldest microbrewery in the state!

For The Craft Beer, Wine & Cocktail Connoisseurs

#GoGreat Like a Local: Drink It All In

Cheers to abundant flavors and unique locales of the Great Lakes Bay Region!

Microbrews, craft cocktails, wine selections that wow—the Great Lakes Bay Region offers something for all to sip on. But where to go when you're ready for a cold one? Who has the finest of wines, the heartiest of hard ciders, the best and boldest Michigan brews?

When you're looking to live it up and drink it all in, take the insider route. Cozy up in our neighborhoods, from Uptown Bay City to Old Town Saginaw, and get right to the tastes and places that welcome you back warmly each time.

FOR THE LOVE OF SUDS

Join the packed house, Woody's Draught House in Old Town Saginaw, for good reason—106 good reasons! Woody's serves up 106 brews on tap, from Alaskan Pilot Series Heritage Coffee Brown to Blake's El Chavo Mango Habanero hard cider. Pints average $5; locals say there's nothing average about the habanero hard cider (a must-try)!

Or, find yourself amongst friends at WhichCraft Taproom in Midland, where you're invited to, "Drink local, drink well." When you order from more than 80 varieties of craft brews (40 on tap), you'll sip on artisan skill: all beer, wine, cider and mead served at WhichCraft is made right here in Pure Michigan! (Seriously, these guys have heart: serving up suds from local breweries, too—try a pint of Midland Brothers IPA at either WhichCraft Taproom or Midland Brewing Company where it's made!)

Looking for an even shorter path from tap to glass? Twenty house-made opportunities await at what locals describe as "a cozy brew house": Tri-City Brewing Company in Bay City. Of course, tap selections change often, but Hell's Half Mile Munich Style Helles Lager and Giant Slayer Russian Imperial Stout (ahem, 9.0 ABV) are always in-house.

And you can't say you're serious about swigs until you experience Frankenmuth Brewery. Founded in 1862, it stands as the original craft brewery in Michigan! Pay your respects to over 150 years of brewing tradition with Sweet Tooth Stout or Batch 69 American IPA, and consider yourself strongly advised to take a free tour of this historical gem!

GOOD TIMES AND FINE WINES

If slow sipping is more your style, in a sophisticated, warm atmosphere (complete with overstuffed, leather seating and a roaring fire), make your way to Whine Bar in Midland to enjoy remarkable, and remarkably hard-to-find, wines. Locals rave about Whine's "vino to vent by" like Chitty Day Chardonnay, and no one can resist Whine Wednesdays: six wine selections each week; just $15 per bottle. (Souvenirs? Yes!)

While locals love Jake's Old City Grill in Old Town Saginaw for casual-upscale dining (think mouthwatering, charbroiled steak), the historically-rich, three-story landmark property and perfectly-paired wine selections complete the dynamic dinner presentation. Jake's list of award-winning wines, including an Award of Distinction from Wine Enthusiast magazine, is extensive—be ready to return.

Speaking of historical charm, find yourself immersed in the ambiance of a 1920s-style speakeasy at Bancroft Wine & Martini Bar in Downtown Saginaw. Patterned to reflect the classic wine bars of Europe, the Bancroft is known for: hand-crafted martinis (try the Ginger Infusion; you're welcome); Prohibition-era cocktails (pick the Mary Pickford); and decadent wines, by glass or bottle. Perhaps a red Straccali Chianti, from Tuscany, or Diseño Malbec from Mendoza?

Or, perhaps, experience Michigan's oldest and largest wine company with a wine-tasting at St. Julian Winery in Frankenmuth. Home of the infamous Solera Cream Sherry, a guided tasting includes six wine samples for only $5 (and a souvenir wine glass, too). And while in Frankenmuth, saunter over to Prost! Wine Bar & Charcuterie for a memorable glass of wine—on tap. (Yes, wine on tap!)

Prost is a German word for "cheers", and when it comes to the charcuterie, think wooden boards of Prosciutto Di Parma from Italy, Manchego cheese from Spain, and olives for days. Prost! touts an extensive wine list, along with six taps that deliver wine protected from oxidation to the very last pour. Locals love the Liberty School Cabernet Sauvignon, though the daring might dabble in something more like M. Lawrence's sparkling semi-dry rose.

And whether you have "just one" or stay longer to taste "each one", enjoy your time here, drinking it all in like a local. Truly experience what's known and loved about neighborhoods of the Great Lakes Bay, and the tastes and places that make them worthy of returning for another pour.

How to make The Relative Remedy Crafted Cocktail

Ingredients

2 ounce Bourbon

1 ounce mezcal

½ ounce Cinnamon Bark Syrup (make by boiling sugar, water and cinnamon bark together, reducing water to equal parts; let cool.)

Chocolate Bitters

Preparation

1 Add all ingredients together and shake vigorously for 30 seconds.

2 Strain into a new rocks glass filled to the top with ice.

3 Garnish with a cinnamon stick and orange twist

Did You Know?

Prost! Wine Bar & Charcuterie of Frankenmuth has wine on draft! Try 6 top wines from big vintners around the world, right from the tap. Prost to that!

For The Shop-a-holics

#GoGreat Like A Local: Shop With Style

High end name-brands, at basement bargain prices?
Vintage boutiques and handmade, unique selections?
Oh, yes. They're here.

Where to shop depends on the type of shopper you are. Maybe you're looking to splurge on a Coach purse. Beeline to Birch Run Premium Outlets and indulge... or try Two Old Bagz Boutique in Saginaw, a resale shop specializing in high-end handbags and jaw-dropping low prices.

Looking for that one-of-a-kind item? Half Mile Handmade in Bay City and Rebel Magnolia in Saginaw are off-the-beaten path gems, as are so many more! Shop our neighborhood boutiques, explore our unique shops and get right to what you're looking to find, with the shopping eye of a local! Find the looks, here's the deal:

PREMIUM FOR LESS

Banana Republic, Nike, Pottery Barn, Under Armour, J. Crew, Coach—over 145 designer and name brand outlet stores is the dream-come-true called Birch Run Premium Outlets! This is the shopping mecca of meccas for both divas and deal-finders! (Psst! There's a way to pinpoint sales, participating stores and the discounts these 145 stores will offer! Become a VIP Club Member, for free. Gain a $5 coupon book, and priceless know-how—when to shop!)

For ladies looking to turn that same old yearly shop-a-thon into an all-out girlfriends' getaway, try Birch Run Premium Outlets' spring Girlfriends Weekend or wait it out for Deer Widows Weekend in the fall. No matter which, you're in for three days of hunting huge bargains alongside your best. Stay refreshed while tracking down deals at the Information Center (section F) with free Wi-Fi and a fireplace lounge!

ANTIQUING OUTINGS

Spend an hour or a day in the historic heart of downtown Bay City at Michigan's largest antique center, Bay City Antiques/Downtown Antiques Market. Shop more than 400 booths, and explore the location voted "Best Antique Mall" by AAA, with European imported antiques and the state's largest collection of quality dealers.

Shoppers on the prowl for antique dealers offering furniture, glassware, china, lamps, jewelry, toys, collectibles and more will enjoy a trip to The Antique Warehouse in Saginaw, featuring 12 specialty shoppes, 70 dealers and possibly lunch at the Memory Lane Café inside...

ARTISAN ITEMS

Maybe a storied object is what appeals—something different. You'll know it when you see it... at Harless + Hugh Flea in Bay City. Upscale and urban meet antique chic in this eclectic mash-up boutique of beautiful one-of-a-kinds. And around the corner, Half Mile Handmade sits along Bay City's waterfront, on the historic strip known in the 1800's as "Hell's Half Mile", offering its own artisan goods and unique items—many from local and Michigan-based artists!

Over in Saginaw, a trip into Rebel Magnolia will bring a boutique shopper to her knees with the selection encompassing a funky gift, home and clothing shop... with art, jewelry and a dash of trendy this 'n' that!

FOR THE WEE ONES

Put Sweet Peach Children's Boutique in Bay City on your short list if shopping unique items for the kiddos is a must! There, you'll likely see mother/daughter owners Barb and Katy, and you'll find high-quality (cute-as-a-button) clothing, newborn to size 8, useful gifts and books, organic lotions and healthful selections. And Annie & Olive's A Children's Boutique in Midland is a fab find when looking to shop upscale children's clothing, accessories, gifts and gear!

OH-SO MANY SHOPS

With Sections A-I (yes, nine sections) of unique shopping spots like Funky Skunk, with Irish-themed merchandise, and Your Name Here, specializing in personalized items, the Frankenmuth River Place Shops are literally all kinds of shopping finds and fun! And it can't hurt that it's also home to SugarHigh Bakery, winner of the Food Network's "Cupcake Wars"! You only live once! (Psst! You could also step into a "Parisian Café" at La Crepe du Jour. The music, the café tables, the crepes! Bonjour!)

CUSTOM CLOTHES

Shop Ferne Boutique or Uptown Girl in Bay City for an exclusive selection of quality women's clothing and accessories, or explore the hand-selected finds at Athalia's Boutique in Midland — a contemporary clothing, lifestyle, and apothecary boutique (with a buying office located in très chic L.A. that sources the latest and greatest trends and brings them straight to the Great Lakes Bay!)

Where to get the deals, and when? Where to shop for the finds you're looking for? Let these ins and outs of shopping our region put you at the edge of fashion with the know-how to find them... like a true Great Lakes Bay local.

For The Artsy

#GoGreat Like A Local: The Art of Travel

Experience the inside angle on expressive displays, glorious galleries and unique artists.

When you Go Great Lakes Bay, the third largest art gallery in Michigan—The Gallery, Art For Saginaw—beckons with modern art by Michigan-based artists, all inside the historic (and historically beautiful) Bancroft Building. And one of the longest-standing community theatres in the country? It's here: Pit & Balcony Theatre, in Old Town Saginaw, offering live, on-stage performances since 1932!

Take ample chances to catch live entertainment at The State Theatre of Bay City, or witness the Saginaw Bay Symphony Orchestra at The Temple Theatre, and don't get us started on mentioning all of the local coffee houses and cafés whose walls are worth exploring! (Hint: Enjoy Intermission Deli in Bay City or Dawn of a New Day Coffee House & Cafe in Saginaw for food and displays of local artwork and photography.) You'll find this region positively explosive in opportunity to discover art and appreciate artists! But how best to really experience it all? Step into our neighborhood galleries and museums with the inside angle of a local!

URBAN ART

Drop into Saginaw's Counter Culture in Old Town, and take in a gallery, music venue and local art hub—and maybe a writing workshop, seminar, or yoga class. This art collective exists to emphasize every area in the humanities, and if you're looking for live music or an urban-vibe gallery experience, Counter Culture is your scene. Just up the road is Gingerblue Gallery, where urban meets historic elegance through visual arts, including paintings, ceramics, sculpture, photography and jewelry inside the renovated, landmark Graebner Building at the heart of Old Town Saginaw.

Look for work from local artists like Saginaw-native Jim Perkins, and national and international pieces.

AMIDST A MANSION

The Saginaw Art Museum offers both the experience of appreciating art... and walking through a living work of art. For this historical 1904 Georgian-Revival Mansion with Italianate gardens and two award-winning modern wings, admission is a mere $5, gaining you access to continually-changing exhibitions and a permanent collection of more than 2,000 objects spanning 4,500 years. With a significant art reference library and collaborative programs available, take a guided tour, catch a lecture or simply peruse. The Saginaw Art Museum doesn't disappoint.

AN ARTIST IS BORN

With spaces in both Downtown Bay City (exposed brick walls and large, mismatched work tables) and Saginaw (think modern and clean), create-your-own studios at Painterly Pottery are casual, comfortable workspaces where you can let your inner artist loose! From painting your own pottery to discovering glass fusing techniques, you'll find that time slows inside these walls for the chance to truly unwind.

Still searching for another kind of whimsical wonderland? Try Midland's Space Studios. Here, you can shape, paint, and glaze all the way to sweet release as you dig in, throw some clay, and take the edge off, artfully. Not interested in making a start-to-finish creation? Stop by The Glaze Bar at Space Studios, where you can choose from pre-made pottery, all yours for the handpainting.

Looking to try your hand at converting a canvas into a masterpiece? Get to a Cocktails & Canvas event at Creative 360 Stage, Studios & Gallery in Midland or a Sip 'n' Swirl Painting Workshop at Studio 23/The Arts Center in Bay City for a guided lesson. You can pick the picture to create, and bring your own libations to enjoy as you learn!

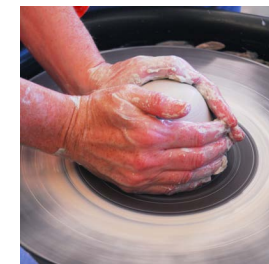

TAKE TEA

Located in-town, but back along the banks of Lake Linden, a passerby might miss this cultural gem. Locals know, however, that the bamboo gates mark the entrance into this serene wonderland of weeping cherry trees, Japanese art and the only authentic tea house in the Midwest (not to mention, one of the most authentic in all of North America): the Japanese Cultural Center and Tea House. Step into the traditional sukiya (rustic) style teahouse for an unforgettable authentic Japanese tea ceremony, and discover occasional classes in origami, bonsai, and Japanese calligraphy. Konnichiwa! (Hello, in Japanese!)

SCULPTED

Set aside due time to appreciate the Marshall M. Fredericks Sculpture Museum, housed in the Arbury Fine Arts Center on the campus of Saginaw Valley State University. At this free museum, discover a unique collection of more than two thousand works that span the 70-year career of Detroit-based public sculptor Marshall M. Fredericks (1908-1998). Known nationally and internationally for his impressive and monumental figurative sculpture, public memorials, fountains, portraits, and medals, this permanent exhibit is furthered by The Sculpture Garden, Sculptor's Studio (an installation of Frederick's artifacts) and the changing exhibitions gallery, as well.

Home to the eye-pleasing and the soul-stirring, Go Great Lakes Bay's artful offerings are as expressive as they are expansive. Take the time to come and explore, and marvel at the lively scene from an inside angle!

For The Festival-goers

#GoGreat Like a Local: Get Festive

From the largest outdoor new car show on the continent to Michigan's largest international beer tasting event, festivals are year-round, epic get-downs around here!

But since you can no more enjoy the Summer Music Fest in January than you could the Snowfest in June, this insider guide will get you right to the fun (and quickly!) whenever you come, with the know-how of a seasoned local.

SUMMER FUN (JUNE – AUGUST)

Bay City River Roar (June, Bay City)

Three days of fast-paced fun and professional powerboat racing on the Saginaw River, and live concerts into the nights!

Frankenmuth Bavarian Festival (June, Frankenmuth)

Dirndl and lederhosen, Bavarian music and a wooden dance floor, ice-cold beers and German foods from bratwurst to hand-rolled pretzels! Willkommen ("Welcome" in German)!

KCQ Country Music Fest (June, Saginaw)

Free concert! Join 100,000+ fans as country's hottest artists rock Ojibway Island all day and night!

Saginaw GreekFest (June, Saginaw)

Opa! Join 80,000 plus for three days of traditional dancing and authentic Greek food (...and get ready to get your gyro on)!

Michigan Antiques & Collectibles Festival (June, July & September, Midland)

More than 80 acres and over 1,000 vendors, unique, handmade items and "Taste of Michigan" and "Shop Michigan" stations.

Bay City Fireworks Festival (July, Bay City)

One of the largest fireworks displays in the Midwest, 250,000+ ooh and ahh at this two-park, three-day scene with a carnival, live entertainment, and (BOOM!) major fireworks!

Blues, Brews & BBQ (July, Birch Run)

Chicken, ribs, pork, brisket and a Kansas City Barbecue Society-sanctioned competition! Microbrews, whiskey and live blues music, and a finger-lickin' good time!

Tall Ship Celebration (Not annual, Bay City)

When the majestic ships sail into port, this three-day festival of maritime merriment is not to be missed! Unfortunately, this seafaring celebration doesn't happen every year, so keep a lookout, matey!

FALL FESTIVITIES (SEPTEMBER – OCTOBER)

Frankenmuth Auto Fest (September, Frankenmuth)

Muscle cars, street rods, and the Friday night Big Block Party. Three days, and over 2,000 classic cars!

Northwood University International Auto Show (September/October, Midland)

Michigan's Big Country Fest (October, Frankenmuth)

Saunter with your cowboy boots into an evening of live country bands, line dancing, barbecue and beer (and, not to be forgotten, a Bloody Mary Bar), but first—ride the mechanical bull!

Hell's Half Mile Film & Music Fest (September, Bay City)

Take in indie films and live music for four days (and nights) during Bay City's grassroots festival, along the historic strip known in the 1800s as "Hell's Half Mile".

Oktoberfest (September, Frankenmuth)

A scaled-down version of an authentic German beer hall, stomp your feet and raise your steins at the only officially sanctioned Oktoberfest celebration outside of Munich, Germany!

SPRING FLINGS (MARCH – MAY)

Maple Syrup Day (March, Midland)

Pancake breakfast, tree-tapping, syrup-boiling demonstrations and sweet memories made at Chippewa Nature Center!

St. Patrick's Day Parade Festival (March, Bay City)

Floats, marching bands, shamrocks and leprechauns! Celebrate the Irish, lads and lassies, in the streets of Bay City!

Bringin' Back the 80s Fest (April, Frankenmuth)

Don big hair (don't care) and parachute pants, and celebrate all-things-80s at this time-warped, dance party; drink specials!

Freeland Walleye Festival & Fishing Tournament (April, Freeland)

Fishing tournament, community-wide yard sales, kids' fishing pond and (hoot hoot)... a hospitality tent!

Frankenmuth Dog Bowl (May, Frankenmuth)

Witness the largest, Olympic-style event for dogs in the nation!

World Expo of Beer (May, Frankenmuth)

Cheers to Michigan's largest international beer sampling event, and more than 150 brews from around the world!

The Great Lakes Bay Region is primetime for festival fun! Tape this list to your fridge; save it to your wall. This know-how will get you right to the larger-than-life enjoyment that festivals bring, anytime, any season, with the locals who love them!

FUN FACTS

THE TRIDGE

This three-legged footbridge spans across the Chippewa and Tittabawassee Rivers. It cost $732,000 to build and took 6,400 hours of labor. Ten railroad car loads of prefabricated wood, and 337 cubic yards (258 m³) of concrete were used to construct the three arches, which weigh 44,000 pounds (20,000 kg) a piece. The Tridge also marks the starting point of the Pere Marquette Rail Trail. Located beside the Midland Farmers Market, this unique Y-Bridge has become an icon of the city, and is the most famous landmark of the downtown Midland area.

BAYSAIL'S APPLIEDORE TALL SHIPS

Bay City's tall ship Appledore IV was built by Herb Smith, a professional filmmaker whose photo credits appear in some Walt Disney films. Herb and his wife, Doris, built five schooners, all named Appledore. Two of them, Appledore IV and Appledore V, sail out of Bay City, allowing visitors to experience the sparkling waters of the Saginaw Bay and Lake Huron. Appledore IV is 85 ft. long, 18.5 ft. wide and carries 3,560 square feet of sail on two masts that are 76 feet high. She was built in 1989 to sail around the globe and was once used as a floating bed and breakfast. She can carry 48 passengers at a time for day sails and up to 10 on overnight voyages. Most of her professional crew began their Appledore experience as participants in a Windward Bound sail training program for youth. Proceeds from the public programs aboard Appledore IV and Appledore V support environmental education and sail training programs offered by the ships' owner, BaySail.
