

POETRY.

THE BIRD OF THE BASTILE.

BY R. B. THAYER.

"One prisoner I saw there, who had been imprisoned from his youth, and was said to be occasionally insane in consequence. He enjoyed an companionship (the keeper told me) but that of a beautiful bird. Of what name or color it was, I know not; only that he fondly called it my own, and seemed more happy when it sang to him."

MS. of a True through France,
Come to my breast, thou lone
And weary bird—come here
Of the rare music of my childhood! dear
Is that strange word to me?
Dear is the memory
It brings my soul of many a parted year.

Again, my own dear bird,
O-moment of the main
Let's feast for form familiar throng
And wake my eye
And voices of the dead
Since from the walls of death unvented song

Now, cease not—I would call
This, from the sacred hall
Of the unbroken grave, the joys of old;
Bring me not yet to know
Ye blessed eyes, you
Starting life-obscured through all my being cold.

Ab-cess not, phantom fair—
Full this the duress of air
They were not from his gloom—I fly—I stand
Acre upon that spot
Whom he's had been forgot
In all time's war my own green glottons land

There on each mossy height,
By front and flanking hill,
Shew the faint flocks sought the levery shade.
There gleamed the sunset's fire,
On the tall taper spire
The window low, about the upland glade.

Sing, sing—I do not dream—
Fill this the duress of air
Far, far below, about the rainy vale,—
I know it by its ledge
Of one to rest at ease,
To wander their vision hither to the eye.

There, there, 'mid electric leaves,
Glimmer my father's eye,
And were his child of my youth beneath,
I know them by the moss,
And the old lines that show
Their other names where winds the smoke's gray wreath.

Sing, sing—I am not dead—
Fill this the duress of air
Sing, sing—I might have kept
And prayed for light, and
Here, here, upon my bosom and my brow.

I could have proved to this
Cold loss, in my life,
Each long loss from that ancient heart's
Proud living lips are heard
O leaves! I might have heard
From living lips are heard
That another of my childhood, and have died.

My, my, my sweet to wife
E'en in my sleep,
It is not me I have been, and am again—
And the world a wakened;
It breaks the midwife's bond,
And I have treated three ages, in my brain.

And sweet it is to love
Even this could do,
This breathing thing, from life all else apart
All leave me not the ghost
Of my eternal love
To bear alone—alone—come to my heart,

My bird! True shall go free—
And come, O come to me
Again, when from the hills the spring gale
blows,
So shall I learn at least,
One other year shall know
And the long, woe-throngs' heritage to its

Public Sale.

Will be sold at public sale, on Tuesday, the 11th day of November next, at the late residence of John Patterson, deceased, in Cecil county, Maryland, the following property, viz:

Horses, Cows, and young Cattle; Hogs and Sheep; Cart and Oxen, one Wagon; Pig and Harrow, Ploughs, Harrows, and Farming Implements; Feather Beds and Bedding, Bedsteads, Bureaus, top plain Stove; eight day Clock; cane seat, rush bottom, and Windsor Chair; mahogany and walnut Tables; and a large variety of other household and kitchen Furniture, too tedious to mention.

Sale to commence at 10 o'clock, A. M. when the terms of sale will be made known by

ANN PATTERSON, Adm'x. SAMUEL GAY, Administrator. November 11—ts

Trustee's Sale.

BY virtue and in pursuance of a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, the undersigned as Trustee will expose to public sale, at the lot of Mr. Charles G. Black, in Charleston, on SATURDAY the 15th day of November next, at 3 o'clock, P. M. all the Farm, Tract or Parcel of land, situate, lying and being in Cecil County, and bounded by said river about half a mile, contiguous to, and adjoining lands of James Hasson, and lands belonging to the heirs of the late James Campbell, heretofore devised to Benjamin Ferguson of Cecil County, by Benjamin Ferguson late of Baltimore City, and now in the possession of Mr. Adnan Latta, containing Four hundred and Thirty Acres of land, more or less. This land is in a good state of cultivation, finely situated upon the navigable waters of the North East River, a respectable and healthy neighborhood, and convenient to mills and houses of public worship. The waters upon its shores abound in the greatest variety of fish and ducks. About one-half of this farm is in wood.

The improvements upon this land are a new and convenient DWELLING HOUSE, a large and new BARN, and all the necessary out buildings, with an excellent APPLE ORCHARD. There is also a Fishery attached to this farm, which might be made valuable at a small expense. The terms of sale as prescribed by the Decree are, Cash, to be paid on the day of sale, or on the ratification thereof.

AUGUSTUS MILLER, Trustee.

October 25th, 1834.

County Commissioners.

PURSUANT to public notice, John R. Palmer, William Mackey, Samuel B. Ford, Johnson Summers, Thomas Richards, Esquires, the Commissioners elected at the late election of Cecil county, met, at their office, on Monday, the 20th instant, when, after qualifying, according to law, and electing William Mackey, Esq. as the President of the Board, they proceeded to elect a Clerk, when it appeared that William Hewitt, Esq. received three votes, and Thomas S. Thomas, Esq. received two votes.— The Commissioners then adjourned to the second Monday of November.

GREAT NATIONAL WORK.

American Magazine Of useful and entertaining Knowledge. To be illustrated with numerous Engravings by the Boston Engraving Company.

THE success which has attended the publication of the best Magazines from the English Press, has led to preparation for issuing a periodical particularly adapted to the wants and tastes of the American public. While it will be the object of the proprietors to make the work strictly what its title indicates, it will, nevertheless, contain all articles of interest to its patrons which appear in foreign Magazines.

Extensive preparations have been entered into, both with artists and authors, to furnish from all parts of the Union, drawings and illustrations of every subject of interest, which the publishers confidently believe will enable them to issue a work honorable to its title, and acceptable to the American People.

The first number of the American Magazine, illustrated with upwards of twenty splendid engravings, will appear on or before the first of September, and be continued monthly containing between forty and fifty imperial octavo pages, and be furnished at the low price of two dollars per annum. It will comprise—

Portraits and Biographical Sketches of distinguished Americans; Views of Public Buildings, Monuments and Improvements; Landscape Scenery; the boundless variety and beauty of which in this country, will form an unceasing source of instruction and gratification; Engravings and descriptions of the character, habits &c. of Beasts, Birds, Fishes, and Insects together with every subject connected with the Geography, History, Natural and Artificial resources of the country, illustrated in a familiar and popular manner.

FREEMAN HUNT, Agent of the Boston Engraving Company 47 Court st.

Boston, July 17.

Magistrates Blanks.

FOR SALE AT THIS OFFICE.

For Sale.

A NEGRO BOY, about 10 or 11 years of age—a slave for life, he will be sold out of the State. Enquire of the editor.

New and Cheap GOODS.

The subscriber has just received an assortment of Goods, which he offers at reduced prices, consisting, in part, of:— Super blue, black, brown, green and mixed CLOTTIS, fancy CASSIMERES, Flannels, Linseys, Merinos, Bombazets, Calicoes, cambric, plaid and book Muslins, figured and plain Swiss Muslin, table and bird's-eye cloths, Irish Linens, table and bird's-eye cloths, &c.

FANCY SHAWLS—such as Palm Thibet, pointed do, Chelly (a new article) and figured silk Shawls, linen cambric Handkerchiefs, silk do, Gros-de-Naples, Matoune's Lustrings, Florines, &c. &c. &c. Super fine, velvet, Cotton do, Silk and Valence Vestings, Stockings, Ladies' & gentlemen's superior Kid Gloves, Mitts, Cotton, worsted and yarn Hosiery, bleached and brown Muslin, Canton Flannel, Plaids, Checks, colored Cambric, and a number of other articles, too numerous to mention.

FUR AND WOOL HATS.

Hardware, Queens and Glassware, Earthen, Tin and Cedar do. A general assortment of GROCERIES, Powder, Shot, &c. All kinds are offered for inspection.

N. B. All kinds of country produce taken in exchange for goods. oct 15

NEW AND SEASONABLE GOODS.

THE subscriber begs leave respectfully to inform his friends and customers, that he has just returned from the city of Philadelphia with a large and splendid assortment of Fall Seasonable Goods, which he is willing to dispose of on just and reasonable terms, such as a very moderate advance. His stock consists in part of CLOTTIS of various colors and prices; black, blue, olive, and fawn color'd CASSIMERES, CASSINETTS, FLANNELS, HERRINGBONES, ORBIS, &c. &c. &c. PETERSHAM, an excellent article for hangings &c.

VESTINGS.—A large and handsome assortment, such as Silk, Satin, Velvets, Valence, Swandown, &c. English and French MERINOS, Cassimeres, Bombazets, Bombazines, SHAWLS—Merino, Cashmere, and Worsted Cotton.

SILKS, for ladies' dresses.

Swiss, Book, Mull, Jaconet and Cambric MUSLINS.

Parasols and Edges, Thread Lace, and a variety of other fancy articles.

CALICOES, at all prices; new and fashionable style.

OSonally; bleached and unbleached Muslin.

SHOES AND BOOTS.

Ladies' seal skin, Morocco, leather & lasting shoes; men's course & fine Boots and Shoes.

HATS AND CAPS.

Britannia and Liverpool Ware, Hardware, Tinware, Woodware, Brushes, &c.

GROCERIES.

Always a supply on hand. The subscriber, thankful for the past liberality of his customers, humbly solicits a continuation of it, and hopes they will not forget the old and well known stand.

Respectfully, WILLIAM TOUBERT, Jr.

N. B. All kinds of country produce, in exchange for goods. W. T. Jr. Oct. 18—tf

Five dollars reward.

RANAWAY from the house of the subscriber, on Monday night, the 29th of September, a young man named

WILLIAM L. JAYTON.

He is about 5 feet 9 inches high, rather slender, with broad, square shoulders, greyish eyes, dark hair, rather a sparse visage, some pimples on his face, and a diffident appearance. He is a shoemaker by trade. If he has on the clothes he stole from me, they are: a black coat, a silk velvet waistcoat, and blue cloth trousers. His own clothes are, a blue frock coat, a pair of dark lasting trousers, a marvellous waistcoat, and a white shirt. Whoever will lodge the said Litchin in any jail shall receive the above reward.

WILLIAM A. JACKSON. Oct. 11—4t

Notice.

WHEREAS my wife, Mary Ann Lynch, has absconded from my bed and board without any provocation, I forewarn all persons from harboring or crediting her on my account, as I am determined to pay no debts of her contracting after this date.

Oct. 11. JAMES LYNCH.

Hail! All hail!

Glorious news to the purchasers of Cheap Goods!

The subscriber begs leave to inform the public, far and near, old and young, rich and poor, that he has just received his second addition to his Fall Stock, which renders it by far the largest and most complete now in this town.

ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall assortment on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we would merely let them know that we too are up and doing, that we are now ready to take hold and pull too, and all we ask is a heavy load of your patronage, heavy laden with cash or its equivalent, and we shall bid all kinds of industry, all Unusual Attractions, a long adieu; we shall leave them far in the distance, for our post letters are open, our yard sticks are ready, our scissors are sharpened, we are ready for action, and are determined to maintain our ground, in spite of all manner of line ships which may open their batteries against us. We now cry out, "Come on, Marcellid! and to him who first gets our goods, I have heard it said, the pressure of the times are so great that people cannot afford to pay even a small advance on goods: all we particularly invite to call at the Auction Mart; you will then be able to buy.

Blue, black, brown, Adair's, invisible French, Cotton and Irish Table Diggins, and other fancy colored CLOTTIS, at fancy price, from $2 to $9.

Blue, black, brown, drab, and every colored CASSIMERES, Farnham's superior SATINETTS, &c. &c. &c. every color and at every price; the largest assortment ever opened in Elkton.

MERINOS.

A most beautiful assortment of French, German and English Merinos, 3-4 and 6-4, of every color and at every price.

FLANNELS.

Cotton and Irish Table Diggins, every quality.

Bettes, Sueses, French Cloths, Kerseys, Rattinetts, Bombazets & Bombazines.

BLANKETS.

every size, quality and kind.

Beaverettes, Genoa Corals, Bed Tickings, Blankets, Rhine Diaper, Russia Sheetings, Cotton and Irish Table Diggins, Irish Linen, Long Luce.

CIRCASSIANS.

every color and every price.

VESTINGS.

Silk, Valence, Swandown, Tulenett, Satin, white, Marcellid, Herano Vesting, a new and beautiful article.

PONGEES.

Super beautiful quality.

Super Scarlet Clanz Prints, Curtain Calico, Furniture Check.

ILCOENS.

Out of the window, I am constrained to cry, just call and see them; centers piled, shelves full, and going off like hot rolls on a frosty morning.

SILKS.

A few pieces of real Mattioni Italian Lustring the only good real Mattioni in this town. Also, French and Swiss Lustring at every price. Colored Silks, such as Gros de Naples, Gros de Swiss, &c.

LACES.

Super thread, bobbinet and cotton Laces, Edgings, and Fringes, super thread, bobbinet and Mosaic Insertings, Footings, &c.

FINE MUSLINS.

Cambric, plain and plaid; Jaconet figured and plain; Mull and Swiss, figured and plain; Nainsook, Bobbinet, Greening, &c. &c. &c. Ladies' Lawn, Book and Lou Muslins; children's Caps, Caps, and Collars.

GLOVES.

Men's buckskin, beaver, woolen and horse Gloves; Ladies' kid, beaver, Yorkton silk and cotton; Ladies' men's buckskin Mitts and ladies' kid Mitts.

HOSIERY.

Ladies black worsted mohair, merino, silk and cotton Hosiery; ladies' white, Merino silk and cotton Hosiery; men's worsted, silk, lamb's wool and cotton half hose; with almost every article in the dry goods line.

SUPER SILK & FUR HATS.

Water Proof HATS.

Men's boys', ladies', misses and children's Best Hatters, Slippers, Slippers of every kind, quality and description.

GROCERIES,

of all kinds and qualities.

HARDWARE, QUEENSWARE, EARTHEN WARE, GLASSWARE, STONWARE, TINWARE, & CEDARWARE.

Oh! stop! stop! stop!—you have every thing. Well, we will admit we have a little of almost every thing; therefore we will stop enumerating.

Now friends, acquaintances, and buyers in general, you are well, and the world was not made in a day; you must be convinced that every thing cannot be done in a moment; at the same rate, if you come to our town you may expect to find an assortment far superior to any ever offered in this market heretofore.—But enough. I must close, and in so doing, I return my grateful acknowledgments to my numerous country, as well as my town friends, and relying on that generous patronage which has thus far supported me, I now invite you all to the grand Jubilee of Cheap Goods, and whoever regrets his, her, or their bargain, at home or abroad, shall not labor long, as my town friends, and relying on that generous patronage which has thus far supported me, I now invite you all to the grand Jubilee of Cheap Goods, and whoever regrets his, her, or their bargain, at home or abroad, shall not labor long, as the goods are so very friendly, and relying on that generous patronage which has thus far supported me, I now invite you all to the grand Jubilee of Cheap Goods, and whoever regrets his, her, or their bargain, at home or abroad, shall not labor long, as the goods will be taken home (without any reserve) and the money returned to the purchaser.

Yours, very respectfully, THOMAS S. WELCH.

Elkton, October 16.—tf

N. B. All kinds of produce taken in exchange for goods. T. S. Welch.

Newark College,

(DELAWARE)

THE vacation of this institution expires on the 4th of November next; the next day, (Nov. 5.) the collegiate year commences.

There are two vacations: one of four weeks beginning on the 4th Wednesday of April, one of six weeks beginning on the 4th Wednesday of September. The estimated expenses, for the collegiate year, including board, tuition, room rent, washing, light and fuel amount to $104.15.

The Faculty consists of a President and three Professors. The Rev. E. W. Gilbert of Wilmington, chosen president at the close of last term, has accepted. Two of the professorships are filled by Mr. Agnew and Mr. Graves. The other will be filled at the beginning of the term now approaching. The Trustees have felt deeply the importance of an able and well qualified instructor, and have taken much pains to procure a Faculty worthy of confidence, as well for their qualifications to prudently and affectively take care of, and govern the students, as for skill in teaching. To those acquainted with the gentlemen named, this representation need not be made.

The college embraces an academical department. In this department a student may be instructed in academical branches, or in any one or more of the Collegiate branches, as may be chosen in cases in which it is desired not to go through a full collegiate course. This department is under the care and superintendance of the Faculty of the College, and is in full operation.

There is no place in the middle States, more healthy than Newark. It is in the upper part of the State of Delaware, near to Pennsylvania and Maryland. The situation is retired, and very favorable for a Seminary of youth. It is removed from the dangers of large towns, and at the same time, it is as easy of access as can be desired for convenient communications from and to parents. It is six miles from Elkton, eight from New Castle, ten from New Castle, and twelve from Wilmington.

WILLARD HALL, President of the Board of Trustees.

Oct. 18, 1834—3w.

In Chancery,

OCTOBER 14, 1834.

ORDERED, That the sale of the property in the case of Thomas Cadwalader against William Taylor, junr and wife, made and reported by the trustee, John C. Groome, be ratified and confirmed, unless cause be shown to the contrary, on or before the 14th day of December next; provided a copy of this order be inserted in some newspaper, on successive weeks, in some newspaper, before the 20th day of November next. The reporter states the amount of sales to be $1,550 00.

True copy. Test,

Oct. 18. RAMSAY WATERS, Reg. Cur. Can.

In Chancery,

OCTOBER 14, 1834.

ORDERED, That the sale of the property in the case of Andrew F. Hendrix against Rebecca Hart and others, made and reported by the Trustee, John C. Groome, be ratified and confirmed, unless cause be shown to the contrary, on or before the 14th day of December next; provided a copy of this order be inserted in some newspaper, before the 20th day of November next. The reporter states the amount of sales to be three thousand, five hundred dollars.

True copy. Test,

Oct. 18. RAMSAY WATERS, Reg. Cur. Can.

Land for sale.

THE subscriber offers for sale a small Farm of about SIXTY ACRES, more or less, lying and being in Cecil county, Maryland, adjoining lands of George Jamison, Solomon Penock, William Reynolds, and others. The corner of this land is where the public road leading from Elkton towards New London Cross Roads crosses the public road leading from New Ark. Del. towards Port Deposit, about 5 and a half miles from Elkton, convenient to mills, meeting and market.

The improvements are a FRAME HOUSE, lathed & plastered on the outside—

A well of good water near the house, with a good pump in the same—a milk house close to the pump, so as to convey the water from the pump into it; a smoke house over the same; a corn house, hog and hen house; garden pulled in, a hedges, &c. &c. &c. a young apple orchard, and best assorted fruit; the land naturally of a good quality. Further description is thought unnecessary, as it is likely those wishing to purchase will call on the venditor and look for themselves, where they can see with the naked eye, the reassembling on the Delaware, North East and Elk rivers, and the steamboat going up Beck Creek, which makes it one of the handsomest and healthiest situations in the county. Persons wishing to purchase, will please to call on William Reynolds, near the premises, who will give every information necessary.

HENRY R. REYNOLDS.

October 11, 1834—tf

Unusual Attractions!

AT THE CENTRE STORE,

Directly Opposite the Court House,

THE Subscriber thanks his patrons for past favors, thank the pleasure of announcing to them his arrival from the city with a Splendid Assortment of

Reasonable Goods,

Of the latest fashions, amongst which may be found the following articles:

Blue, black, brown, green, olive, mixt, drab, and fawn colored CLOTTIS, Striped and mixt CASSIMERES and CASSINETTS.

PETERSHAM, (a genuine article for hangings &c.)

Woolen and Canton FLANNELS. CALICOES, of every description and price.

MERINOS, double and single width, CHICASSANS and BOMBAZETTS. Rose and Duffield BLANKETS. Linnen and cotton DIAPER. Green COBBS. Beaverettes, Checks, Tickings.

Bleached and brown MUSLINS. Silk, Valence, and Swandown VESTING. Ladies' embroidered Cambric, Russian and Plain Swiss SHAWLS.—Black and colored dresses SILKS, Satins, Book, Mull, Jaconet, and Cambric MUSLINS. Bishop Lawn, Pongee, Colored FLOUSE, Ladies' Silk, Cotton and Worsted Hosiery. Men's linnens' wool and country knit HOSIERY. Children's best Stockings and Socks. Ladies' best long, hookin, and kid Gloves. Men's buckskin, botlin, hookin, and fur Gloves.—Sacking Bottoms and Cash. Silk Wig, handbands, and scarlet pongee Handkerchiefs. Black Italian and fancy Cravats. Bussons, Collars, and Stocks. Thread and Bobbinet, Inserting, Laces, Edgings and Holmberg, Grecian suits, Cotton Wadding and Laps. Steel Pens, Head Purses, Slat Bags and Powder Flasks, with a great variety of other articles.

Silk and fur HATS. Seal and Otter CAPS, the best ever offered in this place; men and boys hair and cloth CAPS, Children's Merino do.

SHOES & BOOTS of all kinds, Gun Elastic SHOES.

Also China, Glass, Queens, Hard, Hollow, Cedar, Tin, and Earthen WARE. Always on hand a good stock of GROCERIES.

Which, in addition to his former stock, renders his assortment now complete.

All of which he is disposed to sell on the most favorable terms. He therefore hopes by keeping up his assortment, and selling at the lowest price, to merit a liberal share of the public's patronage, and from them be respectfully solicited a call.

Respectfully,

GEORGE H. JOYCE.

Country produce taken in exchange for goods. G. H. J.

Elkton, Oct. 4.

Notice.

Coach and Harness Making done in the neatest style by the subscriber, opposite Miss Jane Hollingsworth's. He feels thankful to his customers for past favors, (they have been very liberal), and hopes, by close attention to business, and selling low, that he will be still favored with a part of their patronage.

Respectfully,

JAMES MORROW.

September 27th.

N. B. Two apprentice boys wanted about 15 years old, to the above business. They must be of good habits. J. M.

Notice.

THE daily route of the Stage between this place and Port Deposit is discontinued. It will hereafter run three times a week, viz: Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

Oct. 18. ALLISON CRANDLE.

ON application to me, the subscriber, one of the Judges of the Orphans' Court of Cecil county, by petition in writing of James Williams, of Cecil county, for more than two years before the date of his said petition, a citizen of the State of Maryland, stating that he owes debts which he is unable to pay, and praying for the benefit of the Acts of Assembly of the State of Maryland for the relief of insolvent Debtors, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned in the said Acts, and the said James Williams having complied with all the requisitions of the said Acts of Assembly, I do hereby order and adjudge that the said James Williams be discharged from his confinement, and that he be and appear before the Judges of Cecil County Court on the first Saturday of next April term of said Court, and at such other times as the said Court shall direct, to answer such interrogatories and allegations as may be made to or against him by his creditors, and that he give notice to his creditors, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, once a week for three months previous to the said first Saturday of next April term of the said Court, to attend and show cause, if any they have, why the above should not be done, and to take the full benefit of such Acts of Assembly as Given under my hand, this 25th day of September, in the year 1834.

SAML. HOLLINGSWORTH.

A true copy. Attest,

JAMES SEWALL, CYP. Cecil County Court.

Oct. 11—3m

abundance of apples and pumpkins—Don't mention it!

Cecil Gazette.

ELKTON: NOVEMBER 15, 1834.
At the request of a friend, and for the benefit of all the parties interested, we publish the following "Act for the preservation of Wild Fowl," passed March 11, 1833; together with the Supplement thereto, passed March 13, 1834.

An act for the preservation of Wild Fowl in the waters of Swan Creek, Spoutie Narrows, Runney Creek, Bush River, and Gunpowder River, in Harford county.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the first day of September next, it shall not be lawful for any person to shoot at wild fowl, in the waters of Swan Creek, Spoutie Narrows, Runney Creek, Bush River and Gunpowder river, with a gun of any description, in the night time, except from land.

Section 2. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any person either in the day or at night, to shoot at wild fowl in any of the waters of the rivers, creeks and bays aforesaid, with any gun, from a skiff, boat or other boat, which may not be lawfully used at arm's length, without a rest, and not provided with the provisions of this act, shall be taken before any justice of the peace of said county, whose duty it shall be to require of said justice, that he send such gun, to him, the said justice, to be read, the proceeds of which sale the said justice shall pay over the one-half to the owner, and the other half to the Comptroller or Justice of the Peace of said county, who shall be required to send such gun, to the said justice, for thirty days, unless he can deliver the said gun, according to the provisions of this act.

A Supplement to an act entitled, an act for the preservation of Wild Fowl, in the waters of Swan Creek, Spoutie Narrows, Runney Creek, Bush River, and Gunpowder River, in Harford county, as before published.

Whereas, by an act of Assembly passed at December session, children hounded and thirty days, chapter 181, sections 2 and 3, was only repealed upon officers under that act a forfeiture of the gun, and whereas, experience has proved that a pecuniary fine would more effectively enforce the police interest—Therefore,

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That any person or persons violating the provisions of said law, shall be compelled to pay a fine of not less than twenty dollars, nor more than fifty dollars, to be recovered before a Justice of the Peace of the county, whose duty it shall be to require of said justice, that he send such gun, to him, the said justice, to be read, the proceeds of which sale the said justice shall pay over the one-half to the owner, and the other half to the Comptroller or Justice of the Peace of said county, who shall be required to send such gun, to the said justice, for thirty days, unless he can deliver the said gun, according to the provisions of this act.

CHOLERA IN BALTIMORE.—The Board of Health report twenty-nine deaths by Cholera in Baltimore for the last week. The health officer says: "That the Cholera is fast on a fearful extent in our city, any one that has eyes to see and ears to hear, must confess. The cases have mostly been confined to the neighborhood of Jones' Falls, and have proved generally fatal. We have been asked why the Board of Health in such an emergency, do not report daily? The people cry—'give us light'—let us know the amount of mortality." Reports are in circulation which aggravate our fears, and it is certainly better that we should know the whole truth.

The same paper of Thursday, says—
"We are pleased to have it in our power to say to our friends, both at home and abroad, that the Cholera is abating quite sensibly. Within the last week, we have affirmed its prevalence to a considerable extent. This was literally true at the time. We are no alarmists—no panic makers. Candor and plain dealing are our cardinal principles.—Our papers are exactly neutral.—It shall breathe, speak the truth, and that too, religiously."

MURDER OF PERRY.—We understand, says the Pennsylvania of Tuesday, that an individual is now in prison on suspicion of being the perpetrator of the murder of Ward Perry on the evening of the Ward Elections. He was arrested near Lancaster on Saturday last, had a partial examination yesterday morning before the Mayor, and was committed for a further hearing. The name of the prisoner is Daniel Geer, or Geiser.

DELAWARE ELECTION.—Whig Victory!—Right glad would we have been to record the vote of "Little Delaware" on the side of correct principles, but like our own State she is joined to her idol. Well, let her go—democracy has achieved too many victories within the few last weeks to mourn over the event.

The following are the majorities:
FOR CONGRESS.
Wheat, 304
Knox, 409
Sumner, 251
Anti-Jackson majority, 104
The Legislature stands 7 in favor, and 74 opposed to the administration.

RESULT OF THE NEW YORK ELECTION.

We give below, says the New York Evening Post, returns from all the counties of this State, showing a most glorious triumph of the principles of democracy. The final official returns may slightly vary from those reported, but it is not probable they will change, in any material degree, the aggregate result.—There is no reason to doubt that the majority for Mary over Seward is upwards of thirteen thousand. Of the 40 members of Congress chosen, thirty one are from and thorough democrats and supporters of the administration of Andrew Jackson. Of the State Senate, twenty-eight members will support, and four will be opposed to the administration. In seven of the eight districts our friends have carried the day. The House of Assembly will be composed of ninety-three democrats and thirty-five opposers, conceding to the latter all in Henshaw and Jefferson, one in Ulster, and one in Albany—which is probably more than they will eventually find they have carried.

We annex the returns from all the counties, and a list showing the political complexion of the House of Assembly.

MAJORITY FOR GOVERNOR
Reported and ascertained.

Majority	Seeward
Allany	100
Albany	100
Allegany	100
Cattaraugus	250
Cayuga	754
Chemung	650
Columbia	460
Delaware	1800
Dutchess	1011
Genesee	801
Herkimer	1600
Jefferson	127
Lewis	525
Madison	470
Montgomery	886
New York	2547
Oranget	700
Orange	824
Ontario	519
Oswego	110
Oneida	1150
Potomac	450
Rensselaer	1410
Rochester	812
St Lawrence	614
Saratoga	300
Schenectady	50
Schoharie	800
Schoell	110
Sullivan	265
Tioga	350
Tompkins	416
Ulster	1900
Warren	510
Westchester	170
Wayne	808
Yates	204

THE DEMOCRATIC FESTIVAL.
The proposition for a celebration of the late victories of the democratic party in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, &c., to be held at an early day at Trenton, is cordially responded to. Old Taunamy speaks as follows:

TAMMANY HALL.
On Friday Evening, Nov. 7, 1834. At a meeting of Democrats, Republican Electors, held at Tammany Hall, on Friday evening, Nov. 7, 1834. On motion, HENRY HONE, Esq. was called to the Chair, and James Conner, Esq. and Almy Ming, Jr. appointed Secretaries.

Resolved, That a committee of three from each ward be appointed by the chair, whose duty it shall be to select said delegation.

Resolved, That the committee of three from each ward be instructed to report the names of the gentlemen composing the said Grand Committee, at a meeting to be held at this Hall, this evening, the 8th November, inst.

Resolved, That the Democratic Republican Electors assemble in their respective wards on Wednesday evening next, for the purpose of appointing a committee of two hundred persons to join in celebrating this great Jubilee of Democracy. HENRY HONE, Ch'n. James Conner, Sec'taries. Almy Ming, Jr.

The Trenton Enquirer speaks of for its friends and New Jersey to this effect:
"We second the suggestion most cheerfully. Let the bath of Trenton, where the tide of the first revolution was favorably turned, be the scene of rejoicing over the success of the second. Old Hunterdon, who recommended our enemies to the same course, may be disappointed, who are glad of an opportunity to 'kick the head of the serpent' and 'to 'kry-stone' face to face, over a bottle of champagne, exactly how she did. So come along, friends."

In our vicinity, the Northern Liberties have appointed a committee of conference, and the city will hold a meeting on Tuesday evening, at Holsham's, to do the same. Now that these have been done, democracy should have a jubilee; and celebrate in fitting style their glorious triumph. Trenton, endeared as it is by remembrance, is the very place for the general meeting.—[Pennsylvania.]

Our friends will see by the communications published in this morning's Whig, from the Chester town Telescope and the Centerville Times, that our opponents are in a peck of trouble in regard to the selection of a United States Senator in the place of Judge Chambers. While the Eastern Gazette thinks R. H. Goldsborough the only man whom the party should think of placing in the Senate, the writer for the Times thinks the party ought, not for a moment, to think of an ultra Federalist, who to the present day, has not renounced his Federal principles. Again, the Carolina Advocate insists that Dr. Spence, Judge Tingle and Mr. Kerr have equal claims on the party, and are in all points, as much entitled to their favorable consideration as R. H. G., while the writer for the Telescope says neither of these gentlemen has ever been considered worthy to be seriously thought of for that distinguished appointment—that Col. Enory, Mr. Page and R. H. Goldsborough are the only individuals who have the least possible chance of success. Do our readers bear in mind the motto spoken of by our correspondent—that distinguished appointment of the Chief Justice? The respondents of the Times and Telescope seem to give some point to his suggestions. For our own part we care not a straw whom they select: the more ultra his Federalism, the better, will be more easily rejected.—[Eastern Whig.]

FATAL ACCIDENT.—The boiler of a Locomotive Engine built at the Factory of Mr. Charles Fowler in this city, burst this morning, and we are pained to say, killed the Engineer and wounded the Fireman. The Engine was intended for the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, and was at the time of this melancholy accident employed, as we learn, in conveying a train of fourteen cars from the city to Elliott's Mills, on the track under the management of the builder preparatory to an acceptance on the part of the Railroad Company. The conductor of the train escaped without injury.—[Patriot.]

CASE OF OTIS.—We learn, says the Boston Advertiser, that a petition is to be forwarded to the President in behalf of the convict, Otis, the evidence of whose guilt seems to us utterly insufficient and inconclusive. Larkin, the most material witness against him, has confessed that he perjured himself, and has absconded. Most of the other witnesses have likewise disappeared. Several persons have come forward, who testify to the good character of Otis. Add to this the confession of Larkin, and the fact that the man has strong grounds for the belief that he is wholly innocent of the crime, of which he has been convicted. We trust that our fellow citizens will give a proper attention to the subject, and come forward and stand up for their signatures to the petition for the pardon of Otis.

OMIO ELECTION.—The Columbus State Journal of the 1st inst contains returns of the election for Governor from all but two or three small counties. The votes, as far as received, stand thus: For Lucas (Whig) - 70,327 Findlay (Jackson) - 66,259 4,068

NEAPOLITAN AFFAIRS.—The Neapolitans have paid the first instalment towards the claims of American citizens, in accordance with the late treaty. The money is to be remitted in gold—$100,000 of it, in the next packet from Havre.

His excellency, W. Wilkins, the American Minister to Russia, Mr. Canning, and the Marquis of Donro, left London on the first of October, for Hamburg.

A DUEL.—We have heard a rumor, says the Mobile Register, that the Stammers Twins have had a falling out with each other, and that a duel would have ensued some time since, but the parties could not agree upon the distance. The quarrel originated from the interference of Chang, the Chinese, of this city, and his brother Eng. It is to be hoped the affair will be so adjusted, as to prevent a division between friends hitherto so closely united.

GREAT ECLIPSE OF THE SUN.—The most remarkable of the phenomena that this year (1834) will happen, is the Eclipse of the Sun on Sunday the 30th inst. This is the third of the very uncommon series of five large eclipses, visible to us, in the short term of seven years; the first of which took place on the place May 16th, 1836, and the last, September 18th, 1838.

The Prince of Canino (Lucien Bonaparte) has arrived at London, with the intention, it would appear, of taking up his permanent residence in that city. A sumptuous house, in Regent's Park, has been purchased for his use, and his establishment is said to be in a style of regal magnificence.

BALTIMORE MARKETS.

Corrected from the Farmer of Tuesday.

Wheat, white, per bushel,	$1.09 1/4
" red "	1.05 1/4
Corn, yellow "	70 3/4
Corn, white "	74 3/4
Flour, best white wheat, per bbl.	6.25 1/2
Do. do. bakers "	6.20 1/2
Do. do. superfine "	6.10 1/2
Do. super Howard's st. wags, per 5,000 a 5.18
Do. do. do. do. "	5.25 1/2
Oats, "	31 1/2
Rye, "	67 1/2
Beef, on hoof, per 100 lbs.	4.90 1/2

JUST RECEIVED, and for sale, a general assortment of coarse and fine ROOTS and SHOES. Also, ground ALUM and fine SALT. E. A. SCOTT.

For Rent,

And possession given on the 25th day of March next, all the FARM, belonging to the heirs of Benjamin Mauldin, deceased, situated in Elk Neck, and for several years past occupied by Thomas' Touch. For further information, enquire of the subscriber, or the above farm. JOHN MAULDIN, Nov. 15—4041 Executor.

5 Dollars Reward.

WAS STOLEN from the Subscriber, near Turkey Point, on the 10th of the present month, a small flat-bottomed boat, colored, one of the oars was marked E. F. B. The boat was taken up and by the subscriber on the 6th, and would have been advertised had it not been so. The boat was white and had a middle spar, with large black windows, had on drag round neck and pantaloons—was about Turkey Point for two or three days—very much of a ragged color—is perfectly acquainted with nearly all the small creeks and bays, and is much on his dog, and boat—no fact, to hear him talk, you would suppose he was a full brother to Nimrod Wildfire—Davy Crockett never got so much in the hunting line. At the time he took away said boat, there was a young man, of the name of HENRY HAY, who was going to take the boat to the owner, who was a very particular friend of his, and to tell me his name was Hogg—but a man of the same description, who I have every reason to believe is the same person, had himself at some other place for Jerry Connelly, and it is very possible may have a new name for every stopping place. It is thought he is now about Hancock's, or Havre de Grace.—The above reward will be paid for the apprehension of said boat upon his conviction, by the subscriber.

SILAS RAMSKEY, Nov 15

Sheriff's Sale.

By virtue of two writs of fieri facias, issued out of Cecil County Court, in favor of Matthew Newkirk & Co. and Hopkins & Brothers, and to me directed, will be exposed to public sale, at the house of William Wingate, in North East, in Cecil county, on the 25th instant, the following property, viz: One day clock, 2 dozen chairs, 5 beds and bedding, 2 tables, 1 looking glass, 1 carpet, 1 pair andirons, 1 bureau, 1 settee, 1 secretary, 1 barometer, 1 plough, 3 hoes, 1 set of tools, kitchen furniture, &c. Also, THE CROP OF WHEAT raised on Hancock's Point Farm, and Farming Implements not enumerated. Also, a quantity of Hay and other produce. Sale to commence at 10 o'clock, A. M. NOBLE PENNINGTON, Nov. 15 Sheriff.

Sale of Land

BY COMMISSIONERS.

By virtue and in pursuance of two several orders of Cecil County Court, made in the cases of the petitions for the division of the Real Estates of Ann Robinson and William Robinson, late of Cecil county, deceased, the undersigned, a Commissioner, will expose to public sale, on SATURDAY, the 29th instant, at 11 o'clock, A. M. at the Court House, in Elkton, all the Real Estate of the said Ann Robinson, as described and laid off in the plot and proceedings in the said petition, containing and 10 square perches, more or less, of ARABLE LAND, and 7 ACRES, 2 quarters and 10 square perches, more or less, of WOODLAND, situated on Elk River, in Elk Neck, Cecil county, for a more particular description of which, reference is made to the plot and papers in said petition for the division of the real estate of the said Ann Robinson.

25 ACRES

Also, all the real estate of the said William Robinson, as more particularly described in the plot and proceedings in the said petition; to wit:—Lot No. 5 of ARABLE LAND, containing 68 acres, 3 rods and 3/4 perches; Lot No. 2 of WOODLAND, containing 65 acres, 1 rod and 3/4 perches; Lot No. 3 of ARABLE LAND, containing 107 acres, 2 rods and 3/4 perches; and Lot No. 8 of WOODLAND, containing 29 1/2 acres, well timbered, well situated, and land, containing 74 acres, 9 rods and 1/2 perches, more or less, situated on Elk River, in Elk Neck, Cecil county, for a more particular description of which, reference is made to the plot and papers in said petition for the division of the real estate of the said William Robinson.

The terms of sale as prescribed by the said orders are: one third of the purchase money to be paid in cash, one third in six months, and the balance in twelve months from the day of sale; with interest from the day of sale—so far as relates to those persons interested who are of age, and as relates to those persons interested who are minors, the purchase money to be paid upon delivery at age of the said minors, with interest from the day of sale, the said interest to be paid annually; all of which to be secured by bonds, with approved security, bearing interest from the day of sale as aforesaid. For further particulars, application can be made at the office of Augustus Miller, in Elkton, where the plots and papers may be examined.

JOHN ALDRIDGE, FRANKS B. GUTTHER, JOSHUA HILLMAN, Nov. 8—3 Commissioners.

Public Sale.

By virtue of a decree of the High Court of Chancery of the State of Maryland, the undersigned Trustee will offer at public sale, at the tavern of Charles G. Black, in Charlestown, in Cecil county, on THURSDAY, the 18th of December next, the following valuable property, situate and being in the county aforesaid, upon and near the waters of the North East river and the Chesapeake Bay, being part of the real estate of the late Col. William W. Ramsey, and sold for the payment of his debts:

All that valuable FISHERY, TOGETHER WITH 78 1/2 acres of Cleared Land heretofore adjoining, known by the name of the Green Bank Fishery, lying upon the North East river, about one mile above its entrance into the Chesapeake Bay. The excellence and value of this fishery are so generally known, that it might be considered almost unnecessary to enumerate the many advantages and conveniences it will therefore, for the information of those who may be unacquainted with them, be sufficient to state, that in a variety of catching fish, both shad and herrings, and a ready fresh sale for them at the highest prices, the Chesapeake and economy with which it can be carried on, requiring a very shallow sea, which will last much longer than upon most other shores, and but few hands; the small capital required, as the extensive fresh water never fails to supply it; and that it has never failed, when properly conducted, to furnish a handsome profit every season, however unfavorable it may have been, are a part of the advantages to be possessed by this fishery, by those who have best acquainted with it.—Notwithstanding the superiority of the last fishing season, and although carried on with old and imperfect materials, 17,000 shad were caught, all which were sold fresh except 15 barrels. The fresh shad amounted to $1649 30; in addition to which, a considerable number of barrels of salted herrings were put up. The cleared land adjoining the said fishery, containing 78 1/2 acres, and which will be sold with it, can be easily and advantageously improved with the oil fish, shad, croaker, pickle, &c. derived from the fishery.

Also, That valuable farm called "POPLAR POINT FARM," lying about a mile from Carpenter's Point, and bounded by the Chesapeake Bay and lands of William Seneca, Joseph Gordon, and the late Jeremiah Baker, deceased. This farm is situated on a hill, and is well improved, and contains about 60 acres of which is WOODLAND of an excellent quality.

The residue is ARABLE LAND, divided into six fields, under good fencing, a great part of which is good soil, and constructed with six chestnut rails and locust posts. The natural quality of this land is first rate, and it has been but little reduced from its original fertility; the late Col. Ramsey was offered and refused $4,000 for this farm a few years ago.

The improvements are a convenient double two story house, nearly new, and kitchen adjoining, all in good repair. A FRAME BARN, Corn House, Meat House, Poultry House, and a well garden, well of excellent water at the door, &c. An ample supply of fish and ducks can be had at all times when in season. There is a FISHERY attached to this farm, which some years ago was carried on with advantage, but has been discontinued for several years past. It is believed by those who are best acquainted with the ground, that the channels running from Bull's Mountain and the White Banks to the mouth of the Susquehanna river could be fished from this above.

Also, The following valuable tracts of WOODLAND: One piece or parcel of Woodland, being part of "Seneca," bounded by Shed Town Fishery, and belonging to the late Samuel Hogg, deceased, and 36 perches, Lot No. 3 of "Seneca," and land of Joshua Hoggson—this piece contains 29 1/2 acres, well timbered and the remotest part is within 300 yards of navigable water of North East river. One other piece or parcel of Woodland, also part of "Seneca," bounded by the main road leading to Carpenter's Point, land belonging to the late John Cooper and James Hession. This piece contains 173 acres, well timbered, and is within half a mile of navigable water of North East river.

Also, All that land belonging to the said deceased, lying upon the north side of the post road leading from Charlestown to the Susquehanna ferry, containing 388 Acres of Land, about 100 acres of which is cleared, upon which there is a Dwelling House, Stable, Corn House, a number of Fruit Trees, &c. and is divided into three fields and a meadow. The residue is entirely Woodland, well timbered, a great part of which is thriving chestnut, and being situated only about two miles from navigable water, upon North East river, offers advantages to speculators that seldom occur. Should purchasers wish it, the tract of land will be divided into parcels.

Also, an unimproved Lot in the town of Havre-de-Grace, containing about half an acre, lying at the corner of Union and Congress streets, opposite the church, and advantageously situated for improvement. To those persons who may wish to view any of the above-mentioned property, they are referred to Mr. Henry B. Kerr, living upon the Poplar Point Farm, who will show them that the land on the west side of the road leading from Charlestown to Susquehanna Ferry, will show that property; and Mr. Francis Owen, living at Carpenter's Point, or Mr. Adam Little, living near Green Bank, will show them the residue. The Terms of Sale are: That the purchaser shall pay one fourth of the purchase money on the day of sale, or on the ratification thereof by the Chancery Court, and the other three fourths in equal instalments, at six, nine, and twelve months, payment of the purchase money to be secured by bonds or notes with security, to be provided by the trustee. And on the ratification of the said sale or sales by the Chancery Court, and on the payment of the whole purchase money, (and not before,) the undersigned, by a deed and acknowledged deed, executed and acknowledged according to law, will convey to the purchaser or purchasers of said property, and to his, her, or their heirs, the property to him, her, or them sold, free, clear, and discharged of all claims of third parties to the said cause, and of any persons claiming by, from, or under the same. Persons having claims against the said William W. Ramsey are hereby notified, under the seal of the court, to file their claims in the Chancery Office, previously touched, within four months from the day of the aforesaid sale.

HENRY D. MILLER, Nov. 8—3 Trustee.

bered and the remotest part is within 300 yards of navigable water of North East river. One other piece or parcel of Woodland, also part of "Seneca," bounded by the main road leading to Carpenter's Point, land belonging to the late John Cooper and James Hession. This piece contains 173 acres, well timbered, and is within half a mile of navigable water of North East river.

Also, All that land belonging to the said deceased, lying upon the north side of the post road leading from Charlestown to the Susquehanna ferry, containing 388 Acres of Land, about 100 acres of which is cleared, upon which there is a Dwelling House, Stable, Corn House, a number of Fruit Trees, &c. and is divided into three fields and a meadow. The residue is entirely Woodland, well timbered, a great part of which is thriving chestnut, and being situated only about two miles from navigable water, upon North East river, offers advantages to speculators that seldom occur. Should purchasers wish it, the tract of land will be divided into parcels.

Also, an unimproved Lot in the town of Havre-de-Grace, containing about half an acre, lying at the corner of Union and Congress streets, opposite the church, and advantageously situated for improvement. To those persons who may wish to view any of the above-mentioned property, they are referred to Mr. Henry B. Kerr, living upon the Poplar Point Farm, who will show them that the land on the west side of the road leading from Charlestown to Susquehanna Ferry, will show that property; and Mr. Francis Owen, living at Carpenter's Point, or Mr. Adam Little, living near Green Bank, will show them the residue.

The Terms of Sale are: That the purchaser shall pay one fourth of the purchase money on the day of sale, or on the ratification thereof by the Chancery Court, and the other three fourths in equal instalments, at six, nine, and twelve months, payment of the purchase money to be secured by bonds or notes with security, to be provided by the trustee. And on the ratification of the said sale or sales by the Chancery Court, and on the payment of the whole purchase money, (and not before,) the undersigned, by a deed and acknowledged deed, executed and acknowledged according to law, will convey to the purchaser or purchasers of said property, and to his, her, or their heirs, the property to him, her, or them sold, free, clear, and discharged of all claims of third parties to the said cause, and of any persons claiming by, from, or under the same.

Persons having claims against the said William W. Ramsey are hereby notified, under the seal of the court, to file their claims in the Chancery Office, previously touched, within four months from the day of the aforesaid sale.

HENRY D. MILLER, Nov. 8—3 Trustee.

Personal Discharge.

KENT COUNTY, &c.
In the application of Charles T. Loveday, of Kent county, by petition in writing to the Justices of the County Court, stating that he was in confinement for debts which he was unable to pay, and praying said Court to grant him the benefit of the insolvent laws of this state, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, being filed and read, and the said Charles T. Loveday, having satisfied the said Court, by competent testimony, that he has resided two years next preceding the time of his application within the State of Maryland, and the said Court do hereby appoint and fix the first Wednesday in the next March term of Kent County Court, for the appearance of the said Charles T. Loveday, to answer such interrogatories as may be propounded by any of his creditors, and also appoint and fix the first Wednesday in the next March term of said County Court, for the appearance of the said Charles T. Loveday, to show cause, if any they have, why the benefit of the insolvent laws is prayed.

Test, J. N. GORDON, Clk. of the County Court, this 15th day of Nov. 1834.

Test, J. N. GORDON, Clk. of the County Court, this 15th day of Nov. 1834.

Test, J. N. GORDON, Clk. of the County Court, this 15th day of Nov. 1834.

Test, J. N. GORDON, Clk. of the County Court, this 15th day of Nov. 1834.

Test, J. N. GORDON, Clk. of the County Court, this 15th day of Nov. 1834.

Test, J. N. GORDON, Clk. of the County Court, this 15th day of Nov. 1834.

Test, J. N. GORDON, Clk. of the County Court, this 15th day of Nov. 1834.

Trustee's Sale.

BY virtue and in pursuance of a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, the subscriber as Trustee, will expose to public sale, at the Inn of Mr. Charles G. Black, in Charleston, on SATURDAY the 15th day of November next, at 3 o'clock, P. M., all the Farm, Tract or Parcel of Land situate, lying and being in Cecil County, about one mile south of Charleston, on the western shore of the North East River, and bounded by said river about half a mile, contiguous to and adjoining lands of James Hession, and lands belonging to the heirs of the late James C. Powell, heretofore devised to Benjamin Ferguson of Cecil County, by Benjamin Ferguson late of Baltimore City, and now in the possession of Mr. Adam Lyle, containing Four hundred and Thirty Acres of land, more or less. This land is in a good state of cultivation, finely situated upon the navigable waters of the North East River, in a respectable and healthy neighborhood, and convenient to mills and houses of public worship. The waters upon its shores abound in the greatest variety of fish and ducks. About one half of this farm is in wood.

The improvements upon this land are a large and new BARN, and all the necessary out buildings, with an excellent APPLE ORCHARD. There is also a Fishery attached to this farm, which might be made valuable at a small expense.

The terms of sale as prescribed by the Decree are, Cash, to be paid on the day of sale, or on the ratification thereof.

AUGUSTUS MILLER, Trustee to

October 25th, 1854

Sheriff's Sale.

BY virtue of sundry writs of execution issued out of Cecil County Court, at the suit of Matthew Newkirk & Co. and Hopkins & Brothers, against the goods, chattels, lands and tenements of William Wingate, I have seized and taken in execution all the estate, right, title, interest and claim, either at law or in equity, of the said William Wingate, of, in and to the following real estate, houses, lands and tenements, to wit:

- No. 1. A House and Lot, on Main st. in the town of Elkton, Cecil county, purchased by the late Edward Wingate from John Z. Cotton during the session of 1853. Particular description of which, reference is made to the papers and proceedings in the case of the petition for the division of the real estate of said Edward Wingate, in Cecil County.
- No. 2. A Store-house and Lot, on Main st. in the town of Elkton, Cecil county, purchased by the late Edward Wingate from John Z. Cotton during the session of 1853. Particular description of which, reference is made to the papers and proceedings in the case of the petition for the division of the real estate of said Edward Wingate, in Cecil County.
- No. 3. A House and Lot on Back st. in the town of Elkton, Cecil County, now in the possession of Mr. Thomas S. Welch, conveyed to the said William Wingate by a certain John Kirk and Paine Kirk, as by deed dated on or about the 7th of November, 1828, recorded in the land record books of Cecil County, will more fully appear.

And I do hereby give notice, that on SATURDAY, the 23d day of November next, at 10 o'clock, A. M. at the Court House in the town of Elkton, I will expose to public sale the above described real estate, houses, lands and tenements, as aforesaid, and taken into execution as aforesaid, for cash, to be paid on the day of sale.

NOBLE PENNINGTON, Sheriff.

GEORGE PEACOCK.

PROPRIETOR OF THE AMERICAN HOTEL, No. 56, Pratt-st., Baltimore.

(Near the corner of Hanover-street.)

Returns his thanks to his friends and the public for the liberal patronage bestowed upon his establishment since his commencement in this city. Having gone to considerable expense in fitting up his house to promote their comfort and convenience, and in rendering it as comfortable as any in this city, he respectfully solicits a continuance of the same, as he will give no pains to omit it.

Guests can be accommodated with private rooms and families traveling, with private parlors, and bedrooms, with the best of beds and furniture in the most modern style. The house is situated in the most pleasant part of the city, the Hall Road cars pass by it, and it is only a few minutes' ride to the Steam Boats, Public Stage Offices, &c. &c.

Notice.

Coach and Harness Making done in the neatest style by the subscriber opposite Miss Jane Hollingsworth's. He feels thankful to his customers for past favors (they have been very liberal), and hopes by close attention to business, and selling low, that he will be still favored with a part of their patronage.

Respectfully,
JAMES MORROW.

November 27th, if.

No. Two Twenty seven years wanted about 15 year old, to the above business. They must be of good habits. J. M.

Magistrates Blanks,

FOR SALE AT THIS OFFICE.

Sheriff's Sale.

BY virtue of two writs of fieri facias issued out of Cecil County Court, at the suit of Matthew Newkirk & Co. and Hopkins & Brothers, and to me directed, will be exposed to public sale, at the house of William Wingate, in North East, in Cecil County, on TUESDAY the 15th instant, the following property, viz: One 5 day clock, 2 double chairs, 3 beds and bedding, 2 tables, 1 looking glass, 1 carpet, 1 pair andirons, 1 bureau, 1 settee, 1 secretary, 1 barouche, 4 benches, 2 harrows, 1 wheat fan, kitchen furniture, &c. THE CROP OF WHEAT sown on Horse's Point Farm, and Farming Implements not enumerated.

Sale to commence at 10 o'clock, A. M. at the residence of

NOBLE PENNINGTON, Sheriff.

For Sale.

A well broke yoke of stout young Oxen, good drawers, and well matched, being in fine condition, either fit for farm or butcher, at the low price of $50.

Also, some Best Cattle. Apply to

E. OLIPHANT, Nov. 1-51

PROSPECTUS FOR THE

Congressional Globe.

THE CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE, which was commenced publishing at the last session of Congress, will be continued through the approaching one. It will be published in the same form, and at the same price, that is, once a week, on a double royal sheet, made up in quarto form, at one dollar per copy, and being the season. When any important subject is discussed, we propose to print an Extra sheet. Subscribers may elect to have one or two extra sheets. At the close of the session, an Index will be made for the last of the session, and sent to all the subscribers.

We shall pay to the reporters alone, for preparing the reports that will be published in this paper, more than one hundred dollars a week, during the session. In publishing it, therefore, at one dollar for all the numbers printed during the session, we may boast of affording the most important information at the cheapest price.

TERMS.

1 copy during the session, $1 00
11 copies during the session, $10 00
Payment may be made by mail, postage paid, at our risk. The notes of any specie-paying Bank will be received.

No attention paid to any order, unless the money accompany it.

Type Foundry.

C. SHERMAN & SAMUEL ECKLIN, HAVING purchased the Type Foundry established by the late J. Howe, have entered into partnership, for the purpose of carrying on the manufacture of types, under the firm of E. K. & Co.

We intend keeping on hand a large assortment of type, especially the new kinds most used, which will enable us to supply orders with the least possible delay, and have now for sale a large quantity of the best quality, stock purchased from the estate of J. Howe, and intend to make immediate additions to it.

S. Ecklin & Co. are now prepared to receive orders for fonts of every description, from Pearl to 22 lines Pica, including a variety of Ornamental Letter. We offer for sale, also, an assortment of Combs, Dashes, Brass Rule, and other ornaments of which specimens will be forwarded to Printers as soon as they can be prepared. Such improvements as the wants of the trade and taste may require will receive the earliest attention in this establishment.

Printing of every description, Printing Ink of the most approved qualities, Composing Sticks, Brass and Common Galleys, Chases, Imposing Stones, Paper, and Press Books, Standing Presses, Furniture, together with a complete assortment of all articles used in a printing office, will be kept constantly on hand.

Small fonts, suitable for book binders, may be had when called for.

Orders from all parts of the Union will be promptly and most carefully attended to, and particularly in supplying sorts for all fonts furnished by our predecessor.

We respectfully solicit a share of public patronage. To the former patrons of this foundry, we deem it sufficient to say that they will be as well and as completely served as heretofore should they be disposed to favor us with their orders. The business of the foundry will be conducted under the following firm, and by the same person who was in fact the type foundry of J. Howe.

S. ECKLIN & Co. Corner of Crown & Callowhill streets, Philadelphia. nos 8

Hail! All hail!

Glorious news to the purchasers of Cheap Goods!

The subscriber begs leave to inform the public, far and near, old and young, that he has just received his second addition to his Fall Stock, which renders it by far the largest and most complete now in this town.

Some of my contemporaries cried out soon, Cheap Goods! Large Stocks, they surely must have forgotten that the auctioneers (founded on the

NEW AND SEASONABLE GOODS.

THE subscriber begs leave respectfully to inform his friends and customers, that he has just returned from the city of Philadelphia with a large and splendid assortment of Fall Seasonable Goods, which he is willing to dispose of on just and reasonable terms, and at a very great advance. His stock consists in part of CLOTHS of various colors and prices, black, blue, dove and fawn color of CASSIMERE, FLANNELS, PLAIN, NELS, HEAVYWEIGHTS, CORDS, &c. PETERSHAM, an excellent article for bang-up coats.

VESTINGS.—A large and handsome assortment, such as Silk, Satin, Velvet, Valenciennes, Swansdown, &c. English and French MERINOS, Cassimere, Bombazette, Bombazines, SHAWLS—Merino, Cashmere, and Worsted Cotton.

RESPECTFULLY,
SILKS, for ladies' dresses.

SHOES AND BOOTS.

Ladies' real skin, Morocco, leather & lasting shoes; men's coarse & fine Boots and Shoes.

HATS AND CAPS.

British and Liverpool Ware, Hardware, Tinware, Woodware, Brushes, &c.

GROCERIES.

Always a supply on hand.

WILLIAM TORBERT, Jr. N. B. All kinds of country produce, at the market price, will be taken in exchange for goods. W. T. Jr. Oct. 18-17

New and Cheap GOODS.

The subscriber has just received an assortment of Goods, which he offers at reduced prices, consisting in part of:—Super blue, black, brown, green and mixed CLOTHS, fine CASSIMERE, Cassimere, Coarse Cloths and Kerseys, Flannels, Linsey, Merinos, Bombazines, Calicoes, cambric, plaid and book Muslin, Handkerchiefs, plain Swiss Muslin, Bobbinet, Grecianette, Irish Linens, table and bird-eye diaper.

FINE MULLINS.

Cambric, plain and plaid; Jacquett figured and plain; Mull and Swiss, figured and plain; Nankeet, Bobbinet, Grecianette, Fattoretto, Bishop's Lawn, Book and Leaf Muslin; children's Capes, Caps, and Collars.

GLOVES.

Men's buckskin, beaver, woolen and hawkin' Gloves; ladies' kid, beaver, Tuckermans, and cotton; men's buckskin Mitts and ladies' kid Mitts.

HOSIERY.

Ladies black worsted mohair, merino, silk and cotton Hose; ladies' white, merino, silk and cotton Hose; men's worsted, silk, lambs' wool and cotton half hose; with almost every article in the dry goods line.

SUPER SILK & FUR HATS.

WATER PROOF BOOTS. Men's heavy Indian, moose and children's Boots, Moccasins, Shoes, Slippers of every kind, and description.

GROCERIES,

of all kinds and qualities. HARDWARE, QUEENSWARE, EARTHEN WARE, GLASSWARE, STONWARE, TINWARE, & CHINAWARE.

Oh! stop! stop! you have every thing here. Well, we will admit we have a little of almost every thing; therefore we will stop enumerating.

Now friends, acquaintances, and buyers in general, you are well aware the world was not made in a day; you must be convinced that every thing cannot be done in a moment; at the same rate, the abundance of goods now in Elkton cannot be sold in a minute; therefore, when you come to our town you may expect to find an assortment far superior to any ever offered in this market heretofore.

But enough. I must close, and in so doing, I must say, my grateful acknowledgments to my numerous countrymen, as well as my town friends, and relying on that generous patronage which has thus far supported me, I now invite you all to the grand Jubilee of Cheap Goods, and whoever receives here, or their bargains at home or abroad, shall not labor long under such uneasy feelings, as the goods will be taken back (without any reserve) and the money returned to the purchaser.

Yours, very respectfully,
THOMAS S. WELCH.

Elkton, October 18-17

N. B. All kinds of produce taken in exchange for goods. T. S. Welch.

In Chancery,

ORDERED, That the sale of the property in the cause of Thomas Cadwalader against William Taylor, Junr. and wife, made and reported by the trustee, John C. Groomer, be ratified and confirmed, unless cause be shown to the contrary, on or before the 14th day of December next, provided a copy of this order be inserted once in each of three successive weeks, in some newspaper, before the 20th day of November next. The report states the amount of sales to be $1,550 00.

True copy. Test,
RAMSAY WATERS, Reg. Cor. Can.

In Chancery,

ORDERED, That the sale of the property in the cause of Andrew F. Henderson against Rebecca H. Truitt, and others, made and reported by the trustee, John C. Groomer, be ratified and confirmed, unless cause be shown to the contrary, on or before the 14th day of December next; provided a copy of this order be inserted once in each of three successive weeks, in some newspaper, before the 20th day of November next. The report states the amount of sales to be three thousand, five hundred dollars.

True copy. Test,
RAMSAY WATERS, Reg. Cor. Can.

Newark College,

(DELAWARE)

THE vacation of this institution expires on the 4th of November next, the next day (Nov. 5,) the collegiate year commences.

There are two vacations: one of four weeks beginning on the 4th Wednesday of April; one of six weeks beginning on the 1st of September. The estimated expenses for the collegiate year, including Board, tuition, room rent, washing, light and fuel amount to $104.15.

The Faculty consists of a President and three Professors. The Rev. E. W. Gilchrist, of Wilmington, chosen President at the close of last term, has accepted. Two of the professors-shere are filled by Mr. Agnew and Mr. Graven. The other will be filled at the beginning of the term now approaching. The Trustees have felt deeply the importance of an able and self qualified instructor, and have taken much pains to procure a Faculty worthy of confidence, as well for their qualifications to prudently and affectionately take care of, and govern the students, as their high moral character. The Faculty, with the gentleman named, this representation need not be made.

The college embraces an academical department. In this department a student may be instructed in academical branches, or in any one or more of the Collegiate branches, as may be chosen in cases in which it is desired not to go through a full collegiate course. This department is under the care and superintendence of the Faculty of the College.

There is no place in the college for the study of the Latin language. It is in the upper part of the State of Delaware, near to Pennsylvania and Maryland. The situation is retired, and very favorable for a Seminary of youth. It is removed from the dangers of large towns, and at the same time, it is as easy of access as can be desired for convenient communications from and to parents. It is six miles from Elkton, eight from Frenchtown, ten from New Castle, and twelve from Wilmington.

WILLIAM HALL, President of the Board of Trustees. Oct. 18, 1854-55.

Land for sale.

THE subscriber offers for sale a small Farm of about SIXTY ACRES, more or less, lying and being in Cecil county, Maryland, adjoining lands of George Jamison, Solomon Penock, William Reynolds, and others. The corner of this land is where the public road leading from Elkton towards New London Cross Roads crosses the public road leading from New Ark, Del. towards Port Deposit, about 5 and a half miles from Elkton, convenient to mill, meeting and market.

The improvements are a FRAME HOUSE, lath & plastered on the outside.

A well of good water near the house, with a good pump in the same.—a mill race close to the pump, so as to convey the water from the pump into it; a smoke house over the same; a corn house, hog and hen house; garden piled in, a hundred feet square; a young apple orchard, now just beginning to bear, of the choicest and best quality; and naturally of a good quality. Further description is thought unnecessary, as it is likely those wishing to purchase will call on the premises and look for themselves, where they can see with the naked eye, the valuable nature of the Delaware, North East and Elk rivers, and the steamboat going up Back Creek, which makes it one of the handsomest and healthiest situations in the country. Persons wishing to purchase, will please to call on William Reynolds, near the premises, who will give every information necessary.

HENRY R. REYNOLDS, Oct. 18, 1854-55

For Rent.

THE Merchant, Grist and Saw Mill, at the east end of Elkton, now occupied by Thomas A. Biddle, being in good repair, and the best stand for country work in the county. For terms, apply to THOMAS HOWARD, Jr. Nov. 1-41

For Sale.

A NEGRO BOY, about 10 or 11 years of age—a slave for life, he will not be sold out of the State. Enquire of the editor. Oct. 25

Seasonable Goods,

OF the latest fashions, amongst which may be found the following articles:—Blue, black, brown, green, olive, mixt, dress and fawn colored CLOTHES, Striped and mixt CASSIMERE and CASIMERE. PETERSHAM, (a genuine article for bang-up coats.) Woolens and Canton FLANNELS CALICOES, of every description and price. MERINOS, double and single width. CIRCASSIANS and BOMBAZETTE, Rose and Dotted BLANKETS. Linen and cotton DIAPER. Gaiter CORDS. Beards-trim, Checks, Tickings.

Bleached and brown MULLINS. Silk Valenciennes and Swansdown VESTING. Ladies' embroidered Cashmere, Russian and Plaid Swiss SHAWLS.—Black and colored dress SILKS. Swiss Book, Mull, Jacquett, and Cambric. MULLS. Bishop Lawn, Pongee, Colored Flannels. Ladies' Silk, Cotton and Worsted HOSE. Men's lambs' wool and country knit HOSE. Children's spotted Stockings and Socks. Ladies' hose, kerchiefs, and kid Gloves. Men's buckskin, berlin, hosiery, and for Gloves.—Sucking Bottoms and Crash. Silk & Sandalwood, and scarlet pongee Handkerchiefs. Black Italian and fancy Cravats, Collars, and Stockings. Ties and Bobbinet. Inserting, Lace, Edging, and Quilting. Grecian neck, Cotton Wadding and Laps. Sewed Petticoats. Bead Purses, Shot Bags and Powder Flasks, with a great variety of other articles.

Silk and for HATS. Seal and Otter CAPS, the best ever offered in this place, men and boys hair and cloth CAPS, Children's Merino do.

SHOES & BOOTS of all kinds. Gum Elastic SHOES. Silk and Cashmere, Queens, Hurd, Hollow, Cedar, Tin and Earthen WARE. Always on hand a good stock of GROCERIES

Which, in addition to his former stock, renders his assortment now complete. All of which he is disposed to sell on the most favorable terms. He therefore hopes by keeping up his assortment, and selling goods cheap, to merit a liberal share of the public's patronage, and from them he respectfully solicits a call.

Respectfully,
GEORGE H. JOYCE.

Country produce taken in exchange for goods. G. H. J. Elkton, Oct. 4.

Notice.

The daily route of the Stage between this place and Port Deposit is discontinued. It will hereafter run three times a week, viz: Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

Oct. 18. ALLISON CRANDELL.

ON application to me, the subscriber, one of the Judges of the Orphans' Court of Cecil County, by petition in writing of James Williams, of Cecil county, for more than two years before the date of his said petition, a citizen of the State of Maryland, stating that he owes debts which he is unable to pay, and praying for the benefit of the Acts of Assembly of the State of Maryland for the relief of Insolvent Debtors, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned in the said Acts of Assembly, I do hereby order and adjudge that the said James Williams be discharged from his confinement, and that he be and appear before the Judges of Cecil County Court on the first Saturday of next April term of said Court, and at such other times as said Court shall direct, to answer or such interrogatories and allegations as may be made to or against him by his creditors, and that he give notice to his creditors, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, once a week for three months previous to the said first Saturday of next April term of the said County Court, to attend and show cause, if any they have, why the said James Williams should not have the full benefit of such Acts of Assembly.—Given under my hand, this 25th day of September, in the year 1854.

SAML. HOLLINGSWORTH, A true copy. Attest,
JAMES SEWELL, CLK. Cecil County Court. Oct. 11-5m

swam and travelled, without guide, compass, or map, by the mere evidence of his own keen sense of smell, two hundred miles, through a country in which he had never before been. An old horse, purchased in Vermont, many years since, was shipped at Saylor's Cove, for Detroit, by a Long Island Sound steamer, and found his way, in about five days, to his master's crib, in Vermont.

Scientific Tracts.

TYPE BREAD.—Bread made of wheat flour when taken out of the oven or skillet is unappreciated for the stomach. It should go through a change, or ripen before it is eaten. Young persons, or persons in the enjoyment of vigorous health, may eat bread immediately after being baked without any sensible injury from it, but weakly and aged persons cannot, and none can eat such without doing harm to the digestive organs. Bread after being baked goes through a change similar to the change in newly brewed beer, or newly churned butter, and is being healthy until after the change. During the change in bread it sends off a large portion of carbon, or unhealthy gas, and inhales a large portion of healthy, or oxygen gas. Bread has according to the computation of the physicians in London one fifth more nutriment in it when ripe, than it has when just out of the oven. It not only has more nutriment but imparts a much greater degree of cheerfulness. He that eats old bread will have more animal spirits than he would were he to eat newly baked bread. Bread, as before, is a chemical compound of carbon and healthy oxygen. One thing in connection with this thought should be particularly noted by all housewives. It is, to let the bread ripen where it can inhale the oxygen in a pure state. Bread will always taste of air that surrounds it when ripe, there it has when just out of the oven. It should never ripen in a cellar, nor in a close cupboard, nor in a bed room.—The noxious vapors of a cellar or a cupboard never should enter into and form a part of the bread we eat. The writer of this article has often eaten bread of this kind, and has felt strongly disposed to lecture the mistress of the house on the subject of keeping bread in a pure atmosphere. Every man and woman ought to know that much of health and comfort depends upon the method of preparing their food. Bread should be light, well baked and properly ripened, before it should be eaten.

THE METEORS.—The New Haven Daily Herald contains an article written by Professor Olmstead of Yale College, in which it is stated, that the phenomenon of "falling stars" returned on the morning of the 13th of November, though it is a form so much less impressive than that of the last year, that many persons who were on the watch, were not sensible of its occurrence. He states however, that it did occur, and was attended by some remarkable peculiarities, though the presence of the moon, until about 4 o'clock in the morning, obscured the larger meteors to be seen.

The number of the meteors was smaller than last year, though much above the common average. At one o'clock, a fireball of unusual splendor blazed forth in the east, like a signal and they were suddenly seen to fall, at a pretty uniform rate, until the light of day was advanced. Some fell in the southwest, and a few in the northwest, but by far the greater number were in the eastern hemisphere.

The meteors appear as before, to radiate from a common centre, in the constellation of Leo, and as before they fell, their line of direction, if continued would pass through that point. The radiant point was a little northward and westward of the place it occupied last year, and this about as least observed to vary in position for at least three hours, thus corresponding to the variations in the position of the radiant of last year, from which it is inferred that the source of the meteor was beyond its atmosphere. The meteors in general fell in arcs of great circles extending from the radiant point, but four were seen to ascend from it. One shot from the radiant toward the radiant, and then moved away in a horizontal direction from west to east, south of Orion and Canis major.

The Zodiacal light began to appear at 4 o'clock, and extended itself from the horizon upward, terminating near the place whence the meteors emanated. Professor Olmstead considered this as confirming his suggestion, made last year, that the shower of meteors is derived from the extreme portions of a nebulous body, which revolve round the sun, and comes to its apogee near the orbit of the earth about the 13th of November. It was independent evidence, that the body affording this light, usually called Zodiacal, was inferred to be the nebulous body itself. At 19 minutes past 3 o'clock, a fiery luminous aerial disc branched off from the extreme parts of the luminous pyramid, and extended itself in a long zone, rounded at the vertex, towards the pole (or perhaps the magnetic pole) starting near Regulus, stretching across the head of Leo Minor, and terminating near Theta of the Great Bear. It began to fade in five minutes, and soon after disappeared.

Mr. Olmstead concludes by stating one or two facts, in order, by comparison with the observation of others, that the height and velocity of these bodies may be estimated. At one minute before 4, meantime, a bright meteor in the north, with a train lasted one second. Its path was about 48 deg. in length, at an angle of 60 deg. with the horizon, inclining to the west, and terminating 10 deg. beneath Zeta of the Great Bear. At 15 minutes past 4, another bright meteor described a path 45 deg. inclining to the west, at an angle of 75 deg. with the horizon, and terminating near Beta Minor, lasting at least two seconds.—There were two others, whose paths were serpentine, and described a path of about 25 deg. at most perpendicularly to the horizon, inclining to the west, and terminating 6 deg. below Denebola.

General Intelligence.

GEORGIA AND THE U. STATES.

On the 7th instant the Governor of the State of Georgia transmitted to the Legislature of that State the following message:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, GEORGIA.
Milledgeville, 7th November, 1834.
To the Senate and House of Representatives.

At the commencement of the present session of the General Assembly, I felt myself compelled, in the discharge of my official duty, to lay before you my views in relation to the present state of our Indian affairs together with various documents tending to sustain the opinion submitted. Since that opinion was given, additional information has been communicated to this Department through various channels, which cannot fail to confirm every important view which I have heretofore submitted to the Legislature, in regard to the perplexing relations which exist to exist with the Cherokee Indians, who still reside within the limits of the State. The character of the information alluded to, may be judged of, by reference to the letter of William G. Springer, Esq. Agent, &c., a copy of which is herewith transmitted.

Yesterday received a paper from the Gov. of William Y. Russell, Esq., purporting to be the copy of a citation signed by Henry Baldwin, Esq., one of the Judges of the Supreme Court of the United States, (a copy of which is herewith submitted,) requiring the State of Georgia to appear before the Supreme Court of the United States, on the 10th of next, to answer to that tribunal, for having caused a person, who had committed murder within the limits of the State, to be tried and convicted there. This mandate can be considered in no other light than another and third attempt, to reduce the State to the exercise of its ordinary criminal jurisdiction, which has been tested by our constitution exclusively in our own Supreme Courts. Such a control over our own criminal jurisdiction, as this proceeding indicates, has never been delegated to the U. States, and consequently cannot be exercised, or submitted to by the People and the authorities of Georgia.—The powers not delegated by the constitution of the U. States, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively.

Any attempt to infringe the evident rights of the State to govern its entire population of whatever complexion, and punish all offences committed against its laws within those limits, (due regard being had to the cases expressly excepted by the Constitution of the United States,) is considered a direct usurpation of power, which has never been granted by the States. Such attempts demand the determined resistance of the State; for if persevered in, they will eventuate in the dismemberment and overthrow of our free constitution. In exercising the duty which the Executive Department of this State is bound to perform, I shall wholly disregard all such unconstitutional inquisitions of whatever character or origin, and to the utmost of my power, protect and defend the rights of this State, and use the means afforded by the Constitution, the laws and constitution of the same. The Legislature cannot fail to perceive, that the present inaction between the State and Federal authorities has been engendered, nurtured and maintained by the advice, counsel, conduct, and proceedings of certain individuals, claiming to be citizens of Georgia, alluded to and pointed out in my message of the 4th inst. I therefore earnestly, but respectfully urge upon the consideration of the Legislature, the necessity of such measures as shall sustain the policy of the State, and the faithful execution of its laws heretofore enacted in relation to our Indian population.

(Signed) WILSON LUMPKIN.

[From the Pennsylvanian.]

Pelegrin Sprague, of Maine, has addressed a letter, through the newspapers, to the members elect of the Maine Legislature, announcing his intention of resigning his seat in the United States Senate, as soon as they meet, the people of Maine having pronounced on his course. See Nov. Messrs. Frelinghuysen and Southard, follow the lead.

The honorable Senator's letter is appended.

To the Members Elect of the Legislature of Maine.

GENTLEMEN:—Deeming it proper to give to the appropriate agents, whom the people have designated for that service, an opportunity to fill the seat I now hold in the Senate of the United States, at the earliest practicable moment, I take this mode of apprising you that the Legislature will, on the first day of the next session, receive my resignation of the office of Senator. I do so in order that you may be prepared for immediate action upon that important subject. When, at a former period, the Legislature arrogated to itself a right to demand the surrender of my office, I thought myself bound, by the highest and most solemn obligations, to resist that high-handed assumption of power, which, if submitted to, would entirely abrogate an express and important provision of the Constitution of the United States, changing the tenure of the office of Senator from six years, as therein distinctly prescribed, to the precarious pleasure of the Legislature for the time being, which that instrument so emphatically repels.—I have so long and unequivocally withstood that assumption, that it cannot be supposed to be in any degree sanctioned by me, should I soon yield to any inclination to retire, especially as my situation has been so materially changed. I have recently, by my own consent, been brought before the whole People of the State as a candidate for the office of Chief Magistrate. The contest was a vigorous one, and turned upon political questions in which I had been and might again be called upon officially to take part. Peculiar circumstances, which preceded and attended the canvass, gave to the character of an appeal to the great jury an opportunity to give the People their decision, and I have been pronounced, and I cannot now perceive that any considerations of public duty require me to sacrifice my feelings and wishes, by continuing in office a moment longer than is necessary to give to the Legislature an opportunity to elect another in my stead. The precedent cannot be dangerous. There can rarely be such coincidence of circumstances, and never without the voluntary consent of the Senator himself, to be placed directly before the whole People, as a candidate for their suffrages. I am, very respectfully, Your obedient servant,

PELEG SPRAGUE.

Hallowell, Nov. 17th, 1834.

ARRIVAL OF THE CONSTELLATION.

The U. S. frigate Constellation, Capt. READ, from the Mediterranean station, came into our Capes on Wednesday last, and the vessel's deck was crowded with sailors, anchored on the Middle Ground, until yesterday morning, when she weighed and stood up to the bite of Craney Island where she is now anchored. The Constellation left Mahon the 2d October, and arrived at this port, and since leaving the Western Islands had remarkably bad weather. The cholera which had prevailed in Spain during the summer, reached Mahon about the middle of September, at which time the Constellation was in that port, and we regret to say that the disease broke out among her crew. At the time the C. left Mahon until she had been nine days in the Atlantic the disease continued to prevail; the number of cases during that time amounted to between ninety and a hundred, and the number of deaths to about twenty, including midshipman HORATIO G. MYERS of South Carolina, the only officer who fell a victim to this fatal disease. The U. S. ship Delaware, Comd. PATTERSON, was on the coast of Syria, and was expected to leave Alexandria shortly for Mahon, touching at Tripoli and Tunis. The Schor Spargak, Id. Comd. PAULINO, had arrived at Malta, from Alexandria, and was also expected at Mahon. The frigate United States, Comd. BALLARD, was at Smyrna, giving coasts to merchant vessels. It was reported that the U. S. ship Adams, Comd. Connor, had passed Gibraltar, bound up.

The Constellation has brought over the fine marble statues, emblematical of Peace and War, intended to ornament the Capitol of the United States. They were executed, it will be recollected, by Louis Arnaud-Lesclapart, and are said to be splendid specimens of sculpture.—As the work of the artist is exhibited in a back view of the figures as well as in front, it is expected that they will be placed in the Hall of the House of Representatives, on each side of the Speaker's Chair, and not in the recesses of the Rotunda, as has been surmised. M. Persico has also executed a fine bust of Gen. Jackson, which is also on board the Constellation. M. Persico himself accompanies these valuable monuments of his genius to Washington, whether the Constellation is ordered to convey them.—Peace is represented by a female figure, with the olive branch, &c. War, by a figure of Mars, copied from the best model of the ancients; they are cut in the Carrara marble, of the finest quality.—Norfolk Herald, Oct. 31.

CONFLAGRATION.

The following appears in the London Times of the 4th of October, in the shape of an advertisement, under the sanction of Mr. Rothschild, the Austrian Consul General, and others, by whom donations in behalf of the sufferers were to have been raised.

GREAT FIRE AT WIENER NEUSTADT, NEAR VIENNA.

It would be impossible to give a correct description of the dreadful fire which has entirely destroyed the town of Wiener Neustadt, about 30 miles from Vienna. Of 500 dwelling houses, only five remain standing, besides the military Academy, the Prince's two Regiments, the Sugar refinery, the principal Churches, the Convention, both of which, however, have the steeples and roofs burnt, and the half melted. So terrific was the fire, that the people could not stay in the streets, or give any succor. The fire engines were deserted in the streets and burnt. All the houses were therefore entirely destroyed by the fire, with every thing they contained. There was besides 4000 barrels, into which the largest of the surrounding towns were just being sent, and destroyed. The Custom House, in which a large quantity of goods was deposited, this town being a place of entrepot, was entirely destroyed, with every thing it contained. Of 10,000 persons, the greatest part are reduced to extreme want of poverty, and are just about to starve, and are partly encamped in the fields, and part have sought temporary shelter in the neighboring villages, many were killed, and a still greater number were wounded, or have lost their sight by the intensity of the fire. The general distress is beyond description.

From the N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

THE MONEY MARKET.

We hear the question asked now and then, will there be a scarcity of money this winter? The question impinging into the public mind, and may possibly turn some of our friends aside from the full pursuit of their enterprises, we shall take the liberty to state the reasons which convince us that money must remain plenty for some months to come. That there will be no great scarcity, we suppose every body knows. We have not only the specie in the country we ever had before. Money is extremely plenty, and confidence among merchants strong. The rates of exchange, notwithstanding our immense importations of specie, are still in our favor, although we are still after all, in debt to us. The money movements of the past year have reduced the circulation and the loans of the Banks, so that as a whole they are stronger than at any previous period; and to cap the climax, we have good prices for all our simple products, but especially for our manufactures, the exportation of a cotton crop, probably quite as large as that of last year, and at prices which will make it net over seven millions of dollars in the aggregate, and fifty millions for the part we have to spare for foreign nations. The products of our own manufactures supply a large portion of our wants, so that unless our extravagance breaks over all bounds, our accounts with foreign nations will stand at least as well a year hence, as they do now. In addition to all this, the credit of our public stock is increasing, and confidence in the wealthy abroad, and they are sending with more and more confidence their surplus funds to the help of our enterprises. And further, were there need of it, we could spare fifteen millions of specie, without effecting the loss of circulation, or restraining the issues of the Bank perceptibly.

PELEG SPRAGUE.

Hallowell, Nov. 17th, 1834.

THE EXECUTION.

The execution of Charles Bowen, for the murder of Jonathan M. Ewen, says the Village Register, was performed on Wednesday last. With many symptoms of deep contrition, and an avowed faith in the Saviour of sinners, the drop fell, at about a quarter before two o'clock, and launched him into eternity! A moment before the execution, he turned to those attending, saying,—"I am now at the end of my journey, and I bid you all farewell." Previous to his being conducted to the scaffold, he had acknowledged the justice of his death. The Sheriff, in performance of his duty, was assisted in his duties by two regular physicians, 2 or 3 religious friends, the Deputy Attorney General, and a jury of twelve citizens of the county. The appearance of the prisoner was composed—his walk to the scaffold, filtered apparently only through weakness.

For some weeks previous to the town—some mounted the Court House, and the adjacent shops, through their eagerness to witness the execution, but with little gratification; not more than half a dozen could see from the outside. Instead of a military force, and a vast concourse of men, women, and children, looking upon the awful scene, the execution took place without noise, confusion, or immorality—heretofore the usual concomitants of such scenes.

WILMINGTON, DEL. November 25.

EXPLOSION.

Saturday night last, a bomb shell was exploded, our citizens were alarmed by the explosion of one of Garache's Powder Mills, near this city. The shock was felt very severely in every part of the city and for several miles distant. From the blaze which continued several minutes after the explosion, some of our fire companies were induced to think other buildings were on fire, and repaired with their engines to the spot. We learn however, that the new mill lately erected by Mr. Garache, which contained his engine, caught fire by accident, and that about 2,000 lbs. of powder was in it, which prevented any efforts from being made to put it out. The quantity exploded, and demolished the building without doing any other injury. No lives were lost, and the whole loss sustained we understand is not very great.

Columbus, Mass., Oct. 21.

ARRIVAL OF THE SANTA FE TRADERS.

The Fall Company of Santa Fe Traders, under the command of Mr. Kerr, have just arrived here from that place. They have brought upwards of two hundred thousand dollars in specie. The company consist of about 100 men, and 100 wagons, a number of them loaded with wood. A considerable number of mules have also been brought.

TRIAL FOR BIASPREMY.

Mr. Knasland, who is the editor of an abolition paper in Boston, and who recently made a charge in the city on an undesigning trial in that city on an indictment for blasphemy, for having denied the existence of a God.—The prosecution is conducted by Mr. Austin, Attorney General. Mr. Knasland manages his own defence. The Boston Advertiser says, "The defendant is defended by Mr. K. with signal ability, learning and propriety of manner; and all who listen to the defendant must be surprised that a man of his profound biblical and critical learning, and good well educated, can indulge the sentiments he professes to entertain. The court room is crowded by those who are anxious to witness the ability of the two men whose trial is brought in conflict by the trial.

From the Pennsylvanian.

FRENCH CLAIMS.

The very patriotic members of the opposition, whose partial animosity upon their own country have encouraged France to refuse the fulfillment of her treaty with the American people, are now expressing fears that the President may use language of too decided a character in his coming message; and may act in a manner becoming the Executive in lieu of a useful nation. In these unworthy fears the people do not sympathize, feeling assured that Andrew Jackson will speak in a tone demanded by the position of affairs, and will, if it be necessary, advise that France be taught a lesson, of which, from the lights already thrown on the subject, it appears to us she stands in need.

The impression has gone abroad, solely by the conduct of the opposition; that these United States are in a position to be kicked with impunity. It may be that the time has come for correcting an opinion so erroneous, and if so, measures to that end will receive an enthusiastic popular support.

After a lapse of many years commenced in vain negotiations, our claims on France, reduced to their real amount, were allowed three years ago by solemn treaty; a contract by which certain valuable commercial advantages were granted by us to the French Government. We have fulfilled our obligations, and France refuses to perform those which she incurred. Are we to sit down quietly and await the pleasure of the French Chamber, for as long a time as they think proper; or would it not be more becoming, more truly in keeping with our national character, to show that we are not to be trifled with, that we are not getting on the verge of destruction, and that life and energy pervade both the people and their servants.

HABITS OF THE ENGLISH SOCIETY.

Nothing more offensively exhibits the painful inequalities which exist in English society than the extravagant and ostentatious pomp of the titled nobility.—Upon the occasion recently of Lord Alton, the eldest son of Earl Fitzwilliam, coming of age, there was a magnificent fête given by the young Earl at Wentworth. All the nobility and gentry, military, naval, medical, legal, &c. were assembled to the number of a thousand. The mansion was furnished with ottomans and candlesticks, and illuminated lamps and a perfect pattern of flowers—Wreaths of beads, came up from London, and the whole affair was princely in its magnificence. But now comes the dark and depressing side of the picture. In the galleries above, the poor tenants of his lordship were permitted to stand to look at the ceremonies and amid their wretchedness—no better than themselves—but too good for poor honest men and their wives to associate with for fear they should

Col. Joseph M. White, member of Congress from Florida, arrived at New York in the ship Boston, from France.

It has become so cold in New York since the election, that the Chinese lady talks of flying to some more congenial climate.

MATTHIAS.—On Saturday last, the deceased Matthias, alias Matthias, was brought to this town in charge of Messrs. Riken and Tompkins, of the New York Police, under a warrant issued some time since by Charles Yoc, Esquire, in which the prisoner is charged with "being instrumental in the death of Elijah Peterson, in the month of August last," on the oath of Mrs. Rosa Drach, of New York, and the certificate of four respectable physicians in New Jersey, who examined the stomach of the deceased, and declared it to have contained a "large quantity of an unwholesome and deadly substance." Matthias, having been delivered into the custody of the authorities of this place, was on Sunday morning lodged in the county jail, to await trial.

Wheatster Her.

TEMPERANCE.

The Chairman of the Executive Committee of the New York State Temperance Society, on his return from the great Temperance Convention recently held in Virginia, obtained (says the Courier) the following important testimony. Each of the distinguished gentlemen who have given the world their opinion on a vastly important subject, expressed warm and hearty good wishes for the success of the Temperance cause.

"Being satisfied from observation and experience, as well as from medical testimony, that ardent spirits as a drink is very injurious to the human system, and that the entire disease of it would tend to promote the health, the virtue and happiness of the community, we hereby express our conviction, that would the citizens of the United States, and especially all young men, discontinue the use of it, they would not only promote their own personal benefit, but the good of their country and the world.

JAMES MADISON,
ANDREW JACKSON,
JOHN QUINCY ADAMS.

EFFECTS OF JEALOUSY.

A circumstance of the most unprovoked atrocity recently took place in the upper part of Charles county, Maryland.—The facts, as far as they have come to light, and there has been no concealment, are briefly these: A free black man by the name of Ben Day, had, it seems, executed the funeral rites of the husband of a black woman belonging to Mr. John M. Brown, of the same county, which caused him to take the bloody revenge, for a real or supposed grievance, which I am now about to record. The husband, upon returning home from work one evening last week, found Ben in his quarters in company with his wife. Without testifying either surprise or anger at his presence, he disguised his feelings, such as they were, and welcomed him in such a manner as to arouse no suspicion whatever of his designs upon him. That his revenge might be complete, and that it might fall upon a passive and unresisting victim, he plied him with liquor until he had soon reduced him to such a state as to be incapable of offering any resistance, to prevent the consummation of his bloody purpose. As soon as he was assured of this fact, he commenced with the cool deliberation of an executioner, to lop off, one by one, with an ax, the limbs of the unfortunate inmate. He attempted first to hew off, by the shoulder blades, the arms of his victim, cutting and mangle his body in a manner horrible to relate. He then continued the same process in relation to the feet without, however, accomplishing his purpose entirely in either instance. He then gave, as he deemed, a finishing blow, by fracturing his skull, and left him for dead. Notwithstanding all this, the miserable object of his vengeance survived these cruelties for a considerable space of time. The perpetrator made no attempt to escape, but was the first to inform his master of the deed, seeming to consider it justifiable, both by the laws of God and man.—National Intelligencer.

Col. Joseph M. White, member of Congress from Florida, arrived at New York in the ship Boston, from France.

It has become so cold in New York since the election, that the Chinese lady talks of flying to some more congenial climate.

the most desperate crisis of the battle, he has heard their slender voices reproaching flight and urging to charge. "Où allez-vous, soldats? ou n'est pas là l'ennemi? En avant, suivez!" and you might have seen their waving plumes and amazonian garb amidst the thickest of the fire.

CECIL GAZETTE.

ELKTON, NOVEMBER 29, 1854.

74th TIME CHANGED.—The Protracted Meeting which was to have commenced on the 4th of December, in the Presbyterian Church in this place, has been deferred until the 11th. It will be opened on the morning of the 11th, at 10 o'clock, A. M., with a sermon by the Rev. Mr. Jones. The community are invited to attend.

Congress meets on Monday next. Should the President's Message be transmitted at the usual time, that is, on next Tuesday, we shall lay it before our readers next week. This document is looked for with intense anxiety, as subjects of the utmost importance must necessarily be involved therein. The claims of our citizens upon France are yet in an unsettled state, and it remains to be seen whether the United States will further submit to the vacillating and treacherous conduct so long pursued by that government. If we know Andrew Jackson—and the experience of the past two years alone is sufficient to justify us in the belief that we do—we will perform à la lettre, whatever duty leads him to chastise a foreign enemy, or to keep in subjection that more mischievous and dangerous foe, internal commotion.

Now is the time for our friends to come forward and avow their names upon our subscription list. They cannot, we assure them, do it at a more opportune season. Congress will be in session next week, and a little while thereafter the Legislature of this State. We shall use our best exertions to spread before them, from week to week, such of the proceedings of the respective bodies as we believe to be most important and interesting, commencing with the President's Message.

NORTH CAROLINA.—RE-ELECTION OF BROWN.—The Legislature of North Carolina assembled at Raleigh on Monday the 17th inst. It gives us great pleasure to announce that the Hon. BROWN BROWN has been re-elected Senator of the United States, by a majority of 32 votes. The vote stood

For Brown,	115
Settle,	60
Scattering,	21

It will be remembered that the Whigs claimed a great triumph in North Carolina on the result of the recent election. They asserted to the very last moment that Mr. Brown would be superseded by one of their own kindred. Unfortunately for them the election has taken place, and Mr. B. is triumphant. Are they now satisfied?

The Globe says that Gov. Swain was nominated in opposition to Mr. Brown, and withdrawn—that Mr. Branch was also nominated and withdrawn—and, finally, that Mr. Settle (once a friend, but now an opponent of the Administration) was settled upon. Mr. Branch made, we learn, a most imploring speech—and dejected the hosts with which the Assembly advanced to immolate the liberties of the country.

MISSISSIPPI CONVENTION.—The Democratic State Convention met at Jackson on the 31st inst. A letter to a gentleman in Washington and the 14th, that "MARTIN VAN BUREN" was unanimously nominated for the Presidency, and THOMAS H. BRYAN for Vice-President." ROBERT J. WALKER, Esq. was nominated for the Senate in the place of Poindeexter, and Col. CLARKSON and Judge WATSON for Representatives. The latter adds: "Poindeexter will be beat to 1. I don't believe he will be run. He is now dropped by the Nullifiers, and I don't believe will get 10 votes out of 41."

THE GREAT ECLIPSE.—Professor S. Alexander of the College of New Jersey has gone to Ebenezer, Effingham county, Georgia, to observe the Solar Eclipse which will take place to-morrow. He has taken with him a Frankfort telescope, and all the instruments necessary for making such delicate observations. The spot he has chosen will offer many advantages for such observation, as the sun will there be totally eclipsed.

There has been but one total eclipse in one hundred and nineteen years viz. in 1806, which was visible in all its entirety in the New England States. In Massachusetts the total obscuration lasted between four and five minutes, and it is stated that some European astronomer crossed the Atlantic for the express purpose of witnessing this great phenomenon, and were well repaid for their trouble, the atmosphere being perfectly clear till the eclipse was over. The total eclipse of the sun in 1718 is beautifully described in poetry by Allen Ramsey.

The American Almanac has the following judicious remarks:—"As, at the time of the eclipse of Feb'y, 1831, much inconvenience and even injury was sustained from want of care in looking at the Sun without protection for the eye, or through glass not sufficiently colored, it may be proper to remark, that should the sky, during the continuance of the eclipse be clear, one of the very darkest trees or red plants be selected, and in default of this, a piece of common window glass, free from veins, and rendered quite black by the smoke of a lamp, only can be used with safety. If the lustre of the Sun should be diminished by any intervening clouds, a lighter shade will be sufficient.

GREAT FIRE.—We regret to learn, from Poulson's Philadelphia Daily Advertiser of yesterday, that a most calamitous fire occurred on Monday night last, at Snow Hill, in this State. It consumed about FORTY HOUSES, among which, the COURT HOUSE, eight stores, two hotels, &c. The records and papers in the Court House have been preserved. The fire is said to have originated in a cabinet maker's shop.

Some reasons why things are as they are.—Under this head the New York Journal of Commerce, a decided opposition print, in explanation of the "reasons why things are as they are," gives the following history touching "the panic." It is the open confession of an enemy, who, while there was any probability of success, went as far as he was venturist in opposing the administration, but who, when defeated, has condescended to acknowledge the "reasons" which produced it. Here his Prophetic utterance did not fail, he has existed the time in any mind, now can exist now, that the panic which existed last winter and spring, and which produced such disastrous results, was determined by the action of party, for political effect. We need not go over with the details of the process—for they are now read in the columns of our readers to require repetition. Any one who will take the trouble to examine a file of the Courier is cognate to the fact that the panic, during the period referred to, will be ascribed to the utterance of his assertions, the whole object and aim of which, so far as man can perceive, was to aggravate the distress in which the community was involved, and to induce the Government to resort to measures which would be ascribed to the President, had he foolishly and without reason resorted to such measures.

THE GREAT ECLIPSE.—The Legislature of North Carolina assembled at Raleigh on Monday the 17th inst. It gives us great pleasure to announce that the Hon. BROWN BROWN has been re-elected Senator of the United States, by a majority of 32 votes. The vote stood

For Brown,	115
Settle,	60
Scattering,	21

It will be remembered that the Whigs claimed a great triumph in North Carolina on the result of the recent election. They asserted to the very last moment that Mr. Brown would be superseded by one of their own kindred. Unfortunately for them the election has taken place, and Mr. B. is triumphant. Are they now satisfied?

The Globe says that Gov. Swain was nominated in opposition to Mr. Brown, and withdrawn—that Mr. Branch was also nominated and withdrawn—and, finally, that Mr. Settle (once a friend, but now an opponent of the Administration) was settled upon. Mr. Branch made, we learn, a most imploring speech—and dejected the hosts with which the Assembly advanced to immolate the liberties of the country.

MISSISSIPPI CONVENTION.—The Democratic State Convention met at Jackson on the 31st inst. A letter to a gentleman in Washington and the 14th, that "MARTIN VAN BUREN" was unanimously nominated for the Presidency, and THOMAS H. BRYAN for Vice-President." ROBERT J. WALKER, Esq. was nominated for the Senate in the place of Poindeexter, and Col. CLARKSON and Judge WATSON for Representatives. The latter adds: "Poindeexter will be beat to 1. I don't believe he will be run. He is now dropped by the Nullifiers, and I don't believe will get 10 votes out of 41."

THE GREAT ECLIPSE.—Professor S. Alexander of the College of New Jersey has gone to Ebenezer, Effingham county, Georgia, to observe the Solar Eclipse which will take place to-morrow. He has taken with him a Frankfort telescope, and all the instruments necessary for making such delicate observations. The spot he has chosen will offer many advantages for such observation, as the sun will there be totally eclipsed.

There has been but one total eclipse in one hundred and nineteen years viz. in 1806, which was visible in all its entirety in the New England States. In Massachusetts the total obscuration lasted between four and five minutes, and it is stated that some European astronomer crossed the Atlantic for the express purpose of witnessing this great phenomenon, and were well repaid for their trouble, the atmosphere being perfectly clear till the eclipse was over. The total eclipse of the sun in 1718 is beautifully described in poetry by Allen Ramsey.

The American Almanac has the following judicious remarks:—"As, at the time of the eclipse of Feb'y, 1831, much inconvenience and even injury was sustained from want of care in looking at the Sun without protection for the eye, or through glass not sufficiently colored, it may be proper to remark, that should nesses or suspected to be implicated in the atrocious recently committed. They were executed into the city yesterday by the volunteer companies, who were ordered to quell them. Several were arrested in the city, in the course of the day, and committed.—Republican

GEORGIA.—A preamble and resolutions have been introduced into the Legislature of Georgia, declaring the act of Congress incorporating the Bank of the United States "expressly against the letter, and contrary to the sense and meaning of the Federal constitution;" that the removal of the deposits was a wise and prudent measure; that the course of the President in relation to the Bank deserves the unqualified approbation of the Legislature, and pleading the support of the state in carrying forward his plans to arrest and destroy it, and instructing the Senators and requesting the Representatives in Congress from that state to vote against a renewal of its charter.

It is not improbable, says the New York Journal of Commerce, that the President in his message at the opening of Congress will recommend the sale of the seven millions of Stock owned by the Government in the United States Bank. Had the President power, of himself, to sell this Stock, and were he to do it immediately, it could not disturb the money market, for he would take no money out of it. The Government would only pay so much of its debt, or else have so much money lying to its credit in the Bank. But in order to a sale of the Stock, a law must be passed by both Houses of Congress, and the Senate will have no expectation that they will consent to have the stock thrown upon the market. It is not improbable that an arrangement will be made to sell the stock to the Bank itself. This would be well for the Bank and perhaps for the country. The Government would be enabled to purchase lying idle on hand, and after making it, could keep up its loans quite as high as if the stock should remain in the hands of the Government. In every way the income of the bank would be as great as if the stock was sold. It would therefore save the dividends upon it as clear gain. If this arrangement were made, seven millions of the bank's capital would be paid off and settled, and we should find that the transaction would produce no commotion in the money market, and that the object of the panic would be made all the greater of the country must agree to it, and in this we have good security against any ill advised or rash procedure.

From the Washington Globe.
Statement of the amount of Gold remaining in the Mint on the 13th November, 1854, with the sum deposited for exchange, and coined, within the week ending November 22d, viz: Uncoined bullion, $231,800
Deposited for exchange during the week ending November 22d, viz: Uncoined bullion, $5,800
Amount coined within the week ending November 22, including 419, 100 in quarter eagles, $111,700
Remainder uncoined, $154,415

Statement of the amount of Gold remaining in the Mint on the 13th November, 1854, with the sum deposited for exchange, and coined, within the week ending November 22d, viz: Uncoined bullion, $231,800
Deposited for exchange during the week ending November 22d, viz: Uncoined bullion, $5,800
Amount coined within the week ending November 22, including 419, 100 in quarter eagles, $111,700
Remainder uncoined, $154,415

THE NEWS OF THE RISE OF THE PRICE OF COTTON. in Liverpool, appears to have produced a most deleterious activity among the merchants of New York. A private letter from a gentleman in that city to his friend, says:—"The commercial world is all agog here, and there is every prospect of speculations in cotton running as high as in 1815. The packers all celebrate, and make it the habit to take the hour, to give time to dispatch pilot boat and express to the South!"

DANIEL GEE.—This individual, innocent as it now appears, though arrested on suspicion of being concerned in the murder of Major Perry, was brought before the Mayor of Philadelphia on Tuesday and discharged, after a confinement of nearly three weeks, not a shadow of evidence existing against him.

The remains of twenty-eight seamen and recruits, who perished by the explosion of the United States Receiving ship Fulton, at the Brooklyn Navy Yard; in June, 1825, were disinterred and removed on Wednesday last, under the escort of a marine guard, followed by the officers of the station and a detachment of seamen and marines to the Naval Hospital burying ground, and deposited in a stone vault prepared for the purpose, preparatory to the erection of a monument to their memory.

EXTENSIVE COUNTERFEITING.—A man has been arrested at Toronto with $2040 counterfeit (on dollar notes) of the Bank of Montreal, and another man has been arrested at Cobourg with counterfeit on the same Bank to the amount of 4000 pounds.

The St. Louis (Mo.) Advocate of the 6th inst. says:—"We have received accounts from Fort Gibson, A. T. which announce a gloomy state of health among our troops. About one hundred men belonging to the 1st Regiment of Dragoons have died. The last illness announced the death of Lieut. Eastman and Wagon."

CONTEMPORARY NOTES.—The Baltimore Republican cautions the public against receiving counterfeit notes of $10 on the Bank of the United States. They are now in circulation in that city, and some persons have been imposed upon with them.

It will be seen by the following proceedings that the great Democratic-Union Festival took place at Trenton, New Jersey, yesterday. They had a fine day for the celebration, and no doubt a merry one.

DEMOCRATIC UNION FESTIVAL.
At a meeting of the Committees of the States of New York, Pennsylvania and New Jersey, appointed for the purpose of making arrangements for celebrating the recent triumph of Democracy in the three central states, on the Battle Ground at Trenton, held at the Trenton House, on Thursday, the 20th inst.,

GARRIT GILBERT, Esq. of New York, was appointed President,
JOHN M. READ, Esq. of Philadelphia, Vice President, and STACY & POTTS, Esq. of New Jersey, Secretary.
Whereupon, after a mutual interchange of sentiment, it was resolved unanimously.

1. That the proposed Celebration take place on Friday, the 25th of November, instant, in the city of Trenton, New Jersey.
2. That Richard Cromwell of New York, Nathan Nathans of Philadelphia, James D. Westcott, John T. Philips, and Charles Parker of New Jersey, be appointed a General Executive Committee, to make all necessary arrangements for the celebration; and that they cause tickets of admission to the Festival to be issued, at $2 per ticket.
3. That Garrit Gilbert, Richard Cromwell, and Dennis McCarthy, of New York; Nathan Nathans, John T. Philips, and Benjamin E. Carpenter, of Pennsylvania; Stacy G. Potts, Benj. F. Van Cleave, and Wm. A. Benjamin, of New Jersey, be appointed a General Committee of Correspondence.

4. That the Democratic Citizens and Glee Club be invited to assemble at the State House, in the City of Trenton, at one o'clock P. M. on the day of celebration—and that the dinner be served at 4 o'clock P. M.
5. That the foregoing proceedings be published in the Democratic newspapers of the country.
GARRIT GILBERT, Pres't.
JOHN M. READ, Vice Pres't.
Stacy G. Potts, Secretary.

SINGULAR FACT.—The town of Wethersfield, in the State of Massachusetts, has elected for its Representatives to the General Court, a Democrat by the name of A. Jackson!

NEAPOLITAN CLAIMS.—The Rhone at New York, from HAVES, has brought one hundred thousand dollars in gold, being a portion of the first instalment on the claims on Great Britain against the Neapolitan government. The Utica (monthly expected) and Formosa, each have a similar amount on board.

REVERIE.—We learn from St. Louis, now under sentence of death at the Levee street gall, for the crime of murdering the murderer of Capt James Crooby, has received a reprieve from the President of the United States, for fifteen days, to give time for an inquiry into all the circumstances of the case, on the part of the Executive.—Boston Courier.

The rains of the great fire at London continued smoking for several days, and tens of thousands of the Londoners locked to see them, and also the King and Queen came from Windsor to visit them, the great council sea inquiring into the cause of the fire.

LIFE OF ASHMAN.—Messrs. Walter Lewis, Daniel Webster, T. Frothingham, B. F. Butler, Dr. Hall and St. Clair Clarke, have engaged to publish the life of J. Ashman, the Colonial Agent in Liberia, including the interesting biography of Lot Carey, and the History of the Colony at Liberia, by R. R. Gurley. It is highly recommended by a number of eminent men, and will, doubtless be an interesting work, particularly to the friends of the measure of forming the colony for the free blacks, and will of course, be of great interest to the matter of the subject, meet with their patronage. Mr. Elliptical W. Bradley has been appointed an agent for obtaining subscriptions to the publication, and is now in this city for the purpose.
Baltimore Republicans.

The Newport (R. I.) Republican. speaking of the Spanish pirates now on their trial at Boston, states that twenty-six pirates were condemned and executed in Newport on the 19th of July 1738. They were captured by his Majesty's ship Greyhound, Capt. Solgar, and executed on Gravelly Point, opposite the town, and their bodies buried on the shore of Goat Island, near Fort Wolcott, between high and low water mark.

The Gazette de France of the 31st of October states, that Mr. Livingston had a long conversation with M. de Rigny, the French Minister for Foreign Affairs.

The Newark Daily Advertiser says, that as an evidence of the great demand for Newark carriages, and the pressing business of the manufacturers in that town, one large house has been compelled, by their previous engagements, to turn away orders to the amount of one hundred thousand dollars within three months.

UNGALLANT.—The editor of the Essex News Letter, Mrs. Franz Krumboltz's forthcoming work is as dull and prosy as one of her poetry, published in the New York papers, has pity the wight who, for his sins, is obliged to read it.

The Cholera has nearly, if not entirely, departed from Baltimore.
BALTIMORE MARKETS.
Corrected from the Farmer of Tuesday
Wheat, white, per bushel, $1.05 a 1.10
" red " " " 95 a 1.02
Corn, yellow " " " 70 a 71
" white " " " 61 a 68
Flour, best white, per 100 lbs. 6.25 a 6.50
Do. do. "baker's" 5.75 a 6.25
Do. do. superfine, 5.50 a 5.75
Do. super Howard st. wag. price, 5.00 a --
Do. superfine, 5.25 a --
Oats, " " " 30 a 35
Rye, " " " 67 a 69
Beef, on hoof, per 100 lbs. 4.50 a 5.00

Pork Wanted!
GEO. H. DUTTON & Co. will give the highest CASH price for twenty thousand barrels heavy corn fed PORK. Hywode-Grace, Nov. 29—31

This is to give notice.
THAT the subscriber, of Cecil county, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of ABRAHAM ANSLER, late of said county, deceased.—All persons having claims against said estate, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers therefor, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.
HENRY BAKER,
Nov. 29 Administrator.

This is to give notice.
THAT the subscriber, of Cecil county, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of LEWIS ANSLER, late of said county, deceased.—All persons having claims against said estate, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers therefor, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.
HENRY BAKER,
Nov. 29 Administrator.

This is to give notice.
THAT the subscriber, of Cecil county, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters testamentary on the personal estate of EZEKIEL GARRETT, late of said county, deceased.—All persons having claims against said estate, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers therefor, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.
HENRY BAKER,
Nov. 29 Administrator.

This is to give notice.
THAT the subscriber, of Cecil county, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters testamentary on the personal estate of EZEKIEL GARRETT, late of said county, deceased.—All persons having claims against said estate, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers therefor, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.
SAMUEL GARRETT,
Nov. 29 Executor.

GEORGE PEACOCK,
PROPRIETOR OF THE
AMERICAN HOTEL,
No. 55, Pratt-st., Baltimore,
(Near the corner of Hanover-street.)
Returns his thanks to his friends and the public, for the liberal patronage bestowed upon his establishment, since its commencement in this city. Having gone to considerable expense in fitting up his house to promote their comfort and convenience, and in rendering it as comfortable as any in this city, he respectfully solicits a continuance of the same, as he will spare no pains to merit it.
Gentlemen can be accommodated with private rooms, and Families travelling, with private parties, and Families, in the most comfortable and desirable manner. His house is situated in the most pleasant part of the city, the Hall facing Park St. door, it is contiguous to the Steam Bath, Public Stage Office, &c. &c.

STRAY BULL.
Came to the subscriber's farm, in Elk Neck, about 3 miles ago, a one-colored Bull, having white on the forehead, hind shoulder, belly, and hind legs, and having lost the tip of the right horn. The owner is requested to pay charges and take him away.
RICH'D. C. DOWNES.
Nov. 29.

This is to give notice.
THAT the subscriber, of Cecil county, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters testamentary on the personal estate of MARGARET HUSKELL, late of said county, deceased.—All persons having claims against said estate, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers therefor, duly authenticated, on or before the 10th day of June, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.
GEORGE JOHNSTON,
Nov. 29 Executor.

This is to give notice.
THAT the subscriber, of Cecil county, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters testamentary on the personal estate of JAMES MACKAY, Sen. late of said county, deceased.—All persons having claims against said estate, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers therefor, duly authenticated, on or before the 29th day of June, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.
JOHN S. MAFFITT,
Nov. 29 Executor.

This is to give notice.
THAT the subscriber, of Cecil county, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of SAMUEL ALLEN, late of said county, deceased.—All persons having claims against said estate, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers therefor, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.
THOMAS K. STEPHENS,
Nov. 29 Administrator.

Rittenhouse's Patent Clover Mills,
Now generally in use in the States of Pennsylvania and New Jersey.
HAVING obtained the exclusive right to manufacture and sell the above celebrated PATENTED CLOVER MILLS for the State of Maryland, the subscriber would inform the public that he is now prepared to make to order the said Mills, varying in price from $30 to $50. The said Mills may be worked by hand, horse, or water power, and will hull from two to five bushels of clover seed per day when worked by hand; and one bushel per hour, when worked by horse or water power. These mills will get out from 100 to 500 bushels of seed without requiring the slightest repair.
Persons wishing to examine these Mills will please call at the subscriber's shop in Elkton, where orders will be thankfully received and punctually attended to. The Mills will be warranted, and if they do not perform as represented, the money will be returned.
Farmers will save in one season the price of one of those Mills. No farmer, therefore, should be without one who makes any use of clover seed.
JOHN ALDRIDGE.
Elkton, Nov 29—1f

Public Sale.
WILL be offered for sale, on THURSDAY, the 11th day of December next, at 11 o'clock A. M. on the premises, by the order of the Court, Sen. deceased, the FARM whereon Matthias Tyson, now resides, being in Cecil county, and within four and a half miles of Elkton, and the same from Newark, and a half mile from Cowantown. The farm contains SIXTY ACRES, about fifteen of which is Wood; a good deed of it is a plantation of timber, consisting of a good STONE HOUSE, and a large frame BARN, with good Stabling under it; two wells of good water near the door, and a good spring and springhouse; there are several Fruit Trees of different kinds; the land is high and healthy, and easy to till. The divided of interest will be returned on the 25th day of March next. The terms will be made known on the day of sale.
MATTHIAS TYSON
Nov. 29—2f

Sheriff's Sale.

BY virtue of a writ of Facienda Exponat, issued out of Cecil County Court, at the suit of the State of Maryland and not directed, will be exposed to public sale, at the house of Charles G. Black, Charlestown, on Saturday, the 15th day of December next, all the rights, title, interest and claim, both in law and equity, of Josiah Smith, in and to Four Lots or Parcels of Land, with the Improvements thereon, lying and being in Charlestown, Cecil County, numbered on the plan of said town—138, 139, 153, 167, and containing three quarters of an acre each, be the same more or less. Said writ and taken in execution as the property of said Smith, and to be sold for cash to satisfy said writ and for officers' fees. Sale to commence at 8 o'clock, P. M. NOBLE PENNINGTON, Sheriff, Nov. 22

BY CHANCE.

NOVEMBER 4, 1854. ORDERED, that the sale of the property in the case of William Spigginton, against Thomas S. Thomas and Mary and Ann Ross, be made and reported by the Trustee, Olin S. Hilditch, and confirmed, unless cause be shown to the contrary, on or before the 4th day of January next, provided a copy of this order be published, once in each of three successive weeks, in some newspaper, before the 15th day of December next. The report states the amount of sales to be $2,500 00. True copy. Test, RAMSAY WATERS, Nov. 22—31 Reg. Ct. Can.

W. H. Oldham, Jr., D.

HAVING located himself on Bohemia for a few months, will practice in his profession when called upon. Nov. 22—1w

Public Sale.

BY virtue of a decree of the High Court of Chancery of the State of Maryland, the undersigned Trustee will offer at public sale, at the tavern of Charles G. Black, in Charlestown, in Cecil County, on THURSDAY, the 18th of December next, the following valuable property, situate and being in the county aforesaid, upon and between the North East river and the Chesapeake Bay, being part of the real estate of the late Col. William W. Ramsay, and sold for the payment of his debt: All that valuable

FISHERY,

TOGETHER WITH 78 1/2 acres of Cleared Land thereto adjoining, known by the name of the "Green Bank Fishery," lying upon the North East river, about one mile above its entrance into the Chesapeake Bay. The recent and valuable fishery are so generally known, that it might be considered almost unnecessary to enumerate the many advantages it possesses. It will, therefore, for the information of those who may be unacquainted with them, be sufficient to state, that in extent of catching fish, both steel and brook, and a ready fresh sea for them at the highest prices; the cheapness and economy with which it can be carried on, requiring a very shallow seine, which will last much longer than upon most other shores; and last but not least, the small capital required, as the fishing is done by the fisherman, and the fish are never failed, when properly conducted, to furnish a handsome profit every season, however unfavorable it may have been, are a part of the advantages known to be possessed by this fishery, by those who are best acquainted with it. Notwithstanding the unfavorable season of the last fishing season, and although carried on with old and imperfect materials, 17,000 shad were caught, all which were sold fresh except 15 barrels. The fresh sales amounted to $1049.30; in addition to which, a considerable number of barrels of salted herrings were put up. The cleared land adjoining the said fishery, containing 78 1/2 acres, can be easily and advantageously improved with the offal fish, scales, pickle, &c. derived from the fishery.

ALSO—That valuable farm called "POPLAR POINT FARM," lying about a mile from Carpenter's Point, and bounded by the Chesapeake Bay and lands of William Simcoe, Joseph Coudon, and the late Jeremiah Baker, deceased. This farm contains 187 1/2 ACRES OF LAND, about 60 acres of which is WOODLAND of an excellent quality. The residue is ARABLE LAND, divided into six fields, under good fencing, a great part of which is post rail, constructed with six chestnut rails and locust posts. The natural quality of the soil is first rate, and it has been but little reduced from its original fertility: the late Col. Ramsay was offered and refused to sell it for $4,000 for this farm a few years ago. The improvements are a convenient TWO STORY HOUSE, nearly new, in good repair. A FRAME BARN, Corn House, Meat House, Poultry House, a paled garden, well of excellent water at the door, &c. An ample supply of fish and ducks can be had at all times when desired at this farm, which some years ago was carried on with advantage, but was discontinued for several years past. It is believed by those who are best acquainted with the ground, that the changing of the water from the Mountain and the White Falls to the mouth of the Susquehanna river could be failed from this shore.

ALSO—The following valuable tracts of WOODLAND: One piece or parcel of Woodland, being part of "Seneca," bounded by Sand Town Fishery, and belonging to the late Samuel Hogg, deceased, the main road leading to Carpenter's Point, and land of James Hession.—This piece contains 5 1/2 acres, well timbered and the remotest part is within 300 yards of navigable water of North East river. One other piece or parcel of Woodland, also part of "Seneca," bounded by the main road leading to Carpenter's Point, land belonging to the town of Charlestown, the post road leading from Charlestown to the Susquehanna Ferry, and land belonging to Capt. John Cooper and James Hession. This piece contains 2 acres, well timbered, and is within half a mile of navigable water of North East river. Also—All that land belonging to the said deceased, lying upon the north side of the post road leading from Charlestown to the Susquehanna Ferry, containing 388 Acres of Land, about 100 acres of which is cleared, upon which there is a Dwelling House, Stable, Corn House, a number of Fruit Trees, &c. and is divided into three fields and a meadow. The residue is entirely WOODLAND, well timbered, a great part of which is thriving chestnut, and being situated only about two miles from navigable water, upon North East river, offers advantages to speculators that seldom occur. Should purchasers wish it, the tract of land will be divided into parcels.

ALSO—An unimproved lot in the town of Harrod-Grove, containing a half an acre, lying at the corner of Union and Congress streets, opposite the church, and advantageously situated for improvement. To those persons who may wish to view any of the aforesaid property, they are referred to Mr. Henry Black, living upon the Poplar Point Farm, who will show them that farm; Mr. John Gallaher, residing upon the land on the north side of the road leading from Charlestown to Susquehanna Ferry, will show that property; and Mr. Francis Owens, living at Carpenter's Point, or Mr. Adam Miller, living near Green Bank, will show them the residue.

The Terms of Sale as prescribed by the decree are:—That the purchaser shall pay one fourth of the purchase money on the day of sale, or on the satisfaction of the day of the sale, and the other three fourths in equal instalments of six, nine, and twelve months; payment of the purchase money to be secured by bonds or notes with security, to be approved by the trustee. And on the ratification of the said sale or sales by the Chancellor, and on the payment of the purchase money, and the discharge of all claims against the undersigned, by a good and sufficient deed or deeds, executed and acknowledged agreeably to law, will convey to the purchaser or purchasers of said property, and to his, her, or their heirs, the property to him, her, or them sold, free from all and discharged of all claims and liabilities to the said cause, and of any person or persons claiming by, from, or under them.

All persons having claims against the said William W. Ramsay are hereby notified, under the said decree, to file their claims in the Chancery Office, on or before the 15th day of December next, and to be vouched, within four months from the day of the aforesaid sale.

HENRY D. MILLER, Trustee. Nov. 5—1w

5 Dollars Reward.

WAS STOLEN from the Susquehanna, near Turkey Point, on the 10th of the present month, a small flat bottomed BOAT and OARS. The boat was painted lead color, one of the oars was marked E. or F. B. The boat was taken up and sold by the subscriber on the 6th, and could have been advertised, had it not been so. The man who stole said boat, was of a middle size, with large black whiskers—had on drab round jacket and pantaloons—was about Turkey Point for two or three days—very much of a braggadochio—is perfectly acquainted with nearly every man in the country—boats very much on his dog, gun and boat—in fact, to hear him talk, you would suppose he was a full brother to Nisard and Wilford—Davy Crockett being no touch to him in the hunting line. At the time he took away said boat, there was a young man in the company, who he thought he was going to take the boat to the owner, who was a very particular friend of his, and to tell me his name was Hogg—but I have every reason to believe, in the name, passed himself at some other place for Jerry Conroy, and it is very possible he may have a new name for every stopping place. It is thought he is now about Principio Creek, or Haver de Grace. The above reward will be paid for the apprehension of said thief upon his conviction, by the subscriber.

SILAS RAMSEY. Nov 18

For Rent,

And possession given on the 25th day of March next, all that FARM, belonging to the heirs of Benjamin Mauldin, deceased, situated in Elk Neck, and for several years past occupied by Thomas Crouch. To a good tenant the rent will be made low. For further information, enquire of the subscriber at the above farm. JOHN MAULDIN, Nov. 15—cwt41 Executor.

Sale of Land

BY COMMISSIONERS. By virtue and in pursuance of two several orders of Cecil County Court, made in the case of the petition for the division of the Real Estate of Ann Robinson and William Robinson, late of Cecil County, deceased, the undersigned, as Commissioners, will expose to public sale, on SATURDAY, the 29th instant, at 11 o'clock, A. M. at the Court House, in Elkton, all the Real Estate of the said Ann Robinson and William Robinson, as described and laid off in the plot and proceedings in the said petition, containing 25 ACRES and 10 square perches, more or less, of ARABLE LAND, containing 4 1/2, 2 1/2, 2 quarters and 10 square perches, more or less, of WOODLAND, situate on Elk river, in Elk Neck, Cecil County, for a very particular description of which, reference is made to the plat and papers in said petition for the division of the real estate of the said Ann Robinson.

ALSO—All the real estate of the said William Robinson, as laid off and described in the plot and proceedings in the said petition, to wit:—Lot No. 2 of ARABLE LAND, containing 68 acres, 2 rods and 1/2 perches; Lot No. 2 of WOODLAND, containing 65 acres, 1 rod and 26 perches; Lot No. 3 of ARABLE LAND, containing 105 acres, 2 rods and 23 perches; and Lot No. 3 of WOODLAND, containing 74 acres, 2 rods and 12 perches, more or less, situate on Elk river, in Elk Neck, Cecil County, for a very particular description of which, reference is made to the plat and papers in said petition for the division of the real estate of the said William Robinson.

The terms of sale as prescribed by the said orders are: one third of the purchase money to be paid in cash, on the day of sale; and the balance in twelve months from the day of sale; with interest from the day of sale so far as relates to those persons interested who are of age; and as relates to those persons interested who are minors, the purchase money to be paid in equal instalments at the said intervals, with interest from the day of sale; and the balance in twelve months from the day of sale; with interest from the day of sale as aforesaid. For further particulars, application can be made at the office of the undersigned in Elkton, where the plot and papers may be examined.

JOHN ALDRIDGE, FRANCIS B. GOTTIER, JOSHUA HYLAND, Nov. 8—1w Commissioners.

Land for sale.

The subscriber offers for sale a small FARM of about SIXTY ACRES, more or less, lying and being in Cecil County, Maryland, adjoining lands of George Jamison, Solomon Prock, William Reynolds, and others. The corner of this land is where the public road leading from Elkton towards New London Cross Roads crosses the public road leading from New Ark, Del. towards Port Deposit, about 2 and a half miles from Elkton, convenient to mills, meeting and market.

The improvements are a FRAME HOUSE, lathed & plastered on the outside.—A well of good water near the same.—A milk and good pump in the same.—a milk house close to the pump, so as to convey the water from the pump into it; a smoke house over the same; a corn house, hog and hen house; garden paled in, a hundred feet square; a young apple orchard, now just beginning to bear, of the choicest and best assorted fruit; the land naturally of a good quality. Further description is thought unnecessary, as it is likely by those wishing to purchase will call on the premises and look for themselves, where they can see with the naked eye, the vessels milking on the Delaware, North East and Elk rivers, and the steamboat going up Back Creek, which makes it one of the handsomest and best situated situations in the county. Persons wishing to purchase, will please to call on William Reynolds, near the premises, who will give every information necessary.

HENRY H. REYNOLDS, Nov. 11, 1854.—d

For Rent,

The Merchant, Grist and Saw Mill, at the west end of Elkton, now occupied by Thomas A. Biddle, being in good repair, and the best stand for country work in the county. For terms, apply to THOMAS BOWARD, Jr., Nov. 1—4t

Magistrates Blanks,

FOR SALE AT THIS OFFICE.

NEW AND SEASONABLE GOODS.

THE subscriber begs leave respectfully to inform his friends and customers, that he has just returned from the city of Philadelphia with a large and splendid assortment of Fall Seasonable Goods, which he is willing to dispose of on just and reasonable terms, and at a very moderate advance. His stock consists in part of CLOTHS of various colors and prices; black, blue, dove and fawn color'd CASSIMERES, CASSINETTS, FLANNELS, BEAUTEENS, CORDS, &c. PETERSHAM, an excellent article for hangings coats.

VESTINGS.—A large and handsome assortment, such as Silk, Satin, Velvet, Valencia, Swandown, Ke, English and French MERINOES, Circassians, Bombazettes, Bombazines, SHAWLS—Merino, Cashmere, and Worsted Cottons. SILKS, for ladies' dresses. Swiss, Book, Mull, Jaconet and Cambric MUSLINS. Laces and Edges, Thread Laces, and a variety of other fancy articles. CALICOES, at all prices, new and fashionable style. Cantoning bleached and unbleached Muslin. SHOES AND BOOTS. Ladies' seal skin, Morocco, leather & lacing Shoes; men's coarse & fine Boots and Shoes. HATS AND CAPS. Britania and Lav-pool Ware; Hardware, Tinware, Woodware, Bronzes, &c.

GROCERIES.

Always a supply on hand. The subscriber, thankful for the past liberality of his customers, humbly solicits a continuation of it, and hopes they will not forget the old and well known stand. WILLIAM TORBERT, Jr. N. B. All kinds of country produce, at the market price, will be taken in exchange for goods. W. T. Jr. Oct. 15—1f

Hail! All hail!

Glorious news to the purchasers of Cheap Goods! The subscriber begs leave to inform the public, far and near, old and young, rich and poor, that he has just received his second addition to his Fall Stock, which renders it by far the largest and most complete now in this town.

Some of my contemporaries cried out too soon, Cheap Goods! Large Stocks, and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted, for they had forgotten that the Judicial Mart (founded on the ruins of the Old Stone Stable, and directly opposite the Elkton Post Office) had not received her Fall ammunition on board, and of course was not ready to open her fire. But now we will meet and let their hearts be comforted,