ALL TERRAIN PERFORMANCE

HEAT RETENTION RATING

Our experience and research has identified that for performance socks the key features are Heat Retention and Moisture Dissipation.

Each of the ProTrek range have now been tested and all have a rating showing how they perform at keeping in the body heat, ensuring that your feet remain ice and toasty regardless of the outdoor environment. The higher the rating the greater the heat retained. All of the ProTrek socks have different methods of removing moisture away from the feet.

TRI-SEAL™

Is a unique treatment added at the final stages of the manufacturing process specifically designed for woollen socks being used in the outdoor environment. Whether tramping through wet grass, dodging puddles or mud the Tri-Seal application ensures that your feet stay comfortable.

1. WATER REPELLENT
2. MOISTURE MANAGEMENT
3. STAIN RESISTANT

After 130 years of making socks in England and constantly being asked for good quality high performance technical socks, we decided that the time was right to use our knowledge and experience to develop a new range of ProTrek, our well proven technical collection. After much research, sampling, testing, reviewing and finalising we can now offer a comprehensive UK made outdoor range from stock.

Our journey began by sourcing the finest yarns

... fibres like - Merino Wool, Acrylic, Coolmax and Bamboo all established, designed and proven to give the very best in comfort, durability, and moisture management whilst still maintaining prices that represent excellent value. We then stretched our technical team and equipment to their very limits to make socks that have all the features that are important to those who take walking seriously. We now have a range that is made of high performance fibres and has features like impact protection, arch and ankle bracing/support, lace guards, flex zones and much more. All designed specifically for the wearers comfort. Our new packaging has the consumer in mind with highlighted details on features to enable the customer to select the correct socks for their needs. These socks are suited to various aspects and levels of outdoor activities and we are confident that these socks are the very best that you can buy and all come with our usual 6 month guarantee and are supported by branded POS.
