BELGIANS DEFEAT GERMANS AT LIEGE IN FIRST GREAT BATTLE OF WAR

ON OPEN FIELDS AND IN ATTACK ON FORT BARCHON, SOLDIERS OF EMPEROR SUFFER FEARFUL DEATH

EIGHT THOUSAND CASUALTIES REPORTED TO BE THE TOLL OF INVASION IN A SINGLE DAY

Seventeen Machine Guns Abandoned on the Field of Sanguinary Battle.

GERMAN AMBASSADOR LEAVES LONDON QUIETLY

Following Check to Advancing Tutors, Gigantic Engagement in Which England Will Participate, is Looked for Soon—All Eyes Turned Toward the North Sea, Where British Fleet is Speeding Under Forced Draught.

Sveaborg, "Gibraltar of the Baltic," today was bombarded by a German fleet.

British destroyers have been in action in the North sea and 22 German and six British wounded sailors have reached Harwich.

Belgian reports of yesterday's battle between German and Belgian troops at Liege give the German casualties at 8,000 and those of the Belgians as relatively smaller.

British regiments at Tien Tsin, China, today were ordered south. More than 20 German merchant vessels have been taken by the British.

A report from Paris says Germany has threatened Italy with war unless she supports the other members of the triple alliance.

Austrians renewed the bombardment of Belgrade, Serbia. The German ambassador left London today.

The Bank of England reduced its discount rate from 10 to 6 per cent. Food supplies in Paris continue plentiful; prices only slightly above normal.

Only a slight skirmish with few casualties was reported from the Franco-German frontier until noon today.

German officers arrested today in Ostend as spies are to be shot by the Belgians.

London reports the capture of a German cruiser by the French.

Rome announces the arrival in Sicily of the Gotham and Breslau, two German cruisers formerly reported captured in the Mediterranean.

The American embassy has assumed charge of German interests in the British Isles.

Brussels, via London, Aug. 6.—The stories of the struggle between the Belgian troops and the German soldiers yesterday in the vicinity of Liege tell of terrific slaughter among the Germans.

At about noon yesterday the German infantry attempted to carry by assault Fort Barchon, to the northeast of Liege.

The attacking infantry crept under cover of a heavy artillery fire, but the Belgian defenders reserved their fire until the Germans had come to close quarters, when at a given signal the Belgians opened with a perfect hail of bullets from rifles and machine guns, which wreaked havoc among the Germans. The attackers soon lay in heaps of dead and wounded around the fort.

At the same time Fort Chaudfontaine, to the southeast of Liege, kept up a hot fire on another body of Germans who held a neighboring castle. The Belgian artillery reduced the building to a mass of smoking ruins. The Germans finally retired all along the line.

One newspaper says the German losses amounted to between 4,000 and 5,000 men, while they abandoned 17 machine guns. A squad of Belgian lanciers, according to another report, was completely cut out after it had killed 150 German Uhlans. A force of 20,000 Germans passed through Man-hey, Luxemburg, on Wednesday in the direction of Aywaille, Belgium.

Losses Put at 8,000 Men

The Gazette publishes today what it says are the facts so far as known regarding the repulse of the German forces by the Belgians in the Liege district yesterday. The German losses are estimated at 8,000 men, while the Belgians suffered far less. The alleged rout of the German Seventh army corps is not confirmed in its entirety, however, says the Gazette, which adds:

"The Belgian Eleventh brigade after successfully resisting the German attack pursued the fleeing Prussians with such energy that the general command of the Belgians was obliged to order the troops to turn back, as they were getting outside the range of the guns of our forts. The enthusiasm of our troops was magnificent."

Battle in Open Fields

The attack on Liege yesterday was executed by one German army corps, while the Belgian force consisted of a mixed brigade supported by the artillery of the forts.

The battle was fought along a wide front and partially in open fields. The Belgian troops carried out several furious counter attacks, throwing the Germans back and pursuing them to their original position. On an inch of ground was gained by the Germans during the fighting and they suffered severe losses in dead and wounded.

A night attack on the Belgian positions was awaited with great assurance by the Belgian troops who had been strongly reinforced.

AFTER LINGERING ILLNESS WIFE OF CHIEF EXECUTIVE DIES AT WHITE HOUSE.

Washington, Aug. 6.—Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, wife of the president of the United States died at the White House at 5 o'clock today from a complication of diseases.

The end came after two sinking spells. The president and her three daughters and Francis Sayre were at the bedside at the end.

The president was completely prostrated when his wife died and broke down entirely. When Secretary Taft entered the executive office to tell waiting newspaper men his cheeks were bathed in tears.

Months of constant illness, which began with a nervous breakdown then a fall on the White House floor with an injury to her spine, and, following that, Bright's disease so weakened the patient that the White House physicians, with whom some of the ablest specialists were called into consultation, admitted they had little hope and feared it was but a question of days and possibly hours.

Mrs. Wilson was conscious this morning and her condition was better than that of last night. She appeared very brave. The president went to her room before going to the executive offices. She greeted him with a smile, patted him on the arm and said she passed a good night.

At 1 p. m. Mrs. Wilson was being sustained by oxygen and other artificial stimulants but her condition was about the same.

Dr. Grayson said just after 2 p. m. that Mrs. Wilson had two sinking spells this morning but rallied under stimulation. She was conscious but growing weaker.

Sympathy for President Wilson and hope for the recovery of Mrs. Wilson was expressed in a resolution passed by the house immediately after it convened. The resolution was presented by Representative Kinkead of Nebraska and was passed in silence.

Throughout the day members of the diplomatic corps called in a steady procession at the White House to leave their cards and express their sympathy.

Mrs. Wilson's pet measure before congress, a bill for the reclamation of pest spots in the slums of Washington, was hurriedly reported today by the house District of Columbia committee. Every effort will be made to have it passed as soon as possible. Last night while the president was sitting at Mrs. Wilson's bedside she recalled her interest in the slums and mentioned that it would add much to her happiness if the pending bill could be passed.

The president mentioned the matter to Secretary Taft and today action by the committee resulted.

Brother Hurries to Bedside

Portland, Ore., Aug. 6.—Dr. Steektion Axson, brother of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, passed through Portland today on his way to Washington. Dr. Axson said he had not known of the serious nature of Mrs. Wilson's condition until he received a telegram last night from President Wilson. He is visiting in Eugene, Ore.

WILSON INSTRUCTS AGAINST GOSSIP OF ENGLAND'S COURSE

Washington, Aug. 6.—President Wilson today directed that all officers of the army and navy, whether active or retired, refrain from discussing publicly either the military or political situation in Europe.

A letter sent by the president to Secretaries Garrison and Daniels said: "It seems to me highly unwise and improper that officers of the army and navy of the United States should make any public utterances to which any color of political or military criticism can be given where other nations are involved."

LIKE STORMY PETRELS, BOATS SEEK HARBORS TO EVADE THE SEA DOGS OF BELLIGERENTS

Two Great Passenger Liners Make Port of Halifax to Evade German Cruisers.

AT NEW YORK AMERICAN BATTLESHIP WATCHES

Hamburg-American Line Vessel, Vaterland, Loading with Provisions and Ammunition for the German Army, Cannot Pass Guns of the Florida—Kaiser's Cruisers Thought to Have Been Sunk by English while Pursuing Lusitania.

New York, Aug. 6.—The presence of whom probably will be landed here.

The Cedric of the White Star line has put into Halifax with passengers.

It was reported here, but not confirmed, that the Mauretania, while at sea, had sent a wireless message to the British cruiser Essex asserting that a German cruiser was following her and that the Mauretania asked assistance. The report was to the effect that the Essex came up immediately and stood by the Mauretania until she came into port. It is believed here the Essex and possibly other British cruisers will enter the harbor today.

The Pannonia, which arrived in port during the night, left Gibraltar July 25 and until she approached this coast the officers had no knowledge of the situation in Europe. Several hundred miles out she received a message from a British cruiser warning her to beware of capture. All lights except those necessary to the navigation of the ship were immediately extinguished.

Early yesterday the Pannonia passed the Lusitania. The ship was dark except for her running lights and was being driven along at high speed. Soon after the Pannonia was in communication with a British warship, which informed her that she might go ahead without fear, as there were several British ships within wireless call. Later the Pannonia's wireless operator heard German cruisers in communication with each other.

The Hamburg-American line emphatically denied today reports that the steamer Vaterland was being fitted out here as a cruiser or that she would sail on any mission whatever. Officials of the Cunard line disclaimed all knowledge of such a wireless message.

No Word of Several Liners
Montreal, Aug. 6.—The Allan liner Sicilian, which sailed from Montreal for London last Sunday morning, has abandoned the attempt and is returning to Quebec.

Five liners sailed from Montreal the day before the Sicilian left. Nothing has been heard of them since. They are the Megantic, to Liverpool, the Gramplan, and the Athenia, to Glasgow, the Manchester Corporation to Manchester and the Lake Manitoba to Liverpool.

COMMISSION NIN BUTTE
Butte, Mont., Aug. 6.—Labor troubles occurring here on and after June 23, when rioting broke out, will not be entered into by the federal industrial relations commission. This announcement was made at the outset of the hearing which opened today. C. P. Kelly, managing director of the Anaconda Mining company, was the first witness. About 20 others, including Governor Stewart, were to be called before the close of the hearing Saturday.

Seek Safety in Halifax
Halifax, Nova Scotia, Aug. 6.—The Cunarder, Mauretania, arrived here at noon today having been conveyed to the mouth of the harbor by the British cruiser Essex, which picked her up south of Sable Island. The Mauretania carried 1,400 passengers, all of day.

Nothing left to do but to fight, after Germany's action.

New York, Aug. 6.—Andrew Carnegie, one of the world's most distinguished peace advocates, approves of England's course in the present crisis. In a cable message from Scotland to the New York Evening Post he says: "Germany having declined Britain's proposed peace conference, and then having asked Britain to agree to her march through Belgium, Britain was bound to decline and to declare that she would protect Belgium by land and sea."

KANSAS PRIMARY OUTLOOK
Topeka, Kas., Aug. 6.—While Chas. Curtis, former senator, continues to hold a lead over Senator Joseph L. Bristow for the republican senatorial nomination in Kansas, returns from Tuesday's primary left the result in doubt, and early today it was believed Bristow has a chance. Hugh P. Farrelly was still ahead of Congressman George A. Neeley in the democratic party.

LUCILE LOVE IS COMING TO VEGAS

GREAT PHOTO PLAY AT THE BROWNE TONIGHT AND FRIDAY EVENING

The managers of the Browne and the Photoplay theaters, who, by the way, are some hustlers when it comes to getting thrillers, have secured the serial privileges of the latest feature film—the Lucile Love pictures. Tonight Lucile makes her first bow to a local audience and tomorrow evening she will go through it all again for those who do not see her on the first appearance. Then every week on Thursday evening for some time to come her smiling countenance and clever experiences will invite the curious and the interested to the Browne.

In the opening installment of the Lucile series, the principal characters are established, and Lucille undertakes a hazardous mission in a hydroplane to save the honor of her father and the man she loves.

Hugo Loubeque and Sumpter Love are cadets at West Point. Both love the same woman. Loubeque is expelled from the institution for theft from his fellow cadets. The principal witness against him is Cadet Love who, as a result of Loubeque's downfall, wins the woman for the hand of whom both were rivals.

Loubeque sets apart his life to avenge himself upon Love. He carefully educates himself to the end of making his revenge more certain and dire. Knowing that Love will some day become an officer in the army, he lays his plans in that direction.

He becomes an international spy, a broker of national secrets. He works upon the plan that no country is greater than its smallest secret.

After a lapse of many years Love is a general in the United States army, stationed at Manila. He has an only daughter, Lucile, who is engaged to marry Lieutenant Gibson. The butler in the Love household is a crackman in the employ of Loubeque.

After watching the movements of Love for years, Loubeque decides that the time for action has arrived.

General Love receives from Washington a set of documents of the utmost diplomatic importance and the contents of which must be kept in the strictest secrecy. As his aide, Lieutenant Gibson locks them in the safe, at the instigation of Loubeque, the butler steals the papers. The honor of General Love is threatened and he informs Gibson to consider himself under arrest until the papers are returned.

Lucile takes up a telephone receiver that morning to find that the wires are crossed. She overhears a conversation between Loubeque and his accomplice in which the spy admits that the documents are in his possession, and that he intends leaving Manila on the steamship Empress at once. Lucile decides on the spot that she will regain possession of the documents if she has to follow Loubeque to the ends of the earth. She at once realizes that her only chance of reaching the Empress before it puts well to sea, is through the aid of the government aviator, Gibson's rival for her hand. The aviator lends his assistance. She springs into the hydroplane and in a moment is skipping over the waters in the wake of the Empress.

Little does Hugo Loubeque dream that his Nemesis is above his head and ready to land by his side as he contemplates that the last great stroke in his plan of revenge is nearing completion.

FOR DEEPER WATERWAYS

New York, Aug. 6.—Indications point to a record breaking attendance at the forthcoming annual convention of the Atlantic Deep Waterway association. The association is interested in the improvement of rivers and harbors along the eastern coast, but its chief aim is to bring about the construction of a chain of canals that will form an inland or sheltered waterway along the coast from Massachusetts to Florida. Of this system the canal just opened across Cape Cod is to form a part.

The association holds its conventions alternately in the north and the south. Last year's convention was held in Jacksonville, Fla. This year the meeting is to be held in the three cities of New York, Troy and Albany. The first session will be held in this city on September 8, under the auspices of the Merchants' association of New York. An inspection will be made of New York harbor and the New York-New Jersey waterways. Two days of the convention will be spent on one of the Hudson river steamboats. Governor Glynn will welcome the delegates on their arrival in Albany and the following day they will be the guests of the citizens of Troy.

LITTLE GIRL DIES BY HER OWN HAND

FOURTEEN YEAR OLD CHILD TAKES POISON AFTER PROLONGED DEBAUCH

Denver, Aug. 6.—Miss Florence Brown, 14 years old, died at the county hospital yesterday afternoon from the effects of poison, self administered while she was under the influence of liquor.

Mrs. Lucile Luker, reported to have been with Miss Brown when she drank the liquor last Friday night, has disappeared from her apartments at 1359 Cherokee street and cannot be found by Special Officer William Powell of the district attorney's office, who has been detailed on the case.

She is the most important witness in the case. One of the peculiar things about the case is that Mrs. F. E. Brown, 1349 Acoma street, the mother of Florence, is anxious to have the whole matter dropped and says she does not desire an investigation. Her daughter, only 14 years old, was forced to drink liquor, which the mother says was drugged, by two men who accompanied the girl to a resort and who kept her there until a late hour.

F. E. Brown, who is a traveling salesman, has been located in North Dakota and is on his way to Denver. He may insist upon a full investigation of his daughter's death. Deputy Coroner Bostwick this morning declared he would not hold an inquest in the case of Dorothy Brown, as there was no question about the cause of death. He said also that the coroner had discretionary power and did not have to hold an inquest unless he felt like it.

Acting District Attorney Sales, however, ordered an inquest and autopsy held, and the coroner will be forced to comply. Through the investigation conducted by Officer Powell he has learned that the liquor consumed by Miss Brown was sold to her in Jefferson county and that no prosecution can follow in this district on that account. But District Attorney Johnson of Jefferson and surrounding counties has taken the matter up and said this morning that if liquor was sold to a girl under age in his district and proof is furnished him, prosecution will follow.

"I have repeatedly warned the proprietors of resorts in my district that I will not tolerate the sale of liquor to girls under age, or boys for that matter, and that it must not be sold even to girls when there is any question at all as to their age," said Mr. Johnson this morning.

A peculiar angle in the case is the disappearance of a man's diamond ring, much too large for Miss Brown, but which she wore the night before she made the attempt upon her own life. She did not have it when visited at the county hospital by Officer Powell.

No date has been set for the inquest, but among the witnesses who will be called, if they can be found, are Mrs. Luker, a Mr. Hudson and a Mr. Smith, who are said to be the male members of the party which Miss Brown was a member of; William E. Ward, who is alleged to have sold Miss Brown the poison with which she took her life; Fred Graham, to whom Miss Brown professed to be engaged, and Michael Burke of the Kelly & Burke undertaking establishment.

POTATOES FACTOR IN MAINE'S ELECTION

CANADIAN SPUDS ADMITTED FREE UNDER DEMOCRATIC TARIFF START MIDDLE

August, Me., Aug. 6.—The straw which indicates the direction of the political wind in the coming elections will be first in the state of Maine. The earliest indication of the sentiment of the country toward the present democratic administration at Washington will be received from the state on the fourteenth day of next month, on which date the regular election of state officers, representatives in congress and legislative and county officials will be held. Scarcely less important than the test of the popularity of the democratic administration will be the test of the virility and longevity of the progressive party.

Governor William T. Haines, who was elected on the republican ticket two years ago, is a candidate for reelection. His democratic opponent is Oakley C. Curtis, the present mayor of Portland. The ticket of the progressive party, the first they have had in this state, is headed by Harold Gardner as candidate for governor.

In his campaign for reelection Governor Haines find himself deeply involved in the agitation over the liquor traffic. Mr. Gardner, the progressive candidate, has been pursuing him from stump to stump with charges of bad faith as to the governor's claim that he is doing his best to enforce the prohibitory law.

es of bad faith as to the governor's claim that he is doing his best to enforce the prohibitory law. Governor Haines has claimed credit for the removal of those sheriffs who were nullifying the prohibitory law by allowing it to be followed at will. Mr. Gardner denies credit to the governor for the removal of these men by asserting the method of removing them by the legislature was not the governor's idea at all, and that if the method which the governor recommended of dealing with these men had been adopted, they could not have been removed.

Though the liquor question continues to permeate the campaign in every county and district, as it has done in the state of Maine for many years, there are national questions that are figuring to a considerable extent as issues in the contest. The democratic tariff which has admitted potatoes to this country from Canada free of duty is not to the liking of the voters in Aroostook county, where more potatoes are raised than in any other locality in the country. The republican and progressive speakers have endeavored to make the most of this issue, but the democrats have come back with the reply that no matter how many barrels of potatoes may have come across the border, potatoes are, nevertheless, just as high as they ever were, and Maine farmers are getting just as much for them as they ever received.

The question of free tolls for American ships in the Panama canal is also an issue in the present campaign. For years Maine has been a great ship building state, and she is much interested also in the coastwise trade.

There are indications of some very close contests in the congressional districts. All of the present representatives, three republicans and one democrat, are candidates for reelection. Most interest centers in the Second district, now represented by Daniel J. McGillicuddy, democrat. Ordinarily it is believed, Congressman McGillicuddy would have an easy reelection, but his vote on the toll question and certain dissensions among the democrats of his district, have given his opponents considerable hope. Alden J. Wheeler, an active and able campaigner, is opposing him on the progressive ticket. The republican candidate is Harold Sewell, a son of the late Arthur Sewell, who was the democratic candidate for vice president in 1896 with Bryan. The son became a republican, at the time his father was nominated for vice president.

In the First district, Asker Hines is the present republican congressman. For some time Mr. Hines has been in poor health and it was only at the earnest request of his friends that he consented to accept a renomination. Because of the state of his health he has not been able to make a very active campaign. Both his democratic and progressive opponents feel confident they can defeat him for reelection.

John Peters and Frank E. Guernsey, representing the Third and Fourth districts, respectively, are candidates for reelection. Both are republicans. Each has active opponents on both the democratic and progressive tickets, but as the districts are strongly republican it is generally believed that the two present members will be returned by substantial majorities.

A federal union to embrace the longshoremen employed in Montreal, New York, Boston, Portland, Halifax, St. John, Three Rivers and Quebec is being discussed.

CORN DANCE SEEN BY CROWD OF TOURISTS

THE UNIQUE INDIAN CEREMONY DRAWS THROGS TO SANTO DOMINGO

Santa Fe, Aug. 6.—Two hundred people from Santa Fe Tuesday witnessed the corn dance at Santo Domingo. The Santa Fe ran an excursion train under the auspices of the summer school and many others went by automobile by way of La Bajada hill.

For Santa Clara day, next Wednesday, the Denver and Rio Grande Railroad company announced a round trip fare of $1.25 to accommodate the students of the summer school who wish to witness the annual fiesta at that interesting Indian village. The down train will be held at the pueblo until 4:30 p. m. thus giving the excursionists five hours to witness the dance and other ceremonials and exercises of the famous feast day.

Tomorrow, Secretary of State Antonio Lucero, will lecture on "Early School Days in New Mexico," recalling the patriarchal days preceding our present public school system. The secretary will be followed by Dr. Edgar L. Hewett with the first of his lectures on American archaeology. The last lecture of the forenoon will be by Dr. Calvin S. Brown on "The World's Great Epics." He will also give an illustrated lecture in the evening on "Masterpieces of Architecture." The musical program will include a solo, by Mrs. William J. SAVES DAUGHTER Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months. I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me. At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing. I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We would it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.

UNCLAIMED LETTER FROM GREE

A letter, apparently of some importance, is at the East Las Vegas postoffice. It is difficult to make out the address, but it seems to be Mrs. Kawgeri Freres (brothers). It comes from the National Banque of Greece and was mailed at Rathanes. If this item comes to the attention of any of the Greek residents of this county it would be well for them to inquire at the East Las Vegas postoffice.

INDIANS BUILD EXPOSITION STRUCTURE

SANTA FE'S HALL AT THE SAN DIEGO FAIR PRAISED BY CALIFORNIA PAPER

Santa Fe, Aug. 6.—The Santa Fe's exhibit at the San Diego exposition looms up so magnificently, that the Sunday San Diego Union gives five columns to it including a group of five pictures that are mighty good advertising for Santa Fe. Jesse Nusbaum of the School of American Archaeology, is in charge of the construction, which is a replica of the painted desert and Zuni pueblo and will be one of the wonders that will draw millions of tourists to San Diego next year and from there to New Mexico to see the original of the things that will be featured in the New Mexico as well as the Santa Fe buildings and exhibits.

One of the remarkable features of the Santa Fe structure is that it is being actually constructed by Pueblo Indians of San Ildefonso, 18 miles north of Santa Fe.

"Doors without nails or hinges, ladders without joints or screws, rough edges, unfinished surfaces, crude lines, everything for outward appearance just as the modern workman would not do it, and just as the Indian did. Am I right, Julian? Beginning to look like a home?" says the article.

Jesse Nusbaum, who is superintending work on the remarkable Indian exhibit while the Santa Fe is building for the Panama-California exposition, was explaining some of its details. Pausing, he turned to Julian Martinez, one of his Indian helpers for approval. The picturesque Julian, who speaks English to his friends, smiled an eager, sensitive smile, and murmured: "You bet."

They were standing on the fourth or fifth floor (the elevations elude count) of the Zuni pueblo, a nearly exact reproduction of the famous pueblo of that name in New Mexico, overlooking another great pueblo to the right and the wide plaza between them, around which stand, either finished or in course of construction, the kivas, trading post and other buildings of this inspiring group, for inspiring they are, even in their present state in the pure sunlight and deep, rich shadows of a San Diego afternoon.

It is almost as if the spirit of Montezuma had visited the place and left a blessing there. It is beginning to feel like a pueblo. If attributing this atmosphere to the spirit of Montezuma is unconvincing, there can be no shadow of doubt about its human author, Nusbaum. When the Santa Fe people were ready to begin the actual work of construction, he was chosen from among the assistants to Dr. Edgar L. Hewett, director of the School of American Archaeology at Santa Fe and of the exhibits of the exposition to take charge.

When he arrived here, Nusbaum was given a plaster model and a few specifications and told to build a pueblo, not an exposition pueblo, nor a miniature pueblo, nor yet a part of a pueblo, but just such a pueblo as Indians build themselves, only a little better and more typical.

HANDY ESTIMATES

To find the number of gallons of water in a cistern or tank:

If rectangular, multiply the three dimensions, in feet, together and multiply the result by 7 1/2.

If cylindrical, multiply the square of the radius of the base by 3.1416 and that result by 7 1/2.

To find the number of bushels in a bin:

Multiply the three dimensions, in feet, together and divide the result by 1 1/4.

To find the number of bushels of shelled corn equivalent to a given number of bushels of corn in the ear:

Divide the number of bushels of corn in the ear by 2.

To find the converse of the above estimates, reverse the process.

In measuring grain, seeds, or small fruits, the measure must be stricken, (even full.)

In measuring corn in the ear, coarse vegetables or large fruits, the measure should be heaped about six inches.

The standard gallon of the United States contains 231 cubic inches, and holds a fraction over 8 1/3 pounds of distilled water.

The standard bushel of the United States is the Winchester bushel and contains 2150.42 cubic inches.

Mother's Friend Before Baby Arrives

During several weeks of expectancy there is a splendid external embrocation in our "Mother's Friend" in which thousands of women have the most unbounded confidence. They have used it and know. They tell of its wonderful influence to ease the abdominal muscles and how they avoided those dreaded stretching pains that are so much talked about. This safe external application is gently used over the skin to render it amenable to the natural stretching which it undergoes. The myriad of nerve threads just beneath the skin is thus relieved of unnecessary pain-producing causes and great physical relief is the result as expressed by a host of happy mothers who write from personal experience.

It is a subject that all women should be familiar with as "Mother's Friend" has been in use many years, has been given the most severe tests under most all trying conditions and is recommended by women who today are grandmothers and who in their earlier years learned to rely upon this splendid aid to women. "Mother's Friend" is declared by a multitude of women to be just what expectant motherhood requires. You can obtain "Mother's Friend" at almost any drug store. Get a bottle today and then write for our little book, "Address Bradford Regulator Co., 412 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga."

TO REMOVE FRUIT STAINS

Alcohol softens most fruit stains, especially if it is warmed over hot water. Soaking in milk also helps. After softening the stain pour boiling water through the cloth. Dampened powdered starch applied instantly will take out almost any fruit stain from wash goods if left several hours.

Some fruit and wine stains, especially those of apple and pear, and some clarets are very difficult to remove. If they are boiled gently (after soaking in soft strong borax and water, well rinsed, then hung out dripping wet in the sunshine, or during a frosty night, the stains will usually disappear.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 6, 1914.

THE RESULTS OF OBSTRUCTIONS.

No fault can be found with the use of certificates by the New York clearing house and by others throughout the country. There can be no criticism of the issue of emergency currency under the Aldrich-Vreeland act.

And, strange to say, the reason why has been because of the obstructing methods of certain democrats; not only the reason why but the pity, too, since a democrat of noble ideals and the highest purposes inaugurated the movement.

It was reported yesterday that a crowd of bull necks in Vancouver tore the German eagle from over the door of the consulate there and otherwise gave a d. f. demonstration of concentrated assiduity.

The invasion of Belgium makes it appear to be German strategy to accumulate as many adversaries, and as speedily, as possible.

It is especially gratifying to note that in this day of strife and bloodshed abroad the railroads and their operatives at home have come to their senses and will arbitrate wage differences.

The Kaiser's speech recently to his counselors sounds well as a mere accumulation of words, but his ethics are all wrong.

With the price of meat soaring into the clouds what a chance for the breakfast food companies. This will be a good time to contract the habit of eating excelsior.

The movement to "See America First" should be very popular these days.

BELGIANS DEFEAT GERMANS AT LIEGE

War Map May Change Soon London, Aug. 6.—General news as to the happenings of the last day or so in the conflict of the armies of nearly the whole of Europe are engaged is still lacking, and it is pointed out here that when it reaches the world it may change the perspective of the war picture painted by Belgian and French artists.

Not a word has reached London from Berlin, while the isolated and delayed messages from Vienna come to light on the military situation.

From St. Petersburg word has come that the mobilization of the Russian forces is progressing more quickly than had been expected, and the activity of the Russian troops on the German frontier seems to confirm this.

Italy remains in an expectant attitude and from words dropped at the Italian embassy in London, appears quite ready to maintain her declared neutrality. Numbers of German vessels were snapped up again today in British ports.

All Eyes on North Sea Everyone in England waited today with anxiety for reports of the movements of the British fleet from which virtually nothing had been heard since its departure some days ago under sealed orders.

Reports of firing and the arrival of a number of wounded German and British blue jackets at Harwich on the east coast kept excitement at its highest point, as this was evidence that at least there had been contact between vessels of the opposing navies.

The morning passed away, however, without any more definite signs of an important clash between the powerful squadrons.

Messages from Belgium appeared to indicate that the check of the Germans outside Liege yesterday had been a severe one, some reports giving the number of casualties as high as 8,000.

As soon as Prince Lichnowsky, the German ambassador left London today the American embassy assumed full care of German interests in the British Isles.

Irwin B. Laughlin, the American secretary of the embassy, devoted himself to this business. It was estimated by the embassy that there were 100,000 Germans in Great Britain but there were no means of ascertaining how many of these had left since the beginning of serious trouble began between the nations.

Many Germans reside in England in order to escape military service but a great number of these are said to have applied to be permitted to serve in the German army as soon as Emperor William offered pardon for deserters.

So far the British government had not issued any order for the expulsion of Germans and none is expected, so that those now here are likely to remain.

British families, however, are discharging all German servants, governesses and chauffeurs, so that the German benevolent societies have their hands full in supplying the needs of the destitute. The reduction of the bank rate today is regarded here as an official intimation that the financial situation in the British Isles is now under control.

Many Americans today asked for help to obtain food and lodging. There were many instances of persons with gold certificates in their pockets walking the streets all night hungry.

The rate is exorbitant. Among the callers at the American consulate general was Mrs. W. T. Macey of Denver, who was ordered out of her sick bed in a hospital at Antwerp, Monday with only two hours' notice.

The street in front of the American consulate general today was packed with Germans, mostly of the servant class coming from all parts of the British Isles to register their names so that they might return to Germany to fight if possible.

There was no show of feeling against the English in the crowd of men returning to their fatherland as a patriotic duty. Their usual answer to the questions as to why they were going was "we must."

Several hundred German seamen expelled from France have arrived here and boarded in the various sailors' homes.

Thus far no cases of insult to or ill treatment of Germans by the English have been recorded.

There was a rush of Germans of all classes to the home office today to secure British naturalization papers.

There was a rush of Germans of all classes to the home office today to secure British naturalization papers. About half of the 60 American delegates to the Church Peace conference which was to have held at Constance, have reaced London.

It is simply a matter of organization and I hope all Americans will soon be entered on a card index and looked after.

Chancellor of the Exchequer Lloyd George announced today in the house of commons that the government had decided to proclaim a general moratorium for a month.

Food Plentiful in Paris Paris, Aug. 6.—Food remains plentiful in Paris. Prices increased slightly since the outbreak of war. Meat and vegetables are the principal commodities affected, as retailers find difficulty in bringing them from the central depots because all delivery wagons have been requisitioned for military purposes.

French torpedo craft from Biserta today captured the German tank steamer Czar Nicholas II, with 2,000 tons of oil. She was bound from Batoum to St. Louis-Durhone, France.

Liason Harbor Crowded Lisbon, Portugal, Aug. 6.—The port is crowded with vessels belonging to the European nations now at war. The government has taken measures to assure food and fuel supplies for the population as well as to assure the monetary circulation.

China Declares Neutrality Peking, China, Aug. 6.—China today proclaimed her neutrality in connection with the European conflict.

Foreign enterprise in China being paralyzed, many Chinese have been affected already and are withdrawing their money from the banks controlled by financiers representing Russia, England, France, Germany and Japan.

The mobilization plans for the French army were drawn up by General Joffre last April and the result of their execution has exceeded all expectations.

WAR—London B 123 Many more offers from foreigners, including Americans, to enlist in the French forces have been received by the authorities here.

Some French families are strongly represented in the army. That of Professor and Mme. Deslang has 14 members with the colors, consisting of several sons and seven brothers of Deslang.

Alexander Millerand, former French minister of war, volunteered today to serve as lieutenant, the rank he formerly held in the French army.

Attack Frustrated Liege, Belgium, Aug. 6.—A force of German Uhlancers made a brilliantly courageous but fatal attempt to capture the Belgian general staff here during last night.

The Uhlans had penetrated the city as far as the Rue Sainte Fol, where the Belgian headquarters had been established, when the Belgian soldiers came on the scene.

The governor has issued this proclamation: "Great Germany has invaded Belgium after an ultimatum which was an outrage.

Washington, Aug. 6.—American diplomatic dispatches from Belgium confirm reports of a heavy German defeat at Liege. The Germans were caught between two forts.

From the Hague has come the first acceptance of aid from the American Red Cross. A message has been returned saying hospital units will be dispatched as quickly as transportation can be found.

New York, Aug. 6.—Julius Kruttschnitt, chairman of the Southern Pacific company, issued a statement today saying there was no truth in the report that negotiations were in progress between the United States government and the Pacific Mail Steamship company for the transfer of the steamships Manchuria, Mongolia, Siberia, Korea and China of the Pacific Mail fleet to trans-Atlantic service to be operated under government protection to take care of cotton and other exports to Europe and to bring back Americans now stranded there.

British Regiments Leave China Shanghai, Aug. 6.—Two British regiments stationed at Tien Tsin, have been ordered south. They are awaiting the arrival of transports. An Indian regiment of Punjab will remain at Tien Tsin.

Rome, Aug. 6.—The Tribuna publishes a report today that the German cruisers Goeben and Breslau which were reported captured by the French have arrived at San Salvatore, near Messina, Sicily.

Paris, Aug. 6.—The Tribuna publishes a report today that the German cruisers Goeben and Breslau which were reported captured by the French have arrived at San Salvatore, near Messina, Sicily.

Liason Harbor Crowded Lisbon, Portugal, Aug. 6.—The port is crowded with vessels belonging to the European nations now at war.

China Declares Neutrality Peking, China, Aug. 6.—China today proclaimed her neutrality in connection with the European conflict.

Foreign enterprise in China being paralyzed, many Chinese have been affected already and are withdrawing their money from the banks controlled by financiers representing Russia, England, France, Germany and Japan.

which hitherto had commanded every confidence. European and American tourists are experiencing great difficulty, owing to the closing of the railroads and restriction of the steamship service, for which some of them held tickets, while some of the banks refuse to recognize certain European letters of credit.

FINANCIAL SITUATION IN NEW YORK UNCHANGED

New York, Aug. 6.—Conditions in the financial district were unchanged today. Because of the reduction in the British bank discount rate and reports of similar action by the Bank of France, it is believed those local institutions which yesterday advanced call money from 6 to 8 per cent will not restore the lower rate.

The stock exchange has decided to remove the prohibition against trading, inaugurated after the exchange suspended operations last Thursday.

Some exchange members have issued a tentative list of quotations. All business done under these conditions will be on a cash basis and comes in response to requests for securities from interest.

AGREEMENT REACHED IN MEXICAN MATTERS

SURRENDER OF CARBAJAL'S GOVERNMENT LOOKED FOR IN A FEW DAYS

Washington, Aug. 6.—Jose Castellot, representative of Provisional President Carbajal of Mexico, after a conference with Secretary Bryan today, officially confirmed the statement that an agreement between General Carranza and the Carbajal delegates had been reached and expressed the opinion that the situation had now cleared and the peaceful occupation of Mexico City by the constitutionalists was assured.

Carbajal has waived all conditions except the request for an amnesty and guarantees to life and property. It is considered probable in official circles that the surrender of the Carbajal government would be accomplished in a few days.

Withdrawal of some American warships from Mexican waters is not the result of any development in Mexico, but a desire to bring them into use in connection with the observance of neutrality.

This was announced today by Secretary Daniels after reports were circulated that General Carranza, the constitutionalist chief, had asked the United States to withdraw its land and naval forces from Vera Cruz.

WORK OF INSTITUTION PROSPERS TO THE GREAT BENEFIT OF CITY

The report of the Las Vegas hospital for the month of July is a good one. During the month 31 patients were taken care of by the institution. Fourteen were patients able to pay all of their expenses and two were charity patients. The other 15 were in the hospital on July 1. Twenty-three medical and two surgical cases comprised the special roster of the month.

There were three births and two deaths. The days of care credited to the nurses total 408. Of this number 192 days were devoted to the charity patients and 216 to the regular pay patients.

Several donations were made by Las Vegas people during July. A gallon of peach sherbet was presented by Mrs. Robbins. Mrs. Seewald gave a set of encyclopaedias, a "Life of Lee," two shirts and a hat. Mrs. E. V. Long donated a number of papers and magazines. The Epworth league of the Methodist church sent flowers to the patients, as did a stranger. The Rev. Norman Skinner gave fresh vegetables. The ladies are pleased with the report as it speaks well of the work being done by the institution.

MAROONS MAKE FIND IN CLARK, PITCHER

BOY FROM ARKANSAS CITY WINS FROM THE FIRST INNING HE PITCHES

The new Maroon find, Clark, who will pitch the game against Albuquerque next Sunday afternoon, has made an enviable record thus far with the local knights of the diamond. His Vegas engagement began with his winning the game from the Newton team. At Springer, when the boys there were clouting the ball all over the lot he went onto the mound at the beginning of the seventh inning and held Springer down to one little lonely hit in the final three innings.

Last Sunday at Santa Fe he was full of the good old stuff that wins games—pep, with a dash of baseball sense. As he took over the Springer game after it was lost the defeat does not count against him, and he is credited with two wins plus.

Larrazolo, the local backstop, has developed a throwing arm that keeps the base runners hugging first as if it were a return match with an old sweetheart. In the opening innings of the Santa Fe game Sunday he threw out three pitchers, and right there the Ancients considered the lily, how it doth grow best where it is planted.

Clark and Larrazolo are slated to do the battery stunt against Albuquerque next Sunday afternoon at Amusement park.

CONDITIONS ABROAD GREATLY IMPROVED

REFUGEES, ESPECIALLY IN PARIS, NO LONGER IN SUCH SORE STRAITS

Washington, Aug. 6.—General improvement in the conditions among Americans was shown today in official dispatches to the state department. Urgent appeals for transportation, however, continued.

Ambassador Herrick reported the financial panic had been so far alleviated in Paris that he recommended the gold on board the cruiser Tennessee be diverted to other cities in greater need. E. H. Garrick, chairman of the relief committee in Paris, stated that at least 30,000 Americans were in need of transportation and that with present accommodations it would take six months to move them.

From Vienna Ambassador Penfield telegraphed under date of August 3 that he was making every effort to get Americans out of Austria before yesterday at midnight and all transportation was to be stopped for a period of some weeks.

Oscar Strauss and E. I. Kent, representatives of the Bankers Trust company, both members of the relief committee in London, reported that their work was fully organized and a complete list of all Americans in England will be issued tomorrow. Needs of transportation capable of carrying at least 20,000 people was urged since the lack of gold has made it impossible for many to obtain even food to say nothing of lodging.

Secretary Garrison expressed his chagrin at the disposition of American steamship companies to charge what he considers exorbitant prices for vessels to transport Americans. Mr. Garrison said preliminary inquiries brought information that vessels could be obtained for about $600 a day. The price suddenly had been doubled.

"Do not intend to have any one get suddenly rich out of this business," said Secretary Garrison. "The steamship companies will find they cannot use this occasion to siphon money out of the United States treasury."

For that reason, Mr. Garrison said, it would be his purpose, first, to employ some 12 army transports at Galveston already being refitted for trans-Atlantic service. He has made inquiry if he has authority to commandeer commercial vessels for the emergency and is hopeful that the government can seize ships and afterward arrange for a fair compensation for their use.

The destination of the gold-laden cruiser Tennessee, when she sails from New York late today, will be Falmouth, England. The British government has given permission for the warship to put in there. The gold shipment will be promptly shipped to London and elsewhere.

The armored cruiser North Carolina will leave Boston tomorrow at 8 a. m. to aid the Tennessee in the distribution of gold in Europe. The North Carolina's destination has not been determined but she will take any gold shipped to her in time.

ARM TORN OFF BY FURNITURE VAN

FOUR YEAR GIRL SUFFERS TERRIBLE MUTILATION IN ACCIDENT

Pittsburgh, Aug. 6.—The sight of a small human arm bleeding on the floor and the sound of a child's agonized screams caused something akin to a pinc on a Greenfield avenue street car last evening as it passed along second avenue at Bates street. The arm had been torn from its socket in the shoulder of 4-year-old Jean McKee, daughter of James McKee of 329 Kaercher street, by a steel bedstead projecting from a wagon of the American Reduction company, which brushed against the side of a street car on which little Jean had her arm hanging over the guard rail. The child was taken to the Mercy hospital, where she is in a serious condition.
