Things to consider when choosing your printer

Colour printers have always been regarded as the more expensive option, but the technology has improved and reduced in cost which allows colour printer prices to sit within reach of mono printers. Most businesses predominantly print mono, and have the option to print in colour.

MFP (Multi Function Printers) or AIO (All in One) printers are packed full of features – bringing together all the functionality of a number of machines into one easy to use device...saving time, money and space!

Print quickly, cheaply and wirelessly from all your devices.

Speed of the printer.

Apple devices use Airprint via a Wifi connection.

Google Cloud Print - whether you're in the same room or the other side of the world... documents are transferred to the printer over a web connection (then immediately deleted for security).

HP use ePrint through Cloud technology.

HP use ePrint through Cloud technology.

Getting the right printer for your Home/Office requires a lot of thought. Yes, there are numbers of great printers on the market but not all of them can cater to your requirements, or perhaps they offer more than you need. Having the right printer will save you resources and allows you to achieve significant savings in the long run.

What do I use the printer for?

The designs and features of printers are wide in variation. So how do you pick the right one amongst the plethora of brands and models? First, find out your printing needs. Do you lean more towards document-demanding prints or do you mostly print images? Will a monochrome printer suffice to carry out your requirements? Does it have to be a colour printer? Do you require a Multifunction device with Scan, Copy and Fax? Having answered these simple questions, it will be easier for you to sort out the kind of printer you need.

Here are other things to consider:

- Page yield of cartridges
- Monthly duty cycle
- Cost per page
- Print speed
- Resolution

Finding the cheapest ink or toner can be a bit challenging. However, getting the right printer for your office will give you the biggest savings.

Quick guide to finding the right cartridge for you

Find your printer brand & consumables part code (OEM Code)

Your consumables part code / cartridge number can be found on your empty cartridge, the outside of product packaging or if unable to locate it find your printer brand and model number (usually displayed on the top or front of the printer).

How to find your consumables in the catalogue

Option 1 – You know your consumables part code (OEM code) & brand. Turn to the brand of your consumable (printer brands are listed alphabetically for ease). Locate either Inkjet or Laser Supplies and find your consumables part code / cartridge number listed within the OEM / Type column.

Option 2 – You know your printer brand and model number. Turn to the brand of your printer. Conveniently located within each section will be a Compatibility Chart. Locate your printer model and find your consumables model number. Once found refer to Option 1.

How to save time and money

Many printer brands now offer a variety of consumables for your printer. Have you thought about buying High Yield, XL, Twin or Rainbow Packs to help reduce the cost of printing? Check to see if your printer has this option to start saving today.

If your printer doesn't offer these options have you thought about renewing or upgrading your machine? The savings you could make from the consumables will pay for the new printer.

Looking for an alternative to the original consumables? There is also available an extensive range of Q-Connect Remanufactured cartridges.

KEY - look for these throughout the machines and consumables section

PRINTER SUPPLIES

Savings, reliability and safety. No nonsense.

Toner usually comes in one of two extremes. Expensive. Or unreliable. Not anymore.

Xerox® Everyday™ Toner is a new line of toner supplies for non-Xerox® printers that takes a different approach. No exorbitant prices. No hidden costs. Just the confidence of the Xerox brand and solid performance you've come to trust.

SUPERIOR VALUE. FOR MUCH LESS.

Trust your toner to those who know it best. You'll get all the performance, reliability and safety you've come to expect, but without the associated costs of cartridges from original manufacturers.

PLANET-FRIENDLY CHOICE.

What's inside counts – Xerox® Everyday Toner is safe for you and the environment. The chemicals in our toner and the plastics in the cartridge meet or exceed industry standards for global safety and environmental compliance. We post the contents of each cartridge on our website so you can be confident that there's no risk to your health or the environment. Can the cheap clones and no-name bargain brands say that?

Find out more about our commitment to sustainability on xerox.com.

NO-RISK LIFETIME WARRANTY.

Unlike no-name bargain brands, we stand behind our product. That's why Xerox® Everyday Toner comes with a lifetime warranty. Should you ever have a problem, simply contact the reseller you purchased it from for a no-hassle exchange.

YOUR ONE-STOP SHOP.
