Big Game Hunters: Check For Hunt Changes Before Buying Your Tags

— Idaho Dept. of Fish & Game —

New regulations were set in March and some hunts have changed

Big game hunters are reminded to check for changes to the 2023 big game seasons that were adopted by the Commission in their March meeting. Due to harsh winters, and other population factors, changes were made to many hunts that could affect hunters expecting the same as last year.

Idaho Fish and Game works diligently to remind hunters that hunting seasons change, and they should check to ensure the new 2023-2024 Big Game Seasons and Rules brochure (idfg.idaho.gov/rules/big-game) for details on different hunts.

If hunters feel their hunts have been negatively affected, and they no longer want a certain tag, they can exchange it if other tags are available. Hunting licenses and resident tags are nonrefundable.

For information on nonresident refunds, please visit: idfg.idaho.gov/licenses/forms/nonresident-refund

General season tag exchanges must be completed before the first day of the hunt for the current tag, and may be exchanged to another general season tag of the same species if there are available tags. Exchanges must be completed through a Fish and Game office, either in-person or via mail, and must be completed before the first day of any hunt for the current tag.

Nonresident exchanges

Nonresident hunter's tag exchanges can also be processed online through the goutdoorsidaho.com customer account during a scheduled Return Tag Sale. No exchanges can be processed at license vendor locations. For further questions, please email licenses@idfg.idaho.gov.

Why did the hunt change?

If you're wondering why your hunt changed, we have a series of videos that were produced for the season-setting public comment period that was completed in February. In these videos Fish and Game staff explain the rationale for the proposed changes. Some of these proposals were adopted by the Commission, and others were not based on public input and other factors. Visit idfg.idaho.gov/rules/big-game/proposals to view the proposal videos.

Hayden Summer Concert Series

Thursday, August 10th:
The Hankers

— KOEP Concerts —

KOEP Concerts is honored to continue the 22 year legacy of Chris Guggemos's free concert series in North Idaho. One of the highlights of summer in Hayden is the weekly concert in McIntire Family Park. A great band will be featured every Thursday through August 17.

The show on Thursday, August 10th, will feature The Hankers, playing Country and Country Rock. Next week will be Zach Cooper Band.

The performance will take place from 6pm-8:30pm at McIntire Family Park, behind Hayden City Hall, located at 8930 N. Government Way in Downtown Hayden. Seating is casual and families are welcome. Be sure to bring a lawn chair. And there is a food concession, so leave your picnic at home. For information, contact KOEP Concerts at www.koepconcerts.com.

The Hayden Concert Series is presented by STCU and sponsored by The Nickel's Worth and many local businesses and families.

Rewriting the Rules of Retirement

Retirement comes with more time for the things you love. A reverse mortgage can help you fund them.

- ✓ Pay off your existing mortgage to eliminate monthly payments<sup>1</sup>
- ✓ Get additional income tax-free cash to use for what matters most<sup>2</sup>
- ✓ Continue to own your home just like a traditional mortgage<sup>1</sup>

1. As with any mortgage, you must meet your loan obligations, keeping current with property taxes, insurance and keeping your home in good condition.
2. Consult a financial advisor and appropriate government agencies for any effect on taxes or government benefits.

Odd Fellows

Secret societies are, by their nature, mysteries to people who aren't part of them. But other people are aware of their symbols. This carved wooden shelf is decorated with symbols of the Odd Fellows. It features three chain links, representing the society's values of friendship, love and truth.

Other symbols have more general, familiar meanings. The heart-in-hand is a symbol for benevolence that is often associated with the Odd Fellows but not used exclusively by them. The All-Seeing Eye, sun and globe carry meanings of universal spirit. And the hourglass, scythe, skull and crossbones are well-known symbols of mortality.

The Odd Fellows is believed to have originated in medieval trade guilds, with "odd fellow" meaning someone who did odd jobs for a living. They did charitable work in their communities and provided financial assistance among members.

At one point, the Odd Fellows was the largest secret society in the U.S., but membership dropped during the Great Depression. Famous members included actor Charlie Chaplin, aviator Charles Lindbergh and multiple U.S. presidents, first ladies and political figures, including Franklin D. and Eleanor Roosevelt.

Q My mother had an old oil lamp sitting on the kitchen table. It did not have the original chimney, but she was able to find another one that fit. The top globe is also missing. The bottom globe has four raised lion heads with biblical or desert scenes between them. I saw one very similar to ours in an antique shop, and the price was $600! Could mine be this valuable?

A Oil lamps continue to be sought by collectors. The late 19th-century lamps were renamed "Gone with the Wind" lamps when they were used as set decorations in the 1939 movie. This style of oil lamp has two shades or globes with a chimney in between. Many have been modified for use as electrical lamps. Your lamp only has the bottom globe. Complete lamps that are similar to yours have recently sold for $75 to $275.

This carved shelf brought $2,500 at New Haven Auctions. Decorations and symbols associated with the Odd Fellows add to its appeal.

TIP: Store vintage textiles flat or roll them. Don't fold. It makes creases.

Fuel Your Busy Days With DIY Instant Oatmeal: Easy, Nutritious and Customizable

It's back to school time already! Can you believe it? Many of us are about to have our lovely relaxing summer come to a screeching halt and the rigors of routine thrown in our sun-kissed, freckled little faces.

With the return of the school year comes a more regimented schedule. Mornings are hectic and anything that relieves stress is a good thing. And making mornings easier isn't just for families heading back to school! We can all use a little help to ensure an easy start to our days.

One way to reduce stress is to have an inexpensive, nutritious and delicious breakfast that cooks in only one minute. I'm happy to share my secret weapon to destress mornings: DIY instant oatmeal packets.

Yes, you can buy premade instant oatmeal packets inexpensively, but look! The average cost is about 50 cents a packet, and most people eat at least two. Making them yourself brings the cost down to 20 cents per packet or less. And you get to make them exactly how you like them. You can reduce the sugar and make flavor combinations the Quaker dude never thought of.

DIY INSTANT OATMEAL

PACKETS
Yield: Approximately 18 packets
Time: 10 minutes
10 cups quick oats, divided
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup brown sugar, or more to taste
1 cup powdered milk, optional
2 tablespoons cinnamon
1 to 2 cups add-ins, optional — see below for ideas
18 to 20 snack-size zip-top bags

Put 7 cups of the oats in a large bowl. Place the remaining 3 cups of oats in a food processor or blender. Blend until powdery, then pour into the bowl with the whole oats. Add the salt, brown sugar, powdered milk (see tip below) and cinnamon in the large bowl. Mix well until combined.

www.JasonCoblentz.com

Easy breakfast saves time and money.

Measure 1/2 cup of the oatmeal mixture along with 1 to 2 tablespoons of add-ins into each snack-size zip-top baggie and seal. Store the baggies in your pantry, or in the freezer for the longest shelf life.

Tip: If you prefer making oatmeal with milk, you can skip the powdered milk altogether. For cost-saving options, try using a combination of half milk and half water. Personally, I find that making it with milk during cooking enhances the flavor compared to using water and powdered milk. To use the packets: Pour the contents of a packet in a bowl and add the desired amount of water or milk. Start with 3/4 cup and adjust to the thickness you desire. Microwave on high for 1 minute, stir and serve. Now here's the fun part. You can put whatever goodies you like into your oatmeal packets.

Some ideas: raisins, pumpkin pie spice, freeze dried strawberries, dried blueberries and slivered almonds, any variety of trail mix, mini chocolate chips and coconut, dried cranberries and pistachios, dried bananas and walnuts, dried apple and crystallized ginger, chopped pecans and maple syrup. The list goes on ...

You can also use these packets for overnight oatmeal. Just place the contents of a packet in a bowl, add milk or milk substitute, and refrigerate overnight. Serve cold or heat in the microwave.

Bonus! The plastic baggies can be reused many times because they don't get dirty.

Start your days off right with these convenient and budget-friendly DIY instant oatmeal packets. With just a minute away from a wholesome meal, you'll have more time, money and peace of mind to tackle whatever the day brings. So, stock up on these delightful packets and savor the stress-free mornings ahead!

August 13th

— National Day Calendar —

International Left Handers Day on August 13th recognizes all those individuals who have mastered using their left hand in a right-handed world. We take our hats off to you – left-handed!

Approximately 10% of the population are southpaws. Scientists don't know why a person develops left-handedness. But it's more likely a child will be left-handed if one parent is a lefty, too. Parents of left-handed children used to force them to use their right hands. In the eyes of right-handers, the predominant use of the left hand seemed evil. Parents feared their communities would shun their children. While we accept left-handedness more readily than days gone by, its occurrence hasn't increased.

Famous Lefties

Many lefties seek to blend in because they will stand out soon enough. Their unique quality makes them feel awkward. They bump elbows or seem like a klutz. However, in a world designed for the right-handed, those who are other dominant adapt quite well. For example, eight United States presidents were left-handed, including Ronald Reagan, George H.W. Bush, Bill Clinton, and Barack Obama. Would the Sistine Chapel and the Mona Lisa stand the test of time if Michaelangelo and Leonardo de Vinci had been right-handed?

Don't be shy on Left-Handers Day. Show the world how brilliant and unique you are!

How To Observe International Left Handers Day

Left Handers Day recognizes the uncommon individual who throws, catches, writes, and uses a fork with their left hand. They view the world just a little differently, too. At a restaurant, they seek out the seat that will place their dominant elbow on the outside of the booth. Right-handed athletes groan a bit when the southpaw shows up as an opponent on the roster. They present a challenge right-handers aren't always sure how to handle due to lack of practice. And yet, lefties square off against righties all the time.

Use #NDCClassroom to let share your ideas with us.

International Left Handers Day History

International Left Handers Day was founded in 1992 in the United Kingdom. Because of the popularity of this observation in the United States, the Registrar at National Day Calendar added the day to its list of national days.

Healthy Key Lime Pie

Fat-free sweetened condensed milk and fat-free yogurt trim the fat and calories from this luscious lime pie.

- 1 1/4 cups low-fat graham cracker crumbs
- 4 tablespoons trans-fat free vegetable oil spread (60% to 70% oil)
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 1/8 teaspoon salt
- 1/3 cup cold water
- 1 envelope unflavored gelatin
- 22 Key limes or 4 to 5 regular limes
- 1 can (14-ounce) fat-free sweetened condensed milk
- 1 1/2 cup plain fat-free yogurt

1. Preheat oven to 375 F. In 9-inch glass pie plate, mix crumbs with spread, sugar and salt to moisten. With hand, press onto bottom and up sides of pie plate. Bake 10 to 12 minutes, until golden. Cool until ready to fill.

2. Meanwhile, to 1-quart saucepan, add water; sprinkle with gelatin. Let stand 2 minutes to soften. Cook on low to dissolve, stirring. Remove from heat.

3. From limes, grate 2 teaspoons peel and squeeze 1/2 cup juice; if using Key limes, do not use grated peel — it will make filling taste bitter. In bowl, whisk lime peel and juice, milk and yogurt. Whisk in gelatin mixture.

4. Spoon filling into crust. Cover; refrigerate at least 2 hours to set. Serves 10.

• Each serving: About 235 calories, 5g total fat (1g saturated), 6mg cholesterol, 185mg sodium, 42g total carbohydrate, 7g protein.

Meet Conductor Shira Samuels-Shragg During Thursday's Sip and Shop at Pend d'Oreille Winery

— Music Conservatory of Sandpoint—

The Music Conservatory of Sandpoint (MCS) has hosted international and guest conductors since 2012 as part of its annual Music Matters! Summer Academy Youth Orchestra and Music Without Borders initiative. This year may be just a taste of things to come, as guest conductor Shira Samuels-Shragg will "pass the baton," following her week in Sandpoint to her new role as assistant conductor of the Spokane Symphony later this month.

A graduate of Julliard and a believer in music's power to connect and heal, Shira Samuels-Shragg co-founded the Plano Symphony Youth Orchestra Camp and helped design and play piano in the concert "Dialogue in Three Movements: An Artistic Journey of Israel/ Palestine in celebration of International Day of Peace." During her regional conducting season with the Spokane Symphony this fall, Samuels-Shragg will continue to maintain her current post with the Plano Symphony Orchestra.

We are delighted to "welcome Shira and introduce this up-and-coming conductor to our region," says MCS director, Karin Wedemeyer. As part of her introduction, and to help raise funds for the conservatory's Music Matters! outreach, a "sip and shop" will be hosted at the Pend d'Oreille Winery, corner of Third and Cedar, on Thursday, August 10th, from 4pm to 8pm. Fans of the symphony and those wishing to support the next generation of budding musicians are invited to attend.

Samuels-Shragg will be on hand for a portion of the evening – to mingle with guests and learn all about what our summery downtown has to offer. Giving, good food and wine are encouraged, as the winery will donate a portion of sales to MCS, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, serving Sandpoint's youth with quality and accessible performing arts education.

For more information on Music Matters! or the Sip and Shop event, contact the MCS Office. Call 208-265-4444. Contributions can be mailed to: MCS, 110 Main Street, Sandpoint, ID 83864, or shared online at sandpointconservatory.org/giving.

Strange BUT TRUE

By Lucie Winborne

- In 2018, Nataraj Karate set a new Guinness World Record by stuffing 650 drinking straws in his mouth at once. He had to keep them there for at least 10 seconds to break the previous record.
- Human blood cells have different lifespans.
- Dollar bills weren't always green. Colonial money, for example, was tan with black or red ink. The Civil War government began using green ink to print paper money because it didn't fade or easily decompose, which protected against counterfeiting.
- Auto manufacturer Volkswagen makes not just vehicles, but currywurst sausages.
- Following his successful bladder stone surgery, the relieved English diarist Samuel Pepys celebrated the anniversary of the event every year after.
- The first hot-air balloon flight, in 1783, took off with a sheep, a duck and a rooster on board, as it was unknown how the human body would react to flying at high altitudes. (They landed safely.)
- A company in Poland makes dinnerware out of wheat bran.
- Queen Elizabeth II visited the set of the TV series "Game of Thrones" but couldn't be seated on the throne due to an old rule that "the ruling monarch can't sit on a foreign throne."
- While it's not the longest word in the English language, a study of 1.7 million samples of everyday English found that the longest word you're likely to encounter on a daily basis is "uncharacteristically."
- Ants leave pheromone trails when they walk that serve as maps for other ants.
- Although Saturn is the second-largest planet in our solar system, it's also the lightest, and could float in water because it's basically a giant gas ball – if we had a bathtub big enough to hold it.

Coeur d'Alene City Park Summer Concert Series

Sunday, August 13th
Soul Proprietor

— KOEP Concerts —

KOEP Concerts is honored to continue the 22 year legacy of Chris Guggemos's free concert series in North Idaho. Since the mid 1990s, Coeur d'Alene has celebrated its summer Sundays with a free concert at the City Park Bandshell from 1-4 p.m. Expect barefoot dancing to our area's local musicians and their wide range of styles. Every Sunday through September 3

The next show, on Sunday, August 13th, will feature Soul Proprietor, playing Soul music. The following week will feature Laketown Sound.

The performance will take place at Coeur d'Alene City Park in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, rain or shine. Families are welcome. Seating is limited so be sure to bring your lawn chair. And there is a food concession, so leave your picnic at home. For information, contact KOEP Concerts at www.koep-concerts.com.

The Coeur d'Alene City Park Concert Series is presented by STCU and sponsored by The Nickel's Worth and many local businesses and families.

Avista Reducing Water Discharge At Post Falls Dam To Minimum Flow Requirement

Flows of the Spokane River expected to recede with this year's dry conditions

— Avista Utilities —

SPOKANE, Wash.: Due to the region's continued hot and dry weather reducing water levels in Coeur d'Alene Lake, The Idaho Department of Environmental Quality, the Washington Department of Ecology, and Avista will be following licensing requirements to implement the minimum discharge at Post Falls dam.

In compliance with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC) license, Avista expects that the Post Falls Hydroelectric Development (HED) will begin discharging the minimum of 500 cubic feet per second this weekend or early next week. This will help balance and maintain Coeur d'Alene Lake levels as well as keep water in the Spokane River throughout the rest of the summer.

"In dry years like this, the connection between the aquifer and the river becomes quite clear," said Patrick Cabbage, Senior Hydrogeologist for Ecology's Eastern Region Water Resources Program. "Water use by people directly affects river flows. That's why we hope people will use water wisely and efficiently. Fix a leak, don't water the sidewalk, and pay attention to how much you irrigate. It matters."

The Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC)

license governing Avista's Spokane River Project operations was issued in 2009 and carefully balances Coeur d'Alene Lake levels and downstream river flows. These requirements take into account fisheries and water quality, as well as public recreation. Avista worked with agencies, tribes, local governments, and citizens groups to reach an agreement on the current operations of Post Falls HED as they impact Coeur d'Alene Lake and the Spokane River.

Anyone seeking opportunities for river recreation can monitor flows by visiting "www.myavista.com/about-us/celebrate-our-rivers/water-flow-information" when planning water-related activities.

About Avista Utilities

Avista Utilities is involved in the production, transmission and distribution of energy. We provide energy services and electricity to 411,000 customers and natural gas to 377,000 customers in a service territory that covers 30,000 square miles in eastern Washington, northern Idaho and parts of southern and eastern Oregon, with a population of 1.7 million. Avista Utilities is an operating division of Avista Corp. (NYSE: AVA). For more information, please visit www.myavista.com.

About Washington Department of Ecology

The Department of Ecology protects Washington's environment and quality of life. The mission is to protect, preserve and enhance Washington's environment for current and future generations.

About Idaho Department of Environmental Quality

DEQ is a state department created by the Idaho Environmental Protection and Health Act to ensure clean air, water, and land in the state and protect Idaho citizens from the adverse health impacts of pollution. DEQ's mission is to protect human health and the quality of Idaho's air, land, and water.

Make Delicious and Economical Slow Cooker Yogurt

We're a yogurt-loving family. We wake up to it topped with crunchy granola and fruit, or it's whirled with other good stuff in the blender for energy-packed smoothies to go. It's an easy-to-pack car travel snack as well as the basic ingredient in homemade popsicles, and everyone around the dinner table enjoys rich, lemony-flavored yogurt over summer berries for dessert.

No wonder my ears perked up when a friend said she makes yogurt in her slow cooker. "Hmm," I thought. "Why add yogurt-making to my already busy schedule when I can just pick it up at the store?" Then, when curiosity took over, I did some research to test it out.

Much to my amazement, after a couple of easy steps in two timed intervals during the afternoon, I woke up the following morning to perfect, creamy, organic yogurt. Lots of it! Astounded, I ladled the more-than-we-could-use bounty into mason jars and shared the creamy deliciousness with my neighbors. Now, they're hooked.

Lesson learned -- the next time around, I halved my original recipe and got a yield of 7 cups. Give it a try with your kids. It's cost-effective and nutrient-rich, and it also provides a memorable experience in kitchen science.

YOGURT IN A SLOW COOKER

Makes 7 cups

- 8 cups whole milk (I use organic)
- Food thermometer for testing milk temperature
- 1/2 cup whole-milk, unflavored (plain) yogurt with live/active cultures for starter

- Thick bath or beach towel
- Storage containers with lids

In the midafternoon, pour milk into your slow cooker and turn setting to low. Cover. Set a timer for 2-1/2 hours.

At 2-1/2 hours, use a kitchen thermometer to check that milk has reached 180°-185° F.

Turn off, unplug, cover and let the milk temp drop to around 115° F. Skim any milk film off the top of the milk with a spoon.

Remove 1 cup of the warmed milk and combine with room temperature yogurt in a small bowl. Gently stir.

Pour the mixture into the slow cooker and stir with a couple of strokes.

Cover and wrap the towel all around the slow cooker to help insulate. Culture 8-12 hours overnight.

In the morning, stir yogurt and ladle into storage containers. Refrigerate at least 4 hours before eating. Save 1/2 cup to use as a starter for your next batch.

Cook's Note: For variety, make Greek-style yogurt. Spoon two cups of the slow cooker yogurt into a strainer lined with cheesecloth or coffee filters. Let the liquid (whey) drip through for about 30 minutes. Makes 1-1/4 cups of yummy thick yogurt. Delicious!

Dog Days Of Summer!

— Flotilla 84, USCG Auxiliary —

This message is being brought to you by Flotilla 84, USCG Auxiliary, located in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, in partnership with the Companions Animal Center, in Hayden, Idaho. Summer is in full swing in North Idaho and the temperatures are soaring! It is a good time to remind pet owners to be cautious with their furry friends both on and off the water. Heat is not your dog's best friend – you are!

The sight of a dog at the bow of a boat with their head in the wind is delightful and almost always brings a smile to everyone. Preparing for dog safety is easy and critical for a successful and safe boating adventure. The captain of the boat should provide the dog with a harness, flotation vest, fresh water, and some shade.

The first recommendation is to place the dog in a harness instead of a regular collar as the dog may be tethered while underway. Neck injuries or worse can happen to a dog that is wearing a simple collar and tethered to the boat deck in rough water. A harness provides safety and security to help prevent serious injury.

Second, secure a flotation vest made for dogs. Even if the dog is a very good swimmer, eventually they will tire, and drowning is an alarming danger. When purchasing a dog flotation vest, select one based on color, buoyancy, appropriate size and fit, and safety features. Shop around for a vest with a highly visible color and easily seen on the water. One of the best color choices is Coast Guard orange. A grab handle or two on the top allows for an easy grip on the dog.

The third preparation is for clean water provisions. Readily available environmental sources of water can contain parasites and other things that may be harmful. A water bowl and plenty of clean water should be a part of the float plan. Heat exhaustion and dehydration in dogs are serious conditions that require immediate attention.

The fourth critical preparation is providing shade for the dog. There should be some shade available where the dog can rest and cool down. A cabin or a Bimini top are two good examples that can provide adequate shade. Even an open beach towel held by two people high above the dog will provide some temporary shade.

If your dog jumps or falls overboard, immediately turn off the engine. Call the dog by name to encourage them to swim to the boat. If the dog does not respond to calling their name, you might consider a water rescue. Getting into the water must be thought out carefully with safety as the top priority. Wear a life jacket when you are in the water. After rescuing the dog, if it is small, you can simply grasp the life vest hand strap and lift it onboard. A very large dog can present a very difficult lifting situation. Some boat owners have a dog ramp or steps that can be deployed. It would be perfect if there were plenty of muscular passengers on the boat to help hoist the dog up from the water and over the gunwale.

Boating with a dog can be a wonderful adventure that takes just a little planning for a rewarding experience.

On Shore

A dog's feet are extremely sensitive to heat. Avoid walking them on hot asphalt, concrete, sidewalks or sand. A beautiful 85 degree day with cool breezes could set your sidewalk to a toasty 120 degrees or more. Use the back of your hand, or bare foot to make sure it's not too hot for your pet. Grass is always the preferred choice.

When you turn off your car, all ventilation stops. A car's interior can reach high temperatures even in the shade. On an 80 degree day, a car's interior can reach 160 degrees in a few minutes, even in the shade. Pets in hot cars are at risk for brain damage, heat stroke, even death!

Just a few safety precautions can make your summer a tail waggin' good time!

Hunters: As Hunting Season Draws Near, Now Is The Perfect Time To Dial In Your Bow Or Firearm Part 1 of 2

— Idaho Dept. of Fish & Game —

Idaho Fish and Game encourages hunters to dust off their firearms or bows and visit their local shooting or archery ranges to get dialed in for hunting season.

Hunting season will be here before we know it. If you haven't already, here's why now is the perfect time to dust off that firearm or bow in preparation for the 2023 season.

Only accurate rifles (and bows) are interesting

In a 1957 issue of American Rifleman Magazine, famed writer and marksman Col. Townsend Whelen quipped that "only accurate rifles are interesting." Townsend argued that only those who spent the time sighting in and taking pride in their firearm – we'll go ahead and assume he meant bows as well – produced rewarding outcomes as their skillset and marksmanship increased. Shooters who neglected their firearms, on the other hand, found the road to proficiency to be long and arduous, eventually losing interest in their hobby and soon disposing of it altogether.

As hunting season approaches, let Whelen's remark serve as a reminder that taking pride in your firearm or bow is merely the prologue to yet another edition of the hunting season. An obvious, yet important, reminder: Your hunt will not end successfully if you can't deliver a bullet or arrow on target when it matters most.

"Taking the time to prepare and become a better marksman is a hallmark of an ethical hunter," said

Brenda Beckley, Hunter Education Administrator. "And the better marksman you become, the better your chances of successfully harvesting an animal."

Now that we've established the when to get started improving your aim, here's the how.

Get in range time

Fish and Game offers several options for shooting and/or archery ranges around the state. Blacks Creek, Farragut, Nampa and Garden Valley Shooting Range are all Fish and Game-owned, public shooting ranges designed for safe firearm/bow practice by shooters of all abilities.

In the southwest, Nampa's public facility features both an indoor and outdoor archery range, as well as an indoor air gun range. There is also the Boise River WMA archery range complete with 20 three-dimensional foam targets. In the Panhandle, there is Farragut Public Shooting Range, which also includes a one-mile, walk-through archery range. Several Idaho state parks, in cooperation with Fish and Game, have archery ranges with life-sized, three-dimensional targets that mimic big game animals.

There are several other shooting ranges located across the state, some of which are co-managed by Idaho Fish and Game and the Shooting Range Development Grant program. This program's mission is to provide funds to assist organizations or agencies to establish, upgrade, expand or otherwise improve public firearms and archery ranges in Idaho.

For a more comprehensive list of shooting ranges in Idaho, go check out the National Shooting Sports Foundation's Where to Shoot webpage. This state-by-state shooting range directory lists contact information, facilities available, maps and more for each range.

Calling before you go is highly recommended, as hours of operation, services or shooting opportunities may change. If you've never been to a public shooting range, here is a beginner's guide (idf.gov/press/beginners-guide-public-shooting-ranges-0) to get you started.

Pre-Season Prep Tips | Rifles

For rifle hunters, many shooting experts recommend setting your initial target at 25 yards to make sure you hit the paper if you have a new rifle, have replaced a scope or don't know where your rifle is hitting. After shooting at that distance, move your target out to 100 yards or more to finish the sighting-in process.

Even Exchange by Donna Pettman

Each numbered row contains two clues and two 6-letter answers. The two answers differ from each other by only one letter, which has already been inserted. For example, if you exchange the A from MASTER for an I, you get MISTER. Do not change the order of the letters.

Hunters: As Hunting Season Draws Near, Now Is The Perfect Time To Dial In Your Bow Or Firearm

Part 2 of 2

Consistent accuracy is the ultimate goal when practicing shooting skills, so it's important that hunters consider their effective shooting range and practice at all distances out to that maximum number.

It's also important to practice from a variety of shooting positions and not just from a bench. Think about it. When that 4-point buck or 6-point bull pauses along the hillside, you're not going to have the luxury of a bench rest and 5 minutes of slow breathing when you go to take that shot.

Shooters should try to replicate the conditions they are likely to encounter in the field as closely as possible, so after your rifle is sighted in, consider doing some exercise to get your heart rate elevated and your lungs working harder to mimic what shooting may feel like in the field.

"We stress in our hunter education courses that all hunters have an ethical obligation to know their personal limits and be prepared," Beckley said. "Practicing often, at a variety of distances and from a number of different shooting positions, will help hunters prepare for a variety of situations they may encounter."

Hot Tip: Hunters should always use the same ammunition for hunting as they did when sighting in their rifle.

Pre-Season Prep Tips | Shotguns

Don't let the Elmer Fudd cartoons fool you – there's a lot more to using a shotgun than just spraying a target with pellets. When it comes to preparation for wing shooting, hunters should focus on practicing different shots at different angles that may at first seem difficult.

Hot Tip: Be sure you use the choke and shell combination you plan to use for the hunting season. Modified chokes produce a moderately tight pattern, good for rabbits, quail and upland game birds. Full chokes have an even tighter pattern and are best suited for turkey, squirrels and other game at longer range.

Patterning a shotgun before the season is a fairly common practice with turkey hunters, but it's something upland and migratory bird hunters should consider, too. Knowing your pattern density at given distances can help you determine your effective range, and give you a good idea of how your shotgun performs with a particular choke and shell combination. Every shotgun is different, and your shotgun will likely perform differently if you change either of those variables.

Pre-Season Prep Tips | Bows

By this point in the game, most archery hunters using traditional and compound bows will already be dialed in as early-season and archery-only hunts kick off in late August.

But if you're new to the sport of bow hunting, you should start by visiting your local bow shop and get your bow tuned up, especially if you haven't shot much or at all since last fall.

After that, it's time to get your body back into shooting shape and practice at known and unknown distances. Archery ranges with life-sized, 3D targets are good place to practice your shooting and estimating distance in a field setting.

Hot Tip: Estimating distance is a lot more crucial in archery than in rifle hunting. To become proficient at gauging distances in the field, sharpen your eye by making estimates on various landmarks or 3D targets. Once you make an assessment, whip out your trusty rangefinder and confirm just how close or far off your naked eye was.

Fish and Game has ranges at its Boise River Wildlife Management Area and Farragut Shooting Range. You can also find archery ranges at some Idaho State Parks, including Hells Gate near Lewiston, Castle Rock near Albion and Dworshak near Orofino.

Remember that most ranges will not allow you to shoot broadheads, and they usually shoot differently than field tips, so you will need to resight in your bow when you make the switch.

So whether you're hauling a rifle or a recurve out into the field with you this hunting season, proper maintenance and preparation is a must. Be sure to brush up on your marksmanship and take care of your weapon to ensure a fun, safe (and "interesting") hunt.

World Elephant Day

August 12th

— National Day Calendar —

World Elephant Day is celebrated on August 12 on the National Day Calendar. Today we are raising about the conservation efforts and issues relating to elephant habitats. We are also celebrating elephants as one of the world's most majestic animals to walk the earth.

World Elephant Day is a global event that occurs on August 12 each year. This global day raises awareness about elephant welfare, habitat loss, poaching, and protection of elephants. Join us as we take a journey on World Elephant Day to learn about the history of this beautiful creature, the dangers it faces, and how we can do our part to preserve the lives of elephants.

Ancient Elephants

The evolution of elephants can be traced by to the Cenozoic Era, which began around 66 million years ago. However, some archeologists believe the elephant species actually dates back to 56 million years ago during the Eocene epoch era. Like all other living creatures, elephants did evolve over time. For example, ancient proboscideans (elephant species) varied in size. In fact, proboscideans were a fairly small in size measuring less than 6 feet long and weighing around 200 pounds. During the Pleistocene epoch era, we saw a rise in the size of elephants. In fact, the widely known Mammoth stood about 15 feet tall. Interestingly, modern day elephants resemble the Mammoth the most. The difference between a Mammoth and a modern elephant is physical changes have occurred over time to adapt to their environment.

Elephants face a variety of challenges and dangers every day. Some of those dangers are environmental factors, while other factors are due to human activities.

Did You Know?

Elephants have around 150,000 muscles in there trunks, making it the most sensitive organ of any living creature

5 Reasons Elephants Are In Danger

1. Poaching: There is a huge illegal market for elephant body parts, including tusks, teeth, bones, skin, and meat. Unfortunately, poaching elephants has led to a significant decline in elephants, especially in African countries.

2. Captivity: Asian elephants are often kept in captivity for a variety of reasons, including tourism and entertainment. Captivity of elephants prevents natural breeding, which is a contributing factor to the decline of elephants.
3. Human-Elephant Conflict: Humans and elephants come in contact with each other more frequently than people realize. Loss of habitat forces elephants to roam in areas where food is available, causing human violence against elephants and vice-versa.
4. Loss of Natural Habitat: As cities and towns expand and grow, the natural of habitat of elephants is lost. Many elephants migrate to new feeding grounds, while most feed on food and agriculture of these newly places. Sadly, many elephants are violently attacked because they don't understand the rules of humans.
5. Cultural/Religion: Many cultures believe specific parts of an elephant are necessary to perform rituals. Many cultures illegally kill elephants to obtain the necessary items.

WORLD ELEPHANT DAY AWARENESS

There are many ways to participate in today to bring awareness to the obstacles elephants face on a daily basis. Generating public awareness is key to helping elephants survive.

1. Promote organizations, such as WorldElephantDay.org, keeps conversations going between governments, landowners, and conservation programs.
2. Support wildlife organizations, elephant research, and conservationists helps maintain and preserve safe and healthy habitats for elephant populations.
3. Learn about elephants encourages citizens to be more open and willing to find alternatives to relocating elephants away from humans.
4. Attend events and activities relating to elephants. Many organization have local events that include education, exhibitions, and social media campaigns to raise awareness about many animals, including elephants.
5. Visit your local zoo to admire the beauty and soft demeanor of elephants. If you're lucky, you will get close enough to see how majestic these animals are.
6. Share your support, stories, and photos about elephants on social media and tag #WorldElephantDay to join in the conversation to protect elephants.

History Behind World Elephant Day

World Elephant Day was created in 2012 by Patricia Sims and Michael Clark in an effort to raise awareness about the issues facing African and Asian Elephants. Every year on August 12, we are joining in this global effort to show our support and bring awareness protecting elephants around the world.
