QUERY: THOMAS COURTNEY b ca. 1755 of Camden District, Clarendon Co., S.C. on the 1790 census, m/Ann (?). This family came to Mississippi, then Louisiana. I am descended through their daughter, Sarah Rebecca, m/Absalom Pennington in Wilkinson Co., Miss. Other children were John R; Alexander, b. 8-3-1796; Mary; Elizabeth; Thomas, b.ca. 1818; and probably William Elias (Ellie), b 5-5-1793, m. Julia Loflin. Other Courtney who came to La. from S.C. at about the same time were Rev. Ezra Courtney m. Elizabeth Peterson and his sister, Racheal m. Peter Hill. Ezra and Racheal were the children of John Courtney and Jemima (Curtis, d/o Richard Curtis and Phoebe (?), widow Jones). I need to know the relation of Thomas to the others, Juanita F. COURTNEY

There were several Courtney families in South Carolina before 1800. In 1758, Daniel Courtney obtained 100 acres of land on the South Branch of Rocky Creek. [1] John Courtney obtained 100 acres in Craven County on the northeast side of Sparrow Swamp, the waters of Lynches Creek. [2] John Courtney, presumably the same as the preceding, was a commissioner to oversee the clearing of Lynches Creek to make it navigable. [3] Macajan Courtney received two land grants in 1788 and 200 acres on Tare Coat Swamp in 1790. [4]

The 1790 census of Camden District, Clarendon County, South Carolina lists five Courtneys: Micaiah, Benjamin, Robert Sr., Ezekiel, and Thomas. There were also James Courtneys in Charleston and Cheraw Districts. James and Robert can perhaps be traced back to Rev. John Courtney of King and Queen County, Virginia, whose father, Robert, was born in England, although the dates given for Rev. John, 1744-1824, [5] would make him too young for this to be possible. Rev. John had a brother and a nephew Thomas, so that was also a common name in the family. James of Craven County, grandson of Robert, went to Amite County, Mississippi, near the Louisiana border, along with other members of the family, [6] and one of his sons, Robert, settled in Clarke

County, Alabama. [7] That there was a connection between Thomas and Micajah was proved by the fact Thomas Courtney of the Mississippi Territory transferred land to Micajah Courtney on March 21, 1805, and at the same time Micajah conveyed land to Thomas Courtney. [8] Other transfers of deeds show connections between Thomas Courtney and Jonas Courtney and his wife Catherine, between Micajah Courtney and Thomas Courtney's father-in-law, Alexander Robinson (1786), between Thomas Courtney and Jonas Courtney, Abraham Hodge (1794), [9], and Alexander Robertson (1790), and between Robert Courtney and Ezekiel Courtney. [10] The 1790 census has Micajah and Benjamin living close to each other; the 1800 census places Ezekiel next to Jonas. Links can be found among all the Courtneys living in that area.

The Micajah Courtney mentioned above married Sarah (perhaps Hodge) and had four children, John H., Martha who married John Tisdale Draughn in 1812, Benjamin who was born about 1793 and who married Jane Hodge, and Nancy who married Henry Hudnall about 1817. All the children are mentioned in the division of Micajah's estate in 1811. [11] After the death of Micajah, his widow Sarah married Ruben Nichols and had four more children. In 1818 the Nichols and others of the family went with a wagon train of eighteen to twenty families to Perry County, Mississippi, where there are still Courtney descendants today. [12] The date of the first Micajah's death is not known. A great-grandson of his daughter Martha, Paul Draughn, said that his great-great grandfather (who appeared as John in his records), died of yellow fever in 1793, [13] and he does not appear in the census of 1800, but his estate was not settled until 1811, very long after a death in those times. His name also appears in the land transactions in 1805 which are mentioned above, so the time of his death remains a question. However, whether he died before the birth of our Micajah or not, there is no record of his having had a son Micajah.

58.[14] According to the Courtney family Bible which was passed from Lise Chauvin Courtney Shropshire to her daughter Lise Courtney Shropshire to her niece Lise Courtney Shropshire Howe, the Micajah Courtney of our line was born in Charleston, South Carolina, in 1799. There is no record of who his parents were or of how he spent his early life. The name Micajah Courtney is unusual enough, however, that it seems it cannot be a coincidence that there were two of them in South Carolina at the same time. Since the first Micajah had a son Benjamin, the Benjamin recorded in the 1790 census may have been a brother. Perhaps he had a son Micajah. There is certainly a connection.

The first record of Micajah Courtney was when he married Isabelle Ann Stirling in West Feliciana Parish, Louisiana, on March 5, 1829.[15] She was the daughter of Henry Stirling and Mary Bowman, granddaughter of Alexander Stirling and Ann Alston. Alexander Stirling, born in Fafar, Ayrshire, Scotland, had become a very successful planter in Louisiana. Henry Stirling died in 1827, most likely leaving some of his property to his daughter.[16] His widow, Mary, is listed in the 1850 census with William H., age 26, and Bowman I., age 25, presumably her sons who would have been very young when their father died. Perhaps Micajah assumed the role of man of the house to this family of women and children. Mary Stirling continued to live on one of the plantations even after her daughter had died and Micajah had married again. According to the 1840 census, she lived at the property for which Micajah was named as head of household in West Feliciana Parish while he and his family were listed as living in West Baton Rouge Parish. In 1850 she is still listed in West Feliciana Parish, but separately from Micajah who was again listed there without his family.

Micajah and Isabelle Stirling Courtney had three children.[17] The eldest was probably Henry Stirling, named for his maternal grandfather and born about 1830 as Micajah had a son between ten and fifteen according to the 1840 census. He had died before 1844 when Micajah had another son Henry Stirling. The next was probably Mary, named for her maternal grandmother and born about 1832 as she was eighteen at the time of the 1850 Tennessee census (where the family is listed as Coatney). There is no record of the third child. Perhaps that one died along with his mother as she died before 1835.

In 1835, Micajah Courtney married Adine Agnes (baptised Marie Louise) Woods[18] of St. Charles, Missouri, in Davidson County, Tennessee, near Nashville. She was born May 12, 1810, the daughter of Andrew Woods and Marie Louise (Lise) Chauvin. Since all but one of her father's brothers and sisters settled in Nashville, it is likely that they met there. It is also likely that the family had property there since Micajah and Adine's oldest and youngest children were born there and since the entire family is listed there in the 1850 Tennessee census. Their children were:[19]

Josephine Woods, b. July 14, 1836, Nashville, Tenn., m.
Dr. Peter Randolph, Jan. 23, 1855, d. Mar. 3, 1897.

Lise Chauvin, b. July 7, 1839, West Baton Rouge, La.,
m. Horace Ellmaker Shropshire, Feb. 23, 1866, d.
Dec. 25, 1913, Birmingham, Ala.

Henry Stirling, b. Jan. 5, 1844, m. Dora Commack; d. July 19, 1908.

Adine Woods, b. Aug. 7, 1845, Nashville, Tenn.

By the time of the 1860 Louisiana census, Micajah Courtney's land in West Feliciana Parish was worth $50,000 and the rest of his estate there was valued at $250,000. He was a very wealthy man even without the property in West Baton Rouge Parish (the records for that parish in the Archives being impossible to read) or Tennessee, which he may still have had. One Stirling close by was worth almost $600,000; another, Micajah's former brother-in-law William, was worth over $300,000. They lived very well, and family homes still may be seen near St. Francisville - Alexander Stirling's "Rosedale" (originally "Egypt"), his son Lewis's "Wakefield Plantation House", and Lewis's son Ruffin's "Woodhill Farm". [20] I do not know what happened to Micajah's "Bushill" at Bayou Sara Landing near by, or to "Woodlawn", his plantation in West Baton Rouge Parish where he raised sugar with Adine's brother Robert, [21] but I remember reading some years ago that one of his plantations could still be visited.

Micajah Courtney died August 9, 1862, in West Feliciana Parish, presumably before his world of the rich southern planter fell around him. There is still in the family a portrait of him - a distinguished white-haired gentleman with a gold-headed cane - probably done towards the end of his life. He left behind few clues of his past. If he did indeed come from the Clarendon County, South Carolina, Courtneys, they were not a family of great wealth, which is shown by the fact that they did not own any slaves according to the 1790 census. Yet he died a rich and successful man. Did all his money come from the Stirlings? Had he been married before, as might have been indicated by the presence of two males between twenty and thirty in his household in 1840? Not even do the names of his children provide clues of his past. Those of his first wife were named for her family; those of his second wife for hers, with the exception of Henry, named for the older half-brother who died before he was born. There are many questions about Micajah Courtney to which there do not seem to be any answers.

29. Lise Chauvin Courtney was born July 7, 1839, in West Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Her parents took her back to her mother's church in St. Charles, Missouri, for her baptism, for it is recorded there on September 13, 1841. She was listed as two years old. Her sister Josephine was baptised at the same time which is fortunate as it helps to identify them in a confused entry. Their Christian names were given as "Jos" and "Elizth" and after the "Courtney" of their family name was written "(McCortney?)". Their parents were given as Agy L. and Adine Woods, perhaps explaining where the possible "Mc" of their family name came from. [22] Both Micajah and Courtney were difficult names to spell and appeared in different places with various spellings.

On February 22, 1866, Lise Courtney[23] married Horace Ellmaker Shropshire, son of Squire Grant Shropshire and Margaret Potter Armstrong. As Horace Ellmaker Shropshire's father was a sugar broker[24] and the son was in business with his father, perhaps he had met Lise Courtney through dealings with her father. By the time they married, she was no longer the young heiress she must have been before the war, but she adapted to her changed world, raising three sons and a daughter as the family moved from New Orleans to Waverly, Mississippi, to Jackson, Mississippi, and finally to Birmingham, Alabama. It was there that she died on Christmas Day 1913.

REV. EZRA COURTNEY

There is an excellent article in the June '88 issue of the Louisiana Genealogical Register on the Rev. Ezra Courtney, who came from the Darlington District of South Carolina to the Natchez District of Mississippi, and later to New Feliciana in Louisiana. He was the founder of several Baptist churches in Mississippi and Louisiana, and he defied Spanish rule (which decreed that no one could be married except by a Catholic priest) by crossing the border into Louisiana and performing marriages. His headstone states that he was born 4-5-1775 in South Carolina, but one historian who claimed to have a good source, says that he was born in 1771 in Pennsylvania.

Ezra was already married to Elizabeth (Peterson) when he left South Carolina. He later married Elizabeth (Drennon) in Mississippi. He had at least one sister, Rachael, who married Peter Hill in South Carolina; they were probably the children of John Courtney of Pennsylvania and Hannah (Curtis) d/o Richard Curtis, Sr. and Pheobe (Courtney, widow Jones).

The article poses, along with other questions, the relationship of Ezra to other Courtneys who, like Ezra, lived in South Carolina, then migrated to Mississippi, later to Louisiana, all at about the same time. There was 1) Thomas Courtney b. ca. 1755 South Carolina s. Ann T. the parents of two children while still in S.C.; 2) Elias William Courtney b. 5-5-1793, S.C., m. Julia (Loflin) and Jonas Courtney b. ca. 1763 S.C. married Catherine (?). Oral tradition of Livingston Parish Louisiana Courtney descendants has it that the Courtneys had Indian blood.

Other families who migrated with the Courtneys were: 1) Richard Curtis, Sr., wife Phoebe (Courtney) d/o Robert and Hannah (Courtney) of Onslow County, N.C. and several of his children and their spouses. 2) John Courtney, Sr., who had married Hannah, d/o Richard Curtis, Sr., and later m. Jemima, another of Richard's daughters, who was the widow of James Cole, another of the settlers. 3) Richard Curtis Jr., the founder of the first Baptist church in Mississippi, and his wife, Pattie (Jones). 4) John Stampley, and Martha "Phoebe" (Curtis), another daughter of Richard Sr. 5) James Cole, husband of Jemima (Curtis), who later married John Courtney. 6) John Jones, son of Phoebe (Courtney) and her first husband William Jones. 7) Daniel and William Oden - some of their descendants are believed to have moved to what is now Wilkinson County, Miss., and are among the early member of the Bethel Baptist church on Bayou Sara. 7) Some person with the surname Perkins.

THE COATNEY FAMILY

Pat Walker

According to census records, James W. Coatney was born 1797-1798 in Virginia. His second wife, Nancy Ann (maiden name unknown), was born 1818-1817 in North Carolina. I believe Nancy Ann to be his second wife because she is only 33 yrs. old in 1880, and the oldest Coatney child, Robison, is 20 yrs. old.

James W. Coatney

Please note that the following pages are an organization of thoughts and supposition - not facts.

- 1820 Tennessee Ezekiel Coatney - Lawrence County
 1M 45 and over, 1M 18 to 28, 1M 16 to 18, 1M under 10.
 1F over 45, 1F 10 to 16.
 (The only Coatney/Courtney I can locate in my records in TN in 1820. Possible father of James W. Coatney who would be 22 in 1820.)
- 1830 Tennessee James Coatney - Blount County
 1M 20 to 30, 1M under 5/ 1F 20 to 30, 1F 5 to 10, 2F under 5.
 James Courtney - Jefferson County
 1M 40 to 50, 1M 10 to 15, 2M 5 to 10, 2M under 5.
 1F 30 to 40, 1F 15 to 20, 1F 10 to 15, 1F 5 to 10.
 James Courtney - Greene County
 *Not ours. Rev. War James who is 80 to 90 years old.
- 1840 Tennessee James Coatney - Jefferson County
 James A. Courtney - Hardin County
- 1840 Missouri James Coatney - Big Creek Township, Van Buren County
 1M 40 and under 50, 1M 10 & under 15, 1M 5 & under 10,
 1M under 5/ 1F 20 & under 30, 1F 10 and under 15, 1F under 5.
 *Believe this is our James W. Coatney. James would be 42, Nancy Ann would be 23, Robison would be 10, Jackson would be 7, James Harvey would be 5, and Sarah would be 3 yrs. old. This leaves one girl 10 and under 15 unaccounted for in the 1850 Census. I believe this girl to be Catherine Coteney 20 TN living with the Illis Cook family in Newton Co. 1850.
- 1848 Missouri Lucretia Coatney - Tax List Van Buren County
- 1850 Missouri Lucretia Coatney - Cass County (Van Buren changed to Cass in 1849)
 Catherine Coteney - 342 Van Buren Twp., Newton County
 Age 20, born in TN. Lives with Illis P. Cook Family.
 James W. Coteney - 340 Van Buren Twp., Newton County
 Age 52, born in VA. Nancy Ann 33 NC. Robison born 1830 TN, Jackson born 1833 TN, James Harvey born 1835 TN, Sarah born 1837 TN, William W. born 1840 MO, Matilda Jane born 1842 MO, Mary Ann "Polly" born 1843 MO, Sophia born 1845 MO, and Julia Ellen born 1848 MO.
- 1860 Missouri James W. Coatney 63 VA and Nancy Ann 44 NC - White River, Barry Co.
- 1870 Missouri James W. Coatney 73 VA and Nancy Ann 55 NC - Shoal Creek, Barry Co.
- 1880 Missouri James W. Coatney 82 Widowed - Shoal Creek, Barry County.

James W. Coatney

James W. Coatney had a rather large family (thirteen that I have record of). I do believe that he had other children older than Robison who was born 1830 in Tennessee. Nancy Ann has to be James' second wife, as she is only 13 years older than Robison. Nicknames were common in their family. I am guessing that Mary Ann is "Polly" and that Julia Ellen is "G" from ages on the Census Records.

The problem now is finding James W. Coatney in Tennessee. He would have lived there from 1830 to 1837, as his first four children we have record of were born in Tennessee between these dates. There is a possibility that he moved to Tennessee after the 1830 Census was taken.

There are only two James Coatney/Courtney's in Tennessee in 1830 that would even have the slightest possibility of being ours. Neither one of these are listed as the right age, and the children do not fit with our records.

I have been leaning toward the James Coatney in Blount County, Tennessee in 1830. He is 20 to 30 years old (our James would be 32) and his wife is 20 to 30 years old (could be his first wife). They have four children; one male under 5 years, two females under 5 years, and one female 5 to 10 years old. If Catherine is ours, she and Robison would have been born on 1830. This would leave one female under 5 years and one female 5 to 10 years old unaccounted for in 1840.

An interesting point in looking at Blount County, Tennessee, is that it is located on the North Carolina border. Looking at my census records, I note that there were Coatney/Courtneys in North Carolina from 1790 to 1840 (I only have records for these 50 years). There is also a Robeson County, North Carolina. The first child we have record of was named Robison. This child could be the Robeson Coteney listed in the 1850 El Dorado, California Census, but I have been unable to obtain a copy of this record. I must also note that Nancy Ann Coatney, the second wife of James, was born in North Carolina.

- 1790 North Carolina - Jas. Cortney - Morgan Dist., Lincoln County.
 Daniel Courtney - Hillsborough Dist., Orange Co.
 John Courtney - Fayette Dist., Anson County.
 Wm. Courtney - Hillsborough Dist., Orange Co.
 William Courtney - Salisbury Dist., Mecklenburg Co.
- 1800 North Carolina - May Coatney - Anson Co.
 Stephen Coatney - Anson Co.
 James Courtney - Lincoln Co.
 Joseph Courtney - Orange Co.
 William Courtney - Orange Co.
- 1810 North Carolina - Emanuel Coatney - Anson Co.

- 1820 North Carolina - Emanuel Courtney - Anson Co.
 John Courtney - Anson Co.
 Stephen Courtney - Anson Co.
 William Courtney - Anson Co.
- 1830 North Carolina - Peggy Coatney - Burk. 191
 Stephen Courtney - Anson Co. 051
 William Courtney - Anson Co. 051

James W. Coatney

1840 North Carolina - Catherine Courtney - Rowa. Co. 044
 James Courtney - Burk. Co. 316 Catawb.
 William Courtney - Anson Co. 077
 Stephen Courtney - Anson Co. 084

As I have dead-ended in Tennessee, I must try to locate a will or estate settlement in Missouri. So far, this has been unsuccessful. James W. Coatney is widowed in 1880 Shoal Creek, Harry Co., Missouri, Census, which means Nancy Ann died between 1870 and 1880. There should be many records of the Coatneys in Missouri, as they lived in the same area for at least 60 years. James W. is 82 years old in 1880 and is not listed in the 1900 census. I have tried to locate land records, but so far have found none. I recently ordered Civil War Records on James Harvey and William Coatney (sons of James), but have not received them. If there is a pension record for James Harvey Coatney, it should list the County in Tennessee in which he was born. William Coatney's records will not be of great help, because he was born in Missouri.

I also need to check on this Lucretia Coatney listed in the 1848 Tax List of Van Buren County, Missouri. She could possibly tie in to our Coatneys.

Please note that in 1850, James W. was listed as Coteney. I have noticed that most of the Coatneys can find their names listed as Courtney somewhere among the records.

Any information on this family of Coatneys would be greatly appreciated.

LIFE OF EDWARD COURTNEY SR.

I was born in the parish of Killimore County Cavan Ireland all my work in my youth was on a farm, When I was about 19 years old a great many of the neighbors made up their minds to go to America and having being of an adventurous spirit I thought I should go with the rest. I left home and went to Liverpool where I engaged passage to New York. After a long and stormy voyage of over 9 weeks in mid winter I reached New York early in the spring and being anxious to make money I went to work the next day to dig a new sewer at a dollar a day which I thought was spendid wages, I thought I would be rich enough in six months to go home to Ireland and live independently .

Then I went to piling lumber and finally three or four young men and myself hired to work for a railroad that was being built between Brooklyn and Hempstead on Long Island at 16 dollars a month which I considered a great deal of money for a months work, A good friend of mine hearing I was in the country came after me and brought me to Albany and had me bound out for three years to the bricklaying and plaster trade. Being of a roaming disposition I wanted to see the whole country and started from New York to go to New Orleans. After a stormy voyage of ten weeks I arrived at New Orleans on Christmas day 1848 and went to work at my trade the next day.

I worked until July and then finding it getting too warm to work I left there and went up the Mississippi River to St. Louis. My idea was to make a circle back to Albany by way of the great lakes. I worked in St. Louis for awhile and then went up the river as far as Davenport, which was being staked out as a town and being offered employment there went to work on what was called The LeClaire House the first hotel of note in Iowa. I was married in 1843 my wife who is still living proved to be a good and faithful women.

From Obituary of Edward Courtney. Several years ago he revisited Ireland and the place of his birth and more recently Bridgeport Conn. where with a sister he had seen but once in 40 years the family having become seperated soon after landing in America. He frequently recalled those visits abroad with pleasure. For seven years he has been in poor health but only recently did he consider the end to be near.

ADDRESS CHANGE: KATHY ADAMS, 221 Cobblers Drive, Cold Spring, KY 41076

Jean Smith, Rt. 2 Box 715, Safford, AZ 85546: The article in the Sept., Oct., Nov. 1989 issue on the last page "Life of Edward Courtney Sr., is about my great great grandfather. Recently I found his marriage record to Mary Doyle in Davenport, Scott Co., Iowa in 1843, and also where he bought land there. He ended up in Dubuque, Iowa before 1850, where he raised 12 children. The article states he arrived in New Orleans Christmas Day 1848, but I believe that should be 1838. I know he was in Davenport in 1840.

12. JONATHAN COATNEY 1840-1926
 13. LOUISA ELLEN (SHELBY) COATNEY 1843-1931

Jonathan Coatney was born Dec. 19, 1840 in Hawkins Co. Tenn. (according to his records and stories he told his kids.) He ran away from home as a young man. He was out chopping down trees laid down his ax and left with some people. He never mentioned his parents (although he may have had a step mother and half brothers.) He married MILDRED A. SHELBY (daughter of EVAN WILEY SHELBY and VIRGINIA ALMIRA SALLEE SHELBY) about Mar. 3, 1860 in Mercer Co. Missouri. She died May 3, 1863 while he was fighting in the civil war. Jonathan was a private in Company D 23 Missouri Infantry. He inlisted July 10, 1862 in Cainsville, Mo and was discharged June 9, 1865. He was in Sherman's March to the Sea and was a day away from Washington DC when they learned that Lincoln was dead. He married Mildred's sister, LOUISA ELLEN SHELBY on Aug. 19, 1865 (her birthday) in Pike Co., Missouri. Louisa Ellen Shelby was born Aug. 19, 1843 in Tennessee (probably Montgomery Co.). She was also the daughter of EVAN WILEY and VIRGINIA ALMIRA (SALLEE) SHELBY. Jonathan wore a beard for years. One day he went to Sargent, Mo and had it shaved off. When he came home the kids and his wife wouldn't let him in until she recognized the patches on his overalls. In 1865 they moved to Pike Co., Illinois. In the 1880 census they were in Bourbon Co. Kansas (Timberhill) and in 1890 they were in Texas Co., Missouri. Jonathan died of cancer on Sept. 10, 1926 and is buried in Miller Cemetery, Texas Co., Mo.

Louisa Ellen (Shelby) Coatney went out hunting a hen's nest along the road and came complaining about being tired and went in to lay down and died in her sleep. She died on July 7, 1931 at her home in Mountain Grove, Mo. south of Cabool. She is also buried in Miller Cemetery.

Dear Mr. Phillips

I am seeking information on the Thomas Courtney family. I have filled in the information which I have. If you could provide me with the missing information, it will be very helpful toward completing the history of this family. Enclosed is a self-addressed, stamped envelope for your convenience in replying.

ANCESTRAL CHART

No. _____

If you have any additional information beyond what I have requested, please advise me. Your assistance is greatly appreciated. I got your name from Wanda Lockwood. John E. Courtney was my grandfather. Thomas is so little known. He was a left handed blacksmith who was orphaned and raised by a widow named Gates. He and Eliza were in 1860-50 Simpson Co., MS. Census. He may have been in Mexican War of 1846. Can't connect him to any of earlier families till I find his parents. John E. was married before - 1870 to Martha Rogers - divorced. after 1870 to Margaret Dear Briggs and had 3 sons. He and Martha Hayes had 12 children.

Cordially yours,
Wanda Dean Courtney Mc...

To Bonnie Coatney, 12130 Lanlock, Dallas, Texas 75218: NO I do not have a modem.

Reading in the Boone Co. Historian in a story by John Honer Coatney I saw the mention of a Paul Arnold of Searcy who married the fourth daughter of Ressie. I am searching for Richard Arnold family of Harrison. He was the son of John Arnold. Richard Arnold was born in Ala in 1838, Mary E 1840 in Jackson Co. Ala. 1850 census shows John Arnold in Haywood Co. Tenn. I know they came to Ark before or around 1860. Mary E and one brother lived in Greene Co. Ark. Richard moved to Boone Co date unknown. I would appreciate any information searching the Arnold genealogy. Opal L. Smith, 520 Atascocita Rd. D. 21, Humble, Texas 77396

I'm looking for ancestors of a family headed by Thomas DeLa Courtney, b. 1728 in London, England of French ancestry who later settled in Monaghan County Ireland. He was married #1 to a daughter of Lord Dawson, #2 Jane Anderson, #3 Isabella Thompson. He married while in Ireland twice and migrated to America about 1786. He died in 1811 in Monogalia Co., W.V. where his estate was settled in February 1812. The only other item I can suggest is that there is a rumor that he was banished from Ireland for Sorcery. Bob Forman, Monmouth, IL 61462-0068

COURTNEY, Levi. He was born in March of 1862 in Iowa. He married Georgia A. Pitman 13 Oct. 1885. She was the daughter of William Franklin and Margaret J. Polson Pitman. The only child that I know of was Arlie E. Courtney who was born Sept. 1886 in Iowa. Barbara Jo. Ellis Seutter, 6401 N. Dobbs Road, Marrah, Oklahoma 73045. [Editor Note: Levi is in the 1900 Soundex in Marion, Franklin, Iowa.]

We have spent long hours and have done a lot of driving to cemeteries and calling on the phone and pestering people to get these records. It's no small job, but a very pleasant and rewarding one, even though it's time consuming and at times discouraging and tiresome. Its so easy to make mistakes that later have to be corrected, but we have done our best to make this an accurate history of the family.

Most everyone we've contacted has been wonderful to cooperate with us and most seem to appreciate our effort. We hope it is interesting to the living and maybe a help to some one in the future in connecting with the past ancestors, for we know there were many and as important in God's plan we are today. We know we have been told to "Honor Thy Father and Thy Mother, as the Lord Thy God hath commanded Thee that thy days may be long in the Land."

We probably have made some mistakes, and have left out many that should have been included, and we haven't gone nearly as far back as I would have liked. We thank every one that has helped us, and we know we too have or will be blessed for this little effort on our part. We know our time has not been wasted.

Your Name

You got it from your Father
It was all he had to give
So its yours to use and cherish
For as long as you may live.
If you lose the watch he gave you,
It can always be replaced
But a black mark on your name, Son
Can never be erased.
It was clean the day you took it
And a worthy name to bear
When he got it from his father
There was no dishonor there.
So make sure you guard it wisely
After all is said and done
You'll be glad that name is spotless
When you give it to your son.

HISTORIOGRAPHY

The Courtney Coat of Arms was drawn by an heraldic artist from information officially recorded in ancient heraldic archives. Documentation for the Courtney Coat of Arms design can be found in Burke's General Armory.

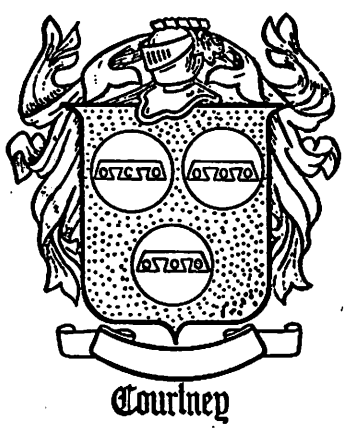

Family mottoes are believed to have originated as battle cries in medieval times. A Motto was not recorded with this Courtney of Arms. Individual surnames originated for the purpose of more specific identification. The four primary sources for second names were: occupation, location, father's name or personal characteristics. The surname Courtney appears patronymical in origin. Different spelling of the same original surname are a common occurrence.* Dictionaries of surnames indicate old and distinguished Courtney name comprise a small fraction of the population, there are a number who have established for it a significant place in history. They include: COURTNEY - the name of a noble English family to which the Earls of Devon belong who came from Normandy with William the Conqueror. One of this name was made Earl of Devon by Queen Mary in 1554. He was nearly allied to the Crown, says Hume, received overtures of marriage with the Queen, but he was enamored with her sister, Elizabeth. WILLIAM COURTNEY (1340-1396) He was a younger son of HUGH COURTNEY, Earl of Devon, and became Chancellor of England and an Archbishop of Wickliffe. His mother, Margaret, was the daughter of Edward I. JOHN COURTNEY (COURTENAY) (1740-1816) Irish politician and writer. Elected to the British Parliament in 1780. Appointed commissioner of the treasurer in 1806. He wrote tracts on the French Revolution, "Manners, Arts and Politics of France and Italy". CHARLES EDWARD COURTNEY (1849-1920) American amateur single sculler (1868-1877). Professional (1877-1875) Crew Coach, Cornell (1885-1916). WILLIAM LEONARD COURTNEY (1850-1928). English philosopher and journalist. Born in India and educated at Oxford where he was on the faculty, of New College (1878-1890). Author of "The Metaphysics of John Stuart Mill" (1870) and "Constructive Ethics" (1886). SIR CHRISTOPHER LLOYD COURTNEY (b. 1890). English Aviator in World War (1914-1918). Director of training, Air Ministry (1933-1934). Director of operations and intelligence and deputy of air staff (1937-1938).

Pg 28

*Dictionaries of surnames indicate a probable spelling variation of Courtney to be Courtenay.

Stewartsville was at one time called Tethersville, named from the man who donated the land for the town, George Tetherow. When the governor of Missouri, named Stewart, came through there to dedicate the railroad, they changed the town's name to Stewartsville. We got this information from an elderly city official living at Stewartsville several years ago.

Fleming born in 1865 in Buchanan County, Missouri. She was the daughter of Judge Robert Bethel Fleming who was born in 1865 and died in 1959, and his wife Rachael B. Burns Fleming. Nellie had sisters: Rachael Bauman Fleming who married Fred Hyde, brother, Robert Fleming and Sarah Viola Fleming, who was dear to all of us that knew her, and called her Aunt Sac. The reason for that nickname, I have never known. John L. Courtney was 81 years, 8 months, 8 days old at death. He is buried beside his wife, Nellie, and Nora the wife of their adopted son, Joseph Burns Courtney. Nellie E. Fleming died in 1959 and are buried in the Mt. Auburn Cemetery in St. Joseph, Missouri.

From newspaper clipping found in "Missouri Valley Room" of K.C. Library

Who are you - A Courtenay? by Ruby Haskin Ellis

Some have traced this name back to the year 420, the time of the founding of Fr. monarchy, and apply it to William the Duke of Toulouse, calling him Guillaume "au-Court-nez", duc de Talouse, or in simple English - William, the short nose. However, the historian Gibbon traces family only to 1020, when they were established at Courtenay France near City of Paris.

The first of Courtenays in England was Sir Reginald de Courtenay who came over with the Duke of Normandy, afterward Henry II in year 1151. He married Houise d'Abreces and from them descended the family of Courtenay, the Earls of Devon; it is from this Courtmay the Courtenays of Ireland are descended also.

The first of the family in America was Hercules Courteray, born in Ireland and came to this country 1762 - arrived Philadelphia, Pa. in 1769, moved to Baltimore. He married Sarah Drury of Reading, Pa. On her death married her sister, Mary.

The name is spelled variously -- Courtney, Courtnay, Courtny, Courtenay, Courteney.

Article by Frances M. Smith:

Courtenay is an aristocratic name, spell it as you may. One theory regarding origin of this family is upon the word "Court nez" rest the responsibility - he of the short nose - William Duc de Toulouse was the first to bear this name.

Charlemagne gave L. Aquitaine to his son, Louis, with the title of King, but under the tutelage of William au "Courtnez", and the great French family of Courtenay, also the illustrious Courtenays of Devon owe their name to this deficiency of nose in William Toulouse.

Another theory is the Courtenays began life at Courtenay in Gatinous, France, year 1010, by one named Athos.

His son Josselin had Miles, Lord of Courtenay, and founder of the Cistercian Abbey of Fontaine-Jean.

Miles had son Renaud, who followed Louis LeJune to the Holy Land. He was the last Lord Courtenay of the line of Athos.

With William of Normandy 1066 were Knights of House of Courtenay. Of English nobility none more illustrious than the Courtenays.

Hugh de Courtenay was 1 Earl of Devon. The first Earl of Devon could trace lineage back to Robert, feudal baron, 1215, when King John committed him the courage of ten in Devonshire and Cornwall.

COURTNEY

The Courtenays of Newry, Ireland are progenitors of one line in this country. Edward and John, sons of Edward and his wife, Miss Carlisle, came over in 1791 and made his home in Charleston, S.C. John to Savannah. The Earls of Devonshire had as one ancestor, Sir Reginald De Courtenay, time of Henry II of England, and it is from Sir Reginald that the Irish branch descends. Families connected with Courtenays: Howards, Hitchcock, Brewton Rathbone, Baylor Benson, Dushane, Alston, Sterling.

Hietman's Officers of American Revolution gives 2 names - Phillip Courtenay of Virginia 1779-81 Hercules Courtenay of Pa. 1776-78.

Gibbon's Decline and Fall of Roman Empire's account of Courtney family and epitaph on one of their tombs has these words, and possibly they are original with the Noble Duke -

What we spent we had,
What we saved we lost
What we gave we have.

The lines have been attributed to many writers from Marical (?) who wrote epigrams in Nero's time.

Or 3 Torteaux is the original DeCourtenay Coat of Armour - Henry VIII granted an augmentation, a bordure with lions of England, the lilies of France, a label azure crest - out of a dual coronet or a plume of seven ostrich feathers - argent.

Motto - quod verum tulum (what is true is safe)

(fleur de lix & lion in orle) Coat of Arms

NOTES & QUERIES

This is the last issue of the Coatney/Courtney Exchange. I no longer have good access to genealogical data and it has gotten harder and harder to publish along with my job. I really have enjoyed doing this for these last few years and was pleased to help several. I would continue to be interested in any information on my JONATHAN COATNEY or the Coatney's in HAWKINS CO. TENNESSEE especially JESSE COATNEY. Thank you

Change of Address Christina Wilson, P.O. Box 1111, Buffalo, MO 65633.

Does anyone have any information on Paul Arnold of Searcy who wed Ressie, fourth daughter of JESSIE COATNEY. If so I would be interested to hear from you: Carol Peterson, Box 536, Freeman, South Dakota 57029.

I have considerable information on the Courtney families of Butler, Cerro Gordo, and Floyd Counties in Iowa: David Grosek, 17534 E. Bellewood Circle, Aurora, Colorado 80015.

CASWELL COURTNEY

[Portrait and Biographical Record]

Casswell Courtny is engaged in farming on section 18, twonship 54, range 18, Chariton County. His farm comprises three hundred and eighty acres, which are under good cultivation. Since purchasing his farm in 1869, he has made many improvements, and in addition to general farming, is much interested in raising fine stock, which he makes his principal business.

Mr. Courtney was born in Clark County, Ky., December 1, 1812. His parents, Lewis and Margaret (Reed) Courtney, were natives of Virginia and Kentucky respectively. Lewis Courtney was numbered among the early settlers of Kentucky, where he engaged in farming. He emigrated to Missouri at an early day, being among the pioneers of Howard County, where he purchased land. He afterward sold his property in that county, removing to Pettis County, where he lived until called from this life. Of his seven children only three now survive: our subject; George, who resides in Texas; and Elizabeth, Mrs. Joseph Robinson, of Pettis Co. Mo.

When about eight years of age, the parents of our subject became residents of Howard County, and there he grew to manhood. His education was limited, and when still quite young, he served an apprenticeship to a tanner, afterward working as a journeyman at that trade until after he was married. He then purchased a small tanyard and engaged in business for himself for the succeeding ten years. Going to Randolph County, for four years. he engaged in buying and selling tobacco and smokers' articles, after which he came to this county and purchased a farm of three hundred and twenty acres, the one on which he now makes his home, and which he has engaged incultivating up to the present time. Since making his original purchase, he has added an additional sixty acres, and has one of the best farms in the township.

Mr. Courtney and Miss Martha Sears were united in marriage in October, 1840. Her father, Ivison Sears, was a well-known farmr of Randolph County. Mrs. Countrney's death occurred in 1870. Of her seven children three were daughters and four sons. Those who are living are as follows[Luther, a farmer of this county; Commodore C., who is making his home on the farm with our subject; Millard, who lives in this township; and Levi, who resides near Keytesville, Lizzie, now deceased, was the wife of Judge Stacey; Martha, deceased, married James Lucas; and George died in infancy. Mr. Courtney is a mmember of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and is affiliated with the Democratic Party.

LEO M. COURTNEY FAMILY

[Hendricks Co., Indiana]

Leo Michael Courtney was born on October 15, 1887, in Boone County, Indiana. He was one of eight children of Patrick Henry and Louisa Jane Courtney.

On December 4, 1918, Leo Courtney married Ada Ethel Gentry, who was born on January 1, 1888. She was one of three daughters of John O. and Margaret Elvira Gentry, who resided in Warrick County, Indiana.

In 1925, Leo and Ada Courtney purchased 57 acres owned by James Medsker in Lincoln Township, Hendricks County, bounded on the east property line by White Lick Creek. Here they developed an apple, cherry and peach orchard known as White Lick Orchards. This farm also supplied many tables at the holiday season and choice turkeys and honey from a small apiary.

The Courtney orchard was badly damaged by the Good Friday tornado in 1948 and the trees had to be removed. It is now a hog and grain farm known as White Lick Farms, and is owned and operated by the Courtneys' eldest daughter and her husband Mr. and Mrs. Sayrel Freeman.

Leo Courtney was a carpenter by trade, and a member of Local Carpenters Union No. 60 until his death. He was employed by Baker Farms Company of Indianapolis as supervisor of city construction.

Leo Courtney was an active member and past president of the Brownsburg Conservation Club and served several years as president of the Tilden Community Club. The Courtneys attended White Lick Presbyterian Church. Leo died at the age of 56 in 1944. Ada Courtney died at the age of 59 in 1947.

Leo and Ada Courtney were the parents of three daughters: Margaret Courtney Freeman (Mrs. Sayrel); Marilyn Courtney Bilbe (Mrs. Francis M). and Kathryn Courtney Foudray (Mrs. Edgar III).

There are seven grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Jonathan Coatney was born Dec. 19, 1840 in Hawkins Co. Tenn. (according to his records and stories he told his kids.) He ran away from home as a young man. He was out chopping down trees laid down his ax and left with some people. He never mentioned his parents (although he may have had a step mother and half brothers.) He married MILDRED A. SHELBY (daughter of EVAN WILEY SHELBY and VIRGINIA ALMIRA SALLEE SHELBY) about Mar. 3, 1860 in Mercer Co. Missouri. She died May 3, 1863 while he was fighting in the civil war. Jonathan was a private in Company D 23 Missouri Infantry. He inlisted July 10, 1862 in Cainsville, Mo and was discharged June 9, 1865. He was in Sherman's March to the Sea and was a day away from Washington DC when they learned that Lincoln was dead. He married Mildred's sister, LOUISA ELLEN SHELBY on Aug. 19, 1865 (her birthday) in Pike Co., Missouri. Louisa Ellen Shelby was born Aug. 19, 1843 in Tennessee (probably Montgomery Co.). I am sure Minnie is holding wide open the door, waiting for her loved ones to come. Written by her loving friend, Ora Bell Nagle, Missouri.
