What a welcome return to the airways! Dr. Frasier Crane (Kelsey Grammer), a psychiatrist and Seattle radio personality who soothingly helped on-air callers with their personal dilemmas, is back in business.

The original Emmy darling aired on NBC from 1993 to 2004, and chronicled the life of the doctor, who had plenty of his own troubles to contend with, from his dating life to his challenging family. The series' cast of colorful characters was indeed its charm — Frasier's hardened retired cop father, Martin (John Mahoney), who lived with him along with his Jack Russell terrier Eddie, and his competitive practicing psychiatrist little brother Niles (David Hyde Pierce) made for a family dynamic worth studying.

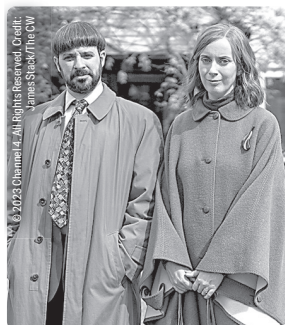

"[Frasier Crane has] lived a kind of a parallel life with me," Grammer shared when the series return was first announced. "Now we've found our way back to one another. This character, who is obviously fictional, has a life outside of mine that is just as believable and palpable as the one I've actually lived — and I'm good at playing him. We were funny together."

The 10-episode new season, which airs its first two episodes on CBS beginning Tuesday, Oct. 17 (and streams on Paramount+ beginning Thursday, Oct. 12), was filmed in front of a live audience at Paramount Studios in Los Angeles and follows Frasier in the next chapter of his life as he returns to Boston, where we were first introduced to him on Cheers. When we last left Frasier, we thought he boarded a plane to start a new job in San Francisco, but really he landed in Chicago determined to give love a second chance with Charlotte (Laura Linney). In Boston he has new challenges to face, new relationships to forge and an old dream or two to finally fulfill.

While David Hyde Pierce is not returning, Nicholas Lyndhurst is joining the cast as Frasier's college buddy and now university professor Alan Cornwall. "British, boozy and larger than life, Alan has an intellect on par with Frasier's — if only he ever felt like using it," the character description touts. "Alan's mischievous streak might be just what Frasier could use to shake up his routine, while Frasier's thoughtful guidance might help Alan find some of the direction he's been missing in his own life."

Other Frasier alums are coming back, however. Bebe Neuwirth will guest-star in the revival, reprising her role as Lilith, Frasier's ex-wife, and Peri Gilpin will also pop up, once again playing Roz, a producer of Frasier's radio show. There's been no word, meanwhile, of Jane Leeves returning to play Daphne, Niles' physical therapist wife. Joining the party are Jack Cutmore-Scott as Freddy Crane, Frasier's son; Anders Keith as David, Daphne and Niles' son; Jess Salgueiro as Eve, Freddy's roommate; and Toks Olagundoye as Olivia, Alan's colleague and the head of the university psychology department.

British Comedy "Everyone Else Burns" Comes To The CW

Repent! The CW presents the six-episode first season of the British comedy Everyone Else Burns (Thursdays beginning Oct. 19) about the Lewis family, devout members of a strict religious sect. When they're not striving for approval within their church, they're preparing for the end of days and trying to manage daily life among the unbelievers. David (Simon Bird) and Fiona (Kate O'Flynn) must contend with their own imperfections while trying to bring up teenager Rachel (Amy James-Kelly) and her younger brother, Aaron (Harry Connor), in the faith. Rachel's social life consists of constant rejection while seeking converts door-to-door, while Aaron is a talented artist who draws pictures of his family members suffering eternal hellfire.

“Transplant” Back For New Episodes!

The third season of the hit medical drama about a Syrian doctor who flees his war-torn homeland for Canada — where he must redo all his medical training — finds Dr. Bashir “Bash” Hamed (Hamza Haq) continuing his journey to start over. While pursuing Canadian citizenship for himself and his younger sister, Amira (Sirena Gulamgaus), Bash closely examines who he’s becoming in his adopted country. At the same time, he and his colleagues continue to adapt to change and understand how they fit in, both within and beyond the walls of York Memorial Hospital.

“Bash’s story arc in Season 3 is a little bit different than what we’ve seen!” Haq shared earlier this year. “Last season, there was this looming threat of him being kicked out of the hospital and the issue of his medical school papers, and after the generous actions of Dr. Bishop at the end of Season 2, there’s no longer the Damoclean sword hanging over his head, so he kind of gets to be a more well-rounded person. He’s constantly finding other places to put his love or put his efforts. He doesn’t really turn inwards, and we do explore that later on, how necessary it becomes for Bash to find that journey going inwards.”

“The balancing act for Mags has always been a struggle,” added Laurence Leboeuf, who plays a second-year resident named Magalie. “A lot is going on for Mags this year, a lot is changing, a lot has changed since the beginning, even that she’s now in cardiology, and her relationship status. She has no choice but to really find that kind of sane balance where she won’t push herself too much. I think Mags is really going to face her past this season.”

NBC’s Transplant returns with new episodes Thursdays beginning Oct. 12.

Murdaugh Murders: The Movie

Lifetime celebrates its 500th original film with the airing of this two-part movie special (Saturday, Oct. 14 and Sunday, Oct. 15) chronicling the horribly bizarre story of South

Carolina’s Alex Murdaugh, who on the surface is a prominent and respected lawyer, loving husband, and father, but behind closed doors lived a drug-filled secret life. Award-winning actor Bill Pullman will play Alex.

Hallmark Channel’s new movie Field Day is very relatable to parents who have volunteered to help organize an event on behalf of their children’s school, sports team, Scouting, YMCA or many other organizations. The film will debut on Saturday, October 14 at 8 PM ET/PT. The story revolves around Jen (Rachel Boston), Marissa (Carmel Amit) and Kelly (Shannon Chan-Kent), who are moms from different backgrounds who are thrown together to plan the annual Field Day at their kids’ school. Along the way, they navigate a myriad of obstacles, including an unsupportive head of the PTO. New to town and still trying to move on following the loss of her husband, Jen is thankful to have the encouragement of Dan (Benjamin Ayres), the school’s PE teacher who is becoming a good friend ... or could this be the start of something more? As the planning continues, Jen, Marissa and Kelly bond as friends who will stop at nothing to make sure their kids are happy, with each of them finding their own path as their friendship grows stronger.

CBS will debut its new original game show Raid the Cage on Friday, October 13 at 9 PM ET/PT. Damon Wayans Jr. and Jeannie Mai Jenkins will co-host this fresh take on a thrilling international format. Two teams of two face off to grab-and-go prizes from the Cage before their time runs out and the doors close. Correctly answering trivia questions adds seconds to the clock, giving teammates more time to grab prizes ranging from cool trips to electronics and even a new car! After three lively rounds, the team that banks the highest total dollar value in prizes wins the game, keeps what they grabbed and plays the final round to try and “Beat the Cage” for the biggest prizes of the night.

The CW will premiere its new series Everyone Else Burns on Thursday, October 19 at 9:30 PM ET/PT. Starring Simon Bird, Kate O’Flynn, Amy James-Kelly and Harry Connor, the series highlights a strictly religious family who believe the world will end within the decade. David, Fiona, Aaron, and Rachel are dealing with issues, desires, and in some cases, potential consequences.

IN THE NEWS:

"This one's a gamechanger. ... Looks the same as the fanciest diamond for a fraction of the price."

— The TODAY Show on NBC

Moissanite clarity is exceptional & comparable to a VVS1 diamond

CALLING THIS A DIAMOND WOULD BE AN INSULT

Possessing fire, brilliance, and luster that far surpasses that of a diamond, this Nobel Prize winner's discovery twinkles and sparkles unlike any stone on earth.

When French chemist, Henri Moissan discovered an incredibly rare mineral in a 50,000 year-old meteorite, little did he know the amazing chain of events that would follow. Along with winning a Nobel prize, he gave the world a stone that surpasses even the finest diamond in virtually every aspect that makes a woman go weak in the knees. Today, you can own 2 total carats of this swoon-worthy stone for a down to earth price of $99.

The most brilliant fine stone on earth. According to the GIA (Gemological Institute of America), Moissanite outperforms all jewels in terms of its brilliance, fire, and luster. Moissanite has "double refraction"— which means light goes down into the stone and comes out not once, but twice. No diamond can do this.

The genius of affordability. A one-carat diamond of this color and clarity sells for more than $5,000. Two years ago Moissanite was over $1,000 a carat. Now, for the first time in history, our team of scientists and craftsmen have mastered the innovative process, enabling us to price 2 carats of moissanite in precious sterling silver for less than $100. It's pure genius. Our Nobel Prize-winning chemist would be proud.

Satisfaction guaranteed or your money back. Experience the beauty of Moissanite for 30 days. If she's not completely head over heels send it back for a full refund of the item price. But we have a feeling she'll be over the moon.

5 QUESTIONS with ...

BRIAN AUSTIN GREEN

By Zhanna Slor

Best known for playing David Silver on the iconic '90s drama Beverly Hills, 90210 (or perhaps for his long roller-coaster relationship with Megan Fox), Brian Austin Green can now add reality TV to his vast repertoire of projects, having competed on Season 30 of Dancing With the Stars with girlfriend Sharna Burgess in 2021, and, more recently, joining the cast of Season 2 on Special Forces: World's Toughest Test, which airs Mondays on FOX. The very down-to-earth actor gladly answered our "5 Questions."

1. You've been acting since you were very young. How did you originally get into it? A kid that I rode the bus with to elementary school was a commercial actor. He always had video games and money, and I thought, "I want to do that. What is this thing?" I met with his agent and started taking acting classes and the rest is history.

2. If you had to pick any other career besides acting, what would it be? Music. I'd be a drummer for sure. My dad was a musician. I grew up in music. The 90210 writers followed my life a little bit that way; they knew that I was into music, and they slowly started incorporating music into the character.

3. What about a career that wasn't in the arts? I'd be a contractor. I absolutely love DIY building. It's become such a huge passion for me, so I would absolutely be doing construction.

4. What are your favorite shows or movies of all time? Jaws is one of them, just because that has got to be the best example of a director making the absolute best out of a really difficult situation and making a movie, performance-wise, that to this day stands up on its own. It's so good. When I was a kid, Three's Company was a big show for me. And I was really into English humor, like Fawlty Towers and Benny Hill and things like that.

5. What was the most challenging part of your time on Special Forces? I think it's the entire thing. The challenges are tough and grueling, but when you get to the barracks and you realize, "Oh, this is my life for the next eight days," you realize, OK, there's no such thing as running water. Life as I know it and have lived for 50 years is completely different. So now it's just a matter of surviving, surviving this way with these people. Most of them I've never met, but I equate it sort of to a plane crash. You can't possibly have that connection with anybody else in your life. It's a very unique experience. I didn't go in feeling like, "Oh, I need to win this. I need to make it all the way through this to prove something." I was honestly in it for myself. I was really curious to see physically what I was still capable of.

Kim Kardashian, a Libra (born October 21), of "American Horror Story"

what you're doing and expect a different result. Something needs to be cut in order to grow! Money habits, mindset and attitude is everything now.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 - Oct. 22) A Solar Eclipse in your sign is two-fold. On the one hand, it's a brilliant new beginning for you. On the other, you have to give something up or let it go. Hint! It's the fears, worries and rent-free thoughts that circle your mind. This week, find your sense of peace.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 - Nov. 21) There sometimes can be a fine line between a dream and a nightmare. In any case, dreams are important messages to take on board. If anger, resentment or fear is something that repeatedly comes up, let it go. Holding on to what you need to let go of keeps you stuck.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 - Dec. 21) This week as the potential to really open roads for you in terms of social circle and professional networking opportunities. Take a good look at the company you've been keeping. Decipher those who are around for a reason, season or lifetime. Are your people reflective of the success you want?

TAURUS (April 20 - May 20) If you've been overindulging or living too much of the good life, then you might need to reign it in a bit this week. Listen to your body, especially if you've been overdoing it with food or even with work! Reducing the frivolous may actually make room for increased quality!

GEMINI (May 21 - June 20) Despite being the social butterfly you can be, this week is about embracing quality over quantity when it comes to social activities, fun and frivolity. Getting back to the core of your desires and what you want to do is paramount. Examine your core values when it comes to fun!

CANCER (June 21 - July 22) Domestic life is set to get churned up this week, which is sure to cause some upset. If you've been going with the flow for too long, maybe it's now time for you to say enough! Problems could also be the opportunity to make some real changes at home.

LEO (July 23 - Aug. 22) If you're tired of having your words land of deaf ears then some change may be necessary. Do you change your communication style or do you change who you're actually trying to communicate with? Either way, something's changing this week. As always, if in doubt, look within for answers.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 - Sept. 22) If you've been stuck in a money rut, this week gives you the chance to take a dramatic course of action. The catch? You can't keep doing

"The Young And The Restless" And "General Hospital" Star Billy Miller Dead At 43

By Michael Maloney

Billy Miller, who earned three Daytime Emmy Awards for his portrayal of Billy Abbott on The Young and the Restless, passed away in Austin, Texas, on Sept. 15 — just two days shy of his 44th birthday. According to his rep, he was struggling with manic depression when he died.

Born in Tulsa, Oklahoma, and raised in Grand Prairie, Texas, Miller attended the University of Texas in Austin. He moved to Los Angeles and worked in the mailroom of an entertainment management/production company. Miller soon found success in commercials before landing his first soap opera role as Richie Novak on All My Children. He'd later go on to play Jason/Drew on General Hospital, but it was on his second soap opera, Y&R, where the actor truly made his mark.

He joined the show in 2008 as Billy, the son of divorced duo John (Jerry Douglas) and Jill Abbott (Jess Walton), and was paired with several of the show's leading ladies, spending most of his tenure on the show with Amelia Heinle (Victoria). Peter Bergman, who played Billy's older brother Jack, recalled his late costar's audition that was held in a conference room at CBS.

The blocking had Miller at one end of the room where he could be easily viewed by decisionmakers while Bergman read his lines from the other end. At one point, Miller, in character, crossed the room and got in Bergman's face as they performed the scene. "No one had told him to do that or not do that," Bergman says. He later told a CBS exec that Miller was "the only choice. He shook the room up. There's nothing to talk about."

Miller brought intensity to his role as his character spent a lot of time, as Bergman describes, "feeling like an outsider in his own family. Billy Miller's Billy was a wounded bear. There's a wound there. You want to help, but be careful — that's a bear."

While Miller had been gone from Y&R for over a decade, Bergman says that he left an impact among cast and crew. "He really touched a lot of lives. He was generous of spirit and a fabulous fellow. The work he did with Amelia was the stuff of daytime history."

Miller is survived by his mother Patricia, sister Megan, brother-in-law Ronnie, nephew Grayson and niece Charley. He also leaves behind a great many friends and colleagues who will miss his warm personality, generous spirit and genuine kindness.

HOW CAN SLOW HORSES GET MORE BUZZ?

@TGMMattRoush

Question: I have recently discovered Slow Horses on Apple TV+ and I love it! The acting, the story ... everything is just perfect. Why don't we see much buzz about this show? —Hector

Matt Roush: Slow Horses, based on Mick Herron's equally terrific book series about a group of disgraced MI5 agents in London who somehow always rise to the occasion, is what I'd call a sleeper. I and others have raved about the show, and I try to beat the drum on its behalf through the duration of its two short seasons to date (six episodes per), but sometimes it's just hard for a show to break through the tidal wave of product when it by design doesn't make a lot of noise. (In its first season in 2022, Apple's Severance soaked up most of the buzz.) It's surprising that an Oscar and Emmy winner like Gary Oldman (who plays the team's corrosive, disheveled yet sharp-witted leader) has been overlooked, but the competition in that category is fierce, with academy favorites like Succession, Better Call Saul, and Ozark (in 2022) leaving precious little room. Maybe when the show returns for a third season, more of a fuss can be made. In the meantime, the books really are wonderful.

NHL Hockey Chicago Blackhawks at Colorado Avalanche

7:30 pm on ESPN

When these teams last met in March of this year, the Blackhawks were thoroughly embarrassed in a 5-0 loss to Colorado. But with 18-year-old phenom Connor Bedard suited up, the Blackhawks have reason for optimism in Denver.

Vindicta

8 pm on SHOW

Premiere

A sadistic serial killer is terrorizing a city, forcing a young paramedic (Elena Kampouris) to try and survive her first night on the job while chaos unfolds around her. But the masked killer seems to be targeting her and the rescue team trying to help.

Everyone Else Burns

9:30 pm on CW

Series Premiere

Eternal damnation and hellfire is always front of mind for members of this hyper-religious family, led by patriarch David (Simon Bird). In this series premiere, David, like his family, is devoted to preparing for Armageddon and avoiding burning in Hell.

Accused: Guilty or Innocent?

10 pm on A&E

Talk about a party pooper. A Louisiana trail-ride dance party (count us in) is stopped somewhere between "boot-scootin'" and "boogie" when shots ring out in the night. A man lays dead and his daughter's boyfriend – who was dancing – might be guilty.

CHEERS & JEERS

by Damian Holbrook
TV Guide Magazine

CHEERS TO NORMAN REEDUS

for giving The Walking Dead: Daryl Dixon a true soul. Even a zombie would be riveted by the longtime fave's (below) layered, lovely turn as a very reluctant savior in AMC's France-set spinoff. How he doesn't have an Emmy already is scarier than anything onscreen.

CHEERS TO GOOSEBUMPS

for giving R.L. Stine fans a Stranger Things with Slappy. Disney+'s smart young-adult take on the kiddie horror novels is a perfect mashup of Stine's classic tales of terror, suburban dysfunction and teen angst that never feels goofy. Even when the iconic evil puppet shows up to raise serious hell.

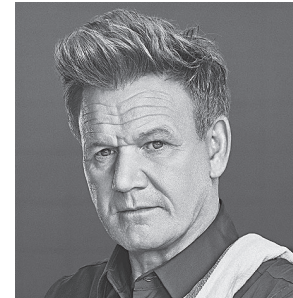

follow Cheers & Jeers

JEERS TO THE REAL HOUSEWIVES OF SALT LAKE CITY

for Shah-dy casting. Bravo newbie Monica Garcia (above) wasn't just the jailed Jen Shah's assistant—she was also a federal prosecution witness at her wire-fraud trial! Way to kick an O.G. wife when she's down...or locked up, if you will.

JEERS TO FOX

for underserving Gordon Ramsay (above). Hell's Kitchen, Food Stars, MasterChef, Next Level Chef, Kitchen Nightmares—the content the surly chef cooks up for the network is next level. Yet none of his shows get as much promotion as masked singers and major-league sports. That stinks like old tilapia.

BETTER THAN BOTOX: Takes Years Off Your Face in Minutes

Women are raving about the life-changing effects of this powerful formula.

There's no denying that people — mostly women — are on a mission to discover the best way to eliminate fine lines and wrinkles permanently. The $14 billion dollars spent on aesthetic procedures in 2021 alone is a clear indication of that fact.

But now science appears to be offering a simpler solution. It's a special delivery technology adapted for skincare that gets superior results.

Known as advanced liposome technology, this powerful distribution system ensures that vital nutrients are delivered exactly where your skin needs them the most, providing your skin with maximum anti-aging benefits.

New Age-Defying 'Dermal Filler' Cream in High Demand

Al Sears, MD, of Palm Beach, Florida, recently released an anti-aging cream that adapts this breakthrough medical technology into the realm of skincare, and he's struggling to keep up with consumer demand.

Dr. Sears is South Florida's leading anti-aging pioneer. He has authored over 500 reports, scientific papers, and books on anti-aging. A frequent lecturer at global anti-aging conferences, Dr. Sears spoke at the WPBF 25 Health & Wellness Festival featuring Dr. Oz, along with special guest, Suzanne Somers. Thousands of people were in attendance as Dr. Sears discussed his latest anti-aging breakthroughs.

This powerful cream, known as Restore, keeps selling out faster than it's produced — and people are raving about the effect it's having on their skin.

"Within a few minutes of applying the cream, it visibly plumps out the under-eye area and my cheeks as well as those annoying lines that deepen as we age between the nose and lips. It also felt like it was tightening and smoothing my skin at the same time. I definitely feel I look younger whenever I use it," said Amy B., of Montville, New Jersey.

"The lines around my mouth and eyes are filled in and my skin is tightened. I love having younger-looking skin, so I will continue using Restore" raves Cathy C., of Florida.

The best part is that this cream has no adverse side effects, doesn't require a doctor's visit or prescription, and is 100% natural.

"Advanced liposome technology ensures that vital nutrients are delivered exactly where your skin needs them the most."

Powerful Delivery System Ensures Nutrients Penetrate Deep into Your Skin

The dermis is the underlying layer of skin that supplies nourishment and oxygen, and removes waste. In other words, it's responsible for keeping your outer layer of skin healthy. Liposome technology is designed to support and nourish this deeper layer of skin by delivering nutrients directly to it.

"All of Restore's powerful ingredients are encapsulated in a liposome shell — an organic container that carries the beautifying agents deep into the skin cells," explained Dr. Sears.

"Restore's liposome shell is composed of phosphatidylcholine or PC for short. While cell membranes repel water, they absorb PC because they're actually made of it. As a result, Restore is delivered deep into the cell for maximum firming and volume."

When you apply liposome cream to your face, the liposomes in the skin cream work their way inside your skin, fuse with the skin cell membranes and then release their contents directly to the cells. Regular skin creams don't have this capability.

A Formula Designed to Take Years off Your Face in Minutes

Once it's penetrated the deeper layer of skin, Restore releases a unique blend of botanicals, vitamins and essential oils that reduces the appearance of fine lines and wrinkles, gives skin a more even tone, and moisturizes the interior layers of your dermal cells, firming and plumping your skin.

Restore's first skin-enhancing agent is Madonna lily leaf stem cell extract. It helps produce an even-toned complexion. In a clinical study reported in the Journal of Cosmetic Dermatology, participants treated with this extract for 28 days showed improvements in skin luminance and tone around the eyes.

Restore is also loaded with vitamin C, which British researchers have found reduces both wrinkles and dryness. "In Restore we use magnesium ascorbyl phosphate, a more stable form of vitamin C that doesn't break down in liquid as does ordinary C," explains Dr. Sears. "That means the antioxidant molecules stay intact within your skin cells where they can prevent damage from dangerous free radicals."

This powerful formula also features guarana seed extract, coenzyme Q10, and avocado oil. Japanese researchers have also found that coenzyme Q10 supports production of the thin membrane that separates layers of your skin, and French studies have shown that avocado oil improves skin cell metabolism and enhances skin thickness.

Where To Get Restore

Right now the only way to get this powerful age-defying delivery technology is through Dr. Sears.

To get life-changing results like Amy and Cathy, buyers should contact the Sears Health Hotline at 1-800-236-0910. "We simply don't have enough supply to get Restore shipped directly to stores," said Dr. Sears. "The hotline allows us to ship the product directly to the customer — the one who really wants it."

Dr. Sears feels so strongly about this product, that he offers a 100% money-back guarantee on every order. "Just send back the bottle and any unused product within 90 days, and I'll send you your money back," said Dr. Sears.

The hotline will be taking orders for the next 48 hours. After that, the phone number may be shut down to allow them to restock. Call 1-800-236-0910 to secure your limited supply of Restore. If you are not able to get through due to extremely high call volume, please try again! Call NOW to qualify for this limited time offer provided at a significant discount.
