MILESTONE APPROACHING—Pope Francis smiles as he arrives to lead his general audience in St. Peter's Square at the Vatican May 18, 2016. The Holy Father will celebrate the fifth anniversary of his pontificate March 13.

New York's Encuentro Must 'Announce The Gospel,' Vatican Archbishop Says

By ARMANDO MACHADO

The secretary of the Pontifical Council for the New Evangelization told Hispanic ministry leaders at the Archdiocese of New York's V Encuentro they must first have a sincere "personal encounter with Jesus" before they can truly help others in their spiritual journeys.

"We are a Church that supports everyone, and excludes absolutely no one," Archbishop Octavio Ruiz Arenas said during his morning keynote address Feb. 24 at the College of Mount St. Vincent in the Riverdale section of the Bronx. "As Pope Francis says, we must be missionary disciples."

The archbishop offered the example of helping one another in a natural disaster or other crises no matter the differences in cultural or religious background. One must live the Gospel, he said, not just speak it.

Archbishop Ruiz, a Colombian prelate who serves at the Vatican, said the faithful should not be afraid, alluding to the Lord's comforting words. One should not be afraid of personal challenges or societal struggles, he said, citing worries that stem from unjust immigration laws. Trust in the Lord, he added, and in the intercession of Mary.

"God is love," the archbishop said, asserting the significance of spreading the Gospel, the teachings of Christ, and holding up Jesus as the protagonist of missionary efforts. "We must announce the Evangelization filled with the Holy Spirit and filled with joy; we cannot be passive. We must be disciples and missionaries. That is the vocation of the Church, to

For Five Years as Pope, Francis Has Extended God's Mercy

By CINDY WOODEN

Cardinal Jorge Mario Bergoglio was elected pope just a few days after telling the College of Cardinals that the Catholic Church faced a clear choice between being a Church that "goes out" or a Church focused on its internal affairs.

After the cardinal from Buenos Aires, Argentina, was elected March 13, 2013, and chose the name Francis, he made "go out," "periphery" and "throwaway culture" standard phrases in the papal vocabulary.

Catholics have a wide variety of opinions about how Pope Francis, 81, is exercising the papal ministry, and many of his comments—both in informal news conferences and in formal documents—have stirred controversy. But, as he wrote in "Evangelii Gaudium," the apostolic exhortation laying out the vision for his pontificate: "I prefer a Church which is bruised, hurting and dirty because it has been out on the streets, rather than a Church which is unhealthy from being confined and from clinging to its own security."

There are two areas of internal Church affairs that he recognized needed immediate attention: the reform of the Roman Curia and the full protection of children and vulnerable adults from clerical sexual abuse.

Catholic Cemeteries Archdiocese of New York

Traditional Catholic burial in a beautifully maintained setting

WHY CHOOSE NOW

At some point all of us will face death, either our own or the passing of a person we love. Although we may not have any control over this, we can control its inevitability by pre-planning burial arrangements. It is in this spirit that we recommend care and consideration be given to making preparations ahead of need.

REMEMBER...

PRE-PLANNING MEANS PEACE OF MIND

PRE-PLANNING...

- ☐ Relieves a burden on your loved ones at the difficult time of loss
- ☐ Allows thoughtful discussion and ensures your wishes are fulfilled
- ☐ Saves money as burial costs increase yearly
- ☐ Avoids large cash outlays in a hurried situation
- ☐ Three year interest free payment plans on crypt purchases

Patricia Tursi, CEO
Now celebrating its 30th year of service, The Elizabeth Seton Pediatric Center is a not-for-profit, post-acute medical center that is nationally recognized as a leader in the care of technology-dependent and medically complex children. Caring for 169 children, the Pediatric Center is the largest provider in the country for this unique population.

The Pediatric Center offers vital medical, nursing, therapeutic and educational services that these children need to reach their greatest potential. The children who live at the Pediatric Center receive short-term interventions, as well as long-term care where the Pediatric Center becomes a "home." In this case, children can spend years receiving expert medical care and respiratory services delivered by a full team of highly-trained specialists and nursing staff, 24-hours a day. Children receive top-quality educational services thanks to the on-site John A. Coleman School. Our pastoral care, Child Life, recreation, rehabilitation, social work, art and music therapy and transportation teams fully support families, welcome them with open hearts and make the Pediatric Center their home.

The Elizabeth Seton Pediatric Center is sponsored by the Sisters of Charity of New York and is supported by the St. Elizabeth Seton Children's Foundation. Other supported organizations of the Foundation include the John A. Coleman School and the Children's Rehabilitation Center.

Maureen Tomkiel, Executive Director
The John A. Coleman School is a nationally recognized special education program offering a comprehensive continuum of care from center-based classroom models to home and community, outpatient and evaluation services. The Coleman School serves children ages birth to 21 years with developmental delays, orthopedic impairments and complex medical challenges.

All services are approved and funded through the New York State Departments of Education and Health as well as local municipalities and school districts and include occupational, physical and speech therapies, skilled nursing, vision, music therapy, family counseling, social work and psychology.

The White Plains campus of the John A. Coleman School is a community program serving the lower Hudson Valley region and is located on the same site as the Children's Rehabilitation Center. The Yonkers campus serves the residents of the Elizabeth Seton Pediatric Center, a nationally renowned children's post-acute care center.

The John A. Coleman School is sponsored by the Sisters of Charity of New York and is supported by the St. Elizabeth Seton Children's Foundation. Other supported organizations of the Foundation include the Elizabeth Seton Pediatric Center and the Children's Rehabilitation Center.
