ARMY OF ARMS

Gaura and the Bruins return 85% of their innings and strikeouts from last season. Belmont saw five different pitchers make five or more starts last season: Dominic Baratta (13), Joe Ruzicka (13), Jordan Zuger (11), Jalen Borders (5), and Will Pryor (4). The depth is similar in the bullpen, as Belmont returns key contributors Jett Thielke, Simon Tesh, and Jordan Zuger.

VETERAN LINEUP

Belmont returns all of their starting lineup and 92% of their at-bats from last year featuring seven seniors, led by first baseman Brodey Heaton. His power potential backed by 44 RBI and 10 home runs last season makes him Belmont's big-swing threat in the lineup. Belmont's most productive bat last season was in the hands of Mason Landers. helped the Warriors to a 57-13 record and were runners-up in the NJCAA Division I World Series under a first-year head coach. Graduate student Blake Ciuffetelli reunites with former high school teammate Brodey Heaton, after spending four seasons at Southern Indiana. Last year, Ciuffetelli made 24 appearances and seven starts in the Screaming Eagles' inaugural Division I season. He set a new career-high with 48 strikeouts. Landon Godsey joins the Bruins after two years at Volunteer State Community College, in Gallatin, Tennessee. Godsey had a spectacular 2023 campaign at the plate hitting .368 in 55 games, including 68 hits, eight home runs, and 23 extra-base hits. The junior catcher/outfielder from Indianapolis busted on the scene with 31 hits in his first 22 games last season. Bill Duby is a graduate transfer from Western Kentucky, who joins the Bruins following a year away from baseball. Before his one season for the Hilltoppers in 2022, Duby pitched at Diablo Valley Community College for three seasons.

FRESH FACES

The Bruins add four freshmen to the roster for the 2024 season. Belmont adds a pair of position players, Ty Allen and Pete Daniel, and pitchers, Zach Hernandez and Hank Liss. Allen was a four-year varsity starter at Independence High School in Franklin, Tennessee. The two-time All-District and All-Midstate honoree recorded a .350 batting average, nine home runs, 24 doubles, and 76 RBI in his last two years of high school ball. He was selected by the Tennessee Baseball Coaches Association to represent Team Tennessee. Independence High School won both the district and regional championships twice during Allen's time, along with a state tournament appearance. Nashville native Pete Daniel was a two-time D-IIAA All-Region selection and multi-sport athlete at Ensworth High School (played varsity basketball). Right-handed pitcher Zach Hernandez, hailing from Fayetteville, Tennessee, attended Lincoln County High School. Hernandez earned All-District honors and helped Lincoln County secure a district championship. Hank Liss is the only freshman joining the Bruins from outside Tennessee. A native of Evanston, Illinois, Liss racked up an impressive resume at Evanston Township High School. He earned an IHSA All-

State selection, tossed three no-hitters, and helped the Wildkits win three conference and regional championships. Liss played travel ball for Top Tier North and led the pitching staff with the lowest ERA.

HOME GROWN

Fifteen Bruins hail from Tennessee: Zach Hernandez (Fayetteville), Simon Tesh (Knoxville), Sam Kirkpatrick (Franklin), Ty Allen (Franklin), Sam Slaughter (Symrna), Blake Barton (Franklin), Ethan Harden (Greenbrier), Jordan Zuger (Hendersonville), Will Pryor (Whitwell), Mason Landers (Shelbyville), Jake Timbes (Kingsport), Pete Daniel (Nashville), Jack Rando (Brentwood), and Cade Granzow (Franklin).

THE LEGEND OF JARVIS

Head coach Dave Jarvis enters his 27th season at the helm of the Belmont Baseball program. Jarvis is one of 16 active Division I coaches to record more than 700 career wins at their current university. He became the winningest coach in program history back in 2021 thanks to a pair of doubleheader wins on April 17 against Murray State. He passed Belmont legend Dave Whitten (1969-1997) for the all-time wins total in program history with 737 wins. With an 11-1 win over Middle Tennessee on Feb. 23, 2022 Dave Jarvis recorded his 1,000th career win (324 at Three Rivers College, 676 at Belmont). With an 8-2 win over Evansville on April 26, 2022, Jarvis notched his 700th win at Belmont, one of only 16 active coaches with 700+ Division I wins at their current school.

BRUIN ON THE WORLD STAGE

Former Belmont catcher Jamie Ritchie (2012-2014) was selected to Great Britain's national team roster for the 2023 World Baseball Classic, becoming the first Bruin to participate in the event. Ritchie has played for eight seasons in the minor leagues after being drafted in the 13th round of the 2014 MLB First-Year Player Draft by the Houston Astros. This past offseason, Ritchie signed a minor league deal with the Toronto Blue Jays.

BELMONT'S MLB CHAMPION

Former Belmont Baseball All-American Matt Beaty ('15) became the first Bruin alum to win a World Series title when he was a member of the Los Angeles Dodgers in 2020. The Dresden, Tenn. native is the second Belmont alum to win a World Championship in professional sports, with former Belmont Basketball player Ian Clark winning an NBA Championship in 2017 as a member of the Golden State Warriors. Beaty became the first Belmont player to play in a Major League Baseball game since Dwight Bernard in 1978, making his Major League debut on April 30, 2019. Beaty played for the San Diego Padres in 2022 and signed with the Kansas City Royals on January 10, 2023.

SINGING STARS

Not only has Belmont alumni made its name in the professional baseball ranks, but they have shined as stars off the field. Florida Georgia Line's Brian Kelley pitched for the Bruins from 2008-09, compiling 109 strikeouts. Judah Akers, the lead singer of Judah & The Lion, earned All-Atlantic Sun honors and was named the 2012 Atlantic Sun Tournament MVP to help Belmont to its second straight NCAA Tournament. Judah & The Lion performed on February 23 for Belmont's Homecoming.

FROM HERE TO ANYWHERE

Several of Belmont Baseball's alumni have gone onto success in coaching. Vanderbilt Football's head coach Clark Lea was a member of the Bruins in 2002, hitting .400 in his lone season. Packy Elkins now serves as the run production coach for the St. Louis Cardinals, where he played at Belmont from 2007-10 and hit .327 in his senior season. Grace Christian Academy's Brad Myers was inducted into the Tennessee Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame in January 2022. He played for Belmont from 1989-92.

Entering his 27th season at the helm of Belmont's baseball program and 42nd year of coaching overall, head coach Dave Jarvis has cultivated a rich program that's seen success both on the field and in the classroom. Jarvis has led the Bruins since their inception as a NCAA Division I institution in 1998, leading Belmont to four conference championships and its two NCAA Tournament berths in 2011 and 2012.

As a coach, Jarvis has culminated an overall record of 1,061-830-2 in 35 years as a head coach and helped produce nine seasons in which the Bruins garnered 30 or more wins. The team constructed a program-best 39 wins during both the 2012 and 2022 seasons.

Not only has Jarvis lifted Belmont Baseball to new heights, but he is also in elite company in NCAA Division I baseball. Jarvis is one of just 16 active head coaches to record 700 or more Division I wins at their current school.

Jarvis has developed 29 players from Belmont who have gone on to play professional baseball, including current San Diego Padres infielder/outfielder Matt Beaty and 2022 MLB Draft pick Guy Lipscomb, who was selected No. 151 overall by the Cleveland Guardians to become the highest draft selection in program history. In addition to his on-field success, Jarvis has helped his players excel in the classroom. Following the 2021-22 academic year, a league-high 30 Belmont baseball players were named to the OVC Commissioner's Honor Roll.

During the 2022 season, Belmont secured their first OVC Regular Season championship by finishing conference play with an 18-6 mark, tying the program record for both regular season wins (37) and total wins (39). The Bruins swept the conference's major awards, with Jarvis earning OVC Coach of the Year, Guy Lipscomb earning OVC Player of the Year, and Andy Bean taking home OVC Pitcher of the Year. On April 22-24, the Bruins swept Purdue on the road, the program's first-ever road sweep of a Power Five opponent.

The Bruins boasted one of the top defenses in the country in 2022, finishing 4th in NCAA Division I in fielding percentage (.983) with first baseman Brodey Heaton being named one of three finalists for the 2022 Rawlings Gold Glove Award, given annually to the top defender at each position. Guy Lipscomb turned in one of the best individual seasons in program history, setting program records for batting average (.406) and stolen bases (42) on the way to Third-Team All-American status and towards becoming the first player in NCAA Division I since 2011 to hit over .400 and steal at least 40 bags.

Lipscomb and Bean earned First-Team All-Conference honors while Heaton, Jalen Borders, and Kyle Brennan picked up Second-Team All-Conference recognition in 2022.

Jarvis recorded his 1,000th career win on February 23, 2022 with an 11-1 victory over Middle Tennessee. On April 26, 2022, Jarvis picked up his 700th win at Belmont with an 8-2 victory at Evansville.

Jarvis developed 28 players from Belmont who have gone on to play professional baseball, including current Los Angeles Dodgers infielder/outfielder Matt Beaty. In addition to his on-field success, Jarvis has helped his players excel in the classroom. Following the 2019-20 academic year, 21 Belmont baseball players were named to the OVC Commissioner's Honor Roll.

The 2020 Belmont Bruins finished the season receiving votes in the final two weeks of the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association Top 30 poll, posting the 17th-highest win-loss percentage in NCAA Baseball with an .824 mark. The Bruins were also 18th in the country in total home runs with 20.

In 2011, Belmont beat Oklahoma State and Troy in the Baton Rouge Regional, marking the first time in program history that the Bruins won an NCAA tournament game in any sport. Concluding the landmark season, Jarvis was named the TBCA College Coach of the Year. The previous year carved another program-best when Belmont started the season with a perfect 10-0 start.

Belmont topped its first ranked opponent in 2001 when Jarvis' squad beat then-No. 13 ranked Georgia, who would be an eventual College World Series participant. Since then the Bruins have beaten multiple ranked opponents.

Jarvis fine-tuned his coaching ability with a nine-year stint as head coach at Three Rivers Community College in Poplar Bluff, Mo. from 1985-93. With Jarvis at the helm, the Raiders were consistently ranked in the National Junior College Athletic Association top 20 poll, highlighted by a No. 4 ranking in 1992.

Jarvis broke into NCAA Division I baseball as an assistant with Murray State in the fall of 1993. At Murray State, he was primarily responsible for the instruction of hitters and catchers as well as teaching base running skills. Jarvis also used his extensive junior college network to create a recruiting pipeline for the Racers.

He finished his playing career at Arkansas State as the starting catcher and team captain. The Missouri native earned a bachelor's degree in education and later received his master's in education, both at Arkansas State.

A dedicated family man, Jarvis has three sons, Jordan, Logan, and Jackson. The family resides in Franklin, Tenn.

COACHING STAFF

A.J. Gaura • Associate Head Coach / Pitching Coach

A.J. Gaura enters his first year as Belmont's assistant head coach, and third season as the Belmont pitching coach, after being introduced to the Bruins' staff on Jan. 3, 2022.

Gaura's first season in the dugout for the Bruins resulted in Belmont owning the best pitching staff in the Ohio Valley Conference, leading the league in ERA (4.59) with the runner-up nearly a full run behind (5.52). Belmont was also first in the conference in opponent batting average (.253), first in wins (39), first in saves (18), second in home runs allowed (60), and third in walks allowed (217).

With Gaura's guidance, the Bruins owned one of the best weekend rotations in the country, with OVC Pitcher of the Year Andy Bean and Second-Team All-Conference selection Jalen Borders bookending two-time OVC Preseason Pitcher of the Year Joshua South. Bean, Borders, and South were all in the top-10 in the Ohio Valley Conference in ERA, in the top-5 in opponent batting average, in the top-7 in innings pitched, and in the top-10 in strikeouts.

Under Gaura's tutelage, Bean earned Belmont's first-ever OVC Pitcher of the Year honor after going 9-1 with a 4.64 ERA and 75 strikeouts in 2022, to help lead the Bruins to their first OVC Regular Season Championship, winning the league with an 18-6 conference mark while tying the program-record for wins (39).

In the bullpen, reliever Kyle Brennan enjoyed a record-breaking year as the Bruin closer, finishing 4th in the country in saves (14) while breaking the program's all-time career record for saves (31). Gaura's efforts with reliever Dusty Baird resulted in the right-hander developing finishing the season on a scorching stretch that saw him allow just one run over his final 13 innings, before signing a professional contract with the Rocky Mountain Vibes of the Pioneer League.

A native of Suamico, Wisconsin, Gaura came to Belmont after three seasons as the pitching coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Evansville.

In 2021, the Aces finished with a 28-27 overall record competing in the Missouri Valley Conference, their first winning season since 2014. That season, Gaura helped sophomore pitcher Shane Gray to one of the best pitching performances from an Ace in recent memory, coaching Gray to a spot on the All-MVC Second Team after he finished with a 2.84 ERA, the third best mark in the Missouri Valley Conference. Under Gaura, the Aces finished with a 4.82 team ERA in his first season in 2019, down from a 6.04 ERA mark the previous year.

Prior to arriving in Evansville, Gaura spent three seasons at national power Mississippi State, where he worked as a graduate assistant video coordinator in 2016 before being promoted to the Bulldogs' director of player development in 2017. In that role, Gaura was responsible for the organization of all on-campus recruiting, the scholarship and recruiting database, and video needs for both player development and advanced scouting.

Gaura's assistance in recruiting the 2018 and 2019 classes to Mississippi State resulted in both being ranked No. 4 in the nation by Perfect Game.

Prior to the 2018 season, Gaura became the Bulldogs' volunteer assistant and camp coordinator while also taking on the duties of catchers' coach and assistant pitching coach, helping Mississippi State take two out of three games from Vanderbilt in the Super Regional before winning two games at the College World Series in Omaha.

Gaura graduated from Austin Peay in 2015 with a degree in business administration, helping the Governors to the OVC Championship in 2013 as a right-handed pitcher. Prior to arriving in Clarksville, Gaura pitched for Iowa Western Community College, where he was a part of the 2012 NJCAA Division I national championship team.

Upon his graduation in 2015, Gaura remained with the Austin Peay program in 2016 as a volunteer assistant/camp coordinator while earning his master's degree in science in management.

Gaura lives in Nashville with his wife, Rachel.

While on the Blue Devil staff, Stein was a part of four NCAA Regional appearances and back-to-back NCAA Super Regional appearances in 2018 and 2019.

Before Duke, Stein was the head coach at Eastern Kentucky from 2008 to 2015. Stein earned Ohio Valley Conference Coach of the Year in 2012 after leading EKU to a share of the OVC regular season title.
