Eagle Basketball Highlights . . .

- NCAA Tournament berths in 2004, 2015 and 2021, NIT in 2003 & CBI in 2016, 2017 and 2018.
- Big Sky Tournament champions in 2004, 2015, and 2021 (the end of the 2019-20 season was canceled during the league tournament because of the Covid-19 virus).
- Big Sky regular season champions in 2020, 2015, 2004 and 2000 (outright in 2004 and 2020).
- The summer of 2018 was the fourth-straight year an Eagle represented EWU in the NBA Summer League.
- TANNER GROVES was the sixth Big Sky Conference MVP to come out of Eastern Washington University. In the 2020-21 season, he held averages of 17.2 points and 8.0 rebounds per game in 24 contests to win the award, leading the Eagles to the NCAA Tournament. He earned first team All-Big Sky honors alongside teammate KIM AIKEN JR., who was named the league's Defensive Player of the Year.
- SHANTAY LEGANS was Big Sky Conference Coach of the Year in the 2019-20 season after leading EWU to the outright regular season championship in the Big Sky Conference and a school-record 16 league wins. He made history in 2017-18, as his team's 20 wins were the most by a first-year Eastern coach in EWU's NCAA Division I era. Among the victories was a 67-61 victory at Stanford to break EWU's 21-game losing streak versus Pacific-12 Conference foes. Interestingly, he played for California for three seasons from 2000-03 and the Bears lost to the Cardinal in all five meetings.
- MASON PEATLING was Big Sky Conference MVP in the 2019-20 season, and also earned first team Academic All-America honors. He closed his 118-game career (96 as a starter) with 1,250 points (12th in school history), 725 rebounds (sixth) and 112 blocked shots (second).
- The Eagles from 2014-15 through 2019-20 recorded win totals of 26, 18, 22, 20, 16 and 23, including the top two win totals in EWU's 37-year history in NCAA Division I. The combined 125 victories in six seasons, 102 in five, 86 in four, 66 in three and 44 in two are also the most since EWU became a member of NCAA Division I in the 1983-84 season. The same can be said of EWU's stretch of league victories -- 14, 10, 13, 13, 12, 16 -- in that six-year span. Eastern has had its first back-to-back-to-back national tournament postseason appearances at the Division I level with a stretch of four-straight from 2015-18, including its first-ever win (79-72 over Pepperdine in the CBI in 2016).
- BOGDAN BLIZNYUK was the 2017-18 Big Sky Conference MVP and a unanimous first team all-league selection, and went on to earn first team All-NABC District 6 honors. He broke the Big Sky Conference and Eastern all-time career scoring records, with a final total of 2,169. He set a NCAA Division I single season record as a senior when he made 77 consecutive free throws, and finished with a total of 16 school records, three Big Sky marks and nine Big Sky Tournament records. He concluded his senior season with 741 points (sixth in Big Sky history), tying the record in the final minute of his career and then breaking it on his last career shot with 10 ticks left. He was the Big Sky Conference Freshman of the Year in 2014-15. As a sophomore, he recorded the first triple-double in school history when he had 11 points, 14 rebounds and 10 assists against Northern Arizona on Jan. 16, 2016.
- JACOB WILEY, playing in his first and only season as an Eagle in 2016-17, made Big Sky Conference history by becoming just the second player in league history to score at least 639 points and have at least 303 rebounds in a single season in the league's 54-year existence. The honorable mention All-American, Big Sky MVP and first team NABC All-District 6 selection finished with totals of 694 and 309, respectively, and no other player in league history has coupled that with at least 58 blocks (Wiley finished with 94 to come one shy of the league record) or a shooting percentage of at least .621 (Wiley finished at .643). Wiley finished the season ranked sixth in NCAA Division I in field goal percentage, eighth in blocked shots (2.76 per game), 29th in scoring (20.4), 48th in rebounds (9.1) and 112th in free throw percentage (.828). He signed a contract with the New Jersey Nets of the NBA.

FOUR RECENT EAGLES HAVE LEFT A LASTING LEGACY FOR EWU BASKETBALL, WITH THREE BIG SKY CONFERENCE MVP HONORS IN FOUR YEARS...

Mason Peatling (2017-18-19-20)

Bogdan Bliznyuk (2015-16-17-18)

Jacob Wiley (2017)

Jesse Hunt (2016-17-18-19)

Peatling (2020), Bliznyuk (2018) and Wiley (2017) won league MVP awards, giving EWU a total of five in school history

Collectively those players accomplished...

- 3 – Big Sky MVP Awards
- 7 – All-Big Sky Honors (first team, second team or honorable mention)
- 3 – All-Big Sky Tournament Honors
- 14 – Big Sky Player of the Week Accolades
- 4 – Team Captain Honors
- 4 – Team MVP Awards
- 13 out of a possible 13 BSC All-Academic Awards

“When Mason Peatling came here as a freshman, it was tough for him with all the talent we had in the program. That year we had Jake Wiley as the leader of our team, and the next year it was Bogdan Bliznyuk. The next season we had Jesse Hunt, and all of them had great careers here. We are able to have that culture in our program, and guys understand how hard it is to earn their minutes. Just look at our track record of losing an MVP or a really good all-league player, but there are always players that step up. I’m really excited for this season and the players on this year’s team because it’s their turn.”

– Former EWU Head Coach Shantay Legans

- A four-time All-Big Sky performer, VENKY JOIS was selected to the All-Big Sky Conference first team as a senior for the second -straight season. He was also a NABC All-District 6 second team selection in the 2015-16 season, and a year earlier he earned first team All-District 6 honors and was picked for the Big Sky Conference All-Tournament team. He was the Big Sky Conference Freshman of the Year in the 2013-14 season, and earned honorable mention All-Big Sky accolades as both a freshman and sophomore. He set 10 school records as an Eagle, including 1,803 career points.
- Eagle sharpshooter TYLER HARVEY was selected by Orlando in the second round as the 51st pick overall in the National Basketball Association Draft on June 25, 2015. Harvey was a walk-on to the Eastern program in the fall of 2011, then developed into a honorable mention All-American in the 2014-15 season when he led NCAA Division I in scoring (23.1) and 3-pointers made per game (4.00). He set Big Sky Conference and school records with 128 3-pointers in the 2014-15 season.
- The Eagles closed a monumental 2014-15 campaign with a 26-9 record overall after finishing 14-4 in the Big Sky Conference to share the regular season title with Montana. Eastern swept through three games in the Big Sky Conference Tournament on Montana’s home court in Missoula, Mont., to garner the school’s second NCAA Tournament appearance in school history. The Eagles finished with program bests for victories overall (26), in the Big Sky (14), on the road (11) and in non-conference play (9) as a member of NCAA Division I. Eastern set a total of 18 school records during the year.
- * Eastern’s heart-stopping 88-86 victory at Big Ten Conference member Indiana Nov. 24, 2014, will go down as one of the greatest victories in school history after the Eagles snapped the nation’s third-longest non-conference home court winning streak at 43 in front of 11,636 Hoosier fans at Assembly Hall in Bloomington, Ind. It was the first-ever win for the Eagles in 14 tries against a Big Ten Conference opponent and was the first Big Sky win on a Big Ten home court.
- Streak of nine-straight Big Sky Conference Tournament berths from 1998-2006 (fifth-best streak in league history).
- Second or better in Big Sky regular season standings five-straight seasons from 2000-2004.

EAGLE MEN'S BASKETBALL 2022-23

2021-22 REVIEW: Head Coach David Riley Completes Successful First Season

With unprecedented roster turnover, Eagles persevere to finish over .500, playing in a national postseason tournament for the second-straight year

Eastern Washington concluded the regular season 17-14 overall and 11-9 in Big Sky Conference games, finishing with at least 10 conference wins for the eighth-straight season. The Eagles came in to the postseason on a two-game winning streak after beating Northern Arizona and Portland State at home. Eastern Washington beat Northern Arizona in the First Round, 78-75, but fell to Northern Colorado by a point, 68-67, after being down 17 with 15 minutes left to play.

EWU then accepted an invitation to compete in The Basketball Classic, a 32-team tournament for teams who were not selected to participate in the NCAA tournament or NIT. In the first round, they fell to the hosting Fresno State Bulldogs by a score of 74-83. Head coach David Riley's first season ended with an 18-16 overall record (11-9 in conference play).

The Eagles averaged 76.9 points per game, the third-highest offensive output in the Big Sky Conference. They led the conference and ranked 27th in the nation with 15.7 assists per game, totaling 535 to rank 22nd. Eastern Washington pulled down 36.7 rebounds per game to rank third in the conference and 94th nationally, with 1,247 total boards to rank 58th. Eastern out-rebounded its opponents in 19 games. They averaged 27.59 defensive boards per game which was 34th in the nation and first in the Big Sky.

EWU was also one of the nation's top three-point shooting teams, firing off 301 in total to rank 7th in the NCAA. Eastern also had a stifling three-point defense, only allowing opponents to shoot 32.8 percent behind the arc to rank first in the conference. Eastern Washington ranked 45th in the NCAA and second in the Big Sky with 8.9 three-pointers per game. The squad made double-digit triples in 10 out of the last 19 games, with season highs of 14 against Idaho and 13 against Idaho State.

The Eagles were also solid at the free throw line, ranking 33rd nationally with 500 free throws made and 56th with 664 attempts. EWU made 75.3 percent of its attempts to rank 56th in the country. Eastern was 4-0 when scoring 90 or more points, and 7-4 when shooting between 50-to-60 percent from the field. However, they were 0-7 when opponents shot over 50 percent.

Eastern Washington boasted five players who averaged double figures, four of which ranked in the top-20 in the Big Sky. Steele Venters (5th, 16.7 ppg) led the way, followed by Linton Acliese III (7th, 16.5 ppg) and Rylan Bergersen (14th, 13.2 ppg). Angelo Allegri rounded out the offense with 12.1 points per game to rank 20th and Ethan Price added 9.9. Four Eagles also rank in the top-23 in the conference in rebounding in Acliese (6th, 7.2 rpg), Allegri (9th, 6.6 rpg), Price (20th, 4.9) and Bergersen (23rd, 4.8 rpg).

Postseason Notes

The 2022 Basketball Classic marked Eastern's eighth appearance in a national postseason tournament and the second-straight after advancing to the NCAA Tournament in 2021. Besides 2021, Eastern Washington has played in the NCAA Tournament in 2004 and 2015 and played in the NIT in 2003. They have played in three College Basketball Invitational (CBI) tournaments in 2016, 2017 and 2018.

In the 2016 CBI, Eastern recorded its first win in a national postseason tournament as a member of Division I with a 79-72 home win over Pepperdine. The Eagles are now 1-8 in postseason national tournaments as a member of NCAA Division I, and 7-13 overall.

More Season Notes

All-Big Sky Honors

Eastern Washington University men's basketball player Ethan Price was named the Big Sky Conference Freshman of the Year. Joining Price on the ballot was Linton Acliese III and Steele Venters, who each earned a spot on the second team.

Price is Eastern Washington's seventh BSC Freshman of the Year honoree, and the first since Bogdan Bliznyuk in 2015. Price joins the likes of Marc Axton (2002), Matt Nelson (2004), Rodney Stuckey (2006), Glen Dean (2010) and Venky Jois (2013). Eastern Washington swept the Freshman of the Year awards, as Jaydia Martin brought home the honor on the women's side.

The Bury St. Edmunds, England, native started all 34 games for the Eagles, scoring in double figures 20 times with two double-doubles. Price averaged 9.9 points, 4.9 rebounds and 2.1 assists per game. Price shot 47.6 percent from the field and 40.7 percent from three-point range, draining 33 triples.

Venters earned the first All-Big Sky honor of his career, emerging as one of the conference's sharpest shooters. He ranked in the top-ten all season long in scoring, with an average of 16.7 points per game. The three-point shot was his specialty, ranking in the top-six nationally in three-point percentage, making 43.4 percent of his shots and averaging 2.6 per game.

Acliese joined the Eagles after transferring in from San Francisco State and had a stellar year. He earned Big Sky Conference player of the week twice, and scored in double figures 27 times, including 12 games with 20 points or more. He scored in double digits in 20 out of the last 22 games, reaching the feat in every Big Sky game except two.

Moves Like Gelo

Angelo Allegri emerged as a steady three-point shooter for Eastern Washington. He knocked down an average of 2.3 triples per game to rank seventh in the Big Sky, and had at least one three-pointer in 30 out of 34 games. Additionally, he made at least two in 22 games and three-or-more in 13. Against Multnomah on Dec. 15 and Portland State on March 5, he made a career-best six. Allegri ranked second on the team with 77 triples total, shooting 37.2 percent from behind the arc and averaging 6.1 attempts per game. He averaged 12.1 points per game and scored in double figures 22 times, including a career-best 27 against Portland State, 23 against Multnomah, plus 23 points and 21 points both against Idaho. He finished in a tie for ninth place on Eastern's single-season three-point list.

He emerged as one of the team's top-rebounders, too. Against Sacramento State, he earned his first career double-double of 14 points and 14 rebounds, the most boards by an Eagle this season. His second double-double came at Montana with 11 points and 11 rebounds before tallying 14 points and 10 boards at Weber State.

His fourth double-double of the season came against Portland State where he scored 27 points and added 13 rebounds. He led the team in rebounding in 12 games, and just came up short of a double-double against Northern Colorado in the Big Sky tournament. Allegri ranked ninth in the Big Sky with 6.6 per game.

Venters is Efficient

One of the sharpest shooters in the Big Sky, Steele Venters led the team and ranked fifth in the conference with 16.7 points per game. Not only does Venters like to shoot, he does it well, knocking down 45.6 percent from the field to rank sixth in the Big Sky. He led the league in three-point percentage as well, knocking down 2.6 per game at a clip of 43.4 percent, a mark that ranked sixth in all of Division I. At the free throw line, he ranked third in the conference with a clip of 84.7 percent, which is the 67th best in the nation.

Venters scored in double figures in 27 out of 33 games, including 11 games with 20-or-more points. He scored 20-or-more points in six Big Sky games, with a career-high 29 against Southern Utah. Venters made a three-pointer in every game except two, including two or more in 26. He had a career-high six against Southern Utah and followed up with five against Omaha, Colorado, Idaho and Idaho State. Nationally, he ranked 67th in three-pointers per game, 60th in total threes made and 101st with 550 total points. Venters is eighth on Eastern's single-season three-pointer list with 86 and is 14th in total points with 550.

You Can Call Him Boogie

Linton Acliese III or "Boogie" took home both of EWU's Big Sky Player of the Week nods in the 2021-22 season. First, on Jan. 4 after two road wins at Portland State and Northern Arizona, and again on Feb. 22 after scoring 38 and 20 points in a pair of games.

Over the two games in January, Acliese shot

60.6 percent (20-33) from the field, plus made three three-pointers and made both free throw attempts. He totaled 18 rebounds for an average of nine per game, plus had five total assists and a block while averaging 22.5 points per game. He scored 30 points at Northern Arizona to go with 11 rebounds for his then-fourth double-double of the season.

Against Montana State and Idaho, Acliese averaged 29.0 points and 8.0 rebounds per game over two contests. He shot 63.6 percent from the field (21-33) and was 11-12 (91.7%) from the free throw line, plus made five three-pointers. He also added 1.5 assists and 0.5 blocks per game. His 38-points against Montana State set a new career-high, and were the most points scored by a Big Sky player all season. It ranks tied for 14th all-time in program history, and is the most points scored in a game since Jacob Davison dropped 41 in 2019. In the win, he was 13-19 from the field, 5-10 from three-point range and 7-8 from the free throw line. He also contributed with eight rebounds, a block, and an assist.

Acliese ranked seventh in the Big Sky in points (16.5) per game and sixth in rebounds (7.2) per game. He scored in double figures in 27 out of the 31 games he played in, including 20 out of the last 22, to go with seven double-doubles. He scored 20-or-more points in 12 games, including two with 30, scoring in double figures in every conference contest he played in except for two. Acliese ranked second in the Big Sky in field goal percentage (193-367, 52.6%) and free throw percentage (82-95, 86.3%), ranking 60th nationally in field goal percentage and 48th in free throw percentage.

Stat Sheet Stuffer

Rylan Bergersen ranked third on the team and 14th in the Big Sky with 13.2 points per game, but there was more to it. He led the team in assists in 24 games, ranking second in the Big Sky and 87th in the nation with 4.3 per game. He had 147 assists on the year to rank 56th across all of Division I, and had three-or-more assists in every game but three, including at least four in 21. He was second in the conference in assist to turnover ratio with 2.04. His single-game high of nine assists came in an overtime win against Montana State. Bergersen could rebound, too, ranking fourth on the team and 23rd in the Big Sky with 4.8 per game. He pulled down four-or-more rebounds in 24 games. On the defensive side, he was 12th in the conference with 1.1 steals per game, with at least one in every game but 10. Last but not least, he ranked 72nd in the nation with 130 free throws made and was 61st with 174 attempts.

Head Coach

DAVID RILEY

Second Season
(12th Overall at EWU)
Whitworth '11

David Riley enters his second season as head coach after a successful opening act. In the 2021-22 season, Riley led the Eagles to an 18-16 record, going 11-9 in the Big Sky Conference in his debut campaign. He also guided first-year forward Ethan Price to Big Sky Freshman of the Year honors, along with coaching two players (Linton Acliese III and Steele Venters) to All-Big Sky second team selections. Eastern would go on to make their eighth appearance in a national postseason tournament (The Basketball Classic) in school history.

EWU extended its streak of winning at least one game in the Big Sky Conference Tournament to seven years (not counting 2020, in which the remainder of the tournament was called off before Eastern was able to play). Riley coached Linton Acliese III and Steele Venters to second team All-Big Sky honors, and Ethan Price was named the conference's Freshman of the Year.

Before the 2021-22 season, all signs pointed to David Riley deserving the opportunity to be a NCAA Division I head basketball coach. A veteran of 10 seasons of the Eastern Washington University men's basketball program at the time, Riley was officially introduced as EWU's next head coach on March 25, 2021. He looks to build upon what has been the best stretch of success in EWU's NCAA Division I history.

"I am honored and excited about being named the next head coach of Eastern Washington University," Riley said after the hiring. "The past 10 years at EWU have been an incredible journey and I am grateful to all the current and former players who helped put me in this position."

"I am very pleased that Coach Riley has agreed to lead EWU's men's basketball team to the next level of success," said interim EWU President Dr. David May. "His values of excellence on the court, in the classroom, and in life align wonderfully with the overall mission of EWU, and his long-term commitment to the program and the university are obvious."

"We are very excited to have David Riley taking over the leadership of our men's basketball program," said Eastern Associate Vice President/Athletic Director Lynn Hickey. "David has been an integral part of Eagle Basketball for years and so he understands the culture and the potential that this program has. He is a very bright young coach who has a tremendous work ethic and a heart for Eastern Washington University. We have just completed an outstanding season and we are confident that Coach Riley is the leader who can continue that momentum and success with our program."

Riley is a 2011 graduate of Whitworth, and two years later received his master's degree from EWU. His uncle, Mike Riley, has been head football coach at Nebraska (2015-2017), Oregon State (1997-98, 2003-2014), the San Diego Chargers (1999-2001) and the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League (1987-1990). Riley's grandfather, Bud Riley, was an assistant football coach at Idaho (1962-65), Oregon State (1965-72) and the head coach of the Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1974-77).

David Riley played at Whitworth for Jim Hayford, then was director of basketball operations at EWU when Hayford took over as Eastern's head coach in the 2011-12 season. He then served three seasons as an assistant for Hayford, and the last four under Shantay Legans, who departed EWU on March 22, 2021, for a position at the University of Portland.

Under Hayford and Legans, Eastern's four 20-victory seasons are among the top five win totals in EWU's now 39-year history in NCAA Division I. The combined 125 wins in six seasons, 102 wins in five, 86 in four, 66 in three and 44 in two are also the most since EWU became a member of NCAA Division I in the 1983-84 season.

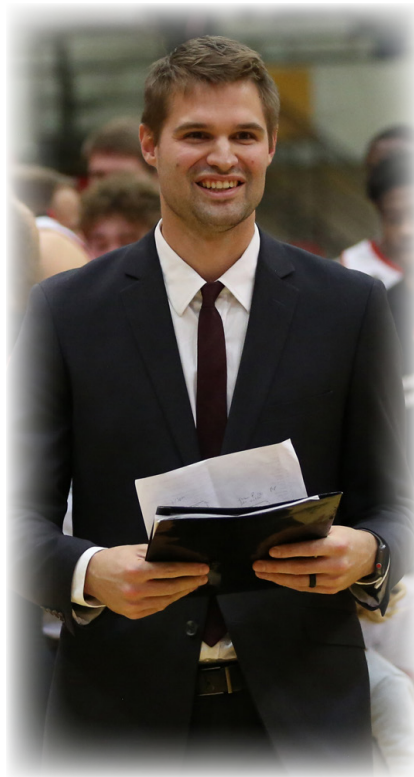

"My former coaches and bosses Shantay Legans, Jim Hayford, and Craig Fortier have taught me so much, along with all the other assistants who have helped me throughout my time here," added Riley. "I'm so grateful to Dr. May and Lynn Hickey for giving me this opportunity to build upon the success our program has had.

"My wife (Emily) and I are excited for our next step in representing Eastern Washington University and showing everyone how much this institution has to offer," he continued. "My biggest mentor and supporter throughout this all has been my dad, and I'm thankful he helped me fall in love with the Northwest as a kid, and I know my mom will be smiling down and proud of what we are building here. Go Eags."

In Big Sky Conference games from 2016-17 through 2020-21, Eastern's 53 victories is the best all-time mark at EWU in 34 seasons in the league. Eastern has won at least 10 league games in nine-straight seasons (through 2021-22), and that only happened six times before in EWU's first 26 seasons as a member of the league.

Eastern closed the 2020-21 season 12-3 in the league and 16-8 overall after falling to third-seeded and 12th-ranked Kansas at the NCAA Tournament in Indianapolis, Ind. The Eagles led for 20:47 compared to 18:07 for the Jayhawks, who led the final 8:46.

Winners of 12 of their last 14 games, Eastern had won nine-straight games before falling to Idaho State 68-63 on March 3. But the Eagles rolled through the Big Sky Conference Tournament with a trio of victories, leading for a total of 108:19 out of 120 minutes (trailed for 8:25 and tied for 3:16). EWU led by as many as 12, 38 and 20 in the three wins, respectively.

The 2020-21 school year was David Riley's seventh season on the coaching staff after being elevated to an assistant men's coaching position at EWU in May of 2014. He was previously Eastern's director of basketball operations, and '20-21 was his 10th overall at Eastern.

He was elevated to the title of associate head coach in summer of 2020. Riley's main responsibilities in 2020-21 were for player development with emphasis on wing players, and on-court coaching with offensive emphasis. He also helps with academic monitoring, recruiting, practice planning, in-season scouting of opponents and summer camps.

In April of 2017, Riley was selected by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) on its 2016-17 Under Armour 30-under-30 squad. The honor recognized Riley among a group of up and coming young coaches in men's college basketball. Fellow Eagle assistant Bobby Suarez was honored on the same 30-Under-30 squad in the 2019-20 school year.

"What a great honor for coach Riley to be recognized as one of the best young coaches in Division I men's college basketball," said Shantay Legans, who was Eastern's head coach at the time. "There is no doubt in my mind that David will continue to climb the ladder in the basketball coaching ranks."

"David is a very intelligent, hard-working individual who comes from a family of great coaches," Legans added. "Being a coach is in his genes, and he has taken the next step to assume more responsibility with recruiting. He is proving he can identify the right talent and create relationships with potential players and their families."

In four seasons under Legans at Eastern, Riley helped Eastern win 75 games overall, 53 in Big Sky Conference play, the outright league championship in 2019-20 and the Big Sky Conference Tournament championship in 2020-21 to advance EWU to its third NCAA Tournament in school history.

The Eagles finished 12-3 in the league (tie for second) and 16-8 overall in the 2020-21 season, which was shortened because of the Covid-19 pandemic. At the NCAA Tournament, Eastern led more than it trailed before the 14th-seeded Eagles ended its season with a 93-84 loss to Kansas, a No. 3 seed and ranked 12th nationally entering the tourney. The Eagles led for 20:47 compared to 18:07 for the Jayhawks, who led the final 8:46.

The school's 53 league victories is the best four-year stretch in 34 seasons as a member of the Big Sky Conference. Post player Tanner Groves was the league MVP, and he and Kim Aiken Jr. earned first team All-Big Sky honors. Aiken was also the Big Sky's Defensive Player of the Year and Tyler Robertson was named the Top Reserve.

Groves was the MVP of the Big Sky Conference Tournament and joined his younger brother, Jacob Groves, as an All-Tournament selection. The "Groves Bros" combined for 58 points versus Kansas, with Tanner finishing with a career-high 35 and Jacob having career highs in both points (23) and rebounds (9).

Eastern had won nine-straight games before falling to Idaho State 68-63 on March 3. But the Eagles rolled through the Big Sky Conference Tournament with a trio of victories, leading for a total of 108:19 out of 120 minutes (trailed for 8:25 and tied for 3:16). EWU led by as many as 12, 38 and 20 in the three wins, respectively.

Of the 14 players Eastern took to Indianapolis, Ind., for the NCAA Tournament, all were underclassmen except for two seniors. Of the seven players who played at least 16 minutes, there were three sophomores, two juniors and two seniors who could theoretically return based on the NCAA decision that the pandemic year does not count against a student-athlete's eligibility.

One season earlier, one of the best seasons in school history came to a screeching halt on March 12, 2020, when cancellations of both the Big Sky Conference and NCAA Division I tournaments dashed EWU's promising postseason hopes in the 2019-20 campaign. The Eagles finished 23-8 overall and 16-4 in the Big Sky.

In 2019-20, Mason Peatling was the Big Sky's MVP and a first team All-Big Sky selection, Jacob Davison earned a spot on the second team and sophomore Kim Aiken Jr. was on the third team. Peatling and Davison both earned NABC All-District 6 accolades, and Peatling was a first team Academic All-American as well.

Prior to the shortened 2019-20 season, EWU had appearances the previous two seasons in the Big Sky Tournament championship game. In 2018-19, Eastern defeated all 10 Big Sky Conference foes en route to finishing 12-8 in league play and going 16-18 overall. Decimated by injuries, Eastern was 1-9 at one point in the 2018-19 season before winning 13 of its last 19.

Forward Jesse Hunt earned first team All-Big Sky honors for the Eagles, Peatling was on the second team and Davison earned third team honors. Aiken earned All-Big Sky Tournament honors along with Peatling.

In 2017-18, Eastern featured Big Sky MVP Bogdan Bliznyuk and the Eagles finished 20-15 overall and 13-5 in the Big Sky. Among the victories was a 67-61 triumph at Stanford to break EWU's 21-game losing streak versus Pacific-12 Conference foes.

Riley played a key role as part of Eastern teams from the Eastern teams from the 2014-15 through 2019-20 seasons which have win totals of 26, 18, 22, 20, 16 and 23 games. The four 20-victory seasons are among the top five win totals in EWU's now 38-year history in NCAA Division I. The combined 125 wins in six seasons, 102 wins in five, 86 in four, 66 in three and 44 in two are also the most since EWU became a member of NCAA Division I in the 1983-84 season. The same can be said of EWU's stretch of league victories -- 14, 10, 13, 13, 12, 16 -- in that six-year span.

Riley played for former EWU head coach Jim Hayford at Whitworth University in Spokane, Wash., from the 2007-08 season through 2010-11, earning All-Northwest Conference accolades all four years. Whitworth teams were a collective 98-18 while Riley was there, with three NWC titles (55-9 in league play) and four appearances in the NCAA Division III Tournament.

EAGLE MEN'S BASKETBALL 2022-23

In November of 2020, Riley was one of 10 players honored on Whitworth's All-Decade team from 2010-20, earning honorable mention. He also earned honorable mention as one of the top 30 Whitworth athletes in the decade as selected by the Spokane Spokesman-Review. Riley was inducted into the Whitworth Hall of Fame on October 8, 2022.

He graduated in 2011 from Whitworth, then joined Hayford at EWU the following season. Riley helped as a manager and team operations assistant three seasons, including the first two as a graduate assistant. He received his master of science degree in physical education (sport administration) from EWU in 2013.

In his first three seasons in the program, Riley was the team's video and analytics coordinator, managed the team's recruiting database and handled facility scheduling. He also assisted with player academics and summer camps.

Riley earned first team All-NWC honors his final three seasons as a Pirate after starting 112 of 114 games in his career. He finished with 1,664 points (14.6 per game) to rank fourth in Whitworth history and made 43.1 percent of his three-point attempts (300-of-696).

He averaged 16.5 points and 3.8 rebounds per game as a senior when he earned third team All-Region (D3hoops.com) honors. He made 45.6 percent of his shots from the field and 41.6 percent from three-point range (82-of-197). Riley drained a school-record 10 three-pointers and finished with 33 points in a 115-69 triumph over Willamette on Feb. 11, 2011. The Pirates finished 28-2 and advanced to the Elite Eight of the D-III Tournament for the first time in school history.

In his junior season, he averaged 13.4 points and 3.8 rebounds per game and made 40.9 percent of his 3-point shots (65-of-159). Riley scored 34 points in a win over Whitman on January 19, 2010. He helped Whitworth to a 26-3 record that included a perfect 16-0 mark in the NWC and a trip to the Sweet 16 of the D-III Tournament.

He averaged 16.4 points and 4.1 rebounds as a sophomore while making 84-of-180 3-pointers (46.7 percent). He scored a career-high 37 points in a win over PLU on Jan. 17, 2009. Whitworth finished second in the NWC during the regular season, but upset Puget Sound in the conference tournament and advanced to the D-III second round. The Pirates finished 23-6.

He averaged 11.9 points and 69-of-160 3-pointers (43.1 percent) in his freshman campaign. He scored 29 points in a win over Caltech on Nov. 24, 2007, in just the second game of his Pirate career. He helped the Pirates finish 21-7, win the NWC regular season championship and advance to the D-III Sweet 16 for the first time in school history.

Riley is formerly from Palo Alto, Calif., and graduated from Gunn High School in 2007. He earned All-Central Coast Section honors as a senior at Gunn.

He was born Nov. 28, 1988, in Seattle Washington. He and his wife, Emily, were married on May 19, 2018.

His father, Edward Riley, is a Whitworth graduate and a physician and professor at the Stanford University School of Medicine. Edward's brother, Mike Riley, grew up in Wallace, Idaho, and began his coaching career in 1976 at Whitworth. He received his master's degree in 1977 and has since gone on to head coaching positions at Nebraska (2015-2017), Oregon State (1997-98, 2003-2014), the San Diego Chargers (1999-2001) and the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League (1987-1990). Mike and Edward's father, Bud Riley, was an assistant football coach at Idaho (1962-65), Oregon State (1965-72) and the head coach of the Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1974-77).

David Riley's mother, Rev. Renee Riley, also graduated from Whitworth and was ordained in 1986. She was the Moderator of the Presbytery of San Jose in 1998. She passed away on April 6, 2005, at the age of 45 from a brain tumor.

Associate Head Coach

ARTURO ORMOND

Second Season • Texas Pan-American '91

Arturo Ormond is in his second season as an associate head coach at EWU after spending two seasons at the University of Texas-El Paso. In the 2021-22 campaign, he helped guide the Eagles to a record of 18-16 (11-9 in Big Sky Conference play). Ormond has extensive coaching experience at all levels of basketball, including coaching stints at five NCAA Division I universities.

"I'm excited for Arturo to join our family here at EWU," said Eastern head coach David Riley prior to the 2021-22 season. "Arturo's coaching experience at multiple Division I schools, along with his player development track record, will be a huge asset to the program."

He became an assistant for Rodney Terry at UTEP on May 10, 2019. The Miners won 17 games during the 2019-20 campaign, nine more than the previous season, while more than doubling its Conference USA wins. The Miners posted their first winning season in four years, and made a return to the C-USA Tournament during the 2019-20 season. UTEP finished with a 13-4 record in the Haskins Center, the most home wins in four years.

In 2020-21, UTEP finished 12-12 overall and 8-8 in Conference USA. Among the players he coached was Bryson Williams, who was named to the 2020 All-C-USA first team and 2020 District 11 NABC first team. Souley Boum earned all-conference honors in 2021.

Ormond served as an assistant coach at Fresno State (2002-2005), Centenary College (1999-2002), University of Maryland Eastern Shore (1997-1999), University of Texas-Pan American (1995-1997) and Tuskegee University (1994-1995).

During Ormond's three seasons at Fresno State, the Bulldogs won 50 games overall and 32 league games. Fresno State went 20-8 overall and 13-5 in the Western Athletic Conference during the 2002-03 campaign.

He also served as varsity boys basketball head coach at Edison High School in Fresno, Calif., for five years (2006-2010). He compiled a 119-34 record, while winning three Valley Championships (2007, 2008, 2009). Ormond was named the 2009 Fresno Bee Coach of the Year for Boys Basketball.

Ormond began his coaching career as an assistant boys' basketball coach at Farragut High School (1993-1994) in Chicago, Ill.

Besides coaching at the collegiate and high school levels, Ormond has substantial experience in the Grassroots AAU Basketball world. Ormond has served as a coach and player development coordinator for Team Superstar in California.

Ormond was a two-year letterwinner at Texas-Pan American (now UTRGV) during the 1989-90, 1991-91 seasons. He graduated from Texas-Pan American with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology in 1991 and a master's degree in education in 1993.

Assistant Coach

MARK DARNALL

Second Season • Illinois State '11

Mark Darnall is in his second season at Eastern after spending four seasons as part of the Chico State men's basketball coaching staff. In the 2021-22 season, Darnall assisted new head coach David Riley's Eagles to an 18-16 record, including a record of 11-9 in conference play.

"We are excited for Mark to join the Eagles," said Eastern head coach David Riley prior to the 2021-22 season. "Mark worked his way from the ground up in the coaching business and he will bring great passion and energy to our program."

Although the 2020-21 season in California Collegiate Athletic Association (CCAA) was wiped out because of the Covid-19 pandemic, he was head coach Greg Clink's top assistant. The Wildcats were 52-29 and had two postseason appearances in his first three years in the program. In July, 2020, Darnall was selected as one of the 50 most impactful Division II assistant coaches in the country by Silver Waves Media.

In 2019-20, Chico State went 23-7 and garnered a No. 4 seed in the NCAA Division II Tournament before being shut down due to Covid-19. Among the players he coached during his time at Chico State were first team All-CCAA Players Justin Briggs, Malik Duffy, Isaiah Ellis and Jalen McFerren. Justin Briggs was also Defensive Player of the Year and NCAA Division II All-West District second team as selected by the National Association of Basketball Coaches.

Darnall brought nearly a decade of coaching experience to Chico when he joined the coaching staff in 2017-18. The Lake Mills, Wisc., native spent the 2016-17 campaign as an assistant at the University of Wisconsin-Platteville, and from 2011-16 served as assistant coach and director of basketball operations at UC Davis.

At UW-Platteville, he was the head assistant under Jeff Gard where they coached two future MVPs of the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, Robert Duax and Carter Voelker. Darnall also helped recruit All-WIAC players Justin Stovall and Quentin Shields, who led the Pioneers to consistent top 25 rankings in NCAA Division III and three NCAA Tournament appearances.

In addition to his coaching duties at UC Davis, Darnall handled all of the Aggies' administrative responsibilities, including video and practice coordination, team travel, scouting, budgeting, schedule coordination, marketing, academic monitoring, community outreach, student-athlete development, and supervision of the program's team managers and interns.

During Darnall's tenure, UC Davis captured its inaugural Big West championship in 2015, and earned the program's first Division I postseason appearance when the Aggies appeared in the National Invitation Tournament. UC Davis ended the season as national three-point champions, shooting a blistering .447 clip from behind the arc—the highest single-season three-point percentage since the three-point line was moved back in 2009.

Darnall came to UC Davis after assisting Aggie head coach Jim Les as a video coordinator at Bradley University in 2010-11. In that role he oversaw all aspects of the team's film and video needs, including preparation of opponent scouting, managing the video room and supplying the coaching staff with practice and game film. He coordinated film exchange with opponents, used the XOS Digital video software program and assisted in other administrative duties.

Prior to that, Darnall was an assistant coach at Peoria Christian High School for the 2009-10 season, helping with both on- and off-court duties. Peoria Christian finished 16-13 while capturing the conference title with an 8-1 record.

Darnall played college basketball at Eureka College in Illinois where he led the Red Devils in scoring and shot 41.4 percent from the 3-point line in 2007-08. He was named to the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) Honors Court for his achievements on the court and in the classroom.

Darnall has coached at several camps and is co-author of several articles for Athletes in Action. He is the nephew of NAIA and Illinois Basketball Hall of Fame coach Dave Darnall.

He earned his undergraduate degree in sports management in 2009 and his master's degree, in the same major, from Illinois State in 2011.

Assistant Coach

Pedro Garcia Rosado

Second Season • San Jose College in Malaga, Spain '11

Pedro Garcia Rosado joined the EWU men's basketball staff as the director of operations prior to the 2021-22 season. He was named assistant coach prior to the 2022-23 season. Rosado brings a wealth of international basketball coaching and playing experience to Cheney.

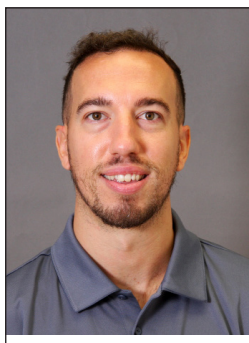

Rosado began coaching in August of 2006 where he was the head boys and girl's basketball coach for the Unicaja Basketball Academy for four years. He then moved to England, where he held assistant and head coaching roles for the Leeds Carnegie Basketball University.

From August 2011 to June 2012, he was the U-18 assistant coach for the Club Baloncesto Unicaja in Spain before becoming the head coach for the Huddersfield heat in England.

Rosado has also had stints as the assistant and head coach for the Canarias Basketball Academy, the Reading Rockets, John Madejski Academy and the England National team.

Most recently, he worked in Valencia, Spain from August 2017 to January 2019 where he was the head coach for the CB Claret while also serving as the assistant coach for the U-18 Al-Qazeres team. Prior to coming to Cheney, he made one last stop in Hofn, Iceland where he was the head coach for UMF Sindri.

Rosado graduated from San Jose College in Malaga, Spain with a business administration and management degree in 2011. He received his MBA in Sport Management from IESPORT online, and another Bachelor's degree in business management in sport from Open University in June of 2020.

Assistant Athletic Director of Athletic Performance

T.J. Conley

Fourth Season • Idaho '08

The 2022-23 school year will be T.J. Conley's second year as assistant athletic director for athletic performance for the Eastern athletic department. Overall, this will be the fourth full season at EWU for the former University of Idaho and NFL punter.

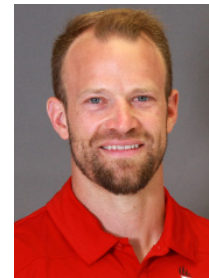

He will work primarily with the men's and women's basketball programs and oversee a staff of six assistants, which include a trio of graduate assistants. Conley has been at Eastern since April of 2019 as an assistant athletic performance coach while working with men's and women's basketball and assisting with football. While at EWU, he completed his master's degree in physical education in 2020.

Conley is a 2004 graduate of DeSales High School in Walla Walla, Wash., where he was a three-sport All-State athlete (football, basketball, & baseball), and then played football at Idaho as a punter. He graduated in 2008 with a bachelor's degree in civil engineering.

He spent six seasons with three National Football League teams from 2009-14, including his first four years with the New York Jets where he broke a franchise record for net punting and led the NFL in fair catches in 2011. While he was with the Jets, he did an internship with the team's strength and conditioning department.

Conley also spent 2 1/2 years working part-time at U-District Physical Therapy in Spokane, while coaching kickers, punters and long snappers at Whitworth from May of 2016 to August of 2018. He also was a strength and conditioning coach at Gonzaga from August 2017 to June 2018 before joining EWU in August of 2018 as a graduate assistant working with the football team. He took over a full-time position in April of 2019.

He and his wife, Tassie, have two children -- Brayden (10) and McKenzie (8).

Director of Basketball Operations

Blake Fernandez

First Season

Director of Player Development / Recruiting Coordinator

Ben Beauchamp

First Season

Assistant Athletic Director for Athletic Training Services (MBB/Golf)

Hailey Haukeli, LAT, ATC

Fifth Season (Seventh at EWU) • Presentation College in South Dakota '17

Haukeli is in her fifth year at Eastern in 2022-23, and fourth in a full-time capacity. She worked with women's volleyball and cheer for two years, and is now in her second year with men's basketball and golf. In spring of 2021 she was promoted to a position as associate athletic trainer, and is taking over coordination of student-athlete health insurance for the athletic department.

She originally came to Eastern in fall of 2017 as a graduate assistant working with volleyball and women's tennis. She received her master's degree in June 2019 with a master's degree in health and recreation administration.

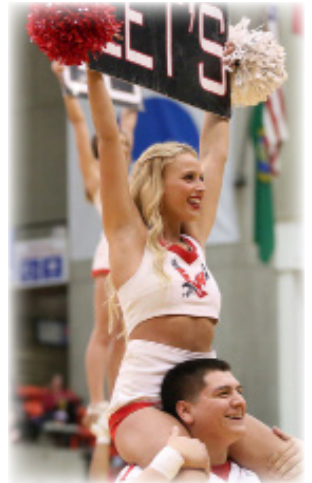

Haukeli received her bachelor's degree in athletic training and exercise science, with a minor in sports psychology, from Presentation College in Aberdeen, S.D., in 2017. She was vice-president of the school's athletic training club, was on the Dean's list from 2013 to 2016, was a two-year starter on the softball team from 2013 to 2015 and helped coach softball from 2015-2017.

Previously, Haukeli attended Pierce College and South Puget Sound Community College in the Seattle area.

SEASON OUTLOOK: Eagles, Coach Riley Look to Sustain Momentum

Eastern Ready to Challenge for Big Sky Title

The Eagles are led by second-year head coach, David Riley. The 11-year veteran of the program has previously served as the director of operations, assistant coach, and associate head coach since the 2011-12 season. He was officially introduced as head coach on March 25, 2021.

Riley and his staff hit the recruiting trail hard in the 2022 offseason, bringing in nine newcomers with a plethora of different basketball experience.

Six returners are back from last season, where the Eagles finished 18-16 overall and tied for fifth in the Big Sky Conference with a mark of 11-9. The Eagles won their first round matchup against Northern Arizona (78-75) in the Big Sky Tournament before narrowly falling to Northern Colorado in the quarterfinals by a score of 67-68. Eastern then accepted an invite to The Basketball Classic, marking the eighth national postseason tournament appearance in school history (at the Division I level). They fell to the hosting Fresno State Bulldogs in the first round by a score of 74-83.

WHAT'S BACK . . .

Senior Angelo Allegri, juniors Ellis Magnuson and Imhotep George, redshirt sophomore Steele Venters and sophomores Casey Jones and Ethan Price are all back for another year with the Eagles.

Venters played in and started 33 games for the Eagles in 2021-22, averaging 16.7 points per game to lead the team. He was named second team All-Big Sky. Price was honored as the conference's Freshman of the Year after starting in all 34 games and holding averages of 9.9 points and 4.9 rebounds per game. Allegri made an immediate impact in his first season at EWU after transferring from UNC Greensboro, averaging 12.1 points per game and leading the team in total rebounds (226, 6.6 average).

George (2.4 rpg, 2.5 rpg), Jones (2.4 ppg, 2.1 rpg) and Magnuson (2.1 ppg, 2.5 rpg) were key contributors off the bench, combining for over 1,000 minutes of play in the 2021-22 season.

NEW EAGS ON THE BLOCK . . .

Of the nine newcomers, three are true freshmen. The Eagles welcome Sebastian Andersson (Stockholm, Sweden / Korrespondensgymnasiet), Amarion Savage (Aurora, Ill. / East Aurora HS / TLAP Sports Academy) and LeJuan Watts (Fresno, Calif. / Bullard HS).

Six transfers with plenty of collegiate experience also join the Eagles and look to make an immediate impact. Deon Stroud hails from Fresno, Calif., where he graduated from San Joaquin Memorial High School in 2019. He previously played at both Fresno State and UTEP. In his two seasons with Fresno State, he averaged 8.4 points per game with 139 rebounds, 40 assists and 38 steals. Stroud made 17 starts and played in 51 games for the Bulldogs. At UTEP, he averaged 4.3 points per game in 24 appearances as a freshman.

Tyrese Davis, a native of Kansas City, Mo. and 2018 graduate of Grandview High School, joins the Eagles after three seasons at Jacksonville University. There, he played in 82 games and made 80 starts, racking up 802 career points in the process. As a redshirt-sophomore in 2021-22, Davis led the Dolphins to a 21-10 overall record and an 11-5 mark in ASUN play. He averaged 8.0 points and 4.6 rebounds per game. In 2020-21, he started all 24 games and averaged 11.5 points and 4.3 rebounds per game. A knee injury forced him to sit out the entire 2019-20 season. As a freshman in 2018-19, Davis was named to the ASUN All-Freshman team after averaging 10.1 points, 4.2 rebounds and 2.7 assists per game.

Ty Harper comes from Norcross Ga. He graduated from Santa Clarita Christian High School (Calif.) in 2020 and played at Louisiana Lafayette, where he averaged 5.6 points, 1.7 rebounds and 1.2 assists per game in his first season of college basketball. In 2021-22, he averaged 2.0 points across 16 games.

* - Unanimous Selection

Other Eagle transfers include Cedric Coward (Fresno, Calif. / Willamette University), Dane Erikstrup (Chandler, Ariz. / Cal Poly Pomona), and Jordan Veening (Sumas, Wash. / Western Colorado). Veening returns to Eastern Washington after transferring to Western Colorado for one season. He previously played in eight games for the Eagles in 2019-20 and 2020-21.

WHO'S IN CHARGE . . .

David Riley played at Whitworth in Spokane, Wash., for Jim Hayford, then was director of basketball operations at EWU when Hayford took over as Eastern's head coach in the 2011-12 season. Riley was inducted into the Whitworth Hall of Fame on October 8, 2022. He then served three seasons as an assistant for Hayford, and four under Shantay Legans, who departed EWU on March 22, 2021, for a position at the University of Portland.

Under Hayford and Legans, Eastern's four 20-victory seasons are among the top five win totals in EWU's now 38-year history in NCAA Division I. The combined 125 wins in six seasons, 102 wins in five, 86 in four, 66 in three and 44 in two are also the most since EWU became a member of NCAA Division I in the 1983-84 season.

The Eagles are also led by associate head coach Arturo Ormond, assistant coaches Mark Darnall and Pedro Garcia Rosado (previously director of operations), new director of operations Blake Fernandez, and director of player development / recruiting coordinator Ben Beauchamp.

THE 2022-23 CAMPAIGN . . .

With trips to Hawai'i, Florida, and a game at the Spokane Arena, the 2022-23 season is already set up to be one to remember for Eastern Washington University head men's basketball coach David Riley and his squad.

The schedule is highlighted by an early season trip to Honolulu for the Rainbow Classic where the Eagles will play in three games. In between that tournament, and one at Florida International over Thanksgiving, is a game against Washington State at the Spokane Arena.

Redshirt Sophomore G/F STEELE VENTERS

In all, the Eagles play in four non-conference games in the friendly confines of Reese Court, plus nine Big Sky Conference games. Eastern plays each Big Sky school twice, once at home and once on the road.

The Eagles were tabbed to finish fifth in the conference in both the coaches and media polls released on October 26, 2022. The defending Big Sky champion, Montana State, was picked first in both. EWU guard/forward Steele Venters was selected to the preseason all-conference team.

The 2022-23 Big Sky Championships are held in Boise, Idaho, from March 4-8.

LAST SEASON . . .

The Eastern Washington University men's basketball team closed the 2021-22 season with an 18-16 record and a trip to a national postseason tournament for the eighth time in the school's Division I history.

Eastern finished the Big Sky Conference season 11-9 (tied for fifth), and the Eagles closed the regular season winning six of their last eight games. The Eagles won their first matchup in the Big Sky Conference Tournament against Northern Arizona before falling to Northern Colorado in the quarterfinals. In The Basketball Classic, they fell to Fresno State in the first round.

Ethan Price was named the Big Sky Conference Freshman of the Year, the seventh honoree in Eastern Washington's history. Redshirt senior Linton Acliese III and redshirt freshman Steele Venters were named to the All-Big Sky second team.

"The first thing that comes to mind is fun," said David Riley when asked about his first season as head coach. "I had fun with this group every single day. I think that was something I made a priority. It was fun, and a whirlwind. I knew it was going to be crazy and be hectic, especially when we lost all of our players and had to hire a new staff. There was so much going on every day, but I just made sure that we're playing a game and these are college kids – if they're having fun and enjoying it, they're going to work that much harder and I'm going to work harder. We made a really big effort to enjoy the moment and enjoy every day. Take the losses, take the tough days, and just build on them and have fun doing it. We had a great group of guys."

#34 - Sebastian Andersson - F - 6-10 - 235 - Fr. - HS - Stockholm, Sweden / Korrespondensgymnasiet '20

Andersson was born and raised in Stockholm, Sweden. An avid basketball player since the age of seven, he played for the Blackeberg Basketball Swedish Club team. After moving to Spain in 2018, he played for the Basket Zaragoza junior team. In 2020, Andersson was a member of Filipenses in Placencia, Spain.

Andersson brings plenty of international playing experience to Cheney. He was a member of the U15 team in 2017 and U16 team in 2018. After playing in the Nordic Championship in Finland, he was selected to the All-Star team. Andersson also played in the European Championship in Sarajevo before being selected to the U20 team in 2021.

Born on April 4, Andersson is the son of Justine and Michael Andersson. He plans on majoring in social sciences at Eastern Washington.

#0 - Cedric Coward - F - 6-9 - 190 - So. - TR - Fresno, Calif. / Central HS '21 / Willamette University

Coach Riley on Coward: "Cedric is a Swiss army knife. Cedric can handle the ball, has really good vision to pass, can score from a lot of different spots on the floor, and is a versatile defender. He is a jack of all trades and will fill a lot of holes that have been deficient for us. He is a studious individual and is eager to learn and grow as a player. We couldn't be more excited for what Cedric brings to our program."

At Willamette University: Cedric Coward had a standout freshman year for Willamette University out of the Northwest Conference in Salem, Ore. Coward averaged 19.4 points and 12.0 rebounds per contest, playing in 26 games with 17 starts. After leading the league in rebounding and blocked shots, plus ranking third in scoring, Coward was named the NWC Freshman of the Year and was a first team All-NWC selection. He tied for 11th nationally at the Division III level in total rebounds with 309, grabbing double-digit boards in 21 games including a career-high 20.

Coward had at least three blocks in 13 games with a career-high of eight against Whitworth on Dec. 4. His 67 blocked shots was a school record, ranking ninth in the nation. He averaged 3.8 assists per game, dishing a career-best of 11 against Puget Sound in a 103-86 win. Coward scored in double figures in 24 games, including scoring over 20 points in 16 games and 30 in one. He shot 60.8 percent from the field, 45.3 percent from three-point range, and 74.6 percent from the free throw line.

Coward ranked second in all of Division III with 19 double-doubles, ending the season with a string of 15 in a row.

Prior to Willamette University: Two-time Tri River All-League selection at Central High School in Fresno, California. Named team's Most Valuable Player as a senior and Best Offensive Player as a junior and was a two-time varsity team captain. He was the 2021 Central HS Athlete of the Year and was on High Academic Honor Roll from 2017-2021. Coward was very involved at Central High School, he was a National High School Scholar in 2019 and 2020 and volunteered for Greater Vision COGIC Community Outreach and worked with Gold Medal Investments Habitat for Humanity Construction. Other involvements include, coached at CHS Lil Grizzlies Basketball Camp, 2017-2020, Ujima Student Leadership Academy, 2017-2019, CHS African American Students Superintendent and Principal Advisory Board, Fresno County Superintendent of Schools African American Student Leadership Advisory Cabinet, CHS Black Student Union, and Fresno County African American Leadership Conference Board Member, Panelist, and two-time welcoming Master of Ceremony.

Personal: Born on September 11, 2003 in Fresno, Calif. His nickname is Ced and his parents are Shanel and Ray Moore. He was coached by Gregory Streets at Central High School. Has aspirations of majoring in business and becoming an entrepreneur. His grandfather, Maxie Parks, won an Olympic gold medal in the 4x400 relay at the 1976 Montreal Olympic games.

#1 - Tyreese Davis - G - 6-6 - 210 - Jr. - TR* - Kansas City, Mo. / Grandview HS '18 / Jacksonville University

Coach Riley on Davis: "Tyreese is a mismatch at the guard position. He is bringing really good experience into our program. He is an unselfish playmaker and has a great feel for the game. He is a really good three-point shooter and can also take advantage of smaller players inside. Tyreese has a familiarity with our team as he played with current Eagle Angelo Allegri prior to college. We can't wait to get Tyreese to Cheney!"

At Jacksonville University: Tyreese Davis played in three seasons at Jacksonville University, an ASUN Conference member located in Jacksonville, Fla. He played in 82 games, making 80 starts during his tenure. He will come to Cheney with 802 career points, scoring over 230 points in all three seasons. As a redshirt-sophomore in 2021-22, Davis led the Dolphins to a 21-10 overall record and an 11-5 mark in ASUN play. He averaged 8.0 points and 4.6 rebounds per game, playing in all 29 games with 27 starts. That season, Davis shot 46.3 percent (75-162) from the field and 42.7 percent (38-89) from three-point range. He had 13 games with at least two or more three pointers made, including five on Jan. 29 against Central Arkansas. Davis scored a season-high 22 points in that contest, making 8-of-10 from the field and 5-of-7 from three-point range, plus five rebounds, two steals, a block and an assist. He turned in one double-double of ten points and a season-high 10 rebounds on Feb. 9 against Eastern Kentucky.

As a freshman in 2018-19, Davis was named to the ASUN All-Freshman team after averaging 10.1 points, 4.2 rebounds and 2.7 assists per game. He scored in double figures 14 times and had two double-doubles. He would suffer a season-ending knee injury that forced him to sit out the 2019-20 season as well before returning to the court in 2020-21. That season, he started all 24 games and scored in double figures 16 times including two games with over 20 points. He averaged 11.5 points and 4.3 rebounds per game.

Prior to Jacksonville: Davis spent his high school playing career at Grandview High School, before finishing at Link Year Preparatory School in Branson, Mo. As a member of the Grandview Bulldogs, he was named First-Team All-Suburban Blue Conference his sophomore and junior campaigns, earning First-Team All-State accolades with the Missouri Coaches Association Class 4A as a junior. Coached by former Eagle assistant coach, Roberto Bergersen and Adam Donyes at Link Prep, he took home MVP honors at the prestigious Central Post Graduate League Tournament. A member of the Kansas City RUN GMC AAU program under Coach LJ Goolsby, he averaged 11.8 points and 4.9 rebounds per game.

Personal: A native of Grandview, Mo., Davis is the fourth member of his family to play collegiate basketball, joining his father (Baylor & Kansas State) and two brothers (Austin Peay & Jacksonville State).

#32 - Dane Erikstrup - F - 6-10 - 240 - So. - TR - Chandler, Ariz. / Beaverton HS (Ore.) '21 / Cal Poly Pomona

Coach Riley on Erikstrup: "Dane is a versatile big man that has produced efficiently as a freshman in college already. He played in the same league as our All-Big Sky graduating senior Linton Acliese III and was honored as 'Freshman of the Year'. He can shoot it from three-point range, has really good size to defend inside, can finish in the paint, and has a really good understanding of how to play his position. We couldn't be more excited about the fit Dane brings to our front line."

At Cal Poly Pomona: Dane Erikstrup had a standout freshman campaign at Cal Poly Pomona, a Division II institution in the California Collegiate Athletic Association (CCAA). After averaging 11.6 points and 5.2 rebounds per game, Erikstrup was named the CCAA Freshman of the Year and earned an All-CCAA honorable mention nod.

Erikstrup played in 19 games, making 18 starts for the Broncos who finished 13-10 overall. He scored in double figures in 10 games, including three games with 20-or-more points. He dropped a career-high 27 points on Feb. 17 against Cal Poly Humboldt where he was 10-for-12 from the field and 5-for-7 from three-point range. He totaled 98 rebounds, and shot 47.3 percent (78-165) from the field and 40.6 percent (26-64) from behind the arc.

Personal: Played on the Danish National U18 team and advanced to the Nordic Championship. Born on April 3, 2003, he is the son of Flemming and Carrie Erikstrup. He has two sisters, Laura and Sydney, who play collegiate basketball at the University of San Diego and Arizona State, respectively. # EAGLE MEN'S BASKETBALL 2022-23

#11 - Ty Harper - G - 6-3 - 175 - So. - TR - Norcross, Ga. / Santa Clarita Christian HS (Calif.) '20 / Louisiana Lafayette

Coach Riley on Harper: "We are very excited Ty Harper is joining our Eagle family. He comes to us from Louisiana Lafayette and was a former top-100 player who starred in Southern California at Santa Clarita Christian. Ty is an explosive athlete. He can get to any spot on the floor with his speed and athleticism. He brings in a great skillset with his abilities to dribble, pass and shoot. Most importantly, he brings a different defensive presence to the Eagles."

At Louisiana Lafayette: Ty Harper played at Sun Belt Conference member Louisiana Lafayette for two seasons. He joined the Rajin' Cajuns late into the 2020-21 season and made an immediate impact, averaging 5.6 points, 1.7 rebounds and 1.2 assists per game in the final 20 contests of the season, making seven-straight starts to end the year. As a true freshman, he scored in double figures four times, including a career-high 19 points.

Harper's sophomore season saw him appear in 16 games with three starts. He averaged 2.0 points per game and scored a season-best 12 points at Appalachian State where he was a perfect 4-for-4 from the field.

Prior to Louisiana Lafayette: Rated the No. 6 overall recruit in the state of California and the No. 100 overall recruit nationally by ESPN. He was also the No. 22-rated shooting guard in the country and averaged 15.5 points per game during his senior season at Santa Clarita Christian, where he was coached by James Mosley. He led SCC to a 24-6 overall record, winning the 2020 CIF-Southern Sectional Division 2AA title and a No. 28 national ranking by Max Preps. Harper was the Division 2AA Player of the Year and was a first-team All-Southern California and All-Area selection. After graduating from Santa Clarita Christian in 2020, he attended Golden State Prep before getting NCAA eligibility due to COVID-19 and enrolled at Louisiana Lafayette in December of 2020.

Personal: Born on October 7, 2001 in Georgia. His nickname is Smooth, and his parents are Cepia Harper and Titus Terrell. He intends on majoring in kinesiology at Eastern Washington, with the goal of being the best basketball player he can be.

Former Eagles in the Professional Ranks

As of 9/13/22, below is a list of former Eagles in professional basketball, including 18 active within the last year.

***Indicates is currently active within the last year in the professional ranks. Most recent team is listed first.

Updates may always be accessed via: <https://basketball.usbasket.com/team/Eastern-Washington-University/1056?Page=4>

Name (Years Lettered at EWU) – Post-College Career (Country-League)

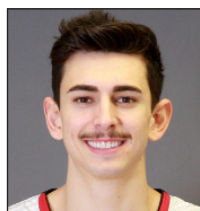

Linton Acliese III

***Linton Acliese III (2022) – Olimpi (Georgia-Superleague)

- Played in and started 29 games during his lone season with the Eagles, earning second team All-Big Sky honors. He averaged 16.5 points and 7.2 rebounds per game. Scored 38 points in a win over Montana State on Feb. 17, which is tied for the 14th-most in EWU single-game history and the most scored by a Big Sky player that season. Scored 511 total points which is 19th on EWU's single-season scoring list. Finished the season 60th in the nation in field goal percentage, shooting 52.6 percent (193-367) overall. He was 48th nationally from the free throw line, shooting 86.3 percent (82-95). He paced the Eagles with 7.2 rebounds per game, grabbing 224 total. He turned in a team-high seven double-doubles. Averaged 1.3 assists per game with 39 total. Ends his collegiate career with 1,019 points.

***Jacob Davison (2018-19-20-21) – Dandenong Rangers (Australia-State League)

- In 2022, Davison averaged 13.5 points, 3.9 rebounds, 2.4 assists and 1.4 steals in 19 games for Dandenong.
- Davison was voted as preseason Big Sky Conference MVP for the 2020-21 season. He averaged 9.8 points, 2.6 rebounds and 1.5 assists in 22 games.
- A second team All-Big Sky selection, Davison closed the 2019-20 season with three-straight 20-point performances. He ended the league season fourth in scoring (18.7), 11th in field goal percentage (.439), 10th in free throw percentage (.752), 12th in steals (1.2) and 14th in assists (2.7). In helping EWU to a weekend home sweep to wrap-up the Big Sky Conference outright title, Davison averaged 23.5 points, 5.5 rebounds and 4.5 assists to earn Big Sky Player of the Week honors. Was selected to the six-player preseason All-Big Sky Conference team.
- Earned third team All-Big Sky honors as selected by the league's head coaches despite missing the last 10 games of the season with an ankle injury. Davison scored 62 points in two games – including the seventh-most in school history with 41 versus Northern Arizona (2/4/19) – to earn Big Sky Conference Men's Basketball Player of the Week on Feb. 5 by the league office. Davison averaged 15.2 points on the season and a team-leading 18.5 in league play.
- After redshirting in 2016-17, Davison made the first start of his career in the 2017-18 season at Seattle (12/3/17) and started seven-straight games. He came off the bench in the last 21 and averaged 7.1 points on the season.

"HOT ROD" PLAYS 3 SEASONS WITH PACERS AFTER 7 YEARS & 500 GAMES WITH PISTONS

After more than 500 games with the Detroit Pistons, Rodney Stuckey concluded his third year as an Indiana Pacer – 10th in the NBA overall – in the 2016-17 season.

Making Eastern Washington University history every step of the way, Stuckey had his dream of playing professional basketball realized on June 28, 2007. That day, the Detroit Pistons of the National Basketball Association selected Stuckey as the 15th pick overall in the NBA Draft at Madison Square Garden in New York City.

He made his NBA debut in the 2007 Summer League in Las Vegas, Nev., helping the Pistons to a 4-1 record with averages of 30.6 minutes, 19.0 points, 4.0 rebounds, 2.6 assists and 1.2 steals per game. But he injured his hand during the preseason and missed the first 25 games of the regular season. He finally made his NBA debut on Dec. 21, 2007, and his first start in the NBA was on March 1, 2008, in a 103-73 victory over the Los Angeles Clippers.

He was impressive as a rookie, earning second team NBA All-Rookie Team honors as selected by the league's head coaches. He finished his first season with averages of 19.8 minutes, 7.8 points and 2.9 assists per game as the Pistons advanced to the Eastern Conference Finals where they lost to eventual NBA champion Boston. His minutes increased in the playoffs as he averaged 8.2 points and 3.4 assists, while making 87.9 percent of his free throws, in 17 playoff games.

In his second season in 2008-09, Stuckey started 65 of 79 games, averaging 31.9 minutes, 13.4 points, 4.9 assists, 1.0 steals and 3.5 rebounds. In his third season, he was a starter in all but six of the 73 games he played and averaged 34.2 minutes, 16.6 points, 4.8 assists, 1.4 steals and 3.8 rebounds. In the 2010-11 season – his fourth – he started 54 of 70 games and averaged 15.5 points, 3.1 rebounds, 1.1 steals and a career-high 5.2 assists. In 2011-12 – his fifth season as a pro – Stuckey started 48 of 55 games and averaged 14.8 points, 2.6 rebounds, 0.8 steals and a 3.8 assists. His sixth NBA season in 2012-13 ended with him starting 24 of 76 games and averaging 11.5 points, 3.6 assists, 2.2 rebounds and 0.7 steals. In his seventh and final campaign with the Pistons, Stuckey averaged 13.9 points, 2.1 assists, 2.3 rebounds and 0.7 steals.

In 2014-15 – his eighth season as a pro and first with the Indiana Pacers – Stuckey averaged 12.6 points, 3.5 rebounds, 3.1 assists and 0.8 steals per game in 71 games (36 starts). Stuckey signed a new 3-year, $21 million contract with the Pacers on July 21, 2015.

In his ninth season in 2015-16, he averaged 8.9 points, 2.7 rebounds and 2.4 assists in the regular season before playing in the playoffs for the first time in seven seasons. He averaged 6.3 points, 2.1 rebounds and 2.0 assists in a seven-game playoff loss to Toronto. Stuckey, who missed 19 games in January and February with an ankle sprain, had season highs of 23 points (twice) and eight assists.

Because of injuries, he played in only 39 games in 2016-17 – his 10th season in the NBA – and averaged 7.2 points, 2.2 rebounds and 2.2 assists. A strained patellar tendon led to his being waived by the Pacers on March 29, 2017.

Stuckey is EWU's highest draft pick ever (three through 2018-19), and at the time was the second-highest selection in the now more than 50-year history of the Big Sky Conference Eastern's only previous NBA draftee before Stuckey was Ron Cox, a sixth-round draft choice by the Cleveland Cavaliers in 1977. Although he never played a game in the NBA, Cox was EWU's all-time leading scorer for nearly 40 years with 1,741 points, as Stuckey finished fourth in school history at the time with 1,438 points. Tyler Harvey was picked in the second round by Orlando in the 2015 draft (51st overall) after a three-year career in which he surpassed Stuckey with 1,564 points.

The only other first-round draft choice in the history of the Big Sky Conference was Michael Ray Richardson from Montana. He was the fourth pick overall by the New York Knickerbockers in 1978. In 2012, Damian Lillard of Weber State was drafted as the sixth pick overall by Portland.

A 2004 graduate of Kentwood High School in Kent, Wash., Stuckey was an All-American at Eastern – both athletically and academically – after averaging 24 points per game in each of his two seasons. He helped EWU win 30 games in two seasons and had a 3.34 grade point average.

Rodney Stuckey's Eagle Basketball & NBA Highlights

- Former Eastern Washington University men's basketball All-American and eventual 10-year NBA veteran Rodney Stuckey had his EWU jersey retired in ceremonies that took place on Sunday, Jan. 11, 2008, at Reese Court in Cheney, Wash. The 2008-09 season would have been Stuckey's senior season at EWU had he played all four seasons.

- After being selected by the Detroit Pistons 15th overall in the 2009 NBA Draft, he became EWU's highest draft pick ever and the second-highest in the history of the Big Sky Conference at the time. He played seven NBA seasons for the Pistons – earning All-Rookie honors in the 2009-10 season – and played the last three years of his NBA career for the Indiana Pacers.

- All-American at Eastern – both athletically and academically – after averaging 24 points per game in his career. He helped EWU win 30 games.

- As a sophomore, he ranked seventh in NCAA Division I in scoring with an average of 24.6 points per game. He was eighth as a freshman with a 24.2 average.

- As both a freshman and sophomore, he was given honorable mention All-America honors by the Associated Press.

- With a 3.34 cumulative grade point average, he was a third team selection on the 2007 ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America team and twice received All-District VIII honors.

- In just two seasons, he broke 10 school records and scored a total of 1,438 points. He had nine games with at least 30 points (out of 59 career games).

- He was a preseason candidate for the John R. Wooden Award in the 2006-07 season.

- In his freshman season, Collegeinsider.com voted Stuckey its National Freshman of the Year.

- Big Sky Conference MVP and Freshman of the Year in 2005-06.

EAGLE MEN'S BASKETBALL 2022-23

Magician on the Court, Tyler Harvey Drafted in NBA by Orlando

Former Eagle megastar is chosen in the second round as the 51st pick overall

After performing his magic act at Reese Court for three seasons, Tyler Harvey made the transition from Eagle to professional.

Now playing professionally overseas, the former Eagle sharpshooter was selected by the Orlando Magic in the second round as the 51st pick overall of the National Basketball Association Draft on June 25 in Brooklyn, N.Y.

In his first taste of the NBA during the Orlando Pro Summer League, Harvey led the Magic's Blue summer squad with 24 points and five assists in his first start in their 91-85 loss to the Indiana Pacers. He made 4-of-7 from three-point range in the game, and averaged 10.6 points, 2.0 assists and 1.4 rebounds in the five total games he played.

He then played the 2015-16 season for the Erie Bay Hawks in the NBA Developmental League, and averaged 11.9 points, 2.4 rebounds and 1.5 assists per game in 37 games. He made 80-of-231 3-pointers for 34.6 percent, and 54-of-68 free throws for 79.4 percent. He led Erie to an improbable 125-120 victory over the Texas Legends on Dec. 29, 2015, when he made nine 3-pointers in the fourth quarter and two overtimes. He finished with 29 points as the Bay Hawks rallied from a 22-point deficit entering the fourth quarter.

Harvey elected to skip his senior season at Eastern for the chance to play in the NBA. After declaring for the draft on April 1, Harvey had workouts with many NBA teams, and also participated in the National Basketball Association Draft Combine in Chicago from May 12-17.

Harvey was a walk-on to the Eastern program in the fall of 2011 EWU head coach Jim Hayford's first year as head coach. After a redshirt season and playing sparingly in EWU's first 13 games, he was a high-scoring mainstay for the Eagles in the final 71 games of his 84-game career (67 as a starter). He led NCAA Division I in scoring (23.1) and 3-pointers made per game (4.00) in the 2014-15 season.

Rodney Stuckey, who spent 10 seasons in the NBA, was drafted 15th overall by the Detroit Pistons in the 2007 NBA Draft, where he spent his first seven seasons as a pro before moving to the Indiana Pacers for the 2014-15 season. Besides Stuckey, Ron Cox is the only previous NBA draftee from Eastern. He was a sixth-round draft choice by the Cleveland Cavaliers in 1977, but did not play in a regular season NBA game because of reconstructive surgery his left ankle.

Harvey was the first Big Sky Conference draft choice since Weber State's Damian Lillard was selected sixth overall by the Portland

Trailblazers in the first round in 2012.

Because of Harvey's early departure, Cox remained Eastern's all-time leading scorer a bit longer. He had 1,741 points from 1974-77, with Harvey right behind with 1,564. Stuckey scored 1,438 in two seasons, including 726 in 2006 to set the school record broken by Harvey with 738 in the 2014-15 season. That was broken three seasons later by Bogdan Bliznyuk with 741. The career record fell in 2015-16 when Venky Jois finished with 1,803 points, and then Bliznyuk broke that with a Big Sky record of 2,169 points.

More About Harvey . . .

- Tyler Harvey was selected by Associated Press as an honorable mention All-America selection after his record-breaking season as the leading scorer in NCAA Division I. He became the third player in EWU's 32 seasons as a member of NCAA Division I to earn honorable mention All-America honors from Associated Press. Alvin Snow was the first in 2004, and Rodney Stuckey was chosen in 2006 and 2007.

- He was also a repeat member of the National Association of Basketball Coaches All-District 6 squad – earning first team accolades after second team honors as a sophomore.

- Harvey was also one of 16 finalists for the Jerry West Shooting Guard of the Year, and is also one of 31 finalists for the Lou Henson Award given to the nation's top mid-major player. As a result, he was recognized on the Lou Henson All-America team.

- In addition, Harvey was a first team selection on the All-Big Sky Conference team for the second-straight season. He helped the Eagles close the year 26-9 on the season after finishing 14-4 in the Big Sky Conference to share the regular season title with Montana. Eastern swept through three games in the Big Sky Conference Tournament to garner the school's second NCAA Tournament appearance in school history. The Eagles finished with program bests for victories overall (26), in the Big Sky (14), on the road (11) and in non-conference play (9) in 32 seasons as a member of NCAA Division I.

- Harvey was selected as a first team selection on the 2014-15 Academic All-America® team for NCAA Division I as selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). Harvey was one of five players to be named to the first team, and is EWU's initial first team selection in school history. He had a 3.60 grade point average as a communications studies major. On Feb. 25, 2015, Harvey was the recipient of a "Keeper of the Dream" award from EWU's Africana Studies department.

- Harvey led NCAA Division I in scoring (23.1 points per game) and 3-pointers per game (4.00), and was 14th in 3-point shooting percentage (43.1 percent) and 44th in free throw percentage (.852).

- Harvey closed the year with Big Sky and EWU single season records for season 3-pointers with 128. His 738 points were a school record and ranked fourth in league history at the time.

- In addition, Harvey was selected as the MVP of the Big Sky Conference Tournament after averaging 23.0 points, 2.7 assists and 2.0 steals per game in three games while making 10-of-24 3-point shots (41.7 percent) and 22-of-43 overall (51.2 percent).

- In equalling the Big Sky Tournament record with 42 points against Idaho, Harvey had his fifth game of the season and 11th of his career with at least 30 points, and his 40th-straight game scoring in double figures (snapped when he scored nine versus Sacramento State the next night). His 42 at the time ranked third in school history behind the 45 of Rodney Stuckey (versus Northern Arizona on 1/5/06) and 44 of David Peed (versus UC Irvine on 12/13/88). His 42 points tied the tourney record of 42 set by Anthony Johnson of Montana in 2010, and passed the 38 Stuckey had versus Portland State in 2006.

A record more than two months in the making, Bogdan Bliznyuk set a new NCAA Division I single season record for consecutive free throws made on March 3, 2018, in EWU's regular season finale against Northern Arizona at Reese Court. Bliznyuk made all six of his free throws, including a pressure-packed, record-breaking pair with 3:46 left in the Senior Day game to give him 74 and break the NCAA Division I single season record of 73 set by Gary Buchanan from Villanova over a 21-game stretch in the 2000-01 season. His 74th is pictured. Bliznyuk sank his first three versus Portland State on March 8 before missing, ending the record at 77 in a span of 18 games dating back to EWU's game at North Dakota on Dec. 31, The Big Sky Conference MVP finished 78-of-79 during conference play (98.7 percent), but came up short of the career record of 85-straight free throws between Feb. 15, 2001, and Jan. 18, 2003, by Darnell Arcey from Butler during a 57-game stretch. Bliznyuk finished the year making a school-record 90.2 percent to rank second in the Big Sky and 12th in Division I, and his career mark of 84.0 percent ranked third at EWU all-time.

In 55 Years of the Big Sky Conference, 2,169 Points by Bogdan Bliznyuk is No. 1

BOGDAN BLIZNYUK was the 2017-18 Big Sky Conference MVP, a first team All-District 6 selection by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) and an honorable mention All-America selection by Associated Press. He finished his career with 2,169 points, passing the record of 2,102 set by Orlando Lightfoot from Idaho in three seasons from 1991-94. Bliznyuk achieved the record on March 9 in a 32-point effort in the semifinals of the Big Sky Conference Tournament. "It's definitely an honor and there have been a lot of great players in this conference," said Bliznyuk after the record fell.

Bliznyuk was just the fifth player in the then 55-year history of the league to hit the 2,000-point mark. But his record lasted just 316 days before being broken by Montana State's Tyler Hall (2,518). Hall broke the record on EWU's home court in Cheney on Jan. 19, 2019, but EWU won the game 85-81.

In his 138th and final game of his career, Bliznyuk tied EWU's single season scoring record with 50 seconds left, then broke it with a 3-pointer on the last shot of his illustrious career with 20 ticks remaining. Bliznyuk, the Big Sky's all-time leading scorer with 2,169 points, finished with 741 as a senior to rank sixth in league history and break the previous school record of 738 set three years earlier by Tyler Harvey. In setting a total of 16 school records, Bliznyuk scored 27 points in the 138th and final game of his career – the 44th time he scored at least 20 and his 100th double-digit performance. He closed his career with the NCAA Division I single season free throw record with 77-straight makes, three league marks, nine Big Sky Tournament records, 16 school records and the utmost respect from his head coach.

"I love Tyler to death, but I wasn't about to let Bogdan go without that record," said SHANTAY LEGANS. "Bogdan is going to understand some day how much he accomplished. It was probably the best single season a player has had at Eastern Washington and probably the best career – he's going to be in the record books a long time."

In his senior season, Bliznyuk made 52.8 percent of his field goals and 90.2 percent of his free throws (second in the Big Sky, 12th in NCAA Division I) to average 21.2 points (third, 23rd nationally) in 35 games. He also averaged 6.8 rebounds and 3.9 assists to rank as the only player in the league to be in the top 15 in scoring, rebounding and assists – he was actually in the top six in all three. Along with teammate Sir Washington, Bliznyuk finished as the winningest Eastern player in the school's NCAA Division I history with 86 victories overall and 50 league wins in four seasons. He helped lead the Eagles to national postseason tournaments in each of his four seasons, including the NCAA Tournament in 2015 and the College Basketball Invitational in 2016, 2017 and 2018. Bliznyuk earned first team All-Big Sky honors in 2018, was a second team choice in 2017 and was the league's Freshman of the Year in 2015.

Bliznyuk had two games of at least 40 points and 13 with at least 30, including the school record scoring total of 45 set as a junior. He had 10 or more rebounds 20 times and double figures in assists on three occasions, with 21 total double-doubles (17-4 record). Plus, he had the lone triple-double in school history as a sophomore. On nine other occasions an Eastern player has flirted with a triple-double (within a combined total of three rebounds and/or assists), including four by Bliznyuk, three by Drew Brandon and one each by Rodney Stuckey and Justin CrosBILE.

Before Signing With the Brooklyn Nets in the NBA, Jacob Wiley Receives AP Honorable Mention All-America Honors in His Only Season as an Eagle

JACOB WILEY was the best kind of a "one-and-done" college basketball player, and received a contract in the National Basketball Association to cap it. The graduate transfer concluded an incredible senior season when he was named by Associated Press as an honorable mention All-America selection in the 2016-17 season. He became just the fourth Eagle to earn that honor in 34 seasons as a member of NCAA Division I.

Less than a month after the conclusion of the season, Wiley was married on April 8, then headed for Portsmouth, Va., for the 65th-Annual Portsmouth Invitational Tournament. The PIT featured 64 of the nation's top college seniors competing in a four-day, 12-game event in front of team representatives throughout the National Basketball Association. The 2012 tournament took place April 12-15 at Churchland High School, and Wiley averaged 27.2 minutes, 17.3 points, 9.3 rebounds and 1.7 blocks in three games.

His performance in Portsmouth opened the door for numerous workouts with NBA teams in preparation for the NBA Draft. Although he was not chosen, he signed a two-way contract to play with the Brooklyn Nets and the team's NBA G League affiliate, the Long Island Nets. He averaged 6.6 minutes per game in his five games with Brooklyn, scoring four points and grabbing 11 rebounds. He scored all four of the points and eight of the rebounds in 21 minutes of action against Denver on Nov. 7, 2017. He made his regular season NBA debut versus Denver on Oct. 29, 2017. He then averaged 7.8 points, 3.8 rebounds and 1.1 assists for Long Island, including a season-high 20 in his first game on Nov. 16, 2017. Wiley scored in double figures five times, and had a season-high seven rebounds on Jan. 2, 2018. Wiley also played with the Nets during the 2017 NBA Summer League, averaging 15.6 minutes, 2.5 points, 4.5 rebounds and 0.5 blocked shots in the team's four games in Las Vegas. A foot injury ended his 2017-18 season and subsequently he was released, but he played in the 2018 NBA Summer League in Las Vegas for the Dallas Mavericks. He played most of the 2018-19 season in Australia and is now playing in Greece.

Wiley was selected as the MVP of the Big Sky Conference in his lone season as an Eagle, and went on to earn first team All-District 6 honors from the National Association of Basketball Coaches, and was a Mid-Major All-American as a finalist for the Lou Henson Award presented by Collegeinsider.com. Wiley made Big Sky as a senior by becoming just the second player in league history to score at least 639 points and have at least 303 rebounds in a single season in the league's 54-year existence. He finished with totals of 694 and 309, respectively, and no other player in league history has coupled that with at least 58 blocks (Wiley finished with 94 to come one shy of the league record) or a shooting percentage of at least .621 (Wiley finished at .643). Montana's Larry Krystkowiak (now head coach at Utah) is the other player to have at least 639/303 in the same year, and he had 709 points and 364 rebounds in the 1985-86 season.

Wiley finished the season ranked sixth in NCAA Division I in field goal percentage (.643), eighth in blocked shots (2.76 per game), 29th in scoring (20.4), 48th in rebounds (9.1) and 112th in free throw percentage (.828). En route to earning league MVP honors, he led the Big Sky in field goal percentage, rebounds and scoring, and was sixth in scoring. In league-only statistics, Wiley led in scoring (24.6),

Australian VENKY JOIS had a school-record 1,803 points (13th in Big Sky Conference history) in his 122-game career, with 1,015 rebounds (third in school history, fifth in league history) and 240 blocked shots (school record and second all-time in the Big Sky behind the record of 247). He also broke school records his senior season (2015-16) for field goal accuracy (67.9 percent) and dunks (61), and also left as the school's career leader in games started (120), dunks (159), blocked shots per game (2.0) and free throws attempted (660). Another school record – for a total of 10 – was set during his junior campaign when he had 69 blocked shots (record 2.2 per game).

Jois was only the third player at the time in the then 53-year history of the Big Sky Conference to have more than 1,600 points and 900 rebounds in his career. The only other players in league history to have more than 1,600 points and 900 rebounds are Larry Krystkowiak (Montana, 1983-86, 2,017 points, 1,105 rebounds, 3,122 total) and Steve Hayes (Idaho State, 1974-77, 1,933 points, 1,147 rebounds, 3,080 total). For total points/rebounds, Jois was fourth all-time with a total of 2,818.

He earned All-Big Sky Conference honors all four years as an Eagle – first team as a junior and senior, and honorable mention as a sophomore and freshman. He was the league's Freshman of the Year in the 2012-13 season. He was also honored twice on the National Association of Basketball Coaches Association All-District 6 squad, earning first team honors as a junior and second team as a senior. He was also an All-Tournament choice at the the 2015 Big Sky Conference Tournament when Eastern won three games, including a come-from-behind victory over host Montana to advance to the school's second NCAA Tournament.

RON COX, who earned All-America recognition all four seasons he played basketball for Eastern, had his No. 30 jersey retired in ceremonies taking place March 8, 2014, at Reese Court in Cheney, Wash. Current Detroit Piston Rodney Stuckey is the only other Eastern player to have his jersey retired, and Cox's No. 30 now hangs next to No. 3. Formerly from nearby Coulee City, Wash., Cox played four seasons for the Eagles from 1973-77. He had record totals of 1,741 points and 1,273 rebounds in leading Eastern to a 77-30 record and three Evergreen Conference titles. In his first two years playing for head coach Jerry Krause, the Eagles played in Memorial Fieldhouse along the East side of Washington Street. But the Special Events Center opened across the street in fall of 1975, and his final two seasons were played in the new facility (later additionally named Reese Court). In his senior season in 1976-77, Cox helped Eastern start a school-record 31-game home winning streak, which would continue until Dec. 8, 1978. Cox received his bachelor's degree at Eastern in 1978 and his master's degree in 1995. Drafted in the sixth round of the 1977 NBA draft by the Cleveland Cavaliers, a foot injury ended his professional career before it even started. Cox went on to a highly-successful high school coaching career which included 388 victories in 26 seasons. He retired from coaching, but returned to Lakeside High School as head coach for the 2015-16 season. He was inducted into the Eastern Athletics Hall of Fame in 1998, and the 1976-77 team which finished 25-4 was inducted in 2016. Cox was admitted to the Washington Interscholastic Activities Association Hall of Fame in 2011 and the Inland Northwest Hall of Fame in 2019. The 1976-77 team he played on was inducted into the Eastern Athletics Hall of Fame in 2016. He was honored in 2017 as Eastern's "Legend of the Game" as part of EWU's participation in the annual Legends Classic Basketball Tournament.

CHRIS WHITE earned first team All-Big Sky Conference honors as a senior in 2001 after helping Eastern to the championship game of the Big Sky Conference Tournament. He set a school record on Feb. 1, 2001, when he made all 10 of his field goal attempts against Montana State. He played 109 total games in his career, and made 55.1 percent of his shots.

Inducted into the Eastern Athletics Hall of Fame in 2005, DICK EDWARDS averaged 19.00 points in the 1953-54 season for a school record that stood for 18 years. He finished his three-year career with 1,214 points and a 15.77 average, a school record for 17 years. He held the school's career free throw percentage record (84.4 percent) for 60 years, and he owned the single season record (85.8 percent) for 47 years. Three times he was honored on the All-Evergreen Conference team. Named by the legendary Red Reese as one of the greatest basketball players he ever coached, Edwards was team MVP in both 1954 and 1955 and was team captain in 1955.

RYAN HANSEN (left) had the Compaq Play of the Year for his 55-foot game-winning shot versus Idaho State on Jan. 6, 2000.

Inducted into the Eastern Athletics Hall of Fame in 2014, JACK PERRAULT scored 507 points in the 1944-45 season for Eastern to rank second nationally. He held the school's single season scoring record for 26 years until it was broken by Randy Buss with 521 in 1970-71. Perrault lettered from 1942-45, and played in the NAIA Tournament three of those years (the tournament was not held in 1944). He helped lead Eastern to a 91-25 record (.784).

MASON PEATLING won the Big Sky Conference MVP award in the 2019-20 season after averaging a double-double in 20 league outings with averages of 18.5 points and 10.4 rebounds per game. He was also a first team All-District 6 selection by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC). Honored three times on All-BSC teams, he was first team in 2019-20, and second team in 2018-19 when he also was picked for the Big Sky's All-Tournament team. He was honorable mention All-Big Sky as a sophomore in 2017-18. In addition, in 2019-20 he was a first team Academic All-America selection and EWU's recipient of the Big Sky-Scholar-Athlete Award after receiving both his bachelor's and master's degrees in business administration with a 3.97 grade point average. Peatling was on fire during the league season as a senior, closing with averages of 18.5 points on 56 percent shooting from the field, 10.4 rebounds, 3.8 assists, 1.7 blocked shots and 0.8 steals. He had 11 double-doubles in his last 15 games. Peatling was honored three times during the year as Big Sky Conference Player of the Week. He helped lead the Eagles to the outright Big Sky Conference title and their second-highest win total in 37 years as a NCAA Division I member with 23 victories. The school's 16 league triumphs were the most in their 33 years as a member of the Big Sky. He finished his career with 118 games played, 1,250 points, 725 rebounds, 112 blocked shots and a .555 field goal shooting percentage – all marks which rank in the top 12 in EWU history.

JACOB WILEY (left) and BOGDAN BLIZNYUK combined for 90 points in EWU's 130-124 triple-overtime win over Portland State on Feb. 4, 2017, to easily set school and Big Sky Conference records. Their performance came just two points from the NCAA Division I mark of 92 set by Kevin Bradshaw (72) & Isaac Brown (20) for U.S. International (now Alliant International) vs. Loyola Marymount on Jan. 5, 1991. Interestingly, they combined for 68 (Bradshaw 37, Brown 31) in a 118-83 loss to Eastern on Feb. 2, 1991, and 39 the year before (Bradshaw 30, Brown 9) in a 102-93 victory over EWU on Dec. 21, 1989. When Bliznyuk and Wiley both scored 45 versus PSU, it was the first time in NCAA history two players have scored at least 45 points in the same game. Notre Dame had two players also score 90 on Feb. 23, 1970, in a 121-114 non-overtime win over Butler (Austin Carr with 50 and Collis James with 40). Loyola Marymount's Bo Kimble and the late Hank Gathers each scored 40 against Gonzaga in 1989, and the Bulldogs also had a 40-point scorer in that game, Doug Spradley. On Feb. 20, 1971, Idaho State's Willie Humes scored 58 points and MSU's Bill Brickhouse and Willie Weeks each scored 38 in a 105-92 Bobcat win, also in regulation.

Rodney Stuckey - 14 points, 7 rebounds, 10 assists (vs. Pacific Lutheran on 11/19/05)

FELIX VON HOFE set the school record for games played and broke EWU's 3-pointers made record in the final game of his career. Von Hofe moved up to sixth in career 3-pointers in the Big Sky Conference with 262, and broke the previous school record of 260 set by his former teammate Tyler Harvey from 2013-15. Von Hofe also broke the school record with 657 attempts (breaking Harvey's record of 602), and his percentage of .399 was 12th. Von Hofe was the 21st Eagle to join the 1,000-point club, and finished his career ranked 18th with 1,058 career points. Von Hofe came to Eastern from Melbourne, Australia, and attended Wesley College and the Australian Institute of Sport prior to coming to the United States.

BOGDAN BLIZNYUK had the first triple-double in school history with 11 points, 14 rebounds and 10 assists in a 96-73 victory over Northern Arizona on Jan. 16, 2016. He made 4-of-12 shots from the field and both of his free throws, and also had three blocked shots. Not even Rodney Stuckey, former NBA guard, or former All-Big Sky point guard Drew Brandon, were able to register the rare feat. On nine occasions an Eastern player has flirted with a triple-double (within a combined total of three rebounds and/or assists), including four by Bliznyuk, three by Brandon and one each by Stuckey and Justin Crosigile.

RONN McMAHON is one of the newest former men's basketball players to be inducted into the Eastern Athletics Hall of Fame. Honored in 2017, McMahon was one of the top point guards in NCAA Division I as a senior in the 1989-90 season when he helped Eastern to an 18-11 record and runner-up finishes in the Big Sky Conference regular season and tournament. His school records of 130 steals and 4.48 average in 1990, as well as his 3.52 career average, all still rank among the top performances in NCAA history.

TANNER GROVES scored a career-high 35 points in EWU's 93-84 loss to Kansas in the 2021 NCAA Tournament to end a honor-filled season for the 2017 graduate of Shadle Park High School in Spokane, Wash. A week earlier, he turned his regular season MVP into a tournament MVP honor as well, and he brought his brother along for the ride. The elder Groves was selected as the MVP of the Big Sky Conference Championship in Boise, Idaho, while sophomore Jacob Groves also earned All-Tournament accolades. It was the 12th time both MVP awards were won by the same person in the same season in the 42 years both awards have been presented. Tanner is the first since 2014 when Davion Berry from Weber State won both. And it only seemed appropriate for the brothers to headline the tournament since the team hotel and tournament headquarters in Boise was the Grove Hotel.

Eagles in National Postseason Tournaments

In the 2021-22 season, Eastern made its eighth appearance in a national postseason tournament in school history. Eastern advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2004, 2015 and 2021, were in the NIT in 2003 and played in three College Basketball Invitational (CBI) tournaments in 2016, 2017 and 2018. In 2022, they participated in The Basketball Classic. In the 2016 CBI, Eastern recorded its first win in a national postseason tournament as a member of Division I with a 79-72 home win over Pepperdine. The Eagles are now 1-8 in postseason national tournaments as a member of NCAA Division I, and 7-13 overall.

Eastern also played in the NAIA Championships (then known as NAIB) on five occasions, with a 6-5 record in appearances in 1942, 1943, 1945, 1946 and 1947. Before beating Pepperdine in 2016, Eastern's previous national tournament victory came on March 12, 1947, when Eastern – then known as the Eastern Washington College of Education Savages – beat Dakota Wesleyan 62-48. One year earlier, Eastern lost to Pepperdine before meeting the Waves again for the second time in school history nearly 70 years to the day later in the CIT.

The 1976-77 "Screamin' Eagles" Men's Basketball team was inducted into the Eastern Athletics Hall of Fame in 2016. Under head coach JERRY KRAUSE, Eastern outscored opponents by an average of nearly 18 points per game on its way to a 25-4 record. Eastern came one victory from a berth to the NAIA Tournament after finishing as the NAIA District 1 Tournament runner-up for the second-straight season. Front Row (left to right): Program Assistant Dave Stocker, Tom Rife, Wayne Robinson, Paul Hungenberg, Vic White, Terry Pepple, Robert Gatlin, Ed Waters, Terry Reed, Coach Larry Hinshaw. Back Row: Head Coach Jerry Krause, Mike Heath, Ray Palmer, Ron Cox, Martin Harpole, Jeff Miller, Rick Piper, Jim Savage, Eugene Glenn, Coach Ron Raver.

Eagles in the Big Sky Tournament

- Eastern has made 19 Big Sky Conference Tournament appearances in 34 years as a member of the league, and has a record of 21-16 in its 37 games. The Eagles are 2-0 in the first round, 7-6 in the quarterfinals, 9-4 in the semifinals and 3-6 in the championship. Before winning the 2015 title, Eastern hadn't appeared since the 2011-12 and 2010-11 seasons, which were EWU's first since 2006. The Eagles qualified for each tournament from 1998-2006.

- Eastern won Big Sky Conference Tournament championships and appeared in the NCAA Tournament in 2021, 2015 & 2004. The Eagles have also advanced to the National Invitation Tournament in 2003 and the College Basketball Invitational in 2016 and 2017. Eastern registered the school's first NCAA Division I postseason win with a 79-72 victory over Pepperdine in the first round of the CBI in 2016.

- The Eagles rolled through the 2021 Big Sky Conference Tournament with a trio of victories, leading for a total of 108:19 out of 120 minutes (trailed for 8:25 and tied for 3:16). EWU led by as many as 12, 38 and 20 in the three wins, respectively.

- Eastern's 2014-15 squad won the title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament with a trio of victories in Missoula, Montana. Included was a come-from-behind 69-65 over the host Grizzlies in the championship game.

- Before beating Montana for the 2015 title, Eastern had ended its season with losses to the Grizzlies in appearances in 2012, 2006 and 2005.

- Although its streak of Big Sky tournament berths came to an end in the 2006-07 season, at the time Eastern was just the fifth school in league history to make nine-straight appearances in the Big Sky Conference Tournament. Eastern started the streak back in 1998 after making just one trip to the tourney in their first 10 seasons as a member of the conference. Interestingly, Montana's 77-69 victory over the Lumberjacks on Feb. 28, 2005, extended Eastern's streak and ended NAU's eight-season streak. Eastern's streak started in 1998 with an end-of-year victory at Montana. That "winner advance, loser eliminated" game ended Montana's 21-year streak.

- In 2011, Eastern's season came to an end with a 79-70 loss at Weber State in the quarterfinal round of the tournament. That came just three days after the Eagles stunned WSU on their home court 75-59 to end the regular season. Because of the upset, the Wildcats lost their chance at a first-round bye and had to face the Eagles again. In the rematch, WSU outscored EWU 46-25 in the second half as the Wildcats overcame a 12-point EWU halftime lead and a 15-point deficit early in the second half.

- In 2013-14, the Eagles were 15-16 overall and missed the Big Sky Conference Tournament with a 10-10 league mark. Interestingly, Sacramento State was also 10-10, but secured the final bid because of a tiebreaker advantage over EWU, which dropped its final game of the season to Weber State 82-78.

The 1945-46 (top) and 1949-50 men's basketball teams have been inducted into the Eastern Athletics Hall of Fame (in 2003 and 2011, respectively). The '45-46 team was coached by RED REESE and led by IRV LEIFER, and both were inaugural members of the Hall. Eastern advanced to the quarterfinals of the NAIA Tournament and had a school-record 31 wins (31-4). The '49-50 team finished 23-7 and was also coached by Reese, who called the team "my best basketball club" despite just missing a berth in the NAIA Tournament.

EWU's NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAMS

The 2003-04, 2014-15 and 2020-21 men's basketball teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament.

After a 3-9 start in 2004, Eastern won the Big Sky regular season title and hosted the tournament at Reese Court. The Eagles, coached by RAY GIACOLETTI, rolled past Weber State and Northern Arizona before falling to Oklahoma State 75-56 in the Big Dance.

Eleven years later under JIM HAYFORD, Eastern was 26-9 and won the Big Sky Conference Tournament title by winning three games on back-to-back-to-back nights in Missoula Mont. In the title game, Eastern rallied from 11 points down with six minutes to play to stun host Montana 69-65. The Eagles, who earlier in the season snapped the nation's third-longest non-conference home court winning streak at 43 by beating Indiana, fell to Georgetown 84-79 in the NCAA Tourney.

In 2020-21, the Eagles rolled through the Big Sky Conference Tournament with a trio of victories, leading for a total of 108:19 out of 120 minutes (trailed for 8:25 and tied for 3:16). EWU led by as many as 12, 38 and 20 in the three wins, respectively. At the NCAA Tournament "bubble" in Indianapolis, Ind., the 14th-seeded Eagles led third-seeded Kansas for 20:47 compared to 18:07 for the Jayhawks, who were ranked 12th nationally in the Associated Press top 25 poll entering the game. Kansas led the final 8:46.

Alvin Snow Becomes Newest Legend Voted Into Hall of Fame

Groundbreaking former Eagle men's basketball player ALVIN SNOW became a member of the Eastern Athletics Hall of Fame in ceremonies which took place on Sept. 22, 2018, at EWU. He was Eastern's first basketball All-American at the NCAA Division I level – and the school's first Big Sky Conference MVP in the sport.

"Alvin was the first guy to buy into what we were doing here," said former EWU head coach RAY GIACOLETTI of the four seasons they spent together at EWU from 2000-2004. "He was a mainstay here, and was kind of the heart and soul of our team. His versatility and all the things he contributed is what separated him from other players and earned him the honors he received."

Bringing an incredible competitive fire and drive with him from Franklin High School in Seattle, Wash., Snow helped Eastern win 69 games with a NIT appearance in 2003 followed by the school's first Big Sky Conference Tournament title and NCAA Tournament berth in 2004. He had 1,396 points, 212 steals and 318 assists in 118 games as an Eagle and was one of just 17 players in league history (now 20) to win first team All-Big Sky honors three seasons. He was the league's MVP in 2004 when he earned honorable mention All-America honors, and was also the Big Sky 2002 Defensive Player of the Year.

"My time at Eastern was amazing," Snow said "On an individual, personal level, I had to learn to play the game a little differently than where I came from. So that prepared me for the professional level. And I'm grateful for that."

He played professionally for more than 10 years, and he works in Seattle is a player representative for Worldwide Sports Management. His mission is to carry out the tradition of his hometown and home state, while finding unique ways to help kids and adults alike to push for greatness and elevate themselves and each other. He currently represents several former Big Sky players, including former Eagle Jacob Wiley, who played for the Brooklyn Nets of the NBA and the Long Island Nets of the NBA G League in 2017-18.

Snow credits his mother, Sheri Charleston, for being his inspiration throughout his life on and off the basketball court. Plus, he calls his son, Christian Snow, his motivation to "work daily towards becoming the greatest version of myself that I can."
