THE OPENING KICK

» The Panthers earned the No. 8 seed in the ACC Tournament and plays host to No. 9 Louisville Wednesday, Nov. 1 at 8:00 pm at Ambrose Urbanic Field. Wednesday's match will air on ACC Network. This marks the eighth straight season Pitt has earned an ACC Tournament bid while earning a first round victory in each of the past five seasons.

» The Panthers enter postseason play with the No. 1 strength of schedule in the nation as they have played seven ranked opponents including four who were ranked inside the top-10.

» The Panthers have been one of the best home teams in the nation over the past four seasons as they own a 30-3-7 (.838) record at Ambrose Urbanic Field. The .838 win percentage marks the best in the ACC and third best overall in the NCAA over the span.

» Senior midfielder Filip Mirkovic is enjoying another strong campaign for the Panthers as he ranks second in the conference and seventh in the NCAA in assists on the year (9). For his career, Mirkovic has recorded a program record 28 assists, breaking the previous school record that was held by Eric Prex since 1994.

THE SERIES VS. LOUISVILLE
- This meeting marks the eighth all-time between the two programs with the Cardinals owning the 6-1-0 record against Pitt.
- The Cardinals defeated the Panthers 2-1 in Louisville last season.
- Pitt earned their only win in the series history in 2020 as they notched a 4-1 road victory over the Cardinals. Prior to that win, Pitt had lost the first five matches in the series.
- The Panthers are 0-3-0 against Louisville in Pittsburgh while being outscored 9-1.

SCOUTING THE CARDINALS
- Louisville enters Wednedsay's match with a 9-4-3 overall record and a 2-4-2 ACC mark. The Cardinals earned a 2-2 home draw against #3 Wake Forest last time out.
- The Cardinals are being led offensively by Damien Barker John who has netted eight goals, two assists and 18 points on 34 shots so far this season. Of his eight goals, three are game-winners for the Cardinals.
- Gage Guerra returned to the lineup last time out and ranks second on the squad with six goals (three game-winners) in just eight matches. David Boccuzzo and Sander Roed are tied for the team lead with six assists each on the year.
- In goal, Alex Svetanoff has started all 16 matches and owns a 9-4-3 record to go along with a 1.44 goals-against average, .733 save percentage and six shutouts.

PITT FALLS TO #5 NOTRE DAME
- Trailing by two entering the second half on Friday night, the Panthers had some defenivse breakdowns in the second half as #5 Notre Dame earned the 6-0 home victory.
- The 6-0 loss marked the biggest loss for Pitt in an ACC match since falling 7-1 at Notre Dame in 2012.
- For the match, Notre Dame held the 19-5 advantage in shots and the 4-2 edge in corner kicks.
- In goal, Cabral Carter made six saves in the loss for the Panthers. It marked his third game with at least six saves including in back-to-back matches. His shutout streak ended at 251:46 which marked the sixth longest in program history.

RECENT SUCCESS FOR PITT
- Appearing in two College Cups in the past three seasons, the Pitt men's soccer team has been one of the most successful programs in the nation.
- Pitt is the only team in the nation to appear in each of the past three Elite Eights.
- Over the past four seasons (2020-23), Pitt is seventh in total wins among all teams in the nation with 46 victories.
- The Panthers have collected at least 12 wins in each of the past three seasons.

PITT PLAYING HARD SCHEDULE
- What has become an every season thing for the Panthers since head coach Jay Vidovich took over the program, Pitt once again has played one of the hardest schedules in the nation.
- Pitt currently owns the hardest strength of schedule in the nation heading into Wednesday's ACC Tournament match against Louisville.
- Pitt's opponents also own the 11th hardest strength of schedule in the country this year.
- The Panthers have played seven ranked opponents so far this season including four foes who were ranked inside the top-10 in the nation.
- Four of Pitt's five losses this season have come against programs currently ranked ahead of the Panthers (No. 22) in the RPI poll.

SCORING FIRST A MUST FOR PITT
- One of the keys to victory for the Panthers over the last five seasons has been scoring the first goal of the goals to secure the 2-0 cleansheet over the Duquesne Dukes.

- Pitt has outscored their opponent seven times in the second half this season. They are 6-0-1 on the season when they win the scoring battle in the second 45 minutes.
- The Panthers are 0-4-0 when they are outscored in the second half of games.
- Pitt has outscored their opponents 14-2 in the second half in home matches at Ambrose Urbanic Field this season. They own a 6-1-2 record on their home turf.

MIRKOVIC THE MAGICIAN

- Senior midfielder Filip Mirkovic has developed into one of the most dangerous and creative players in the country during his time as a Panther.
- Mirkovic has started all 14 matches he's appeared in (red card suspension vs. Howard) and has produced a team-high nine assists and 21 shots (seven on goal) in 1212 minutes of work. His nine assists ranks second in the ACC and ranks seventh in the NCAA.
- His nine assists are currently tied for fifth most in a single season in program history. Mirkovic owns the single season record with 12 assists which he posted last season (2022).
- The senior collected another assist last week against Duquesne on the game-winner for Pitt and he now has a program record 28 career assists. Earlier this season, he broke Eric Prex's school record for career assists (26) that stood since 1994.
- In the win over FDU, Mirkovic had a performance to remember as he secured a program single game record tying four assists in the 5-1 win. The four assists tied a school and ACC single game record as he became just the third ACC players in the past 30 seasons to notch a four-assist match.
- The multi-assist game marked his sixth of his career (all coming in the past two seasons).
- His 28 career assists are tied for the most in the nation among active players (Willem Ebbinge, Harvard & Tom Cooklin, Western Michigan).

- The senior brings loads of experience to the field for the Panthers as he has appeared in 73 matches and started 69. He has posted nine goals, 28 assists and 46 points to go along with 100 shots in four years of action for Pitt.

CARTER SEES SHUTOUT STREAK SNAPPED

- Sophomore goalkeeper Cabral Carter is turning into one of the best young keepers in the ACC during his first season of action.
- So far this season, Carter owns a 6-5-4 overall record to go along with a 1.47 goals-against average, .690 save percentage and six shutouts.
- Carter is tied for second in the ACC in shutouts (six), third in saves (49) and third in saves per game (3.27) so far this season.
- Last time out against #5 Notre Dame, Carter allowed his first goal in over two matches (dating back to the first half vs. Virginia, 10/13). His shutout streak of 251:46 minutes marks the sixth longest in program history.
- His six shutouts are currently tied for the eighth most in a single season in program history.

SAHMKOW LEADING OFFENSIVE ATTACK

- With a whole new attacking group joining the fold this season, junior Luis Sahmkow has been tasked with picking up some of the scoring burden and he's delivered through the first eight matches of the season.
- So far this season, Sahmkow has appeared in 12 matches for the Panthers and secured a team-high six goals on 21 shots while converting on a NCAA-leading 3-for-3 from the penalty spot.
- His six goals are a career-high while his 0.50 goals per game ranks 8th in the ACC.
- In the win over FDU, Sahmkow had the best game of his career as he netted his first career hat trick. After converting on a PK in the fourth minute, he netted two goals in the second half just over two minutes apart.

PANTHERS IN THE PROS...

- Since head coach Jay Vidovich's arrival on campus in 2016, the Pitt men's soccer program has begun to build a culture and program of winning and developing in Oakland.
- In total, 14 former Panthers are currently playing professional soccer in the US.
- Last season, a program record seven Panthers signed professional contracts after Pitt advanced to the College Cup.
- Pitt has seen eight players selected in the MLS SuperDraft including a program record three last season.

Under Jay Vidovich (2016-Pres.)

- He is the first Panther since Edward Kizza in 2018 (twice) to net a hat trick.
- For his career, Sahmkow now has 11 goals and 26 points in 37 games. His career 0.30 goals per match is sixth best in program history while his career 0.70 points per game is seventh best in program history.

NEWCOMERS MAKING NOISE
- The Panthers have received major contributions from their newcomers so far this season.
- Freshman forward Albert Thorsen has led this group as he has started 11 matches for the Panthers. The Norway native now has four goals, two assists and 10 points on 18 shots so far this season.
- Transfers Luka Kozomara and Joao Souza each have netted three goals on the season while combining for 26 shots.
- The french duo of Abdoulaye Toure and Raphael Cilli have made their presence felt early on. Toure has two goals, two assists and six points on 17 shots while Cilli has two goals and an assist while appearing in 12 matches and earned 10 starts at right back for Pitt.
- Felipe Mercado has been a strong presence for Pitt in the midfield, starting 12 matches at the holding midfield position with one assist.

GILMAN LEADING BY EXAMPLE
- Heading into his sophomore campaign in 2023, Jackson Gilman has earned the repect of his teammates through his hardwork and dedication to the Pitt crest.
- Gilman will wear the captain's armband for Pitt this season following in the footsteps of former teammate and captain Jackson Walti who also earned the armband as a sophomore.
- Gilman becomes the ninth different Panther to sport the captain's armband for Pitt since Jay Vidovich took over the program in 2016.
- In the win over Virginia Tech, Gilman headed home his second goal of the season. The two goals are a career-high for the sophomore defender.

- So far this season, Gilman has started all 15 matches while playing a team-high 1336 minutes on the backline for Pitt while helping the squad earn six shutouts through the first 15 matches. He has added a career-high two goals, two assists and six points on eight shots offensively.

FACING RANKED OPPONENTS
- The Panthers are no stranger to nationally ranked opponents and in fact, head coach Jay Vidovich intentionally schedules ranked foes in non-conference year after year.
- Notre Dame was the seventh ranked opponent for Pitt so far this season. Pitt is 2-3-2 on the year against ranked foes after knocking off #9 Wake Forest and #19 Denver and falling to #2 Marshall, #5 Notre Dame and #7 Syracuse. They have played #9 Duke and #18 North Carolina to scoreless draws.
- Overall, Pitt is 11-6-7 against nationally ranked foes over the past three seasons. Over the past four seasons, Pitt owns a 15-9-7 record against ranked foes.
- In 2022, Pitt played a program record 13 nationally ranked teams out of 22 total opponents. Three of Pitt's five losses on the year came to ranked teams.
- Pitt posted wins over #1 Kentucky, #2 Georgetown and #6 West Virginia last season, giving them three wins over top-10 teams for the second straight season.
- Pitt is 5-2-2 against top-5 opponents over the last three seasons as they downed Kentucky (No. 1), Georgeotwn (No. 2), Clemson (No. 2), Duke (No. 3) and North Carolina (No. 4) during the regular season.

FAMILY AFFAIR
- Freshman midfielder Santiago Ferreira has earned some playing time for the Panthers of late.
- In win draw against UNC, Ferreira earned his first collegiate start for the Panthers. He played 49 minutes in the match and made an immediate impact.

- The freshman collected his first career point, an assist, in the Panthers' 3-1 home win over #19 Denver. He also finished the match with a career-high 56 minutes played.
- So far this season, he has appeared in 10 matches and earned one start.
- The FC Dallas Academy product comes from a long line of professional soccer players in his family.
- His father, David, played professional soccer all over the world from 1999-2019. He had a very successful stop at FC Dallas in the MLS where he earned league MVP honors in 2010 after scoring eight goals and 13 assists. He also played for the Colombia National Team, appearing in 39 matches, while winning the Copa America in 2001.
- His brother, Jesus, plays for FC Dallas in the MLS since 2017. He has also appeared in 23 matches for the US National Team.
- So far this season, Jesus has accumulated 12 goals and six assists on 62 shots. Over his career in the MLS, he has accumulated 48 goals, 28 assists and 124 points across eight seasons.

INTERNATIONAL PANTHERS
- Pitt has started to recruit international since head coach Jay Vidovich took over the program in 2015 and it has been a successful recipe for the Panthers.
- The Panthers have a total of 10 players on their roster from outside the US.
- In all, Pitt features players from six different countries including France, Germany, Colombia, Brazil, Norway and the USA.
- The Panthers have a total of four players from France (Cilli, Toure, Maillefaud, Lefevbre) and two from Brazil (Feitosa, Souza) on their 2023 roster.

VIDOVICH'S COACHING SUCCESSES
- Head coach Jay Vidovich has made a total of five College Cup appearances as a head coach including two at Pitt.

- Vidovich owns a 2-4 overall record in his College Cup coaching career as his Wake Forest team won the 2007 National title, defeating Ohio State 2-1 in the championship match.
- He has posted a career coaching record of 347-178-64 (.641). His 347 career coaching wins are the 11th most among active D1 head coaches.
- With the win over NC State last season, Vidovich became the first head coach in ACC history to collect 100 regular season conference wins. He currently owns a 103-79-31 (.556) record in ACC matches.
- Vidovich is one of the most decorated coaches in the NCAA as he earned one national title (2007, Wake Forest) while earning two NSCAA National Coach of the Year awards (2007, 2008) and seven ACC Coach of the Year awards (2002, 2004, 2006, 2008, 2009, 2020, 2021).

NEW ASSISTANTS JOIN VIDOVICH
- Head coach Jay Vidovich welcomes a pair of new assistant coaches for the 2023 campaign.
- Josh Oldroyd will work with the Panthers' goalkeepers while Zack Schilawski will work with the Panthers' attacking group for the 2023 campaign.
- Oldroyd comes to Pitt after spending the past five seasons at perennial powerhouse Kentucky where he served as goalkeeper coach for the Wildcats.
- Oldroyd brings a wealth of knowledge to the youthful Pitt goalkeeper room after developing multiple professional players during his time in Lexington.
- Zack Schilawski joins the staff after spending the past two seasons at UNC Wilmington and the previous season at Denver.
- Schilawski is a familiar face for Vidovich who coached him from 2006-10 at Wake Forest. The talented forward finished his career with a program record 99 games played while also ranking third in program history in points (100) and goals (40) during his stellar collegiate career. He also netted the game-winning goal in the 2007 College Cup final victory over Ohio State to secure the Demon Deacons first national championship in program history.

Head Coach Jay Vidovich welcomed a pair of new assistant coaches for the 2023 season. Josh Oldroyd came to Pitt after a successful run at Kentucky while Zack Schilawski joins the Panthers after a couple seasons at UNC Wilmington.

Coaching Honors
ACC Coach of the Year: 2002, 2004, 2006, 2008, 2009, 2020 & 2021
NSCAA National Coach of the Year: 2007 and 2008

Jay Vidovich, one of America's most respected and accomplished soccer coaches, is entering his eighth season as head coach of Pitt in 2023. He was named the third men's soccer head coach in program history at the University of Pittsburgh in December of 2015.

Vidovich has taken the Panthers program to unimagined heights since taking the reins of the program. Under his tutelage, Pitt has advanced to a pair of College Cups in the past three seasons including in 2022.

Following the impressive 2022 campaign, the Panthers had a trio of players selected in the 2023 MLS SuperDraft which marked the most picks in a single draft in program history. Junior forward Bertin Jacquesson earned a Generation Adidas contract (first in program history) and became the highest drafted Panther in program history when he was selected with the 16th pick by Real Salt Lake. Fellow Panther Valentin Noel also was taken in the first round as he went 20th overall to Austin FC while stalwart midfielder Jackson Walti was taken in the second round, 56th overall by Austin FC.

Jacquesson and Noel became the first pair of teammates at Pitt (any sport) to be selected in the top-20 of the draft since Bill Fralic and Chris Doleman were taken 2nd and 4th overall in the 1985 NFL Draft.

Overall, Pitt capped their impressive 2022 campaign with a 12-5-5 record including a 3-2-3 mark in ACC matches. After knocking off Cleveland State and Akron at home to open up the 2022 NCAA Tournament, the Panthers went on the road and notched the biggest upset of the tournament as they handed the No. 1 overall seed Kentucky a 2-1 loss thanks to a Bertin Jacquesson goal in the 87th minute despite playing down a man.

With the win over Kentucky, the Panthers earned their first ever home NCAA Tournament Elite Eight match as they hosted the Portland Pilots in front of a sold-out crowd at Ambrose Urbanic Field. After a dominant performance, Pitt came out on top in double overtime as Valentin Noel found the back of the net in the 104th minute to send Pitt to their second College Cup in three seasons.

Pitt capped the 2022 campaign ranked No. 4 in the final Top Drawer Soccer rankings, their highest final ranking in program history. They have now earned a top-10 ranking in the final poll in three straight seasons for the first time in program history.

The awards rolled in following the season as Pitt placed five on All-ACC squads while Noel earned Third Team All-American honors and First Team All-South Region honors. Filip Mirkovic also collected First Team All-South Region honors while freshman Jackson Gilman was named College Soccer News First Team Freshman All-America.

17 NCAA Tournament Appearances	8 ACC Player of the Year Honorees	the Year
	48 Professional Players	1 Senior CLASS award recipient

In total seven student-athletes from Vidovich's 2022 squad signed professional contracts which are the most signings in a single season in Pitt history.

Off the pitch, the Panthers had another strong season as well as they placed a program record 11 players on the All-ACC Academic Team while also earning the highest team GPA of any men's team at Pitt.

Vidovich and the team picked up where it left off in 2021 and captured a share of the ACC Coastal Division Title for the second-straight season and appeared in the NCAA Elite Eight for the second consecutive year. His efforts at the helm earned him ACC Coach of the Year for the second-straight season and seventh time in his illustrious career.

Since the start of the 2020-21 campaign – one split into two seasons due to the COVID-19 pandemic - the Panthers have been nationally ranked and have totaled 31 straight weeks in the United Soccer Coaches Poll. Of those 31 weeks, 21 have been in the top-five and 26 in the top-10.

The 2021 team proved to be one of the best passing teams in the nation, totaling 63 assists and 3.15 assists per game. The total assist mark surpassed last year's program high of 44 while the assists per game was .65 higher than the previous program best of 2.50 set back in 1971.

The team earned a key 2-0 victory on the road at No. 2 Clemson Sept. 25, 2021, snapping the Tigers' longest home winning streak in the nation. After the victory, Pitt secured the top spot of home wins in a row, a feat that lasted 19 games and six and a half weeks in the nation's toughest conference. In addition to longest active home winning streak, the Panthers held the second longest home unbeaten streak in the country at 19-0-0. Vidovich and staff have transformed Ambrose Urbanic Field as a tough place to play as Pitt has outscored its competition 84-28 since the 2019 season and outscored its opponents 43-12 in 2021.

Finishing 13-5-2 with a 5-2-1 conference ledger, the 2021 squad earned multiple accolades both on and off the pitch. Jasper Löeffelsend was named College Soccer News First Team All-American and United Soccer Coaches Second Team All-American, becoming the first two-time All-American in program history as he received both honors in 2020-21. Löeffelsend was also named ACC Defensive Player of the Year for the second consecutive season, a feat that has not happened in the conference since Ike Opara in 2008-09, a player Vidovich coached at Wake Forest.

Nine players were named to the All-ACC Team including a program best six on the Second Team. Pitt's achievements happened in the classroom as well as eight players were named to the All-ACC Academic Team with Jackson Walti earning the ACC Postgraduate Scholarship Award.

After the conclusion of the 2021 season, both Löeffelsend and Arturo Ordoñez were drafted in the 2022 MLS SuperDraft. Ordoñez was taken 39th overall by the Houston Dynamo, while Löeffelsend was selected 81st overall by Real Salt Lake.

Since Joining Pitt...
- Eight Draftees into the MLS
- Two All-Americans (four honors)
- 14 All-Region recipients
- Four ACC Player of the Year awardees
- 42 All-ACC honorees
- Seven All-ACC Tournament Players
- 32 All-ACC Academic players
- Four NCAA Tournament appearances
- Two NCAA College Cup appearances

Vidovich and the Panthers concluded one of the most memorable seasons in Pitt men's soccer history in 2020-21, finishing with a school record 16 wins, nine conference victories and a NCAA College Cup appearance, the first the program has seen. The Panthers finished 16-4 (9-1) and clinched the school's first ever Coastal Division crown with a 5-0 shutout victory at home over Virginia April 8, 2021.

Under Vidovich and staff, the Panthers earned a plethora of awards in 2020-21. Midfielder Valentin Noel and defender Jasper Löeffelsend received United Soccer Coaches First and Second Team All-America, respectively, the first All-Americans in program history. Three players were named ACC Players of the Year, including Noel (Offensive), Löeffelsend (Defensive) and Bertin Jacquesson (Freshman). A school record five were named to the United Soccer Coaches All-South Region Team, while a program record 10 were named to the All-ACC teams. Noel was also named a finalist for the prestigious MAC Hermann Trophy award, given to college soccer's best male and female player.

Pitt's offense ranked among the best in 2020-21, ranking fifth in the country in scoring offense with 2.55 goals per game. The Panthers were first in the nation in total goals (51), total assists (44), and total points (146) while ranking 13th in assists per game (2.20) and sixth in points per game (7.30). In part to leading Pitt to a high powered offense, Pitt earned the No. 1 ranking via United Soccer Coaches Poll for the first time ever Oct. 20, 2020.

Vidovich was named ACC Coach of the Year for the sixth time in his career and first as the Panthers' head coach April 14, 2021.

In his fourth year at the helm of Pitt men's soccer, Vidovich led the Panthers to a 10-8-2 record in 2019. Vidovich saw Pitt upset No. 1 Virginia on the road on Oct. 18, host an ACC Tournament game against NC State for the first time in school history on Nov. 10, earn a trip to the ACC Semifinals for the first time in program history and stamp its name into the NCAA Men's Soccer Championship for the first time since 1965.

Vidovich and the Panthers earned a monumental victory on Nov. 21, 2019 as they defeated Lehigh at Ambrose Urbanic Field, 2-0, winning the first NCAA Men's Soccer Championship game in school history. The season ended Nov. 24 against No. 2 Georgetown in the second round of the NCAA Men's Soccer Championship, but only after a record setting season that saw six All-ACC honorees, two ACC All-Tournament Team winners and one United Soccer Coaches All-South Region Team recipient.

During his third year at Pitt in the 2018 season, Vidovich led the Panthers to wins over two ranked opponents in No. 12 NC State and No. 7 Virginia in the ACC Men's Soccer Tournament. The victory over the Cavaliers marked the Panthers' first ACC Tournament win in program history. Pitt collected its first conference win on the season against the Wolfpack and picked up another ACC victory over Clemson on Oct. 5.

Vidovich played a crucial role in the development of Javi Perez, who was drafted by LAFC in the third round of 2019 MLS Superdraft. With the selection, Perez became only the second player in program history to be drafted to an MLS club team. Three Panthers were also named to All-ACC teams under Vidovich's guidance as Edward Kizza was given First Team honors, Javi Perez earned Second Team recognition and Chandler Vaughn was named to the All-Freshman Team. Both Kizza and Perez earned All-Region Honors as well, with Kizza voted to the Second Team and Perez named to the Third Team.

Following his first year at the helm, Vidovich led the Panthers to wins over No. 7 Notre Dame, No. 13 Columbia and No. 21 Syracuse in the 2017 season.

Vidovich also guided four players to All-ACC recognition, with Javi Perez earning Second Team honors, Pol Planellas receiving Third Team recognition and both Alexander Dexter and Edward Kizza being named to the All-Freshman Team. The postseason accolades were the team's first in program history since joining the ACC.

Planellas would go on to become the first Pitt men's soccer player in program history to be drafted by an MLS Club team after being selected by the Los Angeles Football Club in the second round of the 2018 MLS SuperDraft, becoming the 36th professional player under Vidovich's tutelage.

Prior to making the move to Pittsburgh, Vidovich oversaw the men's soccer program at Wake Forest for 21 seasons (1994-2014), building the Demon Deacons into a national power and winning the 2007 NCAA championship. He spent 2015 in professional soccer, coaching the Portland Timbers 2 (T2) in the United Soccer League (USL).

During his Wake Forest tenure, Vidovich compiled a 272-121-50 record and led the Demon Deacons to the NCAA Tournament in 13 of his final 14 seasons. Wake Forest won five Atlantic Coast Conference titles under his watch, compiling a 76-52-22 mark in one of the nation's most challenging leagues.

In 2007, Wake Forest went 22-2-2—the winningest season in school history—and defeated Ohio State, 2-1, in the national final to claim the program's first NCAA title. The Demon Deacons made four consecutive appearances in the College Cup from 2006-09.

Vidovich, a two-time National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) National Coach of the Year (2007 and 2008) and five-time ACC Coach of the Year (2002, 2004, 2006, 2008 and 2009), ranks among the most decorated coaches in collegiate soccer.

Vidovich was the 2008 recipient of the prestigious Walt Chyzowych Award for lifetime contributions to the sport of soccer. Vidovich was an assistant under the legendary Chyzowych for eight seasons at Wake Forest from 1986-93.

Widely regarded as one of the game's top evaluators and developers of talent, Vidovich has produced 21 All-Americans and five ACC Player of the Year honorees (three offensive and two defensive). He also coached Marcus Tracy, the first player in Wake history to win the Missouri Athletic Club's (MAC) Hermann Trophy, which honors the top individual player in college soccer.

Thirty-five players under Vidovich went on to play in the professional ranks from 2002-14. His Wake Forest teams also achieved academically, evidenced by two ACC Scholar-Athlete of the Year honorees, two Academic All-Americans, one adidas National Scholar-Athlete of the Year and one Senior CLASS Award recipient.

Born in Detroit, Mich., Vidovich was an all-state player for New Canaan High School in Connecticut. He played for Indiana University in 1978 before transferring to Ohio Wesleyan, where he was a three-year starter. As a senior, Vidovich was team captain and helped lead OWU to the semifinals of the NCAA Tournament.

A 1982 graduate of Ohio Wesleyan with a bachelor's degree in physical education, he went on to earn a master's degree in sports sciences from the University of Denver in 1983.
