IN MEMORIAM
TONY ROBICHAUX

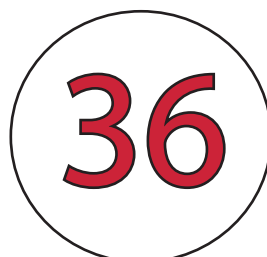

1961-2019

Tony Robichaux spent 25 seasons as the leader of the Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns and took the baseball program to new heights. Robichaux coached 29 All-Americans, five Academic All-Americans, 90 All-Sun Belt players and 55 All-Louisiana players in his 25 years with the Cajuns. During that time, he coached six Sun Belt Pitchers of the Year, two Sun Belt Players of the Year, two Sun Belt Newcomers of the Year, three Sun Belt Freshmen of the Year, three All-Louisiana Pitchers of the Year, one All-Louisiana Player of the Year and five All-Louisiana Newcomers of the Year. Robichaux took Louisiana to its only College World Series appearance in 2000 and won over 1,000 career games.

Yet, that's not how Robichaux will be remembered. He will be remembered and honored as someone who left behind a legacy of servant leadership and compassion that extended beyond the baseball diamond and into the lives of the thousands of student-athletes and staff he impacted during his career.

Coach Robe's contributions to the University and his impact left on others will not be forgotten.

WELCOME

The Louisiana Athletic Communications Office appreciates your interest in Louisiana Baseball and looks forward to assisting you during the 2023 season. Our office is located in the Cox Communications Building.

CREDENTIALS

Media credentials for Louisiana Ragin’ Cajuns home baseball games are required for media covering games at M.L. “Tigue” Moore Field at Russo Park and are issued through the Louisiana Athletics Communications Office for working press only. Written requests by accredited media members should be submitted to Matt Sullivan at least 48 hours prior to the requested game(s). If needed, the credentials can be left at the “Will Call” table at third base entrance, which opens 90 minutes prior to all games.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

The Louisiana Athletics Communications Office provides pregame notes and statistics, lineup sheets and scorecards in the press box at Russo Park prior to each game. A complete box score, along with a play-by-play, is available after each game. Wired and wireless internet connections are available for media use in the press box along with the information for accessing live in-game stats through Stat Broadcast.

INTERVIEW AVAILABILITY

Head coach Matt Deggs is available at his weekly media press conference and by appointment in the mornings. Check with the Louisiana Athletics Communications Office for days and times of the weekly media press conferences. Players and assistant coaches will be made available upon request to the media each week to discuss the upcoming weekend series. On gameday, players are ONLY available for POSTGAME interviews. For post-practice interviews, media members should contact Matt Sullivan.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Requested Louisiana players and head coach Matt Deggs will be available for interviews approximately 10 minutes after home games in front of the third base dugout. The Louisiana locker room is not open to the media.

PHOTOGRAPHS

Credentials are also required for photographers and videographers at Louisiana home games. Photographers are restricted from entering the field of play and dugouts. Flash photography is not permitted at Russo Park.

FACILITIES/PARKING

There is no reserved parking at Russo Park. Due to limited seating in the press box, please give 24 hours notice to Matt Sullivan if you plan to be in attendance so that arrangements can be made.

About Our Name

Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns® is the nickname of the University's athletic teams. Teams may also be referred to using shorter versions of that nickname. In most cases, Ragin' Cajuns plural is proper, though Ragin' Cajun in the singular form can apply. UL Lafayette may be used as an abbreviation to refer to the academic institution when clarification is necessary.

- Do not refer to the University as ULL in any instance.
- Do not use the terms Lafayette or U of L.

M.L. "Tigue" Moore Field at Russo Park, one of the state's largest and most impressive baseball facilities, has been the home of Louisiana's Ragin' Cajuns since 1978. Louisiana holds an all-time record 1,030-428-2 at M.L. "Tigue" Moore Field at Russo Park.

With a seating capacity of 6,015, the Ragin' Cajuns set the school single-season record for total attendance (136,353) during the 2019 season and total average attendance (4,917) during the 2017 season.

On Opening Night of the 2020 season, Louisiana honored former head coach Tony Robichaux and posted the fifth-best attendance in program history (5,472). As part of the special weekend, Louisiana also debuted a shrine honoring Robichaux, a new padded wall and a Trackman system.

Robichaux oversaw the incredible renovation of the ballpark, which debuted its new look partially for the 2017 season before reaching full completion for the 2018 season. The stadium upgrade also added Russo Park to M.L. "Tigue" Moore Field, making the full stadium name M.L. "Tigue" Moore Field at Russo Park.

Under Robichaux's guidance, the new facility received several upgrades over the years: a 71-foot state-of-the-art scoreboard, netting behind home plate, a brick backstop, chair backs in the box seats and grandstand areas, field-level boxes down the foul lines, and enlarged bleachers down the base paths.

Louisiana has enjoyed plenty of memorable moments since it opened. "The Tigue" was the site of the 1997, 2001, 2003, 2008, 2013 and 2018 Sun Belt Conference Tournament and the NCAA Regional Louisiana hosted during the 2016 season. In 2019, Robichaux tallied his 900th win as the head baseball coach at the University.

During the 2014 season, M.L. "Tigue" Moore Field at Russo Park hosted a NCAA Super Regional against Ole Miss, after climbing to the No. 1 overall ranking in the country and posting a program record 58 wins.

Originally opened in 1978, the field's namesake, M.L. "Tigue" Moore, arranged for pine seedlings to be planted right behind the outfield wall. Today, they provide a majestic backdrop for Ragin' Cajuns Baseball.

SETTING THE STAGE

If Ragin' Cajuns fans were thrilled with the team's performance in 1999, they were jubilant in 2000 when Louisiana advanced to the NCAA College World Series for the first time in both school and Sun Belt Conference history. While in Omaha, the Cajuns proved they were truly among the nation's best, tying for third with their 2-2 record. In 1999, the Cajuns (42-24, 24-9) were just one win away from advancing to the College World Series, but Rice came back to take the Super Regional championship.

In 2000, however, the cards were just right as the Ragin' Cajuns (49-20, 20-10) advanced to the school's first-ever CWS. In a reversal of fortunes, the Cajuns saw themselves in a 1-0 hole in the Super Regional at Columbia, S.C. Just as Rice did (to the Cajuns) the previous year, the Cajuns did to the South Carolina Gamecocks.

The Ragin' Cajuns' amazing comeback was capped off by KPFL announcer and Voice of the Ragin' Cajuns Jay Walker after Louisiana's 3-2 win over No. 1 South Carolina.

"All year long, they clicked their heels and said there's no place like home. Now, the Ragin' Cajuns will end the 2000 season in baseball version of Oz. Louisiana...is in the College World Series." The Cajuns "Cinderella Season" continued. Louisiana became the first school in NCAA history to win two games in its inaugural visit to Omaha.

THE CAJUNS IN OMAHA

Louisiana added its name to one of the most memorable games in school and CWS history with a thrilling 5-4 come-from-behind victory in the bottom of the ninth against Clemson.

In a series of events that will be simply known as "The Play" to Cajuns fans, outfielder Steven Feehan laid a perfect bunt down to score the tying run and shortstop Rick Haydel took advantage of a Clemson error to race all the way from second base and make a perfect slide for the game-winning run.

But, before that, Louisiana enjoyed another record-setting season.

For the fourth straight season, the Ragin' Cajuns claimed an NCAA Regional berth and established itself as one of only seven teams to advance to consecutive NCAA Super Regional appearances.

The Ragin' Cajuns then met No. 1-ranked South Carolina, and things looked grim after the first game of the series as the Gamecocks took a 6-3 win. However, freshman pitcher Andy Gros enjoyed a career night in game two, tossing a complete-game victory with 10 strikeouts.

That set the stage for a deciding game with the winner advancing to Omaha. The Ragin' Cajuns took an early lead, but South Carolina struck for two runs in the seventh inning to earn a 2-1 advantage. Haydel started his postseason magic in the bottom of the inning with a two-out, two-run double, and reliever Gordon O'Brien made it hold up over the final two innings.

REWRITING THE SCHOOL RECORD BOOK

When the smoke had settled, Nathan Nelson and Ryan Gill set new single-season records in hits with Nelson becoming the first Ragin' Cajun to reach triple digits. Feehan ended his career with his name dotted all over the Cajun record book, including No. 1 positions in games, hits and runs.

Scott Dohmann topped Phil Devey to become the winningest pitcher in school history with 26 victories and was named to the Collegiate Baseball All-America Third Team. Fellow hurler Justin Gabriel was also named a Third-Team All-American by the American Baseball Coaches Association. For the third time in the last four seasons Robichaux was honored as Louisiana Coach of the Year.
