Introducing . . .

Advanced Study Scholarship Program

By HUGH SHIELDS, EXECUTIVE VICE-PRESIDENT, Beta Alpha (Indiana), '26

MOVING TO SOLIDIFY its position as a constructive intellectual as well as social force in the field of education, Delta Tau Delta Fraternity has set up an Advanced Study Scholarship Program under the Educational Fund of the Fraternity, with the first scholarships to be awarded for the academic year, 1960-61.

The Educational Fund of the Fraternity, established in 1944 for the specific purpose of co-operating with the colleges and universities on a broader and more dynamic educational program, is being augmented by funds which are to be used under the new scholarship program for (1) general scholarships which will be available in any field and (2) special scholarships which will be limited to the field of training specified by the donor.

In 1947 Dr. Howard P. Fischbach, Kenyon, '06, pointed the way to such a program of advanced study by establishing The Fischbach Residency Foundation, which provides scholarships to qualified men in the field of medicine for advanced study after completion of their internships.

Cognizant of the vital necessity for the country to have trained men in all fields of endeavor, the Fraternity's Board of Directors and its Educational Fund Advisory Committee have been casting about for a means by which the Fraternity can make a positive contribution to this effort. As Dr. Henry M. Wriston, Wesleyan, '11, former President of Brown University and member of the Educational Fund Advisory Committee, has said, ". . . science will not save the world. It is going to take good economists, good linguists, and good people in politics."

Monies given to the Educational Fund of the Fraternity are tax exempt for federal income tax purposes. Although the advanced scholarship program has been given no general publicity prior to this time, funds have already been made available by John W. Nichols, Oklahoma, '36, a former member of the Arch Chapter, for scholarships for advanced study in geology and petroleum. Delts interested in making contributions to this program may write to the National Headquarters for details.

The general scholarships will be known as the Alvan E. Duerr Graduate Scholarships. Mr. Duerr, Kenyon, '93, Williams, '93, former President of Delta Tau Delta, was an outstanding interfraternity figure and, for many years, a leading advocate of good scholarship by fraternity men. He was also one of the few men to be twice named chairman of the National Interfraternity Conference. The scholarships named in his honor will be five in number, initially, in the amount of $1,400 each, more or less, subject to the money available and will be for one year's study at recognized institutions for graduate training and research.

The number and amount of the specialized scholarships will be determined by the individual donors.

In general terms, the mechanics for granting the scholarships shall be as follows: Each applicant shall be an initiated member of Delta Tau Delta in good standing. He shall have a Bachelor's degree from an accredited institution and he shall have a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.3 (on a 4.0 system) by the time of making application, which shall be on or before March 15 of the academic year immediately preceding that for which application for the scholarship is being made.

The application shall include, generally, a statement of purpose of the applicant, transcript of his academic record from his undergraduate college or university, and four letters of recommendation, as well as information about any additional financial aid which he has or for which he is making application.

The Fraternity's program for making these scholarships available includes the appointment of a selection board of three members of the Fraternity in good standing, two of whom shall be members of college faculties and one a business or professional man. The selection board will make its recommendations to the Supervisor of Scholarship.

The program further provides that one scholarship shall be made available to a member of one chapter in each of the Fraternity's four Divisions and a fifth one shall be made available on an at-large basis. The applicant may use the scholarship anywhere at a recognized institution for graduate training.

Additional information regarding the specific rules for making application is available from National Headquarters.

Delta Tau Delta and its members can regard with pride this pioneering step in the field of education which is added to an already impressive list.

Indiana Delts Entertained at Governor's Mansion

ON WEDNESDAY, August 19, Delts from the five Indiana chapters at Butler, DePauw, Indiana, Purdue, and Wabash; Indianapolis alumni of these chapters; and prospective men students at these schools, were guests of Harold W. Handley, Indiana, '32, Governor of the State of Indiana, at the Governor's mansion in Indianapolis.

The occasion was the annual summer rush party sponsored by the Indianapolis Alumni Chapter. Chairman of the event was Arnold Berg, Indiana, '32. When Arnie spoke to his former I.U. classmate, Governor Handley, about attending such a party, the idea was developed to hold it at the Executive Mansion.

Approximately 50 alumni and 125 undergraduates assembled for an afternoon of fellowship, culminating in a delicious buffet dinner. Hostesses at the party were Mrs. Handley, Mrs.

Berg, and Mrs. Hugh Shields, wife of Executive Vice-President Hugh Shields, Indiana, '26.

All five of Indiana's Delt chapters were represented, although a conflict with summer ROTC camp precluded the DePauw chapter from having more than one undergraduate present. The largest delegations were from Indiana University and Butler. Among some of the many outstanding to the Sixty-fifth Karnea at Boston in June

IN ACCORDANCE with the vote of the delegates at the Centennial Karnea in Pittsburgh, Delta Tau Delta will convene at its first convention of its second 100 years, in June, 1960, at the New Ocean House, Swampscott, Massachusetts. Joel W. Reynolds, President of the Fraternity from 1954 until 1956, has been named as the General Chairman of the 1960 Karnea. He has already embarked on the initial business of appointing committees, making arrangements with the management and staff of the New Ocean House, and generating sparks of enthusiasm among the Fraternity's alumni and undergraduates located in the New England area.

It is indeed fitting and proper that the Sixty-fifth Karnea should be held at Swampscott. Not only will Deltas have an opportunity to witness the beautiful scenery of the New England coast and enjoy the splendid facilities of one of the truly outstanding resort hotels in the country, but in addition, the Fraternity will have the opportunity of embarking on its second century in an area unexcelled for its role in the early historical and cultural development of our nation.

Swampscott is located 12 miles from Boston on Massachusetts's North Shore. It is only 27 miles from Gloucester, the largest fishing port in America, settled in 1625. Marblehead, "birthplace of the American navy" and still one of the outstanding yachting centers of New England, is but five miles distant.

Delts attending the Karnea will be able to visit exciting historical places like Old North Church, Bunker Hill, Faneuil Hall, Copp's Hill Burying Ground, Old South Meeting House, the U.S.S. Constitution, Boston Common, and the site of the Boston Tea Party. They will be able to visit Paul Revere's house and retrace his ride as he warned the citizenry that the British were marching to Lexington and Concord. Plan to have an extra few days for such trips as to Plymouth, 50 miles to the south; to Lexington and Concord, 25 miles west;

The gold-domed Massachusetts capitol building, overlooking Boston Common, was first occupied in January, 1778.

Old State House, built in 1657, was the earliest market place of Boston. It is the oldest state building in the United States. The convention met here to adopt the Federal Constitution.

to Duxbury, sixty miles away; and to Sudbury, some 30 miles distant, the village in which is found Longfellow's Wayside Inn.

Boston boasts of being a "city of firsts." Here was shed the first blood of the American Revolution. Here, too, were the country's first public grounds set aside (the Boston Commons). The city also claims the first public school and the first newspaper to be published in the United States. Here were built the first railway and the first subway and here the first scheduled airline route was opened. The world's first telephone call was made from Boston and the first ether operation was performed in Boston. As of June, 1960, added to this impressive list of "firsts" will be another—Delta Tau Delta held its first Karnea of its second century here.

Transportation to Boston offers no problem. The "Hub City" can easily be reached by air through the facilities of Logan International Airport. Three major railroad lines connect the city with all the other major cities in the country. And if you choose to drive, you will find that the Massachusetts highway system is one of the best in the nation.

Famous restaurants abound in the area. There are five legitimate theaters in Boston, as well as the Boston Symphony and a number of summer stock theaters in the vicinity. For sports enthusiasts, fishing, sailing, swimming, and boating are all plentiful and accessible. There is big-league baseball at the home of the Red Sox in Fenway Park. Horse racing and dog racing can be witnessed at nearby tracks.

There will be many places to go and an overabundance of things to see for Karnea-bound Deltas. But judging from tales of Karnea Hounds, or any Delt who ever attended a Karnea anywhere, the fun, the excitement, the informative discussions, the spirited business sessions, and the fellowship to be found and enjoyed at Delt Karneas, makes attending one a memorable and worth-while experience no matter where it may be held. You can safely conclude that all of the wonderful attractions of Boston constitute but a "special added attraction" for those Deltas who follow the "Freedom Trail" to the Karnea at Swampscott in June, 1960.

No living Delt can thrill to the experience of having been present at the founding of our Fraternity. But "Old Ironsides" is a favorite of visitors to Boston. It has been restored to its exact condition when it fought in the War of 1812.

The Battle Green in Lexington. At this site in 1775 the Minute Men stood their ground against the British.

"Cradle of American Liberty" is Faneuil Hall. Here patriots met to form committees against the British which led to the Revolutionary War.

Swanboat rides are popular in Boston's Public Garden. The church spire in the background is Arlington Street Church, built in 1861.

This house, built in 1660, was the home of Paul Revere, famous Revolutionary leader, from 1770 to 1800. In it is a display of some of Revere's copper work.

Vice-President Hugh Shields, Indiana, '26; Field Secretary Jack A. McCleny, Florida, '49; Edwin H. Hughes, III, DePauw, '43, Editor of THE RAINBOW; and Distinguished Service Chapter members, George O. Browne, Indiana, '22; Ernest L. Miller, Indiana, '27; and Everett M. Schofield, Butler, '09. In addition to those named, both Larry Sheaffer and Hugh Shields are members of the DSC.

Following dinner, Chairman Berg formally introduced several of the distinguished guests, and Governor Handley graciously invited everyone to return for another party next summer.

Evanston, Illinois Honors E. R. Ladd

Evanston, Illinois, is preparing an unusual civic improvement with the fall planting season. Boy scouts and service clubs of the community are to assist in the development of Ladd Arboretum. The arboretum is to honor the late Edward R. Ladd, Northwestern, '04, former publisher of the Evanston Review, who died in 1956.

During his lifetime, Mr. Ladd was a strong supporter of the city's parks and playgrounds. It was originally estimated that the proposed project would cost the city at least $100,000. With widespread public participation through memorial-tree gifts being encouraged, it is a project that the city will be proud of. The chairman of the Evanston public schools has been named chairman of the project in order to assure maximum educational benefit from the project.

It is a wonderful tribute to this fine Delt to have a project such as this, one in which a large segment of the community will participate, named in his honor.

to us is given the opportunity of being present next June when Delta Tau Delta meets officially to commence its second century of brotherhood. The next three issues of THE RAINBOW will contain more information and details about this great event, but now is the time to start making plans to "Follow the Freedom Trail" to Massachusetts in June, 1960.

Distinguished Service Chapter

THE DISTINGUISHED Service Chapter was created by the Karnea of 1929 as the Court of Honor. An extensive survey indicated that a more appropriate and significant name should be chosen, and the Arch Chapter, in 1939, changed the name to Distinguished Service Chapter.

Members of Delta Tau Delta who have rendered unusual and distinctive service to the Fraternity, over a period of several years, may be awarded Distinguished Service Chapter Citations. A Committee of three determines from time to time the qualifications for these Citations.

The present Committee, composed of A. Bruce Bielaski, Chairman, George Washington, '04, Norman MacLeod, Pittsburgh, '17, and G. Herbert McCracken, Pittsburgh, '21, has adopted the following criteria for the awarding of Citations, based upon the rules which have been followed since the inception of the group:

1. The Committee, the Arch Chapter, an alumni chapter, officers of any Division of the Fraternity, or individual members of high repute in Delta Tau Delta may make nominations.

2. The term of membership in the Distinguished Service Chapter is for life, but the Committee may terminate any membership "for cause," not known at the time of Citation, or thereafter appearing.

3. A nomination for Citation shall be in writing, shall be signed by two or more members of the Fraternity who are in good standing, and shall show satisfactorily to the Committee that the nominee has (a) for at least twenty years been actively loyal to the Fraternity as an alumnus, (b) rendered some unusual service to the Fraternity or a Division thereof, and (c) evidenced personal characteristics and habits which have been and are "worthy of all acceptance" by the Fraternity and society at large. The names and locations of the nominee's college, active and alumni chapters, and his concrete services for which the Citation is sought must be included in the written nomination. To the above qualifications, the nominating letter should add other information which appears to bear upon the worthiness of the nominee. A nominee's own initiative or other form of promotion of his own nomination would be viewed as a vital disqualification and particularly out of harmony with the unselfish spirit and intent of the Distinguished Service Chapter.

4. While not making an absolute rule affecting the matter, the Committee will usually insist upon quite more than a chapter interest on the nominee's part, inasmuch as the Distinguished Service Chapter is representative of the entire Fraternity.

5. No one shall be voted a Citation while serving as a member of the Arch Chapter.

6. Citations shall usually be presented only at large, important Delt functions.

7. The Committee grants Citations by unanimous vote. In view of the fact that nominations are determined largely by personal friendships and that one nomination from a given locality easily evokes others from the same region, resulting in inequitable distribution of honors, the Committee will, other merits appearing to be substantially equal, give preference to nominations from regions which do not appear to be adequately represented in the Chapter, and it may defer consideration of other nominations in the interest of substantial justice to all parts of the Fraternity.

To date, 200 Delts have been cited to the Distinguished Service Chapter. The roster is as follows:

Rickey Heads Third Major League

Whether or not to establish a third major league in baseball has been a subject of debate among baseball men and followers of baseball over the past several seasons. There have been many who championed the idea of expanding the two existing leagues and others who advocated having all further expansion represented by establishment of a new league. Even now the debate continues. This in spite of the fact that this summer saw the announcement of a third major league being established.

The problems facing the proposed new league are many. To meet these problems successfully, plus the ever-present task of obtaining universal acceptance of the new league, the men establishing the Continental League found it necessary to secure for the position of president of the league a man who not only knew major league baseball but one who was admired and respected by baseball men, politicians, and the public alike. To meet these qualifications the organizers had one particular man in mind. Branch Rickey, Ohio Wesleyan, '04, was the logical choice, if his services could be obtained.

Fifty-six years of service in baseball, as a player, manager, and front office executive, certainly endowed Rickey with all of the know-how anyone could desire in a league president. His courage and vision led him in the path which resulted in the establishment of baseball's farm system and directed his actions to the place where he signed the first Negro ever to play in big league baseball. Today all of the clubs have farm systems and there is at least one Negro on the roster of every major league team.

When asked to accept the post of president of the new league, Branch Rickey, at 77 years of age, had no choice but to accept the challenge. If there is any one man in baseball today who can assure success for the Continental League, that man is surely Branch Wesley Rickey.

This New Feature of THE RAINBOW, "Know Your Fraternity," Will Present a Story on the Financial Structure of Delta Tau Delta in the December Issue.

Former President Reynolds Addresses NIC Group

points out weaknesses of fraternity system to editors and secretaries

PRINCIPAL SPEAKER at the annual meeting of the National Interfraternity Conference's Secretaries and Editors meeting at Wentworth by the Sea, Portsmouth, New Hampshire, was former President of the Fraternity, Joel W. Reynolds, Tufts, '23.

During the past several years Mr. Reynolds has given generously of his time in work of the National Interfraternity Conference. At the present time he is serving as treasurer of the group.

The Fraternity Editor's Association and the Fraternity Secretaries' Association are groups of the NIC. At their annual meetings they have panel discussions and meetings arranged for the purpose of educating and assisting each fraternity's editor and executive secretary. The climax of the five-day meeting is the banquet.

Mr. Reynolds spoke candidly and accurately of some of the weaknesses of the fraternity system. He also set forth ways in which these weaknesses could be corrected. He spoke from the standpoint of practical experience gained from 25 years of service as chapter adviser to Beta Mu Chapter at Tufts and from the standpoint of a lifetime of being interested in and dedicated to young men and the fraternity system.

He pointed out what role fraternity magazines could play in helping overcome some of the weaknesses and assist in strengthening fraternities. He said that fraternity magazines were the "house organs" of the fraternities and that the editor's job was to promote the welfare of the organization by means of the written word. Fraternity magazines should attempt to do a public relations job for members, prospective members, parents, college and university administrators, and the general public. He stated that fraternity magazines should tell the truth about our troubles because we could not deny that we had some, and some of them threaten the very existence of the fraternities.

In his speech, Mr. Reynolds also posed the possibility of the fraternities utilizing a system of exchange articles. As he pointed out, most editors would gladly release an outstanding article for publication in any other fraternity magazine. Every fraternity has the source for heartwarming and inspirational stories of some of their successful alumni and their careers. Such stories should be written, published, and distributed. Many of the fraternities have good scholastic and educational programs, but these rarely get discussed in the fraternity magazines. Mr. Reynolds stated that there were a great number of college administrators who realize the advantages and opportunities available to undergraduates through the medium of fraternity membership. He thinks that articles should be obtained from these educators who understand and believe in fraternities and who see them from both sides of the table.

In his fine address, Mr. Reynolds emphasized the value of rituals in the fraternity system. He pointed out that idealism and symbolism have a universal appeal to young men and that neophytes deserve to experience the initiatory rite performed at its very best, with all its beauty and significance, with understanding, and with the perfection it merits. As he said, if the actives have done a good job, the neophytes will want to be initiated more than anything else they have

The Fischbach Residency Foundation

IN FEBRUARY, 1947, the late Dr. Howard P. Fischbach, Kenyon, '06, contributed the cash sum of $15,000 to the Fraternity to be administered through the Educational Fund for the purpose of providing scholarships for worthy members of Delta Tau Delta who are doing, or are about to do, graduate study beyond internship in medicine, surgery, or a related field. Thus, The Fischbach Residency Foundation was established.

Acting in accordance with the wishes of the donor, the Board of Directors of the Fraternity invested the contribution in income-producing United States Treasury Bonds. The income earned on this investment has been supplemented from time to time by cash donations from Dr. Fischbach and others so that more than one medical student might receive scholarships.

These scholarships are outright gifts, entailing no obligation to repay. They are calculated to enable medical men to take advantage of much-prized residency appointments without undue hardship. The scholarships are one year in duration, effective July

1. Appointments are made by June 1.

Selections for scholarships are handled by a special committee composed of three men, all of whom, under the terms of the bequest, are physicians and members of Delta Tau Delta. Dr. William M. Fischbach, Dartmouth, '34, and Cincinnati, '34, son of Dr. Howard Fischbach, is presently chairman of the committee. He is a prominent physician, specializing in internal medicine and cardiology, in Cincinnati, Ohio, where he has continued the work of the Fischbach Memorial Group which his father started. Dr. Victor W. Fischbach, Cincinnati, '16, brother of Dr. Howard, a practicing physician in Cincinnati and a member of the Fischbach Memorial Group, is also a member of the current committee. Dr. Frederick A. Stine, Cincinnati, '36, is the third member of the present committee. He is a former member of the Fischbach Memorial Group in Cincinnati and is presently practicing pediatrics in Newport, Kentucky.

A candidate for a scholarship must meet the following basic requirements:

1. He must have been graduated from medical school.

2. He must have completed his internship.

3. He must be doing, or about to do, graduate work beyond internship in medicine, surgery, or a related field.

4. The hospital of his residency must be approved by either the American College of Surgeons or the American Medical Association.

Any Delt qualifying under these considerations, who desires to apply for a scholarship, should write direct to the Executive Vice-President at the Central Office for an application blank and detailed instructions.

The performance of the members who have received scholarships under the Foundation has in every way vindicated the faith that Dr. Howard Fischbach placed in the project's usefulness. Recipients in various fields such as orthopedics, urology, thoracic surgery, obstetrics, gynecology, and psychiatry have made outstanding records. It is hoped that many more Delts will be aided by the scholarships provided by The Fischbach Residency Foundation.

Gamma Lambda Pledge Class Of '38 Holds Reunion

A MOST UNUSUAL and highly successful reunion took place this summer. The Delt pledges of the class of 1938 at Gamma Lambda held their first reunion since graduation . . . and had a 100 per cent attendance. Host for the get-together was Lee A. Reith. The setting was Klinger Lake Orchards.

No deaths have occurred among the members of this pledge class. Many of the brothers had not seen each other since their graduation from Purdue. The host, himself, Mr. Reith, had seen only four of the men since 1938. The idea for a reunion started early in the summer, when Mr. Reith and two or three other Delts chanced to be together. They obtained the addresses of all of the men in their pledge class and wrote them letters inviting them to the Reith house for a house party. Telegrams sent two weeks before the event repeated the invitation.

To the amazement of the Reiths, who had expected only a handful to show up, acceptances began pouring in. The members of the pledge class were: Lee A. Reith, now of Klinger Lake; Lee Charters, of McLean, Virginia; Carl Ingwalsen, Elkhart, Indiana; L. R. Bearse, Benson, Arizona; A. C. Colby, Hammond, Indiana; P. T. McDonald, Indianapolis, Indiana; W. E. Perry, Rockford, Illinois; Grover D. Rose, LaGrange, Illinois; J. L. Taylor, Davenport, Iowa; Robert H. Van Winkle, Columbus, Ohio; G. R. Bryant, Huntington Woods, Michigan; Ray Fatout, Jr., Indianapolis, Indiana; J. R. Favorite, St. Paul, Minnesota; J. A. Garrettson, Michigan City, Indiana; E. P. Hurley, Falls Church, Virginia; E. R. Pape, Danville, Illinois; Robert T. Reid, Indianapolis, Indiana; Dan J. Rohyans, Columbus, Ohio; W. T. Shively, Birmingham, Michigan; and J. L. Von Harz, Crystal Lake, Illinois. The wives were included and accompanied their husbands for the week end.

Mr. Colby, vice-president of the United States Steel Company, was granted permission to leave his offices, where he had been locked up since the beginning of the strike, to attend the reunion. President of the chapter in 1937-1938 was Robert T. Reid.

In addition to his classmates, Mr. Reith also had as his week end guests, his brothers, Blair A. Reith and William N. Reith, both of Goshen, Indiana. Blair was a Gamma Lambda Delt, class of '36, and was president of the chapter in 1935-1936. Bill was in the class of 1941. They are all three sons of the late Albert A. Reith, Gamma Lambda, '07, a charter member of the chapter.

THE DELT CHAPTERS

Alabama

Delta Eta completed one of its finest semesters last spring and all the brothers are eagerly awaiting the activities of the coming year. Outstanding high lights of the spring semester were the installation of Brother Max Pope as SGA president, the presentation of the Delt Trophy, Delta Eta's theatrical triumph in Capstone Capers on A-Day, and the big spring rush party with the nationally famous "Drifters."

Capstone Capers Skit at Alabama.

Brother Pope's election climaxed a successful political year for us. In addition to the top post on campus, Delts hold key positions on all three campus publications and seats in the SGA legislature for the coming year. Brother

Alabama President SAM HAMNER presents "Sorority of Year" award to Delta Gamma's ANN WEATHERFORD.

Donald Stewart has been elected to serve as president of Phi Eta Sigma for the coming year. Extracurricular activities did not take all our time. We ranked in the top three fraternities scholastically and Delts were tapped for every honorary possible.

The biggest event of the campus social season was the spring rush party with the "Drifters." It was the first such appearance by the group on campus. From all indications of this party and the summer rush party at Lake Martin, Delta Eta will reach even greater heights with the fine men who have been selected to wear the pledge button of Delta Tau Delta.

Delta Gamma Sorority won the coveted Delt Trophy, presented annually to the "Sorority of the Year" on a point system under the direction of the Dean of Women.

The brothers returned this fall to a newly decorated Shelter for rush. Rush week will be greatly aided by the return of Brother Jake Mentz, who was graduated summa cum laude last spring, but has returned for graduate studies.

Albion

Epsilon has completed one of its finest years. Since September we have captured a total of nine new trophies ranging from championships in intramural sports to our latest addition, the cup given to the winner of the IFC songfest. Brother John McCord was song leader and led the Delts to a first place with "Alleluia" and "Jaberwocky" as the winning selections. After the TKE's had won it for the past two years, we were happy to take the cup off their hands and put it in its rightful place.

On the intramural scene, Epsilon added more trophies to its collection as it captured both the softball and track crowns. Lee Hubble, director of athletics at Epsilon and also the softball coach, has done an admirable job in bringing the Delts back to the top in campus sports. Besides coaching, Lee is on the intramural "A" basketball team, football team, softball team, and golf team. The golf team won the intramural golf trophy with the help of medalist Dave Krause, a pledge, who shot a 74.

In varsity competition, Dave Althouse helped Albion win its first MIAA championship in 33 years. Althouse, a pitcher, was placed on the all-MIAA baseball team, was voted most valuable player on the baseball team, and was also selected as the most improved player. Dave's ERA was slightly under one-run per game.

In campus elections, Charles McCaslin was voted to the treasurer's post for next year's Junior Class. In Fraternity elections John McCord was elected recording secretary for next fall; Dave Smith, the present secretary, will transfer to Michigan State.

MICHAEL S. DANT

Allegheny

Allegheny Delts closed out the social calendar with the celebration of May Day and the annual Spring Formal. The May Day float "Showboat," built by Delts, Theta Chis, and Kappas, took third-place honors. High light of the float was the Dixieland combo which played on the afterdeck of the "Showboat" throughout the parade.

The Spring Formal was again held at Wenango Country Club near Franklin. Rain during the evening was an inconvenience but failed to dampen the spirit of the evening. During intermission the Delt Queen, Susan Tschirgi, was serenaded by the brothers and the girls were presented with their favors.

Alpha Delts were again recognized for outstanding achievement in the various aspects of campus life. At the sports banquet, Neophytes Jim Walther, Jim Edwards, and Dick Hiwiller received letters in soccer, track, and baseball, respectively.

Brothers John Gschwendtner, Alan Berkebile, and Richard Segina were elected to Phi Beta Phi, honorary biology and geology fraternity.

At the President's Review of the AFROTC Corps Alpha Delts were again recognized. Delts receiving awards for outstanding achievement and merit during the past year were: Deputy Group Commander Fred King, Jim Ingram, Bob McCreary, and Neophyte Tom Kepple. Brother Ingram also received notification of his election to the all-star team of the Western Pennsylvania Collegiate Rifle League for his excellent marksmanship in league competition.

It is yet too early for results of Alpha's rush on the academics this semester to be in yet. Sliding academic standing in recent semesters brought about a concern in this most important area of the college life, and we of Alpha hope to have reversed our trend of the last two years.

Alumni Day was June 6, and actives and alumni returned for one last get-together before vacation separated them. The redecorated interior of the Shelter was a welcome sight of the alumni and we hope it showed them our interest, not only in them but in the Fraternity as well. The building campaign for a new Shelter is now fully under way with the aim of starting construction in approximately two-and-a-half years.

ROBERT W. MCCREARY

Baker

The Delts on the Baker campus crowned another successful year with two of their most rewarding and inspiring events—Orchid Ball and Stag Night. This year's Ball was a complete success with a good band, beautiful decorations (so the girls told us), and another very lovely girl crowned Delt Queen. Our new queen, Miss Julie Thomson, is from Lee's Summit, Mo., and is presently a junior here at Baker. The decorations for the Ball included many of the traditional items and several altogether new things. The traditional giant orchid remained as a center piece for the party along with the purple, white, and violet stuffed walls. A miniature waterfall in one corner of the room brought exclamations of delight from many of the guests during the course of the evening. Distinguished guests attending the Ball included Baker's President, Director of Admissions, and Dean of Men. The evening was enjoyable in every respect with the Kansas climate providing a lovely spring evening to form an effective backdrop for formal serenades held immediately following the Ball.

This year's Stag Night was spectacularly successful in more ways than one. Not only did it see the return of more than 80 alums to the Shelter, but also enough money was pledged to begin construction on our proposed new Shelter. The alums who returned were greeted with fellowship, food, fun, and a good speaker. Brother Shorty Payne gave the address this year on a pertinent and interesting subject. The MC spot was held by Gordon Thompson, Delt for many a year, who did a commendable job. Along with everything else, it was revealed that Initiate Clarence Abell had been selected "Delt of the Year," one of our most coveted honors. Along with the honor came a $25 bond to make the presentation a little more tangible. Ultimately, the evening came to a close with each Delt going his separate way a little richer in the spirit which comes only from true Delt brotherhood.

When this edition of THE RAINBOW is published in September, we of Beta Zeta will be in our new Shelter. Our new address is 4340 Haughey Avenue. The new Shelter is a three-story structure built in the French Provincial style. The basement of the Shelter was the dining room, TV room, and kitchen. The first floor has housemother's quarters, living room, library, study rooms, showers. The second floor consists of two-man study rooms and showers. The third deck is divided into warm and cold dorms. Each of the study rooms has two closets, a chest of drawers, three chairs, a desk, and two bookcases. We are going to try to put an active and a pledge in each room. The president and treasurer will share an office on the second floor. The view from the dorm is very striking: the dorm overlooks the canal, White River, acres of meadows, and Route 421, which can be seen in the distance. In the backyard we have a cement patio; this will definitely be one of the centers of activity.

It was said that we moved from the best house on campus to an even better one. The old Shelter was truly beautiful with its spacious lawn, formal garden, circular driveway, and patio. Such things as impromptu parties on the patio, grass cutting details, waterfights, and tricyclotrons will not soon be forgotten. The oak panelled library will be missed a great deal; this room, with its depth and beauty, never failed to impress visitors. The Shelter on 40th Street will hold many warm and enduring memories for those of us who were fortunate enough to have lived there.

We are very fortunate to have Mrs. A. J. Parry coming back as our house-mother. The new Shelter will make the third one that Mrs. Parry has lived in during her eight years as a Delt house-mother.

Our third annual tricyclotron was a tremendous success. Jimmy Daywalt, a driver from the Speedway, was on hand to present the winner's trophy to Pi Beta Phi Sorority. Robert Fink, executive secretary to Indiana Governor Harold Handley, a Delt alum from Indiana University, served as one of the officials for the races. This year's tricyclotron consisted of three trial heats and a final race. "Count" Lance von Middlekauff, the daring sports car driver from Kokomo, made an appearance before the final race; many people are still wondering how he managed to keep his M.G. on the track. Don Schlademan, Beta Zeta, '54, from radio station WIRE, served as master-of-ceremonies. Social Chairman George Mitchell deserves a great deal of credit for putting on such a good show.

Rush Chairman Charlie Spiher has been doing a good job of rushing. The two rush parties he held in April and May were well attended. Brother Spiher has planned an extensive rush program for the summer. The new Shelter will be open in August for rush.

Tom Simmons, Vance Redfern, Denny Dwyer, and Ray Smigla are to be commended for the fine job of decorating they did for the Orchid Formal. The Three Flips and a Flop provided the music for the affair. The dance was enjoyed by all.

President Tom Simmons was elected president of the IFC. Ralph Gennarelli is vice-president of the Insurance Society. Byron Schoolfield is the new president of the Religious Council; Brother Schoolfield is also our representative to the student council. Two members were initiated into pharmacy honoraries: Ray Smigla is a member of Kappa Psi while George Mitchell is a member of Phi Delta Chi. Bob Parsons, John Ross, and Don Fine were our representatives to the Butler Loyalty Legion. Jeff Fisher, Byron Schoolfield, Bob Parsons, Jim Wills, and Bill Rowe are members of Gamma Sigma.

Beta Zeta will be well represented in football this coming season. Don Carr, Lance Middlekauff, Vance Redfern, Andy Zipko, Jim Harrison, and Lynn Davenport are members of the varsity team. Brother Middlekauff also played on the tennis team, while Don Carr was on the baseball squad.

We would like to thank Dr. Rex Webster, Beta Zeta, '36, Butler botany professor, for the many times he came to our aid during the past semester. Dr. Webster's presence is always enjoyed at the Shelter.

We are hoping to see many of the alums when school begins; without them we could never have had a new Shelter. We all wish sincerely to thank everyone who played a part in making our new Shelter a reality. With high hopes for the coming year, we of Beta Zeta will work hard to strengthen our position as number-one fraternity at Butler University.

BOB PARSONS

We at Delta Beta have just completed our first year in our new Shelter. It has been a prosperous year in every sense. Although we regret losing 15 seniors, they have left us much to be remembered by. Dick Sphon was awarded the Intramural Athlete of the Year award, this being the second year in a row that a Delt has received this award. Bill

Harris, also a senior, received a rifle letter; Howard Mattick received one in golf. Merle King, a letterman in track, was elected to Tau Beta Pi and Phi Kappa Phi.

Our president, Bill Montgomery, was elected treasurer of the Council of Fraternity Presidents.

These are but a few of the things that have helped to make this an excellent year for us all.

Looking ahead, we hope that, under the direction of Gerald Anderson our rushing program will prove to be one of the best Delta Beta has ever had.

Hard work and determination have proved fruitful for the brothers of Gamma Xi as three trophies were brought to the Shelter in 15 hours. The first two were from the Sigma Sigma Carnival for the "Most Popular Booth" and the "Most Carnival-Like Booth." Then the following day at the Mother's Day Sing, the brothers proceeded to place among the first four. Lee Ruck, head of the Sigma Sigma committee, and Harold Whitney, song leader, are to be commended for their fine jobs.

This spring has been a busy one for our brothers on campus. First of all, Jack Vedra was elected president of Pi Delta Epsilon, journalism honorary, and was appointed to membership on the board of publications. Lee Ruck and Pledge Bill Strawbridge were tapped for Sophos, honorary organization for outstanding freshmen. Don Plane and Sam Fisher were initiated into Pi Tau Sigma, engineering fraternity. Harold Whitney and Henry Schroeder were tapped for Chi Epsilon, civil engineering fraternity.

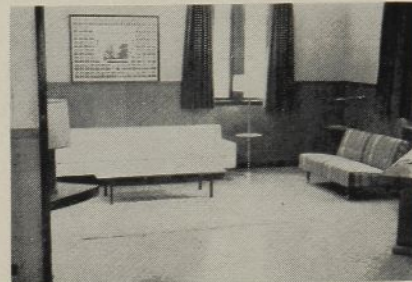

Another high light for the brothers this spring was the annual spring week end party. On May 29 our dates and pinmates took over our house for the week end. The honors for the year were conferred at the spring formal Saturday night. The "Mr. Delt" award went to Jim Rockwell. The Delt Pillars selected Brothers Jim Hyde, Robert Schwab, and Phil Leech. The highest scholarship award went to Donald Plane and the pledge scholarship award was given to Bill Kramer. The most outstanding pledge award was given to Jake Doty.

Every man in the chapter is looking forward to the 50th anniversary celebration of Gamma Xi along with the 100th anniversary of the Fraternity. We will sponsor an all-campus dance on October 30, and will elect our first queen. On November 13, a banquet will be held at the Shelter for the actives and alumni of Gamma Xi and any alumni living in the surrounding area.

Shelter. In March, 1959, after a year and $85,000 had passed, the anxious brothers quickly filled up the new space. On the bottom floor is the spacious dining room with attached kitchenette. Curtains hide the sliding glass doors which lead to the new patio. On the first floor is Pumphrey Lounge. Here one may relax with brothers or friends and enjoy the view through the panoramic picture windows. On the same floor, the old dining room was converted into a library. The second and third floors contain modern sound-conditioned study rooms, a bath, and a sleeping dormitory. The outside of the addition is covered with concrete slab material, as is the original house. The house poses quite an imposing figure on Jefferson Ave., and every Gamma Xi man, active or alumnus, has a right to be proud of it.

The Beta Kappa Deltas are going into the new academic year with a strong position on campus as a result of last year's activities.

Politically, the chapter is particularly well represented. Rodney Anderson was elected student body president in spring elections and will head the ASUC this year. Phi Epsilon Phi, the sophomore men's honorary, selected seven Deltas among the 30 new members. These seven are Rod Drake, Bill Caile, Bob Crumpacker, Jim Seebass, Gary Imig, Brooks Hatch, and Bill Weakly. Weakly was elected president and Caile treasurer of the group. Weakly had already served as president of the freshman club, Silver & Gold. The junior honorary, Hammers, tapped six Deltas and another Beta Kappa man, Hank Brown, was elected president. The other five are Bob Lucas, Gary Gisle, Jon Warnick, John Whittemeyer, and Bill Bullard. Gisle was selected for treasurer. Brown was also the head of last year's Phi Ep Phi and was president of a newly formed national association of sophomore honoraries. Byran Bomberg, Swede Anderson, Bob Weakly, and Ed Garrett were selected as charter members of Sabers, senior men's honor organization.

Deltas will be heading the IFC, too, with Dave Belote the new prexy and John Whittemeyer the treasurer.

In athletics, the Deltas were barely nudged out and placed second in the race for the all-school intramural championship. In the spring seasons, the chapter won the school track championship, the league volleyball, and Dave Hoff was the individual winner of the skiing meet, for trophies to put beside the all-school football and league basketball cups won in last year's playoffs. The chapter had 13 varsity lettermen last year and at least six of these men are returning for the '59-'60 seasons, as well as several non-lettermen and sophomore hopefuls. The football varsity men will be playing under Colorado's new head coach, Sonny Grandelius, who was a Delt at Michigan State during his collegiate career.

Many improvements have been made on the Shelter during the summer. With a strong group of neophytes returning, the chapter plans to retain and even strengthen its position on campus during the coming year.

The latter part of the spring term was occupied by traditional springtime activities. The major social event of the year, Spring Week End, was a complete success as demonstrated by the overwhelming number of complementary "Bread and Butter" notes received at the Shelter. Week end activities included a float with Tri-Delt, based on the theme, "A Solid Gold Cadillac." Ann Lasher was selected by a panel of beauty experts as the Delt Queen for the week end. The remainder of the school year was spent preparing for final examinations.

Beta Omicron's Solid Gold Cadillac spring week end float at Cornell.

Jack Evans, former chapter president and member of several honoraries, was recently elected vice-president of the Cornell Interfraternity Council. Tom Barney is the managing editor of the "IFC News," the publication of the Council, and John Fleischauer represents Deltas on the paper's news board. John is also rush chairman for this year and will appreciate any recommendations of Cornell freshmen.

House Manager Burt Lent has initiated a program to improve the ground surrounding the Shelter. Brother Lent, a student of landscape gardening, has a considerable number of improvements in mind and has enlisted the pledge class to assist him in his work. The pledges also have been working on their pledge project, which consisted of improving the social area of the house. The fall initiation activities will include a re-vamping of the sleeping and dining areas.

Past President and Architect Pete Schneck completed his thesis project of a new Shelter with House Corporation President Mal Freeborn acting as his client and advisor. Pete utilized suggestions from brothers and alumni. In his plans, including polls of other Fraternities on "The Hill." The project will be of great value to the house corporation this year, as they meet to culminate plans for a new Shelter.

We of Beta Omicron are looking forward to the 1959-'60 school year, hoping it to be equally as successful as was the past year.

With this issue of THE RAINBOW our seniors will have been graduated and the new seniors will be taking over the operations of Gamma Gamma. Elections found Bill Wachter taking over the job of president that Pete Paxon had filled so well. Dave Schreur is the new vice-president; Paul Baxter, treasurer; John Wooster, assistant treasurer; Tim MacVean, recording secretary; Dan Wilkinson, house manager; Cyrus Loutrel, social chairman, and Ed Daumit, corresponding secretary.

Cy Loutrel and Bill Washter were nominated to Dragon, senior honor society, while Hap Dunning and Mitch Engle were nominated to Casque and Gauntlet. Tom Seessel at the graduation ceremony was awarded his Phi Beta Kappa key, and an award for outstanding work in his English major. Mitch Engle, keeping the soccer tradition in the Chapter, was elected Dartmouth soccer captain for this coming year.

Green Key week end this past May was highlighted by the annual picnic at the hospitable Snite's home and grounds in Vermont. Sunday afternoon greeted the Chapter with a jazz band and party lasting until late in the day.

Four of our undergraduate Deltas will be away for some part of the coming school year to study in different schools. Harry Ames has been awarded a scholarship to study for a year in South America, Dave Loughran will study one semester in Spain, and Hap Dunning will spend a semester working for the State Department in Washington. Bob Elmore will travel to California to do one semester of serious skiing.

Delt grades have not been officially tabulated. Yet early reports are encouraging. You are assured of a higher Chapter average than last semester. This will be the result of the active scholarship program headed by Vice-President Walt Liefeld. Included in the program is the biannual steak dinner. At the beginning of each semester, brothers with similar grades are paired off. At the end of the semester the brother with the lower grade treats the winner to a steak dinner.

The annual Senior Sendoff was held at the home of Bill Fleming. Brothers and their dates enjoyed a day of swimming, golfing, and eating. Outstanding seniors who were feted were Brothers Bart Rinehart, Hal Hultman, Ted Fields, Bill Fleming, and Pete French.

With regret we bid good-bye to J. Peter Mynster, who sails home to Denmark July first. Peter arrived last September at Delaware as a Fulbright-Brittingham scholar. In the short time we have known Peter, he has earned our respect and we consider it a privilege to have known him. We are proud of our new Delt alum in Denmark.

Anne Churchill Rinehart was crowned Delt Queen at the Delt week end held at the Northeast Yacht Club on Chesapeake Bay. Brothers who received honors were: Pat McClary, outstanding pledge; Mike Lewis, outstanding brothers; and Dave Heeren, outstanding athlete. Jim Leathrum received the award for attaining the highest numerical grade and C. Preston Day, president of the alumni association, was recognized as the outstanding alumnus.

Highlights of the past year at Beta Beta were the wealth of social events, third place in intramurals, a fine group of new initiates, and a new and inspiring housemother. Our last social event of the year was our best effort. In the bright, hot, and fiery depths of "Hell" the Deltas and their dates danced to the music of Dudley Storm. "Delt Inferno," including the outdoor, candlelight meal, turned out to be an enjoyable evening. The President of the University attended, to add to the festivities.

A fitting climax to the school year was the annual alumni day. We were happy to entertain so many alums and to have the opportunity to show them the plans for our new addition. Chapter Adviser Edwin H. Hughes, III, was here to present these plans.

Looking forward to next year, the brothers are planning on many evenings of interesting tales told by our two returning brothers who studied in Europe the past semester. We also expect to hear from our president, Joe Goddard, who is spending the summer in Japan. Another unfamiliar but welcome face in the Shelter next year will be that of our exchange student from Turkey. All the brothers feel happy and privileged to be able to share in the expenses of this student's education in the United States.

The new addition to the Shelter is now our big project and a symbol of the success of Delta Tau Delta. We are proud to be a progressing part in the dynamic tradition of our Fraternity.

Beta Epsilon completed the 1958-'59 school year with a number of brothers receiving honors and special recognition.

In the recent spring elections Brother Nat Long, a junior and past president of the College council, was elected president of the University student senate. This is the highest office held by a student at Emory.

Brother Joe Rainey was re-elected to the College council. Brother McKeever was appointed chairman of the University publications board, which has the authority to appoint editors to all the campus publications. The traffic court recently chose Brother Dave Strimer to sit as a judge.

Several brothers have been recently tapped into honor societies on the campus. Jim Underwood was initiated into Phi Beta Kappa fraternity. John McKeever was selected for membership in Pi Delta Epsilon honorary journalistic society and Tau Kappa Alpha, national forensics society. Bill Garland was tapped into membership of the Eta Sigma Psi, lower division leadership society. He also received recognition as the outstanding freshman on the Wheel, the campus newspaper, and as the outstanding student in both chemistry and Latin. Garland also received the Tate award as the outstanding freshman in Beta Epsilon. IFC Representative George Slade was the recipient of the first IFC David Thorne Memorial scholarship. Brother Jim Cowell received recognition from the chapter as its outstanding pledge. An ECA recognition key was presented to Bill Fackler.

For writing the best essay on the subject "We Georgians Are Our Own Worst Enemies in Using Colloquialisms Instead of Correct English." Bill Kennedy received an award of $500.

Under the direction of Bill Fackler we have had a superior rush program during the spring, concentrating on incoming high school seniors. There have been several rush week ends with parties and rush dinners.

As the 1959-'60 year begins, Beta Epsilon anticipates an even more profitable year of Fraternity life.

JIM PRERATT

Gamma Eta closed out the spring semester in good form. We placed second among 16 fraternities in the tough interfraternity sing competition to support our musical record—we won first place in three of the last four years. Gamma Eta gained a distinction this spring when 33 brothers were photographed riding in a small French automobile at one time. This record-setting feat appeared in papers as far away as Italy. On the more serious side, Tim Mead, our No. 1 politician, helped organize the University's first successful political party. In the spring student council election, 11 of the 19 newly elected members rode into office under this party's banner. Brother Mead, one of the eleven, was elected president of the council.

Entering the fall semester, we in Gamma Eta are confident of maintaining our No. 1 position on campus. We expect to move into our new house by October first with all but six brothers, who graduated last year. We hope to have a well-organized rush machine in operation to duplicate last year's feat of taking the largest pledge class on campus.

The Delts will be well represented on the football field this fall, both on the varsity squad and in intramurals. End Bill Smythe, Guard John Whiting, Tackle Gene Posati, and Quarterback Ed Hino will all be starters on the University team for the second consecutive year. Intramuralwise the Delts will field the same team that lost only one game last year—by one point to the intramural champion.

We are sure we will win all the parties. The Delts will have a full social schedule including parties, coffee hours, and exchanges. Entertainment at social functions is our trademark, and the new Shelter will soon contain memories of skits by our own "Playhouse 45" actors, of songs by our octet under the direction of Ken Larish, and of songs by our 16-man sing team under the direction of Chuck Johnson.

Gamma Psi experienced another good quarter to end another good year.

Spring quarter saw the Delts excel in many phases of their activity. To start the quarter off, the brothers staged a rush week which brought in nine good men.

This rush week was held at the time that the brothers were involved in preparing for the annual Greek Week IFC sing. Each evening after the last meal, the brothers and rushees gathered around the piano, singing Delt songs.

This singing, in addition to a big combo party, a smoker, and the enthusiastic spirit exhibited by all of the brothers, caused this rush week to be the most successful off-season rush ever held at Gamma Psi.

The following men were pledged: Ron Bowers, Ken Cain, John Cross, Dave Fuller, Richard Heustess, Bill McDonald, Skip Nygaard, Ed Parrish, and Jerry Taylor.

In extracurricular activities, the Delts again excelled. Paul Hodgdon, slated to be the editor of the newspaper next year, was tapped into Omicron Delta Kappa, senior honor society, and was promptly elected vice-president. Grey Hodges, also scheduled to edit a publication, The Rambler magazine, was also inducted into ODK and was chosen to act as treasurer for the coming year for that honorary. Koseme Society, the local junior honorary, selected John Walker for membership. Brother Steve Wilenchek was elected to the top post in the YMCA, that of president.

Army ROTC recently held honors day, and chose as the recipient of its outstanding junior medal, Brother Bill Abercrombie. Bill has been the leader of the drill team for the past year and was one of the few Juniors wearing cadet officer insignia.

Long outstanding in student government, Bill has also been elected vice-president of the senior class. Other rising Seniors winning positions on student council as the result of the campus elections were Marvin Alston and Charles McQuirt. Marvin was elected from the industrial management department and Charles was picked to represent aeronautical engineering. Charles was also chosen to act as chaplain of the governing body for the coming year.

In the IFC Sing competition during the annual Greek Week festivities, the Delts lulled the audience with "Delta Shelter" and then pepped them up with "Good News," an old spiritual. Although the singing group failed to capture one of the first three places in this campus-wide event, Judy Holloway of nearby Agnes Scott College, representing the Delts, captured the crown in the Greek Goddess contest. The judges picked Judy over 26 other contestants on the basis of her beauty, charm, and wonderful personality.

In intramural competition, the Delts copped third-place honors in golf to round out the most successful intramural season in recent years. Coupled with earlier championships and titles, the win in golf assured the Delts of a position near the top of the standings in IFC athletic points for the school year.

Parties for the spring quarter retained their high pitch of excitement and were entered into with a great deal of enthusiasm by the brothers. Topping off the party season, which included several unusual costume events, was the annual lake party. This all-day party was to include swimming and an evening cook-out. The plans, however, did not anticipate weather troubles, which occurred in the form of rain. The effect of the rain turned out to be three-fold. First, the festivities were delayed about two hours; secondly, the cook-out was cooked-in; and lastly, the rains caused some of the die-hard swimmers to be a little wetter than usual. In any event, this final social occasion was a fitting conclusion to another good year at Gamma Psi.

JOHN WALKER

Idaho

The year ended well for Delta Mu. The chapter got into the spirit of things by tackling a help week project, and, under the able leadership of Paul Sokvitne, the brothers got the Moscow swimming pool completely renovated and ready for another season.

The 200-man hours spent on the pool made decorating for our Playboy spring formal seem like a vacation in comparison. This function was run by Fred Ayarza with Brody Conklin supervising the decorations. The dance was very complete with everything from rabbit corsages to "Club 720" in the basement.

The year ended, socially, for the chapter on the last open week end with a smashing affair at Camp Arrow on Coeur d' Alene Lake. The slightly damp weather didn't dampen our spirits and the day was spent water skiing, swimming, eating, dancing, and generally picnicking.

Spring saw Delt Golfers Rusty Sheppard and Team Captain John Rosholt lead a great golf team to a first in the northwest with only one defeat and a fourth in the now dead PCC.

Intramurally, Delta Mu added two more trophies to the mantel, taking both softball and horseshoes. Kenny Everett coached a good team to a near perfect season with only one loss to take the trophy in softball. Dick Rene, undefeated in horseshoes, became campus champion, then aided Jack Acree and George Dickenson in taking the team trophy. Poor showings in football and volleyball took their toll as Delta Mu got third on campus and second among the Greeks when the points were finally tallied.

Men on campus were numerous—Jim Child, Navy drill team commander, was elected president of Scabbard and Blade. Bob Bernard was given a Blue Key, making the chapter total three. Campus committees included Brothers Bob Bernard, George Dickenson, Bob Hall, Mike Watson, and Lary Cross.

With three rush functions planned for the coming summer and many top men already signed, the men from Delta Mu, "the monastery on the hill," are eagerly awaiting next year.

BRODY CONKLIN

Illinois Tech

At the close of the spring term, the IFC's sought-after all-activities trophy still remained unclaimed. Only a few points separate the Delts and the two other fraternities in competition. The scholarship results, not yet available, will decide the fate of the trophy which we have won for two consecutive years.

Regardless of the outcome of the trophy competition, Gamma Beta has culminated another successful year. We won four of the nine intramural trophies. Early in the year, we retired the swimming trophy and this spring we captured the track trophy, scoring an easy victory to win the event for the third straight year. We gained third places in both baseball and bowling and a fourth in basketball. In school athletics, Delts were strongly represented on nearly all of Tech's teams and will captain the basketball and golf squads next year.

In the field of campus activities, Gamma Beta men served as student body vice-president, IFC president and secretary, sophomore class president, and engineering representative on the student governing board. Dick Ward was elected "Man of the Year" and Dave Roberts was chosen "IF Athlete of the Year." Clay Hayes was elected vice-president of the class of '62 and later appointed as activities chairman of the Student Union Board. Dave Beal was appointed to a publications board seat and then elected corresponding secretary. Lauren Hilquist is working on the yearbook. Dave Gibbs was recently designated by the brothers as "Most Valuable Senior," an honor given annually within the Chapter.

Our Rainbow Ball, featuring Lane Emory and held at the Ambassador West Hotel, was a great success. The pledges sponsored a picnic for the actives late in May. In conjunction with our summer rush program, a stable party was held in suburban Geneva in August. The alumni summer banquet, held in mid-August at a downtown restaurant, also served as a summer rush function.

A new 288-man dorm has just been completed by the school and this fact has introduced many complexities into this year's rush week. The school is now requiring that out-of-town freshmen live in the dorms, thus all fraternities at Tech are undergoing a period of financial adjustment. Rush Chairman John Olin has conducted an extensive program over the summer designed to meet the unique challenge presented by the fall's rushing obstacles.

We moved up the scholarship ladder as Bob Archer, Bob Dvorak, Don Hierman, John Olin, Jim Solon, and Rog Ulbrich all made the Dean's List. This fall's pledge class will be rushed primarily for scholastic potential.

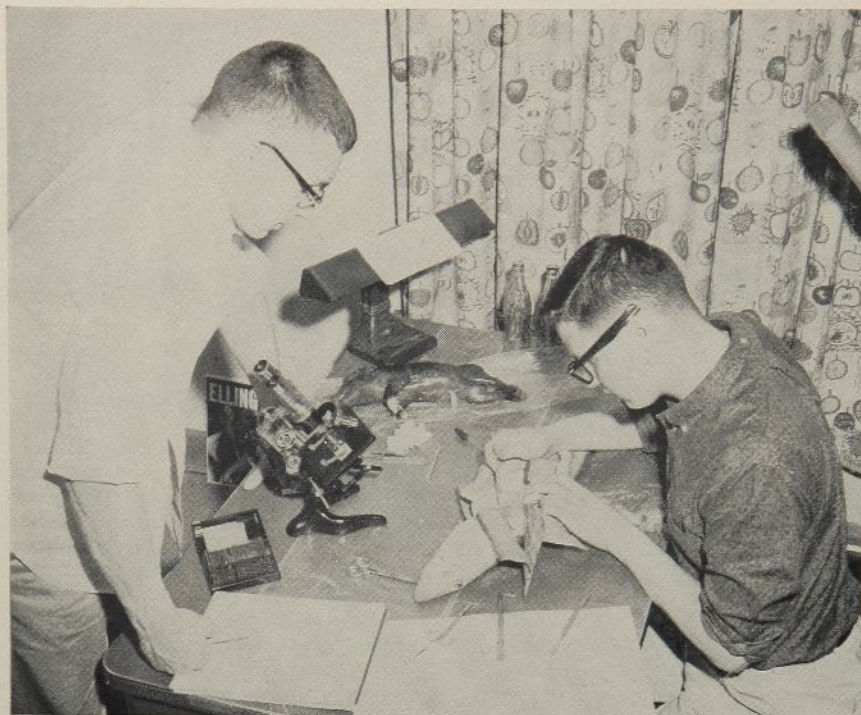

DAVE BEAL

Iowa

Omicron Chapter successfully completed another year with many brothers being elected to offices in campus organizations. John Stoy was elected to serve on the Union Board while Brian Clemons, a newly initiated brother, was appointed to the central party Committee. Terry Travis was elected to serve on student council and Keith Zastrow was appointed to serve on the orientation committee starting September. Also, Jim Tilton, one of our graduating seniors, won the O.D.K. honor.

If all goes well, Omicron should have a strong pledge class this September. At the last chapter meeting several brothers offered to take a week off from their summer work to rush in many areas in Illinois and Iowa. Doug MacKinney and Ed Sproat will be rushing in Illinois while John Kline and Brian Clemons will be doing likewise in Iowa. To add to the strength of our rush program, Omicron and Gamma Pi (Iowa State) have formed a co-ordinated rush program.

Many weeks of hard work and the elimination of several monotones paid off. We took second place in the University Sing. It took a professional singing group to keep us from garnering first place.

After a successful French party with the Iowa State Deltas, we decided to get together at least once a year, alternating the location of the party between Iowa and Iowa State.

Reviewing our functions of the past year, we had our annual winter and spring formal, a most successful pajama party, the French party, and we concluded the year with a terrific party on an island in the Mississippi River.

With a strong rush program and so many brothers in campus activities we are looking forward to a successful year.

HOWARD HEID

Iowa State

As our fourth year in our new Shelter came to an end, the Gamma Pi Deltas could claim more than their share of achievement and good times. Beginning with the shaping of the pledge class and ending with the completion of the last final, the year brought such characteristic achievements as a third place homecoming display, an eye-opening pajama party, and a highly successful formal.

Individual achievement was fantastic, with the names of Tom Lettington, Jay Dockendorff, Roger Barney, Jack O'Keefe, Jack Kingery, Tom Kline, Bob Ross, Jay Wollin, Tom Acuff, and Ralph Staudte among those to be permanently remembered by both the Fraternity and the University. Starting with the example set by a handful, the Deltas have risen to a coveted position with the best of the fraternities at Iowa State.

With the new school year beginning, the men of Gamma Pi stand prepared to further better themselves and to serve in the spirit that has brought success in the past.

Gamma Tau ended the school year with a bang by reaping many individual and group awards. We were all very proud when two of our brothers, Bill Witt and J. P. Feighner, were elected to Phi Beta Kappa, the highest scholastic award given by the University. Brother Ted Hall was selected to Sachem, a senior men's honor society, and he will also be vice-chairman of the all student council next year. Revue, the major student show production of the year. Brother Dick Meidinger will serve on the student health committee, in the capacity of chairman, for the coming year.

Gamma Tau took several group awards during the spring. We won the second-place trophy in the K.U. Relays parade for our float. Gamma Tau has the reputation of building a prize-winning float every year for the parade. We were represented in the relays by Jerry Foos, who whipped the discus far enough to bring the third-place medal back to the Shelter. Jerry also placed third at the Texas Relays and the Drake Relays. Jerry will be a junior, so we are expecting even bigger things from him next year. The "A" softball team won its division again for the third straight year, and the "B" team got second in its division. The tennis team walked away with its division, and placed second on the hill. The badminton team reached the semifinals of the hill tournament. Also in the field of sports, Brother Don Culp represented Gamma Tau on the varsity baseball team, and earned a coveted "K" jacket. Brothers Larry Weimer and Newton King represented us on the varsity football team during spring training. Both will be sophomores and are promising stars.

One of the high lights of the year was the spring formal, which was held in one of the downtown hotels in an oriental atmosphere produced by beautiful scenes, decorations, and the smell of incense. The year ended with the usual cramming and excitement caused by the inevitable final exams.

The coming year promises to be a prosperous one for Gamma Tau. We are all anxious to hit the books again, and to get back to the competitive spirit of fraternity living. One of the main projects for the coming year will be the drive to raise funds for an addition to the Shelter.

CHARLES WETZLER

With the spring semester finished, Nu Chapter Delts are awaiting the modernization of the first floor of the Shelter, a project that should be finished in time for September rushing. The improvements include a new game room, pantry, lounge, ladies room, and, in particular, an enlarged dining room. The plans for the remodeling were drawn up by Charlie R. Hass, 1949 chapter president and now an architect in nearby Bethlehem. The Delts here at Nu wish to thank the alumni for their co-operation in the inception of the fund-raising program that accompanies the project. A new party room in the basement is also nearly complete. Most of the work on it was handled by the brothers.

The recently completed semester saw the Delts take second place in the step singing contest held during Parents week end. On this occasion the parents enjoyed a reception and a supper at the Shelter following an afternoon of spectating at various sporting events held around campus for their benefit. Also in the way of week ends, about 20 brothers returned after exams to play host to the chapter alumni who returned for Lafayette alumni week end. The chapter was indeed pleased by the turnout of alumni and in the future plans to make this an even bigger and better week end.

Miss Betsy George was voted "Delta Queen" by the brothers of the chapter, and was presented with the trophy award at the I.F. formal dinner. The same week end the brothers and their dates and a very enjoyable day at Brookdale on the Lake, a resort in the Poconos which was rented by the chapter.

In the coming semester the Nu Delts hope to maintain their scholastic standing on campus, now second among fraternities, and also hope to see the establishment of an Easton alumni chapter. We are also looking forward to a lively social season and a visit from our Beta Nu and Beta Mu brethren for the Lafayette-Tufts football game. All the brothers at Nu Chapter would like to join in the chorus and wish our 88th chapter a healthy start and a long life.

H. PETER CLAUSSEN

Lehigh

In the closing weeks of the semester, Beta Lambda Chapter had its spring Parents' Week End on May 16. There familiar faces return for the formal dedication of the new Shelter. We were very pleased to see so many of the alumni return. Our steward, Marty Bentley, did a fine job organizing the dinner held that evening. Our thanks to the clean-up crew who got the Shelter spotless for the summer.

Looking back over the year past, the Lehigh Delts finished a close third out of 30 fraternities for the all-year, all-sports trophy. This is quite an improvement over 15th position held last year. Much credit for this jump goes to Logan Blank and many others who sparked the program and saw it come to a close three-way race for top position.

We at Beta Lambda hope you had an enjoyable summer and extend our best wishes for a successful fall.

BOB GAIDO

Maine

The big news here at the Delt House this spring was the success of Brother Roy Weed, star center fielder for the University of Maine Bears. Roy was voted a spot on the all-state of Maine first team. His solid .330 batting average and consistent defensive work also earned him acclaim in the tough Yankee Conference.

The music of Nat Diamond helped make the spring house party a huge success. The dance was Friday night, and after a few hours sleep, the Delts and their dates headed, en masse, for Pledge Tony Haag's lodge on Pleasant Point. The menu for the outing, lobsters, corn on the cob, steamed clams, hot dogs, hamburgers, and watermelon, gives a good indication of the wonderful time that everyone had.

Dave Robinson has obtained the position of program director for WORO, the popular campus radio station. Dave has been an announcer for the past year.

The office of vice-president of the student senate went to Brother Larry Cilley by a landslide vote. He is also associate editor of The Prism, the school yearbook, and director, of news at WORO.

We were all proud to hear that Orm Wade, Bob Ingoldby, and Pete Haynes had been elected to Sigma Pi Sigma honor society, and that Ed Nealy had been elected by Tau Beta Pi honor society.

Our highly-regarded pledge class gives the Delts at Gamma Nu high hopes for a successful year in 1959-'60.

STAN ALLAIN

Delta Sigma again showed an outstanding example of that brotherhood which is typical of our Fraternity. President Ed St. John and awards Chairman Richard Lathan presented a television set to Gamma Eta Chapter at George Wash-was a tremendous turnout and the weather was beautiful. All this made a perfect setting for the surprise testimonial dinner given in honor of our chapter adviser, Professor James V. D. Eppes. The Professor's picture now hangs on the wall of our new library as our small token of appreciation for his hard work.

Alumni week end on June 6 saw many ington University to help restore its Shelter which was destroyed by fire last October. During the recent "Marlboro Man" contest, we solicited the aid of other fraternities and sororities on campus to win the set. Despite our collective movement, we failed to win the first prize.

Philip Morris, Inc., after hearing the reason for the banding together of the fraternities and sororities, decided to donate another television set to our chapter so that we could present it as a gift to the GW chapter.

R. F. ALLEN

M.I.T.

Beta Nu Chapter ended the school year strong in sports, finishing third in competition for the all-sports trophy. First and second places were won by dormitory teams; this puts Delta Tau Delta in first place among the M.I.T. fraternities. The Delt baseball team took second place in the intramural competition. Bob Larson was elected captain of the M.I.T. golf team for the coming school year.

Beta Nu Delts spent an enjoyable IFC week end in May. In the annual IFC parade Beta Nu entered a large model of a steer. The theme of the week end was "The Wild West." The following Saturday, the chapter moved out to Misery Island, off Salem, for a beach party. The annual swan song for the graduating seniors was held the last day of school.

Three M.I.T. Delts received honors last spring. Dave Powell was elected president of Pi Tau Sigma; Al Klancnik is the new A.S.M.E. treasurer; and Terry Bray was elected to the M.I.T. Quadrangle Club, an honorary society.

Before the end of school the floor in the basement-to-be-recreation-room was completely refinished. The walls and ceiling will probably be redecorated during the coming school year. Beta Nu is at present working toward and looking forward to another successful rush week.

ALVIN THRASH

Michigan State

With the coming of fall term, Iota Chapter is anticipating another fine year both socially and academically. We're looking forward to the innovation of a tea to be held by our chapter adviser, Burley Winton, the head of poultry research at MSU, and his wife, at their home, for Iota's new pledges. The idea was formulated so that Mr. Winton could get better acquainted with the brothers right from the start of their membership.

Looking back to the spring of '59, Iota said good-bye to 19 graduating seniors with more than a little bit of reluctance. We'd like to mention each senior by name and list the many fine contributions he made to the Fraternity and the University; however, we should single out the loss of the senior class president, Dave Ball, and the vice-president, Jack Lundstrum. Also graduating and going on to medical school is Varsity Swimmer David McCaffree, who was elected president of MSU's class of '59 alumni club. Dave Ball, we might add, was elected vice-president of this same alumni group. Lastly, concerning these three brothers, it should be worthy of mention that all were members of Excalibur, the senior class social-scholastic honorary.

Each year Iota Chapter presents the Ron Carr Memorial Award to the outstanding graduating senior, and this year's recipient was Leslie O. Johnson, of Mrs. OLDS ANDERSON, left, bids good-bye to Iota's housemother, Mrs. HORNBECK, and JUAN CALVO, following party given chapter by Mrs. ANDERSON.

Chicago. This honor is based upon outstanding contributions to Delta Tau Delta, and we were proud to select Les because of his great service and devotion to the Fraternity.

At the annual varsity swimming team awards this spring, the senior scholastic award, which goes to the senior on the team with the highest all-college average, went to Brother Dave McCaffree. The Clark C. Scholes swimming award went to South African Olympian Billy Steart. This award is worthy of mention because it is in honor of Iota Delt Alumnus Clark Scholes, who was the 1952 Olympic 100-meter free style champion. The honor was first bestowed on an MSU varsity swimmer in 1957 and went, fittingly enough, to another alumnus, Jim Clemens.

A little more than a week before school was out, the brothers were treated to one of the finest parties ever attended by Iota Chapter. Mrs. Gladys Olds Anderson, the daughter of R. E. Olds, the inventor of the Oldsmobile automobile and Reo cars and trucks, was our most gracious hostess and opened the original home of the Olds family to all the brothers at Michigan State. Mrs. Anderson, who is a leading patroness of education and good will, after having been Iota's dinner guest, reciprocated in such a manner that the evening at her expense was one of the high lights of our social year. A special bit of thanks should go also to Brother Juan Calvo, a graduate student of Valencia, Spain, who was instrumental in making this enjoyable evening possible.

Looking back on other events this past spring, Iota captured second place in IFC sing with our colorful rendition of "There's Nothing Like a Dame." Russ Peppet directed the 26-man group, and in theme with the nautical selection, each man wore white sailor-type outfits with hats to match. The brothers enjoyed the singing and the song so much that this Rodgers and Hammerstein tune is now among our repertoire of songs at the Shelter.

The Junior 500, the annual pushcart derby held at MSU, saw Iota get beaten out by a cart's length to finish fourth. DTD's team, composed of John Archer, Warren Kellog, Jim Dobrei, Bill Young, and Captain Roddy Sherrill, and Driver Terry Braverman, won the preliminary heat with a team of 3:12.7, and went on to record Iota's fastest timing in the final race—3:08.5—which was only two seconds off the winning pace and four seconds from the track record.

The senior class of MSU presents Water Carnival every spring on the Red Cedar River with all the living units on campus building floats and vying for prizes. The Delts combined talents with the women of Kappa Alpha Theta and constructed what we thought was a winning float. Unfortunately, the judges saw differently. As the saying goes, "participating is half the fun," and certainly Brother John Jordan should be cited as doing a fine job as chairman of our float. The final night of the event saw the tapping of Excalibur members, and the Delts saw Brother Russ Peppet add another honor to his list.

Having mentioned the loss of many outstanding seniors here at Iota, it seems proper we should look to the underclassmen, where potential leadership is already taking shape. Larry Osterink, commanded in the June issue of THE RAINBOW for being a straight-A initiate, was elected president of the sophomore class for the coming year. John Forsyth was elected president of Green Helmet, which is a sophomore scholastic-service honorary that requires a high academic standing in the University. Along with Forsyth as members of Green Helmet are Larry Osterink and Pledges Jim Dobrei, Bill Myers, and Jerry Myers. These same five men are also members of Phi Eta Sigma, a scholastic honorary here at Michigan State that requires a 3.5 all-college average for eligibility.

In closing, we, the brothers of Iota Chapter, are anticipating even greater things in the coming school year, and we will look forward to seeing all visiting brothers at 139 Bailey Street.

Spring quarter, 1959, ended another successful year at Beta Eta. Many honors and trophies were acquired along with recognition for the chapter's activities on campus.

In intramural sports, our teams finished the year with a good record. The swimming team took second place with Jack Comstock winning the orthodox breast stroke event in the all-University finals. Our softball team, resplendent in new uniforms this year, copped the all-University class "B" championship. Pitcher George Prezel was in great form as opposing teams had trouble getting more than one hit off him.

The high light of the spring social events was the spring formal, which was held at the Minneapolis Golf Club under the direction of the social co-chairmen, Jim Westman and Rog Talle. Climaxing the evening was the selection of our Delta Queen, Miss Diane Cox, a Gamma Phi Beta senior. Saturday night parties were also a great success last spring with the annual South Sea Island party being tremendous as usual.

Last spring's Campus Carnival saw the Delts co-operating with the DG's to put on a prizewinning show. The show was put to good use after Carnival when the cast presented it for the benefit of those at the cerebral palsy center in Minneapolis. It was great fun and will probably become an annual event.

At the award dinner given by the University in the spring for recognition of student achievement, two Delts received high acclaim. Wayne Anderson received the Order of the North Star, highest award given for student leadership on the campus. A Ski-u-mah Award went to Denny Gladhill for his participation on campus.

After a fine summer, this fall promises to be the start of another great year for Beta Eta as rushing, homecoming, parties, and campus activities are looked forward to with anticipation.

KENNETH D. RUBLE

Spring, finals, and a full school year have come and gone and the Gamma Kappa Delts have parted paths for a full summer of hard work and rushing.

The Delts at Ol' Mizzou came out a close second in the intramural softball division, after being edged out in the final game that saw us come out on the short end of a 6-5 score. Although we fared only slightly above average in intramural track, we still ranked in the upper half of the final standings.

The official results on final grades are not yet in, but first reports indicate that Gamma Kappa will score well above the All Men's Average.

Able headed by Rush Chairmen Bill Kennedy and John Silver, our summer rush program is in full swing. John is in charge of the important St. Louis area while Bill co-ordinates the rushing activities for the entire state. Rush parties in individual areas are planned for each week end and the program will be capped by a state-wide party in the Ozarks shortly before rush week early in September.

Over-all, things are going great and Mizzou's Gamma Kappa Delts are looking forward to the greatest year ever.

TOM WILLIAMS

Nebraska

Talk among the Beta Tau Delts these days centers around the "new look" which the Shelter is going to assume by the beginning of the 1959-'60 fall semester.

Other than the annual summer paint-up, fix-up program, plans call for the purchasing of new furniture, new carpeting and new draperies for the living room, and the refinishing of tables and chairs in the library. One of the basement rooms will be converted into a concessions room, where the brothers may purchase pop, candy, and cigarettes and spend moments of relaxation.

Beta Tau's present major concern is summer-fall rushing. Rush Chairman Richard Stuckey and his committee have set up a busy summer schedule which includes two state-wide rush trips—one in June, the other in August. Week end rush parties are planned throughout the state. Each rush trip will be climaxed by a major rush party. Just prior to the beginning of rush week, the Beta Tau Delts will be host to rushees at Johnson Lake, a popular Nebraska resort area.

For the second consecutive year Beta Tau captured the annual IFC chariot race, climaxing event of Greek Week. The chariot, pulled by the Four Horsemen: Tom Sheldon, Lynn Schottler, Richard Stuckey, and Dallas Dyer, won by four lengths over the other three finalists. Riding in the chariot was Delt Queen Sally Wengert, Pi Beta Phi. Richard Stuckey, president of the junior IFC, served as Greek Week chairman.

The pledges honored the active chapter at the traditional Squab Scramble, held this year at Linoma Beach. During the day-long event, the brothers and their dates consumed 64 fried chickens. After a day of boating and hiking along the Platte River, the evening was spent around a log fire singing Delt and sorority songs.

The TV western craze hit the Shelter with such an impact that the brothers did away with tradition this spring and held a "Bret Maverick" party instead of the usual French party. Decked out in cowboy hats and six shooters, the brothers and their dates played poker and roulette with Delt dollars in the "Basement Casino." Upstairs decorations gave the impression of a western barn dance even though music was provided by a modern-day combo.

The chapter is looking forward to seeing two of the brothers on the grid-iron next fall. Playing their first year of varsity football will be Monte Kiffin and Dallas Dyer. Kiffin, a lineman, and Dyer, a halfback, are expected to see considerable action. Both are said to be two of the most promising prospects to hit the varsity football scene at the University in a number of years. Larry Naviaux, a 1959 graduate and three-year football letterman, has been serving as an assistant coach.

Beta Tau is looking forward to a good-sized fall initiation. Scholarship is expected to rise here at Beta Tau, for under a new program all brothers not maintaining a C-plus or better average over the course of a semester must confine themselves to study hall at least three nights a week.

Returning to the Shelter for her seventh consecutive year will be our fine housemother, Mrs. Bernice Hinds.

SAM L. HALL

North Dakota

The Delts started the spring social season off by electing a new beauty queen,

N. Dakota's "Sally Sunshine" (standing).

"Miss Sally Sunshine." Bev Olson was chosen to wear the title, following an early morning invasion of the Tri-Delt house on Saturday, May second. After the selection, the Deltas joined the Tri-Delts for breakfast.

The event was a tremendous success, the first of its kind at UND. The Deltas received a lot of favorable publicity as a result of the unusual party and we are planning to make it an annual event.

Brother Loney Norby is a regular on the varsity track team. He is lettering for the third year, and is a consistent point-winner in conference competition.

Brother Don Schmid was elected treasurer of the UND social work club and Brother Dennis Levi was elected treasurer of United Campus Christian Fellowship.

On May 10, the Deltas joined Kappa Alpha Theta sorority in the annual trip to the North Dakota Children's Village at Fargo. The purpose of the trip is to spend several hours with the orphan children and entertain them.

Brother Lee B. Nelson was awarded the Hallenberg Key, given by Brother Edward X. Hallenberg, a charter member and first president of Delta Xi. The key is awarded annually for outstanding scholarship, service to the chapter, and general attitude during the pledge period. Brother Nelson was Delta Xi's candidate for the all-campus "ideal pledge" at the annual Greek Week banquet.

The spring banquet and formal, held May 23, was the high light of the social season. President Darrell Wood presided as master of ceremonies with Brother Rudolph Slupski, a 1956 graduate of Delta Xi, as the banquet speaker. The six men receiving their degrees received special recognition. Following the banquet, Jim Thorson's band, a well-known campus orchestra, provided the music for an evening of dancing. Al Koss and his social committee did a fine job in making arrangements; the formal was a great success.

Dick McKelvey and his rush committee are getting set for fall rushing. Alumni are asked to send Brother McKelvey the names of men who would make good Deltas. We are confident that, with alumni co-operation and aggressive rushing, a fine pledge class will join Delta Xi chapter in the fall.

MARINO S. MELSTED

Northwestern

As the quarter comes to a close, Beta Pi Deltas can look back at the past year with much pride and elation. Among the many subjects of pointed achievement, we can single out a few of notable mention. The fine scholastic record of the past year that pushed us above the all fraternity average, the winning of the second-place sweepstakes trophy, numerous first-place trophies in the individual sports events, an All-American football player in Andy Cvercko, and last but not least, the fine co-operation of our alumni in many of our endeavours. The year came to a dramatic close as our volleyball team captured the University championship, going undefeated throughout the whole campaign. Many thanks go to the fine array of participants in this activity who display wide smiles beside the two-foot trophy. And besides this the brothers will reminisce about the fine times all had during May week, the spring formal, the pajama party, homecoming, and many informal affairs at the beach, at "The Pad" and at Harm's. Yes, the year has been good to us and we hope that again next year it will be just as fine with another top-notch pledge class. All the brothers are anxiously awaiting the orders of Brother Maggart, who is steering the helm of summer rush, and with this in mind we are sure that again we will pledge the cream of the Northwestern crop come September.

Plans for this coming fall on the social agenda call for a most active program on the part of the brothers. Cosocial Chairmen Denny Kyros and Bob Serhant have sorority exchanges planned with Theta, Kappa, and Tri-Delt; have set up final details for the annual Delta Pajama Race in its 32nd year at Northwestern; and have on schedule a homecoming pig roast, a "Showboat" party and a Dad's week end, plus the weekly football barbecues on Saturdays. This should keep the brothers busy along social lines as well as keep Headwaiter Fred Hoskins busy in the kitchen. Also this fall our champion football team will take the field headed by Dick Soderberg, Kent Malquist, Chuck Wonderlic, George Platz, and others. From this program then, it can be seen that Beta Pi Deltas will again be very active and busy in the affairs of the Fraternity and the University. With three very fine classes and a terrific pledge class, Beta Pi will again be a credit to the fraternity system and its existence.

BOB SERHANT

Ohio

Beta Deltas initiated an ambitious rush program this past summer, lining up top men all over the state and getting them interested in Delta Tau Delta. Jim Brooker is our rush chairman and he kept in touch with the brothers throughout the state.

Toward the end of last year, Beta Chapter's fine glee club took second place in Omicron Delta Kappa's Torch Sing. Dave Stockman directed the group through a very difficult German number, "Gute Nacht," and also "Darkness on the Delta." Immediately after the contest, Brother Dave Brueckner was tapped into O.D.K. He earned this award by being one of the outstanding men on OU's campus; he is president of student council, past president of the sophomore class, member of Phi Eta Sigma, J-Club, Cutler Society, and OU debate team. He also has a 3.86 average.

Following Beta Chapter's fine tradition, we invited our "moms" to the Shelter to spend Mothers' week end. We enjoyed many hours of fun and laughter showing our "moms" the campus and the house. Later, the little brothers challenged the big brothers to a tug of war across the Asylum Pond. Naturally, the big brothers prevailed.

Beta Chapter is looking forward to homecoming again this year, hoping for a repeat of last year's first place house decoration and another trophy. We cordially invite all alumni and friends to visit with us during homecoming. The Delt welcome mat, as always, will be out.

NEIL WILLIS

Ohio State

Spring quarter at Ohio State saw Beta Phi add four more trophies to its collection—making a total of ten for the year.

Probably the most valued competitive award of the year, the May Week participation trophy, is now a part of the Beta Phi Shelter. The brothers entered the rally, sold over 500 tickets to the May Week dance, donated funds to the United Student Appeal drive, and participated in the float parade and skit contest with Kappa Kappa Gamma. The Ohio State Delts won the trophy hands down, with 200 points more than our nearest competitor.

The other three trophies were won by the intramural teams. The swimming team, coached by Bob Duffy, placed second; the softball team, coached by Lawton Gerlinger, won the tournament championship; and the track team, coached by Jim Butz, won the interfraternity track meet.

Jane Hess, Kappa Alpha Theta, was named Sweetheart of Delta Tau Delta for the second year in a row, at the spring formal. Other awards and their recipients were: Mr. Delt, Bob White; room scholarship, Bob Duffy and Jon Hazleton; individual scholarship, Willson Baker and Jon Hardacre; model pledge, Dean Reinhardt; senior activities award, George Baughman; the Doug William award, Phil Keller. A special award was given to Bob Winters for outstanding service to the chapter.

In other activities this spring, Larry Shellquist was tapped for Romophos, the sophomore men's honorary, and George Baughman was tapped by Bucket and Dipper, the junior men's honorary. Tom Stewart has been selected for membership in Ohio Staters, the service organization at Ohio State rated by many as the top activity on campus. Beta Phi now has four members in the group.

With summer nearly here, rushing once more becomes the number one issue. Chuck Schwindt has been named summer rush chairman and Merv Graham is his assistant.

RON K. MILLER

Ohio Wesleyan

The Delts of Chapter Mu have disbanded for the three-month summer vacation period with a feeling of great satisfaction in view of their accomplishments over the past school year. A glance into the campus life at Ohio Wesleyan finds Mu Chapter active in nearly every field, from scholarship to social events.

In the field of scholarship, the chapter hopes to garner its fifth consecutive first-place finish among all Ohio Wesleyan fraternities and thus retain the IFC scholarship trophy which has rested in the Shelter over the past two years.

When the Ohio Wesleyan football squad takes the field next fall, Delts will play a vital role in the team's success. Dick Heaston and all-Ohio End Dick DeHaven will start at the two end positions, while Rod Thatcher, Dallas Deevers, and Ed Metz, along with Ken Reinhardt, will be playing at other positions. Brother DeHaven, in his fourth year, is the captain of the 1959 team, an all-Ohio Conference end for the past two seasons, all-Ohio end last season, and is expected to be a candidate for the Little All-America football team this season. DeHaven, along with Brother Doug Cotterman, was also a big factor in Ohio Wesleyan's third straight Ohio Conference track championship. In baseball, Brothers Dave Lehman, John Welch, and Bob Olson composed the starting outfield for the Bishops this past season, with Brother Olson sharing the league home run title. In tennis, Brother Denny Appleyard performed well in the second slot throughout the season. The Delts have also finished close to the top in all spring intramural sports, and should finish very high in the race for the all-year trophy.

A look at the journalistic field reveals that the Delts hold just about every top position. Denny Appleyard is presently serving as editor of the 1960 LeBijou, Ohio Wesleyan's yearbook, with Bruce Buchanan holding the purse strings as the LeBijou business manager. Blake Schubert is the business manager of Ohio Wesleyan's other campus-wide publication, the weekly Transcript.

Three junior Delts have recently been tapped to join Omicron Delta Kappa, national men's honorary. Bryce Collier, Vick French, and Dick Smith have participated in a great number and variety of campus activities; thus this honor comes as no surprise and as due reward for their endeavors.

Student government is also a big activity in Chapter Mu, with over half the brothers either holding top positions or belonging to committees. Heading up our representation in student government are two members of student council, Student Body President Bryce Collier and Student Body Treasurer Dick Smith. Committee heads Steve Whitehead and Dave Fisher have been working hard with their respective committees, while IFC Rush Committee Chairman Dave Rees has been busy in preparing for next fall's rush week.

Ohio Wesleyan's DICK DEHAVEN, 81, in dark jersey.

The social calendar has by no means been neglected in the midst of all other activities, but has been very full over the past semester. Many song practice sessions again resulted in our fourth consecutive second-place finish in the annual IFC Songfest, which completed this year's Greek Week. The high light of the year was our annual spring formal, held on the week end of May 16, at which we crowned our 1959 Delt Queen, Jane Firmin. Jane is a senior Kappa Kappa Gamma from Findlay, Ohio.

Amid the roar of campus activities, Chapter Mu has been constantly working toward next fall's rush week. Under the guidance of Rush Chairman Dave Fisher, we have been active in contacting men in next fall's freshmen class. Upon selection of our pledge class, Terry Ross and his pledge committee will take charge of introducing the freshmen to the ways of fraternity and campus life, assisting them in studies and advising them in other areas.

Thus, although scattered to all corners of the nation for the duration of the summer, the men of Chapter Mu are working hard; and, upon returning to the Shelter next fall, hope to secure another fine pledge class.

STEVIE WHITEHEAD

Oklahoma

Oklahoma University Delts are again looking forward to pledging the best men coming through rush week. Last year the Delts continued to prove themselves the best-rounded fraternity at O.U. Holder of the previous year's interfraternity intramural championship, Delta Alpha finished in a solid third place the past season. Delts won the intramural boxing championship for the ninth consecutive year with Brother Bob Scott being named the outstanding intramural boxer. Also in intramurals, Delta Alpha grabbed second place in "A" volleyball, "B" basketball, and both leagues of softball.

Delta Alpha's scholastic achievement was rewarded by an interfraternity scholarship trophy for remaining above the All Men's Average for three consecutive semesters. Sooner Delts have consistently remained at the top in scholarship among the fraternities at O.U. Also in the Delt Shelter are the first-place trophies for the Mom's Day all-University sing and the Dad's Day barbershop quartet.

Individual recognition of Sooner Delts has been remarkable. Delta Alpha was the only fraternity to have three of the ten outstanding freshmen. This year found Delts serving as presidents of the business fraternity, the prelaw fraternity, Phi Eta Sigma freshman honor fraternity, and O.U.'s marching band. The outstanding freshman and the outstanding sophomore Air Force ROTC cadets were both Delts. Sooner Delts hold two of the three AFROTC Advisory Cadet Council offices and the highest office for a junior NROTC cadet. Men of Delta Alpha were chosen as director of the annual Sooner Scandal production, treasurer of the Union Activities Board, public relations director of the Student Senate, and parliamentarian of the interfraternity council. Two brothers were named to Omicron Delta Kappa junior honorary fraternity. Delt President Buzz McDaniel was named one of the ten outstanding senior men.

This fall Delta Alpha is initiating a series of alumni dances following special home football games in an effort to establish a building fund for a new Delt Shelter.

The past of Delta Alpha has been brilliant, her present bright, and her future boundless.

JED JOHNSON

Oklahoma State

After spending the summer occupying jobs from "roughnecking" in the oil fields to office work, and from summer school to ROTC camp, Delts once again return to the campus for nine months of mental labor.

A successful summer rush program, headed by Rush Cochairmen Kendall Johnson and Richard Hollis, and with the willing aid of our enthusiastic alumni, the chapter is beginning the year with the best potential in its decade of existence.

Amid the flurry of finals at the end of last semester, the Delts at O.S.U. were engaged in the intramural softball playoffs. Delta Chi was edged out by the team taking the all-fraternity championship and wound up in fourth place.

Delta Chi Chapter proudly crowned another sweetheart at the Orchid Ball last May. This year the trophy travels from Alpha Chi Omega to Kappa Alpha Theta and to Sophomore Sweetheart Linda Kay Powell. Linda is majoring in elementary education and is a member of Orange and Quill.

Our housemother, Mrs. T. B. McClellon, has traveled this summer—going to Washington, D. C., New York, and several New England states.

The house corporation, headed by some of our hard-working alumni, has made badly-needed improvements on the Delta Shelter which will help our rush program and chapter morale greatly.

Delta Chi Chapter has steadily improved its scholarship, climbing from 18th to eighth over the past few semesters. Although we are proud of this achievement, further improvement in our scholarship program and scholastic standing is our No. 1 goal for the coming year.

Also, athletic-minded Delts will strive to gain more recognition in the intramural sports program. After winning league championships in every team sport entered, Delta Chi failed to win all-college in any sport. We hope this will be our year to overpower some of the larger fraternities on the campus.

The Delts will continue socially with a party every month, including old favorites and some new ones, plus dance hours and exchange dinners. More emphasis will be placed on participation and leadership in campus organizations, and with the fruits of a successful summer rush program, the men of Delta Chi Chapter will continue in their progress to build a stronger chapter for a stronger Fraternity.

Oregon

As the school year 1958-59 closed, the men of Gamma Rho were privileged to receive many honors and awards. Of particular note was the election of President Al Winter to the post of interfraternity council president.

The Delt song team placed second in the all-campus sing. By taking second place, the Delts can claim the best record for the past three years—one first and two seconds. The song team was again led by Tom Lewis, who is probably the outstanding man in music at the University of Oregon. Tom was commanding officer of the Army ROTC marching band, a member of the University Singers, an officer in the national music honorary, and a member of a professional singing quartet. To top off his year's activities, Tom was chosen to sing with the All-American Chorus, which will sing throughout Europe this summer on a State Department sponsored tour.

Delts will be leaders in many activities next year. Bob Richardson has been selected chairman of next year's big homecoming celebration on the University of Oregon campus. Warren Rucker will be the business manager of The Daily Emerald. Bill Swarts will be president of the Insurance Society. John Parker is the newly appointed wing commander of the Air Force ROTC. Gary Wirth is president of the Newman Club.

Oregon Delts received other honors as the year ended. Thespian Ed Winter was awarded the "Oscar" for best supporting player of the year. Ed did an outstanding job as Caliban in Shakespeare's "The Tempest." Douglas McKay was selected as the top officer in the Air Force ROTC. Louis Turk was awarded the high-average trophy as best shooter on the Oregon rifle team. Clayton Morse, who was earlier selected as the outstanding pledge of the year, received the principal appointment to Annapolis from Oregon.

With another successful year past and another's foundation already well laid, the Oregon Delts look forward to 1959-60.

Omega Chapter has contributed a great deal to the University community over the 1958-59 academic year in activities, athletics, and scholarship, and we hope to contribute as much and more this year. Last year Jim Murphy served as treasurer of the senior class, secretary of the Houston Hall student board of directors, and was a member of Sphinx senior honor society. This year, Barney Berlinger will serve as vice-president of the senior class, football captain, track cocaptain, and vice-president of Sphinx senior honor society. Last year's chapter president, Jack Windolf, also served as president of the Kite and Key Society. This year's president, Dave Landry, will serve as vice-president of the Kite and Key Society.

Senior Dave Hagerson is head swimming manager, a member of the Mask and Wig Club, and a member of Sphinx. Jack Hanlon, Penn fullback, is secretary of the Varsity Club and a member of Sphinx; while Dave Gunderson is the president of the Hexagon, senior honor society, varsity baseball center fielder, and a member of the undergraduate council. Pete Ryan is a member of the Kite and Key Society and treasurer of the Newman Club.

Junior Ed Smith is the only three-letter man Penn has claimed for over two decades. Smitty is a tackle, a wrestler, and a weightman for the track team. Bruce Cummings, a guard for the Quakers, is the other member of the Phi Kappa Beta junior honor society, serving as treasurer. Ted Irvine is a member of the Houston Hall student board of directors and the Mask and Wig Club. Other "Wiggers" are Bob Holt and Larry Turns. Wil Derby and Pete Eustratiades are playing 150-pound football, while Pete Schantz, Bunky McPherson, and Billy Gray are playing varsity football, along with Sophomores Connie DeSantis, last year's pledge class president, and Bob Eastwood.

Crewmen Al Doering, Tom Whyne, Tim Heidelbaugh, and Tony Palms earned their varsity letters in the spring. Brother Whyne won the "Class of 1946 Award" given to an outstanding graduating senior, and was a member of Phi Beta Kappa, as was quarterback Dick Cronk.

The Omega Delts won the intramural trophy for the year, far outpointing our nearest rivals. The chapter won the Sphinx Award for the seventh time in the past nine years. This award is given to the fraternity which has been most outstanding for the year on the basis of activities and scholarship.

June brought to a close another successful year at Tau Chapter. It was a year of many accomplishments—physical, scholastic, and extracurricular. Among the many physical changes were the installation of a new furnace, the creosoting of the exterior workwork, the painting of the woodwork on the inside, the remodeling of the third floor, and the refurbishing of the guest room. Thanks to House Manager Dick Bullock, the grounds and tennis court are in tip-top shape. Highlighting the improvements was the remodeling of our chapter room. Because of the untiring efforts of Dick Wilson and the co-operation of all the brothers, Tau Chapter now boasts one of the finest chapter rooms in the Fraternity. The walls and chairs received new coats of paint, and all the paraphernalia was either replaced or refinished. Adjoining the chapter room was a property room, which we converted into a second recreation room. It features some creative art work by Thatcher Schwartz and Dick Tuve, and will include a small snack bar, TV, phonograph, and dart board.

A fine tribute to Tau Chapter this year was the outcome of an independent poll taken of the 56 fraternity presidents. We were voted the No. 1 fraternity in social prestige, and No. 3 in campus leadership. Although we are very proud of this accomplishment, our efforts in the future will be guided toward further improvement on this standing. This should not be difficult if the new pledge class lives up to expectations.

Our efforts in spring week did not go unrewarded. Our float entry, titled "Streetcar Named Despair," took a runnerup award. Our entry in the carnival division by the same title won a trophy. The winning skit, the work of Dick Drayne, featured a satire of Penn State fraternities and administration.

Another feather in our cap was our winning of the Marlboro contest for a stereo hi-fi set. Our winning total of 25,000 boxes was five times the number of the runnerup house. Incidentally, we wish to thank Delta Sigma Chapter at Maryland for sending us 3,000 boxes.

Spring week end was the biggest social event of the year. This last of the "big week ends" was in honor of the seniors, and was co-ordinated by George Campbell and Fred Taylor. Annie Littlepaige was presented as our Delt Queen at the formal banquet. Later in the evening the formal dance got under way, with Lee Vincent's orchestra providing the music.

Tau Chapter had a fine year in intramural sports. Although plagued by frequent injuries, we missed taking by only a couple of points the all-sports trophy. We went undefeated in softball, and captured the coveted keg trophy from Phi Gamma Delta.

Special recognition came to several members of Tau Chapter last semester. The names of Dick Wilson, Tau, '59, and Bob Bagovich, Tau, '58, were placed on our special plaque for outstanding service to Tau Chapter. Jack Crosby was elected president of the junior class. John Behne, who captained and led Penn State's lacrosse team in scoring, played in the North-South game in June. Skip Berents, one of our new pledges, was tapped for Delphi hat society. Other Tau Deltas tapped for honorary hat societies were: Dave Erwin and Gene Raiford for Druids, and Jack Crosby for Androcles. Five Tau Deltas received military commissions at graduation. They were: Dick Wilson, Lee Swank, and Jim Sloan—Air Force; Bill Abbey—Army; and Bob Mills—Navy.

Pittsburgh

With the close of the spring semester, Gamma Sigma looks upon its achievements with pride.

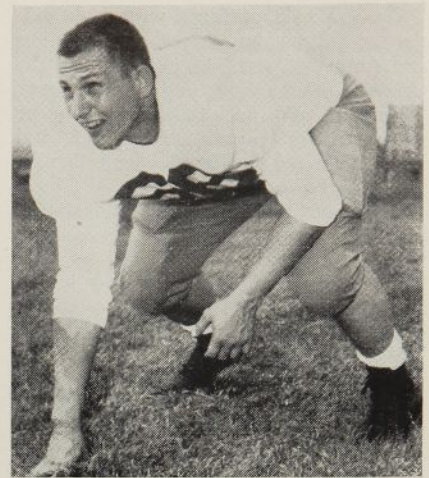

During the year, the Pitt Deltas made many significant contributions to campus life. Brother Tony Richardson was awarded the M. M. Culyver Award as the outstanding math student. Dave Brunero completed his undergraduate career by being elected to Pi Sigma Alpha, honorary language fraternity. Paul Herwick was similarly honored by the pharmacy department. Brother Bill Bannow was elected to the Arnold Air Society and Tom Romanik to Scabbard and Blade.

In student body politics, the Gamma Sigs were well represented by Roger Anderson, who presided as president of the business administration cabinet, and Roger Alhers as treasurer of the Allied Collegiate Party executive committee.

Athletically, this was a banner year for the Deltas, who were represented in nearly every sport offered at Pitt. Brother Bill Eisinger, a three letter winner in soccer, was given the most valuable player award at the annual all-sports banquet. After a most successful season in dual competition, Hurdler Bill Bannow was forced to miss the ICAA and NCAA meets because of an untimely injury. Hermon Joy was a mainstay on the Panther baseball team, which was one of the four teams selected to represent the East in the NCAA championships. Pole vaulter Dick Pfal was on the freshman squad and Bill Herron performed on the Pledge Golf Team. In interfraternity competition, Brothers Sheerer and Anderson collaborated to win the golf trophy; Anderson was medalist with a 74. Pitt spring football drill saw Brothers Henry Suffoletta, Woody Haser, pledges Ray Tarasi, Mark Leny, and John Elston showing promise as the team prepares for another season of big time competition.

The semester was also marked by many social events, highlighted by a dinner with Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority and numerous lodge parties at both north and south parks.

Realizing the importance of rushing to the Fraternity, Gamma Sigma made a wise choice in selecting Brother Bill Heron as the new rush chairman.

We are confident that he will be as successful as his predecessor, Tim Sheerer, and we are eager to make next year another great one for Delta Tau Delta.

JIM KINNEY

Purdue

The last four weeks of the semester at Purdue, in addition to being crammed full of final exams, term papers, and what not, included two of the biggest social events of the year—Greek Week and University Sing. The first of these events is held in the spring of every year and is designed to show the campus and the townspeople just what Purdue's fraternities and sororities have accomplished.

Greek Week began this year on Saturday, day, April 25, with the Penny Carnival, in which the Deltas sponsored a booth along with the Delta Gammas. Our theme was a sort of Little Red Riding Hood idea, with LRRH, aptly enacted by the DG's, riding through a "woods" on a tricycle. She tried to get to "Grandma's House" without being caught by the "Big Bad (Delt) Wolf," also riding a tricycle. Bets were made and odds established as to whether she would reach her goal, and a couple of new twists in the story made the whole thing a real panic. Although not placing in the judges' final ratings the Deltas and DG's had a lot of fun working on the booth.

Greek Week continued with trade dinners and discussions between fraternities and sororities, and was climaxed by the Greek Week banquet and formal Greek Week ball. We feel that much can be gained from a week of this sort, and we are already looking forward to next year's festivities.

The men of Gamma Lambda started practicing for University Sing back in March. A total of 63 brothers and pledges participated in our entry in the all-campus songfest. Our long weeks of practice on "Chisholm Trail Days" and "All Through the Night" were rewarded when we received a third-place trophy in the men's division. Hats off to our songleader, Jon Reynolds.

In the last few weeks of the semester, the Delts' reputation for military excellence at Purdue was given another boost when four of the brothers were awarded special recognition medals for outstanding work as officers in the ROTC program. Honored in the recent Presidents' Review of the entire Purdue ROTC combined corps were Jerry Churchill and Hal Crain, Navy; Nelson Ringmacher, Army; and Dave Kuebler, Air Force. In addition, Brother Tom Thomas was selected battalion commander of the Navy for next year.

Purdue Delts were very glad to hear that Joe Sexson, former All-American basketball player at Purdue and a Gamma Lambda Delt graduating in 1956, will return to Purdue next year as baseball and assistant basketball coach. Congratulations to Joe. We are all looking forward to seeing him in the fall.

Summer rush plans include week ends at the Shelter on June 13 and 27, along with the usual alumni chapter banquets in the individual hometowns. We have high hopes of doing as well in fall rush as we did last spring, when we pledged the finest pledge class seen around these parts in many a year. Our pledges have firmly established themselves on campus scholastically, socially, and on the various athletic teams and campus activities.

The chapter is anticipating a big year starting in September. Our recently elected officers have demonstrated their capabilities, and under their leadership we hope to go a long way this year.

DAN CARSELLO

As another school year opens at R.P.I., the outstanding events of the preceding one are still fresh in the minds of Upsilon Delts.

The biggest single event was the finishing of our new house. A long sought-after dream was finally becoming a reality as promise of occupation was for September term. It stands majestically on a proud hill, commanding a magnificent view of the entire campus. Truly, it is one of the best examples of fine architecture in the Troy Valley.

Politics and the Delts were synonymous in the preceding year, as Upsilon Chapter played an important role in campus campaigns. Brother Peter Gorry, running for the high office of president of the Union, was defeated only after weeks of hard campaigning. Tom Kennedy, however, scored an overwhelming victory in his fight for sophomore class treasurer and stands in line for an important campus position in future elections.

The Delts provided many outstanding athletes who competed on R.P.I. teams. Tom Graves, still only a sophomore, achieved such an outstanding record that he was elected captain of the wrestling team. Captain Dave Friday and Vic Andrade provided the spark which brought the finest won-lost record to the baseball team in the history of R.P.I. and a bid to the small college NCAA championships. Joe Colangelo, Jim Rich, and John D'Auria, playing regularly last year, will be the nucleus for one of the best lacrosse teams in the country. Ed Kromer and Paul Cook barely missed school records while leading the track team to many victories. In football, Upsilon Chapter was well represented with four men participating. Several members also took an active part in swimming and water polo teams.

Congratulations go to Rush Chairman John Burkard as the chapter initiated a fine class of pledges last year. In scholarship they were unsurpassed; only one had an average below 3.0. They rated second among fraternity pledge classes in scholarship. They were well represented in sports and listed among their ranks were members of the football, soccer, lacrosse, wrestling, and track teams. In open competition among fraternity houses they achieved first place in the Saternalia booth contest.

Scholarship provided another bright high light in the past year. With a remarkable scholarship program, the Delt average at the end of the first semester had increased by 16 percentile, the second highest rise among fraternities. The chapter also boasted the president of Eta Kappa Nu, Ed Kromer, and the treasurer of Tau Beta Pi, Walter Stowell.

The new men elected in the spring who will lead the Shelter into even greater heights in this new year are: president, Roger Merrifield; vice-president, Peter Gorry; treasurer, Richard Beck; secretary, John D'Auria; assistant treasurer, Vic Andrade; rushing chairman, Manuel Dominquez; bar chairman, T. Kennedy.

Santa Barbara

On June 15 a great era ended for Delta Psi Chapter. It was at this time that the last features which might serve to identify a chapter house were removed from the Delta Psi Shelter at 1300 E. Cabrillo Blvd. It was this house, situated in the midst of 13 acres of gently sloping sea side jungle, well known by California Delts for its unique and ideal facilities as a chapter house, that was the center of all the activities of the brothers. Although we are reluctant to leave the "D" house, which truly served as a Shelter, we are looking forward to a new Shelter which we hope will be completed by February of 1960. In the meantime temporary housing is being obtained for the fall semester.

In April Delta Psi was honored by the Arch Chapter by being asked to initiate Epsilon Epsilon Chapter at the University of Arizona in Tucson. George Springosky, Bob Brooks, Tim Johnson, Mike Rubber, Jato Ross, Bruce Zatterson, and Bob Pimpards, accompanied by Delta Psi's advisor, Dr. Paul Jones, journeyed to Tucson via TWA, where they were met at the airport by the brothers-to-be. After enjoying two days and nights in Tucson, the initiation team returned to Santa Barbara.

Brother Tom Morgan was honored last semester when he was chosen for membership in the Cal Club of the University of California. The brothers were also pleased to have received the award for the greatest scholastic improvement last year in the Western Division.

Delta Psi's spring formal was a smashing success and served to celebrate our tenth anniversary. Kappa Alpha Theta's Sue Zelby was chosen as our queen. She was serenaded by the brothers after the presentation of the queen's trophy, an enormous two-piece original which was designed by Brother Tim Johnson.

In sports the Delt softball team, led by captain Tim Jansten, gave SAE a thorough drubbing of 29-1, collecting 33 hits and running away with the intramural softball championship. The Delt swimming team, headed by Ron Owsley, Jeff Owl, and Sweet John Soth, staged a sensational performance in capturing every event but one, and breaking several school records in the intramural swim tourney. Tim Johnson, John Soth, and Larry Linn set a new record of one hour and forty-five minutes in running the twelve miles of beach between the Delt house and the University campus. The previous record was held by Grady "Indian" Vaughan. This is quite a feat, since careful calculation of the tides must be made to avoid being trapped by the surging surf.

As can be seen, the brothers at Delta Psi have not been idle during the past semester and we are looking forward to this fall with our Christmas gasser and the traditional "Viking" float in the homecoming parade. With these, plus the luau and a number of other smaller functions approaching, the fall term may prove as interesting as the past semester.

BOB RICHARDS

Sewanee

Commencement week at Sewanee was a busy one for the members of Beta Theta. On the Wednesday following exams the final meeting of the year was the occasion of the final initiation. The addition of three freshmen brought the total number of new members for the year 1958-59 to 16, giving the chapter one of the largest groups of initiates at the University. Pledge projects completed for the year included the fixing and painting of a television room in the attic of the Shelter, and the laying of stones for a new terrace. Also, many years' accumulation of earth and trash was successfully cleared out of the basement. Brothers Battle Searcy and John Horner announced plans for the completion of the chapter's "Hall of Fame" on the walls of the Shelter game room. This display features framed photographs of the outstanding alumni of Beta Theta through the years, with accounts of their life and work. The collection also includes the life and story of one remarkable lady closely associated with the early history of the chapter. This project was brought up to date during the summer. Also during commencement week a coffee was held at the Shelter following a concert given by the University Choir in our newly completed All Saints' Chapel. The coffee was planned in honor of our graduating seniors, particularly those who have given four years of loyalty and service. They included: Battle S. Searcy, John G. Horner, Charles B. Romaine, Samuel B. Carleton, and Walter Wilmerding. All students, residents of Sewanee, and visitors to the University were invited, and Mrs. Maude Anderson, Mrs. George B. Myers, and Miss Panthia Read served as hostesses.

The turnout of alums on Founders Day, May 19, was really gratifying and we were very fortunate to have as guest speaker, Field Secretary Jack McClenny. But it can surely be said that every member of Delta Gamma was not entering into Founders Day with light heart, for during the previous week four of our brothers had entered Chapter Eternal, and their loss was and still is a great blow to all of us. Brothers Jerry Bauch, Dick Paulson, Jerry Armstrong, and Gib Schwartz will always remain part of the life of Delta Gamma. To their memory we are constructing a recreation area to the side and rear of the Shelter. Memorials from their families are going into the construction of the barbecue pit, chairs, tables, and hard-surfaced recreation court, with a dedication to each departed brother.

MURIEL PFISTER,

Through the extensive planning of Social Chairman Jerry Bauch, our spring formal was fully arranged, and the members of Delta Gamma knew he'd have liked to have it carried out. About 70 of the brothers and dates made the planning by Brother Jerry a success. We had selected Muriel Pfister as Delt Sweetheart, 1959.

Next year will certainly be void without these men, but pushing right back into rush will help keep us busy. The interfraternity council of the University of South Dakota has suggested that next fall's rush be restricted to only one meal with two smokers during the evening. Lon VanderLinden, rush chairman, has some top ideas in the melting pot. He is also stressing summer rush. He plans to contact personally as many rushees as possible, and to also hold several rush-parties in the larger cities.

The annual interfraternity Mother's Day Sing found the Deltas a strong second, and with a first in competitive discussion it looks as if we were a very close runner-up in the contention for the interfraternity council's trophy. We know the next year will see us out on top.

As we closed out this school year our outstanding debater, Brother Dick Friberg, received the distinction of being named to Who's Who in American Colleges. Brother Jerry Armstrong was named posthumously to Omicron Delta Kappa, men's scholastic honorary; a fine tribute to a fine man and brother.

A serenade for pinned brothers was followed by one for our wonderful housemother, "Mom" Johnson, who will not be with us next year and whom we will sorely miss. We presented "Mom" with a sterling silver vanity set on Mother's Day.

The chapter awards, presented at the year's end, found Gale Shaw receiving the outstanding pledge award. Glenn Fingerson and Dick Freiberg received the distinguished service and Keyes C. Gaynor awards, respectively. Brother Don DeBolt was awarded the "Brimmer."

We returning members of Delta Gamma wish to salute our graduating brothers and look with proud eyes on the services they have rendered Delta Gamma; we hope they'll drop into the Shelter often.

Spring quarter has proved to be another fruitful one for the members of Beta Rho.

The most outstanding event of spring quarter was our victory in the annual Spring Sing. Led by Tom Glover, who also wrote the song, we stretched our vocal cords with a Gregorian Chant which left the crowd breathless and left the judges with no doubt as to the sweepstakes winner—Delta Tau Delta. This was another group effort to show why Beta Rho is the top fraternity on campus.

On the intramural fields Beta Rho extended its winning streak in major sports to 39, only to be knocked off in the play-offs for the softball crown. The beginning of spring quarter witnessed the basketball play-offs as an underdog Delt team displayed fine team play and walked off with the top honors and our third straight intramural crown.

In softball, Beta Rho, defending champions, never quite got the big Delt machine rolling. After making the play-offs, we started to pick up steam only to be defeated in the semifinals.

Tom Crawford was selected to receive Beta Rho's annual award for the outstanding senior athlete who has contributed the most of the chapter. Tom has been a mainstay of the varsity basketball team while also being a sponsor and active member of the Fraternity.

The highlight of the spring social season was a three-day overnight to picturesque Lake Tahoe in the Sierras. Friday night most of the group ventured to Reno and its bright lights. Saturday was spent frolicking in the several inches of snow which had fallen the previous night. The day was highlighted by an "Al Capone" party, dinner, and dance that night.

As this school year ends and we go our separate ways during the summer, we all look forward to next year. We will all miss those graduating seniors who have added to and gained from the Fraternity, but we must turn our attentions on the incoming pledges to help them adjust to live in the house on the hill. All of us look forward to another banner year at Beta Rho.

JOHN BUTLER

With the closing of the spring term, the Rho Delt's have much to look back to—many pleasant memories to recall the events which took place at the Shelter. Prominent among these events was the spring sports week end. The Delt's received the IFC basketball trophy for the second year in a row and also the IFC all-sports trophy for the ninth out of the last ten years. These trophies were presented at the formal ball which was held at the Concourse Plaza Hotel in the Bronx. The very next night, the Rho Delt's had a "Hell" of a time at the "Dante's Inferno" theme party at the Shelter. The picnic on Staten Island the following day was also a great success. The weather was wonderful, the food a little late, and the girls, lovely. But when it comes to outdoor cooking, the men win out. Another of the more memorable events was the boat ride to Bear Mountain State Park via Hudson Dayline. Again the weather was perfect and, although a little groggy at first, the Delt's woke up and had a great time.

Looking forward a bit, our social committee, under the capable direction of Kemp Roedema, has similar outings and picnics planned for the summer months. The rushing committee has a rush party planned for the week after Labor Day. Prospective freshmen will be looked up this summer and invited to attend. As for plans for the coming semester—the only organized attempt is the G.I. party the week before school officially opens.

Now that graduation is here, we, the undergraduates of Rho Chapter, would like to express our heartfelt wish of good luck to our seniors. We know they will find success. With a background of both Tech and Delta Tau Delta, how can they miss?

ROBERT S. SINATRA

Tennessee

With a rewarding 1958-59 now a reality, Delta Delta looks toward an even more prosperous 1959-60. A small contingent of men in 1958 quintupled its size in 1959. This commendable record is the result of one basic thing—hard work. The concentrated rush program has reaped its reward, much to the delight of the brothers at Delta Delta.

The chapter held an election one week prior to the closing of the school year, at which time a new president and vice-president were named to preside until the usual election time in the spring. They are Jerre Haskew, president, and Joe Kerigan, vice-president.

Brother Jerre Haskew was the recipient of the Katherine and Tom Black scholarship in the field of mathematics at Tennessee. Gale Downs and Steve Radlein received co-operative engineering scholarships from Arnold Engineering Development Center and Combustion Engineering Inc., respectively.

Mr. James Shropshire, Southern Division President, was the principal speaker at Delta Delta's recent Founders Day Banquet. The event was a rousing success in promoting closer relations with the alumni in the Tennessee and adjacent state areas. Brother Bill Spielmann deserves mention for his excellently coordinated supervision of the gala affair.

On the athletic side of things, the Delt softball nine finished a close second in the intramural softball tournament. After suffering a heartbreaking 15-14 setback in its opening encounter, the never-say-die Delt team rolled over four consecutive opponents by scores of 27-1, 9-6, 7-0, and 15-0. This set the stage for the championship contest. A shaky first inning saw the men clad in purple, white, and gold uniforms fall behind by a 7-0 count. Again Delta Tau Delta came from behind to take a 14-7 lead; however, disaster struck the team in the final frame when eight runs crossed the plate for the opposition. Four brothers were, however, named to the tournament all-star team—George Esposito, shortstop, Bill Helton, first base, Bill Barbee, catcher, and Jerre Haskew, pitcher.

The final week of school saw the Delta Delta brothers and their dates enjoying a "Bohemian" party, which, in the words of one of those present, was "Like, man, invigoratingly pleasant."

Last, but certainly not least, the chapter wishes to express its gratitude to Bill Kampmeier and Bill Earnshaw for their efforts and co-operation during the past year.

JERRE R. HASKEW

Texas Tech

Summer activities were many and varied for Epsilon Delta. The chapter serendad its president, Norris Green, and Ellen Edwards, last year's Delt Queen, just before finals for the spring semester were started.

Texas Tech Prexy NORRIS GREEN serendad by his brothers.

Picnics and outings were on the agenda for the Texas Tech Delt's as over half of the chapter membership was enrolled in summer school. One picnic was held at Mackenzie Park for the members and pledges after an intersquad baseball game. Baseball was also among the many activities at the picnic.

In July, Social Chairman Don Davis planned a party for the new rushees in our lodge. It was an informal affair that was enjoyed by all. Some good rushees are anticipated for the spring rush here at Tech. (Texas Tech is on the delayed rush system; a student must attend Tech for one semester before he is eligible for pledgship.)

We were sorry to lose many of the brothers through graduation last June and August. Since our chapter isn't quite two years old, many of the founders were lost. The memory of what they started and left behind for us to enjoy will always be with Epsilon Delta.

A big fall semester is planned here at Texas Tech. Several lodge parties, hayrides, and picnics are in the offing.

The Deltas are growing both in number and in strength. The next year should be full of many activities for Epsilon Delta as brotherhood and education go hand in hand with the Tech Deltas.

SLED RATLIFF

Tulane

With the return of warm weather Beta Xi Deltas and their dates enjoyed afternoon baseball games with other fraternities. Bermuda shorts parties were again popular. In May, bats and other weird decorations transformed the Shelter into a fitting place for a "haunted house" party. Costumes ranged from Satans and ghosts to Bermuda shorts. This party and the band were particularly enjoyed by everyone. The last week end of school the Mothers' Club gave a dinner party in honor of the graduating members of Beta Xi Chapter. Not only the seniors enjoyed this party, but all the Deltas, their dates, and many parents were glad to be together again before the close of school.

Richard Hays is hard at work designing the Shelter's homecoming decorations. As that football game draws near, Al Derbes will lead both actives and pledges in constructing the decorations.

Rushing activities and plans for rush week are consuming the time of Rush Chairman Mickey Michel and Assistant Rush Chairmen Derbes and Chas-saignac. Aiding them in their plans and arrangements is President Jim Kincaid. Among the New Orleans members helping with rush are Justin Ansel, Glenn Gatipon, and William Lehder. With the efforts of such able members and with the high interest and spirit shown by all members, a particularly successful rush week ending and an outstanding pledge class are expected.

Working on the pledge program for the coming year are Pledgemaster Bob Clark and pledge committee members, Brigtsen and Wharton. Their plans follow The Delt Development Program.

We are pleased that Mrs. Jesse Compton will again be our housemother. She has never failed to help us in every activity from the beginning rush week to fixing coffee and doughnuts for us during the week of final examinations.

The first Saturday in September will find the members of Beta Xi Chapter together again and working on last minute rush week preparations. We all look forward to another successful year.

CHARLES NORTH

Wabash

As the graduating seniors, with their caps and gowns, left the Delt house for the last time, the entire complexion of the Shelter once again changed. Their many contributions during the past four years will long be remembered. Senior Bob Charles was awarded a $2,800 assistantship at the University of Arizona for the study of botany. Classmate Jim Hurd will apply his psychology major at Ohio State University, which awarded him as assistantship in clinical research. Also stationed in Ohio for his graduate work is John Waechter. John will attend Ohio University and use his $1,900 grant for the study of physical education.

Though the total house average is not yet known, the scholarship chairman, along with the rest of the chapter, is anticipating a marked improvement over the house average of the fall semester. Leading the surge for scholastic improvement are Seniors John Johnson, Bob Kryter, and Bob Winter, all of whom registered a perfect "A" record for the spring semester of '59.

Wabash, like all American colleges, was covered with a rash of spring campus elections and the Deltas continued to take front row seats, especially in the fields of journalism and dramatics. Pi Delta Epsilon, national journalism honorary, initiated four Deltas at the late spring ceremonies. Joining Brothers Johnson and John Stiles were Austin Brooks, past business manager of the yearbook, Dave Bohlin, assistant news bureau head; Tim Conlon, associate editor of the weekly paper; and Rusty Duvall, sports writer. At the same meeting of Pi Delta, President Johnson was elected president of the honorary, which automatically made him chairman of the board of publications. Two of the remaining three student positions on the board were filled by Deltas Brooks and Stiles. The business managership of the Wabash, the college annual, remained in the Shelter as the retiring publication board elected Junior Dave Rose. New treasurer and business manager of Alpha Psi Omega, national dramatics honorary, is Brother Brooks. Already a member of Scarlet Masque, local dramatics honorary, Aus will be duly initiated into Alpha Psi Omega this fall. Other Deltas who donned make-up for the last production of the Scarlet Masque were John Hodges, Terry Anderson, and Jerry Worley.

In other off-campus caucuses Junior Dave Bohlin and Sophomore Jim Johnson were elected vice-president and corresponding secretary of Alpha Phi Omega, service fraternity, while Junior Conlon copped the post of secretary of the IFC. The house continues to have a representative on the varsity cheer-leading squad. Rush Chairman Brent Sutton was selected as one of the two sophomore cheerleaders.

Two of the highest honors awarded at Wabash went to Deltas. President Johnson was elected, as a junior, to Phi Beta Kappa; and Al Witt received the Paul T. Hurt Award for most outstanding freshman of the year. Johnson's election as junior Phi Beta climaxes his outstanding college record. By being a 2.3 scholar, Little State wrestling champ, assistant circulation manager for the campus paper, and member of Scarlet Masque and Newman Club, Al was selected by a faculty committee over approximately 200 Wabash freshmen.

In internal business, the social scene found the Deltas winning the Pan-Hellenic dance decoration trophy for the second straight year while the rush committee, under Chairman Sutton, has pledged six men as of this writing. Alumni Chairman Denny Greathouse has slated for this fall an ox-roast at homecoming time for all Beta Psi alumni. The actives at the Wabash Shelter are anxious to further alumni relations, in order that some definite plan may be made for the new addition. With the usual house enrollment at 55 or more, the 34-man house is proving much too inadequate.

out a fine rush program, calculated to bring the chapter outstanding success in its rushing. A revised set of chapter bylaws has been drawn up by Larry Swanson, Max Bolte, and Dave Salk. Social Chairman Bill Paulson has made plans for many functions to take place in the new year, based on the reception the members extended to parties held last year. Thus, for the first time, Epsilon Gamma is beginning to reap the benefits of traditions and past experiences which such a relatively new chapter must struggle without for the first several years of its existence.

The past year was notable for the fine co-operation extended by all of the members. Each Delt worked hard to achieve outstanding results for the Fraternity, and in so doing, brought credit not only to Epsilon Gamma and Delta Tau Delta, but provided invaluable lessons to each individual. It is eagerly anticipated that this enthusiasm and co-operation will make 1959-60 an even better one from the standpoint of the accomplishments of the chapter and of its members.

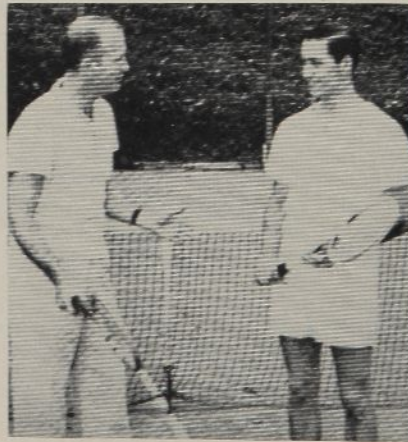

STEVE RODGERS

W. & L.

Phi Chapter won 14 awards at the University's annual sports banquet. The Delts captured the over-all sports trophy, given to the group that has compiled the best record in intercollegiate and intramural sports. Phi Chapter stood second in intercollegiate sports and third in intramurals. This winning of the biggest and most inclusive sports award shows that the men of Phi Chapter have both spirit and desire for their Fraternity and University. Ned Ames deserves a great deal of credit for the honors bestowed upon the chapter, because he was the recipient of the outstanding intramural manager award.

The outstanding athlete award went to Clark Lea, who also won jointly with Corky Briscoe the most valuable lacrosse player award. These two men, and Brother Les Peard, will play in the international lacrosse games in Australia this summer. We are quite proud of these men, and especially Les, because he has made such a name for himself in his freshman year. However, Les wasn't the only freshman to strengthen the prestige of Phi Chapter. Freshman Terry Fohs was given the award for the football player, who showed the most desire, while Brother Dyer won the annual Turkey Trot trophy and became one of the few freshmen in the University to qualify for the school's honorary athletic fraternity.

Two more seniors were recognized for their able participation in baseball and tennis in their four years at W. & L. Charlie Broll was the recipient of the Captain Dick Smith trophy for his outstanding baseball play in the last four years. Charlie received offers to play professional baseball, but he turned them down in favor of law school. Tom Gowenlock, captain of the tennis team and another four-year letterman, received the outstanding tennis player award. Brother Gowenlock had an undefeated season in individual match play.

Sports awards were not the only kind of recognition Phi Chapter men received. In the field of journalism and communications, Brother Don Wagenheim took several awards for his announcing techniques over the past school year. Don and many other Delts work on the campus radio station, which puts out programs of music, news, and sports every weekday night. Whiz Wheeler won a special award for his excellent reporting job of a news incident; Conrad Lemon was recognized as the best senior editor, and John Towler received honorable mention for his work on the Campus Kaledioscope show.

With the coming of summer, the active Phi rush program moves into high gear. Under the responsible leadership of Rush Chairman Leigh Allen, Phi Chapter is sure to be prepared to give the class of '63 a good rush. Leigh is now hard at work processing the letters for Phi Chapter alumni, and is also making plans with his regional rush chairmen to sponsor summer rush parties for the incoming freshmen.

In retrospect, it's been a great year for the men of Phi Chapter, both individually and as a group—but we're setting our sights for even bigger and better things in the coming school year.

JOHN C. TOWLER

Wesleyan

The Gamma Zeta Delts closed out the 1958-59 year in roaring fashion. As this letter goes to press we are looking forward to a successful rush week in the fall.

Politically, the Delts captured more college body offices and committee positions than any other fraternity on campus. Leading the entourage was Jan Hagendorn, who was elected college body secretary-treasurer. Jan also distinguished himself as a debater, leading the Wesleyan debate team to the New England championships and establishing himself as one of the outstanding collegiate speakers in the United States.

Also gaining recognition were: Bob Kirkpatrick, chairman of the Social Committee, one of the most prominent and influential positions in campus politics; Loren Pate, chairman of the dormitory counselors committee; and Bruce Butler, the only sophomore committee "czar," cochairman of the concessions committee.

Other Delts named to committee posts were: Al Williams, curriculum committee; Fred Scherrer, finance committee; Tom Buchovich and Ed Collins, athletic committee; Bill Haffner, discrimination committee; and Pete Mooz, elections committee.

The Delts also continued to hold among their ranks some of the outstanding athletes on the campus. Tom Buchovich was the baseball team's second baseman, and, with his homers, was one of the key reasons for the nine's successful season. Senior Jes Hafer, undefeated linksman until the closing matches of the season, helped the golf team capture third place in the NCAA Atlantic Coast regional playoff. Other Delts active on the spring sports scene were George McKenzie, who started several games for the Wesleyan lacrosse club, and Don Falkenstern and Andy Schrader, consistent performers for the frosh track team.

Gaining extracurricular honors were Bill Haffner and Keith McBride, elected vice-president and secretary, respectively, of the Atwater Club, the chemistry society. Loren Pate was named president of the Film Society, after serving ably as treasurer. George McKenzie and Pete Mooz continued their work on the sophomore staff of the campus semiweekly, The Argus, and Bob Boone, Jim Dossinger, and Keith Willis were frosh desk editors.

The social season for the Delts ended a week before finals with spring house parties. Friday night the brothers and their dates listened to Duke Ellington and his band in the gym and then returned to the Shelter for an informal record hop. Saturday afternoon they traveled out to nearby Crystal Lake to witness boat races and other traditional contests. That evening the house was turned into a roaring inferno highlighted by six Mount Holyoke "devils" representing the deadly sins.

All in all, a very successful semester for the Wes Delts!

GEORGE MCKENZIE

Western Reserve

At the Adelbert College honors chapel on Friday, May 8, 1959, the Delts walked off with a plurality of honors.

Keith White was a cowinner of the Schweinfurth Scholarship, the highest award given to an undergraduate architecture student. Bob Sielaty received the Pi Delta Epsilon outstanding freshman award for his work on campus radio station WRAR. Mike Ostergard was a cowinner of the Omicron Delta Kappa outstanding sophomore award. To top off the day, Pat Walsh and Keith White were tapped into Omicron Delta Kappa. That afternoon, as part of the campus May Day activities, Gary Deonise and Jake Fridline starred for the student all-stars as they defeated the faculty softball team 1-0. The following night the Delts, under the direction of Ray Najem, participated in the IFC Singout. Although we did not place we heard many favorable comments about our singing and are looking forward to next year.

Of seven student council positions contested in the recent campus elections, Delta Tau Delta was represented by two victories. Al Robinson was elected president of the student council and Gary Deonise was elected Student Union representative.

The chapter won the intramural all-sports trophy and with this victory permanently retired the trophy. This semester we will start toward retiring a new one.

Under the coeditorship of John Gigax, the 1959 university yearbook was regarded as the finest in recent years. Hoping to equal this effort is Joe Macys, who was recently appointed coeditor for the 1960 yearbook. Many Delts were recognized for working on the various publications at the Pi Delta Epsilon recognition banquet on May 21, 1959. These included Jake Fridline, Jack Waslyn, Joe Macys, Mike Ostergard, Rex Hyre, Bob Sielaty, Gary Deonise, and Chuck Zernechel. Mike Ostergard and Pat Walsh were inducted into Pi Delta Epsilon.

President Mike Ostergard received a grant enabling him to study at the University of Madrid for his junior year. Bob Weaver was elected president to complete the unexpired term.

Recently the area in which the University campus is located was inundated by a flash flood due to inadequate sewers. Many people were stranded in buses and cars along Liberty Row S. E. With Bob Brubaker's boat, he, Jim Ellis, John Frazier, Bob Boerner, Jack Hulit, and Gordy Nichols were first on the scene and rescued ten people from the top of one of the buses. The brothers of Zeta continue to show their versatility.

Zeta Chapter concluded the year with its spring formal at the Pine Ridge Country Club on June 13, 1959. A fine week end was planned and executed by Social Chairman Greg Copeland. On Friday June 12, 1959, the brothers moved out of the Shelter and their dates moved in, taking over for the week end. A pre-dance picnic was held at the Utopia Beach Club on Lake Erie.

Rush cochairmen Joe Macys and Gary Deonise are planning the summer and fall rushing programs, which will start Delta Tau Delta at Western Reserve off to another successful year.

REXFORD C. HYRE, JR.

Delta Omicron successfully launched its spring social season with the annual spring pig roast, and the following week it was succeeded by an equally enjoyable Hawaiian party. The high light of the year was the spring formal week end of May 16-17. The Mardi Gras theme provided the atmosphere and the party at the Lake of the Ozarks on Sunday provided plenty of skiing, water, and sun for everyone.

On May 25 we said good-by to our graduating seniors with the customary farewell banquet. The presence of the alums and the wisdom of the senior's parting words made the evening one to remember.

An intramural chess tournament was begun this year and the Delts lost no time in placing this newborn trophy in their showcase. Leading the team to its undefeated season were Dave Wright, Wayne Wilkie, Ben McDougall, and Lanny Larason.

We placed second in the race for the athletic supremacy trophy, mainly because of the support of our strong intramural program and nine spring sport lettermen. Those wearing W's are: Bill Bennett, Don Otto, Bill Brell, and Art Werremeyer for baseball; Ford Ross, Bill Dodson, and Chick Edwards for track; Bob Bloom for golf; and Lyle Breeding, who sported the team's best won-lost record and was elected tennis captain for next year.

We have a busy summer rush program and several tentative parties are planned for Tulsa, Oklahoma City, and St. Louis. Under the leadership of Bailey Word, the rush committee feels that its extensive efforts this summer will reap dividends in the fall rush.

In spite of losing some of our best men through graduation Delta Omicron feels that she is well prepared to maintain her leadership position at Westminster.

Beta Gamma finished off the '58-'59 year in good style by capturing third place in the Greek division of the all-campus tournament of song. The songsters warbled their way to success under the able leadership of former drum major of the University marching band, Jack Porter.

The Delt Chapters

Our annual Parents' Week End was a resounding success, judging from numerous "thank-you" notes received afterward. Brother Bill Staab's mother came all the way from Essex Fells, N. J., for the event.

Several of the brothers achieved recognition for their labors during the year. Matt Iverson was announced as Wisconsin's outstanding junior man, and John Stillman was elected president of the lettermen's club, as well as head cheerleader for the coming year.

Bruce Rohloff is the third Delt in a row to be chosen to lead Wisconsin's new student week in September. His

Former President Reynolds

wanted in their lives to date. But in too many chapters, such anticipation too often ends in disillusionment as the chapter dissipates the potential by inadequate preparation and careless, ineffectual, and casual rendition of the initiatory rite. The ritual, when properly performed, leaves an indelible impression in the minds and hearts of the new initiates and inculcates a deep feeling of affection for the idealism of the fraternity.

He brought out the point that college and university administrators are rightfully demanding that fraternities make a more positive and constructive contribution to the campus and to their members. High standards of conduct and performance are expected of fraternity groups that purport to be selective in their choice of members and proclaim to be constructive adjuncts to the system of higher education. In his words, "a dedicated chapter membership can be inspired to attain any reasonable objective for correction of weaknesses."

Mr. Reynolds further said that "it is unfortunate that all undergraduates cannot attend at least one convention of their own fraternity so they will have some concept of the national aspect and scope of their fraternity." Too often they tend to be much too provincial.

In concluding his speech, he said "as fraternity men, we, and our fraternities, have been given a wonderful franchise for constructive accomplishments. We deserve to lose that franchise if we ever fail to measure up to the responsibilities and privileges we have heretofore enjoyed. . . . Only to the extent that we continue to merit the approval of the many groups interested in us is the leadership and growth of our fraternity system assured."

The challenge presented in the speech of Joel Reynolds was a fair one. The weaknesses that he has observed are genuine. The remedies and the strengthenings he has suggested are practical ones and are possible of accomplishment. It is a challenge that we who believe in the fraternity system should accept, undergraduates and alumni alike.

the Chicago Tribune, has been named president-elect of the Chicago Medical Society. Dr. Van Dellen is Assistant Dean and associate professor of medicine at Northwestern University School of Medicine. He is a member of the American Medical Association and is a fellow of the American College of Physicians.

The University of California has announced the appointment of ARLEIGH T. WILLIAMS, California, '35, as its Dean of Men and Associate Dean of Students, effective as of July first. Prior to his association with the University of California in 1957, he served for eleven years as Dean of Men at the College of Marin. While an undergraduate, Williams played halfback on the football team and captained the squad in 1934.

The Delt Chapters

predecessors were Ken Lewis in '58 and Dex Free in '57.

During the summer most of the brothers are merely relaxing at work and watching the money roll in. Notable exceptions to this pattern are those few dedicated young men who have heard the call and are serving the United States by attending ROTC summer camp.

As usual, the high light of the Delt summer was when Beta Gamma descended upon the ordinarily peaceful city of Sheboygan to help it celebrate its annual week end of hysteria known as Bratwurst Day.

The fall social schedule will feature, as the main attraction, a get-together with the Deltas from Minnesota for the Minnesota-Wisconsin football game. This year it is being held in the Twin Cities and we are attending in the company of the Wisconsin Alpha Gamma Delta women.
