Complainant,

COMPLAINT
MUR 3895

Respondents,

COMPLAINT OF CENTER FOR RESPONSIVE POLITICS

1. This complaint charges that the respondents have violated the Federal Election Campaign Act, 2 U.S.C. § 431 et seq., as amended ("FECA"), by making aggregate contributions in excess of the limits permitted by the FECA.

PARTIES

2. The complainant, the Center for Responsive Politics, is a nonprofit, nonpartisan research group incorporated in the State of Iowa and headquartered in Washington, D.C., that studies Congress and related issues. Founded in 1983, it was designed to research matters concerning the organization and operation of Congress as an institution and to examine potential reforms that could improve both its internal operation and its responsiveness to the American public. The patterns of contributions of money to federal candidates has been one of its chief areas of study.

3. The respondents are individual contributors to various candidates and political committees.

APPLICABLE STATUTES AND REGULATIONS

4. The FECA limits contributions by any one individual to an aggregate total of $25,000 per calendar year. Contributions to a candidate or the candidate's authorized committee made in a year other than the calendar year of the election with respect to which the contribution is made are considered to be made during the calendar year in which such election is held. 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(3); 11 C.F.R. § 110.5.

GROUND FOR COMPLAINT

5. According to FEC records, respondent Grover Connell made contributions subject to FECA in the amounts and to the persons identified in the list attached to this complaint as Exhibit 1. Attached as Exhibit 2 are copies of the FEC records for each contribution listed in Exhibit 1. All exhibits reflect the records on file at the FEC as of December 15, 1993.

6. On information and belief, respondent Grover Connell made contributions attributed to the 1992 calendar year in the amount of $47,319. These contributions exceeded by $22,319 the $25,000 contribution limit imposed by the FECA and Commission regulations on all contributions by any individual in a calendar year.

7. According to FEC records, respondent Patricia Connell made contributions subject to FECA in the amounts and to the persons identified in the list attached to this complaint as Exhibit 3. Attached as Exhibit 4 are copies of the FEC records for each contribution listed in Exhibit 3. All exhibits reflect the records on file at the FEC as of December 15, 1993.

8. On information and belief, respondent Patricia Connell made contributions attributed to the 1992 calendar year in the amount of $39,319. These contributions exceeded by $14,319 the $25,000 contribution limit imposed by the FECA and Commission regulations on all contributions by any individual in a calendar year.

RELIEF

9. The Center for Responsive Politics respectfully urges the Commission to conduct a prompt and thorough investigation into the allegations in this Complaint, and to declare that the Respondents have violated the FECA and Commission regulations.

Respectfully submitted,

Ellen S. Miller

Re: MUR 3895

Dear Ms. McEnery:

I am counsel for Grover and Patricia Connell, respondents in the above-captioned MUR. I enclose Designations of Counsel on behalf of both.

As we discussed yesterday by telephone, I am requesting a 15-day extension of time in which to respond to the Commission's notification of the complaint. The respondents received the notification on February 14, 1993. Absent an extension, their response would be due on March 1, 1993. I request an extension until March 16, 1993.

The grounds for the extension are that I have just been retained to represent the respondents in this matter. The extension is necessary in order for me to have sufficient time in which to conduct a preliminary investigation of the matter and to prepare a response. I do not currently anticipate that any additional extensions of time will be necessary in order to file the respondents' response to the complaint.

Sincerely,

Donald J. Simon

RE: MUR 3895

Dear Sir or Madam:

I am writing in response to the notification I received today regarding MUR 3895 (copy of your letter attached -- enclosure # 1)

Please note that I have moved since the People for Mrazek Senatorial Campaign Committee was allowed by the FEC to terminate its existence on May 28, 1993 (copy of termination approval attached -- enc. # 2). As a result of this move, your notification was not forwarded to me at my new address by the U.S. Postal Service until today (see attached copy of mailing envelope -- enc. # 3). For the record, my new address is at the top of this letter.

In response to the complaint regarding the Connells, I would make the following points in support of my contention that People for Mrazek did not violate the Federal Election Campaign Act in accepting campaign contributions from Grover and Patricia Connell:

1. The donations in question were received and deposited by People for Mrazek for the 1992 Primary and General Elections in January 1991 (see attached copy from 6/30/91 FEC report -- enc. # 4), long before either Grover and Patricia Connell may have violated excess contribution regulations. Therefore, at the time People for Mrazek accepted the contributions, they were in fact legal and acceptable under the law.
2. People for Mrazek reported the receipt of the contributions as required under the law, itemizing the receipts on our June 30, 1991 FEC report, in which all required information regarding these itemized receipts was included.
3. Shortly after the candidate (Robert J. Mrazek) withdrew from the campaign for the Democratic nomination in April, 1992, People for Mrazek began the process of refunding all funds raised for the 1992 General Election. The funds received from the Connells for the 1992 General Election ($1000.00 each) were refunded on July 8, 1992. These refunds were reported as required in the FEC report for that reporting period (see attached copy of Line 20A itemization of refunds -- enc. #5).

RE: MUR 3895

Dear Counsel:

Enclosed is a designation of counsel statement with respect to the above-captioned matter.

The Friends of Jim Moody has not been named a respondent in the above-captioned complaint. The complaint itself does not assert that the Friends of Jim Moody has violated the Federal Election Campaign Act. Although the Friends of Jim Moody did receive contributions from Mr. and Mrs. Connell, neither the complaint nor the letter from Mary L. Taksar, attorney, Central Enforcement Docket, allege that the receipt of these contributions may have violated the Act.

Under these circumstances, the committee believes that no action should be taken against the committee or its treasurer. Please advise me whether there are any specific provisions of the Act which implicate the Friends of Jim Moody in this matter.

Very truly yours,

RE: MUR 3895

Dear Ms. McEnery:

Pursuant to our telephone conversation, I am filing this supplemental response in the above-captioned matter.

The Friends of Jim Moody did not receive excessive contributions from either Grover Connell or Patricia Connell, and MUR 3895 does not make such an allegation. The Friends of Jim Moody had no indication at any time about the possible violations alleged against Grover Connell and Patricia Connell in MUR 3895. Indeed, both persons made their contributions early in the calendar year.

No action should be taken against the Friends of Jim Moody.

Re: MUR 3895 -- Grover and Patricia Connell

Dear Mr. Noble:

I am counsel for Grover and Patricia Connell, named as respondents in a Complaint filed with the Commission on January 21, 1994 by the Center for Responsive Politics. By letter of February 28, 1994 from Mary L. Taksar, our time for responding to the Complaint was extended to March 16, 1994.

Facts

The exhibits to the Complaint which list contributions by Grover and Patricia Connell in 1991 and 1992 contain certain omissions and other errors. I first wish to correct these errors.

A. Grover Connell contributions in 1991.

Exhibit 1 to the Complaint excludes a contribution of $1,000 made on April 8, 1991 to the Democratic Congressional Campaign Dinner Committee. It also excludes a contribution made on January 7, 1991 to the Alexander Campaign Committee.

Exhibit 1 improperly lists two contributions, each $500, dated May 10, 1991, from Mr. Connell to the Andrews for Congress Committee. The Committee's disclosure report, attached to the Complaint, lists a single contribution of $1,000 from Mr. Connell on that date, but it also indicates that the contribution was designated as "debt retirement" for the 1990 general election. Thus, this contribution is attributable to 1990, not 1992. We attach as Exhibit A the relevant page from the Andrews Committee disclosure report reflecting this designation.

B. Grover Connell contributions in 1992.

Exhibit 1 excludes contributions of $1,000 each made to the Dean Gallo for Congress Committee (January 15, 1992), the Citizens for Hamilton Committee (July 31, 1992) and the Friends of Lowery Committee (January 15, 1992). The Exhibit also excludes a refund received on December 7, 1992 from the Committee to Re-Elect Ed Towns. It incorrectly lists three contributions of $1,000 each - to the McHugh, Tallon and Van Winkle Committees - as split between Mr. and Mrs. Connell, when these contributions were made entirely by Mrs. Connell. Similarly, a contribution of $1,000 to the Committee for Ron Coleman is attributed to Mr. Connell when that contribution was made by Mrs. Connell.

In addition, the Complaint summary lists two $1,000 contributions, one for the primary, one for the general, both dated April 27, 1992, from Mr. Connell to the Levine Campaign Committee. We attach as Exhibit B the Committee's disclosure of these contributions. A subsequent disclosure report from the Committee, attached as Exhibit C, indicates that the general election contribution was redesignated for the 1994 primary. Although the Complaint summary takes note of an apparent refund, it improperly attributes $2,000 to the 1992 election, when the correct amount should be only $1,000. The same mistake is made in regard to Mrs. Connell.

COMMISSION

C. Patricia Connell contributions in 1991.

The summary exhibit excludes a contribution of $1,000 made to the Edwards Committee on January 1, 1991, a contribution of $1,000 made to the Alexander Committee on January 7, 1991, and a contribution of $2,000 made on April 8, 1991 to the Democratic Congressional Campaign Dinner Committee.

D. Patricia Connell contributions in 1992.

In addition to the misattributions noted above, and the error regarding the Levine Committee refund also noted above, the Complaint summary omits contributions of $1,000 each made to the Bill Thomas Campaign Committee (April 10, 1992), the Committee to Re-Elect Ed Towns (April 22, 1992), the McCurdy for Congressman Committee (January 8, 1992) and the Friends of Lowery Committee (January 8, 1992).

According to the records maintained by Mr. and Mrs. Connell, the net effect of these various adjustments is that the contributions from either Mr. Connell or Mrs. Connell do not exceed an aggregate amount of $25,000 for either of 1991 or 1992, a result which comports with their understanding of how the Section 441a(a)(3) limit applied, and with their careful tracking of the contributions they made in order to comply with their understanding of the limit.

Discussion

Mr. and Mrs. Connell made the contributions at issue in the good faith belief that the annual aggregate limit, 2 U.S.C. §441a(a)(3), applied on a calendar year basis and that each contribution counted against the limit in the calendar year in which it was made. See Affidavit of Grover Connell at ¶2 (hereafter "G. Connell Aff."), Affidavit of Patricia Connell at ¶2 (hereafter "P. Connell Aff.").

Prior to making these contributions, Mr. Connell consulted with various Members of Congress about the applicable rules. He was informed that the annual aggregate limit applied on a calendar year basis. G. Connell Aff. at ¶2. None of the persons he consulted informed him that contributions made in a non-election year must be attributed, for purposes of the annual aggregate limit, to the year in which the election is held. Id.

Mr. Connell consulted with individuals who appeared familiar with the requirements of the federal campaign finance laws, and who were in a position to know the proper interpretation and application of the law. Id. at ¶12. Mr. Connell accordingly relied on the advice he received from these individuals, id. at ¶13, as did Mrs. Connell. P. Connell Aff. at ¶12.

Mr. Connell instructed his staff to keep careful records of the contributions made by Mr. and Mrs. Connell in 1991 and 1992, in order to ensure that the contributions by either of them did not exceed an aggregate of $25,000 in either calendar year. G. Connell Aff. at ¶14. To the best of their knowledge, they adhered to this limit. G. Connell Aff. at ¶15.

Thus, consistent with their good faith belief that the annual limit applied on a calendar year basis, Mr. and Mrs. Connell made contributions which aggregated no more than $25,000 in each of 1991 and 1992. In short, they did not disregard the annual contribution limit or otherwise act in reckless disregard of the law. To the contrary, they took reasonable precautions in order to ensure their actions would conform to their good faith understanding of what the law required.

For both Mr. and Mrs. Connell, the total amount of contributions made over the two year period was no more than the aggregate $50,000 that the statute permits any person to make in that time frame. Thus, any apparent violation of the election laws here is based not on the amount of money involved, but rather on the timing of the contributions, or more specifically, on the technical and confusing rules of attribution.

To citizens unschooled in the intricacies of the federal election laws, an annual contribution limit implies by its very name that it limits the amount of contributions that can be made in a single calendar year. It is contrary to simple common sense that contributions made in one calendar year should count against the annual calendar year limit of a different year.

The fact that the technicalities of these rules are counter-intuitive is best shown by the fact that they appear to ensnare dozens of unsuspecting citizens who, like Mr. and Mrs. Connell, operate in compliance with a good faith understanding of how an annual contribution limit would work. In MUR 3104, the Commission proceeded against several contributors caught in this trap. By press reports, this MUR is also directed against more than 60 additional contributors who have apparently run afoul of the Commission's interpretation of how the limit applies. See "FEC Complaints Filed Charging 64 Donors With Exceeding Individual Limit of $25,000" Roll Call (Jan. 24, 1994).

The Commission itself has acknowledged the confusion caused by this rule, in recommending to Congress that the statute be amended to apply the annual contribution limit on a calendar year basis "so that an individual's contributions count against his or her annual limit for the year in which they are made." See "Legislative Recommendations -- New and Revised -- 1993," 2 CCH Fed.Elec.Camp.Fin Guide ¶9323 at 52,744-45. The Commission there said of the current law:

Section 441a(a)(3) now provides that a contribution to a candidate made in a nonelection year counts against the individual donor's limit for the year in which the candidate's election is held. This provision has lead to some confusion among contributors. For example, a contributor wishing to support Candidate Smith in an election year contributes to her in November of the year before the election. The contributor assumes that the contribution counts against his limit for the year in which he contributed. Unaware that the contribution actually counts against the year in which Candidate Smith's election is held, the contributor makes other contributions during the election year and inadvertently exceeds his $25,000 limit. By requiring contributions to count against the limit of the calendar year in which the donor contributes, confusion would be eliminated and fewer contributors would violate the law.

Id. (emphasis added).

Mr. and Mrs. Connell suffered from precisely the same "confusion" about the operation of this part of the law that the Commission has already recognized, and because of that, they may have "inadvertently" exceeded the applicable contribution limit.

I urge the Commission to take account of Mr. and Mrs. Connell's good faith in seeking initial guidance on the meaning of the law from persons they believed would advise them correctly on how to apply the limits. The Commission should also take account of Mr. and Mrs. Connell's good faith in tracking the contributions they made in order to carefully abide by their understanding -- a common sense view -- of the law. Finally, the Commission should take account of the fact that the Connells have not contributed more than the permissible amount for the two-year period in question, and that any violation arises only from the attribution of contributions made in one year to the limits of a different year, a requirement that the Commission itself deems "confusing."

In light of all these factors, I urge the Commission to take no action in this matter, or to find reason to believe but then take no action. Alternatively, should the Commission find reason to believe and choose to continue the MUR, the Connells request pre-probable cause conciliation.

Sincerely,

Donald J. Simon
Counsel for Grover and Patricia Connell

AFFIDAVIT OF GROVER CONNELL

1. My name is Grover Connell. My address is 207 Watchung Fork, Westfield, New Jersey.

2. Prior to 1991, I consulted with a number of Members of Congress about the $25,000 annual contribution limit. I was told that I could contribute up to $25,000 to federal campaigns in any single year. No one told me that contributions made in one year would be counted against my limit in a different year. Because the persons I consulted were familiar with raising money for federal campaigns, I assumed that they correctly informed me about how the $25,000 annual limit should be applied.

3. Accordingly, I assumed that any contributions I made in 1991 would count against a $25,000 limit for contributions in 1991. I further assumed that the same would be true for contributions I made in 1992. It was my good faith belief that this was what the law required.

4. I caused my staff to record each contribution my wife (Patricia Connell) and I made during 1991 and 1992. I took care to ensure that neither of us would exceed a limit of $25,000 in total contributions in any single calendar year, taking into account refunds which we received each year.

5. To the best of my knowledge and belief, according to my calculations, neither I nor my wife made contributions which aggregate in excess of $25,000 in calendar year 1991. Similarly, to the best of my knowledge and belief according to my calculations, neither I nor my wife made contributions which aggregate in excess of $25,000 in calendar year 1992.

AFFIDAVIT OF PATRICIA CONNELL

1. My name is Patricia Connell. My address is 207 Watchung Fork, Westfield, New Jersey.

2. I made contributions to various congressional campaigns in 1991 and 1992. In doing so, it was my understanding that the annual $25,000 limit on contributions counted against contributions in the year in which they were made. I based this belief on discussions with my husband, who in turn had consulted with Members of Congress who were in a position to know how the law worked.

3. Accordingly, I assumed that any contributions I made in 1991 would count against a $25,000 limit for contributions in 1991. I further assumed that the same would be true for contributions I made in 1992. It was my good faith belief that this was what the law required.

RE: MUR 3895

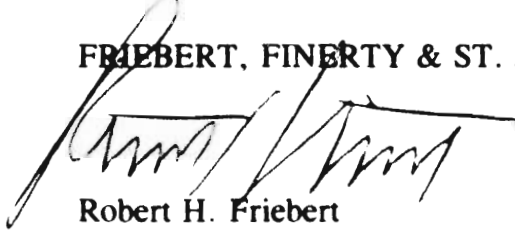

Dear Ms. Taksar:

This letter is being written in response to our telephone conversation which took place early last week.

You inquired about the third entry involving the Friends of Jim Moody on the summary of FEC data which was attached to the complaint against Grover Connell and Patricia Connell. The negative sign included within that entry correctly reports a return of part of the contribution received from each person on February 4, 1992 which represents a pro rata return of unexpended contributions. The third entry of $-181 does not relate to any other contribution received from either Grover Connell or Patricia Connell.

Very truly yours,

I. INTRODUCTION

This report is the General Counsel's Report to recommend that the Commission no longer pursue the identified lower priority and stale cases under the Enforcement Priority System.

II. CASES RECOMMENDED FOR CLOSING

A. Cases Not Warranting Further Pursuit Relative to Other Cases Pending Before the Commission

A critical component of the Priority System is identifying those pending cases that do not warrant the further expenditure of resources. Each incoming matter is evaluated using Commission-approved criteria and cases that, based on their rating, do not warrant pursuit relative to other pending cases are placed in this category. By closing such cases, the Commission is able to use its limited resources to focus on more important cases.

Having evaluated incoming matters, this Office has identified 10 cases which do not warrant further pursuit relative to the other pending cases.<sup>1</sup> A short description of each case and the factors leading to assignment of a relatively low priority and consequent recommendation not to pursue each

The Act allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(8).
