

More than just business standard

Tecra A40-C

With outstanding connectivity and a range of ergonomic design features, the 35,6 cm (14") Tecra A40-C can set new standards for your business – wherever your work takes you. From the optimised antenna, to the latest Intel® Wi-Fi, Gigabit LAN and optional LTE, assuring the best connection quality for your work at all times. What's more, the Tecra A40-C features a full-size and silent keyboard that keeps typing comfortable – making it perfect for writing documents both in the office, and in the coffee shop. With a non-reflective screen and an optional backlit keyboard, you can get things done whether you're in bright sunlight or complete darkness. When you are in the office, simply plug in to your Hi-Speed Port Replicator III dock*, enabling you to create a full featured desk environment. Whilst on the move, the Tecra A40-C provides an uncompromised range of full-size ports, avoiding the need for any adapters, allowing you to work or present with confidence.
