Areas Quarantined

Pursuant to provisions of the Act of May 29, 1884, as amended, the Act of February 2, 1903, as amended, the Act of March 3, 1905, as amended, the Act of September 6, 1961, and the Act of July 2, 1962 (21 U.S.C. 111–113, 114g, 115, 117, 120, 121, 123–126, 134b, 134f), Part 76, Title 9, Code of Federal Regulations, restricting the interstate movement of swine and certain products because of hog cholera and other communicable swine diseases, is hereby amended in the following respects:

1. In § 76.2, in paragraph (e)(5) relating to the State of Mississippi, subdivisions (i) relating to Attala, Copiah, Holmes, Lauderdale, Newton, Warren, and Yazoo Counties; (iv) relating to Madison County; (v) relating to Madison and Hinds Counties; (vi) relating to Rankin County; (vii) relating to Scott County; and (viii) relating to Carroll County are deleted.

2. In § 76.2, in paragraph (e)(17) relating to the State of Virginia, subdivision (v) relating to Sussex and Dinwiddie Counties is deleted.

(Secs. 4–7, 23 Stat. 32, as amended, secs. 1, 2, 32 Stat. 791–792, as amended, secs. 1–4, 33 Stat. 1264, 1265, as amended, sec. 1, 75 Stat. 481, secs. 3 and 11, 76 Stat. 130, 132; 21 U.S.C. 111, 112, 113, 114g, 115, 117, 120, 121, 123–126, 134b, 134f; 29 F.R. 16210, as amended)

Effective date. The foregoing amendments shall become effective upon issuance.

The amendments release all of Attala, Copiah, Holmes, Lauderdale, Newton, Warren, Yazoo, and portions of Madison, Hinds, Rankin, Scott, and Carroll Counties in Mississippi, and portions of Sussex and Dinwiddie Counties in Virginia from the areas quarantined because of hog cholera. Therefore, the restrictions pertaining to the interstate movement of swine and swine products from or through quarantined areas as contained in 9 CFR Part 76, as amended, will not apply to the excluded areas, but will continue to apply to the quarantined areas described in § 76.2. Further, the restrictions pertaining to the interstate movement of swine and swine products from nonquarantined areas contained in said Part 76 will apply to the excluded areas.

The amendments relieve certain restrictions presently imposed and must be made effective immediately to be of maximum benefit to affected persons. Accordingly, under the administrative procedure provisions in 5 U.S.C. 553, it is found upon good cause that notice and other public procedure with respect to the amendments are impracticable and unnecessary, and good cause is found for making them effective less than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Done at Washington, D.C. this 7th day of August 1970.

GEORGE W. IRVING, Jr.,
Administrator, Agricultural Research Service.

Title 14—AERONAUTICS AND SPACE

Chapter I—Federal Aviation Administration, Department of Transportation

[Regulatory Docket No. 10492]

[Special Federal Aviation Reg. 26]

PART 21—CERTIFICATION PROCEDURES FOR PRODUCTS AND PARTS

Approval of Import Aircraft Engines, Propellers, Materials, Parts, and Appliances

The purpose of this Special Federal Aviation Regulation (SFAR) is to provide for the approval, on a selective basis, of aircraft engines, propellers, materials, parts, and appliances, manufactured in a foreign country with which the United States has an agreement for the acceptance of powered aircraft for export and import.

Section 21.29 of Part 21 provides for the issuance of a type certificate for a product that is manufactured in a foreign country with which the United States has an agreement for the acceptance of these products for export and import and that is to be exported into the United States. Section 21.183(c) implements § 21.29 and provides for the issuance of airworthiness certificates for aircraft type certificated in accordance with § 21.29. There are 20 foreign countries with which the United States has bilateral agreements. A majority of these agreements cover aircraft and components of those aircraft imported into the United States. However, five of the agreements also cover engines and propellers that are not part of an aircraft imported into the United States and one agreement also covers appliances that are not part of an aircraft, aircraft engine, or propeller imported into the United States.

In addition to the foregoing, since § 21.183(c) provides only for the approval of aircraft type certificated under § 21.29, the FAA recently amended Part 21 to provide for the individual approval of type certificated aircraft engines and propellers being imported into the United States. Similar action was taken with respect to materials, parts, and appliances, manufactured in a foreign country. In this connection, and consistent with § 21.29, the FAA added §§ 21.500 and 21.502 (Amendment 21–25, 34 F.R. 14068) which provide for the approval of aircraft engines, propellers, materials, parts, and appliances, manufactured in a foreign country with which the United States has an agreement for the acceptance of such aircraft engines, propellers, materials, parts, and appliances, for export and import. It should be noted that the term "part" includes subassemblies and as used in the regulations, the ordinary dictionary definition is applied to subassembly. Thus, an aircraft subassembly is a structural unit manufactured or assembled separately but designed to be incorporated with other units in the final assembly of the aircraft.

In issuing Amendment 21–25, it was anticipated that appropriate amendments to the various bilateral agreements would be accomplished to accommodate these regulations. However, the renegotiation of the pertinent bilaterals has taken longer than expected, and the new requirements have created difficulties for U.S. manufacturers who use imported aircraft engines, propellers, materials, parts, and appliances, on aircraft manufactured in the United States. The new regulations have also created concern for various foreign manufacturers who have been granted approvals of their products, materials, parts, and appliances in the past.

In the light of the foregoing, the FAA considers that it is in the public interest to provide for the continued approval of aircraft engines, propellers, materials, parts, and appliances pending the appropriate amendment of those bilateral agreements where such amendment is in the mutual interest of the United States and the foreign country involved. This Special Federal Aviation Regulation is designed to provide for the continuance on an interim basis of such approvals. It is anticipated that the necessary amendments to the bilateral agreements will be accomplished in approximately 18 months. This regulation should have no adverse affect on safety since it limits the approval of aircraft engines, propellers, materials, parts (including subassemblies), and appliances, to those manufactured in a foreign country with which the United States has an agreement for the acceptance of powered aircraft for export and import provided that the Administrator (1) has previously approved a product or a material, part, or appliance, manufactured in that country that is of the same kind as the product, material, part, or appliance, for which approval is requested or, in the case of a subassembly to be incorporated on an aircraft designed and manufactured in the United States, has previously approved any other subassembly manufactured in that country and (2) has determined that the country utilizes acceptable quality control standards and certification and approval procedures. Finally the regulation provides for the adoption of appropriate procedures in agreements between the Administrator and the competent aeronautical authorities of the various countries of manufacture for the execution of the provisions of this regulation.

In view of the immediate need for this action pending the revision of the bilateral agreements, and since this regulation relieves a restriction and imposes no additional burden on any person, notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary and it may be made effective in less than 30 days.

In consideration of the foregoing, the following Special Federal Aviation Regulation is adopted to become effective August 8, 1970:

SFAR No. 26

Contrary provisions of §§ 21.29, 21.500, and 21.502 of the Federal Aviation Regulations notwithstanding—

1. A type certificate may be issued under § 21.29 for an aircraft engine or propeller manufactured in a foreign country with which the United States has a currently effective bilateral agreement for the acceptance of powered aircraft for export and import and that is to be imported into the United States if (i) a type certificate has previously been issued by the Administrator for a product manufactured in that country which is of the same kind as the product for which a type certificate is requested; and (ii) the Administrator determines that the design standards and practices, the quality control standards, and the certification procedures utilized by such country for the particular product being imported are the equivalent of those required in the United States.

2. Aircraft engines, propellers, materials, parts (including subassemblies), or appliances (hereinafter referred to as aircraft components), manufactured in a foreign country with which the United States has a currently effective bilateral agreement for the acceptance of powered aircraft may be approved under § 21.500 or § 21.502, as applicable, if (i) an approval has previously been issued by the Administrator for an aircraft component manufactured in that country which is of the same kind as the aircraft component for which approval is requested; and (ii) the Administrator determines that the quality control standards and the certification and approval procedures utilized by such country for the particular aircraft component being imported are the equivalent of those required in the United States.

3. Aircraft subassemblies not covered under paragraph 2 that are to be incorporated on aircraft designed and manufactured in the United States, and that are manufactured in a foreign country with which the United States has a currently effective bilateral agreement for the acceptance of powered aircraft may be approved if (i) an approval has previously been issued by the Administrator for any other subassembly manufactured in that country; (ii) the Administrator determines that the quality control standards and the certification and approval procedures utilized by that country for the particular subassembly being imported are equivalent to those required in the United States; and (iii) the competent aeronautical authorities of the country certify that the subassembly meets the applicable design requirements.

4. Appropriate procedures for the execution of the provisions contained in paragraphs 1, 2, and 3 of the regulation may be embodied in agreements between the Administrator and the competent aeronautical authorities of the country of manufacture of the aircraft component.

5. In the event that the Administrator determines that the quality control standards and certification and approval procedures being utilized in the foreign countries to which this regulation is applicable no longer meet the quality control and certification and approval requirements equivalent to those required in the United States, the approval given under this regulation for the import into the United States of those aeronautical products covered by the regulation will be terminated.

This special regulation shall terminate March 1, 1972, unless sooner rescinded or superseded.

[Airworthiness Docket No. 70–WE–28–AD; Amdt. 39–1064]

PART 39—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

AiResearch Turboprop Engine TPE331–3W–301A

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (31 F.R. 13697) an airworthiness directive was adopted on July 24, 1970, and made effective immediately as to all known U.S. operators or owners of certain serial number AiResearch Model TPE331–3W–301A turboprop engines installed in, but not limited to Handley-Page Model C10A aircraft. The airworthiness directive required a replacement of the high speed pinion assembly P/N 869441–2 per AiResearch Service Bulletin No. 622, dated July 24, 1970, or later FAA-approved revision.

Since it was found that immediate corrective action was required, notice and public procedure thereon was impractical and contrary to the public interest and good cause existed for making the airworthiness directive effective immediately as to all known operators or owners of AiResearch Model TPE331–3W–301A turboprop engines by specific serial numbers by individual telegrams dated July 24, 1970.

These conditions still exist and the airworthiness directive is hereby published in the FEDERAL REGISTER and an amendment to § 39.13 of Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations to make it effective as to all persons.

Pursuant to the authority of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended, delegated to me by the Administrator, the following airworthiness directive applicable to AiResearch Model TPE331–3W–301A engines, S/N P01001 through P–01010 and P–01012, P–01014, and P–01015, installed in but not limited to Handley-Page Model C10A aircraft is effective upon receipt of this telegram.

This directive necessary because of a serious condition which may be caused by backing off of the high speed pinion retaining nut. To prevent engine failures from this cause, the following is required: Replace the high speed pinion assembly R/N 869441–2 in accordance with AiResearch telegraphic service bulletin No. 622, dated July 24, 1970, or later FAA-approved revision, prior to further use.

This amendment is effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER for all persons except those to whom it was made effective immediately by telegram dated July 24, 1970.

(Sec. 313(a), 601, 603, Federal Aviation Act of 1958, 49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421, 1423; sec. 6(c), Department of Transportation Act, 49 U.S.C. 1655(c))

Issued in Los Angeles, Calif., on August 3, 1970.

LEE E. WARREN,
Acting Director,
FAA Western Region.

PART 71—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS, AREA LOW ROUTES, CONTROLLED AIRSPACE, AND REPORTING POINTS

Designation, Alteration and Revocation of Control Zone

The purpose of this amendment to Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is to revoke the Rapid City, S. Dak. (Municipal Airport), control zone, to add the Rapid City, S. Dak. (Regional Airport) control zone, and to alter the Rapid City, S. Dak. (Ellsworth AFB) control zone.

The Rapid City, S. Dak., Municipal Airport, has been renamed the Rapid City Regional Airport. Therefore, it is necessary to revoke the Rapid City (Municipal Airport) control zone and to alter the Rapid City (Ellsworth AFB) control zone which presently refers to the Airport as Rapid City Municipal Airport and to add a Rapid City (Regional Airport) control zone in order to reflect the airport change in name. Action is taken herein to reflect this change.

Since this change is minor in nature and imposes no additional burden on any person, notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary.

In consideration of the foregoing, Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended effective 0901 G.m.t., October 15, 1970, as hereinafter set forth:

(1) In § 71.171 (35 F.R. 2054), the following control zone is revoked: Rapid City, S. Dak. (Municipal Airport).

(2) In § 71.171 (35 F.R. 2054), the following control zone is added:

RAPID CITY, S. DAK. (REGIONAL AIRPORT)

Within a 5-mile radius of Rapid City Regional Airport (latitude 40°02'30" N., longitude 103°03'20" W.); within 3 miles each side of the Rapid City VOR 155° and 335° radials, extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 8 miles southeast of the VOR; and within 3 miles each side of the Ellsworth AFB TACAN 129° radial, extending from the Rapid City, S. Dak. (Ellsworth AFB), 5-mile radius zone to 8 miles Southeast of the TACAN, excluding the portion north of a line between the INTs of the 5-mile radius zone and the Rapid City, S. Dak. (Ellsworth AFB), 5-mile radius zone.

(3) In § 71.171 (35 F.R. 2054), the following control zone is amended to read:

RAPID CITY, S. DAK. (ELLSWORTH AFB)

Within a 5-mile radius of Ellsworth AFB (latitude 44°08'45" N., longitude 103°06'15" W.); and within 2½ miles each side of the Ellsworth AFB TACAN 322° radial, extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 7 mines northwest of the TACAN, excluding the portion which overlies the Rapid City, S. Dak. (Regional Airport) control zone.

(Sec. 307(a), Federal Aviation Act of 1958, 49 U.S.C. 1348; sec. 6(c), Department of Transportation Act, 49 U.S.C. 1655(c))

PART 71—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS, AREA LOW ROUTES, CONTROLLED AIRSPACE, AND REPORTING POINTS

Revocation of Additional Control Areas and Transition Area

The purpose of this amendment to Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is to revoke the Moberly, Mo., transition area and additional control areas at Macon, Mo., and Quincy, Ill.

The instrument approach procedures for Omar N. Bradley Airport at Moberly, Mo., have been canceled, with the result that there is no longer any requirement for the designation of a transition area for their protection. In addition, Ozark Air Lines no longer serves Moberly and the additional control area designation for the protection of their direct route authorizations from Moberly to Columbia, Mo., and from Moberly to Quincy, Ill., are no longer required. Therefore, it is necessary to revoke the Moberly, Mo., transition area and the additional control areas at Macon, Mo., and Quincy, Ill. Action is taken herein to effect these changes.

Since these actions revoke a transition area and additional control areas, it imposes no additional burden on any person and consequently notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary.

In consideration of the foregoing, Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended effective 0901 G.m.t., October 15, 1970, as hereinafter set forth:

(1) In § 71.181 (35 F.R. 2134), the following transition area is revoked: Moberly, Mo.

(2) In § 71.163 (35 F.R. 2046), the following additional control areas are revoked:

a. Macon, Mo.
b. Quincy, Ill.

(Sec. 307(a), Federal Aviation Act of 1958, 49 U.S.C. 1348; sec. 6(c), Department of Transportation Act, 49 U.S.C. 1655(c))

Issued in Kansas City, Mo., on July 10, 1970.

PART 71—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS, AREA LOW ROUTES, CONTROLLED AIRSPACE, AND REPORTING POINTS

Alteration of Transition Area

The purpose of this amendment to Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is to alter the Grandview, Mo., transition area.

The public use instrument approach procedure for Johnson County Airport, Grandview, Mo., has been altered by moving the approach radial by 5°. Therefore, it is necessary to alter the Grandview transition area to reflect this radial change. This alteration does not involve the designation of any additional airspace.

Since this change is minor in nature and imposes no additional burden on any person, notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary and the change may be accomplished by final rule action.

In consideration of the foregoing, Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended, effective 0901 G.m.t., October 15, 1970, as hereinafter set forth:

In § 71.181 (35 F.R. 2134), the following transition area is amended to read:

GRANDVIEW, MO.

That airspace extending upward from 700 feet above the surface within an 8-mile radius of Richards-Gebaur AFB (latitude 38°50'50" N., longitude 94°33'20" W.); within a 6-mile radius of Johnson County Airport (latitude 38°51'00" N., longitude 94°44'15" W.); and within 3 miles each side of the 183° bearing from Johnson County Airport, extending from the 6-mile radius area to 8 miles south of the airport; and that airspace extending upward from 1,200 feet above the surface within the area bounded on the south by latitude 38°00'00" N., on the west by the east edge of V-12; on the north by the arc of a 10-mile radius circle centered on the Kansas City, Mo., Municipal Airport (latitude 39°07'20" N., longitude 94°35'30" W.); and on the east by the west edge of V-159, excluding the portion which overlies the Emporia and Wichita, Kans., transition areas.

(Sec. 307(a), Federal Aviation Act of 1958, 49 U.S.C. 1348; sec. 6(c), Department of Transportation Act, 49 U.S.C. 1655(c))

Issued in Kansas City, Mo., on July 10, 1970.

In the Matter of Grove Laboratories, a Division of Bristol-Myers Co.

Order modifying, pursuant to a decision of the U.S. Court of Appeals, Fifth Circuit, October 14, 1969, 418 F. 2d 489, and judgment dated November 21, 1969, a cease and desist order dated June 13, 1967, 32 F.R. 9648, by allowing a manufacturing drug firm to state that its products would temporarily relieve pain and itching and help to reduce swelling associated with hemorrhoids in many cases.

The modified order to cease and desist, including further order requiring report of compliance therewith, is as follows:

I. It is ordered, That respondent Bristol-Myers Co., a corporation, and its officers, representatives, agents, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, do forthwith cease and desist from disseminating or causing the dissemination of any advertisement by means of the U.S. mails or by any means in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, in connection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution of The Pazo Formula Ointment and The Pazo Formula Hemmorrhoid Suppositories, or any other nonprescription drug products offered for sale for the treatment or relief of hemmorrhoids or piles or any of its symptoms, which:

A. Represents directly or by implication that the use of such products will:

(1) Reduce, shrink, or afford any relief of hemorrhoidal veins themselves: Provided, however, That nothing contained herein shall be construed to prohibit the dissemination of any advertisement which represents that the use of such products will help reduce swelling of hemorrhoidal tissue caused by edema, infection, or inflammation, or that the use of such products will help reduce swelling of hemorrhoidal tissue by lubricating the affected area;

(2) Avoid the need for surgery as a treatment for hemorrhoids or hemorrhoidal symptoms;

(3) Heal, cure, or remove hemorrhoids, or eliminate the problem of hemorrhoids;

(4) Afford any relief from pain or itching associated with hemorrhoids in excess of affording temporary relief of pain and itching of hemorrhoidal tissue in many cases;

(5) Afford any other type of relief, or have any other effect on, hemorrhoids or hemorrhoidal symptoms.

B. Contains any reference to any ingredient or ingredients either singly or in combination unless each such ingredient is effective in the treatment or relief of hemorrhoids or any of its symptoms and unless the specific effect thereof is expressly and truthfully set forth.

II. It is further ordered, That respondent and its officers, representatives, agents, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, do forthwith cease and desist from disseminating, or causing to be disseminated, by any means, for the purpose of inducing, or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase of The Pazo Formula Ointment and The Pazo Formula Hemorrhoid Suppositories, or any other nonprescription drug product offered for sale for the treatment or relief of hemorrhoids or any of its symptoms, in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, any advertisement which contains any of the representations prohibited in paragraph I hereof.

III. In the event that respondent at any time in the future markets any nonprescription drug preparation for the treatment or relief of hemorrhoids or any of its symptoms for which it desires to make any of the representations now prohibited under paragraph I of this order, it may petition the Commission for a modification of the order. Such petition shall be accompanied by a showing that the representation is not false or misleading within the meaning of the Federal Trade Commission Act, and, if such has been the case, that the specific representation has been accepted as part of the labeling for such product by the Secretary of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare under the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act as it is presently constituted or as it may hereafter be amended.

It is further ordered, That respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report, in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with this order to cease and desist.

Issued: June 9, 1970.

Subpart C—Employment of Minors Between 14 and 16 Years of Age (Child Labor Reg. 3)

Pursuant to section 3(1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (29 U.S.C. 203(l)) and Reorganization Plan No. 2 of 1946 (3 CFR 1943–48 Comp., p. 1064), § 1500.35a of Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations (34 F.R. 17804), is hereby amended in the manner indicated below. The purpose of the amendment is to provide expressly that, where employment in agriculture is permitted under the section, employment in occupations declared particularly hazardous for the employment of minors below the age of 16 years is excepted from the permission.

Notice and public procedure concerning the amendment are found impracticable and contrary to the public interest within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. 533 (b)(3)(B) because (1) the rule is minor since there are few risks not presently restricted under the express terms of § 1500.35a(c); and (2) in any event it is in the public interest to afford immediate protection from any remaining risks in employment in agriculture not expressly covered by the terms of § 1500.35a(c). The amendment shall be effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Good cause is found for not providing further delay in effective date because little or no time lag is needed to adjust the new rule, which does little or no more than what Part 1500 already requires, and in any event because there is an immediate need to protect all children from employment in agriculture in occupations found particularly hazardous for their employment.

Section 1500.35a(c)(2) is amended to read as follows:

§ 1500.35a Work experience and career exploration programs.

(c) Employment of minors enrolled in a program approved pursuant to the requirements of this section shall be permitted in all occupations except the following:

* * * * *

(2) Occupations declared to be hazardous for the employment of miners between 16 and 18 years of age in Subpart E of this part, and occupations in agriculture declared to be hazardous for the employment of minors below the age of 16 in Subpart E–1 of this part.

OI REG. 1—OIL IMPORT REGULATION

Allocation of Imports of No. 2 Oil

In the FEDERAL REGISTER of June 20, 1970 (35 F.R. 10153), notice was given of a proposed section to be added to Oil Import Regulation 1 to provide for the allocation of imports of No. 2 fuel oil to independent deep water terminal operators in District I.

Twenty-six timely submissions were received. There were objections to the grant of such allocations, to the volume of imports to be allocated, and to the category of persons among whom the imports would be allocated; however, these matters are governed by Presidential Proclamation 3990 and could not be considered with regard to these regulations.

All comments on the substance of the proposed section have been carefully considered, and the new section 30 which is hereby added to Oil Import Regulation 1 (Revision 5), reflects various revisions of the proposal in the light of those comments. In accordance with several recommendations, the physical specifications of No. 2 fuel oil have been revised. Changes also have been made in the definition of "deep water terminal."

The requirements for eligibility for an allocation have been simplified (paragraph (c) of section 30) by the deletion of references to ownership of oil and first delivery in District I—matters which are related to qualified terminal inputs and which are covered in paragraph (f). Similiarly, no minimum quantity is now specified in respect of a throughput agreement.

Paragraph (d) of the proposal has been changed to 15 days instead of 10 days after publication of this section in the FEDERAL REGISTER for the filing of applications. Paragraph (f) of the proposal has been reorganized for clarity. A substantive change in paragraph (f) was recommended in several of the comments to reduce the likelihood that imports under this section would be directed to industrial use. Consequently, paragraph (f)(4) of the proposal has been eliminated.

In line with several suggestions, provision has been made (paragraph (f)(2) of section 30) to enable an eligible person to claim as qualified terminal inputs of No. 2 fuel oil which he obtains from the deep water terminal of a person ineligible by reason of an allocation of imports of crude oil.

Subdivision (f)(1)(iii) of section 30 was added in response to a situation disclosed by the comments. Under the conditions specified in that subdivision, a terminal input may be claimed when oil is withdrawn from a deep water terminal.

Application forms are now available, and each person interested in obtaining an allocation should request in writing (preferably by telegram) an allocation form from Administrator, Oil Import Administration, Department of the Interior, Washington, D.C. 20240. The Oil Import Administration will mail forms to persons to whom it now has reason to believe may be interested. However, the Oil Import Administration's information is not complete and errors of omission may occur. Accordingly, in the absence of a specific written request, no person may rely upon receiving an application form.

Section 30, reading as follows, is added to Oil Import Regulation 1 (Revision 5):

Sec. 30 Allocations of No. 2 Fuel Oil—District I.

(a) For the purpose of this section:

(1) The term "No. 2 fuel oil" means a finished product which has the following physical and chemical characteristics:

Closed cup flash point °F.	Minimum 100.
Pour point °F	Maximum 20.
Water and sediment, percent.	Maximum 0.10.
Carbon residue on 10 percent residuum percent.	Maximum 0.35.
Distillation temperature °F. 90 percent point.	Maximum 675.
	Minimum 540.
Viscosity, Saybolt Universal Seconds at 100 °F.	Maximum 40.0.
	Minimum 33.0.
Gravity A.P.I.	Minimum 30.0.

(2) The term "Western Hemisphere" means North America, Central America, South America, and the West Indies.

(3) The term "deep water terminal" means a permanent land installation which:

(i) Consists of bulk storage tanks having not less than 100,000 barrels of operational capacity, pumps and pipelines used for storage, transfer and handling of No. 2 fuel oil;

(ii) Is on waterways that permit the safe passage to the installation of a tanker rated 15,000 cargo deadweight tons, drawing not less than 25 feet of water; and

(iii) Has a berth that will permit the delivery of No. 2 fuel oil into the installation by direct connection from a tanker rated at 15,000 cargo deadweight tons, drawing not less than 25 feet of water, and moored in the berth. Cargo deadweight tons represent the carrying capacity of a tanker, in tons of 2,240 pounds, less the weight of fuel, water, stores and other items necessary for use on a voyage.

(4) The term "throughput agreement" means an agreement which provides for the delivery to a deep water terminal by a person of No. 2 fuel oil which he owns and for a right in such person to withdraw on call an identical quantity of such oil from the terminal. Any transaction between persons involving sales, purchases, or exchanges of No. 2 fuel oil which were designed to gain allocation benefits for a person who would not otherwise be eligible shall not be deemed to constitute a throughput agreement.

(b) For the period July 1, 1970 through December 31, 1970, 40,000 B/D of imports of No. 2 fuel oil which is manufactured in the Western Hemisphere from crude oil produced in the Western Hemisphere are available for allocation in District I to eligible persons having qualified terminal inputs of No. 2 fuel oil in this district.

(c) (1) Except as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, a person shall be eligible for an allocation of imports into District I of No. 2 fuel oil under paragraph (e) of this section:

(i) If he is in the business in District I of selling No. 2 fuel oil and has under his management and operational control a deep water terminal which is located in District I and in which No. 2 fuel oil is handled, or

(ii) If he is in the business in District I of selling No. 2 fuel oil and has a throughput agreement with a deep water terminal operator in District I who does not have a crude oil import allocation in Districts I–IV.

(2) No person who has an allocation of imports into Districts I–IV of crude oil under sections 9, 10, or 25 of this regulation shall be eligible for an allocation under paragraph (e) of this section.

(d) A person seeking an allocation under paragraph (e) of this section must file an application with the Administrator on such form as he may prescribe no later than fifteen (15) days after the publication of this section in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The application shall disclose such information as the Administrator may deem necessary in such detail as he may require.

(e) (1) Except as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, each eligible applicant under this section shall receive an allocation of imports into District I of No. 2 fuel oil which has been manufactured in the Western Hemisphere from crude oil produced in the Western Hemisphere computed according to the following formula:

$$\frac{\text{Applicant's qualified terminal inputs—average b/d}}{\text{Average b/d of all qualified terminal inputs for the period April 1, 1969 through March 31, 1970}} \times 40{,}000 \text{ average b/d of No. 2 fuel oil}$$

If an applicant eligible under this section has an allocation under section 13 of this regulation of imports into Districts I–IV of finished products for the period January 1, 1970, through December 31, 1970, the allocation computed under the first sentence of this paragraph shall be reduced by the amount of the applicant's allocation of imports of finished products under section 13 expressed as average barrels daily for 184 days.

(2) The Administrator shall allocate among all eligible applicants the quantity of imports resulting from reductions under the second sentence of subparagraph (1) according to the following formula:

$$\frac{\text{Total reductions}}{\text{Total of subparagraph (1) allocations}} \times \text{Applicant's allocation under subparagraph (1)}$$

(f) (1) An eligible applicant may count as qualified terminal inputs quantities of No. 2 fuel oil:

(i) Delivered during the 12-month period ending March 31, 1970, into a deep water terminal in District I which was under his management and operational control or into a deep water terminal with which the eligible applicant had a throughput agreement, if he owned the oil when it was placed in the terminal and if the delivery constituted the first delivery of that oil to a deep water terminal in District I; or

(ii) Which the applicant owned, sold to a Federal agency or to any agency of a State or a political subdivision of a State, and delivered during the 12-month period ending March 31, 1970, to a deep water terminal in District I for the account of such agency, providing such delivery constituted the first delivery of that oil to a deep water terminal in District I; or

(iii) Which was delivered to applicant's deep water terminal in District I as a first delivery into a deep water terminal in District I under a written agreement to purchase such oil and to which, pursuant to such agreement, the applicant took title during the 12-month period ending March 31, 1970, upon withdrawal by him from the terminal.

(2) For the purpose of this paragraph (f), storage of No. 2 fuel oil at a refinery in which the oil was produced or delivery of No. 2 fuel oil into a deep water terminal under the management and operational control of a person who has an allocation of imports of crude oil into Districts I–IV shall not be deemed to be a first delivery to a deep water terminal in District I.

(g) No allocation made pursuant to this section may be sold, assigned, or otherwise transferred. Licenses issued under allocations made pursuant to this section shall permit the importation only of No. 2 fuel oil which is manufactured in the Western Hemisphere from crude oil produced in the Western Hemisphere. No. 2 fuel oil imported under an allocation made pursuant to this section shall be sold for use as fuel in District I.

Title 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

[Docket No. 18588; FCC 70-838]

LICENSE TERMS

Report and order. In the matter of amendment of Parts 81, 83, 85, 87, 89, 91, 93, 95, and 99 of the Commission's rules regarding license terms; Docket No. 18588.

1. The notice of proposed rule making in the above-entitled matter was adopted by the Commission June 25, 1969, and was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER July 2, 1969 (34 F.R. 11148). It provided for the amendment of the various sections of the Safety and Special Radio Services rules, except for the Amateur Radio Service, governing the license term for radio stations. The time for filing comments and reply comments has passed.

2. The proposed rule changes provide generally that licenses may be granted for a period of 5 years from the date of the original issuance of the license, its modification or renewal. The amendments bring the rules into conformity with actual licensing practices which have been followed in most of the Safety and Special Radio Services since the enactment of Public Law 87-439, 76 Stat. 58 in 1962, amending section 307(e) of the Communications Act. The principal purpose of the rule making proposal was to change the licensing practices followed in all of the Public Safety Radio Services except the Special Emergency Radio Service. In the Public Safety Radio Services,[1] a license expiration schedule has been followed whereby all the Public Safety licenses in a State expire on the same month and day, every 4 years, each State having a different expiration date by month and year. New licenses are issued to expire on the State's next scheduled expiration date, except in those instances when the grant would thereby result in a term of less than 1 year. In that event, the State's next succeeding expiration date is used. Applications for modification are granted only for the balance of the unexpired term of the license being modified. When the application for modification is submitted in the last year of the original license term, the State's next succeeding expiration date is utilized to fix the term of the modified license. In our notice of proposed rule making, we contemplated that this schedule would be discontinued.

3. The only comments received in response to the notice of proposed rule making were submitted by the California State Communications Division. California did not oppose the adoption of the proposed amendments, nor their application to the majority of licensees. However, California stated that its situation, and that of other licensees responsible for the administrative maintenance of a large number of licenses, was different and required an exception to the licensing scheme contemplated in the proposed new rules. It was submitted that the grant of full 5-year terms in response to applications for new, modified or renewal licenses, and the discontinuance of the expiration schedule, would make the task of maintaining its own license expiration records more difficult. California believes that it will have to build a "Tickler file" containing 1,500 to 2,000 cards bearing license information, and that the maintenance of such a file will greatly increase the chances for errors and omissions. California proposes that a licensee having a large number of licenses should be allowed to establish a mutually agreeable license renewal schedule with the Commission. In this way, license renewals could be programed over a 5-year period, and, what California describes as the "burdensome peak workload cycles" under which the Commission labors, would be reduced. California contends that programing renewals over a 5-year period with the assistance of a license renewal schedule would accomplish the intent of the rule changes.

4. Our objectives in this rule making proceeding are three-fold: To reduce the amount of time spent processing applications filed to obtain a renewal in any of the Public Safety Radio Services; to conform our rules to the licensing practices followed in the vast majority of our Safety and Special Radio Services; and to make these practices uniform throughout the services. The licensing expiration schedule which California proposes, designed to operate over a 5-year period, would not attain this first objective. While it may be convenient for State and local governments to have all their Public Safety licenses expire according to schedule, the use of the expiration schedule entails a considerable administrative workload to the Commission. Its discontinuance, and the adoption of the practice of issuing modifications for full 5-year terms in the Public Safety Radio Services, will permit the Commission to conduct its business with more dispatch to the benefit of the public. This will result because there will be fewer and less frequent applications filed and processed by granting modifications for 5-year terms, and the number of applications solely to obtain a renewal will be greatly reduced. As we pointed out in our notice of proposed rule making, about one-fourth of all Public Safety licenses are modified each year, and, therefore, over a 4-year period, nearly all of these licenses are modified. Treating an application for a modification as an application for a renewal will substantially reduce the number of applications filed to obtain a renewal; only those licenses which have not been modified during the term of a license will have to be specifically renewed. And as to these, there will be a further reduction in the number of renewal applications which we process each year. Renewals will be required only every 5 years, instead of every 4 years as under the existing expiration schedule. Thus, even aside from the savings effected by granting modifications for full 5-year terms, there would be roughly, a 20 percent reduction in each year's renewal processing workload.

5. The rule governing license terms in the Disaster Communications Service was originally adopted in contemplation of the use of an expiration schedule similar to that used in the Public Safety Radio Services. However, such a schedule has not been utilized in this service, and the practice of issuing licenses has followed that of the other Safety and Special Radio Services. Amending § 99.15 of our rules will conform the rule to the practice actually followed.

6. There will be no change in the licensing practices followed in the Amateur Radio Service. Because certain operating time and code speed requirements must be satisfied before an Amateur license is renewed, applications for modification are not granted for full license terms, but only for the balance of the unexpired term, unless accompanied by a specific request for renewal and a statement indicating satisfaction of the renewal requirements. No change is contemplated in this practice, and no amendments will be made to the Amateur rules.

7. Applications for the minor modification of those stations listed in section 309(b) of the Act and § 1.962 of the rules provide another exception to the general grant of 5-year license terms. The Commission must issue a public notice whenever a new or renewal application is made for one of those listed stations, and also when an application is made for the substantial modification of an existing license for such a station. With the issuance of a public notice, these applications are subject to certain pregrant procedures, including the possibility that a petition to deny the application will be filed, before a grant can be made. Applications for the minor modification of the license of a section 309(b) station are granted, if in order, only for the remainder of the license term, and, as provided by section 309(c), are not placed on public notice. Were we to grant such applications full license terms, this action would, in effect, convert the application to one for renewal as well as for a minor modification. The renewal element would require the issuance of a public notice and make the application subject to all of the pregrant delays associated with the 309(c) procedures. Given the limited nature of the application, this would serve no useful purpose. Therefore, we will continue to grant applications for the minor modification of a section 309(b) station only for the unexpired term of the license. However, when such an applicant also requests a new full term—a renewal, in other words—then the application will be treated as one for modification and renewal, and a public notice will be issued.

8. In view of the foregoing: It is ordered, Pursuant to the authority contained in sections 4(i) and 303(r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, that, effective September 15, 1970, Parts 81, 83, 85, 87, 89, 91, 93, 95 and 99 of the Commission's rules are amended as set forth below. It is further ordered, That this proceeding is terminated.

AUTHORITY: The provisions of this Part 80 issued under secs. 103(e), 111, and 508 of the Federal Coal Mine Health and Safety Act of 1969 (Public Law 91-173).

Subpart A—Definitions

§ 80.1 Definitions.

As used in this Part 80:

(a) "Coal mine" means an area of land and all structures, facilities, machinery, tools, equipment, shafts, slopes, tunnels, excavations, and other property, real or personal, placed upon, under, or above, the surface of such land by any person, used in, or to be used in, or resulting from, the work of extracting in such area bituminous coal, lignite, or anthracite from its natural deposits in the earth by any means or method, and the work of preparing the coal so extracted, and includes custom coal preparation facilities.

(b) "Accident" includes (1) the death of, or any injury to, any person (whether or not time is lost); (2) a mine explosion, mine ignition, mine fire, or mine inundation; (3) an unintentional roof fall (except in abandoned panels or in areas which are inaccessible or unsafe for inspection; (4) any collapse of a highwall in a surface mine; (5) an unintentional or incomplete detonation of explosives, including blasting agents; (6) a coal outburst; (7) the entrapment of any person; (8) damage to shafts or ventilation facilities or to hoisting or haulage facilities; (9) an event at a mine which causes the death of, or bodily injury to, persons other than persons on the mine property; or (10) any other event that could have resulted in death or injury had any person been in the immediate area.

(c) "Work injury" means any injury or occupational disease suffered by a person which arises out of and in the course of his work.

(d) "Fatal injury" means any work injury resulting in death regardless of the time intervening between injury and death.

(e) "Nonfatal injury" means any work injury which does not result in death but which either results in any permanent impairment to the injured person or causes the injured person to lose one full day or more from work after the day of injury. As used in this definition "permanent impairment" means total incapacitation of the injured person for any gainful work, or total or partial loss of, or loss of use of, any member or function of the body.

(f) "Disabling injury" means either a fatal injury or a nonfatal injury.

(g) "Other injury" means a work injury other than a disabling injury which requires treatment by a physician, or hospitalization for observation, or assignment to another regularly established job, or restricts work or motion. However, "other injury" does not include any injury requiring only first aid treatment by a person who is not a physician.

Subpart B—Notification of Accidents

§ 80.10 Scope.

Section 103(e) of the Federal Coal Mine Health and Safety Act of 1969 (30 U.S.C. 813(e)), requires that in the event of any accident occurring in a coal mine, the operator shall notify the Secretary of the Interior thereof and shall take appropriate measures to prevent the destruction of any evidence which would assist in investigating the cause or causes thereof. The regulations in this Subpart B provide for the immediate notification of the Bureau of Mines, Department of the Interior, of the occurrence of any accident described in § 80.11, in order to afford the Bureau an opportunity to conduct a prompt investigation. The submission of reports which are required by Subpart D of this part will constitute adequate notification of the Bureau with respect to accidents other than those described in § 80.11.

§ 80.11 Notification by operator.

The operator of a coal mine shall, using the fastest available means of communication, immediately notify the District or Subdistrict Coal Mine Safety Office of the Bureau of Mines of the District in which the mine is located of the occurrence of any of the following accidents:

(a) A fatal injury;

(b) A serious nonfatal injury that the operator or a medical officer believes could result in the death of the injured person;

(c) A death occurring on mine property;

(d) A mine fire not extinguished within 30 minutes;

(e) A mine explosion;

(f) An ignition of gas or dust or combination thereof;

(g) A mine inundation;

(i) A fall of roof, face, or rib of sufficient magnitude to restrict ventilation or the passage of men on active working sections and a fall of roof at or above the anchorage zone when roof bolts are used for control of roof;

(j) Any collapse of a highwall in a surface mine;

(k) An unintentional or incomplete detonation of explosives, including blasting agents;

(l) The entrapment of any person;

(m) Damage to shafts and ventilation facilities;

(n) Damage to hoisting or haulage facilities used for the transportation of men, when such damage interferes with its use for the transportation of men; or

(o) Any physical event at a mine which causes death to persons other than persons on the mine property.

§ 80.12 Investigation by Bureau of Mines.

Following any notification received in accordance with § 80.11, the Coal Mine Health and Safety District or Subdistrict Manager shall determine whether an investigation of the accident will be conducted by the Bureau of Mines. If he determines that an investigation will be conducted, he shall promptly advise the operator of the approximate date and time of such investigation and instruct him, to the extent compatible with rescue and recovery work, to take appropriate measures to preserve any evidence which might assist in determining the cause or causes of the accident.

Subpart C—Operator's Investigation and Records of Accidents

§ 80.20 Scope.

Section 111(a) of the Federal Coal Mine Health and Safety Act of 1969 (30 U.S.C. 821(a)), requires that all accidents shall be investigated by the operator or his agent to determine the cause and the means of preventing a recurrence, and that records of such accidents and investigations shall be kept, and the information made available to the Secretary or his representative, and the appropriate State agency. Section 111(a) of the Act also requires that such records shall be open for inspection by interested persons and that the records shall include man-hours worked and shall be reported for periods determined by the Secretary of the Interior. The regulations in this Subpart C prescribe the nature and the extent of the information to be included in such records, and the period and manner in which reports of accidents so recorded shall be submitted to the Secretary.

§ 80.21 Investigation.

The operator's investigation shall develop sufficient information to pinpoint in detail the initiating cause and all subsequent or following events which contributed to or resulted in the accident. Whenever possible working notes made during the course of the investigation should be retained as a part of the record.

§ 80.22 Written record.

(a) The written record of each investigation of an accident shall contain:

(1) The identification number of the record of investigation entered in the first column of the "Daily Ledger: Coal-Mine Accidents" required to be maintained by § 80.31.

(2) The date and hour upon which the accident occurred.

(3) The date and hour the investigation was started.

(4) The name of the person or persons who made the investigation.

(5) The specific location of the accident and a description of the location.

(6) Names, occupation at the time of the accident, and pertinent occupational experience for all persons who received disabling injuries and other injuries.

(8) A description of the steps taken, or to be taken in the future to avoid a recurrence, including, where appropriate, suggestions for modification or improvement in operating rules and regulations, working rules and regulations, safety standards, modification of equipment, training of personnel, or any other changes needed to prevent recurrence of the accident.

(b) Additional records shall be kept as follows of all unintentional roof falls of a size that would restrict ventilation or the passage of men:

(1) A plot of the roof fall on a mine map.

(2) A rough sketch or sketches of suitable scale showing the dimensions of the fall, the type and location of the roof support used, the type and thickness of the strata above the coalbed, and a statement of the depth of overburden in the affected area. Abnormalities in the immediate roof structure also shall be located and described.

§ 80.23 Maintenance of records.

The written records of investigations of accidents required by this Subpart C shall be maintained at the mine for a period of 3 years from the date of the accident and shall be open for inspection by interested persons.

§ 80.24 Reporting of written records.

A report of the accidents recorded as required in this Subpart C shall be made to the Bureau of Mines in the manner described in Subpart D of this part.

Subpart D—Operator's Reports to the Bureau of Mines

§ 80.30 Scope.

Pursuant to section 111(b) of the Federal Coal Mine Health and Safety Act (30 U.S.C. 821(b)), the regulations in this Subpart D prescribe additional records of accidents to be maintained, the information to be recorded therein, and the time and manner in which information on accidents is to be reported to the Secretary of the Interior.

§ 80.31 Daily ledger.

(a) The operator of a coal mine shall maintain at the mine office a "Daily ledger: Coal-Mine Accidents" (Form 6–1498) in which there shall be recorded for each accident, by date of occurrence, specified information with respect to the accident. The ledger form is organized to facilitate the compilation of summary data for the quarterly report required by § 80.32. A daily ledger shall be open for inspection by interested persons and shall be maintained at the mine for a period of 3 years from the date of the accident which constitutes the last entry in that ledger.

(b) The first copy of Form 6–1498 will be mailed to each operator. Additional copies may be obtained, as needed, from District and Subdistrict offices in the Coal Mine Health and Safety Districts of the Bureau of Mines.

§ 80.32 Quarterly report.

(a) For each calendar quarter, the operator of a coal mine shall prepare and submit to the Bureau of Mines a report on Form 6–1459Q, "Operator's Quarterly Report of Coal-Mine Accidents" containing man-hours worked and a summary of the information on all accidents recorded in the daily ledgers maintained as required by § 80.31. The report shall be filed with the Bureau on or before the 15th day of the month following the expiration of a quarter—that is, April 15, July 15, October 15, and January 15.

(b) A copy of Form 6–14590 will be mailed to each operator at the end of each reporting period.

§ 80.33 Individual injury report.

The operator of a coal mine shall file individual injury reports with the Bureau of Mines as follows:

(b) On or before the 15th day of each month the operator shall file a report on Form 6–1420 "Employer's Report of Coal Mine Injury" with respect to each nonfatal injury that occurred at the mine during the immediately preceding month.

(c) In the event the disability of an injured person extends beyond the end of the month in which the injury occurs, the operator shall report the termination of the injury either in Part A (2) of Form 6–1423AM, "Injuries and Employment, Bituminous Coal and Lignite Mines" or in Part A(2) of Form 6–1420AM, "Injuries and Employment, Pennsylvania Anthracite Mines," whichever is appropriate, for the month when the injured person returns to work. (Section 80.34 covers reports on Form 6–1423 AM and Form 6–1420AM.)

(d) Copies of Form 6–1420 will be mailed to each operator at least once a year.

§ 80.34 Summary reports of injuries and employment.

(a) On or before the 15th day of each month, the operator of a coal mine in which, during the operation of the mine, 20 men or more were employed on any calendar day shall file with the Bureau of Mines a report for the immediately preceding month either on Form 6–1423 AM "Injuires and Employment, Bituminous Coal and Lignite Mines" or on Form 6–1420AM "Injuries and Employment, Pennsylvania Anthracite Mines," whichever is appropriate. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

The hearing on the record of which the proposed amendments, as hereinafter set forth, to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order as amended, were formulated, was conducted at Paducah, Ky., on July 9, 1970, pursuant to notice thereof which was issued June 26, 1970 (35 F.R. 10695).

The material issues on the record of the hearing relate to:

2. Whether an emergency exists which requires the omission of a recommended decision.

FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

The following findings and conclusions on the material issues are based on evidence presented at the hearing and the record thereof:

1. The order should be amended to provide that, in the case of a supply plant operated by a cooperative association, the milk which the association causes to be delivered to other pool plants directly from the farms of member producers should be considered a receipt at the supply plant of the association for the purpose of determining the qualification of such plant as a pool plant. Further the cooperative association which operates it also must have delivered to pool distributing plants during the month, or during the immediately preceding 12-month period, at least two-thirds of the total volume of producer milk delivered to all plants by producers who are members of such cooperative association. Such total shall include both direct-delivered milk and the milk moved to pool plants from the cooperative association plant to be qualified.

The cooperative association, which represents all the producers supplying the Paducah market at the present time, proposed that a supply plant operated by a cooperative association be a pool plant if during the month, or during the immediately preceding 12-month period, the total volume of milk received at other pool plants from producers who are members of such association, plus the milk moved to such plants from the plant of the cooperative association, is at least two-thirds of the total volume of producer milk delivered to all plants by producers who are members of such cooperative association.

The association operates a plant which has receiving and storage facilities at Paducah, Ky. Here the milk which is in excess of the requirements of pool distributing plants is assembled for transfer to nonpool plants for use in manufactured dairy products. Usually, such milk is merely reloaded from small pickup tanks to larger tanks on the premises of the plant. On other occasions, the milk is received in the plant and later reloaded for delivery to manufacturing plants. Very little milk actually is moved from the association plant to the distributing plants in the market even though it provides a supply-balancing function in the Paducah market.

The association witness stated that it is becoming increasingly difficult for the cooperative association to insure that the plant will continue to meet the shipping requirements for a pool supply plant as set forth in the order.

There are two reasons for this. The pool distributing plants are scattered throughout the marketing area. Except for one small plant in Paducah, they are closer to the producers' farms than is the association plant. Thus, it is more economical to move directly from the farm to the handlers' plants than it is to haul it to Paducah, receive it at the cooperative association plant, reloaded it and haul it back to distributing plants closer to where the milk was produced.

Another compelling factor is that three of the four pool distributing plants are not equipped to receive substantial amounts of milk from another plant. Two of these plants are very small and handle less than a tank load of milk per day. A third plant is so located that it is extremely difficult to maneuver a large tank truck to a point where it can be unloaded into the plant. As a result, only occasional loads of supplemental milk are moved from the cooperative supply plant to the plants of other handlers.

In past years, the association was able to keep its plant qualified by receiving some milk there and moving it to other pool plants. Such a procedure is no longer feasible because the plants which received most of such milk have ceased operations. Four former pool distributing plants have closed since May 1968. One plant closed in that month. Two others ceased operation in 1969. In June 1970 another large plant ceased to bottle milk. Thus, the opportunity for the association to qualify its plants by meeting the present shipping requirements has been severely curtailed.

The plant nevertheless serves a very useful function for the market. All the excess supplies are received or assembled at the plant for movement to manufacturing plants. Because only two manufacturing plants are within reasonable hauling distance, both of them located well beyond the limits of the Paducah milkshed, it is necessary that the milk be assembled before being moved to these plants.

A witness for the proponent cooperative association testified that not only is it impractical to divert milk directly from the farm to these plants because of the distances involved, but also that the plants are reluctant, and at times unwilling, to accept milk in the small tank trucks used for farm pickup. Thus, the association has no choice but to assemble the milk at Paducah and reload it into larger tanks for delivery to these plants.

During the fall and winter months, the excess milk of the market is sometimes moved to other markets for Class I use. The local cooperative association is a division of Dairymen, Inc., which has members who are producers in several markets in the southeastern part of the United States. When shortages occur in one of these markets, Dairymen, Inc., calls on its divisions in other markets to ship their excess milk to make up the deficit.

The witness for the cooperative association stated that, in view of the limited shipments from the cooperative plant to other pool plants in the Paducah market, a situation easily could develop where the plant might supply more milk to pool plants under some other order, and thus become subject to regulation under such order rather than under the Paducah order. He stated that this would create a chaotic situation, particularly if the plant became subject to different orders in succeeding months. He also expressed the fear that producers would be adversely affected if such a shift of regulation occurred during a month when the so-called "Louisville Plan" was in operation.

It was his contention that the cooperative plant should be subject to regulation under the Paducah order as long as the association continues to supply the major portion of its producer members' milk to Paducah regulated handlers, and its shipments to other order markets are occasional and incidental to the handling of the reserve supplies of the Paducah market.

The primary function of the plants, as previously indicated, is to serve as a balancing and surplus disposal plant for the Paducah market. Its shipments to other markets are incidental to and an integral part of the orderly disposition of the reserve supply in the Paducah market. In view of the plant's association with the Paducah market and the fact that it is operated by a cooperative association whose producer members constitute the entire source of the supply for this market, it is reasonable that the plant continue to be a pool plant under the Paducah order as long as the association operating it continues to be a principal supplier of the Paducah market.

While the proposed amendment submitted by the cooperative association would insure the plant's continued pooling in Paducah when not supplying milk to other markets, it would not prevent the plant from becoming subject to regulation under some other order if its shipments to plants under the other order were to exceed the actual movements of milk from the Paducah plant to the pool plants of other Paducah handlers.

Most of the orders in the southeast, to which milk might be moved, provide that a supply plant shall be subject to regulation when it meets the specified shipping requirements of the particular order and delivers a greater percentage of its milk to plants defined as pool plants under such order than is delivered to pool plants under the other order to which it might be subject. In view of the limited volume of milk actually moving through the Paducah plant, even small shipments of milk to other order plants could result in a shift of the regulation of such plant from Paducah. It is concluded therefore that the milk which is delivered directly to pool plants from the farms of member producers shall be considered a receipt at the cooperative association supply plant for the purposes of qualifying such plant as a pool plant in Paducah. Under such a provision, it would be unlikely that its shipments to other markets would result in the plant becoming a pool plant under some other order as long as the current supply of producer milk of the association continues to be primarily associated with the Paducah market.

The cooperative association witness stated that the two-thirds requirement should apply to milk received either in the current month or in the immediately preceding 12-month period. He stated that this is necessary to insure continued pooling of the cooperative association plant in the event unforeseen circumstances make it impossible to meet the two-thirds requirement in a particular month. He pointed out that four pool distributing plants have ceased operating within the past 2-year period. Although he had no knowledge of the likelihood of any other plant closing, such a possibility always exists.

He also pointed out that the remaining plants distribute milk over a wide area, including portions of adjoining milk marketing areas. If one of such plants closed or became subject to regulation under an other order, it might be impossible for the association to meet the two-thirds requirement in the month in which this occurred. Permitting continued pooling of the association plant on the basis of its performance in the preceding 12-month period will promote orderly marketing, since it will afford the association time to adjust its operations to the changed marketing conditions.

No testimony was offered in opposition to the proposed amendment.

2. The due and timely execution of the functions of the Secretary in this proceeding does not unavoidably require the omission of a recommended decision.

The cooperative association urged the omission of a recommended decision. It indicated that it was imperative that the order be amended as soon as possible to insure the continued pooling of the association plant. It pointed out that the months for qualifying a supply plant run from August through January. It felt the amendment should be made effective August 1 or soon thereafter to insure the plant's continued pool status.

It can be expected that the plant will continue to be a pool plant for the month of August and, unless it has substantial shipments of milk to pool plants under other orders in August, will likewise continue to be a pool plant for the month of September.

In these circumstances, it appears there is no emergency which would justify the omission of a recommended decision.

Rulings on Proposed Findings and Conclusions

Briefs and proposed findings and conclusions were filed on behalf of certain interested parties. These briefs, proposed findings and conclusions and the evidence in the record were considered in making the findings and conclusions set forth above. To the extent that the suggested findings and conclusions filed by interested parties are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions set forth herein, the requests to make such findings or reach such conclusions are denied for the reasons previously stated in this decision.

GENERAL FINDINGS

The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) The tentative marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act;

(b) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the Act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The tentative marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

RECOMMENDED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER AMENDING THE ORDER

The recommended marketing agreement is not included in this decision because the regulatory provisions thereof would be the same as those contained in the order, as hereby proposed to be amended. The following order amending the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Paducah, Kentucky, marketing area is recommended as the detailed and appropriate means by which the foregoing conclusions may be carried out:

Revise § 1099.8(b) by adding at the end thereof the following:

§ 1099.8 Pool plant.

* * * * *

(b) * * * And provided further, That in the case of a supply plant operated by a cooperative association which supplies to other pool plants at least two-thirds of the producer milk of its producer members (including both the milk delivered directly from the farms of member producers and that delivered from the plant of the association) delivered to all plants during the current month or during the immediately preceding 12-month period, the milk which such association causes to be delivered to the pool plants of other handlers in its capacity as a handler pursuant to § 1099.10 (e), shall be considered as having been received first at the plant of such cooperative association for the purpose of qualifying such plant as a pool plant pursuant to this paragraph.

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[14 CFR Part 399]

[Docket No. 21866-1; PSDR-25]

TREATMENT OF FLIGHT EQUIPMENT DEPRECIATION AND RESIDUAL VALUES FOR RATE PURPOSES

Proposed Statement of Policy

Notice is hereby given that the Civil Aeronautics Board is proposing to amend Part 399 of the regulations by the addition of a new § 399.44, which would establish the Board's policy in the treatment of flight equipment depreciation and residual values for ratemaking purposes. The proposed amendment and a statement explaining its principal features are set forth below. The rules are proposed under the authority of sections 204 and 404 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended (72 Stat. 743 and 760; 49 U.S.C. 1324 and 1374), and section 553 of the Administrative Procedure Act (80 Stat. 378, 381; 5 U.S.C. 553).

Interested persons may participate in the proposed rule making through submission of twelve (12) copies of written data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto, addressed to the Docket Section, Civil Aeronautics Board, Washington, D.C. 20428. All relevant matter in communications received on or before September 9, 1970, and reply comments received on or before September 23, 1970, will be considered by the Board before taking action. Each party to the Domestic Passenger Fare Investigation, Docket 21866, shall serve a copy of its response hereto and of its reply comments on all other parties to that investigation. Upon receipt by the Board, copies of such communications will be available for examination by interested persons in the Docket Section of the Board, Room 712 Universal Building, 1825 Connecticut Avenue NW., Washington, D.C.

Dated: August 6, 1970.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

[SEAL] HARRY J. ZINK,
Secretary.

Explanatory statement. This rule making proceeding constitutes Phase 1 of the Domestic Passenger Fare Investigation.[1] The Board has previously determined, without objection, that three of the phases in that proceeding should be handled through rule making proceedings. The issue of flight equipment depreciation, encompassed herein, is the subject of one of these phases to be so processed. The purpose of this proceeding, therefore, is to establish the appropriate service lives and residual values for aircraft flight equipment for purposes of determining passenger fare levels. This is proposed to be accomplished by an amendment to Part 399, the Board's policy statements.[2]

The Board last formally considered depreciation standards in connection with the over-all fare level in the General Passenger-Fare Investigation decided in 1960.[3] In that case, we established the service lives for piston-powered and jet aircraft at seven and 10 years respectively, with a 5-year service life for jet engines. A 15-percent residual value was approved for all aircraft and engines, except that a 5-percent residual was established for jet engines. The 1960 standards are clearly obsolete. Indeed, for a number of years, the Board has used significantly longer service lives for jet-powered aircraft than those established in the General Passenger-Fare Investigation.[4] These longer service lives reflect the favorable obsolescence experience of jet transport type aircraft, as well as the introduction of new and improved aircraft types. Our intention, therefore, is to adopt new depreciation standards which more accurately reflect the reasonably foreseeable service lives and residual values of the aircraft types employed by the air carriers.

Our objective in fixing depreciation rates is to come as close as possible to correlating depreciation charges with the actual decline in value. Ideally, depreciation rates should be established at levels which result in neither gain nor loss upon disposition of the aircraft. Capital gains upon disposition mean that excessive depreciation has been charged the rate payer, whereas capital losses are indicative of noncompensatory depreciation charges, and impose a financial burden on the carriers.

The amount of depreciation accrued each year in relation to the asset cost is dependent on the combination of the service life and the residual value assigned. The residual value is the predetermined portion of the asset cost excluded from depreciation. It is intended to represent a fair and reasonable estimate of recoverable value as at the end of the service life of the asset. The service life is the period between the date the asset is placed in service and its date of estimated retirement.

As indicated in appendix A,[5] a combination of a 12-year service life with a 15-percent residual value results in an annual depreciation charge of 7.1 percent of the total asset cost. The same result would ensue from a combination of a 14-year service life with no residual value assigned. However, if the 14-year service life were coupled with a 15 percent residual value, the annual depreciation charge would drop to 6.1 percent of the total asset cost, a reduction of approximately 14 percent in depreciation charges from that computed under the 12 year/15 percent residual policy.

Unfortunately, there is no scientific basis for accurately projecting either the service life or the residual value of any given aircraft type. Aircraft do not deteriorate in a physical sense. Under normal maintenance, they can be kept in an operational state for indefinite periods of time. Thus, depreciation is essentially caused by the loss in market value of the aircraft attributable to technological obsolescence factors. This loss in value is affected by such matters as the development of new aircraft types which are more economical or more attractive to the public; the availability of secondary markets for used aircraft types which may be obsolete in the hands of the original carrier but are useful to others; supply-demand relationships at any given period of time; and monetary inflation. Inherent in the interplay of these and other factors is the presence of so many variables that only a rough forecast of service lives and residual values is attainable. And this forecast must to a large degree be predicated on judgment.

[1] That investigation is an omnibus inquiry into the domestic passenger fare level and structure, and has been broken down into a number of phases, each involving specific substantive issues. See Order 70-2-121, Feb. 26, 1970.

[2] The Board does not contemplate that there will be any necessity for an evidentiary hearing on this issue. However, any interested person who believes that a hearing is required should support his request with the evidence which he intends to submit at such hearing. All parties should be on notice that in the event that an evidentiary hearing is held, its scope will be confined to the introduction into evidence of the materials contained in this notice, the comments submitted in response, and cross-examination thereon, except that the examiner may determine that additional evidence is required in order to assure a fair hearing.

For purposes of this notice, we have given great weight to the judgment of the carriers themselves, as reflected in their own depreciation policies. In the past, the carriers' policies have been conservative in the sense that depreciation rates have more than covered actual depreciation as measured by the decline in market value. As shown in appendix B,[5] the trunkline and local service carriers have realized profits of over $100 million on retirement of operating property during the 10-year period from 1960 to 1969. This sum reflects only the amounts reported in CAB Account 8181.1, Capital Gains on Retirement of Operating Property. Additional gains, applicable to the retirement of equipment withdrawn from operations prior to disposal, i.e., nonoperating property and equipment, are reported along with gains and losses on disposition of the securities of others in a separate account, CAB Account 8181.2, Capital Gains and Losses—Other. In addition, some carriers defer gains related to installment sales, taking such gains into income concurrently with the receipt of installment payments from the purchasers. One of the major trunkline carriers, alone, had a balance of $13.7 million in deferred gains on installment sales as of December 31, 1969.

The carriers' current depreciation practices are summarized in appendix C.[5] As indicated therein, the trunkline and local service carriers are currently booking multiengine turbine aircraft depreciation over service lives ranging from 10 to 16 years, with residual values in the range of 10 to 15 percent, with some exceptions.[6]

The terms of long-term leases are also indicative of the judgment of carriers and financial experts as to the reasonable service lives of aircraft. As shown in appendix D,[5] the trunkline and local service carriers were leasing a considerable quantity of aircraft on a long-term basis as of December 31, 1969. A total of 367 aircraft are included in this appendix. Excluded from the listing are an additional 27 aircraft on lease to the carriers for periods ranging from 4 months to 8 years. The lease periods of the aircraft covered in the appendix range from 10 to 18 years, with a weighted average term of 14.2 years.

Aircraft not in operation at year-end 1969, but then on order, include the Boeing 747, the McDonnell Douglas DC–10, and the Lockheed L–1011. The Boeing 747 is a 376 passenger aircraft (in typical airline two-class service configuration) powered by four engines. An all-economy seating version can accommodate 490 passengers. The DC–10 and the L–1011 aircraft are both powered by three engines, and each will provide approximately 255 passengers in dual-class configuration.

At the end of 1969, a total of 74 B–747's were on order for the domestic trunkline carriers, with a delivery schedule of 45 in 1970, 25 in 1971, and four in 1972. This group of carriers also had on order 83 DC–10's and 89 L–1011's, with initial delivery scheduled for mid-1971.

At year-end 1969, Trans World reported that it had not determined depreciation rates for the B–747's scheduled for delivery in early 1970. However, we note from data reported by Pan American that this carrier is depreciating this type aircraft for Form 41 reporting purposes over a service life of 16 years, with a residual value of 4.4 percent of cost value. Recently,[7] Pan American was granted an exemption relating to a lease transaction involving the B–747 aircraft over a term of 16 years.

Conclusions. In light of presently available information and based on our current best judgment, we are proposing standards for the depreciation life and residual value of multiengine turbine aircraft types for ratemaking purposes, as follows:

	Service life in years	Residual value—percent of cost
Turbofan equipment:
4-engine	14	15
3-engine	14	15
2-engine	14	15
Turbojet equipment:
4-engine	12	15
2-engine	10	15
Turboprop equipment:
4-engine	10	15
2-engine	10	15
Wide-body equipment:
4-engine	16	15
3-engine	16	15

In reaching our decision to set the depreciable life of the various equipment groupings for ratemaking purposes, we have given due consideration to service lives assigned by the individual carriers for Form 41 reporting purposes, the terms of the leases that the carriers have in effect at the end of calendar year 1969, and the obsolescence factor related to the development of new generation equipment.

In regard to residual value, there is significantly less agreement among the carriers as to currently assigned valuations. We are of the view that a 15 percent residual value should be used in all instances. We base this judgment in the light of the consistently high value of equipment disposed of in the last 10 years, persistent inflationary factors in the economy, and a rising cost/price pattern for sophisticated aircraft.

We would expect that carriers commenting on the proposed residual values would include in their communications factual data, by aircraft types, relating to all fully depreciated aircraft, and aircraft owned for a period of at least 8 years, which were sold during the 10-year period from 1960 to 1969. For each aircraft sold, indicate the airframe license number, date acquired, date sold, years owned (e.g., 10.75 years), depreciable service life, cost value at time of sale (including value of engines and other flight equipment), net book value, amount realized, gain or loss, and the amount realized as a percentage of the cost value.

Finally, consistent with our established policies for commercial ratemaking purposes, the depreciation charges should be based on the conventional straight-line method of accrual and adjustments of reported data should be made over the entire life of the equipment involved.

Proposed rule. It is proposed to amend Part 399, Statements of General Policy (14 CFR Part 399), by the addition of a new § 399.44, as follows:

§ 399.44 Flight equipment depreciation and residual values.

(a) For ratemaking purposes, it is the policy of the Board that flight equipment depreciation will be based on the conventional straight-line method of accrual, employing the service lives and residual values set forth below:

	Service life in years	Residual value—percent of cost
Turbofan equipment:
4-engine	14	15
3-engine	14	15
2-engine	14	15
Turbo-jet equipment:
4-engine	12	15
2-engine	10	15
Turboprop equipment:
4-engine	10	15
2-engine	10	15
Wide-body equipment:
4-engine	16	15
3-engine	16	15

(b) For ratemaking purposes (other than subsidy determinations), adjustments of depreciation accrued on a carrier's books will be made over the service life of the equipment involved.

[6] TWA and United assign a stated residual value (generally $100,000 per airframe) rather than express the residual value as a percent of the cost value. By relating the stated residual values to cost values, these carriers have, in effect, assigned residual values ranging from 1 to 3 percent to the cost values.

[Docket No. 18931; FCC 70–834]

AVIATION SERVICES

Channel Spacing To Provide Additional Frequencies

In the matter of amendment of Parts 2 and 87 of the rules to provide additional frequencies in the 128.825–132.025 MHz band by permitting the use of 25 kHz channel spacing; Docket No. 18931, RM–1507.

1. Aeronautical Radio, Inc. (ARINC) has requested changes in §§ 87.67(b) and 87.295(b) of the rules to authorize a 6A9 emission and, in effect, to double the number of assignable frequencies in the 128.825–132.025 MHz band. ARINC provides radio communication services primarily to the air transport industry and is the licensee of numerous enroute radio stations operating on these frequencies. ARINC proposes that the number of frequencies be doubled by permitting the use of 25 kHz channel spacing rather than the 50 kHz now authorized.

2. In support of its request for 25 kHz spacing ARINC asserts that additional aeronautical channels are necessary to fill its functions and that "channel splitting" as has been used in the maritime, and land mobile services should now be applied to the Aviation Radio Service to provide the additional communications capability required by the air transport industry. ARINC further asserts that current production model aircraft being delivered to the U.S. airlines are now equipped with equipment capable of operating on channels spaced 25 kHz and that considerable interest has been engendered to exploit this capability.

3. In support of its request for rule changes to permit the use of a 6A9 emission ARINC asserts that data link operations is an accepted fact within Government and non-Government agencies and will replace many functional requirements now fulfilled by voice communication. ARINC also states that this type of operation can assimilate the ever increasing communications requirements resulting from the introduction of highly sophisticated aircraft in the aeronautical community.

4. We agree with ARINC that this may be the time to begin channel splitting in the aeronautical radio service and therefore believe that the requested rule changes to provide for 25 kHz channel spacing in the aeronautical bands here involved should be proposed.

5. With respect to ARINC's request for rule changes to permit a 6A9 emission, we are not persuaded that there is now, or will soon be, a sufficient need for this kind of emission on the subject frequencies. Furthermore, ARINC has not furnished sufficient specific information as to the precise type of emission [1] or how or under what circumstances it would be used so that an evaluation could be made of its feasibility and of the extent to which interference may be caused to voice communications on these frequencies that are allocated internationally for aeronautical safety purposes. We are, therefore, reluctant, on the basis of the information now before us, to propose a rule change that would permit 6A9 emission. On the other hand, we are unwilling to conclude that there might not now be a need for additional emissions on these or other aeronautical frequencies in the interest of more effective utilization of the spectrum, provided this can be achieved without degradation of the service and undue interference to other communications. There may be a need to develop or refine our policy in this respect. Therefore, comments from interested parties are invited.

6. The proposed amendment to the rules, as set forth below, is issued pursuant to authority contained in section 4(1), and 303 (b), (g) and (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

7. Pursuant to applicable procedures set forth in § 1.415 of the Commission's rules, interested persons may file comments on or before September 14, 1970, and reply comments on or before September 24, 1970. All relevant and timely comments and reply comments will be considered by the Commission before final action is taken in this proceeding. In reaching its decision in this proceeding, the Commission may also take into account other relevant information before it, in addition to the specific comments invited by this notice.

8. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.419 of the Commission's rules, an original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs, or comments filed shall be furnished the Commission.

§ 2.106 [Amended]

1. In Part 2, § 2.106 is amended by changing the footnote reference in column 10 for the frequency band 128.825–132 MHz from NG34 to NG____, and a new NG footnote is added to read as follows:

NG____ The spacing between frequency assignments in this band shall be 25 kHz: Provided, however, That transmitters designated to operate on a bandwidth of 50 kHz and type accepted for use in this band prior to January 1, 1971, may continue to be used until January 1, 1976. The first and last assignable frequencies are those indicated in column 10.

INDUSTRIAL AND LAND TRANSPORTATION RADIO SERVICES

Allocation and Assignment of Frequencies

In the matter of amendment of Parts 2, 91, and 93 of the Commission's rules, concerning the allocation and assignment of frequencies in the 72–76 MHz band; Docket No. 18932, RM–1135, RM–1068.

1. The Association of American Railroads (AAR), and the Special Industrial Radio Services Association, Inc. (SIRSA), have filed petitions requesting amendment of the rules to permit operation of low power, portable remote control devices in the 72–76 MHz band in the Railroad and Special Industrial Radio Services. In support of its request for rule making (RM 1068), the AAR states that a need now exists for the use of radio in connection with the remote control of switching operations in yards and terminals. Signaling devices of this type are not compatible with ordinary voice communications and therefore cannot be operated in conjunction with existing yard and terminal radio systems on the same or adjacent frequencies in use in the same or nearby yards. The need for these systems relates to both the remote control operation of locomotives solely by radio and to the remote control of the locomotive by means of positive signals sent to the engineer in the cab.

Examples of the use which remote control could be used include the safer coupling of cars by locomotives and also directing locomotives through hazardous or obstructed terminal driveways by the operator after he has altered pedestrian and vehicular traffic.

2. The SIRSA, in its request for rule making (RM–1135), argues that those eligible in the Special Industry Radio Service are also finding an increasing number of applications in which the use of low power portable remote control devices could significantly enhance the safety of both lives and property. Included are devices used in the mining industry for the remote control of railroad locomotives which switch and dump train coal cars in a coal mining operation or the control equipment used to pour concrete from the large buckets on dam construction projects. However, SIRSA states that the present restrictions imposed upon the Special Industrial use of the frequencies in the 72–76 MHz range have severely limited the employment of these frequencies for control devices.

3. The Association of Maximum Service Telecasters, Inc. (AMST) filed a statement taking no position for or against allocation of the frequencies for the purpose contained in AAR's petition. However, it urges that if the rules are so amended, that adequate safeguards be afforded against interference to television service on channels 4 and 5 as the Commission has provided in other proceedings. In this regard, in 1964, the Commission amended its rules to provide for manufacturers use of frequencies in the 72–76 MHz band for apparatus and equipment control, safety communications, and certain other purposes. This use involves low or so-called "flea" powered (1 w input) radio transmitters, and all use of the frequencies is subject to the condition that no harmful interference be caused to reception on television channels 4 or 5. Report and order in Docket No. 15131, FCC 64–221, 29 F.R. 3703.

4. In the aforesaid proceeding, the Commission refused to include other radio services in the proposal because it was not persuaded at that time to undertake "* * * any wholesale exploitation of the subject bands by 'flea' powered users." The Commission went on to state, however, that "At some later date (it) may consider the advisability of expanding 'flea power' operations, including the possibility of inter-service sharing of frequencies devoted to 'flea' power use." In view of the extensive and successful use of "flea" powered operations by the manufacturers, and the fact that harmful interference to television reception on channels 4 and 5 has not materialized to any extent, it appears desirable at this time to expand the availability of these facilities to licensees in other radio services. In so concluding, we note SIRSA's contention that equipment manufacturers have now developed sophisticated equipment capable of performing safety oriented functions on low power, portable remote control devices.

5. Accordingly, we propose to amend our rules as follows:

(a) Ten channels in the 72–76 MHz band now available exclusively to the Manufacturers Radio Service for low power (1 w) use would be made available also to the Railroad and the Special Industrial Radio Services for the same type use.

(b) Because of the safety oriented uses involved, applications for use of the frequencies will be required to show evidence of frequency coordination between the three services involved.

(c) All transmitters operating on the subject frequencies would be required to operate solely within the boundaries or confines of the yard or terminal or area of heavy construction. Because changes in the area of radio operation may adversely affect safety operations of other licensees using these frequencies, the Commission will issue all licenses for specific and limited areas. Accordingly, a new application accompanied by evidence of frequency coordination will have to be submitted and approved by the Commission before operations can be commenced at a new construction site.

(d) Tone, as well as voice transmissions will be permitted and multiple frequency systems may be authorized.

(e) Use of the frequencies will be subject to the condition that no harmful interference be caused to reception of television channels 4 or 5.

6. With respect to the power limitation of 1 w, the AAR states that a 5-w limitation is the lowest power that would permit reliable communications in their proposed use of the frequencies. We, however, do not believe that such a proposal has been adequately justified. Permissible railroad use of these frequencies is to be confined to the limits of a railroad yard or terminal and in most cases, line of sight. In the absence of a showing to the contrary, it would appear that the 1-w equipment will provide adequate signals.

7. The proposed amendments, which are to be found set forth below, are issued under the authority contained in sections 4(i) and 303 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

8. Pursuant to the applicable procedures set forth in § 1.415 of the Commission's rules, interested persons may file comments on or before September 15, 1970, and reply comments on or before September 25, 1970. All relevant and timely comments and reply comments will be considered by the Commission before final action is taken in this proceeding. In reaching its decision in this proceeding, the Commission may also take into account other relevant information before it, in addition to the specific comments invited by this notice.

9. In accordance with the provisions set forth in § 1.419 of the Commission's rules and regulations, an original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs, or comments shall be furnished the Commission.

Adopted: August 5, 1970.

Released: August 7, 1970.

§ 91.503 Station limitations.

* * * * *

(b) Mobile stations proposed to be operated on frequencies within the 72 and 75 MHz bands will be authorized subject to the following conditions:

(1) Authorization for multiple frequency operations will be granted notwithstanding the provisions of § 91.8(c).

In the matter of amendment of Part 74, Subpart I of the Commission's rules and regulations governing instructional television fixed stations to provide for the operation of low power relay stations (translators or boosters); Docket No. 18940, RM-1599, RM-1613.

1. On April 15, 1970, the Jerrold Electronics Corp. (Jerrold), filed a petition (RM-1599) requesting that the Commission amend its rules to provide for the use of low power relay stations in the Instructional Television Fixed Service (ITFS). On May 5, 1970, the Solid State Division, Micro-Link Products (Micro-Link) of Varian Associates also filed a petition (RM-1613) requesting a similar amendment of the rules, but using a different technical concept. Jerrold states that these low power relay stations are needed to relay the signals of the ITFS station to receiving locations which are shielded from direct reception by intervening obstructions, both natural or man-made. This occurs frequently even though the receiving locations are located within the normal range of the ITFS transmitter. The use of tall towers or remote receiving locations to secure direct reception is often frustrated by local ordinances, physical limitations, safety hazards or financial considerations. It is concluded that schools that cannot receive the ITFS programs suffer considerable curriculum disadvantage.

2. Jerrold proposes, as a solution to this problem, the use of a low power repeater or booster station to relay the ITFS signal over or around an obstruction to a rooftop antenna at the shadowed school, by using "back-to-back" dishes (antenna) typically used at microwave frequencies. It states that to make this technique practical at 2.5 GHz it would be necessary to insert a linear amplifier between the dishes, with approximately 40 db of amplification. This would then permit dishes of a practical size for these frequencies and sufficient gain to provide a suitable signal up to approximately 1 mile. To provide for the use of economical low power repeaters for this purpose Jerrold proposes that the Commission's rules be amended in the following respects: (1) That § 74.934(a)(1) be amended so that low power repeaters not be required to be turned off in the absence of a signal on the individual channel that is being relayed; (2) that provisions be made to permit the use of opposite antenna polarization at the input and output of a signal booster used for this purpose; (3) that § 74.935 be amended to permit a booster to operate with a total output not greater than 50 milliwatts or that such a device operate with up to four channels in its passband, each limited to 100 micro-watts; and (4) that § 74.950 (f) be amended so low power relay stations would not be required to be equipped with an automatic gain control capability. It is claimed that any signal variations caused by fading will be unaffected by the introduction of a linear repeater and fall well within the AGC capability of the television receivers utilizing this service.

3. Micro-Link, in its petition states it had filed a request for a waiver of the Commission's rules so that they could provide a low power translator to relay the transmissions of an ITFS station over or around obstructions in the transmission path to a school not in the line of sight to the ITFS stations. It had requested that the requirement of the automatic gain control and the automatic turn-off features be waived for these low power relay stations because these circuits are costly and not required for this specialized use. It proposes that the rules be amended to accommodate low power translators for this use, and urges that its petition be considered along with Jerrold's in this proceeding. Both pleadings will be considered at this time.

4. Section 74.950(f) of the Commission's rules requires that an ITFS licensee meet the requirements of 74.750 (c), (e) and (f) of the Television Broadcast Translator Station rules. These rules require that an automatic gain control circuit (AGC) be provided so that the output signal is maintained within plus or minus two db with an input signal variation of 30 db. Also required are automatic controls to place the relay transmitter in a nonradiating condition when no signal is being received. Compliance with the foregoing rules is difficult for equipment capable of handling more than one channel. Since an ITFS licensee may use up to four channels, and many of them do, it is more economical to use four-channel relay equipment. AGC and automatic shut-off circuits are complex and expensive if required for each individual channel in multichannel signal booster or translator equipment. When the rules for the ITFS service were drafted it was assumed, as in the translator service, single channel translators or signal boosters would be used whenever it became necessary to use a relay station, and that the requirements contained in the Television Translator Rules would be applicable. Because of the development of multichannel ITFS equipment, the proposed rules will eliminate references to the translator rules.

5. The Commission believes that a rule making proceeding should be instituted looking toward amending the rules so that the ITFS service would be permitted to use simple low-power translator or signal booster transmitters as relay stations. This would permit the use of a simple low-cost transmitter that could relay up to the four channels authorized to a single ITFS licensee to be used in situations where the receiving location, because of obstructions in the transmission path, cannot obtain a satisfactory signal from its ITFS station. Both Jerrold and Micro-Link state that it is very difficult to provide AGC circuits for each individual channel in a transmitter that has a pass-band great enough to accommodate more than one television channel. It was pointed out that with a linear amplifier no more signal variation (fading) would be introduced than is already in the path, and that the AGC circuits in the television receiver are capable of handling those variations. Therefore they contend that these circuits are not necessary in low-power relay transmitters. Accordingly we propose deletion of the AGC feature in these low-power transmitters.

6. The translator rules require that the translator or signal booster be equipped with circuits so that after a suitable delay the transmitter be turned off, or put in a nonradiating condition when the input signal leaves the air. The petitioners request that low power relay stations be excepted from this "turn-off" requirement. Jerrold argues, in the case of boosters, when there is no input signal there can be no output signal, and with no local oscillator there will be no locally generated signals which would cause spurious outputs. Micro-Link argues, in the case of the translator method of relaying the signal, that the output drops to a very low value when the input signal leaves the air, and because of the very low power used any signal radiated would be so weak it would not cause interference on the channel. However, neither mentions the possibility of amplifying any noise or extraneous signals that may be on the frequency in the absence of a strong overriding signal. We believe that any transmitter that is not being used should be put in a nonradiating state, and that even though it is a very low power transmitter it adds to the manmade type of noise level on these frequencies. This is a type of pollution of the usable portion of the frequency spectrum, which has always been of great concern to the Commission. This "smog" level is becoming a very serious problem particularly in the metropolitan areas of our country. Therefore, we believe it is not desirable to leave idle transmitters in a radiating condition when not in use. We would consider the equipment to be in use, in the case of multichannel equipment, when one or any combination of channels is capable of relaying a signal. Therefore, the proposed rules will require that sufficient circuitry be included to turn the translator or signal booster off when the last used signal leaves the air.

7. Jerrold requests that the rules be amended to permit antennas of opposite polarization at the input and output of a signal booster, stating this would add to the isolation between the input and output and help to prevent regeneration and/or oscillation. This would be particularly true for a booster where the input and output are on the same channel. The Commission believes the present ITFS rules permit the use of opposite polarization for a relay station but, the proposed rules will be modified to specifically provide for it.

8. Certain editorial corrections as to cross references to other sections of the Commission's rules are contained in §§ 74.933 and 74.934(a)(5) of the proposed rules.

9. Accordingly, pursuant to the authority contained in sections 4(i) and 303 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, it is proposed to amend Part 74, Subpart I of the Commission's rules as set forth below.

10. Pursuant to applicable procedures set out in § 1.415 of the Commission's rules, interested persons may file comments on or before September 15, 1970, and reply comments on or before September 25, 1970. All relevant and timely comments and reply comments will be considered by the Commission before final action is taken. In reaching its decision in this proceeding, the Commission may also take into account other relevant information before it, in addition to the specific comments invited by this notice.

11. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.419 of the rules, an original and 14 copies of all comments, replies, pleadings, briefs, and other documents shall be furnished the Commission.

Adopted: August 5, 1970.

Released: August 7, 1970.

[1] Commissioner Cox abstaining from voting.

(f) Transmitting apparatus (translators and boosters) used solely for relaying signals received from other ITFS stations and operating in the manner described in § 74.934(a)(2) shall meet the following requirements before being type accepted by the Commission.

(1) The frequency converter and associated amplifiers shall be so designed that the electrical characteristics of a standard television signal introduced into the input terminals will not be significantly altered by passage through the apparatus except as to frequency and amplitude. The overall response of the apparatus within its assigned channel when operating at its rated power output and measured at the output terminals, shall provide a smooth curve, varying within limits separated by no more than 4 decibels: Provided, however, That means may be provided to reduce the amplitude of the aural carrier below those limits, if necessary to prevent intermodulation which would mar the quality of the retransmitted picture or result in emissions outside of the assigned channel.

(2) The suppression of emissions appearing outside of the assigned channel shall comply with § 74.936 (b) and (c).

(3) The local oscillator employed in the frequency converter shall maintain its operating frequency within 0.02 percent of its rated frequency when subjected to variations in ambient temperature between minus 30 degrees and plus 50 degrees centigrade and variations in power line voltage between 85 percent and 115 percent of the rated supply voltage.

(4) The apparatus shall contain automatic circuits which will maintain the peak visual power output constant within 2 decibels when the strength of the input signal is varied over a range of 30 decibels and which will not permit the peak visual power output to exceed the maximum rated power output under any conditions. If a manual adjustment is provided to compensate for different average signal intensities, provision shall be made for determining the proper setting for the control. If improper adjustment of the control, could result in improper operation a label bearing a suitable warning shall be affixed at the adjustment control: Provided, however, That apparatus with an output of 50 milliwatts peak visual power per channel or less need not comply with this paragraph, provided the equipment is so designed that the authorized output power of the transmitter cannot be exceeded by an increase in the input signal.

(5) The apparatus shall be equipped with automatic controls which will place it in a nonradiating condition when no signal is being received on the input channel, either due to absence of a transmitted signal or failure of the receiving portion of the translator. In the case of equipment relaying (translators or boosters) more than one channel it shall be turned off in the absence of the last signal to be relayed. The automatic control may include a time delay feature to prevent interruptions in the translator operation caused by fading or other momentary failures of the incoming signal.

(6) The tube(s) or transistor(s) employed in the final radio frequency amplifier shall be of the appropriate power rating to provide the rated power output of the translator. The normal operating constants for operation at the rated power output shall be specified. The apparatus shall be equipped with suitable meters or meter jacks so that appropriate voltage and current measurements may be made while the apparatus is in operation.

(7) Boosters used in this service shall comply with all the provisions of this paragraph except with subparagraph (3) of this paragraph. However, in addition the isolation between the input and output circuits of the booster, including the receiving and transmitting antenna systems shall be at least 20 decibels greater than the maximum overall gain of the booster amplifier. Boosters may use opposite antenna polarization of the input and output antennas.

5. In § 74.982, paragraph (e) is amended to read:

§ 74.982 Station identification.

* * * * *

(e) In cases where an instructional television fixed station is operating as a relay for signals originating at a station operated by some other licensee, its call sign may be transmitted by the originating station if suitable arrangements can be made with the other licensee or in lieu thereof, means shall be provided for the transmission of the call sign by the relay transmitter itself.

RESERVES OF MEMBER BANKS

Counting Silver Coin as Reserves; Extension of Time

Notice of proposed rule making regarding an amendment to § 204.1(j) (Regulation D) was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on June 9, 1970 (35 F.R. 8892). The purpose of the proposed amendment was to exclude from the scope of the present definition of "currency and coin" any coin that is being held principally for its bullion value (or numismatic value). Under the new definition such coin could no longer be counted as reserves by member banks. Comments on the proposal were to have been received not later than July 13, 1970.

On the basis of the response to the June 9 publication, the Board determined appropriate an extension of time until August 10, 1970, within which interested persons might further submit relevant data, views, or arguments regarding the proposal. Further comments received have satisfied the Board that the public interest would be served by again extending the time within which comments on this proposal may be submitted. Accordingly, the Board has extended until September 10, 1970, the period within which comments, views, or recommendations regarding the proposal will be received.

This notice is published pursuant to section 553(b) of title 5, United States Code, and § 262.2(a) of the rules of procedure of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (12 CFR 262.2 (a)).

All material should be submitted in writing to the Secretary, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Washington, D.C. 20551. Such material will be made available for inspection and copying upon request, except as provided in § 261.6(a) of the Board's Rules Regarding Availability of Information.

Notice of Classification of Public Lands for Transfer Out of Federal Ownership

AUGUST 3, 1970.

1. Pursuant to the Act of September 19, 1964 (43 U.S.C. 1411–18) and to the regulations in 43 CFR Parts 2400 and 2460, the public lands described below are hereby classified for transfer out of Federal ownership under the Recreation and Public Purposes Act (44 Stat. 741).

Publication of this notice has the effect of segregating the described lands from all forms of appropriation under the public land laws, including the mining and mineral leasing laws, except as to petition-applications under the Recreation and Public Purposes Act. As used herein, "public lands" means any lands withdrawn or reserved by Executive Order No. 6910 of November 26, 1934, as amended, or within a grazing district established pursuant to the Act of June 28, 1934 (48 Stat. 1269), as amended, which are not otherwise withdrawn or reserved for Federal use or purpose.

2. On December 19, 1968, a notice of proposed classification of public lands for multiple-use management was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (33 F.R. 18948). The publication of this notice of proposed classification segregated the lands described below from all appropriations, including locations under the mining laws, except as to petition-applications under the Recreation and Public Purposes Act. These public lands lie adjacent to Picacho Peak State Park and the Arizona State Parks Board had expressed an interest in enlarging the State Park to include these lands. The criteria for classification of lands for multiple-use management in 43 CFR 2420.2(c)(3) authorizes the classification of lands which should be retained in Federal ownership pending their acquisition by local Government entities. Since the State Parks Board has now applied to purchase the lands, they are being classified for transfer instead of for multiple-use management.

3. Objections to proposed classification and closure of the land to mining entry were received from persons who believe that a portion of these lands have potential for locatable mineral deposits. The State Parks Board believes that all of the public land should be included in an expanded Picacho Peak State Park. House Bill 217 was introduced in the Arizona Legislature in February 1970 to authorize the State Parks Board to apply to purchase all of the public lands described below. The Arizona State Legislature, after considering the proposed park and mineral uses, enacted House Bill 217 authorizing the State Park Board to expand Picacho Peak State Park by the purchase of this public land. On July 24, 1970, the State Parks Board filed Recreation and Public Purposes Act petition-application A 5438. The State Legislature and Parks Board have requested that these lands be dedicated to State Park use. We agree that this is the highest and best use of these lands and they are therefore being classified for transfer out of Federal ownership under the Recreation and Public Purposes Act.

4. The public lands classified by this notice are located on the southern and northern slopes of Picacho Peak in Pinal County, Ariz., and are described as follows:

GILA AND SALT RIVER MERIDIAN, ARIZONA

T. 9 S., R. 9 E.,
Sec. 4, S½NW¼, SW¼, and SW¼SE¼;
Sec. 9, S½, NW¼, and W½NE¼;
Secs. 21, 22, and 23.

The land described aggregates 2,760 acres.

5. Information concerning the lands may be received by inquiry or inspection of records at the Phoenix District Office, Bureau of Land Management, 2929 West Clarendon Avenue, Phoenix, Ariz., or the Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Federal Building, 230 North First Avenue, Phoenix, Ariz.

6. For a period of 30 days, interested parties may submit comments to the Secretary of the Interior, LLM 320, Washington, D.C. 20240 (43 CFR 2462.3).

JOE T. FALLINI,
State Director.

AUGUST 4, 1970.

Publication of this notice has the effect of segregating the described lands from appropriation only under the agricultural land laws (43 U.S.C., Parts 7 and 9; 25 U.S.C. 334), and from sale under section 2455 of the Revised Statutes (43 U.S.C. 1171) and the lands shall remain open to all other applicable forms of appropriation including the mining and mineral leasing laws. As used herein, "public lands" means any lands withdrawn or reserved by Executive Order No. 6910 of November 26, 1934, as amended or within a grazing district established pursuant to the Act of June 28, 1934 (48 Stat. 1269), as amended, which are not otherwise withdrawn or reserved for a Federal use or purpose.

Notice of Continuance of Classification of Public Lands for Transfer Out of Federal Ownership

AUGUST 4, 1970.

1. Pursuant to the Act of September 19, 1964 (43 U.S.C. 1411–18), notice is hereby given of continuance for a period of 2 years of the Classification of Public Lands for Transfer Out of Federal Ownership, New Mexico 6286. The notice of proposed classification of these lands was published in 33 F.R. 8283–8266 of June 4, 1968.

2. This classification was to permit State grants and indemnity selections (43 U.S.C. 851, 852); exchanges for consolidation of Federal areas (43 U.S.C. 315g) and public sales under section 2455 of Revised Statutes (43 U.S.C. 1171). Since the program for disposal of these lands has not been completed and there is a continuing need for solidifying the public land pattern to facilitate the management of the public lands in this area, it is necessary that this classification be continued.

3. No adverse comments were received following publication of the proposed continuance of classification (35 F.R. 6664–6666). The record showing the comments received and other information is on file and can be examined in the Socorro District Office, Socorro, N. Mex. The public lands affected by this continuance are located in Catron, Socorro, and Valencia Counties, N. Mex., and are described as follows:

Notice of Proposed Classification of Public Lands for Multiple-Use Management

1. Pursuant to the Act of September 19, 1964 (78 Stat. 986; 43 U.S.C. 1411–18), and to the regulations in Title 43 CFR Parts 2410 and 2411, it is proposed to classify for multiple use management the public lands within the area described in paragraph 2 below. Publication of this notice has the effect of segregating the described lands from appropriation under the agricultural land laws (43 U.S.C., Parts 7 and 9; 25 U.S.C., sec. 334), and from sales under section 2455 of the Revised Statutes as amended (43 U.S.C. 1171). Except as noted in paragraph 4, the lands shall remain open to all other applicable forms of appropriation, including the mining and mineral leasing laws. As used herein, "public lands" means any lands withdrawn or reserved by Executive Order No. 6910 of November 26, 1934, as amended, or within a grazing district established pursuant to the Act of June 28, 1934 (48 Stat. 1269), as amended, which are not otherwise withdrawn or reserved for a Federal use or purpose.

2. The public domain lands proposed to be classified are those administered by the Bureau of Land Management in Kane and Garfield Counties, Utah, bounded on the east by the Escalante Rim, Straight Cliffs, and Lake Powell; on the south by the Utah-Arizona State line; on the west by the Kane-Washington County line, Zion National Park boundary, and the boundary between the Kanab and Cedar City BLM districts; and on the north by the Dixie National Forest boundary, Bryce Canyon National Park boundary, and the boundary between the Kanab and Cedar City BLM districts at the north end of the Panguitch Valley. The public domain lands here proposed to be classified aggregate approximately 1,836,520 acres.

3. The following-described parcels of public domain land that fall within this proposed classification area are excluded from this proposed classification:

Notice of Consolidated Decision on Applications for Duty-Free Entry of Scientific Articles

The following is a consolidated decision on applications for duty-free entry of scientific articles pursuant to section 6(c) of the Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Materials Importation Act of 1966 (Public Law 89-651, 80 Stat. 897) and the regulations issued thereunder as amended (34 F.R. 15787 et seq.).

A copy of the record pertaining to this consolidated decision is available for public review during ordinary business hours of the Department of Commerce, at the Scientific Instrument Evaluation Division, Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20230.

Decision: Applications denied. Applicants have failed to establish that instruments or apparatus of equivalent scientific value to the foreign articles, for such purposes as the foreign articles are intended to be used, are not being manufactured in the United States.

Reasons: Section 602.5(e) of the regulations provides in pertinent part:

> The applicant shall on or before the 20th day following the date of such notice [of denial without prejudice to resubmission], inform the Administrator whether it intends to resubmit another application for the same article to which the denied application relates. The applicant shall then resubmit the new application on or before the 90th day following the date of the notice of denial without prejudice to resubmission, unless an extension of time is granted by the Administrator in writing prior to the expiration of the 90-day period. * * * If the applicant fails within the applicable time periods specified above, to either (1) inform the Administrator whether it intends to resubmit another application for the same article to which the denial without prejudice to resubmission relates, or (2) resubmit the new application, the prior denial without prejudice to resubmission shall have the effect of a final decision by the Administrator on the application within the context of the paragraph (d) of this section.

The meaning of the section is that should an applicant either fail to notify the Administrator of its intent to resubmit another application for the same article to which the denial without prejudice relates within the 20-day period, or fails to resubmit a new application within the 90-day period, the prior denial without prejudice to resubmission will have the effect of a final denial of the application.

None of the applicants to which this consolidated decision relates has satisfied the requirements set forth above, therefore, the prior denials without prejudice have the effect of a final decision denying their respective applications.

Section 602.5(e) further provides:

> * * * the Administrator shall submit a summary of the prior denial without prejudice to resubmission to the FEDERAL REGISTER for publication, to the Commissioner of Customs, and to the applicant.

Each of the prior denials without prejudice to resubmission to which this consolidated decision relates was based on the failure of the respective applicants to submit the required documentation, including a completely executed application form, in sufficient detail to allow the issue of "scientific equivalency" to be determined by the Administrator.

UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH ET AL.

Notice of Consolidated Decision on Applications for Duty-Free Entry of Scientific Articles

The following is a consolidated decision on applications for duty-free entry of scientific articles pursuant to section 6(c) of the Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Materials Importation Act of 1966 (Public Law 89–651, 80 Stat. 897) and the regulations issued thereunder as amended (34 F.R. 15787 et seq.).

A copy of the record pertaining to this consolidated decision is available for public review during ordinary business hours of the Department of Commerce, at the Scientific Instrument Evaluation Division, Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20230.

Decision: Applications denied. Applicants have failed to establish that instruments or apparatus of equivalent scientific value to the foreign articles, for such purposes as the foreign articles are intended to be used, are not being manufactured in the United States.

Reasons: Section 602.5(e) of the regulations provides in pertinent part:

> The applicant shall on or before the 20th day following the date of such notice [of denial without prejudice to resubmission], inform the Administrator whether it intends to resubmit another application for the same article to which the denied application relates. The applicant shall then resubmit the new application on or before the 90th day following the date of the notice of denial without prejudice to resubmission, unless an extension of time is granted by the Administrator in writing prior to the expiration of the 90-day period. * * * If the applicant fails within the applicable time periods specified above, to either (1) inform the Administrator whether it intends to resubmit another application for the same article to which the denial without prejudice to resubmission relates, or (2) resubmit the new application, the prior denial without prejudice to resubmission shall have the effect of a final decision by the Administrator on the application within the context of the paragraph (d) of this section.

The meaning of the section is that should an applicant either fail to notify the Administrator of its intent to resubmit another application for the same article to which the denial without prejudice relates within the 20-day period, or fails to resubmit a new application within the 90-day period, the prior denial without prejudice to resubmission will have the effect of a final denial of the application.

None of the applicants to which this consolidated decision relates has satisfied the requirements set forth above, therefore, the prior denials without prejudice have the effect of a final decision denying their respective applications.

Section 602.5(e) further provides:

> * * * the Administrator shall submit a summary of the prior denial without prejudice to resubmission to the FEDERAL REGISTER for publication, to the Commissioner of Customs, and to the applicant.

Each of the prior denials without prejudice to resubmission to which this consolidated decision relates was based on the failure of the respective applicants to submit the required documentation, including a completely executed application form, in sufficient detail to allow the issue of "scientific equivalency" to be determined by the Administrator.

CERTAIN DRUG PRODUCTS CONTAINING NEOMYCIN SULFATE AND POLYMYXIN B SULFATE

Drugs for Veterinary Use; Drug Efficacy Study Implementation

The Food and Drug Administration has evaluated reports received from the National Academy of Sciences-National Research Council, Drug Efficacy Study Group, on the following preparations: by S. E. Massengill Co., Veterinary Division, Bristol, Tenn. 37620:

1. Daribiotic Boloids; each boloid contains 50 milligrams of neomycin sulfate (equivalent to 35 milligrams of neomycin base) and 12,500 units of polymyxin B sulfate.

2. Swinex; each 2 cubic centimeter dose contains 25 milligrams of neomycin sulfate (equivalent to 17.5 milligrams of neomycin base) and 6,250 units of polymyxin B sulfate.

3. Daribiotic Liquid; each cubic centimeter contains 100 milligrams of neomycin sulfate (equivalent to 70 miligrams of neomycin base) and 25,000 units of polymyxin B sulfate.

4. Daribiotic Soluble Powder; each 110 grams contains 2.2 grams of neomycin sulfate (commercial grade) (equivalent to 1.54 grams of neomycin base) and 550,000 units of polymyxin B sulfate.

5. Daribiotic Injectable; each cubic centimeter contains 100 milligrams of neomycin sulfate (equivalent to 70 milligrams of neomycin base) and 100,000 units of polymyxin B sulfate.

The Academy evaluated these products as follows:

1. Daribiotic Boloids are probably effective for intrauterine use in the control of metritis and pyometra in large animals and for oral administration in the control of bacterial intestinal infections in calves. The report on this product stated: (a) More detailed instructions relative to cleanliness when used for intrauterine administration are needed, (b) the labeling should state that the product is effective only against infections caused by organisms sensitive to neomycin and polymyxin, (c) there is nothing on the label to indicate that milk should be withheld for the proper interval of time after intrauterine use, (d) a labeling precaution is needed on the limited systemic activity of the drug in septicemic animals, (e) the intrauterine use of this drug has not been adequately documented, (f) information is needed that the bolus disintegrates in the gastrointestinal tract of the medicated species to produce the desired therapeutic effect, (g) information is needed concerning the degree of disintegration of the bolus in the uterus, the presence of hazardous ingredients that may cause severe irritation, ulceration, or necrosis, and the chemical compatibility of the vehicle and active agents or agent, and (h) substantial evidence was not presented to establish that each ingredient designated as active makes a contribution to the total effect claimed for the drug combination.

2. Swinex is probably not effective for oral use in the prevention and treatment of enteritis and related diarrhea in new born pigs. The report on this product stated: (a) Claims made regarding "for prevention of" or "to prevent" should be replaced with "as an aid in the control of" or "to aid in the control of," (b) the disease claim for this preparation must be restricted to diseases involving the gastrointestinal tract because of the chemical and pharmacologic properties of neomycin sulfate and polymyxin B sulfate, (c) the recommended frequency of dosage administration is not adequate, and (d) the Academy panel acknowledged efficacy of neomycin and polymyxin when used alone, however, each active ingredient in a preparation containing more than one drug must be effective, or contribute to the effectiveness of the preparation, to warrant acceptance as an active ingredient and said product has not satisfied this condition.

3. The products Daribiotic Liquid and Daribiotic Soluble Powder are probably not effective for oral administration in the prevention and treatment of intestinal infections in swine, poultry, sheep, calves, dogs, and cats. The report on these products stated: (a) Claims made regarding "for prevention of" or "to prevent" should be replaced with "as an aid in the control of" or "to aid in the control of", (b) each disease claim should be properly qualified as "appropriate for use in (name of disease) caused by pathogens sensitive to (name of drug)," and if the disease claim cannot be so qualified the claim must be dropped, (c) the disease claims for this preparation must be restricted to diseases involving the gastrointestinal tract because of the chemical and pharmacological properties of neomycin sulfate and polymyxin B sulfate, (d) the dosages are low and documentation is needed to demonstrate efficacy of the recommended dosage levels, (e) the dosage should be expressed as to quantity of drug per unit of animal weight and the frequency of administration must be given, (f) the label should warn that treated species must actually be consuming enough medicated water to provide a therapeutic dose under the conditions that prevail and as a precaution the desired oral dose per unit of animal weight per day for each species should be given as a guide to effective usage of the preparation in drinking water, and (g) substantial evidence was not presented to establish that each ingredient designated as active makes a contribution to the total effect claimed for the drug combination.

4. Daribiotic Injectable is probably effective as an injectable for treating bacterial infections in horses, cattle, sheep, swine, dogs, and cats. The report on this product stated: (a) The statement on the development of resistance is not appropriate and should be removed, (b) the recommended dosage levels of the drugs in this combination have not been adequately documented, (c) each disease claim should be properly qualified as "appropriate for use in (name of disease) caused by pathogens sensitive to (name of drug)," and if the disease claim cannot be so qualified the claim must be dropped, (d) the precaution statement needs revision to incorporate recent toxicological findings, and (e) substantial evidence was not presented to establish that each ingredient designated as active makes a contribution to the total effect claimed for the drug combination.

The Food and Drug Administration concurs with the Academy's findings.

This evaluation is concerned only with these drugs' effectiveness and safety to the animal to which administered. It does not take into account the safety for food use of food derived from drug-treated animals. Nothing herein will constitute a bar to further proceedings with respect to questions of safety of the drugs or their metabolites as residues in food products derived from treated animals.

This announcement is published (1) to inform the holders of new animal drug applications of the findings of the Academy and the Food and Drug Administration and (2) to inform all interested persons that such articles may be marketed provided they are the subject of approved new animal drug applications and otherwise comply with all other requirements of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

Holders of new animal drug applications are provided 6 months from the date of publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER to submit adequate documentation in support of the labeling used.

Each holder of a new animal drug application which became effective prior to October 10, 1962, is requested to submit updating information as needed to make the application current with regard to manufacture of the drug, including information on drug components and composition, and also including information regarding manufacturing methods, facilities, and controls, in accordance with the requirements of section 512 of the act.

Written comments regarding this announcement, including requests for an informal conference, may be addressed to the Bureau of Veterinary Medicine, Food and Drug Administration, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, Md. 20852.

The holder of the new animal drug applications for the listed drugs has been mailed a copy of the NAS–NRC reports. Any other interested person may obtain a copy by writing to the Food and Drug Administration, Press Relations Staff, 200 C Street SW., Washington, D.C. 20204.

This notice is issued pursuant to provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 502, 512, 52 Stat. 1050–51, 82 Stat. 343–51; 21 U.S.C. 352, 360b) and under authority delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs (21 CFR 2.120).

Dated: July 29, 1970.

CERTAIN DRUG PRODUCTS CONTAINING PHENYLBUTAZONE

Drugs for Veterinary Use; Drug Efficacy Study Implementation

The Food and Drug Administration has evaluated reports received from the National Academy of Sciences-National Research Council, Drug Efficacy Study Group, on the following preparations marketed by Jensen-Salsbery Laboratories, Division of Richardson-Merrell, Inc., 520 West 21st Street, Kansas City, Mo. 64141:

1. Jen-Sal Butazolidin Injectable, 20 percent; each cubic centimeter of sterile aqueous solution contains 200 milligrams of phenylbutazone.

2. Jen-Sal Butazolidin Bolus (For Horses Only); each bolus contains 4 grams of phenylbutazone.

3. Jen-Sal Butazolidin Tablets (For Horses Only); each tablet contains 1 gram of phenylbutazone.

4. Jen-Sal Butazolidin Tablets (For Dogs Only); each tablet contains 100 milligrams of phenylbutazone.

The Academy evaluated these drugs as probably effective as a nonhormonal anti-inflammatory agent for use in horses and dogs. The Academy stated:

1. Package inserts state that the drug is indicated in "posterior paralysis" and "in some cases, long-term therapy (30 to 60 days) apparently results in permanent cures." These statements are not supported by adequate documentation. It is difficult to see how a drug of this nature can produce a "cure".

2. The analgesic activity of phenylbutazone has not been documented. The apparent analgesic effect is a result of the drug's anti-inflammatory properties.

3. No controlled experimental studies appear to have been performed in dogs or horses.

4. Its use for treatment of otitis externa in dogs is doubtful and appears to be based on one case report where local treatment probably was also used.

5. Instructions for dosage in dogs could be improved.

6. Package label on Butazolidin Injectable does not state route of administration.

7. Evidence must be provided that the bolus and tablet forms of the drug disintegrate in the gastrointestinal tract of the medicated species to produce the desired therapeutic effect.

The Food and Drug Administration concurs in the Academy's evaluation and concludes that additional labeling information is required on the dosage schedule to provide additional clarity such as frequency of administration and maximum daily dosage.

Veterinary drugs of this type are prescription drugs and should bear the veterinary Rx legend "Caution: Federal law restricts this drug to use by or on the order of a licensed veterinarian."

This announcement is published (1) to inform the holders of new animal drug applications of the findings of the Academy and the Food and Drug Administration and (2) to inform all interested persons that such articles to be marketed must be the subject of approved new animal drug applications and otherwise comply with all other requirements of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

Holders of new animal drug applications are provided 6 months from the date of publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER to submit adequate documentation in support of the labeling used.

Each holder of a new animal drug application which became effective prior to October 10, 1962, is requested to submit updating information as needed to make the application current with regard to manufacture of the drug, including information on drug components and composition, and also including information regarding manufacturing methods, facilities, and controls, in accordance with the requirements of section 512 of the act.

Written comments regarding this announcement, including requests for an informal conference, may be addressed to the Bureau of Veterinary Medicine, Food and Drug Administration, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, Md. 20852.

The holder of the new animal drug applications for the listed drugs has been mailed a copy of the NAS–NRC reports. Any other interested person may also obtain a copy by writing to the Food and Drug Administration, Press Relations Staff, 200 C Street SW., Washington, D.C. 20204.

This notice is issued pursuant to provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 502, 512, 52 Stat. 1050–51, 82 Stat. 343–51; 21 U.S.C. 352, 360b) and under authority delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs (21 CFR 2.120).

CERTAIN FEED PREMIXES CONTAINING OXYTETRACYCLINE

Drugs for Veterinary Use; Drug Efficacy Study Implementation

The Food and Drug Administration has evaluated a report received from the National Academy of Sciences-National Research Council, Drug Efficacy Study Group, on the following preparations:

1. Calf Premix 10108; each pound contains 1 gram of oxytetracycline (from oxytetracycline hydrochloride), plus vitamins; manufactured by Hoffmann-La Roche Inc., Nutley, N.J. 07110.

2. Pig Supplement Premix Medicated; each pound contains 5.5 grams of oxytetracycline hydrochloride, 5.948 percent arsanilic acid, plus vitamins; by Hoffmann-La Roche Inc.

The Academy classified these preparations as probably effective for faster gains and/or improved feed efficiency in pigs and calves. The Academy stated:

1. Claims for growth promotion or stimulation are disallowed and claims for faster gains and/or feed efficiency should be stated as "may result in faster gains and/or improved feed efficiency under appropriate conditions."

2. Each active ingredient in a preparation containing more than one drug must be effective or contribute to the effectiveness of the preparation to warrant acceptance as a therapeutic ingredient. The preparation containing oxytetracycline hydrochloride and arsanilic acid has not satisfied this condition.

The Food and Drug Administration concurs with the findings of the Academy; however, the Administration concludes the appropriate claim for faster weight gains and improved feed efficiency should be "For increased rate of weight gain and improved feed efficiency for (under appropriate conditions of use)."

This evaluation is concerned only with these drugs' effectiveness and safety to the animal to which administered. It does not take into account the safety for food use of food derived from drug-treated animals. Nothing herein will constitute a bar to further proceedings with respect to questions of safety of the drugs or their metabolites as residues in food products derived from treated animals.

This announcement is published (1) to inform manufacturers of the subject drugs of the findings of the Academy and the Food and Drug Administration and (2) to inform all interested persons that such articles to be marketed must be the subject of approved new animal drug applications and otherwise comply with all other requirements of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

Manufacturers of the subject drugs are provided 6 months from the date of publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER to submit adequate documentation in support of the labeling used.

Each holder of a new animal drug application which became effective prior to October 10, 1962, is requested to submit updating information as needed to make the application current with regard to manufacture of the drug, including information on drug components and composition, and also including information regarding manufacturing methods, facilities, and controls, in accordance with the requirements of section 512 of the act.

Written comments regarding this announcement, including requests for an informal conference, may be addressed to the Bureau of Veterinary Medicine, Food and Drug Administration, 5609 Fishers Lane, Rockville, Md. 20852.

The manufacturer of the listed drugs has been mailed a copy of the NAS–NRC report. Any other interested person may obtain a copy by writing to the Food and Drug Administration, Press Relations Staff, 200 C Street SW., Washington, D.C. 20204.

This notice is issued pursuant to provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 502, 512, 52 Stat. 1050–51, 82 Stat. 343–51; 21 U.S.C. 352, 360b) and under authority delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs (21 CFR 2.120).

CERTAIN PRODUCTS CONTAINING ZOALENE AND OLEANDOMYCIN

Drugs for Veterinary Use; Drug Efficacy Study Implementation

The Food and Drug Administration has evaluated a report received from the National Academy of Sciences-National Research Council, Drug Efficacy Study Group, on the following preparations:

1. "X Brand" Broiler Ration "Z 125–O–One"; each ton contains 1 gram of oleandomycin and 0.0125 percent of zoalene; by the Dow Chemical Co., Post Office Box 512, Midland, Mich. 48640.

2. "X Brand" Broiler Ration "Z125–O–Two"; each ton contains 2 grams of oleandomycin and 0.125 percent zoalene; by the Dow Chemical Co.

The Academy evaluated as probably effective these preparations which are labeled "As an aid for the prevention and control of coccidiosis in chickens. Oleandomycin added as an aid in stimulating the growth and feed efficiency of chickens." The Academy stated: (1) More information is needed to demonstrate lack of interference of the antimicrobial agent oleandomycin and the coccidiostat, zoalene; (2) each active ingredient in a preparation containing more than one drug must be effective, or contribute to the effectiveness of the preparation, to warrant acceptance as a therapeutic ingredient; and (3) zoalene as a coccidiostat is effective for cococcidiosis control but the species of coccidia controlled must be listed.

The Food and Drug Administration concurs with the findings of the Academy, however, the Administration concludes the appropriate claim for faster weight gains and improved feed efficiency should be "For increased rate of weight gain and improved feed efficiency for (under appropriate conditions of use)."

This evaluation is concerned only with these drugs' effectiveness and safety to the animal to which administered. It does not take into account the safety for food use of food derived from drug-treated animals. Nothing herein will constitute a bar to further proceedings with respect to questions of safety of the drugs or their metabolites as residues in food products derived from treated animals.

COMBINATION DRUG CONTAINING TETRACYCLINE PHOSPHATE AND SODIUM NOVOBIOCIN

Drugs for Veterinary Use; Drug Efficacy Study Implementation

The Food and Drug Administration has evaluated a report received from the National Academy of Sciences-National Research Council, Drug Efficacy Study Group, on the product Albaplex; each capsule contains tetracycline phosphate complex equivalent in activity to 60 milligrams of tetracycline hydrochloride and sodium novobiocin equivalent in activity to 60 milligrams of novobiocin; by The Upjohn Co., Kalamazoo, Mich. 49001.

The Academy evaluated this product as probably not effective for treating bacterial infections in dogs and cats.

The Academy stated:

1. Each disease claim should be properly qualified as "appropriate for use in (name of disease) caused by pathogens sensitive to (name of drug)," and if the disease claim cannot be so qualified the claim must be dropped.

2. Substantial evidence was not presented to establish that each ingredient designated as active makes a contribution to the total effect claimed for the drug combination.

3. The recommended dosage schedule must be adequately documented.

The Food and Drug Administration concurs with the Academy's findings.

This announcement is published (1) to inform the holders of new animal drug applications of the findings of the Academy and the Food and Drug Administration and (2) to inform all interested persons that such articles to be marketed must be the subject of approved new animal drug applications and otherwise comply with all other requirements of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

Holders of new animal drug applications are provided 6 months from the date of publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER to submit adequate documentation in support of the labeling used.

Each holder of a new animal drug application which became effective prior to October 10, 1962, is requested to submit updating information as needed to make the application current with regard to manufacture of the drug, including information on drug components and composition, and also including information regarding manufacturing methods, facilities, and controls, in accordance with the requirements of section 512 of the act.

Written comments regarding this announcement, including requests for an informal conference, may be addressed to the Bureau of Veterinary Medicine, Food and Drug Administration, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, Md. 20852.

The holder of the new animal drug application for the listed drug has been mailed a copy of the NAS–NRC report. Any other interested person may obtain a copy by writing to the Food and Drug Administration, Press Relations Staff, 200 C Street SW., Washington, D.C. 20204.

This notice is issued pursuant to provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 502, 512, 52 Stat. 1050–51, 82 Stat. 343–51; 21 U.S.C. 352, 360b) and under authority delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs (21 CFR 2.120).

Dated: July 29, 1970.

NEOMYCIN-SULFACETAMIDE OPHTHALMIC OINTMENT WITH OR WITHOUT TETRACAINE, PHENACAINE, OR HYDROCORTISONE

Drugs for Veterinary Use; Drug Efficacy Study Implementation

The Food and Drug Administration has evaluated reports received from the National Academy of Sciences-National Research Council, Drug Efficacy Study Group, on the following veterinary ophthalmic preparations:

1. DV–102 Ophthalmic Ointment Veterinary; contains 0.5 percent neomycin sulfate (equivalent in activity to 3.5 milligrams of neomycin base per gram of ointment), 10 percent sodium sulfacetamide, and 0.5 percent tetracaine; by Kasco Laboratories Inc., Hicksville, N.Y. 11802.

2. DV–101 Ophthalmic Ointment Veterinary; contains 0.5 percent neomycin sulfate (equivalent in activity to 3.5 milligrams of neomycin base per gram of ointment), 10 percent sodium sulfacetamide, 0.5 percent tetracaine, and 0.5 percent hydrocortisone acetate; by Kasco Laboratories Inc.

3. Sulfacaine Ophthalmic Ointment with Hydrocortisone and Neomycin; each gram of ointment contains 100 milligrams of sodium sulfacetamide, 5 milligrams of tetracaine base, 5 milligrams of neomycin sulfate (equivalent in activity to 3.5 milligrams of neomycin base per gram of ointment), and 5 milligrams of hydrocortisone acetate; by Day-Baldwin, Inc., Hillside, N.J. 07205.

4. Sulfacaine Ophthalmic Ointment with neomycin; each gram of ointment contains 100 milligrams of sodium sulfacetamide, 5 milligrams of tetracaine base, and 5 milligrams of neomycin sulfate (equivalent in activity to 3.5 milligrams of neomycin base per gram of ointment); by Day-Baldwin, Inc.

5. Neohydracaine Ophthalmic Ointment Veterinary; contains 0.5 percent hydrocortisone acetate, 10 percent sodium sulfacetamide, 0.5 percent neomycin sulfate (equivalent in activity to 3.5 milligrams of neomycin base per gram of ointment), and 1.0 percent phenocaine hydrochloride; by Haver-Lockhart Laboratories, Kansas City, Mo. 64141.

The Academy evaluated these eye preparations as probably not effective for veterinary use. The Academy report stated:

1. These products contain potentially dangerous drugs without adequate safety and efficacy documentation of veterinary use. Directions for use do not provide acceptable ophthalmic treatment.

2. The indications should include the specific organisms against which the products are effective.

3. Tetracaine and phenacaine are contraindicated in the treatment of corneal ulcers.

4. Phenacaine and tetracaine should be removed from the preparations since these drugs should not be used repeatedly in the eye.

5. The label should warn that "all topical ophthalmic preparations containing corticosteroids with or without an antimicrobial agent, are contraindicated in the initial treatment of corneal ulcers. They should not be used until the infection is under control and corneal regeneration is well underway."

This announcement is published (1) to inform manufacturers of the subject drugs of the findings of the Academy and the Food and Drug Administration and (2) to inform all interested persons that such articles to be marketed must be the subject of approved new animal drug applications and otherwise comply with all other requirements of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

Manufacturers of the subject drugs are provided 6 months from the date of publication of this announcement in the FEDERAL REGISTER to submit adequate documentation in support of the labeling used.

Each holder of a new animal drug application which became effective prior to October 10, 1962, is requested to submit updating information as needed to make the application current with regard to manufacture of the drug, including information on drug components and composition, and also including information regarding manufacturing methods, facilities, and controls, in accordance with the requirements of section 512 of the act.

NITROFURANTOIN SUSPENSION

Drugs for Veterinary Use; Drug Efficacy Study Implementation

The Food and Drug Administration has evaluated a report received from the National Academy of Sciences-National Research Council, Drug Efficacy Study Group, on the following preparation: Dantafur; each cubic centimeter contains 15 milligrams of nitrofurantoin; by Eaton Laboratories, Division of The Norwich Pharmacal Co., Post Office Box 191, Scientific Department, Norwich, N.Y. 13815.

The Academy evaluated this product as probably effective in the treatment of equine tracheopharyngitis, canine tracheobronchitis, and bacterial infections of the urinary tract in dogs, cats, and horses. The report stated: (1) Additional information on safety is needed as the recommended dosage of 2 milligrams of drug per pound of body weight every 8 hours, has been known to produce vomiting and central nervous system depression in small animals—the warning statements on the labeling should include the possibility of vomiting; and (2) each disease claim should be properly qualified as "appropriate for use in (name of disease) caused by pathogens sensitive to (name of drug)" and if the disease claim cannot be so qualified the claim must be dropped.

The Food and Drug Administration concurs with the Academy's findings.

This announcement is published (1) to inform the holders of new animal drug applications of the findings of the Academy and the Food and Drug Administration and (2) to inform all interested persons that such articles to be marketed must be the subject of approved new animal drug applications and otherwise comply with all other requirements of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

SHAMPOO CONTAINING CADMIUM SULFIDE

Drugs for Veterinary Use; Drug Efficacy Study Implementation

The Food and Drug Administration has evaluated a report received from the National Academy of Sciences-National Research Council, Drug Efficacy Study Group, on the following preparation: Derisol; a shampoo containing 1 percent cadmium sulfide; marketed by Pitman-Moore, Inc., Camp Hill Road, Fort Washington, Pa. 19034.

The Academy report stated that this product is effective as a shampoo for dogs and cats if minor label changes are made. The data are inadequate to support claims as corrective in pruritus, eczema, and nonspecific and seborrheic dermatoses. The Food and Drug Administration concurs with the Academy's findings that data are inadequate to support drug claims.

This announcement is published (1) to inform the holders of new drug applications of the findings of the Academy and of the Food and Drug Administration and (2) to inform all interested persons that such articles to be marketed as a corrective shampoo in pruritis, eczema, and nonspecific and seborrheic dermatoses must be the subject of approved new drug applications and otherwise comply with all other requirements of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

SULFATHIAZOLE ORAL PREPARATION

Drugs for Veterinary Use; Drug Efficacy Study Implementation

The Food and Drug Administration has evaluated a report received from the National Academy of Sciences-National Research Council, Drug Efficacy Study Group, on the following preparation: Sulfathiazole Tablets; each tablet contains 60 grains of sulfathiazole; by Haver-Lockhart Laboratories, Post Office Box 676, Kansas City, Mo. 64141.

The Academy evaluated this product as probably effective as an antistaphylococcic agent for veterinary use. The Academy stated: (1) A revised dosage schedule providing the correct dose is necessary; (2) each disease claim should be properly qualified as "appropriate for use in (name of disease) caused by pathogens sensitive to sulfathiazole," if the disease claim cannot be so qualified the claim must be dropped; and (3) evidence should be provided to show that the tablet disintegrates in the gastrointestinal tract of the medicated species to provide a therapeutic dose.

The Food and Drug Administration concurs with the Academy's findings.

This evaluation is concerned only with the drug's effectiveness and safety to the animal to which administered. It does not take into account the safety for food use of food derived from drug-treated animals. Nothing herein will constitute a bar to further proceedings with respect to questions of safety of the drug or its metabolites as residues in food products derived from treated animals.

This announcement is published (1) to inform the holders of new animal drug applications of the findings of the Academy and the Food and Drug Administration and (2) to inform all interested persons that such articles may be marketed provided they are the subject of approved new animal drug applications and otherwise comply with all other requirements of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

Holders of new animal drug applications are provided 6 months from the date of publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER to submit adequate documentation in support of the labeling used.

MARVAN PRODUCTS

Marvan Salve; Notice of Withdrawal of Approval of New-Drug Application

A notice of opportunity for hearing on the proposed withdrawal of approval of new-drug application No. 0-922 and all amendments and supplements thereto held by Marvan Products, 11 Park Avenue, Keansburg, N.J., for the drug Marvan Salve was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on February 6, 1970 (35 F.R. 2674). Marvan Salve, Inc., filed a letter requesting a hearing, but did not file any data to support such request. The Commissioner of Food and Drugs concludes that there is no genuine and substantial issue of fact to justify a hearing (35 F.R. 7250; May 8, 1970).

The Commissioner of Food and Drugs, pursuant to provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (section 505, 52 Stat. 1052, as amended; 21 U.S.C. 355); and under the authority delegated to him (21 CFR 2.120), finds that the applicant has failed to establish a system of maintaining required records, or has repeatedly or deliberately failed to maintain such records or to make required reports, in accordance with a regulation or order under section 505(j).

Therefore, pursuant to the foregoing findings, approval of new drug application No. 0-922 for Marvan Salve, is withdrawn, effective on the date of the signature of this document.

WALLACE PHARMACEUTICALS

Somacort Tablets; Notice of Withdrawal of Approval of New-Drug Application

In the FEDERAL REGISTER of May 7, 1970 (35 F.R. 7194) (DESI 12348), the Commissioner of Food and Drugs announced his conclusions pursuant to evaluating reports received from the National Academy of Sciences-National Research Council, Drug Efficacy Study Group, concerning the efficacy of carisoprodol in combination with prednisolone for human use, and stated his intention to initiate proceedings to withdraw approval of new-drug application No. 12-348 for Somacort Tablets (containing 350 milligrams carisoprodol and 2 milligrams prednisolone).

Carter-Wallace, Inc., 767 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10022, by letter of May 13, 1970, requested withdrawal of approval of the application and thereby waived opportunity for a hearing. No data or objections were filed by other interested persons.

Pursuant to provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 505(e), 52 Stat. 1053, as amended; 21 U.S.C. 355 (e)) and under authority delegated to him (21 CFR 2.120), the Commissioner finds on the basis of new information, evaluated together with the evidence available when the application was approved, that there is a lack of substantial evidence that Somacort Tablets, as a fixed combination drug, will have the effect that it purports or is represented to have under the conditions of use prescribed, recommended, or suggested in the labeling.

Therefore, pursuant to the foregoing finding, approval of new-drug application No. 12-348, and all amendments and supplements applying thereto, is withdrawn effective on the date of signature of this document. Outstanding stocks of the drug should be recalled.

Promulgation of this order will cause any drug containing the same components and offered for the same conditions of use to be a new drug for which an approved new-drug application is not in effect, and will make it subject to regulatory action.

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[Docket No. 22408; Order 70-8-26]

AMERICAN AIRLINES, INC., ET AL.

Order of Suspension and Investigation

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D.C., on the 7th day of August 1970.

Increase in cubic capacity of B-747 aircraft lower-deck (LD-3) cargo containers proposed by American Airlines, Inc., Trans World Airlines, Inc., and United Air Lines, Inc.

By tariff posted July 9, 1970, American Airlines, Inc. (American), and Trans World Airlines, Inc. (TWA),[1] propose to accept an LD-3 container (B-747 lower-deck cargo container) having a cubic displacement of 188.5 cubic feet (cft.), when the container originates or terminates at a point outside the 50 States of the United States, the District of Columbia, or Canada. The existing tariff on this container for these carriers provides for a cube of 158 cu. ft.[2]

The carriers do not propose any rate changes, hence the existing domestic minimum charges and excess-weight rates for the LD-3 container would continue unchanged.[3]

A complaint requesting investigation of the 188.5 cu. ft. proposal has been filed by Trans World Airlines, Inc. (TWA) on the grounds that it represents an unwarranted and unjustified reduction in the minimum density required to obtain a containerization discount, and that it discriminates against domestic traffic in favor of international traffic.

Upon consideration of the tariff filings and other relevant matters, the Board finds that the proposed increase in cube to 188.5 cu. ft. on the LD-3 container, when moving in the designated areas, may be unjust, unreasonable, unjustly discriminatory, unduly preferential, unduly prejudicial, or otherwise unlawful and should be suspended pending investigation.

The long-standing domestic minimum density (cube rule) requirement on general commodities in noncontainerized form has been based on 6.9 lb./cu. ft.; the international (IATA) cube rule has been set at 8.9 lb./cu. ft. For containerized traffic the domestic minimum charges for the various containers range from 6.4 to 9.2 lb./cu. ft., depending on the cube of the container, and the IATA bulk unitization program typically reflects a minimum density of about 12 lb./cu. ft. The instant proposal, whereby the 1,100-pound minimum would be applied to the 188.5 cube of the LD-3 container would therefore permit traffic having a density of but 5.85 lb./cu. ft. to secure the usual discounts, and it appears to the Board that the proposal represents an unsupported reduction in the necessary minimum density to obtain a containerization discount.

There is also presented here a serious discrimination issue arising out of the proposal to accept the larger container only if the container originates or terminates outside the 50 States.

Accordingly, pursuant to the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, and particularly sections 204(a) and 1002 thereof:

It is ordered, That:

1. An investigation be instituted to determine whether the Exception to Rule No. 3(B)(6)(e) on 4th Revised Page 10-A and 5th Revised Page 10-A of Airline Tariff Publishers, Inc., Agent, Tariff C.A.B. No. 131 and rules, regulations and practices affecting such provisions, are or will be unjust, unreasonable, unjustly discriminatory, unduly preferential, unduly prejudicial, or otherwise unlawful, and if found to be unlawful, to determine and prescribe the lawful provisions, and rules, regulations, or practices affecting such provisions;

2. Pending hearing and decision by the Board, the provisions of the Exception to Rule No. 3(B)(6)(e) on 4th and 5th Revised Pages 10-A of Airline Tariff Publishers, Inc., Agent, Tariff C.A.B. No. 131 are suspended and their use deferred to and including November 20, 1970, unless otherwise ordered by the Board, and that no changes be made therein during the period of suspension except by order or special permission of the Board;

3. The proceeding herein be assigned for hearing before an examiner of the Board at a time and place hereafter to be designated; and

4. Copies of this order will be served upon American Airlines, Inc., Continental Air Lines, Inc., Trans World Airlines, Inc., and United Air Lines, Inc., which are hereby made parties to this proceeding.

This order will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

[SEAL] HARRY J. ZINK,
Secretary.

[F.R. Doc. 70-10524; Filed, Aug. 11, 1970; 8:50 a.m.]

---

[1] By filing of July 22, 1970, also for effectiveness Aug. 23, 1970, United Air Lines, Inc. (United), has joined American and TWA.

[2] The filing includes a change in the "domestic" cube from 158 to 166 cu. ft. on behalf of American, Continental Air Lines, Inc., TWA, and United; the carriers state that the 158 cu. ft. reflected internal rather than external size.

[3] The domestic minimum charge for the LD-3 container is based on the cubic capacity times 7 lb./cu. ft. (thus 1,100 pounds) times the 3,000-pound general commodity rate in the market, less $1 per 100 pounds; payload in excess of 1,100 pounds is rated at 67 percent of the 3,000-pound rate.

INTERNATIONAL AIR TRANSPORT ASSOCIATION

Order Regarding Specific Commodity Rates

Issued under delegated authority August 6, 1970.

Agreement adopted by the Joint Conferences of the International Air Transport Association relating to specific commodity rates; Docket 20993, Agreement C.A.B. 21753, R-20 through R-22.

An agreement has been filed with the Board pursuant to section 412(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (the Act) and Part 261 of the Board's Economic Regulations, between various air carriers, foreign air carriers, and other carriers, embodied in the resolutions of the Joint Conferences of the International Air Transport Association (IATA), and adopted pursuant to the provisions of Resolution 590 dealing with specific commodity rates.

The agreement, adopted pursuant to unprotested notices to the carriers and promulgated in an IATA letter dated July 30, 1970, names additional specific commodity rates, as set forth below, which reflect significant reductions from the general cargo rates:

R-21:
Commodity Item 9230—Surfboards, 90 cents per kg., minimum weight 500 kgs., 87 cents per kg., minimum weight 1,000 kgs., Sydney to Honolulu.

R-22:
Commodity Item 9230—Surfboards, 90 cents per kg., minimum weight 500 kgs., Sydney to Los Angeles.

In addition, the agreement amends the transpacific description for Commodity Item 8550 by the inclusion of "transmitting pulse devices." [1]

Pursuant to authority duly delegated by the Board in the Board's regulations, 14 CFR 385.14, it is not found, on a tentative basis, that the subject agreement is adverse to the public interest or in violation of the Act, provided that tentative approval thereof is conditioned as hereinafter ordered.

[1] R-20, "Dental, Surgical, Measuring, calibrating, testing and drawing instruments, etc."

Accordingly, it is ordered, That:

Action on Agreement C.A.B. 21753, R-20 through R-22, be and hereby is deferred with a view toward eventual approval, provided that approval shall not constitute approval of the specific commodity descriptions contained therein for purposes of tariff publication.

Persons entitled to petition the Board for review of this order, pursuant to the Board's regulations, 14 CFR 385.50, may, within 10 days after the date of service of this order, file such petitions in support of or in opposition to our proposed action herein.

This order will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

[Docket No. 22397; Order 70-8-27]

OZARK AIR LINES, INC.

Order of Investigation and Suspension

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D.C., on the 7th day of August 1970.

Provisions requiring prepayment or guarantee of transportation charges for shipments of dogs proposed by Ozark Air Lines, Inc.; Docket 22397.

By tariff revisions filed July 9 and marked to become effective August 8, 1970, Ozark Air Lines, Inc. (Ozark), proposes to become a participant in Rule No. 56(B)(12).[1] This rule provides that shipments of dogs must be prepaid or that collect charges for such shipments must be guaranteed in writing by the shipper, and is currently in effect for certain other carriers.

Rule No. 56 is the subject of other provisions in the rules pertaining to c.o.d. shipments. Specifically, Rule 66(B)(1), on c.o.d. shipments, provides that any shipment requiring prepayment or the guarantee in writing of transportation charges pursuant to Rule No. 56 (now proposed by Ozark) will not be accorded c.o.d. service.

A complaint requesting suspension, pending investigation of Ozark's proposed revisions, has been filed by Ozark Kennels, Inc. (Kennels).[2] The complaint alleges, inter alia, that participation by Ozark in Rule No. 56 will eliminate any possibility of saving the dog shipping industry in the Southwest, Midwest, and North Central States. According to the complaint the dog shipping industry has advertised c.o.d. shipments in national publications for over 30 years and is currently contracted to over $35,000 of c.o.d. oriented national advertising. Kennels further asserts that it has always guaranteed in writing the transportation charges on its shipments, as well as voluntarily assuming liability for any and all unusual or extraordinary expenses related to the welfare of its dogs. Finally, Kennels maintains that the proposed provisions are discriminatory toward its segment of the live animal industry.

The requirement of prepayment or guarantee of payment for certain classes of shipments as set forth in Rule No. 56 may not be unreasonable per se, when considered alone; however, by the adoption of this rule, operating in conjunction with Rule No. 66(B)(1), Ozark would preclude c.o.d. service for dog shipments. The use of c.o.d. service has become a method of merchandising for certain shippers, and the complainant alleges in substance that such service is essential to its business, and that it guarantees charges and other expenses in connection with the shipment.

Ozark, in support of its filing, states that the prepayment requirement is necessary to deal with troublesome situations, and that in many cases consignor will not authorize returning a shipment when refused by the consignee. It does not appear that the proposed rule would require payment of return charges. Of more significance, however, Ozark offers no reasons why c.o.d. service should be denied to dog shippers, which would be the direct result of the tariff filing. It is not apparent why the denial of c.o.d. service should be tied to the prepayment requirement, and the Board notes that the carriers' c.o.d. tariff rules contain various provisions to protect them when providing c.o.d. service.[3] In these circumstances, and recognizing that Ozark is not the first carrier to propose Rule No. 56(B)(12), the Board will suspend Ozark's proposal, and investigate this rule as well as Rule No. 66(B)(1).

Upon consideration of the foregoing and all other relevant factors, the Board finds that the proposed provisions requiring prepayment or guarantee of transportation charges for shipments of dogs in Rule No. 56(B)(12), and the existing provisions contained in Rule No. 66(B)(1) on c.o.d. shipments, may be unjust, unreasonable, unjustly discriminatory, unduly preferential, unduly prejudicial, or otherwise unlawful and should be investigated. In view of the effect of Rule No. 56(B)(12), when considered in conjunction with Rule No. 66(B)(1), the Board will suspend Ozark's proposed adoption of Rule No. 56(B)(12) pending investigation.

Accordingly, pursuant to the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, and particularly sections 204(a) and 1002 thereof:

It is ordered, That:

1. An investigation be instituted to determine whether the provisions of the

[1] Revisions to Airline Tariff Publishers, Inc., Agent, Tariff CAB No. 96.

[2] The complaint, received by the Board on July 27, was a late-filed telegraphic complaint which alleged that Ozark as well as other carriers involved in the proposed rule failed to post the tariff at the originating stations, thus making timely protests impossible.

[3] Rule No. 66, regarding c.o.d. shipments, contains additional provisions to the effect that credit will not be extended on the amount of c.o.d.; the amount of c.o.d. is payable in cash; no privilege of examination will be given prior to the collection thereof; no partial collection will be made; and no partial delivery of c.o.d. shipments will be made unless the full amount of the c.o.d. has been collected.

rules on the revised pages of the tariff, including subsequent revisions and reissues thereof, described in Appendix A attached hereto,[1] and rules, regulations, and practices affecting such provisions, are or will be unjust, unreasonable, unjustly discriminatory, unduly preferential, unduly prejudicial, or otherwise unlawful, and if found to be unlawful, to determine and prescribe the lawful provisions, and rules, regulations, or practices affecting such provisions;

2. Pending hearing and decision by the Board, the provision reading "OZ" in Rule No. 56(B)(12) on 13th Revised Page 22-B of Tariff CAB No. 96 issued by Airline Tariff Publishers, Inc., agent, is suspended and its use deferred to and including November 5, 1970, unless otherwise ordered by the Board, and that no changes be made therein during the period of suspension except by order or special permission of the Board;

3. The complaint of Ozark Kennels, Inc., in Docket 22397 is hereby dismissed except to the extent granted herein;

4. The proceeding herein be assigned for hearing before an examiner of the Board at a time and place hereafter to be designated; and

5. Copies of this order shall be filed with the tariffs and served upon Ozark Air Lines, Inc., Braniff Airways, Inc., Delta Air Lines, Inc., North Central Airlines, Inc., Northwest Airlines, Inc., Western Air Lines, Inc., and Ozark Kennels, Inc., which are hereby made parties to this proceeding.

This order will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

[Docket No. 70-30; Agreement Nos. 9847, 9848]

U.S./BRAZIL TRADE

Order of Investigation of Revenue Pools

Two agreements providing for the the pooling of revenues on certain cargoes moving southbound in the trade between the United States and Brazil have been filed for approval under section 15, Shipping Act, 1916.

Agreement No. 9847 is between Moore-McCormack Lines, Inc. (a U.S.-flag carrier) as one party, and Companhia de Navegacao Lloyd Brasiliero and Companhia de Navegacao Maritima Netumar S/A (both Brazilian-flag carriers) as the other party. The agreement would establish a revenue pooling and sailing arrangement in the trade from all ports on the Atlantic Coast of the United States to ports on the Coast of Brazil in the Fortaleza/Porto Alegre range, both inclusive.

Agreement No. 9848 is between Delta Steamship Lines, Inc. (a U.S.-flag carrier) as one party, and Lloyd and Navegacao Mercantil S.A. Navem as the other party. The agreement would apportion revenues on all cargoes shipped southbound between all ports or points on the U.S. Coast of the Gulf of Mexico—Brownsville, Tex. to Key West, Fla., inclusive—and all ports of the Brazilian Coast between Recife and Parangua, both inclusive.

The agreements cover both government and commercial cargoes with the exception of certain specified commodities. Insofar as Government cargo is concerned, it is stated that an agreement has been entered into between the Governments of the United States and Brazil which provides for equal access to such cargoes by the lines of each country. The Commission understands the agreement between the Governments is to continue to operate.

Each agreement was accompanied by a memorandum in support of approval urging expeditious action and citing, together with the long history of turmoil in the trade, a number of conditions presently existing which called for immediate approval.

Notice of these filings was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, and subsequently protests to the approval of both agreements were received by the Commission.

Norton Line and Ivaran Lines object to any approval of Agreement 9847 on the grounds that the agreement: (1) Will be unjustly discriminatory and unfair as between carriers; (2) will operate to the detriment of the foreign commerce of the United States and be contrary to the public interest; and (3) will subject particular traffic to undue and unreasonable prejudice and disadvantage, all in violation of sections 15 and 16 of the Shipping Act, 1916.

A reply to these protests was filed by Moore-McCormack Lines, Inc.

Northern Pan-American Line objects to the approval of Agreement 9848 on the grounds that the agreement would be unjustly discriminatory and unfair as between carriers, detrimental to the commerce of the United States and contrary to the public interest in violation of section 15, Shipping Act, 1916.

Comments on both agreements were filed by the National Coffee Association, the Green Coffee Association of New York and the Department of Transportation.

A review of the information before the Commission establishes: (1) That the protests require the institution of a proceeding to determine the approvability of Nos. 9847 and 9848 under section 15; (2) that the proceeding instituted must include an evidentiary hearing to resolve disputed questions of fact; (3) that there is a demonstrated need for expeditious treatment of the two agreements; and (4) that both agreements should be tested in the same proceeding since they are to some degree complementary facets of the whole picture in the United States/Brazil trade.

The need for expedition has prompted the Commission to adopt the following procedure:

1. The Commission will preside en banc at the taking of the evidence.

2. A hearing examiner from the Commission's Office of Hearing Examiners will be appointed to assist the Commission in the conduct of the hearing.

3. The examiner will rule on all matters arising during the course of the hearing.

4. The examiner will conduct a prehearing conference at a time to be announced later.

5. There will be no initial or recommended decision issued. The only decision issued in this proceeding will be the final decision of the Commission.

6. In all other respects, and except where inconsistent with the foregoing, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure will govern the conduct of the proceeding.

Therefore, it is ordered, That pursuant to sections 15 and 22 a proceeding is hereby instituted to determine whether Agreement Nos. 9847 and 9848 are unjustly discriminatory or unfair as between carriers, will operate to the detriment of the commerce of the United States or be contrary to the public interest or in violation of the Act within the meaning of section 15, or subject particular traffic to undue and unreasonable prejudice and disadvantage in violation of section 16 of the Shipping Act, 1916.

It is further ordered, That Moore-McCormack Lines, Inc., Delta Steamship Lines, Inc., Companhia de Navegacao Lloyd Brasiliero, Companhia de Navegacao Maritima Netumar S/A and Navegacao Mercantil S.A. Navem are hereby made respondents in this proceeding.

It is further ordered, That Norton Lines, Ivaran Lines, and Northern Pan-American Lines are hereby made petitioners in this proceeding.

It is further ordered, That any person who desires to become a party to this proceeding and participate therein, shall file a petition to intervene in accordance with Rule 5(1), 46 CFR 502.72 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

And it is further ordered, That all future notices issued by or on behalf of the Commission, including the designation of a presiding examiner, the scheduling of a prehearing conference and notice of time and place of hearing shall be mailed to all parties of record.

Assistant to the Secretary.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. G-4579 etc.]

CITIES SERVICE OIL CO. ET AL.

Findings and Order

AUGUST 4, 1970.

Findings and order after statutory hearing issuing certificates of public convenience and necessity, dismissing application, amending orders issuing certificates, permitting and approving abandonment of service, terminating certificates, making successors co-respondents, redesignating proceedings, making rate change effective, accepting agreement and undertaking for filing, requiring filing of agreements and undertakings or surety bond, and accepting related rate schedules and supplements for filing.

Each of the applicants listed herein has filed an application pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the sale and delivery of natural gas in interstate commerce or for permission and approval to abandon service or a petition to amend an order issuing a certificate, all as more fully set forth in the applications and petitions, as supplemented and amended.

Applicants have filed related FPC gas rate schedules or supplements thereto and propose to initiate, abandon, add to, or discontinue in part natural gas service in interstate commerce as indicated in the tabulation herein. All sales certificated herein are at rates either equal to or below the ceiling prices established by the Commission's statement of general policy No. 61-1, as amended, or involve sales for which permanent certificates have been previously issued; except that sales from areas for which area rates have been determined are authorized to be made at or below the applicable area base rates adjusted for quality of the gas, and under the conditions prescribed in the orders determining said rates.

L. E. Ostrom (Operator) et al., applicant in Docket No. CI63-906, proposes to continue the sale of natural gas heretofore authorized in said docket to be made pursuant to Maxwell D. Simmons (Operator) et al., FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 2. Said rate schedule will be redesignated as that of applicant. On June 4, 1963, Simmons filed with the Commission a notice of change in rate under his FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 2. By order issued June 20, 1963, in Docket No. RI63-456 et al., the Commission suspended the proposed change in Docket No. RI63-477 until December 5, 1963, and thereafter until made effective. The notice of change was designated as Supplement No. 1 to Simmons' rate schedule. On April 3, 1970, applicant filed a motion to make the change in rate effective subject to refund together with a personal surety bond to assure the refund of any amounts collected by him in excess of the amount determined to be just and reasonable in Docket No. RI63-477. Therefore, applicant will be made a co-respondent in said proceeding; the proceeding will be redesignated accordingly; and the change in rate will be made effective subject to refund. The surety bond is in the form of an agreement and undertaking contemplated by § 154.102 of the regulations under the Natural Gas Act and will be accepted for filing as such.

J. Gregory Merrion (Operator) et al., applicants in Dockets Nos. CI70-898, CI70-901, and CI70-970, propose to continue in part sales of natural gas heretofore authorized in Dockets Nos. G-16006, G-14645, and G-17206, respectively, to be made pursuant to El Paso Products Co., (Operator) et al., FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 6, El Paso Products Co. FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1, and El Paso Products Co. FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 8, respectively. The contracts comprising said rate schedules will also be accepted for filing as rate schedules of applicants. The presently effective rates under El Paso's FPC Gas Rate Schedules Nos. 1, 6, and 8 are in effect subject to refund in Dockets Nos. RI64-652, RI64-468, and RI64-460 (Dakota Formation sales), respectively. The rate being collected by El Paso under its FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1 is subject to refund because of El Paso's affiliation with the gas purchaser. Inasmuch as the rate is below the guideline for increased rates set forth in § 2.56 of the Commission's general policy and interpretations and applicants are not affiliated with the gas purchaser, applicants will be permitted to collect without any refund obligation the rate heretofore collected by El Paso. The rates being collected by El Paso under its FPC Gas Rate Schedule Nos. 6 and 8 (Dakota Formation sales) exceed the guideline for increased rates. Applicants indicate in their certificate applications in Dockets Nos. CI70–898 and CI70–970 that in addition to the refund obligation required by § 154.92 (d) (3) of the regulations under the Natural Gas Act, they intend to be responsible for the total refunds from the time that the increased rates were made effective subject to refund. Therefore, applicants will be made co-respondents in each of the proceedings pending in Dockets Nos. RI64–460 and RI64–468; said proceedings will be redesignated accordingly; applicants will be required to file an agreement and undertaking in Docket No. RI64–460 and an agreement and undertaking or a surety bond in Docket No. RI64–468 to assure the refunds of all amounts collected by El Paso and applicants in excess of the amounts determined to be just and reasonable in said proceedings from the time that the increased rates were made effective subject to refund with respect to sales from the subject acreage.

The Commission's staff has reviewed each application and recommends each action ordered as consistent with all substantive Commission policies as required by the public convenience and necessity.

After due notice by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, a petition to intervene by Philadelphia Gas Works Division of UGI Corp. was filed in Docket No. CI69–114, in the matter of the application filed on March 9, 1970, in said docket and a notice of intervention by the Public Service Commission of the State of New York was filed in Docket No. CI70–659, in the matter of the application filed on January 21, 1970, in said docket. The petition to intervene and the notice of intervention have been withdrawn and no other petitions to intervene, notices of intervention, or protests to the granting of any of the applications have been filed.

At a hearing held on July 30, 1970, the Commission on its own motion received and made a part of the record in this proceeding all evidence, including the applications and petitions, as supplemented and amended, and exhibits thereto, submitted in support of the authorizations sought herein, and upon consideration of the record,

The Commission finds:

(1) Each applicant herein is a "natural-gas company" within the meaning of the Natural Gas Act as heretofore found by the Commission or will be engaged in the sale of natural gas in interstate commerce for resale for ultimate public consumption, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, and will, therefore, be a "natural-gas company" within the meaning of the Natural Gas Act upon the commencement of service under the authorizations hereinafter granted.

(2) The sales of natural gas hereinbefore described, as more fully described in the applications in this proceeding, will be made in interstate commerce subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission; and such sales by applicants, together with the construction and operation of any facilities subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission necessary therefor, are subject to the requirements of subsections (c) and (e) of section 7 of the Natural Gas Act.

(3) Applicants are able and willing properly to do the acts and to perform the service proposed and to conform to the provisions of the Natural Gas Act and the requirements, rules and regulations of the Commission thereunder.

(4) The sales of natural gas by applicants, together with the construction and operation of any facilities subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission necessary therefor, are required by the public convenience and necessity and certificates therefor should be issued as hereinafter ordered and conditioned.

(5) It is necessary and appropriate in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the application filed on November 12, 1968, in Docket No. CI69–464 should be dismissed as moot.

(6) It is necessary and appropriate in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act and the public convenience and necessity require that the orders issuing certificates of public convenience and necessity in various dockets involved herein should be amended as hereinafter ordered and conditioned.

(7) The sales of natural gas proposed to be abandoned as hereinbefore described and as more fully described in the applications and in the tabulation herein are subject to the requirements of subsection (b) of section 7 of the Natural Gas Act.

(8) The abandonments proposed by applicants herein are permitted by the public convenience and necessity and should be approved as hereinafter ordered.

(9) It is necessary and appropriate in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the certificates heretofore issued to applicants relating to the abandonments hereinafter permitted and approved should be terminated or that the orders issuing said certificates should be amended by deleting therefrom authorization to sell natural gas from the subject acreage.

(10) It is necessary and appropriate in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that L. E. Ostrom (Operator) et al., should be made a co-respondent in the proceeding pending in Docket No. RI63–477; that said proceeding should be redesignated accordingly; that the proposed change in rate suspended in said proceeding should be made effective subject to refund; and that the agreement and undertaking submitted by L. E. Ostrom should be accepted for filing.

(11) It is necessary and appropriate in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that J. Gregory Merrion (Operator) et al., should be made co-respondents in each of the proceedings pending in Dockets Nos. RI64–460 and RI64–468; that said proceedings should be redesignated accordingly; that Merrion should be required to file an agreement and undertaking in Docket No. RI64–460; and that Merrion should be required to file an agreement and undertaking or a surety bond in Docket No. RI64–468.

(12) It is necessary and appropriate in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the FPC gas rate schedules and supplements related to the authorizations hereinafter granted should be accepted for filing.

The Commission orders:

(A) Certificates of public convenience and necessity are issued upon the terms and conditions of this order authorizing sales by applicants of natural gas in interstate commerce for resale, together with the construction and operation of any facilities subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission necessary therefor, all as hereinbefore described and as more fully described in the applications and in the tabulation herein.

(B) The certificates granted in paragraph (A) above are not transferable and shall be effective only so long as applicants continue the acts or operations hereby authorized in accordance with the provisions of the Natural Gas Act and the applicable rules, regulations, and orders of the Commission.

(C) The grant of the certificates issued in paragraph (A) above shall not be construed as a waiver of the requirements of section 4 of the Natural Gas Act or of Part 154 or Part 157 of the Commission's regulations thereunder and is without prejudice to any findings or orders which have been or which may hereafter be made by the Commission in any proceedings now pending or hereafter instituted by or against applicants. Further, our action in this proceeding shall not foreclose nor prejudice any future proceedings or objections relating to the operation of any price or related provisions in the gas purchase contracts herein involved. Nor shall the grant of the certificates aforesaid for service to the particular customers involved imply approval of all of the terms of the contracts, particularly as to the cessation of service upon termination of said contracts as provided by section 7(b) of the Natural Gas Act. The grant of the certificates aforesaid shall not be construed to preclude the imposition of any sanctions pursuant to the provisions of the Natural Gas Act for the unauthorized commencement of any sales of natural gas subject to said certificates.

(D) The certificates issued herein and the amended certificates are subject to the following conditions:

(a) The sale authorized in Docket No. G–18587 shall be made at the rate of 13 cents per Mcf at 14.65 p.s.i.a.

(b) Sales authorized in Dockets Nos. CI61–752, CI69–551 and CI70–956 shall be made at the rate of 17 cents per Mcf at 14.65 p.s.i.a. including tax reimbursement and subject to B.t.u. adjustment.

(c) Sales authorized in Docket No. CI66–470 shall be made at the rates of 16.015 cents per Mcf at 14.65 p.s.i.a. including tax reimbursement subject to refund in Docket No. RI69–33 for sales attributable to the interest in the Reed A Unit acquired from Humble Oil & Refining Co.; and 16 cents per Mcf at 14.65 p.s.i.a. including tax reimbursement subject to refund in Docket No. RI69–68 for sales attributable to the interest in the Bledsoe Unit acquired from Union Oil Company of California.

(d) Issuance of the certificate authorization in Docket No. CI66–470 shall not be construed as constituting approval of the advance payment provision contained in the November 13, 1969, letter agreement and any such payments shall be subject to future orders of the Commission concerning the propriety of such payments.

(e) Sales authorized in Dockets Nos. CI69–114 and CI70–980 shall be made at the rate of 18.75 cents per Mcf at 15.025 p.s.i.a. DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Office of Federal Contract Compliance

IMPLEMENTATION OF EXECUTIVE ORDER 11246 IN LOS ANGELES AREA

Notice of Public Hearing

Notice is hereby given that, pursuant to the authority of section 208(a) of Executive Order 11246 (30 F.R. 12319), a public hearing will be held by the Department of Labor on Thursday and Friday, September 3 and 4, 1970, in Room 517, Federal Court House, 312 North Spring Street, Los Angeles, Calif. 90012 for the purpose of obtaining information to be used by the Department in implementing the requirements and objectives of Executive Order 11246 regarding Federally-involved construction in the Los Angeles area for asbestos workers, sheet metal workers and electricians. The hearing will begin at 9 a.m. on Thursday, September 3, 1970. All interested persons are encouraged to present their views before the Hearing Panel.

Executive Order 11246 prohibits discrimination by Federal contractors and subcontractors against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, color, religion, sex, or national origin, and further requires that the contractor or subcontractor take affirmative action to ensure equal employment opportunity. Section 201 of the Executive order delegates to the Secretary of Labor the responsibility for implementing its requirements concerning Federally-involved construction.

It has been the position of the Department that the objectives of Executive Order 11246 can be implemented most successfully through voluntary, area-wide agreements between contractors, unions and local organizations interested in furthering equal employment opportunity which are designed to increase the utilization of the minority workforce in the skilled construction trades in a particular area. However, if a voluntary agreement cannot be reached, the Department, in order to carry out its responsibilities under the Executive order, must itself take steps to ensure that the mandate of Executive Order 11246 is carried out. Therefore, because a voluntary agreement has not been reached by contractors and unions in the Los Angeles area with respect to asbestos workers, sheet metal workers and electricians, the Department deems is necessary at this time to gather further information concerning the employment situation in these three trades to aid it in determining what action should be taken to ensure that its responsibilities under Executive Order 11246 are carried out.

The Department recognizes that circumstances and problems in the field of equal employment opportunity vary from one area of the country to another, and that those living and working in a specific area are in a unique position to assist the Department with information as to the most effective way to implement the Executive order. Therefore, all persons having information which would be of use to the Department in determining how best to implement the requirements of the Executive order are encouraged to present their views before the panel. The Department is particularly desirous of obtaining information on the following points:

(1) The current extent of minority group participation in each construction trade.

(2) Present employee recruitment methods, including union involvement in the recruitment and referral process.

(3) The availability of qualified and qualifiable minority group persons for employment in the construction industry.

(4) An evaluation of existing training programs in the areas and the extent of minority involvement in them.

(5) The number of additional workers that can be absorbed into each trade without displacing present employees.

Persons desiring to appear before the panel should notify the Office of Federal Contract Compliance Area Coordinator, Mr. James Warren, 1003 Federal Office Building, 450 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, Calif. (phone (415) 556-6017) of their intentions as soon as possible in order to ensure that they will have an opportunity to be heard. Persons desiring to present written statements concerning this matter should file them with Mr. Warren not later than August 24, 1970.

Copies of Executive Order 11246 can be obtained from the Office of Federal Contract Compliance, Department of Labor, 14th and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, D.C. 20210, or from the Office of Federal Contract Compliance Area Coordinator in San Francisco.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 7th day of August 1970.

JOHN L. WILKS,
Director, Office of Federal Contract Compliance.

Notice is hereby given that, pursuant to the authority of section 208(a) of Executive Order 11246 (30 F.R. 12319), a public hearing will be held by the Department of Labor on Monday, August 31, and Tuesday, September 1, 1970, in the Federal Building, Room 1612, 1520 Market Street, St. Louis, Mo., for the purpose of obtaining information to be used by the Department in implementing the requirements and objectives of Executive Order 11246 regarding federally involved construction in the St. Louis area for the following 11 construction trades: Asbestos workers, boiler makers, bricklayers, electrical workers, elevator constructors, glaziers, iron workers, painters, pipe fitters, plumbers and terrazzo workers. All interested persons are encouraged to present their views before the Hearing Panel.

Executive Order 11246 prohibits discrimination by Federal contractors and subcontractors against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, color, religion, sex, or national origin, and further requires contractors and subcontractors to take affirmative action to ensure equal employment opportunity. Section 201 of the Executive order delegates to the Secretary of Labor the responsibility for implementing its requirements concerning federally involved construction.

It has been the position of the Department that the objectives of Executive Order 11246 can be implemented most successfully through voluntary, area-wide agreements between contractors, unions, and local organizations interested in furthering equal employment opportunity which are designed to increase the utilization of the minority workforce in the skilled construction trades in a particular area. However, if a voluntary agreement cannot be reached, the Department, in order to carry out its responsibilities under the Executive order, must itself take steps to ensure that the mandate of Executive Order 11246 is carried out. Therefore, because a voluntary agreement has not been reached by contractors and unions in the St. Louis area with respect to the above-mentioned 11 trades, the Department deems it necessary at this time to gather further information concerning the employment situation in these trades to aid it in determining what action should be taken to ensure that is responsibilities under Executive Order 11246 are carried out.

The Department recognizes that circumstances and problems in the field of equal employment opportunity vary from one area of the country to another, and that those living and working in a specific area are in a unique position to assist the Department in determining the most effective way to implement the Executive order. Therefore, all persons having information which would be of use to the Department in determining how best to implement the requirements of the Executive order are encouraged to present their views before the panel. The Department is particularly desirous of obtaining information on the following points:

(1) The current extent of minority group participation in each construction trade;

(2) Present employee recruitment methods, including union involvement in the recruitment and referral process;

(3) The availability of qualified and qualifiable minority group persons for employment in the construction industry;

(4) An evaluation of existing training programs in the area and the extent of minority involvement in them; and

(5) The number of additional workers that can be absorbed into each trade without displacing present employees.

Persons desiring to appear before the Panel should notify the Office of Federal Contract Compliance Area Coordinator, Mr. W. W. Zenfell, Box 10709, St. Louis, Mo. (Telephone: (314) MA 2-4471) of their intentions as soon as possible in order to ensure that they will have the opportunity to be heard. Persons who wish to present written statements on this matter should file them with Mr. Zenfell not later than August 24, 1970.

Copies of Executive Order 11246 may be obtained from the Office of Federal Contract Compliance, Department of Labor, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, D.C. 20210 or from the Area Coordinator in St. Louis.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 7th day of August 1970.

JOHN L. WILKS,
Director, Office of Federal Contract Compliance.

APPLICATIONS ASSIGNED FOR ORAL HEARING

MOTOR CARRIERS OF PROPERTY

No. MC 89684 (Sub-No. 63) (Republication), filed January 18, 1968, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER issue of February 1, 1968, and republished this issue. Because it is possible that other parties, who have relied upon the notice of the application as published, may have an interest in and would be prejudiced by the lack of proper notice of the authority described in this order, a notice of the authority actually granted will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER and issuance of a certificate in this proceeding will be withheld for a period of 30 days from the date of such publication, during which period any proper party in interest may file a petition to reopen or for other appropriate relief setting forth in detail the precise manner in which it has been so prejudiced.
