HP EliteDisplay S340c 86.4 cm (34") Curved Monitor

Follow the curve to breathtaking collaboration

Master every task and take collaboration beyond the everyday with HP's first Skype for Business® certified curved display, the HP EliteDisplay S340c. Juggle online meetings, presentations, and spreadsheets in extra-wide QHD. Conference in style with a pop-up webcam, mic, and Audio by Bang & Olufsen.

Cue the big oohs and ahs
● Get an ultra-slim QHD display that'll be the star attraction on any desk. Unrivaled across HP business displays, its extraordinary 86.36 cm (34") diagonal curved screen, 21:9 aspect ratio, and three-sided micro edge make the most of all available screen space.

Pilot the perfect conference
● Collaborate in crystal-clear sound and video with HP's best conferencing display yet. It's Skype for Business® certified and has a pop-up webcam, conferencing hotkeys, microphone, dual speakers, and expertly-tuned Audio by Bang & Olufsen.

Sign in with your smile
● Say hello to simple, secure logins when you connect the display to your Windows 10 PC with Windows Hello. An integrated pop-up webcam with IR recognizes your face and automatically logs you in through facial recognition, no manual password required!

USB-C™ your way to complete PC productivity
● Drive power[1] to and get video from your HP Elite desktop, notebook, convertible or mobile device with just one USB-C™ connection at the display.

Featuring
● Connect with the latest and greatest peripherals and your trustiest longtime companions with DisplayPort™ 1.2 and HDMI video support and two downstream and one upstream USB 3.0 for data, on top of USB-C™ for video and power.[1]
● Open and close the pop-up webcam with just one touch so it's only sending video when you want it to be; deter theft with HP Display Assistant's user-designated PIN.
● Use the adjustable tilt to find your comfort zone, or take the display completely off the desk and mount on a wall with the included VESA mounting bracket.[2]
