This report contains data on sources of income, adjusted gross income, exemptions, deductions, taxable income, income tax, modified income tax, tax credits, self-employment tax and taxpayments. Classifications are by tax status, size of adjusted gross income, marital status, and type of tax computation.

Additional unpublished information from individual income tax returns classified by size of adjusted gross income, is available on a reimbursable basis. A public-use computer tape file, i.e., the Individual Tax Model File, containing the records selected for the Statistics of Income sample is also available on a reimbursable basis. This file is suitable primarily for making national level estimates.

The issuance of this publication was delayed because of staff resources devoted to the implementation of provisions contained in the Tax Reform Act of 1986.

Introduction and Changes in Law*

The statistics presented in this report are estimates based on a stratified probability sample of individual income tax returns, selected before audit, and represent coverage of the 103 million Forms 1040, 1040A and 1040EZ filed by the nation's taxpayers for Tax Year 1986.

Table A shows selected tax items for Tax Years 1970, 1975, 1980, 1985 and 1986. In addition, percent changes between Tax Years 1985 and 1986 are shown. Between 1985 and 1986, the number of returns filed increased by approximately 1.4 million, or 1.4 percent, and adjusted gross income (AGI) increased by approximately $176 billion, or 7.6 percent. Taxable income increased by 6.9 percent, and total income tax by 12.8 percent.

This report contains the first comprehensive publication of final individual income tax data for Tax Year 1986. However, these data, as well as preliminary income tax data for Tax Year 1987, are also featured in the Spring 1989, Statistics of Income Bulletin (1).

REQUIREMENTS FOR FILING

The Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, provided the legal basis for tax activity detailed in this volume. For Tax Year 1986, as for previous tax years, the principal criteria that determined the general filing requirements were gross income, filing status, and age. Gross income included all income received in the form of money, property, and services that were not expressly exempt from tax. A return had to be filed by:

- a single person (other than a surviving spouse) under age 65, with gross income of at least $3,560;
- (2) a single person (other than a surviving spouse) age 65 or over, with gross income of at least $4,640;
- (3) a surviving spouse under age 65 with gross income of at least $4,750;

- (4) a surviving spouse age 65 or over with gross income of at least $5,830;
- (5) a married couple, filing a joint return, with both spouses under age 65 and with a combined gross income of at least $5,830;
- (6) a married couple, filing a joint return, with one spouse age 65 or over and with a combined gross income of at least $6,910;
- (7) a married couple, filing a joint return, with both spouses age 65 or over and with a combined gross income of at least $7,990; and
- (8) a married person regardless of age whose spouse was filing a separate return, if that married person had a gross income of at least $1,080.

Notwithstanding these provisions, there were six additional filing requirements. Specifically, an individual had to file a return for Tax Year 1986 if that individual:

- (1) was claimed as a dependent on another person's return and had "unearned income" (such as trust distributions, interest, or capital gains) of $1,080 or more;
- (2) was liable for any of the following taxes:
  - social security tax on unreported tip income;
  - uncollected social security tax or Railroad Retirement Tax Act (RRTA) tax on reported tip income;
  - alternative minimum tax;
  - tax on an Individual Retirement Arrangement; or
  - tax from recapture of investment credit;

NOTE: Detail may not add to total because of rounding.

- (3) received advanced earned income payments;
- (4) had net earnings of at least $400 from self-employment income;
- (5) had wages of $100 or more from a church or qualified church-controlled organization that was exempt from employer social security taxes; or
- (6) had gross income of at least $1,080 and excluded income from sources within U.S. possessions.

These filing requirements applied to all U.S. citizens, residents of Puerto Rico, resident aliens for the entire tax year, certain dual-status taxpayers, and certain nonresident aliens married to U.S. citizens or residents at the end of 1986.

Data shown in these tables covers individuals who were not required to file tax returns, but did so in order to obtain refunds (generally of tax withheld) or to take advantage of the earned income credit.

Most taxpayers were required to file tax returns within three and one-half months after the close of their accounting periods. Since most individuals use a calendar year period, nearly all returns were due by April 15, However, each taxpayer could be request, granted, upon one automatic four-month extension of time to file. U.S. citizens residing or traveling outside the United States and Puerto Rico on the due date were automatically granted (without requesting) a two-month extension. In addition, taxpayers could petition the IRS for an additional extension beyond the automatic ones cited above. However, this extension must be approved by IRS.

CHANGES IN LAW

New tax provisions affecting 1986 income tax returns arose as a result of the Economic Recovery Tax Act of 1981, the Tax Equity and Fiscal Responsibility Act of 1982, the 1983 Social Security Amendments Act and Railroad Retirement Solvency Act, the Tax Reform Act of 1984, and the Tax Reform Act of 1986. Most of these tax law changes pertaining to 1986 individual returns are reflected in this report.

All major changes in effect for Tax Year 1986 are listed below in alphabetical order. Section 5 contains more detailed explanations and definitions of terms used in this report.

Charitable Contributions for Nonitemizers

For 1986, individuals who did not itemize their deductions could deduct 100 percent of their charitable contributions from their adjusted gross income, up to limits based on AGI. The allowable deduction for 1985 was 50 percent of charitable contributions.

General Business Credit

For tax years beginning after 1985, the percentage of tax liability in excess of $25,000 that could be offset using the general business credit was reduced from 85 to 75 percent.

Income Averaging

For 1986, an individual could not income average if he was a full-time student during any base period year, unless he filed a joint return in the computation year and his income in the computation year was not more than 25 percent of total AGI on the joint return.

Inflation Adjustments (Indexing)

For Tax Year 1986, the width of each income bracket (including the zero rate bracket) in the Tax Rate Schedules (and the Tax Table) was adjusted to reflect the effect of inflation so that inflation would not increase a taxpayer's average tax rate (all other things being equal). Similarly, the amount allowed as a deduction for each personal exemption increased, as the result of indexing, from $1,040 to $1,080.

Investment Tax Credit

The regular 10 percent investment tax credit (ITC) was repealed for property placed in service after 1985 with the exception of qualified progress expenditures and ITC transition property.

Jobs Credit

This credit was reduced from 50 to 40 percent (85 percent for summer youth employees) of qualified first year wages, and was repealed for credit against wages paid in the second year. No credit was allowed unless the employee worked at least 90 days (14 for summer youth employees) or at least 120 hours (20 hours for summer youth employees).

Pensions and Annuities

After July 1, 1986, an individual could not use the "three-year rule" to determine the taxable and nontaxable parts of a pension or annuity to exclude qualified retirement annuity payments from income until the employee had recovered the amount contributed to the plan. The employee was required to report payments under the general rule which provided that the nontaxable portion be amortized over the expected lifetime of the taxpayer.

Research and Experimentation Credit

This credit was extended through calendar year 1988. The rate was reduced from 25 to 20 percent, effective after 1985. It was redesignated as a general business credit and was subject to the general business credit tax liability limitations.

Residential Energy Credit

Unused credits from prior years could be carried forward to 1986 but no additional credit could be claimed for energy saving items or renewable energy source property installed after 1985.

Self-Employment Tax

The limit for Tax Year 1986 on the amount of net earnings subject to self-employment tax increased from $39,600 to $42,000. The net tax rate was 11.8 percent for Tax Year 1985 and 12.3 percent for Tax Year 1986.

RETROSPECTIVE INCOME CLASSIFIER

Tax law changes between 1981 and 1986 altered what individuals were required to report as part of their adjusted gross income. Since reporting requirements had been modified from year to year, the basic measurement of income in the SOI Individual study has changed as well. The concept that SOI has historically used -- AGI -- was designed to administer the collection of taxes, and is not entirely usable by many tax analysts.

SOI determined to develop an income definition that would: (1) be applicable over several years and allow comparisons, both preand post the major tax legislation of the 1980's; (2) include only available tax return items, thereby eliminating the need for imputation; and (3) cover only income from the applicable tax year (excluding "carryovers" and "carrybacks.")

A retrospective income called the "1979 Income Concept" reflects the base period 1979 through 1986 (2). This base period was selected because it covers the tax law changes of the 1980's, and the underlying data reported on tax returns permit construction of an income measure that is defined consistently across all those years. Even though the 1979 Income Concept is "retrospective," its use will be continued in future years, to show an income that is conceptually similar to income published for these prior "base" years.

The 1979 Income Concept does not adjust for

The 1979 Income Concept does not adjust for costs of producing income, such as the investment interest expense, which is used in the "expanded income" concept described in Section 4 (3). Expanded income, which has been published for eleven years, is similar to the 1979 Income Concept in that it adds to AGI tax preferences that taxpayers were permitted by law to exclude. The expanded income is different in that it includes reported tax preferences in a given year, whereas the 1979 Income Concept only covers preferences if they were included in reporting requirements for all years from 1979 through 1986. The expanded income also reduces income by the investment interest expense. Figure 1 provides the derivation for the 1979 Income Concept, mostly using the line items on the income tax return.

By applying this definition, IRS has come up with a concept of income that is broader and consistent than AGI. The difference between the 1979 Income Concept and AGI is the 60 percent capital gains exclusion, included in the 1979 Since most adjustments are really Concept. tax items and not income, those amounts were included in retrospective income, leaving only expense items, such as the employee business expense, as adjustments to income. The State income tax refund was omitted because it is a tax recovery or adjustment -- again, not a measure of income. Social security benefits are obviously income, but they were omitted because they weren't potentially subject to tax or even partially included on the tax return until 1984 and, therefore, could not be used consistently for all years from 1979 through 1986.

COMPARISON OF AGI AND 1979 INCOME CONCEPT

Figures 2, 3, and 4, and Table B show differences in income and tax items for AGI and the 1979 Income Concept. Table B compares the two concepts for all income classes, and Figures 2, 3, and 4 show differences only for the high income classes ($200,000 or more) where the greatest changes occurred.

Figure 2 shows the distribution of large income returns both by size of AGI and retrospective income. It shows that the number of returns for the high income classes -- over $200,000 -- was consistently higher when the income was computed according to the 1979 Income Concept. The shift to income classes over $200,000 using the 1979 Income Concept was about 203,000 returns or 54 percent of the high income returns. Much of this shift to higher income classes was due to the elimination of the capital gains exclusion in the 1979 Income Concept.

Figure 3 compares total income for the two concepts on returns with $200,000 or more of income. The amount of income for returns with a million or more increased 131 percent between AGI and the 1979 Income Concept. The greatest differences occur above $1,000,000, primarily because this class finds the individuals with highest capital gains exclusion.

Total income, shown in Table B, was $272 billion higher (II percent) for all returns, when computed according to the 1979 Income Concept in comparison with AGI. In addition, our data show an increase of $266 billion (II percent) in total income for 1986 over 1985 using the 1979 concept.

Total income tax was a greater percent of AGI (14.8 percent) than it was of the 1979 Income Concept (13.3 percent) for all income classes. This would be expected, since AGI is lower than the 1979 Income Concept for all classes. The average tax paid for individuals in the million dollar class was $912,000 for AGI income and $639,000 for the 1979 Income Concept. Many of the taxpayers who moved into this income class had considerable capital gains income which was taxed at a lower rate, causing the average tax to drop. See columns 57 through 60 of Table B for a distribution of total income tax for all income classes.

Description of the Sample*

This section describes the sample criteria and selection, the method of estimation and sampling variability of the estimates contained in this report. It also describes the methodology needed to compute confidence interval estimates, as well as some of the limitations of the data. Statistical estimates included in this report are based on the tax return (1).

SAMPLE SELECTION

The statistics in this report were estimated from a stratified probability sample of unaudited Individual Income Tax Returns, Forms 1040, 1040A, and 1040EZ filed by U.S. citizens and residents. The sample was designated at the Martinsburg Computing Center and was processed in the ten Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Centers during Calendar Year 1987. The total sample of 89,165 returns was selected from a population of 103,423,686 returns.

All returns processed during 1987 subjected to sampling except tentative and amended returns. Tentative returns were not subjected to sampling because the revised returns may have been sampled later on, while amended returns were excluded because the original returns had already been subjected to sampling. A small percentage of returns were not identified as tentative or amended until after sampling. These returns along with those returns that contained no income information were excluded from the tables in Sample returns representing this report. approximately 378,516 returns were excluded from the tables.

The estimates in this report are intended to represent all returns filed for Tax Year 1986. While about 98 percent of the returns processed during Calendar Year 1987 were for Tax Year 1986, a few were for noncalendar years ending during 1986 and 1987 and some were returns for prior years. Returns for prior years were used in place of 1986 returns received and processed after December 31, 1987. This was done in the belief that the characteristics of returns due but not yet filed could best be represented by the returns for previous income years that were processed in 1987.

Therefore, data for Tax Year 1986 may include amounts of minimum tax (or other discontinued items) reported on returns filed in 1987.

SAMPLE DESIGN AND SELECTION CRITERIA

Data from Forms 1040, 1040A, and 1040EZ processed to the IRS Individual Master File System at the Martinsburg Computing Center during Calendar Year 1987 were stratified, by computer, into sample strata. These strata were based on the larger of total income or total loss amounts and the size of business plus farm receipts. In addition the strata were based on the presence or absence of a Form 2555, Foreign Earned Income; a Form 1116, Computation of Foreign Tax Credit; a Schedule Profit or (Loss) From Business Profession; and a Schedule F, Farm Income and Twenty variables were used to Expenses. derive the total income and loss amounts.

Returns were then selected from the sample strata using two methodologies. One method used certain ending digits of the Social Security Number (SSN) and the second method used ending digits of random numbers generated from transformations of the SSN. The sampling rates ranged from 0.01 percent to 100 percent.

Table C contains the number of returns in the population and sample by sample stratum for the United States and State Groups. The State Groups were formed on the basis of total number of Forms 1040, 1040A, and 1040EZ filed from each State. The sampling rates of each State Group were identical. A comparison of the population counts in Table C with the total shown in the national tables of this report will disclose a small difference. This difference is the result of having excluded an estimated 378,516 returns (see above).

METHOD OF ESTIMATION

Weighting factors were obtained by dividing the computer population count of returns in a sample stratum by the number of sample returns for that stratum. The weighting factors were then converted to

<sup>1</sup> Three State Groups (A, B and C) were available for use in the sample design, however, State Group B was empty.
2 State Group A contains returns from the District of Columbia and the following states: Alaska, Delaware, Hawaii, Idaho, Maine, Montana, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Mexico, North Dakota, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Utah, Vermont, West Virginia, and Wyoming.
3 State Group C includes returns from those states that are not included in State Group A and the following: Puerto Rico, the Office of the Assistant Commissioner (International) and taxpayers having APO/FPO addresses.

4 This population includes 10 Form 1040 returns that have alternative minimum tax other than zero.

"integer weighting factors" which were applied to each return. For example, if a weight of 44.24 was computed for a stratum, 24 percent of the sample returns in that stratum would receive an integer weight of 45, and 76 percent a weight of 44. One set of weighting factors was also computed for each State Group including "B" which has nothing. These two sets of weighting factors were used to generate all of the estimated numbers of returns and amounts in this report.

SAMPLING VARIABILITY AND CONFIDENCE INTERVALS

The particular sample used in this study is one of a large number of all possible samples that could have been selected using the same sample design. Estimates derived from the different samples would differ from each other. The deviation of a sample estimate from the average of all possible samples is called the sampling error. The standard error of an estimate is a measure of the variation among the estimates from the possible samples and thus is a measure of the precision with which an estimate from a particular sample approximates the average result of all possible samples.

The coefficient of variation (CV) is the standard error of the estimate expressed as a percent of the estimate. Table 1.4 CV contains computed CV's for many estimates in this report. The CV's were derived from using the sum-of-squares method.

The sample estimate and an estimate of its standard error permit the construction of interval estimates with prescribed confidence that the interval includes the population value. For example, from Table 1.4, the amount estimate, X, for State income tax refunds is $9.902 billion and its related coefficient of variation, CV(X), is 1.40 percent. The standard deviation (error) of the estimate, SE(X), is needed to construct the interval estimate and its coefficient of variation:

$$SE(X) = X \cdot CV(X)$$

= $0.139 billion

This SE(X) value is then subtracted from or added to the estimate, X, to construct a 68 percent confidence interval estimate. The interval is calculated using the formula:

$$(X - SE(X)) \le Y \le (X + SE(X))$$

where Y is the population value estimated by X. Based on these data, the interval estimate is from $9.763 billion (9.902 - 0.139) to $10.040 billion (9.902 + 0.139).

A conclusion that the average estimate of State income tax refunds lies within an interval computed in this way would be correct for approximately two-thirds of all possible similarly selected samples. To obtain this interval estimate with 95 percent confidence, multiply the SE(X) value by two. For these data, the resulting interval would be from $9.763 billion to $10.040 billion.

TABLE PRESENTATION

Whenever a weighted frequency is less than 3, the estimate and its corresponding amount are combined or deleted in order to avoid disclosure of information for specific tax-payers. These combinations and deletions are indicated by a double asterisk (**) and by a dagger (†), respectively. Estimates based on less than 10 sampled returns are considered to be unreliable. These estimates are noted by a single asterisk (*) to the left of the data unless all of the sampled returns are selected with certainty (at the 100 percent rate).

In the tables, a dash (-) in place of a frequency or an amount indicates that either no returns in the population had the characteristic or the characteristic was so rare that it did not appear on any of the sampled returns.

Further details concerning confidence intervals, including the approximation of CV's for combined sample estimates, may be obtained by writing to the Statistics of Income Division, R:S:I, Internal Revenue Service, 1111 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, DC 20224.

PROCESSING AND MANAGEMENT OF THE SAMPLE

While the sample was being selected, the selection process was monitored by applying prescribed sampling rates for each stratum to the population for that stratum. A follow-up was required to reconcile differences between the actual number of returns selected and the expected number.

In transcribing and tabulating the information from the returns in the sample, checks were imposed to improve the quality of the resulting estimates. Incorrect or missing entries on the sampled record were altered during statistical editing to make them consistent with other entries on the return and accompanying schedules. Data were also adjusted during editing in an attempt to achieve consistent statistical definitions. For example, a taxpayer may have reported director's fees on the other income line of the Form 1040 return. If this situation had been detected during statistical editing, the amount of director's fees would have been included in salaries and wages in the sample record.

The quality of the sample data was controlled at the IRS service centers by means of a continuous verification system that used computer tests to check for mathematical errors and inconsistent data. In addition, these tests identified items and areas of returns where SOI editors were required to transcribe additional data that is not available from revenue processing files.

After the completion of service center review, data were further validated, tested, and finally balanced at the Detroit Computing Center. Adjustments and imputations for selected fields were used to make each record internally consistent. Data were then tabulated.

A small subsample of returns was selected and independently reviewed, analyzed, and processed for a quality evaluation.

Finally, prior to publication, all statistics and tables were reviewed for accuracy and reasonableness in light of the provisions of the tax laws, taxpayer reporting variations and limitations, economic conditions, comparability with other statistical series, and statistical techniques used in data processing (2).

NOTES AND REFERENCES

(1) A complete revision to the sample design used to produce the statistics from individual income tax returns is being phased in over a three year period beginning with Tax Year 1980. In addition to new strata classes and methods of estimation, the revisions include the development of a longitudinal panel and the inclusion of a tax family sampling unit.

For Tax Year 1988, data is being collected for a stratified cross-sectional sample and a longitudinal panel. Both the tax return and tax family are being used as sampling units. The methods for selecting the stratified cross-sectional sample is outlined in this section. A subsample of tax returns designated from the Tax Year 1987 sample has been used to determine individuals belonging to the longitudinal panel. The SSN's of these individuals will be used to select returns for the longitudinal panel. Data for both the cross-sectional sample and the longitudinal panel will be collected to produce statistics for the tax return, as well as the tax family. Statistical estimates for the tax family will be based on the Internal Revenue Code definition of a tax family and, hence, will include the combined statistical data for the primary and secondary taxpayers, and their dependents.

The final phase of the redesign is scheduled for implementation during Tax Year 1990. It includes the new strata classes and the reduction in the size of the longitudinal panel.

For additional details on the redesign see:

(2) By the time this publication is released, the preliminary data for the Tax Year 1987 Individual Income Tax Returns will also be available in the Spring 1989 version of Publication 1136. Some frequency and amount estimates for Tax Year 1987 may differ radically from the Tax Year 1986 estimates, since the Tax Year 1987 estimates include new tax law provisions enacted under the Tax Reform Act of 1986.

I Includes business energy investment credits

This field has Form 3800 data where we did not receive back-up schedules.

Consists of excess social security tax withheld, payments with request for extension of filling time, credit for tax on certain gasoline, fuel, and oil, and credit from regulated investment companies.

NOTE: Detail may not add to total because of rounding.

High Income Returns: Taxable and Nontaxable*

Each year, a small number of individual income tax returns which report income of $200,000 or more do not show any income tax liability. Although such returns represent only a tiny fraction of all Federal income tax returns with high incomes (fewer than 1 in 500 returns), they generate a great deal of interest. Attention focuses on the features of the income tax system that seem to permit some high-income people to completely avoid Federal income tax at the same time that other tax-payers, most of whom have much lower incomes, have tax liabilities amounting to significant shares of their incomes. Information on the reasons for nontaxability of some high-income filers may provide a basis for discussing whether such features are necessary and appropriate in a broad-based income tax system.

The Tax Reform Act of 1976 required annual publication of data on individuals with high incomes including the number of such individuals who did not pay any income tax and the importance of various tax provisions in making those individuals nontaxable [1]. The 1976 Act specified that the tax return data be tabulated using four different concepts of income [2]. The Deficit Reduction Act of 1984 eliminated the requirement for publishing data for the two lesser-used income concepts [3]. Data for the years 1974, 1975, 1979-1985 have been published previously [4].

This Section contains the available high-income tax return data for 1986, with emphasis on high-income returns which are nontaxable. At the end of the text but preceding the tables are two appendices which include summaries of the definitions and concepts which are crucial to an understanding of high-income tax returns in general and nontaxable, high-income returns in particular. Appendix A, "Income Concepts: A Primer," describes and explains the differences between the two major and two minor concepts used to measure income. Appendix B, "Measurement of Taxes," discusses the proper measurement of income tax burdens, explains the different treatment of the foreign tax credit, outlines the methodology used to equate the importance of exclusions and deductions as compared with tax credits, and reviews certain limitations in the data underlying this Section.

This Section includes twelve tables with data representing 1986 income tax returns, mainly those with incomes of $200,000 or more under one or more different concepts of income. Most of the data are shown for taxable and non-taxable returns both separately and combined.

The tables show:

- The numbers of total and high-income returns (taxable, nontaxable, and combined) under each of the four income concepts (Tables 1 and 2);
- The distributions of taxable income as a percentage of total income (Tables 3 and 4);
- The frequencies and amounts of various sources of income, exclusions, deductions, taxes, and tax credits, as well as the relationships among all four income concepts used in this Section (Tables 5 and 6);
- The frequencies with which various deductions and tax credits are the most important and second most important items in reducing (or eliminating) income taxes (Tables 7 and 8);
- The frequencies with which various itemized deductions and tax credits occur as certain percentages of income (Tables 9 and 10); and
- The distributions of effective tax rates, i.e., income tax as a percentage of income, for all returns and for high-income returns (Tables 11 and 12).

In addition to the data on high-income returns, the tables distribute all 1986 returns by broad income classes and cross-classify numbers of returns in each income class by the various income concepts. For purposes of comparison, the tables with distributions of returns by their effective tax rates include

Tables 1, 3, 5, 7, 9, and 11 contain data with foreign tax credits treated as items which reduce U.S. income taxes; this is the treatment on tax returns. Tables 2, 4, 6, 8, 10, and 12 are similar to the first set of tables but treat foreign tax credits as part of the individual's income tax liability. In these tables, tax is referred to as "Modified Total Income Tax." This different treatment is explained in more detail under the heading "Foreign Tax Credits" in Appendix B.

Numbers of High-Income Tax Returns

For 1986, the number of tax returns with incomes of at least $200,000 ranged from 356,932 to 546,807, depending on the income concept. These numbers represent from 0.35 percent to 0.53 percent of all tax returns filed.

Nontaxable High-Income Returns

For 1986, there were 529,460 income tax returns with expanded income (which is deemed to be a better definition of income than AGI) of $200,000 or more. Of these, 595 or 0.112 percent, had no U.S. income tax liability, and 379, or 0.072 percent, showed no worldwide income tax liability.

Of the 374,363 tax returns for 1986 with AGI of $200,000 or more, 659 or 0.176 percent, reported no U.S. income tax, and 437, or 0.117 percent, had no worldwide tax liability.

APPENDIX A

INCOME CONCEPTS: A PRIMER

This Appendix contains an explanation of the differences between the two major and two minor concepts of income which are used in this Section and an outline of how the various concepts differ from the ideal economic concept of income. The two major conceptual differences between the income measures are detailed, and the exact relationships between the various concepts are defined.

Economic Income, the Ideal Measure

Economists generally agree that for analyzing the impact of taxes, the ideal measure of income over a particular period of time, say a year, is the value of what the individual or family consumed over that period plus the change, if any, in its net worth [Al]. For example, if during a year a family spent $25,000 and saved $2,000, economists would say the family had an income of $27,000. Similarly, if the family spent $25,000 but owned an asset such as an automobile that decreased in value by $1,000, economists would say that the family had an income of only A brief examination of differences between income as defined by economists, often called economic income, and the adjusted gross income (AGI) concept, used for Federal income tax administration, illustrates some of the problems of measuring income, especially for high-income individuals.

Adjusted Gross Income

The concept of adjusted gross income was developed for tax administration. It has never been meant to be an accurate measure of so-called economic income. Indeed, it is well recognized that AGI is deficient as a measure of economic income. For Tax Year 1986, AGI excludes certain types of income, such as interest from tax-exempt State and local bonds, most social Government securi ty benefits, imputed rent on owner benefits, housing, the value of many employee fringe benefits and a portion of net realized long-term capital gains. Also, while not iong-term capital gains. Also, while not strictly excluded from AGI, income from other activities is deferred to a later year, or indefinitely, for income tax purposes. Depreciation deductions allowed for income tax purposes that exceed the decrease in the economic value of an asset often reduce AGI below economic income early in an asset's life. The resulting lower depreciation deductions in later years may raise AGI above economic effect, income. The net however. accelerated depreciation is to postpone taxes, perhaps indefinitely [A2].

Adjusted gross income excludes most changes in net worth, such as the 60 percent of realized long-term capital gains that was excluded for 1986 and all accrued, but unrealized, capital

Even though some types of income are excluded, AGI may overstate economic income because some expenses incurred in the production of income are not deductible in the computation of AGI. Most of these expenses, however, are deductible from AGI in calculating taxable income, but only if the taxpayer "itemizes" deductions. Expenses falling into this category include certain expenses incurred by employees (such as union dues and expenditures for items used on-the-job but not reimbursed by the employer) and expenses attributable to a taxpayer's investments (as opposed to the active operation of a trade or business), including, but not limited to, interest expense incurred in connection with investments in securities. Although net capital losses reduce economic income, only the first $3,000 of net realized capital losses may be deducted in computing AGI. Any additional realized losses must be carried forward to future years. Moreover, for 1986, only 50 percent of realized, net long-term capital losses may be deducted in computing AGI.

Redefining Income

Ideally, the impact of all taxes should be measured relative to economic income. However, no accurate, detailed data on such a broadly-defined income measure are available from income tax returns (or from any other source) for a cross-section of American taxpayers. As a practical matter, any broad income measure must be calculated from data already available from Federal individual income tax returns. Thus, a more comprehensive income measure must start from AGI and, to the extent that data are available, must make adjustments for omitted income items and expenses that ought to be deductible in calculating economic income [A4].

Omitted Income and Accelerated Deductions

Tax returns contain information about only a portion of the income included in economic income but excluded from AGI. The omitted income that could be identified on 1986 income tax returns consisted of the excluded portion of long-term capital gains (and current-year losses in excess of currently deductible amounts), the dividend exclusion of up to $100 per tax return (up to $200 on joint returns), payments to self-employed retirement (Keogh) and Individual Retirement Arrangement (IRA) pension savings plans, the excluded portion of unemployment insurance benefits, some social security benefits, and income from sources considered to be tax preferences for purposes of the alternative minimum tax. Even if no minimum tax is due, such are generally supposed to be alternative preferences reported on Form 6251, Alternative Minimum Tax Computation, which is supposed to accompany the person's income tax return [A5].

Even after including preference income which was not in AGI but which was identifiable on 1986 tax returns, several major sources of income for high-income taxpayers were still omitted:

- Interest on tax-exempt State and local Government bonds;
- All accrued but unrealized income, primarily unrealized capital gains;
- Certain agricultural expenses deducted when paid, even though related income items are not includable in income until a later year;
- Imputed rental income from owner-occupied housing and from consumer durables;
- Straight-line depreciation deductions on real estate to the extent that they exceed economic depreciation;
- Income "sheltered" from taxation-primarily partnership income--through deferral of the recognition of income for tax purposes and/or the acceleration of deduction items; and
- The value of employee fringe benefits [A6].

For real estate, the combination of a shorter life for tax purposes than the true economic life of the property and the use of accelerated depreciation methods may produce tax depreciation deductions exceeding economic depreciation, especially in the early years of ownership. Subsequently, income may be correspondingly higher, but in the meantime, the taxpayer has had the interest-free use of the deferred taxes. Also, if taxed in the future, the income could be converted into a long-term capital gain, which through Tax Year 1987 would generally be taxed at a lower rate than ordinary income.

Conceptual differences between income subject to ordinary tax and income benefitting from tax-preferred treatment may also lead to some understatement of income. Because of tax benefits, individuals may be willing to accept lower rates of return on investments yielding tax-preferred income. If one views that reduction in potential income as an "implicit tax" on that income (paid in lieu of ordinary tax), then the reporting of fully taxable and tax-preferred income is not consistent. Fully taxable income is being reported on a pre-tax basis, whereas a tax-preferred income is being shown on an after-tax basis. See "Implicit Tax" in Appendix B for further discussion of this concept.

Because income sources not identifiable from tax return data are excluded, all income measures used in the data for this Section may understate economic income. As a consequence, some individuals with high economic incomes may have been omitted completely from the high-income group covered by this report. Moreover, the income of some individuals who are included may have been understated, and tax as a percentage of income (i.e., the effective tax rate) may

Investment Expenses

In measuring economic income, it generally would be appropriate to deduct all expenses incurred in the production of income, including those related to any income-producing investments. Since economic income would include all investment income, including accrued capital gains and losses, it would be proper to deduct all investment expenses without limit. Investment expenses in excess of income would then represent net economic losses, roughly akin to "net operating losses" from a trade or business. However, such a liberal deduction for investment-related expenses is not necessarily correct when all income items have not been included currently.

If all income has not been included currently, full deduction of investment expenses might represent a mismatching of receipts and expenses and might result in understating income. For example, if a taxpayer borrowed funds to purchase securities, net income would be understated if the taxpayer deducted all interest payments on the loan but did not include as income any accrued gains on the securities. A similar mismatching of income and expenses would occur if investment expenses that should properly be capitalized were deducted when paid. In these instances, a more accurate measure of income might be obtained by postponing the deduction of the expense until such time as the income were recognized for tax purposes.

Additional problems are created when a person with a loan has both income-producing assets, such as securities, and non-income-producing assets, such as a vacation home or yacht. It is not possible to determine what portion of the interest expense should be attributed to taxable income-producing assets and, therefore, ought to be deductible against the gross receipts from such taxable assets.

As a result of these problems, it has been necessary to set arbitrary limits on the amount of investment expenses which are deductible in calculating a broader measure of income.

Investment expenses that have not been deducted in determining AGI generally appear on a Federal individual income tax return in one of two places. Investment interest is taken into account in the calculation of the itemized deduction for interest; other investment expenses such as management fees are included in the miscellaneous category of itemized deductions [A7]. To determine expenses that should be deductible in calculating an approximation of economic income, investment expenses have been defined as the entire interest deduction other than the interest paid on a home mortgage. Other investment expenses could not be determined since they could not be separated from the remainder of "miscellaneous" deductions. Hence, they have not been used in the adjustment for investment expenses.

To the extent that interest expenses do not exceed investment income, they have been allowed as a deduction in the computation of a broader measure of income. Investment interest expenses which do exceed investment income are not deductible in calculating the broader income measure. One consequence of this definition is that investment expenses can never turn positive investment income into investment losses. Generally, allowing investment expenses to offset all investment income is generous and tends to understate broadly-measured income. However, in some instances, limiting investment expenses to investment income may overstate income by disallowing genuine investment losses. This arbitrary procedure has been selected because, especially with the omission of accrued capital gains from measured income, allowing all investment expenses to be deducted would represent a mismatching of income and expenses.

The amount of investment income against which investment interest can be offset depends on the amount of investment income included in the income measure under consideration. Investment income consists of interest, dividends, and net capital gains (or losses). However, if only a portion of capital gains is included in the income concept, as is the case with AGI for 1986, then only that portion is considered to be investment income. A similar adjustment is also made for the dividend exclusion of up to $100 per tax return ($200 on a joint return).

Expanded Income

The Congress has asked for high-income data to be tabulated on the basis of a measure closely approximating economic income but using only data available on tax returns. This measure is called "expanded income."

Expanded income is defined as adjusted gross income (AGI) plus items of tax preference income excluded from AGI less investment expenses to the extent that they do not exceed investment income [A8]. Tax preferences considered for 1986 were the $100-per-tax-return exclusion for qualifying dividends ($200 on a joint return), the excluded portion of net long-term capital gains, and, where the taxpayer filed a Form 6251, Alternative Minimum Tax Computation, all other excluded income preferences subject to the minimum tax [A9]. For individuals, the only preference income items of significance other than the excluded portion of capital gains are the excess of accelerated depreciation over straight-line depreciation on real property and on personal property subject to a lease, the excess of percentage depletion over the cost of the property, and deductions for intangible drilling costs in excess of the amounts deductible if these costs had been amortized. Because expanded income is based on tax return data, it excludes items such as interest on tax-exempt State and local Government bonds, accrued but unrealized capital gains, straight-line depreciation on real estate in excess of economic depreciation, most employee fringe benefits, and other items mentioned above, under "Omitted Income and Accelerated Deductions."

Four Income Measures

Current law requires high-income tax return data to be selected and classified on the basis of two different definitions of income: expanded income and adjusted gross income. For comparability with data for earlier years, this Section also includes a limited amount of data using two other, previously required, income definitions. Each of the two additional income measures embodies only one of the two major differences between expanded income and AGI. "Adjusted gross income plus excluded tax preferences" is AGI plus the amount of tax preference income excluded from AGI. "Adjusted gross income less investment interest" is AGI less the amount of investment interest to the extent that it does not exceed investment income.

When ranked according to size of income, AGI plus excluded tax preferences is largest, AGI less investment interest is smallest, and AGI and expanded income fall in the middle. For any given taxpayer, AGI can be larger or smaller than expanded income depending on whether preferences are larger or smaller than investment interest.

The four income concepts are related in the following manner [AlO]:

Expanded income

= Adjusted gross income + preferences
- investment interest

Adjusted gross income

= Expanded income - preferences
+ investment interest

Adjusted gross income plus excluded tax preferences

= Adjusted gross income + preferences or = Expanded income + investment interest

Adjusted gross income less investment interest

- = Adjusted gross income investment interest
- or = Expanded income preferences

NOTES TO APPENDIX A

- [Al] This is the Haig-Simons definition of income.
- [A2] For Tax Year 1986, the Internal Revenue Code defined adjusted gross income as all gross income not specifically excluded or reduced by statutory adjustments. Among the exclusions were trade or business deductions (including some deductions by employees) and depreciation deductions allowable for tax purposes, the deduction for 60 percent of net long-term capital gains, limited deductions for losses from the sale or exchange of property, deductions attributable to rents and royalty income, the moving expenses adjustment, and deductions for contributions to individual retirement arrangements (IRA's)and self-employed retirement (Keogh) plans.
- [A3] Gross income includes only income that has been "realized." Thus, for Federal income tax purposes, accrued increases or decreases in the value of assets are generally not included in income until any gain or loss is realized by a sale or exchange. In addition, gross income does not include the value of the services received from the use of durable goods, such as imputed net rent from owner-occupied homes or from consumer durables. Finally, gross income and, hence, adjusted gross income, do not include interest on most types of State and local Government debt, most social security benefits, workers' compensation benefits, and most types of welfare benefits.

- [A4] There have been attempts to create microdata files that include approximations of economic income. Tax return data files have been "statistically merged", i.e., merged with information for persons having similar characteristics, with other files such as the Current Population Survey (CPS) of the Bureau of the Census. After the merge, certain additional data items that were not on either file have been "imputed" to each record of the merged file. Although such statistically merged files have proven useful for many purposes, they have only limited use-and must be used with great caution-for high-income individuals and families, each of which is likely to have more nearly unique financial and income characteristics that are not likely to be duplicated accurately through imputations or statistical merges.
- [A5] The tax preferences excluded from adjusted gross income, as tabulated in Tables 5 and 6, included the following items: the dividend exclusion; the excluded portion of long-term capital gains; the excess of accelerated depreciation over straightline depreciation on certain real property and property subject to a lease; the excess of rapid amortization allowable on certain capital expenditures (such as pollution control facilities) over depreciation otherwise allowable; the excess of percentage depletion over the "adjusted basis" of the property; unrealized gain on the exercise of stock options; and certain intangible drilling costs to the extent that they exceeded the otherwise allowable amortization deductions. Any preferences from itemized deductions did not represent omitted income; hence, they were not counted as preference items in calculating a broader measure of income.
- [A6] Omission of social security benefits and certain other items is relatively unimportant for high-income taxpayers.
- [A7] In addition, income deferrals and accelerated expense deductions may also be involved in income or losses from rental property, from royalties, from partnerships, and from certain small business corporations, only the net amounts of which are included in adjusted gross income.
- [A8] For the sake of brevity, "investment interest to the extent that it does not exceed investment income" is called "investment interest." "Investment interest in excess of investment income" is called "excess investment interest."

- [A9] See footnote [A5].
- [A10] The borderline between excess and nonexcess investment interest depends on the income items actually included under each income concept. Hence, the size of the investment interest adjustment differs depending on which income concept is used.

APPENDIX B

MEASUREMENT OF TAXES

This Appendix discusses the proper measurement of income tax burdens. Two different treatments of the foreign tax credit are explained: as a tax on income; or as an item of tax preference. The concept of an implicit tax on tax preference income is discussed. The Appendix includes an outline of the methodology used in the tabulations of 1986 tax return data to equate the importance of tax credits with exclusions and deductions from the income base subject to tax. Finally, certain limitations in the underlying tax return data are summarized.

Foreign Tax Credits: Worldwide Taxes on World-wide Income

Just as income must be measured properly, so must income taxes.

U.S. income taxes are based on worldwide income. Thus, U.S. citizens and residents generally must include income on their U.S. income tax returns regardless of whether it has been generated in the United States or in a foreign country. However, when a taxpayer has foreign source income, the U.S. income tax computed on global income may often be reduced dollar-for-dollar by the amount of foreign income tax that has been paid on that foreign income. These offsets for foreign income taxes are called "foreign tax credits" [B1].

Statistics of Income (SOI) data collected as a by-product of tax administration include global income as reported on U.S. income tax returns. The SOI data, however, usually include as taxes only U.S. income taxes net of the foreign tax credits that represent offsets for foreign income tax payments. Where taxpayers have income from foreign sources, this procedure understates their worldwide tax liabilities and their effective tax rates. Since worldwide income is reported on U.S. tax returns, a more accurate measure of the tax burden imposed on that income would be obtained if all income taxes--U.S. as well as foreign--were considered. Analysis indicates that a substantial portion of the so-called non-taxable, high-income tax returns report that large shares of their income are from non-U.S. sources and that substantial amounts of foreign income taxes have been paid on that income. Thus, it does not seem appropriate to classify such taxpayers as nontaxable or to classify their foreign tax credits as special tax benefits.

In order to present a more realistic picture of the number of nontaxable, high-income tax returns and the reasons they are nontaxable, several tables in this Section have been prepared by redefining income tax liability to consist of the total amount of U.S. income taxes (income taxes after credits plus the alternative minimum tax) plus the amount of foreign tax credits. Because information on foreign tax liabilities is not readily available in tabulations from U.S. income tax returns, foreign tax credits as shown on U.S. income tax returns are used as a proxy for foreign tax liabilities. Where foreign tax rates exceed U.S. rates, and in certain other instances, foreign tax credits actually will be less than foreign tax liabilities. In such cases, using foreign tax credits as a proxy for foreign taxes understates global income tax liability. In cases in which foreign tax credits are for taxes paid on income from earlier years, use of foreign tax credits may either overstate or understate global taxes on the current year's income.

The tables redefining tax liability to include the foreign tax credit attempt to present an approximation of the true worldwide income tax burden on worldwide income. For the vast majority of taxpayers—with high incomes or otherwise—this adjustment is irrelevant, for they have little or no foreign—source income. However, for the small proportion of taxpayers with substantial foreign income, this adjustment is important. The policy implications of a person with a very large amount of income not paying U.S. income tax certainly would be different if U.S. nontaxability were the result of the person's living and working abroad and paying substantial amounts of foreign taxes than if all income were from U.S. sources and the person paid no income tax either to the U.S. Government or to any other government.

In order to be consistent with other SOI tabulations, all tables showing nontaxability or the amount of taxability on the basis of worldwide tax liability have been duplicated by other tables with tax liability defined in the more traditional way used for tax administration purposes: U.S. income tax liability after subtracting the value of any foreign tax credits. Tables 1, 3, 5, 7, 9, and 11 contain data with foreign tax credits treated as items which reduce U.S. income tax liabilities. Tables 2, 4, 6, 8, 10, and 12 include foreign tax credits as part of the individual's income tax liability.

Implicit Tax

Income from certain tax-preferred sources is either not subject to any Federal individual income tax or benefits from reduced tax rates or the deferral of taxation, or both. To the extent that the income from such sources has been reduced because of the existence of tax preferences, the stated tax on such income understates the amount of tax effectively paid by the recipient of that income. In addition to any income tax actually paid, there is an "implicit tax" equal to the amount by which the income from that source has been reduced because of the tax preferences. Thus, the benefit to the recipient of tax-preferred income is less than the stated tax preference to the extent that the gross income from that source already anticipates the tax preference. As a result, an individual may be indifferent between a lower-yield, nontaxable income source and a higher-yield taxable source.

Tax-exempt income from State and local Government bonds provides the clearest example of an "implicit tax." Because of the tax exemption, the interest rate on tax-exempt bonds is generally lower than the interest rate on taxable bonds with equivalent risk and maturity. The yields between tax-exempt and taxable bonds generally differ by an amount such that the yield on the tax-exempt bonds will be about the same or slightly more than the after-tax yield on an equivalent taxable bond. In reality, the holders of tax-exempt bonds are paying an "implicit tax" which is equal to the spread between the interest rates on the tax-free bond and the equivalent taxable bond multiplied by the face value of the bonds.

The main difference between implicit tax and ordinary Federal income tax is the recipient of the tax revenue. The general fund of the Federal Government receives the ordinary Federal income tax revenue whereas the implicit tax revenue is usually divided between the payer and the recipient of the tax-preferred income. The government entity issuing a tax-exempt bond receives part of the implicit tax in the form of reduced rates on interest paid on those bonds. For other assets producing tax-preferred income, some of the implicit tax is received by the seller of the asset in the form of a higher price reflecting the capitalized value of some of the stream of tax benefits.

No attempts have been made in this Section to measure implicit taxes. Accordingly, taxes paid and tax rates have not been adjusted to reflect implicit taxes on tax preference income.

Adjusting Income for Implicit Tax

It should also be noted that compared with income from other sources, the gross income from tax-preferred sources is understated by the amount by which that income has been reduced by the portion of the above-mentioned "implicit tax" which benefits the recipient of the income. In theory, when measuring income, it would be appropriate to "gross up" the amount of tax-preferred income received by the portion of the implicit tax on that income which has actually benefitted the recipient of the income. Since no attempt has been made to measure implicit taxes for this Section, incomes have not been increased to reflect the value of implicit taxes.

Comparing Exclusions, Deductions, Tax Credits, and Special Tax Computations

In order to compare the importance of various exclusions, deductions, tax credits, and special tax computations (such as the alternative minimum tax on tax preferences and the income averaging tax computation), the different types of items must be put on the same basis. One way of doing so is to calculate the size of the deduction that would reduce (or increase) income tax by the same amount as a tax credit. This amount is called the "deduction equivalent" of the tax credit.

The deduction equivalent of a tax credit or a special tax computation is the difference between the taxable income that, using ordinary tax rate schedules, would yield the actual tax before the provision in question is considered and the actual tax after the provision. For example, the "deduction equivalent of all tax credits" is equal to the difference between "taxable income which would yield tax before credits" and "taxable income which would yield tax after credits."

Using this method of equating the value of deductions, exclusions, credits, and special tax computations, the order in which the various credits and special tax computations are calculated affects the value of their deduction equivalents. Because the tax rate schedules are progressive with successive increments to income taxed at successively higher tax rates, the deduction equivalent of the credit converted last to a deduction equivalent will be larger (for the same amount of a credit) than the item converted first.

The deduction equivalents of tax credits shown in the accompanying tables were computed by assuming that deductions and exclusions reduced taxes before tax credits. As a result, the deduction equivalent of tax credits is biased upwards.

Share of Income Subject to Tax

The total impact of various deductions, exclusions, tax credits, and special tax computations can be measured only if the aggregate value of all of, or groups of, these items in reducing, or increasing, income taxes is put on a comparable basis. Two often-used measures of the value of deductions and exclusions are (1) the share of income that has been excluded from 'tax and (2) the share of income that remains subject to tax. The latter measure can also include the impact of tax credits and special tax computations if the deduction equivalent of these items is added to taxable income defined in the ordinary manner. Doing so yields what the tables accompanying this Section call "taxable income which would yield income tax before credits," "taxable income which would yield income tax after credits," and "taxable income which would yield total income tax." These measures could be computed directly from taxable income and from the deduction equivalents of the appropriate items. However, these measures have been computed by using the tax rate schedules to calculate the amounts of taxable income that would have been necessary (when subject to tax under the appropriate, ordinary tax rate schedule) to yield the given amounts of tax.

Unaudited Data

Tax return data used in the Statistics of Income program have been tabulated as they have been reported on tax returns filed with the Internal Revenue Service. Certain, obvious arithmetic errors have been corrected, and certain adjustments have been made to achieve consistent statistical definitions. Otherwise. the data have not been altered. In particular, the data do not reflect any changes that may have been made or that are likely to be made in the future as a result of IRS audits. this is true of data throughout the entire SOI program, it is of particular relevance for highincome tax returns. Because of the greater complexity of these returns, there is a higher probability of error and more scope for disagreement about the proper interpretation of

The fact that the data have been drawn from unaudited returns is of even greater importance for those high-income returns that are nontaxable. Almost any audit changes would make such returns taxable. Even where the tax consequences were minor, such returns would be reclassified from nontaxable to taxable, thereby changing the counts of nontaxable returns.

NOTE TO APPENDIX B

[B1] Certain amounts of income earned abroad are excluded from adjusted gross income by statute. Any foreign taxes paid on such income are not creditable against U.S. income taxes. The tables in this Section do not reflect either the amounts of such excluded income or the foreign tax payments on it.

Explanation of Terms

Explanation of terms are designed to aid the user in interpreting the statistical content of this report and should not be construed as interpretations of the Internal Revenue (IR) Code or related regulations, procedures, or policies. Code sections cited were those in effect for 1986.

Most of the definitions and explanations supplied in this section relate to column or stub titles used in one or more tables in this report. Some provide background or limitations to such titles. Therefore, explanations are written to provide information necessary to interpret the statistical tables to which they relate. Definitions marked with the symbol (#) are either new or modified definitions reflecting changes in the law or in Statistics of Income processing.

Section 6, 1986 Forms and Instructions, provides further information about many of the items in this report. The terms used in Section 4 differ substantially from those applicable to the remainder of the report and are defined separately in that section.

Additional Tax for Tax Preferences

Additional tax for tax preferences is the sum of alternative minimum tax plus deferred minimum tax. Although the requirement to pay the minimum tax ended in Tax Year 1982, tax-payers with a net operating loss might have been able to defer payment of minimum tax until Tax Year 1986. (See "Alternative") Minimum Tax".)

Adjusted Gross Income Less Deficit

The broadest definition of gross income is all income from whatever source derived, including (but not limited to) the following:

- including Compensation for services, fees, commissions, benefits, and similar items;
- Gross income derived from business;
- Gains derived from dealings in property;
- Interest, rents, and royalties;
- Dividends:
- Alimony and separate maintenance pay-
- Annuities and pensions;
- Income from life insurance and endowment contracts:

- Income from discharge of indebtedness:
- Distributive share of partnership gross
- Income from an interest in an estate or trust:
- Prizes and awards;
- Some social security payments; and
- Some unemployment compensation.

excluded specifically items are (completely or partially) from gross income for income tax purposes. In particular:

- Accident and health insurance proceeds, "Black Lung" benefits, and casualty insurance proceeds;
- Child support payments;
- Cost-of-living allowances paid to U.S. Government employees stationed outside the U.S.;
- Employment agency fees paid directly by the taxpayer's employer and relocation
- Federal Employees' Compensation Act payments; Gifts, bequests, or inheritances; proceeds;

- Life insurance proceeds; Certain social security benefits;
- Meals and lodging provided by employer for the employees' benefit;
- Military allowances and payments dependents of military personnel;
- Certain payments to a beneficiary of a deceased employee;
- Payments to reduce the cost of winter energy consumption:
- Certain Railroad Retirement Act pensions and railroad retirement lump payments;
- Rental allowance of members of the
- Scholarship and fellowship grants;
- Certain veteran's benefits;
- Worker's compensation;
- local Interest on most state or government bonds:
- Mustering out benefits; Foster care receipts; and
- Employer provided benefits including insurance and pension payments.

Gross income is further reduced by excludable portions of items reported on Form 1040 to arrive at "Total Income" (line 23).

Following is a list of such items:

Ordinary and necessary expenses of operating a farm or business;

Expense deductions attributable to rents and royalties, and net adjustment for windfall profit tax withheld; Expenses of outside salespersons attributable to a trade or business carried on by the taxpayer:

Depreciation deduction allowed life tenants and income beneficiaries of property held in trust; Deductible losses from sales of capital assets and other property; Excludable portion of the excess of net long-term capital gain over net shortterm capital loss;

Business net operating loss deductions;

Exclusion of the ordinary income portion (in contrast to the amount treated as long-term capital gain) of the taxable amount of a lump-sum distribution from a qualified pension or retirement plan, taxed separately from other sources of income at the taxpayer's election;

Limited exclusion of unemployment compensation;

____ Limited exclusion of railroad retirement pension income;

Limited exclusion of social security benefits;

Limited exclusion of qualified foreign earned income;

- One-time exclusion of gain from sale of principal residence by individuals who are 55 years or older:

Certain reduced uniformed services retirement pay;

Employer contributions to simplified employee pension plans; and Exclusion of up to $100 ($200 on joint returns) of domestic dividends.

From Total Income (line 23 on Form 1040) the following statutory adjustments are subtracted to arrive at Adjusted Gross Income:

Employee business and moving expenses;

Contributions to a self-employed retirement fund ("Keogh Plan") by the self-employed, and to individual retirement arrangements (IRA's) by employees or self-employed persons;

Forfeited interest penalties, incurred by persons who made premature withdrawals of funds from time savings accounts;

Alimony payments;

Forestation/reforestation expenses:

Deduction for two-earner married couples;

The foreign housing exclusion; and Repayments of supplemental unemployment compensation received under the Trade Act of 1974.

A deficit occurs if the allowable exclusions and deductions exceed gross income.

Adjustments

See "Statutory Adjustments."

Advance Earned Income Credit Payments

Taxpayers who believed they would be eligible for the earned income credit at the end of the year could receive the credit from their employers as an additional payment in their paychecks during the year. Those payments were then shown on the tax return, where they became either an increase to balance due or a reduction of overpayment. (See also "All Other Taxes.")

Age 65 or Over

The presence of the additional exemption allowed taxpayers age 65 or over was used as the basis of this classification. In the case of joint returns of husbands and wives, the return was considered a return of a taxpayer age 65 or over, regardless of whether one or two exemptions were claimed.

Alimony

Payments received as alimony or separate maintenance were income to the person receiving them and an adjustment to gross income for the person paying them if the payments were:

- (1) required under the terms of a decree of divorce or separate maintenance, or a written instrument incident to that decree;
- (2) paid in discharge of a legal obligation based on the marital relationship; or
- (3) paid after the decree and on a periodic basis.

All Other Taxes

For purposes of this report, this amount represents the sum of the self-employment tax, represents the sum of the self-employment tax, tax from recomputing prior-year investment credit, social security taxes on tip income, any penalty taxes on individual retirement arrangements (IRA's), and other unspecified taxes. This was in contrast to the "other taxes" portion of the Form 1040 itself, which was composed of the taxes listed above plus the minimum tax composed alternative minimum. the minimum tax carryover, alternative minimum tax, the advance earned income credit payments received, uncollected tax on tips, excess golden parachute payments, and section 72 penalty taxes. Alternative minimum tax is tabulated in this report as part of "total income tax" and serves as part of the requirements for determining the taxable or nontaxable classification of a return. Advance earned income credit payments are shown as a separate item in computing total tax liability, balance due, or refund. (See also "Taxable and Nontaxable Returns" and "Total Income Tax".)

Alternative Minimum Tax

The Internal Revenue (IR) Code provides for special treatment of some kinds of income and allows special deductions for some kinds of expenses. So that individual taxpayers who benefit from these provisions will pay at least a minimum amount of tax, a special tax for individual taxpayers was in effect—the alternative minimum tax.

The alternative minimum tax was levied on benefits received in the form of deductions, and exclusions which reduced the effective tax rate. These benefits are known as "alternative minimum tax preferences" or "alternative minimum tax preference items" because they result from the preferential treatment given those items in the tax law.

The alternative minimum tax was computed by reducing alternative minimum taxable income (see definition below) by an exemption amount determined by filing status. If the return was filed jointly by a married couple or a surviving spouse, the amount was $40,000. The amount for single or head of household taxpayers was $30,000. For married couples filing separately, the amount was $20,000.

If the amount in excess of the exemption was greater than zero, it was multiplied by 20 percent, the alternative minimum tax rate. The residual amount of tax was reduced by "income tax after credits", excluding "additional taxes" (as reported on Form 1040). For taxpayers claiming a foreign tax credit, the amount of residual alternative minimum tax over additional taxes could be further reduced by the foreign tax credit. The amount that the alternative minimum tax was reduced by the foreign tax credit was computed by special rules and generally was limited to the proportion of alternative minimum income attributable to foreign sources compared to the total amount of alternative minimum taxable income.

Alternative Minimum Taxable Income

Alternative minimum taxable income was defined as adjusted gross income including any net operating losses plus the sum of the alternative minimum tax preference items (defined below) less the following:

(1) alternative tax net operating loss;

- (2) alternative minimum tax itemized deductions;
- (3) the amount of the alcohol fuel credit; and
- (4) accumulated distributions made from a trust.

Alternative Minimum Tax Preferences

Because some income and deductions were given special treatment under the IR Code, many taxpayers would pay little or no tax if it were not for the alternative minimum tax. Below are the items that were tax preferences because they were given "preferential" treatment in the form of deductions, lower tax rates, and exclusions from tax:

- (1) Dividend Exclusion--This is the portion (up to $100 per taxpayer $200 for joint returns) of ordinary dividends not included in gross income or AGI,
- (2) Capital Gains Deduction—This is that portion (60 percent) of the excess of net long-term capital gains over net short-term capital losses which was excluded from adjusted gross income,
- (3) Incentive Stock Options—This amount is the difference between the fair market value of stock bought under an incentive stock option and the price paid for the stock.
- (4) Accelerated Depreciation on Real Property-This amount represents the depreciation or amortization taken during the year on real property less the depreciation that would have been taken under the straight-line method,
- (5) Accelerated Depreciation on Leased Personal Property--This amount represents the depreciation or amortization taken during the year on leased personal property less the depreciation or amortization that would have been taken under the straight-line method,
- (6) Amortization of Certified Pollution Control Facilities -- This amount represents the amortization deduction for a certified pollution control facility less the depreciation deduction normally allowed,
- (7) Depletion—This amount is the depletion deduction for the year in excess of the adjusted basis in the property at the end of the year,

- (8) Intangible Drilling and Development Costs--This is the "excess deduction amount" for intangible drilling and development costs for oil, gas, or geothermal wells (figured separately) when the deduction is more than the taxpayer's net income from the same items. The "excess deduction amount" is the excess of the allowable deduction for such costs (excluding those for drilling a nonproductive well) over the allowable deduction, had such costs been capitalized and amortized over a 120 month period,
- (9) Mining Exploration and Development Costs--This is the amount allowed for current-year mining exploration and development costs less the deduction that would have been amortized over a 10-year period,
- (10) Circulation and Research and Experimental Expenditures—This is the amount by which the current year deduction allowable for circulation costs (of newspapers, magazines, and other periodicals) and research and experimental expenditures exceeds the amount that would have been amortized over a 3-year period for circulation costs and a 10-year period for research and experimental expenditures, and
- (11) Reserves for Losses on Bad Debts of Financial Institutions--This amount was the excess of additional reserves for bad debts less the amount that would have been allowed based on actual loss experience.

Business or Profession Net Income or Loss

This source of income was reported by individuals who were sole proprietors of a nonfarm business or self-employed members of a profession. A sole proprietorship is the simplest form of business organization. The business has no existence apart from its owner. Its liabilities are the personal liabilities of its owner. The taxpayer's interest in the sole proprietorship ends with its dissolution or the taxpayer's death.

When there were two or more sole proprietorships operated by the same taxpayer(s), the single amount of profit or loss included in adjusted gross income represented the combined profit and loss from all business activities. The proprietor was required to exclude investment income from business profits and to include it, instead, with the various types of investment income for which separate provision was made on the individual income tax return.

Business costs and expenses were deductible from gross receipts or gross sales in arriving at net profit or loss. Compensation of the proprietor was taxable income and, therefore, not allowed as a business deduction in computing net profit. The deduction of net operating losses from other years was not considered a business expense, but was offset, instead, against "other income" on the proprietor's income tax return.

Information on sole proprietorships, business receipts and expenditures can be found in the annual summer issue of the Statistics of Income Bulletin.

Capital Assets

Capital Gain Distributions Reported on Form 1040

These distributions included the following:

- (1) Long-term capital gains credited or distributed to individual taxpayers by regulated investment companies and mutual funds. Gains credited but not distributed were reported as income, and
- (2) Long-term capital gains distributed by real estate investment trusts.

Normally, taxpayers would have reported these distributions on the supporting schedule used for this type of income (Schedule D, Capital Gains and Losses). However, if the taxpayers did not need Schedule D to report any other gains or losses, they then entered 40 percent of the capital gain distributions directly on line 14, Form 1040.

For purposes of this report, "capital gain distributions reported on Form 1040" are

For purposes of this report, "capital gain distributions reported on Form 1040" are tabulated as part of "sales of capital assets" and are reflected in the long-term capital gain and loss and net capital gain and loss data. (See also "Sales of Capital Assets Net Gain or Loss.")

Capital Gains and Losses

Casualty or Theft Loss, Nonbusiness

Nonbusiness casualty and theft losses were deductible from adjusted gross income to the extent that the nonreimbursable net loss for each such casualty or theft exceeded $100, and the combined amount for all net losses during the year exceeded 10 percent of adjusted gross income. A theft was considered to be the unlawful taking and removing of money or property with the intent of depriving the owner of its use. A casualty was defined as a complete or partial destruction of property resulting from an identifiable event of a sudden, unexpected, or unusual nature, such as a fire or storm.

For 1986, casualty and theft gains and losses were required to be netted. Net gains were realized if total reimbursements (such as insurance payments) exceeded total cost or fair market value for the items. Such net gains were required to be treated as capital gains and reported on Schedule D. Depending on the holding period for the lost asset, the net gains reported on Schedule D were treated as either short or long-term capital gains.

Child Care Credit

This credit was claimed by taxpayers who incurred expenses for the care of dependent children under age 15 or disabled dependents while these taxpayers were working. Qualifying expenses included those for services performed within the home by nondependent babysitters, maids, or cooks. Expenditures paid for the care of children under the age of 15 or any other qualified individuals for out-of-home non-institutional care qualified for the child care credit.

The maximum amount of employment-related expenses to which the credit could be applied was the lesser of earned income or $2,400 if one qualifying child or dependent was involved and the lesser of earned income or $4,800 if more than one dependent was involved. The credit was equal to 30 percent of employment-related expenses for taxpayers with adjusted gross income of $10,000 or less. The credit was reduced by one percent for each $2,000 increment of adjusted gross income in excess of $10,000 up to $28,000. The credit remained at 20 percent of expenses for individuals with adjusted gross income of $28,000 or more.

The amount of the credit which could be claimed was limited to income tax before credits and any excess was not refundable.

Contributions Deduction for Itemizers

Contributions deductible on Form 1040 as an itemized deduction from adjusted gross income included gifts in the form of cash or property to:

- the United States, a State, or a local government for exclusively public purposes;
- (2) organizations created in the United States or its possessions or under the law of the United States and operated exclusively for:
  - (a) religious purposes,
  - (b) charitable purposes,
  - (c) scientific purposes,

- (d) literary purposes,
- (e) educational purposes,
- (f) fostering national or international amateur sports competition, or
- (g) preventing cruelty to children or animals;
- (3) nonprofit cemetery companies owned and operated exclusively for the benefit of their members;
- (4) organizations of war veterans or their auxiliaries;
- (5) domestic fraternal societies operating under the lodge system if the contributions were used exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals;
- (6) nonprofit volunteer fire company; and
- (7) a nonprofit day care center.

Some out-of-pocket unreimbursable expenses that the taxpayer paid to do volunteer work for such organizations were also deductible. Individuals who were members of a partnership could also include in their contributions deductions their pro-rata share of partnership contributions.

In general, a deduction was allowed for all contributions up to 50 percent of adjusted gross income. Contributions to organizations which used the proceeds for external activities such as clinic health care or camps for children were limited to the 50 percent ceiling, but contributions to organizations which used the proceeds primarily to operate the organization were limited to the 30 percent ceiling. Contributions that you made for maintaining veterans organizations, fraternal societies, and nonprofit cemeteries were limited to 30 percent of your adjusted gross income. A 30 percent limit also applies to contributions of certain capital gain property to those organizations for which the 50 percent limit applies. There is a 20 percent of adjusted gross income limit that applies to gifts of long-term capital gain appreciated property contributed to specific organizations. Contributions exceeding any of the three limitations could be carried over and deducted in the next 5 years. Therefore, in addition to contributions made in 1986, the statistics also include amounts carried over from 1981-1985 that were within the current year's percentage limitations.

Cash contributions to a single organization of more than $3,000 were reported separately from other cash contributions, and these data are shown separately in Table 2.1.

Contributions Deduction for Nonitemizers (#)

Taxpayers who did not itemize their deductions were still able to benefit from tax law provisions for charitable contributions. The criteria which determined the deduction of charitable contributions was the same for non-itemizing as well as itemizing taxpayers. One hundred percent of charitable contributions were deductible up to limitations based on the size of AGI. For 1985, only one-half of such contributions were deductible.

Credit for Tax on Certain Gasoline, Fuel, and Oil

This was a credit allowed in full or in stated amounts for Federal excise taxes paid on gasoline, special fuels, and lubricating oil when the fuel oil was used for: (1) farming purposes, (2) operation of public passenger land transportation services (taxicab operators of qualified taxicabs), (3) operation of inter-city, local, or school buses, (4) non-highway purposes of a trade or business, and (5) operation of qualified diesel-powered highway vehicles. These taxes could be applied as a credit to reduce total tax liability when the individual return was filed (with any amount in excess of total tax liability refunded) or refunded during the taxable year if the credit for any fuel category or any lubricating oil in any of the first three quarters of the year was at least $1,000. A one-time credit (or refund) was allowed to the purchaser of a new qualified diesel-powered highway vehicle after January 1, 1985. The credit amount was $198 for a truck or van and $102 for any other vehicle, and any such credit reduced the basis of the vehicle.

Credit for the Elderly and Permanently and Totally Disabled

A credit for the elderly and permanently and totally disabled was available to taxpayers age 65 or older (within certain income limitations) and to those taxpayers under age 65, retired with a permanent and total disability, and who had received taxable income from a public or private employer because of that disability. An individual was considered permanently and totally disabled if he or she was medically determined to be "unable to engage in any substantial gainful activity because of a physical or mental impairment which could result in death or last 12 continuous months or more."

Individuals, age 65 or older, determined the base amount of income on which to figure the credit from an allowable amount of income classified by filing status and age. The classifications were grouped as follows:

Base Amount	Filing Status
$5,000	Single and 65 or over or disabled; married filing jointly with only one spouse either 65 or over or retired on disability,
$7,500	Married filing jointly with both spouses either 65 or over or retired on disability, and
$3,750	Married filing separately and either 65 or over or retired on disability.

Permanently and totally disabled individuals under age 65, determined the base amount on which to figure the credit as the lesser of the allowable amount (defined above) or taxable disability income. The base amount, for both qualifying groups was further reduced by the sum of nontaxable social security benefits, railroad retirement and veterans pensions, and other nontaxable pensions plus one-half of adjusted gross income in excess of an additional exclusion amount which was also classified by filing status and age. Lastly, the actual credit was computed as 15 percent of this amount.

The amount of the credit that could be claimed was limited to total income tax and any excess was not refundable.

Credit from Regulated Investment Companies

Taxpayers were instructed to include in gross income any amounts which were allocated to them as capital gain dividends from regulated investment companies, even if they were not actually received. If investment companies paid tax on the capital gain, taxpayers were entitled to claim a refundable credit for their proportionate share of the

This refundable credit was reported on line 62 of Form 1040 for Tax Year 1986; however, the following credits were also included as credit from regulated investment companies in SOI data:

- (a) the excess hospital insurance benefits tax credit,
  - (b) the throwback credit,
  - (c) the credit for tax withheld by Canadian withholding agents,
  - (d) repayments under renegotiations of government contracts
  - of government contracts,

    (e) repayments under "Claim-of-Right Doctrine,"
  - (f) the credit for interest from taxfree Covenant bonds, and
  - (g) the credit for tax withheld at source.

Credit on 1987 Estimated Tax

This credit was the part of the overpayment of 1986 tax which taxpayers specifically requested to be credited to their estimated tax for 1987. (See also "Overpayment" and "Estimated Tax Payments.")

Deduction for Working Married Couples

Married taxpayers who filed a joint return and who both worked qualified for a deduction. The maximum amount eligible for deduction was 10 percent of $30,000. The deduction was computed as 10 percent of qualified earned income of the lower earning spouse. Qualified earned income was equal to the sum of salaries and wages and other earned income, plus self-employment income, less the following adjustments: employee business expenses, payments to an IRA, payments to a Keogh plan, and repayments of supplemental unemployment benefits. Married taxpayers who filed Form 2555 (Foreign Earned Income) to exclude any income from tax or deduct certain housing costs; or who filed Form 4563 (Exclusion of Income From Sources In United States Possessions) to exclude income from tax, were not eligible for the deduction.

Dividend Exclusion

Taxpayers could exclude up to $100 ($200 on a joint return) of eligible dividends from adjusted gross income. For an explanation of eligible dividends, see "Domestic and Foreign Dividends Received."

Dividends in Adjusted Gross Income

Total domestic and foreign dividends less the dividend exclusion equaled dividends in adjusted gross income. (See also "Domestic and Foreign Dividends Received" and "Dividend Exclusion.")

Domestic and Foreign Dividends Received (#)

Domestic and foreign dividends received consisted of:

- (1) dividends eligible for the dividend exclusion, which were dividends received from domestic corporations either directly or indirectly (e.g., as a beneficiary of income from estates or trusts, or as a partner for the taxpayer's distributive share of partnership profits), and
- (2) dividends not eligible for the dividend exclusion, which were dividends received from foreign corporations, tax-exempt farmers' cooperatives, tax-exempt organizations, certain trusts that were in their final year, corporations most of whose business was conducted in U.S. possessions, dividends from real estate investment trusts, and dividends from regulated investment companies.

Domestic and foreign dividends did not include nontaxable distributions of stock or stock rights, returns of capital, or liquidation distributions. Taxpayers were also instructed to exclude so-called dividends on deposits or withdrawable accounts in mutual savings banks, cooperative banks, savings and loan associations, and credit unions, which were to be treated as interest income; and patronage dividends declared by farmers' cooperatives and other cooperative organizations.

Earned Income Credit

This was a credit available to low-income workers who maintained a household and had a dependent child or children whom they claimed as exemptions. This credit was based on earned income, consisting of wages, salaries, and other employee compensation, plus net earnings from self-employment, and was intended to offset the impact of social security taxes on low-income individuals and to encourage them to obtain employment.

The maximum credit was 11 percent of the first $5,000 of earned income, or $550, and was reduced by an amount equal to 12.5 percent of the taxpayer's adjusted gross income or earned income, whichever was larger, above $6,500. Thus, at the $11,000 adjusted gross income level (or earned income level) the credit was eliminated. Taxpayers were required to reduce their earned income credit by the amount of their alternative minimum tax.

Taxpayers were eligible to claim the earned income credit if:

- (1) both AGI and earned income were less than $11,000;
- (2) they maintained a household which was the principal place of abode for the taxpayer and a child or a descendant of the child;
- (3) they maintained their principal home in the United States;
- (4) they did not exclude from gross income any amount of income earned from sources outside the United States or from sources within U.S. possessions, or claim a deduction for certain expenses of living abroad;
- (5) they had a taxable year that represented a full 12 months; and
- (6) they filed a joint return if married.

The earned income credit could result in a refund to the extent it was not used to offset income tax liability. Thus, even if individuals were not otherwise required to file returns, it was to their benefit to do so in order to claim the earned income credit. For purposes of this report, the earned income credit was divided into three parts: that used to offset income tax before credits (limited to the amount needed to reduce income tax after credits to zero); that used to offset all other taxes (limited to the amount needed to reduce total tax liability to zero); and the refundable portion (See also "Advance Earned Income Credit Payments.")

Employee Business Expenses

An employee was allowed a deduction in arriving at adjusted gross income for certain unreimbursed business expenses incurred in connection with any employment. These expenses were reported as an "adjustment" to income on the tax return and were separate from employee expenses treated as an itemized deduction. Expenses which qualified for the adjustment included:

- (1) cost of travel, meals, and lodging while away from home in the performance of services as an employee;
- (2) expenses to the extent covered by a reimbursement or expense allowance arrangement with the employer;
- (3) business transportation costs, other than commuting; and
- (4) outside salesperson's expenses of soliciting business for the employer.

If employees accounted for deductible expenses to their employers, they were not required to report the reimbursement in income, except for any amount of reimbursement in excess of expenses.

Certain expenses of employees, such as work clothes, union dues, and employment agency fees, were not deductible in the computation of adjusted gross income, but were deductible as itemized deductions in the computation of taxable income. These expenses were included in "miscellaneous itemized deductions."

Estate or Trust Net Income or Loss

This was the beneficiaries' share of fiduciary income (with the exception of the items described below which were reported separately) from any estate or trust. Income from estates or trusts included amounts required to be distributed and amounts credited to beneficiaries' accounts from current-year fiduciary income, whether or not actually received, plus any other amounts which were properly paid, credited, or required to be distributed for that year.

Also included was the beneficiaries' share of any accumulation distribution made in the current year by the fiduciary of a complex trust for income accumulated in prior tax years. Beneficiaries' share of these distributions was reduced by their share of depletion and depreciation deductions before reporting the net amount as part of adjusted gross income.

Taxpayers excluded from estate or trust income their share of dividends and gains or losses from sales of capital assets and other property. Such income (which made up the largest portion of income from an estate or trust) was included on the tax return on the separate lines provided for these income types and was not separately identified for the statistics. A loss from an estate or trust was allocated to the beneficiary only upon settlement or termination of an estate or trust which, for its last tax year, (a) still had a net operating loss carryover or a capital loss carryover, or (b) had deductions (other than those for exemptions and charitable contributions) in excess of gross income.

If a return showed net income from one estate or trust, and a net loss from another, that return was tabulated in both the "total income" and "total loss" columns. The columns labeled "net income" and "net loss" represent the sum of all income and losses reported from all estates or trusts, i.e., the net amount, on a return-by-return basis.

Estimated Tax Payments

This figure represented the total of the amounts paid quarterly and reported on the 1986 Declaration of Estimated Income Tax, Form 1040ES. The amount reported included any credit which was applied against the estimated tax by reason of an overpayment of 1985 tax liability. Individuals were required to make estimated tax payments if their estimated tax for Tax Year 1986 exceeded $500 and they estimated that the total amount of income tax withheld would be less than 80 percent of their estimated 1986 tax, or 100 percent of their 1985 tax.

Excess Itemized Deductions

This deduction concept represented the amount by which total itemized deductions exceeded the zero bracket amount. Since the zero bracket amount was built into the tax tables and the tax rate schedules, only "excess itemized deductions" (and not "total itemized deductions") was used in the calculation of taxable income. (See also "Zero Bracket Amount.")

Excess Social Security Taxes Withheld (#)

If a taxpayer received more than $42,000 from two or more employers in 1986, too much social security (FICA) and Railroad Retirement Act (RRTA) tax may have been withheld from the wages. Amounts in excess of $3,003 ($2,791.80 for 1985) could be taken as a credit toward payment of the taxpayer's income tax. In the case of a joint return, the credit was computed separately for each taxpayer.

Exemptions (#)

In the computation of taxable income, a $1,080 deduction was allowed for each exemption claimed.

An exemption was allowed for each taxpayer shown on a return (on joint returns the husband and wife were each regarded as a taxpayer). If either husband or wife filed a separate return, the spouse's exemption could be claimed on that return only if that spouse did not file a return, had no gross income, and was not the dependent of another taxpayer. Additional exemptions were allowed for a taxpayer or spouse who were age 65 or over, blind, or both.

Exemptions were also allowed for qualified dependents. In general, an individual qualified as a dependent if that person had gross income less than $1,080 ($1,080 or more if in category (2) below); received more than half of his or her support from the taxpayer, was related to the taxpayer (such as a son, daughter, or parent), or was a member of the household for the whole year; did not file a joint return with his or her spouse; and met certain citizenship requirements.

The total number of exemptions shown in this report includes some duplication. This occurred in the case of:

- dependents other than children who had gross income less than $1,080, but filed a return to obtain a refund of tax withheld on wages;
- (2) dependent children with unearned income of $1,080 or more (dividends, interest, capital gains, and the like); and
- (3) dependent children under 19 years of age or students regardless of age who either (a) were required to file a return because their gross income was $3,560 or more, or (b) had gross income of less than $3,560, all of it earned income, and filed a return only to obtain a refund of tax withheld on wages.

In each of these instances individuals were counted twice, as taxpayers filing their own returns and as dependents on another taxpayer's return.

Farm Net Income or Loss (#)

This source of income was reported by individuals who were sole proprietors of a farm. When there were two or more farms operated by the same taxpayer, the single amount of profit or loss included in adjusted gross income represented the combined profit and loss from all farming activities.

Farm business costs and expenses were deductible from farm gross business receipts in arriving at farm net profit or loss. To the extent that prepaid farming expenses of a cash-basis farmer exceeded 50 percent of total nonprepaid farming expenses, amounts paid for feed, seed, and similar farm supplies could be deducted only as the supplies are used. Unlike Tax Year 1985, taxpayers could not claim deductions for land-clearing expenses in preparation for farming.

Excluded from farm net profit or loss were gains from certain sales of livestock and crops which qualified for capital gains treatment, as well as farm rental income. Gains from sales of livestock (other than poultry) qualified for capital gains treatment if the livestock had been held for 12 months or more (in the case of cattle or horses acquired after 1969 for 24 months or more), as long as livestock were held for breeding, dairying, or sporting purposes. Gains from sales of unharvested crops, when sold with the land on which they were growing, qualified for capital gains treatment if the land had been held for 12 months or more. For taxation purposes (and for purposes of this report), these types of income were included in longterm capital gains. On the other hand, farm rental income--that based on crops or livestock produced solely by the tenant, without material participation of the landowner or sublessor in the operation or management of the farm--was included in rent net income or loss.

Foreign Earned Income and Foreign Housing Exclusions

Taxpayers could exclude from gross income a certain amount of their foreign earned income and employer provided foreign housing expenses if their tax home was in a foreign country and they were either:

- a U.S. citizen and a bona fide resident of a foreign country or countries for an uninterrupted period that included a tax year, or
- (2) a U.S. citizen or resident alien who was physically present in a foreign country or countries for at least 330 full days during any period of 12 consecutive months.

For 1986, qualified individuals continued to be limited to the lesser of an $80,000 exclusion or their total foreign earned income. Also, they could elect to exclude a portion of employer-provided foreign housing expenses. If the taxpayer elected to take both the foreign earned income and foreign housing exclusions, the total amount of both exclusions was limited to the taxpayer's total foreign earned income.

The foreign earned income exclusion is not tabulated separately in SOI data, but is reported as a negative value in other income.

Foreign Housing Deduction

Individuals qualifying for the exclusion of foreign earned income could deduct foreign housing amounts from gross income if their employer did not pay any of their housing costs or if they were self-employed. The housing deduction was limited to the amount that a taxpayer's foreign earned income exceeded the sum of their foreign housing exclusion and foreign earned income exclusion. Any excess housing deduction could be carried over to 1987, but only to the extent that the taxpayer's foreign earned income exceeded the sum of foreign earned income exclusion, housing exclusion, and housing deduction for that year.

Foreign Tax Credit

Individuals who had paid income or excess profit taxes to a foreign country or U.S. possession or any political subdivision, agency, or instrumentality of the country or possession, could claim this credit against income taxes. (The taxpayer had the option of reporting foreign taxes paid as an itemized deduction.) The credit was for the income and profits taxes paid and included the taxpayer's share of such taxes paid through partnerships, regulated investment companies, and fiduciaries. In general, the tax credit was limited to income tax after personal credits multiplied by the ratio of taxable income from foreign sources to the entire taxable income. The result - the foreign tax credit - could not exceed the foreign taxes paid. Qualifying foreign taxes paid in excess of the allowable amount for Tax Year 1986 could be carried back two years and then forward five years for use in computing the credit for those years. A taxpayer's credit could have been reduced if he or she participated in an international boycott. Additional information on foreign tax credits, foreign earned income, and foreign housing deductions is available in Statistics of Income Bulletin, Publication 1136. Summer 1987 issue.

Forfeited Interest Penalty Adjustment

Taxpayers who had paid penalties for the premature withdrawal of funds from time

Fully Taxable Pensions and Annuities

This type of pension or annuity was obtained in connection with employment and was financed in whole (a non-contributory plan) by contributions of the employer. Since these pensions were paid entirely by an employer, the amount received by the employee was fully taxable. Additionally, fully taxable pensions and annuities included certain military retirement pay and IRA distributions. This amount was reported on line 16, Form 1040 (1986). (See "Pensions and Annuities.")

General Business Credit (#)

The general business credit consisted of the investment credit, the jobs credit, the alcohol fuel credit, the employee stock ownership plan (ESOP) credit, and two credits added by the Tax Reform Act of 1986 -- the low-income housing credit and the research credit. Also, as a result of the 1986 Act, the 10 percent investment credit was repealed for property other than qualified timber property and certain transition property placed in service after 1985.

Taxpayers claiming more than one of the business credits were required to summarize them on a Form 3800, General Business Credit. The adjusted tax liability limitations for the combined credits were determined on the Form 3800. The general business credit was limited to 100 percent of the first $25,000 and 75 percent (down from 85 percent in 1985) of the excess over $25,000. The limit was $12,500 in the case of a married couple filing separately. If, however, one spouse had no current credit or unused credit, the spouse having a current credit or unused credit may have used the full $25,000 figure in determining his or her credit.

If the current year general business credit exceeded the tax liability limitation and could not be entirely used for Tax Year 1986, the excess amount could be carried back to the three preceding tax years. Any unused credit after carryback, could be carried forward to each of the 15 years after the year of the credit. Additionally all carryforwards of the business credits were added together and reported on Form 3800. Otherwise, taxpayers claiming a single credit did not have to file Form 3800 and were only required to use the appropriate form for the particular credit or credit carryforward.

Heads of Households, Returns of

These returns were filed by "unmarried" persons who furnished over half the cost of maintaining a household for more than six months for at least one qualifying relative. Unmarried persons, for purposes of this classification, were defined as single persons, married persons legally separated, certain married individuals living apart but not legally separated, or persons married to nonresident aliens.

"Qualifying" relatives, such as children, parents, brothers, and sisters, generally had to qualify as the taxpayer's dependents and actually had to live with the taxpayer. There were two exceptions to this rule. Parents of the taxpayer had to be dependents, but did not have to live in the same household; children of the taxpayer did not have to be dependents, but did have to reside in the same household as the taxpayer. Taxpayers had to maintain a household for a full year for dependent parents living apart.

A special tax rate schedule was provided for heads of households which gave a portion of the benefits for lower rates accorded joint

See "Interest Paid Deduction."

Income Averaging (#)

Certain taxpayers with unusual fluctuations in income were able to reduce the tax in higher income years by using income averaging. The standard income averaging computation permitted a part of an unusually large amount of taxable income for any one year to be taxed at a lower rate (i.e. changed the effective bracket or tax rate), thus resulting in a lower amount of tax due than would have resulted if the taxpayers had computed their tax using the regular tax computation method.

An eligible individual could choose this computation if the "averageable income" for the year was more than $3,000. "Averageable income" was the amount by which "adjusted taxable income" (taxable income for the computation year) exceeded 140 percent of the average "base period income" (the average of taxable income, with certain other adjustments for the three preceding tax years) for the three preceding tax years).

Briefly, the income averaging computation operated to tax all averageable income at the same rate which applied to the first one-fourth of such income. "Adjusted taxable income," from which the "averageable income" was derived covered all income except "excess community property income" and certain amounts received by owner-employees. "Base period income" included taxable income and income earned outside the United States or within U.S. possessions which had been excluded from taxation under the IR Code.

To be eligible to use the income averaging method taxpayers had to meet citizenship or residence tests. Taxpayers claiming the foreign earned income exclusion or deduction or those excluding income from sources within the U.S. possessions, the Virgin Islands, Guam. or Puerto Rico could not use the income averaging method.

For 1986, individuals could not average their income if they were a full-time student during any base period year unless they filed a joint return in the computation year and their income in the computation year was not more than 25 percent of total AGI on the joint

Income Subject to Tax

For taxpayers filing Tax Year 1986 returns and using the regular computation method, income subject to tax was the same as taxable income (adjusted gross income less the personal exemption amount and excess itemized deductions or the contributions deduction for non itemizers).

For taxpayers using the income averaging method, income subject to tax was a reduced amount of taxable income which was specially computed for the statistics by working backward from the tax itself. For taxpayers filing returns from prior years income subject to tax was adjusted for the statistics by working backward from the tax itself.

Income Tax After Credits

To arrive at income tax after credits, taxpayers deducted total personal credits (line 44, Form 1040) from income tax before credits (line 40, Form 1040). If the result was greater than zero, the foreign tax credit, and the general business credit, ( the sum of the research and experimentation credit, the jobs credit, the credit for alcohol used as a fuel, the low-income housing credit, and the employee stock ownership plan credit), were then deducted from the residual to arrive at income tax after credits.

The portion of the earned income credit which did not result in a negative amount is tabulated as "earned income credit used to offset income tax before credits." (See also "Total Personal Credits" in this section.)

Income Tax After Personal Credits

For Tax Year 1986, this amount represented the deduction of "total personal credits" from "income tax before credits."

Income Tax Before Credits

This amount consisted of two components: "tax generated" or "taxes from income averaging" plus "taxes from special tax computations." Generally, "tax generated" was the tax liability computed on current-year "taxable income" based on:

- (1) the regular tax, whether derived from the tax tables or tax rate schedules; or
- (2) the income averaging tax.

Income Tax Withheld

An employer could use either of the major methods of withholding-the "percentage" method, the "wage bracket" method, or an authorized alternative method. All the major methods of withholding were based on graduated rates ranging from 12 to 37 percent. Similarly, the result of any alternative method had to approximate the same amount as computed under one of the major methods.

Income tax withheld included amounts deducted from salaries, wages, tips, and other forms of remuneration as reported on Form W-2; from pensions and annuities, and certain gambling winnings as reported on Form W-2P and W-2G respectively. Amounts withheld for distributions from profit-sharing, retirement plans, and individual retirement arrangements had withholding reported on Form 1099-R:

Also, a backup withholding rate of 20 percent was required to insure that income tax was collected from payments generally not subject to withholding. The purpose of this measure was to insure that certain taxpayers who failed to report or correctly report certain kinds of tax information paid an adequate withholding amount.

Individual Retirement Arrangement (#)

An Individual Retirement Arrangement (IRA) is a savings program that allows a taxpayer to set aside money for retirement. An individual could establish an IRA at a bank or other qualified financial institution, or by investing directly in individual annuity contracts issued by an insurance company. Contributions to such a plan were limited to the lesser of:

- an individual's compensation for the year;
- (2) $2,000 ($2,250 if a nonworking spousal IRA was created); or
- (3) the amount actually paid.

Such contributions could be deducted from the employee's gross income in arriving at adjusted gross income. Unless they were disabled, taxpayers could not start withdrawing funds from the account until they reached age 59-1/2 and had to start doing so upon reaching age 70-1/2. Penalty taxes were assessed in the event the taxpayer failed to comply with these limitations.

Individuals could set up an IRA to include a nonworking spouse. To qualify the following conditions must have been met:

- the individual must have been married at the end of the tax year;
- (2) they must have met the IRA requirements discussed earlier;
- (3) they must have filed a joint return;
- (4) the spouse must not have received any compensation during the tax year; and
- (5) the spouse must have elected to be treated as if having no compensation by allowing a spousal IRA deduction on the joint return.

Only IRA contributions made before the due date of the return were deductible.

Interest Paid Deduction

Interest paid on personal debts, credit cards, mortgages, bank loans, and installment purchases of real or personal property was deductible, but interest paid on money borrowed to buy tax-exempt securities or single premium life insurance and endowment contracts was not. The amounts deductible as an interest expense included "investment interest" (that amount paid or accrued on indebtedness incurred, or continued, to purchase or carry property held for investment) as reported on Form 4952, Investment Interest Expense Deduction, subject to the limitations prescribed in the law. Interest relating to business, royalty, and rental income was deducted directly from these items and was, therefore, not reflected in the interest paid statistics.

For installment purchases, interest paid included amounts stated in the contract, certain unstated amounts of interest, and finance charges.

Interest Received

This amount was the taxable portion of interest received from bonds, debentures, notes, mortgages, certain insurance policy proceeds, personal loans, bank deposits, savings accounts, tax refunds, U.S. savings bonds, and money-market funds. Taxpayers were also instructed to include so called dividends on deposits or withdrawable accounts in mutual savings banks, cooperative banks, savings and loan associations, and credit unions. Excluded was most interest on State or local government obligations. Such interest was tax-exempt and, therefore, did not have to be reported on the tax return. If interest on accounts frozen by insolvent financial institutions was not received during the tax year, it was also excluded from income.

Investment Credit (#)

The Tax Reform Act of 1986 repealed the investment credit for most property put in service after December 31, 1985. A taxpayer could not claim any investment credit unless the property was:

- (1) Transition property
- (2) Qualified progress expenditure property
- (3) Qualified timber property
- (4) Certain rehabilitation property
- (5) Business energy property

This meant that a taxpayer could no longer claim investment credit on property such as automobiles, delivery trucks, office equipment, and farm equipment.

The investment credit was claimed as one of the components of the general business credit and was subject to the net tax liability limitation thereof. Total investment credit was the sum of: (1) the regular investment credit, (2) the rehabilitation investment credit, and (3) the business energy investment credit.

The regular investment credit rate was 10 percent of the "qualified investment" in certain new and used depreciable assets (numbers 1 through 3 above) with a useful life of three years or more. The "qualified investment" was determined by the cost of the property, taking into account the length of the property's intended life and whether the property was new or used.

For qualified rehabilitation structures, there were three credit rates, namely:

- (1) 25 percent for expenditures of certified historical structures;
- (2) 20 percent for expenditures of 40-year old buildings; and
- (3) 15 percent for expenditures of 30-year old buildings.

The business energy investment credit could be claimed against qualified biomass property, hydroelectric generating property, solar equipment, ocean thermal equipment, and geothermal equipment at rates of 10, 11, 12, 15, and 10 percents, respectively. For Tax Year 1986, the business energy investment credit was combined with the regular investment credit and limited to 75 percent of tax liability over $25,000.

Itemized Deductions

Jobs Tax Credit (#)

For Tax Year 1986 the jobs tax credit was claimed as one of the components of the general business credit and was subject to the net tax liability limitations thereof. This tax credit could be elected by employers who hired individuals from certain targeted groups.

The credit was limited to 40 percent of the first $6,000 in qualified first year wages paid to eligible individuals who began work after January 1, 1986. The employee must have been employed for a minimum of a 90-day period between May 1 and September 15. A credit of 85 percent of first year wages up to $3,000 were paid to qualified summer youth employees (with a 14 day or 20 hour minimum employment requirement).

Employee targeted groups were:

- handicapped individuals referred by vocational rehabilitation programs;
- (2) economically disadvantaged Vietnam-era veterans;
- (3) economically disadvantaged youths between 18 and 24 years of age;
- (4) recipients of supplemental social security income benefits;
- (5) recipients of general assistance;
- (6) economically disadvantaged youths between 16 and 19 years of age participating in a qualified cooperative education program;
- (7) certain economically disadvantaged exconvicts:
- (8) eligible work incentive employees; and
- (9) qualified summer youth employees.

In addition to being employed as a member of a group that was certified as a specified targeted group, the employee could not be a relative or dependent of the employer. More than half of the qualified wages received had to be income from working in the employer's trade or business. Those wages received from a Federally funded, on-the-job training program or payments from the Social Security Act did not qualify for the credit.

Any unused jobs credit could be carried back three years then forward fifteen years until it was used up.

Joint Returns of Husbands and Wives

These were returns of married taxpayers electing the joint return filing status. The income of each spouse had to be reported on these returns.

A married couple could not elect to file a joint return if: (1) their tax years began on a different date, or (2) they were separated under a decree of divorce or separate maintenance on the last day of the tax year.

Marital Filing Status

The five marital filing status classifications were:

- (1) joint returns of husbands and wives;
- (2) separate returns of husbands and wives;
- (3) returns of heads of households;
- (4) returns of surviving spouses; and
- (5) returns of single persons (not heads of households or surviving spouses).

Marital status was usually determined as of the last day of the taxable year. If one spouse died during the tax year, the other was considered married for the entire year. If a taxpayer was divorced during the tax year and did not remarry, the taxpayer was considered to be unmarried for the entire year. Each of the above classifications is defined under a separate heading in this section.

Medical and Dental Expense Deduction

In general, medical and dental expenses could be claimed as itemized deductions to the extent that they exceeded 5 percent of adjusted gross income. Amounts paid for medicine and drugs or insulin were deductible only if they were prescribed. Taxpayers could also deduct a maximum of $50 per day for certain lodging expenses incurred for medical care. Qualified medical expenses included payments made for the diagnosis, treatment, or prevention of disease.

Miscellaneous Deductions

Taxpayers were allowed to deduct certain specified nonbusiness deductions from adjusted gross income for which separate categories were not provided on the Schedule A.

Miscellaneous deductions included deductible employee expenses (for example, dues to professional societies, union dues, employment related education expenses, employment agency fees, and subscriptions to professional journals); deductible income producing expenses (for example, collection fees for interest or dividends, investment counsel fees); gambling losses not in excess of gambling winnings; certain business use of a home computer; certain legal and accounting fees; tax preparation fees; and qualified adoption expenses.

Modified Taxable Income (#)

for the statistics. For taxpayers using the tax computation method, modified regular taxable income is identical to taxable However, for taxpayers who used the income averaging computation, a modified income was computed for the . This was done by imputing a tax abl e statistics. hypothetical taxable income amount necessary to yield the given amount of tax reported, using the tax rate schedule, as if income averaging had not been used.

Mortgage Interest Credit (#)

As a result of the Tax Reform Act of 1984, state and local governments may issue mortgage credit certificates (MCCs) to be used in connection with the acquisition, qualified rehabilitation, or qualified home improvement of your principal residence. A qualified MCC entitled a taxpayer to claim a credit against federal income tax and the certificate specified the amount of the debt that qualified for the credit and the credit's percentage rate (10 percent to 50 percent).

percentage rate (10 percent to 50 percent).

The credit was figured by multiplying the interest paid on the debt during the year by the credit's percentage rate. If the credit's percentage rate exceeded 20 percent, the maximum allowable credit was $2,000 a year. Taxpayers had to reduce their Schedule A itemized deduction for interest expense by the amount of the credit.

Moving Expense Adjustment

An employee (with the exception of members of the armed services) who had to move to a new residence as a result of changing jobs could deduct from gross income certain reasonable expenses for moving and house hunting. For employees to qualify for this deduction, the new job location had to be at least 35 miles farther from the former residence than the old job was. Retirees could deduct moving expenses for a move to a new home in the United States when they permanently retired if both their former main job location and home were outside the United States. In addition, the employee had to work full time for at least 39 weeks of the 12 months after the move. Self-employed individuals had to work full time for at least 78 weeks during the first 24 months to be eligible for this deduction.

Deductible expenses included those incurred from moving household goods and personal effects; and travel, meals, and lodging of the taxpayer and household members en route to the new residence. There were no dollar limitations for these expenses. Other allowable expenses, subject to a $3,000 limitation, included house-hunting trips, cost of meals, lodging in temporary quarters for up to 30 days, and costs related to settlement of an unexpired lease or acquisition of a new lease, or selling of a residence and purchase of a new residence.

Nontaxable Returns

See "Taxable and Nontaxable Returns."

Other Income

Included here were such items as prizes, awards, sweepstakes winnings, gambling profits, recoveries of bad debts, insurance received as reimbursement for medical expenses taken as a deduction in a previous year, repayment of real estate taxes deducted in an earlier tax year if they reduced tax, free tours received from travel agencies, Veterans Administration rehabilitative program payments, Alaskan oil royalties, payments by a union to unemployed members, certain life insurance payments and any other income subject to tax for which there was no specific line provided on the return form. Taxpayers were required to apply any deduction for carryovers or carrybacks of business net operating losses against "other income." The foreign earned income exclusion was included in the calculation to reduce other income.

Other Tax Credits

"Other tax credits" is used as a residual category in the statistical tables and does not relate to a line item on a tax form. The two credits included in "other tax credits" were the "orphan drugs credit" and the "credit for fuel from a nonconventional source". The category included, in general, only those statutory credits which were used to offset income tax before credits and could not be identified as one of the following:

- research and experimentation credit,
- child care credit,
- investment credit,
- foreign tax credit,
- jobs credit,
- political contributions credit,
- residential energy credit,
- general business credit,elderly and permanently and totally
- elderly and permanently and totally disabled credit (credit for the elderly), and
- mortgage interest credit.

Other Taxpayments

"Other taxpayments" included the "throwback tax credit" allowed trust beneficiaries for certain taxes previously paid by the trust, and any other unidentified amounts that could not be allocated to one of the specified tax-payment items. Other tax credits, to the extent that they were in excess of total tax liability and were refundable, were also included in other taxpayments.

Overpayment

An overpayment of tax occurred when the "taxpayments" exceeded "total tax liability," including the amount of any "refundable portion of the earned income credit." Overpayments could be refunded; or, at the taxpayer's election, taken as a credit on the subsequent year's estimated tax; or taken partly as a refund and partly as a credit against estimated tax. (See also "Credit on 1987 Estimated Tax" and "Refund.")

Overpayment of Windfall Profit Tax

This excise tax was imposed on producers of crude oil, but the tax was withheld and reported to the Internal Revenue Service by the first purchaser of such oil. If the tax was over withheld in the course of the year, the producer could claim a refund on his or her income tax return.

The overpayment could be due to two possible reasons. First, whenever withholding errors occurred, a refund of the amounts over withheld could be claimed by filing a Form 6249, Computation of Overpaid Windfall Profit Tax, with the Form 1040. And second, any over withholding due to the net income limitation could also be claimed on the Form 6249.

The two types of overpayment were combined and carried over to the Form 1040 and entered in the margin of the taxpayments section. For purposes of this report overpayment of windfall profit tax was reported as a separate item.

Partnership Net Profit or Loss

Partnership net profit or loss was reported by persons who were members of a partnership, syndicate, joint venture, or unincorporated association. The taxpayer's profit or loss shown in SOI data was his or her share of the ordinary gain/loss of the enterprise and certain payments made to the taxpayer for the use of capital or as a salary. If the individual was a member of more than one partnership, the single amount of partnership profit or loss reported in adjusted gross income, whether actually received or not, was the net result of all shares.

One of the deductions from partnership gross income, the Section 179 property expense deduction could not be determined for Tax Year 1986 due to a change in the design in 1985, of Schedule E (Supplemental Income Schedule). The new design resulted in the merging of Section 179 property expense deductions from partnerships with Subchapter S corporations. The 179 property expense deduction covers certain qualifying depreciable business assets which could have been treated as an expense.

If a return showed net income from one partnership and a net loss from another, that return was tabulated in both the "total return was tabulated in both the income" and "total loss" columns. The columns labeled "net income" and "net loss" represent the sum of all income and loss reported from all partnerships; i.e., the net amount, on a return-by-return basis.

Payment with Request for Extension of Filing

This payment was made when the taxpayer filed Form 4868, Application for Automatic Extension of Time to File U.S. Individual Income Tax Return or Form 2688, Application for Additional Extension of Time to File. The extension gained the taxpayer either a four or six month extension of time to file Form 1040 or 1040A. The application did not extend the time for payment of expected tax since full payment of any tax due had to be made with the When taxpayers application for extension. filed their Form 1040 or 1040A, they entered the amount paid with Form 4868 or Form 2688 to determine any tax still due or any overpayment of tax.

Penalty Tax on Individual Retirement Arrangements

Taxpayers could start withdrawing funds from an Individual Retirement Arrangement if they were disabled or after reaching age 59-1/2, and had to start doing so after reaching age 70-1/2. Withdrawals prior to reaching age 59-1/2 were subject to a penalty tax equal to 10 percent of the premature distribution unless the individual was disabled. Failure to withdraw funds after reaching age 70-1/2 resulted in the taxpayer's paying a 50-percent excise tax on the amount by which the minimum required distribution exceeded the distributions actually received by the individual during the year. Contributions to the retirement arrangement in excess of the legal limitation for the year (the lesser of $2,000 or the taxpayer's compensation for the year) were subject to an excise tax equal to six percent of the excess contribution. (See also "Individual Retirement Arrangement.")

Pensions and Annuities (#)

Generally, pensions represented periodic income received after retirement and made in consideration of past services with employer, while annuities were income payable at stated intervals in consideration of a specific premium. A taxpayer could acquire a pension or annuity either by purchase from a commercial organization (usually life insurance, endowment, or annuity contracts) or under a plan or contract connected with the taxpayer's employment. Those pensions or annuities obtained in connection with employment could be purchased entirely by the taxpayer or could be financed in part (a contributory plan) or in whole (a non-contributory plan) by contributions of the employer.

Since a non-contributory pension was one paid for entirely by an employer, the amount received by the employee was fully taxable. This fully taxable pension was reported on 16, "Fully taxable pending ies," of Form 1040 rather than on line "Fully annuities,

17a, "Other pensions and annuities."
For the taxpayer who participated in a contributory retirement plan while employed, the amount received was only partially taxable. In general, the amount excludable from gross income, the nontaxable portion, represented the taxpayer's contributions under plan, while the taxable portion represented the employer's contribution. (In the case of a survivor beneficiary of a deceased employee, a death benefit exclusion of up to $5,000 could be excluded in addition to the deceased employee's contribution.) The entire amount of pensions received for the year was reported on line 17a, "Other pensions and annuities, including rollovers" of the Form 1040, with the taxable portion being computed on a separate worksheet and entered on line 17b, "Taxable amount."

The "three-year rule" which permitted an employee to exclude qualified retirement annuity payments from income until the employee had recovered the amount contributed to the plan, was no longer available after July 1, 1986. The employee was required to report payments under the general rule which provided that the nontaxable portion be amortized over the expected lifetime of the taxpayer.

Political Contributions Credit

An individual taxpayer was allowed to take a credit against income tax for political contributions paid during the year. These political contributions could be to a candidate or candidates for election to a Federal, State, or local office, in a primary, general, or special election; a political campaign committee; a newsletter fund; or a national, State or local committee of a national political party. The credit equaled 50 percent of the amount contributed, limited to $50 ($100 on a joint return).

Refund

A refund of tax included all overpayments of taxes not applied by the taxpayer as a credit to the next year's estimated tax. (See also "Overpayment.")

Regular Tax Computation

Typically, the taxpayer, in determining "tax generated," first computed taxable income. Depending on marital status and size of taxable income, the taxpayer then used the tax tables or applied rates from one of three tax rate schedules to determine tax. In some instances, the taxpayer requested the Internal Revenue Service to compute the tax. Returns of all such taxpayers are classified under the regular tax computation method. In addition, year returns of taxpayers whose taxable income was greater than zero, but less than or equal to the zero bracket amount, were also shown as having a regular tax computation. For these returns, no "tax generated" is shown.

Rent Net Income or Loss

Rent net income or loss constituted a part of adjusted gross income and was determined by deducting from gross rent, amounts for depreciation, repairs, improvements, interest, taxes, commissions, advertising, utilities, insurance, janitorial services, and any other allowable expenses related to the rented property. If a taxpayer used the rental property as a residence, rental expenses were limited to rental income.

Research and Experimentation Credit (#)

This credit was established to encourage businesses to increase the amounts spent on certain qualified research and experimentation. The credit was equal to 20 percent (25 percent prior to 1986) of the amount by which the qualified expenses for the year exceeded the average qualified expenses during the three years preceding the year for which the credit was taken. If the taxpayer had been in business less than three years special rules existed for imputing prior year research and experimentation expenditures on which to base the credit. Qualified expenses included: wages, cost of research supplies, payment to others for the use of computer time, and 65 percent of qualified research expenses performed under a contract.

The credit applied to research in the experimental or laboratory sense. It excluded research in the social sciences or humanities, or the part funded by any grant or contract by another person or government entity. In addition, to be eligible, the research had to have taken place within the United States.

This credit was extended through calendar year 1988. It was redesignated as a general business credit and was subject to the general business credit tax liability limitations.

Residential Energy Credit (#)

In order to reduce energy consumption and to encourage the development and use of alternative energy sources, a residential energy credit was available to taxpayers. The credit was made up of two separate parts, one based on qualified "energy conservation expenditures" and the other on qualified "renewable energy source expenditures," with different requirements for each type of qualifying expenditures. The entire residential energy credit was available for qualified items installed in or on the taxpayer's principal residence from April 20, 1977, through December 31, 1985.

installed in or on the taxpayer's principal residence from April 20, 1977, through December 31, 1985.

The credit for energy conservation property was 15 percent of the first $2,000 of expenditures, including original installation costs, with a maximum credit of $300 per residence over the entire period the credit was to be in effect. This credit could only be taken if the residence was completed by April 20, 1977 and the residence was in the United States.

Qualifying energy conservation property included the following items:

- (1) insulation designed to reduce the heat loss or gain of a home or water heater,
- (2) storm or thermal windows or doors for the outside of the home.
- (3) caulking or weatherstripping of outside doors or windows,
- (4) clock thermostats or other automatic energy saving setback thermostats,
- (5) furnace replacement burners, ignition systems that replace a gas pilot light, and flue opening modifications, and
- (6) meters that show the cost of energy use.

The credit for renewable energy source property was 40 percent of the first $10,000 of expenditures, including labor costs for on-site preparation, assembly, or original installation, with a maximum credit of $4,000 per residence over the entire period the credit was to be in effect.

The renewable energy source property had to be new, and expected to remain in operation at least five years. Renewable energy source property included the following items:

(1) solar energy property for heating or cooling the home or for providing hot water or electricity for use in the home.

- (2) wind energy property for generating electricity or other forms of energy for home use, and
- (3) geothermal energy property for heating or cooling the home or for providing hot water for use in the home.

The residential energy credit could not be claimed for energy saving items or renewable energy source property installed after 1985. However, unused credits from prior years could be carried forward.

Royalty Net Income or Loss

Net royalties consisted of gross royalties less deductions for depletion, depreciation, office rent, legal fees, clerical help, interest, taxes, and similar items. Gross royalties included revenues from oil, gas, and other mineral rights; revenue from patents; and revenue from literary, musical, or artistic works. Certain royalties received under a lease agreement on timber, coal, and domestic iron ore were eligible for capital gains or ordinary loss treatment under IR Code Section 1231, and, as a result of the separate computation required by that section, are reflected in the statistics for "sales of capital assets" and "sales of property other than capital assets."

Salaries and Wages

Salaries and wages as reported on the tax return were amounts of compensation primarily for personal services. The following items were included:

- commissions.
- bonuses,
- tips,
- fees,
- excess reimbursement over employee business expenses,
- moving expense allowances,
- employer's payments to a nonqualified
- pension plan, the difference between the fair market value of certain property and the discount price for which it was purchased by a taxpayer from his

- employer, - severance pay,
- sick pay,
- the employee's portion of social security tax when paid by an employer,
- exercising a stock appreciation right,
- vacation allowances,
- payments received as the result of winning some legal suits,
- most disability payments,

- certain group-term life insurance premiums paid by an employer,
- strike and lockout benefits, certain meals or lodging, and
- the value of non-monetary payments for services (e.g., merchandise, accommodations, certain meals or lodging, certain stock purchase plans, or property).

Identifiable amounts for any of these categories which may have been reported by taxpayers as "other income" were treated as salaries and wages for the statistics.

Sales of Capital Assets Net Gain or Loss

In general, capital assets for tax purposes included all property held for personal use or investment. Examples of such assets were personal residences, furniture, automobiles, and stocks and bonds. Assets used in the normal course of business activities, such as inventory held for sale during the ordinary conduct of business, and depreciable or real property held for sale or used in a trade or business, were specifically excluded from treatment as capital assets.

In addition, net gains from the disposition of certain types of property which were not classified as capital assets were treated as capital gains under IR Code Section 1231. These included property used in business, such as buildings and machinery, and also certain specific types of assets such as livestock, cut timber, coal, domestic iron ore and timber royalties, and unharvested crops sold with the land, if the land was held for more than six months.

On the other hand, all or a portion of net gains from some types of property included under the definition of capital assets could be denied capital gains treatment under certain other sections of the IR Code. Generally, these sections denied capital gains treatment to gains that resulted from using the asset in a trade or business.

The following concepts were used in the computation of net capital gain or loss for the purposes of this report:

Net short-term gain or loss--These were gains and losses from the sales or exchanges of capital assets held for six months or less. Short-term gains or losses from current year sales were combined with any short-term capital loss carryover, any net short-term gain or loss received from partnerships, S corporations, or fiduciaries, gains from the sale or exchange of a principal residence held six months or less, and gains from installment sales.

Net long-term gain or loss--These were gains and losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets held for more than six months. Long-term gains and losses were eligible for special tax treatment (see "Net capital gain" below). To obtain the net long-term gain or loss, gains or losses for which taxpayers received Forms 1099-B (stocks, bonds, etc.) were combined with:

- net long-term gain or loss received from partnerships, fiduciaries, or S corporations,
- (2) capital gain distributions of regulated investment companies (mutual funds) and real estate investment trusts,
- (3) long-term capital loss carryover from prior years,
- (4) gains and losses from sales or exchange of assets used in a trade or business and involuntary conversions,
- (5) gains from the sale or exchange of a principal residence held more than six months, and
- (6) long-term capital gains from installment sales.

Short-term capital loss carryover--This carryover equaled that portion of short-term capital loss incurred, but not deducted, in a previous tax year because of the limitation to net capital loss claimable, as discussed below under "Net capital loss."

Long-term capital loss carryover--This carryover equaled that portion of long-term capital loss incurred, but not deducted, in a previous tax year because of the limitation to net capital loss claimable, as discussed below under "Net capital loss."

Net capital gain-If the combination of net short-term gain or loss and net long-term gain or loss resulted in a positive amount, the taxpayer had a net capital gain. For taxpayers with long-term capital gains the actual amount shown as net capital gain (and thus carried into adjusted gross income) was computed by first subtracting short-term capital losses (if any), and then subtracting 60 percent of the remaining amount. Short-term capital gains, on the other hand, were always fully includable in net capital gain.

Net capital gain also included capital gain distributions which would have been reported on Schedule D, Capital Gains and Losses, except for the provision that taxpayers who had no other gains or losses could simply enter the portion of capital gain distributions included in adjusted gross income on line 14 of Form 1040. These distributions were always considered to be long-term capital gains. The statistics include a separate tabulation of capital gain distributions not reported on Schedule D (Capital Gains and Losses and Reconciliation of Forms 1099-B).

Net capital loss-If the combination of net short-term gain or loss and net long-term gain or loss resulted in a negative amount, the taxpayer generally showed a net capital loss. In many cases, however, the actual amount included in net capital loss (and thus carried into adjusted gross income) was less than the computed combined amount. For taxpayers with long-term capital losses, only 50 percent of such losses (reduced by any short-term capital gains) was includable in net capital loss.

After this reduction, net capital loss was further limited to the lesser of (a) net capital loss, (b) taxable income (computed without regard to capital loss or zero bracket amount), or (c) $3,000 ($1,500 for married persons filing separately).

Amounts of capital losses in excess of the above limitations, whichever was applicable, could be carried over to subsequent tax years.

Sales of Property Other Than Capital Assets Net Gain or Loss

Property other than capital assets generally included property of a business nature, in contrast to personal and investment property which were capital assets. Some types of property specifically included in this group were:

- certain depreciable, depletable, and real business property;
- (2) accounts and notes receivable in the ordinary course of business generated from the sale of goods and services ordinarily held for sale by the business or includable in the inventory of the business;
- (3) certain copyrights; literary, musical, or artistic compositions; or similar properties;
- (4) any share of gain or loss that otherwise qualified under this heading and was received through partnerships, S corporations or fiduciaries; and
- (5) amounts resulting from certain "involuntary conversions," including net losses from casualty and theft.

Gains from the disposition of some property types not considered to be capital assets could be treated as capital gains under certain conditions. Conversely, under certain other conditions gains from the disposition of some property types considered to be capital gains could be denied capital gains treatment. Taxpayers reported all gains and losses not receiving capital gains treatment on Form 4797, Gains and Losses From Sales or Exchanges of Assets Used in a Trade or Business and Involuntary Conversions.

S Corporation Net Profit or Loss

Net income from a qualified S corporation (defined in Section 1361 of the IR Code) was taxed directly through each stockholder. Net losses were allocated to each stockholder to be offset against income from other sources.

S corporation income shown in this report was the amount taxable to stockholders as ordinary income. Net long-term capital gain, reduced by the special tax imposed at the corporate level, retained its character in the hands of the stockholders and is included in the statistics for net gain or loss from sales Undistributed capital assets. earned in previous years was taxable to stockholders in the year it was earned and could be distributed during the current year without any further tax.

If a return showed net income from one S corporation and a net loss from another, that return was tabulated in both the "total income" and "total loss" columns. The columns labeled "net income" and "net loss" represent the sum of all income and loss reported from all S corporations; i.e., the net amount on a return-by-return basis.

Self-Employed Retirement (Keogh) Plan Adjustment

The tax law allowed self-employed individuals to contribute to a qualified retirement plan (Keogh or H.R. 10 plan) and deduct all or a part of such contributions in computing adjusted gross income. The amount which could be deducted was based on earned income. For self-employed persons participating in simplified employment pensions (SEPs) compensation could not include amounts received as deferred compensation or as a pension or annuity. Thus, earned income was defined as:

- (1) net earnings from self-employment, but only with respect to a trade or business in which personal services of the taxpayer were a material income-producing factor, and
- (2) income from the disposition of certain property by individuals whose personal efforts created the property, excluding capital gains.

Additionally, the maximum amount of the annual deduction was the lesser of \$30,000 or  $\frac{1}{2}$ 25 percent of the participant's compensation.

Self-Employment Tax (#)

This tax, levied under the Social Security system, was reported by most individuals who had self-employment earnings of at least $400 derived from a sole proprietorship or from any share of partnership profits. In the case of individuals who were paid as an employee of a church or qualified church controlled organization that had in effect a certificate electing exemption from social security taxes, they were required to pay self-employment tax if they had remuneration of $100 or more. Ministers or members of certain religious orders could elect not to be covered by social security if they opposed social insurance on religious principle.

U.S. citizens employed by foreign governments or international organizations were not subject to self-employment tax on salaries. Certain types of income and deductions such as investment income, capital gains and losses, deductions for net operating losses, and casualty and theft losses were not allowed in computing self-employment earnings.

The maximum amount subject to self-employment tax for 1986 was $42,000, reduced by any wages on which social security tax had been withheld by any employer. The maximum self-employment tax payable was $5,166, based on the 12.3 percent rate in effect for that year. For 1985, the rate was 11.8 percent with the maximum amount of earnings being $39,600 and the maximum tax, $4,672.80.

Separate Returns of Husbands and Wives

Generally, these were returns of married persons, each of whom filed a return independently of his or her spouse and reported only his or her own income, exemptions, and tax. Also included were returns of married persons where only one spouse had income, but elected to use this classification.

If only one spouse filed a separate return, the other spouse's exemption could be claimed on that return, but only if the spouse who was not filing had no gross income and was not the dependent of another taxpayer.

Single Persons, Returns of

These were returns of (a) unmarried persons who did not qualify as head of household or surviving spouse, or (b) certain married individuals living apart from their spouses who maintained a home, independently of the spouse, that was the home of the individual's child or stepchild (who could be claimed as a dependent) for more than 6 but less than 12 months of the year.

Size of Adjusted Gross Income

The amount of adjusted gross income reported by the taxpayer on the return was the basis for classifying data by size of adjusted gross income. Returns without positive adjusted gross income, such as deficit returns or returns on which income and loss were equal, were classified as having no adjusted gross income and appear as a separate class in most basic tables. The absence of a class labeled "no adjusted gross income" indicates that any deficit or break-even returns in a table were included in the lowest income class.

Social Security Taxes on Tip Income

This amount consisted of social security tax on unreported tip income and uncollected employee social security tax on tips.

Cash tips amounting to $20 or more that the taxpayer received in a month while working for any one employer were subject to withholding of income tax, social security tax, or railroad retirement tax. Cash tips counted toward social security and railroad retirement benefits and an employee was required to report these tips to the employer; the employer then withheld the social security tax or railroad retirement tax. However, if the employer was unable to withhold the amount of social security tax or railroad retirement tax, the amount of uncollected social security tax or railroad retirement tax on tips was indicated on the employee's Form W-2, and the taxpayer was required to report the uncollected tax and pay it with the Form 1040.

uncollected tax and pay it with the Form 1040.

If the employee did not report the tips to the employer, the employee was required to compute the social security tax on unreported tips on Form 4137 and attach it to Form 1040.

State Income Tax Refunds

These amounts represented that part of a refund of State income tax attributable to itemized deductions taken in a prior year that resulted in a Federal tax benefit. Taxpayers were instructed not to net the refundable amount against the current year's itemized deduction for State and local income tax.

Statutory Adjustments

These were certain adjustments to gross income allowed as deductions in arriving at adjusted gross income. Statutory adjustments consisted of the moving expense deduction, employee business expense deduction, payments to a self-employed retirement (Keogh) plan, forfeited interest penalty, payments to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), alimony paid, the two-earner married couple deduction, and the foreign housing deduction. Each of the above is described in this section. In addition, statutory adjustments included the forestation/reforestation amortization deduction and the repayment of supplemental unemployment benefits under the Trade Act of 1974.

Surviving Spouses, Returns of

These returns were filed by widows or widowers whose spouse had died during either of the two preceding years, who had not remarried, and who had maintained a home which was the principal abode of a child or stepchild for whom the taxpayer was entitled to an exemption.

Surviving spouse taxpayers could use the joint return tax rates for the two taxable years following the year of death of the spouse; however, the deceased spouse could not be claimed as an exemption, except for the year of death.

Tax Credits

Tax Due at Time of Filing

Tax From Recomputing Prior-Year Investment Credit

The investment tax credit provisions of the law included a recapture rule which required taxpayers to pay back all or a portion of any investment credit taken on property disposed of before the end of the useful life claimed in computing the credit. The law specified that if property qualifying for the credit was disposed of before the end of its intended useful life, the tax for the year of disposal was increased by the difference between the credit originally claimed and the credit that would have been allowed based on the shorter actual life.

Tax Generated

This amount was the tax on "taxable income." On most returns (those without one of the "taxes from special computations or those not electing to use the income averaging method for determining their income tax"), this equaled "income tax before credits."

Tax Savings From Income Averaging

In this report, the amount of tax savings is the difference between the tax resulting from using the provision of the income averaging method from Schedule G (Income Averaging) and the amount of regular tax that would have resulted from not using this provision.

Taxable and Nontaxable Returns

The taxable and nontaxable classification of a return for this report was determined by the presence of "total income tax" (the sum of income tax after credits and the additional tax for tax preferences). Some returns classified as "nontaxable" may have had a liability for self-employment or Railroad Retirement Tax Act (RRTA) taxes, social security taxes on tip income, tax from recomputing prior-year investment credit, penalty taxes on individual retirement arrangements, Section 72 penalty taxes, advance earned income credit payments, golden parachute payments, or uncollected employee social security and RRTA tax on tips. However, these taxes were disregarded for purposes of this classification, since three of the above taxes were considered social security (rather than income) taxes, and the remaining ones, except for advance earned payments, were either based on prior-year's income or were penalty taxes. For the purposes of this report, the earned income credit was treated as an amount which could be used to offset income tax before credits. (Since the earned income credit was refundable, it was subtracted from income tax after reduction by all other statutory credits for the statistics.) As a result, some returns became nontaxable strictly because of the earned income credit when there was not additional tax for tax preferences and the earned income credit equaled or exceeded income tax before credits reduced by any other credits.

It should be noted that classification as taxable or nontaxable was based on each return as it was originally filed; the classification does not reflect any changes resulting from audit or other enforcement activities.

Taxable Income

Taxable income was the amount to which taxpayers applied the tax tables or the tax rate schedules to arrive at "tax generated." It was determined by subtracting from adjusted gross income "excess itemized deductions" (or by adding the "unused zero bracket amount"), the charitable contribution deduction claimed by taxpayers who did not itemize, and the exemption amount. The zero bracket amount, that portion of income subject to tax at the zero percent rate, represented the first portion of taxable income.

Taxable income was not tabulated for deficit returns or for returns on which excess itemized deductions plus the exemption amount equaled or exceeded adjusted gross income.

Taxes From Special Computations

These taxes represented the second component of "income tax before credits" (in addition to "tax generated") and consisted of:

- (1) the "special averaging tax" (from Form 4972), computed by a taxpayer who received a lump-sum distribution from a qualified pension or retirement plan; and was eligible to use the 10-year averaging method;
- (2) the "multiple recipient special averaging tax" (from Form 5544), computed by a taxpayer who received a share of a single lump-sum distribution from a qualified pension or retirement plan; and
- (3) the tax on accumulation distributions of trusts (from Form 4970), computed by a taxpayer who received a distribution in the current year which was based on income accumulated by a trust in prior years.

Taxes Paid Deduction

Taxes allowed as a deduction from adjusted gross income included personal property taxes, state and local income taxes, certain state and local general sales taxes, taxes paid to foreign countries or U.S. possessions unless a foreign tax credit was claimed, and real estate taxes except those levied for improvements that tended to increase the value of the property. Federal taxes and State and local taxes on cigarettes, tobacco and alcoholic beverages were not deductible, nor were State and local fees for vehicle license plates (unless the fees were based on the value of the vehicle) or driver's licenses.

Mandatory employee contributions to a state disability fund and employee contributions to a state unemployment fund were deductible.

Taxes paid on business property were deducted separately on the schedules for business, rent, farm, and royalty income and are excluded from the "taxes paid" in this report.

Taxpayments

These payments were generally made before the return was filed and were applied against tax liability to determine any amount payable or refundable at the time of filing. They consisted of the following:

- income tax withheld, including backup withholding,
- (2) excess social security taxes or railroad retirement tax withheld.
- (3) credit for tax on certain gasoline, fuel, and oil,

- (4) payments on 1986 declaration of estimated tax.
- (5) payment with request for extension of filing time,
- (6) credit from regulated investment companies,
- (7) overpayment of windfall profit tax, and
- (8) other taxpayments.

Each of the above is described under a separate heading in this section.

While the earned income credit was shown as a taxpayment of the tax return itself, it is tabulated separately for purposes of this report and not included as part of taxpayments. (See also "Earned Income Credit.")

Total Income Tax

Total income tax was the sum of income tax after credits and the additional tax for tax preferences. It did not include any of the other taxes which made up "total tax liability." Total income tax was the basis for classifying returns as "taxable or nontaxable."

Total Itemized Deductions

Itemized deductions from adjusted gross income could be claimed for medical and dental expenses, taxes paid, interest paid, contributions, casualty and theft losses, and miscellaneous deductions.

Four groups of taxpayers were required to itemize their deductions, even if those deductions were less than the zero bracket amount. Those individuals were dependents with unearned income of $1,080 or more; married persons filing a separate return when the taxpayer's spouse elected to itemize; dual status aliens (i.e., one who was both a nonresident alien and a resident alien or U.S. citizen during the year); and persons excluding income received from sources in U.S. possessions. Dependents with unearned income could substitute their earned income, if it was larger than their itemized deductions.

Total itemized deductions was the amount before the zero bracket amount was taken into account. It was tabulated only from returns showing positive adjusted gross income.

Total Personal Credits

For purposes of this report, total personal credits consisted of the following:

- (1) child care credit;
- (2) credit for the elderly and permanently and totally disabled;

- (3) residential energy credit,
- (4) political contributions credit, and
- (5) mortgage interest credit.

This amount was deducted from income tax before credits to arrive at income tax after personal credits. (See also "Income Tax After Personal Credits.") Each of the above credits is described under a separate heading in this section.

Total Tax Liability

Total tax liability was the sum of income tax after credits, additional tax for tax preferences, self-employment or Railroad Retirement Tax Act taxes, social security tax on tips, tax from recomputing prior-year investment credits, taxes from individual retirement arrangements, Section 72 penalty taxes, uncollected employee social security and Railroad Retirement Tax Act tax on tips, tax on golden parachute payments reduced by the "earned income credit used to offset all other taxes" (defined under "Earned Income Credit"). For purposes of this report, total tax liability did not include any advance earned income credit payments.

Type of Tax Computation

There were two methods of computing the tax on income subject to tax. These methods were:

- regular tax, as computed from the tax tables or tax rate schedules accompanying the Forms 1040, 1040A, or 1040EZ; and
- (2) income averaging, computed on Schedule G, Income Averaging.

Unemployment Compensation

All or a portion of payment received for unemployment compensation was includable in adjusted gross income, and thus subject to tax. The taxable amount of unemployment compen-

The taxable amount of unemployment compensation was determined by adding adjusted gross income and unemployment compensation for the year and subtracting the exclusion for unemployment compensation payments. The excluded amounts were $12,000 for single persons or married couples who filed separate returns and did not live together anytime during the year and $18,000 for married couples who filed joint returns. Married couples who filed separate returns and lived together anytime during the year were not eligible for the exclusion.

One-half of the excess over the exclusion, but not more than gross unemployment compensation, was determined to be taxable unemployment compensation.

Unused Zero Bracket Amount

This concept represented the amount by which the zero bracket amount exceeded total itemized deductions. It could arise only on returns of taxpayers who were required, by law, to itemize their deductions. Such taxpayers consisted of: (1) married persons filing separately whose spouse chose to itemize; (2) dual status aliens; (3) persons excluding income from sources in U.S. possessions, and (4) dependents with unearned income if their earned income was less than the zero bracket amount.

This last category of taxpayers consisted of any individual who could be claimed as a dependent by another taxpayer and had to file a tax return if he or she had unearned income (such as interest, dividends, or capital gains) in excess of $1,080. In addition, these taxpayers were required to itemize their deductions, even if the total amount of deductions was less than the appropriate zero bracket amount. (This was in contrast to most other taxpayers who could itemize their deductions only if the total itemized deductions exceeded their zero bracket amount.) If these dependent taxpayers also had earned income, such as wages, they could substitute the earned income, if larger, for the amount of itemized deductions. The amount of any earned income substituted, however, was limited to the zero bracket amount. For purposes of statistics in this report, those returns for taxpayers being claimed as dependents with earned income equal to or greater than the zero bracket amount were tabulated as "zero bracket amount only" returns. Those returns with earned income less than the zero bracket amount were tabulated as returns with itemized deductions, with any specified itemized deductions tabulated as reported by the taxpayer. Earned income used in lieu of itemized deductions to offset taxable income was tabulated as part of "miscellaneous deductions."

(See also "Zero Bracket Amount," and "Total

Zero Bracket Amount

This amount replaced the "standard deduction" which was in effect for 1976 and earlier years. For 1986, the zero bracket amount was $3,670 for married taxpayers filing jointly and surviving spouses, $2,480 for single persons and heads of households, and $1,835 for married taxpayers filing separately.

Instructions for preparing Form 1040

From the Commissioner

The new tax reform act makes sweeping changes in our tax laws that will affect all taxpayers. However, you will find that your tax forms this year are very similar to those you filed in the past. This is because most of the new tax changes do not take effect until after 1986 and therefore will not affect your 1986 taxes. We will be providing additional information throughout the coming year about these changes so that you will be familiar with them by the time you receive next year's

I also am happy to tell you that the last tax filing season was one of our best ever, primarily because of the excellent efforts of our employees and their improvements in our system which permitted us to more quickly process your tax returns and issue refunds. We hope that you are pleased with the improvement in our performance, and we want you to know that we will continue to work to improve our system

You can do some important things to make sure that your 1986 return can be processed promptly this year. First, after you complete your tax return, please check it carefully to make sure it is correct and also be sure to sign it. Second, if you received a preprinted name and address label from us, please use it because this label reduces the chance of error that may delay processing your return. Finally, please mail your return as soon as possible to avoid delays that may occur at the end of the filing season.

As your new Commissioner, I am committed to the continued improvement in the quality of the service that we are providing to you. All of us at the Internal Revenue Service are working very hard to improve the quality of our performance in order to deserve and obtain your continued respect and confidence. If you have any suggestions for improving our forms and instructions or our administration of the tax laws, please let me know by writing me at the Internal Revenue Service, Mail Stop 1040, 1111 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, DC 20224.

Important Reminders

Deduction for Charitable Contributions. Generally, for 1986. you may deduct all of your qualified charitable contributions even if you do not itemize your deductions. See the instructions for lines 34b through 34d on page 14 for more details.

Residential Energy Credit. You may not take a credit for energy saving expenditures made after 1985. However, if you have an unused credit from a prior tax year, you may be able to take a credit against your tax. Get Form 5695, Residential Energy Credit Carryforward, for details,

Tax Sheiter Registration Number. A person who sells (or otherwise transfers) to you an interest in a tax shelter must maintain a list of investors and give you the tax shelter registration number assigned to the tax shelter. You must attach to your tax return Form 8271, Investor Reporting of Tax Shelter Registration Number, to report this number. Penalties are provided if you fail to report this number on your tax

Could You Pay Less Tax by Income Averaging? If there has been a large increase in your income this year, you may be able to pay less tax by using the income averaging method to figure your tax. Get Schedule G (Form 1040) to see if you qualify.

Employment Taxes for Household Employers. If you have a household employee, both you and the employee may have to pay a share of the social security tax on the employee's wages. You may also have to pay Federal unemployment tax, which is for your employee's unemployment insurance. For more details, get Publication 503. Child and Dependent Care Credit, and Employment Taxes for Household Employers

Voluntary Contributions To Reduce the Public Debt. If you wish to make a contribution to reduce the public debt, enclose a separate check with your income tax return and make it payable to "Bureau of the Public Debt." You may be able to deduct this contribution on your 1987 tax return if you itemize your deductions. Please do not add it to any tax you may owe. If you owe tax, include a separate check for that amount payable to "Internal Revenue Service 1

Assembling Your Return, Attach all schedules and forms in order of the "Attachment Sequence No." that is shown in the upper right corner of the schedule or form. For example, the "Attachment Sequence No." for Schedule A (Form 1040) is 07. Attach forms without an attachment sequence number and any additional information sheets at the end of your return. See Step 5 on page 4 for more details.

Mailing Your Return. If you received an envelope with your forms booklet, please use it. If you didn't receive an envelope, or you moved during the year, see Where To File on page 18. Envelopes with insufficient postage will be returned by the post office.

Telephone Service for Tax Refund Information. If it has been at least 10 weeks since you mailed your 1986 tax return, you can call a telephone number to find out the status of your income tax refund. For details on how to use this service, see Tele-Tax Information (the page numbers are in the index)

Unresolved Tax Problems, The Problem Resolution Program is for taxpavers who have been unable to resolve their problems with IRS. If you have a tax problem you cannot clear up through normal channels, write to your local IRS District Director or call your local IRS office and ask for Problem Resolution assistance. Although this office cannot change the tax law or technical decisions, it can assist in resolving problems that resulted from previous contacts.

Tax Law Changes Effective for 1987

The following information has no effect on your 1986 tax return. It is provided to give you enough time to comply with three of the many new changes included in the recently enacted Tax Reform Act of 1986

Social Security Numbers for Dependents. Any person age 5 or over whom you claim as a dependent on your tax return next year must have a social security number, and that number must be shown on your 1987 return. If your dependent does not already have a social security number, the Social Security Administration will let you know how to apply for one Form W-4 Filing Requirement. You must file a new 1987 Form W-4, Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate, with your employer before October 1, 1987. Otherwise, Federal income taxes will be withheld from your wages as if you claimed only one withholding allowance (two withholding allowances if your most recent W-4 form shows you are married). However, because of the numerous tax law changes effective for 1987, you may want to file the 1987 Form W-4 with your employer early in 1987 to make sure you have the right amount of income tax withheld from your wages. If you do this, you will meet the requirement for filing before October 1, 1987. You can get the new 1987 Form W-4 from your employer.

Estimated Tax Payments. Generally, for 1987 you should prepay, through withholding or estimated tax payments. at least 90% (previously 80%) of your 1987 tax or 100% of your 1986 tax, whichever is less. Otherwise, you may have to pay a penalty. Form 1040-ES. Estimated Tax for Individuals, is used to pay estimated tax. You can get Form 1040-ES from IRS.

If you want more information about these and other tax law changes effective for 1987, get Publication 553, Highlights of 1986 Tax Changes.

How To Use This Instruction Booklet

The instructions are divided into five main

Section 1 Filing Information

First, be sure you need to file a tax return.

 Section 1 contains information on who must file, how to choose the correct form to use, and when to file a return.

 Section 2 contains helpful steps to get you ready to prepare your retu

- Section 3 contains line-builine instructions for most of the lines on the

. Section 4 contains general information.

 Section 5 contains instructions for most of the lines on many of the schedules that may be attached to Form

If you follow the steps in Section 2 and the line-by-line instructions in Section 3, we feel you can fill in your return quickly and accurately. You may also find some of the publications and Tele-Tax Information listed in the instructions helpful.

Your marital status, filing status, age, and gross income determine whether you have to file a tax return. Gross income usually means money, goods, and property you received on which you must pay tax. It does not include nontaxable benefits. See page 7 of the instructions to find out which types of income you should include.

Use the following chart to see whether you must file a tax return

Who Must File (Caution: Also see Other Filing Requirements below	)w.)
You must file a tax return if—

You must file a tax return if— your marital status at the end of 1986 was:	and your filing status is:	and at the end of 1986 you were:	and your gross income was at least:
Single (including divorced and legally separated)	Single or Head of household	under 65 65 or over	$3,560 $4,640
Married with a dependent child (or a child whom you cannot claim as a dependent because of the rules on page 7 for Children of Divorced or Separated Parents) and living apart from your spouse during the last 6 months of 1986	Head of household	under 65 65 or over	$3,560 $4,640
Married and living with your spouse at end of 1986 (or on the date your spouse died)	Married, joint return	under 65 (both spouses) 65 or over (one spouse) 65 or over (both spouses)	$5,830 $6,910 $7,990
	Married, separate return	any age	$1,080
Married, not living with your spouse at end of 1986 (or on the date your spouse died)	Married, joint return or separate return	any age	$1,080
Widowed in 1984 or 1985 and not	Single or Head of household	under 65 65 or over	$3,560 $4,640
remarried in 1986	Qualifying widow(er) with dependent child	under 65 65 or over	$4,750 $5,830
Widowed before 1984 and not remarried in 1986	Single or Head of household	under 65 65 or over	$3,560 $4,640

Other Filing Requirements, Even if your income was less than the amounts shown above, you must file a return if any one of the following applied for 1986:

- . You could be claimed as a dependent on your parents' return and you had $1,080 or more in income that was not earned income-for example, taxable interest and dividends
- · You owe any special taxes, such as:
  - social security tax on tips you did not report to your employer;
  - -- uncollected social security tax or RRTA tax on tips you reported to your employer:
- alternative minimum tax:
- tax on an Individual Retirement Arrangement (IRA): or
- tax from recapture of investment credit.
- You received any advance earned income credit (EIC) payments from your employer(s).
- · You had net earnings from sell
- employment income of at least $400. You had wages of $100 or more from a church or qualified church-controlled organization that is exempt from employer social security taxes.

 You exclude income from sources within U.S. possessions and your gross income was at least $1,080.

These rules apply to all U.S. citizens and resident aliens. They also apply to nonresident aliens and dual-status aliens who are married to U.S. citizens or residents at the end of 1986 and who have elected to be treated as resident aliens.

If you were a nonresident alien at any time during 1986 (except as mentioned above), different rules apply. You may have to file Form 1040NR, U.S. Nonresident Alien Income Tax Return. Also get Publication 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens. Note: Specific rules apply to determine if you are a resident or nonresident alien. See Publication 519 for details.

Who Should File

Even if you do not have to file, you should file to get a refund if Federal income tax was withheld from any payments to you or if you can take the earned income credit. If you can take the earned income credit. In you, file for either of these reasons only, you may be able to use Form 1040A. If you file only to get a refund of tax withheld, you may be able to use Form 1040EZ.

When To File

You should file as soon as you can after January 1, but not later than April 15, 1987

If you file late, you may have to pay penalties and interest. See Penalties and Interest on page 18.

If you know that you cannot file by the due date, you should ask for an extension using Form 4868, Application for Automatic Extension of Time To File U.S. Individual Income Tax Return.

Note: Form 4868 does not extend the time to pay your income tax. See the instructions for Form 4868.

If you are living or traveling outside the United States and Puerto Rico on April 15, you can get an automatic 2-month extension of time to file. Just attach a statement to your return explaining the details.

Which Form To File You MAY Be Able To Use Form 1040EZ If:

· You were single and claim only your own personal exemption.

You had only wages, salaries, and tips, and not more than $400 of interest income

Your taxable income is less than $50,000

· You do not itemize deductions or claim any adjustments to income or tax credits.

You can use Form 1040F7 to deduct certain cash charitable contribution

You MAY Be Able To Use Form 1040A

- · You had income only from wages, salaries, tips, unemployment compensation, interest, or dividends
- Your taxable income is less than $50,000.
- You do not itemize deductions.

You can also use Form 1040A to claim the deduction for a married couple when both work, the deduction for certain contributions to an Individual Retirement Arrangement (IRA), the credit for child and dependent care expenses, and the deduction for charitable contributions.

Since Forms 1040A and 1040EZ are easier to complete than Form 1040, you should use one of them unless using Form 1040 lets you pay less tax. However, even it you meet the above tests, you must file Form 1040 if any of the following situations applies to you

You MUST Use Form 1040 If:

- Your taxable income is $50,000 or more. Vou terrore deductions (Read line 34a)
- instructions that begin on page 13 to see if it would benefit you to itemize.)
- · Your spouse files a separate return and itemizes deductions. Exception: You may still use Form 1040A if you have a child and can meet the tests on page 5 under Married Persons Who Live Apart.
- · You can be claimed as a dependent on your parents' return AND you had interest, dividends, or other unearned income of $1 080 or more
- You are a qualifying widow(er) with a dependent child.
- · You were a nonresident alien during any part of 1986 and do not file a joint retur (You may have to file Form 1040NR.)
- . You were married at the end of 1986 to a nonresident alien who had U.S. source income and who has not elected to be treated as a resident alien. Exception: You may be able to use Form 1040A if you meet the tests on page 5 under Married Persons Who Live Apart.
- · You received, as a nominee, interest or dividends that actually belong to another person
- . You received or paid accrued interest on securities transferred between interest payment dates.
- · You received any nontaxable dividends or capital gain distributions
- . You are required to fill in Part III of
- trusts (see page 23 of the instructions). . You had any of the kinds of income shown on Form 1040, lines 10 through 19, 21b, and 22, such as taxable social security or railroad retirement benefits.
- You take any of the adjustments to income shown on Form 1040, lines 24, 25. 27, 28, 29, or any write-in amount included on line 31

- You claim any of the credits on Form 1040 lines 42 46 47 or any write-in amount included on lines 44 or 48.
- You owe any of the taxes on Form 1040. lines 39, 50 through 54, or any write-in amount included on line 55 (other than advance EIC payments).
- You claim any of the payments on Form 1040, lines 57, 61, 62, or any write-in amount included on lines 62 or 63.
- · You file any of these forms: Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals, for 1986 (or if you want to apply any part of your 1986 overpayment to estimated tax for 1987). Schedule G, Income Averaging Form 2210, Underpayment of Estimated

Steps for Preparing Your Return

Follow the five useful stens below to help you prepare your return. If you follow these stens and read the line-by-line instructions. we feel that you can fill in your return quickly and accurately.

Step 1 Get all of your records together.

Income Records. These include any Forms W-2, W-2G, W-2P, and 1099 that you may have. If you don't get a Form W-2 by February 2, 1987, or if the one you get isn't correct, please contact your employer as soon as possible. Only your employer can give you a Form W-2, or correct it. If you cannot get a Form W-2 by February 15, call the toll-free telephone number listed in the instructions for your area. You will be asked for your employer's name, address, and, if known, identification number.

If you have someone prepare your return for you, you are still responsible for the correctness of the return.

Itemized Deductions and Tax Credits. Pages 14 through 22 of these instructions tell you what credits and itemized deductions you can take. Some of the records you may need are:

- Medical and dental payment records.
- Real estate and personal property tax
- Interest payment records for items such as a home mortgage, car, or appliances,
- Records of payments for child and dependent care so you could work.

Step 2 Get any forms, schedules, or publications you need.

In general, we mail forms and schedules to you based on what you filed last year

Before you fill in your return, look it over to see if you need more forms or schedules."

If you think you will need any other forms, get them before you start to fill in your return. Most IRS offices and many local banks, post offices, and libraries may have some of them. Or, you can use the order blank on the next to the last page of this instruction booklet. We will send you the forms, schedules, instructions, and publications you ask for

Step 3

Check your return to make sure it is

Step 4

Sign and date your return.

Form 1040 is not considered a return unless you sign it. Your spouse must also sign if it is a joint return.

Step 5

Attach all necessary forms and schedules.

Attach the first copy or Copy B of Forms W-2, W-2G, and W-2P to the front of Form 1040

If you need more space on forms or schedules, attach senarate sheets and use the same format as the printed forms, but show your totals on the printed forms Please use sheets that are the same size as the forms and schedules. Be sure to out your name and social security number on these separate sheets and attach them at the end of your return.

If you owe tax, be sure to attach your payment to the front of Form 1040.

Section 3

Line-By-Line Instructions

Name, Address, and Social Security Number Blocks

If you received a mailing label from us please use it. But don't attach your label to your return until you complete the return.

Make sure the label is correct. If it isn't. mark through the label and make corrections on the label. If you do not have a label, print or type your name, address, and social security number

Caution: If the label is for a joint return and the social security numbers are not listed in the same order as the first names, show the numbers in the correct order.

P.O. Box. If your post office does not deliver mail to your street address and you have a P.O. box, enter your P.O. box number on the line for your present home address instead of your street address.

Social Security Number. If you are married, give social security numbers for both you and your spouse whether you file joint or senarate returns.

If your spouse is a nonresident alien, has no income, does not have a social security number, and you file a separate return, enter "NRA" in the block for your spouse's social security number. If you and your spouse file a joint return, your spouse must get a social security number.

If you don't have a social security number, please get Form $3-5 from a Social Security Administration (SSA) office. File it with your local SSA office early enough to get your number before April 15. If you do not get the number by then, file your return and enter "Applied for" in the block for your social security number.

Name Change. If you have changed your name because of marriage, divorce, etc., make sure you immediately notify the Social Security Administration (SSA) so the name on your tax return is the same as the name SSA has on its records. This may prevent delays in issuing your refund.

Joint Return. If you are married, filing a joint return, show the social security numbers in the same order that you show your first names. If you are filing a joint return and have different last names, please separate the names with an 'and.' For example: 'John Brown and Mary Smith.

Presidential Election Campaign Fund

Congress established this fund to support public financing of Presidential election campaigns.

You may have $1 go to the fund by checking the Yes box. On a joint return, each of you may choose to have $1 go to this fund, or each may choose not to. One may choose to have $1 go to this fund and the other may choose not to.

If you check Yes, it will not change the tax or refund shown on your return.

Do not claim this amount as a credit for political contributions on line 43.

Filing Status Lines 1 through 5 Single

Consider yourself single if on December 31 you were unmarried or separated from you spouse either by divorce or separate maintenance decree and you do not qualify for another filing status. State law governs whether you are married, divorced, or legally separated.

If you were married on December 31, consider yourself married for the whole year. If you meet the tests explained on this page for Married Persons Who Live Apart, you may consider yourself single for the whole year and tile as head of household.

If your spouse died in 1986, consider yourself married to that spouse for the whole year, unless you remarried before the end of 1986.

Married

Joint or Separate Returns?

Joint Returns. Most married couples will pay less tax if they file a joint return. You must report all income, exemptions, deductions, and credits for you and your spouse. Both of you must sign the return even if only one of you had income.

You and your spouse can file a joint return even if you did not live together for the whole year. Both of you are responsible for any tax due on a joint return, so if one you does not pay, the other may have to. Note: If you file a joint return, you may not, after the due date of the return, choose to file separate returns for that year.

If your spouse died in 1986, you can file a joint return for 1986. You can also file a joint return if your spouse died in 1987 before filing a 1986 return. For details on how to file the joint return, see Death of Taxpayer on page 19.

Tax Tip: If you decide not to file a joint return and plan to file a separate return, see if you can lower your tax by meeting the tests described on this page under Married Persons Who Live Apart.

Special Rule for Allens. — If at the end of 1985, you were a nonresident alien or dual-status alien married to a U.S. citizen or resident alien, you may be able to file a joint return, you and your spouse must agree to be taxed on your combined workdwide income. For more details, get Publication 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Allens.

Separate Returns. You can file separate returns if both you and your spouse had income, or if only one of you had income.

If you file a separate return, you each report only your own income, exemptions, deductions, and credits, and you are responsible only for the tax due on your own return.

Special rules apply, however, for taxpayers who live in community property states. For details, get Publication 555.

In most instances if you file a separate return, you will pay more Federal tax because the tax rate is higher for married persons filing separately. The following also apply:

You cannot take the deduction for a

- married couple when both work.

  You cannot take the credit for child and dependent care expenses in most cases.
- You cannot take the earned income credit.
- If you lived with your spouse at any time in 1986—
- You will have to include in income more of any unemployment compensation you received in 1986.
- b. You cannot take the credit for the elderly or for the permanently and totally disabled.
- c. You may have to include in income up to one-half of any social security benefits (including railroad retirement benefits treated as social security) you received in 1986.
- You must itemize your deductions if your spouse itemizes, even if it is not to your tax benefit to do so.

If you file a separate return, enter your spouse's full name in the space provided on line 3 and your spouse's social security number in the block provided for that number.

If your spouse does not file, check the boxes on line 6b that apply if you can claim the exemptions for your spouse. Please see For Your Spouse on page 6.

Married Persons Who Live Apart. Some married persons who have a child and who do not live with their spouse may file as head of household and use tax rates that are lower than the rates for single or for married filing a separate return. This also means that if your spouse itemizes deductions, you do not have to. You may also be able to claim the earned income credit.

You should check the box on line 4 for Head of household if you meet ALL 4 of the following tests:

- You file a separate return from your spouse.
- You paid more than half the cost to keep up your home in 1986.
- 3. Your spouse did not live with you at any time during the last 6 months of 1986.
  4. For over 6 months of 1986, your home was the principal home of your child or stepchild whom—
- a. you can claim as a dependent, OR b. the child's other parent claims as a dependent under the rules explained on page 7 for Children of Divorced or Separated Parents. (Enter this child's name in the space provided on line 4.)

Head of Household

Tax Tip: The tax rates for a person who can meet the tests for head of household are lower than the rates for single or for married filing a segrate return.

You may use this filing status ONLY IF on December 31, 1986, you were unmarried (including certain married persons who live apart, as discussed above) or legally separated and meet test 1 or 2 below.

- You paid more than half the cost of keeping up a home, which was the principal home of your father or mother whom you can claim as a dependent. OR
- You paid more than half the cost of keeping up the home in which you lived and in which one of the following also lived for more than 6 months of the year (except for temporary absences, such as for vacation or school):
- a. Your unmarried child, grandchild, adopted child, or stepchild. This child does not have to be your dependent. However, your foster child must be your dependent. Note: If this child is not your dependent, you must enter the child's name in the space provided on line 4.
- b. Your married child, grandchild, adopted child, or stepchild. This child must be your dependent. But if your married child's other parent claims him or her as a dependent under the rules on page 7 for Children of Divorced or Separated Parents, this child does not have to be your dependent. (If your child is not your dependent because of these rules, you must enter the child's name in the space provided on line 4.)

c. Any other relative listed below whom you can claim as a dependent.

rou can claim as a dependent.

Parent Brother in-law
Grandparent Sister-in-law
Brother Son-in-law
Sister Daughter-in-law, or Stepbrother I related by blood:
Stepsister Uncice
Stepmother Aunt
Steplather Nephew

Mother-in-law

Father-in-law
Note: See instructions for lines 6c through 6e below for the definition of dependent.
Special rules

e if you receive payments under the Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) program and use them to pay part of the cost of keeping up this home, you may not count these amounts as furnished by you.

• You cannot file as head of household if you claim a relative described in 1 or 2 on page 5 as a dependent under a Multiple Support Declaration. (See page 7 for details on dependents supported by two or more taxpayers.)

Qualifying Widow or Widower With a Dependent Child

If your spouse died in 1984 or 1985 and you did not remarry in 1986, you may be able to use joint return tax rates for 1986. You can figure your tax at joint return rates if you meet ALL 3 of the following tests:

- You could have filed a joint return with your spouse for the year your spouse died, even if you didn't actually do so.
- Your dependent child, stepchild, adopted child, or foster child lived with you (except for temporary absences, such as for yearting or school)
- You paid over half the cost of keeping up the home for this child for the whole year.

Check the box on line 5 for Qualifying widow(er) with dependent child and show the year your spouse died in the space provided. Do not claim an exemption for your spouse.

If your spouse died before 1984 and you were single in 1986, you may check the box on line 4 if you meet the tests under Head of Household. Otherwise you must file as single.

Exemptions Line 6a

For Yourself

You can always take one exemption for yourself. Take two exemptions if you were blind, or 65 or over. Take three exemptions if you were blind and 65 or over. Be sure to check all the boxes on line 6a for the exemptions you can take for yourself.

You can take the extra exemptions for age 65 or over and blindness only for yourself and your spouse. You cannot take them for dependents.

Age and blindness are determined as of December 31. However, if your 65th birthday was on January 1, 1987, you can take the extra exemption for age for 1986. Proof of Blindness. If you are completely blind, attach a statement to your return to this effect.

In cases of partial blindness, you must attach to your return each year a certified statement from an eye physician or registered optometrist that:

1. you cannot see better than 20/200 in the better eye with glasses or contact lenses, OR

2. your field of vision is not more than 20 degrees.

If this eye condition will never improve beyond the standards in 1 or 2, you may submit a certified opinion to this effect from an examining eye physician. You must attach this certification to your return only once. In later years you can just include a statement referring to it.

Line 6b

For Your Spouse

You can take exemptions for your spouse if you file a joint return. If you file a separate return, you can take your spouse's exemptions only if your spouse is not filing a return, had no income, and was not the dependent of someone else.

Your spouse's exemptions are like your own. Take one exemption for your spouse if your spouse was neither blind nor 65 or over. Take two exemptions if your spouse was blind or 65 or over. Take three exemptions if your spouse was blind and 65 or over. Be sure to check all the boxes on line 6b for the exemptions you can take for your spouse.

If at the end of 1986 you were divorced or legally separated, you cannot take an exemption for your former spouse. If you were separated by a divorce that is not final (interlocutory decree), you are considered married for the whole year.

If your spouse died in 1986 and you did not remarry before the end of 1986, check the boxes for the exemptions you could have taken for your spouse on the date of death

Nonresident Allen Spouse. If you do not file a joint return, you may claim your spouse's exemptions only if your spouse had no income from U. S. sources and is not the dependent of another taxpayer. Use the boxes on line 6b to claim exemptions for a nonresident allen spouse. When claiming your spouse's exemption, enter "NRA" above the word Spouse on line 6b.

Lines 6c through 6e Children and Other Dependents

Line 6c. Enter the first names of your dependent children who lived with you (except for temporary absences, such as for vacation or school). Fill in the total number in the box to the right of the arrow.

Line 6d. Enter the first names of your dependent children who did not live with you most of the year. Fill in the total number in the box on the right, if you are claiming a child under the rules explained on page 7 for Children of Divorced or Separated Parents, you must either:

- attach Form 8332, Release of Claim to Exemption for Child of Divorced or Separated Parents, or similar statement, OR
- check the box for pre-1985 agreements.
   Line 6e. Enter the full names and other information for your other dependents. Fill in the total number in the box to the right of the arrow. You can take an exemption for each person who is your dependent.

Birth or Death of Dependent. You can take an exemption for a dependent who was born or who died during 1986 if he or she met the tests for a dependent while alive. This means that a baby who lived only a few minutes can be claimed as a dependent.

For more details, get Publication 501, Exemptions.

Each person you claim as a dependent has to meet ALL 5 of these tests:

- has to meet ALL 5 of these te 1. income:
- 2. support:
- 2. support;
- 3. married dependent;
- 4. citizenship or residence; and
- 5. relationship.

These tests are explained below

1. Income

In general, the person must have received less than $1,080 of gross income. Gross income does not include nontaxable income, such as welfare benefits ornontaxable social security benefits.

Income received by a permanently and totally disabled person for services performed at a sheltered workshop school is generally not included in gross income for purposes of the income test. Get Publication 501 for details.

Special Rules for Your Dependent Child. Even if your child had income of $1,080 or more, you can claim your child as a dependent if tests 2, 3, and 4 below are met, and:

- your child was under 19 at the end of 1986, or
- your child was enrolled as a full-time student at a school during any 5 months of 1986 or
- your child took a full-time, on-farm training course during any 5 months of 1986, (The course had to be given by a school or a state, county, or local government agency.)

The school must have a regular teaching staff, a regular course of study, and a regularly enrolled body of students in attendance.

- A school includes:
- A school includes:
   elementary, junior, and senior high
- colleges and universities; and
- technical, trade, and mechanical schools

However, school does not include on-thejob training courses or correspondence

2. Support

In general, you must have given over half of the dependent's support in 1986. If you file a joint return, the support can be from you or your spouse. Even if you did not give over half of the dependent's support, you will be treated as having given over half of the support if you meet the tests explained on page 7 for Children of Divorced or Separated Parents or Dependent Supported by Two or More Taxpayers.

In figuring total support, you must include money the dependent used for his or her own support, even if this money was not taxable (for example, gifts, savings, welfare benefits). If your child was a student, do not include amounts he or she received as scholarships.

Support includes items such as food, a place to live, clothes, medical and dental care, recreation, and education. In figuring support, use the actual cost of these items. However, the cost of a place to live is figured at its fair rental value.

Do not include in support items such as income and social security taxes, premiums for life insurance, or funeral expenses.

Capital items—You must include capital items such as a car or furniture in figuring support, but only if they are actually given to, or bought by, the dependent for his or her use or benefit. Do not include the cost of a capital item for the household or for use by persons other than the dependent.

If you care for a foster child, see Publication 501 for special rules that apply.

Children of Divorced or Separated Parents. The parent who has custody of a child for most of the year (the custodial parent) can generally take the exemption for that child if the child's parents together paid more than half of the child's support. This general rule also applies to parents who did not live together at any time during the tast 6 months of the year. But the parent who does not have custody, or who has the child for the shorter time (the noncustodial parent), may take the exemption if either a or b below apolies.

a. The custodial parent signs Form 8332, Release of Claim to Exemption for Child of Divorced or Separated Parents, or similar statement, agreeing not to claim an exemption for the child in 1986, and the noncustodial parent attaches the form, or similar statement, to his or her 1986 tax return. OR

b. A decree of divorce or separate maintenance (or a written agreement) that was in effect before 1985 states that the noncustodial parent can take the exemption and he or she gave at least $600 for the child's support in 1986. The noncustodial parent must check the box on line 6d for pre-1985 agreements. (This rule does not apply if the decree or agreement was modified after 1984 to specify that the noncustodial parent cannot claim the exemption.)

Note: In figuring support, a parent who has remarried may count the support provided by the new spouse.

Dependent Supported by Two or More Taxpayers. Sometimes two or more taxpayers together pay more than half of another person's support, but no one alone pays over half of the support. One of the taxpayers may claim the person as a dependent only if the tests for income, married dependent, citizenship or residence, and relationship, discussed on page 6 and this page are met.

In addition, the taxpayer who claims the dependent must:

a. have paid more than 10% of the dependent's support, and

b. attach to his or her tax return a signed form 2120, Multiple Support Declaration, from every other person who paid more than 10% of the support. This form states that the person who signs it will not claim an exemption in 1986 for the person he or she helped to support.

3. Married Dependent

The dependent did not file a joint return. However, if neither the dependent nor the dependent's spouse is required to file, but they file a joint return to get a refund of all tax withheld, you may claim him or her if the other 4 tests are met.

4. Citizenship or Residence

The dependent must have been a citizen or resident of the United States, a resident of Canada or Mexico, or an alien child adopted by and living the entire year with a U.S. citizen in a foreign country.

5. Relationship

a. Was related to you (or your spouse if you are filing a joint return) in one of the following ways:

· Son.in.law

Uncle

Nephew

Niece

Daughter-in-law or, if related by

Child	Stepbrother
Stepchild	Stepsister
Mother	Stepmother
Father	Stepfather
Grandparent	Mother-in-law
Brother	Father-in-law
Sister	Brother-in-law
Grandchild	Sister-in-law

Note: Any relationships that have been established by marriage are not ended by death or divorce.

b. Was any other person who lived in your home as a member of your household for the whole year. A person is not a member of your household if at any time during your tax year the relationship between you and that person violates local law.

The word child includes:

- Your son, daughter, stepson, or stepdaughter, or adopted son or daughter
- A child who lived in your home as a member of your family if placed with you by an authorized placement agency for legal adoption.
- A foster child (any child who lived in your home as a member of your family for the whole year).

U.S. Citizen's Living Abroad

Generally, foreign source income must be reported. Get Publication 54, Tax Guide for U.S. Citizens and Resident Aliens Abroad, for more details.

Community Property States

Community property states are: Arizona, California, Idaho, Louisiana, Nevada, New Mexico, Texas, Washington, and Wisconsin.

If you and your spouse live in a community property state, you must follow state law to determine what is community income and what is separate income.

However, different rules could apply if

- · you and your spouse lived apart all year,
- you do not file a joint return, and
- no part of the community income you earn is transferred to your soouse.

For details, get Publication 555, Community Property and the Federal Income Tax.

Rounding Off to Whole Dollars

You may round off cents to the nearest whole dollar on your return and schedules. But, if you do round off, do so for all amounts. You can drop amounts under 50 cents. Increase amounts from 50 to 99 cents to the next dollar. For example, $1.39 becomes $3, and $2.50 becomes $3.

Wages, Salaries, Tips, Etc.

Show the total of all wages, salaries, fees, commissions, tips, bonuses, supplemental unemployment benefits, and other amounts you were paid before taxes, insurance, etc., were taken out. For information on allocated tips; get Publication 531, Reporting Income From Tips.

Include in this total:

- The amount that should be shown in Box 10 on Form W-2. Report all wages, salaries, and tips you received, even if you do not have a Form W-2.
- Tips received that you did not report to your employer. (Show any social security tax due on these tips on line 53—see the instructions on page 15.)

Note: Any tip allocation amount shown on Form W-2 may be added to your gross income unless you are able to prove a lesser amount with adequate records.

 Disability pensions if you have not reached the minimum retirement age set by your employer.

Note: Except for those disability pensions mentioned above, pensions shown on Form W-2P are reported on line 16 or line 17a of Form 1040.

Payments by insurance companies, etc., not included on Form W-2. If you receive sick pay or a disability payment from anyone other than your employer, and it is not included in the wages shown on Form W-2, include it on line 7. Attach a statement showing the name and address of the payer and amount of sick pay or disability income. (Get Form W-4S for information on withholding of Federal income tax from your sick pay.)

Fair market value of meals and living quarters if given by your employer as a matter of your choice and not for your employer's convenience. Don't report the value of meals given you at work if they were provided for your employer's convenience. Also do not report the value of living quarters you had to accept on your employer's business premises as a condition of employment.

- Strike and lockout benefits paid by a union from union dues. Include cash and the fair market value of goods received. Don't report benefits that were gifts.
- Any amount your employer paid for your moving expenses (including the value of services furnished in kind) that is not included in Box J on Form W-J.
   Note: You must report on line 7 all wages, salaries, etc., paid for your personal services, even if the income was signed over to a trust (including an IRA), another person, a corporation, or a tax-sempt organization.

For more details on reporting income received in the form of goods, property, received in the form of goods, property, meals, stock options, etc., get Publication 525, Taxable and Nontaxable income. Fringe Benefits. If you used an employer provided highway motor vehicle for both personal and business use and your employer included 100% of the fair rental value of the vehicle in the wages, tips, and other compensation box (Box 10) of your W-2 form, you must use form 2106. Employee Business Expenses, to claim a deduction for the business use of the vehicle. (The total fair rental value of the vehicle should be shown in Box 16a of the vehicle should be shown in Box 16a of the vust report on form 1040, line 7, the total amount shown in Box 10 of your W-2 form. For more details, get Publication 525.

Interest Income

Enter your TOTAL taxable interest income. If the total interest is more than $400, first fill in Schedule B (see page 22 of instructions).

Report any interest you received or that was credited to your account so you could withdraw it. (it does not have to be entered in your passbook.) Interest that was credited in 1986 on deposits that you could not withdraw because of the bankruptcy or insolvency of the financial institution may not have to be included in your 1986 income. For details, get Publication 550, Investment Income and Expenses.

Generally, the payer will send you a Form 1099-INT or, if applicable, a Form 1099-OID for this interest.

If you received, as a nominee, interest that actually belongs to someone eise, see Schedule B instructions on page 22. Caution: Be sure to give each payer of interest income your correct social security number. Otherwise, the payer may have to withhold 20% of the interest. You may also be subject to penalties.

For more details, get Publication 550. Examples of Interest Income You MUST Report

Report interest from:

 Accounts (including certificates of deposit and money market accounts) with banks, credit unions, and savings and loan associations.

- . Building and loan accounts.
- Notes, loans, and mortgages. Special rules apply to loans with below market interest rates. Get Publication 525.
- Tax refunds (report only the interest on them as interest income).
- Bonds and debentures. Also arbitrage bonds issued by state and local governments after October 9, 1969. (Do not local bonds and securities). Also report as interest any gain on the disposition of certain market discount bonds issued to you after July 18, 1984, to the extent of the accrued market discount.
- U.S. Treasury bills, notes, and bonds.
- U.S. Savings Bonds. The interest is the yearly increase in the value of the bond.
   Interest on Series E or EE bonds can be reported using method a or b below:
- a. Report the total interest when you cash the bonds, or when they reach final maturity and no longer earn interest; OR maturity and no longer earn interest; OR

b. Each year report on your return the yearly increase of the bonds' value.

If you change to method b, report the entire increase in all your bonds from the date they were issued. Each year after report only the yearly increase. Once you have used method b to report your interest, you must continue to do so for all your U.S. Savings Bonds.

Note: If you receive for 1986 a Form 1099 INT for U.S. Savings Bond interest, which includes amounts reported before 1986, see Publication 550

Original Issue Discount (OID). This is the difference between the issue price of a debt instrument and the stated redemption price at maturity. If the instrument was issued at a discount after May 27, 1969 (or for certain noncorporate instruments after July 1, 1982), include in your interest income.

the discount for the part of the year you held it.

If you bought a corporate debt instrument at original issue and held it for all of 1986 or the part of 1986 that it was outstanding, include in interest income the total OID from Form 1099-01D. If you bought a corporate instrument after its original issue, or if you did not hold it for all of 1986, get Publication 1212, List of Original Issue Discount Instruments, for information on how to figure your taxable OID. If you held a noncorporate debt instrument (such as a zero coupon U.S.
Treasury-backed security) during 1986, see

Publication 1212 to figure your taxable OID. If you had OID for 1986, but did not receive Form 1099-OID, or if the price you paid for the instrument is more than the issue price plus accumulated OID, see Publication 1212. It provides total OID on the instruments listed and gives computational information.

Also include in your interest income any other periodic interest shown on Form

Line 9a Dividends

Dividends are distributions of money, stock, or other property that corporations pay to stockholders. They also include dividends you receive through a partnership, an S corporation, or an estate or trust. Payers include nominees or other agents. Generally, the payer will send you a Form 1099-DIV for these dividends.

If you received as a nominee dividends that actually belong to someone else, see Schedule B instructions that begin on page 22.

Caution: Be sure to give each payer of dividends your correct social security number. Otherwise, the paver may have to withhold 20% of the dividend income. You may also be subject to penalties.

If the total dividends, including capital gain and nontaxable distributions, are more than $400, first fill in Schedule B. (The instructions for Schedule B begin on page 22.) If you received $400 or less in dividends, include only the ordinary dividends on line 9a.

Dividends include:

- . Ordinary dividends. These are paid out of earnings and profits and are ordinary income. Assume that any dividend you receive is an ordinary dividend unless the paying corporation tells you otherwise.
- . Capital gain distributions, if you have other capital gains or losses, you should also enter your capital gain distributions on Schedule D. If you don't need Schedule D to report any other gains or losses, don't use it.
  Instead, enter 40% of your capital gain distributions on Form 1040, line 14.
- Nontaxable distributions. Some distributions are nontaxable because they are a return of your cost. They will not be taxed until you recover your cost. You must reduce your cost (or other basis) by these distributions. After you get back all of your cost (or other basis), you must report these distributions as capital gains.

Note: Generally, payments from a money market fund are dividends.

Do Not Report as Dividends

- Mutual insurance company dividends that reduced the premiums you paid.
- · Amounts paid on deposits or accounts from which you could withdraw your money. such as mutual savings banks, cooperative hanks, and credit unions. Remember to report these amounts as interest on line 8.

Line 9h

Dividend Exclusion

You can exclude (subtract) up to $100 of qualifying dividend income. If you and your spouse file a joint return, you can subtract up to $200, regardless of which spouse received the dividends.

Dividends must be from a domestic corporation to qualify for the exclusion.

Dividends from mutual funds (other than money market funds) generally qualify for the exclusion. The corporation will tell you how much of the dividend qualifies.

The following taxable dividends do not qualify for the exclusion.

- Dividends from money market funds unless the corporation has told you how much of the dividends qualify
- · Dividends from foreign corporations including controlled foreign corporations.

 Dividends from exempt organizations (charitable, fraternal, etc.) and exempt farmers' cooperative organizations.

 Dividends paid on stock held by ployee stock ownership plans.

Line 10

Taxable Refunds of State and Local Income Taxes

If you received a refund (or credit or offset) of state or local income taxes in 1986 that you paid and deducted before 1986, you may have to report all or part of this amount as income if your itemized deduction for state and local income taxes in the year you paid the taxes resulted in a tax benefit. You may receive Form 1099.G Statement for Recipients of Certain Government Payments, or similar statement, showing the refund

Any part of a refund of state or local income taxes paid before 1986 that you were entitled to receive in 1986 but chose to apply to your 1986 estimated state income tax is considered to have been

Do not report the refund as income if it was for a tax you paid in a year for which you did not itemize deductions on Schedule (Form 1040), or it was for a year in which you filed Form 1040A or Form 1040EZ.

If the refund was for a tax you paid in a year for which you itemized deductions on Schedule & use the following worksheet to figure the amount, if any, you must report as income for 1986

However, see Recoveries in Publication 525. Taxable and Nontaxable Income. instead of using the worksheet below if any of the following applies:

- The refund you received in 1986 is for a tax year other than 1985.
- You received a refund (other than an income tax refund, such as a real property tax refund) in 1986 of an amount you deducted or credit you claimed in an earlier vear.
- Your 1985 taxable income was less
- than your zero bracket amount Your last payment of 1985 estimated
- state income tax was made in 1986. You were liable for the alternative
- minimum tax in 1985.
- You could not deduct the full amount of the credits you were entitled to in 1985 because the total credits exceeded the tax shown on your 1985 Form 1040,

Fully Taxable Pensions, IRA Distributions, and Annuities

Use this line to report fully taxable pension and annuity income and regular individual retirement arrangement (IRA) distributions you receive. In general, you should receive a Form W-2P showing the amount of your pension or annuity. Also see Lump-Sum Distributions on page 10.

Your pension or annuity payments are fully taxable if:

- you did not contribute to the cost of your pension or annuity, or
- you got back tax-free your entire cost

Fully taxable pensions and annuities also include military retirement pay shown on Form W-2P and distributions from an IRA (including premature distributions, but not rollovers)

Enter on line 16 any taxable railroad etirement benefits from Box 12 of your Form RRB-W-2P. If an amount is shown in Box 13 of your form, get Publication 575, Pension and Annuity Income, for information on how to report your benefits.

Other pensions and annuities, including rollovers, should be shown on lines 17a and

Lines 17a and 17b

Other Pensions and Annuities, Including Rollovers

Use lines 17a and 17b to report pension and annuity income that is not fully taxable In general, you should receive a Form W-2P showing the amount of your pension or annuity. If your Form W-2P does not show the taxable part of your pension or annuity, you must figure the taxable amount as explained on page 10. Also, use these lines to report distributions from profit-sharing plans, retirement plans, employee-savings plans, and individual retirement arrangement rollovers.

Do not use lines 17a and 17b to report social security or railroad retirement benefits shown on Forms SSA-1099 and RRB-1099. Instead, see the instructions for lines 21a and 21b.

The pension, annuity, or employeesavings plan amounts may not be taxable until a later year if you meet ALL 3 of the following requirements

1. Both you and your employer contributed to the pension or annuity.

2. Your annuity starting date is before July 2, 1986. (Your annuity starting date is the later of the first day of the first period for which you receive a payment from the plan or the date on which the plan's obligations became fixed.)

3. The total amount you can expect to receive within 3 years from the date of your first annuity payment equals or exceeds your full cost. (Your cost includes amounts you contributed and amounts your employer contributed that you reported as income.)

If you meet ALL 3 of the above requirements, complete the worksheet below to figure the taxable part of your pension or annuity. After you get back your full cost, all payments you receive are fully

Example.—You retired in 1986 with a monthly pension of $400. Both you and you employer contributed to it. Your annuity starting date is May 1, 1986. Your pension cost was $9,850. The amount you can expect to receive within 3 years is $14,400 (36 months x $400 = $14,400). Since this amount is more than your cost, you should exclude your pension until the payments total $9,850. After that, they are fully taxable and should be reported on line 16.

If you do not meet ALL 3 of the above requirements, you must use a special method to figure the taxable part of your pension or annuity. For details, get Publication 575, Pension and Annuity income. If you must use this method, enter the amount you received this year on line 17a. Enter the taxable part on line 17b.

Total Distributions From Profit-Sharing, Retirement Plans, and Individual Retirement Arrangements Rollover Distributions. A "rollover" is a tax-free transfer of cash or other assets from one retirement program to another. There are two kinds of rollovers to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA): (1) a rollover from one IRA to another, and (2) a rollover from a qualified employer's plan to an IRA.

Rollover distributions are reported to you on Form 1099-R. For a rollover distribution, enter the total distribution (excluding your nondeductible contribution, if any) on line 17a. If the total on line 17a was rolled over, enter zero on line 17b. Otherwise, enter the part that was not rolled over as ordinary income on line 17b. Special rules apply to partial rollovers of property. For details on partial or total IRA rollovers, get Publication 590, Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs).

For details on other rollovers, including distributions under qualified domestic relations orders, get Publication 575. Lump-Sum Distributions, If you received a lump-sum distribution from a profit-sharing or retirement plan, report the ordinary income part on line 16 of Form 1040 and the capital gain part on Schedule D (Form 1040). Form 1099-R shows the amount of the distribution. You may pay less tax on this distribution if you are eligible to use the special 10-year averaging method. (This method cannot be used for lumpisum distributions from IRA plans.) For more details, get Form 4972, Special 10-Year Averaging Method, or Form 5544, Multiple Recipient Special 10-Year Averaging Method, and separate instructions

Beneficiaries-Death Benefit Exclusion

If you are the beneficiary of a deceased employee or deceased former employee, amounts paid to you by, or on behalf of, an employer because of the death of the employee may qualify for a death benefit exclusion of up to $5 000.

Special rules apply if you are the survivor under a joint and survivor's annuity. For details, get Publication 575.

If you are entitled to this exclusion, add it

Other Income

Use line 22 to report any income you can't find a place for on your return or other schedules. List the type and amount of ncome. For more info Miscellaneous Taxable Income in Publication 525, Taxable and Nontaxable

Caution: Do not report any income from self-employment on line 22. If you do have any income from self-employment, you must use Schedule C or Schedule F Amounts your employer paid you for business expenses that are more than you count for the actual business expenses should be added to the wages shown on line 7 unless they were already included on your

Examples of income to be reported on line 22 are:

 Prizes, awards, and gambling winnings Proceeds from lotteries, raffles, etc., are gambling winnings. You must report the full amount of your winnings on this line. You cannot offset losses against winnings and report the difference

If you had any gambling losses, you may take them as an itemized deduction on Schedule A. However, you cannot deduct more losses than the winnings you report

- Repayment of medical expenses or other items such as real estate taxes that you deducted in an earlier year if they reduced your tax. See Publication 525 for information on how to figure the amount to include in income.
- Amounts you recovered on bad debts that you deducted in an earlier year.
- · Fees received for jury duty and precinct election board duty.

Net Operating Loss. If you had a net operating loss in an earlier year to carry forward to 1986, enter it as a minus figure on line 22. Attach a statement showing how you figured the amount. Get Publication 536, Net Operating Losses and the At-Risk Limits, for more details

Moving Expenses

Fmnlovees and self-employed persons (including partners) can deduct certain moving expenses. The move had to be in connection with your job or business.

You can take this deduction only if your change in job location has added at least 35 miles to the distance from your old residence to your work place. If you had no former principal work place, your new principal work place must be at least 35 miles from your former residence

If you meet these requirements, you should see Form 3903 for details. Use Form 3903 to figure the amount of moving expenses to enter on line 24. If you began work at a new work place outside the United States or its possessions, see Form 3903F.

If your employer paid for any part of your move, you must report that amount as income on Form 1040, line 7. Your employer should give you a Form 4782 and include the amount paid in the wages, tips, and other compensation box (Box 10) on your Form W.2

Employee Business Expenses

You can deduct certain husiness expenses that were not paid by your employer. Travel, transportation (but not commuting to and from work), and meals and lodging can be deducted on line 25 even if you do not itemize deductions on Schedule A. You must use Form 2106 to claim the deduction. All other husiness expenses such as union or professional dues, tools, and uniforms, that were not paid by your employer can be deducted only as an itemized deduction on Schedule A. Outside salespersons must use Form 2106 to claim their business expenses on line 25. For details see Tele-Tax Information in the index (topic no. 214) or get Publication 463, Travel, Entertainment, and Gift Expenses, or Publication 917, Business

Individual Retirement Arrangement (IRA) Deduction

You can deduct on line 26 contributions made to your IRA (including those made under a Simplified Employee Pension (SEP) plan or to a plan that accepts deductible employee contributions (DECs)). Schedule C or F filers with a SEP and partners with a SEP take the deduction on line 27.

You should receive, by June 1, 1987, a statement showing contributions made to your IRA for 1986. Before you figure your IRA deduction, please note the following:

- If you made contributions to your IRA in 1986 that you deducted on your 1985 Federal income tax return, do not include those contributions on your 1986 tax
- If you made contributions to your IRA in 1987 (by April 15, 1987) for 1986, be sure to include these contributions when you figure your IRA deduction for 1986.
- . If your IRA deduction on line 26 is less than your IRA contributions and you do not withdraw this excess contribution before your return is due, file Form 5329 to pay tax on the excess contribution.
- . If you were married and contributions were made to an IRA for your nonworking spouse for 1986, you must file a joint return for 1986 to deduct these contributions. A nonworking spouse is one who had no wages or other earned income in 1986 or one who, in 1986, chooses to be treated as having no earned income for purposes of the IRA deduction. For example, if one spouse earned only $100, a combined total of up to $2,250 may be contributed to their IRAs

- If you were married and you and your spouse worked and you both have IRAs. figure each spouse's deduction separately.

  Then combine the two deductions and enter the total of the two amounts on line 26.
- Do not include rollover contributions in figuring your deduction. See line 17 instructions on page 10 for more details on rollover contributions
- Do not include to stee's fees that were. pilled separately and paid by you for your IRA. These fees can be deducted only as an itemized deduction on Schedule A.

Tax Tip: Alimony payments received under certain divorce or separation instruments are considered earned income for purposes of the IRA deduction. Get Publication 590. Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs), for details

Use the worksheet below to figure your IRA deduction. However, if any of the following applies, use the worksheet in Publication 590 instead of the one below to figure your deduction

- Your employer made contributions to your IRA under a SEP plan.
- 2. You made deductible employee contributions (DECs) to a qualified employer plan.
- 3. You file Form 2555, Foreign Earned Income, to exclude income or housing

General Business Credit

Check the box(es) on line 47 if you can take any of the four credits listed below. Use the appropriate credit form (as described below) to figure the credit. If you have only one credit, enter on line 47 the amount of the credit from the form.

However, if you have a credit carryfroward or take two or more of these credits, you must also complete Form 3800 to figure the total credit and enter on line 47 the amount from Form 3800. Also be sure to check the box on line 47 for Form 3800.

Form 3468, Computation of Investment Credit. This credit was generally repealed for property placed in service after 1985. For exceptions, see Form 3468.

Form 5884. Jobs Credit. If you are a business employer who hires people who are members of special targeted groups, you may qualify for this credit. Use Form 5884 to figure the credit. Get Publication 906, Jobs and Research Credits, for more details.

Form 6478, Credit for Alcohol Used as Fuel. If you sell straight alcohol (or an alcohol mixture) at retail or use it as fuel in your trade or business, you may be able to take a credit for the alcohol used as fuel. Use Form 6478 to figure the credit.

Form 6765, Credit for Increasing Research Activities. You may be able to take a credit for research and experimental expenditures paid or incurred in carrying or your trade or business. Use Form 6765 to figure the credit.

Line 48

Add amounts on lines 46 and 47 and enter the total on line 48. Also include in the total on line 48 any Credit for Fuel From a Nonconventional Source.

Credit for Fuel From a Nonconventional Source. A credit is allowed for the sale of qualified fuels produced from a nonconventional source. See I. R. Code section 29 for a definition of qualified fuels, provisions for figuring the credit, and other special rules. Attach as separate schedule showing how you figured the credit. Include the credit in the total for line 48. On the dotted line next to this total, write "FNS" and show the amount.

Total TaxAdd lines 49 through 54. Put the total on line 55. Also include on line 55 any of the four taxes listed below that apply.

Section 72 Penalty Taxes. If you are or were a 5% owner of a business and you received income from a premature or excessive distribution from a Keogh plan or trust, you may have to pay a penalty tax of 10% of the distribution. Get Publication 560 for more details. Or, if you were an mployee, you made any deductible

plan, and received income from a premature distribution, you may have to pay a negativity.

If you received certain premature distributions from an annuity contract, you may have to pay a 5% penalty tax on the taxable part of the distribution. Get Publication 575 for more details.

Include the amount of the penalty in your total for line 55. On the dotted line next to this total. write "Section 72 penalty" and show the amount. Advance Earned Income Credit (EIC) Payments. If you received advance EIC payments (AEIC), the amount will be shown on your Form W-2. Include the amount of these payments in your total for line 55. On the dotted line next to this total, write "AEIC" and show the amount.

Note: The amount of earned income credit that you can actually take will be figured on the worksheet shown on page 16 and entered on line 58

Uncollected Employee Social Security and RRTA Tax on Tips. If you did not have enough wages to cover the social security tax or railroad retirement tax (RRTA) due on tips you reported to your employer, the amount of tax due will be shown on your Form W-2. Include that amount in the total on line 55. On the dotted line next to this total, write "Uncollected Tax on Tips" and show the amount.

Golden Parachute Payments. Golden parachule payments are certain payments made by a corporation to key employees to compensate them if control of the corporation changes. If you received an excess parachute payment (EPP), you must pay a tax equal to 20% of this excess payment. Include the amount of this tax in your total for line 55. On the dotted line next to this total, write "EPP" and show the amount of the tax.

If you received a Form W-2 that includes a parachute payment, the amount of tax withheld on any excess payment should be identified in Box 16 of Form W-2, Include the amount from Box 16 in the total for line 55.

If you received a Form 1099-MISC that includes a parachute payment, any excess payment will be separately identified on the form. Multiply the excess payment by 20% to figure the amount to include in the total for line 55.

1986 Estimated Tax Payments

Enter on this line any payments you made on your estimated Federal income tax (Form 1040-ES) for 1986. Include any overpayment from your 1985 return that you applied to your 1986 estimated tax.

If you and your spouse paid joint estimated tax but are now filing separate cincome tax returns, either of you can claim all of the amount paid. Or you can each claim a part of it. Please be sure to show both social security numbers on the separate returns. If you or your spouse paid separate estimated tax, but you are now filing a joint income tax return, add the amounts you each paid.

Follow the above instructions even if

Divorced Taxpayers. If you were divorced during 1986 and you made joint estimated tax payments with your former spouse, please enter your former spouse's social security number in the block provided on the front of Form 1040. In the upper right corner of the return, above the social security numbers, write "DIV" (divorced).

If you were divorced and remarried in 1986, enter your present spouse's social security number in the block provided on the front of Form 1040. Also, enter your former spouse's social security number in the upper right corner above the blocks and write "DIV" above that number.

Name Change. If you changed your name because of marriage, divorce, etc.. and you made estimated tax payments using your former name, attach a statement to the front of Form 1040 explaining all the payments you and your spouse made in 1986, the Service Center where you made the payments, and the name(s) and social security number(s) under which you made the payments.

Earned Income Credit

The earned income credit helps many taxpayers who have a child and have earned incomes and adjusted gross incomes of less than $11,000. If you can take the credit, you can subtract it from tax you owe or get a refund even if you had no tax withheld from your pay. The credit can be as much as $550.

Note: If you received advance earned income credit payments from your employer(s), see the instructions for line 55 on page 15 for information on how to report these payments.

Who Can Take the Credit?

You may be able to take the credit if you meet ALL 5 of the following conditions:

You received wages, salaries, tips, or other earned income (see "Earned income includes" on this page).

2. The amount on Form 1040, line 33, is less than $11,000?

3. You have a child (see "Definition of Child" that begins on this page) who lived with you in the same principal residence in the U.S. for more than 6 months during 1986 (for all of 1986 if your filing status is qualifying widow(er) with dependent child).

4. You do not file Form 2555, Foreign Earned Income, or Form 4563, Exclusion of Income From Sources in United States Possessions

 Your filing status is married filing joint return, qualifying widow(er) with dependent child, or head of household. In addition, special rules apply to each of these three filing statuses.

Married Filling Joint Return, Your child must be claimed as your dependent on Form 1040, line 6c. Exception, if your spouse is not your child's parent and the child's other parent (the noncustodial parent) claimed him or her as a dependent under the rules explained on page 7 for Children of Divorced or Separated Parents, you can take the credit if you meet all 5 of the conditions listed above. If you can take the credit because of this exception, you must enter the child's name on the dotted line to the left of line 58.

Qualifying Widow(er) With Dependent Child. Your child must be claimed as your dependent on Form 1040, line 6c.

Head of Household. If your child was unmarried for 1985, you must enter that child's name in the space provided on Form 1040, line 4 (or line 6c if you claimed that child as a dependent).

If your child was married for 1986, this child must be claimed as your dependent on Form 1040, line Sc. Exception. If this child's other parent claimed him or her as a dependent under the rules explaimed on page 7 for Children of Divorced Separated Parents, you can take the credit if you meet all 5 of the conditions listed above. If you can take the credit because of this exception, you must enter the child's name on the dotted line to the left of line 58 unless you entered the child's name in the space provided on Form 1040, line 4.

worksheet, Instead, enter "NO" on Form 1040, line 58, and go on to line 59.

If you want IRS to figure the credit for you, see IRS Will Figure Your Tax and Some of Your Credits on page 13.

You may be able to receive advance payments of the credit by filing Form W-5 with your employer.

For more details about the credit, get Publication 596, Earned Income Credit.

Earned Income Includes:

- · Wages, salaries, and tips.
- Earnings from self-employment—this is usually the amount shown on Schedule SE (Form 1040), line 9.
- Anything else of value (money, goods, or services) you get from your employer for services you performed regardless of whether it is taxable.

Note: The following are examples of amounts received from your employer that must be included on line 1 of the worksheet—

- Housing allowance (or rental value of a parsonage) for members of the clergy.
- b. Meals and lodging.

Should You Make Estimated Tax Payments for 1987?

In general, you do not have to make estimated tax payments if you expect that your 1987 Form 1040 will show a tax refund, or a tax balance due IRS of less than $500. If your total estimated tax (including any atternative minimum tax) is $500 or more, please get Form 1040-ES. It contains a worksheet that you can use to see if you have to make estimated tax payments.

Sign Your Return

Form 1040 is not considered a return unless you sign it. Your spouse must also sign if it is a joint return. Be sure to date your return and show your occupation in the space provided. If you are filing a joint return with your deceased spouse, see Death of Taxnaver on page 19.

Did You Have Someone Else Prepare Your Return? If you fill in your own return, the Paid Preparer's space should remain blank Someone who orepares your return but does not charge you, should not sign.

Generally, anyone who is paid to prepare your tax return must sign your return and fill in the other blanks in the Paid Preparer's Use Only area of your return If you have questions about whether a

Section 4 General Information

This section contains general information about items such as amending your tax return and how long to keep tax records.

Penalties and Interest

Interest. We will charge you interest on taxes not paid by their due date, even if an extension of time to file is granted. We will also charge you interest on penalties imposed for failure to file, gross valuation overstatements, and substantial understatements of tax. Interest is charged on the penalty as of the due date of the return (including extensions) to the date of payment.

Late Filing of Return. You can avoid penalties for late filing by sending in your return by the due date. The law provides a penalty of 5% of the tax due for each month or part of a month, the return is late (maximum 25%) unless you can show reasonable cause for the delay. If you file a return late, attach a full explanation to your return. If your return is more than 60 days late, the penalty will not be less than $100 or 100% of the balance of tax due on your return, whichever is less.

Late Payment of Tax. Generally, the penalty for not paying tax when due is 1/2 of 1% of the unpaid amount for each month or part of a month it remains unpaid. The maximum penalty is 25%. The penalty applies to any unpaid tax shown on the return. It also applies to any additional tax shown on a bill that is not paid within 10 days after the date of the bill. This penalty is in addition to interest charges on late payments.

Note: If you include interest or either of these penalties with your payment, identify and enter these amounts in the bottom margin of Form 1040, page 2. Do not include the interest or penalty amounts in Amount You Owe on line 67

Penalty for Frivolous Return, In addition to any other penalties, the law imposes a penalty of $500 for filling a frivolous return. A frivalous return is one which does n contain information needed to figure the correct tax or shows a substantially incorrect tax, because you take a frivolous position or desire to delay or interfere with the tax laws. This includes any alteration or striking out of the preprinted language above the space provided for your signature

Other Penalties. There are also other penalties that can be imposed for negligence, substantial understatement of tax, and fraud. Get Publication 17 for details on some of these penalties.

Address Change

If you move after you file your return and you are expecting a refund, you should notify the post office serving your old address. Also notify the IRS Service Center where you filed your return of your address change. This will help to forward your check to your new address as soon as

Corresponding With IRS

Be sure to include your social security number in any correspondence with IRS.

How Long Should Records Be Kept?

Keen records of income, deductions, and credits shown on your return, as well as any worksheets used to figure them, until the statute of limitations runs out for that return. Usually this is 3 years from the date the return was due or filed, or 2 years from the date the tax was paid, whichever is later. Also keep copies of your filed tax returns as part of your records. You should keep some records longer. For example, keep property records (including those on your own home) as long as they are needed to figure the basis of the original or replacement property. For more details, pet Publication 552.

Requesting a Copy of Your Tax Return. If you need a copy of your tax return or tax account information, use Form 4506, Request for Copy of Tax Form or Tax Account Information, Generally, there is charge for these requests; see Form 4506.

Death of Taxpayer

If the taxpayer died before filing a return for 1986, the taxpayer's spouse or personal representative must file and sign a return for the person who died if the deceased was required to file a return. A personal representative can be an executor. administrator, or anyone who is in charge of the taxpayer's property.

The person who files the return should write "deceased" after the deceased's name and show the date of death in the name and address space at the top of the return. Also write "DECEASED" across the top of the tax return

If the taxpayer did not have to file a return but had tax withheld, a return must be filed to get a refund.

If your spouse died in 1986 and you did not remarry in 1986, you can file a joint return. You can also file a joint return if your spouse died in 1987 before filing a 1986 return. A joint return should show your spouse's 1986 income before death and your income for all of 1986. Also write "Filing as surviving spouse" in the area where you sign the return. If someone else is the personal representative, he or she must also sign.

If you are claiming a refund as a surviving spouse filing a joint return with the deceased and you follow the above instructions, no other form is needed to have the refund issued to you. However, all other filers requesting a refund due the deceased must file Form 1310, Statement of Person Claiming Refund Due a Deceased axpayer, to claim the refund

Purpose of Schedule

Some taxpavers must itemize their deductions and some should itemize because they will save money. See You MUST Itemize Deductions and You Choose To Itemize on pages 13 and 14.

If you itemize, you can deduct part of your medical and dental expenses, and amounts you paid for certain taxes, interest, contributions, and other miscellaneous expenses. You may also deduct certain casualty and theft losses. These deductions are explained below.

Lines 1 through 5 Medical and Dental Expenses

Before you can figure your total deduction for medical and dental expenses, you must complete Form 1040 through line 33. You may deduct only that part of your medical and dental expenses that is more than 5% of your adjusted gross income on

You should include all amounts you paid during 1986 (including amounts you paid for hospital, medical, and extra medicare (Medicare B) insurance), but do not include amounts repaid to you, or paid to anyone else by hospital health or accident insurance, or your employer. Get Publication 502 for information on insurance reimbursements. If you received a reimbursement of prior-year medical or dental expenses in 1986, see the instructions for Form 1040, line 22. Do not reduce your 1986 expenses by this amount

When you figure your deduction, you may include medical and dental bills you

- Yourself
- Your spouse

- · All dependents you claim on your return.
- Your child whom you do not claim as a dependent because of the rules explained on page 7 for Children of Divorced or Separated Parents Any nerson that you could have claimed.
- as a dependent on your return if that person had not received $1.080 or more of gross income or had not filed a joint return Example. -- You provided more than half of your mother's support but may not claim ner as a dependent because she received $1,080 of wages during 1986. If part of your support was the payment of her medical bills, you may include that part in your medical expenses.

Note: On line 2c, list the medical expense and the amount of the expense. Enter one total in the total amount column on line 2c.

Examples of Medical and Dental Payments You MAY Deduct

To the extent you were not reimbursed, you may deduct what you paid for:

- · Medicines and drugs that required a prescription, or insulin
- Medical doctors, dentists, eve doctors. chiropractors, osteopaths, podiatrists, psychiatrists psychologists physical therapists, acupuncturists, and osychoanalysts (medical care only)
- Medical examinations X-ray and laboratory services, insulin treatment, and whirlpool baths your doctor ordered.
- Nursing help. If you pay someone to do both nursing and housework, you may
- deduct only the cost of the nursing help Hospital care (including meals and
- lodging), clinic costs, and lab fees. Medical treatment at a center for drug addicts or alcoholics.
- Medical aids such as hearing aids (and batteries), false teeth, eyeglasses, contact lenses, braces, crutches, wheelchairs, guide dogs and the cost of maintaining them
- . Lodging expenses (but not meals) paid while away from home to receive medical care in a hospital or a medical care facility that is related to a hospital. Do not include more than $50 a night for each eligible
- Ambulance service and other travel costs to get medical care. If you used your own car, you may claim what you spent for pas and oil to go to and from the place you received the care; or you may claim 9 cents a mile. Add parking and tolls to the amount you claim under either method

Examples of Medical and Dental Payments You MAY NOT Deduct

- You may not deduct the following: . The basic cost of medicare insurance (Medicare A).
- Note: If you are 65 or over and not entitled to social security benefits, you may deduct premiums you voluntarily paid for Medicare A coverage
- Life insurance or income protection policies.
- The 1.45% medicare (hospital insurance benefits) tax withheld from your pay as part of the social security tax or the medicare tax paid as part of social security selfemployment tax

Taxes You Paid Taxes You MAY Deduct

State and local income taxes (line 6). include on this line state and local income taxes that were withheld from your salary and any estimated payments made. Also include payments you made in 1986 on a tax for a prior year. Do not reduce your deduction by either of the following amounts:

- · any state and local income tax refund (or credit) you expect to receive for 1986, or
- · any refund of (or credit for) prior-year state and local income taxes you actually received in 1986 (see the instructions for Form 1040 line 10)

Real estate taxes (line 7). Include taxes that you paid on property you own that was not used for business. Publication 530, Tax Information for Owners of Homes. Condominiums, and Cooperation Apartments, explains the deductions homeowners may take.

If your mortgage payments include your real estate taxes, do not take a deduction for those taxes until the year the mortgage company actually pays them to the taxing authority

General sales taxes (line 8). The Optional State Sales Tax, Tables (see index) show how much you may deduct for your income and family size if you did not keep detailed records. You may add to the sales tax table amount the general sales tax you paid if you bought:

- . A car, motorcycle, motor home, or truck. (Note: Texas charges a higher motor vehicle sales or use tax than it does for other items. Figure how much you would have paid at the general sales tax rate and enter only that amount on line 8b.)
- · A boat, plane, home (including mobile or prefabricated), or materials to build a new home if:
- a. the tax rate was the same as the general sales tax rate, and
- b. your sales receipt or contract shows how much tax was imposed on you and paid by you.

If you kept records that show you paid more state sales tax than the tables list, you may deduct the larger amount on line 8a Separately show the sales tax you paid on any motor vehicle you bought in 1986 on line 8b. Include state or local selective sales or excise taxes if the rates were the same as the general sales tax rates

If you use the sales tax tables, count all available income. This includes the amount on Form 1040, line 33, plus most amounts you received that are not taxed and the deduction for a married couple when both work (Form 1040, line 30). The instructions at the top of the first page of the tables give steps to help you figure your deduction

Personal property taxes and other taxes (line 9). If you had any deductible tax not listed on Schedule A, lines 6 through 8b (such as personal property or foreign income tax), list the tax and the amount of tax. Enter one total in the total amount column on line 9.

Personal property tax must be based on value alone. For example, if part of the fee you paid for the registration of your car was based on the car's value and part was based on its weight, you may deduct only the part based on value.

If you paid tax to a foreign country or U.S. possession, you may want to take it as a credit instead of a deduction. Please get Publication 514, Foreign Tax Credit for II.S. Citizens and Resident Aliens.

Taxes You MAY NOT Deduct

Use Form 6781 to report gains and losses from section 1256 contracts and straddles. Get Publication 550 for more information for Sales of Stocks, Bonds, etc. Enter your total sales of stocks, bonds, etc., reported for 1986 by your broker to you on Form(s) 1099-8 or on an equivalent substitute statement(s). If line 1 differs from the total of lines 2b and 9b, column (d), attach a statement explaining the difference. There may be differences between line 1 and the total of lines 2b and 9b if you reported a Form 1099-B transaction in one year but did not receive a Form 1099-B until the following year. A difference would also occur if you received a Form 1099-B for an item that represents a return of capital.

Note: If you attach your own schedule to show detail of gain or (loss), enter the total sales price of all Form 1099-B transactions included in your own schedule on lines 2b and 9b. Report the total gain and the total loss separately on lines 7 and 16.

Column (d) Sales Price

Enter in this column either the gross sales price or the net sales price from the sale. If you sold stocks or bonds and your broker provided you with a Form 1099-B or similar statement that shows gross sales price, entier that amount in column (d). However, if the broker advised you that gross proceeds (gross sales price) less commissions and option premiums were reported to IRS, enter that net amount in column (d). If the net amount is entered in this column, do not include the commissions and option premiums in column (e).

tmportant: Be sure to add all sales price entries in column (d) on lines 2a and 9a and enter the totals on lines 2b and 9b.

Cost or Other Basis

In general, the cost or other basis is the cost of the property plus purchase commissions, improvements, and minus depreciation, amortization, and depletion. If you inherited the property or got it as a gift, in a tax-free exchange, involuntary conversion, or "wash sale" of stock, you may not be able to use the actual cash cost as the basis. If you do not use cash cost, attach an explanation of your basis.

When selling stock, adjust your basis by subtracting all the nontaxable distributions you received before the sale. Also adjust your basis for any stock splits.

The basis of property acquired by gift generally is the basis of the property in the hands of the donor.

The basis of property acquired from a decedent is generally the fair market value at the date of death.

If a charitable contribution deduction is allowed because of a sale of property to a charitable organization, the adjusted basis for determining gain from the sale is an amount which has the same ratio to the adjusted basis as the amount realized has to the fair market value.

Increase your cost or other basis by any expense of sale such as broker's fee, commission, and option premium before making an entry in column (e), unless you reported net sales price in column (d).

For more information, get Publication 551, Basis of Assets.

Line 6

Short-Term Capital Loss Carryover From Years Beginning After 1969

Enter the amount from your 1985 Schedule D (Form 1040), line 30, or your 1985 Form 4798, Part II, line 20.

Line 15

Long-Term Capital Loss Carryover From Years Beginning After 1969

Enter the amount from your 1985 Schedule D (Form 1040), line 36, or your 1985 Form 4798, Part II, line 26.

Note: If you used Form 4798 in 1985 and had an entry in Part II, line 17 or 23, use Form 4798 in 1986 instead of completing Schedule D, Parts III or IV.

Line 23c (or Form 4798, Part I, line 30c)

Taxable Income as Adjusted Figure your taxable income, as adjusted, with a separate calculation. Do this in the following way: a. Figure the amount from Form 1040, line 35, without regard to gains and losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets.

Subtract from the amount in a one of the following.
 $2,480 if you are filing as single or head of household.

2. $3,670 if you are married filing a joint return or you are a qualifying widow(er) with a dependent child.

3. $1,835 if you are married filing a separate return.

Part VI Reconciliation of Forms 1099-B For Bartering Transactions

This part will enable IRS to compare amounts of bartering income reported to you on Forms 1099-B with amounts you report on your tax return

Instructions for Schedule E Supplemental Income

Reminder

If you claim any expenses for use of an automobile or other listed property in a trade or business or for the production of income, you must complete the appropriate sections of Part III of Form 4562, Depreciation and Amortization. For more information, get Publication 534, Depreciation. If you claim the standard mileage allowance for your automobile instead of actual expenses, you also must complete Part III of Form 4562.

Purpose of Schedule

Use Schedule E to report income or (loss) from rents and royalties, partnerships, Scorporations, and estates and trusts.

Note: If you attach your own schedules to report income or (loss) from any of these sources, use the same format as the Schedule E. Enter separately on Schedule E the total of net income and the total of net income with the total of net loss for each part. DO MOT combine the total of net uncome with the total of net loss on the separate schedules.

Filers of Forms 1041 and 10415. Enter your employer identification number in the block labeled "Your social security number."

At-Risk Rules (Parts I and II)

If you have (1) a loss from any activity that you, your partnership, or S corporation engaged in as a trade or business or for the production of income, except the holding of real property (other than mineral property) placed in service before January 1, 1987, and (2) you have amounts for which you are not at risk in the activity, use Form 6198. Computation of Deductible Loss From an Activity Described in Section 455(c), to determine the allowable loss to report on Schedule E.

Amounts for which you are not at risk are amounts such as the following:

1. nonrecourse loans used to finance the activity, acquire property used in the activity, or acquire your interest in the activity unless they are secured by property not used in the activity;

2. amounts protected against loss by a guarantee, stop-loss agreement, or similar arrangement;

3. loans from someone who has an interest in the activity, other than as a creditor, or who is related, under section 168(e)(4), to a person (other than yourself) having such an interest; or

4. amounts contributed to the activity, or to your interest in the activity that is covered by • nonrecourse loans or protected against loss by a guarantee, stop-loss agreement, or similar arrangement; or loans from a person described in 3 above.

 For more details, get Publication 536.
 Net Operating Losses and the At-Risk

The at-risk rules may apply to a member of a partnership or joint venture, a shareholder in an Scorporation, or a lessor of certain property. Generally, the amount you have at risk limits the loss you can deduct for any tax year.

Partners and S corporation shareholders should get a separate statement of income, expenses, deductions, and credits for each activity engaged in by the partnership and S corporation. See Form 6198 and the related instructions for more information.

If, in addition to the amount that you report on Schedule E, you sell or otherwise dispose of (1) an asset used in an activity to which the at-risk rules apply, or (2) any part of your interest in an activity to which the at-risk rules apply, and you have amounts in the activity for which you are not at risk, see the instructions for Form 6198.

If you have amounts that are not at risk, get Form 6198 to determine the amount of deductible loss. If the loss is from Part I, Schedule E, enter the deductible amount from Form 6198 in the appropriate column(s) on line 21 of Schedule E. If the loss is from Part II, Schedule E, enter the deductible amount from Form 6198 in column (e) of Schedule E.

Any loss from an activity not allowed for the tax year is treated as a deduction allocable to the activity in the next tax year.

Part I

Rental and Royalty Income or (Loss)

Generally, you should use this part to report rental and royalty income. Report rents from properly you own or control, including room and other space rentals. However, if you provided services to the renter, or if your business was selling real estate, report the income on Schedule C (Form 1040). For more information on rental income and expenses, see Tele-Tax Information in the index (topic no. 143) or get Publication 527, Rental Property.

Report royalties from oil, gas, or mineral properties, copyrights, and patents. However, if you hold an operating oil, gas, or mineral interest, or are in business as a self-employed writer, inventor, artist, etc., report gross income and expenses on Schedule C (Form 1040).

If you use Part I to report rental and royalty income, enter your rental and royalty expenses for each property in the appropriate columns on lines 4 through 20.

If you have a loss from an activity, except the holding of real property (other than mineral property) placed in service before January 1, 1987, see the At-Risk Rules on page 25.

If you have more than three rental or royalty properties, complete and attach as many Schedules E as are needed to list the properties. Complete lines 1 and 2 for each property. However, fill in the "Totals" column for lines 3, 10, 18, 19, and 22 through 26 on only one Schedule E. The figures in the total column on that Schedule E should be the combined totals of all the schedules.

If you also need to use page 2 of Schedule E, use the same Schedule E that you used to enter the combined totals in Part I.

D--4-1-

If you were not in the real estate sales business and you received rent from property you own or control, report it on line 3a. If you received services or property, instead of money, as rent, report its fair market value.

You can deduct an amount for the depreciation of rental property. You can also deduct all normal expenses, such as taxes, interest, repairs, insurance, maintenance, and agent's commissions.

Property subject to a net lease or held for investment purposes is considered investment purposes is considered investment property. Generally, the interest deduction on debts incurred to acquire such property is subject to limitations. If your total interest on investment debts created after 1969, including investment interest from all other sources, is more than $10,000 (55,000 if married filing separately), see Form 4952, Investment Interest Expense Deduction.

Do not deduct the value of your own labor. Do not deduct capital investments or improvements; instead, add these to the basis of the property for depreciation. Example: A landlord can deduct the cost of minor repairs, but not the cost of major improvements, such as a new roof.

Renting Out Part of Your Home. If you rent out only part of your home or other property, deduct the part of your expenses that apply to the rented part.

Renting Out a Home That is Also Used for Personal Purposes. Generally, you may deduct only those expenses which apply to the time that the home or other dwelling unit is rented out. A dwelling unit includes a house, apartment, condominium, mobile home, boat, or similar property. Also, if you or your family used the property as a residence, certain expenses cannot be more than the gross rental income. Only interest, taxes, and casualty losses do not have to be limited. Generally, a home or other dwelling unit is used as a residence if you or your family used it for personal purposes for more than the greater of:

a. 14 days, or

b. 10% of the number of days during 1986 that the property was actually rented out at a fair rental

A day of personal use is any day, or part of a day, that the unit is used—for personal purposes by you, or any other person who has an interest in it, unless the unit is rented to that person under a shared equity financing agreement, or by a member of your family or family member of any other person who has an interest in it, unless the unit is rented at fair rental as that person's residence, or by anyone under an arrangement that lets you use some other dwelling unit, or

 If you used the property as a sciednce and rented it out for less than 15 days, you may not deduct any rental expenses.
 However, if you riemize your deductions, you may deduct any interest, taxes, and casualty losses on Schedule A (Form 1040). You do not have to report the rental income.

Family includes ONLY brothers, sisters, half brothers, half sisters, spouse, ancestors (parents, grandparents, etc.), and lineal descendants (children, grandchildren, etc.).

Mortgage Interest Paid to Financial Institutions. If you have a mortgage on your rental property, enter on line 10 the interest you paid for 1986 to financial institutions. Be sure to fill in the "Totals" column.

If you paid $600 or more of interest on this mortgage, you should receive a Form 1098, Mortgage Interest Statement, or similar statement, showing the total interest received from you during 1986. You should receive this statement by February 2, 1987. If you and at least one other person (other than your spouse if you file a joint return) were liable for, and paid interest on, the mortgage, and the other person received the Form 1098, attach as tatement to your return showing the name and address of the person who received the Form 1098. In the left margin, next to line 10, write "see attached."

If you paid more mortgage interest than is shown on your Form 1098, or similar statement, get Publication 545, Interest Expense, to see if you can deduct the additional interest. If you can, attach a statement to your return explaining the difference and write "see attached" in the left margin next to line 10.

Royalties

Report on line 3b royalties from oil, gas, or mineral properties; copyrights; and patents, not including operating oil, gas, or mineral interests. If you are in business as a self-employed writer, inventor, arists, etc., report income and expenses on Schedule C form 1040. Under certain circumstances, you can treat amounts received as "royalties" for transfer of a patent or amounts received on the disposal of coal and iron ore as the sale of a capital asset. For more details, get Publication 544, Sales and Other Dispositions of Assets.

If state or local taxes were withheld from oil ing gas payments you received, enter on line 3b the gross amount of royalty. Include the taxes withheld by the producer on line 14, but DO NOT include on line 14 the amount of windfall profit taxes actually without on 1986. Instead, enter that amount in Part III, line 34.

Rental Income From Farm Production or Crop Shares

Report farm rental income and expenses on Form 4835, Farm Rental income and Expenses, if you meet these two tests:

You received rental income that was based on crops or livestock produced by the tenant.

b. You did not manage or operate the farm to any great extent.

Note: For purposes of the estimated tax penalty, income received from your share of crops and rental based on farm production is considered income from farming.

If you use Form 4835, enter on line 25 of Schedule E the net farm rental profit or (loss) from Form 4835, line 34.

Certified Historic Structures

If you own a certified historic structure and pay or incur certain capital expenditures to rehabilitate it, special rules apply. Get Publication 535 for more details.

Expenses To Rehabilitate Low-Income Housing

Deduction For Removal of Barriers to the Handicapped and Elderly

You can deduct up to $35,000 of the costs you paid or incurred in 1986 to remove architectural or transportation barriers to the handicapped and the elderly. Get Publication 535 for more details.

Part II

Partnerships, S Corporations, Estates, or Trusts

If you need additional space in Part II to list your income or losses, attach a continuation sheet. However, be sure to complete columns (e) and (f) of line 27 or line 31, as appropriate.

Tax Shelter Registration Number. If you are claiming or reporting any deduction, loss, credit, or other tax benefit, or reporting income from an interest purchased or otherwise acquired in a tax shelter, you must attach Form 8271, investor Reporting of Tax Shelter Registration Number, to your return to report the tax shelter registration number as well as other information about the tax shelter. There is a penalty if you fail to report this number on your tax return.

Tax Preference Items. If you are lable for the alternative minimum tax and you are a partner, a shareholder in an S corporation, or a beneficiary of an estate or trust, you must take into account your share of tax preference items from these entities on Form 6251, Alternative Minimum Tax Computation. For more information, get Form 6251, alternative Minimum Tax

Partnerships

If you are a member of a partnership or joint venture, include in this part your share of the partnership income (whether you received it or not) or net loss for the partnership tax year that ends during the year covered by your return. You should receive a Schedule K-1 (Form 1065) from the partnership. Do not attach that schedule to your return. Keep it for your records.

If you have other partnership items, such as depletion, show each item on a senarate line in Part II. If you claimed a credit fo Federal tax on gasoline or other fuels on your 1985 Form 1040 (based on information received from the partnership), enter as income in column (f) the amount of the credit claimed in 1985. If you have unreimbursed partnership expenses, show them on a senarate line and enter the amounts in column (e). If you are claiming a deduction for recovery property (section 179), enter the amount of this deduction on line 29 of Schedule E.

Note: The amount of your section 179 deduction from ALL sources cannot be more than $5,000 ($2,500 if you are married filing a separate return

Part or all of your share of partnership income or loss from the operation of the business may be considered net earnings from self-employment that must be reported on Schedule SE (Form 1040). Enter the amount from Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), line 13a, on Schedule SE, Part I, after you have reduced this amount by any section 179 deduction claimed, unreimbursed partnership expenses claimed, and depletion claimed on oil and gas partnerships. Get Publication 535, Business Expenses, to determine the allowable depletion deduction.

If you have a loss, see the At-Risk Rules on page 25.

For more information for this part please see your copy of Schedule K-1 (Form 1065) and Partner's instructions for Schedule K-1 (Form 1065). If you did not receive a copy of these instructions with your Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), you can get a copy at most IRS offices.

If you are treating partnership items on your tax return differently from the way the partnership reported the items on its return you may have to file Form 8082, Notice of Inconsistent Treatment or Amended

If you have losses or deductions from a prior year that you could not deduct in the prior year because of the at-risk rules or basis rules, do not combine the prior-year amounts with any current-year amounts to arrive at a net figure to report on Schedule E. Instead, report on separate lines on Schedule E prior-year amounts and

S Corporations

If you are a shareholder of an S corporation you should receive a Schedule K-1 (Form 1120S) from the S corporation. Do not attach the schedule to your return. Keep it for your records. Report your share of the income (whether you received it or not) or net loss of the corporation on Schedule E in the same manner as the income or loss of a partnership. Your share of the net income is NOT subject to self-employment tax. Also, distributions of prior-year accumulated nings and profits of all S corporations are tividends and are reported on Schedule B (Form 1040). For more information, get Publication 589, Tax Information on S Corporations

If you have a loss, see the At-Risk Rules

If you are treating S corporation items on your tax return differently from the way the S corporation reported the items on its return, you may have to file Form 8082.

If you are claiming a deduction for recovery property (section 179), enter the amount of this deduction on line 29 of Schedule E.

Note: The amount of your section 179 deduction from ALL sources cannot be more than $5,000 ($2,500 if you are married filing a separate return).

If you are a shareholder claiming a deduction for your share of the S corporation's net operating loss, attach to your return a computation of the adjusted basis of your stock in the corporation and the adjusted basis of any debt the corporation owes you. Your deduction is limited to that amount. However, any amount not allowed this year may be carried forward and deducted in a later year in which you have sufficient basis in the stock and debt. See Publication 589 for information on adjustments to basis.

Estates and Trusts

If you are a beneficiary of an estate or trust, you should receive a Schedule K-1 (Form 1041) from the fiduciary. Do not attach the schedule to your return. Keep it for your records. Report your taxable part of the income (whether you received it or not) as

- Dividends qualifying for the dividend exclusion—enter on Schedule B (Form 1040), Part II, line 4. If total dividends received from all sources are $400 or less enter the total on Form 1040, line 9a. Do not list them on Schedule B.
- Capital gains—Schedule D (Form
- Other taxable income less deductions— Schedule E, Part II. For more information, contact the fiduciary or see Schedule K-1 (Form 1041). If you have a loss, see the At-Risk Rules

Include finance reserve income, scrap sales, amounts recovered from bad debts, interest (such as on notes and accounts receivable), the amount of credit for Federal tax on gasoline or other fuels claimed on your 1985 Form 1040, and other kinds of miscellaneous income from the business or profession.

If you have listed property that you placed in service after June 18, 1984, and the business use percentage decreased to 50% or less in 1986, report on this line any recapture of excess depreciation, including the section 179 expense deduction. Use Form 4797 to figure the amounts to be recaptured.

Part II

Deductions (Lines 6 through 31) Line 7

Caution: Cash method taxpayers are not entitled to a bad debt deduction unless the amount was previously included in income.

Include debts and partial debts arising from sales or services that were included income and are definitely known to be worthless. Instead of this, you may deduct a reasonable amount that was added during the tax year to a bad debt reserve.

If you later collect a debt that you deducted as a bad debt, include it as income in the year you collect it unless you use the bad debt reserve method. For more information, please get Publication 548, Deduction for Bad Debts.

Line 9

You can deduct the actual cost of running your car or truck, or take the standard mileage rate. You must use actual costs if you use more than one vehicle in your business. If you deduct actual costs, show depreciation on line 12.

Note: If you claim any car expenses (actual costs or the standard mileage rate), you must complete Part III of Form 4562, Depreciation and Amortization.

The standard mileage rate is figured at 21 cents a mile up to 15,000 miles, and 11 cents for each mile after that. Add to this amount your parking fees and tolls.

For cars and trucks that have been fully depreciated, the rate is 11 cents a mile.

If you use the standard rate, the vehicle is considered to have a useful life of 60,000 miles of business use at the maximum standard mileage rate.

If you place a car or truck in service after December 31, 1980, and take the standard mileage rate, you are treated as having elected to exclude this vehicle from ACRS.

You can deduct an amount each year for assets you buy to use in your business or hold to produce investment income. The deduction for depreciation does not apply to stock in trade, inventories, land, and personal assets. You may also choose under section 179 to expense a portion of the cost of certain depreciable property you bought in 1985 for use in your business. Figure your depreciation deduction, including the section 179 expense deduction, on Form 4562, Depreciation and Amortization. Enter on line 12 of Schedule C the amount from Form 4562, Part I.

The depreciation deduction for cars, including any section 179 deduction, is limited. The allowable amounts are further limited if your business use is less than 100%. In general, for cars or other "listed property" placed in service in 1986, you may not take a section 179 deduction if the property is used 50% or less in your trade or business. If you claim depreciation for any listed property, you must complete Part III of Form 4562. See the instructions for Form 4562 and Publication 534, Depreciation, for details.

If you have listed property (such as a car or light truck) that you placed in service after June 18, 1984, for which you claimed a depreciation declution, and the business use percentage of the property decreased to 50% or less during 1985, you may have to 50% or less during 1986, you may have to 70% or less during 1986, you may have to 70% or less during 1986, you not have form 4797 and its instructions for details. Investment Credit. The credit has generally been repealed for property placed in service after 1985. See Changes You Should Note on page 28.

If you paid interest that applies to future years, deduct for 1986 only the part that applies to 1986.

If you have a mortgage on real property used in your business, enter on line 17a the interest you paid for 1986 to financial institutions. If you paid $500 or more of interest on this mortgage, you should receive a Form 1098, Morgage Interest Statement, or similar statement, showing 1986. You should receive this statement by the total interest received from you during 1986. You should receive this statement by February 2, 1987. If you and at least one other person (other than your spouse if you like a joint return) were liable for, and paid interest on, the mortgage and the other person received the Form 1098, attach a statement to your return showing the name and address of the person who received the Form 1098. In the left margin, next to line 17a, write "see attached."

If you paid more mortgage interest than is shown on Form 1098, or similar statement, set Publication 545, Interest Expense, to see if you can deduct the additional interest. If you can, attach a statement to your return explaining the difference and write "see attached" in the left margin next to line 179.

Don't take a deduction on Schedule C for interest you paid or accrued on debts from buying or carrying investment property. This interest is generally deducted on Schedule A. For more information, get Publication 550, Investment Income and Expenses.

You can deduct all ordinary and necessary travel and entertainment expenses paid or incurred in your trade or business.

However, you cannot deduct any expense paid or incurred for a facility (such as a yacht or hunting lodge) that is used for any activity that is usually considered extertainment arms expent or recreation.

Note: You may be able to deduct the expense if the amount is treated as compensation and reported on Form W-2 for an employee or Form 1099-MISC for an independent contractor. (Get Publication 463 for more details.)

Foreign Conventions. Generally, you cannot deduct expenses for attending a torreign convention unless it is directly related to your trade or business and it is as reasonable for the meeting to be held outside the North American area or Jamaica swithin it. (For the definition of "North American area." see Publication 463.) You may also be able to deduct expenses for attending conventions held in certain Carribbean countries but only if the country met certain requirements. See Publication 463 for more details. These rules apply to employers as well as to employees.

You may be able to deduct up to $2,000 of the cost of business expenses attending conventions or similar meetings on a U.S. cruise ship. On a joint return, you may be able to deduct up to $4,000 if each spouse attended the meeting and each spouse attended the meeting and each spouse and at least $2,000 of qualifying expenses. You must attach two separate statements to your tax return to support the deduction. Include all ordinary and necessary business expenses not deducted elsewhere on Schedule C. Do not include the cost of business equipment or furniture, replacements or permanent improvements to property, or personal living and family expenses.

Any loss from this activity that was not allowed as a deduction last year because of the at-risk provisions is treated as a deduction allocable to this activity in 1986. Amortization. Use Form 4562 to figure your amortization deduction. Include on line 30 of Schedule C the amount from Form 4562. Part II.

You may amortize over a 60-month

- The cost of pollution-control facilities.
- Certain expenditures made before January 1, 1982, for child care facilities.
- Up to $20,000 of the costs to rehabilitate qualified low-income housing You may amortize over a period of at
- least 60 months:

   Amounts paid for research, experiments,
- and a trademark or trade name.
- Certain business startup costs.

You may also amortize up to $10,000 of qualified forestation and reforestation costs over an 84-month period.

If you own a certified historic structure and pay or incur certain capital expenditures to rehabilitate it, special rules apply. Get Publication 535, Business Expenses, for more information.

You can deduct up to $35,000 of the costs you paid or incurred in 1986 to remove architectural or transportation barriers to the handicapped and the elderly. See Publication 535 for more details.

If you lease business property, you may be able to either depreciate or amortize your leasehold improvement costs. See Publication 535 for details.

Real property construction period interest and taxes generally cannot be fully deducted in the year you paid or incurred them. You must capitalize and amortize amounts not allowed as a deduction in the current year. This rule does not apply to low-income housing.

However, you do not have to capitalize and amortize real property interest and taxes attributable to real property that you do not reasonably expect to use in your trade or business or in an activity engaged in for profit. For more details, get Publication 535.

Deductions for losses by persons who are engaged in a trade or business or an activity for the production of income, except the holding of real property (other than mineral property), are limited to the amount they have at risk in the business.

If you have (1) a loss from any activity that you engaged in as a trade of business or for the production of income, except the holding of real property (other than mineral property) placed in service before January 1, 1987, and (2) you have amounts for which you are not at risk in the activity, use Form 6198, Computation of Deductible Loss From an Activity Described in Section 465(c), to determine the allowable loss to report on Schedule C.

Answer the question on line 33 "YES" if you have amounts for which you are not at risk for this business, such as the following:

1. nonrecourse loans used to finance your business, to acquire properly used in your business, or to acquire your interest in the business unless they are secured by

- property not used in your business; or 2. amounts protected against loss by a guarantee, stop-loss agreement, or similar arrangement; or
- 3. loans from someone who has an interest in your business, other than as a creditor, or who is related, under section 168(e)(4), to a person (other than yourself) having such an interest: or
- 4. amounts contributed to your business, or to your interest in the business that is covered by:
- nonrecourse loans or protected against loss by a guarantee, stop-loss agreement, or similar arrangement; or
- loans from a person described in 3 above.
   If you do not have any of these kinds of amounts for which you are not at risk in this business, answer the question "NO" and enter your loss on line 32.

If you answered "YES" to the question on line 33, get Form 6198 to determine the amount of your deductible loss and enter that amount on line 32. If your at-risk amount is zero or less, enter zero on line 32. Be sure to attach Form 6198 to your return. If you answer "Yes" to the question on line 33 and you fail to attach Form 6198, processing of your tax return may be delayed.

If, in addition to the amount that you report on Schedule C, you dispose of an asset used in an activity to which the at-risk rules apply and you have amounts in the activity for which you are not at risk, see the instructions for Form 6198.

Any loss from this business not allowed for 1986 is treated as a deduction allocable to the business in 1987.

Instructions for Schedule SE Social Security Self-Employment Tax

Purpose of Schedule

Schedule SE is used by self-employed persons and employees of electing churches and qualified church-controlled organizations to figure any self-employmentax due. The Social Security Administration uses the information provided on Schedule SE to figure benefits for self-employed people under the social security program.
Social security self-employment tax applies regardless of your age, and even if you are receiving social security benefits.

Who Must Use Schedule SE You must use Schedule SE if:

- you were self-employed and your net or more ($100 or more if you were an employee of an electing church or church-controlled organization); and
- you did not have wages (including tips), other than medicare qualified gover wages of $42,000 or more that were subject to social security tax or railroad

Who Can Use Schedule SE

You can use Schedule SE if you will benefit from using the optional method of figuring self-employment earnings.

The optional method may benefit you if

- your self-employment earnings are less than $400 and Form 1040, line 33, is less than $11 000 and you want to claim the earned income credit; or
- you had a loss from self-employment nd you need to increase your net earnings from self-employment to qualify to claim the child and dependent care credit.

The optional method may give you credit toward your social security coverage even though you have a loss or low income from method may require you to pay selfotherwise be required.

Fiscal Year Filers

If your tax year is a fiscal year, you must use the tax rate and earnings base that apply at the time the fiscal year begins. The tax or earnings base for a fiscal year that overlaps the date of a rate or earnings base change is not prorated

More Than One Business

If you farmed and had at least one other trade or business or had two or more trades or businesses, your net earnings from selfemployment are the combined net earnings from all your businesses. If you had a loss in one trade or business, it reduces the income from another. Figure the combined self-employment tax on Schedule SE.

Joint Returns

Show the name of the snouse with selfemployment income on Schedule SE. If both shouses have self-employment income, each must file a separate Schedule SE. Include the total profits or losses from all husinesses on Form 1040 as appropriate. Then enter the combined se employment tax on Form 1040, line 50.

Community Income

If any of the income from a business, including farming, is community income, all the income from that business is considered self-employment earnings of the spouse who carried on the trade or business unless there is a husband and wife partnership. The identity of the spouse who carried on the trade or business is determined by the facts in each situation

If you and your shouse file senarate returns, attach Schedule SE to the return of the spouse with the self-employment income. Also attach Schedule(s) C and/or Schedule(s) F. Community income included on these schedules must be divided, for income tax purposes, on the basis of the community property laws.

Partnerships

When figuring your combined net earnings from self-employment, include your share of partnership income or loss attributable to a trade or business and any guaranteed payments you received from your partnership. However, if you are a limited partner, only guaranteed payments are included in self-employment income. Line 13a of Schedule K-1 (Form 1065) should show your net earnings or loss from self-

If your partnership is engaged solely in the operation of a group investment program, earnings from the operation are not self-employment earnings for either the general or limited partner.

If a husband and wife are both partners in a partnership, each spouse is subject to self employment tax on his or her own share of partnership income. Each spouse must file a Schedule SE for self-employment tax purposes and report the partnership income loss on Schedule E (Form 1040), Part II, for income tax purposes.

Self-employment income belongs to the person who is the member of the partnership and cannot be treated as selfemployment income by the nonmember . This applies even in community property states.

If a partner in a continuing partnership dies, that member's distributive share of partnership ordinary income or loss for the year must be included in the partner's net earnings from self-employment. Get Publication 533, Self-Employment Tax, if your partnership has a fiscal year.

Share-Farming

If you produced crops or livestock on land onging to another for a share of the crops or livestock produced, or the proceeds from them, you are an independent contractor and a self-employed person rather than an employee. Report your net earnings for income tax on Schedule F and for selfemployment tax on Schedule SE. For more information, get Publication 225, Farmer's Tax Guide

Exemption From Self-Employment Tax for Members of the Clergy and Certain Religious Orders and Sects

Income you received as a duly ordained. commissioned, or licensed minister of a church, a member of a religious order (but only if you are not under a yow of poverty), or a Christian Science practitioner is subject to social security self-employment tax unless you filed Form 4361 and received IRS approval to exempt your ministerial earnings. If you have received IRS approval and have no other income subject to self-employment tax, write "Exempt—Form 4361" of Form 1040, line 50. If you filed Form 4361, but have $400 or more from other earnings subject to self-employment tax, you must complete Schedule SE. Note: If you have ever filed Form 2031 to elect social security coverage on your ministerial earnings, you cannot apply for

If you have conscientious objections to social security insurance because of your belief in the teachings of a recognized religious sect of which you are a member, you can request exemption from self employment tax by filing Form 4029. If you filed Form 4029 and have received IRS approval, do not file Schedule SE. Instead, write "Exempt — Form 4029" on Form 1040, line 50.

Part II Optional Method for Figuring Net Earnings From Farm Self-

Employment

If your gross farm income for the year was not more than $2,400, you can report twothirds of your gross farm income instead of your actual net earnings from farming.

If your gross farm income was more than $2,400, and your net farm profits were less than $1,600, you can report $1,600 on line 4

This method can be used to increase or decrease net farm earnings, even if the farming operation resulted in a loss. There is no limit on how many times you can elect this optional method. If you use this method, you must apply it to all farm earnings from self-employment for the year. You may change the method (from actual net to optional net or the reverse) after you

For a farm partnership, your share of gross income is figured according to the partnership agreement. With guaranteed payments, your share of the partnership's gross income is your guaranteed payment plus your share of the gross income after it is reduced by all guaranteed payments of the partnership. Limited partners should include only guaranteed payments.

Optional Method for Figuring Net Earnings From Nonfarm Self-Employment

You may be able to use an optional method to figure your net earnings from nonfarm self-employment if your net nonfarm profits are less than $1,600 and less than two thirds of your gross nonfarm income.

You may use this optional method if you are regularly self-employed or regularly a member of a partnership. You meet this requirement if you had actual net earnings from self-employment of $400 or more (including your distributive share of the income or loss from any partnership of which you are a member) from nonfarm and farm businesses in at least 2 of the 3 years immediately before the year for which you use the nonfarm option

You may report on line 6 two-thirds of your gross nonfarm income (but not more than $1,600) as your net earnings from self-employment, but you may not report less than your actual net earnings from nonfarm self-employment.

For a nonfarm partnership, your share of gross income is figured according to the partnership agreement. With guaranteed payments, your share of the partnership's gross income is your guaranteed payment. plus your share of the gross income after it is reduced by all guaranteed payments of the partnership. Limited partners should include only guaranteed payments.

The limit for the optional method for nonfarm self-employment is 5 years. The 5 years need not be consecutive.

Using Both Optional Methods

If you have both nonfarm and farm income. you may only use the nonfarm optional method if your actual net earnings from nonfarm self-employment are less than $1,600. In all combined cases, your net nonfarm profits must be less than twothirds of your gross nonfarm income to use the nonfarm option. If you qualify to use both options, you may report less than actual total net earnings from farm and nonfarm income, but not less than actual net earnings from nonfarm selfemployment alone.

If you use both options to figure net earnings from self-employment, your from self-employment for any tax year cannot be more than $1,600.

Farm Income and Expenses

Changes You Should Note

The Tax Reform Act of 1986 made a number of changes that may affect you 1986 return. Some of the changes for 1986 include new rules for:

- · Certain expenses of replanting a grove, orchard, or vineyard due to casualty
- · Certain prepaid expenses of cash basis taxpavers
- Depreciation
- Discharge of indebtedness
- Investment credit 1 and clearing expenses
- The following change affects only fiscal
- Soil and water conservation expenses

For information on these changes, get Publication 225, Farmer's Tax Guide New Checkboxes. There are three new checkboxes on Schedule F for 1986. See the instructions for lines C. D. and 9.

Purpose of Schedule

Use Schedule F to report farm income and expenses if you file Forms 1040, 1041, 1041S, or 1065. Please get Publication 225 for additional information. It has samples of filled-in forms and schedules, and lists important dates that apply to farmers. You may also want to get Publication 534. Degreciation.

Filers of Forms 1041, 1041S, and 1065.
Do not complete the block labeled "Social security number (SSN)"; however, be sure to complete the block labeled "Employer ID number (NOT SSN)."

If you were required to make estimated tax payments in 1986 and you underpaid your estimated tax, you may be charged a penalty However, you will not be charged a penalty if you meet the following tests: 1. your gross farming or fishing income for 1985 or 1986 is at least two-thirds of your gross income, and 2, you file your 1986 tax return and pay the tax due by March 2 1987 For more details, see Publication 225.

Do not report the following income on

- Rent you received that was based on farm production or crop shares if you did not materially participate in the operation or management of the farm. Report this income on Form 4835 and Schedule E (Form 1040). It is not subject to selfemployment tax. For more details, see Publication 225.
- · Rent from your pasture land that is based on a flat charge. Report this income in Part I of Schedule E. However, report on line 11 of Schedule F pasture income received from taking care of someone else's livestock.
- Sales exchanges or involuntary conversions (other than casualties or thefts) of certain trade or business property Report this income on Form 4797.
- Sales of livestock held for Jraft. breeding, sport, or dairy purposes. Report this income on Form 4797.

Use Form 4684 Casualties and Thefts to report a casualty or theft involving farm business property, including livestock held for draft, breeding, sport, or dairy purposes.

Information Returns

You may have to file information returns for wages paid to employees, certain payments of fees and other nonemployee compensation, interest, rents, royalties, annuaties, and pensions, or for sales by you of $5,000 or more of consumer products to a person on a buy-sell, deposit-commission, or other basis for resale. For more information, get the instructions for Form W-3, Transmittal of Income and Tax Statements; Instructions for Forms 1099, 1098, 5498, 1096, and W-2G; and Publication 916, Information Returns

In addition, if you receive cash of more than $10,000 in one or more related transactions in the course of your farming business, you may have to file Form 8300. Get the instructions for Form 8300 for details.

Lines A and B

On line A, enter your principal crop or service for the current year.

On line B, enter one of the twelve major agricultural activity codes listed on page 2 of Schedule F. The code you select should represent the major farm activity from which you derive the largest amount of your income. Field crop pertains to the production of grains, such as wheat, rice, feed corn, soybeans, barley, rye, and lentils; and nongrains such as cotton, tobacco, sugar, and Irish potatoes. Horticultural specialty includes the cultivation of ornamental floriculture and nursery products such as plants, shrubbery, bulbs flowers, seed, and sod; and food crops grown under cover such as tomatoes. mushrooms, rhubarb, and fruit. Animal specialty includes the raising of pets. laboratory animals, such as dogs, cats, bees, snakes, and fish in captivity, except fish hatcheries.

Line C

Under the cash method, you include all of your income in the year you actually get it.
Generally, you deduct your expenses when you pay them. If you use the cash method, check the box labeled "cash" and complete Parts I and II of Schedule F

Under the accrual method, you include your income in the year you earn it. It does not matter when you get it. You deduct you expenses when you incur them. If you use the accrual method, check the box labeled "accrual" and complete Parts II and III of Schedule F.

Other rules also apply that determine the timing of deductions based on economic performance. Get Publication 538, Accounting Periods and Methods, for details.

Line D

If you made an election to include Commodity Credit Corporation loan proceeds as income in the year you received the proceeds rather than reporting as income the proceeds from the sale of the commodities in the year sold or in the year of forfeiture, and you reported these loan proceeds as income in a prior year, check the box on line D. For information on how to make this election, see the instructions for Employer Identification (ID) Number You need an employer ID number only if you had a Keogh plan, or you were required to file an employment, excise, fiduciary, partnership, or alcohol, tobacco, or firearms tax return.

Farm Income-Cash Method

In Part I show the income you received for the items listed on lines 1 through 11. Count both the cash you actually or constructively received and the fair market value of goods or other property you received for these items.

Income is constructively received when it is credited to your account or set aside for you to use.

If you ran the farm yourself and received rents based on farm production or crop shares report these rents as income on Sales of Livestock Because of Drought, If you sold livestock because of a drought, you can choose to count the income from the sale in the year after the drought instead of the year of the sale. You can do this IF:

- your main business is farming, AND · you can show that you sold the livestock
- only because of the drought AND your area qualified for Federal aid.

Lines 1 and 2

On line 1, show the amount you received from sales of livestock and other items you bought for resale. On line 2, show the cost or other basis of the livestock and other items you actually sold.

Line 4

Show the amount you got from the sale of livestock, produce, grains, and other products you raised.

Lines 5a and 5b

If you received distributions from a cooperative in 1986, you should receive Form 1099-PATR, Statement for Recipients (Patrons) of Taxable Distributions Received From Cooperatives On line 5a show your total distributions from cooperatives. This includes patronage dividends, nonpatronage dividends, per-unit retain allocations, and redemption of nonqualified notices and per-unit retain allocations

Show patronage dividends you received in cash, and the dollar amount of qualified written notices of allocation. If you received property as patronage dividends, report the fair market value of the property as income. Include cash advances you received from a marketing cooperative. If you get per-unit retains in cash, show the amount of cash. If you get qualified per-unit retain certificates, show the stated dollar amount of the

You do not have to include as income patronage dividends from buying personal or family items, capital assets, or depreciable assets you use in your business.

Enter these amounts on line 5b. If you do not report patronage dividends from these items as income, you must subtract the amount of the dividend from the cost or other basis of these items.

Lines 7a and 7b

Enter on line 7a cash you got as price support payments, diversion payments, and cost-share payments (sight drafts).

On line 7b, show the amounts the Department of Agriculture paid for materials, such as fertilizer or lime, or services, such as grading or constructing

Line 8

Generally, you report income from a crop in the year you sell it. However, if you pledge part or all of your production to secure a Commodity Credit Corporation Ioan, you may elect to report the loan proceeds as income in the year you receive them rather than reporting the income in the year of sale. If you make this election for loan proceeds received in 1986, report them on line 8 and attach a statement to your return showing the details of the loan.

If you receive a commodity credit loan and forfeit it in the same year, you must report the loan proceeds as income in the year received. If you forfeit the loan in a subsequent year and you did not elect to report the loan proceeds as income in the year received, you must report the loan proceeds in the year of forfeiture.

If you elected to report loan proceeds as income in the year received and 1986 is the year of sale or the year of forfeiture, check the box on line D.

For additional information on commodity credit loans, see Publication 225

Line 9

In general, you must report crop insurance proceeds in the year you receive them. However, you may choose to include crop. insurance proceeds (and certain disaster payments) in income in the tax year after the year of damage. If you make this election, you must attach a statement to your return for the year the damage took place. See Publication 225 for information. on what you must include in your

If you received crop insurance proceeds in 1986 and you elect to include these proceeds in income in the year following the damage, check the box on line 9

Line 10

Show the amount you were paid for the use of your farm machinery.

Line 11

Use this line to report income other than that shown on lines 1 through 10. For example, include the following income items on line 11.

- Barter income
- State gasoline tax refund you got in 1986
- The amount of credit for Federal tax on gasoline or other fuel claimed on your 1985 Form 1040.
- The amount of credit for alcohol used as a fuel that was entered on Form 6478.

Report the sale of commodity futures contracts on this line if they were made to protect you from price changes. These are a form of business insurance and are considered hedges. Enter any profit on line 11 If you had a loss in a closed futures. contract, show it as a minus amount. Caution: For property acquired and hedging positions established, you must clearly identify on your books and records that the transaction was a hedging transaction.

Purchase or sales contracts are not true hedges if they offset losses that already happened. If you bought or sold commodity futures with the hope of making a profit due to favorable price changes, do not report the profit or loss on this line. Report the gain or loss on Form 6781, Gains and Losses From Section 1256 Contracts and

Part II Form Deductions

Do not deduct:

- Personal or living expenses (such as taxes, insurance, or repairs on your home) that do not produce farm income.
- · Expenses of raising anything you or your
- . The value of animals you raised that died.
- Loss of inventory
- Personal losses
- The cost of planting and growing citrus or almond groves before the close of the fourth tax year beginning with the tax year you t them in their permanent grove. You must treat these items as part of the cost of the grove.

If you were repaid for any part of an expense, you must subtract the amount you were repaid from the deduction.

Farming Syndicates

A farming syndicate may be

- a partnership, or
- any other noncorporate group, or
- · an S corporation. If
- a. the interests in the business have ever been for sale in a way that would require registration with any Federal or state

b. more than 35% of the loss during any tax vear is soread between limited partners or mited entrepreneurs. (A limited partner is one who can lose only the amount invested in the partnership; a limited entrepreneur is a person who does not take any active part in managing the business.)

If you are a farming syndicate, your deductions are limited as follows:

- · Generally, you can deduct feed, seed, fertilizers, and other farm supplies only in the year you actually use them (or only in the year you can deduct them under your accounting method). However, if you bought supplies you could not use because of fire storm flood disease or other casualty, then you may deduct them in the year you bought them.
- · You must spread the cost of poultry you bought to use in business (or to reself) over 12 months, or the useful life, whichever is less.
- · You cannot deduct the cost of planting. cultivating, maintaining or developing groves, orchards, or vineyards, which produce fruit or outs, before the tax year in which they produce commercial qua You must treat these costs as part of the cost of the grove.

Line 15

You can deduct what you spent to conserve soil or water, or to prevent erosion of your land. You can also deduct what you paid to a soil or water district for conservation expenses. Do not deduct more than 25% of your gross income from farming (excluding certain gains from selling assets such as farm machinery and land). If your conservation expenses are more than the limit, you can carry the excess over to following years.

Line 16

You can deduct depreciation of buildings. improvements, cars and trucks, machinery, and other farm equipment of a permanent nature

Do not deduct depreciation on:

- your home, furniture, or other personal
- livestock you bought or raised for resale.
- other property in your inventory.

You may also choose under section 179 to expense a portion of the cost of certain depreciable property you bought in 1986 for use in your business. Figure your depreciation deduction, including the ection 179 expense deduction, on Form 4562 Depreciation and Amortization Enter on line 16 of Schedule F the amount from Form 4562, Part I.

The depreciation deduction for cars. including any section 179 deduction, is limited. The allowable amounts are further limited if your business use is less than 100%. In general, for cars or other "listed property" placed in service in 1986, you may not take a section 179 deduction if the property is used 50% or less in your trade or business. If you claim depreciation for any listed property, you must complete Part III of Form 4562. See the instructions for Form 4562 and Publication 534. Depreciation, for details.

If you have listed property (such as a car r light truck) that you placed in service after June 18, 1984, for which you claimed a depreciation deduction, and the business use percentage of the property decreased to 50% or less during 1986, you may have to recapture excess depreciation, including any section 179 expense deduction. Get Form 4797 and its instructions for details. Investment Credit. The credit has generally been repealed for property placed in service after 1985. See Changes You Should Note in the Schedule C instructions on page 28.

If you dispose of investment credit property before the end of its class life or life years, the business use percentage decreases, or the use of the property otherwise changes so that it no longer qualifies, you may have to refigure the credit. Get Form 4255, Recapture of Investment Credit, for details.

For more information on amortization, get Publication 535, Business Expenses.

 Bad Debts, include debts and partial debts arising from sales that were included in income and are definitely known to be worthless. Instead of this, you may deduct a reasonable amount that was added during the tax year to a bad debt reserve. Cautle Cash method taxpavers are not entitled to a bad debt deduction unless the amount was previously included in income

If you later collect a debt that you ducted as a bad debt, include it as income in the year you collect it unless you use the bad debt reserve method. For more information, please get Publication 548.
Deduction for Bad Debts.

 Car and truck expenses. You can deduct the actual cost of running your car or truck, or take the standard mileage rate.

Note: If you claim any car or truck expense (actual costs or the standard mileage rate). you must complete Part III of Form 4562.

The standard rate is 21 cents a mile up to 15 000 miles, and 11 cents a mile for each mile after that. If you use more than one vehicle for business, you must use the actual cost. If you use the vehicle for both personal and farm purposes, show only the miles (or costs) which apply to farming.

For vehicles that have been fully depreciated, the rate is 11 cents a mile.

If you use the standard rate, the vehicle is considered to have a useful life of 60,000 miles of business use at the maximum standard mileage rate.

If you place a car or truck in service after December 31, 1980, and take the standard mileage rate, you are treated as having elected to exclude this vehicle from ACRS.

For more details, get Publication 917, Rusiness Use of a Car

Note: If you use certain highway trucks, truck-trailers, tractor-trailers, or buses in your trade or business, you may have to pay a Federal highway use tax on these vehicles. Get Form 2290, Heavy Vehicle Use Tax Return, to see if you are subject to the tax.

Line 38

If you have a loss, go on to line 39 before entering your loss on line 38. Enter the net profit or deductible loss here and on Form 1040, line 19, and Schedule SE, Part I, line 1 (or Form 1041, line 5, or Form 1041S, (ine 5) Partnerships should stop here and enter the profit or loss on this line and on Form 1065, line 8.

Line 39

If you have (1) a loss from any farming activity that you engaged in as a trade or business or for the production of income except the holding of real property (other than mineral property) placed in service before January 1, 1987, and (2) you have amounts for which you are not at risk in the activity, use Form 6198, Computation of Deductible Loss From an Activity Described in Section 465(c) to determine the allowable loss to report on Schedule F

Answer the question on line 39 "YES" if you have any amounts for which you are not at risk for this farm such as the following: 1. nonrecourse loans used to finance the activity, to acquire property used in the activity, or to acquire your interest in the activity unless they are secured by property not used in the activity; or

2. amounts protected against loss by a guarantee, stop-loss agreement, or similar

3. loans from someone who has an interest in the activity, other than as a creditor who is related, under section 168(e)(4), to a person (other than yourself) having such an interest: or

4. amounts contributed to the activity, or to your interest in the activity that is covered nonrecourse loans or protected against loss by a guarantee, stop-loss agreement, or similar arrangement, or loans from a person decribed in 3 above. If you do not have any of these kinds of amounts for which you are not at risk in this business, then answer the question "NO" and enter your loss on line 38 If you answered "YES" to the question on line 39, get Form 6198 to determine the amount of deductible loss and enter that amount on line 38. If your at-risk amount is zero or less, enter zero on line 38. Be sure to attach Form 6198 to your return. If you answer "Yes" to the question on line 39 and you fail to attach Form 6198, processing of your return may be delayed.

If, in addition to the amount that you report on Schedule F, you sell or otherwise dispose of (1) an asset used in an activity to which the at-risk rules apply, or (2) any part of your interest in an activity to which the at-risk rules apply, and you have amounts in the activity for which you are not at risk, see the instructions for Form 6198.

Any loss from this activity not allowed for 1986 is treated as a deduction allocable to the activity in 1987.

1986 Tax Rate Schedules Your zero bracket amount has been built into these Tax Rate Schedules.

Caution: You may use these schedules ONLY if your taxable income is $50,000 or more OR you use Schedule G to figure your tax.

Example: Mr. Jones is single. His taxable income on Form 1040, tine 37, is $55,525. First, he finds the schedule (Schedule X) for single taxpayers. Next, he finds the $44,780-59,670 income line. Then, he subtracts $44,780 from $55,525 and multiplies the result ($10,745) by 42%. He then adds $4,512.90 ($10,745 x.42) to $11,134.20 and enters the result ($15,647.10) on Form 1040, line 38.

1986 Optional State Sales Tax Tables

If you kept records that show you paid more sales tax than the table for your state indicates, you may claim the higher amount on Schedule A, line 8a.

Your itemized deduction for general sales tax paid can be estimated from these tables plus any qualifying sales taxes paid on the items listed on page 20.

To use the tables:

Step 1—Figure your total available income. Use the total of the amount on Form 1040, line 33, and nontaxable income such as veterans' benefits, workers' compensation, nontaxable part of unemployment compensation or long-term capital gains (however, do not include gains that are nontaxable because they were reinvested in similar property, such as a principal residence), nontaxable part of social security and railroad retirement benefits, dividend exclusion, deduction for a married couple when both work, and public assistance payments.

Step 2—Count the number of exemptions for you and your family. Do not count exemptions claimed for being 65 or over or blind as part of your family size.

Step 3—Find the income line for your state on the tables and

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice

The Privacy Act of 1974 and Paperwork Reduction Act of 1980 say that when we ask you for information, we must tell you: our legal right to ask for the information; what major purposes we have in asking for it and how it will be used: what could happen if we do not receive it; and whether your response is voluntary, required to obtain a benefit, or mandatory under the law.

For the Internal Revenue Service, the laws include tax returns and any papers filed with them and any questions we need to ask you so we can complete, correct, or process your return; figure your tax; and collect tax, interest, or penalties.

6011, and 6012(a) and their regulations. They say that you must file a return or statement with us for any tax you are liable for. Your response is mandatory under these sections. Code section 6109 and its regulations say that you must show your social security number on what you file. This is so we know who you are, and can process your return and papers. You must fill in all parts of the tax form that apply to you. But you do not have to check the boxes for the Presidential Election Campaign Fund.

We ask for tax return information to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. We need it to figure and collect the right amount of tax.

We may give the information to the Department of Justice and to other Federal agencies, as provided by law. We may also give it to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths or possessions to carry out their tax laws. And we may give it to foreign governments because of tax treaties they have with the United States.

If you do not file a return, do not provide the information we ask for, or provide fraudulent information, the law provides that you may be charged penalties and, in certain cases, you may be subject to criminal prosecution. We may also have to disallow the exemptions, exclusions, credits, deductions, or adjustments shown on the tax return. This could make the tax higher or delay any refund. Interest may also be charged.

Please keep this notice with your records. It may help you if we ask you for other information. If you have questions about the rules for filing and giving information, please call or visit any Internal Revenue Service office.

1986 Earned Income Credit Table Caution: This is Not a Tax Table

To find your earned income credit: Read down the column titled "If line 3 or 4 of the worksheet is..." and find the appropriate

To Call IRS Toll-Free for Answers to Your Federal Tax Questions, Use Only the Number Listed Below for Your Area.

Caution: "Toll-free" is a telephone call for which you pay only local charges with no long-distance charge. Please use a local city number only if it is not a long-distance call for you. Do not dial 800 when using a local city number. Otherwise, use the general toll-free number giver

We are happy to answer questions to help you prepare your return. But you should know that you are responsible for the accuracy of your return. If we do make an error, you are still responsible for the payment of the correct tax.

To make sure that IRS employees give courteous responses and correct information to taxpavers, a second IRS employee sometimes listens in on telephone calls. No record is kept of any taxpayer's name, address, or social security number

If you find it necessary to write instead of calling, please address your letter to your IRS District Director for a prompt reply. Make sure you include your social security number or taxpayer identifying number when you write.

The IRS has a telephone service called Tele-Tax. It provides automated refund information and recorded tax information on about 150 topics covering such areas as filing requirements, dependents, itemized deductions, and tax credits. Tele-Tax is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, to taxpayers using push-button (tone signalling) telephones, and Monday through Friday, during office hours, to taxpayers using push-button (pulse dial) or rotary (dial) phones. See Tele-Tax Information in the index for the page numbers that contain telephone available topics, and instructions describing how to use this service.

Instructions for Form 1040EZ 1986 You can use this form if: · Your filing status is single. · You do not claim exemptions for being 65 or over, OR for being blind. · You do not claim any dependents. • Your taxable income is less than $50,000. You deduct only certain cash charitable contributions. See instructions for line 4, below. · You had only wages, salaries, and tips, and your interest income was $400 or less. Caution: If you received tips (including allocated tips) that you interest intonic was 3400 or less. Laution: a you received tips (including allocated tips) that you did not report to your employer, you may not be able to use Form 1040EZ. See page 15 in the Instructions for preparing 1040EZ and 1040A. If you can't use this form, you must use Form 1040A or Form 1040 instead. See pages 4 through 6 in the instruction booklet. If you are uncertain about your filing status, dependents, or exemptions, read the step-by-step instructions for Form 1040A that begin on page 7. Completing It will make it easier for us to process your return if you print your numbers (do not type) and keep them inside the boxes. Do not use dollar signs. vour return You may find calculations easier if you round off cents to whole dollars. See page 13 of the instruction booklet for details. Name and address Use the mailing label we sent you. After you complete your return, carefully place the label in the name and address area. Mark through any errors on the label and print the correct information right on the label. Use of the label saves processing time. If you don't have a label, print the information on the name and address lines. If your post office does not deliver mail to your street address and you have a P.O. box, enter your P.O. box number on the line for your present home address instead of your street address. Presidential election campaign fund Congress set up this fund to help pay for Presidential election campaigns. You may have one of your tax dollars go to this fund by checking the "Yes" box. Checking the "Yes" box does not change the tax or refund shown on your return. Report your Income Line 1. Enter on line 1 the total amount you received in wages, salaries, and tips. This should be shown in Box 10 of your 1986 wage statement(s), Form W-2. If you don't receive your W-2 form by February 15, contact your local IRS office. Attach the first copy or Copy B of your W-2 form(s) to your return. Line 2. Enter on line 2 the total interest income you received from all sources, such as banks, savings and loans, and credit unions. You should receive a Form 1099-INT from each institution that paid you interest. You cannot use Form 1040EZ if your total interest income is over $400. Line 4. Enter on line 4 what you gave in cash (including checks and money orders) to qualified charitable organizations in 1986. But if you gave $3,000 or more to any one organization, or you made any noncash contributions, you cannot use Form 1040EZ. See page 20 of the instruction booklet for information on qualified charitable organizations and other limitations. Line 6. Every taxpayer is entitled to one $1,080 personal exemption. If you are also entitled to additional exemptions for being 65 or over, for blindness, for your spouse, or for your dependent children or other dependents, you cannot use Form 1040EZ. Line 8. Enter the amount of Federal income tax withheld. This should be shown in Box 9 of your 1986 W-2 form(s). If you had two or more employers and had total wages of over $42,000, see page 25 of the instruction booklet. If you want IRS to figure your tax for you, complete lines 1 through 8, sign and date your return. If you want to figure your own tax, continue with these instructions. Line 9. Use the amount on line 7 to find your tax in the tax table on pages 31-36 of the instruction booklet. Be sure to use the column in the tax table for single taxpayers. Enter the amount of tax on line 9. If your tax from the tax table is zero, enter 0. Refund or amount you owe—Compare line 8 with line 9 Line 10. #### Instructions

Complete this schedule and attach it to your Form 1040 if you take the deduction for a married couple when both work. You may take the deduction if both you and your spouse:

- · work and have qualified earned income, and
- · file a joint return, and
- . do not file Form 2555 to exclude income or to exclude or deduct certain housing costs, and
- . do not file Form 4563 to exclude

There are three steps to follow in figuring the deduction on Schedule W Step 1 (lines 1, 2, and 3). - Figure earned income separately for yourself and your spouse.

Earned income. - This is generally income you receive for services you provide. It includes wages, salaries, tips. commissions, sub-pay, etc. (from Form 1040 line 7) It also includes income earned from self-employment (from Schedules C and F of Form 1040 and Schedule K-1 of Form 1065), and net earnings and gains (other than capital gains) from the disposition, transfer, or licensing of property that you created

Earned income does not include interest, dividends, social security benefits, IRA distributions. unemployment compensation, deferred compensation, or nontaxable income. It also does not include any amount your shouse haid you

Caution: Do not consider community property laws in figuring your earned

Step 2 (lines 4 and 5). - Figure qualified earned income separately for yourself and your spouse by subtracting certain adjustments from earned income

Qualified earned income. - This is the amount on which the deduction is based. Figure it by subtracting the total of certain adjustments from earned income. These adjustments (and the related lines on Form 1040) are:

- . Employee business expenses (from line 25)
- IRA deduction (from line 26)
- · Keogh retirement plan and selfemployed SEP deduction (from line 27)

· Repayment of sub-pay included in the total on line 31. See the instructions on repayment of sub-pay on page 12 of the Form 1040 Instructions.

Enter the total of any adjustments that apply to your or your spouse's earned income in the appropriate column of line 4

Step 3 (lines 6, 7, and 8).—Figure the deduction based on the smaller of:

- the qualified earned income entered in column (a) or (b) of line 5, whichever is less. OR
- $30,000.

Example. — You earned a salary of $20,000 and had $3,000 of employee business expenses (Form 1040, line 25). Your spouse earned $17,000 and had an IRA deduction of $1,000 (Form 1040, line 26). Your qualified earned income is $17,000 ($20,000 minus $3,000) and your spouse's is $16,000 ($17,000 minus $1,000). Because your spouse's qualified earned income is less than yours, the deduction is figured on your spouse's income. Therefore, the deduction is $1,600 ($16.000 x .10).

Instructions for Schedule B (Form 3468)

Note: Partners, shareholders, and beneficiaries of FY 1985-86 partnerships, S corporations, estates and trusts that placed property in service before January 1, 1986, see the separate Instructions for Form 3468, under Specific Instructions.

Energy property must meet the same requirements as regular investment credit property, except that the provisions of sections 48(a)(1) and 48(a)(3) do not apply. See the separate Instructions for Form 3468 for definitions and rules regarding regular investment credit property.

Energy property must be acquired new. See sections 46(b)(2) and 48(I)(1) through (17) for details.

See section 48(I)(17) for special rules on See section 48(1)(17) for special rules on public utility property, and section 48(1)(11) (as amended by the Crude Oil Windfall Profit Tax Act of 1980) for special rules on property financed by Industrial Development Bonds

Specific Instructions

One Credit Only.--- If property qualifies as more than one kind of energy property, you may take only one credit for the property. Line 1—Type of Property. — For definition of recovery and nonrecovery property, see the separate instructions for Form 3468.

Line 1—Column (2).—Use the code letters from the following list to indicate the kind of property for which you are claiming a credit. If you enter more than one kind of property on a line, enter the code letter for each kind of property in column (2) and the code letter and dollar amount of each kind of property in the right hand margin.

The code letters are: a. Biomass property

- b. Hydroelectric generating property
- c. Solar equipment (but not passive solar equipment)
- d. Ocean thermal equipment e. Geothermal equipment

See sections 48(I)(4) and 48(I)(3)(A)(viii) and (ix) for definitions and special rules that apply to these kinds of property. Line 5.—The section 48(q)(4) election to take a reduced credit instead of adjusting the basis of the energy property on line 5 is not available for property placed in service after December 31, 1985, and you must reduce the basis by the full amount of the credit claimed

On the dotted line for line 5b, enter the megawatt capacity of the generator as shown on the nameplate of the generator.

If you are a 1986-87 fiscal-year filer with a tax year beginning before and ending after July 1, 1987 (for a normal 12-month tax year, this would be only years beginning after July 31, 1986), the energy credit(s) on lines 5a and 5b must be reduced by a percentage figured from the following formula:

number of months in your tax year after June 1987 total number of months in your tax year

Enter the reduced credit on lines 5a and 5b. Although the reduction may not be used in the current year or carried back to a prior year, it may be carried forward to your next

General Instructions

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice.-We ask for this information to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. We need it to ensure that taxpayers are complying with these laws and to allow us to figure and collect the right amount of tax. fou are required to give us this information. Purpose of Form. - Form 8396 is used to figure your mortgage interest credit and any carryforward you may have to a subsequent

Who May Claim the Credit.—You may claim the credit if you were issued a qualified mortgage credit certificate under a qualified mortgage credit certificate program, and the residence to which the certificate relates is your principal residence. You may not claim a credit if the interest on the mortgage for which the credit certificate was issued is paid to a related person. Get Publication 545, Interest Expense, for more information on related party transactions.

If the certificate credit rate is more than 20%, your credit is limited to $2,000 or your share of the $2,000 (if two or more persons own the residence). When two or more persons hold an interest in the residence, the credit must be allocated in proportion to the interest held.

Note: If the only two persons holding the interests are married filing a joint return, the credit does not have to be allocated. Home Mortgage Interest Expense on Schedule A.—Interest paid on the loan amount specified on your mortgage credit certificate can be deducted on Schedule A (Form 1040), but you must reduce the interest by the amount of the credit shown on line 3. Use the amount on line 3 even if part of the mortgage interest credit is carried forward for use in a subsequent year Carryforward of Unused Credit.-Your mortgage interest credit may not exceed your tax liability for the tax year (line 40, Form 1040), reduced by any other personal credits you are entitled to on lines 41, 42, 43, and any residential energy credit carryforward (REC) written in on line 44 of Form 1040. If your mortgage interest credit is more than your tax liability reduced by the other personal credits, you may carry forward the unused portion of the credit to your next 3 tax years or until used. whichever comes first. Because the credit can only be carried forward for 3 years, you will have to keep track of the unused credit by year. The current year credit is applied first and then the earliest year(s). Note: If you are subject to the $2,000 credit limitation because your certificate credit rate is more than 20%, no amount over the $2,000 (or your prorated share of the $2,000 if you must allocate the credit) may be carried forward for use in a subsequent

Specific Instructions

Line 1. - Enter the interest paid during the year on the loan amount shown on your mortgage credit certificate. In most cases, this will be the amount shown on Form 1098, Mortgage Interest Statement, or on a similar statement that you receive from your mortgageholder. If two or more persons held interests in the residence. enter only the interest you paid. If the loan amount (certified indebtedness amount) shown on your mortgage credit certificate is less than your total mortgage loan, get Publication 530, Tax Information for Owners of Homes, Condominiums, and Cooperative Apartments, for an example of how to figure the interest for this line. Line 2. - The certificate credit rate can be found on the mortgage credit certificate you were issued Line 9.—After you enter your mortgage interest credit on the dotted line next to line 44 (Form 1040), he sure to add any other personal credits you may have on lines 41, 42, 43, and any residential energy credit carryforward (REC) written in on line 44 to the mortgage interest credit, and enter the total in the entry space for line 44 Lines 13 and 15, -These lines show the amount of unused credits, if any, that are carried forward from 1985 and 1986 to 1987. Be sure to keep a copy for you records because you will need this to figure your credit in 1987.
