APPLE AirPrint FAQ

- AirPrint FAQ

- AirPrint should work as long as iPad and Printer are connected to same wireless network (nothing to configure)
- For a list of printer models that support AirPrint, go to <http://support.apple.com/kb/HT4356>
- If the printer is on the AirPrint certified list in step 2 and the iPad does not find the printer, it may be necessary to upgrade the printer's firmware.
  - ▶ For information on how to upgrade firmware, go to <http://support.lexmark.com>

Google Cloud Print FAQ

- ▶ Requires a Google account
- ▶ Requires a Google certified “cloud ready” printer OR requires a service provided by Google to be installed on a PC/MAC with the printer installed via “classic support”
- ▶ Users must either register a device with their Google Account or an administrator may register a device and share it with other users
- ▶ All current selling model of printers with the latest firmware are Google Cloud Ready Printers
- ▶ All older models support Google Cloud Print via “classic support”
