EDITORIAL

Another bumper issue and my apologies again for the reduced size of the Foreign Section (another 10 pages held over until the next issue of MAR) and the lack of the Credits. The credits are all adding up each month and will be quite a large selection of names when we finally find the space to include them.

A number of UK Air Show reports this month which is very heartening - hopefully 2014 will see the return of US Air Shows to our pages! The lack of shows in the USA has meant a drastic reduction in visits by enthusiasts to the USA this year and, consequently, a dearth of reports for the US Section, So, if anyone has been or is going to the USA, please send in your reports - no matter how small, to Moray to help fill out the section.

Again we have had an excellent response to the request for more pictures to illustrate MAR - although the readers of the paper version of MAR will only see 4 photos there are many more included in the PDF version. On the subject of the magazine, it is expected that there will be no change in subscription rates for the 2014 issues and the magazine will be staying as it is. However, 2013 saw the first year in which the PDF version, at only £20, took more subscriptions than the paper version. When you add all those people taking the paper version who also take the PDF version free we have to consider the unthinkable for 2015 ?

Finally, late news of an upcoming Coningsby deployment - 4 Saudi AF Typhoons and 4 Tornados are due on August 27th and will be flying missions until mid September from the 29(R)Sqn line and the Northern ASP!

COVER PHOTOGRAPH: I know it featured on the back cover last month, but here is WTD61 F-4F 38+13 climbing out of Manching on July 4th taken from one of the unit's Transalls (Dietmar Fenners)

Closing date for the September issue is 08.09.13

BRITISH REVIEW

Hercules C.4 ZH866 continues to receive its mid-life upgrade (MLU) at the Lockheed Martin facility at Marietta, Georgia, USA. When the aircraft is due to return (October 2013) it will be designated as a Hercules C.6 standard, this will be applicable to all C.4 models that undertake the MLU process. When the Hercules C.5 are sent for their MLU (all future MLUs are thought to be at Marshall Aerospace, Cambridge) they will return to the RAF as C.7 standard.

A King Air 350C G-LBSB (c/n FM-55) flew into Waddington on 30.07 as "Snooper01". It is owned by GAMA Support, Farnborough and is to be used by 14 Sqn Waddington as a training aircraft. It has so far not got a UK Military serial issued.

As the final days for the VC-10 come over the horizon, it will be sad to see the end of such a fine looking and sounding aircraft. As we go to press unconfirmed reports suggest that the final day will be around the 25th September 2013, this is when the last two flying examples will depart from Brize Norton for a final flight to Bruntingthorpe. The two aircraft should be ZA147 and ZA150 as ZA148 is due to depart to Bruntingthorpe at the end of this month.

The first RC-135 for the RAF made its first flight in RAF Colours on 30.07, it is now due for delivery to Waddington during October 2013.....Mick Boulanger (Military movements is history, now and for our future)

Residents notes

10 Sqn VC-10 K.3

XR808/R has made its final flight with 99 Sqn on 29.07 to Bruntingthorpe. What will happen to the aircraft is still uncertain but it is hoped to end its days at the RAF Museum, Cosford which is a very fitting place for the final "purpose built" RAF VC-10.

ZA148/F has made its final flight to 1312 Flt, Mount Pleasant on 29.07 to replace ZA150/J. It is due to return to 101 Sqn at the end of August and will be withdrawn from use and then depart to Bruntingthorpe.

ZA150/J has been replaced at 1312Flt, Mount Pleasant, Falkland Islands for the final time and has returned back to 101 Sqn around the 02.08. This will remain at Brize Norton until the end of September when it will be withdrawn from use.

24/30 Sqn Hercules C.4/C.5

ZH868/868 has returned from trials at QinetiQ, Boscombe Down and is now on strength with 24/30 Sqn

216 Sqn Tristar C.2/KC.1

ZE705 has finally returned from Marshall Aerospace, Cambridge following servicing.

ZE706 has been withdrawn from use and finally flown on 07.08 to Marshall Aerospace, Cambridge for storage.

Of the 2 main hangars here, one is in a derelict state, whilst the other was accessible from the rear, the stored Su-22s seen on google had been moved to the Western Shelter area. Meanwhile the Shelters had armed civilian guards watching over them but were all shut up in any case. The Show was held on the far side from the main gate so no access was gained to the preserved aircraft but they were Lim-2 (2105), Su-22M (3617), MiG-21bis (9483) and TS-11 (1804).

Richard Bowden and Mike Bursell have been investigating the provenance of Mystere IVA "47" currently at Avord (Pole Aeronautique). An interesting saga, it is reproduced in its entirety.

Avord - Mystere IVA "47".

This aircraft is quoted by numerous sources as 47/314-TA. The first problem is that when it was withdrawn at Chateaudun in June 1977 it was coded 314-TB, not TA. On the other hand, 314-TA should be 31. BAR 1989 O848 under Avord show reports...."dumped behind the fire station is 31/314-TA Mystere IVA". Given that the aircraft currently at Avord is known to have been recovered from the Avord base fire section, 31 would appear to be the aircraft involved - having progressed to Avord from Chateaudun store. A photo of 31/314-TA at Avord can be found here: <http://www.millionmonkeytheater.com/mysterepics/m31.jpg>

Compare with a more recent picture: <http://www.airport-data.com/aircraft/photo/000774948.html>

The code is just visible as TA, with the photo captioned as 47. So, if the a/c at Avord is 31, where is 47?

Savigny Les Beaune - Mystere IVA "37"

A Mystere IVA at Savigny is widely reported as 37 fitted with the tail from 47. See:

<http://www.millionmonkeytheater.com/mysterepics/m37.jpg>

Note the code 314-TB - which as listed above was worn by 47/314-TB when withdrawn at Chateaudun.

We know that the Mystere at Savigny is on loan from the Musee de l'Air - the display board in front of it says so. A Musee de l'Air inventory dated August 2012 includes Mystere IVA 47 which they claim is on loan to Savigny:

<http://www.pyperpote.tonsite.biz/listinmae/images/stories/ListinMAE/fichierspdf/inventairemaeout2012.pdf>

So, if the Mystere IVA at Savigny for so long thought to be 37 marked as 47 is indeed really 47 - what happened to 37 and is it still a possibility? The a/c at Savigny is visible in this photo (captioned as 47...

http://www.pyperpote.tonsite.biz/listinmae/index.php?option=com_content&view=article&id=541:dassault-mystere-iva-nd47&catid=47:les-appareils-en-pret&Itemid=56..:-

The caption tells us "Il semble y avoir une erreur sur cet appareil. Généralement donné comme le n°37 équipé de la dérive du n°47. En fait le n°37 à été détruit suite à une collision en vol le4 septembre 1963, confirmé par un article de la Nouvelle république du 5 septembre 1963" So 37 was destroyed in a collision on 4 September 1963.

The evidence supports a revision to the conventional view to the effect that:

The Avord aircraft is 31/314-TA.

The Savigny aircraft is 47/314-TB.

37 was lost on 4 September 1963.
